Ginning

Some of the steps in the ginning process are pictured above. The first picture shows a couple of trailers under the suction which takes the harvested cotton into the gin. The next picture shows the gin stands separating the seeds from the lint after the burs have been removed. The cottonseed drops out at the bottom. The third picture is of the condenser slide taking the ginned lint into the press box where it is pressed into the bale, then bagged and tied, shown in the bottom picture.

Voting Light In Tuesday's Election

Mitchell County voters did not flock to the polls for Tuesday's amendment election. Only 437 votes were cast, 10.2 per cent of the county's qualified voters.

County voters approved all amendments except for numbers 1, 6, 8 and 9.

County totals read as follows: --Proposition 1, dealing with annual sessions for the state legislature and a pay raise, 151 for, 276 against;

simple majority vote, 277 for, 138 against;

--Proposition 6, extending jurisdiction on probate matters to the district court, 142 for, 266 against;

population, to levy taxes to service bonds, 163 for, 252 against;

Meeting Saturday On Proposed Festival

A meeting will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at City National Bank to hold a vote to determine if public support will be given to a proposed rock festival.

The meeting will be attended by a number of civic and business leaders as well as representatives of local governments. They will meet with Sam Geisenberger of Houston and his mother, Mrs. Louise Geisenberger of Colorado City. Geisenberger is the promoter of the proposed music festival which he proposes to hold April 19-21, 1974 on his mother's ranch south of Colorado City.

According to Geisenberger, there would be some 300,000 persons attend the music festival.

He met with a group of local civic and business leaders and representatives of local governments almost three weeks ago to outline his proposal.

The group who met with Geisenberger three weeks ago was called to the meeting to discuss a proposal from Geisenberger. At the time the meeting was held none of the local officials had any idea what the proposal was to be.

Since the story on Geisenberger's proposal appeared in the Record almost three weeks ago, there has been a great amount of public reaction with the vast majority of the public being opposed to the music festival for a number of reasons.

However, in the past week, support for holding the music festival seems to be on the increase but despite this increase, it now appears that between 83 to 87 per cent of the county's residents are opposed to having the rock festival while

Loraine At Hawley Friday

The Loraine Bulldogs will be travelling to Hawley for their Friday night football game at 7:30 p.m.

Michael Jones still has bruises from the last game, suffering from a bruised collarbone and Don Crawford in only partially recovered. Both are expected to see limited offensive action in the Hawley game, reported Coach Hal Porter.

Mark McDaniel is expected to see action in the Loraine secondary. McDaniel, a Sophomore, has done a good job lately, said Porter.

Loraine will probably throw more in the Hawley game, sending Jones wide rather than up the middle, because of the bruised ribs.

The scouting reports on Hawley show them to play out of a Wishbone set with a 5-2 defensive set. Hawley was undefeated before going into district play, but they are now 2-2 in district, losing to the two tough teams from Bronte and Jayton.

The Bulldogs are 3-1 in district and must win the rest of their games, said Porter. The Hawley game Friday and the Jayton game next week are crucial games for the Bulldogs.

Junior High Speech Class Presents Play

The play, "Little Women", by Sara Spencer, based on the book by Louisa May Alcott, will be presented by the Colorado Junior High speech classes Friday and Saturday, Nov. 9 and 10.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the Junior High Auditorium.

Admission is 50¢ for students and $1 for adults.

The cast includes Dawn Leonard as Jo; Belinda Shawwecker, Beth; Teresa McClure, Meg; Karen Herm, Amy; Kelli Dement, Marmee; Lynn Britten, Mr. March; Kim Hollis, Aunt March; Jon Shaw, Laurie; Kathy Moore, Hannah; first girl, Charlotte Goodlett; second girl, Juli Neff and third girl, Mari Alice Houston.

The director is Karl Moore, speech teacher, with Leslie Moore, an 8th grade student, as assistant director.

The production staff, technical staff and cast have worked to make their production of "Little Women" a success. They need a large audience to make their work complete.

Program On Cuba Tonight

Miss Rita Naredo, teacher at Kelley Elementary, will speak at the monthly meeting of the Cultural Committee of the Chamber of Commerce tonight (Thursday) in the Hesperian Room of the Mitchell County Library.

The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. Miss Naredo, a native of Cuba, will talk about her experiences as a refugee when Fidel Castro took over the government of Cuba.

A reception will be held after the program. All persons are invited to attend the meeting.

Ginning Process Almost Totally Automated Now

Cotton ginning is a big business in Mitchell County, expected to turn out around 40,000 bales this year.

The ginning operation is almost totally automated and because of the importance of the gins to county cotton producers and the importance of agriculture to the county economy, the ginning process itself has added interest.

A bale of cotton can be ginned in 15 to 20 minutes, if all goes well.

The farmer brings his cotton to the gin and weighs trailer and contents on the gin scales. A farm number and a bale number are assigned to the trailer of cotton.

If no other trailers are waiting to be ginned, the cotton is taken under the suction and drawn into the gin. Often during good weather, the gin yards are full and trailers of cotton have to wait to be ginned.

After going under the suction and drawn into the gin, the cotton is transported by blower ducts into the burl machine, where the green bolls are kicked out into the green boll box and the burs are separated from the lint. The burs are taken out one direction to the burl hopper and the cleaned and dried lint proceeds to the gin stands.

The gin stands remove the seed from the lint, cottonseed falling out the bottom of the machine and augured to the seed box.

Cleaned lint then goes through the condenser where it is matted together in bails about 3 feet wide.

The condenser slide carries the cotton bails into the press box, where 2,000 to 2,500 pounds of lint are compressed into a bale weighing from 350 to 650 pounds.

The press must be turned manually when a buzzer goes off indicating that a bale is ready to be tied out.

The bagging and ties, burlap bag and steel bands, are applied manually also, but it is a quick operation by a skilled tie-out man.

The finished bale is weighed and tied, ready to be taken to storage or compress after the ginning operation is complete.

Presentation Of Sights And Sounds Of Norway Sunday

"Norway, The Summer and the Sun" will be the title of a slide program to be presented by George Womack at the 7 p.m. worship hour at the First Methodist Church Sunday evening, Nov. 11.

Music by the Norwegian composer, Edward Grieg, will make up the audio part of the program. The slides were made by Womack during his summer tour of Norway.

Bike-a-thon

These kids are listening to instructions before starting off on the Bike-a-thon, sponsored by the Mitchell County Heart Association last Saturday. Sixteen cyclists rode to Loraine and back, a distance of 20 miles, and are still collecting their donations for each mile ridden.

In the Bike-a-thon, Tabulations will be completed Nov. 17 and the prizes will be awarded Nov. 29 during the regular meeting of the Heart Association. A 10-speed bike and two $25 savings bonds are the prizes in the contest.

Wolves Take On Lamesa Friday

The Colorado City Wolves will face the potential State AAA Champion Friday night when they travel to Lamesa to take on the Golden Tors.

Lamesa is currently undefeated this year and has won every game by three to four touchdowns. The most points scored on the Tors was by Brownfield who scored 13 points, primarily due to errors late in the game by the Lamesa team.

The Lamesa team doesn't have the blinding speed that they had last year, said Colorado High Athletic Director Weldon Brevard but they have a big, well rounded team.

"We'll get after them," said Brevard of the Wolves.

This week the Wolves have been working on timing of offensive plays, hoping to get an offensive combination that will enable the Wolves to break some plays for scores.

The Wolves came out of the Sweetwater game in good shape physically with the exception of Steve Hamrick who suffered an injury. However, Hamrick is expected to see action against Lamesa.

Friday night's game against Lamesa will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Lamesa.

Brevard said he believes Lamesa this year will be the state AAA champion as they have a real talented team.

program will be presented to an adult.

THDA Delegates Give Reports On Convention Held At Waco

Delegates

Delegates to the Texas Home Demonstration Association Convention held in Waco in September are left to right, Mrs. J. C. Womack, Colorado City; Mrs. Bruce Byrne, THDA chairman for Mitchell County and Mrs. Mabel Givens of Loraine gave their reports to the Mitchell County Home Demonstration Council meeting held Tuesday in the Mitchell County Home Demonstration Council meeting held Tuesday in the Lone Wolf Medallion Room.

Hall Speaks To Adult Classes

One of the aims of the Adult Education program at Loraine is to deepen an adult's understanding of civic activities.

J. C. Hall Jr., spokesman for the Loraine Volunteer Fire Department, spoke to the adult class last Tuesday evening about the fire department and also about fire prevention in general.

He explained the procedure for calling in a report of a fire. The telephones for the volunteer members of the fire department are all on one connection, so that a call to 737-2700 will alert all the firemen.

Hall stressed the importance of giving a clear location to the firemen, noting that the department cannot act until the firemen know where to go. If a person calling in is too upset to give clear directions to the department, then the firemen may hang up and wait for another call, since that is the only way they have to insure getting the location of the fire.

He also asked the adults present for the class to hold fire drills for their families, explaining to children how to act in case of fire. Many lives and much property could be saved by families if they would have private fire drills, said Hall.

The Adult Education class meets on Mondays and Tuesdays of each week, unless there is a holiday. Jaime Torres is supervisor of the classes, with Linda Stewart, teacher and Consuelo Rodriguez, aide.

Representatives of the six Home Demonstration Clubs were hosts last Thursday in the Lone Wolf Electric building in the Medallion Room for a meeting.

Mrs. Bruce Byrne called the meeting to order and gave some highlights of the program. The official delegates from Mitchell County were Mrs. Bruce Byrne, THDA chairman, Mrs. Bruce Givens and Mrs. Mary Womack.

Visitors who attended were Mrs. Sidney Compton, Mrs. Effie Watkins, Mrs. Charlie Smith, Mrs. Edna Pace and Mrs. Lucille Blassingame.

Delegates attended the 47th annual state meeting which was held September 18-19-20 in Waco Convention Center. Omar Burleson, congressman of the 19th District of Texas was guest speaker on the Wednesday program of the session.

Burleson is no stranger to Home Demonstration work as he was speaker at one of the district meetings held in Mitchell County. He was also speaker at the National Home Makers Council in San Antonio in 1956.

Rev. Peter McCloud also spoke at the Waco Convention Center and brought a program entitled, "Home, A Beacon Light." He is presently serving as pastor of the First Baptist Church in Waco, Texas. He is a native of Shotts, Scotland, having come to the United States in 1955 at the request of Dr. Eugene Wallace in order to study in Phoenix, Ariz.

Fredrick McClure, immediate past president of the Texas Future Farmers of America, was banquet speaker of the convention. He is 19 years old and comes from the town of San Augustine, the oldest American town in Texas.

He is a 1972 graduate of San Augustine High School where he graduated as class salutatorian and is active in the Baptist Church and has participated in many youth evangelistic activities. He attended a summer missionary church crusade to Haiti and has served as president of the Sabine Valley District Youth Encampment.

He plans to attend A&M University where he will major in Biochemistry or Agricultural Economics.

Mrs. Bruce Byrne introduced Mrs. Charlie Smith and Mrs. Mary Womack at the meeting who attended workshops on Citizenship, Health, Cultural Arts and Safety.

Mrs. Clara Butler and Mrs. Fern Coon reported on their workshops by performing in a skit. The workshops attended were, Publicity, Citizenship, Family Life 4-H, Health, Cultural Arts and Safety.

Those attending from the clubs were Bauman Club; Mrs. Bruce Givens, Mrs. Fern Coon, Mrs. Dan Butler, Mrs. Harvey Leach, Mrs. L. E. Crutcher, Mrs. Gladys Payne and Mrs. Bernice Hallmark.

Buford Club: Mrs. G. R. Admire; Colorado City Lake Home Demonstration Club: Mrs. Kay Morris, Mrs. R. D. Penny, Mrs. W. C. Harlow, Mrs. Roy Norman and Mrs. Dee Cloud.

Fairview Club: Mrs. Charlie Smith, Mrs. J. C. Womack, Mrs. Bertha Simpson, Mrs. Lee Strain and Mrs. Edna Pace; North Loraine Club: Mrs. T. L. Holman, Mrs. Buck Taylor, Mrs. James Watkins and Mrs. Thomas Riden.

Friday and Saturday Junior High will present "Little Women". The play will be in the Junior High auditorium at 8 p.m.

Admission will be $1 for adults and 50¢ for students. Tickets are on sale now. We hope you will get yours now. So you can attend!

The Junior High pep rally last Thursday afternoon was really a spirited place to be. We were really fired up and were out to have a victory over Winters. Coach Mike Hart gave a great speech that helped the pep rally along.

The twirlers and cheerleaders traded out for a while during the pep rally and this was a change. The gym was decorated by the Jamborees and they did a great job.

There were many posters and the locker cards helped also. We have one more pep rally and game, and it is against Ballinger. We hope to have another victory, so why don't "YOU" come to the pep rally and the game to help back the boys and coaches.

Last Thursday night, the Junior High Wolves gave the Winters Blizzards the beating of their lives. The score 51-0 topped last year's high of 45. In the first half the score stood, C-City, 9-0.

The second half was when the massacre started, and it ended like no game it all, Winters suffered many injuries which is very regrettable. The game ended with Winters' quarterback being sacked for a safety.

LETTER

To The Editor:

We would like to express our opposition to the musical festival. We would like to tell Mr. Gelsenberger that he cannot insure the people of Mitchell County that it will be totally good and enjoyable for all the county. We in no way give our support or encouragement in staging this event.

Several citizens have said this would bring a great deal of money into the county. Well, how much can a rock festival compensate a Mother and Father if their son or daughter were to knowingly or unknowingly get some drugs, or get into an altercation and die? Twenty doctors and three helicopters are not going to do a dead teenager any good after he has taken his last breath. And they sure can't comfort bereaved parents then. What we're trying to say, if the county received $60 million it wouldn't pay for one teenager we might lose.

Another point he makes is that it will all be co-ordinated. Just how is a staff of 10 persons with 5 to 10 working under them going to control 300,000 people. And as good as our Sheriff's department is, he and 1000 Brinks men cannot control 300,000 persons' personal habits. Only God can do this, and we don't think you are going to have 300,000 dedicated Christian people there just to listen to music.

We just wonder if this were a Billy Graham Crusade trying to lift Jesus up in Mitchell County and save our teenager's souls, how much support would it receive? We have all got to get back to God as parents and teenagers. Too long we have depended on men to give us assurance and tell us that what we do is right.

This man is offering us three days of music, a lot of money to the county, and nationwide publicity, but let's stop and ask ourselves just what it is really going to cost us?

We would urge everyone to write our commissioners or call them and express your feelings on this after careful thought and prayer.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Claxton

Wildlife And Brush Control

Brush control and wildlife management are thought to be incompatible by some, says George Willis, Range Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service.

Many ranchers wishing to capitalize on hunting fees often hesitate to control brush because of this, and in some cases cause serious ecological problems.

Grassland, in almost every instance, will produce more forage if brush control is carried out. This increase in forage production will produce more pounds of red-meat or other raw products. On the other hand, if all brush is removed, wildlife, especially deer, will not stay because of the lack of food and cover.

New techniques in brush and wildlife management used by some ranchers help them reach a better solution to this problem, continues Willis. Pastures with brush can be sprayed with herbicides without destroying a significant amount of the habitat for wildlife. At the same time, enough brush is destroyed so that production of grass is greatly increased.

Pastures with more serious brush problems with thick canopy produce very few desirable grass species which necessitates other control measures, such as root-plowing or grubbing. When mechanical methods are used, brush can be left in patterns to favor wildlife. Rangeland should be reseeded when plowed or grubbed.

Many ranchers have proven that brush and wildlife management are compatible and economical if properly managed. The Soil Conservation Service has technicians available with training in wildlife and range management to assist farmers and ranchers in developing a complete plan to use and conserve all their natural resources.

How long do you think it takes to plan and build a power plant like this?

☐ 2 years ☐ 4 years ☐ 8 years

Give yourself an A if you said eight years.

The planning and construction of a lignite-fueled power plant like the one pictured here takes just about that long.

That's at least eight years to locate and purchase the right site, order equipment, plan and build the plant, obtain approvals from all regulatory agencies, and then test the plant's operation carefully.

The point is, we can't wait until the day you and your neighbors need more electricity. If we did, you simply wouldn't have it.

That's why we're always looking ahead. We have to. For instance, we've known for some time that the primary fuels we use to generate electricity — natural gas and oil — would be in short supply and thus more expensive.

Anticipating this, we and two other electric utility companies now have in operation a power plant near Fairfield which uses lignite coal for fuel. And two other lignite plants are currently under construction.

We know that by the early 1980's, we will need still another dependable fuel source — nuclear energy. Plans are under way to have a nuclear-fueled power plant near Glen Rose operational by 1980.

Diversifying to these new fuel sources will help decrease our dependence on natural gas and oil.

Unfortunately, plants designed to use lignite cost about two times as much as gas-fired plants. Nuclear plants cost more than three times as much. But we must make commitments now to be ready for the future.

We're working to supply the electricity you need, but it's costing more to make it all the time.

Bauman, Loraine HD Clubs Have Luncheon

The Bauman and North Loraine Home Demonstration Clubs held a joint meeting in the home of Mrs. Arden Ellyson Monday at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Janis Choate, County Extension Agent, was in charge of the program and presented the program on "Convenience vs Home Prepared Food."

By means of statistical charts she compared the costs in both time and money in the field of food. To the club members, surprise the cost dollar-wise was very close in many cases, but time-wise the convenience food is a saver. Today's homemaker has to manage her time more efficiently than in previous years.

Mrs. Choate prepared a total lunch. Beginning with an appetizer, the casserole and dessert, using her base in all the dishes, and canned soups, Mrs. Ellyson and Mrs. Lynne Compton furnished the drink, a hot punch, nuts and mints.

Members attending the luncheon were Mmes. J. D. Givens, Lynne Compton, Harvey Leach and Miss Fern Coon from the Bauman Club.

Also Mmes. Buck Taylor, Wi-

Ilie Taylor, T. L. Holman, Roy Wells, Victor Galvan, Hubert Meadows, Jim Johnson, Bud Shepherd, Jack Linam, James Watkins and Ellyson from the North Loraine Club.

Also attending was Mrs. Choate and a guest, Mrs. Yancy, aunt of Mrs. Ellyson from Colorado City.

McKee Accepts Pastorate

Loraine friends received word this week that the Rev. James McKee had accepted the pastorate of the University Park Baptist Church in San Antonio and would begin his work there Nov. 5.

After pastoring the First Baptist Church here some six years ago Rev. McKee pastored in Denton and has been pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Corsicana the past 4 years.

The San Antonio church has an average SS. Attendance of 350, holds two Sunday morning services, they have a bus ministry, kindergarten, youth director and music director.

Rev. and Mrs. McKee, their daughter and three sons are moving to San Antonio this week and invite Loraine friends to visit them when in that city.

Methodist Women Continue Study

The United Methodist Women met Wednesday morning, Oct. 24, to continue their study of "The Healing Fountain". The study consists of the works of contemporary Christian writers.

Mrs. W. A. Bennett, study leader, presided over the meeting that opened with singing "I'll Go Where you want me to Go". Mrs. Marshall Bruce led the opening prayer.

The Sermon on the Mount is being used as a scriptural basis in the study and being correlated with the contemporary writings as they relate to God and man today.

Mrs. James Watkins commented on the works of Daniel Berrigan. One of his works that was highlighted was "The Trial of the Cantonville Nine". Another thought of Berrigan presented was, "It is sometimes as costly to make peace, as it is to make war."

Dan Berrigan and his brother Phillip, both Catholic priests, are best known for their anti-war efforts.

Those attending were Mmes S. E. Meadows, J. E. Price, James Bennett, W. A. Bennett, Jack Linam, W. R. Bruce, Marshall Bruce, Tom Harkey, and James Watkins.

Food-Fiber Month

November has been named food and fiber month in the United States.

Despite shortages of some food items and climbing prices, the United States still has an abundance of food and fiber at prices lower than anywhere in the world. In addition, our standard of living is higher than anywhere else in the world.

The reason for this abundance is the tremendous American farmer who deserves a great amount of credit. The farmer deserves special thanks for his efforts to provide us with food and fiber.

It is appropriate that during this month, we as consumers should pause to count our blessings and express appreciation for the quality food and fiber products which we sometimes take for granted.

Mrs. Fern Brown, president of the Mitchell County Heart
A Association, displays a plaque presented to the Heart chapter by the state organization to regional associations which exceeded their last year's collections of funds for the Heart Association. The Mitchell County collection, which is counted from July, 1972 through July, 1973, amounted to $3,531, substantially over last year's collection of $2,141. The goal for 1974 is $3,700, and projects are already being carried out toward meeting the goal.

Chamber Board Hears Reports

The Chamber of Commerce should have a real good Christmas parade this year, reports Mrs. Rick (Mac) Perkin, director for the parade. Response has been good from businesses and organizations.

The Chamber board of directors met Monday night and heard the report from Mrs.
Perkin, along with other Chamber business.

A nominating committee was appointed to get a slate of new directors and new officers. The nominating committee will include Eddie Piland, Bob Chalker and Don Hodges.

Five new directors must be selected this year, as Ray Ann Carlock, Rick Perkin, Kenneth Rodgers, Don Timberlake and George Witten will be going off as directors, leaving John

Martin, Murrell Blassingame, Glenn Thomas, Don Hodges, Bob Chalker, Eddie Piland, Bobby Lemons, Nelda Garrett, Kent Gentry and Billy Bruce Bridgeford on the board.

A ballot will be sent out Dec.
1 with five names on it for the new directors to be elected.
Sefton Pickens, Chamber director, said that votes could be cast for persons other than the ones listed on the ballot.

After the votes are canvassed on Dec. 10, a special called meeting will be held and new officers elected by the new board of directors.

The board also discussed the upcoming Chamber banquet and a possible speaker for the annual event.

10 to 15 percent are for it, with a small percentage undecided.

Geisenberger approached the group of civic and business lea-representatives in an attempt to get public support before he sought official support.

Official support would be necessary before the music festi-a state law that requires that any such festival of such large proportions must have a permit from the county commissioner's court before such a festival can be held.

The county is the only governmental agency which has to issue or deny the permit. A re-

Oddity

Mrs. Keith (Hortense) Neff has recently bought and re-done this old back bar from the Domino Hall. She would like to know how old it is and some of its history. It is 9 feet long and 8 feet tall and possibly came from one of the old saloons or barber shops in Colorado City in the 1890s. Mrs. Neff asks that anyone who knows something about this unusual piece of furniture call her and tell her about it.
