Area Officials Okay C.O.G. Anti-Pollution Action Plan

The possibility of a county sanitary sewage system for Aransas County is believed to have moved a little closer to fulfillment as a result of a public hearing conducted Monday by the Texas Water Quality Board staff at city hall in Corpus Christi.

Purpose of the hearing was for the Texas Water Quality Board to obtain public reaction to its proposal that an area including parts of Nueces, San Patricio and Aransas Counties be designated as a water pollution study area, and that Coastal Bend Council of Governments be selected to make such a study which will be paid for with federal funds.

It was the consensus of the meeting Monday that such a study be undertaken by the CBCG, and there was rather general agreement on boundaries of the area tentatively outlined by the Water Quality Board, although several additions to the area were suggested by some of those who testified.

It was pointed out during the hearing that the proposed study was designed to prepare the way for cleaning up the region's water by 1983, and that all types of pollution would be located and studied, including solid waste, industrial waste, oil spills and sanitary sewage.

Aransas County communities included in a map of the area proposed for study are Fulton and waterside communities such as Key Allegre, City by the Sea and Palm Harbor.

C of C Board Meeting

At the regular luncheon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors on May 6 it was voted to be in charge of the concessions tent during the annual Art Festival July 5th and 6th.

An offer by the Rockport Art Association to turn over the concessions was accepted by the Board and it was agreed the Art Association would get 30 percent of the income from the sales. Dr. Mike Shellenberger was appointed chairman of the concessions committee by president Joe Lister.

The Board also voted to pay half the entry fee in the "shrimp eating" contest which will be held May 17 and 18 as part of the Aransas Pass Shrimporee. The Chamber and Rockport-Fulton Tourist Association will co-sponsor Dennis Jenkins, director of both organizations.

Lister introduced Clyda Milks and Bertie Cone, who will serve as co-chairmen of a new Woman's Committee. This is a newly formed group whose main purpose will be to encourage and promote the Hospital Foundation fund.

Bill Christian brought the directors up to date on the SeaFair Festival planned for Oct. 11 and 12.

Attending the meeting at Bay House Restaurant were directors Paul Bohot, Christian, Curtis Goodman, Joe Hugenberg, Lister, Mick Ladner, John McDavid, Jr., Joe Randow, Eddie Ratliff, Dr. Jerry Shaw. Also present were Mayor Walter S. Falk, Jr., Jim Fowler, Raymond Owens, Dr. Ron Levy, Don and Clyda Milks, Bill Janecsek, Lee Wideman, Loyce Landrum, Bertie Cone, Kitty Cleveland, Louise Zeisler, Mildred LeMaire, and Jackie Shaw.

New members present were Russ Brummett, Johnny Ochoa, Dusty Smith and George Beatty.

Scholarship To be Given

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Bobo, Jr., of Arlington, Texas, and also of 200 Port Royal Street of City by the Sea, have set up a scholarship of $2,000 to attend Baylor University to be given each year to a graduate of the Rockport-Fulton High School starting with the year of 1976.

Three students eligible for this scholarship will be chosen from the top quarter of the 1976 graduating class, and each graduating class thereafter, as of November 1 of each year by the principal and the counselor.

The candidate for the scholarship will be required to make satisfactory grades to the end of their high school career and will be officially awarded their scholarship at the Awards Day program in May of each year.

Once a student has been awarded a scholarship, he or she will continue to be eligible for an additional year's scholarship upon application to the selection committee as long as they attend Baylor University.

The scholarship will be known as "The Dr. and Mrs. Jack Bobo, Jr., Scholarship." Dr. and Mrs. Bobo, Jr., award eleven of these scholarships to other schools each year.

Plan SeaFair Festival Here

Rockport SeaFair was selected as the name for the local fall community celebration at a meeting of the planning committee last week. Dates picked for the fair are Saturday and Sunday, October 11 and 12.

Bill Christian, committee chairman, emphasized that the affair is to be county-wide in scope, involving Fulton and Lamar just as much as Rockport.

"SeaFair" was selected as the key word in the title because it is planned to make the festival marine-oriented in keeping with the background and major interest of the community, according to Christian. Seafood will be stressed at the booths to be erected in the Navigation District park area south of the ski basin, and it is planned to have a boat parade, fishing tournament and possibly a skiing demonstration.

In addition to seafood booths, other types of food and refreshments will be sold. It is anticipated that local civic organizations will man the booths and that a percentage of sales and booth rental fees will be used to pay expenses of the festival, including advertising in the south Texas area.

It is hoped that the festival, scheduled as it is for the period after the summer season is over and before the winter season begins, will attract visitors from throughout the state and will help advertise Rockport's attractions.

As preliminary planning progresses, additional committees assigned to specific aspects of the festival will be appointed, according to Christian, who expressed the hope that the festival will become an annual event involving a majority of residents of the Aransas County area.

"We expect the Rockport SeaFair will be comparable, on a smaller scale, to the 1970 Aransas County-Rockport Centennial celebration which was one of the greatest, perhaps the greatest, community efforts ever staged here," he added.

Aransas Natural Gas Company Granted Rate Increase by City

By a three-to-one vote the City Council Monday night granted Aransas Natural Gas Company permission to raise the gas rate slightly to keep pace with the higher cost the company now has to pay for some of the gas it buys to serve local customers.

Voting in favor of granting the increase were Aldermen

Charlie Garrett, N.F. Jackson and Seth Steele. Voting against it was Alderman Joe "Pepe" Zambrano.

Vernon J. Kleypas, operations manager of the Gas Company, said the increase for a minimum bill will be only 22 cents, or a boost from $3.37 to $3.59.

In explaining the need for a price hike, Kleypas presented a detailed statement of the company's natural gas costs over the 12-month period ending March 31, 1975.

"At the beginning of this period our cost for natural gas from Valley Pipe Line was $0.448 per thousand cubic feet," he explained. In March of 1975, the cost from Valley Pipe Line was $0.754 per thousand cubic feet or a 68 per cent increase.

"Our average cost is extremely low because of our favorable long-term contract with Emory M. Spencer-Hunt for local gas. We have a favorable price in the Spencer-Hunt contract for a period of 30 years from March 1948, or until March 1978.

"After March 1978, we will have to pay the going price in the area for natural gas. Today this price is anywhere from $1.50 per thousand cubic feet to $2.00 per thousand cubic feet. As you can see from our proposed rate schedule, our highest rate is $1.233 per thousand cubic feet."

Kleypas said the company's proposed gas rate "is less than any gas company in this area. We are happy to be in a position to sell gas at this price, but it will not be many years (until 1978) that our rates will need to be considerably higher."

Regarding the Little Bay Shores proposed drainage and paving project, Mayor Walter S. Falk, Jr., reported that Urban Engineering Company of Corpus Christi, consulting engineers for the City of Rockport, had studied bids and made its recommendations.

Alderman Steele made a motion that the city send letters to all residents in that area of Little Bay Shores where the project would be located (and who would pay a portion of the cost) asking them if they are for or against the project.

Alderman Jackson said, "We've already done this twice. Why should we do it again?"

After considerable discussion, the Council voted in favor of the motion, by a split vote.

Steele and Zambrano voted yes. Garrett and Jackson voted no. Falk broke the tie by voting yes.

It was agreed that if the property owners wanted the project, they would be given five years to pay their share, at 7 per cent interest.

In other matters, the Council:

--Awarded a contract to Burroughs Corp. (only bidder) for a computer-type accounting machine for $9,885.83.

--Tabled for review by Public Works Supt. Tom Shults and Urban Engineering for two bids for fuel pumps and fuel storage tanks.

--Awarded to George Miller Co. of Rockport a contract for $21,900 to paint and repair elevated water tanks.

Senate Passes Bill for Artificial Reef Construction

The Texas Senate Thursday passed Senate Bill 621 and Senate Bill 803, authored by Senator A.R. "Babe" Schwartz. Senate Bill 621 directs the Parks and Wildlife Commission and Department to implement a program of artificial reef construction and marking in Texas coastal waters, and Senate Bill 803 amends the Coastal Public Lands Management Act of 1973.

Senate Bill 621 directs the Parks and Wildlife Department to begin a program of construction and maintenance of artificial reefs in Texas coastal waters. The Texas Coastal and Marine Council is currently engaged in an offshore deep-water artificial reef construction project utilizing surplus Liberty Ships donated by the federal government. The Council will utilize $423,000 obtained in the bid accepted on the Liberty Ship project for those reefs, and the balance remaining will be for the new reef program in its formative years.

The bill directs the Parks and Wildlife Department to assume responsibility for the maintenance and marking of the Liberty Ship reefs beginning September 1, 1977, and the Coastal and Marine Council will turn over its remaining Liberty Ship reef funds to the Department at that time.

Senate Bill 803 makes certain additions to the Coastal Public Lands Management Act, which Schwartz endorsed two years ago. These changes requested by State Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong, whose responsibility it is to administer the act, add artificial reef jurisdiction and a new definition for coastal wetlands. It also defines coastal public lands as "all state owned waters and lands, peninsulas and islands," and ensures their protection.

Schwartz said, "The new reef project should be welcomed by all Texans interested in good fishing and tourism in Texas. These new reefs in both bay and offshore waters will provide the best year-round fishing in the United States."

PRE-REGISTRATION FOR FIRST GRADE, KINDERGARTEN

Pre-registration for Kindergarten and First Grade for the 1975-76 School Year, is now being held at all Elementary Schools in the Aransas County Independent School District. Registration will be in the School Office.

Any child, who is five years of age on or before September 1, 1975 is eligible to enroll in Kindergarten. Any child, who is six years of age on or before September 1, 1975 is eligible to enroll in First Grade.

Parents must bring, at the time of registration, their child's Certified Birth Certificate and Immunization Records. Immunization requirements are:

D.P.T. -- Minimum of three doses with one dose since the child's fourth birthday.

Polio -- Minimum of three doses with one dose since the child's fourth birthday.

Measles and rubella -- Immunization.

Pre-registration for these grades is very important. Unless we know the number of children that will be in Kindergarten and First Grade, we will be unable to determine the number of teachers and text books needed for these grades.

Please come in and register your children if they are of age to go to school during the 1975-76 school year.

If your child is presently enrolled in Public School Kindergarten, it is not necessary to register them for First Grade.

'YOUTHQUAKE'

There will be a "Youthquake" service Friday, May 16 at First Assembly of God Church in Aransas Pass. Special featured singing group will be the "Watchmen" from Ingleside. All denominations are welcome. All seats are free. Service begins at 7:30 p.m.

Young Woman Juvenile Officer

Miss Sylvia Y. Recio of Portland, a good looking young woman dedicated to helping youths who are in trouble, is the new juvenile probation officer for the 36th judicial district which includes Aransas County.

She devotes the mornings of Monday through Friday to performing a wide variety of services designed to benefit boys and girls, ages 10 through 16, who have run afoul of the law in Aransas County.

Miss Recio makes her headquarters here in an office at the John D. Wendell Juvenile Detention Center and can be reached by calling 729-2222 (Sheriff's Department) or County Judge John D. Wendell, 729-2403.

She holds a bachelor of science degree in recreation and administration from Texas Woman's University at Denton where she minored in psychology and sociology.

Among the services she provides are counseling for the youthful law offenders and their parents, and visiting local schools to confer with school officials to discuss possible programs of action to help troubled youths and hopefully decrease the number of law violations among boys and girls 10-16.

"What we desperately need right now," Miss Recio said, "is a program that will produce a number of local recreational volunteers to spend some time with the young people in trouble."

She pointed out that there is a fenced in recreational area at the John D. Wendell Juvenile Detention Center, "But we need volunteers, plus some funds and equipment, to develop a really meaningful recreational program for the boys and girls being held at the detention center."

She said she would welcome the opportunity to appear before local clubs and civic organizations as a speaker to explain the type of program she believes would be of great benefit for the young people who have strayed from the so-called "straight and narrow path."

Just call for Miss Recio at 729-2222 or 729-2403 and offer to help.

Okay Plan—

Aransas County's sanitary sewage problem is that such a study probably will produce data which can be used by Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District in requesting federal and state funds to implement a county sanitary sewage system, according to Jack McDavid, president of the District's board of directors. Up until now lack of funds with which to pay for an engineering study has blocked action by the District.

Attending the hearing from Aransas County, in addition to McDavid, were Thomas L. Morgan, J.H. vonPein and David H. Crooks, all directors of Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District, Raymond Owens, Aransas County Commissioner and the county's representative on the Coastal Bend Council of Governments, and M.W. Cochran, local civil engineer and long-time conservationist.

Cochran, who was first to testify at the hearing, urged that all of Aransas Bay be included in the study, not just that portion which lies south of Copano Bridge as shown in the map of the area proposed for study. He also asserted that although there was no shell dredging in Aransas Bay, mud and silt from shell dredging in San Antonio Bay to the north was responsible for much of the pollution in Aransas Bay.

Owens asserted that heavily settled areas just north of Rockport had a serious sanitary problem because of lack of a sewage system. When he endorsed the proposed study, McDavid called attention of Water Quality Board representatives to the fact that Aransas County Commissioners Court, Rockport and Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District had approved resolutions backing the Board's study proposal.

Pirates Tip Flour Bluff

Rockport-Fulton High School closed out its season at the .500 mark by downing the Flour Bluff Hornets 7-2 in a District 15-3A game at Flour Bluff on May 8.

The Pirates ended the season at 8-8 and finished 3-4 in league play while the Hornets finished at 4-12 and 3-5.

Johnny Rios was the winning pitcher, giving up just three hits while striking out 10 and walking three. His teammates responded with two runs in the first and fifth innings and single markers in the third, sixth and seventh.

Jerry Hutson had two of Rockport's seven hits.

CHILDREN TOUR FULTON MANSION

The fourth grades of Live Oak Elementary School recently visited Fulton Mansion. The classes received a guided tour and were told many interesting facts about the mansion's construction, the Fulton family and history of the area.

The children especially enjoyed the Colonel's "Grumble Room" and the "Money Room," secret hiding place for gold and silver coins.

The classes have been studying historic places in America.

Placed Call To Moon Men

Every time he looks at the moon Capt. David P. Elsey II, Army Signal Corps, thinks about the role he played in putting through "the most historic telephone call ever made."

Now serving as aide de camp to Lt. Gen. Allen M. Burdett, Jr., Fifth Army commander, Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Captain Elsey was officer in charge of placing President Nixon's congratulatory call to the first men to set foot on the moon—Astronauts Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. Aldrin, Jr.—on July 20, 1969.

Captain Elsey was a presidential staff communications officer, assigned to the White House Communications Agency 1969-71.

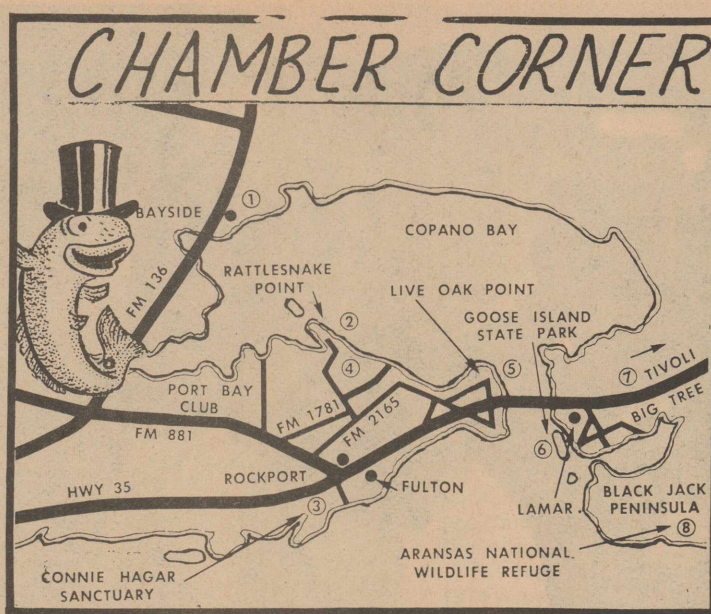

As the President spoke, Captain Elsey was seated on a couch directly in front of him in the Oval Office. With them was Astronaut Frank Borman, advisor to the President during the Apollo 11 adventure.

The telephone used by the President is now in the Smithsonian Institution, Washington.

The President's telephone call was routed first to the White House signal switchboard, thence to the Goddard Space Center, Md., next simultaneously to satellite transmitters in California and Australia, and then to the lunar module and the Apollo 11 capsule.

At the conclusion of President Nixon's talk with the astronauts, Captain Elsey explained to news media representatives at a White House Press Conference how it was engineered.

The parents of his wife, Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Wilcox, live at 2 Paisano Lane, Key Allegro in Rockport. Captain and Mrs. Elsey with their son, Mitch 14, and daughter, Lee 12, reside at 157 Foulouis Dr., Fort Sam Houston.

Eager anticipation of an emergency clinic for the area brought about the formation of a woman's committee of the Chamber of Commerce. This group plans to promote and encourage projects to further the Hospital Foundation Fund. Co-chairmen of the committee are Clyda Milks and Bertie Cone.

Invitations to all women who are members of the Chamber of Commerce have been mailed urging them to attend an organizational meeting May 28 at 10 a.m. at the Paws and Taws Building on Fulton Beach Road. Other interested ladies

FIRE DEPT. MET MAY 1

The Rockport Volunteer Fire Department met May 1, with the session opened by Chief Elmer Redden. Twenty-six men answered roll call. A new member, William Browne, was voted in.

Plans for the barbecue were discussed, as was the question as to how many members wished to attend the fire school at Texas A&M, July 20-25.

Cakes for refreshments were furnished by Ivala Hinz and Frances Redden.

Homemakers Have Party

The Young Homemakers of Texas had a surprise going-away party on May 6. A regular business meeting was scheduled and carried out, then a cake and gifts were presented to outgoing president Carole Winkler, outgoing secretary Betty Kucera and Eloyce Haigood.

These three members will be moving away from this area soon. All will be missed. Also to be missed is Glenda Blankinship who will be absent temporarily.

Plans were made for the upcoming Cystic Fibrosis Drive. A committee will work on little signs and jars to be left in prominent places throughout the city, in hopes many donations will be made during the next two weeks.

Since the meeting was so well attended, an election of officers took place. Several of the new officers will take office early to replace those leaving this summer.

Elected as President was Cathy Huffmeyer; Vice president, Eva Green; Secretary, Darlene Sawyer; Treasurer, Johnnie Callum.

Plans were discussed for a brunch on May 24 to be given in honor of the F.H.A. seniors who are graduating. It will be from 10:30 to 11:00 in the Homemaking Department. The co-hostesses of this event are Eva Green, new member, Betty Upton, and Janice Spears.

Members are encouraged to attend Ruth Langham Day at the Concern Center on Saturday, May 17, from 1 to 6 p.m. It is a "Come & Go" event. Two members, Eva Green and Cathy Huffmeyer, will represent the club but all members are invited.

The meeting was attended by Pat Barker, Johnnie Callum, Betty Kucera, Lois Bohot, Darlene Sawyer, Ann Woods, Becky Livingston, Carol Winkler, Peggy Friebe, Marilyn Bennett, Linda Puster, Carole Crawford, Eloyce Haigood, Eva Green, Cathy Huffmeyer, Glenda Blankinship, sponsors, Francis Mutscher and Sheryl Riley.

Guests were Betty Upton whom the club is pleased to welcome as a new member, and Sandra Wolf. Apologies go to Peggy Friebe who placed membership last month and whose name was printed as Betty Friebe.

L. D. NUCKLES

The Ford Administration in Washington is pushing ahead with plans for massive leasing of new offshore oil drilling areas. You'll be glad to know, however, that Congress is working on some important legislation that would give seashore communities and coastal states much greater protection. It could also mean a better deal for the public, which, after all, owns the offshore resources.

One of the most comprehensive of these bills, S. 426, by Senator Ernest F. Hollings of South Carolina, would require the Department of Interior to prepare a ten-year leasing program consistent with national needs. This plan would also have to fit in with state plans now taking shape under the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972. This would give some warning to coastal states and communities and allow them to plan for the impact of offshore drilling.

Holling was the leading sponsor of the Coastal Zone Management Act in the Senate. This is said to be the most intelligent, progressive planning act ever passed by Congress.

S. 426 would also put an immediate end to leasing in "frontier areas" and would require Department of Interior to conduct oil and gas explorations in those areas so that the Department, and the public, would know what they were leasing or selling to the oil companies. At the present time the Department leases these areas without having any idea what can be found there in the way of oil and gas resources. The oil companies know because they have privately gathered the necessary data, but they're not telling anybody. I suppose you can't blame them for keeping their mouths shut because they did put up the money for the exploration work. On the other hand, those areas belong to you and me, and I think we should reap some of the benefits from the non-renewable resources that might be found there.

That is the good news. Some of the not-so-good includes many bills that have been introduced that would do a great deal to tear the heart out of the National Environmental Policy Act, mostly by congressman who believe that the secret to a long political life is a constantly overflowing pork barrel of public works. These champions of big dam construction, dredging, and useless highway projects are becoming quite unhappy with environmental impact statements that often bring to light data which shows that the country would be much better off without the project in question.

One of the worst of these bills is H.R. 3067 by Representative James Wright of Texas, a high ranking member of the House Committee on Public Works and Transportation. It would set aside "procedural requirements" under any law in order to "put people back to work and speed the flow of money into the economy."

What you do about pending legislation is, of course, absolutely up to you. You can sit back and gripe about what is being done to you, or you can take an active hand in government. All it takes to influence any legislation is enough letters written to congressmen. Petitions are all right, I guess, but nothing can take the place of a flood of individual letters either praising or condemning some particular legislation.

Lucky number is 5, lucky day is Friday and best color is green. TAURUS--April 21 to May 20 -- You would do well to play in your own back yard. The grass which looks greener could turn to a dull brown. Be natural. GEMINI--May 21 to June 20 -- Be careful about anything you put in writing. A personal letter could be misinterpreted, much to your dismay. Better make your statements verbally if possible. CANCER--June 21 to July 22--If you are bored, try reversing your usual schedule. Do morning chores in the evening and vice-versa. This reversal could create an entire new outlook for you. LEO--July 23 to Aug. 22 -- Let your sense of humor shine through. A telephone call to someone who cares about you could make them very happy. VIRGO--Aug. 23 to Sept. 22--A restless wind seems to be surrounding you. Use this added energy for constructive endeavors. You have places to go, people to see and things to do. LIBRA--Sept. 23 to Oct. 22--Most of what happens in your life depends entirely upon you. Take one thing at a time, plan wisely and well and develop the tenacity to carry through on each and every project. SCORPIO--Oct. 23 to Nov. 22--An exceptionally fine week can be expected. Nursing Home News Items

Aransas Pass Nursing and Convalescent Center activities for May 5-11 included:

The Center's activities got off to a great start Tuesday afternoon with the Ingleside chapter of the Rebekahs coming over for their game day. They also brought some much needed bibs. This is another "first" at the Center. This group of ladies contacted me some time ago and asked what they might do for their nursing home. We do so appreciate all of these fine people who are doing volunteer programs.

Wednesday morning the ladies from the Portland Baptist Church came over for the Flanograph study.

At 2:30 Wednesday afternoon Bonnie Fletcher came out to conduct our residents in their "paint class."

Thursday morning the ladies along with Rev. Alton Pruitt from the First United Pentecostal Church of Aransas Pass came out for their weekly program of favorite songs and a short meditation.

Thursday afternoon the Aransas Pass chapter of Rebekahs came out for their monthly game day.

Friday evening Rev. Wayne Jones of the Aransas Pass Church of Christ came and showed films of the Bible.

Of course, there were three days of hustle and bustle to get all of our lady residents prettied up for Mother's Day." A great big thanks goes to Howard's Super Market, Aransas Pass H.E.B. Food Center, and to the First State Bank of Aransas Pass for buying sixty beautiful corsages for all of our ladies. They were all so very proud of their flowers. Also, may I thank Emma's Flower Shop of Rockport for making the corsages and delivering them Saturday morning so my ladies could enjoy their posies for two days.

Saturday morning Father Hamilton was out to administer Holy Communion and to wish all mothers a happy Mother's Day.

Sunday morning church services were led by Rev. Al Bankert.

Our Sunday afternoon program which is led by Mrs. Bonnie Hall of the Aransas Pass First Assembly of God Church, had to be cancelled due to Mrs. Hall being ill. May she be with us again soon and we wish her a speedy recovery.

Betty McGrath came out Tuesday morning and visited with many of our residents and cheered them up with her beautiful smile and words of encouragement.

Also, our young ladies came over from Ingleside to visit with their lady, whom they adopted some weeks ago. May God bless you.

This coming Saturday, May 17, beginning at 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. we will be observing Texas Nursing Home Week in conjunction with our Shrimps-ore Celebration.

We extend a big "welcome" to all our friends, relatives, and neighbors throughout this area to come and visit our nursing center of which we all are very proud to be a part of. So don't forget, "See you Saturday!"

Yard of The Month

The "Yard of the Month" award for May has been won by Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Muecke of 1601 Royal, according to announcement by Mrs. Joe Hugenberg, chairman of the project for the Rockport Home and Garden Club.

The front yard is speckled with beautiful flower beds that contain a wealth of gardening know-how. Around each tree or group of trees there is a bed, and Mrs. Muecke has named each by a different name.

One long flower bed contains Indian hawthorne, roses, sunflowers, tomatoes, celery, squash and cabbage.

Another bed contains four varieties of hot peppers. Carnations, pansy, sweet william, balsam, Chinese bamboo, lilies, ferns, celosia and lot of allovera fill the rest of the beds.

Mr. Muecke is an organic gardener in that he uses all natural elements in his gardening. The Mueckes will be saving lots of money in the line of vegetables as they also have a well-laid out garden full of cucumbers, beets, eggplant, turnips, lettuce, broccoli and cabbage.

The Mueckes work every day in their yard and started from scratch four years ago. The yard itself is a picture of beauty and usefulness.

Nominations are welcomed and anyone is eligible to receive the award.

There is a poem Mr. Muecke quoted: "The kiss of the sun for pardon, the song of the birds for mirth, you are closer to God in a garden than any place else on earth."

VA Annual Report

How the Veterans Administration spent $13.4 billion during fiscal year 1974 to provide federal benefits for the nation's veterans and their families is told in the agency's 222 page annual report to the President.

The report includes both narrative descriptions and statistical charts on the characteristics and distribution of the veteran population and the various benefit and health care programs serving veterans and their dependents.

The report revealed that the 1974 expenditure for veterans, their dependents and survivors, and for active duty personnel, was eight per cent higher than the preceding year, but it has already been exceeded by the 1975 budget of $13.6 billion and the 1976 budget request of $16.1 billion.

Largest of the many VA programs, dollarwise, in 1974 was the compensation and pension expenditure of $6.7 billion.

The second largest expenditure was $3.3 billion on educational assistance for 2.5 million persons, an increase of nearly 22 per cent over the previous year.

The Department of Medicine and Surgery accounted for the third largest expenditure, $3 billion. This was an 11.2 per cent increase which included cost of treating a record 1.06 million veterans in VA and non-VA hospitals.

Among the other highlights of the VA annual report:

--more than $101.3 billion in life insurance coverage provided 8.1 million insureds under programs;

--nearly $92 million in construction obligations carried out, with 180 projects under construction at end of fiscal year at estimated cost of $188.5 million;

--306,188 home loans guaranteed (down from 365,000 a year ago), which pushed dollar volume of loans past $100 billion mark;

--36,610 interments made by National Cemetery System;

--women veterans numbered 551,000, slightly less than 2 per cent of the veterans population, ranging from under 20 to over 85 years of age;

Thursday, May 15, 1975

--veteran population rose .7 per cent to 29.3 million, averaging 45.5 years of age;

--veterans earned a median income of $10,820 compared to $7,120 for non-veterans during the 1973 calendar year.

Copies of the VA Annual Report are available for $2.95 from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Baptist Women Met May 6

Woman's Missionary Society met May 6 at the First Baptist Church for their regular meeting. Mrs. Larry Stewart was in charge of the meeting.

The meeting was opened with the song, "Living for Jesus." Mrs. Truett Roach read scripture verses taken from Col. 3:12-17.

Mrs. Ray Longino, Jr., read the names of missionaries whose names appeared in the Calendar of Prayer. As she read the names a rose bud was put in a bud vase by Mrs. B.M. Taylor. Mrs. C.O. Lutz read the secretary's report, and Mrs. Lillie Calvert the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Stewart read a letter from Garrettsville, Ohio stating that they were building a new church. The Society voted to send an offering.

A letter was read from Rudy Hernandez stating 3,500 decisions had been made during the year in revivals he had held.

Mrs. Truett Roach was appointed chairman of the nominating committee. There will be no meetings during June, July and August. Mrs. Roach gave a report of mission work in Taiwan.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Roach. Eleven members enjoyed refreshments of apple pie, coffee and iced tea.

Last week in Corpus Christi I was introduced to a man who has lived there for a number of years. As is often the case when you meet someone for the first time, he and I started out talking in generalities—the weather, high prices, etc.

When we got on the subject of young people, he said, "I have two sons, both of whom wear their hair longer than I wish they would but I'll have to admit I'm a bit prejudiced and I still prefer what Americans used to call a Butch haircut."

"I'll show you why I prefer a close-cropped haircut," he added as he whipped out his billfold and pulled out a photo of himself as a young man.

The photo was a bit of a surprise to me, to put it mildly because it showed a young man in a German army officer's uniform.

"I was a high ranking officer in the German Army in World War II and I fought under Field Marshal Rommel," he said with obvious pride.

Not knowing exactly what to say, I remarked that he probably has some rather "interesting" reactions to the American movies and TV programs dealing with World War II.

"Frankly, I do," he responded. "For example, when the TV series 'Rat Patrol' was being shown, I considered it ludicrous that a couple of American soldiers riding in a jeep with a machine gun mounted at the rear, were able to wipe out hundreds of German soldiers. We really weren't quite that inefficient."

Then he added, "On the other hand, I get a kick out of watching 'Hogan's Heroes' since it's so far fetched that no one is expected to believe it."

I felt more comfortable when we got off the subject.

PUBLIC NOTICES BECAUSE THE PEOPLE MUST KNOW

Editor's Note: Public Notice advertising plays a unique role both in American history and in the process by which this country's democracy is preserved. Its one premise is that people must be informed if they are to govern themselves competently. Public Notice advertising first came into being with the Congress of 1792. The body, recognizing its responsibility to the people, required the Postmaster General to advertise for bids for the construction of new post offices. From that auspicious beginning to the complex publication requirements in federal, state and local laws today, government officials have come more and more to understand their obligations to inform the public through Public Notice advertising. Newspapers over the years have been the vehicle by which these obligations have been fulfilled. They will continue to be as long as the public demands that it be informed frequently, and by the best means possible.

March Shrimp Landings Poorest In More Than a Decade

Shrimp landings amounted to 1.2 million pounds valued at $2.4 million. This was below the 1.6 million pounds valued at $2.8 million in March 1974. Current March landings were the poorest in volume in more than a decade.

In the Aransas Pass-Fulton area landings in March 1975 were 330,300 pounds. Landings for January-March 1975 were 1,186,200 pounds compared to 1,654,900 pounds for January-March 1974.

Vessels working both brown and white shrimp made very poor trip catches of 60-125 pounds per 12 hours' effort on most major grounds adjacent to the Texas coast. Weather conditions were very rough, however, the poor catch rate resulted from scarcity of shrimp in offshore waters and not from environmental factors. Many long-range units returned from Campeche during the month and will not return. The catch rate was low at 100-300 pounds per night, thus the cost of operation forced many vessels to return home.

Blue crab landings totaled 256,000 pounds in March. This was a drop of 11 percent compared with March 1974. The downward trend in blue crab landings in recent months reflects to some extent cold water temperatures and unusual tides, however, there is seemingly a marked decrease in the number of crabs in major bays compared with last spring and the expected normal.

Oyster landings amounted to 178,000 pounds of shucked meats in March. This was 31 percent above March 1974 landings and reflected fairly strong local demand.

Fuel supplies were adequate at 30-36 cents per gallon.

One vessel was lost at sea in March. No new large units entered the fishery in March. Many were tied-in by late March due to poor catches and high operational costs.

Lawn Mower Safety Advised

College Station -- Lawn mowing can be hazardous to your health, especially if you disregard safety when using a power mower.

Every year 55,000 Americans are treated in hospital emergency rooms for injuries resulting from the use of power lawn mowers. Many victims lose fingers or toes; some accidents prove fatal.

"Most of these lawn mower accidents could have been prevented if a few safety rules had been followed," contends Wayne Keese, agricultural engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, who is in charge of safety educational programs.

"The first rule in safe operation of a lawn mower is to become completely familiar with your machine. Read the owner's manual carefully. Make sure everyone who will be operating the lawn mower understands the controls and knows how to stop the engine quickly in case of an emergency," emphasizes the Texas A&M University System specialist.

"Before mowing, clear the entire lawn of sticks, stones, wire and debris--anything that could be thrown by the mower blade. Then get pets and small children out of the mowing area."

Keese advises disengaging the clutch and shifting into neutral before starting the engine. Keep your feet away from the blade when starting the engine.

"Stop the engine whenever you leave the mower, if even for a moment," cautions Keese. "Always stop the engine and disconnect the spark plug wire if you intend to check or work on the mower."

"Also stop the engine and allow it to cool before refueling. And use safety containers for gasoline," advises the engineer.

"Exercise extreme caution when mowing on slopes or wet grass, and never pull the mower toward you. Use a 'plug-in' electric mower only when the grass is dry," add Keese.

Consumer Food News

College Station -- Meat prices are on the move again--upward, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt.

"Retail beef prices, generally declining since last September, now will begin increasing somewhat as supplies are slightly less abundant," the consumer marketing information specialist explains.

"Pork and poultry supplies--not as plentiful as beef--will continue to increase, especially as the barbecue season nears," she predicted.

One commodity with lower prices is the egg.

Mrs. Clyatt, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, termed eggs "one of the best protein buys currently available."

In the dairy department, consumers can expect reasonable prices on liquid milk, cottage cheese and dry powdered milk.

Produce counters show a mixture of spring and summer vegetables.

Soft-shell yellow squash and green beans are more plentiful, and corn-on-the-cob will double April's supply during May, Mrs. Clyatt said. Potatoes remain abundant, and new shipments of Round Reds are increasing.

In fruit sections, oranges are more plentiful than grapefruit, but both have moderate prices, the specialist noted.

"Strawberries and pineapples are featured items in some stores with quality generally very good, and watermelon prices are gradually dropping as supply increases."

Other vegetables at the most economical prices are beets, celery, cabbage, carrots, dry yellow onions, collards, mustard, turnips and greens.

Consumer Watchwords: with egg prices down, this is a good time to include more eggs in menus--or do extra baking for the freezer.

ACCENT ON HEALTH

J.E. PEAVY, M.D.
Commissioner of Health

Medical help for children in Texas comes from many sources, and for three children living near Brenham it was the State Health Department Laboratories which discovered they had high lead levels in their bodies.

Lead poisoning can cause mental retardation or even death, and early discovery is vital to prevent any lasting effects.

How did the laboratories in Austin become involved with lead poisoning cases near Brenham?

The State Health Department, in cooperation with the Texas Department of Public Welfare, is carrying out an extensive medical screening program throughout the state for children on welfare rolls. The State Health Department is responsible for the physical examinations given under this Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment (EPSDT) Program through a contract with the Welfare Department.

When a medical screening team from the State Health Department rolled into Brenham last year--bringing with it the promise of better health--the three children with lead poisoning attended the clinic.

During the extensive physical examinations, blood samples were taken to be sent to the Health Department Laboratories for analysis. On this day--a lucky one for the three children--the blood samples taken disclosed the sinister lead condition.

The initial high lead reading led to another test to verify the first result, and the children began treatment to leech the lead from their systems.

It also resulted in an investigation by an environmental health engineer of the premises where the children lived. His inspection of the home showed lead-based paint peeling from the walls, woodwork and window sills. The paint chips have a sweet taste which children find enjoyable, and they were chewing on the window sills and picking up paint flakes.

Since the discovery, the walls have been covered over and the parents advised of the lead problem. And, the children have been undergoing periodic blood tests and treatment by a local physician.

These youngsters are just three of the more than 159,000 children in Texas who have been examined in the EPSDT Program.

During the physical examination by a physician or nurse, blood samples are taken and sent to the special Medical Screening Division of the Bureau of Laboratories.

Each child's blood undergoes a laboratory analysis for syphilis, lead, hemoglobin (anemia) and hemoglobin types (sickle cell and related diseases). About 30,000 individual tests are performed each month.

The laboratory staff includes 15 highly-trained personnel, including medical technologists, chemists and laboratory technicians. The medical technologists are all certified by the American Society of Clinical Pathologists (ASCP). The chemists hold college degrees, and the laboratory technicians are usually college graduates.

The supervisor of the Medical Screening Division, Brad Therrell, Ph.D., says the program is an enormous undertaking. Dr. Therrell relates that, "The professionals for the most part have taken special training courses to make them more proficient in their specialized skills, some in Boston and some at the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta."

"We feel we are playing a very important role in helping children of the state toward better health. That's the reason we're here," said Therrell.

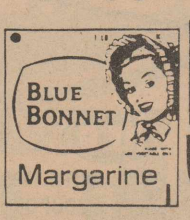

The Health Department facility is the largest lead poisoning analytical laboratory in operation in the country with the exception of New York State at Albany. Only two or three other laboratories in Texas are equipped to do lead testing.

The lead atomic absorption equipment called for an outlay of some $30,000. Automated equipment enables the laboratory staff to keep abreast of its continuing work load.

"There is no way the job can get done without skilled, dedicated personnel," said Dr. Therrell. "We are able to do the tests at a great financial saving with uniform quality control in our central laboratory, as opposed to having each medical team attempt to do this in the field," he said. The Austin staff performs laboratory tests for the entire state, except for Houston.

Retirement Forms Available

Austin -- Agreement forms for starting an individual retirement account with financial institutions such as a bank, a savings and loan association, or a federally-insured credit union are available from Internal Revenue Service office, Robert M. McKeever, IRS district director for southern Texas, said recently.

As a result of recent legislation, generally all employees not covered by a pension or retirement plan can contribute to an individual retirement savings program and deduct from gross income up to $1,500 a year, or 15 per cent of their compensation, whichever is less. The money can be put into various investments such as a savings account, mutual funds, or special U.S. Individual Retirement Bonds, McKeever pointed out.

Persons requesting agreement forms from the IRS should ask for Form 5305 for setting up a trust account, or Form 5305A for a custodial account. "Once an individual has the forms," McKeever said, "he or she should take them to a financial institution where this type of account can be established and the necessary agreement concluded."

"Because this is a retirement fund," McKeever said, "your savings, generally, remain on deposit until you reach age 59½ when you can withdraw either the entire amount or begin to receive periodic payments without penalties." He continued: "When withdrawn, the money becomes taxable but you probably would be in a much lower tax bracket."

UNDERSTANDING MENTAL HEALTH

a health column from the Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration
U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Schizophrenia

The kind, loving face of a wife may suddenly appear harsh and cruel. The schizophrenic person knows that in actuality his wife's face has not changed; but for him, it has.

The world of the schizophrenic may be filled with illusions, hallucinations, and disordered thinking. "Half the time I am talking about one thing and thinking about half a dozen other things at the same time," one patient said. Living in a world that is distorted, changeable, and lacking the reliable landmarks we all use to anchor ourselves to reality, the schizophrenic feels confused and unbearably frightened.

Schizophrenia is a complex mental disorder which affects all aspects of an individual's personality—the way he thinks, acts, and feels.

Different persons suffering from schizophrenia behave in very different ways, and one schizophrenic individual may exhibit quite different behavior at different times. Just as people normally are different from each other, those afflicted by schizophrenia may express the disorder in highly personal ways.

It is estimated that 2 percent of the population will have an episode of schizophrenia some time during their lives. In certain social settings—the urban slum, for example—the prediction rises to 6 percent, or more than 1 in 20 persons.

What causes schizophrenia? There is no known single cause. Scientists agree that the disorder is most likely caused by combinations of biological, genetic, and cultural or environmental factors.

Can schizophrenia be cured? No single cure is known. No simple operation, no single drug, no instant magic has been found. Indeed, it is probably unrealistic to expect cure in the sense of complete restoration to former functioning.

But schizophrenia is treatable and in most instances the treatment can allow return to a relatively normal life within a fairly short period of time.

The National Institute of Mental Health, which is a part of HEW's Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration, supports a broad program of research in pursuit of answers to the many questions about schizophrenia.

To help the average person understand this strange disorder, the Institute has published a booklet, Schizophrenia: Is There An Answer? For a free single copy, write to the National Institute of Mental Health, ADAMHA, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Maryland 20852.
