By Nanalee Nichols

In the past few weeks I've spent a lot of time at the ball park taking pictures of youngsters from ages of about 5 or 6 up to teenagers.

They are fun to work with, bright and cheerful and just as cute as can be.

And during that time I've come to realize just how special the folks that work with those youngsters are.

I know that most coaches are parents...but they are parents willing to spend an incredible amount of time working with kids.

It's hot out on those ball fields. And before every game the field has to be worked on. Lime has to be spread and mark the baselines.

The bases have to be put down. Behind the scenes there are schedules to be made out and games to be arranged.

There are uncountable phone calls to be made. There are funds to be raised and uniforms to be fitted and rounded up. One good rainstorm can create havoc with an entire schedule!

Then coaching has to begin. Coaches aren't on hand just for the games, they come out to practice too.

Of course, there has to be some criticism during all this...coaches sometimes have to accept the flack for things that they did or did not do.

So, let's hear it for those spring-time heroes...the coaches of kid's baseball and softball!

And, while handing out awards, it might be nice to hand out one or two to the parents who run the concession stands at those same ball games...and then there are those dedicated parents who take their children, and other people's kids, to the games and patiently sit in the blazing sun while their youngsters play ball.

Yes, it's dedication and love that these people display...a love of the game of baseball and a love of children.

They all deserve a round of applause!

Talco-Bogata CISD Board Meets In Regular Session May 14

The Talco-Bogata C.I.S.D. Board met on Tuesday, May 14 with vice-president, Jerry Russell calling the meeting to order.

There was an appeal by Barney Gaylor, asking for exemption on the penalty and interest on delinquent taxes on grain bins. The motion failed with no action taken.

The Oath of Office was administered to Jerry Russell, Mollie Williams and Ricky Franks, newly elected board members.

In the reorganization of the board, the board elected Jerry Russell as president; Kip Stansell as vice-president; and Mollie Williams as secretary.

The auditor's contract with Oaker, Arnold & Walker and Company was accepted for the 1990-91 fiscal year's audit.

The delinquent tax lawyer contract with Calame, Linebarger and Graham of Tyler was renewed.

The tax report indicated that 92.8% has been collected for 1991 as opposed to last year's 91.59%.

Mr. Miller, principal of Rivercrest requested a change in the dress code to allow that shorts be worn on a trial basis for the remainder of the 1990-91 school year. He would review the results before the policy would be established for the 1991-92 school year.

The school board voted to purchase cheerleader uniforms, with the junior high and junior varsity not to exceed $150.00 and the varsity not to exceed $200.00.

Motion was made that RHS purchase a car for Driver's Education due to the expense of a lease of $2,000.00 to $2,400.00 for six weeks. It would be more economical to buy a driver's education car and use it for staff trips, rather than pay mileage for personal automobile use.

The board voted to update the Spanish Lab with two lab consoles.

Off campus UIL trips were discussed for Talco students and approved.

The board voted to pay all teachers $100 who sponsored an event in the Spring UIL Meet which will be in their May checks.

day, May 30 at the high school.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:45 a.m.

A special meeting was called on May 21 at 6 p.m. to discuss proceeds for school programs and it was voted that the programs that showcased activities not be charged for. The board went into executive session at 7:00 p.m. to interview for the Bogata Junior High Principal position.

A special meeting was held on Thursday, May 23, and called to order at 6:00 p.m. in executive session to interview candidates for the Bogata Junior High Principal position.

Grace Hearron Is Busy Lady!

Talco Postmaster Grace Hearron is a busy lady...and has been for a long time!

Grace was recently awarded a

Twenty-five Year Service Pin by the Post Office's Director of Field Operations, Dallas Division, Colleen Goodwin.

In addition she has several other duties.

Grace began her postal service at Talco in 1966 as a clerk.

She was promoted to Postmaster in August of 1982.

As well as this, she serves as Officer In Charge to help new postmasters within Level 15 or below.

Then, she is a member of the Leadership Sharing Committee. This committee consists of all levels of 754 zip code and meets once per month in a "think tank" session.

Even with all of these duties, Grace finds time for special events. One of the most recent things she has done is give the Talco Elementary School fourth and fifth grade classes a tour of the post office.

The fascinated youngsters listened as each postal employee's duties were explained, and two films were shown. One was "Adventure of a Letter" and the other was "Automation Innovation".

Grace told the twenty-three youngsters the history of the Talco Post Office and served them cookies and punch.

Each student received a gift of a stamp collecting book, a coloring book and candy.

In addition, Grace keeps her post office cheerful with her collection of mail boxes. These miniatures range from salt and pepper shakers to hand carved works of art.

Grace Hearron is a friendly, familiar face to most folks in the Talco area, and her twenty-five year pin marks long years of service given to the community.

THE NEW playground equipment purchased by the Talco PTO was installed last week and students thoroughly enjoyed the new additions to the play-

SHARING HER unique crabmeat recipe this week in the Country Cooking column is

Country Cooking

By Gerrie Bankhead

The Country Cooking column is being shared this week from the kitchen of Douglas (Andy) and Kathy Williams. Andy and Kathy have been married for 15 years and even though they have lived all over the world, they call Bogata their home. Kathy was raised in the Bogata area and graduated from high school there. Before she married, she never really traveled, but since then she has lived or visited in Malaysia, Singapore, Holland and many more places. She and her family are in the process of moving to Holland at this time and will spend about six months there.

Kathy and her family are members of the United Methodist Church in Bogata. She enjoys cooking, entertaining, oil painting and any craft you can use a hot glue gun.

Kathy likes to cook fancy foods. Although she cooks plain foods for her husband, she likes to experiment with fancy recipes. She does a lot of changing in a recipe also. She might take out some ingredients that her family doesn't like or add ingredients they do like.

Kathy also likes to work in the yard and grow plants. Her career for the past eight years has been Activity Director for nursing homes. For the past four years she has served at Red River Haven Nursing Home. May 29 will be her last day of work.

Andy and Kathy are the parents of Brandon, a seventh grader, age 13; and Kevin, a fourth grader, age 10. Another enjoying of Kathy's is working with children's church on Wednesday night. She also helps with vacation bible school each summer. Kathy is vice-president of PTO at the school and she enjoys getting involved in activities that concern her children.

The crabmeat recipe shared this week came from Eileen Wainman from British Columbia, Canada. Kathy got the recipe from her when she lived in Singapore. Upon my arrival at Kathy's house, she had the table set to sample this crabmeat dip. I've mentioned before how I hesitate to taste foods because of calories, but I did sample this unique dish. It is delicious and I will make it for the next event I attend. The hot potato salad recipe came from Aunt Bernice Hartman in 1983 when they visited them in Spokane, Washington.

The chicken pot pie is good to freeze. When she fixes it, she usually freezes half of it to have for visitors who pop in. This recipe came from a neighbor, Mary Joplin of Bogata.

The pea salad came from a lady she attended a nursing home meeting with. The lady was telling about it, Kathy wanted it, so she wrote it on a paper plate for her because she didn't have any paper. Kathy recalls how difficult it was to figure out the recipe.

If you've enjoyed the article, request a recipe or have a recipe to share or suggest a feature, please call 652-6032 or write Rt. 1, Box 67A, Deport, TX 75435.

Rabies Vaccinations Could Be Crucial This Year, Bring Your Pet To The Dip And Vaccination Clinic

Is your dog vaccinated for rabies? Does it scratch from fleas and ticks?

Now is the time to do something about it, as the Deport Community Service Club and Dr. Sam B. Kelsey hold their annual dog dip and rabies vaccination clinic.

This year's clinic will be held from 9 a.m. until noon on Saturday, June 8 at Dr. Kelsey's Veterinary Clinic, located just west of Deport on Hwy. 271.

This year might be a good time to give more thought to vaccinating a pet for rabies, as cases are being reported throughout the state.

The cost of the dip is $3, and the vaccination is $5. Both cost $8, and are a bargain at that price.

The Community Service Club and Dr. Kelsey sponsor this dip and vaccination clinic as a service to anyone in the area who wants to protect their pet, and people.

Everyone is welcome, so come take advantage of this one day only opportunity. Protection against rabies, fleas and ticks is important, and it's entertainment at it's best to watch the men dipping those often-unwilling dogs!

Apples, pears, plums, cherries, and almonds are all from the same family as the rose bush.

Treasure Your Time!

Have A Good Weekend

Talco-Bogata Employees Honored At Retirement Dinner

Mrs. Billie Garrison and Mrs. Glenda Corbell, retiring Talco-Bogata CSD employees, were honored with a retirement dinner on Saturday evening, May 25 at the Western Sizzlin Steakhouse in Mt. Pleasant.

Bro. Gary House began the evening's festivities with an opening prayer.

Mrs. Neva Oats led a sing-a-long of original music composed especially for the occasion. School life and activities were commemorated with various gag gifts and notes.

Special guests and speakers included Richard Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Fodge of Paris, Tommie Corbell, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Corbell, Melinda and Whitney of Mt. Pleasant, Mike Corbell and daughter Loren of Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Joe Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stubblefield.

Mrs. Garrison has been a teacher for 27 years for Talco-Bogata. She is retiring after serving 26 years in Texas schools.

Mrs. Corbell has worked for 22 years as a teacher's aide on the Bogata campus.

The honorees were presented with corsages, fresh flower bouquets, gold and diamond necklaces and personalized key chains denoting years of service. Concluding the program with a final tribute Neva Oats, Sandra Mauldin and Stacy Spencer sang "Wind Beneath My Wings".

Hosting occasion were Bogata faculty and personnel.

Becky White Receives ETBU Scholarship

Becky White of Bogata was the recipient of the Elizabeth Brice Be-thea Memorial Scholarship at the Honors Day Convocation held in Scarborough Chapel on the East Texas Baptist University campus in Marshall on May 17.

The Honors Day Convocation is held each spring prior to Commencement to honor those students named to the Dean's List, the Dean's List with Honors, the Alpha Chi, Phi Alpha Theta and Sigma Tau Delta initiates, students receiving special scholarships and awards and recognition of students who have been named to the Who's Who In Departments.

Glovers Honored At Family Luncheon

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Glover were honored recently at their home on Lake Palestine with a family luncheon. Hosts for the occasion were their son, daughter-in-law and granddaughter, Joe, Ann and Suzanne Glover from Tyler and Dallas. This was in commemoration of Joe's parents' fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Arnold Glover married Marjorie Wilkinson at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wilkinson in Bogata. Arnold retired from Exxon where he was a senior technician and Marjorie retired as senior vice-president and trust officer of Southside State Bank in Tyler.

Thirty family members attended from Abilene, Bogata, Dallas, Denver, Ft. Worth and Omaha.

A poem composed by Suzanne Glover, and framed in a gold and silver frame, was read and presented to her grandparents.

Camp Can Do Gives Local Church A New Look

Giving your child a few days at summer camp just got a lot easier, thanks to First Baptist Church, Talco.

"We've turned our building into a campsite," reported Ann Roberts, Director of "Camp Can Do," the church's Vacation Bible School program. "There's even a 'bear' wandering around here someplace."

The "bear", a puppet, is part of the free daily program for students ages two through teens. The program features Bible study, crafts, learning activities, music...and lots more fun.

Camp Can Do begins Monday, June 3 and ends Friday, June 7. Classes begin at 1 p.m. each day.

Gospel Sing Coming To Titus County

On Saturday, June 8, the Titus County Sheriff's Department will present the Wally Fowler World Class Gospel Sing at 7:30 p.m. at the Mt. Pleasant Civic Center.

Proceeds from the program will go to benefit the terminally ill patients of Cypress Basin Hospice.

Cypress Basin Hospice is a non-profit organization providing physical and emotional care to the terminally ill and their families of Camp, Franklin, Morris and Titus Counties.

This organization is a tremendous asset to the community and is in great need of financial support. Any citizens or businesses who wish to participate may call the Hospice office at 577-1510 for further information.

Keeping Healthy

Balanced Diet

A balanced diet lets you get enough of the nutrients you need by eating a variety of foods while avoiding extra calories, fat, sweeteners, sodium and alcohol.

To stay healthy, we need about 40 different nutrients. These include vitamins and minerals, amino acids from proteins, essential fatty acids from fats, and calories from carbohydrates, proteins and fats. Since no one food contains everything that we need, we must eat a wide variety of different types of foods each day.

For example, consider iron and vitamin C. Milk has very little iron or vitamin C, but it provides plenty of calcium and riboflavin. Meat provides iron, and fruits and vegetables provide vitamin C.

Fruits and vegetables are excellent sources of vitamins, especially vitamins A and C. Whole grain and enriched breads, cereals and grain products provide B vitamins, iron and energy. Meats are sources of protein, fat, iron and other minerals, as well as several vitamins. Dairy products are major sources of calcium, riboflavin and other nutrients. Fit them all together to get the nutrients you need each day.

BEST WISHES, Class of 91

Good Luck

May you all find success in your chosen fields of endeavor.

Cuthand Blues

By Jimmy Lee

"Home". I doubt that any word, in any language, holds more emotion than that one. Although I moved to Missouri at a young age, I still consider Cuthand home. Mother, born Allie Dee White, knew how I felt and saw to it that I got to spend my summers in Cuthand. Some of my fondest memories are of my grandfather, Rufus White, known by all of us as Papa. I swore to try to be as much like him as I could. To my everlasting sorrow, I never even came close.

Several of my relatives have gone on but still live in my mind. Fred White, uncle and friend. Whenever I am troubled and depressed by the ups and downs we all suffer in this old life, the perfect antidote is always to summon up the memory of Fred grinning and joking and the black clouds are swept away. Otha White, a man who loved people and understood them as no professor at any university could ever hope to. Warren White, a man who proudly served his country for three decades and when he retired, did what I long to do...moved to Cuthand!

My aunt Rosie, despite living a hard life, was always willing to help. I still fondly remember a time when I was in the Army, out in the field, cold and miserable when mail call came around and with it a birthday card with money from Rosie.

Then there was uncle Johnny who I never got to spend much time with, but when he arrived on one of his infrequent visits he managed to brighten up everybody's life for a few hours.

Three of my cousins, Sammy Mays, Gary White and Morris White were taken from us at much too young an age and I think of them all.

Whenever I get to brooding about how many of my family that has passed on I remember how many are still with us.

Aunt Ruthie, a lady whose love for children and people in general is only, and could only be, matched by those who love her. Her husband, Samuel, is a man about whom other men say "I'd like to be like him". Few are! A good man, a good friend and a man I have always been proud to call Uncle.

Dorothy White, known to everybody as Mutt, is a lady who, when someone is troubled, sick or injured, Mutt is there to help.

There is a lot of pain and suffering in this old world but I sometimes ponder how much worse things would be if there weren't people like Mutt walking among us.

My aunt Marie, whose Sunday dinners are legendary, used to take care of me when I was little. I believe that good lady, to this day, still worries about me. Seeing her bright smile has chased many a blue cloud for me and I love her even more for that.

Uncle Gene White is one of a kind. An original, and I have never seen nor heard tell about anybody quite like him. He loves his family, has borne more than his share of tragedy, and loves life. Just thinking about Gene makes me smile and seeing him is always a treat. His lovely wife, Lily, a lady I'm tickled to call my aunt, is one of those people who can make you feel good by just being around them.

My dear Aunt Helen, she has comforted me, sympathized with me and made me laugh since back in the days when I carried a slingshot in my pocket. The years have neither slowed her down nor dulled her tongue, a blessing for all of us who admire and appreciate plain talking and honestly given opinions. She is a jewel that I will always treasure.

My Aunt Margaret who came to Cuthand from a far off land and earned the respect and affection of those around her. Those who know her are aware that her gruff exterior hides a good heart.

As for my cousins there are truly too many to mention for fear of slighting one of them. That might result in me missing out on a free meal on my next visit. There are times, more frequent of late, when I travel the winding, dusty roads of memory that take me back to Cuthand. Despite my best efforts over the years I have not been able to move back home to Cuthand but maybe home is more than a place. I believe it is and I have that home in my memories...and in my heart.

THE TALCO TIMES

Country Grocery Stores Are Almost Gone

By Nanalee Nichols

Kisner's and Joe Ford's Grocery are gone from Bogata. Edgar Rodgers and Otis Westbrook's establishments have vanished from the streets of Bogata.

The Taylortown Store is no more, and the stores at Milton and Minter don't exist except in the memories of older residents.

The one that sold so much sugar and corn at Sugar Hill, near Talco, is a thing of the past.

Rugby's store is now a lawn mower repair service. Fulbright was one of the last to go...but is now locked and vacant.

It seems that soon the old fashioned country grocery store will be as rare as a glass topped gas pump or two row tractor rig.

In many cases these homely little establishments have been replaced by more modern stores, often on the same location. Such is the case with Jim's Country Corner near Cuthand. It was destroyed by fire, and a clean, new building took its place.

All too often, though, in an age of super markets and increased mobility, the country store has simply "bitten the dust" and belongs to a by gone era.

The country store was generally located at the crossroads of a town.

It usually consisted of one long, narrow room, with a tacked-on feed room to the side, and often a set of gas pumps out front.

The porch would harbor a bench or two and the elderly men of the town could usually be found sitting there, telling tales, whittling and generally keeping an eye on the progress of their town.

When a customer entered the double doors the screen door slammed an arrival announcement. Those screens frequently had an advertisement for bread or soda pop emblazoned on them.

The interior was dark, and felt cool in the summer. A pot bellied wood stove kept the front porch crowd happy in bitter weather.

Those stores catered to folks wanting basics like flour and sugar, salt and bacon, milk or butter.

There were few frills to be found. No fresh mushrooms or artichokes ever found their way to those emporiums!

But feeding a large family was easy as a farmer's charge account was totted up in a little book, to be paid off when the "crops come in".

Inside the proprietor or his wife would give hearty greeting to their customers.

Few strangers would appear in that dim chamber...and those didn't remain strangers for long.

The fixtures of a country grocery now can be found in antique stores fetching handsome sums of money.

Coke boxes that held their glass bottles suspended in a bath of icy water, tobacco plug cutters and signs advertising Ivory soap or Gladiola flour have all become collector's items now.

Shelves were of painted or plain wood, and prices were hand printed onto the can or package.

At the back huge sacks of flour, sewn up in calico prints that were used to make uncountable dresses, quilts and shirts gave the whole store a faintly dusty odor.

Eggs were frequently be purchased from a local grower, as was sorghum syrup, honey and fresh produce. Slanted bins held fresh bundles of onions, greens or tomatoes, while underneath tilted bushel baskets held red and white potatoes, sweet potatoes and beans.

Human nutrition wasn't the only kind that could be obtained at a country store, either.

There would be scratchy burlap bags of horse and mule feed, hen scratch and hog mash. Those bags would bear portraits of truly amazing, prize-winning animals on the side.

Medicinal needs, too, were met with Lydia Pinkham's, Carter's Little Liver Pills and other patent remedies lining the shelves.

For children there was always a special section...the candy section.

In an era where candy was a real treat, those glass jars filled with everything from peppermint to chocolate possessed an irresistible appeal.

Often the store served as the post office too. The post master would be one or the other of the husband and wife team running the store.

The post office was a small room with a lockable door, and a request for mail pickup or stamps would result in the grocer removing their apron and stepping "next door" into the post office to fill their customer's needs.

That extra postal money came in handy to store proprietors who were all too often plagued with more credit business than cash.

After a bad crop year it was difficult to cut off credit to a family with several small children. So the understanding proprietor kept right on carrying the family until times "got better".

Country stores are few and far between now. Cunningham still has one that contains a post office!

So do a few other places. But, like full service gas stations and soda fountains in drug stores, there are only a few left.

And perhaps it is that scarcity that makes them worth noticing and remembering.

By their very rarity they have become something worth noting.

They Work!!

Familiar Faces

...By Denise Wood

When Dr. Robert White graduated in June, 1989, from Baylor Dental School, he could have begun his practice anywhere. Of all the places Dr. White could have gone, he knew the only place for him was Bogata. His dream could not have become reality without the help of his mentor, or as we know him, our own town dentist, Dr. Jack Troutt. Dr. Troutt gave Dr. White the encouragement that no one else could have.

Almost everyone who has lived in the Bogata area in the last 20-something years, has known Dr. White. He was an active Boy Scout, who eventually became an Eagle Scout. He was also in the Rivercrest marching band as a trumpet player, an enjoyment that he still practices today. It's not hard to imagine that the same boy of that time, being the successful dentist he is today.

The reason Dr. White decided to become a dentist is for his love of helping people. His philosophy is that the more he helps people, the more it helps him. But Dr. White does more than that. Since 1985, he and a group of other dentists travel to Matamoros, Mexico to aid the natives in dental care. The care is entirely free for the natives and the experience is overwhelming. Together with the help of a Baptist mission, the dentists are able to give people the medical attention they might not be offered. Even though last year Dr. White was unable to make the trip, he plans to make it possible this year and every year after.

One of the most disturbing parts in his field of medicine is he sees children who are neglected. Dental care plays an important role in a person's health and Dr. White hates to see innocent children in pain from the cause of neglect.

Outside of his career, Dr. White has several other roles which he plays just as well. In July, he and his wife, Brenda, will have been married for one year. They are members of the First Baptist Church in Paris. Dr. White is also an active member in the Bogata Lions Club. His hobbies of fishing, hunting, swimming and yard work keep him more than occupied.

Dr. White's career is very important to him. His practice and his patients mean a lot to him. He plans to continue his education in dental care by taking seminars at least every two months and his main goal is just serving the people in the best possible way. You can be assured that Dr. White will be there if you need him because he's planning on staying in Bogata forever. What more could you ask?

THE YOUNG BOY who left Bogata and returned as a successful dentist, Dr. Robert White
