COUNTY TRUCKMEN COMBINE AND PURCHASE BUILDING FOR FREIGHT DEPOT TERMINAL

Kimble County Asks State Aid Noxville Road

A group of Kimble County officials and Junction business men consisting of Commissioner H. W. Bierschwale, C. T. Holekamp, E. V. Stewart and Emil A. Loeffler, went to Harper Friday morning, March 7, for the purpose of meeting Representative Coke R. Stevenson and State Highway Engineer Gibb Gilchrist who were supposed to have come out from Austin to inspect the new Noxville road, preparatory to taking it over for maintenance by the State Representative Stevenson and Gilchrist were detained and the inspection was postponed. However local citizens are still working to get State maintenance on the new road.

Road authorities, after traveling over the road built by Kimble County men with Kimble County machinery, say that it is good substantial work done at a low cost per mile. With approximately $30,000 they have built twenty-five miles of good roads over one of the most rugged sections of Texas.

Contractor Will Move to Junction

E. D. Combs of San Antonio has become a construction partner with Luther H. Hill and the firm will be known as Hill & Combs, general contractors, according to Mr. Hill. Mr. Combs will come to Junction next week.

For the past six years he has been construction superintendent for one of the largest construction companies in Texas. He is well known in construction circles and has had charge of several large jobs in this section. He is finishing up a $45,000 school job in San Antonio this week.

Mr. Combs will personally superintend the construction of the Paterson home which is being built on the Paterson and Rieck ranch near Roosevelt. He will make his home in Junction.

ONE ACT PLAY WILL BE PRESENTED TONIGHT

"Pink and Patches," the one act play that will be sent from Schreiner High School to the Interscholastic League Play contest in Brownwood Saturday, will be produced at the Texan Theater Thursday evening. It is a folk play of the North Carolina mountains, full of human nature, with smiles and tears closely blended. The character-society is exceptionally well handled.

Christine Schraub will appear as Texie, the little mountain girl, just waking to a realization of the beautiful. M. C. Blackburn plays Rexie, the brother of Texie, who is not disturbed by any new ideas. Sarah Schneider is cast in the role of the mother of the preceding two, hard worked and weary but still full of interest and energy. Kaleta Taylor will appear as the society woman from the neighboring resort hotel who has unconsciously awakened Texie to a realization of another world.

The play is being given in Junction to raise money to send it to the Brownwood contest. Home people should see it in order to know what is going to represent them in the Interscholastic League.

Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Skaggs and children of San Antonio, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Skaggs. They were accompanied home by Mrs. N. H. Skaggs.

E. V. Stewart is Named General Manager New Concern

The Kimble County truck owners with Class "A" Permits organized a company last week and purchased the skating rink property for a freight depot and will be known as the Kimble County Motor Freight Depot.

Since the new law became effective on the 15th day of June, 1929, requiring all operators running under Class "A" Permits to have a fixed terminal, there has been a growing urge from the public to have a central depot where any truck line could be reached during all business hours. Although the matter of buying property upon which a depot could be located has temporarily placed a burden on the truck owner, it is unquestionably a move that will greatly benefit the public.

Mr. E. V. Stewart, who is well known in this county, has resigned his office as Secretary of the Kimble County Chamber of Commerce, and will be the new manager of the freight depot. He will be at the freight office during all business hours. He is familiar with local conditions, and will make the new company a good manager.

The Kimble County Motor Freight Depot is owned by Kindrick Produce Company, West Texas Transfer Garage, Ponton Truck Lines and Martin-Baker Truck Lines, and it is understood the Glossbrenner Truck Lines will acquire an interest just as soon as Earl Glossbrenner returns from California.

It is further understood that any truck man in the county will be permitted to use this depot by complying with the rules promulgated by those who own the company.

It will further be the purpose of the truck men to initiate a system of road courtesy and freight service that will be better than has been heretofore rendered, and any complaint which comes to them of any of their lines, or any driver of any truck, will be given immediate attention, and every effort will be made to reconcile the situation.

Work is Started on New Filling Station

Contract for the new filling station of the Humble Oil Company which will be built in Junction, was let to Hill & Combs, general contractors, Junction, Texas. The new station, when completed, will cost approximately $9,000. It will be constructed on the corner of Main and Sealey Streets.

France Bros. were awarded the stucco contract; Junction Sheet Metal Works was awarded the sheet metal and roofing contract; Roy Reynolds, the electrical contract and Blackburn Plumbing and Electrical Shop was awarded the plumbing contract.

According to Luther H. Hill, the station will be completed by May 1st. Brick, stucco and ornamental tile will be used in the construction. The station will have a copper roof.

FRIGIDAIRE WATER COOLING SYSTEM TO BE INSTALLED FOR NEW COURT HOUSE

A frigidaire water cooling system will be installed in the new Kimble County Court House. The Commissioners' Court has ordered this system installed. The machinery will be purchased by the West Texas Utilities Company.

STRUCTURAL STEEL FOR COURT HOUSE IS BEING ERECTED

More than twelve tons of structural steel were raised to the second floor of the Kimble County court house Tuesday and Wednesday to be used in the ceiling of the district court room.

When completed the district court room will embody more than 2,632 square feet of floor space which will be covered by a suspended ceiling. No columns or posts will be used to support the ceiling. Riveting of the steel trusses was begun Wednesday afternoon.

Emil A. Loeffler Makes Address To Rotary Club

Emil A. Loeffler was the principal speaker at the Rotary luncheon last week and he delivered one of his optimistic talks so characteristic of him. The first part of his address concerned the accomplishments during the past months and he closed with the needs of Junction and Kimble County.

Among the accomplishments were mentioned the paving of Main Street, golf course, water system, sewer system, street lights, modern fire department, good hospital, new church buildings, handsome residences, new court house, ice plant, ice cream factory, modern dairy, securing West Texas Utilities Company, improvement of roads, including the new Noxville road, and securing county agent. Mr. Loeffler enlarged on the importance of many of these accomplishments.

Several needs were mentioned in his address including the following:

An air port, mountain drives, irrigation dams, street paving, school building, city parks, additional street lights, importance of sewer connections, more trees in city, paint-up campaign, a more beautiful and cleaner Junction, keep undesirable campers out of city limits, co-operate with our neighbors in boosting the Hill Country, eliminate the dust nuisance.

Mr. Loeffler's address was enjoyed by the Rotarians and it is hoped that our citizenship appreciate the many things already accomplished and co-operate fully with the chamber of commerce and all civic clubs in solving the needs.

Tax Rate For Junction For 1931 Will Remain Same As This Year

Spring Clean-up Drive Commences This Week

Considering the natural beauty of Junction's location and realizing the possibilities of civic improvements, the Parent-Teachers' Association of Junction and the Kimble County Chamber of Commerce are trying to interest and encourage the citizens in the beautification of lawns and premises, stated Mrs. H. G. Hubert, who is chairman of the clean-up campaign committee.

$40 in Prizes
A Yard Beautiful Contest has been planned by the committee and forty dollars in cash prizes will be given to the winners. The contest will be conducted along the same lines as the contest last year was conducted. A committee of non-residents will be named as judges and the awards will be made during the height of the flower season, which will be before June 15. In addition to cash prizes the Ramsey Nursery of Austin will give $15 worth of nursery stock to the winners.

Special attention is called to the class of yards in which the prettiest variety of flowers will be considered. In this class, the committee considered renters who would probably not care to go into permanent planting of trees and shrubs, but could afford to plant flowers that last one season.

List of Prizes
The list of prizes and qualifications are given below:
Most beautiful yard.....$10.00
2nd beautiful yard..... 5.00
3rd beautiful yard..... 2.50
Most beautiful yard surrounding public building..... 5.00
Yard with prettiest variety of flowers..... 5.00
Cleanest yard..... 5.00
Yard showing greatest improvement over last year..... 5.00

Announcement of other prizes will be made in a week or two. The committee in charge of these arrangements is composed of: Mrs. H. G. Hubert, chairman, Mesdames Robert Loeffler, Robert Massie, W. P. Riley and Clay Secrest.

Everyone is urged to start now towards the beautification of their grounds. Those that start early will have a better chance of winning one of the awards. This paper will promote the campaign from start to finish.

Flying Kites Near High Voltage Wires Dangerous Pastime

In an address before the student body of the Junction Public Schools Thursday morning, Mr. V. P. Emmons pointed out the danger of flying kites over high voltage electric lines. Last week a burned kite was brought to the offices of the West Texas Utilities Company by Mayor T. B. Phillips. It was stated that small copper wire was used in flying the kite.

Mr. Emmons stressed the danger of these wires or strings coming in contact with the high voltage wires. He gave examples of boys being killed in this manner.

Mr. Emmons stated that should anyone get a kite lodged on the wires, call the West Texas office and men would be sent to recover the kite without charge to the boy. This measure is being taken to protect the

Lions Club Plans To Erect Foot Walk Across 700 Springs

At the regular meeting of the Lions Club Wednesday noon, the club discussed plans of the erection of a foot-bridge across the Llano at Seven Hundred Springs.

A committee composed of Messrs. J. A. Heyman and B. L. Smith was appointed to study the matter and secure permission from the parties interested to construct this bridge. As the situation now is, it is impossible to cross the river to see the springs without getting wet.

This will be a great aid to tourists as well as local people. There were twenty-two present at the luncheon Wednesday. The following visitors were present: Messrs. Walter Buck, H. G. Hubert, A. G. Farmer and John Ralson.

Sun Bathes Grave of Taft After Funeral Procession Reaches Cemetery

While the American flag hung at half mast on the court yard grounds of Kimble County Tuesday afternoon, the body of William Howard Taft was lowered into a grave in Arlington National Cemetery in Washington.

Amid solemn ceremonies and in the presence of notables from all over the world, the funeral services were conducted. Quoting from an Associated Press dispatch, one writer described the interment as "Under rain-sodden soil of wooded glade, lonely in its peace and isolation, William Howard Taft lay Tuesday night, the long, eventful story of his mortal journey ended. At his feet, a dozen yards away down the gently sloping hillside, towers an ancient and mighty oak. Through its lifeless limbs, thrilling now with the stir of coming of spring, the far lights of Washington gleam dimly towards restful Sylvan Nook in Arlington National Cemetery where he sleeps in eternal fellowship with other great dead.

"A shaft of yellow sunshine poured its benediction upon the dripping canvas tent above that hillside grave. It bathed in beauty the great mound of dripping blossoms there beside the grave. It peered in beneath the canvas to cast its beneficent spell upon the weeping widow, bowed over the slowly lowered casket in their last farewell."

It was just such a day in the Arlington Cemetery when the unknown soldier was buried. Flurries of rain fell in the morning, and the sun shone in the afternoon when the unknown soldier was honored by America.

The death of Taft closed the mortal career of a distinguished man of a distinguished family. Taft ascended to the two highest positions this democracy of ours permits a man to rise, namely the presidential office and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. His name will hold a high place in the history of the United States.

Junction District Rate To Remain Same As Last Year

As a result of an executive meeting of the Commissioners' Court Tuesday, County Judge J. B. Randolph was authorized by the Court to announce the tax rate for Kimble County which will be levied in May, 1930, for the year of 1931. The rate in the Junction district will be the same as last year and in the county there will be only a two cent increase on the hundred dollars valuation, according to Judge J. B. Randolph in an interview Wednesday afternoon.

In a Nutshell

The tax situation in a nutshell is that the building of the Kimble County Court House will cause an increase of about fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property in the county. The Court will reduce the third class fund tax from twenty-five cents to twenty cents. The Court will reduce the road bond tax for the county from thirty cents to twenty-five cents, and the jury fund tax will be reduced from six cents to three cents, making a total of thirteen cents reduction on the one hundred dollars valuation. The result is the thirteen cents saved against the extra levy of fifteen cents for the court house will show an increase of only two cents on the hundred dollars valuation in the county. The thirteen cents tax levied on the Junction road district will be reduced to eleven cents, a saving of two cents there, which will result in the taxes being the same in the Junction district as it was last year.

Permanent Arrangement

This arrangement of taxes is not temporary but is permanent, stated Judge Randolph. The above statements explain the tax situation in this county for the ensuing years.

E. V. Stewart Resigns As Secretary C. of C.

E. V. Stewart, who has served as secretary of the Kimble County Chamber of Commerce for ten months, tendered his resignation last Saturday.

He will serve as manager of the Kimble County Freight depot, assuming those duties next Monday morning.

Mr. Stewart worked diligently while in the office as secretary and the Chamber of Commerce accomplished many worthy undertakings during his tenure in office. He stated that he enjoyed the work, but considered it wise to make the change.

A secretary to take Mr. Stewart's place has not been secured, and no definite plans have been made as yet.

When Mr. Stewart assumed the duties in the office on May 14, 1929, there was in the treasury $364.55. When he resigned the treasury had $391.77 in cash and $297.15 worth of seed, making a total of $688.92.

More than $7,000 was spent towards the advancement of Kimble County in the ten months which Stewart held the office as secretary.

SIMMONS COWBOY BAND GIVES CONCERT HERE

The Simmons Cowboy Band, under the direction of Mr. D. O. Wiley, gave a concert in the high school auditorium last Thursday evening. Only a fair crowd was out to hear the concert, but those attending said the program was a good one.

The band was brought here under the auspices of the athletic association of the Junction High School.

GR. MASTER ANNOUNCES PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

San Francisco, Cal.—The week commencing with the twenty-first day of April, 1930, has been proclaimed as Public Schools Week for Masonic lodges under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of California, by Charles M. Wollenberg, Grand Master.

He requests that during this week, in every community in California and the Territory of Hawaii where there exists a lodge of Masons, there be held at least one public meeting or gathering through which the attention of the people may be focused on the public schools.

Public Schools Week in California was originated by the Masonic Fraternity. Since its inception it has attracted many other civic organizations to the support of the program and has become very beneficial in calling the attention of the people of the state to the needs of the public schools.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

President Hoover was a stenographer and as a result a business course in a business college gave to the Nation its first great head.

Herbert Hoover's father and mother died when he was about ten years old and it became necessary for him to think and act for himself, with the help of a very good friend of the family.

When Herbert was fifteen years old his guardian filed a report with the court in which he said, "Herbert wishes to purchase a scholarship in the Capital Business College, Salem, Oregon. I think it would be best for him to have the scholarship and I ask for authority to purchase it."

August 21, 1891, Herbert finished his business course, having earned all his expenses throughout his school course with the single exception of his tuition.

Young Hoover was ambitious and having finished the business school he felt that he could finance an engineering course at Leland Stanford University, which he did with the aid of his knowledge of shorthand and typing. It is stated that he secured his position in a competition with fifty other college boys because of his business training. His employment was in the office of Louis Hanin, a distinguished mining engineer.

In this office Hoover secured invaluable experience through which he laid the foundation for his outstanding success in the engineering field.

Nobody knows exactly the extent to which President Hoover's business education contributed to his success as an engineer, as a great organizer in the relief field, and as a great president—but it is apparent to the American public that President Hoover is essentially a business man—that his business education made a greater impress upon his thinking and his career than did his university education—and to this may be added in all frankness, we think, the fact that without his business school training Herbert Hoover would probably have been unable to pay his way through the university. High school students when they graduate should consider seriously the importance of a business education. Business has the scientific advantage of grounding the student in accuracy, thoroughness, industry and method. Only recently Henry Ford said, "I studied bookkeeping in a business school and it taught me method." If business education and the business field have opened up such great opportunities to the men and women of an earlier generation is it not fair to believe that they will present to you the same, or even greater opportunities?

Award of a beautiful bronze plaque has been made to the Loeffler Motor Co. by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., of Akron, in recognition of the 10 years of friendly relations with the Ohio Company.

The plaque was accompanied by a letter from P. W. Litchfield, president of the Goodyear Company, expressing his appreciation of Mr. Loeffler's loyal representation of his concern as one of its dealers.

The name of Loeffler Motor Co. and Goodyear Tire Co. both appear in unraised letters upon the bottom of the plaque. Various vehicles of transportation, including the private automobile, bus, truck, railroad train, steamboat, airplane and Zeppelin, are portrayed in bas-relief.

In the background looms the main plant of Goodyear's home factory at Akron and the huge Zeppelin factory and dock which was completed recently on Akron's Municipal airport.

In the center foreground appears a Goodyear All-Leather Tread auto tire which encircles the flag of the Goodyear Co.

The picture symbolizes the advancement of transportation facilities being stimulated by the co-operative efforts of the vast Goodyear organization and the Loeffler Motor Co.

TWO ECLIPSES TO BE VISIBLE IN UNITED STATES IN APRIL

Austin.—Four eclipses, only two of which will be visible in North America, are scheduled for 1930. Dr. Paul M. Batchelder, adjunct professor of pure mathematics at the University of Texas, has announced. There will be two eclipses of the moon and two of the sun.

The first eclipse will occur April 13 when the moon will be partially shadowed. This will be visible both in North and South America. A central eclipse of the sun is scheduled for April 28 and may be seen in the northern part of the United States and Canada. The first part of this eclipse will be total and the latter part annular.

The other eclipses will occur in October. The first, October 7, will be an eclipse of the moon and will be visible only in Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia. An eclipse of the sun is scheduled for October 21 and 22. The total path will cross the Pacific Ocean, touching a few small islands, and will end in the southern portion of South America. Its visibility will be confined to the eastern part of Australia, West Guinea and the southern part of South America.

WE FAIL

When we lose interest in everything except ourselves.
When we are too busy to smile.
When we value a dollar more than self-respect.
When we forget how to play.
When we forge ahead on the shoulders of other people.
When we cease to spread a bit of happiness through the working hours of a day.
When we put principle beneath our feet.
When we take advantage of the mentally weak.
When we let false pride interfere with our upward progress.
When we covet our neighbor's possessions.
When we let selfishness rule our hearts.

HOW TO BE HAPPY

Everybody wants to be happy. But not everybody knows or can find the path of true pleasure.

Perhaps many are unwilling to pay the price.

Certainly there are rules which must be followed before one can reach the heights of joy. One recent writer, for instance, mentions three which are certainly worth while. Try them:

Live in the present.
Love and serve others.
Look on the bright side of things.

Moir: He told me he could live on my kiss forever.
May: Are you going to let him?
Moir: Not till I find out what I'm going to live on.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION

Since it is not our custom to discontinue the Junction Eagle on the expiration date, we ask that our subscribers watch the date on their paper and if it is not wanted after date of expiration, please notify us so that your name can be taken off the list. Many have thanked us for keeping their name on the list after the time was out, but a few, and we are glad to say the number is few, have taken the paper out of the office for months and on receiving a statement write saying that they did not want the paper after their time was out. If any one does not want to take the trouble of writing us just tell the postmaster that you do not want it and he will notify us. Be fair with us and if you do not want the Eagle do not take it out of the office for months and then refuse to pay for it.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Bids will be received by the County Commissioners' Court of Kimble County, Texas, at the Court House in Junction, Texas, until 12 o'clock, noon, April 14, 1930, for the furnishing and installation of all furniture required in the new court house building according to plans and specifications on file in the office of the County Clerk at Junction, Texas.

Each bid is to be accompanied by a certified check for five (5%) per cent of amount bid, as evidence of good faith, and to be forfeited to said County in the event contract is awarded to any bidder and he fails to sign contract and make bond, as and for liquidated damages. A deposit of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars will be required from each contractor to secure plans.

Each bidder is to have the privilege of submitting bids on plans and specifications furnished by himself. The Commissioners' Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids on any and all plans.

All bids should be addressed to the County Clerk of Kimble County and marked Court House furniture bids.

Washington.—Nearly 500,000 persons have indicated their preference for the wild rose as the National flower.

The American Nature Association announced today that 1,067,676 votes had been cast in its ballot for a National flower and that the wild rose had received 492,811 votes, the columbine, 261,451.

RED HEADED STUDENTS PROUD OF FLAMING TOPS

Fort Worth.—Red-headed students at Texas Christian University are proud of their "sorrel tops" they told a reporter who conducted an investigation for the Skiff, student newspaper.

They resent, however, the widespread belief that red-headed persons have more temper than the ordinary individual.

"If there is anything at all to this idea of temper and red hair, it is because people over-tax the patience of those who are red-headed and make them fussy and quick-tempered," said R. L. "Red" Moore, football star from Graham.

"I do believe, however, that red-headed persons are more impulsive than other types," said Miss Virginia Lou Saunders of McKinney.

Miss Elizabeth Ruff of Brownsville assumed a fatalistic attitude. "I have red hair; I couldn't help it, so I guess I like it," was her comment.

"I don't like red hair because all my life I have wanted to be a typical brunette, with black hair and black eyes," commented Miss Louise Montgomery of Fort Stockton.

"Sure, I've been teased about my red hair," said Miss Frances Veale of Breckenridge. "But when I quit getting mad, people quit teasing me!"

LONDON LOCALS

A number of our young people attended the Fat Stock Show at Brady and Mason on the 5th. Our club boys enjoyed the day and report a fine time.

Mr. C. E. Lambert informs us he has sold eleven year-old steers at the price of $45 each. This is no bad price, in fact it is a good price for yearlings, but Mr. Lambert has extra good animals.

We appreciate the introductory address of Mr. Swinney in last week's London Graphic. We believe a man of Mr. Swinney's age and experience, governed by the principles laid down in his address will be able to give us a real good newspaper. Let's all back him up and give him the encouragement he needs to make a go of it.

J. S. Goodman was a pleasant caller.

Mr. T. J. Horn and son, Howard, shipped their fat lambs last week. Haven't heard how they came out with them.

Mr. Maass and family have moved into the W. L. Amson residence. Mr. Maass represents the Rawleigh goods.

M. M. Nelson was in town Saturday. Mart looks well again and we are glad to note this fact.

W. L. Amson is up and going again after several days confinement last week. We can't get along well without Bill.

Our farmers and ranchmen are all praying for rain. They need it on farms, gardens and pastures.

The news came over the wire Saturday that Mrs. O. L. McKinney, mother of our friend, R. L. McKinney, was very ill. She lives at Abilene. R. L. went to her Sunday. Monday the sad news was received that she had passed away. Mrs. R. L. McKinney and children left at once for Abilene.

The unemployed seem to be giving trouble all over the world. This fact appears to indicate the Russian-Soviet government may have something to do with it. Don't see how a financial crash in Wall Street would affect other nations, but if true, as many charge that the Russian government is able to attend to their own business and all the balance of the world she must be handling her Reds well, or in other words there must be a great co-operation between the government and all the people in our country the people are in sympathy and willing to co-operate with our President except our Congress. It appears that he is unable to get Congress to do anything except play politics. You know anyone can play politics. Yes, partisan politics is the easiest game played. I know anything about, but, it requires a man to reach a position far above partisan politics before he reaches a degree of statesmanship. A statesman will stand for the thing that will be best for his country regardless of the party that brings them forward. Great men have in all ages followed this rule and great men will continue to follow the same rule.

IVY ECHOES

Mrs. H. H. Kane and daughters, Louise and LaNell, and little son, Prestage, and Hazel Herring and little children and Miss Ila Mae Hight visited Mrs. Kane's sister, Mrs. C. Freese, at Sonora Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. J. W. Coffey of Devil's River, Mr. Allen Hull, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Walker and son, Emory, of Junction, and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hight and children and Mr. Henry Grobe visited Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Walker and family Sunday.

Leslie and R. V. Hight rounded up goats for Mrs. Ray Amberson Sunday.

Misses Ila Mae Hight and Louise Kane and Messrs. Marion Hight, Albert Smitherman and Charley Andrews of Yates went to London on business Saturday.

Miss Blix Smith was absent from school Monday.

Miss Louise Kane is staying with Miss Ila Mae Hight this week, and she is going to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Amberson and daughter, Bonnie Ray, went to Del Rio Wednesday on business. They also went to Villa Acuna, Mexico. A good time was reported.

Mrs. Orlan Stewart and little daughter spent Saturday night with Mrs. Henrietta Gephart.

Joe Bailey Grobe visited Earl Walker Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reynolds' daughter of Rocksprings spent Saturday night and Sunday with them.

Mrs. Ray Amberson and Bonnie Ray visited Mrs. G. M. Hight late Saturday afternoon.

The Tea Cup school boys came over Friday afternoon and played a game of base ball. The score was 16 to 27 in favor of Tea Cup.

School still moves with a vim, and we are striving to add, each day, some valuable facts to our mental store house.

Expressions current among our pupils: Elvis—"I can't do this, bo." Bonnie Ray—"I studied till I put my eyes out."

Lester—"I had rather vault than to translate Latin."

Elmer—"Oh, I don't want to do that."

Eddie—"I hope I pass this year."

Irene—"Why should we not all enjoy our work."

Ben—"My hobby is basket ball."

Johnnie—I think I can. Ila Mae—I don't want to spill at the County Meet.
Susie—I don't like to study U. S. History.
Motto for this week: "Finish what you attempt."

HUGE ROAD BRICKS
Huge bricks, 20 feet long, five feet wide and eight inches thick, are advocated by Pennsylvania State College as a new building material for roads. Use of these bricks would enable faster and better construction of roads, college officials report.

R. B. MOORE IN RACE COMMISSIONER No. 4

Mr. R. B. Moore of Noxville called Friday and authorized the Eagle to place his name in the announcement column as a candidate for Commissioner of Precinct No. 4, subject to the action of the Democratic primary July 26, 1930. Mr. Moore is one of the old timers in the precinct and he is known as an honest, capable and successful citizen of his precinct.

He issues the following statement:

After much persuasion on the part of my friends, I have consented to make the race for County Commissioner of Precinct No. 4 in Kimble County. I have spent a good part of my life in this county, and think I fully understand the needs of the people, and having served as Commissioner four years in Gillespie County, I think I am qualified to serve the people of Kimble in a fair and efficient way. I announce subject to the action of the Democratic primary to be held in July. Your support and influence will be appreciated.

Respectfully,
R. B. Moore.

MRS. HATTIE McKINNEY

A call to rest came to Sister Hattie McKinney of Abilene, Texas, Monday morning at 9 o'clock. She was born March 11th, 1865, in Cherokee County, Texas, and was married to O. L. McKinney October 1, 1882, in Mills County, Texas. Twelve children were given to this union. She leaves her husband and nine living children, which are R. L. McKinney, London; Mrs. Ollie Baker of O'Donnell; Mrs. Allie Nelson and Ulpin McKinney of Brownfield; Bill McKinney of Corona, California; Mrs. Myrtle Big Springs; Mrs. Anna Davis of Eldorado; Mrs. Maud Tedford, McCreary.

She was converted some 29 years ago. She was a kind and affectionate mother and a loving wife. To know her was to love her. She took special delight in all religious work. She was very zealous for God, desiring to see others saved. She has been working in the holiness move for about 20 years, devoting most of her time to that work.

She has lived in and around Abilene for the past six years. She bore her illness with all Christian patience. She said she was ready and wanted to go home to rest and her last request was that her children meet her in Heaven. What a great reunion that will be with all of them around her in the glory world. We feel we have lost one of our best workers but feel like our loss was heaven's gain, so that makes us want to sing "Heaven holds all to me."

Dear loved ones left behind, give your life to Him that doeth all things well, and live for Him so that when you have come to the last you can hear Him say "Come ye blessed of my Father, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

Written by a friend and brother in Jesus' name, Louis Pearl.

JOHN WRIGHT KILLED NEAR MASON SUNDAY

John Wright, about 35 years of age, prominent McCulloch County citizen, was shot and instantly killed at about 7:15 Sunday night on the Mason highway at the edge of the city limits. Immediately following the shooting, Arthur Laughlin gave himself up to local officers and was remanded to the county jail where he is being held pending examining trial. Two bullets from a .32-caliber automatic pistol, shot at close range, took effect, one wound being in the right side of the chest, the bullet going clear through the body, while the second wound was in the right side of the neck, the bullet ranging downward and toward the heart. Wright was found by local officers lying off to the side of the highway a few feet. Complaint charging murder was filed against Laughlin Monday morning by Sheriff Love Kimbrough.

MISS NELLIE BENNETT ENTERTAINS JUNIORS

Saturday evening witnessed a delightful banquet given by Miss Nellie Bennett at her ranch home, honoring the Junior class of the Schreiner High School of which she is sponsor. The table was particularly attractive in its gleaming silver and linens and the pink roses and pink tapers in attractive holders gave it a gay, festive air.

A four course dinner consisting of a fruit cocktail, baked turkey, dressing, creamed carrots, creamed peas in potato rings, a vegetable salad, rolls, ice cream, cake and demi-tasse. Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Bob Ragsdale presided over the kitchen as graciously and efficiently as Miss Bennett did over the dinner table.

Between courses the guests were entertained with the following numbers: A toast to the Juniors by Mrs. Joe Felps, a response by Raymond James, president of the class, a song by Mrs. R. H. Brison, a reading by Miss Pairalee Linn, a piano solo by Mrs. Astor Wallace, a reading by Miss Mary Ellis Blackburn, and a song by the guests.

Those enjoying Miss Bennett's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brison, Mr. and Mrs. Astor Wallace, Mrs. Joe Felps, Mrs. Margaret Dutton, Misses Mary Ellis Blackburn, Muriel Warren, Lucille Motley, Marie Dechert, Ella Simon, Louise King, Pairalee Linn, Messrs. Leonard Dunbar, Blake Chenault, Raymond Schneider, Wilbur Jeter, Harry Witt, Devers McElrath and Raymond James.

MRS. ROWLAND MARTIN COMPLIMENTS CLUB

A pretty party, suggestive of spring, was given Tuesday evening at the Fritz Hotel by Mrs. Rowland Martin, complimenting the members of the Merry Wives Club and a number of friends.

That lovely harbinger of spring, the jonquil, was featured in the tallies, score pads and party appointments. A large vase of jonquil and fern graced the room where the guests assembled.

Mrs. P. Joseph was the lucky bridge player and was rewarded with a box of yellow bath salts and a box of dusting powder. A tall bottle of yellow bath crystals went to Miss Mary Hubert for guest prize. Miss Lillian Kindrick won the cut prize, a box of dusting powder. A small package of dusting powder consoled Mrs. Frank Patterson for her ill luck.

Ice cream moulded in the shape of jonquils with their green stems was served with squares of white cake iced in yellow, each bearing a picture of a jonquil. Those present were: Misses Mary Hubert, Lillian Kindrick, Mary Spiller, Lela Taylor, Mesdames Joe Watson, Jack Richardson, R. H. Spiller, Slaton Fleming, Pierce Hoggett, H. G. Perry, V. P. Emmons, Frank Patterson, John Martin, P. Joseph, C. T. Holekamp, Dorothy Westmoreland, Vann Martin, Ben L. Wheat, Carl Wolf, U. D. Kindrick, Rudolph Tatum, Irvin Jarvis, H. D. Taylor, L. E. MERRY WIVES HONOR HUSBANDS WITH BRIDGE

Wednesday evening the Merry Wives Club gave their annual party, honoring their husbands, at the Fritz Hotel.

The St. Patrick motif prevailed in the party appointments with green tallies, shamrock table markers and score pads with green pencils.

Low crystal bowls filled with violets and fern adorned the tables.

Mrs. Vann Martin won the club prize, a handsome Maderia table cover. The men's prize, a belt and sterling silver buckle, went to Mr. H. G. Hubert. Two decks of decorated cards, the cut prize, were won by Mrs. C. T. Holekamp. The prizes were cleverly wrapped and tied in green.

Pimientos and nut sandwiches and cake and coffee were served to Miss Ferris, Mesdames H. G. Perry, Carl Wolf, Hugh Rieck, Mr. and Mrs. Vann Martin, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hubert, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Holekamp, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Kindrick, Mr. and Mrs. Slaton Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Moses, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Orth, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Hoggett, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tatum, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wynne, Mr. and Mrs. P. Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Secrest, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spiller, and Messrs. Mitchell McLenon and Max Riley.

MR. AND MRS. CAVANESS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Cavaness entertained with a luncheon at their ranch home, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Simpson.

Mr. Ross Graves, who is well known in violin circles, entertained with a program of "Old Time" numbers.

The guest list included: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hunger, Messrs. Julius Hunger, S. T. Strickland, Ross Graves and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Cavaness.

MRS. RUDOLPH TATUM GIVES SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Rudolph Tatum entertained a few friends Friday evening in honor of her husband's birthday with a surprise party.

Branches of red bud provided a note of spring-time for the occasion. Bridge was the medium of entertainment. Mrs. L. E. Standifer made ladies' high score and was rewarded with a box of handkerchiefs. The men's prize, a handsome tie, went to Mr. L. D. Borden. Mrs. Watt Turner won the cut prize, a box of stationery.

Pear Salad, wafers, pickles, olives, potato chips, cake and coffee were served at the close of the evening. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Standifer, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Hoggett, Mr. and Mrs. Watt Turner, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Jarvis, Joe Ray and the host and hostess.

MRS. A. S. RIECK IS HOSTESS TO FRIENDS

One of the prettiest parties of the season was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. A. S. Rieck when she entertained a few friends at bridge.

Pastel shades of pink, orchid, green and yellow sounded the decorative note. The lights were shaded in these dainty colors and vases of red bud and fern all presented a pretty scene. The tallies further carried out the color scheme.

After the bridge games each table was laid in one of the delicate tints featured during the afternoon. A huge hand made organly pillow sachet, satin scalloped and picoted in a contrasting pastel tint, adorned with handmade flowers was placed in the center of the tables.

Olive sandwiches, angel food cake, sunshine cake and marshmallow pudding topped with tinted whipped cream was served. Baskets of salted almonds with ribbon tied handles completed the service. Mrs. Hugh Rieck won a lovely hand made orchid sachet decorated with a pretty hand made flower.

The second prize, a string of blue beads, went to Mrs. H. G. Hubert. The dainty sachets which had served as centerpieces were given as cut prizes to Mesdames Carl Wolf, Elsie Cherry, Moore and Miss Marie Faris.

Those enjoying Mrs. Rieck's hospitality on this occasion were Mesdames H. G. Hubert, Sam Woodward, Hugh Rieck, C. T. Holekamp, U. D. Kindrick, H. D. Taylor, J. M. Livingston, S. A. McDonald, Elsie Cherry, Carl Wolf, H. G. Perry, A. L. Mudge, Jas. Taylor, C. L. Moore, John Ingster and Miss Mabel Faris.

ST. PATRICK'S BRIDGE

Miss Nancy Duderstadt entertained the P. A. L. Club with a St. Patrick's bridge at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duderstadt, Friday afternoon.

After a series of games the prize was awarded Miss Juanita Cowsert. A green yo yo went to Miss Mae Delle Lowry who made low score. Miss Elsie Martin won the cut prize, a dainty handkerchief. Green tallies and napkins carried out the St. Patrick motif.

Peach pie a la mode was served by Misses Elsie Martin, Marie Sheppard, Juanita Cowsert, Mae Delle Lowry, Grace Johnson, Lucille Williams, Kathryn Hodges, Marguerite King and the hostess.

PIONEER TELLS OF HARDSHIPS ON FRONTIER

An interesting and appreciated visitor favored the Eagle Office with a call Monday in the person of Mr. J. W. Coffey of the Noxville Community. Mr. Coffey is a real pioneer citizen of the west. He was born near Granbury, Texas, June 21, 1856, and when only six years old moved with his parents and settled on the Concho River about fifteen miles from Paint Rock. Buffaloes and Comanche Indians were plentiful in those days. There were towns in this section at this time. Brownwood had a few small buildings. San Angelo was unknown at that time. There were no fences to delay the riders in going over the country.

Supplies were brought from Weatherford and some trips were made to Pecos to obtain salt which was sold at ten dollars a hundred. When Mr. Coffey was twelve years old he made a trip with his father and a party of men to the Pecos River after salt. He said there were 22 ox wagons and 42 men and it took two days and one night to make the trip. No water was found between the Concho and the Pecos Rivers.

In 1886 Mr. Coffey moved to Kimble County and has been one of our substantial citizens since that time. He has been in bad health for nearly two years, but is getting his health back and his many friends in Junction were glad to see him on his visit here the first of the week.

Electrical Servants for Your Home

"The application of Electricity to household appliances has done more to raise the standard of home life than any other single factor," is the opinion of a well known home economics authority.

Just contrast the difference between the Modern, Electrically-equipped home of today, and homes of similar means a few years ago.

No longer does the housewife grow old before her time... no longer does she slave and toil about her kitchen and household tasks... no longer is she shut off from the rest of the world because of lack of time to enjoy and appreciate the better things of life.

Does your home reflect the spirit of this New Day? Are you receiving all the commercial benefits possible through the intelligent application of electricity to your home?

One of our Household Engineers will be glad to show you how cheaply you can secure the enormous advantages of "Complete Electrical Service."

EAGLE TRACK SQUAD PRACTICING THIS WEEK

The Eagle's track team have been practicing regularly for the past week.

Last Friday, for some friendly competition, they held a track meet among themselves. The Seniors, Juniors and Freshmen competed against each other.

The Juniors easily walked away with the honors, making twenty-eight points. Next came the Freshmen, making twelve points, and lastly the Seniors, making only five points.

Leonard Dunbar was high point man, making ten points.

The Eagles will attend the track meet held at Eden on Saturday, the 15th. This meet is being sponsored by the Eden Chamber of Commerce and all schools in District 18 and other schools not in this district are invited. The Eagles will have some stiff competition, but they are hoping to bring home the "Bacon."

J. H. C. MEETS

The Junior Historical Club met in regular business last Friday. The meeting was called to order by the president, Harry Witt.

The first copy of the Star Telegram, to which the club subscribed during the past week, arrived. This paper contains many interesting reports on political events which will be collected from it daily.

During this meeting the club received many interesting reports, the most important being on prohibition. It is a question as to whether the eighteenth amendment of our constitution will be repealed. Moody says that Texas has less drinking now than it had ten years ago.

Harrell Ramsey and Shreve Goodwin were visitors, and it is sincerely hoped that they enjoyed the meeting. Remember that we are still urging you to pay us a visit on any Friday at 11:15 o'clock.

STUDENTS' POSITION IN SOCIAL WORLD

(by Ella Simon)

Many parents persist in thinking that if they send their child to school and give him educational advantages he should be capable of appearing at ease in any public gathering or assembly. Knowledge obtained from books cannot provide that sense of well-being in public. A person has to exercise what he knows in order to profit by it.

Parents, do not keep your child at home at all times and expect him to be able to keep in step with the other children in their classes or social standings. Even if he does know his lessons, he will not be able to recite them with ease; even if he knows how he should act, he will not be able to conduct himself properly without practice. There is a limit to all things. Children should be given the opportunity to acquire knowledge and then the opportunity to use it. If a person is told how to solve a problem and yet does not solve it for himself, he does not derive the full benefit of it. After all, experience is the best teacher.

DOMESTIC ART NOTES

For the last week the Second Year class have been taking notes on "Types of People" and "Colors for Different Types of People." It is very beneficial and interesting. Mrs. Wallace asked the girls to please make use of what they learn on this subject. This work will be put in their note books.

The First Year class have been completing their pillow cases during the past week.

Both classes are beginning new problems this week. The First Year class are starting pajamas, while the Second Year class have their choice of smocks or kimonoes.

Some of the Junction students attended the play, "the Clodhopper," at the Bois d'Arc school Friday night. Aubrey Winkle and John Louis Weaver of this school were characters in it.

Mr. Moses has begun an extra Geometry class. The Juniors are very delighted at having two plane geometry classes each day. They seem particularly fond of this subject.

"PINKS AND PATCHES"

A very popular one-act play, entitled "Pinks and Patches," which has won fame in New York city will be presented by some of the high school students at the Texan Theater on Thursday, March 13, 1930, at 7:45 o'clock, p. m.

The proceeds of this play will be used in carrying the actors to Brownwood, Texas, to enter the District Contest.

Your support will be appreciated.

FRESHMAN REPORT

The eighth grade had a class meeting Monday for the purpose of planning the program for chapel next Thursday.

We have finished our "Literature and Life" and are taking up "Written and Spoken English."

We are doing cross multiplication in algebra. Some of the ninth grade pupils are studying algebra with us.

Harold Weaver has been absent for several days.

Juanita Cowsett and Lee Ola Hodges spent the week-end in Menard.

Vera Mae Wilson visited our general science class Monday.

A VOTER'S DUTY

(by Leonard Dunbar)

The voter's duty is to use his own head and make his own decision as to whom and what he is going to vote for. He should allow no one to influence him in any way as to how he should vote. A person should consider the matter before he goes to the polls and not after he reaches the place.

He should not stop to talk to some friend who is electioneering or probably buying votes. This may cause him to change his mind and vote in such a way that he will always regret it.

A voter should consider the age, experience, education and health of the candidate for office.

GLEE CLUB REPORT

The Glee Club entertained the Simmons University Cowboy Band with an informal reception at the home of Mrs. W. P. Riley, last Thursday evening following the concert.

The entire band was present as well as all the members of the Glee Club.

Music was furnished throughout the evening by Vivian James. Two readings were given by Pairstee Linn.

As a request, the Glee Club sang two selections.

Cake, punch and sandwiches were served to some 75 guests.

The Glee Club members met at Mrs. W. P. Riley's Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock for a club party. Many important numbers were rendered by those who were rendered by those entertaining. Delicious refreshments were served and all members present thoroughly enjoyed the evening. After these social affairs, we are all more willing to practice.

JUNIOR NOTES

Ella Simon was absent from school last Thursday and Friday. She attended the funeral of her uncle, Hugo Simon, at Fredericksburg.

Muriel Warren was unable to be at school Monday and Tuesday. We hope she will return soon.

Leonard Dunbar was absent from school Monday. He attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. W. H. Smeltzer at Bois d'Arc.

Raymond James was at school last Friday morning, but he failed to be in English class Friday afternoon. Everyone had to make a talk on some magazine, therefore we wonder if he had a good reason for his absence.

The English III class has been studying the different kinds of magazines and writing expository editorials. They are now writing expository themes.

N. G. L. C. MEETS

The N. G. L. C. met in regular session last Friday to discuss business and current events.

A short business session followed the reading of the minutes. It was decided, by popular vote, that the vice president, Marie Davis, should preside at every meeting. This will permit both the president and vice president to take part in the club work.

Another important topic that was discussed was the division of the club into two separate groups, to hold meetings at separate times. This will relieve the crowded condition, and will create more interest among the club members. Nothing definite was decided, but we expect to hear more of this prospective arrangement this week.

The current events were discussed by the members, and the meeting was concluded by an open discussion. The meeting adjourned at three-fifteen.

JUNIOR REPORT

The Tenth grade gave an interesting and amusing program in chapel last Thursday. It was as follows:

Spanish song, "Romona" and dance by Spanish class.

Playlette, "Turning the Tables," by Harry Witt.

Cornet solo by Devers McElrath, accompanied by Lois Goodwin at the piano.

Boxing bout by Harry Witt and Raymond James.

If laughing is god for one's health, we are sure the school children must have certainly left better at the conclusion of the program.

TEMPER

(by Wilbur Jeter)

Temper is a thing that creeps upon you and catches you before you know it is about you. It will make you express yourself in action or words before you can realize what you have done. Temper is stronger in some people and acts more quickly on some than it does others. The cause of this is, that the person who has a strong temper has not cultivated a way or means to help him not to get aroused quickly over a subject, or whatever it may be. If you will give yourself a little time to think over it your temper will not affect you much.

When your temper catches you suddenly over a subject or happening, you are not in your natural mood or feeling at the time being. If you can hold your temper until you have time to think over the cause and clear your mind again, you will be able to see into it more quickly and reason it out, rather than to state your opinion, which might bring you harm later.

Marie Dechert was the week-end guest of Ella Simon.

What is it that means most in your life? It should be right living.

DON'T ASK

Why does Roy enjoy carrying Ruth's books around?
Why do the Juniors do so well in Geometry?
Whom does Louise love now?
Why do the girls win so many basket ball games?
Why is Margaret interested in South Llano?
Who is Marjorie's friend from Boerne?
Who makes the goals for the Eagles?
What is Lucille doing to her hair?

Louie: "Don't take puppy love so seriously, Buck."

Buck: "Why?"
Louie: "It might cause you to lead a dog's life later on."

Devers: "Hello. How's my girl?"
Hazel: (enthusiastically) "Oh, Just fine."

Devers: (brutally) "How do you know?"

Sonora Will Get New Warehouse

Construction of a $42,000 wool and mohair storage house to house a capacity amount of 1,700,000 pounds, will begin at Sonora within the next three weeks, and plans are under way at the present time it was announced Wednesday by the architectural firm of Anton F. Korn through C. C. Alexander, associate architect in charge of the project. The building will be located at the junction of the Del Rio road with the Old Spanish Trail, just south of the city.

An exterior of steel, self-supporting concrete slab floor, steel trusses, and fire-proof construction throughout will make of the new warehouse one of the finest and most modern in Texas, and its office accommodations will be one of the most complete and best constructed type, according to Mr. Alexander. Through the time for letting the contract has not been announced, it will probably be set for the last week in March. The decision to build the great warehouse was made at the organization meeting Tuesday night at Sonora of the Wool and Mohair Co-operative Marketing Association of Sutton County.—Devil's River News.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

These notes have not been written for two months, so, briefly, for the benefit of our country members, I will give a summary of what has happened.

We rejoice as a Church to have received eight new members, i.e.: Blake Chenault and Joe Warren by baptism; Miss Angeleen Eastman, Rankin Kothmann, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hull and Mrs. Ollie Floyd by letter, and now on profession of faith in Jesus Christ and awaiting baptism, Miss Cristell Reid. The latter we welcome in an especial manner because Cristell has already endeared herself to our people by her faithful service to the church secretary.

The pastor wishes to remind us that until further notice, the prayer meeting is to be held on Thursday at 7:30 p. m. each week.

Also will the young people please take note that they will be very welcome at the B. Y. P. U. each Sunday at 6:30 p. m.

On Friday afternoon at 3:30 is our W. M. U. Mission Study class, led by Mrs. Edgar McLendon. And next week being the March week of prayer, the women are earnestly invited to meet at the church on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 3:30.

We are sorry to report Mrs. D. L. Williams in San Antonio; Mrs. Earl Glossbrenner in California and Dave Turner in the infirmary of the Legion hospital at Kerrville, all away for the benefit of their health. May the Great Physician be very near these members to heal and to bless.

With the Home-going of Sister Bailey, we miss a loving Christian woman whose influence was always for good and who honored the cause of Jesus Christ.

We had a wonderful worship hour last Sunday morning and next Sunday can be more wonderful still if we remember it is the first anniversary of the opening of our new church building and as members loyally gather together at 11 a. m. for a praise service, for we, as a church can truly say with our pastor, "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless His holy name."

LLANO VOLUNTEER FIREMEN RESIGN

Llano.—The Llano volunteer fire department, organized years ago, recently gave notice of its resignation, effective March 4. No reason was given, the firemen and city council both denying any friction exists. A committee of business men has been appointed to look into the situation. Unless a common meeting ground is found and the present organization retained, a new fire company must be organized. Llano was given a lower key rate recently.

SONORA CARRIES AWAY HONORS AT TRACK MEET

Sonora.—Coach Ted M. White's sensationally-scrampering Sonora High School Bronchos out-stepped a livery field Saturday and won top honors in their own tournament, the third annual Sonora invitation track and field meet. The Bronchos scored 42 points. Eight class B schools, junior high of San Angelo and the San Angelo Bobcats competed. The Bobcat crows, phantom class A aggregation which holds the track championship of the Texas interscholastic league, was permitted to run but not to carry away any of the prizes. It was a sort of exhibition romp for the Concho clan, piloted in the absence of Coach Bill Bissett by Captain Pootsy Jones. The Felines set a boisterous pace in seven events. Henry Orr, Bobcat dash man and one of the relay stars, however, was beaten to the tap a split second by the meteoric Trainer of Sonora in the 100-yard dash. The time was 10.2.

Because of lack of transportation means, the Junction delegation consisting of eight senior contenders and four junior men were not able to make the trip.

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT TEXAS INDEPENDENCE IS UNVEILED SUNDAY

Austin.—Ninety-four years from the day a band of frontiersmen signed it in a log shack at Washington-on-the-Brazos, Mexico, the original declaration of independence of Texas was unveiled Sunday afternoon in the capitol of Texas.

The document, its existence creating a separate republic and a future American commonwealth, the span of its life covering the transition of Texas from a rebel colony of Mexico to a state of vast wealth and skyscrapers and a happy 5,000,000 people, has been on public view in the capitol, sealed in a grotto in the government building, for several weeks.

Gov. Dan Moody made the principal address at the unveiling ceremonies Sunday afternoon.

Greyhounds are perhaps the oldest type of dog. Stone carvings dating back to about 4,000 B. C. show figures of these graceful animals.

The Naval Observatory at Washington, which furnishes the nation with its time, makes a check every night by observation of the stars.

A PROBLEM

This little problem will test your ability in mathematics. Any child who has finished the ninth grade in high school should be able to solve it easily.

Farmer A tells Farmer B: "If you will sell me seven acres of your land, I will have twice as much as you."

Farmer B tells Farmer A: "If you will sell me seven acres of your land, I will have just as much as you."

How much land did each farmer own?

FACE POVERTY AS SARDINES DESERT PORTUGUESE COAST

Algrave, Portugal.—Many districts of Portugal, the world's greatest producer of sardines, which annually exports more than a million dollars worth of that delicacy to the United States, face poverty.

In this formerly prosperous district, for example, it was found recently that the sardines have all but disappeared. The suggestion was made that oceanographers investigate the migration with the object of safeguarding the future of the industry. Sardines are plentiful one season and scarce in the next.

No satisfactory explanation has been adduced for the sudden desertion by the little fish of the waters which once were its regular home. Some attribute the phenomenon to explosives placed in these waters by Spanish fishermen, who, it is declared, drive the sardines to their own waters.

In any case, the whole population of Portuguese fishing villages which formerly depended upon sardines, not only as a food but also as a means of livelihood, are faced with unemployment and misery.

Many packing plants are idle and a number of them have gone bankrupt. Thousands of men, women and children, formerly engaged in packing and shipping sardines for consumption in the United States and other countries are without work. The introduction, in recent years, of labor saving devices has also operated to reduce the number of wage earners.

Mrs. C.A. Smelser

Mrs. Carrie Agnes Smelser, wife of Wm. Smelser, died in Baylor Hospital in San Antonio Saturday, March 8, 1930, after an extended illness. The funeral was held at the Copperas Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Milton F. Hill officiating. A large crowd was present at the burial and the floral offering was beautiful.

Mrs. Smelser was born in Saint Louis, Missouri, February 8, 1876, and moved to Kimble County with her parents twenty-two years ago. She was married to Mr. Wm. Smelser in March, 1901, and she is survived by her husband and four sons, Clarence, Floyd, Rufus and John Lewis. One sister, Mrs. Cal Turner, and four brothers, E. O., L. E., E. F., and A. J. Dunbar and many other relatives survive her.

Early in life she was converted and united with the Presbyterian Church, but later united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, remaining a member until her death. A host of friends sympathize with Mr. Smelser and children and relatives in the untimely death of Mrs. Smelser.

Mesdames Ben Wheat and Vann Martin returned from a visit to San Antonio Tuesday.

Boys Be Careful With Your Kites

Kite Flying, in close proximity to electric power transmission lines—especially high tension lines, many of which carry 66,000 volts of electric energy—is extremely dangerous to property and to human lives.

A damp string, coming into contact with an electric wire may result in grave danger. The wise thing is to fly your kites out of range of electric wires—and above all, do not attempt to rescue a kite entangled in electric wires. Notify the office of the West Texas Utilities Company.

Observance of these precautions will eliminate the possibility of serious injury.

SYNOPSIS
Luke Maddison, wealthy banker, marries Margaret Leffer, who leaves him immediately after the ceremony, after he has refused to let her have any of it, to her immediate obligations, explaining that she married him to get revenge for the suicide of her brother, who she believes, ruined by Maddison. Maddison, madly in love, knows that the London stock who had forged the banker's name to a large check. He goes out into the London streets to think things over and meets a crook named Lewing for whom he had once done a favor. The two gamblers gang attack him, killing Lewing and sending Maddison to the hospital, where he is unconscious for two weeks. On recovery he finds he is known there as "Smith." He decides to keep that name, trusting to his newly-grown beard for their mistake in identifying him by providing a room for "Smith." There he meets Sam Gorton, who asks him to drive her car for her. He does this and finds himself unwittingly involved in a jewel robbery.

Margaret Leffer, believing that Luke has gone to Spain, discovers that she really loves him and returns to his bankers all the property he had given her, retaining only an income for living expenses. She is about to start for Spain to look for Luke when Danton Morell, an old friend of her brother's, sends her to look for Luke, who he believes has given Luke's money back. While Morell is in her apartment, Gorton, who has been doing time for a jewel robbery, tells her that Luke once did him a favor and asks her if she knows Danton Morell.

Luke, learning that the police are looking for a bearded man who drove the car in which the stolen jewels were hidden, shaves off all his hair and goes to the police station to identify himself as Danton Morell, a well-known name in the underworld as a confidence man and crook. Before he returns from his escapade at this discovery, two men burst in on him. One is Verli, a member of Gorton's gang, and the other is Culey Smith, recently arrived from Australia. Curley roasts Verli's leg in the name of Smith. A fight follows in which Luke throws both men out.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
Luke closed the door with some difficulty, for the fall of the man against the partition had thrown the door out of true. Mrs. Fraser was very pale and her breath was coming quickly.

"I've never known them Lewings to do that before," she said. "I shouldn't be surprised if they didn't start a fire."

They had taken this course once before, Luke learned to his horror and amazement—that explained the new annex to the house.

339 Ginnett Street was obviously Gorton's headquarters. The place had never been raided—for the matter of that, it had never held a pennyworth of stolen property.

First he must see Jack Hulbert, that same young solicitor of his. It struck him that there was a possibility that Jack might not be alone. The telephone, of course! He stopped at the first public booth and put through a call. And here it was he was thankful to Mrs. Fraser for her coppers.

The voice of Mr. Hulbert's servant answered him.

"I want to speak to Mr. Hulbert," he said, and to his horror the reply came:

"Mr. Hulbert is not in England, sir; he has gone to Berlin for a holiday and will not be back till next week. Who is it speaking?"

Luke for the moment was speechless; when the question was repeated he had an inspiration.

"Can you tell me if Mr. Luke Maddison's flat is occupied—is his servant there?"

The tone of the man changed. "Who are you, and why do you want to know that?" he demanded.

Luke rang off without explanation. He might have told the man who he was, but he was clear of confiding in servants, and it was particularly undesirable that he should betray his presence in London to anybody except to Jack.

And then a thought struck him and he called the number of his own flat. He waited for fully five minutes listening to the faint buzz of the call, and then the operator said:

"I'm sorry, sir, there's no reply from that number."

Luke made a slow way to the Mall, and walked slowly toward Buckingham Palace, oblivious of the rain which was now falling in earnest. There was only one thing to be done, and by the time he reached the end of the Mall he had made his plans. He had often remarked jokingly how easy it was to burgle his flat. Recently there had been erected a new fire escape at the back of the block in which he had his residence, and access to the yard where the escape touched earth was by no means difficult. He could climb the wall from the mews which ran at the back of the flat; he knew exactly how the window could be forced.

Margaret Maddison was preparing for bed when the street

bell rang. She opened the door of her room and listened; somebody was talking in the hall below; she heard her footman's voice and a deeper one, and then somebody said:

"You'd better go up and tell the lady. I must see her . . . Scotland Yard."

She sent her maid down to find out what was the matter, and in a few minutes the girl came back.

"It's an inspector from Scotland Yard, madam. He wants to see you on a matter of importance."

"Is it Mr. Bird?" she asked anxiously.

Why she should be anxious at all she could not for the moment understand. Later she realized that it was the knowledge that Scotland Yard was a carrier of unpleasant news, and that possibly something might have happened to Luke, which sent her down to the drawing room so quickly.

It was not Bird but a stranger, who introduced himself as Divisional Inspector Gorton.

"I'm sorry to bother you at this time of night, Mrs. Maddison," he said, "but we've got a report sent to us by the servant of Mr. Hulbert, the solicitor—I believe he is your husband's solicitor?"

She nodded, and drew a quick breath.

"Is anything wrong—I mean, with Mr. Maddison?"

"No, ma'am, it's not serious—in fact it may be nothing at all. But this valet of Mr. Hulbert's says that he had an inquiry from a strange man to-night as to whether your husband's flat was occupied—he also said that you had the key to the flat."

Margaret nodded. The key had been in her possession since a few days after Luke's departure. His man had brought it; it was at that moment in her desk.

"I understand Mr. Maddison's abroad?"

"Yes, he is in Ronda," she said quickly. "You can have the key."

Inspector hesitated. "I'd rather like you to come along with us, madam," he said. "I promise you there's not the slightest danger, but we do not like searching houses until there is a representative of the owner present."

"What do you expect to find? I'll come with pleasure," she said.

"You can wait outside in your car, madam. What do we expect to find? Well, there's a possibility that the man who called up intended burgling the flat, and we want to be on the safe side."

She went upstairs and finished dressing, putting on a raincoat, and accompanied the policeman into the street. A car was drawn up, with two or three men sitting in the back, and she was invited to take her place by the side of the driver.

They came very quickly to the entrance of Luke's flat.

"No, no, I'll come up with you," she said. "I've only been in it twice, but I'll probably be able to help you find your way about."

The inspector sent one of his men to search the apartment; and then suddenly he sniffed.

"Somebody's been smoking a cigar here, and smoking it recently," he said.

Margaret too had smelt the faint fragrance. At that moment the detective sent to look at the kitchen came running back.

"The window's been forced!" he said.

Again Gorton nodded. Evidently he expected to hear this. "Which is Mr. Maddison's room?"

She pointed. A key was already inserted in the lock. The detective turned the handle. The door did not move; it was bolted on the inside.

"Out you come, son!" he said in a loud voice as he rapped on the panel. It's a cop."

He turned to the girl.

"You'd better go downstairs, Mrs. Maddison—we're going to break in this door!"

Luke Maddison, standing on the other side of the door, listening, heard the words and gasped. His wife was there—the one person in the world who must not see him!

With her heart beating a little faster, Margaret passed down the stairs. When she reached the street she found that the driver of the police car had summoned a taxi, which was drawn up behind the tender.

"Is anybody there, miss?" asked a police officer.

"Yes, I think there is," she said breathlessly. At least, the inspector thinks so."

"You'd better get into the cab, miss," said the police officer. "I suppose Mr. Gorton expects a bit of fight."

"Do you often have cases like this?"

"About every other day," he said cheerfully. "We're one of the Flying Squads."

Apparently it was quite usual for the Squad to be called to buildings where suspected burglars were. They moved with the celerity of a fire engine and were as alert.

Inspector Gorton waited until Margaret had left the building, and then he rapped again on the panel.

"Open this door, my son." The bolt was slipped back, the door flung open. The inspector saw a man with grimy face and distorted clothing standing in the doorway, and instantly he was seized.

Luke was taken aback. He had expected an opportunity of parleying, even of taking the detective into his confidence. Resenting the sudden seizure, he tried to shake off the detaining hands, and in the next instant was flung violently to the floor. Somebody passed their hands scientifically behind his coat.

"He's got a gat," said a voice. The pistol was passed to Inspector Gorton.

"I can explain the gun," said Luke.

"I dare say you can." Gorton snapped back the jacket of the automatic and detached the magazine. "Loaded—you'll get a ten stretch for this, my lad. Fan him, one of you; he may have another."

In two minutes Luke was searched and everything was taken from him.

"Where did you get this money?" asked the Inspector.

"It was given to me—" began Luke, and there was a roar of laughter.

"What is this?" said Gorton, examining something in his hand.

That morning, before he had left on his fatal expedition, Mrs. Fraser had handed him a little blue-covered book.

"A driving license, eh? You weren't by any chance driving a car today around about Bond Street, were you?"

Luke's heart sank within him. And then he heard one of the detectives say:

"That's the fellow! He had a beard this afternoon. I saw him driving with a woman in the park."

He whispered something to Gorton and the inspector nodded. All the time Luke was thinking rapidly. That simple explanation of his was no longer possible. If he declared himself to be Luke Maddison, he must also explain what he had been doing since he disappeared. The realization of that came with shocking emphasis. And he knew that below, Margaret was waiting and would recognize him instantly in spite of his mustache.

Ahead of him was the open door leading to the hall. To the right the little room he had used as a dressing room. The window was right above the first landing of the fire escape. Luke had a horror of fires, and it was his favorite amusement to plan out how he would escape from a burning building. If he could get to that room.

It did not seem possible. Somebody spoke from the landing outside. It was the hall porter, who had called to discover what the commotion was about. The two detectives who were guarding the door turned their backs for a moment, and in that instant Luke Maddison leaped. He was something of an athlete; had played for his fifteen at college, and had nothing to learn about the art of avoiding a tackle. He dashed through the door of the dressing room, banged it tight, and shot in the bolt as the weight of two men was flung against it.

This was no moment for caution. He flung open the window and his legs went out in the same motion. In another second he dropped into the darkness. He had calculated well. The steel platform of the fire escape clanged under his feet. In another instant he was flying down the steps and was over the wall before the first of the detectives reached the head of the escape.

A man was lounging in the mews; he turned with a shout as Luke dropped. But Luke was off like the wind. His long stay in the hospital had thrown him out of condition, but he had all the technique of a runner. As he emerged from the narrow entrance of the mews he saw a cab passing, and leaped on the running board.

Native Texan Fought for Land Under Three Flags

Uvalde.—To have lived from the first decade of one century into the third decade of another century is a distinction accorded but few people, but this honor was enjoyed by Juan Zamaniago, perhaps the oldest resident of this section of the state, who died Thursday at La Pryor.

In addition to this another distinction which he enjoyed was that of having fought under three flags. The first of these was under the Spanish flag in Mexico against France. Later he aided his own native country, what is now Texas, gain its freedom from Mexico, and then he fought with United States forces in the war against Mexico.

When Juan Zamaniago was born near what is now Calaveras, Texas, February, 1810, this country was still a province of Spain. James Madison was president of the United States. San Antonio, Goliad and Nacogdoches were the only important settlements in this part of the country. At that time there were scarcely 4,000 residents in the territory now known as Texas besides the Indians which inhabited the country.

When but a child, his mother died and Zamaniago was sent to Mexico to live with his grandparents. Although young, it was there that he saw his first military service. After the war against France, he returned to this section and settled near what is now Carrizo Springs. Here he was married and lived until his wife's death in 1917. He had been a resident of La Pryor about 12 years.

AN EXPLANATION

By request of the Commissioners' Court of Kimble County and the School Board of the Junction High School I shall attempt to make an explanation that will show the tax situation in this county for the ensuing years. The building of the court house will cause an increase of about fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property in the county.

The Court, in an effort to strictly economize in the administration of the county's affairs, have agreed to reduce the third class fund tax from twenty-five cents to twenty cents. The court can and will reduce the road bond tax for the county from thirty cents to twenty-five cents, and the jury fund tax will be reduced from six cents to three cents, making a total of thirteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation. The result is the thirteen cents saved against the extra levy of fifteen cents for the court house will show an increase of only two cents on the hundred dollars valuation. The thirteen cents tax levied in the Junction road district will be reduced to eleven cents, a saving of two cents there, which will result in the taxes being the same in the said Junction district as it was last year.

This arrangement of taxes is not temporary but is permanent and any future economical court can easily maintain the said tax rate, and depression of the increase in valuation will have more revenues than the present court has had.

You will understand the Court has given their approval of the facts herein stated and will be governed thereby.

Very respectfully submitted,
J. B. Radolph,
County Judge.

"HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE," HE WROTE ON FUNERAL CARDS

Chicago.—Invitations to L. A. Thier's funeral which he himself prepared and addressed 15 years ago have been mailed as he directed.

Neat cards they are, with black borders, a short paragraph of philosophy on death, a brief biography, and the line, "My funeral will be—"

The cards advised the recipients to watch newspapers for date of the funeral, or telephone the home.

Thier, a fresco artist who died two days ago, ended his invitations with:

"Hope to see you there."

U. S. Wool Crop Is 308,947,000 Pounds in 1929

Washington.—The wool crop for 1929 in the United States, according to revised estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture, was 308,947,000 pounds. This compares with 308,715,000 pounds in 1928. The revised figures are larger than the preliminary figures in each year due to upward revisions in the number of sheep on farms in many sections.

There was no change in the average weight of fleeces for the country as a whole. Amount of pulled wool for 1929 was 54,500,000 pounds, compared with 2,600,000 pounds in 1928.

ROOSEVELT SCHOOL NEWS

We are sorry to report that some of our pupils are still missing school on account of illness.

Hugh Lawler was absent from school Monday and Tuesday. A good many of the people from here attended the play given at Bodarc Friday night. Reba Barfield, Max and Dora Ann Camp and J. C. Goodall were absent from school Tuesday.

A good rain on our shrubbery that has been put out recently would be greatly appreciated.

Our girls made $3.90 from their home made candy that they sold at Dodarc last Friday night. This makes them a total of $14 toward the Encyclopedia that they intend to purchase for the school library. The girls made the candy here in the school kitchen during their off periods Thursday and Friday.

Ray Thiers, one of the pupils of the ninth grade, is gradually recovering from a badly cut foot. He had the stitches removed last Friday. We hope that he soon returns to his school work.

We will give our regular literary program Friday afternoon.

ALCOHOL

More alcohol is being distilled in the United States than ever before. That has nothing to do with prohibition. The use of alcohol in industry has multiplied enormously since the war. The new chemical industries use it in a thousand ways. Next to sulphuric acid, it is the most important of all chemicals. Business would stop, in hundreds of lines, if the manufacture of alcohol stopped. But less grain is being used for alcohol than before. Molasses and potatoes are the chief sources of industrial alcohol. The sugar-growers of Louisiana are getting real money now for what used to be pure waste, and the potato growers of Maine, Michigan, Maryland and the other potato centers have a more stable market for their product.

SCHEME TO MAKE FOOD LOOK LARGE HARD TO BELIEVE

Chicago.—The credulity of Judge Harry A. Lewis was taxed by the case of Johnson vs. Johnson, divorce.

Mrs. Helen Grace Johnson testified her husband, Arthur, was a Scotchman; that he refused her permission to use a vacuum cleaner because it was too severe on the rugs; that he bought all the food—very carefully; and that he forced her to wear magnifying glasses at the table so the food would look like more.

"Surely," interposed the court at this point, "there is a limit, you know, to credulity."

"I am under oath," said Mrs. Johnson, "and I swear it."

She said there was one alarm clock for the whole family. When it rang in the morning, she had to rewind and reset it for other members of the family.

It is superfluous to state no alimony was asked or offered.

KNOW TEXAS

During 1929 Texas mines produced $28,000 in gold, 1,050,000 ounces of silver, 1,000,000 pounds of lead and 400,000 pounds of copper.

The Lower Rio Grande Valley alone will support a population of 3,000,000 persons when all its resources are fully developed, according to Walter E. Dickerson.

On Jan. 1, 1930, Texas had 974,000 milk cows, a gain of 19,000 over the previous year. There are 21,919,000 dairy cows in the United States.

Texas has 5,667,000 head of cattle, 1,028,000 hogs and 5,500,000 sheep on farms. Cattle showed an increase of 271,000 and sheep 363,000, but hogs decreased in number 172,000.

DEAD NEGRO GIRL IS RESTORED TO LIFE

A remarkable discovery in a practice of medicine is reported from Little Rock, Arkansas. Juda Campbell, 15, whose heart stopped for thirteen minutes while she was under an anesthetic for a tonsil removal, was alive and well as the result of a new discovery in resuscitation.

The little negro girl was revived after all animation had been suspended when Dr. S. F. Hoge injected oxygen directly into her blood. Previously it had been believed that such an injection would cause instant death.

Physicians at Little Rock said that they regarded Dr. Hoge's method as a phenomenal contribution to science. Never before to their knowledge had such an injection been made for such a purpose.

All agreed that Juda was "dead" when the injection was made. Her breathing had ceased. Her heart had stopped. All her vital functions were at a standstill and adrenaline had been administered without effect.

Five minutes after the oxygen needle was jabbed into a large vein the girl gasped and began to breathe. A few hours later she regained consciousness apparently unharmed.

There was no doubt about the Scotchman who was held up in Chicago the other day being in a tight fix.

Everything is law in the world. Set yourself right with the laws of God and you will get somewhere.

Wife (sentimental)—Egbert, what would you do if I were to die?

Egbert (ditto)—I should go mad, my dear.

Wife—Would marry again?
Egbert—Well, I don't think I should go as mad as that!

The stepping stones to greater things are often rough boulders tossed aside by someone who became discouraged.

Dallas News: The Legislature apparently has so lost confidence in its ability to function that a good part of it refuses to try.

Junction Trade Notes

(By G. C. Co.)

Prompted by humane purposes as well as the desire to be of service to the community, the Lions Club of Junction has sponsored the building of a concrete walk across the River at 700 Springs. The springs are one of the natural wonders of Texas and attracts hundreds of visitors annually to its shrine. Only recently a woman, in attempting to cross the River for a close-up view of the springs, was injured by falling.

Hugo Simon, Former Resident of Kimble County, Is Dead

Mr. Hugo Simon, formerly a resident of Roosevelt, was killed in Farmersville, Texas, Tuesday morning, March 4, by what was supposed to have been accidental discharge of a pistol.

The body was returned to Fredericksburg for burial. Interment was in the Fredericksburg cemetery. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon with the Rev. Bracher officiating.

Deceased is survived by his wife and daughter, his father, Gottlieb Simon, and the following brothers: Friedrich, of Fredericksburg, Willie, of Austin, August and Arthur, of Roosevelt, and Christian, of Junction. Hugo Simon was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Simon on December 8, 1884, at Castell, Llano County. He was baptized into the Lutheran Church. He worked at the saddle business, having been apprenticed to E. W. Kothmann & Co. of Mason for some time. His death came as a shock to all his relatives and friends. He spent three years of his life on a ranch near Roosevelt.

MYSTERY PLAY WILL BE PRESENTED SOON

The Junction Little Theater will produce "The Thirteenth Chair," a thrilling mystery play, by Bayard Veiller, in the very near future, at the Texan Theater. This play was shown as a movie here Monday and Tuesday of this week and the members of the Little Theater cast are anxious for the public to compare the two productions. The movie version does not follow the play closely, the climax is an entirely different one, so the solution of the mystery will be a complete surprise even to those who have seen the movie. It will be an opportunity to see how Junction talent can compare with the well known metropolitan artists who appear in the screen version.

G. W. HARDESTY FOR COMMISSIONER No. 3

As we go to press today Mr. G. W. Hardesty authorizes us to place his name in the announcement column for commissioner of precinct No. 3. His name will appear in the proper column in our next issue as that section of the paper is already printed this week.

He is serving his precinct for the first term and has had many solicitations to make the race for the second term. Mr. Hardesty appreciates the confidence of his friends and neighbors and promises to continue to render the very best service possible. He feels that with the experience he has had the past few months he will be better prepared to serve his people during a second term.

Mr. Hardesty solicits the support and influence of his friends in the primary July 26.

There is no grief which time does not lessen and soften.—

DeLano received a message from him Wednesday that he is in the George Snyder Hospital at Glen Rose, Texas. His many friends here hope that he will soon be restored to health and be able to return home.

WHAT DO YOU PAY FOR EXTRA EQUIPMENT ?

ONE of the things to find out before you decide on an automobile is this—"How much extra equipment will I have to buy and how much will it cost?" Sometimes, you know, the cost of "Extras" is added to make up for too high an allowance on a used car.

There's mighty little extra equipment to buy on a new Ford and the prices are unusually low.

Junction Crowd Attends Rsprings C. of C. Banquet

Several directors and members of the Kimble County Chamber of Commerce accepted an invitation to meet with the Ricksprings organization Saturday evening in a banquet meeting at the Balentine Hotel. The meeting was called to order by President V. A. Brown and after a few brief remarks he introduced Hon. W. J. Mueller who acted as master of ceremonies for the evening. The welcome address was delivered by Judge S. A. Hough and responded to by Judge Weaver H. Baker of Junction, who brought a good message of the cordial relations existing between the two towns and also stressed the importance of good roads. Brief talks were made by Supt. Guy C. Moses, Secretary E. V. Stewart, Emil A. Loeffler and Capt. H. W. Rieck.

After a talk by C. H. Gilmer, County Judge of Edwards County, telling of road conditions in Edwards County and future plans for road work, other members of the Junction delegation were called upon and responded with brief messages. It was the consensus of all present that efforts should be put forth to retain highway No. 29 as a state highway.

The following were present from Junction:

C. T. Hokekamp, E. V. Stewart, Weaver H. Baker, Capt. H. W. Rieck, H. W. Bierschwale, A. G. Farmer, Emil A. Loeffler, Guy C. Moses, Philip Joseph, Edgar McLendon and J. S. Farmer.

Mayor T. B. Phillips was a business visitor in San Antonio Monday.

Plant Less Cotton

Although the cotton acreage in Kimble County is not great, we believe that the acreage here should be reduced. A 10,000,000-bale crop will have a greater value than a 15,000,000-crop, and the economic saving that will be effected would amount to many millions of dollars.

A large acreage in cotton in the South this year may result in a tremendous loss to cotton growers. The only solution is a substantial reduction in acreage and an increased acreage in food and feed crops. It is equally important that the quality and staple of cotton be improved.

Our experience this winter teaches us that we should be prepared to feed our live stock, and the way to do this is to plant more feed. If the feed should not be needed there is always a market for it. Raise more food and feed and less cotton.

The officers of this bank are always glad to discuss your problems with you and render such financial assistance as is consistent with good business principles.
