Special Reading Classes Conducted At Grade School

Classes began Thursday in the new Reading Center at Hart Elementary School with Mrs. L. D. Williams and Mrs. Max Stephens as the teachers. The center is housed in the new building located on the south side of the school.

Grades one through six are involved in the SRA reading program. Lower grades division is known as the Distar Reading and the upper grades refer to it as the Remedial Reading Program. Approximately 180 students participate for the special instruction. Tests are given prior to students beginning the classes.

The new center was opened primarily to solve the problem of an overflow of fifth grade students. An additional fifth grade section was created Thursday with Mrs. Harmon Bishop as the home room teacher and fifth grade English instructor. There are now 24 students in each of the fifth grade classes which enables the teachers to give more individual attention and assistance with the classwork.

Parents and interested individuals are invited to visit the new reading center and during homecoming would be an excellent time to stop by and view the activities.

Chili -Stew Supper Set

Juniors of Hart High School will sponsor a Chili-Stew Supper Saturday evening, Oct. 31, in the school cafeteria. Serving will begin at 5 p. m.

Supper tickets are $1 for adults and 75 cents for children.

Homecoming Queen To Be Named Friday

Hart High School is a "hornet's hive" of activity this week as Homecoming preparations are completed for Friday's encounter with the Sudan Hornets.

Festivities galore are promised beginning Wednesday with the crowning of the Queen and the football game promising an exciting conclusion.

Wednesday has been proclaimed Western Day. Future Homemakers have also slated a meeting that day at 3:45 p. m.

Dress Up Day is Thursday. Junior High and Freshman football games are scheduled beginning at 4:30 p. m. in Sudan. The Bon Fire King will be crowned at 8 p. m. Thursday night at the annual Homecoming bon-fire.

Friday is designated as Marathon and White Day with a pinning ceremony at 10:51 a. m.

Every Longhorn supporter is invited to the pep rally that afternoon at 3:15.

Booster Club members invite everyone to attend the chili supper Friday evening prior to the Homecoming game. Serving begins at 5 p. m. in the school cafeteria. Tickets are $1 for adults and 75 cents for students.

The 1970 Homecoming Queen will be crowned in ceremonies prior to the ballgame, beginning at 7:40 p. m. Candidates are Sandy Bennett, Nelda Henderson, Roni McGill and Cindy Dyer.

Absentee Voting Period From Oct. 14 To Oct. 30

Wednesday, Oct. 14 to Friday, Oct. 30, inclusive, is the period for absentee voting by personal appearance in the Nov. 3 general election.

Any qualified voter in Texas who expects to be absent from the county of his residence on Nov. 3 may cast an absentee ballot. To do so, he should take his voter's registration certificate to the county clerk's office during its hours of operation in the Oct. 14-Oct. 30 period.

In addition to state, district and local races, the Nov. 3 ballot will include seven proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution.

By subject, the proposed amendments relate to: (1) censure and removal of judges; (2) authority for mixed beverage law; (3) assessment of farm, ranch and forest lands; (4) reconstitute State Building Commission; (5) county road bonds and assessed valuation; (6) increase value of homestead exemption from forced sale; and (7) authority to consolidate functions of government.

Texas has a record 4,150,645 registered voters this year. Normally, absentee voting accounts for approximately five per cent of the total vote turnout.

Charter Lions Presented Pins

Charter members were presented pins at the Monday noon meeting of the Hart Lions Club. Presentation of the pins was made by Bill Rich, Lion Boss.

Charter members recognized were Ernest Martin and E. E. Foster. Wamon Foster accepted for his father who was absent. Rich also presented a pin to Mrs. Myrt Loman in memory of her husband, H. E. "Pappy", who was also a charter member.

Mike Burnam gave a financial report of the concession stands operated at the Thursday ball games. He expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of Lions and their wives who furnished sandwiches for the sales.

A financial report of the Hart High School Band was made by Ted Averitt.

Miss Jean Foster, new club sweetheart, played piano accompaniment for group singing.

Guests were Donald Lloyd, new manager of Hart Producers Co-Op Gin, Alex Wedden of Muleshoe and J. I. Brothers of Olton.

Rummage Sale To Be Held By Zealots

A rummage sale has been slated for Oct. 23 and 24 by the Zealot Club and is to be held in the Newsom store building on Main Street.

School Board Adopts New Lunchroom Policy

School board members, meeting Monday evening, inspected and approved the new building which will be used for the reading center.

The room formerly used for a reading room was needed for an additional fifth grade room this year after an increased fifth grade enrollment.

Approval was given for the purchase of $2138 equipment to be used for the girls CVAE program. Of that amount, $1133 will be paid by the Federal government.

A new lunchroom policy was adopted. Lunch tickets for students in elementary school will be charged for a period of five days only. No additional charges will be allowed until full payment is made on past tickets.

Board members also approved the purchase of $150 Complete Value Equipment for school buses.

PRESENTS CHECK -- Joby Sanders, representative of Xi Mu Iota, presents a check to Roger Edwards, band director and Ted Averitt, superintendent. The check was representative of the proceeds from the Lions Club Carnival.

Do you know some hints that will save you money when buying an appliance?

The considerations are, do you need it, and can you afford it? If you can answer yes firmly to these two questions, the next thing to consider is what type, size and what power is needed for operation.

For instance, if you are buying a stove, take into consideration how much you'll be using it, where you can put it, and which utility is cheaper to use. In some communities electricity is cheaper than gas, or vice-versa.

When you are asking the price, don't forget to ask the price of the installation. This way, you won't be faced with an unexpected bill.

If you don't have the cash, check the store's payments against a bank loan. Many times you will pay less by going through your bank.

Letter From Vietnam

To Home and Loved Ones:

I'm never in a place long enough to become a lake, just a stream rolling along. I chart my course to flow the safest and shortest route possible. But somehow it always seems to be the hardest and longest one imaginable. I continue to flow no matter how long the trip. I may wander but my waters run deep.

So now I begin the 3rd year of my three year all expense paid vacation. It should be a million dollar experience, but I would not take all the money in the world to do it again.

Do not fear, even though I am scared, I am not afraid. The world and I have not winked, we have known each other for years. My religion is to do good, all mankind are my brothers and the world is my country. I know from the love in our home that God and us will always be together.

I will only travel this way once and to know what is right and not do anything about it is the worst kind of cowardice. In the game of life one must meet the challenge of courage and each must look within himself as to what course he will follow. My course directs me to where my feelings lie. For had I the choice I would be home but there is a duty for me here.

I don't protest against this war in Viet Nam.

I am compelled to protest against wars everywhere, Today, Tomorrow and forever! Anger and violence is a dreaded disease, they only spread death and destruction. As I look deep within my soul and realize my sympathy is for the Viet Nameese people. My disagreement with Viet Nam is the way in which it is being handled. Each nation has its own traditions, values, goals and desires. We must assist from time to time to help other countries preserve their independence and help to advance their growth. But we must never try to remake them in our own image. Our job is to train and teach - lead the way for others to follow. The hopes of free men everywhere rests with the men now fighting for freedom.

Peace is what everyone wants but it doesn't grow in the earth, shine in the sun, or have a dollar value. Peace lies in the hearts and minds of all people. It can't be preserved without the support and wholehearted commitment of all peoples. God knows I am a man of peace, but I hope I shall never be such a coward as to mistake oppression for peace. Peace won by compromise is usually short lived.

Peace is a very complicated matter for it has to do with people and nothing in this world baffles man so much as man himself. To say the least - civilized man has failed to cope with the demands of history.

Peace is like a beautiful woman who needs to be cared for and watched. We are the watch men for peace. We are a part of the world and the world is a part of us. We can't turn our backs on this world and hide; it won't let us. So in turn maybe every citizen should be a soldier for peace.

Let us never negotiate out of fear. Peace made through fear is no peace. What shall it be: Pray to God and trust in peace, or trust in God and pray and fight if necessary for peace.

It does not matter if God is on our side, but that WE ARE ON GOD'S SIDE. For God's work must truly be our own. The price for peace and freedom must be paid by each of God's creatures at sometime and this is my time!

I wish I could pass along to young people how important peace really is. Peace isn't in drugs or LSD or flower children, it is the result of hard work. I have seen a lot of people die for this easy to spell and say five letter word and they were the wealth and pride of our America and the world. If a person is not willing to put forth the maximum effort for some good or commodity then it isn't worth the effort.

With all my love,

(Name on File)

P. S.: It is rainy today and by what little light we have I decided to write about my feelings toward peace and responsibilities of freedom. Maybe I talk a little different but after what I have been through my desires and hopes have only become greater. But most of all I hope those people at home never have to witness this!

SHALL WE PUT EVERY EIGHTH PERSON IN AMERICA ON WELFARE?

The Administration's "Welfare reform bill," H. R. 16311, has been passed by the House of Representatives. It is now before the Senate Finance Committee.

There are some things about this bill that make you wonder:

-- It would guarantee a minimum income to all families in this country, as much as $7,520 a year to some where the father is fully employed.

-- It would triple the number of families on welfare.

-- It would increase the number of persons on welfare from 10,436,000 to 23,205,000, according to Senate Finance Committee statistics.

In some states -- Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Indiana, Tennessee and Texas, for instance -- it would more than double the number of persons on welfare. In Mississippi, Nebraska and Virginia, it would increase the number of welfare recipients nearly three times; in North Carolina and South Dakota, nearly four times; and in South Carolina and North Dakota, nearly five times.

-- It would put every eighth person in America on welfare.

For the first year, this welfare program would cost about $11 billion. But that's only the beginning.

The cost would go up each year. And no one can tell how high it would go, as politicians campaign for public office with promises to keep raising the level of guaranteed income.

There is already a bill pending in Congress, proposing a $5,500 minimum income, at an estimated annual cost to the taxpayer of $60 billion.

This comes at a time when federal spending should be held in check. A deficit of $10-$15 billion is projected for the current fiscal year 1971. For 1972, the deficit could reach $23 billion.

Continued excessive spending leads to unstoppable inflation.

Business, large and small, across the country, as represented by the National Chamber federation, strongly favors welfare reform. Business recognizes that welfare reform is past due, and would like to see something done about it.

The Chamber, however, does not favor the Administration's welfare reform bill, H.R. 16311.

The reason the Chamber does not support this bill is not alone because of the tremendous cost involved, but more especially because the bill is NOT a welfare reform measure, even though that is what its proponents call it.

It is welfare expansion; it merely piles another aid program on top of those which already exist.

It is not basic, it does not get to the heart of the problem. It does not solve the family welfare problem.

Welfare reform is needed, but not merely a guaranteed annual income for certain families, and a guaranteed annual tax increase for the rest of the citizens.

Therefore, the National Chamber federation feels that Congress should come through with a real welfare program. Specifically:

-- We favor doing a better job than is now being done of taking care of those people who are unable to support themselves, the aged, the blind, the disabled.

-- We are meeting the living needs of able-bodied adults with children in need, and who are on AFDC -- Aid to Families with Dependent Children. But these able-bodied adults should be given training for productive jobs -- for self-support -- and they can be.

-- We favor free family planning counseling and devices.

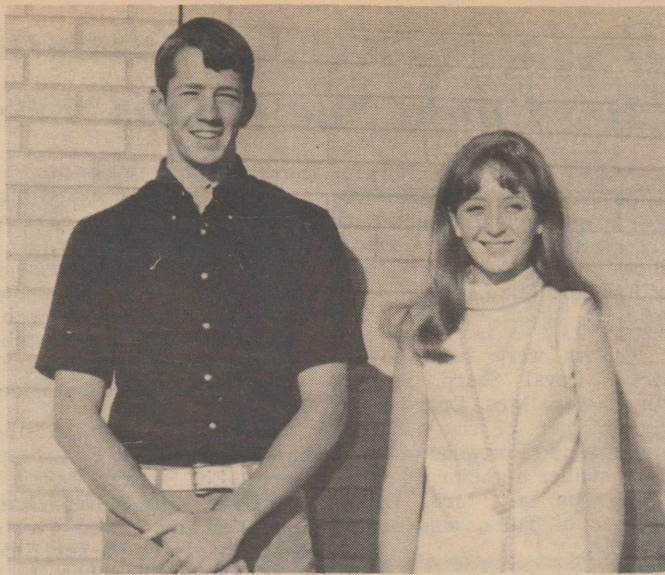

-- We support adequate funding of day-care centers and child-care arrangements to help welfare mothers move into gainful employment and self-support.

-- We are for a constructive program of occupational rehabilitation, with living allowances to help the individual meet daily family needs while in training, and with built-in incentives to take a job.

But we are not in favor of the H. R. 16311 welfare expansion program that would put every eighth person in America on relief -- and that would carry with it no true work incentive for the able-bodied adult.

A main dish salad is a meal in itself—heartly and nutritious. Such a salad is usually built around meat, fish, eggs or cheese in combination with salad greens and a zesty dressing.

However, a light main course salad may be just a generous serving of canned fruit topped with cottage cheese or sherbet. Menus featuring main dish salads may be planned for luncheons, supper or dinner. They are perfect for spur-of-the-moment meals, too, since preparation and service are so easy.

General pattern for a main dish salad menu goes like this: hot soup, salad of your choice, a bread accompaniment, dessert and beverage.

Because canned meats are so often used for main dish salads, remember these tips. For easy slicing, chill well, remove both ends from can, push the contents out in one piece and slice as desired. A warm knife slices smoother. It may be cut several hours ahead and tightly wrapped and refrigerated. Canned shrimp should be soaked in ice water and vinegar for about 20 minutes before adding to the rest of the salad ingredients.

For a homecoming after-game fellowship, why not prepare some salads ahead and invite those former classmates to your house or be ready to take with you in case another last minute party is planned. Today is the day, so go to the pantry and get busy.

A new recipe for me is to use a can of shoestring potatoes, can of mushroom soup and a can of tuna and bake in a 350 degree oven for about 20 minutes. You might want to add cheese for a topping.

Remember to have a supply of fritos and potato chips on hand. Fritos are nice to add to salads. Place in a plastic bag and crush, then use your favorite recipe. A mixture of tuna, green pepper, celery, onion, mayonnaise and fritos is a good combination. It is served cold and should be garnished with fritos, lettuce and sliced stuffed olives.

If you would prefer to serve breakfast after the ballgame, remember an extra supply of bacon and eggs will be needed. For 24 persons, you should plan on using three dozen eggs, four pounds of bacon or two pounds sausage, at least 40 biscuits and a loaf of bread. Also, you might need to borrow the neighbors coffee pot.

You may not have lots of time to plan ahead, so just remember your spur-of-the-moment guests will lend a helping hand. Good luck.

US Chamber Of Commerce Cites Dollar Value Decline

A current reply to the question, "where does the money go?" can be answered, to everyone's misfortune, "down the inflation drain, and at faster speeds," says the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

For example, if you are one of the thousands of Americans investing in either a savings account or life insurance, you were also one of those who suffered losses totaling $60 billion last year in the value of these two investments, all because of inflation.

While many factors contribute to the dollar's erosion, our own national government must take the primary blame for adding fuel to inflationary fires with its continuing excessive spending, and the resulting budget deficits.

In just over two years, the value of the dollar has declined 11 per cent. This can be traced to the enormous $25 billion deficit incurred by the Federal Government for the 1968 fiscal year.

Deficits in the federal budget for the two fiscal years since then have also helped perpetuate the needless decline in the purchasing power of the dollar, and prospects for the current year are for a continuation of the same old federal red ink.

The time has come to shake the habit of deficit government spending that feeds such inflation, the National Chamber contends, however painful such action may be.

Regardless of how attractive and popular appropriation measures seem -- particularly in this election year -- Congress must consider the full impact of such spending, and what any resulting budget deficit will do to the taxpayer's dollar.

President Nixon in expressing his concern over irresponsible spending, said, "The Congress must examine with special care these spending programs which benefit some of the people, but which really raise taxes and prices of all the people."

It's time the taxpaying citizen insists that his congressman apply such a spending test to new appropriation bills. And it's time that deficit spending is curbed so that inflationary pressures are stopped from further eroding our wages and savings.

A Policeman Is

"A policeman is a composition of what all men are, a mingling of saint and sinner, dust and diety . . . He, of all men, is at once the most wanted and the most unwanted . . . He must be such a diplomat that he can settle differences between individuals so that each will think he won.

"BUT . . . if a policeman is pleasant he's a flirt, if he's not, he's a grouch . . . He must be able to start breathing, stop bleeding, tie splints, and above all be sure the victim goes home without a limp - or expect to be sued . . . He must know every gun, draw on the run, and hit where it doesn't hurt.

"He must be able to whip two men twice his size and half his age without damaging his uniform and without being "brutal." . . . If you hit him, he's a coward; if he hits you, he's a bully. . . He must know where all the sin is - and not partake. . . The policeman must chase bum leads to a dead end, stake out 10 nights to tag one witness who saw it happen - but refuses to remember.

"The policeman must be a minister, a social worker, a diplomat, a tough guy and a gentleman . . . And, of course, he'll have to be a genius - for he'll have to feed and clothe a family on a policeman's salary.

The Choice Is Yours

Welcome to Texas!

This is what you'll be saying when you vote on November 3. You can vote NO to open saloons, as we hope you will. And by doing so, you'll be saying "Howdy" and "Welcome" to the sweet sounds of new businesses.

Lots of industry--big industry--is moving to the Southwest. This means purchasing power--families who come to stay and shop in the department stores, buy homes, and insurance and groceries and dry cleaning-- and all the other services offered in a community. This means growth, and growth means prosperity.

Open saloons only hurt the picture. A vote for open saloons means: get ready to say "Howdy" and "Welcome to Texas" to an assortment of underworld personalities who are waiting to seize upon the first opportunity to move into Texas under profitable conditions.

Say "Howdy.. Welcome to Texas." The choice is yours to make on November 3.

Tax Man Sam Sez:

A long time ago Congress decided to change the income tax law by adding the pay-as-you-go provisions. It didn't take most of us very long to find out about pay-as-you-go. Our employer gives us a very effective lesson every pay day. However, the self-employed taxpayer and the taxpayer with income other than his salary or wages, doesn't always seem to understand that Congress provided the benefits of pay-as-you-go for him as well as the rest of us.

Filing an estimated tax form 1040ES and paying taxes quarterly is a nuisance. However, it is less expensive than the tax and the penalty and the interest that Internal Revenue collects if you don't.

FACT & OPINION

The Association of Western Railways, in its publication "Competitive Transportation", commented, with the nation's railroads leading the way, containerization was developed as a variant of the "piggyback" concept. Most containers look like truck trailers without wheels. As much as 30 times faster than conventional handling, containerization speeds up the loading and unloading of freight and protects it against repeated handling.

Longhorns Stomp

By Dav

The Kress Kangaroos hopped high before a shivering Homecoming throng and dropped the Hart Longhorns 53-0.

The Roos outgained the Horns in yardage by 360 yards and the Horns lost the ball 11 times due to miscues.

The game began with the Horns receiving the ball. Stanley Dyer took the ball on his own 22 yard line and was dropped on the spot.

The Horns then began to move the ball pretty well and moved nearly into Kress's end of the field before they were stopped on a big third down play.

They punted to the Kangaroos who found Hart's defense to be a little too tough. The Roos were dropped for a loss on each of their three plays and then punted on their fourth. The Horns took over again and this time disaster struck.

Kent Springer intercepted a Horn pass and the Roos caught fire. They moved to the Hart 36 yard line and then Roy Jackson broke loose and scampered for Kress's first score. Chuck Stark kicked the point after and Kress led 7-0.

Again the Horns caught a bad case of the bobbles as a Horn fumble was picked up by Kress. With the help of a big 15 yard penalty, the Roos found themselves knocking at Hart's door again. And again they entered the end zone.

This time it was on a 9 yard pass from Harley Terrell to Charles Meals. A broken play for the extra point kick caused a run which failed short and Kress led by 13-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter was a defensive battle with both teams not being able to move the ball very well. But then Kress started moving and scored again before the half. This time it was Mike Motheral carrying the mail on a 1-yard run. The kick for the extra point was no good and Kress went to the dressing room leading 19-0.

The third quarter was the icing on the cake for Kress as they tallied 20 big points. The first score came from Mike Motheral netting points and Kress margin to 27-0.

The next score while later was over from the make the score conversion star

The next in the third quarter Steve Wade for and scampered paydirt. The

SENSING THE NEWS

By Anthony Harrigan

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Southern States Industrial Council

In the near future, the U. S. Supreme Court will hear arguments on the issue of busing school children in order to achieve racial balance in the public schools. It is ironical, of course, that school districts should have to go to court in an effort to halt this practice inasmuch as a provision in the 1964 Civil Rights Act specifically forbids it.

The unhappy truth is that we no longer have the rule of law in this country. A number of federal officials and judges have decided to make law, to ignore the intent of Congress, and to compel busing.

As public schools opened this year, the welfare of school children seemed to be a secondary concern in many areas. In Southern states, U. S. Justice Department attorneys insisted on unitary school systems in order to achieve racial balance, despite the fact that no such requirement has been imposed on school districts elsewhere in the nation which have de facto segregation. New York City is a prime example of massive de facto segregation. Moreover, New York State has an anti-busing law which is conveniently ignored by many of the people who want to turn Southern School districts upside down. In short, the South is still the victim of sectional discrimination.

The cruel juggling of Southern school districts, in order to implement arbitrary formulas, does havoc to the educational process. Lost sight of in the crusade for balancing are the real educational needs of youngsters of both races.

The educational and cultural development of many thousands of students in the South will suffer as a result of the demands of the social theoreticians.

Balancing, after all, doesn't help a youngster learn to read or gain an effective grounding in history, math or science. Understandably, able teachers are leaving the faculties of the "formula" schools when opportunities arise to teach at private institutions which emphasize sound learning.

Judicial and bureaucratic tampering with the public schools in the South is not the only injustice being done to school children this year. In a number of northern communities, the opening of school was delayed by teacher strikes or threats of strike action. Unionization of the former teaching profession endangers elementary and high school education in this country. The National Education Association is striving to become a powerful union with an iron grip on the public schools. To this end, it is developing teams of tough union negotiators to deal with the school trustees who represent the taxpayers. These negotiators -- numbering 1,200 -- will insist on collective bargaining with school boards and will threaten strike action where the public's representatives decline to meet NEA demands.

School boards should be--and generally are--concerned about the compensation and working conditions of school teachers. But the NEA apparently isn't interested in established methods of discussion with responsible school officials. Instead, it is gearing up for a Teamster-type effort to bulldoze school boards.

The situation with respect to the schools is unlike ordinary labor disputes. In the case of the schools, the public is the employer. Many taxpayers around the country already feel education is overpriced. Many parents are unhappy with the quality of public education -- and they don't believe the more spending is the answer.

In some communities, voters have refused to approve bond issues for costly school operations. The NEA's pressure campaign almost certainly will produce resistance from overburdened taxpayers who are convinced they aren't getting their money's worth.

Considered together, arbitrary busing demands and the move towards teacher unions indicate the public schools face a difficult future. Both developments point to a decline in education and lessening attention to the needs and welfare of students.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Pierce and family of Lubbock visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Jobe.

Consideration? Discrimination?

Some of the traditional attitudes toward the weaker sex seem to be falling victim of 20th century legislation, and the business community finds itself perplexed as to how female employees should now be treated, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States reports.

Consider the case of Libbey-Owens-Ford, which felt it was in the right by observing such Ohio laws as the ones protecting women from lifting heavy objects in their work, or from having to work long hours.

Not so, said the Federal Government, charging the company with discriminating against the female workers in the first such court case filed. The basis of the suit is the equal employment opportunities protection of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

The National Chamber thinks the great majority of citizens would agree with Congresswoman Leonor K. Sullivan, (D-Mo.), who said, "There are many jobs that women should not have, because of our makeup, that men are better able to handle."

Who knows what will happen if the constitutional amendment giving women equal rights under ALL laws -- already approved by the House -- becomes the law of the land?

POLLUTED WATER

One hospital bed out of four in the world is occupied by a patient disabled by polluted water. Providing safe water is one of UNICEF's programs.

BOMBERS OR VACCINE

For the price of two air-force fighter bombers, UNICEF can provide the vaccine to protect 226 million children from TB.

CRIPPLING YAWS

About 60 million persons in the world are threatened by yaws, a crippling disease. For 2 1/2¢ UNICEF provides the penicillin to cure a child of yaws.

INFANT MORTALITY

About 115,000 babies are born each year throughout the world; two-thirds are born without trained medical assistance. UNICEF helps train midwives to cut infant mortality.

Natural gas is the healthiest, most economical way to heat your house this winter. Gas is economical because it's the direct way to produce heat -- you don't pay to convert heat to another energy source and then back to heat. And with gas you can afford to bring clean outside air into your home this winter instead of having to re-heat the same old stale air time after time.

So, if you're building or remodeling, be sure to specify gas heating. Gas is the "natural" fuel. It's like buying direct from the manufacturer. Call your heating contractor, plumber, or Pioneer Natural Gas.

ENGINEER WARNS ON FARM MACHINERY ACCIDENTS-- B. G. Reeves, Extension agricultural engineer- machinery, says that every fall many farmers lose a hand or arm or even a life due to harvesting machine accidents. Complex harvesting machinery is conducive, he says, to crippling accidents. Most, he emphasizes, can be prevented if machine operators will only follow the rules of safety. Keep protective shields in place; never work on a machine until it is out of gear or the power source is cut off; be careful of footing when mounting or dismounting from a machine and don't wear loose fitting clothing. Never take chances, you are needed in agriculture.

Moments OF Meditation

By Rev. T. H. Taylor

"For as he thinketh in his heart so is he." (Prov. 23: 7a) And if this Proverb is true, let me ask this question. Are your thoughts showing?

After being a pastor of several churches over the past several years I have learned something of what Jesus meant when he said "Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, these are the things which defile a man." (Matt. 15: 19-20)

Youngsters are taught the parable of the two little engines, one of which made the hard pull to the top of the mountain by chugging, "I think I can! I think I can!"

Teachers try to drill into the minds of children that they may succeed in life if they believe they can. Jesus spoke in this view when he said "All things are possible to him that believeth." (Mark 9: 23)

This matter of what we believe and think is a matter of utmost importance. You may not be aware of it, but your every act is a result of your thoughts. Sometimes we are unhappy with ourselves over things we do.

"I don't know what made me do that, I just did it on the spur of the minute," we excuse ourselves, if we would trace our thoughts, we will find what we did was in our thinking first.

We have to admit that our thoughts show up in our attitudes. When we go to church with joy in our hearts and appreciation for everybody, our thoughts have been of the sweet tasting variety. Let your thoughts turn sour, pity yourself, think about how misunderstood you are and not only will your attitudes show it, but everyone will know it.

Norman Vincent Peale said, "Every individual forms his own estimate of himself and that basic estimate goes far toward determining what he becomes. You can do more than you believe you can. You can be no more than you believe you are. Belief stimulates power within yourself.

"Don't be afraid to trust faith." It has been proven that a person uses but a small portion of his mind. I wonder what would happen if we would go at full capacity for a while. Many a football game has been won by the underdog team because they would not be denied what they could do.

We moved to a little community a few years ago that had never won a district championship in football. Everyone said that they didn't have a very good team and the sport-writers had them picked for last place. This team won Regional Championship that year, also in 1969, and I wouldn't be surprised if they don't win it again this year. At the beginning of every school year it is always the same story with some "We don't have much this year." Half the battle is won if you can control the thinking of the team and it should never think of losing.

Now how about the church? It can operate the same way. If the people of God have their thoughts set on spiritual things and be determined to see the Kingdom of God prosper, we would not be able to accommodate all the people that we would have in church on Sunday morning.

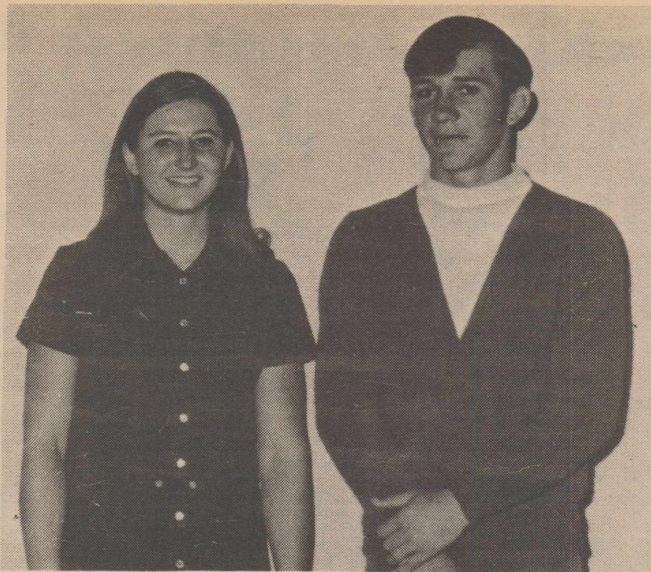

Are you a defeated person? Are you fed up with this cruel world? If you are, just change your thoughts of life, ask your pastor to help you. Believe in yourself.

Accent On Health

Pollution of the air is perhaps the most serious of all the dangers our advanced civilization has created. We can purify our water before we drink it, and we can detect and remove contaminated foods. We can restore the polluted landscape. But we must breathe the air as it comes to us, polluted or not.

During the week of October 25-31, Texans--like Americans throughout the nation--will be observing the 1970 version of "Cleaner Air Week." The Texas State Department of Health's Air Pollution Control Division will be concentrating much of its attention on the formation of "Cleaner Air Week" committees across the state.

The objective of "Cleaner Air Week" is three-fold: to create better understanding of community, state and regional problems related to the protection of the nation's fresh air supply; to promote cooperative effort by everyone toward the solution of such problems; and to encourage individuals and groups to play major roles in coordinated control efforts, particularly at the community level.

During the special week, Texas will be focusing on the problem of pollution. Air pollution causes, its consequences and cures will be brought before the public.

Air pollution has been traced as a definite contributor to such health problems as emphysema, bronchitis, lung cancer, colds, pneumonia and bronchial asthma.

The economic loss from air pollution has been estimated at more than $60 per year for each man, woman and child. Crop damage, corrosion, cleaning bills, wasted fuel, accidents from reduced visibility -- these known effects keep mounting.

Air pollution is a "mix" --compounded from exhausts of millions of automobiles, emissions from power plants and industries, effluent from incinerators and heating plants, smoke from backyard trash fires and municipal rubbish dumps.

To meet our challenge in this state, the Clean Air Act of Texas was passed by the Legislature in 1965. A Texas Air Control Board was created the following year. The State Health Department, in carrying out the Board's air control program, has the authority to file law suits and seek injunctions against offenders of its regulations.

Tax Man

Sam Sez

When the mailman brings your income tax Form 1040 early next January, it won't really help any to holler "Why does Internal Revenue keep changing the thing?" The answer on why is actually a simple one. You, the taxpayers, want Congress to change the law to make it more equitable and possibly to ease your personal tax burden just a little. The good tax folks have to change the form so it will comply with the law. They also try to change the form to cut down taxpayer misunderstanding of instructions on some particular item on the tax form. It is pretty obvious that Internal Revenue can't make a simple Form 1040 because the tax law is just too complex.

Instead of hollering you might as well start to dig into those fine new tax instructions. Reading the instructions always makes the Form 1040 look a whole lot simpler.

THE ONE I CHOSE FOR ME

There is a girl at school
That you really can't call cool,
She had a great desire,
That I have to admire,
She's slow about thinking
And very slow in shrinking,
She has a personality like Twiggy,
And I tell her she is plump
as a piggy,
She was fifteen when we first met,
And that first date I'll never forget,
She hates Dimmitt and never did like Amherst,
Even now or from the very first,
And that's the reason that she is so choozy,
For the girl I chose is Suzy.

don't knock it

Maybe you don't like rock and roll, but there's vibrancy to its beat that lets kids express themselves. Even if it isn't your kind of music it's their kind of music. Perhaps the "generation gap" may be narrowed slightly if you'll listen.

Life, remember, is a process of give and take. Adults and teenagers have to give a little if they are going to reach mutual understanding. If, in the beginning, you've given the basic things — like faith, love and respect, then you've nothing to worry about.

But it's never too late. For instance — have you gone with your teenager to church lately?
