GOOD ROADS.

Good Roads are links that bind the farmer willingly to the farm and give him additional pleasure in his vocation. No one favors bad roads, but a lot of people do not like to pay for them.

After a road is placed in a first-class condition, every one living along the highway is enthusiastic over it and would not return to old conditions for any consideration.

Traveling over improved thoroughfare makes life's journey much more pleasant and profitable.

The profanity oftentimes caused when the wagon sinks to the hub in a mud hole is eliminated, the grouch disappears and sunshine and laughter accompany you on your way to town.

FARM FACTS.

Organization is civilization.

Energy is the secret of success.

Labor brings the inspiration of hope. Self-preservation is a natural instinct.

The farm is the place where human character is built.

There is only one kind of great men—those who achieve.

The farm is the bulwark of our financial institutions.

The permanent prosperity of the city depends upon the farm.

He who plows can produce anything including health and happiness.

Progress is possible only when the seeds of discontent have been culled.

Distance lends enchantment to the farmer who travels over a good road.

The magic influence of the plow will make a desert bloom and blossom.

Nature has intended greatness for men and the farmer is getting his.

Farming is successful only when the crops have been profitably marketed.

Good roads broaden our sympathy, lessen distance and increase our usefulness.

Love of life seems much stronger on the farm for it is there we come in close touch with nature.

It's the man who really counts in farming. Fertile land is necessary, but a master mind must solve the problem of production.

It is while roaming through the fields in the country that we hear Nature's sweet sympathy in all its glory.

PETER RADFORD.

CITY COUNCIL.

The city council met in regular monthly session Monday night.

Reports of city officers were received and approved as were bills for current expenses.

The tax rolls for 1913 were received and approved.

The bid of the Goldthwaite National bank to pay 6 1/2 per cent for the funds of the city was accepted and the bank was declared the depository of the city funds.

H. C. Carothers was a visitor from Belton the first of the week.

It is claimed that slavery in its fullest meaning exists in the Philippines and that men and women are bought and sold like so many cattle. Children are even sold into slavery and carried into China. If this claim proves to be true, the United States government will have some more investigation to do, for the Philippines are under the supervision of this government.

The maritime news columns of the press announce that a large vessel loaded with canned goods at Baltimore has sailed for Galveston, to supply the Texas trade with canned goods and the incident serves to forcefully remind us that we are not buying at home. It is the same old, old story of carrying coal to Newcastle when we ship our fruits to the East and buy back the canned products; or worse still, to permit our vegetables and fruits to rot on the ground for want of canneries to use them. There is nothing that so builds a country as turning waste into profit, and there are many Texas products that have golden opportunities along this line.—Commercial Secretaries.

Life is too dear to sacrifice upon the altar of greed and envy and hate. When you have learned to respect the rights of others, you have learned to live, even if you have not food, and clothing ahead, and if you have made a fortune and think only of yourself, your life is a failure, not alone to the world, but for you. When you are home alone and overcome with an awful loneliness it is pleasant to go out under the stars and as your eyes wander over the broad expanse of heaven, reading the story of your own littleness—it is pleasant then to recall some little deed of kindness in your past. They shine out above all your success and the god Mammon retreat in your mind before the mighty hosts of Heaven's King.—Menard Messenger won't.—Dallas News.

SAVE THE FLOOD WATER.

Water is wealth. It is even more wealthy than contentment, for one can have water without contentment, but he can not have contentment without water. Considering, then, that water is the equivalent of a certain more or less definite number of perfectly good dollars—the number of the dollars varying with the quantity of water one needs in his business—considering, then, that water is money, is it not astonishing that so much good, cool money is allowed to run to utter waste every winter in Texas? If it were raining dollars, or even pennies, constantly from Dec. 1 to May 1 every year, would we fail to impound the metallic flood in every available container, even going to great labor and expense to build reservoirs so large that we should have money the whole year round? Not if we had good sense, as we think we have. But notwithstanding we need water even more than we need money, we for the most part go on from year to year permitting our bountiful winter rains to run off our land into ditches and from ditches into the rivers and sea. If we (meaning we farmers) catch a cistern full for family use and a small pool full for the live stock we think we have done well. We hope for the rains to be regular next summer, so that we shall have no shortage of water, but our experience teaches us that they will not be regular and that we shall be hard put for moisture while the hot weather is still doing business with us. But we do not try very hard to help it. We are fatalistic in our philosophy and we grin and bear it. Of course we might improve our condition, we might save ourselves great expense, safeguard the health of ourselves and our farm animals and even have enough water to irrigate the garden with if we would equip our premises with reservoirs and save in January floods for July needs—of course we could if we would, but we

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Darroch opened their pretty home to the younger social set of the city on Wednesday evening, September 3, 1913. The Darroch home is indeed an ideal place for a social gathering, and this evening was most surely enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Darroch was assisted in entertaining by Miss Lawrence Thompson.

The entire evening was very informal, so every one felt free to join in the games and other forms of amusement.

After all had assembled in the parlor, cards and pencils were passed for a contest which created much lively interest, several being fortunate in taking the high honor. After the contest the guests were invited out on the lawn, where all kinds of games were enjoyed.

As the hour began to grow late, the hostess invited the jolly company into the dining room, where delicious pineapple punch and wafers were served. Mr. Darroch then agreed to teach the boys some new games, which caused much merriment.

At a late hour the guests departed, expressing their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Darroch for the very pleasant evening spent in their home. XX.

Therefore, if you want to have any say as to who will be the officers of the Convention another year you must be on hand Saturday at 1:30 with a letter from your local class.

All music teachers, preachers and Sunday school superintendents and the local class officers are all members of the convention.

CITATION.

The State of Texas

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mills County—Greeting:

Oath having been made as required by law, you are hereby commanded to summon James Estus, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in your county to appear at the next regular term of the district court of Mills county, Texas, to be holden at the Court House thereof in Goldthwaite, on the first Monday in October, the same being the 6th day of October, 1913, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 20th day of February, 1913, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 1302, wherein N. B. Harvey and J. L. King are plaintiffs and W. C. Hancock, A. T. Blankenship, D. E. Valiant, W. S. Beshears, A. P. Beshears, J. H. Beshears, and James Estus are defendants, said petition alleging that the defendant, W. C. Hancock, on the 2nd day of Feb. 1910, executed and delivered to the plaintiff, N. B. Harvey, his certain promissory note of that date for the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty ($250.00) Dollars, payable Feb. 2, 1907, and two notes for the sum of One Hundred and sixty six ($166.65) and 65-100 Dollars, each due Feb. 2, 1913 and 1916 respectively, and payable to the order of Emma Harvey, and two notes payable to the order of Lizzie Young and husband, R. H. Young for One Hundred and sixty six ($166.66) and 66-100 Dollars, each due Feb. 2, 1911 and 1914 respectively and his two notes for One Hundred and sixty six ($166.66) and 66-100 Dollars, each payable to the order of Nathan Hodges and husband, Charlie Hodges, due Feb. 2, 1912 and 1915, respectively, each bearing interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from date, interest payable annually as it accrues, and all past due interest bearing 8 per cent interest per annum from maturity, and each of said notes containing the usual clause accelerating the maturity thereof, and providing for 10 per cent attorneys fees if suit is brought thereon, said notes being given in part payment for Lot No. Four (4) in Block No. One (1) of Kirkpatrick's addition to the town of Mullin in Mills county, Texas, and being out of the J. D. Kirkpatrick survey, conveyed by the payees in said notes to W. C. Hancock by deed of even date with the said notes, and in which a vendor's lien was expressly retained to secure the payment thereof. That the plaintiffs are the legal owners and holders of all of the said notes and the lien securing the payment thereof by endorsement on the back thereof; that the defendant, W. C. Hancock, and wife by their deed dated April 23, 1912, conveyed the said land and premises to the defendants, D. E. Valiant and A. T. Blankenship, in consideration among other things of their agreeing and assuming to pay the said notes; that the defendants, D. E. Valiant and A. T. Blankenship, by their deed dated Oct. 22, 1912, conveyed the said land and premises to the defendants, W. S. A. P. and J. H. Beshears, in consideration among other things of their assuming and promising to pay the said notes; that the defendant, James Estus, is asserting some character of claim to the said premises, the exact nature of which is unknown to the plaintiffs.

Plaintiffs allege that the said deeds are in the possession of the defendants, and they and each of them are hereby notified to produce the same on the trial hereof or secondary evidence of their contents will be offered in behalf of the plaintiffs. Plaintiff, N. B. Harvey, further alleges that he has been required to pay taxes on the said land to protect his security in the sum of Six ($6.79) and 79-100 Dollars for which he also asks judgment.

Plaintiffs further allege that on account of default in the payment of said notes already matured and the installments of interest on all of said notes, which are past due, they have elected to declare all of said notes due and have placed the same in the hands of an attorney for collection and agreed to pay 10 per cent of the amount of the principal and interest thereon as attorneys fees.

Plaintiffs pray judgment for the amount of their debt, principal, interest and attorneys fees, and for foreclosure of their vendor's lien on the said land and premises as the same existed on the 2nd day of February, 1910.

Herein Fail Not, but have you before said court on the first day of the next term thereof, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, L. E. Booker, Clerk of the District Court of Mills County.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court on the 22nd day of August, A. D. 1913.

A special warning has been sent out by the federal secret service to protect the public against a new $20 counterfeit bill. It is said the counterfeit is very complete and hard to detect.

After long investigation into charges made by an attorney in Fort Worth that the grand jury was "packed" and that innocent men had been indicted for burning the Baptist church and parsonage in that city in 1912, Judge Brown issued a statement that the charges were based on street talk and that the grand jury and jury commissioners were honorable men. Some of the evidence at the examination was remarkable for the many "misunderstandings" of some of the witnesses.

Some time in 1910 Porter Carlton, an American, was charged with killing his wife and sinking her body in a lake in Italy. He then returned to America. He was recently returned to that country to answer for the crime and seemed to take it as quite a joke. In fact, he expressed himself as pleased at being taken back to Italy. He was examined by officials there this week and it is reported they found that he was sane. The penalty for the crime, if he is found guilty, will likely be a life term in prison, the first seven years in solitary confinement. He may yet determine there is not much joke about the proceedings.

A report by the federal department of agriculture just issued shows that the condition of the growing cotton crop was 68.2 per cent of normal on August 25, and disclosed the fact that the plants had deteriorated 11.4 per cent since the July report was taken. The August figures were the same as those of August, 1900, and the condition at this period has been lower only three times during the past 22 years, in 1896, when it was 64.2 per cent; in 1902, when it was 64.0 per cent, and in 1909, when it was 63.7 per cent. The greatest deterioration was in Oklahoma where the condition dropped 36 per cent to 45 per cent. In Texas the condition of 64 per cent showed a deterioration of 17 per cent.

Farmer Radford has pointed out that a silo is a factory on the farm and therefore lends itself to co-operation of the commercial and agricultural interests, and the farmer gets the profit of both the producer and consumer. We need more of these twin agencies of prosperity, and commercial clubs cannot render a better service to their communities than in encouraging the building of silos. The silo is a great business educator. It arouses the spirit of enterprise, develops business ingenuity and awakens the joy of ownership. A farmer can build a silo for two or three hundred dollars, and it will, under ordinary conditions, pay a dividend of 40 per cent where it is run to its capacity.—Commercial Secretaries.

The new Allison liquor law was approved by Governor Colquitt and will become effective late in October. The Allison state law on the statute books prohibits shipment of liquor from wet to dry districts. The new Allison liquor law prohibits interstate shipments of liquor. This should make a dry district absolutely dry in so far as the shipment of liquor is concerned. Residents of dry districts are privileged to purchase supplies for their own personal use, but they must carry their purchases with them, as the law makes it a penitentiary offense for a dealer to ship to his customers. The bill was signed by an anti-prohibition governor and received the votes of the leading anti members of the legislature. If the constitutionality of the new law is upheld, after October it will be unlawful to ship liquor from out the state into dry districts within the state.—Exchange.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. DON'T TAKE THE WRONG MEDICINE

If Your Liver Gets Lazy You Need a Liver Tonic, Not Merely a Laxative for the Bowels.

Many people take a simple laxative when their liver gets sluggish rather than take calomel, which they know to be dangerous. But a mere laxative will not start a sluggish liver. What is needed is a tonic that will liven up the liver without forcing you to stay at home and lose a day from your business.

You have such a tonic in Dodson's Liver Tonic. Dodson's Liver Tonic must be all they claim for it because they guarantee it to take the place of dangerous calomel and agree to hand back the money with a smile to any person who tries Dodson's Liver Tonic and is not satisfied with the relief it gives.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a harmless vegetable liquid with a pleasant taste and is a prompt and reliable remedy for constipation, biliousness, sour stomach, and the other troubles that come from a torpid liver.

Clement's Drug Store give it their personal guarantee and if you will ask about this guarantee you will protect yourself against imitations that are not guaranteed. Large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic is 50 cents. (Adv.)

Strengthen Weak Kidneys

Don't suffer longer with weak kidneys. You can get prompt relief by taking Electric Bitters, that wonderful remedy praised by women everywhere. Start with a bottle to-day, you will soon feel like a new woman with ambition to work, without fear of pain. Mr. John Dowling of San Francisco, writes: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters prompts me to write. It cured my wife when all else failed." Good for the liver as well. Nothing better for indigestion or biliousness. Price 50c and $1.00, at R. E. Clements'. (Adv.)

Don't Let Baby Suffer With Eczema and Skin Eruptions.

Babies need a perfect skin-covering. Skin eruptions cause them not only in tense suffering, but hinder their growth. Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment can be relied on for relief and permanent cure of suffering babies whose skin eruptions have made their life miserable. "Our baby was afflicted with breaking out of the skin all over the face and scalp. Doctors and skin specialists failed to help. We tried Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment and were overjoyed to see baby completely cured before one box was used" writes Mrs. Strubler, Dubuque, Iowa. All druggists or by mail, 50c. Caught a Bad Cold.

"Last winter my son caught a very bad cold and the way he coughed was something dreadful," writes Mrs. Sarah E. Duncank of Tipton, Iowa. "We thought sure he was going into consumption. We bought just one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that one bottle stopped his cough and cured his cold completely." For Sale by R. E. Clements. (Adv.)

MAN'S LIMITATION.

Man is a pretty wise animal. He has solved many problems, and as a result he is mightily puffed up. But he has limitations. He can figure to the fraction of a second when a certain planet will cross the path of another planet. But he hasn't yet learned why birds migrate nor how they fly. He can put lots of wheels and wire together and generate a force he calls electricity, and with it he performs wonders. But he does not know what electricity is, nor why it is. He can generate power at a given point, convey it hundreds of miles over a slender wire, and with it light a metropolis. But he has never been able to discover how a lightning bug or a glow worm generates light without heat.

He can build towering buildings, huge cathedrals, giant ships and immense bridges across broad and turbulent streams. But he cannot make an egg, nor explain why the inside of a watermelon is red, the outside green and the seeds black.

He can navigate the ocean and is beginning to navigate the air. But he cannot stay the ocean sides nor divert the currents of air.

Just about the time he gets puffed up so big over his conquests of nature that he is just about to explode with a loud report old Mother Nature smiles and hands him a jolt that knocks all the wind out of him. He is pretty big to be sure, but to compare what he has done with what he hasn't done is as a grain of sand to the bulk of the universe.—Bryan's Commoner.

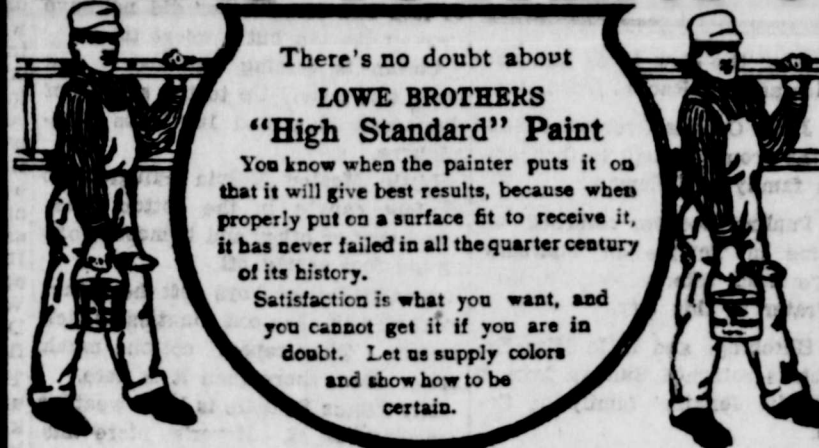

HELPING GIRLS TO GET AN EDUCATION

Mr. George W. Brackenridge of San Antonio has given the University of Texas $25,000, which is to be loaned to young women wishing to study law, medicine or architecture. The money is loaned to young women who without this aid would not be able to obtain a university education. Up till the present time nearly every young woman who has studied medicine in the medical department at Galveston has been able to do so through the generous aid of Mr. Brackenridge. Out of a class of nearly fifty young physicians who graduated in June the students taking first honors and students taking second honors were both young women. One of these students was a Russian girl, who has been in the United States only six years. The other is a graduate of the Academic Department in Austin. She supported herself while a student in the University and at the same time helped support her widowed mother. It has taken years of heroic effort on her part to obtain the two degrees she holds from the University of Texas. Her perseverance and courage are now to be rewarded with a splendid situation, the income of which will enable her and her mother to live in comfort. The story of this young woman should be an inspiration to every ambitious boy and girl in Texas, no matter how poor, who wishes to obtain a University education. It may take hard work and a sacrifice, but a good education is possible in Texas for every aspiring young person. It is one of the blessings of our great public school system, at the head of which, as an integral part, stands the University.—University Bulletin.

Bill Brown, the man who is traveling over the United States with a team of dogs and wolves, spent a part of the week here, where his queer team attracted considerable attention and he sold a number of the post card pictures of his team. He is making the trip to each state capital in the United States and has already been to thirty-five of the capitals, where he has secured the signatures of the governors of the states, so he says. He claims he has a wager with parties in Alaska that he can make the trip with the dogs and wolves.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Came Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Cañon, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its helping me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

PRIDDY.

Editor Eagle:

I will keep my promise and call again.

Mr. Will Schwartz came home one day last week from Marlin, where he had been for the benefit of his health. He says he feels much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hohertz are rejoicing over the arrival of a pretty little girl at their house.

From one cause or other, fire got in some ginned cotton and several bales caught fire, but by hard and skillful work the men got it put out. There was not a great deal of loss and Mr. Pfleger did not have to stop the gin but a short time.

Cotton is coming in fast and early this year. Up to the second of September they had 105 bales ginned here.

Little Master Malvin Pfleger got his foot caught in the cotton press some way or other and it mashed one of his toes nearly off.

A number of boys left here last week for the eastern counties to pick cotton. They report cotton much better down there than it is here.

Mr. Festus Swindle is busy weather boarding E. M. Meyer's store this week.

Mrs. C. Jeske happened to a painful accident by stepping on a nail one day last week. She was confined to her room several days, but is some better at this writing.

Mrs. Ida Hopvogal and children of Fort Worth are here visiting their aunt, Mrs. Aug. Braker, and other relatives. Mrs. Hopvogal also has a large circle of friends in this community, as this was her home in her childhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Schrank are the proud parents of a little girl.

Well, guess that is all for this week. SALLIE.

ABILENE.

Editor Eagle.

Doubtless the editor, as well as the many readers of the Eagle, will be surprised to read an item from our section of the country. Being once a correspondent and a constant reader of your dear old paper, I take the liberty of asking space in your columns for a brief word.

We are at home again from an extended trip to various points, attending protracted meetings. We left here July 17 and held one meeting and visited relatives in Nolan county. From there we went to Lampasas to attend the B. Y. P. U. Encampment for a few days. This was our first time to be present at such a gathering and we enjoyed it to the fullest extent. Life in a tent was not only a novelty, but indeed a pleasure, and of course the open air swimming pool was perfect pleasure and delight. We met some of the friendliest people at Lampasas I think I ever met in my life.

August 2 we were out at Priddy, where my husband began a meeting with Brother Bynum, pastor of the Baptist church at that place. As this was formerly my home, I was rejoiced to see and be with so many of my relatives and friends again. The meeting closed at the end of one week and we returned to Abilene. Husband then left immediately for Callahan county to hold another meeting. Little Howard and I spent the week here with friends and then joined my husband in Jones county, where he is pastor of Mount Pleasant church. This was in many ways the best meeting of the summer. There were twenty conversions, seventeen additions to the church, sixteen by baptism.

As I have before said, we are now at home resting and awaiting the opening of Simmons' College, Sept. 16.

Mr. Editor, we are sorry, we could not find time to call and see you a few moments, but perhaps next time we will not have to be rushed so and can pay you a visit.

I still hold in fond memory all of my dear friends in Mills county and pray God's blessings upon each one.

Kindly yours,

MRS. J. H. McLAUGHLIN.

KILLING IN TEMPLE.

J. C. Carroll shot and killed his brother-in-law, T. G. Gober, in Temple Tuesday afternoon. After the shooting, which is said to have been done in self-defense, Mr. Carroll was arrested and released on bond to await the action of the grand jury. The case has attracted some local interest on account of the fact that Carroll lived a short distance north of this city, on Mr. J. W. Allen's farm, some years ago. He left here to enter the service of the railroad company at Temple. The Temple Telegram's account of the shooting is as follows:

"The exact cause of the shooting, according to a statement given the coroner, was family trouble. Gober had married Carroll's sister about one year ago and the two had been in Temple for the past two months residing with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll on Ninth street. According to statements, Gober was idle most of the time and was somewhat dissipated. It is said he returned home rather late Monday night and Carroll yesterday morning requested him to leave his house. Gober went away, but returned later in the day, supposedly to get his clothes. Gober is said to have drawn his gun on his wife and later shot at Carroll while the two were on the front porch. It is stated Carroll then went in the house, secured a pistol, returned and shot Gober as he was running or walking up the sidewalk. A .38 caliber pistol was found under Gober's body when it was turned over. One chamber of the six-shooter contained an empty cartridge and the gun was cocked which led to the belief that Gober had fired on Carroll before the latter commenced shooting. From where Gober lay to the front gate of the Carroll home is a distance of about 50 feet, Carroll being between Gober and the gate, according to witnesses."

Gober was from Amarillo.

A FAREWELL SOCIAL.

Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 2, from 4 to 6 o'clock, Mrs. B. A. Harris entertained at her pretty bungalow on Fisher street, with a farewell party for Misses Leila and Gladys Brown, who were preparing to leave for their new home in Brownwood.

Twelve guests were invited to share in the afternoon's pleasures and all invitations were gladly accepted.

The parlor and reception room had been adorned for the occasion with cut flowers. Tables were placed for several games, which were enjoyed, while several guests added to the pleasure of the hours with instrumental music which enlivened the games. Hand-painted bon bon dishes filled with the finest bon bons were placed on each table. The refreshment plate with its delicious ice cream and wafers was passed at the close of the games, Mrs. Harris being assisted in serving by Miss Lucille Grisham.

While the afternoon was one of the most pleasant of the season, as the hour of departure drew near a shadow of sadness was cast over the entire party at the thought of losing two of their number.

Everyone present expressed to Mrs. Harris their appreciation of her thoughtfulness in arranging for them to meet once more in a social way with the Misses Brown. XX.

COLDS AFFECT THE KIDNEYS

Many Goldthwaite People Have Found This to Be True.

Are you wretched in bad weather? Does every cold settle on your kidneys? Does your back ache and become weak? Are urinary passages irregular and distressing?

These symptoms are cause to suspect kidney weakness.

Weakened kidneys need quick help. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for weakened kidneys.

Goldthwaite people recommend them. Mrs. Robert Urbach, Goldthwaite, Texas, says: The first symptom of kidney troubles in my case was pain in the small of the back which gradually grew worse until it was changed to a dull ache and I could not sleep. If I caught cold, it settled on my kidneys and made my suffering worse. The kidney secretions were unnatural. When a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a supply at R. E. Clements' Drug Store and they gave me prompt relief. I am never without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Tuesday, September 2, 1913, being the "steenth" birthday of Miss Rosa Keese, it was decided to spend the day celebrating the occasion; and in order to make the day more enjoyable to herself and to share her pleasure with others she invited Misses Jennie Sebolt, Bertha Archer, Mattie Palmer, Kate Palmer, Bina Renfro, Ruth Ford, Consuella Saylor and Tillie Saylor, who brought many useful presents for their young host, and all seemed to bear the determination to make the day a pleasure to all.

Miss Robbie Keese served the company to a most enjoyable birthday dinner, and after the refreshments were finished, Miss Consuella Saylor and Miss Jennie Sebolt further entertained them by rendering some of their favorite pieces of music in their own attractive manner. That none of the day might be wasted and to show the girls their appreciation of their visit, Mr. and Mrs. Keese accompanied them all to the picture show, after which the party broke up with many well wishes and expressions of a very pleasant time. A GUEST.

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL OCCASION.

At the conclusion of the games Misses Lupton and Lackner cut for the prize. Miss Lupton being the fortunate one received a handsome box of stationery.

Covers were laid and a delicious salad course was served. Musical selections were rendered by Misses Lackner, Mary Lou Rahl and Gose.

The personnel on this occasion were: Misses Pauline Lackner of Temple, Annie Lupton of Rogers, Fay Gose of Houston, Mary Lou and Willie Rahl, Leila Allen, Sallie Weathers, Blanche Priddy, Leila Brown, Zella Prater, Estel Grundy, Jewel Little, Eleanor Skaggs, Mesdames Geeslin and Skaggs. A GUEST.

NEW STORE.

The announcement of the opening of B. A. Harris' new store next Saturday appears in this issue. Mr. Harris has been identified with the business interests of this town since its beginning and has a host of friends who will be glad to meet with him at his old stand again. He is a good business man and has had long experience in the dry goods business. Messrs. S. W. Burks and Ernest Cooke and Miss Jessie Watson are assisting Mr. Harris in the store.

SIX O'CLOCK BREAKFAST.

Thursday morning Miss Zella Prater invited a number of her friends to go to the country for breakfast, where Miss Pauline Lackner was honor guest.

Trent lake was the scene of much merriment, after the arrival of several carriages and automobiles. Breakfast was cooked around the camp fire. Just at sun rise, the scene was a jolly crowd of girls seated around a bounteous spread of toast, breakfast bacon, eggs, fruits of all kinds and hot coffee. After breakfast a number of the party enjoyed a plunge in the lake.

Those enjoying this hospitality were Misses Pauline Lackner of Temple, Ethel Amick of Brownwood, Estel Grundy, Lillie and Sophia Martin, Helen Woody, Nora Hicks, Lissie Allen, Allie Mae Hicks, Eva Allen, Eleanor Skaggs, Mamie Kelley, Lois Allen, Master Walter Prater Allen and Miss Zella Prater. A GUEST.

INTRODUCTION SOCIAL.

Among other courtesies which have marked the visit of Miss Pauline Lackner of Temple with Miss Zella Prater was the introductory party given by her hostess on Saturday afternoon. More than a dozen of the younger society set responded to this invitation. Tables were placed for the fascinating game of "hearts" and for more than an hour everybody played and gaiety prevailed in a high degree. Indeed, this was one of the merriest of the summer parties a hospitality well worth while from a graceful hostess and one who made her home appointments with the best of taste. Miss Lackner came in with an honoree's attention and she responded with a charm which pervaded the full guest assemblage.

The final game awarded Miss Belle Harper with high score and a beautiful bar pin. The honoree was presented a dainty bit of hand work.

Time passed quickly in the joy of the game with its aftermath of refreshing dainties and its hour of merry chat. XX.

SUCCESS NOT MEASURED BY MONEY.

There are many men who are counted failures in life as the world regards success, who are really the most successful of men, because they have learned the real purpose of life. They have been kind to the friendless, and ministered to the sick and the suffering. You doubtless have in mind some person who has barely made a living, but who has ever been ready to comfort the widow and the orphan, and who has always cheerfully responded to the call of distress day or night. I have in mind and you doubtless know of some one also whose worldly goods amount to but a few dollars but who has always been kind to and thoughtful of little children, who has never forgotten the dumb animals, who has always spoken kind words and who has never found it too hot or too cold to sit by the bedside of a friend when sickness pressed a fevered hand upon him.

I have given it all serious thought, and I honestly believe that those who spend their time in kindly deeds, and are willing once in a while to relieve suffering, help a fellow over a tight place, are the ones who are the happiest in the world to come. We waste a great deal of time in useless quarrels, in useless criticisms, in useless bickering, when we should be busy doing something that will help along some individual, the city, the county or the state.—Cleburne Enterprise.

VICTOR HUGO'S BELIEF.

Man is an infantile little copy of God; this is glory enough for man. I am a man, an invisible atom, a drop in the ocean, a grain of sand on the shore. Little as I am, I feel the God in me, because I can also bring forth out of my chaos. I make books, which are creations; I feel in myself the future life; I am like a forest which has been more than once cut down; the new shoots are stronger and livelier than ever. I am rising, I know, toward the sky. The sunshine is on my head. The earth gives me its generous sap, but heaven lights me with reflections of an unknown world. You say the soul is nothing but the result of bodily powers. Why then is my soul more luminous when my bodily powers begin to fail? Winter is on my head and eternal spring is in my heart. I breathe at this hour the roses of twenty years ago, the fragrance of the lilacs and the violets. The nearer I approach the end the plainer I hear around me the immortal symphonies of the world that invites me. It is marvelous yet simple. It is a fairy tale and it is historic. For half a century I have been writing my thoughts in prose and verse, history, philosophy, drama, romance, tradition, satire, ode and song. I have tried all, but I feel I have not a thousandth part of what is in me. When I go down to the grave I can say I have finished my day's work; but I cannot say I have finished my life. My days will begin again the next morning. The tomb is not a blind alley; it is a thoroughfare. It closes on the twilight to open on the dawn.—Victor Hugo.

DEVELOP THE CHILD.

The old idea that children were individual students of all things is fast disappearing and in its stead we find whole communities working for the development of the child. In sections where this has been tried the boys and girls find a great pleasure in both work and study, and a higher standard of childhood is being established. The idea is based upon the theory that children are or should be, interested in healthy sports and that by banding them together in large numbers a greater degree of efficiency can be developed. For instance, if one of the children shows signs of unusual development, the balance of the boys and girls will strive to reach the same perfection and therefore the whole number will be benefited. A workshop where the boys can congregate and build articles of furniture and a cooking school for the girls have been included in the work of collectively developing the little ones.—Mrs. E. P. Turner.

One man becomes a bank clerk and is soon elevated to the presidency; another becomes a bank clerk and is fired. One man writes a book and the royalties bring him $500 a month; another writes a book and no publisher will print it. One man invests his money and the price of stock goes up. The man is rich. Another puts his money in stocks; the price falls away and he is penniless. One man marries a woman and her relatives leave them a million; another man marries a woman and he has his wife's relatives to support. The worst of it, too, we're always "another man." Are you with us?—Bonham News.

SUN RISE BREAKFAST.

With all summer's heat, there have been some very pleasant and unique entertainments given this week in honor of Miss Pauline Lackner of Temple, who is a guest of Miss Zella Prater.

One of the most enjoyable occasions was a sunrise breakfast in the woods Thursday morning, conducted by Miss Prater. After the guests arrived a camp fire was built. Some broiled meat and fried eggs, while others prepared the table and soon the delicious aroma of coffee arose in the air. Having their appetites sharpened by the early morning ride, each one was reluctant to leave the table. Following breakfast, some took a cold plunge in the water while the others conversed on the banks. As the sun had risen almost to the zenith of his glory, the party proceeded to go home, everyone declaring it one of the jolliest treats of their life.

The personnel of the party were:—Misses Pauline Lackner of Temple, Ethel Amick of Brownwood, Helen Woody, Mamie Kelley, Lillie Martin, Nora Hooks, Sophia Martin, Zella Prater, Lois Allen, Lissie Allen, Eva Allen, Eleanor Skaggs, Allie Mae Hicks, Estel Grundy, and Master Walter Prater Allen. XX.

No man is more constantly unhappy, or makes more so, than the impatient man. He is out of harmony with all things; and all things fight and worry and wound him. He feels himself dishonored, too, by his impatience; and he does love, so far as he indulges it, the true dignity of life. He is not cast, indeed, like the victim of sensual vice, into the slough of dishonor; his garment perhaps is not soiled, but it is burned through, in thousand spots, by the everdropping little sparks of petulance, and it is in tatters and disordered with the evercrossing flurries of angry passion; and he seems to himself and to others as one who scrambles through life, rather than as one who walks in the calm and dignified robe of conscious self-possession. Constant fretting and fault-finding and breaking out into sarcasm and anger may bereave a house of all honor, peace and comfort almost as effectually as gluttony and drunkenness. Or suppose that the fretful temper be hidden and smothered in the heart, then it wastes and consumes the springs of the inmost life.—Ex.
