Answerline

(Q) I have just recently found out what our young peoples slogan at ball games means. I really wonder how many people know what GATA means. Do you know? I was truly shocked. And they call themselves The Fellowship of Christian Athletes! I was told that GATA means "Get After Their A-".

(A) GATA was instituted by former Wolves' head coach Mike Farda in 1975.

GATA is an attribute of every Wolf Pack. Coach Farda told his Wolves GATA meant "Get after them Always."

Unfortunately, some persons, who are not familiar with Wolf pride, have altered its true meaning.

October was busy month

Police answer record high calls

By LUIS RIOS

The Colorado City Police Department hit a record high month in October when it answered 1,465 calls and investigated 90 crimes, according to the monthly report released by Chief of Police Ed Wheat.

The October figure was almost double of the number of calls answered in April. The April figure for calls was 697. The Police Department also answered 1,015 calls in September. The increase brings the yearly total to 6,776.

The crimes investigated were more than double from the April figure of 42 crimes investigated. The two most serious crimes investigated in October included two aggravated robberies.

The incidents included the armed robbery of the local Safeway store on Oak Street and the armed robbery of B&J Liquor Store. Arrests were made in both cases.

The department answered 13 burglary incidents compared to seven for September. Traffic ordinance reports were up for October. The Department issued 144 ordinance violations compared to 100 for September.

The reports also showed the number of drunkenness and disorderly conduct violations were up from September. There were 58 combined cases of both crimes reported in October.

In the animal control division, the department answered 120 calls in October.

Precinct 1 residents will vote at the County courthouse; Precinct 2 will vote at the Westbrook Tax office; Precinct 3 at the Housing Authority building on Oak Street and Precinct 4 at the Loraine Lions Club Building. Precinct 7 will vote at the Oak Street Baptist Church.

The Colorado City RECORD has provided a sample ballot on Page 7A.

Russell joins C-C police department

Ray Russell

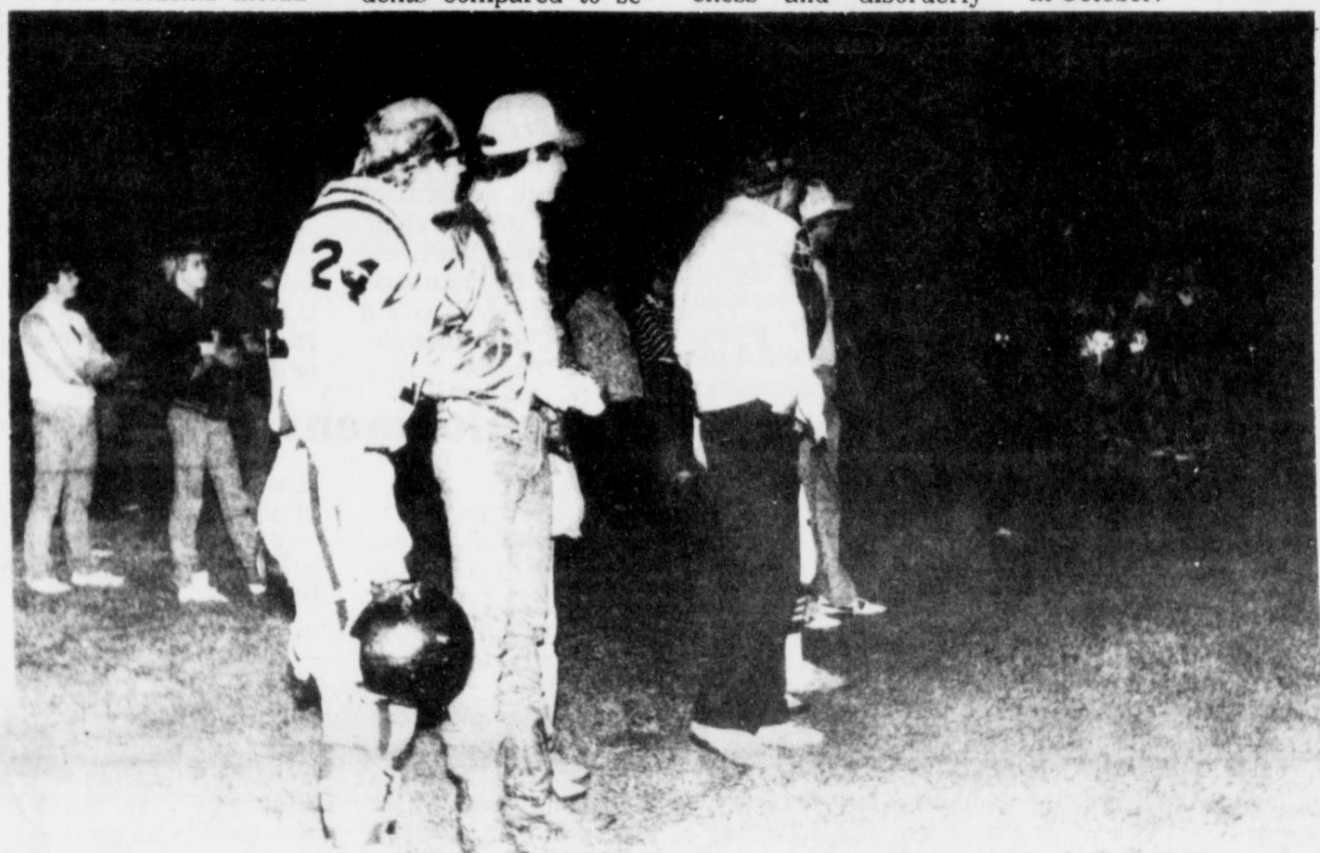

Ray Russell, formerly of Lubbock, is the new addition to the Colorado City Police department, said Police Chief Ed Wheat.

Russell, 37, has been in law enforcement for one-and-one-half years. He last was with the Sheriff's Department in Lubbock. He is married and has no children.

Russell said working in Colorado City should be a big change after working in Lubbock.

"It is a lot different than coming from a large city," he said. The people are a lot friendlier. And the Department is friendlier too."

Russell began working as a patrol officer effective Nov. 1.

Buck Trice (24) and Loraine Coach Jack Petty (third from left) look on during Friday night's game against Foran. Loraine dropped its final game, 44-6.

Colorado City ends season with 21-14 loss to Crane

For the Crane Golden Cranes, Christmas came early when New Mexico transfers Jim and Joe Vasques came to town.

The Vasques brothers came together with a stout Crane defense to defeat the Wolves 21-14 in the district finale to see which team would advance to the state playoffs.

The Cranes came into the contest with a 3-0-1 district record while Colorado City was 3-1. But this night belonged to the Vasques brothers and a stingy defense lead by 270 pound tackle Junior Bishop.

Held in check most of the first half I-back Jim and wing-back Joe went to work.

For the second consecutive week it seemed the Pack forgot to play one half of football as they totally dominated the first half lead by ex-J.V. back Sammy Rivera.

Light cotton crop forecasted for county

By LUIS RIOS

Mitchell County cotton growers as well as American cotton growers currently face a good market due to reduced production and increased consumption, but it is not all "peaches and cream" down the road, said an economist in cotton marketing.

The county cotton crop should be approximately 18,000 to 20,000 bales this year, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service agent Don Stewart said.

"What caused (low yield) it was the bad weather, drought and the recent flooding," he said. "Last year we had a short crop (only 27,000 bales ginned)."

Despite the low yield expected for the 1983 year, Stewart said the quality in the county has been extremely good.

The estimated 18,000 or 20,000 expected for the year will be considerably down from a high of 80,000 bales in 1980, Stewart said. The reduction in acreage is also another factor that resulted in the low yield.

Stewart also added that the county producers in Mitchell County who are receiving their PIK entitlement or SCC are required to place 40 percent of their PIK entitlement on the loan at the Mitchell County ASCS office.

The failure of this will result in 40 percent loss of PIK entitlement, Stewart said.

Unemployment up in Mitchell County

The unemployment rate for Mitchell County for September saw a steady increase from August, according to figures from the Texas Employment Commission regional office in Sweetwater.

The unemployment rate for September was 6.4 percent which showed a .6 percent increase from August's figure of 5.8 percent. The increase was still far below from the state-wide rate of 8.6 percent in September. The national unemployment rate was still even higher topping 8.8

percent. TEC Sweetwater office manager Jerre Howard said the depression in the cotton related industry was one reason for the steady increase in the unemployment rate.

But she also noted that the cotton industry should create jobs and the unemployment rate should drop in the near future. She said the slow down in the construction industry (because of the cold weather) should not affect the rate very "Part of the problem is that higher market prices this season will encourage increased production next year, driving market prices down to perhaps just above the loan level for 1984," points out Dr. Carl Anderson with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"The other factor dimming the long-term outlook for U.S. cotton farmers is that, while they have worked to reduce production, China and Russia have increased production," notes the economist.

The U.S. supply is much less than was anticipated earlier in the season, Anderson says. Total cotton supply in the nation is about 15.5 million bales—about 3 million less than in 1982 and the smallest crop in 16 years.

Texas cotton production is forecast at 2.25 million bales, the smallest upland crop since 1946. Harvested acres are 19 percent below last year's weather reduced harvest.

However, foreign production is estimated at $9 million bales—3.5 million more than last year. This means that essentially all of this season's world stock reduction will originate in the U.S., notes Anderson.

With some recovery in the world economy, consumption is expected to be up this year, but U.S. textile trade is in a big deficit. Textile imports are up and exports have fallen, dampening the use of U.S. cotton despite the moderate recovery in total cotton consumption, Anderson says.

Also, cotton has once again lost its price advantage over synthetics. "It is essential for cotton to not only maintain its diminished share of total fiber consumption, but to also regain some lost ground," Anderson says. "The future for cotton depends to a great extent upon the industry's desire and willingness to seek new technological developments in the production and processing of cotton fiber."

Increased prices and consumption will encourage U.S. farmers to increase planted acreage in 1984, Anderson predicts, and foreign producers are unlikely to cut back from their increased production this year.

"Assuming favorable weather, conditions clearly point to a bearish cotton market in the second half of 1984," the economist says. "Therefore, producers should consider pricing a large part of next year's crop early, probably well before planting." Only adverse weather in this country, China or Russia is likely to reduce 1984 global production below consumption, contends Anderson.

He suggests that farmers market this year's crop early rather than holding out for a higher price next year because it likely won't come. Cotton prices will probably peak sometime early this fall, says Anderson. Plus holding cotton accumulates monthly storage and interest costs of some $4 to $4.50 per bale.

25 year employees honored at TESCO dinner

Texas Electric honored area employees who have marked their 25th anniversary with the company at a dinner on Tuesday, November 1, at the Colorado City Civic Center.

Company President Bill Marquardt was on hand to initiate the six new 25-year members into the company's Quarter Century Club.

In his remarks, Marquardt thanked the employees for their help in cutting costs throughout the company, noting that individual cost-reduction efforts have added up to major savings. He encouraged the employees to continue to search for additional ways to keep costs down in the future.

Marquardt also gave the new Quarter Century Club members an update on progress at the Comanche Peak nuclear plant. He said that Unit 1 is nearing completion.

In addition, Marquardt applauded all TESCO employees for continuing to serve customers quickly and efficiently, even though the company is cutting back on employees while its service area continues to grow.

Area TESCO employees who were honored at the dinner are J. R. Bobo and Sonny Pawkett of Colorado City; Don Calvert, Raymond Lambert and G. Don Price of Sweetwater and Hilton Parsons of Westbrook.

Bentsen calls for investigation

Senator Lloyd Bentsen called for an investigation into continuing discrepancies in the quality of government owned corn stored in an elevator in Plainview, Texas.

"I believe that this situation merits oversight of the Senate Agriculture Committee," Bentsen said in identical letters to Chairman Jesse Helms (R-N.C.) and Ranking Member Walter Huddleston (D-Ky.).

"I would appreciate it if you would initiate an investigation by the committee to determine the facts of this matter."

Bentsen had asked Secretary of Agriculture John Block on October 19 to look into an apparent sharp decline in the quality of the corn stored at the P.L.B. Grain Storage Corporation elevator in Plainview.

In his letter to Block, the Senator noted that the current U.S. Department of Agriculture inventory lists less than one percent of the corn stored there as of the lowest grade. A recent sampling by the Texas Department of Agriculture, though, found 53 percent to be of the lowest grade.

In his letter, Bentsen noted discrepancies had also been revealed in the quality of government owned corn stored at the elevator by U.S.D.A. inspections conducted in January 1981 and March 1982.

"In January of 1981 U.S.D.A. inspectors found only 9 million bushels of top quality corn when the inventory at the time called for 13.5 million bushels. U.S.D.A. inspectors also found 4 million bushels of the lowest grade corn where there were supposed to be only 733,000 bushels. The elevator at that time was also short by 232,000 bushels on its total inventory of government-owned grain."

"In March of 1982, U.S.D.A. inspectors found only 6.4 million bushels of top quality corn when the inventory at that time called for 13.5 million bushels. U.S.D.A. inspectors also found 3.6 million bushels of the lowest grade corn when only 10,000 bushels were on the inventory of the Commodity Credit Corporation. They also found a shortage of 119,000 bushels in the total inventory."

"The U.S.D.A. has not checked the quality of this grain in 18 months, even though the U.S.D.A. inspections in both 1981 and 1982 turned up deficiencies which I believe should have warranted especially close monitoring of this elevator."

"The situation raises a number of questions which I believe should be answered," Bentsen said.

"Why does the current C.C.C. inventory show only 356 bushels of the lowest grade corn when recent inspections by the State of Texas show much more? Why has there been a sharp decrease in the amount of top quality corn in the elevator? What was done in response to apparent quality problems that the 1981-1982 U.S.D.A. inspections revealed? Why has the U.S.D.A. not sampled this elevator for 18 months in view of the past problems? What is U.S.D.A. policy in cases of quality deterioration and has it been followed in this instance?" Bentsen said.

"I believe the taxpayers would be well-served by an early and complete response to these questions and I appreciate your consideration of this request," Senator Bentsen said.

much. The preliminary figures for the labor force in Mitchell County numbered 4,345. Those employed during the September period numbered 4,068.

The unemployment rate in the West Texas area surrounding Mitchell County was also up for the month of September. Kent County had a 4.9 percent rate, Nolan Stonewall County was the only county nearby that had a dramatic drop in its unemployment rate. Its figure was down to 2.6 percent from August's figure of 7.1 percent.

Wolves

Rivera was brought up from the J.V. for the contest and responded with 85 first half yards on 17 carries. Although the Pack trailed 7-6 at the half, they churned out 200 yards total offense while Crane was limited to 89.

But the second half was a different story as the Cranes controlled the ball for 19 of the 24 minutes and the Wolves could muster only three first downs and 116 total yards.

Most of that came in the final drive of the contest which covered 62 yards in four plays.

Meanwhile in the second half only, Jim Vasques rushed for over 130 yards on 15 carries. While Jim was doing his thing on the ground, brother Joe was doing his in the air and on the ground.

Joe ended the contest with 15 carries for 81 yards and two receptions for 27 yards and completed one pass.

C-City was hurt by their inability to produce points on scoring threats in the first half. Twice the Pack drove the ball inside the Crane 30 yard line and both times they came up empty handed.

Crane struck in the first quarter when Bishop intercepted a Doug Chitsey screen pass at the Wolves 40 and rambled to the 25.

They scored on a 17 yard pass from Todd Rodgers to a wide open Joe Vasques in the flats. Bishop's point after touchdown was good with 3:50 remaining.

Next the Wolves drove the Crane 28 behind the hard running S. Rivera. But the drive stalled when Chitsey's fourth down pass attempt was incomplete.

Early in the second quarter, the Pack drove from their own 40 to the Crane 17. S. Rivera and Larry Hamilton gained most of their yards right off tackle.

Again the drive faltered and Dennis Rivera's 32 yard field goal attempt was short and Crane had dodged the bullet yet another time.

The Pack's defense went to work when middle linebacker Michael Luera roared through to get a piece of a Crane punt and C-City had good field position at mid-field.

It took the Pack just one play as Chitsey dropped back and found tight-end Don Randle 35 yards down field behind his defender. The big receiver gathered in the ball and waltzed the remaining yards for the score. The try for two failed and the score was 7-6 with 5:17 remaining in the first half.

The second half was all Crane as the Cranes simply lined up in their power I formation and controlled the line of scrimmage.

Their first scoring drive in the second half came early in the fourth quarter. It covered 85 yards and took only seven plays with the Vasques brothers doing the damage.

Jim Vasques took the ball and counter-optioned it which completely fooled the Wolves as he scampered 51 yards for the score. The PAT was good with 10:54 remaining.

Cranes final scoring drive of the night was a picture of beauty. It covered 75 yards, took 17 plays and lasted eight minutes. Jim Vasques carried every play but three and scored on a two yard run. The PAT was good with 1:19 remaining.

C-City down, but not out, came roaring back as Chitsey and crew started at their own 38, and two plays later were on the Crane two.

Chitsey found West Texas' leading receiver, D. Rivera for gains of 19 and 40 yards. The latter coming on a fly pattern and diving catch.

After losing a yard, S. Rivera scored from the three. He also ran for the two point conversion with less than one minute remaining.

The following on side kick was recovered by Crane to end any hope of a Wolves comeback.

Jim Vasques was the game's leading rusher with 181 yards on 24 carries. S. Rivera paced the Wolves with 23 carries for 106 yards.

Chitsey was 9 of 18 for 158 yards and one interception, while Randle caught three passes for 76 yards and D. Rivera snagged aials for 82 yards.

The Wolves end the season with a 6-4 mark while Crane heads to the playoffs with a 9-0-1 record.

Wolves' freshman defender Terry Jackson races to stop a Coahoma runner in Thursday's action. Coahoma scored on the drive to tie the Wolves in both teams final game.

Bulldogs drop final game 44-6 night.

Senior quarterback Ruben Garcia ran and scrambled for almost all of Lorraine's rushing yardage, finishing with 31 of the Bulldogs 36 yards. Garcia also accounted for his team's lone score on a pass to junior halfback Aundra Rose.

That score ended a 80 yard drive capitalized by three Garcia completions. Rose accounted for two of those completions, with fullback Ricky Bailey getting one reception at the Buffalo 30 to set up Lorraine's score.

On defense Garcia also saved face as he stopped a Forsan drive with an interception at the Bulldog 48. Garcia also joined teammates John McAdams and Ralph Gonzales in recovering fumbles after the few misfires the Buffaloes did have. They each finished the night with one recovery each.

Even nature got into the act of hindering the Bulldogs efforts. A heavy fog had rolled in by gametime.

That, however, did not bother Forsan one bit. They came to Lorraine to run the ball and run they did.

Leading their ground attack were halfbacks Mitch Hays and Rodney McMillan who finished with 59 yards on four carries and 70 yards on three carries, respectively.

the Bulldog 48. Garcia also joined teammates John McAdams and Ralph Gonzales in recovering fumbles after the few misfires the Buffaloes did have. They each finished the night with one recovery each.

Even nature got into the act of hindering the Bulldogs efforts. A heavy fog had rolled in by gametime.

That, however, did not bother Forsan one bit. They came to Lorraine to run the ball and run they did.

To underscore Forsan's running success, the Buffaloes punted only once. That punt was a 54 yarder that put the Bulldogs deep at their own one yard line. A hole from which they never recovered.

It was the tough running of the Forsan stampede that demoralized the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs opened the scoring with a four-play 65-yard drive that culminated with Hays scampering from seven yards out. The extra-point conversion failed.

Forsan went on to score four more times in the first half to take a commanding lead.

The Buffaloes, coached by Jan East, scored on drives of 82 yards, 52 yards, 56 yards and 30 yards.

Forsan's only second-half score came on a 45-yard interception return by Hays in the third quarter.

Hays also had a 30 yard interception return for a touchdown in the second quarter.

Lorraine was unsuccessful in moving the ball through the air. The Bulldogs were 5 of 17 attempts with two interceptions for the night.

A. Rose was the leading receiver in the game grabbing three passes for 56 yards.

Lorraine's sole victory in a 1-9 season came at the hands of Abilene Christian High School.

Wildcats too tough for C-City Spikers

By STEVE BELVIN

The Wolves volleyball season came to an abrupt halt Thursday night in Ft. Stockton as the Fabens Wildcats downed the Pack 15-9, 15-13 in bi-district volleyball action.

Both teams jumped out to impressive leads in each match but the Wildcats were able to protect theirs and the Wolves weren't.

The first match was Fabens all the way as the Pack had the lead only once, 1-0 on an opening serve by Robyn Turner.

But Fabens came right back with five points by their first server. They then stretched the lead to 8-1. The Pack cut the lead to 11-8 thanks to serves by Turner and Laura Baum, but it was not enough.

Freshmen, Coahoma tie 6-6

By TONY FRANCO

Last Thursday's freshmen football game was one played in the first and last five minutes.

The Wolves, after spotting the visiting Coahoma Bulldogs a touchdown on their first possession, fought back in the waning minutes to salvage a 6-6 tie.

After holding the Bulldogs in check for the entire third quarter, the Pack originally began their lone scoring drive at their own 40 yard line.

Following the exchange of sides at the start of the last period, Wolf quarterback Mike Swann promptly took a keeper to midfield for a first down.

Right on his heels was running back Ralph Gonzales, who on the next play, juked, side-stepped and somehow kept his balance for another 10 yard gain.

On the play, a Coahoma defender was called for unnecessary roughness, moving the ball to the Bulldog 25. That set up a pitchout from Swann to Gonzales who found some excellent blocking around right end to the six yard line.

On the next play, the offensive line again provided a large hole for quarterback Swann, but to no avail, as he fumbled the ball just three yards shy of paydirt.

The Bulldogs managed one first down before the Pack defense took matters into their own hands. On fourth down deep at their own 24, Coahoma chose to attempt a first down. Wolf defensive tackle Wylie Dakan, however, had other plans as he met the ball carrier head on at the line of scrimmage and dropped him for a short gain.

Colorado City was now poised to finally get on the scoreboard. The Wolves seemed to be headed that way as Gonzales ran on first down for a big eight yard gain.

That was quickly nullified as he fumbled the ball at the end of the run to set up the Bulldog offense. But the Bulldogs quickly returned the favor and fumbled back to a hard hitting Pack defense.

After taking over just 15 yards away from six points, a motion penalty followed by a clipping call, moved the Wolves back to the 32 yard line. On second down and 27, Coahoma got into the act as they were called for pass interference to give Colorado City a first down at the 23 yard line.

From there, Wolf back Reggie Gardner carried for three yards. On second down, Gonzales took a pitch to the 16, then followed that with a run up the middle to give the Wolves a first and goal at the nine.

On second down, the Bulldogs were again called for pass interference and the Wolves now had a first and goal at the three.

Gardner, on first down, fought to the one yard line. On the next play, behind excellent blocking, quarterback Swann redeemed himself of the earlier fumble by running up the gut of the defense for the tying score.

On the extra point attempt, the snap from center gave the holder some trouble. He quickly got up with the ball but could find no running or passing opportunity.

For the Coahoma Bulldogs, their only score came on their first possession as they caught a cold Wolf defense off-guard.

Carrying the brunt of the load for the Pups was skilled receiver Craig Wallace number 11, who throughout the game gave the Wolf defenders all they wanted.

In the scoring drive, Wallace accounted for all but 24 yards of the 80 yard march, capitalized on a quarterback keeper by Bulldog Chris Parker.

The freshmen Wolves end the season with a 3-5-1 record.

Freshman quarterback Mike Swann (6) pulls up to make a pitch to his tailback during the Wolves-Coahoma game Thursday. The Wolves struggled to a 6-6 tie.

The Wolves Junior Varsity huddle around Albert Rivera during Thursday night's game against Coahoma. The Wolves stopped Coahoma 13-6.

JV Wolves put the bite on Coahoma

By STEVE BELVIN

A star left the junior varsity to go to the varsity and another star emerged as the Wolves closed out their season with a 13-6 victory over Coahoma.

Running back Sammy Rivera was moved to the varsity for their encounter with Crane and Junior Coronado took up the load by rushing for 167 yards on 19 carries including a 76 yarder for the game's opening touchdown.

The Wolves defense headed by Albert Rivera, Jimmy Thompson, Dale Craighead and Coronado was at its best as they gave ground but always tightened up in the do-or-die situation.

Two times the Bulldogs were deep into Wolves territory and both times the Pack held, once at the 35 yard line and at the 33.

The Wolves defense could also be credited with forcing turnovers at the Bulldog eight and 18 yard lines. Neither time the Wolves scored. In fact, the visitors had to drive three yards for their only score of the game.

Coahoma's opening drive was their most impressive as they drove from their own 27 to the Wolves 30. The drive ate up seven minutes but the Pack's defense held at the end.

The Pack failed to convert on two scoring chances in the first half. The first came on a 58 yard drive thanks mainly to the running of quarterback Mike Ligon and Coronado. But on a fourth and five from the ten, the Wolves failed.

The other scoring threat came late in the second quarter when tackle Craighead sacked the quarterback and counterpart A. Rivera recovered at the Bulldog eight. The half ended in a 0-0 tie.

The Wolves fumbled on their first possession of the third quarter at their own 29, but again the defense rose to the occasion.

On the Pack's next possession, Coronado brought the crowd to their feet as he took a handoff, broke through the right side on the line, cut across the field and scampered untouched 76 yards.

Heath Blassingame's point after touchdown was good and the Pack led 7-0 with 5:15 remaining.

In the ensuing kickoff, kicker Thompson hustled downfield to jar the ball from the return man and Coronado recovered at the Coahoma 18.

But the Pack's drive faltered and Blassingame's 35 yard field goal attempt fell short.

Coahoma's only score came in the fourth quarter as the Wolves punter never got a chance to get the ball away and fumbled at the Pack's three. It took the visitors three plays to score.

The all important try for two was stopped by Adam Alvarez.

The Wolves other score came following Coahoma's onside kick attempt. The Pack drove 50 yards for the tally. Ligon scored from the three. The PAT was blocked.

The Wolves close out the season with a 6-4 record.

Martin signs proclamation for buddy poppy week

PROCLAMATION
WHEREAS: The annual sale of buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has been officially recognized and endorsed by governmental leaders since 1922; and WHEREAS: VFW Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and the proceeds of this worthy fund-raising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans, and WHEREAS: The basic purpose of the annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars is eloquently reflected in the desire to "Honor the Dead by Helping the Living"; therefore

I, Elmer Martin, Mayor of the City of Colorado City, do hereby urge the citizens of this community to recognize the merits of this cause by contributing generously to its support through the purchase of Buddy Poppies on the day set aside for the distribution of these symbols of appreciation for the sacrifices of our honored dead.
I urge all patriotic citizens to wear a Buddy Poppy as mute evidence of our gratitude to the men of this country who have risked their lives in defense of the freedoms which we continue to enjoy as American citizens.
Signed Elmer Martin
Mayor

Marian's Memos

By Marian Morris

Winter is a difficult time of the year for many types of skin, with chief enemies being cold, wind and the drop in relative humidity. Most heating systems also rob the air of moisture and may cause the skin to crack, become rough or red, scale and develop lines. Here are some ways to protect yourself—before the bad weather arrives.

—A moist skin is healthy skin. Use a moisturizer—not to add water or oil to the skin—but to prevent the skin's own water content from escaping.

—If you wear an oily, protective makeup base in the winter, a toner can help get your face completely clean. A toner, usually an alcohol-based lotion, should be applied with a cotton pad after cleaning the face. This treatment should be followed with a moisturizer while the skin is damp—unless your skin is so oily that you don't need moisturizer. Astringents—toners with more alcohol—may be used after cleaning the face but may irritate the skin. People with dry skin should avoid products containing alcohol.

—Three areas of the face require different amounts of moisturizer. Around the eyes there are few oil glands and the skin is driest. Pat moisturizer on gently before applying foundation. The cheeks and neck require a lighter moisturizer. The area around the nose and forehead is usually oily and may need little or no moisturizer. Women with extremely lily skin should select and use moisturizers carefully, because they can cause oily skin to break out.

—Moisturizers are available in lotions and creams. Lotions have a higher water content and contain less oil. In dry climates, the water in the lotion evaporates rapidly, so one may need a cream for longer protection.

Finally, don't forget to protect lips by using lip conditioner and lipstick or gloss. Winterize your skin indoors and out this season.

Payne Chapel to celebrate hundredth anniversary

The Payne Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church congregation, which is located at 700 Front Street, will celebrate its 100th anniversary during the third week in November. The three day celebration will take place on November 16, 27 and 28.

Carter Chapel C. M. E. Church, Lubbock; and King Solomon and Mt. Olive Baptist Churches of Colorado City are scheduled to participate in the opening services which will begin at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, November 16.

St. James Baptist Church, Colorado City; Hellum Heights Baptist Church, Snyder; and Bethel A.M.E. Church, Sweetwater are slated for Thursday, November 17.

Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Colorado City; Canaan Baptist Church, Lorraine; Mt. Rose Baptist Church, Sweetwater; and Carter Chapel C.M.E. Church, Lubbock will participate in the final services on Sunday afternoon, November 20.

Rev. Harry L. Reeds, Presiding Elder of the

Gary (Indiana) District of the Christian Methodist Episcopal (C.M.E.) Church, will be the main speaker for the grand finale on Sunday, November 20.

Rev. Redds served as pastor of Payne Chapel C.M.E. Church from 1963 to 1966. He is now serving as the national president of the Presiding Elder's Council of the C.M.E. Church.

The religious congregation, which is now known as Payne Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, was originally organized in 1883. The organization of the congregation was due largely to the persistent efforts of William Baxter and Mesdames Emily (Emma) Alexander, Flora Brooks Dunn, and Amanda Vanella (Nellie) Everett.

Growing out of religious services held jointly by members of the Baptist and Methodist faiths, the Methodist congregation was formerly organized in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Dunn by the Rev. J. I. Turner of the Colorado Methodist Episcopal Church. The Dunn home, strangely enough, provided the setting for the organization of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, which elected Mr. Dunn as chairman of its Board of Trustees. Mrs. Dunn became a member of Payne Chapel's first Board of Trustees.

After the official organization of the congregation, the Methodist flock, still without a suitable place to worship, continued to hold services in homes of members and other suitable places.

Appointed as pastor in the fall of 1883, Rev. S. H. Washington became the first teacher of the Negro school, which was organized in Colorado City for the 1884-85 school term. In 1888, he was succeeded by Rev. J. E. Payne, who was duly concerned about the lack of an appropriate place to worship.

On December 31, 1888, the Board of Trustees, which included Emily Alexander, William Baxter and Flora Dunn, contracted to purchase a tract of land located north of the T&P Railroad trestle and west of Lone Wolf Creek. The church building, completed in 1889, was located where the Dawson Hotel now stands. The church was named "Payne Chapel" in honor of Rev. Payne.

Pioneer members of the church included Mrs. Flora Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. William Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Everett, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lane. Other early members were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Waller, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. (80 John) Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson and Charlie Brooks. In 1890, Brooks married the widow of Wiley Everett, who died in 1889.

In 1909, the congregation moved to its present location on Front and Erie Streets. The deed, which describes the purchase of the new site, lists the following as members of the Board of Trustees: J. H. Winston, C. W. Brooks, Joe Scallion, Lizzie Dunn and C. N. George.

Kit Lovell has been cooking for as long as she can remember. "My first cooking instructor was my mother. I used to cook for my two brothers, Gary and Tracy or if I got hungry, I'd whip something up."

Kit stated that her husband Tom is really helpful in the kitchen. "He cooks different things than I do especially outdoor cooking like barbecued ribs and chickens."

She said she enjoyed cooking when she had the time. "I like cooking things like roast in the oven because you don't have to constantly watch it."

Today she is sharing three of her favorite recipes with RECORD readers.

Martin, Cunningham exchange vows

Mr. and Mrs. Scottie Cunningham

Katie Samantha Martin and Scottie Lee Cunningham were married at 2 p.m. on September 15 in the chapel of First Baptist Church. The double ring ceremony was officiated by Ken Branam, pastor of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Yvonne Martin of Snyder. The groom's parents are Deana Sides of Titusville, Fla. and Lloyd Cunningham of M. Sida, Malta. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Perry of Colorado City.

Dave Haywood gave the bride in marriage.

She wore a pure white chiffon gown featuring a Victorian neckline with a ruffle of val lace, a Venice lace medallion applique and a fitted bodice. The full bishop sleeves were accented with lace and ribbons.

The chiffon pleated skirt was finished with a deep ruffle accented with alternate rows of lace and ribbon and fell into a chapel train.

Her two-tiered walking length veil was edged in satin ribbon. It was attached to a wreath of pink and burgundy silk flowers.

Pennies minted in the years of the couple's births were attached to the bride's blue garter for something old. Her wedding attire was new and she borrowed her grandmother's engagement ring.

She carried a silk bouquet of dusty rose and pink roses surrounded by pink carnations and small burgundy flowers. It was accented with silk greenery and tied with burgundy and pink ribbons and lace streamers.

Lynn Bethel was organist and Linda Walker was pianist. Vocalists were Carol Harper and Mickey Broach.

As the bride was given in marriage Miss Harper sang "Theme from Ice Castles" and as the couple lit the memory candle she and Broach sang "You and I." Miss Harper also sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Nelda Randolph, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a long burgundy dress which featured an empire waist and a high Victorian lace neckline and carried a bouquet of pink and burgundy carnations with long pink and burgundy streamers. A comb trimmed with pink and burgundy flowers adorned her hair.

Denise Blythe, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She was dressed in a long dusty rose dress and carried a bouquet of pink and burgundy flowers with ribbon streamers. Her headpiece was like that of the matron of honor.

Candlelighters were Heather and April Martin, the bride's nieces. They wore short white print dresses accented with burgundy ribbon made by the bride's mother and hats accented with burgundy ribbon and silk flowers.

Michelle Martin, the bride's niece, was flower girl. She was attired in a long pink dress and wore a ring of burgundy and pink flowers in her hair.

T. L. Jennings, the groom's nephew, dressed in a silver tuxedo, and Theresa Martin, the bride's niece, were ring bearers. Miss Martin wore a long dusty rose dress and a ring of pink and burgundy silk flowers adorned her hair.

The groom wore a burgundy tuxedo.

Best man, Robert Mitchell, and groomsman, Clifford Chambers, wore silver tuxedos.

The bride's brothers, Jimmy and Jerry Martin, were ushers.

The church was decorated with a heart-shaped candlelabrum with nine-branch candleabra on each side. They held white candles and were decorated with silk greenery.

At the reception in the garden room of the church, the bride's table was covered with a pink cloth overlaid with burgundy lace. The white wedding cake decorated with pink and burgundy roses was the centerpiece. Kara Mitchell and Teresa Herrera presided.

Shirley Martin, sister-in-law of the bride, registered guests.

Following a wedding trip to Dallas the couple is at home in Snyder.

The bride is a 1983 graduate of Snyder High School and plans to attend Angelo State University next year.

The groom is a 1974 graduate of Colorado City High School and is employed by the City of Snyder.

The couple hosted a rehearsal dinner at the Spanish Inn.

Mrs. Andy Acklin

Howell, Acklin united in marriage

Jamie Howell of Colorado City and Andy Acklin of Hamlin were united in marriage on Saturday, November 5 at 2 p.m. in the Calvary Baptist Church with Rev. Jimmy Law officiating the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Howell of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. Dallas F. Acklin of Hamlin.

The church was decorated with candles and greenery. The pews were marked with votive candles and bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a champagne colored satin dress with cream colored lace. It featured a sweetheart neckline and a double ruffle of satin and lace around the bottom. Lace medallions were sewn on with seed pearls and the train and veil were trimmed with three inch lace ruffles.

She carried a bouquet of silk flowers in her colors of plum, pink and white.

For something old and something borrowed she attached rings—the rings of her grandmother and great-grandmother to her bouquet with ribbons. Also attached to her bouquet were pennies from the groom's and her birthdate. Something new was her necklace and something blue was her garter.

Serving as matron of honor was Bridget Law of Colorado City. She wore a plum dress with pink satin sash. A ruffle around the shoulder was trimmed with white and pink lace. She wore white lace gloves and carried lace covered fans with a silk floral arrangement hanging from them.

Bridesmaids were Donna Howell of Colorado City, Barbie Lelek of Colorado City, Laurie Stubblefield of Hawley and Donna Hartgrove of Sweetwater. They wore dresses identical to the matron of honor.

All of the dresses were made by the bride's mother, Mrs. Ima Howell and bride's grandmother, Mrs. Floy Law.

Best man was Richard Acklin brother of the groom from Hamlin.

Groomsmen were Greg Sandbothe of Anson, John Schifers of Hamlin and Stu Howell of Colorado City.

They wore silver western tuxedos with white shirts and silver western ties.

The groom wore an Ivory tuxedo with an Ivory shirt.

Flower girl was Paige Pritchard of Cleburne and ring bearer was Ben Sarter also of Cleburne. Candlelighters were Sharon Chambers of Colorado City and Tim Weaver of Midland.

After the ceremony, a reception was held. Serving at the bride's table were Lana Loyd sister of the groom, Dedri Acklin the groom's niece and Judy Acklin, sister-in-law of the groom.

Jeannie Stubblefield, sister of the groom and Dana Stubblefield the groom's niece, served at the groom's table.

Jori Stubblefield passed out rice bags.

The bride wore a wine colored suit and cream blouse for her going away ensemble.

After a wedding trip to Dallas, the couple will live in Colorado City.

Disabled vets assemble poppies

"In Flanders fields the poppies blow"...says the famous poem written by Col. John McCrae during World War I. Since 1922, sale of the artificial poppy to the public has been a way of raising funds to aid disabled veterans.

Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans in Veterans Administration Medical Centers and State Home facilities.

Veterans who make the Poppies are paid a nominal fee for their labor. This not only provides a little "spending money," but is primarily a therapy program in the participating hospitals, providing exercise for fingers and hands crippled by wounds, disease or other body malfunctions.

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses,
row on row,
That mark our place;
and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago

We lived, felt Dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved,
and now we lie
In Flanders fields.
Take up our quarrel
with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.

If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep,
though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
John McCrae
