(By Associated Press)

SCRANTON, Pa., June 2.—Two young women were found slain today in a field at New Boston, near Pittston, Pa. One body was nude and the other fully clothed.

The women were aged about 19 and 20 years and one had been shot and strangled and the other choked to death, police said.

The bodies were discovered near an abandoned mine working near Pittston by a waterman making his rounds. He discovered a disabled automobile and further investigation disclosed the body of a fully clothed girl of twenty.

Seventy-five yards away was the body of the other victim nude.

It was evident that there had been a terrific struggle by the girls to save their lives.

In the clothing of one was found a pay envelope with the name E. Fencil.

One Beast On Head

A closer inspection of the bodies by the Luzerne county authorities disclosed that both girls had been shot and that one also had been battered about the head.

Police said that the bodies had been identified as Montika, 26, and Edith Ponce, 19, both of Wilkesbarre.

Carmel Marranda, 33, of Pittston, a man said to have been in the girls' company, is under arrest.

RUSH FOOD TO FLOOD SECTOR

Supplies Hurried To Water Bound People Minus Food For Two Day Period

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, June 2.—Supplies being rushed today to between 200 and 300 persons in the Woodside and Odenville sections on the west bank of the Atchafalaya river as a result of a report received at Baton Rouge flood relief headquarters that they have been without food for two days.

The engineer's corps Choctaw was dispatched to the scene last night with food and the refugees and enough food and forage for 1,000 head of livestock. Additional supplies will be sent from Baton Rouge today.

Waters Are Falling

The section is approximately 240 miles northeast of New Orleans on the opposite side of the Mississippi. Flood waters, falling more rapidly in the upper Atchafalaya basin today, were rising at the north of the river at Morgan City. A naval aviator who flew over the city yesterday reported that only two blocks of the city were above water. The water was dropping sharply at other places, however, and he reported that Breux bridge and St. Martinville were almost free of the flood and that New Iberia was emerging rapidly.

With the greatest part of the struggle to save lives over, a slow demobilization of relief forces has been started.

Federal Aid Loan Is Needed, Says Banker

CHICAGO, June 2 (AP)—Federal aid in the form of a loan and not as a gift is needed in the flooded areas of the south, said R. T. Moore, Shreveport, La., chairman of the board of the Commercial National bank, at a meeting of the banker's committee of the Mississippi valley flood relief conference today.

"In face of this great peace time emergency which has grown beyond the capacity of local interests we find that federal aid is necessary. We estimate that 300,000 are homeless in Louisiana alone. Something must be done," Moore declared.

Crosby County Now Harvests Its Wheat

Wheat harvest near Crosbyton is in full swing now, with average yield amounting to from 15 to 20 bushels per acre, reports Judge Homer L. Preece, who is conducting court in that county now.

Eighty-thousand dollars worth of combine harvesting equipment has been sold in Crosby county this year, it was stated.

An unusually large acreage has been planted in that section, most of which will return a fair yield, and merchants are anticipating a considerable improvement in business from revenues derived from wheat.

AMERICA, EAGER TO ACCLAIM LINDBERGH, AWAITS HIS HOMECOMING ON JUNE 11TH

JAPAN STANDS FOR PEACE IS OKADA'S WORD

(By Associated Press)

TOKYO, June 2.—Japan's acceptance of President Coolidge's invitation to the Tripartite conference on the limitation of naval armaments was inspired by a genuine love of peace and a sincere wish to co-operate constructively with the other powers, said Admiral Okada, minister of the navy, in an exclusive statement to the Associated Press today.

He emphasized that his country was ready to reduce its navy to the minimum of defense requirements, and with this end in view, would engage in a frank discussion with the delegates of the United States and Great Britain.

Explains Japanese Stand

"If anybody thinks we simply jumped at this opportunity to limit armaments for financial reasons," he declared, "he has never searched to appreciate our true feelings. Our naval institution, actually far from being of aggressive proportions, was never intended to extend beyond the measure justified by defense. Even without this armament parity we never intended to build beyond this. So we are looking forward to the forthcoming conference as something in the way of a formal occasion to confirm this fundamental idea."

"We will reduce our navy to the minimum of defense requirements. What this minimum is must be caused by Japan's peculiar geographical, economical and political circumstances. We are going to discuss this point frankly with the American and British delegates."

Local Firemen Will Attend Convention

Preparations to attend the State firemen's convention are being made by fire chief W. E. Twitty and four members of the department, on June 14 to 17 at San Antonio.

An invitation to attend and bring along the ladies was received by the chief today from G. G. Serran, fire chief at San Antonio. The convention will be in the form of a four day school this year, with experienced drill-masters from New York and San Francisco having charge of the work of fire apparatus.

Serran himself holds the reputation of being one of the most experienced drill-masters west of the Mississippi. Chief Twitty said, in addition to himself, Fat Hood and Guy Casey, regular fire troop members and Frank Robinson and Mark Long, volunteer members, will attend the convention. Chief Twitty stated.

Forty Die As Storm Rages Over Holland

AMSTERDAM, Holland, June 2 (AP)—Forty persons were killed, 150 injured and enormous damage done by the cyclonic storm that swept over parts of Holland and Belgium yesterday. Besides three villages devastated—Noede, Gronoulo and Delden—nine others were extensively damaged.

In the Brussels-Antwerp district of Belgium there was much damage, especially to hot houses, for which the section is famous. The wind tore roofs from houses, uprooted trees and a number of buildings, weakened by the storm, collapsed.

Lubbock Citizens On Good Behavior

Citizens of Lubbock have been on good behavior for the past two days, with only one arrest reported by the police department.

"The calm before the storm" however was the way one of the officers characterized it. Law violators, usually come in cycles, and after a long period without incident, usually a number of violations occur, he said.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE LAYS PLANS TO WELCOME IDOL IN CEREMONIAL AT NATIONAL CAPITAL

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 2.—A nation eager to reward unexampled skill and valor looked forward today to June 11 when Captain Charles A. Lindbergh, arriving aboard the cruiser Memphis, is to be acclaimed by his own people personified by his president.

This young flier whose exploits of the air have stirred the admiration of the world, is destined to find a homecoming at the hands of folks who know and understand him, equal to his remarkable reception in the lands where he was a stranger. Although accustomed to great events, Washington has been fired into unusual enthusiasm, realizing perhaps, that its welcome unlike that of any other city, will typify the gratitude of the whole country.

Flier's Plans Unknown

After he has been honored by President Coolidge on behalf of the nation, Lindbergh will be free to go to New York from where he first flew to France to St. Louis—which made his history making flight possible and to any other cities which might be granted the privilege of honoring him.

The extent of the flier's stay in Washington will be determined by his wishes and whether he flies to New York after one day here in the Spirit of St. Louis, or in a government plane, or go by rail, are plans which must await his decision.

May Arrive Late

Lindbergh is scheduled to reach Washington Saturday, June 11, but if the arrival is very late at night, President Coolidge will decorate him with the Distinguished Flying Cross on Monday shortly before the executive leaves for his vacation.

The more definite part of the program, however, was being worked out carefully. Long before the Memphis rights land, army and navy aviators plan to push out in a fleet of planes to meet the flier and guide him up the Potomac to the capital.

During his stay in Washington, Lindbergh will be the guest of President and Mrs. Coolidge at the White House and it is possible that the flier's mother also will be asked to honor him.

Ferguson's Friend Aroused

Parr of Benavides, political friend of former Governors James E. and Miriam A. Ferguson, sent up an amendment seeking to vest power of determining qualifications not in the state committee but on the committee.

Parr interrupted Lewis, who was speaking in defense of the original bill, with the question: "Do you mean to say that you think those who have booted the party have a right to vote with it now?"

"I certainly do," Lewis shouted, "and a clause in this bill provides that membership or non-membership in any secret organization affiliation or views shall not bar any man."

He Gets Support

Bailey, Boyers and others supported Parr's amendment because it "would avoid party centralization and get the party back to the people."

Parr, opposing it, declared that "252 varieties of democrats—one for each county—would result if this bill passed."

TAMPA RIOTS APPEAR OVER

Death List Mounts To Five With Over 20 Wounded; Members Of Mob Held

(By The Associated Press)

TAMPA, Fla., June 2.—Tampa was quiet this morning. Apparently the "stage of the Hillsborough county riot" was at an end.

At least eight rioting, which took a toll of five killed and more than a score wounded as mobs of infuriated citizens sought to enter the jail to take a confessed murderer, one thousand special deputies enforced a nine o'clock curfew throughout the city last night and led drillmasters west of the Mississippi. The alleged members of the mobs are under arrest awaiting action by a grand jury.

Special Officers Sworn

The special officers, sworn in at a mass meeting of citizens yesterday, augmented a detachment of five hundred national guardsmen who were rushed to the scene shortly after the trouble started Sunday night.

Throughout the rioting, the object of the mob's wrath, B. F. Lewis, who was confessedly killed Herman Merrell, his wife and three children thinking they were another family who had done him a "dirty trick," was safe from their fury. Imprisoned in another county, officers announced.

Arrest of a R. "Slim" Hudson, 35, a sign painter, handcuffed by Lewis in the slayings, was announced yesterday.

Counterfeiters Are Raided In Houston

HOUSTON, June 2 (AP)—One man was in custody Thursday and another was being sought as the result of a raid Wednesday night on a plant here where counterfeit half dollars were made.

The plant yielded plaster of Paris molds and materials for the manufacture of counterfeit half dollars. The coins were crude imitations, detectives said.

PARIS COURTS GRANT PLEA OF MRS. W. K. VANDERBILT, 2ND, FOR FULL SEPARATION

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, June 2.—Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, 2nd, the former Virginia Fair, was granted a decree of divorce today.

The divorce of William Kissam Vanderbilt to Virginia Fair in 1899 was one of the most important social events of its day. The couple took a leading part in New York society, but for many years prior to the beginning of the divorce proceedings had not lived together.

Mrs. Vanderbilt's divorce plea and a counter suit by her husband were filed with the Paris court on April 28, the wife charging that she had been refused access to their domicile in Paris, and the husband pleading the wife's coldness of disposition.

Mr. Vanderbilt raised no objection to his wife's petition for custody of their son, William K. Vanderbilt 3rd, during the formal pleadings, and the court granted her request. No application was made for alimony.

PRIMARY BILL HURLS SENATE INTO DISCORD

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, June 2.—Political wounds were opened today in the senate and an entire morning's consideration was insufficient to get action on the "White Primary" bill which seeks to bar negroes from democratic party primaries.

A recent United States supreme court ruling held unconstitutional the Texas statute directly barring negroes from democratic primary participation and the present bill would avoid the prohibitions by empowering party executive committees or conventions to pass on party fitness.

The Smith house bill was substituted for the Holbrook-Bowers senate bill.

Ferguson's Friend Aroused

Parr of Benavides, political friend of former Governors James E. and Miriam A. Ferguson, sent up an amendment seeking to vest power of determining qualifications not in the state committee but on the committee.

ISLAND STORM, WHICH SANK VESSEL, ABATED

MANILA, June 2 (AP)—The storm which caused the sinking of the inter-island steamer "Negros" off Remban Island Sunday with a probable loss of 108 lives, abated today, giving rescue workers an opportunity to aid the survivors of the wreck who are camped on the Bondee peninsula.

Severing de Gaisman, chief officer of the "Negros," who commanded the life boats in the rescue, said his ship sank in three minutes. The confusion as a result of a sudden approach of disaster caused a panic and passengers stampeded for the lifeboats, he said. Reports that other ships were missing in the storm could not be confirmed here.

GOP BOLTERS WIN VICTORY

Wurzbach Bill Given First Okay By Committee In Texas Senate

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, June 2.—Favorable reports were returned today by a senate committee on the Wurzbach republican faction's primary election bill designed to break the Creager-Nolte domination of the party in Texas.

Congressman Harry M. Wurzbach, is at odds with the official G. O. P. leaders of the state over distribution of federal patronage matched with Leonard Withington, secretary of the state legislative committee, at a joint hearing on the bill last night by senate and house committees. The house committee had not acted today.

Election Is Proposed

The bill proposes election of precinct and county delegates now appointed by the state legislative committee headed by Eugene Nolte, chairman, and counseled by R. R. Creager, national committeeman. Wurzbach and other republicans declared before the hearing that the present system of appointing a delegate from each county gives some counties of the state 35 times more representation per republican population than other counties, such as Bexar.

The Wurzbach bill would make delegates elective and would make the number of republican voters the basis for representation.

Withington argued that this would deprive some counties of any representation at the state convention.

LAMESA, June 2.—The State National bank of this city failed to open its doors for business today. Two examiners arrived last night and are busy today checking up on the books. W. V. T. Baker is president of the organization.

Failure to get the necessary liquidations last fall because of a short crop caused the failure. The closing of the bank's thought to be of only a temporary nature.

Other officers of the institution are R. E. Townsend, vice-president and O. E. Priest, cashier. It has a capital stock of $50,000 and surplus and assets totalling $30,000. Reorganization and resumption of business with no loss to depositors is expected.

(By Associated Press)

Roof of some houses were penetrated by the missiles, and crops were damaged over an area several miles square. Corn which on some of the farms was over two feet high was cut to pieces by the storm. Some residents of the neighborhood report that they saw a funnel shaped cloud to the southwest, but that it broke up while they watched it.

Max Elker, of San Antonio, enroute in his car to Chicago via Amarillo, was caught in the storm, the hail tearing several large holes in the top of his sedan. The car of A. P. Spaling of Childress was badly damaged, fifteen holes being cut in the top.

The size of the hail stones is verified by Arvor McCreary, proprietor of a roadside store, in whose establishment the missiles were weighed and measured.

Small Fire Put Out At Linzee Residence

Fire starting with an oil stove at the residence of J. A. Linzee on 1615 Avenue N. was quickly put out by the fire department Thursday morning. No damage was done.

An earnest plea that extra precaution be taken to guard against fires was voted by Chief of Fire department, W. E. Twitty. Due to the dry condition of houses at present, a fire sweeps through the ordinary building in less than four minutes time, and should a bad fire start it would be possible to do two million dollars damage in less than two hours, Chief Twitty stated. The alarm today made the sixth run for the department this year. A total number of 355 miles have been traveled by the trucks this year in answering alarms.

There's A Summer of Lace Upon Us

By HENRI BENDEL For NEA Service

NEW YORK, June 2.—Instead of just "lavender and old lace" this season, advanced styles assure a summer of old lace, new lace, all kinds of lace—on everything.

It has been years, literally, since I have used lace so freely as I have this spring in fashioning summer dresses for the particular feminine taste.

Irresistible Perhaps it is just the swing of the pendulum back to feminine frills. Perhaps it is the insistent call that the filmy materials make or to some adequate trimming. Or perhaps it is because the new laces are themselves positively irresistible.

Swat Leader

EDDIE FARRELL

Could Travis Jackson have done any better than Eddie Farrell, his understudy, has done at shortstop for John McGraw's Giants this season, Jackson, you know, stood an appendicitis operation before the season started, and Farrell took over his job. How well Farrell has been handling the job can be seen by his close to 400 batting average and his great fielding at the sector between second and third.

Boxers Fight Gently

The boxers mixed freely from the opening bell and after sharp infighting in the second round Adams jumped back quickly from a clinch. His head struck the top rope and he slid to the floor. After a few convulsive movements he lay still. Referee Walter Bates counted him out.

HENSLEY WILL FACE HUBBERS IN GAME HERE

ACE ROPES HURLER TO TRY HIS WARES ON LOCALS FRIDAY

The Hubbers will meet with the fast nine from Ropes tomorrow afternoon at the Merrill park at 4 o'clock. The Ropes club has been going pretty good meeting with some of the best clubs of the South Plains and has a good percentage of victories attached to its season's operations.

Pitchers Big Question

Just who Manager Jackson will choose for mound duty against the visitors of Hockley county is not known for certain but he has several pitchers of the city loop in view for the program. Several of the city league pitchers, Stalaker, Dillard, or Walker, will be given a chance to demonstrate their ability at hurling for the Hubbers.

One Delivery Not Enough

No pitcher can depend almost entirely on one style of delivery and be successful for any great length of time, I have in mind Southpaw Pruett, now starring with the Philadelphia Nationals.

Sisler in Great Form

George Sisler is 50 per cent a better ball player this year than last. Why? Simply because he hasn't the managerial woes of the Browns to shoulder, in addition to playing first base and trying to bat 350 or better.

The Rix furniture peddlers hopped on everything "Woman" Sanders sent up to them in the last stage and brought around seven scores before the "Old Lady" could get them out.

Mechanics Come From Behind To Defeat Laundry

The Laundry players had things going their way with the Auto-Barbers yesterday afternoon until the last session when the mechanics broke loose to score four runs to win by a score of 5 to 4. The city cleaners jumped on Dillard in the early stages of the game to score four runs. Dillard, pitcher for the mechanics, walked seven Laundrymen and struck out eleven.

STAR MASCOT HELPS YANKS

Eddie Bennett, Champion Of Luck League, Hopes To Win Another Flag

Public speaking taxes the voice. One must think of the throat. I find, in smoking, that Lucky Strikes not only give greater enjoyment, but protect the throat.

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—A batting average of .750 in the Luck League is the proud boast of a New York youth in his claim to honor as major league baseball's star mascot.

Public speaking taxes the voice. One must think of the throat. I find, in smoking, that Lucky Strikes not only give greater enjoyment, but protect the throat.

Eddie Bennett is the title claimant. In six out of eight seasons, clubs with which he has cast his lot have won pennants. Since 1920 he has been with the Yankees, and he is with them once more this year to pit his magic talents against the votes of experts, who already have "doped" it out that the Huggins' won't repeat.

Were you to meet Senator Cameron and talk about smoking, he'd say to you:

Hon. Ralph H. Cameron, U.S. Senator from Arizona, famous as a fine orator.

"Public speaking taxes the voice. One must think of the throat. I find, in smoking, that Lucky Strikes not only give greater enjoyment, but protect the throat."

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

"It's toasted" Your Throat Protection

When in New York you are cordially invited to see how Lucky Strikes are made at our exhibit, corner Broadway and 45th Street.

Hail, Wind, Floods, Has 1927 Only Begun Its Destruction?

Herbert J. Browne Sees "Summerless Year"

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Some time after Mr. Herbert J. Browne expects to be taking an advisable vacation in Tierra del Fuego.

Mr. Browne, the world champion long distance weather forecaster, learns from history that the people have always turned on prophets of disaster, and he has been advising for the last four years that 1927 was going to be a humdrum or a "summerless" year.

Nineteen twenty-seven and its sun spots have begun to do justice to Mr. Browne. There have been tornadoes, floods and crop killing cold waves, all predicted by this Washington scientist.

But the worst is yet to come.

No Summer?

For 1927, according to Browne's careful calculations will be like 1816, historically known as a "year without a summer."

Browne admits there will be some hot spells, but insists there will be killing frosts as late as July and then some early frosts, the combinations of which may almost produce a famine.

Said Browne, on April 26, last year:

"There are numerous indications which tend to sustain the forecast which for the past three years have been identified with my work, of a return in 1927 in the northern hemisphere, of a year without a summer."

There will be floods and droughts, dangerous late falling frosts in spring and even in midsummer and a return of frosts unseasonably early in late summer, to the destruction, or at least to the serious reduction, of the great food crops of the world."

Browne's prediction seems to be running gruesomely true to forecast, since, importantly, the Mississippi floods, which he had also predicted when appearing before the house committee on agriculture Feb. 6, 1923. He then advised the congressmen that the government should store grain and other crops against a famine.

A Cesty Frost

A cold wave from April 16 to 24-25, especially predicted by Browne on March 15, brought a frost which destroyed $20,000,000 worth of fruit and vegetables over the country—an almost historic frost. It reduced the prospective strawberry crop $5,000,000, quarts according to the department of agriculture, and the Virginia apple crop from 40 to 50 per cent.

In Browne's January 1 forecast, part of his Long-Range Weather Forecast service for which hundreds of concerns pay real money, Browne said "violent tornadoes will be one notable feature of the year."

Three major tornadoes already have come, taking hundreds of lives and great damage, and the "tornado season" is still far off. The Rock Springs tornado of early April took a death toll of about 60 and some 200 lost their lives in the recent southwestern tornado.

How Browne knows all this is a long story to be told here. His elaborate system of forecasting is based on the long time variation in the sun's heat and its effect in producing changes in the surface temperatures of the oceans.

Sun Spots Cause It

"Every maximum sun spot period," he says, "means violent fluctuations of solar heat. Radiation reaches the earth unevenly, increasing tendencies toward earthy disturbances. The ancient Chinese knew that large sun spot years were notable for earthquakes. With millions of tons of atmospheric pressure to the square foot of earth's surface, an alternation of high and low pressure or weak spots in the earth's crust pulls the trigger and sets off quakes."

"This is only an example of my entire theory of causations. Causations are neglected in orthodox meteorological thought."

Browne and the U. S. weather bureau have long been at odds on points. The weather bureau says it can't predict weather beyond four days at the very most. It admits that sun spots seem to cause slight weather changes, but takes every opportunity to discredit Browne and all but officially calls him a faker.

Browne replies that the bureau is in the hands of "an ancient old fog" armed with ancient instruments, who has propagandized the country against him. He accuses the bureau of pussyfooting, of costing the farmers $100,000,000 a year and of altering official weather reports to eliminate actual occurrences previously predicted by Browne. The weather bureau, he says, "has never forecast a severe weather condition more than 26 hours ahead."

Time Will Tell

Whether Browne or the weather bureau is to be discredited may well depend on the weather's actions and even conditions for the rest of the year. Browne is perfectly willing to abide by this.

Meanwhile his clients are enthusiastic and he shows letters congratulating him on 55 to 100 per cent accuracy, including one from the Texas Wheat Growers association heralding his forecasts "remarkably right all along." Browne claims to serve 75 per cent of all Washington and Oregon apple growers, many big vegetable and

Billiard Stars Favor California's Clime For 18.1 Championship Play

By NEA Service

NEW YORK, June 2.—Wherever there hangs a cue rack and wherever there gathers a band of loquacious, this question is debated with more or less heat: Will the tournament for the newly created world championship in 18.1 billiards go to California?

The fact that the revival of the 18.1 billiard has received official sanction, and that the old standard, the 15.2 championship, will also be conducted as usual, add zest to the battles that are in prospect.

Walter Carleton, newly crowned king, Jake Schaefer, and Willie Hoppe are campaigning for the Pacific coast and listen to their novel argument.

"Somehow the ivory seems to fruit groves, sportsman, race promoters, convention committees and a great variety of other interests concerned with future weather.

will better there. Perhaps the climate has something to do with it and the table and cloth conditions. Either way a revival of the 18.1 championship in this locality would result in all records being broken.

There is keen interest in the higher type of billiards and a shift would bring out new material and stimulate bigger audiences and more challenge matches.

"Under the new system," Carleton explains, "there are 1500-point matches. Five night at 500 points each night, and three to enough to spread around."

Then again the English type of snooker billiards is popular here because of the many foreign tourists, who prefer it to the native type of American billiards. All in all, competition is keen and that makes for a sweeping revival of the sport."

NAVY BOXING MENTOR OKEY

That's What The Critics Of Fiftiness Say Of Spike Webb, Pug Deluxe

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 2 (AP)—Spike Webb, trainer of many world boxing champions, is graduating another class of two-fisted leather are rare birds. On in California they are all eyes over the performance of Jimmy Murphy, who seems to be little short of a wow. He is the first Californian since the time of the late Ledyard Blair equal to making the Class A average.

He made a hitch run of 92 in the recent tourney, and it is possible that the Pacific coast may again be represented in the national championships after a lapse of approximately 10 years.

Throwing weight into the United States navy. A half dozen young men whose exit from the realm of intercollegiate boxing will be greeted with a sigh of relief from Yale to Toronto, will step aboard Uncle Sam's battleships next month. These men are the product of Spike's coaching regime at the naval academy.

Spike put the fight in readiness boxing eight years ago and it has remained there ever since. This year he pulled three intercollegiate champions through the crucibles of uppercuts and jabs at Syracuse—M. R. Geria, welterweight; D. J. Weintraub, flyweight, and E. C. Collins, bantamweight.

Collins, who captured the navy leather pushers during the post-season, has exclusive title also to another intercollegiate record. He has been defeated only once in two dozen starts during his three years in the naval academy varsity ring.

Bustis of Yale got to him in 1924. Others of the navy ringsters who put the fear of condemy leather into the hearts of all comers for the eighth consecutive year are Tom C. King, heavyweight; James Coleman, light heavyweight; W. A. Allen, middleweight, and Harry Honey, lightweight. All of this year's team except Geria are first classmen and will be graduated. Geria will be the nucleus of next year's team.

Spike Webb has trained eight international boxing teams, all winners, for the United States. In 1924 he taught the American boxers how to win the Olympic title. He was boxing instructor of the A. E. F. during the war and was coach of the American army team which, in the words of General Pershing, "defeated the pick of 40,000,000 allied soldiers." The list of world champions he has trained includes Gene Tunney, Kil Williams, Fidel La Barba, Paul Berlenbach and Frankie Genaro.

Girl Collegians Good Newsboys

DENTON, Texas, June 2.—A little red wagon and newsboy parlance were some of the assets employed by a group of journalism students at the College of Industrial Arts who sold copies of The Lasso-O, the weekly student newspaper, last week for the relief of flood victims in the Mississippi valley. The paper carried an all-college section, and was sold for five cents.

Girls were stationed in the living rooms of the various dormitories with copies of the paper and little pasteboard boxes ready for the nickles. Some of the students took a little red wagon loaded with papers and canvassed the streets near the college, shouting headlines and stirring appeals for the victims.

About $20 were the proceeds of the sale. The money was turned over to the local relief agents.

POULTRY SHOW TO BE STRONG

Fair Association Busy Now Laying Plans For Best Exposition Yet

Special emphasis will be placed upon the poultry show in the South Plains fair association this fall.

A larger list of free attractions and larger premium list is to be offered this year than was the case last year with some departments coming in for re-organization.

Carnival Arranged The Cottonbelt Show company will provide carnival attractions with a full complement of rides, swings and show features.

Due to the increased interest in poultry raising and the part it will play in diversified farming here, a larger part in the fair program is to be accorded it.

And was followed by another Wednesday.

At the meetings the men said they are satisfied with present wages, scales and are not asking for more money.

"Poor Man's College" Fits Students For Lives of Hard Work

By NEA Service

SILOAM SPRINGS, Ark., June 2.—Because most all young men and women who go to college nowadays emerge with their sheepskins, all ready to grab up a white collar job.

Because there aren't half enough white collar jobs to go around.

And because the young grad can't do anything but white collar.

John Brown started his college. The one young fellow who can't get in is the one who wants to "do anything" when he's through—except work.

John Brown sends him off pronto to one of the refined, genteel, gentlemen's colleges where he'll learn to take his straight, wear a claw-hammer, and graduate prepared "to do anything" but in reality to do nothing.

The boys have just finished building a 600,000 dormitory.

Graduates have entered higher universities and are eagerly sought for jobs.

Five thousand applications for admission to the John Brown college are received yearly.

The college is really a school in three sections—grammar school, beginning with the fifth grade, high school, and three years of college work.

AT the first drag store they reached, Faith parked the car, on the back seat of which Bob sat between his two prisoners, Brady W. Hutchinson and Sammy Horne, alighted and went to telephone. Churchill himself answered the phone.

In a low, rapid voice Faith told him where she was, and made her request that the lawyer join her and her as soon as possible.

Butcher gradually, but unable to resist the compelling urgency in her voice, Churchill promised to leave his house at once in his own car.

When Churchill arrived, within ten minutes, in a large sedan driven by his chauffeur, he was amazed to find Lois Hathaway guarding two prisoners with an automatic.

"Hutchinson!" he gasped. "Good Lord, Bob, what does this mean?" "Meet the murderer, Mr. Churchill," Bob grinned. "And his playmate, Sammy Horne."

When Bob told him of Sammy Horne's unsolicited confession, involving himself as well as Hutchinson, Churchill whistled with amazement. "Well, I guess that settles it," he admitted. "We've already introduced testimony on the brown and yellow taxi seen in the alley behind Clary's house the night of the murder. The shoes Hutchinson wore as the crippled beggar will undoubtedly be the same."

"And I'll stake my life on that set of strap fitting into this harness that Hutchinson used to strap up his leg so that it would make those lying footprints," Bob interrupted eagerly. "And you have the threatening letter that Hutchinson wrote to Uncle Ralph. It shouldn't be hard to pin that on him, in view of all the circumstances and the fact you've already got on Hutchinson, through truth."

"But if Sammy Horne confesses," Faith began, bewildered. "Takes more than a confession to convict a man of murder," Churchill told her. "Have to have corroborating testimony. But we've got more than enough evidence to hang Hutchinson and send Horne up for life, unless he gets leniency for turning state's evidence. I doubt if anything will be willing to let him turn state's evidence, however, since you two seem to have caught them both dead to rights. But what I don't want is for Banning or the papers to get wind of this until court opens tomorrow, and then I'll manage the show. Clary has got to be vindicated in open court. Not a word from either of you!"

"Can't Cherry know tonight?" Faith cried, disappointment clouding her joy. "Best to keep her in the dark, too," Churchill advised. "There might be some slip-up, and the shock of the disappointment, if she isn't immediately released, might go hard with her. Oh, Lord! When a show-up will be in the morning, I can hardly wait to see Banning's face when I spring the news!"

On their way to the police station, Churchill stopped at his office to take from the safe containing the exhibits for the defense the bit of leather strap which Bob had found in the snow beneath his uncle's window the night of the murder. Returning to Bob's car he examined the complicated leather and metal harness which Faith had found under the seat in the murderer's taxi-cab.

"Just as I expected," he nodded. "The strap that goes around the leg has been broken and mended. This bit of strap is the exact one more link! Now I'm going to yank up Hutchinson's trouser leg and see if there are any marks on it, from this harness pressing against the flesh. This one link is needed to clinch his identity with that of the beggar."

It took ten and the chauffeur to hold Hutchinson while the lawyer made his examination. "There are the marks all right," Churchill exclaimed. "Well, Hutch, my boy, I guess it's the chair for you this time, instead of state's prison. I'll feel safer when the juice is turned on, for you have a nasty habit of getting even, Poor Clary!"

(TOMORROW: Churchill stages his big show in the courtroom where Cherry has been fighting for her life.)

WASHINGTON LETTER

Crank Letters Politicians Receive—No Bonus For Triplets—Pulling Congressmen's Legs—Please Meet My Daughter

WASHINGTON, June 2.—If you must have triplets instead of twins or singletons, don't count on any consolation from your Uncle Sammy.

Such a warning is obviously only fair to many ambitious parents, for one of the great American delusions is that the federal government offers a prize, reward or compensation for every set of triplets.

There is hardly a member of Congress who hasn't heard at one time or other from proud and triumphant parents who wanted the money sent right along and enclosed birth certificates to prove it.

And of course all the congressmen can do is to send back his heartiest congratulations. Nobody seems to know just how the story started that the government made largely in case of triplets, but it is a companion yarn to the old one about the government offering big money for buffalo nickels.

ONE letter that arrived recently on Capitol Hill came by express and was marked for the writer, was that the postoffice department was dominated by the Pope of Rome and that the letter never would get through if sent in the regular manner.

WHEN a correspondent doesn't ask for legislation or information, he often asks for money. It seems to be a favorite trick in some congressional districts to send the congressman tickets to every clam bake, beefsteak every Sunday school picnic, Black Bottom marathon and stereopticon lecture that takes place in his absence.

Sometimes six or eight tickets are enclosed with a word of assurance that it's a splendid sum. If the editor or representative doesn't dig down and do his stuff, he's an egg. As often as not, he does. And with some of the unhappy boys on the hill this is a considerable item of annual expense.

APPLICATIONS for hard cash, no tickets enclosed, are numerous. Sometimes it's a cause—such as a world-shaking invention—and sometimes the only trouble is that the applicant is dead broke. Very often, a writer has figured out just how much the congressman collects from the government each week, each day and each hour. The formula is then to point out that inasmuch as the great man—let's say it's a senator—makes about two cents a minute, he will only have to give up his pay check anywhere from 25 minutes to eight hours to produce from 50 cents to 10 berries and take care of a deserving case. Preferably, it is to be assumed, these minutes or hours of sacrifice should be those in which the senator is sound asleep, so that he won't notice it.

OTHER correspondents ask advice in domestic differences or what the great man thinks about the value of certain land which he never saw. Now and then a writer puts his black finger prints on the bottom of the letter as if to prove authenticity.

One senator recently was requested by a constituent to go to the Union Station and meet the constituent's young daughter, who was coming here by train, alone. The senator's secretary did the job and guided the little lady's footsteps to the Y. W. C. A.

Park Deputy Here Faces Charges Of Assaulting Youth

WASHTON, D. C., June 2.—Following a scuffle with Ben Corbett, 14 year old youth whom he had arrested along with Jim Dillon for swimming in the municipal lake without a bathing suit, the trouble occurred after Wolverton had brought the boys to the courthouse.

Corbett had started to walk out of the jail office when Wolverton seized him by the neck and forced him back. It was alleged. The boy's shirt was torn in several places and wires left on his neck. It was disclosed afterwards.

County Attorney L. A. Howard and two other spectators separated the pair and charges were filed against Wolverton for assault. Mr. Howard claiming that the treatment of the prisoner had been needlessly rough.

The boys were swimming in the park pool only in their underwear. Wolverton said. He pleaded not guilty to the charge, but declined to make any statement in connection with the affair. Corbett and Dillon were held by officers pending arrangement for bond and juvenile court hearing.

HIGHWAY WORK BEING RUSHED

Double Shifts Of 32 Each Are Hurrying Work On Lynn County Roads

Highly satisfactory results are being obtained in the new system of working two shifts of 32 men each, on the construction work now being done on Highway nine near Tahoka. It was reported at the highway offices today.

Paved Program Planned

The road is being graded, widened, drainage structure built and corners rounded, in preparation for a system of paved highways which is now being planned in Lynn county.

The crew, working north from Tahoka, will finish that stretch of road in rapid time, it is expected. Work in Dawson county is being held up until right of way can be secured and fences moved back.

The U. S. Helium Plant at Fort Worth, Texas

Public Opinion

Editor Lubbock Daily Journal, Lubbock, Texas.

Dear Sir: In a recent edition of your paper the following article appeared upon the first page:

"Suit on an insurance policy, seeking $2,500 has been filed in district court by Mrs. Mattie Bradford and her husband, H. M. Bradford, of Young county, against the Lubbock Mutual A.M. association number 8, in connection with the death of J. W. White.

"According to the petition of the plaintiff J. W. White had taken out an insurance policy in the association upon which dues had been paid and everything kept in proper order, in favor of Mrs. Mattie Bradford, and that upon his death on March 5, she was due that sum from the company, which she alleges defendant has refused to pay."

There are two sides to the question. The above claim was not paid because J. W. White was suspended for not paying a call dated Dec. 1, 1925, and there were four more calls before his death, all of which were not paid. According to our by-laws and constitution if a member goes suspended for not paying a call invalidates policy of such member.

Our eight associations have paid a total of over $260,000 in death claims and have no unpaid claims, but have one case in court besides this one. We have had a number to drop out and later die and then try to collect, also have had a few sick ones worked off on us which we have refused to pay. We are trying to protect the interest of the members, and to pay such claims as the above would be unfair to the members putting up the money, we think.

The world's largest book, a volume of maps presented to King Charles II in 1669, measures 5 feet 10 inches by 2 feet 2 inches.

PORT WORTH, June 2. — The U. S. government is now confronted with the problem of selling 9,000,000 feet of good natural gas daily, or the danger of closing down operations of its helium plant here.

Recently given a million dollars for enlarging the plant and piping in gas from the new Nacona field, the government set out to sell the residue gas, from which the helium content has been extracted.

99 Per Cent Residue

So far it has been unsuccessful. Only about 1 per cent of helium gas is removed by the method of processing gas, leaving 99 per cent of the gas that will flow through the pipe line to be disposed of in some manner.

The Line Star Gas company, supplying Fort Worth and Dallas with gas, has declined to buy the residue. Now the helium plant is offering it for sale to any one who will "carry it away," at 6 cents per thousand feet.

Artificial gas in the north and east sells for $2 and up and is lacking many of the qualities of natural gas, it is said.

Problem Is Selling It

State conservation laws prohibit the flowing wild of gas, so if a market is not found by the time the new pipe line is completed, helium plant officials are at loss to know what they will do.

The city and chamber of commerce have volunteered to assist in finding a market.

SPEED IN TRANSPORTATION

Enid, Oklahoma, beat Plainview, Texas, to the primary wheat markets with wheat this year, Toney, portion did it. Hale county wheat was cut Saturday afternoon. Wheat near Enid was cut Saturday afternoon.

One man in Hale county, who probably "cut" his wheat first, brought a load in. He used mules and a wagon. Another Hale county farmer, two and a half miles farther to go, beat him in two and a half minutes. He used a truck.

Enid stole a march on Hale county by sending its first wheat to New York to confirm a sale by airplane.

Modern business demands quick transportation. Time is a primary element in commerce.

As useful as old Dobbin is to be, not counts in speed with motor vehicles of land and air. But old Dobbin's day of usefulness has passed by a whole lot. An airplane can beat Beck and Jude with a small load of wheat, but would have an interesting time trying to make a loaded wagon of wheat from a Plains combine.—Plainview Herald.

FACTS about used car allowances

Most new car sales now involve the trading-in of a buyer's used car. More and more people are asking: "Why should my used car seem to have several values? . . . Why should dealers in different makes of cars offer me allowances differing materially? . . . Does the largest allowance offered mean the best deal for me?"

Here are basic facts:

- 1 Your used car has seemingly 1 different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.
- 2 Your used car has only one fundamental basis of value: what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.
- 3 The largest trade-in allowance which is offered on your used car is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; but sometimes it is not.
- 4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.
- 5 Judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your used car.

WHEN YOU are ready to trade-in your present car, remember that after all you are making a purchase and not a sale. You are buying a new car and simply applying your present car as a credit toward the purchase price of a new car.
