Martin Says Tax Slash Sure to Pass

House Group Okays Bill By Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee voted 18 to 5 today to accept the $4,800,000,000 income tax-cutting bill passed by the Senate.

The original tax bill passed by the House had called for a cut of $6,500,000,000.

The committee action is subject to House approval. It virtually assures that the Senate bill will go to the White House without change.

House Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) previously has predicted the House will approve the measure by a "more than three to one" vote and send it to President Truman's desk tomorrow.

Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) author of the tax-slashing legislation, told reporters:

"I hope the President will fall in line with the popular demand for tax reduction and will not veto the bill. If he does veto it, he is sure to be overridden."

The Senate passed the bill 78 to 11.

"The tax cut is certain. The veto will be overridden," Speaker Martin said.

But Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the Senate's GOP Policy Committee, was less positive.

Nearly everyone on Capitol Hill looks for Mr. Truman to veto the bill.

Taft told a reporter he thinks the President first will veto Congress a message urging an additional outlay of between $2,000,000,000 and $3,000,000,000 for military preparedness as part of this country's new stop-Russia policy.

"I don't know what effect that will have," Taft said.

However, an administration official who asked not to be quoted by name agreed with Martin. He said he sees "no chance" that a one-third-plus-one vote can be mustered in the Senate to uphold a veto.

Martin said House Republicans would try to get the Senate tax cut version approved by unanimous consent today.

But Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas, served notice he would put a stop to that. Hence it appeared unlikely that the House could get around to a vote until tomorrow.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.), author of the original tax cutting bill, announced he is ready to accept the Senate revisions. They trimmed the amount of the tax slash by $1,700,000,000, as approved by the House to $4,800,000,000.

The Senate's 78 to 11 vote late yesterday was 18 more than the two-thirds majority needed to override a veto.

The House on Feb. 2 passed the $6,500,000,000 bill 297 to 120 or with 19 votes to spare. Both houses must show two-to-one majorities to overturn a presidential objection.

Senator Connally of Texas, ranking minority member of the finance committee, which wrote the measure, led the fight against passage.

Some of his colleagues thought the Texas man may have set the pattern for Mr. Truman's veto message when he declared:

"If democracy is to be saved, we are the ones that must save it. We must keep our resources. We shall need them in any hour of trouble."

Noting the grave turn of world events, Connally said the best thing for the United States to do is to keep itself strong financially.

All tax cuts would be effective Jan. 1, if the bill is passed. Lower withholding rates would start May 1. Those who overpaid during the first four months would get refunds next year.

The bill, as it headed toward the White House, would remove 7,400,000 low-income persons from the tax rolls completely.

This is because the personal exemptions of each taxpayer and each dependent would be increased by $100 from $500 to $600.

Draft and UMT Measures Win Backing of Senate Committee

SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE members today behind President Truman's plea for quick steps to build up America's military forces.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Armed Services Committee swung its weight today behind President Truman's plea for quick steps to build up America's military forces.

Chairman Gurney (R-S.D.) reported that 10 of the committee's members already are convinced both a limited draft and universal military training have become an absolute necessity.

Gurney and nine of his colleagues were the only senators present during a 50-minute meeting behind locked doors with Secretary of State Marshall, Secretary of Defense Forrestal and Secretary of the Army Royal.

Most of what the three secretaries said remained cloaked in complete secrecy. But Gurney did report when the session broke up late yesterday:

"The United States has drawn a line and does not intend to draw one as the final limit for Russian expansion."

There was a great deal of general, rather than specific, discussion of the "generally critical and more progressively serious situation in Europe."

"It is my firm belief that the committee those that were here last night, feeling there is an absolute necessity for quick passage of both the (draft and UMT) measures," Gurney declared.

Senator Bridges (R-NH) added that the members were "impressed with the immediate seriousness of the situation."

Bridges is chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, which the armed services must draw money before the programs can be carried out.

The joint chiefs of staff arranged an appointment with President Truman and Budget Director James Webb this afternoon (2:30 p. m. CST).

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) predicted that Mr. Truman soon will send a message asking $2,000,000,000 or $3,000,000,000 more than the $11,000,000,000 in military expenditures proposed in the January budget message.

The Red Cross drive was lagging today, and officials began to express their disappointment.

This was in contrast to the situation a week ago when the figures came in on the advance gift drive. The overall total sought is $10,908, and the advance drive brought in over $6,000.

Yet, the drive from that point, it was announced at the headquarters in the City Hall, has been slow. A total of $6,543.55 has been turned in on the goal figure. Some funds promised in the advance drive have not come in, due to the fact they have to come from company offices in other cities.

Reports on the drive in the industrial area were expected to begin coming in today. The drive had been held up in that section in order that employees could receive a check first. Many businesses have not reported, it was said.

An official at the office said that if there are concerns holding envelopes, they are asked to call the Red Cross office. The envelopes will be picked up.

Mrs. Paul Hill, in charge at the Red Cross office, said the city had never failed to go over the top in the drive. She expressed the hope that the goal would be reached this time. She said it was likely that the fact there were not enough workers contributed to the lag in results.

The present drive started Mar. 15, and it is hoped that it can be concluded by the end of this month. The advance drive was held a week prior to the general solicitation drive.

HST Stands Pat in Demo Battle-Hatch

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Hatch (D-NM) said today President Truman will "fight through to the end" to whatever political fate November has in store.

Hatch denied rumors circulating in Capitol Hill that Mr. Truman, based by civil rights, would be forced to resign by a revolt of Southern party members and criticized for some foreign policy moves — might step aside at the last moment for another Democratic presidential nominee.

"You can say for me — and I have it directly from the President himself — that Harry Truman will fight through to the end," Hatch told reporters.

"He has cast aside politics and he doesn't care what happens to him politically. He has told me that he intends to do what he thinks is right, without regard to the political consequences."

Hatch, a close personal friend, said he talked with Mr. Truman the day before yesterday. He said the President — far from being downhearted at the turn of political events — seemed "exuberant."

The New Mexico senator said he attributed the President's attitude to the decision "to forget all about politics," adding:

"I'm not sure but that's the best kind of politics in the end."

Another senatorial friend said Mr. Truman already is following the course of a political move in approving an about-face on the partitioning of Palestine.

This senator recalled that when Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath announced Mr. Truman's willingness to accept the nomination several weeks ago, McGrath said the President would act on the Palestine situation "without regard to politics."

Meanwhile, Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, who has been mentioned as a possible running mate for President Truman, said a University of Florida audience last night that this country will "fail miserably" if it shapes its policies "merely in terms of anti-communism," he added.

He must put an end to the shameful practice of branding everyone a Communist who espouses a liberal reform or promotes a program for the underprivileged.

Easter Leaves Cancelled for Danish Troops

COPENHAGEN (AP)—The Danish Privy Council met in secret today after Easter leaves for some of the Danish military were canceled.

The Parliamentary Foreign Committee will meet tomorrow. Newspapers were asked not to give "sensational display" to the communique canceling leaves.

Asked whether the foreign political situation had prompted the cancellation, Defense Minister Rasmus Hansen said:

"We had found that the leave regulation would expose the military in some places where it is necessary to maintain a little preparedness."

Widespread theft of arms from home guard depots has been reported recently.

Informal sources said that during Easter, Page 5

A.N. Meadows Rites Held

Funeral services were held Friday at the First Christian Church for A. N. Meadows, who died Mar. 17 in the Worley Hospital following a period of failing health since he moved to Pampa last August. Burial was at Fairview Cemetery. He was 62.

The Rev. James Todd, Jr., of Panhandle, conducted the services, assisted by the Rev. B. A. Norris, of the local church.

Mr. Meadows, who was born in Williamsburg County, Ky., March 13, 1876, and his family first moved to Pampa in 1915, near which he farmed for several years. They came here from Cleveland County, Okla. From 1928 to 1947 Mr. Meadows operated the Baker Hotel at Seaman.

Survivors besides his wife are a daughter, Mrs. Lewis Moore, Pampa, a son, Herman Meadows, Vernon; a brother, Will, Louisville, Ky.; three grandchildren, H. L., Eula Marie and Dorothy Moore, and one great-grandson.

Other relatives attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnston, Ashland, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Graves and Jeanene of Spearman; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Baker, Don and Phillip of Cheyenne, Wyo., Colo.

Palbearers were Ray Wilson, Paul Crossman, Hubert Phillips, Melvin Wright, Carl Stone, and W. F. Taylor.

Four business men of Slaton, Texas, were in Pampa yesterday studying the organization of the Pampa Board of City Development and Chamber of Commerce. The men are planning to set up a similar organization in Slaton.

They were E. L. Forrest, president of the Slaton BCD; George Brassel, assistant manager West Texas Cotton Oil Mill; Lee Vardy, superintendent of Slaton schools; and A. C. Strickland, Jr., manager of the Slaton BCD.

Street Sweeper to Operate Tonight

The city's street sweeper will clean the mud and dust from the gutters on S. Cuyler tonight, the City Engineer's office said today.

Due to the inclement weather in recent weeks, there have been only two street sweepings. City Manager Steve Matthews told a group of S. Cuyler business men at the City Commission meeting this morning.

For that reason, and because the city's present sweeper is inadequate, many of the streets in town have not been properly cleaned. The new sweeper, due to arrive April 6, will remedy many of the present unpleasant conditions.

Trieste for Gorizia Was Slavs' Proposal

ROME (AP)—A Foreign Ministry spokesman said today Italy has flatly rejected Yugoslavia's offer to swap Trieste for the Italian city of Gorizia.

The Western Allies proposed the return of the free territory of Trieste to Italy last Saturday. Yugoslavia countered yesterday with an offer to relinquish her claims on Trieste if Italy will give up Gorizia, to the north.

The spokesman said:

"It is clear that Italy cannot accept the separation of a part of Italian flesh bartered for another part of Italian flesh."

The Italian answer came only a few hours after great throngs roaring "viva Trieste" welcomed Premier Alcide de Gasperi and Foreign Minister Count Carlo Sforza back to Rome.

There was pandemonium at the station as Romans, for the first time, belatedly out their satisfaction with the return of the free territory of Trieste to Italy. De Gasperi and Sforza were in Turin Saturday when French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault first announced the idea.

Amid continued cries of "viva Trieste Italiana," "viva De Gasperi" and "viva Sforza," De Gasperi told the crowd it was too early to make any definite forecast on the future of Trieste, where Italian and Yugoslav border patrols exchanged shots yesterday.

The shooting scrape occurred at the border separating the Yugoslav and the U. S. British zones of Trieste. An Italian policeman was wounded.

No immediate reason was given for the shooting.

U. S. officials said Italian police recruited by the American Military Government, were patrolling yesterday inside the British-American Zone when the Yugoslavs opened fire with machine-guns. The Italians returned the fire with their pistols. There was no report on whether they hit anything.

It was the first incident of gunfire since the western powers asked Russia and Yugoslavia Saturday to join in returning Trieste to Italy.

Russia has made no formal reply yet. The Moscow Radio Sunday night objected that the western allies had acted behind Russia's back in making the suggestion. Italy yesterday sent notes to Britain, France and the United States thanking them for the Trieste proposal.

Later in the day, Yugoslavia's premier, Marshal Tito, replied through his foreign minister with a counter-offer to swap Trieste for Gorizia—a city of 60,000 which commands the northern approaches to the big port of Trieste. Trieste now is a free territory, by the terms of the Italian Peace Treaty.

The Senate's $468,000,000 help-for-China bill is for 12 months, with $100,000,000 to be set aside for any use — military or otherwise — that the Chinese government proposes.

3. The $275,000,000 Greek-Turkish military fund, extending for another year the aid program this country launched in 1947. The Senate Foreign Relations Committee sent its separate bill to the floor with a plea for quick action.

4. A $60,000,000 allotment for the international fund to aid European children. The Senate has a separate bill ready for approval later this week.

Crosswalks for Pedestrians Are Being Painted

Crosswalks for pedestrian traffic are being painted at the intersections around the four grade schools and the Junior High School. City Engineer Richard Pepin said today.

Painters began painting last night, and will finish tonight.

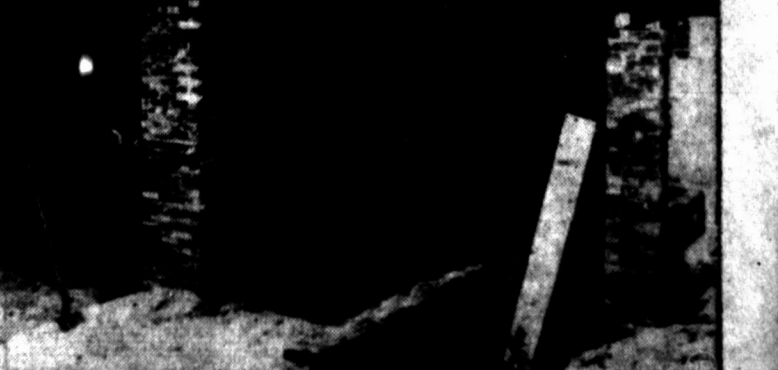

Each school principal gave the engineer's office a chart showing where student traffic was heaviest and where the crosswalks would best serve to regulate the traffic.

The recently-organized Junior Safety Patrol will direct school children at these crossings and will keep them from crossing at other than the designated places.

They said the Red forces had abandoned the city three days ago for unknown reasons.

BEGINNERS' VANDALISM:—

Children Reported Breaking Out Glass, Then Marring Gas Meters

Patience is running out. That was the word today from the Texas Gas & Power Corp. in regard to children breaking glass and marring gas meters.

Jake Sherman, head of the concern which furnishes all the gas used in the city, and incidentally, in most cases, furnishes the gas that cooks the food these kids eat, said children for the past year had been breaking the glass out of the meters and then marring the computing mechanism hands.

This makes it necessary, in some cases, to estimate the amount of gas used, he said—and gives way to error.

This, he explained, has happened in all parts of the city, and has been worst in the past two months. He named Wilcox and Talley Additions and an area along Mary Ellen Street.

Last week workers were installing a new glass in a meter in South Pampa. A boy, about 11, was watching. "Son, wish you'd quit breaking these glasses," the reply was to the effect that he'd break it again just as quickly as they left.

Garman said he was appealing to parents, and if that didn't do any good he would have to take the matter up with the police.

It's necessary to stop it, he said, because the indexes are scarce.

PAMPA HIGH SCHOOL, MARCH 23, 1948

NO. 21

This year the Easter holidays will be April 26-29. Students will return to school Tuesday, April 30.

Senior Play Nets Record Proceeds

The senior class, breaking all records since 1939, made over $1,000 on the class play, "Brother Goose," presented March 8 and 9.

Capacity crowds attended both performances. The first night over 100 persons were turned away.

The Borger junior play cast, which staged the same play this year, attended the play here on opening night and presented the cast with a bouquet of snapdragons and iris.

Written by William Davidson, the play is the story of an older brother and his trials while caring for two younger sisters and a brother.

Members of the cast were: Nancy Thompson, Ann McNamara, Kelly Nicki, Nicki Fraser, Max Hukill, Hilda Burden, Jim Wilson, Wade Thomas, Verda Elkins, Barbara Walters and Barbara Stephens.

Miss Thelma Henslee directed the play. Reba Killian and Bob McPherson were assistant directors.

Business managers were Eugene Imel, Don Kephart and Emmett Forrester. Jimmie Marx and Bill McArthur were stage managers. Property managers were Patty Williams and Larry Rhodes.

A party honoring the cast and their dates was held in the PHS cafeteria Tuesday night after the last performance.

The high school population, especially the boys, was very interested in the President's speech Wednesday. The recent developments in the world situation have caused some quizzical looks and knitted brows.

The President presented a three-point program for Congress to act upon immediately: (1) The European Recovery plan (2) universal military training and (3) a temporary re-enactment of selective service.

The last two points are the ones which will more directly affect the high school — particularly number two. A definition of the two should be made. Universal military training is for all young men — usually between 18-21 — when they graduate from high school. It is hard to definitely define universal military training, since every Congressman has his own bill, as well as do various organizations such as the American Legion.

Basically, it is understood to be one-year military service. Up to six months credit might be given for R. O. T. C. training in connection with college. The other six months may be spent in the army, national guard, or perhaps the reserve.

The selective service program is the same plan enacted during the recent war. This service has never been dispersed — an act of Congress is all that's needed to begin it since the draft boards and other machinery are still in order.

Like the typical American, the PHS boy is taking it light-heartedly — but seriously. The general consensus is that it is needed and when the time comes to serve — the time comes.

For the first time, the President used the name of the country causing all the trouble. It should be stated that this speech was the strongest that has ever been delivered in peacetime, or even in wartime.

It's up to Congress now. All that one can do is watch. All that you have an opinion, write your Congressman. He will appreciate mail on such important legislation as this.

Those 18-year-old senior athletes (and not only athletes) who have been wondering where to go to college next fall may have their problem solved. Coach Truman has hinted that scholarships may be offered to Ford Benning and March field. Bob Boyles is afraid he may have to go through Moscow university with a Sherman tank.

Payne relates that he has been jumping off his garage every morning before breakfast. We tried to tell him that flat feet wouldn't keep him out. It's all part of the gaff that followed President Truman's speech recommending Universal Military training.

Coaches Tippetts and McNeely have until April 23 to get the Harvard baseball squad ready for district competition. If Ole Man Weather will give the boys a chance, we should be able to develop a fine nine. With weather confining the students to the gymnasium, volleyball has become a favorite with physical education classes. Volleyball is a sport that has grown by leaps and bounds during the past few years.

In keeping with the Irish custom of green on St. Patrick's day, Mr. A. L. Patrick presented all members of the PHS faculty with green ice cream on March 18.

The group earned the money for the jackets by selling pom-poms at the football games.

Cheerleaders receiving jackets are Ida Ruth Taylor, Kathryn Crowley, Max Hukill, Betty Joyce Scott, Lewis Stallings, Pat Price, and Mariola Duvall.

The tennis club was organized Wednesday and there were 17 girls who signed up to play tennis Friday afternoon, the 19. Twelve of these girls also signed up for interscholastic tennis. The Friday afternoon matches were played with White Deer. Scores and winners will be made known as soon as they are recorded.

The 8th period came out on top in the volleyball game played between that period and 1st period. To start things rolling, the 8th period defeated Miss Dorothy Hoyle's class in the 1st period 15 to 5 and won the second to make them winner of two out of three with a score of 15 to 13.

To try to retrieve this loss, Mrs. Peggy McNeely's first period class went in against the 8th period 5th period class. This did not work either, as they went down in defeat 5 to the fifth period 15.

The most exciting game was the last when the 3rd period trailed four points behind until they rallied when the score was 9 to 1st period's 13. Dottie Jones' serves brought the 3rd period out of their hole and the game won with the score 1st period 13 and 3rd period 15.

Before closing we would like to recognize the girls who put in so much work on the nice curtains in the dressing room. They really "dress" that room down.

The tennis club was organized Wednesday and there were 17 girls who signed up to play tennis Friday afternoon, the 19. Twelve of these girls also signed up for interscholastic tennis. The Friday afternoon matches were played with White Deer. Scores and winners will be made known as soon as they are recorded.

The 8th period came out on top in the volleyball game played between that period and 1st period. To start things rolling, the 8th period defeated Miss Dorothy Hoyle's class in the 1st period 15 to 5 and won the second to make them winner of two out of three with a score of 15 to 13.

To try to retrieve this loss, Mrs. Peggy McNeely's first period class went in against the 8th period 5th period class. This did not work either, as they went down in defeat 5 to the fifth period 15.

The most exciting game was the last when the 3rd period trailed four points behind until they rallied when the score was 9 to 1st period's 13. Dottie Jones' serves brought the 3rd period out of their hole and the game won with the score 1st period 13 and 3rd period 15.

Before closing we would like to recognize the girls who put in so much work on the nice curtains in the dressing room. They really "dress" that room down.

De La Rosa Sings Way To Success

"If we see ourselves as others see us and have a few laughs together, we will have accomplished much in creating a lasting friendship between our countries," said Senor Roberto de la Rosa of Mexico City in assembly Friday.

Senor de la Rosa is one of twelve Mexican men selected as good will ambassadors to the United States. Each of the twelve has a certain region or district over which he is to travel and speak in an effort to bring about friendly relations and better cooperation between Mexico and the United States.

Senor de la Rosa stated further that the idea of bringing the American peoples together is more than 100 years old. The first meeting for this specific purpose was the Pan-American Assembly of 1927.

Stationed in Southern Missouri, Senor de la Rosa has made Pampa headquarters for the past week, speaking in Pampa and outlying towns.

Dressed in his traditional native costume, the speaker was introduced by Harry Kelly of KPDM.

He told of the Mexican conception of Americans, then of the American conception of Mexicans. In doing this, he contrasted the misconceptions with the actual conditions.

Senor de la Rosa favored the co-educational system of our U. S. schools, he said. In Mexico, the boys and girls are sent to separate schools, a custom from the days of the church-ruled schools.

Mexico is primarily an agricultural country as it has no iron ore for steel or coal for power to convert the ore into steel. Since Mexico is rich in water power, it has been proposed that they begin hydro-electric projects but their operating their government on a very low budget makes this difficult, he declared.

They cannot raise funds by internal taxation, he added; therefore their governmental budget depends on exportation.

In closing his program he sang two Mexican love songs, "Cello Lindo" and "Perfidia."

NHS Initiation Set for March 31

Twenty-eight students of PHS will be formally initiated into the National Honor society at the regular assembly period March 31.

Eight Enter Ft. Worth Meet

Red Mayes placed first in the 100 yard dash and third in the 100 yard and 220 yard dash at the recent Southwestern Exhibition Track and Field meet held last Fri. and Sat. at Farrington Field in Fort Worth.

Several Davis won fourth place in the 200 yd. high hurdles.

440 sprint relay team—Wilson, Keith, Mayes, Harwell—won preliminary heat but failed to qualify for final.

H. Cox won one-fourth mile heat but failed to qualify for final.

With the clearing of the weather, outside workouts began on Sat. last week and produced an opportunity for the track and field team to show just what talents they possessed.

It had been announced earlier that 12 cinder-men would make the journey to "Cowtown," but when all regulations had been cleared it was learned that only eight would make the trek.

The four members of the PHS cinder-squad entering the 440-yard sprint relay were Marvin Harvel, Jim Wilson, Wesley Keith, and Carl "Red" Mayes. This is the first time the PHS has participated in all dashes and has displayed possibilities of becoming a top-notch relay team.

Mayes and Wilson also participated in the 100-yard dash. This was Mayes' third time to enter the meet in this event, although he has failed to place in his two previous tries.

Cooper Wins; to Box Wortham In AAU Meet Finals Tonight

Eugene Cooper of Pampa successfully made his bid into the finals of the Plains AAU Tournament of Champions by a three-round decision over Robert Martinez of Amarillo last night at the Municipal Auditorium in Amarillo.

Cooper, Texas Golden Gloves welterweight boxing champion, worked easily in outpointing the hard-fighting Amarillo boy. Martinez seemed to be hurt only by a series of body blows by Cooper in the second and third rounds, but was never able to cope with the winner's lethal southpaw style.

Cooper will meet James Wortham of Amarillo in the finals of the 147-lb. (welterweight) division. The winner will represent the Plains AAU District in the National AAU Tournament to be held in Kansas City the last of this month.

Wortham defeated Jack London of West Texas State College last night by a decision. The Amarillo High School slugger was 1948 Amarillo Golden Gloves, high school division, welterweight champion. Cooper KO'd London in the second round of the finals of the Amarillo Golden Gloves championship in February.

Complete results of last night's boxing:

Market Briefs

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—One of the largest volumes of the past year, individual stocks today extended their rally while many market leaders slipped over quick-turn profits.

Trends turned a shade unsteady after a speedy start. Although minutes after the close, gains running to 2 points or so were plentiful.

For a good part of the initial hour the ticker tape was as much as 2 minutes late for the first time since last May. Blocks of 1,000 to 5,000 shares were common. The first hour total of 720,000 shares was a top since December, 1946. The pace subsided but turnover at about 2,000,000 shares was among the best since mid-April a year ago.

Inclined to stumble were Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Northern Pacific, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Caterpillar, Tractor, Douglas Aircraft, and Standard Oil (N.J.).

In front most of the time were Du Pont, General Electric, International Paper, Allied Chemical, Johns-Manville, Eastman Kodak, Goodyear, Firestone Tire, Goodyear, Goodyear, American Smelting, Twentieth Century-Fox, Loew's, United Artists, American Airlines, Union Pacific and Atlantic Coast Line.
