He expects to return soon to Worth Investments' Ft. Worth offices leaving Buchanan as fulltime manager-in-charge. Buchanan succeeds Mrs. La Juana Schulze who resigned and moved back to her hometown, Sweetwater.

Among improvements planned under the new management and reorganization already underway will be a full social calendar for entertainment features of the Baker Club, private membership club sponsored by the hotel; improved food service; and new accent on catering services for parties of any size, particularly during the approaching holiday season, Buchanan said.

WITH 39-0 TRIUMPH

B-Team Keeps Win Streak Unblemished

Colorado High's eager B-team combined a sturdy defense with a powerful offense here Thursday night to defeat Anson B. 39-0.

The triumph was the third in as many games this fall for Coach Caddo Matthews' lads and kept their goal line uncrossed.

Every member of the squad saw action as the B-Wolves rolled to a 21-0 lead at half time, then added 3 more touchdowns in the second half. Perry Millsap opened the way at 10 a. m. in the fire station. The meeting will be called to order in Civic House at 1:30 p. m. by Cooper.

The welcome address will be by Mayor H. I. Berman and the response will be by Chief A. B. Parker, Rotan.

Eldon Mahon, District Judge, 32nd Judicial District, will address the group.

A training film on artificial respiration will precede the business session.

Reports and announcements of the ladies district auxiliary will follow.

Don Benson, Fire Chief here, has issued an invitation for all the town to attend the races to be conducted after the closing of the convention session.

The races of fire teams will be featured at 4:30 p. m. in front of City National Bank. Race on will be a pump race between six men teams. Race two is another six man team contest. The fastest race and hose performance race four is for two men in the "hookup" division. All four races will be races against the clock with winners determined on a time basis.

A dinner party in Civic House at 6:30 p. m. will climax the day. A dance in the V. F. W. hall at 8:30 will follow the dinner. Admission will be by convention badge only at both social events.

Civic House has been named official convention headquarters.

A ladies luncheon and business meeting will be conducted in the Terrace Room of the Baker Hotel from 11:30 a. m. until 1:30 p. m. All firemen's wives are invited. The price is $1.00 per plate.

up a couple of touchdowns. Arson, with size and weight on their side, mustered 2 sustained drives during the game, but spirited C-City defense turned 'em back.

Millsap traveled 34 yards on a reverse for the opening touchdown, sending the B-Wolves into a 6 to 0 lead as the extra-points were kicked.

Moments later in the first quarter Millsap found running room on another reverse and galloped 68 yards for the score. Lindsey's run for extra points was good and the B-Wolves led, 14 to 0.

Lindsey burst through the middle of the Anson line in the second quarter, and rushed 45 yards for touchdown. No. 3, Millsap's kick for extra point ran the score to 20-0.

In the third quarter the B-Wolves clinched a drive with Lindsey's 6-yard touchdown run around left end. Extra-points try failed, though, and the lead was 27-0.

Another sustained Colorado City drive in the fourth period brought touchdown No. 5 as Broderick skirted right end for the final 13 yards. Again the extra-points attempt was no good and the score was 33-0.

With 2 minutes remaining in the game, Cox boomed his way for 18 yards and the final touchdown. Anson blocked Millsap's kick.

Mainstays in the effective B-Wolves' defense were Dee Dearen, Mike Mundy, Ronnie Preston, Stanley Hardcastle, Sammy Moser, John Tiller, McAdams and Bearden.

Lindsey and Millsap teamed together for a big share of the C-City offense. Lindsey, carrying for 165 yards and Millsap for 117.

The B-Wolves punted only once—a kick for 15 yards. The B-Team punts—Lake

SON OF FORMER PASTOR

Fred Mecoy Hurt Critically By Fall

Five-year-old Fred Mecoy, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Don Mecoy, was reported Saturday morning to be lying critically injured in Methodist Hospital.

The lad suffered severe head injuries, a concussion, a fracture of the skull, and a broken arm when he fell from a second-story window of his home Friday. Fred lives in First Christian Church parsonage, in Paris, Texas. The family lived here, where Rev. Mecoy pastored, First Christian Church, before moving to Paris.

Playing with the three other Mecoy children in the care of relatives while his parents attended International Convention of Christian Churches in Los Angeles, Fred fell from the bedroom upstairs window to a concrete walkway below.

The other children, who happened to have turned their backs momentarily, said the boy was standing on a chair and somehow managed to knock the screen open. Sound of his sudden fall to the cement walk was first thought by members of the household to be an automobile collision in the street, the impact was so sharp.

When the child was rushed from Paris to the Dallas hospital his parents were enroute home from Los Angeles, by car. Reported attempts to locate him failed.

Paragraphs

By PEGGY BELVIN

THE SERENE QUIETNESS of the Baker Hotel's coffee shop has changed.

Now the coffee-drinking, donut-dunking visitors either try to talk around the jump and jive or give up altogether and snap their fingers and shuffle their feet.

This new era of coffee-drinking music-lovers was born when the brightly-lighted and colored, nicker-gulping mechanic musician known as a juke-box was installed.

Now the coffee-cuppers take Bo Diddley with their sugar and pour cream to the lulling strains of "Big Bad John" ...

A SPLASH OF COLOR has been added to the main street of LORAINA ... in the form of a new Community Building. The 50X80 foot structure is a bright, clear turquoise blue ...

THE STUDS like huge wooden ribs that break the skyline between here and Loraine mark the progress being made on BERNARD'S TOURIST TOWN, the new $50,000 business that is being constructed 5½ miles east of Colorado City. The spectacular establishment will brighten the travels of New Yorkers, Pennsylvanians, Californians and just plain Loraine to Colorado City commuters ...

SPEAKING OF NAMES for city citizens, was talking to the EDWARD KIRBY family recently, who have just returned from Frankfurt, Germany.

Was busy typing out the story of their travels, when I was horrified to catch myself calling the citizens of that town ... FRANKFURTERS!

KNOW A DARLING LITTLE GIRL here in town who has just topped the age limit that determines the fact that she has outgrown her true and steadfast friend, the baby bottle.

So, out the back door went the baby bottle. But the habit was hard to break, and the tyke used any and every bottle around for a substitute.

BUT THE HABIT IS BROKEN NOW. Since she made the mistake of choosing a squeeze-bottle of dish-washing liquid ...

"I was glad when they said unto me, LET US GO INTO THE HOUSE OF THE LORD"

"... in thy presence is fulness of joy ..."

Open up your heart, sing praises joyfully unto the Lord. The feeling of being and sharing with others in worship is at its highest in the Lord's house. Hear a message from God's dedicated servant. Know the satisfaction of praying to the Lord with others. Attend church regularly and ... "Praise the Lord: for the Lord is good: sing praises unto His name; for it is pleasant."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Enlistments Open Again For Nike Unit

Another special enlistment project of 25 men for assignment to Abilene's Missile unit has been authorized by army air defense headquarters, Colorado Springs, Colorado. Captain William L. Huffman, Commanding Officer of the Abilene Recruiting main station, announced today.

A group of 25 men were enlisted September 27th. For October, another group has been authorized for enlistment on the 25th of October.

Captain Huffman stated that men from West Texas will be enlisted to serve in the Abilene Missile Unit.

Oland D. Hill of Colorado City is now stationed at Abilene's missile base. Sgt. Louis C. Lawson, the local US Army Recruiter, said "The men who enlist for the Abilene Missile unit must pre-qualify for enlistment by October 24th. They will be enlisted into the army as a group on October 25th and then proceed to Fort Polk Louisiana for eight weeks of basic training prior to returning to the Abilene Missile unit."

Sgt. Lawson stated the Abilene missile unit is a Nike Hercules, surface to air defense weapon placed for the defense of the Dyess Strategic Air Command Base. The principle job of the men assigned to the unit is in the field of electronics. However, there are several other job openings at the present time for personnel serving in other fields.

Another important point Sgt. Lawson stated is that the men who enlist will be serving near home, while fulfilling their military obligation. Young men who are interested may contact Sgt. Lawson at the Army Recruiting station 1825 25th St. Snyder, Texas for full and complete information about enlisting for the Abilene Missile unit or phone HI 3-9675 or HI 3-4869 collect.

COTTON CLASSER SAYS

Maturity Is Key For Defoliation

If and when to defoliate is more than likely one of the problems Mitchell County cotton farmers are considering at this time.

Defoliation can be a very useful tool to the cotton farmer, but it can be very costly and damaging if used too early.

Maturity is the prime factor to consider, warns B. B. Manley Jr., chairman of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Classing Office, Abilene.

An Extension Service Bulletin suggests that at least 60% of the bolls on a cotton stalk should be open before applying defoliant. Manley reports. The bulletin gives detailed instructions on defoliating types of materials available, and conditions under which they are recommended. Maturity is of prime importance because when the defoliant is applied, the maturing processes are stopped. When the cotton is stripped, the stripper gathers all bolls on the stalk.

If there are too many small immature bolls on the stalks, it can cause the classification to be designated as Wasty. Wasty cotton carries a price penalty, Manley emphasized. If too many bolls are imma-

IN BATTLE OF BULLDOGS

Wyle Scuttle Loraine, 28-6

BY PEGGY BELVIN
Record Staff Writer

LORAIN — A battle of Bulldogs ended here Friday night with Wyle's team scuttling Loraine for a 28-6 loss.

Fleet Dean Clark, halfback for the visiting bulldog team, raced a long 10 yards to start the scoring action early in the first quarter.

The run resulted after short action. A pass from Loraine's Stanley Moore to Joe Garcia from his own 20 moved the ball up to the 45.

Busier Jarnigan brought the ball up for 10 more yards.

A pass from Moore, intended for Garcia, was intercepted on the 30, to start Wyle moving. Clark swept left end and raced the 75 yards to gain the first scoring.

Clark failed in his try for extra points.

It took Wyle 30 seconds in the third period to crank up their second score. Clark received the kickoff and carried it 85 yards to cross Loraine's goal.

Ronnie White, Wyle's quarterback, scooted around right end for the extra points.

Footwork by Wyle's White kept the visitors scoring in the third quarter. They picked up another touchdown from a run by White up the middle for 10 yards. They failed to run the conversion.

Wyle started the scoring in the final period with a pass from White to Dickie McMahon, covering 20 yards and taking the ball across the goal.

A run through the middle collected the additional points.

Loraine threatened Wyle's goal only once, after a kickoff executed with only 3 minutes left to play.

Loraine's Moore ran 16 yards and deposited the ball on Wyle's 43. Moore's pass to Garcia brought the ball another 15 yards.

Epperson picked up 4 yards in a run up the middle and a pass from Moore to Garcia added another 6 yards.

A Wyle 15-yard penalty left the Loraine team only 3 yards away from scoring.

A run over right guard by halfback Wart Epperson gained Loraine its lone touchdown. Moore was stopped as he attempted to run the conversion. Loraine was left battling on the Wyle 11 when the gun ended the game.

CONVERSATION CORNER

YOU MAY or may not be thrilled to know that in England it's all right and perfectly legal to yell back at any young man who screams its head off at you first.

At least, a British court decided that the dentist who cowed a small patient (by out-hollering the six-year-old howler) was within his legal rights. The little young man was so impressed with the English dentist's loud cries that she opened her mouth in wonder. And got two teeth filled. The mother sued for damages to her child's nervous system. The dentist won.

IN AMERICA, often called the kingdom of childhood, any adult who hollered at and made fierce faces at a "helpless young child" would be jailed, then run out of town.

Of course the whole idea of yelling right back is on the childish side—even if a very original idea for a practicing dentist. And it wouldn't always work with a really smart six-year-old genius. It all brings to mind the old "cat tale." Or is it "cat tail?"

REMEMBER the mother who had studied child psychology in college? She decided to try a new and modern method of teaching her child kindness to pets. She decided to try on her little child every single abuse he afflicted on the little cat. It was to be an object lesson.

He pulled the little cat's ears. The mother pulled his ears. He pinched the cat's pink nose. She pinched his nose. He kicked the cat. His mother kicked him.

About that time the kid retreated and thought the situation over for a minute. Then he bit the little cat's tail.

And that, kind friends, is simply that.

She did not teach him to kick the cat.

She threw the book away and got

A brush—from which he learned a lot.

Moral to this story is sage:

With kids it's best to act YOUR age.

IT COULD be consoling, come to think of it, to all little mothers of all little mischief-makers to read what the mothers of several astronauts so fondly say. At least two men who've shown "courage over and beyond the call to duty" by orbiting the earth were once somebody's "bad little boy."

Scott Carpenter's boyhood read like Dennis the Menace in spots. Comes now the mother of our Walter Schirra Jr., USN hero of this week's orbits.

Mrs. Walter Schirra Sr., who had the pleasure of bringing him up to manhood, was quoted as saying "He was quite a handful always. I was always having to send him to his room as punishment."

Listen young mothers, whoever you are,
Some day your Junior may light on a star!

MAIL CALL: From Seville, Spain, comes another fascinating letter from overseas. Written by Joe Earnest on thin stationary marked "On Board the Flying Viking Ship," this one goes, in part:

"One can travel to Europe economically now by fore, going expensive hotels. In the past seven weeks I've been from Ireland to Greece, Scandinavia to Spain (and from here to Portugal) visiting about 18 countries. I shall end my trip in Lisbon, which happened to be first European city on my first trip to Europe during my college days—YEARS ago." (The capitals are Joe's.)

SECOND TRIP for our friend Joe was the one he made with college friends in England, France, and Scotland by bikes. Third time he saw Paris he traveled with his sister Fannie Bess Sivals (Mrs. D. C.) of Midland, and her daughter by ship, plane, train, and car.

"And now with this jet age," Joe's letter goes on to say, "with most travel by plane, by buying a round trip ticket to the farthest point—Athens—I had some 20 other cities thrown in at no extra cost. . . . The best place is always the place I am at the moment. (As for people, I learned long ago how all people have good, and bad points.)

"HOWEVER I do like the serenity of the English countryside, the mountains, firds, waterfalls and lakes of Norway, snow-capped mountains of the Bavarian (Southern Germany) and Austrian Tyrol, rather than the seacoast cities.

"Northern Europe seems to have the most beautiful flowers. . . . I've seen so many art and technological museums, cathedrals, palaces, castles, ruins, climbed so many steps, walked over so many cobblestones. . . . I couldn't begin to tell all. It's hard for me to believe that I'm up at 5:30 some mornings just to get out and see the sights. I can sleep when I get home."

THEN Joe writes of theaters, great operas in London, Paris, Rome, Athens, Vienna, Barcelona. . . his hotel in Madrid where he had room, private bath, and three good meals a day for $2.16. . . and met two attractive New Zealand girls. . . then New York City.

"I still think New York City is the GREATEST place I've ever been. . . ."

COLORADO CITY—maybe not the greatest but absolutely the NICEST—seen lately: Rochelle Smith (Mrs. Arnel E.) dashing about in the state of excitement which always consumes the "mother of bride." Daughter Ronell is to be married next month. . . . Darris Egger, in for an office visit, saying that the Methodist Galilean Service was changed to Seven Wells from Lake Colorado City this Sunday for reasons of creed.

Seems the Methodist choir arriving by fishing barge to the shore site the last two seasons almost got immersed in the middle of the Doxology. Had the barge sunk—as it almost did—the singin' service would have wound up all wet as a Baptist baptizin'.

COFFEE BREAK: Earl Keaton, Bob Ratliff, and Fred Marberry. . . . Gerald Gordon, Bob May. . . . Bob Fee exhibiting a coin from Elre, copper the size of a 50c piece, bearing a crowing rooster. . . . Jay Craddock.

Grover (Buck) Buchanan is nominated for this week's "local lad makes good." He's new (assistant) manager for the Baker, Buck, a widower, fathers a twelve-year-old daughter Alice Ruth, in school at Midland. He's son of the late D. L. Buchanan, is a Baptist, and a pretty nice fellow. See CONVERSATION CORNER Page 8 ate them on the highway and to notify them of the tragic accident failed. Around-the-clock efforts of Highway Patrol and friends were unable to find the Mecoy's.

Rev. and Mrs. Mecoy learned of their son's grave condition only when they reached Colorado City late Friday evening. They had expected to visit friends and First Christian Church members here overnight. They were informed of Fred's extremely serious fall injuries by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Root, when they reached the Root home, 204 E. 8th St.

Accompanying the stricken couple to Methodist Hospital immediately were Mr. and Mrs. Root.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bell, also members of First Christian, joined the family at the hospital Saturday morning. The Bells drove from Ballinger to Dallas Friday night, expecting to attend Texas Press Day at the State Fair.

ed in 1946 as a lieutenant colonel.

Highlights of his career to date include assisting the Mexican Air Force in organizing maintenance shops in Mexico City. In 1951 he cancelled his connection with the Mexican government to enter air-conditioning business in Ft. Worth. In 1954 he returned to Houston to head the truck line.

He testified before the McClellan Committee in 1958 — concerning his victory in the battle with the teamsters — and won commendation from Senator McClellan.

In 1959 he testified before the House Sub-Committee on Labor on need for the legislation to protect union members and is credited by Republican followers with inclusion of the "Bill of Rights" portion of the Landrum-Griffin Act.

His Democratic opponent for the Congressional seat at Large seat is Joe Poole of Dallas.

Ballinger moved the ball 59 yards in 11 plays for its second touchdown and the two extra points. Brown set up the third Bearcat touchdown with a run from the Wolf 42 to the 20. Brown shot a six-yard pass to Slaughter at the 1 who flew around right guard to score. Slaughter also picked up the 2 extra points with an end run.

Third quarter fireworks burst around the Wolves when Ballinger's Underwood dashed through right tackle with a 53-yard touchdown run, chased by David Lewis and Houston. Brown got the double conversion.

Fourth quarter score for Ballinger came when the Bearcats trotted down to the Wolf 28 in 10 plays. Brown connected with Grant Lee on a running pass and the Bearcats scored again. Lee escaped wingback Dickie Summers to catch the pass at the five. Brown then grabbed up his third two-point conversion on a keeper around left end.

Wolf squad made two threatening advances in second half.

First strong advance was halted by a fumble by Kincaid, who recovered losing C. City 10 yards, and throwing the Wolves back from the 29 to the 39.

Second try to wrangle victory from defeat came when Houston, in fourth quarter, was downed hard at the 15 by Bearcat guards, Bobby Kurtz and Terry Isbell. Wolves had marched a drive from their own 40 to the Bearcat 15.

COORDINATOR REPORTS

Center Facilities Worth A 'Brag'

Something to brag about is Colorado City's Community Center, the activity hub for city parks and recreation department's program.

That's what Mrs. Dick Wistrand told Kiwanians Tuesday in Civic House.

And she emphasized that more public use of the 50,000 square foot building would make the center even more valuable.

Mrs. Wistrand traced an increased program of activities sponsored by local organizations and the parks-recreation department.

"We are very fortunate to have this building," she stated, "and there's nothing to compare with it in many cities much larger than ours."

"We should use it now to be sure that we have it for years to come."

"I ask you to look into the facilities of our center more and look at our parks and recreation board's program."

"Then, the next time you hear someone criticize our city, brag on these facilities and the program for you will know the parks and recreation board is doing a pretty good job."

Mrs. Wistrand, who is coordinator for the city recreation program, reported that numerous organizations, family groups and individuals are using facilities at the Community Center. These use run a gamut from parties and meetings to study sessions and family reunions.

Two kindergarten classes, sponsored by the city, now have 65 youngsters enrolled.

A total of 4,822 persons (total number over the entire period) were counted in games, visits, crafts and other activities of the city's summer recreation and crafts program in the Community Center.

Mitchell Oil Well Reports

Mitchell County oil news for the week includes an item from Marathon No. 1 Nail Oil Trust. The well has been potential for 147.9 barrels of 29-gravity oil flowing from the Cisco sand between 6,254-56 feet.

It is an offset to the Gordon Knox No. 1 Nail, dual discovery. Production included 53.9 barrels of water flowing through a 24-26 inch choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 668:1 and tubing pressure was 100 pounds.

Location is C SE SW, section 19.12, H&TC survey, about 17 miles southeast of Lorraine.

Marathon No. 1 Nail flowed 147.9 barrels of oil from the Cisco on initial potential. It is a northeast offset to the Knox No. 1 Nail dual discovery which, finalized in the Strawn in July, for 238.28 barrels and in the Cahyon for 177 barrels in August.

DEPOSITS

ment. More people are buying cars, and automobile loans have increased, he pointed out.

"And we're just a larger bank now," Womack noted. The bank increased its surplus in January of 1961 by $50,000. Bank directors took that amount from the bank's undivided profits to increase the bank's capital structure to $722,000. That money is held in reserve for depositor's protection. Comparatively, in Sept. '52, the total bank reserve was $392,000.

"When you consider," Womack concluded, "that Mitchell County has not yet reached this year's harvest peak, the new record high figures sound even better. After the crops are fully harvested, we should be able to show something really good by the end of December."
