NEW BASEBALL PARK—Workers are shown filling in the infield for the new baseball park, located in the northwest corner of the fair grounds. When completed, the baseball field will be enclosed by a board fence, and there will be lights, backstop and seating facilities for both the town team and the Ranger Club youth baseball program. Supervising the work in this picture are W. H. Lackey and J. S. Slaughter of the local baseball club.

Work Starts On New Baseball Field at County Fair Grounds

Work started Tuesday morning on separating the baseball field and rodeo arena at the county fair grounds, with trucks and heavy earth moving equipment busy all day working to fill in the new ball park.

The baseball field will be located in the northwest corner of the fair grounds, and present plans are to build a board fence around the field and move the tower lights from the present location to the ball park.

A drainage ditch is being made around the park; and the infield is being filled in with dirt. It is expected to have a backstop, the fence and seating facilities within the next few weeks.

The baseball diamond will be used by the town team and for the summer baseball program which furnishes summer recreation for about 150 youngsters.

The rodeo arena will be equipped with smaller lights, suitable for any night rodeo show.

The county is furnishing earth moving equipment, and many of the trucks used to haul dirt for the baseball field have been donated by interested members of the baseball club, Ranger Club or rodeo group. The county will stand most of the expense of moving the lights and getting both the rodeo grounds and baseball park ready for use. The fence will be built through donations from local businessmen and farmers.

Fire Saturday at Anderson Home

Fire threatened the Lawrence Anderson home at 409 S. Birch Saturday afternoon, but quick work by the Perryton firemen put out the blaze before it caught the house on fire.

The fire started from a trash barrel and spread to adjoining grass in the alley. Three lots in the neighborhood were burned off before the firemen put out the fire.

The rear of the Anderson home was scorched slightly, but did not catch fire.

Monday Is Easter Holiday at School

The Perryton schools will dismiss at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon and will remain closed until Tuesday morning while the students and teachers enjoy the Easter holiday. This annual Monday holiday gives the members of the faculty a chance to go to their homes for Easter Sunday.

Baptist Choir Plans Annual Easter Cantata

The adult choir of the First Baptist church will present an Easter Cantata Sunday evening at 8:00 p. m. The cantata is entitled "Calvary" and is a musical of unusual harmony and simplicity depicting the Seven Last Words of Christ before His crucifixion. Each number is taken from the scripture and put to music. Solo parts along with the choir are rendered by Mrs. Byron Tevis, Mrs. R. E. Waller, Miss Delores Clark, Jerry Drennan, and Bill Burton.

In addition to the Last Words there are three lovely numbers: "As it Began to Dawn," a Solo by Mrs. Tevis; "Consider the Lillies," a trio by Mrs. Tevis, Mrs. Waller, and Bill Burton; and the Finale—"Christ the Lord is Risen Today" by the choir.

The Cantata will be broadcast over station KEYE Miss Elaine Graves is the organist, and Joe Erickson the pianist. They will open the program with a organ and piano duet playing the Hallelujah Chorus.

Glynn Braden to Direct Summer Baseball Program

Glynn Braden, coach at Abernathy, Texas, has been employed to direct the summer baseball program for Perryton youngsters, reports W. C. Holdeman, president of the Ranger Club, sponsors of the summer program.

Braden will report in Perryton on May 24 and start the program immediately after his arrival. He is a former baseball player with the Amarillo Gold Sox and had a distinguished football and basketball career at West Texas State College.

In addition to directing the league games this summer, Braden will conduct a baseball school each morning for all boys in town.

The Ranger Club membership drive is progressing, but there is an additional need for funds with the expanded youth program planned for the next year, Holdeman said. Those desiring to help the club with this youth work are requested to enroll in the Ranger Club. Minimum dues for the year are $5, and any amount over that will be greatly appreciated and put to good use, Holdeman said.

Still time to get Easter candy from Burk's.

County Red Cross Drive Over Quota

Ochiltree county went over the top in the 1952 Red Cross drive, reports Gene Akers, county fund drive chairman. Total contributions to the Red Cross were $3,725.23, which is approximately $425 more than the quota.

The original quota was set at $3,000 for the county, but this was raised to $3,300 by request of national Red Cross officials in view of the heavy expenditures being made in the tornado stricken areas of the South.

Akers reported that there were 700 contributors to the Red Cross and an average of $5.30 was given by each of these 700. There are over 6,000 persons in the county, however, and this represents a per capita contribution of only 62 cents, Akers pointed out.

"We are grateful for the support these 700 contributors gave," Akers said. "These Red Cross contributors are about the same people that always bear the brunt of any fund raising drive, Red Cross or otherwise, and we have to face the fact that there are a lot of free riders in our county. We are pleased that Ochiltree county once again has gone 'over the top' in the Red Cross drive, and the success was due to the hard work of a lot of people in soliciting funds."

Jim Shearer Is Candidate for Commissioner

The Herald has been authorized to announce the candidacy of J. H. Shearer of Perryton for the office of county commissioner, precinct 2, subject to the action of the voters in the July Democratic Primary.

Shearer is the third man to announce for the post of commissioner of this precinct, Herman Hargrove of Farnsworth and O. C. Watson of Perryton having previously announced for the office now held by Harlan Hawk, who has said he will not run again.

Shearer came to the Oklahoma Panhandle in 1913 and lived nine miles northeast of Perryton for several years. He entered the produce business in Beaver, then came to Perryton in 1919, when the town was founded, and established the Shearer Produce Co.

He built the city ice plant in 1923 and operated it until last

Fellowship Baptist Church Plans New Building

Rev. Everett Cavin, pastor of the Fellowship Baptist church, has announced that the congregation will hold a special service on Easter Sunday to break ground for the new church building, to be located at the corner of 6th avenue and S. Ash street.

Membership in the church has grown so that the present building is unable to handle the congregation and about three weeks ago the church purchased a corner lot and plans have been drawn for a tabernacle style bulding. The new building will be 40 by 100 feet and will contain a large auditorium and classrooms.

Construction is expected to begin on the new buildling within the next few weeks.

The public is invited to attend the ground-breaking ceremonies at 11:30 a. m. Sunday, April 13, Rev. Cavin said.

A Baby a Day Is Score for March

A baby a day was the score n Perryton for March. During the 31 days of March, there were 31 babies born in the two local hospitals. There was more than one baby born on some days and a set of twins during the month upped the average. While this is not claimed to be a record birth rate, it is unusual that the number of babies born exactly equalled the number of days in a month. The information was received from Mrs. Lorene Richardson from the office of Dewey Allen, official registrar of births for the county.

Friends Enter G. L. Patton In Sheriff Race

Friends of G. L. Patton of Perryton have entered him as a candidate for sheriff, tax collector and assessor of Ochiltree county, subject to the action of the voters in the July Democratic Primary.

Patton has lived in Ochiltree county for 27 years. He came here from Miami, where he was reared on a ranch. He lived in Roberts county for 13 years, engaged in farming and ranching, and came to Perryton on Feb. 1, 1925.

Patton, now stationed at Lowery Field, Denver; Charles W. Patton, Air Force veteran; and Marine PFC Billy Dock Patton, who died in the service.

Patton is a member of the Baptist church and the Masonic Lodge. He farmed and ranched in Ochiltree county soon after moving here, and was employed by the Texas Highway Department for eight years. He has been employed by the W. W. Virtue store in Perryton for the past seven years.

Real Estate Tax Valuations To Be Increased 10 Per Cent By Perryton School District

A ten per cent increase in real estate valuations for the Perryton Independent School District will be made for the 1952-53 tax year, which will result in a total valuation estimated at $20,000,000 on the revised tax roll.

The increase will create about $20,000 in increased revenue, which is about the amount of decrease in state aid received last year compared with this year.

The tax rate of $1 per $100 valuation will remain the same.

The increase in valuations was made necessary in order to provide the Perryton school system with a budget of $300,000 for the coming year, a spokesman of the school board said Tuesday. This is approximately $3,000 more than the budget for last year, which was $297,000. The budget for the present year is $274,000.

The state assistance from the foundation fund, under the Gilmer-Aiken bill, was slashed from $46,000 in 1950-51 to $15,000 in 1951-52, which cut the operating budget of the school to $274,000. This decreased budget was met by cutting expenses throughout the school system, superintendent Gilbert Mize said.

Mize pointed out that the utilities and maintenance costs of the school system are up 25 per cent since adding the gymnasium and auditorium and that the other costs have risen during the year.

In setting the increased valuation on real estate, the tax structure has been changed for business inventories, making them less. In the past, the business inventories have been assessed at

The two regular guards, Doc Carter and Bobby Mitchell, return, backed up by letterman Gene McLain.

The center position is the only one not manned by a letterman. Marvin Flowers who played on the B team last fall, is currently the leading candidate. He is expected to be pushed hard by Charles Parker, a squadman.

Hayward Has Jekyll-Hyde Role

Louis Hayward plays the title role of "The Son of Dr. Jekyll," offspring of his father's alter-ego the notorious, maniacal Mr. Hyde, from the famous story brought to the screen once again. The picture comes to the Pertex Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday.

Young Jekyll feels that he should not marry until he proves that his father was not a lunatic but a serious scientist who had discovered a formula to help humanity by releasing inhibitions.

Aided by Alexander Knox, who plays the part of executor of the senior Hyde's estate, Hayward attempts to duplicate his father's experiments. He quickly gets mixed up in murder and the film dashes swiftly to an eerie climax.

Now at Powells

Bernard Phelps is now in charge of Powell's Market and Lockers, owner Raymond Powell has announced.

Phelps has had more than seven years experience in market work and was in charge of another market in Perryton before making the change.

He says that all meat will be guaranteed and that many new services will be offered.

The smoke from burning poison ivy, oak or sumac is poisonous.

Montgomery Is Western Star

The days when tribal tomahawks and U. S. Cavalry carbines swept the plains are recaptured in "Indian Uprising," starring George Montgomery. It is the story of the great Apache rebellion led by Geronimo in 1885. The picture comes to the Ellis on Friday and Saturday.

Montgomery plays the role of a cavalry captain who captures Geronimo and becomes friendly with him. The Apache signs a treaty which guarantees that Indian territory will be kept free from mercenary whites, but greedy gold miners soon sweep into Indian territory and the fight is on.

Rangers Fifth In District Meet

The Rangers finished in fifth place in the district 1-A track meet, held at Canyon last week. Phillips captured the title, followed closely by the Canyon Eagles.

Phillips had 62 points, Canyon 53, Dumas 26, Hereford 9, Perryton 2 and Dalhart 1.

Perryton's points came when B. R. Pletcher placed fourth in the broad jump, tied for fourth in the pole vault, and the mile relay team won fourth.

No Perryton team members qualified for the regional meet at Lubbock on April 19.

World Famous Hypnotist to be At Beaver Friday, April 18

Heralded as "America's Greatest One-Man Show" by the Saturday Evening Post, the Hungarian-born entertainer and master of telepathy, Polgar, comes to the Beaver high school gymnasium on Friday night, April 18. Polgar has confounded college professors and laymen alike with his uncanny demonstrations.

Already a veteran lecturer on the platforms of the nation's outstanding forums, town halls and universities, the affable Dr. Polgar holds his audience enthralled. At the conclusion of his two hour program the most skeptical critics are convinced of his electrifying abilities.

The show consists of three parts. In the first portion, memory demonstrations serve as the eye-opener. Dr. Polgar can meet a hundred people in rapid succession, note their names, and then will gladly pay $5 to each one of them whose name he forgets.

The second part is devoted to mind reading. The doctor asks for mental flashes from his audience and hidden objects are quickly uncovered.

The final and the featured portion of the show is devoted to hypnotism, Polgar's favorite and most entertaining part of the show. People will lose a lot of their inhibitions and perform unexpected stunts at the bidding of the master mentalist. However, Polgar emphasizes that he cannot make a person under hypnosis perform any action that is against his basic code of right and wrong.

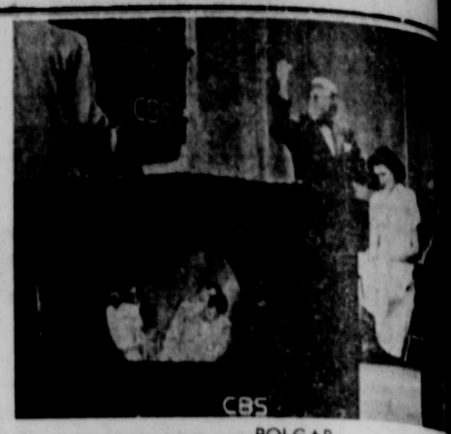

Dr. Polgar,who has been featured in Look, Life, the Saturday Evening Post and other magazines, attributes his extraordinary powers to an experience he had during World War I. He was buried in a Hungarian army trench for three days, and spent months in a hospital trying to regain his loss of speech and memory. However, his strong mental telephatic quality remained.

Dr. Polgar will come to Beaver from Alva, where he is playing a return engagement at the college. He is sponsored in Beaver by the Girl Scout Council. The financial drive for the Girl Scout fund fell short of the quota this year, and Dr. Polgar is making a special stop-over for the Scout Council in an effort to raise this deficit.

Tickets are on sale at the F. C. Tracy Dry Goods store or the B & J Drug store, or may be purchased at the gymnasium on the night of the show.

'The First Time' Kicks Lid Off Mirth Control

The wonderful experience of raising a baby has been conveyed with hilarity and wit in "The First Time," the picture which comes to the Ellis Theatre on Sunday and Monday, starring Robert Cummings and Barbara Hale.

Cummings and Miss Hale are co-starred as a young couple, booby-trapped by the stork in their first year of marriage, who more or less rise magnificently to the occasion.

Cummings is a harassed parent who has to quit his job as an architect for the better paying job of washing machine salesman. Miss Hale finds that the demands of an infant results in a losing battle for glamour.

How they solve all their problems makes for an interesting hour and a half of enjoyment.

THE SWING'S THE THING—Baseball players use various types of batting stances. Some are considered unorthodox—but the players find such stances pay off in the long run. At left, Stan Musial and new manager Eddie Stanky of the Cardinals display their styles. Stan crouches and unwinds like a spring. He's the National League batting champ. Stanky's crouch gets him many bases on balls each season. At right, teammates Gene Woodling (No. 14) and Gil McDougald of the Yankees are depicted. Gene's hitting has helped the Yanks capture three straight pennants and World's Series. McDougald's spread stance didn't hinder him either. He led the Yanks in batting and was named the top American League rookie last year.

Local Stockmen Plan to Attend PanTech Event

The second annual field day will be held at Pan Tech Farms Friday, where all major research work being carried on at the farms will be discussed, according to J. P. Smith, PanTech Farms manager. A large number of farmers and stockmen from Ochiltree county will attend and seven livestock breeders of the area have animals in the PanTech bull progeny test.

L. A. Maddox, Jr., animal husbandman for PanTech, and project leader for the bull progeny test, will lead the discussion of this year's feeding results. There are 131 bulls representing 36 sire groups, that have been fed uniformly since last November.

Included in the breeders cooperating in the progeny test are C. A. Hoover, Lawrence Ellzey, Percy Powers, Roger Pearson, R. H. Holland, M. R. Pearson, and C. J. Frantz and Sons.

Each of these breeders has four bulls in the experiment, except Holland and Frantz, who have entered eight.

Dr. H. R. Crookshank, research chemist of the Bureau of Animal Industry at PanTech Farms, will lead the discussion on the development and results of the wheat pasture grazing studies that have been conducted at the farm.

Several state and national leaders in livestock production and research will appear on the program during the day.

The program begins at 9 a. m. and will continue throughout the day with discussion groups and tours to test plots.

Thanks for the Cow

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Officials at Long Beach City College were slightly confused recently when they received a letter from Hochacht, West Germany, which started out like this:

"Honored Sirs! It is now two months since I received the cow from you. I want to express my heartiest thanks for the beautiful present."

The explanation came from a faculty adviser who recalled that part of the proceeds of the school's charity carnival had been turned over to the Heifers for Relief Fund. They had sent the cow to Bruno Gerigk in the name of the college.

The letter added: "Three days ago the cow had a calf, and both the cow and the calf are healthy and cheerful."

Oderless Garbage Disposal Plant

NEW YORK (AP) — A Danish firm has come up with what it hopes will be an odorless garbage disposal plant, says the American Public Works Association.

They have found a way to turn garbage into a high-grade compost-fertilizer without smell. The mechanical principle is simply to promote and accelerate the natural processes which take place in a gardener's compost heap.

A dozen disposal plants have been constructed in Scandinavian cities in the last decade. The garbage is fed into a rotary silo which begins the process of breaking the material down into small particles. Later the material goes to a grinder where the final mixing process is completed. Farmers use the compost as fertilizer.

Fifty Lawyers Attend Fete for Bar President

Over 50 lawyers from Texas and Oklahoma were guests of the Northeast Panhandle Bar Association Thursday night to hear Cecil Burney of Corpus Christi, president of the State Bar of Texas.

In his address, Burney urged that citizens take care that their rights and liberties as American citizens are preserved for the future even as the documents embodying our Constitution and Declaration of Independence are being preserved.

He also pointed out that lawyers are "the interpreters of liberty" and that it is their duty to keep the public informed as to the slightest engroachment upon their rights and liberties; that lawyers should explain to their neighbors the dangerous consequences, if any, incident to the federal government's entrance into various new fields of activities.

He asserted that the government cannot give us what it does not first take from us—that a government strong enough to give us everything we want is also strong enough to take from us everything we have.

Present were C. A. Williams of Childress, immediate past chairman of the State Bar board of directors; E. L. Pitts, chief justice of the state Court of Civil Appeals; Luther Gribble, district judge, 100th judicial district, and other outstanding visitors.

Max W. Boyer, president of the Northeast Panhandle Bar Association presided at the meeting. Jack M. Allen of Perryton is the secretary and Roy Sansing of Higgins is vice president.

MEET YOUR FIREMAN—11—O. C. Rickard, owner of the Perryton Safety Lane, has been on the Perryton Fire Department since July, 1950, soon after moving here from Pampa. He is a nozzle man on the local department. This is the only experience he has had as a fireman, except a short time with the Davis, Okla., fire department about 10 years ago. There have been no really big fires here since he's been a fireman, but the one at the Glasgow Hotel last year when a man suffocated in a smoke-filled room gave him the biggest scare.

Mickey's Name Not Art

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP)—The Swiss Supreme Court has decided that the name "Mickey Mouse" is not a "work of creative art" and therefore is not protected by copyright.

Walt Disney Studios had sued the "Mickey Mouse Restaurant" in Zurich for the unauthorized use of Mickey's name and image on its menus, plates, tablecloths and publicity. The Zurich courts had upheld the complaint and ordered the restaurant to change its name and remove Mickey's image from its premises.

However, the supreme court, on appeal, decided that Mickey's image must go, but his name could remain. "The title of a work of art is only protected by copyright," the court's judgment said, "if it has an inherent creative content. Throughout the world, animals are given human nicknames. To call a mouse 'Mickey' is thus too commonplace to deserve the distinction of a creative work of literature."

The court recognized, however that there was artistic originality in Mickey's image. "Anyone can draw a mouse in human form," the judgment said, ". . . but no one can deny that the human form chosen by Walt Disney is of a special and individual character."

Cleanliness Good Way to Prevent Spread of Polio

AUSTIN, Texas—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following statements and suggestions concerning the control and prevention of poliomyelitis which is always more prevalent during the summer months.

Until recently it was generally believed that this infection is transmitted by means of discharges from the respiratory tract. It is now believed that poliomyelitis is primarily another of the several gastrointestinal infections. Therefore, control measures must emphasize clean-up campaigns and improvements in sanitation.

Strict sanitary measures must be observed in all communities. Stringent efforts should be made to eliminate the housefly and to destroy its breeding places. All mosquitoes and mosquito breeding places must be eliminated at once. Every effort should be made to institute approved garbage collection systems immediately. Safe water supplies must be assured. Where adequate community sewage disposal systems are not available or feasible, it is important to build and properly maintain sanitary septic tanks. In the event a water carriage system of sewage disposal cannot be secured it is important that at least an approved pit type toilet be constructed and properly maintained.

All raw foods and vegetables should be washed thoroughly before use and protected from flies, filth, and insects. All eating and food handling establishments should adhere strictly to the State Law concerning the sterilization of dishes and utensils.

Every effort should be made to secure approved milk. Rats and mice should be eliminated. Maintain in the home the same sanitary standards that are necessary in community life. Particular attention should be paid to personal hygiene. Excreta from cases and contacts should be handled and disinfected with the same scrupulous care as in typhoid fever or bacillary dysentery.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomiting, drowsiness, followed by stiffness in the neck and back. When suspicious symptoms appear, a physician should be called immediately.

Wheat Loan Deadline Near

April 30 is the deadline to redeem wheat under the government loan program, reminds PMA secretary Elliott Lee. If the producer does not redeem his loan by April 25 he will have to make arrangements through Dallas instead of locally, Lee said.

There are 15 wheat loans in the county that have not been redeemed, Lee stated. All of the grain sorghum loans were redeemed before the April 1 deadline, he added.

Auto wreckers have been given an added incentive to help raise the iron and steel scrap inventories of the nation's steel mills and foundries to a safe operating level.

Morley and Gearhart Piano Team Lives Up to Advance Billing, Reviewer Says

By ALVIN KLOTZ

Those of us who have followed Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians prior to their going exclusively to television remember vividly the captivating style of a duo-piano team called Morley and Gearhart. The opportunity to see them in person on our own auditorium stage was the more thrilling because of that past acquaintance.

The team, Virginia Morley and Livingston Gearhart (actually they are man and wife) is comprised of more than two persons seated at two Steinways. There is something of the magic of a marvelous intuitive sense of the other person, a sort of mental telepathy that is in evidence at all times when they play.

Part of their distinctive manner rests in the fine musicianship and subtle taste that appears in Gearhart's arrangements. Part of it can be attributed to the truly different playing done by Virginia Morley. She simply sits down to the piano and plays without fuss or frill and the results are remarkably original and distinctive.

The program, it would seem was somewhat heavier than the average of us expected. Even then it was varied and extremely interesting. The program was definitely enhanced by Gearhardts comments, as well as Miss Morley's. This established contact with the audience from the word go. Occasionally, too, they would change pianos and this made it possible for the entire audience to see each of them in action.

The program began (in the words of Gearhardt) with a whisper. This was the beautiful "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach. From there they went into a prelude and fugue by Bach which, through transcribed from organ, made a marvelous two piano selection. Then followed a smattering of various kinds of music, a rythmic and difficult Can Can as well as a Cuban Dance form as interpreted by Ravel.

The latter part of the program was probably more typical Morley and Gearhardt as we have known them. This included some of his rather typical arrangements and a splendid rendition of some Strauss waltzes. An encore featured "Three Blind Mice," a number that had all the earmarks of a Waring program.

Canadian Man Announces for State Senator

JIM CROW

CANADIAN, (Spl.) — Youthful Canadian attorney James D. (Jim) Crow, a newcomer to politics, formally tossed his hat in the ring this week to challenge veteran legislator Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo for his seat in the Texas State Senate.

Hazlewood, seeking his fourth electictive term as State Senator from the 31st district, had announced his candidacy for re-election last week. He was first elected to the Senate in 1940.

Crow, a native of Canadian and son of pioneer Panhandle attorney Will Crow of this city, is a 27-year old veteran of World War II service with the U. S. Navy.

He attended Canadian public schools and was a student for two years at Texas A & M College before shifting to the University of Texas Law School, where he received his law degree in 1950. He has been associated with his father in the practice of law in Canadian since that time.

Crow announced this week that he would start immediately on a county-by-county tour of the district.

"I expect to meet every person in the district between now and election time," he said.

The 31st district, reorganized last year under the new legislative re-districting act, now contains 16 counties . . . 10 less than in previous years. Now in the district are the top three rows of Panhandle counties, plus Randall County . . . Hazlewood's home county.

Traders Leave China

SRINAGAR, Kashmir (AP)—Indian traders in Communist-held Chinese Sinkiang are selling out and returning home according to reports brought here by inbound caravans.

Regulations under the new Communist government force Indians, and the few other foreign traders in Sinkiang, to buy goods for export through government-controlled chamber of of commerce, and sell their imports through the same agencies. As a result, the traders complain, they pay more than a market price for export goods and receive less than the market rates for their imports.

Many Indian traders have lived and worked in Sinkiang for decades, supplying the local market with goods from South Asia and buying local production for export to India and Burma.

Political Primer By Dallas Man Helps Voters

DALLAS (AP)—When a Dallas schoolteacher thought he recognized in Texans a "growing sense of futility" about political machinations, he set out to write an expose of the election system.

David S. Switzer's expose is the election system.

David S. Switzer's expose is the unsensational type in which he neither calls anyone names nor links any person to unpopular causes. In fact, his pamphlet, "Voting Responsibility," doesn't even deal with personalities.

All he exposes is that Texas voters have a chance to do more than cast a ballot on election day, and then he tells them how.

"Everybody thinks there isn't any chance to pick the people who run for office," Switzer says. He believes most voters think they have to sit back and wait for a candidate to be served up to them on a platter—tarnished by the hands of professional politicians.

"Then they go out and vote and think they've been good citizens," he adds, expressing a bit of futility himself.

So in his book Switzer says he has tried to open the door—a door he says political profiteers have closed and locked tight—to the election system.

Briefly (in 30 some pages) and graphically (with nearly 20 cartoons, graphs and charts) Switzer explains how an election proceeds, from the neighborhood precinct election May 3 to the general election in November.

The neighborhood precinct election is the clue to Switzer's argument. This is the place where he thinks "the people" fall down.

Until they start using the precinct meetings and elections as a lever, they'll never wrest control of tickets, parties and governments from the boys in the smoke-filled rooms, he points out.

It's the "grassroots" way, he says, and "you and your neighborhood are the grassroots."

Eli Mermen Again Favored

NEW HAVEN (AP)—Yale again is the choice to take the Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming League title. The Eli mermen have won the title five straight years and 10 of the last 11. In the opening meet of the season, Yale trimmed Penn, 57-27.

The 28th dual meet campaign ends March 8 and will be followed by the individual championships in the Yale pool, March 13, 14, 15.

Sixty-Two Peace Officers Attend Local Meeting

Sheriff Ray Phagan and his staff were hosts for the meeting.

Sheriff Hugh Anderson of Borger headed a roundtable discussion on Panhandle burglaries, and Ranger Captain Raymond Waters of Lubbock spoke on burglary investigation.

District attorney Bob Gallaway of Borger told the officers about the rules of evidence connected with the arrest of a burglar and also discussed the laws concerning the arrest and extradition of a fugitive.

The officers had lunch in the First Baptist church basement and the Rotary Club met with them that day. On the noon program was Sheriff Paul Gaither, talking on hot checks and forgeries, and Sheriff Hugh Anderson of Borger who discussed civil defense.

Texas Ranger Frank Probst showed pictures of known criminals. Post Office inspector Geo. T. Hesberg, Jr., of Fort Worth gave the regulations concerning information the post office is permitted to give to law enforcement officers.

The next meeting will be held May 5 at Borger, in connection with the Five-State Peace Officers meeting.

Officers Secure Liquor; Arrest Two In Chase

A fast chase Sunday night over dirt roads north of Perryton by Sheriff Ray Phagan and state highway patrolman Jack Shields resulted in the arrest of two Perryton men and the confiscation of 71 pints of whiskey.

Arrested and charged in county court were Walter B. Allen and Alfred Ries. Allen was charged with transporting liquor and Ries was charged on two counts, one for transporting liquor and the other for possession of liquor in a dry area.

Both men posted $500 bonds in county court after appearing Monday before county judge Howard Slaughter.

Phagan and Shields were in the patrol car near the state line north of town when they decided to investigate a car which turned east on a dirt road near the state line. When they followed the car, the car speeded up and the pursuit was on.

After chasing the car about three miles down the road past the city dump ground, it was brought to a halt and the investigation made, Phagan said.

Blood-Money Settlement

CAIRO (AP)—The ancient method of settling disputes by "blood money" agreements has been invoked to end a fatal feud between two tribes in the Aden protectorate, the Arab News Agency has reported.

Feuding between the Awdalies and Beidhanies tribes had brought death to about 50 men on both sides. Under the agreement reached, each tribe will submit a list of names of men killed. Each dead Awdali will be written off against a dead Baidhani.

The tribe that comes out with the least men killed will pay the blood-money to the relatives of the dead men of the tribe having the most men killed.

MEXICAN CATTLE TINE: The announce- the quarantine against cattle will probably be September 1st has great deal of discussion e cattle people. Many it will tend to break the cattle market and do untold damage to many small operators. Others are of the opinion that it will cause the cattle market to level off and that it will create a healthy, rather than damaging, situation. The decision concerning the lifting of the quarantine was prompted by the fact that Mexico presently appears to be free of the Hoof and Mouth Disease. If no new outbreaks occur between now and September 1st, Mexico will be declared free of the disease. This will mean that cattle can be imported under whatever regulations are decided upon as applicable. The Secretary of Agriculture, under the Tariff Act, makes the declaration. At the present time there are no definite regulations determined. Work is progressing in that field and the proposed regulations are being fully processed. It has been suggested that a period of quarantine at the port of entry should be established in order to permit observation before the cattle are brought in. This procedure was not followed before the outbreak. It seems to be the consensus of opinion here that the lifting of the quarantine will not cause any great fluctuaitons in the cattle market. This opinion is based upon the fact that since the quarantine has been in effect a large meat packing and processing industry has been established in northern Mexico. It is logical to believe that the Mexican government is not going to let those establishments fail because they cannot obtain cattle. This means that the Mexican government will probably invoke certain restrictions on the exportation of cattle in order to protect this industry that has grown up and means much to the economy of Mexico. The effect of such restrictions could be that only the surplus of certain grades of animals would be allowed to cross the border. Prior to the outbreak of the disease and the placing of the quarantine, 350,000 to 400,000 Mexican cattle crossed the border into this country each year. Most of those here who are thoroughly familiar with the subject are convinced that importations subsequent to the lifting of the quarantine will be far below that figure. This certainly seems logical. Actually the quarantine has in one respect been of great service to Mexico. It has made possible the building up of the large meat packing and processing industry that will contribute much to the progress of Mexico in the future. In fact it was probably more helpful than one of these foreign aid laws would have been. Mexico was able to wipe out a most serious disease and at the same time build up an industry that will serve the country well.

THE FOREIGN AID PROGRAM: The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs have been going full speed ahead in obtaining information concerning the proposed foreign aid budget. As you know, General Gruenther has been testifying before these committees in support of the full aid bill, and has made an excellent witness. The full budget request involves expenditures of 7.9 billion dollars. It is going to be interesting to watch what happens on this proposed expenditure in the light of what has been happening to the domestic appropriations bills. These domestic appropriations bills have been cut and sliced from all sides in the committee and the treatment is renewed when they reach the House Floor. During the last few days the House has been considering the appropriations bill for the Department of Interior. Several sizeable cuts were made even though the bill had been whittled down pretty well in the committee. Some of the cuts affected the American Indians, and this of course provoked heated debate. One member observed that you had to live outside the United States in order to be considered in any federal assistance programs. Sometime ago this same member made the observation that the Confederacy was the only nation that the United States ever defeated on the battlefield and then failed to feed afterwards. He is a very able member and is really hitting the nail on the head. I don't believe that this Congress is going to make the cuts on the domestic front that we have already made and then do a complete economic about-face and write out a blank check for foreign aid.

THE APROPRIATIONS BILL FOR DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR: I introduced an amendment to reduce the Bureau of Mines funs by the sum of $816,800. I was taken to task by several members from mining districts. One of them pointed out that there were no mines in my district. I admitted this, but told him there were some taxpayers in my district. It seems that the membership are more interested in the taxpayers at the present time than they are in the fact that there are no mines in my district, because the amendment was adopted by the vote of 192 to 164. It is these kind of cuts that are going to pare the budget down. The talk is here that we will be able to knock off 14 billion dollars.

Senator Tom Connally . . .
. . . Bogs Down in Tidelands

Senator Tom Connally is obviously "running scared" in what is likely to be his hardest political campaign for the Senate this year . . . but that is hardly an excuse for his low-blow charge last week that his opponent, Attorney General Price Daniel, had lost the Tidelands case because he joined ranks with other states in the Court fight instead of pleading Texas' case alone.

The kindest excuse which could be offered for Senator Connally is that his remarks were typically ill-advised. The senior Senator from Texas has never been noted for accuracy in his public statements.

If Connally had paid as much attention to the Tidelands matter at the time when the case was brought before the U. S. Supreme Court as he is now in attempting to inject it as an issue in the Senate race, he would have known that Price Daniel did attempt to present the Texas case on its own merits, as well as directing the pleas of other states . . . and the Court dodged the issue by refusing to consider the testimony.

Senator Connally is now making a big noise in the Senate over the Federal Government's "steal" of Texas Tidelands . . . but all his thunder will hardly obscure the fact that the Tidelands battle has been ably led and bitterly fought from the beginning by young Texas Attorney General Price Daniel, in the face of bitter opposition from the Federal Government Administration which Senator Connally has so loudly supported in the past.

Aside from the obvious untruth of Connally's charge that Attorney General Daniel failed to present the special case of the State of Texas (he did), the Senator is straddling a dangerous fence in his implication that, while the Federal Government is wrong in attempting to take the Tidelands from Texas, it is right in wresting title to these submerged lands from other states.

Undeniably, Texas has special claim to its tidelands . . . under terms of the treaty with the United States of America which brought this state into the Union . . . and its is this treaty which an obviously biased Supreme Court refused to consider in its ruling.

But it is, in Price Daniel's opinion and ours, just as important that the rights of other states be also recognized by the Federal Government; since, if the Supreme Court decision is allowed to stand, these states . . . and Texas with them . . . may eventually lose all rights, not only to Tidelands but to navigable rivers and all other public lands within their borders.

While Senator Connally pays lip service to Texas, rights in the matter . . . being dependent on Texas votes to keep him in office . . . he is, by implication, willing to side with the Administration in stealing these same lands from other states where he counts no votes as his constituents.

We hope that the coming Senate campaign will not only be Tom Connally's hardest . . . but will bring his first resounding political defeat. We need more men in the Federal Government of Price Daniel's caliber . . . and fewer Tom Connallys.

From the SIDELINE
with HAROLD HUDSON

As you probably know, the Herald staff went to Amarillo last week end for the 43rd annual Panhandle Press Association convention. As usual, we find attending a convention is like going on a vacation—it takes several days beforehand to get ready for it—and several days afterward to get over it.

We met at Boys Ranch for the closing session, and to many of the Panhandle newspaper people, it was their first visit to the Ranch. We noticed that many improvements have been made since our last visit there a couple of years ago, and there are more boys there than the last time we visited. We never cease to be amazed at the wonderful work Cal Farley and his staff are doing for these boys who never really had a chance until they found this second home.

Gene Howe, the famous "Old Tack" of the Amarillo News, made a short speech at the closing session of the convention in which he paid a high tribute to Cal Farley. Actually, this was the first time we've heard Mr. Howe make a speech. He is always listed on the PPA convention program as a toastmaster for the closing Globe-News dinner, but he always passes the buck to Mason King, Wes Izzard or Dave Rasco when it comes time for him to speak.

However, last Saturday, he did make a few remarks. In remarking about the financial sacrifice Cal Farley has made to give all his time, money and efforts to Boys Ranch, Tack said he didn't feel a bit sorry for Mr. Farley. "What is success?" he asked. "Isn't it the satisfaction in life of doing what you want to do and knowing that you are benefitting others? I think Cal Farley is the most completely happy man I've ever known—and he is doing exactly what he wants to do in helping these boys." Tack pointed out that Cal Farley made a modest fortune in the business world and could have accumulated more worldly goods had he not decided to turn it all over to Boy's Ranch. And Farley is benefitting from his work nearly as much as the boys, Tack believes.

They say that President Truman will leave the White House next January in good shape financially. He will have a modest fortune, estimated at $200,000, according to a report we read lately. In 1947 it was predicted that he would leave the office in debt, but he has pulled out of the hole and is pretty well set now. One of his friends says that in private life the president is not the spender that his official actions would indicate. We sure hope not—else Harry would run through that $200,000 and be broke in about 60 days.

Speaking of spending, we are relieved to note that the House appropriations committee has finally recommended that the armed forces stop paying aides to top generals and admirals not on active duty and not performing specific duties. General MacArthur, for example, who is not on any kind of official duty, has a colonel, a warrant officer and a sergeant on his personal staff, to the tune of $17,619 of the taxpayers money per year. Gen. George Marshall has a master sergeant and major costing $5,492 to the taxpayers. Admirals Nimitz and King, admirals Leahy and Halsey, and General Vandergrift all have military personnel on their personal staff. Personally, we can't see any excuse for this expenditure.

Some men whom we consider fairly intelligent were discussing at the press convention the Life magazine story last week which brought up the subject of flying saucers. Life believes, after much investigation, that "solid objects have existed, and may still exist, in the earth's atmosphere and that they are not of American or Russian origin, nor made by any man." The Air Force, Life reports, is taking a sudden, new interest in flying saucers, in contrast to their previous light dismissal of the objects.

Fantastic as it seems, perhaps we are being observed by beings from another planet. At any rate there are lots of reports about flying saucers that defy any other logical explanation.

We received a letter this week from a friend of ours in Germany, and it seems that things are not going so well, there, either. The letter was from a Mrs. Mathilde Buttner, a school teacher in her middle-sixties, who was our detachment interpreter when we were there in 1945. Mrs. Buttner, who lost her home, her money and her husband to the Nazis, was naturally quite against the Nazi Party and was of untold benefit to our American detachment in rounding up members of the party in the little town of Neustadt, located about 15 miles from Nurenburg.

Now Mrs. Buttner reports that the pendulum is swinging the other way. The old members of the party are at work again and conducted quite a campaign against a Mr. Sperber, the man our detachment put in as Landrat or head of the county government. Sperber has won his post in elections each year since we left there, but this time narrowly kept his office and an ex-Nazi nearly beat him out. Mrs. Buttner is a bit worried, and we don't blame her. She is thinking about going to Canada, where she has some friends. If the Nazi party, whether called by that name or some other, get back in power, it's going to be pretty tough on her.

Wolf Creek Philosopher

There Must Be An Honest Man

(Ed. note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher is about half-way serious this week, we suspect.)

Dear editar:

While it looks like one of the hardest things on earth to do nowadays is to find somebody who has a good enough record of his own to be investigatin somebody else's record, I don't think the President ought to give up. There ought to be somebody.

Surely there is somebody left in this country who hasn't been in on a surplus ship deal, hasn't dealt with any Washington mystery men, hasn't sold oil to the enemy, hasn't become a millionaire two years after gettin a government job, isn't gettin a government pension he ain't entitled to, hasn't got a wife who a stenographer to a big shot, ain't borrowed from the RFC, hasn't helped somebody borrow from the RFC, hasn't cheated on his income tax, hasn't tried to help somebody who has, hasn't been fired from a tax collectin job, hasn't been a character witness for a convict, hasn't beat his hotel bill, isn't behind on his house rent, hasn't had any lush war contracts, isn't afraid to give a financial statement, and who has the brains to recognize a suspicious situation when it arises.

Some people may be pessimistic but I still have faith in this country. I believe there are a lot of people with records clean enough to hold down this job, even to stand up to Congress, but I suspect they're hidin out. Of course, I can't name any offhand, as I ain't familiar with everybody in Washington, but surely there must be plenty around there. And if not, there are a lot of other places in the country, where some honest man may be lurkin.

Personally, I don't hanker for the job 'myself. Investigatin Congress just ain't no job with a future in it. And besides, my record won't stand up. I ain't been in on any big deals, but when I was a boy, while I didn't play marbles for keeps, I wasn't that good with my thumb, I did stake a few friends who were pretty good and later on we may have split the loot. My memory ain't clear on the matter. I got sort of a Congressional memory.

Maybe investigations are a poor way to make changes. Maybe votin is the answer. But who to vote for is something you'll have to answer for yourself.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Veterans Forum

Q. I am an ex-WAC, going to school full time under the GI Bill. I'm married and have a child. Would I be eligible for the $120-a-month subsistence for veterans with more than one dependent (my husband and child)?

A. No. You may, however, be eligible for the $105 rate paid to veteran-trainees with one dependent—that dependent being your child.

Q. How do I go about finding a lender who will lend me money under the GI Bill?

A. Information as to who makes GI farm loans may be obtained usually from the County Agricultural Extension Agent. Information concerning home and business loans may be had from your local Chamber of Commerce, or by inquiring at banks, savings and loan associations, mortgage and insurance companies, and other public and private lending agencies.

Q. I have a service-connected dental condition, and was fitted with bridgework several years ago through VA's outpatient dental program. The bridgework seems to be wearing out. May I have it replaced?

A. Yes. Bridgework which becomes unserviceable through legitimate wear and deterioration may be replaced, provided your dental condition is still shown to be service-connected.

Q. I surrendered my NSLI permanent policy for cash when I went back into military service. I expect to get out soon, and I'd like to know what I must do to regain my insurance protection.

A. You may either (1) apply to VA in Washington, D. C. for a new permanent policy on the same plan and not in excess of the amount surrendered for cash and pay the required premium, or (2) reinstate your surrendered permanent plan by paying the required reserve and the premium for the current month. In either case, you must act within 120 days following your separation for active service. Physical examination is not necessary.

Holiday for Irish

DUBLIN (AP)—St. Patrick's Day—March 17—is one of the three big holidays. The others are Christmas and Good Friday.

Although both a religious holiday—it honors the saint who converted Ireland to Christianity — the celebrations resemble those in the United States on the Fourth of July, with parades and patriotic speeches.

Irish pubs are closed on three holidays, and in length and breadth of the land Isle there's but one place to legally toast its patron saint—the Annual Dog Show at Ballsbridge outside Dublin.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

Many people regard rules of legal procedure as mere tools of delay, of concern only to lawyers and judges. Far from this, they are instruments of justice, and of real significance to all of us. Procedure is the lubricant which makes the machinery of uniform justice run smoothly.

The law is composed of two parts—the substantive and the adjective law. The substantive law defines rights, duties and remedies; it enforces contracts and rights wrongs; it describes crimes and sets up penalties. People can usually see the value of substantive law. Adjective law deals with legal procedure and describes the steps a person must take to invoke the substantive law.

Some of our most important rights are to be found in the body of procedural law. For example, as a people who want justice to prevail, we like to think that every man, rich or poor, shall have his day in court. This is an important right for a day in court implies more than merely the right to have your say before a judge and jury.

Your day in court implies that you shall have the right to be properly represented, to have your case presented before an impartial jury and an unbiased judge, and to have a reasonable time to prepare for the trial. It holds that you shall have proper notice of the action against you; that the complaint or indictment shall state a clear cause of action. It means that you shall be confronted by your accusers; that you shall have the right to cross-examine them; that you shall be able to present evidence in your own behalf.

Finally, the law governing procedure tells you how you may appeal your case to higher courts when you feel that you have not had a fair trial or that a pre-judicial error has been committed in the trial court.

Much of our procedural law comes down from centuries of experience in the courts of other lands. It was inevitable that through the centuries some of the precedure would become cumbersome, obsolete and difficult. For this reason the history of procedure has been characterized by great periods of reform. In America we have experienced many advantageous changes in our laws governing the procedure of courts and administrative agencies. There is a growing custom in the United States of giving the courts the power to revise their rules in certain fields.

Our Texas rules of civil procedure are made by our state Supreme Court. The Court is constantly striving, with the recommendations of the practicing lawyer, to improve these rules. The aim of the Supreme Court is to provide a uniform and relatively simple set of rules for dispensing justice with a minimum of delay.

Crack Rookie Iceman

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Stoddard's promotion to the National Hockey League had its shortcomings. When traded by the Providence Reds to the New York Rangers recently, Stoddard was the leading scorer in the American Hockey League. He had 48 points on 20 goals and 28 assists.

Stoddard was involved in a four-player deal which saw Pat Egan and Johnny Denis moving from Cincinnati to Providence and Zellio Toppazzini of the Rangers going to the Reds. Cincinnati is a Ranger affiliate.

Annual Easter Sunrise Event At Lawton All Set for Sunday

LAWTON, Okla.—The twenty-seventh annual production of the Easter Sunrise Service will be produced in the Wichita Mountains of Oklahoma on April 13, Easter Sunday. The service begins at midnight and continues until dawn.

At the present time, extensive preparations are being made for the Easter Pageant. Women are busy making costumes for new scenes; electricians are working on the grounds, moving the flood lights from an area which will provide a roadway for the fifty mounted horsemen in the King Arthur scene, riding full speed in search of the Holy Grail; stage props and back-drops are being erected; the gallows on which Haman is to be hanged, in the "Queen Esther and Mordecai" scene, is being built; the loud speaker staff is getting ready to install equipment; the Oklahoma highway patrol is making preparations to receive the largest crowd in pageant history.

The Red Cross has organized first aid assistance, ham radio to broadcast messages to any part of the world. The Lawton fire department will bring out equipment to the holy city for protection against fire; and the refreshment stand on audience hill is preparing to serve 30,000 gallons of milk, sandwiches, potato chips, ice cream and other items of food to the 200,000 people who migrate to Zion's Holy Hill in the greatest religious pilgrimage in America.

A cast of 3,000 people constitutes a unique fellowship and a rare event in religious participation. This year the performers are coming from ten states, and several officers from far away Korea will perform as priests in "The Eleven Great Faiths." One of these Koreans will play the role of Balthazzar and bring his gift of gold to the infant Jesus in the manger.

The Wichita Mountains Easter Service operates as a non-sectarian organization. People of every faith, race, color and creed attend it and participate in it.

Some of the scenes of the pageant are put on by the Rebekah's, Oddfellows, Masons, Theta Rho's Rainbow Girls, De Molays and members of the Lawton Woman's forum stand at the entrance of the chapel in holy city to receive visitors and guide them about the pageant grounds.

GOD'S LIVING LETTERS

By Kirby Page

Sponsored by PERRYTON MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE

John Wesley lived in every decade of a century. He was born in 1703 and died in 1791. He was one of the best educated men of his time and the author of many books. Few evangelists in all the centuries have matched his eloquence and power over masses of people. He was gifted with genius as an organizer and the worldwide Methodist Church is his enduring monument.

He was an itinerant preacher and travelled incessantly through out England, and forty-two times he crossed the Irish Channel. He travelled on horseback in a day when there were few good roads, in heat and cold, in rain and snow. It was late in his life when friends provided him with a coach to make easier his travels. For a full half-century he preached on the average fifteen times per week. In all he travelled on land 250,000 miles, most of it on the back of a horse, an average of thirteen miles every day for fifty years.

His output as a writer reached incredible proportions. He read several languages and searched the literature of the ages for material to be used in the Christian Library, a work of fifty volumes, which he published. Much reading was done while walking or riding on his horse. It has been well said that he "made a wider distribution of religious writings with the inner life" than any other man in the previous history of the Church.

All this prodigious activity came from a man small in stature and frail in health. Sixty-nine times in his Journal he records attacks of sickness.

President Woodrow Wilson once paid this tribute: "The Church was dead and Wesley awakened it. He cleared and purified it by speaking always and everywhere the word of God; and men's spirits responded, leaped at the message and were made wholesome as they comprehended."

That God has dominion over all evil was proved by Jesus' spiritual healing of sin, disease, and death and is a fact capable of demonstration today. This is a leading thought of the Lesson-Sermon for next Sunday entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" to be read in Christian Science churches.

"The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death," are the words from the Golden Text (Romans 8:2). The following verse from the Bible is included in this Lesson-Sermon: "Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else" (Deuteronomy 4:39). And Mary Baker Eddy has said, "Sin, sickness, and death are comprised in human material belief, and belong not to the divine Mind. They are without a real origin or existence. They have neither Principle nor permanence, but belong, with all that is material and temporal, to the nothingness of error, which simulates the creations of Truth" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 286).

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

"In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me.
The lilies of the earth are the more beautiful because we see them rising out of dark Calvary. Christmas is sanctified in Easter. As the crystal purity of the lily lifts from the muck and the mud of a wayside pond, so the divine glory of the Easter lily comes to birth out of the tragic sorrow of Friday's crucifixion.

The Cross speaks of the muck and mire of human sin and sordidness. The lily tells of divine love that died for us, of the grace that saves us. Even the Cross takes on a radiant beauty when it is seen through the fragrant glory of the Easter lily. Dark Friday becomes Good Friday with its revealing of heavenly Love. Worship then the Redeeming God who has brought life and immortality to us. Then the Easter lily will symbolize our everlasting life.

Porpoises Enter Fishing Waters

KITTY HAWK, N. C. (AP)—An old superstition among seafaring folk is preventing the annihilation of a school of ocean porpoises in lower Currituck Sound.

The playful and sleek porpoises, which usually live only in salt water, recently moved into the fresh waters of the sound. Commercial fishermen report they are seriously interfering with their take of fish. One old-timer estimated that a school of 20 porpoises consumes about 6,000 pounds of fish daily.

Superstition says to kill a porpoise is "as unlucky as walking under a dozen ladders."

Give the little lady a hand

THIS ad is addressed to husbands—husbands who've yearned for the thrill of sitting behind a broad hood packed with horsepower—and the pride of rolling down the street in a car that tells the world, "Here's a man who knows the finest thing on wheels."

But husbands have wives. And wives have been known to say, "No big cars for me. They're too hard to handle."

Well, we have an answer for that one. It's a ROADMASTER with Buick's new Power Steering.† And Power Steering takes over any time the steering gets tough—works like a helping hand—reduces the effort of turning the wheel of a car at a standstill to about the same effort it takes to pick up a mink coat.

BUT out on the open highway—with a clear straight stretch before you—your hands still have command of the wheel—you can feel that sure, firm, easy and eager responsiveness that's a part of the fun of driving.

The rest of the fun is in something else that's new this year—the highest horsepower that a Buick Fireball Engine has ever delivered—and an Airpower carburetor that lets loose an extra reserve of power when needed, and still adds extra miles to your cruising range on each tankful of gas.

So we suggest a family demonstration.

You'll both like the hushed and restful silence of this superbly able traveler. You'll like the harmonious beauty of its interior, and the deep and luxurious softness of its seats.

You'll like the velvet-gloved grip of its Wide-Band brakes, and the most capacious trunk in Buick history.

You'll like the smooth surge of Dynaflow Drive, and you'll like—but why waste time talking, when you could be finding out more than we can ever tell you? How about making a date to do that right now?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. White sidewalls optional at extra cost when available. †Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster only.

Absentee Ballot May Be Sent To Servicemen at Any Time

AUSTIN—Rules governing absentee voting by servicemen of Texas have been sent to all county clerks by Secretary of State John Ben Shepperd.

The instructions list the various qualifications servicemen must meet to vote without a poll tax and outline the procedure to be followed.

Sheppard said he hoped the instructions would eliminate the confusion prevailing for the past few years.

The instructions point out that any member of the National Guard, on duty with Federal forces, and members of the Maritime service and Merchant Marine is qualified to vote without a poll tax receipt or exemption certificate provided he was at least 21 years old on the day of the election, a citizen of the United States, has resided in Texas at least a year next preceeding the election and for 6 months within the County in which he offers to vote. Time spent in the military service after the beginning of the above periods may be counted in determining if these time limits have been met.

To qualify to vote a serviceman cannot be a member on active duty of the regular or permanent military establishment of the Army, Navy, Air Force or Marines.

The Democratic Primary in Texas will be held July 26, the run-off August 23 and the General Election November 4th.

Details of how servicemen can determine whether they are eligible to vote without a poll tax are as follows:

Armed services personnel who are qualified to vote in Texas and who are on extended active duty may vote during 1952 without paying their poll tax and without obtaining a poll tax "Exemption Certificate." Whether the poll tax is levied by the State or any political subdivision, the serviceman need not pay it to vote in any election.

Any person who, at the time of the election, or within 18 months prior to the date of the election, was on extended active duty a member of any of the reserve components of the armed forces, a selective service draftee, a member of the National Guard, the United States Maritime Service, or the United States Merchant Marine, may vote even though he has not paid his poll tax, the serviceman must be or must have been on extended active duty and not merely on active duty; for example, a reservist on active duty for a week-end or for several weeks during the summer must pay his poll tax to vote.

The Constitution waives the requirement of payment of the poll tax as a condition precedent to the right to vote for these servicemen.

Servicemen's wives and dependents and civilians serving with the armed forces must either pay their poll taxes or obtain an "Exemption Certificate," in order to vote. A poll tax receipt, "Exemption Certificate," or affidavit that the receipt or certificate has been lost or mislaid must accompany the application for absentee ballot made by these persons. Except for these differences, these persons may vote by absentee ballot in the manner here described for voting:

Servicemen may make application for absentee ballot at any time. Application should be made to the County Clerk of the County in which the serviceman has his residence. However, the Armed Forces, Air Mail, "Application for Ballot" postcard will be accepted by the Secretary of State and will be forwarded promptly to the appropriate county Clerk. The postcard application for an absentee ballot seems satisfactory except that it has no space for the serviceman to indicate whether he is a member of the regular or permanent military establishment.

As soon as the ballots are ready, the County Clerk may mail the absentee ballot to the qualified applicant who has made application. However, no absentee ballots may be mailed by the County Clerk later than three days prior to the day of the election. As members of the regular military establishment are not qualified to vote and as the armed forces post card application has no space to indicate whether the applicant is a qualified serviceman or it, it seems advisable for County Clerks to take steps to obtain that information. It is suggested that the statement, "I am not a member of the regular or permanent military or naval establishment of the United States; be added to the application for absentee ballot or to the statement which the serviceman makes under oath and returns with his completed ballot.

The ballot must be marked by the voter in the presence of a notary public or other person qualified under the law to take acknowledgements, and the affidavit on the ballot envelope must be filled out, signed, and sworn to by the voter and certified by the officer.

The ballot cannot be marked sooner than 20 days nor later than 3 days prior to the day of the election, and the completed ballot must be received by the county clerk by 1 p. m. on the day of the election.

Annual McLean Rodeo Is Set

McLEAN, Texas—Four big rodeo performances, a free barbecue, two dances, a gigantic parade, and a get-together for pioneers of the area will be highlights of the three-day celebration in McLean April 18, 19 and 20.

The celebration, officially entitled the American Legion Annual Rodeo and Jaycee Pioneer Day, will open Friday night, April 18, with an amateur rodeo performance and a dance following at the American Legion Hall.

The parade will be held Saturday morning, April 19, followed by the free barbecue, afternoon and night rodeo performances, and the second of the two dances. Saturday will be the homecoming day for the pioneers of the area, and a registration place will be set up, as well as special entertainment. CHRYSLER FirePower is so much more than HORSEPOWER

+ It's worth remembering that today's Chrysler V-8 is not a "warmed-over" engine, but basically brand new . . . the first truly new type engine of modern times. It does, indeed, open new horsepower potentials, but what it can mean to you goes way beyond just that . . .

+ FirePower gives your gasoline a better place to work . . . the first hemispherical combustion chamber in a stock-car engine. It makes possible more power from every drop of gas. You feel it the minute you open up a Chrysler, in greater accelerating power than you've ever had at your command . . .

+ FirePower is also a better-built engine throughout. It doesn't require premium fuel. It runs with less waste, less heat, less wear, less carbon deposit than other type engines can do. More of your gasoline's energy is turned into actual road power, greater reserve for passing and top speeds when needed . . .

+ Why not drive this revolutionary new-type engine, and feel its wonderful difference for yourself? Let your Chrysler dealer show you how much more than horsepower your money can buy in the engine Chrysler has designed from scratch to do an engine's job better, longer, and more efficiently than previous engines can hope to do!

SPEAKING OF Furniture
By A. P. McCELVEY

TRUE TO TRADITION

Maple furniture is as truly an American heritage as the Declaration of Independence. It dates back to the days when our ancestors built their first homes in New England and Virginia and fashioned their furniture from the woods at hand, copying the few pieces they had brought with them. Most of the early settlers came from the provinces, so much of the furniture they copied was Provincial in line and design.

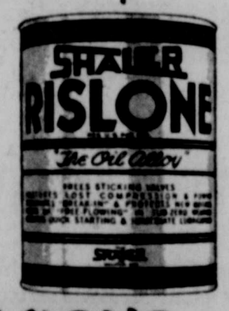

Today's designers and master craftsmen pour their art and skill into faithfully reproducing these old styles and adapting new designs to present needs. Its beautifully styled simplicity combined with strength and charm makes Maple a favored choice for the most discriminating home planner . . . and a perpetual delight of collectors of Americana.

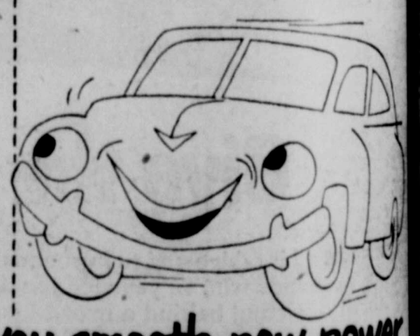

The small patterned green and white wallpaper in the sketch above brings out the glowing golden beauty of the Maple tables and chairs. The chintz valance, pillows and studio couch covers are a soft green chintzz patterned with rose, deep green and amber. The wide picture frames painted dark green stand out importantly in a room with a predominance of pattern.

We can help you solve any of your decorating problems. If it's color schemes of furniture arrangements bothering you . . . come in and let's get together. We're here to help you.
