Junell addresses local club on juvenile crime

State Representative Rob Junell addressed members of the Colorado City Rotary Club Wednesday afternoon on several topics including adult and juvenile crime rates.

According to Junell, the state creates a two year budget. The budget for 1993-94 was approximately $70 billion, he said.

Junell added that of the $70 billion $38 billion came from the state's tax dollars and the rest from the federal government.

Seven percent of the total budget goes to prisons and public safety, he said.

Junell believes that the big emphasis during the next legislative session will focus on juvenile crime.

"Juvenile crime is skyrocketing," he said. "There are only 2,100 juvenile cells in Texas."

Currently, Junell said the number of adult cells is 75,000 and by next year the numbers will increase to 146,000.

"Part of the answer is to take a look at what's happening to the family," he said. "I'll be honest with you. There are some people that just shouldn't have kids."

It was brought to Junell's attention that in revising the family code and taking a look at juvenile crime there is a desire among his constituents that he and other representatives look at ways of working with the youth rather than simply locking them away and forgetting about them.

"We want everyone's input on this issue," he said. "But we also have to recognize that there is a difference in how to take care of the problem in cities like Houston and in areas like Colorado City."

Junell added that he hopes to see increased spending in education.

"We have the means to really work on the improved education of young people," he said.

He added that he felt a quality education could be a detterent from crime.

Another topic covered by Junell included his feelings on NAFTA.

"NAFTA has helped build a $22 billion export into Mexico of Texas goods," he said.

Junell added that one out of every three new jobs created in the United States were created in Texas.

"Our biggest asset is human capitol," he said.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE ROBERT JUNELL spoke to members of the Rotary Club Wednesday afternoon about some of the issues facing legislatures at their next session.

Reilys head Hutchison's committee

U.S. Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison announced recently that her campaign has organized active re-election committees in every one of the 254 counties in Texas.

No previous Texas campaign has demonstrated such broad organizational support.

"In Mitchell County, I am very proud to have Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reily leading my team," Senator Hutchison said. "Grassroots organization is the most important aspect of my campaign."

Hutchison said she enjoys visiting different parts of Texas and talking to the people.

"By relying on the personal word-of-mouth efforts of real people, not simply television commercials, I know my message supporting deficit reduction, reform in Washington, tax reduction, strengthened families and a strong national defense will reach the voters," Hutchison added.

Training program slated

The Texas Department of Agriculture and Mitchell County Extension Service will conduct a free Predator Management Training Program on Wednesday, October 7.

The training session will begin at 8:30 a.m. in the C.C. Thompson Room of the City National Bank and will end by 4:30 p.m.

Persons who want to use M-44 sodium cyanide to control coyotes, feral dogs and foxes preying on livestock should attend the course.

To continue using M-44 sodium cyanide, all M-44 applicators certified prior to April 18, 1988 must take this course and be recertified.

The training leading to M-44 sodium cyanide certification will be completed by noon.

Those who want certification for using Livestock Protection Collars must attend the entire training session and score 70 or above on the Livestock Protection Collar category test.

the community."

The youth center will be open two years October first, but according to its director, Sheriff's Deputy Tommy Dill, it is in need of financial assistance.

"I don't want to say that we're about to close it down because we're not," he said. "But if we don't get help we'll be forced to close its doors."

Dill said the center has had the financial means to maintain operation but the need for repairs to the building cannot be fulfilled with its current budget.

"We've got a leak in the roof, the floors need to be repaired and we need an air conditioning system," he said.

The idea behind the center, Bullard said, was to keep kids out of trouble and to provide them with something to do.

"The center has a pool table, ping-pong table, video games, has been host to several dances and is equipped with a concession stand," he said.

The center is non-profit and is opened on weekdays from 4 to 6 p.m. and from 4 to midnight on Fridays and Saturdays.

Anyone wishing to volunteer their time to the center or make a monetary donation is asked to contact Tommy Dill through the Sheriff's Office.

Flu vaccinations can save lives

Mitchell County citizens who are at a high risk of developing complications from influenza are strongly urged to be immunized before the flu season begins.

Director of the Texas Department of Health's Immunization Division, Robert D. Crider, Jr., said those who are most at risk of fatal or severe complications include those people who are 65 or older, anyone with chronic respiratory or heart problems and children weakened by disease.

"Yearly, usually between December and April, influenza kills about 20 thousand people in the U.S., most of them high-risk categories," he said.

He added that the elderly are among the hardest hit by this disease.

"Fewer than 30 percent of Americans in high-risk groups heed our annual warnings to seek influenza vaccinations," Crider said.

"We know that one reason some older people fail to be vaccinated is because of an unfounded fear that the vaccine can actually cause influenza," he said. "The truth is that a vaccinated person can still contract some strain of influenza, but not from the vaccine and if they do become ill the vaccine usually helps to lessen the severity of the case."

The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta predict which strains of influenza will pose the greatest public threat each year.

The vaccine recommended by CDC for the 1994-95 flu season is designed to combat the A/Shangdong, B/Panama and A/Texas strains of influenza.

Because flu vaccines are subject to yearly change and the effectiveness of the shots declines with time, Crider recommends that people who are high-risk receive annual immunizations with the recommended vaccines.

People who fall into the high-risk category include:

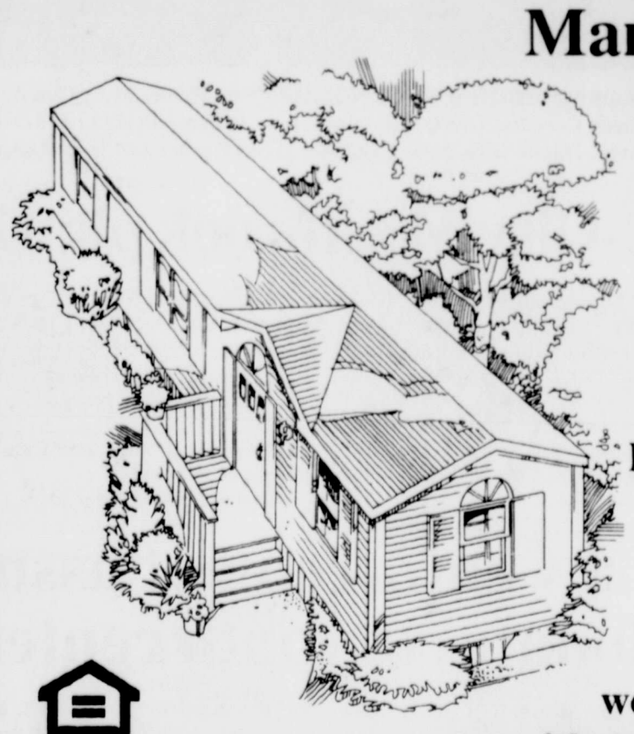

- persons 65 years and older;
- adults and children with chronic heart or lung disorders, including children with asthma;
- people under medical care for chronic metabolic diseases, kidney or blood problems or weakened immune systems; and
- Children, 18 or younger, who are already receiving long-term aspirin therapy, which can place them at risk of developing Reye syndrome after influenza.

"We strongly recommend influenza vaccinations for all people in high-risk groups, especially if they are international travelers or if they are pregnant," Crider said. "People infected with HIV are also at an increased risk for flu complications."

Crider said he felt that all unimmunized residents of chronic-care facilities, such as nursing homes, should be immunized during October and November. High-risk persons who are hospitalized now through March and members of their households are encouraged to be vaccinated, he added.

The Mitchell County Hospital District will begin administering vaccinations after October 1. Costs for the vaccinations have not yet been set.

J.V. Wolves defeat Clyde

By Anthony Chastain

The JV Wolves traveled to Clyde Thursday night to take on the Bulldogs and hand them a lofty 36–12 defeat.

Coach Jerold Epperson said he was happy with the way the team performed.

"The defense did an excellent job in the first half of holding Clyde to one first down."

Quarterback Justin Sparkman opened the passing show by hitting Perry Noblett early for a 60 yard gain to help set Tony Walthall up for a touchdown.

Offensively, Sparkman, Walthall, Noblett, Chris Fambro, and Brad Anderson played good for the Wolves.

The defensive players responsible for holding Clyde in a one first down position were defensive tackles John Jones, Jerry Melendez and Tim Garrett. Linebackers Fambro, John Erwin and Brad Anderson also performed well.

The score at halftime was Wolves 20, Clyde 0.

Brandon Atkins forced a fumble for the Wolves that led to a touchdown. Anderson blocked a punt at the Clyde seven yard line to help set up yet another Wolves score.

Several substitutions were made during the second half of play, helping to produce 16 additional points.

Coach Epperson said he felt like his team performed the way they needed to.

"They moved the ball well and they put their heads into the game," he said. "They get better and better every week."

Next week the JV team will play in Post, the time TBA.

J.V. Lady Wolves win consolation

The Colorado City JV Lady Wolves volleyball team won consolation in the Lakeview Tourney on September 9-10.

The first round was lost to Lakeview 15-7, 15-2 but the Lady Wolves came back in the second round to beat Water Valley 15-5, 15-8.

In the third round the girls beat Odessa 15-9, 12-15, 6-14.

"All the girls played well and came back the second day. They kept their composure and team work," said Coach Susan Gaona.

The Varsity Lady Wolves volleyball team lost to Water Valley 15-2, 9-15 in a duel match at Water Valley

On a higher note, the Lady Wolves won against Rotan, 15-1, 15-8.

7th grade Wolves lose close game, 6–0

By Anthony Chastain

The 7th grade Wolves had a strong defensive showing Thursday night in Wolf Stadium, but lost to the Clyde squad, 6–0.

Michael Atkins was the defensive stand-out for the Wolves making several impressive plays and tackles.

Offensively, Jeffrey Babb and Drew Potter showed their go get 'em attitude by bullying their way to several first downs.

In spite of losing their second game the optimism surrounding the 7th grade Wolves is strong.

8th grade Wolves lose

By Anthony Chastain

The 8th grade Wolves were plagued with mistakes Thursday night as they played the Clyde Bulldogs in Wolf Stadium. Clyde defeated the Wolves 20–0.

Wolves Coach Monty Richburg said, "We seemed to do well at the end, but the mistakes killed us."

In spite of the loss the team played well offensively and defensively.

Offensive stand outs for the team were Armando Rocha and Terry Green.

The players showing a strong defensive push were Chris Bolin, Abel Padilla, Jeff Ellis, Philip Molina and Jared Foster.

Marcus Roberts made an important recovery of a Clyde fumble to help put an end to a late Bulldog drive.

"We made some mistakes," Richburg said. "We will definitely improve on them."

Bulldogs shut out Colorado City 17–0

By Anthony Chastain

The Colorado Wolves dropped game three of the 1994 season to the Clyde Bulldogs Friday night, 17-0 at Wolf Stadium.

The first quarter was the punting practice period as both teams punted more yards than they gained on offense. Joe Ross Jameson had the lone Wolf highlight in the first quarter, recovering the Clyde fumble which stopped a drive by the Bulldogs. The Bulldogs did kick a 25-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead.

Following another short punt by the Wolves, Clyde gained control at the Wolf 31. The Bulldogs needed only 49 seconds and two plays for Bryan Cauthen to scamper 26 yards for the touchdown and a 10-0 lead. The half ended following an interception thrown by Lance Dockrey, the Wolf quarterback.

In the second half, the Wolves punted on their first possession and the Bulldogs took the ball and drove 55 yards in eight plays to take a commanding 17-0 lead.

The Wolves appeared strong twice in the fourth quarter but were stopped by the unforgiving Clyde defense. Each team traded possessions in the fourth quarter with neither crossing the goal line.

Clyde called two timeouts with under two seconds to play trying for another field goal but missing wide left. Time ran out on the Wolves as they drop game three, 17-0 to Clyde.

"This was a big and physical team that I think we played very well. I think they expected to beat us worse than they did, but the guys stepped up to the challenge as they have done since the first game," said Coach Howeth.

The Wolves put forth a tremendous defensive effort in this game, stopping a strong Clyde offense several times inside the 20-yard line.

The Wolves next game will be at home Friday night, September 23 against the tough Stanton Buffalos.

It's homecoming and all exes are encouraged to attend the game at Wolf Stadium starting at 8 p.m.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The Colorado High Yearbook staff would like to thank those who bought advertisements and showed their support in the 1993-1994 yearbook.

We would also like to apologize to the Colorado City branch of the Big Spring Education Employment Federal Credit Union, who showed exceptional support to the journalism department by purchasing a full-page ad. They were inadvertently overlooked and left out of the '93-'94 yearbook. We sincerely apologize and hope that they understand that this book is produced entirely by students and we sometimes learn by making mistakes.

Sincerely,
Kameron Ramage
Yearbook Editor '94-'95

Retired teachers meet

The Mitchell County Retired Teachers Association met for a Dutch treat luncheon on Tuesday, September 13 at the Villa Restaurant to initiate the 1994-1995 year.

Peggy Ratliff introduced Mrs. Ethelyn Mitchell, District XVIII president, from Lamesa.

Mrs. Mitchell relayed the news from TRTA in Austin that the state had a nine billion dollar surplus and therefore would not cut the contribution to the Teacher Retirement Fund. Instead, an annuity raise will be granted later.

She urged all members to attend the District XVIII Convention in Odessa on October 20.

Mrs. Mitchell was the installing officer for the 1994-1995 year. The new officers are Earline Sellier, president; Peggy Ratliff, vice president; Carolyn Weaver, second vice president; Betsy Lee Aycock, secretary and Alma Smith, treasurer.

Members were encouraged to contact their congressman and senators immediately to urge that prescription drugs be added to Medicare.

The provision for long-term health care with the option of home or community-based care is also to be included.

Members were encouraged to register to vote in November and to carefully study the candidates' moral values.

The next meeting will be in Midland on October 11 for a tour of the Petroleum Museum and lunch at La Bodega.

There were 15 members and one guest present.

Morris hosts group

The Susan Everman Baptist Women's Group of the First Baptist Church met Monday, September 12 in the home of Catharine Morris.

Mae Dunn presided over the business meeting and Anna Staats was program director.

As mission support chairman, she presented a program entitled, "Broken Vessels of Hope." This was a study of state mission work supported by the Mary Hill Davis offering.

She used a video, "To Texas with Love," in which Acteen girls learned of mission work from letters written to them by missionaries or others ministering in Texas and on the border.

Mrs. Staats then described some of the many other ways the Texas Southern Baptist Convention ministers to Texans.

Betsy Aycock gave the Calendar of Prayer for missionaries with birthdays on this day and also Jerry Bob Taylor with the Texas Baptist Men, who is on a relief team in a refugee camp in Zaire.

Members present were Margaret Bodine, Anna Staats, Virginia Dearen, Jean Edwards, Linda Rhodes, Jessie Mae Merket, Billie Margaret Harrison, Doris Carter, Mae Dunn, Betsy Aycock and the hostess, Catharine Morris.

COLORADO CITY BASS CLUB President Walt Staats congratulates Bill Doggett of Sweetwater on his third place finish in the club's annual open tournament as club secretary/treasurer Bo Merket and Jimmy Trulock look on. Photo: Cliff Vlasin.

Carrollton man wins bass tourney

Trevor Romans of Carrollton laughed and said that he was "just lucky" to have caught the winning stringer in the fourteenth annual Colorado City Bass Club Open Tournament.

Everyone who knows Trevor, however, knows that skill and determination were far more important to his victory than luck.

On a day when only one in four could manage to catch a fish to meet the 14 1/4 inch minimum, Trevor managed to land an incredible ten keepers as he culled his way to a winning 14.86 pound stringer on Lake Colorado City.

Of the 141 anglers—the smallest field to compete in the last 12 years—only 36 managed to catch one or more of the 58 bass weighed in at the headquarters on Lake Champion.

Romans, a native of San Angelo, easily outdistanced Don Parsons of Abilene, who finished second with a 10.45 pound two fish stringer.

Parsons did manage to catch a larger fish than Romans. His 7.55 lunker was the big fish of the tournament until Troy Moore of Sweetwater sauntered into the weigh-in line with a nice 7.78 fish.

All of the following anglers who netted one or more of the 170 pounds of black bass weighed in received a prize of either cash or merchandise:

Trevor Romans, Carrollton, 14.86; Don Parsons, Abilene, 10.45; Bill Doggett, Sweetwater, 9.93; Steven Campbell, Andrews, 9.24; Marty Whetzell, Forsan, 8.99; Jim McElvaney, Colorado City, 8.30.

Troy Moore, Sweetwater, 7.78; Craig Graham, Lubbock, 7.60; Debbie Webb, Midland, 7.35; Steve Watson, Big Spring, 7.08; Blake Hammond, Colorado City, 7.04; Wendell Ramsey, San Angelo, 6.41; Jack Potter, San Angelo, 5.24.

Johnny Christian, Forsan, 4.70; Jerry Graham, Lubbock, 4.42; Russell Heinrich, Slaton, 4.25; Bernard McMahon, Coahoma, 4.20; Morris Stephens, Abilene, 4.01; Bill Parnell, Andrews, 3.84; John Vada, San Angelo, 3.56.

Roy Reid, Andrews, 3.32; Bob Brewer, Big Spring, 2.77; Robin Moore, Big Spring, 2.42; Lyn Carpenter, Big Spring, 2.15; James Haas, Odessa, 2.00; Joe Smith, San Angelo, 1.90; Bob Dennis, Colorado City, 1.74.

Gary Robbins, Andrews, 1.73; Scott Assiter, Lubbock, 1.70; James Vance, San Angelo, 1.56; Joel Bishop, Waxahachie, 1.50; Jimmy Trulock, Colorado City, 1.50; Sandra McMahon, Midland, 1.46; T. Michael Dye, Lubbock, 1.45; Jimmy Swanner, Lubbock, 1.42; Adrian Haire, San Angelo, 1.35.

The Colorado City Bass Club would like to express their appreciation to the following area establishments who helped make this another successful tournament:

Fuller Foods, Woods Boots, Plagens Printing, First National Bank, City National Bank, Pizza Hut, Villa Restaurant, Trucktown Cafe, Ramage Furniture and Appliance, Cee Jays, Jerry Putnam State Farm Bureau, Sonic, Anthony's, Perry's, Corky's True Value and the Colorado City State Park.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The City of Loraine's garbage collector, being Permian Basin Waste Management, will only be responsible for picking up their dumpsters (brown with the company name on them). They will be picked up as soon as possible. Please do not use them.

DON PARSONS of Abilene and Trevor Romans of Carrollton show off some of the bass which earned them a one-two finish in the fourteenth annual Colorado City Bass Club Open Tournament held Saturday, September 10, 1994, on Lake Champion and Lake Colorado City.
