PUMP FAILURE CURTAILS RANGER WATER SUPPLY

An Eastland County Water Supply District pump at Lake Leon broke Tuesday, curtailing water supplies to Ranger, Eastland and communities which purchase water from these towns. This was one of three pumps used at the lake.

Tuesday Ranger residents were asked to curtail all non-essential watering. Eastland is already under a rationing plan based on odd-even house numbers.

The pump was rebuilt by a firm in Eastland, and was placed back in service at the lake about 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

All restrictions on water usage in Ranger were lifted at that time, according to Delbert Cozart, Ranger Water Commissioner.

This period of water shortage due to pump failure came shortly after water problems were discussed at the Ranger City Commission meeting Monday night.

At that time a group of citizens who live outside the city limits east of town complained to the Commissioners about their lack of water.

Although Cozart appeared sympathetic, he reminded the group that they live outside the city limits. He said if they would come into the City, money would be available to replace a water line that is too small.

The group blamed the City for allowing too many water meters on the line. Originally 24 landowners made an agreement to hook onto the city line. Now the line is reported to have 36 water meters.

Thursday Cozart said that the City used the booster pump to keep as much pressure possible in the outlying lines while the pump was down. 'But that is something we try to do all along,' he said.

'Ranger runs into water problems when the big storage tanks runs low during these dry times,' he said. 'During the summer it usually stands about 30 ft. in water. I'm glad to report things are back to normal.'

VOTERS ASKED TO CHOOSE ON SCHOOL TAX MEASURES

Two elections scheduled for August 10 are both school finance elections. Voters are being asked to decide on two Constitutional Amendments as well as three County Education District (CED) proposals.

Ballots with the Constitutional Amendments will be cast at the usual voting Precincts in the county, but places for voting on the School District proposals vary from one District to the other. Check this issue of the paper for the time and places of the Aug. 10 elections, as well as places to cast absentee ballots.

Eastland County Clerk Joann Johnson reports that so far there has been little interest shown in this election. At least not many have stopped by her office to vote absentee in the State portion of the election.

There are probably a number of factors involved, including that Constitutional Amendment No. 1 is worded in a confusing manner. But voters are urged to study the Amendments and proposals, try to understand what they mean, and make their vote count for the side they believe to be right.

On the State Constitutional Amendments Proposition 1, See Sample Ballot in this newspaper. This Amendment is to allow the voters of a County Educational District to adopt certain exemptions from the District's ad valorem taxation for residence homesteads and to provide for the taxation of certain tangible personal property.

This proposed amendment would authorize the new Districts to hold elections to allow voters within the district to decide whether to grant a percentage on the value of a residential homestead, whether to grant an additional exemption on the homesteads of the elderly and disabled persons, and whether to impose taxes on personal property.

The enabling legislation also directs the County Education Districts to present the propositions to their voters in an election to be held Aug. 10, 1991.

So what we have is a situation where voters are asked to decide simultaneously on a Constitutional Amendment giving options and to vote on the local tax options.

If voters approve Amendment 1 statewide, the locally adopted options will go into effect without delay. Apparently this two elections in one day is being scheduled to enable the new taxing Districts to implement voter decisions in the property tax bills scheduled to go out in October.

Proposition 2 of the State Amendments deals with the provision to issue general education bonds to provide educational loans to students.

At stake here is $300 million to finance these loans to students attending Texas Colleges and Universities. These loans are needed to meet the fall 1991 demand for loans to financially needy students. If this Amendment does not pass, it is estimated that around 15,000 needy students may not be able to attend school.

The polls will be open August 10 from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The location for absentee voting in this election is at the Office of the County Clerk, First Floor of Courthouse, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Absentee voting began July 22 and will close August 6.

POLLING PLACES FOR AUG. 10 STATE ELECTION

Absentee voting in person began July 22 and ends August 6. The last day to receive an application to vote absentee by mail is August 2.

POLLING PLACES ARE AS FOLLOWS

CISCO: (Absentee) School Administration Bldg., 1100 Ave. I, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Polling Place, Aug. 10: Corral Room, 400 Conrad Hilton Ave.

EASTLAND: (Absentee) Eastland ISD Tax Office, 1100 W. Sadosa St. Hours: 9-12 a.m., 1-5. Polling place, Aug. 10: High School cafeteria.

The student loan program usually operates as a revolving, self-supporting fund. But changes in federal loan programs have created a large demand for state loans. The bonds are supposed to be paid back with interest by the borrowers - not the taxpayers.

Please study the sample ballots and make up your mind on all these important issues. None of the proposals stop you from being taxed - but the election outcome could have a great bearing on how much you are taxed!

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS JOIN WITH CITY OF EASTLAND ON GRANT APPLICATION

Emergency Medical Services was a main topic for the County Commissioners Monday, July 22. As previously reported, they approved a modified contract for Pct. 1.

But there were also a number of other important items on the agenda - among them was a proposal for the county to join the City of Eastland in a Community Development Block Grant application to the West Central Texas Council of Governments.

Eastland Mayor C. W. Hoffmann, City Manager Paul Catoe and Gary Montgomery brought the request to the court. Catoe explained that the grant would be for $350,000, and would be used to raise Eastland Lake Dam and widen the spillway. The total cost of the project would be $428,000.

Catoe referred to the dam, located northwest of Eastland, as a "high hazard dam."

"He said that in the event of a 30 inch rain over a short period of time (unlikely, but possible) there could be a loss of property and possibly a loss of life down from the dam."

If the dam broke the water would gush down the North Fork of the Leon River.

Both Catoe and Hoffmann told of the two previous applications for the Grant, in which the county had joined. Although the applications seemed to be favorably received, they were turned down each time.

The application for these grants is highly competitive, Hoffmann said, but he felt the City might stand a better chance this time.

The city might enhance its chances even more if the county would agree to put some money "up front" for the project,

Commissioners were told.

The Commissioners agreed to join in the grant application, but said they would need to check on the legality on whether they could help financially with a project on land owned by the city. There was a discussion on the possibility of the county furnishing "in-kind" help on the project, such as machinery or material for construction work.

On other items, the Commissioners approved the transfer of $225,573 held in a debt service account to the General Fund. County Judge Scott Bailey explained that this money had been held to assure the final payment on the jail, which was constructed in 1980.

The jail was paid off on June, 1990, so these funds were not needed for that purpose.

Also authorized was the transfer of funds from the General Fund to the Road and Bridge Fund. This was involved with the purchase several years ago of the Lasater property just north of the jail.

Funds were transferred when it appeared that the County would be forced to expand the jail. Fortunately the situation has eased - the jail has passed the last three inspections.

On other jail matters, Sheriff Ronnie White reported that 14 prisoners were currently in the jail. Twelve are waiting trial, and two are being held for other counties. Not one is being held for TDC - for the first time in a long time!

Good news too on Court-house maintenance - Comm. Calvin Ainsworth said the work on the interior continues. He also plans to install the new lawn sprinkler system and get in the new lawn

Retirement Reception To Honor Dr. and Mrs. Elsom

The Board of Regents of Ranger Junior College has announced a "Retirement Reception" in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Elsom to be held in the Golemon Library Sunday afternoon, July 28, at 2:00 p.m.

The Elsoms arrived in Ranger on February 1, 1971 and have been active members of the Ranger community.

Everyone in the community is invited to drop by, from 2:00 p.m. to about 4:00 p.m. to help remember the excellent service both Jack and Lois have given to the college and community.

Kokomo News

By Zelda Jordan

The special music at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday morning was rendered by the choir directed by Woodrow Browning with Wynelle Brown at the piano. Those in the choir were Leona Wilson, Norma Webb, Wanda Rainey, Helen Browning, Jimmy Little, Gary Browning, and Danny Snider and Oren Webb. It was good to see J. L. and Naoma Morrow able to be in the service. J. L. hasn't been well the last several weeks. And it was good to see Claude and Juanita Fuller able to be in the Sunday night service.

Claude had a long seige in the hospital with complications following his heart by-pass surgery on April 23.

We sincerely hope that both J. L. and Claude completely recover from their illnesses. We know that their being able to be back in church with us is an answer to the many prayers that was prayed for them.

Joe, Glynda, Shannon and Brian Bond spent the weekend in Bullard with Joe's mother and other relatives. His brother, Glynn and wife, Ann were visiting there from California.

We extend sincere sympathy to Freddie and Johnnie Shackelford at the death of his mother who was buried in Cotton Center on Monday. Freddie is the son-in-law of Bro. Joe O'Neal.

Those visiting with Dora Garrett during the past week were Johnnie B. Griffith, Anna Laura Clearman, Norma Jean Webb, Verna Lee and

Stephenville senator is right guarding henhouse

A pair of interesting pieces of mail crossed my desk this morning, both being related to the other. There was a letter from Milo Kirk and Kirk Brown of Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) and another from State Senator Bob Glasgow (D-Stephenville).

MADD, it seems, has written every newspaper in the state saying bad things about Glasgow and the senator seems to be asking for a fair shake in light of the organization's criticism.

What MADD is mad about is the failure of a bill in the past session of the legislature which would have given the Texas Department of Public Safety the authority to suspend the driver's license of anyone who refused or failed a breath or blood alcohol test. The proposal would have allowed a driver 40 days under a temporary permit before that driver had an administrative hearing on the license. If the driver did not ask for a hearing in that period, the suspension would take effect for a period of 90 days for a first offender. That person would not be able to apply for an essential need license until 30 days after their license was suspended.

MADD, through Kirk and Brown, claim that this bill would have saved 150 lives annually in Texas. They lay the hand of failure directly at Glasgow saying, "Glasgow's unfair, unethical behavior is understandable because he is a waterboy for the lobbyists, PACs and special interests in Austin."

Kirk and Brown go on to say

Glasgow's chief aide is the son of the publisher of a periodical for the alcohol industry and they berate Glasgow's participation in helping to write an ethics bill calling it "another case of the fox guarding the henhouse."

Ms. Kirk and Mr. Brown certainly give a new meaning to the word "mad."

Glasgow explained that, as chairman of the Senate State Affairs Committee, he set the bill for public hearing and ultimately the bill failed to receive sufficient votes to be reported back to the entire Senate.

The senator, who stated he was a former district attorney who has put a number of drunk drivers in jail, explained his view of the bill.

"The ALR (Administrative License Revocation) bill offered by MADD was nothing more than a way to subvert the judicial process and allow the police to become both judge and jury," Glasgow wrote.

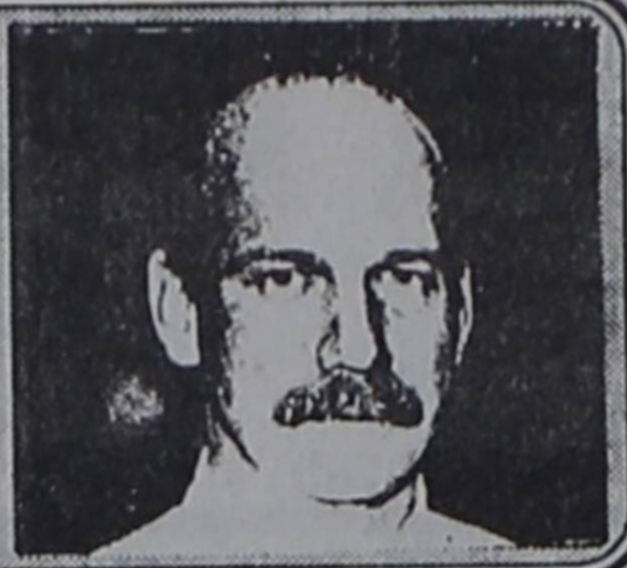

He also pointed out what he considered impracticalities in denying the driver an essential need permit for 30 days.

"While this might work in New York or Massachusetts, it won't work in Texas. You can't just hop on a subway in Texas to get to work and you certainly can't afford the cost of a taxi twice a day to take you 30 miles," Glasgow emphasized.

Glasgow then made an explanation which anyone with the basic understanding of frenzied, last-minute politics in legislative matters should understand.

A DWI bill from the House of

Richard Smith

Representatives was sent to the Senate in the last three days of the legislative session. The bill was referred to Glasgow's committee just 14 hours before the adjournment of the regular session. Glasgow said that in addition to the same, "unacceptable ALR language," the bill contained a poorly-written amendment by a freshman representative that would have revoked the driver's license of everyone in an automobile in which an open container of alcohol was found.

The senator polled his committee and they turned their thumbs down at the bill.

Glasgow said he was "shocked and amazed" at the MADD representatives' personal attacks on him and chalked it up to their being angry and frustrated.

This is where I depart the feud between Ms. Kirk, Mr. Brown and Sen. Glasgow, to reveal a few unworthy observations of my own.

First of all, MADD's attacking Glasgow as being a "waterboy" of lobbyists and special interests is a ter that, "MADD is not a prohibitionist organization. We recognize that people can enjoy alcohol responsibly provided they do not drink and then try to drive."

Some of MADD's past attempts at influencing both the legislative and judicial processes tend to say otherwise. The organization has come across as vengeful and the appearance is they lobby for society to act how MADD says they should act. They may not be Carry Nation, but one wonders if the axe with which to bust up the barroom might not be in the back seat of their station wagons.

MADD says that drinking should be responsible and with that I can agree. There should also be responsibility shown when it comes to laws affecting individual rights and due process, those items which are supposed to be part of what makes this a great country in which to live.

Whether or not you are a fox, Senator Glasgow, thank you for guarding the henhouse called the Texas Legislature against noxious bills.

Editor,

Enclosed is a copy of a column written by Richard L. Smith, editor of the Corrigan Times.

I am sending these copies to you because I believe Mr. Smith does a very good job explaining the problems with the Automatic Driver's License Revocation (ALR) bill that was pushed by Mothers Against Drunk Drivers. Mr. Smith has done a very credible job in analyzing the arguments put forth by MADD concerning the ALR bill. I believe Mr. Smith's conclusions are on the mark. I hope that by reading this column you may gain some insight into the dispute over the ALR bill.

Let me take this opportunity to reiterate my position about the ALR bill. I remain committed to passing an ALR bill that retains a citizen's right to due process of law. Other states have passed this type of legislation that keeps the right to due process of law intact, and I feel confident that Texas can do this as well. I have contacted MADD and have told them that I will continue to work with them to pass a good ALR bill, despite my criticisms that may have taken place.

Very truly yours,
BOB GLASGOW

August 16 Is Deadline For Registering Family Farm

Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry issued a reminder that the deadline for participation in this year's Family Land Heritage Program is Friday, August 16, 1991.

"The Family Land Heritage Program honors those families who have actively maintained agricultural production on their land for 100 years or more," Perry said. "By participating in this program, Texas farmers and ranchers can preserve and record the rich agricultural heritage of their families."

Basic requirements for participation in the program include continuous agricultural production on the farm/ranch for 100 years or more, land ownership within the family, and complete operation or supervision of the land production by family members who are Texas residents. The farm property must also be at least 10 acres with a minimum of $50 income from agricultural products or if less than 10 acres, sales must total at least $250 a year. If all of the land was ever leased to someone outside the family it will not qualify.

"Since the program began in 1974, more than 2,500 properties throughout the state have qualified for this honor," Perry said. "This year's honorees will receive certificates of recognition in October at the annual Family Land Heritage ceremony in Austin."

Texas residents who own agricultural property they think might qualify for the program, may obtain application forms and information about the program from their local county judge or county Historical Commission chairman. Applications and supporting documents must be certified by the county judge of the county in which the land is located.

Forms and information may also be obtained from any Texas Department of Agriculture district office or the main Austin TDA office, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711. TDA is the final judge on eligibility.

Wedding Bells

Mitchell - Dworsky

Miss Nan Mitchell became the bride of Mr. Larry Thomas Dworsky in a twilight, double ring ceremony on June 29, 1991, in the Radisson Suite Hotel Artium, Arlington, Texas. Mr. Ernie Christie officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hart of Eastland and Mr. Roy Mitchell of Fort Worth are the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Dworsky of Weatherford are parents of the groom. Mrs. Mary Vaught of Eastland is the bride's grandmother. Grandparents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Purefoy of Craford and Mrs. Norma Dworsky of Gatesville. Mrs. Paul Altum of Killeen is the groom's paternal great-grandmother.

Pre-nuptial music selections were played as guests were seated at tables in the Atrium. Pussell's "Trumpet Voluntary" and Mouret's "Rondeau" accompanied the bridal party in the processional and recessional, respectively.

Her father and her stepfather escorted the bride to the altar which was encircled with baskets of deep pastel tropical flowers and ferns.

Reembroidered, pearl encrusted lace overlayed the fitted, drop waist bodice, bordered the gathered tiered skirts, and abundantly punctuated the train of the Italian ivory silk bridal gown. Mrs. Mary Vaught hand-beaded the lace with seed pearls. The bride's hat of crushed silk featured an illusion bouffant from which descended the pearl studded veil. Her bridal bouquet contained ivory roses and tropical flowers in deep hues of pink, purple, blue and yellow nestled in fern foliage and ivory illusion.

Miss Wende Beggs, maid-of-honor, wore a dress of vibrant pink crystalline in a style similar to the bridal dress. She carried a basket of tropical flowers.

Edward Hart, the bride's nephew, carried the ring pillow. His ivory shirt and short black linen trousers were reminiscent of the Victorian era.

Mr. Dworsky, his best man, ushers, and other members of the wedding party were all attired in black tuxedos and ivory shirts.

Mr. Chris Hitt served the groom as best man. Ushers were Mr. Mark Christie and Mr. Mark Mitchell, brother of the bride. Following the exchange of vows, the couple lit the traditional unity candle. One hundred guests enjoyed a dinner buffet immediately following the ceremony. In the garden setting of the Atrium, tables were decorated with festive centerpieces from which ascended multi-hued balloons.

Mr. and Mrs. Dworsky will make their home in Fort Worth, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Dworsky hosted the rehearsal dinner. Tables

Ramirez-Esquivel

Delia Ramirez of San Antonio, formerly of Cisco, Tx and Pedro G. Esquivel of San Antonio, were united in marriage in a ceremony performed at three o'clock on the afternoon of June 8, 1991, in St. Luke Catholic Church in San Antonio.

Father Ragsdell, St. Luke Catholic Church performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Ramirez of Cisco. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Esquivel of San Antonio.

The alter was decorated with Burgundy and Mauve roses with white baby's breath and green ivy vines.

The prelude of a traditional wedding music was played through out the ceremony by a Mariachi band.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a floor length Southern gown of rose point hand clipped chattily lace, bodice was filter at waist and featured a scalloped low neckline enhanced with seed pearls with a full ruffled skirt of chantilly lace with seed pearls and a cathedral length train with full bishop sleeves. The matching veil was held in place with pearls beaded bandeau and whit roses. Her bouquet was a cascade of burgundy and mauve roses. Her something old was her diamond necklace, her something blue was her garter, something borrowed was her mother's silk and seeded pearl rose earrings and her something new was her dress.

Mary Lou Lara of Crane, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaid were Sylvia Morales of Cisco, sister of bride, Mary Apodaca of San Antonio, grooms sister, Monica Collazo of Dallas, cousin of bride. Bridal attendants wore matching tea length dresses of burgundy long waisted and carried bouquets full of burgundy and mauve roses.

The flower girls were Diana Morales of Cisco, niece of bride and Chantel Duran of Denver, CO, niece of groom.

The ring bearer was Ricky Apodaca of San Antonio, nephew of groom carried the wedding rings on a white lace pillow.

The best man was Bill Perez of Denver, CO. Ushers were George Garcia of San Antonio; Crisanto Esquivel of San Antonio, brother of groom; Buddy Ramirez of Killeen, brother of bride.

FLEAS AND TICKS MAKE PRESENTS

As we head toward the end of July, many people continue to call the office wanting to know what to do about all the fleas and ticks. This is not an easy question to answer.

Controlling fleas and ticks is a big task especially if you have a pet that goes into the house. You must treat all areas where these pests can be found at the same time. Dogs or cats can carry them back and forth from the house to yard. This is why you must treat all areas. If your pets do not go into the house you probably will not have to treat the inside of your house.

There are several household insecticides available for use in the home. These products include Dursban, Diazinon and Baygon. Select a spray that does not have objectionable odor and will not stain paints, wallpaper, tile or rugs. The formulation or products labeled for inside the home are not the same as the products labeled for outside use. Treat baseboards, window and door casings, wall cracks and pet's sleeping area.

Flea and tick control in the lawn and around the outside of the house can be accomplished by several different products. Dursban and Diazinon are available in a spray or granule form. If you do not have a sprayer the granules can be put out with a fertilizer spreader, then watered in. Another product that is available in spray form only is Baygon.

Treating your pets for fleas and ticks will be harder than your lawn or the inside of your house. There are many sprays, dusts, and dips available. Your veterinarian can help you if you have a heavy infestation. Do not use the chemicals that you use in your yard or in the house on your pets.

Once you have treated the yard, inside of the house and pets, you can

Social Security Disability Insurance Benefits

People with disabilities may work and still receive Social Security disability insurance benefits or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) disability payments. And they may be able to earn more than they think under changes in the law, according to Glyn Hammons, Social Security manager in Abilene.

"The law has changed considerably in recent years and many people may not be aware of how much they can earn and still keep their cash benefits and Medicare or Medicaid coverage," Hammons said.

Special rules, called "work incentives," are designed to continue cash benefits and health care assistance, help with special work expenses caused by the disability, and provide rehabilitation and training to help people enter or re-enter the workforce. The rules are different for Social Security and SSI, but under both programs they are designed to provide the support and assistance a person needs while attempting to work in spite of a disability.

A beneficiary who returns to work gets a "trial work period" of 9 months (not necessarily consecutive) during which he or she can earn any amount without current benefits being affected. After the trial work period, benefits will stop if average monthly earnings exceed $500. However, there is a 36-month "extended period of eligibility" during which a person may receive a benefit for any month earnings fall below $500. Medicare may continue for at least 39 months after the end of the trial work period.

Under SSI, cash payments continue as long as a person does not exceed the SSI income limits. In addition, Medicaid may continue after cash payments stop if a person needs the Medicaid in order to work and is unable to afford similar health care coverage.

SSI does not count the first $65 of earnings and only half of earnings over that. Because of the earnings exclusion, a person could earn as much as $899 and still receive a partial Federal SSI payment.

Under both programs, work expenses related to the disability — such as a seeing eye dog, a special typewriter, or a specially-equipped car to get to and from work — may be deducted in figuring if your work affects your benefits, even if they are also useful in regular daily activities, Hammons said.

Also under both programs, disabled beneficiaries are referred to State vocational rehabilitation agencies for training. Benefits continue for disabled people who medically recover while involved in an approved vocational rehabilitation program until the program is over.

"Using these work incentives, people find that their total income is usually greater by working than by not working," Hammons said. "Any many find that their earnings increase to the point where they are no longer dependent on their disability benefits."

LAMANCHA TO HOST ANGLERS CHOICE EVENT

Anglers Choice Two Person Team Tournament will be hosting its 6th event for the Northwest Texas Region Saturday and Sunday, July 27 and 28. Saturday will be practice day after the lake having been off limits to anglers all week. Sunday at around 6:15 the anglers will be blasting off in order of drawn numbers in search of those of late elusive Leon Lunkers. Weigh-in Sunday will begin around 3:00 p.m. at the La Mancha Guest Ranch. So everyone load up and come out and see who puts together the largest five fish stringer.

Five area teams are currently in the race for the finals to be held at Lake Texoma in October.

Currently this is how the local teams stand: 23rd Bud Wood and Butch Willingham 58.44 points; 17th James Fullen and B.J. Johnson 93.94; 14th Bob and Joe Bob Moore 149.17; 10th Chuck Burgess and Tommy Maynard 160.17; and 4th Bobby Maynard with 220.59. The regional leaders are Tom Oliver and Faron McCain of Sweetwater with 272.0 points.

The top 15 teams plus 5 wildcard teams will qualify at the end of the year in August to compete for over $100,000.00 in October. Good luck to our local teams at Leon and then Brownwood. And to all the anglers competing safe boating and good fishing at Little Toledo (Lake Leon).

The bass fishing seems to be picking up at Leon with a few fish in the 3 to 4 pound range coming in six to 10 feet of water. Small baits in ssshad pattern seem to be working best.

Most Texas dove hunters will be allowed to take six whitewings per day during the mourning dove season, and hunters in the Central Zone will have an extra week during the fall season.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission set the early season migratory game bird season dates during a public hearing July 9 in Port Aransas.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service allowed the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to increase the whitewing daily bag limit from two to six in all but four Texas counties — Cameron, Hidalgo, Starr and Willacy. In those counties, where the whitewing population still is recovering from a prolonged drought and the 1989 freeze that destroyed much of the citrus whitewing nesting habitat, only two whitewings will be permitted per day during the regular season, the same as last year.

Dove hunters in the Central Zone (see dove hunting zones map) asked the department for a shorter winter season and longer fall season, said Ron George, TPWD dove program leader. In response, the commission approved taking the last seven days of the winter season and adding them to the fall season in the Central Zone. The Central Zone season this year will be September 1-October 30 and Jan. 3-12.

Despite a one-million-bird increase in the continental blue-winged teal population, the USFWS denied a request by the department for a September teal season. This year's 3.8 million teal represent a significant increase over last year's 2.8 million teal but is only slightly higher than the 3.6 million teal that existed when the season first was suspended in 1988. USFWS also denied TPWD permission to have a four-day special white-winged dove season, instead leaving a two-day season.

Dates for the mourning dove season are: North Zone, Sept. 1-Nov. 9; Central Zone, Sept. 1-Oct. 30 and Jan. 3-12; and South Zone, Sept. 20-Nov. 11 (ends Nov. 9 in Special White-winged Dove Area) and Jan. 3-19. Daily bag limits in all three zones is 12 mourning, white-winged and white-tipped doves per day. The only exception is Cameron, Hidalgo, Starr and Willacy counties in the Valley, which will have a daily whitewing bag of two. Possession limit in all zones is twice the daily bag. Shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

The Special White-winged Dove Season is Sept. 7-8 and shooting hours are noon to sunset. Bag limit south and east of Del Rio will be 10 white-winged, mourning and white-tipped doves in the aggregate, including no more than five mourning doves and two white-tipped doves per day. Bag limit north and west of Del Rio is 10 white-winged, mourning and white-tipped doves in the aggregate, including no more than two white-tipped doves per day. Possession limit is twice the daily bag. One fully-feathered wing is required on all dressed doves at all times in the South Zone and the Special White-winged Dove Area.

Dates for rail and gallinule hunting are Sept. 1-Nov. 9. Bag and possession limits for king and clapper rails are 15 daily in the aggregate and 30 in possession; Sora and Virginia rails, 25 and 25; and gallinules, 15 and 30. Shooting hours for rails and gallinules are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

Thanks,
Terry L. Wilson

SCS Seeks Volunteers

The Ranger Community Library Board will hold a benefit book sale on August 3 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the library at 600 Pine Street. All proceeds from the sale will be applied to the reopening and operation of the library.

Bargains galore will be available at the sale, with hardback books going for only .25 each and paperback books for just a dime a piece. Sets of older but still useful encyclopedias and other reference books will be specially priced. For the true bibliophile, discounted prices may be negotiated on larger lots of books (make us an offer!).

Almost all of the books that will be for sale, both fiction and non-fiction, fall into the "popular reading" category. However, if you want something dull and intellectual to put on your bookshelf to impress your friends, we can probably find a few of those, too!

This sale is a great opportunity to support your public library and build a stock of good inexpensive reading material at the same time. If our public library is to reopen, it must be done through citizen support of projects like this, since local tax money is now Volunteers are needed in Eastland County to help conserve soil and water, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service (SCS) has launched a campaign to find them in the county.

"We know there are many people in the county who have the talent and time to help us solve our local resource conservation problems," said Ron Bailey, SCS district conservationist, Eastland. "Volunteers would be greatly appreciated, especially since the SCS workload has dramatically increased with the 1985 and 1990 Farm Bills."

Bailey said there are several jobs in his office that volunteers can help with, including secretarial and computer jobs, education programs, writing news articles and stories and doing field work.

SCS started using Volunteers in 1986. Volunteers range from high school and college students gaining work experience, including females and minorities, to retirees sharing their experience.

"I know there are many people in the county who could provide SCS and the Upper Leon Soil Conservation District with some valuable assistance," said Bailey. "Your interest, skills, and talents will be matched with field office tasks. Stop by our office located in the Farm Bureau Building on east Main Street in Eastland or call us at 629-1480.

All programs and services of the SCS are offered on a nondiscriminatory basis, without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, marital status, or handicap.

LIVESTOCK SHOW ENTRIES DUE FOR 4-H'ERS

4-H members wanting to enter the State Fair of Texas, West Texas Fair

U.S. Department Of Agriculture

The U.S. Department of Agriculture is requiring a 5-percent acreage reduction for the 1992 Wheat Program, according to Jerry Harris, Chairman of the Texas State ASC Committee. This compares to the 15 percent acreage reduction required for the current wheat crop.

"This level was chosen to maintain competitiveness in world markets and Rodeo or Washington County Fair may pick up entry forms at the County Extension Office beginning Monday, July 29, 1991. Completed entry cards and fees must be returned to the County Extension Office on or before Monday, August 12, 1991.

while balancing the risks of excessive supplies of possible shortages," Harris said.

Wheat producers who comply with the acreage reduction requirement will be eligible for target price protection at $4.00 per bushel, the same as this year. Harris said the program will not have a paid land diversion.

The 1991/92 wheat crop is projected at 2.0 billion bushels, down 26 percent from last year's 2.7 billion-bushel harvest. The decline reflects an 8-million-acre reduction in planted area and lower yields. "This year, decisions to plant fewer acres were based on higher acreage reduction requirements, new flexibility provisions in the 1990 farm legislation, and lower wheat prices," the ASCS official said.

public of Texas from the Mississippi Territory (later Washington Co. AL). The A. S. AINSWORTH family resided areas of Ellis, Navarro, DeWitt, & Polk Co.'s, TX. A. S. was married to Rachel COLLINS. Need documentation to clarify the following confusion:

In our search, we have found two books with conflicting data concerning given name of A. S.: One book states his name A. SEBASTIAN AINSWORTH, that he "deceased at DeWitt Co. and was taken to Ellis Co., TX for burial," while the second book (on Polk Co., TX), states his name is A. STEPHEN AINSWORTH and that he is buried at Coldspring (or Boldspring). In both books, names, ages of wife and children all the same. Also the family is listed on 1850 Polk Co. TX census: A. S. AINSWORTH, wife and children all same as both books.

Our line is CALVIN AINSWORTH, son of IRA SEBASTIAN AINSWORTH, who was son of ALFRED SEBASTIAN AINSWORTH. Alfred S. was son of LEVIN AINSWORTH, who was son of the A. S. AINSWORTH in question.

In all our search we have not been able to locate a STEPHEN AINSWORTH anywhere. Due to Sebastian being so predominant in our family we strongly believe SEBASTIAN is correct but need documentation for PROOF. Also need documentation for proof of burial place. We sincerely appreciate help from anyone!

POINTS TO PONDER

by: Rev. Bill Reed

I'm sure that you are like me in that you receive in the mail offers that are just too good to pass up. I have two before me right now. One is a check made out to me in the sum of $1,200.00 and no cents. This is really wonderful I can use it to pay off some debts, or buy some new clothes, or trade cars. Then I notice that beneath the amount in very small print is a statement, "this check is not negotiable for cash." So I begin looking for the information as to what it can be used for. I quickly discover it is for a fabulous vacation for two in Las Vegas. It is great it includes a deluxe room, $200.00 cash, $200.00 table action, $400.00 slot machine action, food, drinks, and a chance at one million dollars. All that and a free gift to take home after this wonderful vacation.

With so much they are giving me I just can't wait to see what I have to do to claim it. I began sorting through to find where I sign on the line for my free trip and all that money. "Dear friend," the letter began, "More than 500,000 fun-seeking couples have vacationed at Vegas World," and the letter ended "cordially, Bob Stupak. But at the bottom it said "don't write here." O. K. where do I write? I continue looking and finally I discover I don't have to write, or sign just call toll free to an 800 number. It's getting better all the time.

It is then I discover that my friend Mr. Bob Stupak, seems to rhyme with stupid, wants me to call toll free so that I can use my Master card, Discover card, or American Express to accept my fabulous FREE vacation and the $1,200.00 check. What do I have to charge I ask myself. And finally I find it. There is a reservation fee of $398.00 that I must send in before they can reserve my Free vacation. Well so much for that offer.

I know you have gotten the same kind of mail, and know that when something is too good to be true it usually is. Nothing is totally free, whether it is good government, schools, or churches. If we want Ranger to be as good as it can be we must all work at it. A few can't do it by themselves. If we want our churches to remain strong we must attend and support them. Most churches in town are suffering from summer slump, while members stay away. Those person who don't support the town, or their church are by their actions are saying, "We don't care." I know the people of Ranger are not like that so take your family to church this Sunday, start the week right.

After chuckling over this matter the Commissioners settled down to the more serious business of scheduling budget workshops. But they had still another agenda item calling for their attention
