

BOLLWORM ACTION DELAYED

HOME TOWN TALK

By Beddy

Recently a children's building was completed at the State Sanatorium at Carlsbad, where hundreds of tuberculosis sufferers are given treatment.

To those in whose families or among whose friends the dreaded disease has not struck the fact that many persons in every city of any size suffer from it seems unbelievable.

Local physicians will tell you most any day of having diagnosed one or more cases within a few weeks.

Science has found effective methods of arresting the activity of the tuberculosis germ and one does not need to give up hope when he learns he is infected. But the one important thing is to detect the infection in its earliest stages.

Loss of appetite, loss of weight, a chronic tired feeling—these are some of the symptoms of tubercular infection. Especially should one who is subject to colds, who takes cold easily and has one after another, go to his physician and have a thorough examination.

We write these things not because it is entertaining for you to be reminded of disease and suffering and heartbreak. But because we hope that we may perhaps cause someone who has the slightest sort of infection to learn of it and promptly take steps to arrest it.

The White Plague is truly a plague. It threatens the ambitions of the young and beautiful. It separates loved ones on earth and by death it takes from little children their mothers and their fathers. It causes it causes thousands of sweet souls to have to lie in bed and day out in bed—resting, hoping, fighting!

One of the most dangerous items of food if not pure is milk. It is especially liable to carry tubercular germs if not produced and handled properly. Cows may be infected.

Young People Of Salvation Army Convene Friday

Young people from a number of West Texas places are expected to attend a regional Young People's Council to be convened here Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church by the Salvation Army.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. David Main will be in command. The Council will continue through Sunday.

Captain F. C. Scott of Big Spring will offer the opening prayer. Presentation of the divisional commander and an address by that official, David Main, will follow.

Captain Wilson of San Angelo will read a scripture selection. Captain H. Burdon will speak on "Organizing Young People's Bands."

Mrs. Fagnan Fetton will talk on "The Salvation Army Uniform." An address by Mrs. L. Col. Main will close the Friday morning session.

Junior Band Is Hartman's Plan

G. A. Hartman, director of the Big Spring Municipal Band, urges that all boys and girls of the city who play band instruments be at the court house next Monday evening at 7 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a Junior Municipal band. They are asked to bring their instruments.

Lions To Attend Stanton Session

Representatives of the Big Spring Lions club will go to Stanton tonight to meet with those there in a reorganization meeting.

It was decided at the regular luncheon of the local club held at the Settles hotel today. The Stanton club disbanded during the summer, and an effort will be made to reorganize it. A banquet will be served tonight. The Stanton club plans to meet bi-monthly.

Dr. C. K. Rivington, president of the club, Cecil C. Collings, E. F. Duncan, W. T. Mann, and Billy Wooster, will attend the meeting tonight. Miss Verbera Barnes was a guest of the club today, entertaining with humorous sidelights of member.

Two Charged In Burglary Of Home Here

Two Automobiles Figure In Trip To Brady; Held In Sterling

Harold Henderson, under a four-year suspended sentence in Howard county, and a man giving his name as Engle, are being held at Sterling City in connection with the burglary of the N. W. McCleskey home, San Antonio street, Monday night.

According to the sheriff's department the two men were caught at Brady, and a fur coat and other articles valued at $400 recovered. They are charged with burglary of the McCleskey home in Justice of the Peace Cecil C. Collings court.

It is alleged they took a roadster here Tuesday, abandoning it 10 miles south of Sterling City. They are charged with taking another car at Sterling City. They were caught Wednesday night at Brady, and officers here were notified Thursday afternoon.

Henderson was given a four-year sentence in the September term of the district court for automobile theft. He was turned over to Haskell county authorities, where it is alleged charges are against them. It is declared the two men broke jail at Haskell.

Business In September Is Reported Up

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—News of better industrial and construction activity in September came today from the Federal Reserve Board today to add a measure of optimism to the difficult unemployment relief task.

Colonel Arthur Woods, relief director, also moved ahead in preliminary efforts to gather with him experts he needs to compose the general board of strategy which is to lead government and business in finding jobs or aid for millions.

From every side, however, came news of steps being taken without awaiting the setup of a central organization. Not only business men and industrialists but great numbers of workers were registering their willingness to contribute aid.

Two government branches took steps to help in a small but substantial way. The post office ordering all overtime eliminated and the work given to substitutes while the shipping board announced it would "forget" for the time being the plan to cut down the merchant fleet.

At Washington and elsewhere staffs in Washington and elsewhere. Altogether this cut would have laid off some 700 employees at a saving approximating $1,000,000. These workers are scattered at various ports where staffs are not considered essential any longer.

The number affected by the post office order has not yet been determined but it is to be made known shortly. At present a good many regularly employed are making 65 cents an hour for time beyond the eight-hour period.

The reserve board's summary of business and financial conditions for September found that after the substantial decrease in factory output from May to August, September had shown an upward trend, which did not, however, reach former production figures for the same month.

Employment in factories also increased, though less than the usual gain for this season of the year. Residential construction was said to have increased materially.

Chief gains in employment came from the fruit and vegetable canning and the clothing industries and from retail establishments and coal mines. Employment dropped in the iron, steel, automobile and lumber industries, and so did their production. The production gains were shown chiefly in textiles, coal and copper.

Suggestions reaching the farm board that it's supply of wheat be turned over to feeding the jobless drew from Chairman Legge the statement the board would be glad to do so if Congress would reimburse it for the cost of the grain, which was acquired in stabilization operations.

Extensions of the "stagger" system of employing more workers for fewer days or hours a week, was undertaken by army engineers in charge of flood control works at the instance of Secretary Hurley.

Creed Taylor Dies

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 24 (AP)—Creed Taylor, 43, deputy governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, and a former banker of Mobile, Ala., died today of injuries received yesterday in a fire that destroyed his home.

May Get Nobel Prize

Theodore Dreiser, American novelist, is mentioned as a possible winner of this year's Nobel prize in literature.

More Enrolled At Second Scout Leader's Session

The second session of the second annual Boy Scout Leadership Training school, held at the Methodist church Thursday evening, was marked by enrollment of a number of new members of the "big boys" scout troop.

It was possible, because of this to form a new patrol known as the "Tom Cats" with Bob Pyant as patrol leader, and Billie Bass, Henry C. Jenkins and Alton E. Underwood.

Other new members: Hayden Griffith, Jackman patrol; G. H. Hayward, coyote patrol; T. C. Thomas, coyotes; W. T. Summers, coyotes; Clarence Fielder, ravens; Roy Carter, houn' dog; L. F. Sanders, houn' dog.

Dr. J. R. Dillard talked on first aid, emphasizing things that ought to be taught scouts and methods of interesting the boys in it.

November 3 was fixed as the date for the over-night hike, which is a part of the six-week course and must be participated in to receive a leadership certificate. Place for the camp will be announced at the next meeting.

Murder Charges Filed Against Two

DENVER, Oct. 24 (AP)—First degree murder charges were filed today against Mrs. Pearl O'Loughlin and her brother-in-law, Frank O'Loughlin, accused of slaying the woman's step-daughter, ten year old Leona O'Loughlin.

The charges were filed a few minutes before a hearing in a hospital with two sisters, brides of a few months, collided with an automobile last night killing the two and placing a third woman near death.

The ambulance was carrying Mrs. Mary Emch, 18, of Pemberville, Ohio, and her sister, Mrs. Ethel Langerman, 19, of Woodville, Ohio, when it struck an automobile in which Mrs. Anna Clark, 42, was a passenger.

The two sisters, already near death from burns suffered in an explosion while they were cleaning the ambulance as the front of it burst into flames, Mrs. Clark was hurled 30 feet into the side of a building and it was feared she too will not live.

Proration Attacks End in Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 24 (AP)—Attacks on proration on a proposed order curtailing oil production in Oklahoma until December 31 ended today before the state corporation commission after small operators whose wells would be affected for the first time voiced their objections.

Stephens, Grady and Carter county operators with wells producing more than five barrels began their fight against the proposed order Monday after the C. C. Julian and Royalties company and the Champion Oil and Refining company ended their efforts to break proration.

Second Long Air Mail Line Inaugurated

"Lindbergh Line" Offers Service Via Amarillo And Kansas City

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24 (AP)—Soaring high above the mountains over which the famous old Butterfield Stages struggled so laboriously 70 years ago, the great air liners of Transcontinental and Western Air Express, Inc., tomorrow will inaugurate a 36-hour Los Angeles-New York mail and passenger line.

The brief day-and-a-half run between the eastern and western edges of the United States contrasts sharply with the 24 days by stage coach and two days by rail required for the cross country trip when the Butterfield Stages were started 72 years ago.

Even more changes from the old methods of travel will be the comfort under the new method of transportation. Passengers on the stages that piled between St. Louis and San Francisco, connecting with rail lines at the middle western city, were warned by the company: "You will be in Indian country and the full safety of your person cannot be couched for by anyone but God."

Leaving St. Louis westbound stage coach passengers also were advised to include in their baggage "one Sharps' rifle, 100 cartridges, a revolver and two pounds of balls, a knife and sheath, blankets, half a dozen pair of woolen socks, heavy boots, woolen shirt, woolen pants and several towels."

In 1860 the pony express carried dispatches from California to the Mississippi in nine days, using 75 horses and employing the best and most daring riders for the many relays.

The first plane on the new system will leave the Alhambra terminal of the line at 8 a. m., Saturday, reach Kansas City by night and arrive at New York at 6:15 p. m. the following day. The second plane will leave Grand Central air terminal, Glendale, at 10 a. m., Saturday, arriving at Amarillo, Texas for the night and taking its passengers to Columbus, Ohio, the next day for a rail connection.

Moody Denies 'Inspiring' Story

AUSTIN, Oct. 24 (AP)—Governor Dan Moody today expressed emphatic disapproval of what he called "inspired newspaper articles" predicting the appointment of Representative Adrian Pool of El Paso to the state board of control.

"None of these inspired newspaper articles," the governor said, "have been authorized by me. If Mr. Pool's friends are the sources, they are not improving his chances of obtaining the appointment."

The governor has made no secret of the fact that Mr. Pool was one of the men under consideration for the job, but said several weeks ago that the appointment would not be made until the board of control had completed its budget in December.

Denison Gasser Turns To Crude

DENISON, Texas, Oct. 24 (AP)—Sherman Oil and Gas Company's Dalton, No. 2, 14-month-old gasser, developed into an oil producer of 150 barrels daily today. It showed oil early this week when an effort was made to deepen it.

It is located eight miles northwest of Denison. There are several producing gas wells in the area, but the oil showing is considered an important strike.

Reason For Whistling By Church Ushers Given

MALDEN, Mass., October (AP)—The ushers of the Maplewood Methodist Episcopal church, who scandalized the congregation by whistling while taking up the collection at the 80th anniversary service of the church, were restored to good social standing today when the pastor, Rev. Duane B. Aldrich explained their strange behavior.

The pastor instructed the ushers to whistle every time a dollar bill or more was dropped into the plates. They whistled exactly 105 times.

STOP BUYING CRUDE

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 24 (AP)—Officials of the Derby Oil company announced here yesterday that they would cease buying crude oil, declaring that the refining cost and present market price had made profitable manufacture impossible.

The concern expects to use oil from its own wells until conditions change.

Legion Commander

Ralph T. O'Neil of Topeka, Kan., is the new commander of the American Legion. He was elected at the Boston convention.

Texas & Pacific Appreciates Cut In Howard Taxes

Appreciation of the slash in county tax rate is expressed in a letter received by members of the Commissioners Court from W. L. Holder, tax commissioner of the Texas and Pacific Railway.

"We note with much gratification," Holder says, "the nice reduction in the tax levy for this year in your county, and we wish to heartily congratulate you. Such an achievement requires judicious management of the affairs of the county, and you are to be greatly commended for such realization. It is greatly appreciated by us and undoubtedly by all other tax payers, especially at a time like this, when it is so difficult to get funds with which to pay taxes. The business of the Texas & Pacific has decreased nearly $6,000,000 since January 1 as compared with the same time last year. The commercial buses and trucks are eating heavily into our business, notwithstanding we are forced to pay heavy taxes for the building and maintenance of the highways over which they run."

"The Texas & Pacific is short of funds but we have requested our treasurer as a special favor, to pay to your county as early as possible, in order to assist you and also as a further token of our appreciation for the efficient manner in which you are handling the affairs of that county."

Cannon Confers With Accusers

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 24 (AP)—Bishop James Cannon Jr., met with the four Southern Methodist ministers who have filed charges against him in a final conference held here yesterday before the charges are referred to a special investigating committee of the church. No details of the conference were available but Dr. Costen J. Harrell, one of the accusers, said the charges would not be withdrawn.

Jury Undecided In Trial of Ex-Solon

AMARILLO, Oct. 24 (AP)—The jury in the trial of John Herton White, former Berger legislator, charged with forging the endorsement of one of his clients to a $400 government compensation check, was still out in federal court today.

Student Nurse Ends Her 44th Day In Machine

CHICAGO, Oct. 24 (AP)—Frances McGann, student nurse in a Chicago hospital, began her forty-fourth day in a respirator today showing "steady improvement."

Hospital authorities said she was eating and sleeping normally and that she was removed for a half an hour or more at several intervals. Her longest period of breathing without aid was Wednesday, when she was out of the glass and aluminum "lung" for slightly more than two hours.

Miss McGann was placed in the respirator September 11 when an attack of infantile paralysis affected her chest muscles.

Trackage Leases Asked By Two Texas Roads

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—Two Texas subsidiaries of the Burlington and Rock Island systems asked the interstate commerce commission today for authority to make an extension of about 98 miles of line by trackage arrangements over existing railroad routes.

The Fort Worth & Denver City and the Chicago, Rock Island & Gulf Companies asked permission to contract with the Missouri-Kansas-Texas to operate over the latter's rails from Dallas to Waxahatchie.

From Waxahatchie to Teague, the joint line propose to operate by leasing the rails of the Burlington Rock Island company, a joint subsidiary of the parent lines. No construction will be involved except such short bits of life as are needed to connect the rails.

Government Of Brazil Is Overthrown

Soa Paulo Falls; Rioting Grows Worse In Rio de Janeiro

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 24 (AP)—A correspondent of La Nacion telegraph that Tasso Fragoso has assumed the dictatorship of Brazil at Rio de Janeiro.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Oct. 24 (AP)—Rioting which started around midday and showed signs of subsiding grew worse as afternoon wore on. The crowds wrecked the plant of the newspaper Jornal del Brasil, one of the most important newspapers in the country. There has been firing in the streets by both sides.

The police took a hand in an effort to stop the disorders about 3 p. m. It did not then appear that there had been casualties. Gabriel Bernardes, appointed by the revolutionary government as minister of justice, announced to The Associated Press that the Junta would hold a meeting at 5 p. m. to take steps for restoration of tranquility in Rio de Janeiro.

Prof. Brant Lobo of the faculty of medicine was appointed superintendent of police. He began his official duties by calling for student volunteers to take up police duty in the present emergency.

SAO PAULO, Brazil, Oct. 24 (AP)—A white flag was run up on the government building shortly before three o'clock this afternoon, indicating the revolutionary movement had been successful.

At 2:40 p. m. firing against the government palace began and fifteen minutes later the white flag was run up.

The firing in the district where the military barracks are located ceased and the crowds which had fled again appeared on the streets. Apparently all was over.

Business News Is Encouraging

(By The Associated Press)

Important developments of cheering import to the nation's business and to the nation's unemployed were noted in today's news dispatches.

Most significant, perhaps, was the statement of Col. Arthur Woods, directing the federal government's relief activities. He said that approval of public works proposal totaling approximately $450,000,000, to be voted upon in about 20 states in November, would result in stimulation of industry and would go far toward relieving unemployment.

The news from Wall Street, too, had an encouraging tone, with prices moving upward for the second consecutive day. "The overthrow of the Brazilian government was reflected on the market with Brazilian securities rallying sharply."

Leaders of the steel industry, attending the meeting of the Steel Institute in New York, spoke in words of optimism. James A. Farrell, president of United States Steel, said that, through cooperation, the industry could get back "where it belongs in 60 days."

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP)—Stocks forged ahead in a strong market today and active favorites, including rails, closed 2 to 3 points higher. United States Steel closed at 50 for a rise of nearly 4 points and American Telephone sold above 200, up 2. There were 4 to 5 point advances in New York Central, Chesapeake & Ohio, Atchafalpa, Case, Erie, Eastman Kodak and American Can. Allied Chemical soared 8. Montgomery Ward broke to 20 1/4, a new low, on the dividend omission, but made partial recovery. Sales approximated 2,650,000 shares.

Hale Center Is Scene Of Road Celebration

HALE CENTER, Oct. 24 (AP)—A county-wide celebration was held here last night to mark completion of 40 miles of pavement north and south through Hale county and general street improvements.

Dr. S. J. Underwood presided at a meeting attended by about 3,000 persons.

The Plainview and Lubbock Chambers of Commerce joined in the celebration, the Plainview municipal band being in attendance.

American Birth Rate Of 1929 Lowest Since '15

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—The American birth rate for 1929 was announced by the census bureau today as 18.9 per 1,000 population, the lowest for any year since 1915 when such statistics were first compiled on a national scale.

At the same time the infant mortality rate also dropped to the lowest point recorded—48 deaths of infants under one year of age for each 1,000 born. This compared with a high infant mortality rate of 101 per thousand births recorded in 1916 and 1918.

Trinity County Monopolizes S.P. Rail Hearing

DALLAS, Oct. 24 (AP)—The small East Texas county of Trinity monopolized the morning session of the interstate commerce commission's hearing on application of the Southern Pacific railway to buy control of the St. Louis Southwestern (Cotton Belt).

Trinity county residents were witnesses for the Waco, Beaumont, Trinity and Sabine railroad, which desires to be included in the proposed new system. However, they spoke not only for that road, but also for the Groveton, Lufkin and Northern, which also passes through Groveton, the county seat.

Witnesses pointed out that Trinity county, with its developing agriculture and industries would be in a precarious position if, both short lines should be abandoned since the only other Trinity county railroad barely passes through a corner of the county.

W. T. Thagard, president of the Groveton Chamber of Commerce, W. Hooks, mayor of Groveton, Royal Browder, Trinity county tax collector, and L. P. Altmar, Groveton banker and landowner, were among the witnesses.

Altmar cited the new truck crop movement which had been started and said that would have to be abandoned if the short lines ceased to operate. Thagard told of the sill, ca sand, lignite and clay deposits which had not been developed. He said the population of Groveton was increasing and there had been a number of recent public improvements.

Hooks testified that men with money were afraid to place industries on weak railroads and expressed the opinion that Trinity county would obtain a number of industries if the Southern Pacific-Cotton Belt should take over one or both of the short lines.

Browder admitted the W. B. T. & S. had not paid its taxes for four years but said the county was not pressing the road because it believed the road was more valuable than the taxes.

L. Gipson Rites Are Held Today

Funeral services for LaVallie Gipson, 22, fatally wounded near Fossan Monday afternoon, were held at the Eberly Chapel this morning. Burial was in the New Mt. Olive cemetery.

Gipson was shot Monday afternoon, succumbing to his wounds Thursday morning at a local hospital. He made no statement to officials before dying. It is said, Jim Martin, 56, teamster, is being held in jail without bond charged with the murder.

Six Brick Buildings Burned At Crandall

CRANDALL, Texas, Oct. 24 (AP)—Fire burned six brick buildings, causing a property loss of $100,000, here early today. Kaufman fire department responded to a call for help and assisted in extinguishing the flames.

The Citizens' National Bank was one of the places burned. Valuable papers and records were saved from the bank.

Origin of the fire had not been determined.

Board Finds Infestation Via Machine

November 13 New Date For Meeting Of Commission

DALLAS, Oct. 24 (AP)—Action on the lifting of the last pink boll worm restrictions on a certain West Texas zone was postponed until November 13 at Austin when the state pink boll worm commission met here today.

J. M. Del Curto, state entomologist, said that a gin trash machine revealed an infestation and the commission determined to await ginning for the remainder of the season. When the meeting was called no infestation had been evidenced.

The counties included in the zone are Dawson, Howard, Martin, Burden, Midland, Ector and Andrews. Most of them already had been removed from the lint fumigation area.

Members of the commission attending were W. K. Crawley of Lamesa, C. R. Beeman of Fort Stockton, W. W. Parter of Colorado, J. D. Glass of Midland, George H. Terrell, commissioner of agriculture, R. E. McDonald and W. D. Fyrris of the state department of agriculture, and Del Curto.

Friday's meeting in Dallas was called for the specific purpose of lifting all restrictions from this area.

However, Tuesday of this week discovery of one pink bollworm was reported from Midland, according to authentic information received here. It is understood this discovery, the first of the year in the area, led to postponement of the release.

A release is, however, expected next month.

Fireman Dies At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Oct. 24 (AP)—Apparently dying from natural causes, according to the inquest verdict of Justice Walter Prichard, W. J. Rains, 70, fireman for the Rock Island railway for 20 years, who survived two railroad accidents in which five men met death, was found dead in bed at his home here yesterday.

He escaped serious injury in a head-on collision of two Rock Island freight trains here Sept. 12, when two men were killed, and several years ago, was hurled from the cab of a locomotive which exploded on the North Side, killing three men. He was severely burned and injured but recovered.

Louisiana Man Slays His Wife

AMITE, La., Oct. 24 (AP)—Dan Carriere, 36, farmer living fifteen miles from here, today shot and instantly killed his wife.

The shooting occurred at the home of Mrs. Carriere. Her sister, eight miles from here, a few months ago, Carriere knocked his wife unconscious with an automobile crank. When he was arrested Mrs. Carriere refused to testify against him and pleaded for his release. The charges were dropped despite demands of neighbors that he be either prosecuted or examined for his sanity.

1-4 teaspoon pepper.
Paprika.

Save out a few of the mushroom caps to add to soup. Cover mushroom caps and stems, which have been peeled and chopped, with water. Add sliced onion and salt and boil slowly for one-half hour. Melt butter in top of double boiler and add the mushroom caps which have been chopped. Cook about three minutes over flame. Add flour and milk to make a smooth thick sauce. Add mushroom liquor and mushrooms rubbed through a sieve. Add cayenne, pepper and cream and paprika just before serving.

Gumbo or Okra Soup
Fry out the fat of a slice of bacon or fat ham, drain it off, and in it fry the slices of a large onion brown; scald, peel, and cut up two quarts fresh tomatoes, when in season, (used canned tomatoes otherwise) and cut thin one quart okra; put them together with a little chopped parsley in a stew-kettle with about three quarts of hot broth of any kind; cook slowly for three hours, season with salt and pepper. Serve hot.

In chicken broth the same quantity of okra pods, used for thickening instead of tomatoes, forms a chicken gumbo soup.

Cream of Spinach
Pick, wash and boil enough spinach to measure a pint, when cooked, chop and pound into a soft paste. Put into stew-pan with four ounces of butter, a little grated nutmeg, a teaspoonful salt. Cook and stir it about 10 minutes. Add to this two quarts of strong stock; let boil and rub through a strainer. Set over fire again, and when on boiling point, mix with it a tablespoonful of butter and a teaspoonful granulated sugar.

Oyster Soup
2 quarts oysters.
1 quart milk.
2 tablespoons butter.
1 teaspoon hot water.
Pepper and salt.

Strain all the liquor from the oysters; add the water and heat. When near the boil, add the seasoning, then the oysters. Cook about five minutes from the time they begin to simmer until they "ruffe". Stir in the butter, cook one minute, and pour into the tureen. Stir in the boiling milk, and send to table.

Cream of Tomato Soup
3 cans milk.

Kraft Potato Soup
3 potatoes (medium).
1 pint boiling water.
1 pint scalded milk.
2 slices onion.
3 tablespoons butter.
2 tablespoons flour.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
1-2 teaspoon pepper.
Few grains cayenne.
1 tablespoon parsley (chopped).
1-4 pound Kraft American cheese (grated).

Cook potatoes in boiling salted water until soft. Add water, stir in the milk which has been scalded with the onion for five minutes; melt butter, add flour and seasonings; then the milk and potato mixture. Cook one minute, and strain, add cheese and beat until smooth, add chopped parsley and serve very hot with imperial sticks.

Imperial Sticks—Cut buttered slices of bread into sticks and brown in oven.

Cream of Tomato Soup
3 cans milk.

Vegetable Soup
Use either soup meat or soup bone. Place in kettle to boil until tender. Cut up the following vegetables and put in stock:
2 Irish potatoes.
1 can corn.
2 carrots.
2 can peas.
1-2 cup celery.
1 can tomatoes.
1 onion.
1 green pepper.
1-2 cup chopped cabbage.
4 pods okra.
1 turnip.
1-4 cup rice, (cooked).
Season highly with salt and pepper.

Tomato Soup
1 quart peeled tomatoes.
1 quart milk.
Salt and pepper.
Butter, size of an egg.
3 tablespoons rolled crackers.
Place over fire tomatoes, stew them soft with a pinch of soda, strain, then set over fire again, add hot milk, season with salt, pepper and butter, add cracker crumbs and serve hot. Canned tomatoes can be used in place of fresh ones.

Corn Mock Bisque Soup
(Mrs. Raymer Pollard)
1 cup corn.
1 pint milk.
1 slice onion.
3 tablespoons flour.
1 can tomatoes.
1-8 teaspoon soda.
4 tablespoons butter.
1 teaspoon salt.
Pinch pepper.
Small amount of Gebhardt's chili powder.

Scald milk in double boiler with corn and onion. Mix flour with water and add to scalded milk; then cook 20 minutes, stirring constantly at first and afterwards occasionally, and run through a pure sieve. Cook tomatoes 10 minutes, add scald and run through a sieve. Combine mixtures and strain into a tureen. Add butter and then seasoning. Since tomato is acid, add to hot milk to prevent curdling.

Hints For Homemakers
By Jane Rogers

FRESH peaches in mid-winter, to garnish our cereals and for dessert, sounds like a dream, but for the first time in history fruit has been successfully treated by a quick-freezing process which makes it available for the winter table in all its original flavor and freshness. The peaches that will be enjoyed this winter promise to be the first of a long line of new and delicious food products for the family menu.

Two or three lumps of sugar added to the vinegar will give a piquant and appealing flavor to practically all pickles.

Central P.-T. A. Membership Drive On

Mrs. Harry Staleup Is Chairman of The Committee

Mrs. Harry Staleup, chairman of the Central P.-T. A. membership drive, wishes to announce that the drive ends on the last day of November.

It will be conducted by rooms and the room getting the most new members will be presented with a pot plant.

Other members of the membership committee are: Mrs. R. L. Owen, Mrs. J. C. Rogers, Mrs. Lester King, Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. L. W. Croft.

The funds will go for the care of children's health and to beautify and equip the new school grounds.

Every mother and father of Central Ward school children is urged to join this organization. The fee is seventy-five cents and should be sent to the teacher by the child.

TOURNEY OPENS

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 24.—The first of a long series of winter golf tournaments opens over the course of the Salt Lake Country club today with a strong field of contenders seeking first prize money of the $5,000 purse.

Although a few of the nation's outstanding professionals failed to make their appearance as expected, a dozen ranking players were here for the opening round. They include Harry Cooper, Los Angeles; Del Monte, Cal.; Abe Espinosa, Chicago; Fred Morrison, Los Angeles; George von Elm, Detroit; Al Espinosa, Chicago; Jimmy Thomson, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Harold McSpadden, New York, and numerous others.

Eighteen holes were on the program today, the second 18 tomorrow and the final 36 Sunday.

1 slice onion.
4 tablespoons flour.
1 can tomatoes (small).
1 tablespoon soda.
3 tablespoons butter.
1 teaspoon salt.
1-8 teaspoon pepper.
Scald milk with onion and thickener, stirring constantly until thickened. Cook tomatoes with sugar 15 minutes. Add soda and rub through a sieve. Combine mixture and strain. Add butter, salt, and pepper. Serve with crackers and cheese. Arrange crackers in a pan; sprinkle with grated cheese and bake until cheese is melted.

Autumn Salad
Arrange twin nests of lettuce on individual salad plates. In each nest place half a medium sized canned peach. Mix together 1-2 cup celery, 1-4 cup chopped nuts, 1-2 cup seeded raisins and 2 to 3 tablespoons pure apple butter. Fill centers of peaches with mixture, piling slightly. Place a spoonful of Mayonnaise salad dressing between the peaches before serving.

Jack O'Lantern Sandwiches
Cut an equal number of slices of white and whole wheat bread, and shape into squares. Using a round cutter, cut pieces from the centers of half the white slices and half the brown slices. Spread uncut squares with cream cheese, then with current jelly, and place a white cut square on each brown uncut one, and vice versa. With a sharp knife, cut triangular eyes, a triangular nose, and a half moon shaped mouth in the rounds of bread that were taken out, and place a white round in a brown topped sandwich. Very attractive sandwiches also are made by cutting rounds of bread, spreading with cream cheese and currant jelly, and topping with a second round of bread from which the features have been cut.

Frosted Spice Cakes with Halloween Faces
Cream 1-3 cup butter with 1 cup sugar, and add 2 eggs, well beaten. Sift 2 cups pastry flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder and 1-2 teaspoon soda together, and add alternately with 1-4 cup sour milk. Then add 1 cup minced meat and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Bake in cup cake pans at 375 degrees F. about 25 minutes. This makes fourteen cup cakes.

Bolled Frosting
Cook 1 cup sugar, 1-3 cup water, and 1-2 teaspoons pure vinegar together, stirring until the sugar is dissolved. Boil without stirring until syrup spins a thread (234 degrees F.). Pour slowly over 2 stiffly beaten egg whites and beat until it holds its shape. Add 3-4 teaspoon vanilla. Decorate, using a strip of preserved cherry for a mouth.

Apple Butter Custard Tarts
To 1 well beaten egg add 1-2 cup milk, 3 tablespoons sugar and 1-2 cup pure apple butter. Pour into tart pans lined with uncooked pie crust, and bake in a moderate oven.

Rice Flake & Peanut Butter Balls
One package rice flakes; 1 cup peanut butter; 1 cup white sugar; 1 cup brown sugar; 1-4 cup corn syrup; 1-2 cup water; 1-2 tablespoon butter; and 1-2 teaspoon pure vinegar, until when dropped from tip of spoon into cold water, a soft ball is formed. Cool slightly, flavor with vanilla, and pour gradually, stirring gently, over the rice flakes and peanuts in a bowl. Form into balls as soon as cool enough to handle.

Intriguing False Faces For Halloween 'Eats'

For those of us who are fortunate, goblins still walk on Halloween. Under the elfin influence of gay masquerades, the whole wonderful world of childhood comes alive again. And the hostess who joins in with this carnival spirit has an exceptional opportunity to impress her originality.

While Halloween foods should be simple, the wealth of seasonal dishes that may be used makes planning the menu a pleasure. Even the traditional spice cookies, doughnuts, peanut butter, apples and cider may be prepared and served in surprising new ways. And I am confident that the following novel recipes and menus can be used to advantage in making your own Halloween party long remembered.

Peach or Pineapple Halloween Salad
Dice 2 cups apples, mix with the juice of 1-2 lemon, and then add 1 cup celery and 1-2 cup broken walnut meats. Sprinkle with 1 teaspoon sugar and moisten with mayonnaise salad dressing. Arrange this salad in a deep, crisp leaf of lettuce. Over salad place a half of peach, decorated to represent a pumpkin. Use whole cloves for eyes, a whole clove for a nose, and a strip of pimiento or red cherry for a mouth. Or in place of the peach, spread small pineapple rings with peanut butter, and fill the center with raisins for eyes and nose, and a strip of cherry for the mouth, and place over the salad.

Arlo Forrest Pythians Celebrate Purchase Of Lot For Home With Picnic

Settles Hotel Scene Of Stag Party On Last Wednesday

Friends of Arlo Forrest honored him with a stag party at the Settles Hotel last Tuesday night. Mr. Forrest is to be married next month. The group was served a four-course dinner in a private dining room, on the mezzanine floor. J. Hooper with Sammis Williams and his Hotel Settles orchestra, furnished music for the occasion. Friends present at the party were: Ike Inaus, Lewis Rix, Coulter Rich, Nelson, Bill Turpin, Cecil Horton, Pat Blalock, Alvin House, Johnny Roberts, Nels Martin, Mr. Hooper, Arlo Forrest.

Sammy And His Orchestra Will Play Saturday

Sammy Williams and his Settles Hotel orchestra will furnish music Saturday evening for another of the weekly dances being given by the hotel.

Williams, who has one of the best organizations in the south-west, has been a conductor for a number of years. His orchestra has recorded for Victor and other talking machine concerns and has done much radio work.

Mr. Williams is a member of Wichita Falls Lodge No. 549, American Federation of Musicians.

MOHAIK ADVANCEES
SAN ANGELO, Oct. 24.—Advances on mohair in Arizona and New Mexico this year have been 25 cents for grown and 30 cents for kid hair, according to E. O. Oglesby, who has returned from those states where he shipped out about 500,000 pounds of hair to co-operators.

Declaring Results Has Been Amazing

"I GAINED IN STRENGTH AND HEALTH SINCE TAKING OR-GATONE. TROUBLES ARE ALL GONE," SAYS PLAIN-VIEW MAN

For several years I have had an awful trouble with my stomach.
Everything disagreed with me and after meals I would get that puffed bloated feeling and belch up my food sour and undigested. I got to the point where I was almost afraid to eat anything because of the suffering I knew it would cause me. I was constipated, had terrible headaches, and my sleep was very poor. My system seemed to be very run down, I was losing weight and felt tired and worn out all the time. I was losing ground all the time and knew that unless I got the right medicine I would be in a terrible condition in a short time.
Orgatone was recommended to me, by a friend, and it has not only relieved me of my troubles, but has built me up amazingly. I have taken three bottles and my stom-

and so is that tired feeling and I have gained in health and strength.

THE ODD JOBS MAN

by OSCAR HITT

"Well, that may all be true or it may not," said Lytton harshly. "My concern now is with the next few days. Strange as it may seem to you, you will not receive help from me in any prolonged deception of Grannock. He has been fooled enough. But—"
"Have you told him that I—his friend of the cliff—am Nurse Elles-more?" she interrupted him.
"No."
"Nurse Casey?"
"She won't open her lips."
"When I came to the Broom house yesterday evening," Hallie
said, the housekeeper herself showed me my bedroom. I think she said she had dismissed one housemaid and the other was out.
At any rate, she and the butler and Nurse Casey are the only people in the house who would recognize me as Nurse Ellesmore if I came to see
Mr. Grannock tomorrow."
"You're forgetting Broom."
"I've refused to marry him, anyway. He has absolutely nothing to say about my brother's illusions about me. My experience of Lester is that, if his own interests aren't threatened, he is just indifferent to every one else's doings."
Lytton's grunt was skeptical.
"The only person in Southfield who knows my name as a nurse or that I went to the Broom house," she continued, "is Mrs. Bartholomew."
"Who's she?"
"My landlady here. She opened the door to you. She was a friend of my aunt's and she is my friend,
too, though I have never stayed with her before. She is a strange person."
"What are you doing," broke in the doctor violently, "is to drag me
and these other people into a conspiracy of silence? Without our consent!"
"I don't think I could do that if I tried. Any one of you can break the silence at any moment. It's simply that if Mr. Grannock gets any kind of pleasure or compensation out of having me near him, you are all bound to be on my side. And what you're doing now," raged the doctor, "is face thrust aggressively into here, 'is to tell me that whether I like it or not you are coming back into Grannock's life as—what does he call you?'—Rose." The woman he has never seen.
Hallie sobbed suddenly.
"I took away his sight," she whispered. "I want to give him mine instead. When I'm his eyes and his hands and his feet, then I'm doing what I can to atone, even though I know it's so terribly small an atonement."
"Baffled—furious—the doctor snatched up his hat and made for the door. Hallie intercepted him.
"Have you—" she demanded breathlessly—"have you taken any steps at all to prevent Mr. Gran-nock being told?"
"If you must know—yes. I've ordered Broom and Casey and the two servants to keep their mouths shut indefinitely."
"Oh! Thank you! Thank you for that!"
"Damn you," retorted the doctor.
He pushed her aside and slammed
himself out of the house.

A Fingerprint Bureau

WEST TEXAS sheriffs meeting
at Brady, expressed the hope that a fingerprint bureau should be established at Austin, as an aid to peace officers in tracking down
criminals.
The suggestion has been made before without result. Anybody with half an eye can see what a big help
such a bureau of identification would be. Some of the larger cities have their own fingerprint bureaus, but there is little or no cooperation or coordination in the work. The rule is every fellow for himself. Sheriff departments have to go at it blindly, when they start out after a criminal.
One of the principal reasons for the success of the great Scotland
Yard is its identification bureau.
Every known criminal in Britain is classified there. They know just what type of crime a particular criminal has a weakness for, and when a crime of that sort turns up they start looking for the suspect.
They have his fingerprints and Ber-tillon measurements. It is a central clearing house for information about criminals and their activities, with every outpost of empire taking part in the work.
Texas should have such a bureau,
and in turn that bureau should be affiliated with similar bodies in all the other states.
We will have it in time of course,
but the work should be put under way without further delay. The need for it has been felt for years
and peace officers in their occasional meetings have urged it upon the lawmakers. But to date nothing definite has been done. It is still just one of those things we need to do and haven't done.

FRECKLES
To tan but not to freckle is the ambition and the perplexing problem of many. Unfortunately, however, it is exceedingly difficult, if not impossible, to separate the one from the other.
Freckles are small spots of pigment in the upper layers of the skin. Freckles "run" in families.
Those with light skin and red hair appear more susceptible than those of darker shades, but there are exceptions.
In those who are susceptible,
freckles will develop on even slight exposure to the sun. And yet these same persons cannot tan except on exposure to natural or artificial sun rays.
While the sun will quickly bring out freckles, there appear to be other factors that can cause spotted pigmentation of the skin. This is to be seen in freckles on parts of the body that are ordinarily but little exposed to sunlight.
Those embarrassed by freckles
can avoid them, to a degree at least,
by protecting themselves against the ultraviolet rays of the sun. A coat of simple, unmedicated cold-
cream may serve this end.
The applications sold for the removal of freckles usually accomplish their purpose (when they do)
by destroying upper layers of the skin, down to the pigment level.
This destruction usually is accomplished by a gentle blistering.
The effects, however, are not permanent.
If left alone, freckles tend to pale
and disappear as winter approaches.
Some freckles, however, stubbornly persist even through the winter.

Hollywood Sights

HOLLYWOOD — Contract players at a certain studio here soon
may be losing their long vacations
"between pictures."

The studio has taken over a local legitimate theater and plans to begin producing its own plays, using its own stars and contract players as well as recruits from the stage for the casts.
The plan will serve not only to test plays on real audiences before filming, but will give the younger and less experienced contract play-

otherwise they would be idle "be-

Irene Rich is to have the femi-

THE ROSE IN THE DARK

By ROY VICKERS

SYNOPSIS: When Saxely Gran-
nock meets Hallie Ellesmore, beautiful young nurse, on the cliffs overlooking Long Island Sound, they fall in love at once, although Hallie is already engaged to Lester Broom, Grannock's younger half-brother.
Grannock cannot see her clearly as he has eye trouble and is to undergo an operation which either will cure or ruin his sight. Hence he refuses to let her tell her name, but gives her a tiny ivory rose as a love token. Hallie is hired, unknown to Grannock, as his night nurse during the treatment, and must notify Dr. Lytton when certain symptoms develop. Lester, coming in late and drunk, holds Hallie captive in the drawing room
until past time to call the doctor, and Grannock's eyes blind. Hallie disregards her engagement with Lester, and refuses to give her up.
Leaving the house, she meets Grannock outside by accident. Hearing her voice, he recognizes her as the girl he met on the cliff. Heartbroken, she tells him of her love and desire to help him, and cannot bring herself to reveal her identity as the nurse who blinded him. She evades his questions regarding her name. Dr.
Lytton, arriving in anger, almost saves her away.

TO TEST SCHOOL LAW

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 24. (AP)—The Austin city school board has decided to test the validity of the school law passed by the 41st legislature authorizing independent districts a per capita assessment for the maintenance of a county school superintendent's office. The Austin board has retained a law firm to prepare an opinion on the law and should the opinion warrant, litigation will be started.
Other independent school districts will be asked to participate in the movement.

A New Issue in Kansas

Boston Transcript.
CORPORATION farming gets into politics. Little may have been heard about it in the east, but in Kansas there is great talk over the question of incorporation agriculture. The Republicans are making it an issue in the present political campaign. William Allen White, who once asked in a famous editorial, "What's the matter with Kansas?" might today reply to his own question with "company farming."
He has called it a menace. The Republican platform opposes it, and expresses the belief that "the future welfare of Kansas depends upon Kansas farming remaining in the hands of individual Kansas farmers." More than that, the platform plank favors "any needed legislation to prevent such corporation farming."
As the issue is seen from a distance the attitude of the Kansas folk suggests question whether or not we are about to witness another conflict between economics and politics. If corporation farming can be made to pay in dollars and cents
well it in the end be suppressed by hostile legislation? Will it succumb before denunciation as that which is now heard in Kansas? The people there are proud of the maintenance of a family year around by the individual farmer is not the overhead of farming, but is the overhead of civilization. Let the individual farmer be replaced with floating farm hands and the doors of the churches and the schools will be nailed up. The rhetoric is on the side of the individuals.
Still it might be urged in reply that corporation farming would not mean the extinction of the home and the disappearance of schools. Whatever else may be said of it, the idea that this form of farm ownership, and operation would mean that civilization tottered to its fall would seem to be an extreme one. There are many not likely to be convinced that the overhead of civilization could not be met if corporations cultivated part of the farm lands. But, taken seriously in Kansas, this new "menace" adds another to the issues that already far exceed the 57 varieties of the famous pickles. Fortunately not all of them will call for serious consideration after the votes are

Coste, Bellonte
Return To France

HAVRE, France, Oct. 24. (AP)— Capt. Dieudonne Coste, transatlantic flight hero, departed from the liner France incognito at 8 a. m. today
and his much advertised martial difficulties were immediately
smothered in the kisses and embrace of Mme. Coste, who was awaiting him at the pier.
They left for Deauville in an automobile, intending to return here
at 4 p. m. for his official debar-cation. When no one and Maurice Bel-lonte, his mechanic in the long flight across the Atlantic, will be received by Mayor Meyer and the city council.
"They certainly do things in a big way in America," M. Coste told newspapermen. "By the time we had gone half way on our national tour Bellonte and I were puzzled whether we were in France or in America."

Bombs To Destroy

18 Army Planes

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 24. (AP)— Eighteen condemned de Havilland and Douglas airplanes are to be destroyed at Camp Stanley about Nov. 1 by bombs dropped by planes
from the Third Attack group, Fort Crockett.
Twenty attack planes from Galveston are scheduled to reach Kelly field Nov. 1 under command of Maj.
Davenport Johnson, and bombing of the planes will begin soon afterwards.
Planes which have been condemned and which no longer are trustworthy will be destroyed and army fliers will get some good target practice.

Cannot Overemphasize

Football Says Jones

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 24.
(AP)—Tad Jones, former Yale
coach, told a meeting of the University of Michigan alumni here last night, that football cannot be overemphasized, except "probably in the newspapers."
"Football," he said, "has become a national institution in our life
and is being engaged in by the tough and rugged youth of the physical, mental and even moral type. Football creates a mental and moral ruggedness which far surpasses physical rugginess. It also exemplifies true loyal college spirit. Give me a team composed of players with mental and moral courage on the two yard line and 75 per cent of the time it will hold another team
with physical ruggedness, speed,
ability on a goal line stand."

LONGHORNS OFF FOR SAN ANGELO

Johnny Connell and O. C. Ray have passed out of the football picture as far as their high school careers are concerned. If the fact that Connell and Ray were booted off the Cisco Lobo team ended matters, it wouldn't be so bad. But it doesn't. It just starts them. Cisco feels her feelings have been trampled on. Great volumes of protest against the decision of the district committee will unfurl out of typewriters. Huge amounts of sarcastic remarks will find their way to ears of those they were intended for. A great canyon has been carved between Breckenridge and Cisco; the same as was carved between Cisco and Ranger back a few years when Cisco protested Leo Hammett, Ranger quarterback, and had him tossed off the gridiron. Not only that but Cisco feels Abilene is to blame. An Abilene man helped in piling up evidence against one of the players. Silent Shotwell, told the boys the Abilene official did it as a personal favor, and not as a school representative. But try and get by telling that in the Lobo helmet. Cisco has had two of her foremost players removed. The backfield and the line have been slashed materially. Cisco doesn't feel very well about it, and Cisco doesn't mind telling the boys exactly how Cisco feels. It is a matter of the old point. The way to remedy any effect is to remove the cause. If the two players in question had never come to Cisco, Cisco wouldn't feel so injured. Cisco had an opportunity to visit the district, and the semi-finals didn't look so badly. Now Cisco has a football club without two of the behemoths; the club is down in spirit; two gapping holes have to be filled. How much better it would have been if the two had never started the season. Today they are given freedom of the sidelines; their high school days having passed onward.

The absence of the two lads of course mars the chance of the Lobos to crush the Buckaroos Saturday afternoon. Yet, out of that collection that Chapman and Hill have on tap, there is still some material. There is still some seasoned timber for the backfield, and a plug for the stragglers at the line. And you can wager your last dollar the Lobos will be fighting every inch of the way to prove to the Buckaroos that eligible or not eligible, the Lobos are madder than a San Angelo scribe at an Abilene picnic, and can still sock. And sock with much weight.

It had to come. It's impossible for a season to pass in this district without some of the schools getting it on the chin in a one-two finish. Back in 1927 Ranger got it—eleven men being declared ineligible to participate. Just a whole string, was all. In 1928, Ranger got it again with Leo Hammett the lad. It's been the same old story. Sometimes, somehow, the district committee will work out a plan, an interscholastic League will work work out a plan, whereby it will all be eliminated and the school officials can stay home nights and warm their toes by the fire instead of having to dash down to Abilene to vote on someone's eligibility, every time a big game is just around the corner.

Of course we're not insinuating anything, but isn't it significant of something or another that it's always the Big Four that has the players protested? That may be what is referred to as a coincidence. And then it may not be.

But does Cisco suffer for having played the two ineligible? It does not. The new ruling passing games played before the new is in effect is given a good test. It was perfectly alright for Cisco, with Connell and Ray, to wallop Eastland and Brownwood and Big Spring. That was perfectly O. K. Casey, because Eastland and Brownwood and Big Spring don't amount to anything in the race. It is just a case of anything is alright, only don't get caught. And then after you are caught, everything is alright anyway. If the thing is to be eliminated, the remedy is to declare all games played before forfeited. That will make the school officials go into a huddle with the records. And when a football player is placed upon the field, it will be a dead certainty he is eligible to participate. So much for that? Too much in fact.

The thing is all the eligible Bobcats and all the eligible Steers will mix it and mingle it at the Concho hitching rack this Saturday. Big Spring has agreed not to protest anything but the score if it is against them, and Angelo has decided to protest nothing except another publicity campaign. So the game should get under way and over without so much as a hitch or a detour.

The San Angelo scribbler, by the way, continues to use his underhand method of building a fire beneath the Bobcats. The latest declaration is that this meek and mild follower of the gridiron has flatly inferred the San Angelo club is a quitter club. We can see the newly made father laughing as he wrote that line. He smashes phrases out of the air and slips them in his dangerous machine in just that manner. Were it not that something keeps us in such good humor these days we wouldn't have made a second in putting a second shirt over the ears of our 234 pound bodyguard and shipping him immediately to Angelo to take care of the sharp header. That way we

A determined battalion of football players, tired of being fodder for the big guns, went out of their home port today to invade the metropolis of Tom Green county in the annual gridiron conflict.

The Big Spring Steers, jinx ridden for years, hoisted their battle flag at noon today, and took off on a non-stop flight for San Angelo where they will clash with the Bobcats Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Hopeful to smash beyond recognition the fact that it is impossible for a Big Spring team to whip the Felinas when the two meet at San Angelo, the Steers craved a stampede of the worst kind.

In almost perfect condition, the battling Bovines of Big Spring will have the edge over the Bobcats for the first time in several years. Heavier, by a small margin, collectively, bolstered by a fleet backfield and a secondary defense behind a man mountain wall from tackle to tackle, the Longhorns have their best chance to slip the decorated package to the Kittens of the Concho.

What has gone before or what is destined to come after has little bearing upon the impending conflict. The thing that matters is that the Steers, heretofore, have given the Bobcats their greatest battle against huge odds. The Steers have been known to trail through an entire season, yet fight the Bissett boys off their respective pedal extremities when the occasion arises.

Grimes To Play

This year the berth just below the Big Four belongs to either San Angelo or Big Spring. After Saturday afternoon one will have full possession of it. Big Spring is predicted to win all of the remaining games, except one, while Angelo is expected to drop the talies to Cisco, Abilene and Breckenridge, and win the others.

Despite alleged injuries and illness, Grimes the Great 'scrap iron' man of the Bobcat line will start the game. Colton is not included in the starting lineup, being replaced by Harris along with Cobb, Rosson and Delker.

Coaches Stevens and Brown will fire their best barrels at the Bobcats. Fighting Robert Kidwell, Captain Delbert Rogers, Bill Flowers and Mims will compose the backfield. "Little" Coots will start on one of the ends with Phillips on the opposite. Hanshaw and "Red" Coburn will start at tackles; Glover and F. Orr at guards and Pardue at center. Hebisen, injured in the Cisco game, still is limping but the blond haired guard is expected to figure in the fray before the final toot of the whistle is tooted. Hopper, behemoth end, also is hobbling around, but may replace Coots if the going gets too rough for the little fellow.

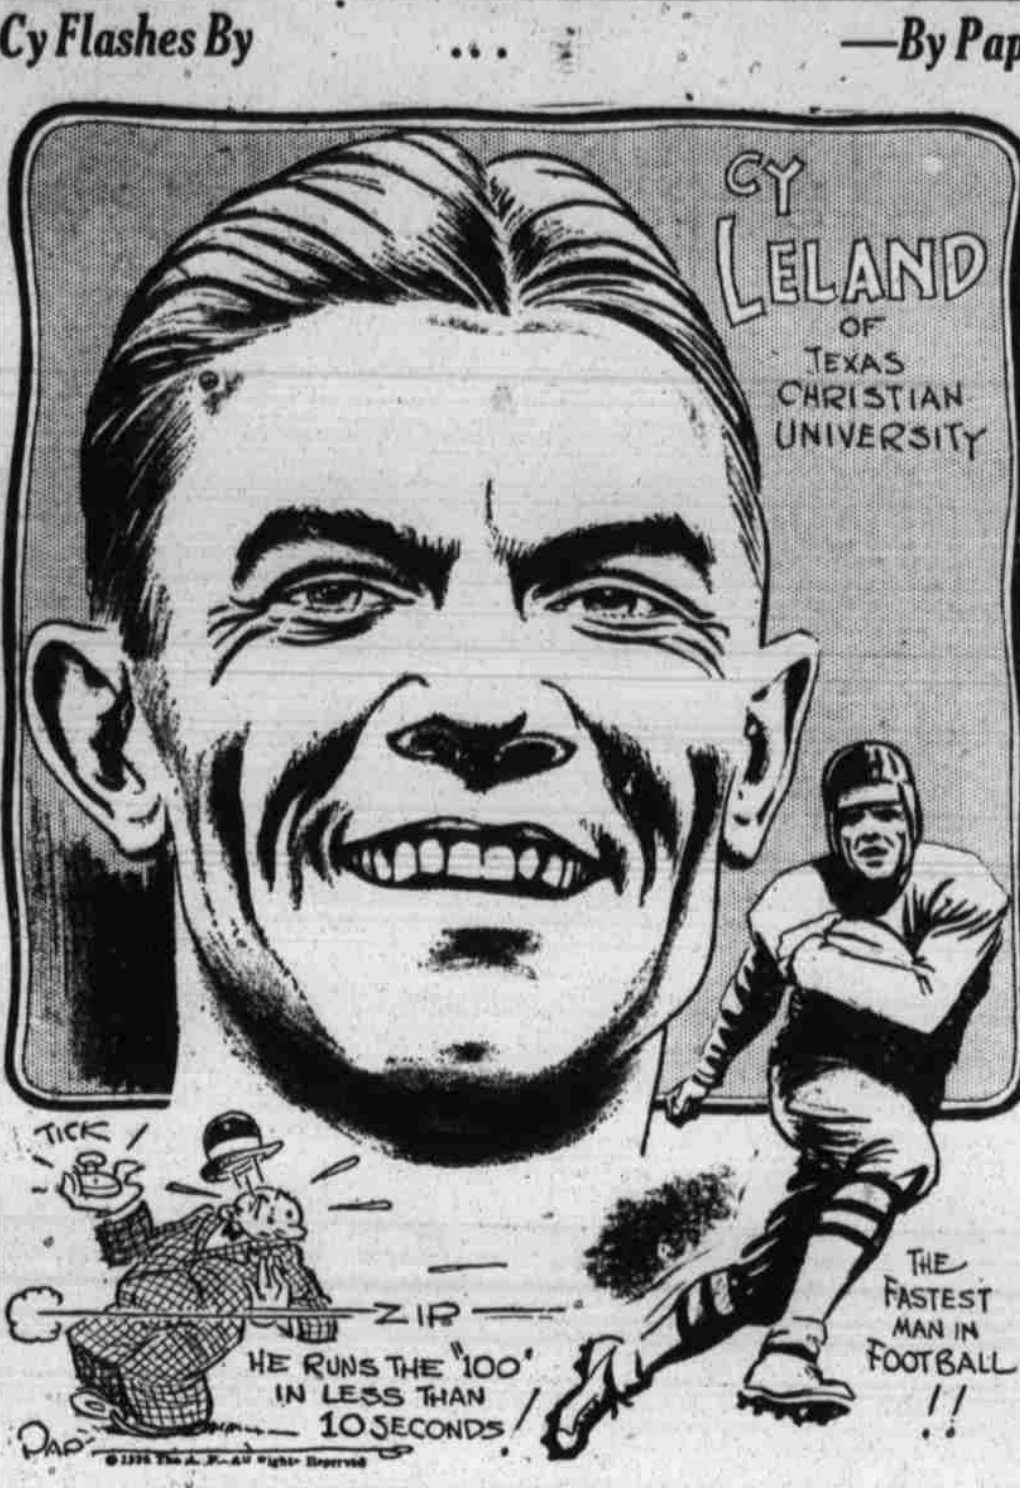

Bissett too will plunge the switch connecting with the power house. The best he has—and it's not so bad—will be sent against the Steers. The Bobcats have always been noted as a fighting aggregation, especially hard to handle with the homefolks occupying the greatest part of the belcher's section.

A large crowd of Big Spring fans are expected to travel Saturday to witness the annual conflict.

YOST SHOWS RIGHT TIME TO SPRING TRICK PLAYS

By FIELDING H. YOST

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Trick plays in football are not certain touchdown makers.

"Why does 'Old 83' always make a score?" I was asked the morning after the Michigan-Purdue game in which Michigan's most written-about play worked for the final touchdown.

None of the trick plays, "Old 83" included make touchdowns every day, but the tricks bring enough points to keep football teams wide awake. One other score of the Purdue-Michigan game was a trick, a bluff buck by Yunevich which ended as a forward pass.

Trick and deception plays have been a part of football since its beginning. In 35 years of football I have watched probably 100 such plays, including spreads, split backs, man in motion, bluff passes, spinner plays as well as the bluff buck which turns into a pass.

The plays are intended to deceive the defense in two ways—either to cause it to hesitate when it should dash in and press the play or to defend a point where the play does not go.

A trick play would not work with the attacking team on its own ten yard line, 14 points behind and a minute to play. Any team capable of getting the margin of 14 points would wait for the play to develop.

Mustangs Hope To Defeat Indiana

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Oct. 24 (AP)—Chastened somewhat by their 14-14 tie with Baylor University last week, the Southern Methodist University Mustangs hope to regain some of their lost prestige when they engage Indiana University in an intercollegiate tilt at Dallas tomorrow.

It will mark the first time a member of the Big Ten has played a Southwest Conference team in this state, and advance sales indicate upward of 35,000 spectators will witness the clash.

The Methodists already have met Hoosier eleven this year, losing a close struggle to Notre Dame at South Bend, Indiana's 100-piece band will help enliven tomorrow's spectacle.

With Weldon Mason, star halfback, and Malcolm Powell, regular center, still out with knee injuries received against the Ramblers, Southern Methodist will be without its full strength, while it is reported the invaders will present their strongest front for the first time this year. The Mustangs' mastery of the passing game, however, has served to establish them favorites over the Hoosiers, who dropped to Minnesota last week.

The battle here will share interest for the day with a pair of conference games, the powerful University of Texas Longhorns opening their campaign for the championship against Rice Institute at Houston, and the Texas Aggies meeting the University of Arkansas Razorbacks on neutral ground at Little Rock.

The two remaining conference teams, Baylor and Southwestern, have non-title bouts scheduled tomorrow. The Bears, who surprised even their staunchest supporters by last week's heroic stand against Southern Methodist, meet a worthy foe in the Centenary College Gentlemen at Shreveport. The Frogs should have it easier in their tilt with Texas Tech at Fort Worth. Coach Schmidt announced he would start a second or third team against the Innumerable diagrams have been made of the play, but I have yet to see one giving the correct details.

It has been used thirty years at Michigan. I suppose it has made 70 touchdowns, every one in major games, as "Old 83" is saved for a rainy day.

One of my instructions to quarterbacks and captains was never to run a trick play at a poor end, failing to "sense" something unusual he might wait and be in the way of the play when it developed.

The good end, working under the high tension of a goal line battle is more liable to be drawn in.

Cornell's O'Hearn, however, taught lack of wisdom in trying the same trick on the same good end. Smart wingmen have memories.

No Pay, No Football, Freshmen Players Dismissed From Squad By Director

George Washington University Youths Quit School After Asking Board and Room

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—George Washington University today was minus six of its best freshman football players, who were let out yesterday for demanding free room and board so the earnings from their jobs could be kept as spending money. Six more are under investigation.

The boys were dismissed from the squad by James W. Pixie, director of athletics. Later, after failing to obtain honorable dismissal from President Cloyd H. Marvin, they announced they had withdrawn from the university.

The six are Frank Walsh, Duluth, Minnesota; John Hofes, Mexico, Missouri; August Newcamp, Erie, Pennsylvania; Charles Robinson, Newark, New Jersey; Vance Jovick, Butte, Montana, and George Venerosa, Pittsburgh. The other half dozen, understood to be in sympathy with the students who demanded money, were not named by the school authorities.

A game which was to have been played tonight with the Georgetown freshman—the high spot of the first year team's season—was cancelled. Pixie said the boys had intended presenting their demands just before this game but he had been forewarned and had brought matters to an earlier climax.

Up to last Thanksgiving room and board as well as athletic scholarships and other concessions were given at George Washington. Then the university announced it was "cleaning house," and such privileges were cancelled.

Jobs Offered

Pixie said the players this year came "with the definite understanding that he would do nothing for them except see that they got a job."

Acting as spokesman for the dismissed, Robinson last night issued a statement saying they had come to the university "on scholarships with the understanding that if we played football they would take care of us."

"It's always understood," he continued, "that if you go away to play football you will be well taken care of."

"When we arrived they made us sign a bond for our tuition, board and room. It was sort of arranged that we would help out in instructing at high schools for our tuition, board and room. It was also understood that if we left at the end of the year they would hold our credits at other schools because of the bond.

"We got wind of a rumor several days ago that we were all going to be dropped to shift for ourselves after the football season, or about December 1, and in that we would be caught penniless if that happened, decided to have an understanding whereby we might pick up some spending change between now and December 1."

COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 24 (AP)—Fresh accusations of unethical practices and fresh recriminations were hurled at faculty representatives of the Big Six met here today to weigh charges of proselyting and recruiting of athletes which have reverberated throughout the conference.

Affidavits by three University of Kansas freshmen last night charging that representatives of the University of Missouri had "approached" them stole some of the interest of the Big Six question as to the eligibility of Big Jim Bausch, Jayhawk halfback, which precipitated the investigation today.

The statements were filed at the University of Kansas athletic office faculty representative said he had after Prof. W. A. Tarr, Missouri's been conducting a personal investigation to obtain evidence for test cases and named Bausch, an outstanding conference star, and Phil Borello, a Kansas freshman, as the principals.

Borello's affidavit, one of the three on file, stated that after he had obtained a job at Lawrence before enrolling in the university last fall, he was approached by Byron Spencer, a Missouri alumnus, who sought to have him attend the rival university. He said Spencer had offered him a job which would pay more than the one he had with room, books, and tuition. Borello is a former Notre Dame student.

The affidavit of Ross Marshall, who is not engaging in freshman athletics, said Walton Holmes, Jr., a former university of Missouri student had promised him $300 in cash if he would attend the Missouri school and pledge a certain fraternity. The statement added that Holmes had displayed fifteen or twenty such contracts.

Questions from readers are answered by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

Toms River, N. J.
It is my understanding that Pontius Pilate was a Roman, his wife a believer in Christ, and that it was customary in those days at a certain feast to release a person condemned to death. Christ had been tried three times by the Jewish priesthood, represented by their High Priest and the Sanhedrin, found guilty of blasphemy, and condemned to death. He was also tried three times by Pilate, representing the Roman civil authority, and was found not guilty of any civil offense. Pilate, because of his wife's pleadings and Christ's innocence, desired to release him. The Jewish priesthood, however, demanded that he be crucified, and a brigand or robber be released in his place. Still Pilate temporized, whereupon the Jews covertly threatened him with impeachment, compelling him to yield to their wishes. To signify that he did not desire Christ's death Pilate washed his hands in a bowl of water, indicating that he did not assume any responsibility for any guilt in the matter. While the execution was ordered by Pilate and carried out by Roman soldiers, they were merely the instruments of the law. The Jewish priesthood rushed the crucifixion through at 9 o'clock in the morning, before the masses of the people who were believers in Christ could interfere to prevent it. The Jewish priesthood could have saved Christ, but they wanted him out of the way, inasmuch as he threatened their supremacy.

I hold no brief against Jews as such, and what they did in this instance is not chargeable in any way to their descendants of today. But it is not true when you get down to the basic fact that the Jews of today were directly responsible for his death? Pontius Pilate was a Roman magistrate. His wife was not a Christian. She was a good woman, profoundly impressed with Christ's innocence when he appeared before her husband. There were not at that time "masses of people" in Jerusalem who believed in the Divine Victim. He was tried by Pilate twice, not three times, and had but one preliminary examination preceding his more informal trial before Caiaphas.

The leaders of Judaism were incensed by our Lord's open admission of His Messiahship. His prophecy of the downfall of the Temple and of His building a new spiritual sanctuary in three days and His claim that a special relationship existed between Him and the Father, deeply outraged the national priesthood. But Pilate alone had the legal authority to inflict the capital penalty, and upon him rests the final responsibility for Christ's crucifixion.

You rightly state that the tragedy is not chargeable in any way to the Jews of today. Probably you know that countless horrors have since been frequently inflicted on the Jewish people by nominal Christians because of the false accusation that they were implicated in the tragedy at Calvary. This cruel behavior has defeated the very purpose for which our Lord died and manifested in His professed followers the very temper which nailed Him to the tree.

Brooklyn, N. Y.
Do you favor the enactment by Congress of a bill to compel the registration of all aliens living in the United States? Is it not that an infringement on the freedom this country has always enjoyed?

Seven million aliens reside in the United States, a certain percentage being here temporarily. Attempts have been made to establish compulsory and voluntary registration of all aliens. Two of the three bills now pending before Congress provide for their voluntary registration, and the third if passed would make registration compulsory.

Compulsory registration is supported by various patriotic organizations and by the Department of Labor. The American Federation of Labor has favored voluntary registration on the ground that it would protect aliens who are legally resident here. Opponents of any registration insist that if compulsory, it would institute a system of governmental espionage, and if voluntary, it would prove utterly impracticable. Briefly stated, the reasons for registration are as follows:

(1) It would check the smuggling of aliens into the country;
(2) Detect aliens illegally resident here;

(3) Encourage naturalization;

(4) Aid in educating aliens.

The reasons against it are that (1) It would set up machinery for pressure on all aliens to register;

(2) Make them the objects of suspicion, investigation and attack by both officials and employers' agents;

(3) Concentrate enormous power in the hands of government and inspectors to harass the alien population.

Personally I am persuaded that the number of aliens is altogether too large for the national well-being. Forewarned is forearmed, and if five or six millions of this immense group could secure naturalization, the demand for registration would probably cease.

HOLLYWOOD WINS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24 (AP)—The battle of home runs, officially known as the playoff for the Pacific Coast baseball pennant, goes into its third struggle today with Los Angeles still seeking its first victory over the Hollywood defending champions.

Thirteen circuit clouts in nineteen innings is the count to date, with the Stars victorious in a ten inning struggle the first day, 9 to 8, and triumphant yesterday, 14 to 12. Two more wins and the sixty per cent cut of $10,000, victors' spoils will be theirs.

University Land Tax Amendment Declared Just

COLEMAN, Texas, Oct. 24 (AP)—Asserting that "the University of Texas, by reason of being such a big land owner, becomes the largest sponsor of tenant farming and ranching in the state, and if it were other than a state institution there would be a big hue and cry against it," State Senator Walter C. Woodward of this city has announced that he will support the proposed land tax amendment, one of the four to be voted upon November 4.

"Seventeen Texas counties are in a peculiar situation because of having from one to 29 per cent of their acreage tax exempt," Senator Woodward went on. "I favor the land tax amendment as a means of adjusting the situation, and equalizing the burden of the university on the 254 counties of Texas. The university has 2,000, 320 acres of land in the counties in question distributed as follows:

"Andrews, 294,400 or 29 per cent; Reagan, 194,560 or 28 per cent; Hudspeth, 453,220 or 15 per cent; Crockett, 356,480 or 17 per cent; Pecos, 184,960 or 7 per cent; Ward, 80,640 or 15 per cent; Upton, 77,440 or four per cent; Winkler, 53,120 or 10 per cent; Culberson, 46,080 or two per cent; Irion, 22,720 or four per cent; Loving, 22,400 or five per cent; Martin, 14,080 or two per cent; and Ector 6,880 or one per cent.

"Tax figures of 1928 make the unfairness of the situation apparent. That year the 17 counties in question paid to Texas $1,281,498.47, of which only $556,185 was paid back to them in school apportionment, leaving an excess of $725,313.47 used by other sections. The counties have not the scholastic population to receive back much for school purposes, the number of tax payers is small in comparison to the road mileage that should be constructed to link up trans-state all-weather roads, and revenues cannot be large because of low land values."

Littlefield Speaks His Mind About Criticism

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 24 (AP)—Coach Clyde L. Littlefield of the University of Texas will turn out a team composed of gentlemen or will NOT turn out any team at all. This was the substance of an address made recently at a meeting of Austin business men. The winning of games is secondary, Littlefield said.

Littlefield said that coaching is not all roses and that his difficulties ranged all the way from discord with "a newspaperman who is using his position on the paper to get back at me" to anonymous letters. "I invite constructive criticism," Littlefield said, "the other kind doesn't do any good."

The Longhorn mentor directed most of his talk to adverse criticism of the university football team and its coaching squad, paying particular attention to a statement made by an Austin sports writer that "coaches are a bunch of big-heads."

The public want games won and as a coach and a group of players, we are looking to the future, Littlefield said. "When this team doesn't suit you, tell me. When we don't put a team in the field that we don't deserve, we don't deserve support and when my men say I am not doing the job right, I'll get out," Littlefield said.

Man Caught Trying To Wreck Train Killed

CIUDAD CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, Oct. 24 (AP)—A firing squad has ended the life of Francisco Ruiz Cardenas whom federal troops caught in the act of removing a rail from the Mexico City-El Paso railroad line, near here.

The military escort of the passenger train Tuesday discovered him near Jimenez allegedly taking the rail from the ties. They brought him to Chihuahua City, tried him before a court martial, which convicted him, and he was executed at dawn Thursday.

Several attempts have been made to derail trains in various parts of Mexico during the past few weeks by similar tactics, but Ruiz is the first ever to be caught and punished for the act.

Jackson, Miss.—"I have been taking Theodor's Black-Draught for twenty or more years," writes Mr. J. E. Jackson, 100 Beatty Street, this city.

"I used to suffer with constipation. This caused me to have a dull headache all the time. I would feel tired whether I worked or not. I noticed people buying Black-Draught, and so I decided that if it helped them it should help me. That is how I first began using it. I found that it helped me. It acted mildly and seemed to carry off the poison that had caused this tired feeling. It stopped my headache.

"From then, till now, Black-Draught has been my medicine. I do not get much exercise, so I have to take something to assist nature, and Black-Draught is fine for that. I am now 75 years old. I take only small doses of Black-Draught, and feel fine. I can recommend it to any one and gladly do so."

Theodor's Black-Draught is easy to take, and has no disagreeable after-effects.

Costs only 1 cent a dose.

Gang Chief Is Murdered

CHICAGO, Oct. 24 (UP)—Gangster guns, silent in Chicago for some time, opened up again last night and removed Joe Aiello, one of the few remaining rivals of Alphonse Capone, from the picture of Chicago's crime.

Aiello, reputed alcohol king, partner of George (Bugs) Moran, and with Moran listed by the Chicago crime commission as a "public enemy" was shot and killed by a gang of men, number unknown, as he left the apartment of Patsy Presto, an importer, in North Kolmar Avenue.

Seventeen or more bullets were fired into the gang leader from machine and other guns secreted in three different positions, as Aiello walked into what the police said was one of the most elaborate assassination plots in gangland history.

Cornered As he stepped out of the Presto apartment, presumably to enter a cab that was waiting to take him and Presto to his home, machine gun fire opened from a third floor window of an apartment across the street. Aiello turned and fled back into the vestibule, attempted to arouse someone in the apartment, finding his way blocked by locked doors, he fled into the apartment court yard only to meet the fire of machine guns coming from a window of a building to the north. Fleeing to the rear in a fusillade of shots coming from the basement of the building housing the Presto apartment.

A police sergeant and James Duane, a cab driver, who had responded to a previous call from Mrs. Presto for a cab to take Aiello and her husband to Aiello's home, started the wounded man to a hospital, but he died before arrival there.

Thus was added another victim to the long list of gangsters slain in the internecine strife that had its beginning in the slaying of Dion O'Bannon in 1924 and which included machine gun slaying of seven followers of Moran a year ago last St. Valentine's Day in a North Clark Street garage.

Theories Various theories and beliefs were advanced by authorities in a possible explanation of gangland's latest slaying. One of these was that Aiello's death might have had connection with the slaying last June 9 of Alfred Lingie, a reporter for the Chicago Tribune, known as a friend of Capone.

Some officials said they suspected Capone, and mentioned the hostility between Aiello and Capone in support of their suspicions. Other theories were that Aiello's assassination might have been prompted by his wish to control the destinies of the Unione Siciliana, which was at one time dominated by his friend, Tony Lombardo, who was killed at Madison and Dearborn Streets some years ago. Another report was that detectives had hinted that a New York gang, headed by a man known as "Joe The Boss" and who had been connected with the Unione, might have been involved.

Shortly after the slaying two men were reported seen running from the front of the west end building, one of them carrying a machine gun. They fled in a sedan. A few seconds later another machine, bearing two men, was reported to have followed the sedan. Later an automobile, with its license plates removed and its engine numbers obliterated, was found burning in another section of the city.

The police said they learned that the apartment from which the firing first began was rented by a young man ten days ago, indicating that Aiello's death had been plotted long in advance.

Aiello was 39 years of age, which is considered old for a man engaged in gangland activities. He was the second of the "public enemies" to meet death since the crime commission issued its list of undesirable sales last April. The other was Jack Zuta, who was slain last August in a resort in Wisconsin.

Presto, who at one time was a business partner of Lombardo, disappeared following the shooting and was being hunted today by the police. One report said that he was believed to have been wounded. Witnesses said they saw him fall and noted that he was dragged to his feet by several men who carried him into one of the mob cars used by the assassins.

TRIAL DATE SOUGHT
MARSHALL, Texas, Oct. 24 (UP)—The state will ask that the trial of V. B. Shoffner, charged with murder in connection with the slaying of Thurman Wall at Carthage, be started Nov. 10, the second week of the November term of district court here. This was made known by State's Attorney John E. Taylor.

The case was transferred from Panola to Harrison county on a change of venue.
Shoffner, was alleged to have stabbed Wall, 21-year-old member of a prominent family, to death the night of Aug. 23. An argument over an automobile was said to have caused trouble between the two men.

Bodies of Man And Sister Found Burned

BEAUFORT, S. C., Oct. 24 (UP)—The charred bodies of Ed Barnes and his sister, Annie Barnes, of Augusta, Ga., were found in the ruins of a cottage here which burned early today.

Miss Mary Rice, owner of the cottage, said Barnes, who had been in ill health, came to Beaufort from August a week ago for a rest. His sister cared for him.

Early today, Miss Rice said, she heard a cry of "fire" and saw the structure enveloped in flames. A coroner's jury returned a verdict that the two came to death while sleeping from flames of an unknown origin.
