Forgery Suspect Arrested Here

E. D. Sumner, 28, reported Saturday to sheriff's officers, who held a warrant for his arrest on a charge of forgery.

Bond of $1,000, set by Walter Davies, justice of peace, to bind the suspect over to grand jury investigation, had not been executed Saturday night. Sumner was held in county jail.

Statement Is Made

In a signed statement given to Burton S. Burks, district attorney, the accused man admitted forging endorsements to drafts on McIlhaney Creamery Co. over a period of a few months. He identified 89 checks to which he admitted forging three signatures.

Complaint, filed Friday, charged forgery and passing.

Sumner said he had worked for the creamery at intervals during the last four years. First of the forgeries, he said, was committed about last October.

Joe S. McIlhaney, owner of the business, told Burks loss from checks, to which the suspect admitted forging endorsements, totaled approximately $1,500.

In only a few cases had the checks been cashed at the same business house, Burks said, although one bank had cashed nearly 50. Those

Change In Officers At Tech Announced

Lieut. Henry L. Hille, jr., of the corps of the engineers of the United States army will replace Lieut. Herrol J. Skidmore as an officer in the Texas Technological college engineering unit of the Reserve Officers Training corps, according to information received by President Clifford B. Jones.

Lieut. Skidmore is serving his fourth year as assistant professor of military science and tactics at the college. Notification had been received here several weeks ago that he would be transferred from the Tech unit upon conclusion of the present college year.

Lieut. Hille now is on duty at Honolulu. He is to report for duty on or about Sept. 5. The appointment is effective upon completion of this present tour of foreign service.

City Officials Hope For Early Completion Of Paving And Lighting On Texas Avenue; Thoroughfare Looms As Traffic Artery

By H. I. KIEFER
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

TEXAS avenue as a completely paved thoroughfare—brilliantly lighted from end to end before many weeks have passed—was the bright prospect seen by city officials Saturday.

If that comes to pass it will be the realization of a dream of many years and will finish a task to which intensive effort has been devoted for nearly three years.

Definitely assured, city officials announced, is the paving of all except four of the blocks now unpaved on the thoroughfare. Those blocks lie between Nineteenth street, where present paving ends, and Twenty-third street.

End Of Difficulties Seen

Difficulties have been encountered, officials reported, in obtaining right-of-way from two or three property-owners in those blocks for the 50-foot width paving planned. Belief was expressed, however, that those difficulties may be cleared away in the very near future.

If not, officials said, the street has been prepared for paving between Twenty-third street and the point where Texas avenue converges with Avenue H near Thirtieth street. That would mean an unpaved gap between Twenty-third and Nineteenth.

In the sector between the Avenue H convergence and Twenty-third, officials reported, curbs and gutters have been installed and caliche base has been laid for paving 50 feet in width. Plans are to put down a quadruple course pavement of crushed rock and asphalt upon the base within the next very few weeks.

Methods Are Explained

Part of the right-of-way to make possible the 50-foot paving has been contributed by property owners, part of it was bought by the city, officials said. The portion bought, they explained, is a section which curves diagonally from Texas at about Twenty-eighth to Avenue H at about Thirtieth.

The right-of-way problem still remaining was explained by officials as resulting from the existence of a big "jog" on the west side of Texas at Nineteenth. The city has asked, and in most cases, has obtained 10 additional feet from the west side of the street so as to reduce the jog at that point and to allow paving of the 50-foot width desired.

Present difficulties within the four blocks were described as resulting from demands by two or three owners that they be paid sub-

Missing Defendant Is Found Hanged

NEW YORK, April 13. (AP)—A 24-hour search for Claus Gunther Ernecke, 36, missing defendant in the trial of 17 men accused of plotting to overthrow the United States government, ended today in the basement of a Brooklyn apartment house, two blocks from his home.

Apparently terrified by threats against his life, and fearful of the outcome of the trial in federal court, Ernecke, a German-American bundsman and former trooper in the New York National guard, had hanged himself.

Medical examiners said he had been dead at least 36 hours. Federal agents and detectives had been hunting him since yesterday when he failed to appear for the trial session and Judge Marcus B. Campbell, forfeiting his $7,500 bail, had issued a bench warrant for his arrest.

German Plot In Mexico Charged

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 13. — Rep. Dies (D-Texas) asserting that he had information of a Russo-German plot to set up a puppet government in Mexico, called on President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull tonight to declare that any such attempt would be regarded as a violation of the Monroe doctrine.

"The president and secretary of state should say to the world," the House investigator told newsmen "That the Monroe doctrine not only bars armed intervention but prohibits outside powers from setting up puppet governments in the western hemisphere."

Spirit Violated

Dies, chairman of the committee inquiring into un-American activities, declared that Germany and Russia were violating "the spirit if not the letter of the Monroe doctrine by indirection."

"They are sending thousands of agents and smuggling arms and ammunition into Mexico for the purpose of overthrowing the government there and setting up a threat against the United States," he declared.

"They have other purposes, too. They want a foothold in Latin America, and Mexico by itself is richer than any of the countries they are fooling with over in Europe."

Questions Are Asked

The Texan asserted that he wished the state department to answer two questions:

"Can the United States, under the Monroe doctrine, demand of Mexico a full statement of the whole situation?

"Does the Monroe doctrine prohibit attempts from outside the western hemisphere to set up puppet governments within the hemi-

Mrs. Ferguson Announces She Will Run Again

Texas Will Ring With Battle Cry Of "Me For Ma!"

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, April 13.—The amazing political team of Miriam A. and James E. Ferguson announced today they were taking the field once more, and soon over Texas' hills and plains will be ringing the battle cry of their followers, "Me for Ma."

Asserting the condition of the state demanded action to restore sanity and prosperity, Mrs. Ferguson, through her famous husband, announced her candidacy for governor, and declared an active campaign to wrest the office from Governor W. Lee O'Daniel would be started within two weeks.

Platform Introduced

Her platform of seven planks favored:

A third term for President Roosevelt and continuing in Texas the things he stands for.

Paying old age pensions and other social security claims to all eligible under the constitution and financing the program by a tax of one-half of one per cent on gross receipts of merchants estimated to yield $50,000,000 a year.

Reducing appropriations 25 per cent or $25,000,000.

Removing discriminations against persons 45 years of age and older.

Meeting reasonable demands of organized labor.

Her Fifth Race

Liberal appropriations for education.

It will be the fifth time that Mrs. Ferguson, now 64 years old and a grandmother, has campaigned for governor. Twice she was elected and twice she was defeated. Called "Ma" because of her initials, she was the first woman in the United States to be elected governor of a state, and she is the only woman ever to be

Allied Aid On Way To Norway, King George Declares

As The Allies Tell It

BY ROBERT BUNNELLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, April 13.—Great Britain threw the overwhelming might of her navy today against the nazi captors of Norway's ore port of Narvik and announced she had sent seven German destroyers to the bottom of the rocky bay and narrow inlet there in the second sea assault on that focal point of northern war within four days.

Even while King George VI and the British government were assuring King Haakon of Norway and his people that Allied help against the German invaders is coming soon, the great battleship Warspite, rebuilt veteran of Jutland, was leading a powerful flotilla up narrow Narvik fjord, smashing a German coastal battery and then sinking the nazi destroyers before and behind the town, killing perhaps a thousand German seamen.

Operations Continue

The admiralty confidently predicted this daring victory would "clarify the situation on this part of the Norwegian coast."

It did not say whether any British troops were landed, although at least one Stockholm radio report stated this to be a fact.

Fleeing men, "possibly German soldiers," were seen running over the hills behind Narvik.

"Further details are awaited," said the admiralty.

"The admiralty is not precisely informed of conditions in Narvik town . . . operations are still proceeding.

Number Not Known

"No estimate can be made at present of German losses in personnel but the seven destroyers sunk must have counted over 1,000 men," said the announcement.

Three of the attacking destroyers were damaged but not seriously and "British loss of life is believed to have been very small," it continued.

The storming of Narvik was hailed in rejoicing London as a prime achievement in vigorous British sea and air actions to loosen the nazi hold on Norway prior to a general Allied offensive against the invaders.

Other Ships Sunk

This daring attack was a sequel to Wednesday's dawn foray into Narvik fjord when the British reported the sinking of one out of six German destroyers and the setting afire of three others.

In that battle the British lost two out of five attacking destroyers, the Hunter and the Hardy, and two others were damaged. (The Germans say six British destroyers have

Huge Fire In Panama Finally Controlled

COLON, Panama, April 13. (AP)—Cutting a swath 16 blocks wide through Colon, a wind-swept fire tonight destroyed hundreds of frame tenement houses and left approximately 10,000 persons homeless before it was controlled by a small army of firefighters.

The fire raged for hours in this city on the Atlantic side of the Panama canal before United States army officials announced its spread was stopped. Its origin was not determined immediately.

The army officials also said it was impossible to estimate immediately the property damage.

No casualties were reported.

Southwestern's 100th Birthday Celebrated

GEORGETOWN, April 13. (AP)—Southwestern university celebrated its centennial anniversary today.

Educational leaders and prominent churchmen throughout the country participated in the services marking 100 years of higher education in Texas.

President Homer P. Rainey, of the University of Texas delivered the principal address at the opening program.

Other speakers on the program included President John W. Bergin of Southwestern, Dr. William Quillian, general secretary of the Board of Christian Education of the Methodist church, and Judge Ralph Yarbrough of Austin.

FDR Condemns Nazi Invasion

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 13. — President Roosevelt, in a formal statement today, condemned Germany's invasion of Denmark and Norway, and declared that if civilization itself is to survive "powerful neighbors" must respect the rights of small nations to independence.

The president's statement, first formal expression of this government's attitude toward the nazi blitzkrieg into Scandinavia, was handed to reporters at the White House. It said:

Aggression On March

"Force and military aggression are once more on the march against small nations, in this instance through the invasion of Denmark and Norway.

"These two nations have won and maintained during a period of many generations the respect and regard not only of the American people, but of all peoples, because of their observance of the highest standards of national and international conduct.

Politicians Upset By Col. Thompson

Hines May Get His Supporters

Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, April 13.—Announcement of Ernest O. Thompson that he would be a candidate for Congress set the capital back on its heels. That Austin political quarters were astonished is putting it mildly.

The general expectation had been that the red-headed "colonel" would run for governor. In fact, he had let it be known that he intended to announce for the governorship about May 1.

The unexpected development resulted from the appointment of Representative Marvin Jones, veteran member of the national House, to be a member of the United States court of claims.

Sudden Alteration

The opportunity to run for Congress caused a sudden and radical alteration in all of Thompson's plans. In Austin today, he said that when he alighted from a train in Amarillo yesterday morning he was "still a candidate for governor."

Events in Amarillo, specifically, the pressure of friends to stand for Congress, caused him to change his mind, he asserted.

Now, the question is being asked, what will be the effect of Thompson's decision on the governor's race? The concensus is it will have a profound effect.

As runnerup to W. Lee O'Daniel in the 1938 gubernatorial campaign, Thompson polled 231,631 votes. Even his political critics concede he would have been one of the most formidable candidates this year.

Speculation Arises

Now that candidacy has been removed, everyone would like to know where the votes which would have been cast for him will go.

The other candidates are O'Daniel, Harry Hines, Jerry Sadler, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson and Albert Derden.

Thompson has been extremely critical of O'Daniel's transaction tax and S. J. R. 12, the sales-natural resource tax amendment advocated by O'Daniel after the Legislature ditched the transaction tax proposal. There has been no warmth evident between the men.

Sadler and Thompson have been at odds on many policies of the railroad commission. Sadler and Lon A. Smith, commission chairman, have often voted together in opposition to Thompson. It is well known that Thompson's position on the commission has been distinctly unpleasant due to the division.

Hines May Get Them

Hines' friends point out that Hines and Thompson both hail from West Texas, and claim that Hines will be the chief beneficiary of Thompson's decision. The claim, perhaps, will be disputed by other candidates and their adherents.

Thompson himself declined to say whom he would support, turning aside a question with the observation, "The list of candidates is not complete."

Conceivably, his action might result in other persons jumping into the fight, but this was considered unlikely.

O'Daniel, Hines, Sadler, Ferguson and Derden seemed the probable entry list of major candidates.

As to why Thompson decided as he did, he himself said the people of his district wanted him to succeed Jones and he thought he could best serve them and Texas in Congress.

Several Possible Reasons

Other reasons mentioned in capital discussions included:

The fact the governor's race might have been won only after a very bitter and expensive struggle; the possibility of defeat despite his best efforts; the assurance of his friends that he could win the congressional seat without great difficulty; the reported urgings of some members of his family; the fact he may have done about all he can do on the commission, of which he has been a member eight years, and the internal differences; the opportunity to use his knowledge of the oil industry and other Texas industries in the nation's political and legislative arena for the benefit of Texas, a congressman's salary is $10,000 a year, compared with $7,000 a member of the commission receives; the position of congressman usually is very stable; Texas districts normally reselecting their national representatives year after year.

Thompson said in Austin he did not intend to resign from the commission until after the congressional election and possibly not until after he qualifies as a congressman.

If he were elected, he would not qualify until the next session of Congress. The first regular session after the election will start in January. However, there might be a special session.

If he did resign, Governor O'Daniel would appoint someone to serve until an election could be held.

If the resignation should be between June 3, the last day for filing in the Democratic primary, and November 5, general election day, the Democratic executive committee would pick the party nominee.

Should he resign after the general election, the O'Daniel appointee could serve until the election in 1942, but would have to face confirmation or rejection by the Senate.

The governor is supposed to call a special election in Jones' district immediately after Jones resigns. He has not resigned as yet.

Big Crowd Is Expected For Luncheon To Honor Flier

A gathering to tax the capacity of the main ballroom of Lubbock hotel was indicated Saturday for the luncheon Monday noon at which Col. Roger Q. Williams, trans-Atlantic aviator, will be principal speaker, according to information given at the chamber of commerce.

The Rotary and Optimist clubs will hold their luncheons jointly for the event, each having advanced its regular meeting from a date later in the week. Official sponsor of the luncheon will be the aviation committee of the chamber of which C. E. Maedgen is chairman.

Invitations Are Mailed

Invitations to attend have been mailed to editors and chamber of commerce secretaries throughout the area and to members of an inter-city aviation committee working for airlines in West Texas. Invited also are the members of other luncheon clubs in Lubbock, members of the chamber's aviation committee, city officials, students and instructors in the flight training course of Texas Technological college and all others interested.

Col. Williams will be here, it was explained, as the good will emissary of Reader's Digest, popular magazine, which, without expense to anyone in Lubbock. The price of the luncheon will be 60 cents.

To Land At Airport

Information had not been received at the chamber of commerce Saturday as to when Col. Williams will arrive except that he will land Monday morning at Municipal airport. He is touring the nation in a Fairchild four-passenger plane. More definite information is expected today so that arrangements can be made for a greeting. Expected to participate will be Mayor Carl E. Slaton as spokesman, and members of the city aviation board composed of A. F. Holt, Ray F. Hinchey and J. Doyle Settle.

At the luncheon, preliminaries will be few to the introduction of the aviator. The program will be completed, it was announced, not later than the usual luncheon adjournment time of 1:15 o'clock. Then, according to the announcement, Col. Williams will invite any members of the audience who never have been in an airplane to take their first flight with him.

Williams' most widely publicized accomplishments during a long career as an aviator were a flight from New York to Rome about 11 years ago and the first round-trip exploration flight between New York and the island of Bermuda. He is credited, however, with an official log of approximately 15,000 hours in the air during which he has flown considerably more than 1,500,000 miles, has carried more than 65,000 passengers and has taught more than 700 students to fly.

Large Attendance At Open House

Miss Margaret W. Weeks, dean of the home economics division at Texas Technological college, announced that 1,085 persons attended the annual open house sponsored by the division and the Home Economics club Friday. The count was 895 at noon Saturday.

Many Texas towns and several New Mexico towns were represented. Miss Mary Katherine Gunter of Conway, Miss Hazel Ann Wilson of Lubbock were managers of the show. The committee members were as follows: Misses Myrtle Lois Pearson, Lorenzo; Almarine Atkinson, Shamrock; Ernestine Story, Tahoka; Mary Eleanor Diggs, Haskell; Dorothy McCuiston, Stamford; Mary Etta Vernon, Roscoe; Argen Hicks, Wellington; Geraldine Conner, Haskell; Mrs. Bennett Benson, Seminole, president of the club.

Demonstrations were carried on during the two-day open house. A skit on correct lighting for the home and the budget to be used in transferring the "old-fashioned" lighting fixtures to the modern ones were given. Also demonstrations on flower arrangements, correct pressing and garments were given.

The theme of the open house was the average West Texas family who lives on an income of $1,160 a year in comparison with a $2,000 income for a family.

Forecast Is Given For State Wheat

AUSTIN, April 13 (AP) — The Austin office of the U. S. department of agriculture today forecast a Texas wheat crop of 20,770,000 bushels, based on April 1 conditions.

The probable production was the lowest forecast since 1936 when only 18,927,000 bushels were harvested. It compared with 26,687,000 bushels average for the five-year period ending in 1938.

Pageant To Be Given Tuesday

"Texas Marches On," a pageant written by the students in the sixth grade room of Mrs. Charles Fagg, with music arranged by Miss Jane Wilson's fourth, fifth, and sixth grade music classes, will be presented Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Senior High auditorium by 366 students.

Students in the fourth grade room of Miss Claudine Cook designed the costumes to be worn, showing the changes since the days when Texas was inhabited by Indians. A committee of students from the sixth grade made all wigs to be worn in the pageant, and a committee from the fifth grade made the stars.

James Allen Is Reader

James Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Allen, 2209 Sixteenth street, will be the reader, commenting on each period and explaining the characters in the pageant. Episodes include the Indian, French, Spanish, Mexican, pioneer, cowboy, lone star, bluebonnet, colonial, and negro.

A chorus of 94 children will supply the musical background for the pageant. Donald Davidson will be the flag bearer for the French episode, and George Morris will be La Salle. In the Spanish episode Irwin Jarrel will be the flag bearer, while Eugene Smart will be the Spanish padre. Martha Jane Bird will sing a solo in Spanish. For the Mexican episode Malcolm Smith will be the flag bearer. Dwight Harden and Betty Jo Tyson will be the dancers.

To Give Exhibition

During the cowboy episode Kathryn Sensabaugh will give a rope twirling exhibition to the tune of music with a Texas flavor. A square dance will be called by James Allen during the pioneer episode. Other dancers will be La Juana Earnest, Ray Simmons, Etoile Graham, Bobby Berger, Mary Lou Lindsey, David Leaverton, and Jackie Bea Mueller.

Betty Jo Tyson will do a tap dance on a drum during the Lone Star Drill. The bluebonnet song is to be sung by Elaine Oliver. Flowers will be Patricia Ann Bailey, Elouida Thomas, Mary Ann Vaughn, Catherine Eubank, Adella Mae Duncan, Patsy Lou O'Dell, Betty Louise Armstrong, Helen Eddins, Mona Rae Powell, Mary Duggan, Charlene Potts, Peggy Davis, Lola Jexel Anderson, Mary Elma Moreman, Kara Sam Dunn, Joyce Worrell, Norma June Edler, Vara Jean McRee, Carol Ann McLarty, Elizabeth Stanley, Ines Towery, and Tommysue Lindsey.

All-School Pageant Is Slated Tuesday

With the presentation of an all-school pageant by Dupre school Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Senior High auditorium, the elementary schools will begin their series of spring music programs. Miss Lois Mangum, coordinator of music in the elementary schools, is in charge of the series of programs, with music teachers in each school responsible for the presentation.

Schedule for all the music programs following Dupre's presentation is as follows: April 23, Adventures of Coronado, Sanders school, to be held on the school lawn, with Miss Christia Cowan in charge. April 26, Negro Minstrel, Central Ward, with Miss Prewitt in charge. April 29, America's Heritage in Song and Dance, George R. Bean school, with Miss Dimple Watson in charge; May 3, a cantata, The Mission Bell, K. Carter school, with Miss Ruth Rylander in charge; May 10, The Romance of Cinderella, a cantata, George M. Hunt, with Miss Mangum in charge; May 14, an operetta, Cinderella in Flowerland, Rosce Wilson, with Miss Ruth Dupree in charge; May 17, Song and Dance festival, Guadalupe, at the Guadalupe building. All programs will be held in Senior High school auditorium unless otherwise indicated.

Lubbock Sea Scouts Are To Launch New Sailboat Soon

BY SID SPEAR

If an enthusiastic man approaches you and asks you, even employs you, to join a boating club, he will be Charles Crenshaw, jr., skipper of the Lubbock chapter of the Sea Scouts, overgrown brother of the Boy Scouts.

Crenshaw and Charles Day, Sea Scout commissioner, are working to add new members to their organization of eight men and boys, called a "ship."

The crew and officers have constructed a 13-foot sailboat, to be launched within the week, if favorable weather remains.

Another To Be Replaced

The boat, designed by Hugh Rowland, 19, freshman at Texas Technological college, will replace for heavy work a nine-foot boat already in use at Buffalo lakes, waterway of the Sea Scouts.

Rowland also designed the nine-foot craft which carries 45 square feet of canvas and will seat two or three persons.

The larger boat will have 126 square feet of sails and will seat six persons, Crenshaw said. More persons can ride by clinging to the bow, he explained.

Speed Is Increased

It probably will attain a speed of 12 to 15 knots as easily as the smaller boat makes 10 to 12 knots, Crenshaw said. (A knot is one nautical mile, or 6,080.27 feet, an hour).

When the 13-footer is launched, the small boat will be reconditioned.

Rating is given in the ship, equivalent of the Boy Scout troop, as apprentice, ordinary Sea Scout, able Sea Scout and quartermaster, highest rank attainable and equal to the parent organization's Eagle Scout.

Officers are yoeman, officer of the deck, boatswain, second mate, first mate and skipper.

Keeps All Records

The yoeman keeps all records of the ship in the "log." Officer of the deck is in charge of meetings and musters the crew on board. He also appoints boys to "pipe" the officers on board.

Duties of the second mate include caring for oars, food and other supplies. First mate is in full charge of meetings, planned and directed by the crew. The skipper directs all officers and serves in an advisory capacity.

Sea Scouts receive training in various phases of navigation, including compass steering and relative bearing. The latter consists of setting the compass on a certain point, determining the variation of the wind and natural elements, which in any way make the ship vary, and finally steering a course designed to land the ship at a desired point.

Must Set Sails

Another thing the scout must master is the setting of sails for certain winds. The mainsail is designed to catch the wind and carry the boat in the direction desired. The small sail on the 13-footer, called the Genoa jib, assists in steering the ship and helps catch part of the main winds.

This ship will accommodate a 20-foot mast. The small ship is less stable, with less canvas, but with a small jib to assist in steering. Both crafts have ordinary rudders and tiller, steering device.

The larger boat is convertible, to be used either with sails or outboard motor. Both are in the moth competition class—less than 15 feet in length.

Sea Scouts in Lubbock are Lester Scharnberg, Frederick Zeitz, William George, J. C. Powkell, Bobby Hendrickson, Harold Thrower, Robert McKinnon, Lee Vessels. Browny Hamilton is chairman of the Sea Scout committee and Rowland is first mate. Members of the ship meet each Thursday night in the basement of the First Methodist church, Crenshaw said.

Professor Makes Great Discovery Of New Chemical Element; It Is Called "Woman"

Discovery of a new chemical element, WOMAN, was reported to Texas Tech chemical engineers by a professor of plant industry in conclusion of a lecture on chemistry of the soil.

Analysis of the specimen was as follows:

1. A member of the human family.

2. Occurrence: Can be found anywhere man exists. Seldom exists in the free or natural state. Quality depends upon state in which found.

The Physical Properties

3. Physical properties: All colors and sizes. Always appears in a disguised condition. Surface of faces seldom unprotected by a coat of paint or a film of powder (composition in material). Boils at nothing and may freeze at any moment. However, it melts when properly treated. Very bitter if not used correctly.

4. Chemical properties: Extremely active. Possesses great affinity for gold, silver, platinum, and precious stones of all kinds. Violent reactions when left alone by man. Ability to absorb all kinds of expensive foods at any time. Undissolved by liquid, but activity increases when saturated with spirit solutions. Sometimes yields to pressure. Turns green when placed next to a better-appearing sample. Ages rapidly. Fresh variety has great magnetic attraction.

Note: Highly expensive and likely to be dangerous in inexperienced hands.

Student Groups To Meet Here

Student branches of two engineering societies will meet on Texas Technological college campus Friday and Saturday. Approximately 300 delegates from six states are expected to attend.

Colleges to be represented at the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, southwest group, are Rice institute, Texas A. & M., University of Texas, Southern Methodist university, Oklahoma A. & M., University of Oklahoma, University of New Mexico and University of Arkansas.

Arrangements Made

Schools offering engineering work in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, New Mexico and Texas will send delegates to the American Institute of Electrical Engineers meeting for the seventh geographical district.

Arrangements for the ASME session are being made by H. F. Godeke, head professor of mechanical engineering at Tech; those for the AIEE by C. V. Bullen, head professor of electrical engineering.

Professor Godeke said the two scientific groups would meet in joint session only once, at a 7:15 o'clock dinner Friday night in the lounge of the newly-constructed boys dormitory. Dean W. R. Woolrich of the University of Texas will be the speaker.

Some estimates ran the expected delegation for the two meets to 400, Professor Godeke said.

DIVORCE ASKED

LOS ANGELES, April 13. (U.P.)—Mrs. Barney Oldfield, wife of the former automobile racing driver, today sought a divorce on charges of cruelty and asked for a share in a San Fernando valley country club which Oldfield owns. They were married Dec. 9, 1925.

New Home FFA Group Has Many Activities

New Home Future Farmers of America chapter has been keeping active of late.

Green Hands of the chapter have been carrying out a beautification project for New Home Baptist church, setting out grass, shrubbery and trees. FFA boys set forms for a concrete walk.

The chapter will hold a third annual father and son banquet Thursday night in the gymnasium.

Seven calves were bought last week for feeding. They will be exhibited next spring at the South Plains Junior Fat Stock show in Lubbock. Jack Spence, H. Joe Schwartz and Joe Mack Armentrout each bought a calf, Loyd Russell McCormick and James Bennett two.

Catfish Enjoy Sport Of Chasing Rabbits

BUCKINGHAM, Va., April 13 (AP)—James river catfish, with a reputation for truculence and bigness, have quit making news by spitting in fishermen's eyes. They've gone to chasing rabbits.

That is the explanation given by Sportsman John Wood for the discovery of a half-grown rabbit in the stomach of a six-and-a-half pound catfish he pulled out of the river.

Dallas Business Men To Stage Three Big Programs During Visit To Lubbo

Special Train Due April 23

DALLAS, April 13. (Special) — Dallas business leaders will pay a personal visit to Lubbock Tuesday, April 23, assuming the role of hosts at three entertainments to which the people of Lubbock are invited.

General Chairman George I. Plummer of the 39th annual Dallas Business Tour today announced that all arrangements for the Dallas executives' visit in Lubbock have been completed. Seventy-five business men, a band and a group of radio stars, together with the technicians and railroad crew will be aboard the Business Tour special train when it arrives in Lubbock at 4:30 p. m. April 23.

Four Leaders Head Group

Presidents of four of Dallas outstanding institutions will head the list of men in the Business Tour party. They are President J. B. Adoue, jr. of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce; President Harry Seay of the State Fair of Texas; President J. Howard Hayden of the junior board of the State Fair; and President Lawrence Pollock of the Dallas Manufacturers and Wholesalers association. Plummer will be the official head of the party, with Ben Critz, vice president and general manager of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, and Bob Bourdene, manager of the Dallas Manufacturers and Wholesalers association, as his assistants.

Radio stars accompanying the Business Tour will include the Early Birds orchestra from Station WFAA; the Plainsmen's quartet, the Cass County Kids and Peg Moreland, ballad singer, together with an orchestra under direction of Wilbur Ard of the WFAA staff.

Program To Be Crowded

The program in Lubbock will be crowded, continuing from 4:30 p. m. until midnight, and including a parade, street entertainment, a night concert and a dance, Mr. Plummer said.

Arriving at 4:30 p. m., the Dallas party will parade to the ceremony center where it will be welcomed by a representative of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. A member of the Dallas party will respond. Following the response, the Dallas band and radio performers will entertain until 5:30 p. m. in front of the Hotel Lubbock, with everyone in Lubbock invited.

The public is again invited to the concert and variety show in the Senior High school auditorium from 7:30 to 9 p. m. at which the Dallas Business Tour will again be hosts. After the show in the auditorium, the Business Tour party will meet invited guests at a dance at the Hilton hotel from 9 until 12, sponsored by the chamber of commerce, and the music will be provided by the 16-piece orchestra and floor show.

'Ma' Announces

governor of Texas.

Since 1935, when she retired at the end of her second term, she has been living quietly at the Ferguson home in Austin, exhibiting little interest in politics.

His Career Active

On the other hand, the picturesque Ferguson, known to multitudes as "Farmer Jim," for nearly 30 years a swirling storm center of Texas politics, also twice governor and during his second term impeached and removed from office, has continued actively concerned with political happenings in Texas and the nation. Recently he has been making speeches in advocacy of a third term for the president.

Forty-two years old when first elected governor in 1914, he now is 68. Portly in figure, his hair white and thinning, he still, as in his driving campaigning days, wears coal-black suits, black bow ties and black, broad-brimmed, round hats.

Campaign Mapped

In making public his wife's statement, Mr. Ferguson said talks would be made over the radio by both Mrs. Ferguson and himself "perhaps in two weeks" and thereafter the campaign would probably include radio addresses, stump speeches at strategic points and newspaper advertising. He does not plan to start again his weekly political paper, "The Ferguson Forum," he said.

Mrs. Ferguson was the fifth important candidate to enter the 1940 gubernatorial contest, the others being O'Daniel, who is asking a second term of two years, Jerry Sadler, a member of the railroad commission, Harry Hines, a member of the state highway commission, and Albert Derden, a state representative.

Reason For Running

"After due deliberation and in response to the request of many thousands of voters, residing in all parts of the state, who say that my services are wanted and needed, I have decided to run for governor," Mrs. Ferguson's statement said.

"My record for four years is well known, and I refer to it as evidence of my qualification to fill that important position. If the people want my services, they have a right under the law to elect me, and in such event it becomes my duty to again give my services to the state.

Condition Needs Change

"While no good purpose can be served by indulging in criticism of what has or has not been done, yet I believe all the people will agree that the present condition of the state is such as to demand our best thought and action in restoring our people to sanity and our condition to prosperity.

"Just now the people are not so much concerned about the personal ambition of somebody to hold office as they are about who can best serve the state in filling the office."

OFFICIAL DIES

DALLAS, April 13. (AP) — Tench Kirkpatrick Webb, 47, assistant Dallas county auditor, died today after an illness of three months.

Ready Writer Winners

Results of ready writers competition were presented to Dr. Garlin Saturday by R. A. Mills, director of debate, after grading of papers submitted Friday.

Winners listed in first, second and third order were:

Class A High schools — Bonnie Faye Goodrich, Plainview Senior High school who won the state grade school ready writing championship in 1935 and who won the state championship in high school ready writing in 1938 and 1939; Betty O'Mara, Lubbock; Betty Jean Jenkins, Lorenzo.

Class B high schools—Dorothy Del Oats, Southland; Marjorie Heneky, Hale Center; Della Dean Baxton, Patton Springs.

Ward schools—Dorothy Watkins, Sudan; Rox Ann Shipp, Shallowater; Roberta Underwood, Brownfield.

Rural schools—Johnie Mae Wilson, Irick; Roxie Pierce, Bledsoe; Etta Thelma Day, Harris.

Best Typers Named

Winners in typing were Ophelia May Beall, Lubbock High school first; Melba Starrett, Dickens, second; Marilee Jones, Lubbock, third; Cleddie Edwards, Crosbyton, fourth and Eleanor Williams, Crosbyton, fifth. Mrs. J. W. Jackson was director.

An all-star cast was chosen by Miss Ruth Pirtle, judge of the one-act play contest. Members were:

Girls—Mary Earl Alexander, first; Jeanne Simmons, Tahoka, second; Reta Jane Norman, Plainview, third; Lillie Rice, Spade, fourth.

Boys — Jack Bromley, Plainview, first; Dewey Mears, Levelland, second; E. R. Davis, Roosevelt, third; Lehmer Graham, Lubbock, fourth.

Miss Pendleton Directs

Honorable mention—L. A. Storrs, Cleveland; Cobb, Mona Pierce and Wanda Sue Wilhite, Lubbock; Kay Eggleston, Levelland; Junior Haws, Post.

Shorthand winners were announced in the following order: June Scott, Slaton; Margaret Hollister, Plainview; Dorothy Day, Lubbock; Fern Kindred, Muleshoe and Helen Johnson, Slaton.

Miss Annah Jo Pendleton was one act play director. Plainview placed first, Tahoka ranked second and Levelland third, in the contest.

To Play Off Tie

Other points by schools: Olton, 20; Sudan, 20; Post, 15; Southland, 15; Irick (Floyd county), 15; Harris (Terry), 15; Pep (Hockley), 13; Lockney 12 1-2; Union (Dawson) 12; Hale Center, 10; Midway (Terry), 10; Bledsoe (Cochran), 10; Shallowater, 10; Tahoka, 10; Levelland 7 1-2; Abernathy, 7; Sandhill (Floyd), 7; Bellview (Hale), 7; Leatherwood (Crosby), 7; Prenship, 5; Woody (Dawson), 5; Anton, 5; Morton, 5; Longview (Bailey), 5; Patton Springs, 5; Daugherty (Floyd), 5; Lorenzo, 5; Big Four (Crosby), 5; Idalou, 2 1-2; Muleshoe, 2 1-2; Dickens, 2; Joe Bailey, 2; Johnson (Terry), 2; County Line (Crosby), 2; Wells (Lynn), 2 and Edgins (Floyd), 1.

Brownfield and Roosevelt tied for third place and right to five points in volley. Those teams will play off the tie Monday afternoon at the college to determine which receives the points.

New West Texas Well Continues Rapid Flow

SAN ANGELO, April 13. (APAL) — Soma Oil and Gas syndicate's wildcat on the extreme western Crockett county ranch of W. T. Noelke, San Angelo, today maintained its promise of opening a major West Texas oil field, flowing an estimated 100 to 150 barrels of 28.6 gravity oil hourly through open eight inch casing, with the total depth 1,070 feet.

Production was estimated between 500 and 600 barrels hourly for five hours after the well blew in shortly before noon Friday. It dropped sharply late in the day but revived during the night and apparently settled to an estimated 100 barrels hourly.

Oil ran down the canyon for one and one half miles to within one mile of the Pecos river before being stopped by earthen dikes. An Otis high pressure crew prepared to kill the well this afternoon.

Mrs. Harriman Congratulated

WASHINGTON, April 13. (AP) — Secretary of State Cordell Hull today cabled congratulations to the United States' only woman diplomat, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, for her courageous and efficient work in war-harried Norway.

Hull's message was relayed to Mrs. Harriman through the American legation in Stockholm, it said.

"I am greatly relieved to learn that you and your party are safe and in good health. I congratulate you on the courage, energy and efficiency with which you are performing your duties under such trying and dangerous conditions. It is the best traditions of our diplomatic service."

Mrs. Harriman had telephoned Fred Sterling, American minister at Stockholm, at 11 a. m. Norwegian time, saying that she was safe and well. Sterling reported she seemed "very cheerful and full of energy."

Texas Avenue

No Approval For "Jog"

The city commission has taken the declared position that if one property owner is paid, all must be paid on an identical basis. A further contention of the commission is that enhancement of property values resulting from development of the avenue would be several times greater than the value of the 10 feet surrendered. The commission has declared further that it will not approve narrow and jogging paving on any portion of the thoroughfare.

Even 50 feet, according to expressed belief of commissioners, will be none too wide because of the virtual certainty that a considerable portion of the traffic now moving on Avenue H from the Slaton and Tahoka highways would be absorbed by Texas South Avenue H long has been regarded as presenting one of the most serious of the city's traffic problems, and is one which has been growing steadily.

Lights Depend On Paving

The time when "white way" lighting may be installed on the avenue depends largely on when the paving is completed, according to the expressed opinion of officials. Estimates of cost have been obtained, however, and the expectation is that the lights will follow closely upon the completed paving.

While the details are still to be decided, one plan discussed with favor by the commission for Texas and other thoroughfares relates to highly illuminating lights of non-glare type erected upon ornamental metal posts.

Baylor Co-Eds Plant Their Garden Inside

WACO, April 13. (AP)—Ruth Beall of Rusk and Mary Margaret Bursley of Humble, Baylor university co-eds, do not worry about what the frost may do to their truck crop.

Their orange crate garden in a 10 by 12 room at Memorial dormitory includes radishes, red peppers, hyacinths and violets, but they withdrew from the onion business.

"No market," said Mary Margaret.

Man Forced To Wait On Fire Department

BONHAM, April 13. (AP) — Line forms to the right—Charles Wilson had to take his turn with the fire department here during a thunderstorm.

Lightning struck his house, and he telephoned the fire department.

"Busy," said the operator, "fighting a lightning fire at Mrs. John Nevill's house."

Mr. Wilson waited.

CHILD BURNED

ATHENS, April 13. (AP)—Billy Jean Clanton, 10, year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Clanton of Murchison, was burned at the family home today. She was brought to a hospital here in critical condition.

Fraudulent Payment Of Poll Taxes Hinted

WASHINGTON, April 13. (AP)—Chairman Gillette (D-Iowa) said today that his special Senate elections committee had received complaints that wholesale payments of poll taxes were being used to influence selection of delegations to national presidential nominating conventions.

The senator said the sources of the complaints, in formation confidential, told after the committee acted on a statement that it appeared to be a very fertile field of investigation.

No one factor could be used more to influence the election than these poll tax statutes, he said. For instance, in a state with a poll tax of $2.50, boosters for a presidential candidate could go in and swing an important bloc of votes by spending $5,000.

Gillette said investigations had been asked in all states where payment of poll taxes are a requisite for voting.

There are 39 states which have a poll tax of some sort, but payment of the tax before voting is required in only about half this number, chiefly southern and western states.

Father Is Held For Killing Of His Son

HOUGHTON, Mich., April 13. (AP)—Abraham White, 53, was held in the county jail here today awaiting arraignment on a charge of murder in the mercy killing of his deaf, dumb and blind son.

Sheriff John G. Salmi said White, a railroad section worker, had confessed killing his son, Frederick, 15, yesterday by submerging his head in a wash boiler of water until he drowned.

The sheriff said the boy, the couple's only child, was mentally incompetent and suffered frequent convulsions.

Amarillo Man Named Jaycees' President

GALVESTON, April 13. (AP)—Binford Arney of Amarillo today was elevated to the presidency of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, and El Paso was named the 1941 convention city.

The convention ended with the president's banquet and inaugural ball tonight, at which W. O. Cooper of Dallas, retiring president, gave his farewell address.

Other officers named included Mark Fuchs of New Braunfels and Howard Carrell of Fort Worth, national directors.

Brother Of Late Tech President Stricken

TERRELL, April 13. (AP)—E. Y. Horn, who retired from newspaper work about five years ago, was stricken with a paralytic stroke at his home here today.

His condition tonight was described as serious.

He is a brother of the late Dr. P. W. Horn, who was president of Texas Technological college at Lubbock.

Horn, former principal of the Terrell High school, abandoned scholastic work 40 years ago and served on Terrell, Houston and Sherman newspapers in an editorial capacity.

Civil Actions To Be Heard By Judge Pitts

A jury will report at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon to Judge E. L. in 99th district court to hear civil actions. Judge Pitts will call settings at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

There are approximately six cases set for hearing this week. No jury cases were heard during the week ending Saturday.

THANKS TO WIND

SUGAR CITY, Colo., April 13. (AP)—A stiff wind blew some of Lake Meredith's waters up onto the prairie today, and when the blow stopped farmers gathered 30 truck loads of carp left by the receding water and planted them in their cornhills as fertilizer.

REELECT TEACHERS

CROSBYTON — Fifteen teachers were elected by the school board for 1940-41. Others will be named later. A negro teacher also was chosen.

Tech Festival Is Planned

Between 650 and 700 girls all of the Texas Technological college physical education department will participate in a festival to be presented in Tech stadium the night of April 22.

Mrs. Bert Huffman, an assistant professor in the physical education department of the college, is chairman of the program arrangements committee and is assisted by Mrs. George Langford, head of the department, and Miss Margaret Baskin, an instructor.

In the performance the girls will attempt to show and explain the development of physical education in the United States from the nation's early history. Mrs. Langford said. The European influence on the training also will be brought out.

Free To Public

As the story of the development of physical training is read, the girls will perform. Theme of the festival will be "From A to Z in Physical Education."

Miss Nina Ruth Todd, accompanist, will be in charge of rendition of an all girls' orchestra which will play the night of the festival.

The purpose of a festival of this kind is three-fold, Mrs. Langford said. It is to be educational and entertaining as well as a setting as a method of introducing more cooperation among the physical education students.

The performance will be open to the public and no admission fee will be charged, it was announced.

sphere?"

He said the questions might be submitted by resolution of his committee.

Dies said he had information that the "communist party in the United States had orders to be ready to supply up to 15,000 for use in a Mexican revolution."

The attempt to tie to the American veterans of the Spanish civil war, including the former members of the Abraham Lincoln brigade, he declared.

Pamphlets Found

He added that pamphlets had been picked up in Texas cities along the Mexican border that told Mexican residents of the United States that their homeland was being threatened by "fascism."

"This of course is just part of their propaganda," Dies said. "Actually the nazi agents are cooperating with the Russian agents to put over this revolution. They are using all sorts of means to get support in this country."

Sympathy For Allies

The Texan said that Germany and Russia believe that "trouble in Mexico would divert us from everything else."

"They know there is a great deal of sympathy in this country for the Allied cause and they do not want us to help in any way.

"They also figure that if we ever actually got into the war it would be easier to fight it from Mexico."

Report "Authentic"

Dies who said the report came from apparently "authentic" sources declared the committee would develop all United States angles. One of these angles, he said, is a report that agents of Moscow and Berlin intend to recruit soldiers in this country for their coup, just as volunteers were recruited here for service in the Spanish Civil war.

Urging that all federal law enforcement agencies be on guard against such recruiting, Dies said that the sources of his information included "elective officials" in the republic and "one or two United States senators."

Forces Kept Alive

Dies asserted that 10,000 communists already had moved into Mexico from Spain and France and "the same crowd is perfecting plans to do in Mexico the same thing they did in Spain."

He said the outside forces would attempt to swing the July national election and thus win their objective by civil means but were prepared to resort to open revolt.

For use in the latter eventuality, the chairman declared, Russia is keeping alive "the same organizations" which were active in this country during the Spanish civil war.

Those bearing the latter two endorsements were cashed at service stations and stores.

Sumner was charged after four service station attendants gave officials the license number of his automobile. They said the driver had given them forged checks.

The suspect said in the statement he had created the names used in the endorsements and had given them to a bookkeeper as those of customers. Payments were made in accordance.

In addition to the nazi warships, the British reported seven German supply and ammunition ships were sunk in Wednesday's action, described by First Lord of the Admiralty Winston Churchill as worthy of any in the proud records of the British navy.

Cossack Makes Record

Participating in today's expertly maneuvered fight was the British destroyer Cossack which, with admiralty backing, took matters into its own hands and charged into

GERMANS GAIN

STOCKHOLM, April 14 (Sunday)— Overcoming brief Norwegian resistance, German troops early today erupted at least three more towns on the southeast tip of Norway and continued their drive northward toward Oslo.

Reports from Norwegian troops and refugees reaching Sweden said the town of Frederikstad had surrendered after short fighting that Sarpsborg was in German hands and that the town of Halden, Frederikshald on the Swedish border had been surrendered by the Norwegians.

Norway's territorial waters Feb. 16 to rescue 300 British merchant sailors held aboard the nazi prison ship Altmark, at one time an auxiliary to the now-scuttled sea raider Admiral Graf Spee.

Here is the admiralty's calmly-worded story of today's battle.

"Since the attack upon German destroyers in Narvik on Wednesday by the second destroyer flotilla, this flotilla with reinforcements, has been blockading the enemy in Narvik fjord.

Extremely Successful

"This morning at about noon HMS Warspite, accompanied by a strong force of destroyers using mine-sweeping and other appliances, advanced up the fjord to attack the

GERMAN CHALLENGE

BERLIN, April 13. (AP) — Germany challenged the full power of her foes tonight to break her steadily-reinforced hold on Norway and Denmark as she consolidated her gains amid furious British thrusts from the air and acclaimed the sinking of two British submarines by her own warbirds.

The German position in Scandinavia is impregnable against the mightiest blows the enemy possibly can deliver, authorized commentators proclaimed.

German destroyers, some of them already damaged, who were sheltering in the harbor, and also to engage any shore batteries which might have been erected.

According to reports which have been received from the commander in chief, Vice Admiral Whitworth, hoisting his flag in the Warspite, commanded the attack, which was extremely successful.

Enemy opposition was not found to be remarkably severe.

A Field Howitzer which had been mounted ashore was put out of actions by the fire of HMS Cossack.

Destroyers Shattered

"Four German destroyers were shattered and sunk in Narvik bay.

"Three others fled up Rumbahs fjord, a small inlet eight or nine miles long behind Narvik town.

"These also were pursued and destroyed.

"At the moment of issuing this communique, the admiralty is not precisely informed as to conditions in Narvik town.

"Parties of men, possibly German soldiers, have been seen escaping from it over the hills, and further details are awaited.

"This destruction of seven of the enemy destroyers was not achieved without some loss. Three destroyers were damaged in the fight, but not seriously. The British loss of life is believed to have been very small.

"No estimate can be made of the number of German losses in men, but the seven destroyers sunk have counted over 1,000 men.

"The admiralty has sent the following congratulations to Commander-in-Chief Admiral Sir Charles ... to Vice Admiral Whitworth, the officers and men engaged in the vigorous, daring and skilfully conducted attack, which may be said to clarify the situation on the coast of the Norwegian coast.

"Operations are still proceeding."

Super Seamanship

To maneuver a warship of the 20,600-ton Warspite, with eight 15-inch guns into the narrow rock-studded Fjord leading to Narvik called for super seamanship.

The Stockholm radio last night reported that several large British warships were effecting the rescue of Narvik under heavy bombardment from German warplanes and land forces. Heavy losses were reported on both sides.

The prospect also arose that the men fleeing Narvik, if not rescued by German troops, would run into Norwegian forces reported advancing in the vicinity.

heap of politicking in Candidates go to lots of funerals and send flowers to more.

Some make flowery speeches, some talk seriously, some depend on wit and friends.

This year voters hope candidates will hire Lawrence Tibbett, Kirsten Flagstad, Benny Goodman, Guy Lombardo or Sally Rand to brighten up the electioneering.

Hill-billy music and cowboy laments get tiresome to the city folks, especially if every candidate uses them to beat the bushes for votes.

Uses Poetry And Hymns

Governor O'Daniel is also using poetry and hymns on his radio programs, too.

Last Mother's day he used this salutation:

"Hello there mother, you little sweetheart. How in the world are you anyhow, you little bunch of sweetness. This is W. Lee o'Daniel speaking, but I am taking the liberty of speaking for all the boys and girls in Texas today."

His Christmas card, bearing a picture of himself, Mrs. O'Daniel, his sons, Pat and Mike, and his pretty, daughter, Molly, began this way:

"While this world with war is raging, for no reason so far known, Women, men and children dying, from their homes by bombers blown—"

Talks Of Industrializing

O'Daniel talks about industrializing the state. He points out Kansas City steaks are cut from Texas beef, that Boston shoe leather is made from Texas cow-hides.

Time was when the man who could holler the loudest and longest got somewhere.

Now he needs a band to drown out hecklers and questions and keep the crowd in a festive mood.

O'Daniel's 1938 opponents said everytime somebody asked how he was going to pay the old folks $30 a month pensions, that the hillbilly band drowned out the answer.

Old people are still waiting for those pensions.

A snuff dipper is in the race now. He is Jerry Sadler, a son of the soil.

Sadler tells the folks at the forks of the creek about the time he pulled out a snuff box in front of President Roosevelt.

Never Dipped Before Lunch

President Roosevelt smiled and answered, Sadler says, that he never dipped just before lunch.

Two years ago Sadler was almost unknown politically. He won his race for railroad commissioner hands down. He had a hill-billy band.

It played "Leather Britches," "Red River Valley," and all the old breakdowns.

His supporters claim he is "balling-the-jack" in the governor's race. That Texas phrase means he is running lickety-split.

Another poet and song writer is Sign Painter Womack of Dallas. A song he wrote a year ago "Back To Marble Falls, Texas" is his theme song.

When the summer gets as hot as a smoking pistol, the voters sometime throw rotten eggs and mushy fruit at candidates they dislike.

But the campaigners keep right on viewing with alarm and pointing with pride.

Campaigning is an art.

Oldtimers like "Farmer" Jim Ferguson often walked into a field to shake the hand of a man at a plow. Courtesy decreed the candidate should walk to the turnrow with the farmer, maybe even taking a hand at the plow.

Some of the campaigners knew how to play up the mortgage on the old homestead so that the strong clinched their fists and the weak wept.

Those were the days when men talked loud and long.

Now it is different.

Candidates for sheriff sip tea with women voters.

To places like Cut-and-Shoot, Caf-Claw, Bugtussle, Lost Mule and Elysian Fields candidates send sound trucks ahead to announce "speakings" and play phonograph records.

Crowd Has Gathered

When the speaker arrives the crowd has gathered.

Farmers in overalls stand with thumbs hooked in suspenders or hands jammed in hip pockets. Business men, with big lodge emblems on watch fobs and in labels, ranchers, in boots and big hats, and oil field workers listen.

It takes a glib tongue to please all of the people all of the time.

A man has to be careful what he calls an opponent.

Somebody might put the slug on him.

They tell a story of a former governor who, it was rumored, sold pardons.

A father, it seems, offered the governor $1,000 to pardon an errant son.

The governor, of course, did not take the money. But he led the father to a corral and offered to sell him a mule for $1,000.

"And what would I do with a mule?" demanded the father.

"Well," said the governor, "yore son might ride him home."

The stories about candidates are legion.

There have been many experts at lampooning in Texas campaigns but Jim Ferguson probably topped them all.

In one campaign, his wife's opponent was so careless of his English that the newspaper boys swore the platform from which he spoke was red with the blood of murdered king's English.

Foxy old Jim said the candidate was plain ignorant.

"Why," said Farmer Jim, "he's so ignorant he spelled g-u-n over the telephone like this:

"G—like in Jupiter, U—like in onion, N—like in pneumonia."

Friends of the candidates generally handle the cash.

Friends Not So Restricted

Friends are not so restricted. They mooch plenty off business men and spend it where it will do the most good.

Many a ten gallon hat, which really won't hold more than a gallon, has been tossed in the ring since the dogwood bloomed. Texas candidates generally hold off announcing until the dogwood blooms because it is bad luck to announce before.

One of the earliest in the field is State Representative Ross Hardin, candidate for railroad commissioner. His radio program features a quartet of relatives from his home at Prairie Hill, Texas.

Songs are dedicated to uncles, aunts and cousins. It is a family program.

The theme song goes like this:

"Put on your old gray bonnet
With your poll tax upon it
And we'll hitch old Ross Hardin
To the shay on election day—"
Who will win?
Native Texans say:
"Only fools and strangers try to predict our weather."
That goes for politics, too.

New Garbage Trucks Will Be Purchased

Authorization for purchase of two new trucks for the city garbage department was announced at the city hall Saturday.

The equipment will increase the garbage gathering facilities of the department by one-half, officials announced.

The new trucks, together with special bodies still to be purchased, probably will be ready for service within the next 10 days, officials were advised.

Lowest of six bids to supply the truck units was announced as that of E. K. Hufstedler and sons, GMC dealer, at $726.67 each. Next lowest bid was $795, officials said.

Estimated cost of the special bodies is approximately $700 each, officials said.

Announcement also was made that the Hufstedler bids were the lowest to supply a panel truck for the fire department and a pickup for the water department. His bids were $772.80 for the panel truck and $545 for the pickup.

Lubbock County Women Join Field Army On Cancer Control; Cite Proclamation

Mrs. A. T. Biggers, who has been named a captain in the Women's Field Army for the Control of Cancer, Saturday named lieutenants in Lubbock county and cites a proclamation by President Roosevelt setting aside April as cancer control month.

Lieutenants are: Mrs. J. S. Johnson, Lubbock; Mrs. A. L. Faubion, Monroe; Mrs. O. R. Copeland, Slide; Mrs. S. H. Robinson, Shallowater; Mrs. Audrey Jones, Idalou, and Mrs. Henry Hollis, Slaton.

Mrs. Volney W. Taylor of Brownsville, past president of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, is state commander.

President Roosevelt points out that he is authorized by congress to issue annually a proclamation naming April as cancer control month and the dedication of this stated time to a voluntary national program for the control of cancer. He is "anxious that the people of the entire country will be acquainted with the progress that is being made by the federal government through the United States Public Health Service, by certain of the states and by other agencies, as well as by individuals, in the struggle against this dread disease which is second among the causes of death in the United States:

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do proclaim the month of April, 1940, as Cancer Control month, and do invite the governors of the several states, territories, and possessions of the United States to issue similar proclamations; and in order that the people throughout the land may have informed knowledge concerning the prevalence of cancer and of the means which can be taken to control it, I also invite the members of the medical profession, individually and through their associations, other scientific groups, all organs of opinion, including the press, the radio, and the motion picture, and all others, who have the interest of the public health at heart, to unite during the month of April, 1940, in concerted effort to impress upon the people of the United States the necessity of a national program for the control of cancer to the end that suffering may be relieved and life preserved."

Westerners Inaugurate Spring Grid Training At Chapman Field Monda

Olton Topples Lubbock From District Track-Field Thron

Tahoka's Minor 'Man Of Hour' In Huge Meet

By JOE PIERCE

Max Minor's scurrying feet cornered all individual honors in sight in the District Three Interscholastic league track and field meet at Tech stadium Saturday, but consistent second, third and fourth placing by Olton's well-rounded team added up 25 points to win the meet, displacing Lubbock's Westerners for the first time in four years.

Minor led the field in 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles and broad jump for 20 points that gave Tahoka second place for the day. Lubbock's Westerners, champions for the last three years, tumbled to third with 13 points.

Relay Decides Meet

The meet reached its climax in the mile relay, final event on the card. Olton and Tahoka were all even with 20 points, although at this point the Mustangs hadn't yet won a first place. Both had teams in the relay, which was run in two heats.

Lockney and Lubbock took the lead in the first heat, but the Hedges twins running the third and fourth laps, took it right back and finished ahead of the field easily. Tahoka finished far behind and out of the money.

The twins between them placed in five events, besides the relay. Both finished in the century, Willis chasing Minor in and Willard coming in fourth. Willard finished second in the shot put and 440-yard dash and Willis again chased Minor in the 220-yard dash.

All Records Stand

For the second time in two days, the Tahoka Terror equalled the 100-yard dash mark, but his assault on three other records failed. The 220-yard low hurdles mark of 25.2 seconds which he set in the preliminaries Friday stood as he captured that event in 25.6. He was .3 of a second off the 22.8 second mark he showed in the 220-yard dash last year. In the broad jump his best leap was nine inches short of the record.

James Barker registered Lubbock's only first place, an easy victory in the half-mile. Other point-makers for Lubbock were: James Kelley, fourth in 120-yard high hurdles; Frank Redwine, third in 220-yard dash; Ernest Jarrett, third in mile run; and the relay team, Redwine, Barker, Jimmy Williamson and Milner Thorne, with a second place.

Times Are Slow

Other than the century-dash mark, tied for the sixth time since it was set in 1923 by Jenkins Ater of Lubbock, no records were endangered. Most of the really good boys—Minor, McKnight and the Hedges twins—were entered in so many events they were too tired to hang up their best times in yesterday's races.

District Tennis Winners Named

Post, Levelland and Lamesa took top honors in the District 3 Interscholastic league tennis finals at Texas Tech Saturday, Lubbock High's surprising sophomore—John De-Garmo, the boy they tried to eliminate before his time—finally bowing out in a battle against insurmountable odds.

De-Garmo, only 15-years-old and one of the finest prospects ever to wield a raquet for the Westerners upheld Coach Ross Ayers' team's colors until the finals of the boys' singles when a last set rally failed to last and he went down fighting before Levelland's R. B. Young, 8-6, 6-4, 0-6, 6-2.

Eliminated Mudgett

Earlier in the day, De-Garmo had eliminated W. H. Mudgett of Slaton, 6-0, 6-3, instead of the reverse as was originally reported. The new champion measured O'Donnell's Pierce in his semi-final test, 6-4, 6-3.

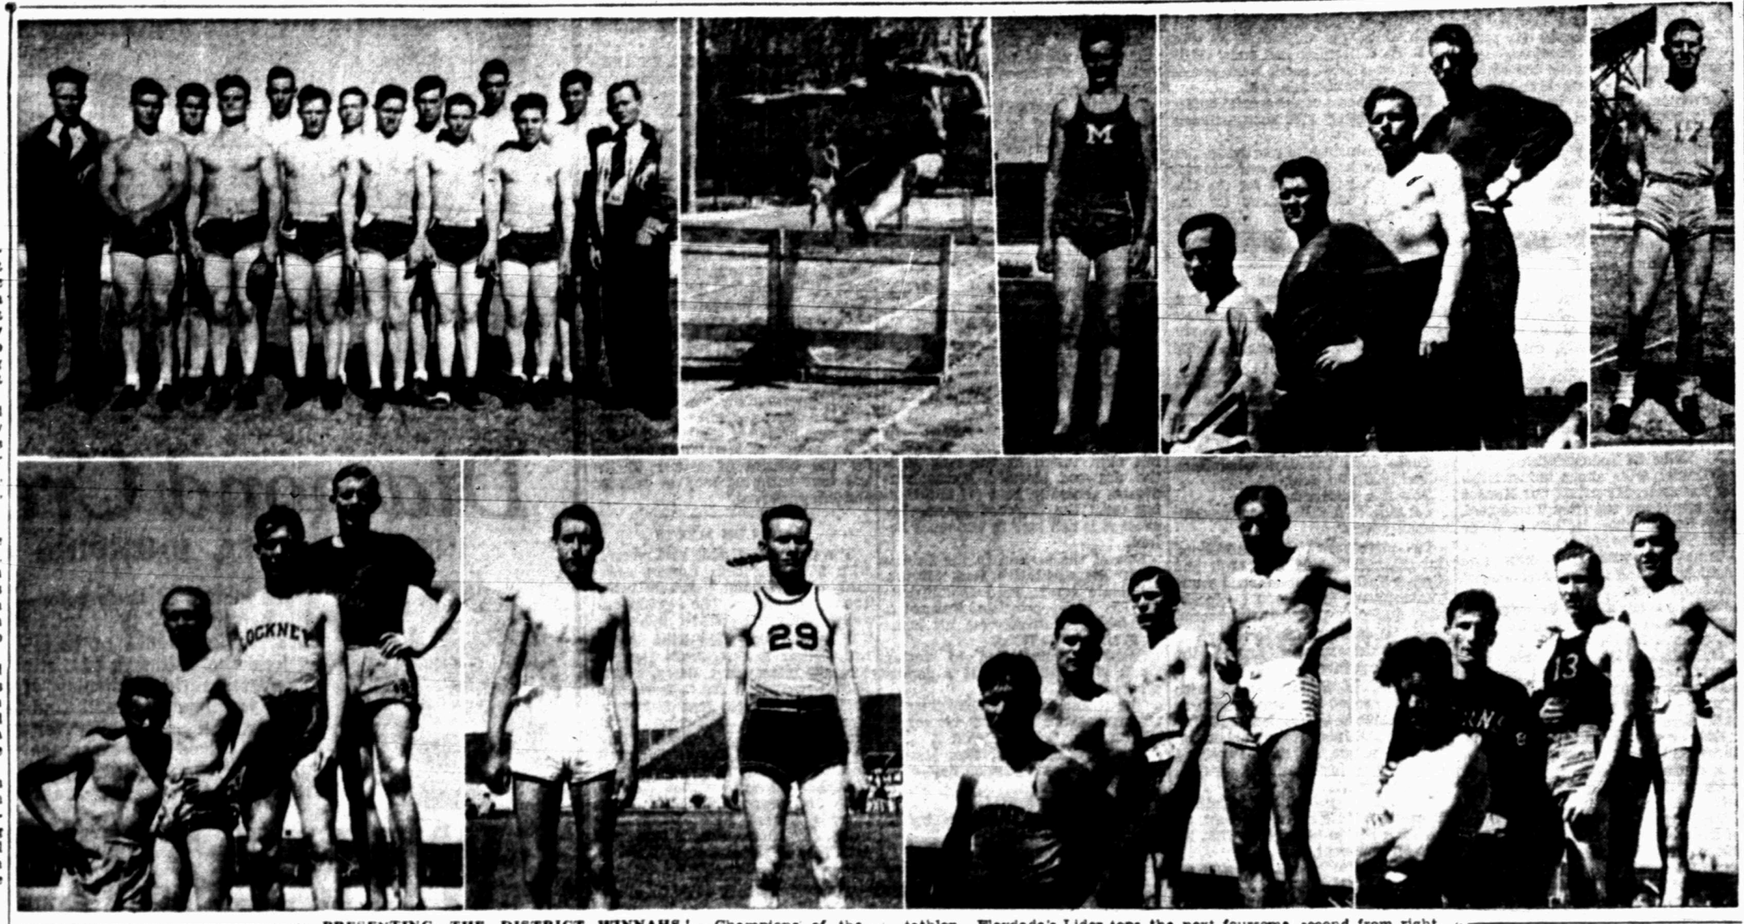

Boys senior doubles honors were annexed by Post's impressive combination of Edwin Smith and Irvin Cross in another "scorcher." The count over losers Horace J. Blanchard and Melvin Dutton of Sudan, was 6-4, 6-4, 3-6, 4-6, 6-3. The Post twosome handled Meadow's John Moorehead and partner in the semi-finals, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, while Sudan had taken out O'Donnell in its semi-final test, 6-2, 6-3.

Post's Bird Triumphs

Participating in district competition for the third consecutive season, Mary K. Bird, dynamic Post protege, captured the girls' singles blue ribbon, 6-1, 6-4. Her opponent, Sibyl Mudgett of Lockney, also was one of the hot-shots of the division, taking care of New Lynn's representative, 9-7, 5-7, 3-6. The titlist disposed of Edith Newman of Ralls, 6-2, 6-2, in the semi-finals.

In the girls' doubles Elwanda Gilbert and Dorothy Berry of Lamesa came under the wire first, nudging

Junior 'All-Star' Game Planned

Providing the weather doesn't interfere and present plans click smoothly, Lubbock's first annual junior baseball school will be climaxed next Thursday with the big "All-Star" clash.

Pick of the school's nearly 200 determined aspirants will be named for the two 18-men squads, which will be announced sometime early this week.

Jaycees Sell Tickets

Whether the game will be an afternoon or night tussle is to be decided by the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the school. Tickets for the fray will be peddled by Jaycee members.

Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, the students will hear a talk by Coach Pete Cawthon of Texas Tech. His subject will be "Sportsmanship." Immediately preceding the talk, plans have been made to have the Chicago negro All-Stars give an exhibition performance for the youngsters.

Classes concentrated on sliding and base play Saturday under the critical eyes of the veteran instructors, likely to be augmented again this week by the appearance of Sam Langford, former big leaguer of Plainview.

Frenship High Drops Cooper Nine, 13-11

Frenship's surprising schoolboy baseball aggregation—a "darkhorse" in pre-season speculation — pulled another surprise out of the bag Friday afternoon, measuring Coach Fred Rich's usually strong Cooper nine, 13 to 11, for the second consecutive time.

The victory marked Frenship as a distance threat in the South Plains High School baseball league, along with Whitharral's defending district champions.

Gatlin, Winters Hurl

Gene Gatlin handled mound duties for the winners for two innings Friday, allowing four hits and one run, Lewis Winters hurling the rest of the way. Wayne Bennett, one of the best schoolboy catchers in the business, handled backstop duties.

For Cooper, G. Barrett went the distance to be credited with the loss. Phillips handling backstop duties. A tentative arrangement sends the Frenship crew to Whitharral Tuesday afternoon for a tussle.

Tech Tracksters Lose In El Paso

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

EL PASO, April 13.—Although seriously handicapped because of an injury to speedy Bobby Holmes in the morning preliminaries, the stout-hearted Texas Tech tracksters won seven points here today in the third annual Southwestern Relay carnival.

Howard Payne's Yellow Jackets eked out a thrilling triumph in the mile relay in the climaxing feature of the carnival, giving the Brownwood delegation a one-half point margin of victory over Arizona State of Tempe, 30 to 29½.

Huffman Pleased

Eight college and high school carnival records were snapped, Ysleta winning the high school division. Howard Payne's Pete Owens was the individual star of the meet as he set records in the high and low hurdles and won the century dash.

Coach Berl Huffman was pleased with the performance of his thinly

Y. they are the first to accept invitations.

Thirteen other pros will be chosen by a committee of sports writers.

Pigskin Recruiting Has Odor That May Kill Game's Big Appeal If Not Reformed

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 13. — Any balmy day now we expect to run across an item to the effect that some worthy young man has failed in his college entrance examinations because he couldn't take out a tackle on a wide end run, and when that happens we'll know that the day isn't the only thing that is balmy.

It will mean the whole college athletic setup is balmy, and Jim Schulemmer of the Akron Beason Journal is authority fora story which indicates that the day isn't far distant.

Example Released

Schlemmer relates that two large men arrived in Akron recently in a large automobile, the rear seat of which was cluttered up with such odds and ends as football suits, headgears, protective pads and footballs. One of the huskies was identified as a former All-America football player and later an assistant coach at Tennessee, now connnected with the North Carolina State coaching staff.

The two gum-shores uncovered one William Guth, a 230-pound freshman line prospect at Akron University.

Ticket Enclosed

Without further ado the visitors bundled Guth into their car and drove to an out-of-the-way field.

Guth was told to don football paraphernalia, and his hosts did likewise.

Guth was put through a test to determine his football aptitude. When it was over he was told he'd probably hear more later.

He did, receiving word to report to North Carolina State for additional tests, and please find enclosed a round trip ticket to Raleigh.

Want A Winner

The next time the Akron spring squad worked out, Guth strangely was among the missing.

The whole affair puts a new angle on the business of rounding up football material.

If such practice spreads, not only will a football coach be unable to announce a squad roster with any degree of certainty, but there will develop a crop of football bums which would shame the nights of the road.

The boys can't be blamed. They are the pawns in a vicious game played by college officials under pressure from alumni and others who don't care what kind of football team they have as long as it is a winner.

Playground Ball Honors Divided

County playground ball, reeled off at Texas Tech Saturday, found Idalou, Cooper and Shallowater coming in with top teams in three divisions, the former school hanging up two titles.

It was in the high school junior division of boys play that Idalou first came through, stopping Shallowater by a one-run margin, 7 to 6. The titlists previously had defeated Slaton, 15 to 10 while Shallowater dropped Cooper in the semi-fianls.

Cooper Girls

Idalou's other pennant came in the high school junior girls division, Shallowater again being the victim by a top-heavy margin, 24-9. Shallowater had measured New Deal and Idalou had eliminated Roosevelt in the preliminaries.

The girls' grammar school crown was captured by Cooper, 21-18, over the heavy hitting New Deal team. New Deal edged into the finals with a burst of speed that netted the team a 28 to 18 verdict over Bledsoe, while Cooper went wild in its corresponding semi-finals test to smother Idalou under a 55 to 41 avalanche.

McWhorter To Direct

Shallowater won the grammar school boys gonfalon, rolling over Frenship, 16 to 10, in the championship clash. Shallowater had stopped Slaton, 11 to 9, in a semi-finals meeting, while Frenship drubbed Idalou in a corresponding semi-finals battle.

Play was under direction of G. G. McWhorter, of Cooper.

Team To Return Late This Week

By COLLIER PARRIS
Avalanche-Journal Sports Editor

JONESBORO, Ark., April 13. — Spring returned to northeastern Arkansas today and 122 White Sox rookies returned to spring baseball training.

For the third day out of the dozen they've been camped here the boys who'll make up the Lubbock, Waterloo and Jonesboro ball clubs for 1940 were permitted by the weather to work outdoors. They moved from the big gymnasium to legion ball park and drilled from 10 o'clock this morning until after 5 o'clock this afternoon, in three shifts.

Fans Turn Loose

First, the boys signed to Waterloo contracts went through a long batting, running and throwing drill, followed by the Jonesboro "list" then the Lubbock signees. This division is not strictly in accordance with the manner in which the large squad ultimately will be grouped, but served merely as a virtually even way of dividing the boys for the triple feature workout.

Citizens of Jonesboro, who are among the most loyal fans in the world, having supported more losing teams than Philadelphia ever had, turned out strong for the practice and yelled themselves hoarse at the boys. It was an all day picnic for the fans who provided the biggest "gate" last year in the Northeastern Arkansas league—for the team which finished on the bottom.

Old Hubbers Shine

Several familiar faces predominated when the "Lubbock" squad worked out this afternoon. Serving them up for batting practice were George Amthor, Walter Gorski and

Littlefield Cops Volleyball Crown

Littlefield High school's hustling girls' volleyball machine came through in fine style to repeat as District Three Interscholastic league champions Saturday afternoon, pacing a field of the select of South Plains squads with little trouble.

Ropes furnished the opposition in the final engagement, bowing out in a torrid three-game series, 12-15, 15-10, 15-7. Littlefield is the Lamb county representative in the annual meet.

Roosevelt Eliminated

Earlier in the day, the Littlefield crew had measured Roosevelt, Lubbock county titlists, in a semi-final series, 15-9, 15-13. Roosevelt had marched into the semi-final round by registering a 15-8, 9-15, 15-3 decision over Muleshoe in the quarter-finals.

In the lower bracket, Ropes first defeated Hale Center, 15-9, 15-7, in one of Saturday's quarter-final matches, then romped over Brownfield in the semi-final test, 16-14, 15-7. Brownfield advanced by stopping Southland in the quarter-finals, 12-15, 15-11, 15-3.

Langford Directs

The two-day volleyball contests were under the direction of Mrs. George Langford.

Members of the winning Littlefield aggregation include: Lois Lee, Wilma Harlin, Jaunita Scott, Mary Carter, Christene Carpenter, Lulu Peel, Alta Wadel, Marion Scizally, Lucille Minton, Eurita, Tisdale, Edith McCurry, and Gale Etter.

Riggs Seeks Revenge In Houston Tourney

HOUSTON, April 13. (AP)—A faithful believer in "try, try again," Bobby Riggs, cocky champion of world tennis, tightened his game today for the River Oaks tennis tournament—one of the few competitions he hasn't been able to win.

Twice he's entered and twice he's been bounced.

Charles Hare, England's No. 2 man; Frank Guernsey, National Intercollegiate and defending champion; Bryan (Bitsy) Grant, who has won the tournament thrice; Ellwood Cooke of Portland, Ore.; Xavier Fernandez of Lima, Peru, and Wilmer Allison of Austin,—there are a few who will be out for Riggs' scalp.

Teachers Whip Tech Tennis Team In Dual Match, 4-2

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

CANYON, April 13. — Texas Tech netters bowed to West Texas State Teachers college players the first time in three years here today, four matches to two.

Tech freshmen evened matters by defeating the Calves by a similar score.

Sidney Moore, Tech No. 1 man, had easy sailing in turning back Lynard Riley, ordinarily No. 3 man for the Buffs, 6-1, 6-1.

In other singles, Harold Beckmeyer bowed to Frank Kelly of WTSTC, 1-6, 0-6; Lloyd Brunson, Tech, lost to Stephen Milner, 3-6, 6-8, and Buster Houston, Tech, dropped a decision to Glen Milner, 4-6, 6-4, 2-6. Kelly was moved back from No. 1 post for the Buffaloes.

Moore and Brunson teamed to defeat Kelly and G. Milner, 6-4, 6-3, but Houston and Beckmeyer lost to Riley and S. Milner, 6-3, 6-8, 5-7.

Jack Shanks, second ranking Raider, was unable to complete today.

Tech Coach Predicts Demise Of Junior College Football

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, April 13. — Demise of junior college football, possibly within the next five years, is the doleful prediction of Peter Willis Cawthon, the sage of the South Plains.

Cawthon, coach of Texas Tech's Red Raiders and a man who doesn't let a thing like the advent of spring turn his fancy to anything but football, announced after considerable research that no less than 37 Texas colleges, junior colleges and prep schools have abandoned the game in the last ten years.

"To begin with," argues Cawthon, "the game is far too expensive for junior colleges. It is too much of a problem to get the players. Our highways have been improved greatly. It's easy for the fans to drive to the larger cities for the week-end, desert their own small colleges, and see the big colleges play on Saturday afternoon."

The benediction is being said, Cawthon comments, and it will

Baseball's 'Big Show' Opens Tuesday

It Could Happen Here, Say Eleven Anti-Yank Pickers In Annual Writers' Poll

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—The New York Yankees are a cinch to win their fifth straight American league pennant in the opinion of a majority of the experts but there are still a few die-hards who foresee the breaking up of Joe McCarthy's powerful machine.

The 77 baseball writers participating in the Associated Press' annual poll followed last year's order of finish pretty much in making their 1940 predictions. Sixty-six of them placed the Yankees in the No. 1 slot. Nine selected the Boston Red Sox as the new league champions while the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox each received the confidence of one writer.

Receiving no votes for below second and on the basis of eight points for first place, seven for second, etc., the Yanks piled up a total of 605 points. The Red Sox were just as firmly entrenched in second place with 536 points, the majority of which were garnered from the 57 runner-up votes.

The Indians, polling votes for the first five places, received 438 points, placing them in third place—just where they finished last fall. Then came the only transposition in the order of 1939's final standings—the placing of Detroit over Chicago. But the margin between the two teams was small—359 to 346.

Washington, Philadelphia and St. Louis took over the last three positions without much competition. The Senators polled votes for each of the last five places but generally were selected for sixth. The Athletics moved into seventh, a promotion from the cellar in last year's selections.

Hot Race Seen For Nationals

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 13.—The deck is stacked, with every baseball kibitzer in the country knowing in advance who holds all the aces, but that won't keep everybody from having a lot of fun when the major league clubs start dealing Tuesday.

Since this is a friendly game in which the inclination to hold a royal flush up the sleeve is frowned upon, the New York Yankees are sure to be the big winners when the chips are cashed six months from now.

National Race Promising

In the meantime some team is going to have to win the National league pot as a sort of semi-final to the World Series and there are signs that the scuffling for the lesser positions in both leagues will be more boisterous than ever.

While the Yankees are overwhelming favorites to take their fifth consecutive American league pennant, it's as much as one's life is worth to try to separate the grain from the grit in the National league.

Reds, Cards Tops

The Cincinnati Reds look strong enough to repeat, from this perspective, but the St. Louis Cardinals and at least four other clubs have a chance. Putting them all in their proper places is like that party game of pinning the tail on the donkey.

One thing is certain—on opening day they'll line up this way:

National League: Chicago at Cincinnati; Pittsburgh at St. Louis; Brooklyn at Boston; Philadelphia at New York.

American League: New York at Philadelphia; Boston at Washington; Cleveland at Chicago; St. Louis at Detroit.

Amarillo Cops District One Track Meet

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

CANYON, April 13.—Amarillo High school's surprisingly strong Sandie track and field aggregation didn't waste any time about running away with the District 1 Interscholastic league athletic meet here today—smothering a large field with 50 points.

Claude came in second with 33 points and Dumas finished in a lagging third slot with 13 tallies.

Four meet records fell by the wayside in the torrid contest, the helium city mile relay quartet flashing around the oval in the record-snapping time of 3:55.2.

This clipped 5.8 seconds from the old mark and qualified the Golden Sandies to send a large delegation here this week-end more or less favored to take the Regional 1 title, next step toward the state finals in Austin.

Gassers Capture Bowling Honors

The pin-smashing wizards of local bowling circles—West Texas Gas company—came through with the Commercial League crown this week.

Finals in the long winter session of toppling the ten pins was reeled off this past week and team and individual standings released.

Close behind the Gassers, who registered an average of 871 for a total percentage of .589 in ringing up 53 triumphs and losing 37 engagements, were the Swift's Ice Cream crew—league "darkhorse"—with an average of 819 and a percentage of .567 in 51 victories and 39 losses.

Fleming Is High

Clyde Fleming, member of fifth place Fleming Real Estate crew, was high individual three game scorer of the season with a total of 673. C. J. Bell coming in next with a 639 and Begey and L. W. Bell deadlocking in fourth place. Individual high single game honors go to W. E. Crites of the Gassers with a 280. Marvin Struve coming in second with a 264 and Fleming hanging up third place prize money with a 245.

Team high for three games was set by the winning Gassers, 2850, set by the winning Gassers, 2,850, and Swift's toppled 2,627.

Final standings follow:

Sports Nip Fort Worth, 13 To 6

(By The Associated Press)

SHREVEPORT, La., April 13.—The Shreveport Sports made 21 hits good for a total of 27 bases and beat the Fort Worth Cats, 13 to 6, in the final of a two-game series here today.

Abreu, Oana and McDowell hit circuit blows for the visitors and Joe Greenberg produced one for Shreveport.

Missions Open With Victory Over Dallas

SAN ANTONIO, April 13. (AP)—San Antonio's youthful Missions, with seven rookies on the infield and outfield, spotted Dallas three runs in the first inning here today and came from behind to beat the favorites 8 to 4 to open the Texas league season.

Indians Finally Drop Exporters, 14 To 11

BEAUMONT, April 13. (AP)—Fireworks broke out at Stuart stadium today with the Oklahoma City Indians finally outlasting the Exporters, 14 to 11, in a free-hitting frolic that was called at the close of the eighth inning because of darkness.

Buffs Measure Tulsa, 5 To 4, In Opener

HOUSTON, April 13. (AP)—Brilliant relief pitching by young Ed Wissman enabled the Houston Buffs to hang up their first victory of the young 1940 season here today, the Buffs shading the Oilers, 5-4.

beat Burt, 6-2, 6-2; Storey won from Carter, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3; Pender dropped Hawkins, 6-3, 6-4, and Barnett lost to Coleman, 8-6, 2-6, 2-6.

Pender and Storey were defeated by Burt and Carter, 6-2, 2-6, 2-6, and Langford and Barnett defeated Carter and Hawkins, 8-6, 6-3.

FISHING no longer means rowing a boat all over Nell's Half Acre. The experts found that out long ago. Funny thing about the experts (who consistently take the prizes in the national fish-catch contests). They spend their time fishing. They don't bother with blisters and sore muscles. They let motors do the heavy work. And you'd be surprised how many of them use Johnson Sea-Horses for the job!

Guldahl Decides To Pass Up Goodall Round Robin Play

BY EDDIE BRIETZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 13.—You'd be surprised how many grid prominent are after Bunny (Ouster Egg) Oakes' old job at Colorado U. . . . If one of the present staff is picked it probably will be track Coach Frank Potts at $4,000 per—a grand less than Oakes drew . . . Ralph Guldahl has parted company with the Braidburn C. City Softball Season To Start Monday

Lubbock's city softball leagues swing out on a brand-new season, their second under lights, Monday night with a new park location and a new league set-up.

A week's classification play is scheduled beginning with two games tomorrow night followed by contests every night through Friday. Each of the 16 teams will play one game, after which the league executive commission will divide the clubs into three leagues for the regular season beginning Monday, April 22.

Three Tussles Monday

Three teams new to the league and one of last year's members will be seen in action in opening games with Sears Roebuck playing Sherrod's Hardware and Hub Laundry meeting Lubbock Sash and Door. Starting time is 8 o'clock.

Only one game will be played on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, the contests immediately preceding the negro All-Star baseball games and starting at 7 o'clock. Four of the teams rated as the class of the league are scheduled for these games, Robinson Grocery meeting Good Eats Bakery Tuesday and Southwest Products playing Lubbock Poultry and Egg Wednesday.

Schedule Released

Complete schedule for the first week:

Monday, Sears Roebuck vs. Sherrod's Hardware and Hub Laundry vs. Lubbock Sash and Door.

Tuesday, Robinson Grocery vs. Good Eats Bakery.

Wednesday, Southwest Products vs. Lubbock Poultry and Egg.

Thursday, Hemphill Wells vs. Dalby Motor Freight and Central Labor Union vs. Corcorrans.

Olton Wins District

holds the district 440-yard dash record at 51.6 seconds, won the event again, edging out Willard Hedges and Virgil Kelley of Lockney. The three ran almost neck-and-neck for the first 300 yards, but Oliver had the finishing kick.

Winners To Canyon

Top four men in each event are eligible to compete in the Regional meet at West Texas State Teachers college in Canyon this week-end.

Floyd Davis of Midway won the rural pentathlon, scoring 45 points to 25 for his nearest competitor, Willard Davis of Big Four. The Midway lad won four of the five events and placed second in the other. Davis goes direct to state, not competing in the Regional meet.

Final team standings:

Olton 25, Tahoka 20, Lubbock 13, Crosbyton 10, Whitharral 10, Lamesa 9, Muleshoe 9, Littlefield 9, Abernathy 7, Lockney 7, Floydada 6, Slaton 5, Dickens 5, Hale Center 5, Morton 4, New Home 3, Lorenzo 3, New Deal 2, Plains 2, O'Donnell 1.

Club Tournament To Open Monday

The local tournament golfing campaign gets under way at Lubbock Country club Monday for a three-day event that will lend impetus to the summer sports program at the club.

Medal play will govern competition, a daily total of 18 holes being required of each participant.

To Determine Handicaps

Purpose of the tournament will be to determine spring handicaps for the women contingent of golfers at the club. The results will be used throughout the summer as basis for changes if necessary.

Two prizes one for low gross score and one for low net performance, will be awarded. Competition reeled off in the event also will be counted in "ringer" tournament play, the winter-spring event annually conducted at the club, climax of which is scheduled for May 1.

Providing there are some members not listed in the following pairings released by Mrs. Charles Akey, in charge of the affair, they may participate in the event by contacting Mrs. Akey at the club. The same pairings will hold throughout Wednesday's play. They follow:

Mesdames J. W. Heilbecker, Charles Akey, and Guy L. McAfee; Fenner Tubbs, M. M. Brown, and W. F. Helwig; J. H. Stiles, K. L. Riggs, and M. K. Dean; W. F. Eisenberg, Gordon Cramer, and Wright Kerr; Homer Hall, Lee Hubby, and W. L. Morrison; Bob Crawford, George Pierce and F. C. Benham.

Regular Skeet, Trap Shoot Carded Today

Regular skeet and trap shoot competition will draw attention of Lubbock Skeet and Gun club members today, weather permitting.

The event will get underway at 2 o'clock and warm temperatures should see a record turnout, as cold and sandstorms have cut materially into those participating thus far.

J. E. Mann, jr., is in charge of arrangements for today's shoot and he invites all members of the club to "come on out." Scene of the contests will be the club's regular ranges north of the city.

Tech Tracksters Lose

clads and believes the team would have won several more points had Holmes been able to participate in the various final events.

Hurt In Prelims

In the second heat of the 100-yard preliminaries, Holmes was leading by a good two yards when he pulled a muscle in his right leg and had to withdraw. He was hardly able to walk tonight.

Bauman Roper was the fair-haired boy for the Red Raiders. He won the high jump with a leap of 6 feet 2½ inches. He actually won the high jump at 6 feet but on his last jump the bar was raised to the former height and he cleared it with the greatest of ease. Officials wanted him to try for a new record but his modesty forced him to decline.

Roper's winning jump earned five points for Tech. Louis Locke picked up a point by running fourth in the 120-yard hurdles and the Raiders gained another point by finishing fourth in the quarter-mile relay but was later disqualified when the judges ruled that James Foster and Horace Caldwell did not pass the baton within the required yardage.

The Red Raiders will return to Lubbock Sunday and will go to Abilene Wednesday for a dual meet with Abilene Christian, the latter participated here today and was one of the high point teams.

Spade Plans Boxing Tourney Next Week

SPADE, April 13 (Special)—An invitational boxing tournament will be conducted in the school here Tuesday and Wednesday, April 23-24.

Sponsored by the school, the event is expected to attract many of the leather slinging artists which participated in the Lubbock Golden Gloves district tournament as well as those who took part here and there in invitations.

Special "golden glove" awards will be given winners in two divisions ,school and outside participants, said G. A. Hemphill, coach here, who is handling arrangements for the event. Admission for the affair, the largest of its kind conducted here this year, will be 15 and 25 cents.

SEIBERLING'S

New "SAW-TOOTH" TREAD WEARS 10% SLOWER!

- Seiberling's Special Service Tire has always been a "bear for wear" — the most popular tire we ever sold. But now Seiberling engineers have made it tougher than ever — given it a new "Saw-Tooth" tread that wears 10% slower by ACTUAL TEST!

The photographs above are from actual comparative tests. Two Seiberling Special Service Tires with the NEW tread were put on each test car with two of the former design. Three shifts of test drivers then drove these test cars day and night — 1,000 miles every day over blistering Florida roads. All tires were rotated to different wheels at the end of each driver's run to make certain that each tire had exactly the same amount of wear.

You can see for yourself how much slower the new Seiberling "Saw-Tooth" Tread wears — how much more safe mileage it gives you!

BIG INTRODUCTORY TRADE-INS!

To introduce this new Seiberling Special Service in a BIG way, we are offering some unusually BIG trade-ins for your old tires for the NEXT 10 DAYS. Come in and see this amazing new tread that wears 10% slower—let us make you a "deal" on your old tires.

THIS IS AN UNRETOUCHED PHOTOGRAPH
Run exactly the same mileage on the same test car, these two tires clearly show the advantages of Seiberling's NEW "Saw-Tooth" Tread. It wears 10% slower—gives extra thousands of safe miles.

Attack Launched By Tennessee Senator On Cotton Cooperative Associat

Criticism Hits Louisiana Man

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP) — Senator McKellar (D-Tenn) launched another attack on the American Cotton Cooperative association in the Senate this week, centering his criticism largely at E. F. Creekmore of New Orleans.

The blast came during debate on a bill to reimburse cotton cooperative associations for losses occasioned by the federal farm board's stabilization operations in 1929.

Contending the amount involved was $4,355,141.40, McKellar declared:

Referred To Court

"Why should we give this money to the ACCA? If the ACCA receives the money, it will go into the pockets of the officials. Why should we give it to them? Why should we not give it to the farmers themselves?"

He suggested an amendment providing that the secretary of agriculture pay "to each person who is shown to his satisfaction to be, on the date of the enactment of this act, a farmer engaged in producing cotton and a member of any of such associations, an equal part of the money appropriated pursuant to the first section of this act."

"Creekmore has absolute control of the entire co-operative situation," McKellar declared.

The Senate later voted to refer the question of reimbursement to the court of claims for an opinion.

Westerners Open Drill

it's plenty "green."

Anything Can Happen

Standing this far away from the fall campaign and viewing the finish of the District One offensives along about the time the pumkins are ready to pluck, it appears that with the proper attitude, hustle and the "breaks"—a factor which the Lubbock lads must always consider—the mighty ironmen of the South Plains again will march into the stretch drive. Only Amarillo's Golden Sandies, losing only a quaret of top notchers from their first two elevens, appear to have the defense capable of matching that potent in Lubbock's lineup.

But Europe's "war" likely would be easier to predict than a torrid District One football chase—and so we'll let it rest there.

Walthall, Bearden Co-Captains

Under the 18-year limit, Jackson becomes eligible. Had the league fathers at the University of Texas decided to re-adopt the 19-year set-up, Joe Tyson and L. A. Storrs would have become eligible, but Leete wouldn't, too many semesters.

Perusing probable candidates, it is noted that four lettermen from last year's state titlists will be top favorites to grab off responsible positions: Co-Captains Max Walthall, one of the most promising hurlers ever to hit Lubbock High, and Francis Bearden, the lineman par excellence.

Squadmen Promising

Then there comes the contingent which really brings a smile of hope and optimism to Coach Keyes' countenance, the reserves of last year's vintage, still just as strong or stronger in the clutches as ever: J. A. Blackwell, Dan Gregory, Marvin MacBrayer, Robert McKinnon, J. D. Milner, Sanders, Milner Thorne and J. D. Wynn.

In addition, there are several new recruits who should and in all probability will make things plenty hot for some of the veterans.

Line Prospects Husky

But before enthusiasm runs rampant and we grab the old fall bonnet and topcoat and head out for the stadium with that "get your program, you can't enjoy a game without a . . . . . " ringing in our ears, we present what appears to be the outstanding candidates to make that select circles of squadmen who will be honored by the name of Westerners:

Ends—Francis Bearden, Blackwell, Milner Thorne, Joe Smith, and Lyonel Lindsey; tackles—Sanders, a 190-pounder, Marvin MacBrayer, 185-pounds of flesh and dynamite, John Perry, Joe Terry Jackson, J. D. Wynn, Sandlin; guards—Carl Smith, tipping the beams at 192-pounds, Franklin Butler, one of the scrappingest kids on the team, Robert McKinley, and Holly; centers—Roland Nabors, another hustler, Milner, Major Taylor, and Dan Gregory, all experienced.

Backs Are Plentiful

The backs include: Walthall, Billy Wright, another of the football flipping clan who may run the opposition dizzy in more ways than one, Robert McKinnon, the grinning, likeable young giant who should smash opposition forward walls to smithereens along with Jackson this year, Leete Jackson, and nuff said there because the only reason the mighty halfback didn't win an all-state post last year because there were only 11 slots to be filled and the honors had to be distributed, J. A. Raley, jr., Dale Odom, the Temple terror transfer, built along the same pattern as Leete, Howard Lanford, Sidney Keeton, Amos Howard, Ernest Jarrett, and James Reese.

It may be baseball season, but a football fever epidemic is nigh, Coach. Have that suit ready tomorrow!

Historians mention embroidery as early as 1491 B. C.

Lee Harris, husky righthanders who helped Lubbock to a pennant last year, plus a trio of rookies, John Wadzita from Chicago, Miles Stanford from Warrenville, Ill., and Eugene Weaver of Mattoon, Ill., who may or may not be brought to Lubbock next week when the Hubbers return home.

Amthor, Gorski and Harris, as well as Mel Kramer and Clovis Bridwell, are ticketed for Waterloo.

Engle Works Infielders

For the infield workout, manager Charley Engle used two complete sets of players, plus and extra catcher and second baseman last year, practiced at third, although he, too probably will wind up at Waterloo. He's a very popular fellow in camp.

At first base, a couple of big lefties, Joe Shonts from Centerville, Iowa, and Lyle Brent, reformed outfielder from Stanford, Ill., took turns, with Shonts looking best. Two other possibilities on Joe Brown's list, Ben Drake and Shester Hajduk, looked good in drills with the Waterloo squad this morning.

Hilton Among Prospects

On second were Augie Shoppman a very good looking blond youngster from Mt. Olive, Ill., and Tom Hall, snappy fielder from Glasgow, Mo. At third was Max Hilton, from the Lubbock district and one of the hardest working guys in camp; Red Draybik, an unsigned lad from whereabouts, and Zorko. But when the chips are down in Lubbock, a guy named Niedzeida, or one named Charley Engle probably will be in Johnny Taylor's old place.

Shortstops drilling with Lubbock today were Elvin Mahan, a sweet fielding lad from Terrehaute, Ind., whom you may almost put down now as the Hubber shortfielder, and Walter Slonski, from St. Louis. Still another prospect is Eugene Bickler, tentatively on the Lubbock roster with Mahan.

Outfield Indefinite

Taking turns catching were Vincent Castino from Chicago, a little dark guy with a lot of fire and wallop; George Costa, well fashioned and tall backstopper from Staunton, Ill., and Edward Steck from St. Louis. Costa and Castino are on Brown's tentative list.

There's little telling about the outfielders. Those taking cuts and shagging flies today were Ray Sparr, Boyd Watkins and Doc O'Neil, who served with Lubbock last season (Al Carr still hasn't put in an appearance), and Roy Roddey, Gene Schlereth, Frank Defrank and a guy named Schweda. Of the youngsters, Schlereth and Schweda look best, although there's still nothing certain about the Lubbock outfield.

"Scrimmages" Planned

Training—Camp Manager Billie Webb has announced a "scrimmage" for Sunday, another for Monday. In Sunday's game, Lubbock will play Waterloo and Jonesboro will have a go at what's left out of the other lineups—which means about as much as saying the Tech Red Raiders will hold an inter-squad scrimmage.

The games, however, will mean considerable in the "picking" of teams, and Lubbock has first pick of the bunch, so long as it can keep within its salary limit. This means the loss, of course, of such guys as the Hubbers of last year, who have been signed to more lucrative contracts. But of the rookies, Lubbock has first choice. Lubbock is being aided and abetted in the choosing by Webb himself, who is pretty nervous about the Lubbock situation, wanting to send a team there that can hold its own in comparison with the last two pennant winners.

They're All Right

There's one thing the fans of Lubbock can depend on: The boys coming to Lubbock this year are of the same high type of manhood that has graced the Hubber diamond for two seasons. We have met most of the lads personally, and they are swell, clean-cut, intelligent fellows who have the competitive fire in their veins, alot of muscle o ntheir big frames and clear burning light in their eyes.

If You Hear A Crash Late Tonight It Will Be Lindsey

If within the next 24 hours or so you should hear the loudest noise ever made in Lubbock, it won't mean that President Roosevelt suddenly has decided to change the date of the Fourth of July.

The noise will be the crash of the walls of the old Lindsey theater, Main street and Avenue J, where the new Lindsey is to be erected.

Just when the big noise is to be made had not been decided Saturday by W. G. McMillan, contractor for the building who now is engaged in clearing the site.

The walls to be pulled down, he explained, are those forming the west and the north sides of the building. Both are two stories in height and the west wall is approximately 150 feet in length.

To accomplish the demolition, the contractor related, the walls will be detached from other fastenings. Cables then will be looped about them and attached to a tractor which will pull them inward. It wi be the biggest job of constructive destruction in the history of Lubbock.

Several reasons contributed to McMillan's indecision Saturday as to the gigantic crash. His announced working schedule was, however, for crews of men to stay on the job last night until 11:59 o'clock, and to put them back to work at 12:01 o'clock Monday morning. That would mean the big noise during the early hours of the morning.

The contractor explained that he would like to do the job in day light. For one reason, he is one of the most avid camera fans to be found anywhere and he would like to make motion pictures. For another reason, he knows that a lot of people would like to watch it and he would like to oblige them.

However, such jobs are attended by certain dangers under the most favorable conditions. If crowds should be on hand, it would be almost impossible to make certain that everyone remained at a safe distance, he explained. Even if the crowd could be controlled, fragments of stone sometimes carry for amazing distances.

So he leaned to the opinion that it is properly a night-time job when streets are nearly clear. The probabilities Saturday were that the walls will crash between Sunday midnight and dawn Monday.

Tech Coach Predicts

be only a matter of few years before fans will see nothing but high school and college football. Junior colleges and prep schools are substituting intra-mural football and six-man "tag" games.

Cawthon in compiling his statistics, reveals that some of our better coaches once did junior college stretches—not to mention some of the college stars. Jimmie Kitts, Frank Bridges, Frank Kimbrough, Joel Hunt, Al Baggett, Jack Meagher, Dough Rollins, Siki Sikes, Cecil Grigg, and a host of others once tutored teams now extinct.

Club Boys, Fathers Meet Here Saturday

Thirty-five 4-H club boys and their fathers met Saturday afternoon in the district courtroom to discuss plans for feeding calves for the annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock show next spring.

Fifteen boys expressed a preference for feeding calves with a nurse cow, said Monroe U. May, assistant county agent. They would have between 20 and 25 calves in all. At present there are six boys with calves on feed.

Securing of calves will be completed within the next 30 days, said May. A number of the boys preferred dry lot calves, but these will not be secured until sudan is ready for pasture. Animals would be put on sudan first, and then into the lots in the fall. May said he believed at least 100 dry lot calves will be fed this year.

Miss Carroll Winner In Sermon Contest

Miss Beulah Carroll, Lubbock Salvation Army worker, won third prize in a sermon contest which was held in connection with an annual state youth conference of the Army at Dallas which opened Friday and closes today.

Lee Vernon Boyd, another Lubbock youth, also entered the contest. Nineteen delegates attended the convention from Lubbock.

Envoy V. M. Vansyckle informed friends of Carroll's winning.

Mangled Body Of Man Is Found By Railroad

SAN MARCOS, April 13. (UP) — The mangled body of Orval Bales, 30, of Kyle was found today beside M. K. & T. railroad tracks a mile south of here.

A truck loaded with oats which had been driven by Bales last night was standing on a road 50 feet from the body but not near the tracks. San Marcos officers and state highway patrolmen were investigating.

Total Of 750 Homes At Seminole Reported

SEMINOLE, April 13. (Special)— On completion of a canvass in Seminole Friday, it was revealed there are 750 homes here, A. J. Payne, manager of the chamber of commerce, said.

That total would indicate a population of 3,000 persons, Payne explained. There, however, still is a shortage of homes.

A scholastic school census, taken by Rev. O. C. Curtis, also revealed an almost 100 per cent increase in school children during the last year.

Increase was from 404 to 800.

Approximately 10,000 See Engineering Show

Approximately 10,000 persons had trouped through five buildings on the Texas Technological college campus at conclusion late Saturday night of the 12th annual Engineer's show.

Attendance was largest in history of the show, sponsored by senior engineers of the college. Crowds numbered barely more than 9,000 in 1939.

Charles F. Barnard of Tulsa, Okla., was general manager.

The show opened Friday afternoon and approximately 3,600 persons viewed exhibits the first day.

University Of New Mexico Professor To Speak Here

Dr. F. M. Kercheville, head of the department of languages at the University of New Mexico, will address a convocation of students and faculty members at 10 o'clock Monday morning at Texas Technological college and will speak at 8 o'clock that night to members of several organizations.

His subject at the convocation, to be held in the gymnasium, will be "Americanism, a Realistic View."

To Discuss Exposition

Dr. C. B. Qualia, head professor of foreign languages at the college, said Dr. Kercheville would speak on the Cuarto Centennial exposition to members of the American Association of University Women, International Relations club, Pre-Law club, Spanish club and South Plains teachers of Spanish Monday night in the Hilton hotel ballroom.

After the meeting, Professor Kercheville wants to meet with teachers of Spanish of the area, to discuss plans for the Cuarto Centennial exposition.

Dr. Kercheville is cooperating in directing the exposition.

He has made numerous speeches in Texas and New Mexico advocating closer relations between the Latin-American countries.

"Dr. Kercheville is an authority on Pan American relations and has been urging closer relations between the Americas for several years," said Dr. Qualia.

The state of New Mexico has been encouraging the university to establish closer relations with Latin-America because of the Spanish background and strategic location of the school. Kercheville has been instrumental in promoting this idea.

Native Of Texas

Leading scholars of the nation are associated with Kercheville in his Latin-American work at the university. He is "Coresponsal en Jefe en Los Estados Unidos del Circulo de Relaciones Culturales," which interpreted for the espanolisically uninitiated, means chief honorary correspondent in the United States in the division of cultural relations for the Mexican government. This is a non-political position.

Kercheville is a native Texan. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Abilene Christian college and master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees from the University of Wisconsin. He taught in the universities of Wisconsin and South Dakota before coming to New Mexico university in 1931.

Italian Fleet Will Start On Maneuvers

ROME, April 14 (AP)—Amid unusual secrecy imposed because of wartime conditions, the Italian fleet was gathering today to embark Monday on maneuvers which naval officials described as the regular spring training.

Concentration points were not disclosed.

Meanwhile the Italian press speculated on the possibility of the European war spreading in the wake of fighting in Scandinavia, which most fascist commentators said had resulted in a first round victory for Germany.

In this connection the official Italian news agency, Stefani, quoted the Netherlands foreign minister, Eelco N. Van Kleffens, as saying in an interview that his country would resist any attempt at invasion.

Others on the program were Rev. A. D. Moore; Suttle Purcell, architect and building contractor; N. L. Peters; J. F. O'Brien; Mrs. Jewell McIver; O. E. Witte; V. Z. Rogers, superintendent of Lamesa public schools; J. L. Giles, and Rev. J. P. Aslin.

Shooting Thursday Is Fatal; Charge Filed

AUSTIN, April 13. (U.P.)—Julius J. Gustafson, 51, died at a local hospital today from pistol wounds received Thursday morning at a dinner club on the Post road south of Austin.

A complaint that had been filed charging M. A. Lackey, bartender, with the shooting was changed today and a charge of murder substituted. He had been charged with assault to murder "Elmer" Gustafson. Lackey said the shooting was accidental in a scuffle.

Criminal Cases To Be Heard By Judge Blair

MORTON, April 13. (Special) — Judge Daniel A. Blair of 72nd district court will open criminal week here Monday.

Six cases are set for trial, Burton S. Burks, district attorney, said.

Bob Latham is charged on three indictments with forgery and three other persons have been billed for drunk driving. They are Claude Lemmons, Leon Sherron and Jim Holloway.

Bank At Seminole To Be Established Soon

SEMINOLE, April 13. (Special) — Seminole soon will have a bank.

J. W. Head of Odessa and Frank Bain of Plainview were here Friday conferring with J. G. Nisbeth in regard to opening the financial institution.

Plans are to place the bank on the south side of the square, it is understood.

LEADERS LINGER

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—Leaders generally lingered by the wayside in today's stock market while aviation, shipbuilding and an assortment of specialty issues finished the week with a strong upward trend.

Prices were mixed from the start and, at the close, losses and gains running to as much as 2 points were pretty evenly divided. A number of favorites, bounced into new high territory for the year or longer.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was unchanged at 50.6, but on the week showed a decline of 8 of a point after three consecutive weekly upturns. The lengthy stalemate was exemplified by the fact the composite a month ago stood at 49.3, while a year ago it was at 44.7.

Transfers totalled 495,370 shares, smallest since March 23, against 710,470 last Saturday.

Touching new 1940 peaks were Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Lockheed, American Airlines, Eastern Air Lines, Willys-Overland common and preferred, Electric Boat, and Chickasha Cotton Oil.

General Motors and Chrysler were up ¼ each as talk of record first quarter net for these companies was heard. Improved also were Aviation Corp., Glenn Martin, Allied Chemical, Eastman Kodak, Texas Corp., Anaconda and Montgomery Ward.

U. S. Steel and Bethlehem held minus marks to fractions, getting some support on forecasts next week's mill operations might be up a little. Easier were N. Y. Central, Great Northern, Consolidated Edison, U. S. Rubber, Westinghouse and Standard Oil of N. J.

Secondary rail bonds pointed higher and commodities steadied after early hesitancy.

In the curb Aluminum of America shot up 4¼ to 187¼. Lesser improvement was registered for Bell Aircraft, Brewster Aero and Bath Ironworks. Off a bit were Gulf Oil, Humble Oil and Republic Aviation. The turnover here was about 110,000 shares compared with 167,000 a week ago.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—Cotton futures final prices today were unchanged to 3 points off.

The government's estimated that 626,000 bales of cotton were consumed in March appeared a little bleak to market men, since it was approximately 17,000 bales under the short month of February.

Continued cold weather in the south, and its retarding effect on the new crop, inspired some buying by Wall street interests. This, plus a little demand from trade and cooperative accounts, was readily satisfied by hedging sales and spot house offerings.

Textile sales for the week were estimated at around twice current output.

Exports Friday none; season so far 8,599,129 bales. Port receipts 4,673; port stocks 2,819,581.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, April 13 (AP)—The average price of middling cotton 15-16-inch cotton at 10 designated southern spot markets today was 1 lower to 10.81 cents a pound; average for the past 30 market days was 10.55. Middling ⅞ths-inch average was 10.43 cents a pound.

Grain . .

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, April 13 (AP)—Wheat prices started lower due to moderating weather but then rallied to score small net gains today as a result of pessimistic crop reports and European war developments.

Thus ended a week of stimulated grain market activity in which expanded trading and higher prices reflected dealers' evaluation of commodity values in view of the spreading war. Although part of the extreme price advance scored Tuesday was lost later, wheat closed almost 4 cents higher than a week ago while corn was more than 2 cents higher.

Wheat closed ¼ to ¾ cent higher than yesterday, May $1.07⅞@1.08, July $1.07@1.06¾; corn ⅛ to ½ up, May 59⅜@59½, July 60⅝; oats ⅛ off to ⅛ higher.

Party For Fliers Is Held In Palo Duro

AMARILLO, April 13 (AP) — The lower reaches of the Palo Duro canyon, where the famous J A ranch was established by John Adair and Charles Goodnight, will be a mecca today for aviators of the southwest.

Dick and Monty Ritchie, English grandsons of the famous Englishman who amassed a fortune in cattle in pioneer Panhandle days, are hosts to more than 150 pilots and their guests.

For the ordinary traveler, it's harder to get a look into the great J A ranch than it is to get a passport to war-torn Europe, but these fliers, invited by the Ritchies, aviation enthusiasts, will make a complete tour of the vast estate, then return to Amarillo for a banquet and dance.

Believed to be the first aviation party of its kind, the party is being "covered" by a national picture magazine, newsreels and several aviation magazines.

Actual Business Experience Is Given Students At Tech

"Practice mixed with theory" is an idea carried out in the curriculum of the department of economics and business administration of Texas Technological college, according to Dr. J. O. Ellsworth, head of department.

Practicality begins in the introductory course for freshmen. No textbooks are used in this course which is devoted to discovery and study of a personal business and its relations to commercial affairs.

Businessmen Speak

One laboratory each week is devoted to discussion by Lubbock business men on problems of their business and how students may train to fit into such activities. The freshmen practice principles every business firm practices, such as keeping a budget of income and expenses and an analysis of future programs as firms do in commercial building.

Current field problems in business are discovered in the seven-week travel course of 6,600 miles in 26 states when students study existing commercial institutions including banks, markets, factories, stock exchanges, brokers and government divisions associated with business. The travel course is offered on alternate summers.

Make Field Trips

In an advanced course in marketing, students observe business operations of institutions by making weekly field trips to Lubbock firms. Materials covering consumer buying habits, department store operations, cooperative buying and control of sales force are studied. An interesting feature of this course is that the students keep up with the stock market, buy and sell shares in class and are graded at the end of the semester on their gains and losses.

Researches are made by students with the cooperation of Lubbock merchants. In the fall semester students observed methods of 300 clerks in stores. Sixty-five items were on the schedule to be observed in the sales of each of 300 clerks. The consumer in each sale was interviewed and full reports of each sale were turned over to the merchants.

Salesmen Spring Up

Salesmen sprang up all over the campus as a result of a salesmanship class. Each member was required to do some actual selling, keeping the commission himself. Five new milk customers, five insurance policy holders and numerous magazine subscribers were "victims" of the class.

In the supervised business practice course each student is required to work 50 hours in some business office on the campus or in town. Practice in dictation, stencil cutting, filing and typing is given in the various offices.

Some of the future secretaries changed from a rather extreme southern to a northern accent when working in the offices of Congressman George Mahon and his secretary, Lloyd Croslin.

Students are required to take 120 words a minute for five minutes of dictation. On short letters 150 words can be taken in a minute by students and 200 words a minute for still shorter letters.

The classroom is conducted as a model office in the course on secretarial problems. Members of the class are called upon to take dictation, write letters, cut stencils and send out bills and invoices.

Office appliances are used in a course offered for the first time this semester. Dictaphone and Ediphone equipment has been purchased for this use.

Pan-American Day To Be Observed Here

A program in observance of Pan-American day will be presented from 4 to 4:30 o'clock this afternoon over KFYO, under auspices of the foreign language department of Texas Technological college.

A. B. Strehli of the foreign languages faculty will direct the program and several Lubbock residents who have lived in South and Central American countries will be interviewed.

Persons to be interviewed include Mrs. W. B. Gates, who lived in Brazil; O. D. Hargis, who has traveled widely and spent several years in South and Central America; Mrs. Bill Collins, who was born in Puerto Rico; Miss Doris Brotherson and Graham Brotherson, brother and sister living in Lubbock while attending Texas Technological college but whose home is in Pedro Miguel, Canal Zone, and Mrs. A. B. Strehli, who was born in Puerto Rico and lived in Panama a number of years.

Dairy Day At Lamesa Planned

LAMESA, April 13. (Special) — Third annual Dairy day for Lamesa will be held Friday, April 26, at the Dawson county fairgrounds, sponsored by leading dairy farmers of Dawson county, the extension service of Texas A. & M. college, county and home demonstration agents as an educational program to encourage breeding, management and production of better dairy animals as well as production of better dairy products.

At the show, animals and dairy products will be classified on their own merits; discussions will be given concerning breeding, feeding, and production of milk from dairy animals. Entries of dairy cattle and dairy products are expected to be received from farm men and women, 4-H club boys and girls, FFA boys and homemakers from Terry, Lynn, Borden, Scurry, Mitchell, Howard, Martin, Midland, Gaines and Dawson counties inclusive.

According to Dawson county agent, B. J. Baskin, three or four classes of dairy cattle will be judged. Milk, butter and cheese samples will also be judged. Ribbons will be placed on leading animals in the show and on quality products exhibited.

Students Pay Visit To Newspaper Plant

Nineteen students of Fieldton school in Lamb county visited the Avalanche-Journal plant Saturday morning and were escorted through on a tour of inspection which revealed how newspapers are edited and printed. They were accompanied by Mrs. Addie L. Spikes, teacher; Mrs. T. M. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Adams.

The students were in Lubbock participating and attending contests of the district meet of the Interscholastic league.

HEDGE IS PLANTED

HALE CENTER—Four hundred young hedge plants were set out about the city park here, said Mayor Sam W. Smith. Evergreens also were planted.

One Of Biggest Shopping Crowds Since Christmas Visits Lubbock Saturday

Lubbock's retail areas Saturday were reminiscent of downtown Houston as one of the largest shopping crowds since Christmas thronged the sidewalks.

Shrill whistles of additional traffic policemen echoed to the shuffling feet and emergency regulations were employed better to handle the crowd and the slowly threading lines of automobiles.

Signs to direct traffic directly through intersections at Broadway and Texas and at Broadway and Avenue J were resorted to through suggestion of Lewis Kittrell, sergeant of the traffic detail. No turns were allowed there except for city buses, "and that only because changing their routes would have found the bus-riding public unaware and might have caused inconvenience, as a result."

Business Is Good

Grocery, hardware and dry goods stores reported slightly increased Saturday business, some saying their volume was about normal.

All store managers talked with exhibited surprise at the size of crowds. No store managers were disappointed at sales volume, so far as a survey went.

The Interscholastic league meeting, the Tech Engineering show and a home economics open house attracted an unusual number of persons to the city, explaining part of the large crowd.

Patrolmen said the crowd was larger than any since Christmas, except for the pre-

They're A Hardy Bunch W Are Erecting New Building

By R. C. HANKINS
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

They're a hardy and philosophical lot — the fellows who change the Lubbock skyline.

They're the ironworkers, erectors and welders, on the $400,000 eight-story Lubbock National building, the first all-structural steel pile in the city, possibly in far West Texas.

They've Had Their Falls

They've had their falls, some of them, but shrug away reference—preferring to leave it with a "just one fall is all you get in this racket."

The adage may not stand scrutiny. Once in a while you hear of a particularly tough-hided fellow getting up, dusting himself off and returning to his $10 a day stint of swinging like a monkey from dizzy beams or riding over sheer emptiness suspended from a filament tracing its way to a pulley on the traveling boom.

R. C. Harwell is a case in point. He was given a shove from his nest 30 feet over a watercourse near Huntsville state prison, lit on the bank and rolled into the stream. And, take it from his associates, he still is "as spry as a cricket" just another of the small percentage who survived a mishap that must be chanced in such hazardous construction.

Welders Still On Job

Some of the gang whose sense of balance would make a cat resemble a rubber legged tumbling artist on a binge have gone. The erectors virtually have completed their work. The welders will remain another two or three weeks, completing the approximately 5,000 lineal feet of fillet welds on the 1,000,000 pounds of structural steel. For purpose of completing the picture, W. S. Moss, general contractor, said granite and brick work on the building's facade had begun Friday, lathe is being placed on bar joists and floors and two slabs (floors) will be poured this week; plumbing, air condition and electrical workers are following construction closely, laying pipes and conduits and, in general, the approximately 75 workmen on the job are moving steadily toward completion of the structure Aug. 15.

Another word to convey the general idea: C. E. Maedgen, president of Lubbock National company, said office space to be afforded had been "about 50 per cent leased." Applications continue to be received.

Move With Sureness

Up there high in the spiderwork there is nothing haphazard. The fellows who jockey steel into place, plumb it and put unusually high-test welds at junctures may seem to give about as much thought to their safety as they would to the causes of the Boer war, but they move with mechanical sureness built of confidence in Edward Burlew, hoisting engineer who since 1914 has helped throw shadows on the sky.

"Double-Safe" Burlew he's known as. Doubly deliberative in doing devious duties detailed in deftly dangling debris to Deadeye Dicks on dizzy decks and definitely dedicated to the dictum of delaying debilitation, defunctionalization and death for his disciples of Darwin.

Burlew is claimed to hold a record unique in construction circles, never having injured a workman. Emphasis on safety here has enhanced his record and has been abetted by a new system of signaling.

New Communication System

Where in the past there were mysterious wigwags, the whole hand meaning the load was to be moved —the thumb to move the boom, a cutoff motion with the hand to stop, twisting the fingers of the right hand like tightening a screw in the palm of the left indicating a little movement at a time, and the rest—a two-way electrical communication system has taken over.

Around the neck of the erection foreman, L. L. Murphy, is a contraption that looks like a coffee can full of honeycomb. It is a coffee can, housing a microphone. The foreman flips a switch and says his instructions through it. A loudspeaker near the hoist picks up the message and the hoisting engineer can talk back to the foreman.

Horses Once Were Used

W. O. Swift, jr., assistant steel inspector who conducts one over the building and lends him an inspector's shield so the visitor can study the ultra violet reeking arc as the welders fuse beams and columns surface and talks in terms of kips, a measure of stress, and moments, a measure in inch or foot pounds, explained the earliest form of hoisting he can recall. Horses were motive power and differently tuned bells indicated the signals. Drivers of the horses would hear and understand. Eventually, horses grew to understand as well as the drivers and needed practically no supervision.

Swift pointed out P. B. Blaney, a member of the iron gang.

"Been at this sort of thing 20 years," Blaney said. "Nope, no falls —unless you figure last night; fell from grace then, I guess."

A laugh went up from L. A. Garner, who climbs around on the spiderwork, yet evidences belief flying is "too dangerous," and A. H. Bennett, F. N. Fleming, Ted Graff, W. C. Foster, A. C. Killan, W. H. Oberlechner, M. A. Donaldson, L. K. Vaughan, F. P. Brannan, L. W. Campbell and some of the other iron workers.

Others Asked About Falls

Some of the others were asked about falls. They hadn't had any. Peculiarly enough, they seemed more interested in getting the name of their company, Austin Bros. Steel company, in print than their own. They seem to have a sort of college morale and point at every opportunity to the steel company's attainments in pioneering all-field-welded structural steel buildings in the southwest and having fabricated and erected the Dallas Gas building, a 14-story office building put together much like the Lubbock National building.

They and Swift tell one that since the first all-welded job 10 years ago, Austin Bros. has had much similar work, such as the addition to the federal reserve bank at Dallas.

Loyd Welch, chief welding inspector of Southwestern laboratories, and Swift pointed to the fact that only three persons had been injured in strictly

Lubbock High Students Attend Dance Friday Night

STUDENTS of Lubbock Senior High school attended an all-school dance Friday night at Hilton hotel from 9 to 12 o'clock with Jack York and his orchestra playing.

At 9:15 o'clock Buddy Sprague and Betty Ann McAfee led the grand march. During the evening Sprague directed various dances in which the entire group participated. At 10 o'clock he called a "Put Your Little Foot" dance and at 10:30 o'clock he led a "Cinderella" dance. The girls put their right shoe in the middle of the floor and the boys scrambled for them. Each boys' partner for the next few dances was the girl whose shoe he retrieved.

The dance closed with the group singing the Westerner song. Approximately 400 persons attended.

Chaperons were Mrs. Claude Keeton, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Leete Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. O'Mara, Mr. and Mrs. John Spikes, Mrs. R. L. Stephenson and Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Standefer. Teachers attending were Mrs. Emmett Burford, Miss Grace Padley and Carl Willingham.

Arrangements for the dance were made by Leete Jackson, jr., and R. W. Matthews, principal of the high school.

Committees Instigate Plans For Annual Recognition Day

COMMITTEES to instigate plans and arrangements for the eight annual Women's Recognition service to be held May 14, at Texas Technological college have been appointed according to Dean Mary W. Doak, chairman of general arrangements.

The awards committee composed of Miss Margaret W. Weeks, Miss Martye Poindexter, Mrs. William Dingus, Mrs. Bennett Benson, Marie Shook, Marilyn Fry, Helenoire Reynolds and Mary Louise McDonald is now preparing the list of co-eds to be recognized this spring.

Ceremony: Mrs. Edna Lyles, Miss Bonnie K. Dysart, Miss (Turn to Page 3, Column 2, Please)

League Revue Is Pictured

The finishing touches are now being added to the Junior Welfare League's current production, "Merry-Go-Round" revue. The cast, which is composed of over one hundred of Lubbock's potential "Ginger Rogerses" and "Fred Astaires" is busy rehearsing day and night on the various song and dance routines, the wardrobe department is busy fitting the hundreds of costumes brought from New York and the technical department is in the throes of hanging and setting up varied and elaborate stage sets and lighting equipment.

He Should Be Twins

Directing amateurs and making them semi-professionals is the job of the man, Howard Dilley of New York City, who is producing his second League show in Lubbock and who was caught as he was showing "how it is done."

The seated figure is Miss Merry-Go-Round, "mystery woman" who arrived last week from New York and who is to participate in the production and no other information about her is being released.

Methodist Seniors To Be Honored Tuesday

High school and Tech college seniors who attend the First Methodist church are to be honored when the congregation is host with a banquet Tuesday night at 7 o'clock at the church parlors. Cecil R. Matthews teaches the college class, J. T. Fountain, the high school senior boys and Miss Grace Padley, the senior girls.

Benefit Book Review Is Open To Public

Mrs. A. D. Leonard will review "The Nazarene" (Sholem Asch) at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Asbury Methodist church. The benefit is sponsored by the women's missionary society. Tickets are on sale for 25 cents.

Visitors Will Be Honored At Dinner

VISIT of Mrs. William Corwith of Rockville Centre, N. Y., national president of the American Legion auxiliary, to Lubbock Wednesday is highlight of the spring's activities for the Lubbock auxiliary. Committees have been appointed for courtesies to be extended to Mrs. Corwith; the program has been planned in detail and invitations have been extended to distinguished state officers of both the Legion and auxiliary, Legionnaires and heads of civic and patriotic organizations of Lubbock.

Another honor guest for the day will be Lubbock's own Mrs. George S. Berry who is serving as department president of the American Legion auxiliary of Texas and who recently returned from a swing around the state visiting several auxiliaries and Legion projects. She was accompanied by Mrs. Roy J. Watson, membership chairman for the state.

General chairman of events for Wednesday will be Mrs. W. B. Sides, auxiliary president, assisted by A. L. Glassman, Lubbock post commander.

Comes From Amarillo

Mrs. Corwith is expected to arrive here Wednesday morning from Amarillo where she will spend Tuesday inspecting the recently constructed veterans' hospital, speaking over the radio at 2:30 o'clock and attending a joint meeting of the Legion and auxiliary at the Amarillo Legion hall that night.

She will have luncheon at the Hilton hotel with executive boards of the Legion and auxiliary and that night at 7 o'clock she will be guest of honor at a banquet in the Hilton ballroom which is open to the public. Plates are seventy-five cents and reservations may be made with Mrs. S. H. Bain, 910 Texas avenue. A public meeting at the Legion hall at which time Mrs. Corwith will discuss child welfare will conclude the day's activities.

Plan Informal Reception

An informal reception at 6:30 o'clock will precede the banquet hour. Mrs. Sides will preside at the banquet and welcome address will be given by Mayor Carl E. Slaton. Accompanied by Miss Mary Lu Jobson, Miss Elizabeth Brooks will sing "Have You Ever Been to Texas in the Spring." Mrs. Berry will be presented and other introductions will be made.

Special guests will include Mrs. Corwith; Mrs. Berry; Lou J. Roberts of Borger, department commander; Dr. W. J. Danforth, of Fort Worth, national executive committeeman; Mrs. Danforth, past department president; Mrs. Tilman Jones of Post, past department president; Mrs. E. R. Anderson of Plainview, district president; Charles Whitacre, district commander; Mr. Berry, departmental rehabilitation chairman, Mrs. Watson; A. C. Jackson, department member Sons of American Legion committee; Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president of Texas Technological college and Mr. Glassman.

Program For Hall Meeting

Mrs. Sides will preside for the meeting at the Legion hall immediately after the banquet. This will be opened with the singing of "The Eyes of Texas," arranged by Mrs. J. M. Hall, followed with greetings, group singing, introductions and a sextette singing "The Piper from Over the Way," a national contest song. Personnel is Mesdames C. H. Thompson, Lloyd Johnston, Sides, Marvin McLarty, George W. Brewer and H. D. Stanley, accompanied by Mrs. Hall. Mrs. Berry will present Mrs. Corwith.

Committee chairmen as announced by Mrs. P. W. Wood are: Reception, Mrs. Sides and Mr. Glassman; guests, Mesdames McLarty and Dan A. Blair; banquet, Mesdames F. A. Kleinschmidt and R. F. Hinchey; luncheon, Mesdames Paul Hardwick and Stanley; publicity, Mesdames Wood and S. H. Bain; flowers, Mesdames Fred Higbee and Watson; hall arrangements, Mesdames W. H. Waln and Hugh Slagle.

Mrs. Berry also will be heard on the Amarillo broadcast which will be over Texas State Network hookup originating at KFDA.

Senior Girls Meet In Finberg Home Friday

The Senior Girl Scouts met with Mrs. Francis Finberg, 1802 Avenue V, Friday afternoon. The new Lieutenant, Miss Lois Graves, was welcomed.

Officers for the next three months were elected. They are president, Maxine McMillan; vice-president, Mickye Northington; secretary and treasurer, Imogene Vincent; reporter, Lois Hinsley.

The troop will meet during the summer and plans were made for several meetings. The troop will be completely registered in National Headquarters this week.

School Chorus Is To Sing Before Club

The mixed chorus of Lubbock Senior High school under the direction of Mrs. Elois Elliott will sing at a meeting of the Senior High Mothers club Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock in the auditorium.

Mrs. Robert J. Allen is to speak on "Education for Everyday Living."

An election of officers will be held and members are urged to attend.

Election To Climax Seventh District Convention In Shamro

Three-Day Program Has Been Planned

CANYON, April 13.—Election of officers for the next two years will climax the eighteenth annual convention of the seventh district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, which will be held in Shamrock April 29 and 30, and May 1. Candidates for the presidency include Mrs. H. P. Godeke and Mrs. W. P. Clement, both of Lubbock. The new officers will be inaugurated at the state convention to be held next November.

Outstanding speakers from various parts of Texas will take part on the district convention program, which has been arranged by Mrs. T. V. Reeves of Canyon, program chairman. These speakers will include Mrs. Fancher Archer, young Corpus Christi lawyer; Dr. D. D. Jackson of the department of education, Texas Technological college, Lubbock; Dr. J. A. MRS. WILLIAM CORWITH

Mrs. William Corwith Serving National Auxiliary As Successful President

Mrs. William Corwith, of Rockville Centre, N. Y., who was elected national president of the American Legion auxiliary at the auxiliary's national convention in Chicago, September 25 to 28, has risen rapidly to national prominence in a relatively short span of years. She is most widely known for her development and expansion of the auxiliary's radio broadcasting activities.

Mrs. Corwith is a New Yorker by birth, being born at Hillsdale in 1898. She was graduated from the Hillsdale high school at the age of 15, then attended the New York State College for Teachers, receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree in 1918. She was a member of Psi Gamma sorority and vice-president of her senior class. Following graduation, she taught in the high schools of Fayetteville, Fort Plain and Rockville Centre, N. Y., until her marriage to William Corwith, of Rockville Centre.

Member Since 1926

Becoming a charter member of Rockville Centre unit of the auxiliary in 1926, she served the unit in various capacities and demonstrated her ability for leadership. In 1932, upon the death of the unit president, Mrs. Corwith, as first vice-president, succeeded to the office. Service as treasurer and membership chairman and then vice-chairman of the Nassau County auxiliary organization was the first broadening of her horizon beyond her local unit. From there, she advanced to chairmanship of the second district, embracing five counties with a membership of 6,000. She also served as chairman of the department trophies and awards committee.

In 1934, Mrs. Corwith was elected as one of the three department vice-president's and entrusted with supervision of the department's memorial poppy program. A year later she was unanimously elected president of the New York department. Her administration was marked by strong membership growth and important achievements in many activities. She has since served the department as chairman of its legislative committee.

Active In Radio Work

For the past three years, Mrs. Corwith has been chairman of the national radio committee. She has improved and expanded the auxiliary's radio broadcasting from local stations and on national chains and has personally directed many national broadcasts.

When the auxiliary's national convention was held in New York City in 1937, Mrs. Corwith was chairman of the national convention committee, directing the efforts of 1,000 New York women who arranged for and conducted the entertainment of the thousands of auxiliary women who attended.

Mrs. Corwith gains her auxiliary eligibility through her husband, William H. Corwith, who served in the Quartermaster's Corps detachment at Camp Dix, N. J. He is a charter member of the Rockville Centre post of the American Legion and a member of the department finance committee. A practicing attorney in Jamaica, N. Y., he is also a member of the real estate firm of Corwith Brothers, Inc. Her brother is also an American Legion member.

Mrs. Ashford is a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High school in Dallas and Mr. Ashford is a graduate of Gilmer High school and attend the South Texas school of Law.

Dorothy McCune To Be Sunday Bride

TULIA, April 13. (Special)—The wedding of Miss Dorothy Marie McCune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. McCune, and Bernie H. Clower will take place Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. M. D. La Velle. Dr. W. H. Clark will perform the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. T. H. Hazelwood will sing "Because" and "I Love You Truly" preceding the service. Mrs. Clark will play Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the processional and "Indian Love Call" during the ceremony.

The altar will be decorated with sweetpeas and ferns with tall tapers on either side.

Mrs. Williams Is Attendant

The bride will descend a circular stairway and be met at the foot by her father, who will give her in marriage, and her matron-of-honor, Mrs. Bill Williams of Lubbock.

The bride will wear a lake-land green costume suit with cross-fox fur and beige accessories. She will carry a bouquet of talisman roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She is going to wear her grandmother's wedding ring for "something old."

Mrs. Williams, who was the bride's roommate a tTexas Technological college, will wear a pink sheer dress with a corsage of blue iris. Mr. Williams is to serve as best man.

Mrs. McCune is to wear a navy sheer dress with a corsage of pink roses and Mrs. J. L. Clower, the bridegroom's mother will wear a navy sheer frock with pink flowers.

Following the ceremony coffee and cake will be served to close friends and relatives.

The couple will leave immediately following the reception for a trip in South Texas. They will be at home in Wichita Falls where Mr. Clowe ris associated with the Wcihita National bank.

Miss McCune is a former student of Tech where she was a member of Las Chaparritas social club. She also held membership in Book Reviewers, Capa y Espada, Spanish club and S. P. Q. R., Latin club. She was one of the first girl yell leaders at the college.

Mr. Clower is a former student of the University of Texas.

About 75 guests were present including Misses Joyce Jones and Jo Marie Carmack, students in Tech.

Mrs. Aletha Conner of Monahans, writer of some note whose newest book is "God Holds the Key," is visiting Mrs. Della Hawkinson. She plans to leave today for Oklahoma City to attend a federated club convention. She is a state officer in the Oklahoma Federation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moxley of Dallas visited Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Prideaux, 3123 Nineteenth street, and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moxley, 1805 Fourteenth street.

Keeping Up With Comings, Goings And Doings

From Lou To Louella

DEAR LOUELLA: Has the wanderlust reached you? Numerous persons have confided to me that they would like to get away from work and household duties and go somewhere. Just an old case of spring fever if you ask me.

Mrs. Hub Jones, Mrs. E. J. Parsons, Mrs. E. L. Klett and Mrs. Sam West are in Washington, D. C. and Arlington, Va., until the 20th. They plan to attend the opening game of the baseball season there and see Sam West, who plays for the Washington Senators, start the game. Mrs. Jones is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones and Congressman Marvin Jones. Mrs. Klett is visiting her daughter, Eunice, who is in National Park Seminary and Mrs. Parsons went to see Shirley who also is in school there. Mr. Parsons will leave this week to join them in the capitol city. They will return in a new automobile. Mrs. Klett plans to return by plane.

June Wedding

A young woman whose name is the same as that of a prominent lawyer will wed in June, I am told. The young man lives downstate and looks like Lee Tracy.

Las Chaparritas club members received pins from the pledges at a recent party. Gerry Gamblin was the only member who had a pin so they gave her a bracelet with her initials and the club initials on it.

Mrs. T. W. Thomas is leaving for Tyler to see her son, William, and his wife and then she will go to Galveston where she will meet her daughter, Mrs. Earl Miller and Mr. Miller and they will visit the Maynard Knights. She will be gone until June 1. Mrs. Carrie Thomas is visiting in Houston.

I think that Mary Katherine Daniel and Dorothy Dell Tech co-eds look enough be twins. They are both dada. Other people think and often call them by names.

Mrs. George S. Berry of Lubbock, who was elected department president of the American Legion auxiliary of Texas at the Waco convention last August, has risen rapidly to Department prominence in a relatively short span of years. She has been active in her local unit and in the state activities since her membership in the auxiliary. She joined the American Legion auxiliary at Lubbock in February, 1932, and in September of that year was installed as president of her local unit, and later served her unit in a number of capacities. In 1935 she served her state as district president; in 1936 was chairman of the community service committee; 1937 was division state vice-president; 1938 was chairman of trophies and awards for the state; 1939 was constitution and by-laws chairman, and at the end of that year was elected state president. Mrs. Berry gains her eligibility through her husband, George S. Berry, who was in the signal corps and trained at Camp Vail, N. J. He is a practicing attorney, and belongs to Allen Bros. Post No. 148, Lubbock, which he served as commander in 1935. He has had appointments on a number of state committees and is now chairman of the state rehabilitation committee of the American Legion.

Want "in" on next year's "Big News" Now?

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

YOU can figure it out for yourself from what you see in daily traffic and what you hear when the talk turns to automobiles.

Buick's pacing the pack. Has been for several years.

It called this year's style turn a year ago. It set current performance standards in '38 with its Dynaflash engine. It still leads the crowd for riding qualities with its BuiCoil Springing, now in its third year.

So where's a more logical place to look for next year's "big news" than in this year's big and roomy Buick?

It may be smoother engines. Buick is the only car that now balances power plants after assembly.

Coil springs all around may come. Buick's never need lubrication, are practically indestructible, and even cut down skid-risks.

Maybe it'll be heavier frames—Buick has the heaviest of any car of its price. Or maybe many of the "extra touches" Buick so freely applies—safety-latches on rear doors and Two-Way Direction Signals with automatic cut-off.

You get all of these things now in Buick.

Get them with the plus of Buick quality of materials and workmanship—get them at a price that suggests a six instead of an eight.

So it's easy to start enjoying future "new features" right now.

Just go try a Buick. Look it over, inside and out. And get the prices.

Even if you've been buying in the lowest-price field you'll find it takes less than you think to step up to a Buick. Prices begin at $895 ★delivered at Flint, Mich.; transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

You get a "Good Deal" Two Ways from Your Buick Dealer

A good "deal" when it comes to old-car allowances—and a whale of a lot of automobile in your new Buick. See your dealer and find out for yourself.

"Best buy's Buick!"

Miss Strayhorn Is Wed To Post Man

POST, April 13.—Miss Dorothy Strayhorn of Snyder and Phil S. Bouchier of Post were united in marriage at the home of the Methodist pastor, Rev. I. A. Smith, at 7:30 o'clock April 5. Both Miss Strayhorn and Mr. Bouchier are members of pioneer West Texas families.

The bride wore a frock of mist blue crepe fashioned with tailored bodice and swing skirt, white draped turban and white gloves. She wore a corsage of white carnations. They left following the ceremony for a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Bouchier is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Strayhorn of Snyder and is head of the English department of Snyder Junior High school. She is a talented vocalist and is active in club and church work. She is serving as president of the federated Altruian Daughters club. She is a graduate of the University of Texas where she was a member of Chi Omega sorority. She did undergraduate work at Trinity university in Waxahachie and has attended summer school at Texas Technological college, Lubbock.

Mr. Bouchier, son of Mrs. A. W. Bouchier, is postmaster here and is a member of Rotary club, the chamber of commerce and the Masonic lodge. His father, the late A. W. Bouchier, was a pioneer Borden-Garza county ranch owner.

The couple will be at home in Post after May 24.

Favors were balls. A birthday cake centered the table and each guest was given an individual cake with one candle.

Ice cream and cake were served to Don Dean, Bob Harbrough, George Watkins, Bill Watkins, Arthur Pierce, Jo Ann Bruckner, John and James Norcross, Emmett Adair, jr., Grace Morris, Craig Morris, Wilene Klose, Dorothy Berg, Bobby Bruckner and Billy Ray Haney. Mrs. B. Bruckner, Mrs. A. A. Bruckner and Mrs. Jack Trammel were special guests.

Casts Of Pied Piper And "Wild Nell" Are Announced; Will Be Staged April 23

Casts of "The Pied Piper of Hamelin" and "Wild Nell, the Pet of the Plains," to be presented by the Children's Theater under sponsorship of St. Paul's Episcopal Auxiliary April 23 at Senior High school auditorium have been announced by Mrs. Alan L. Strout, director.

Characters are taken by professors and students of Texas Technological college, students from senior and junior high schools and the grade schools.

The plays will be given at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Admission is 15 cents for public school students and 25 cents for college students and adults.

"The Pied Piper of Hamelin" was written by Marguerite Steen of England. She ran a highly successful children's theater in England for some time and just this year had an adult play produced on the London stage.

Cast of characters for the Piper are: The Pied Piper, Dr. D. W. Alden; the Mayor, Dr. Truman Camp; councillors, James Venable, Frazier Blackwell and Walter Studhalter; town clerk, Buddy Sprague; second office boy, George Gray; first office boy, Jack Cooper; women of Hamelin, Mona Pierce, Margaret Cammack and Betty Sue Walker; grand duchess Ladislaus of Hamelin, Margaret Wallace; ladies-in-waiting, Carol Ann Krueger and Norma Kelly; Herr Musik Director von Saxefohn, a musician, Leon Harris; Herr Ober Chemiker, an inventor, Fred Brewton; Erika, the accordion maid, Dorothy Reese; children of Hamelin, John Ike Kennedy, Max Zachary, Charles Lee Hamrick, Dorothy Sue Standefer, Jane Robin Lawson, Maxine Weems, Martha Jane LaRoe, Bobby Levine, Leonard Jarett, Patricia Norton; Carol Jean Sandlin, Arlett Arnet, Caroline Maas, Elizabeth Mitchell, Cherise Pinkston, James Blazi and Jimmy Skidmore.

The captions for the Wild Nell play were written by Mrs. Strout. Miss Fay Brown will be at the piano. This cast is as follows:

Wild Nell, Mrs. A. B. Strehli; Handsome Harry, Robert Lockard; Lady Clara Vere de Vere, Mrs. W. D. Alden; Sitting Bull, Dr. Waldo Glock; Bull Durham, A. B. Strehli; Squaw Get-your-goat-um, Miss Troy Allen; captain reader, Dr. Alan L. Strout.

Mrs. Rogers Lectures To Club On Birds

Mrs. Clayson Fuller, 2507 Twenty-sixth street, was hostess to the Needlecraft club Friday afternoon. After a business session, Mrs. Warren Rogers talked on "Birds." Refreshments were served to Mesdames Buddy Hacker, Buster Vaughn, Rogers, E. P. Burdette and a Mrs. Fortenberry, a guest.

The club will meet with Mrs Burdette, 1501 Twenty-third street, April 25.

Saturday Luncheon Is Courtesy For Bride

Mrs. R. L. Edwards, the former Miss Faye Treadwell, was honored at a luncheon Saturday noon at Mexican Inn by Miss Ethy Lou Edwards, her sister-in-law. Purple and white lilacs decorated the table and corsages of sweetpeas were presented to the guests.

The honoree was presented with her pattern in silverware.

Guests were Mesdames Paul Fischer, R. J. Edwards, C. C. Stegall, W. M. Edwards and J. T. Treadwell of Shallowater; Milton Edwards of Plainview, F. A. Wyatt of Tahoka; Misses Leona Reddell, Myrtle Robnett of Amarillo and Adelaide Young of Southland.

Camera Visits With Lubbockites--K. N. Clapp...

K. N. Clapp, left, glancing at cotton samples with an assistant, Wiley Briscoe, right, in his offices in the Wilson building.

Clapp, Lubbock parks board chairman, inspects foliage in a city park.

Mrs. Ellen Kennedy Clapp, left of Memphis, Tenn., watches her in his yard at 1642 Thirteenth street.

Cotton Man K. N. Clapp Has Time For Scouts, Parks And Many Other Civic Activities

Bring up the subject of Scouting on the South Plains and the discussion will invariably get around to K. N. Clapp, one of the organizers of the South Plains Area Council.

Talk about parks, either Texas or city, and you'll hear his name mentioned prominently again.

Discuss Red Cross lifesaving and swimming, civic work, lodge or church activities and gain K. N. Clapp's name figures prominently.

Swing over to the topic of cotton and once more you'll hear K. N. Clapp, who is rounding out his thirtieth year with Anderson Clayton & company, involved in the discussion.

Falls Into Useful Catagory

K. N. Clapp is one of Lubbock's busiest citizens but always has time for any worthwhile movement that needs his time, money and energy. And because of that willingness he more than quallifies for the category of one of Lubbock's most useful vitizens.

Moving to Lubbock in 1924, Clapp's early residence here was saddened by the death of his wife and burdened by the task of rearing two daughters, ages 6 and 2. But in spite of this he has always found time for extra-curricula activities other than being a father-mother and counselor to his girls.

In 1925, he and L. S. Harkey organized the South Plains Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America and from 1926 until 1928, he was scoutmaster of Troop 4, Lubbock. When the council was organized there were two independent scout troops in the area, Lubbock and Lamesa, embracing about 50 boys. Now there are more than 2,000 boys enrolled in the scouting program.

Values Boys' Regard Highly

Clapp is commissioner for the council now, but he'll tell you he would rather be a scoutmaster again. A total of 65 boys were under his supervision during the three years he was scoutmaster and he cherishes their friendship' and confidence above everything else.

"I value the regard of those boys more than anything else I know," he declares.

In 1926, the Lubbock City Parks board was created and Clapp was one of three persons appointed by then Mayor Harlie D. Woods. Mrs. Lou Stubbs and J. B. Maxey were the other members. The Board was sort of a figurehead group for two years but in 1928 work on the parks was started, cites purchased and the program launched as one of the major phases of the city's operations.

Chairman Of Parks Board

Lubbock now has five parks, maintains a portion of a sixth in Mackenzie State park and has two undeveloped sites ready for expansion in the near future. Clapp has been chairman of the board since 1920. Mrs. Clark M. Mullican and Overton W. Ribble are new members who have been added in recent years, making the board composed of five members.

In 1937, Gov. James V. Allred named Clapp to the State Parks board for a four-year term and he has been an active member since that time.

Besides his scout activities and parks work, Clapp has been the leader in the establishment of Red Cross lifesaving and swimming instructions over West Texas. In 1926 during the first scout camp at Post for this area, there were only ten boys out of 200 who could swim more than 50 yards and during the last camp there were only about the same number, ten out of 200 who couldn't swim more than that which offers ample testimony for his efforts along that line.

Holds State Masonic Position

Clapp is a member of the First Presbyterian church, the Lubbock Kiwanis club and prominent in activities of the Lubbock Masonic lodge. He was commander of the Lubbock commandery in 1934 and in 1935 was named to the state lodge in which he holds the position of junior warden at present. He is a member of Khiva temple in the Shrine and active in the South Plains Shrine club.

Kennedy N. (stands for nothing) Clapp was born in Memphis, Tenn., June 15, 1888. His father, J. W. Clapp, was a utilities executive and had formerly been in the cotton business, a profession Clapp took up in 1910 after elementary schooling in Memphis and attendance at the University of Virginia. Clapp started out with the company at Little Rock, Ark., and during the next three years he never spent more than three months in any one place. He worked for the company in Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Oklahoma and Texas.

Texas His Adopted State

Moving to Lubbock, Clapp adopted Texas as his home state and declares this section to be the finest place to live he has ever seen. He has resided here longer than any other place except his birthplace, Memphis.

He married Alice Hagar in Stillwater, Okla., in 1913 and to them were born two daughters, Ellen K. (now Mrs. George Dale of Lubbock) and Jean, a sophomore student in Texas Technological college. Mrs. Clapp died in 1924.

Clapp's main hobby is gardening and his yard and lawn at 1642 Thirteenth street offer a profusion of growing things. He is a great nature lover and in the heighth of his active participation in scout training work, his back yard resembles a zoo collection.

One of the regular visitors at the Clapp residence every year is his aged mother, Mrs. Ellen Kennedy Clapp of Memphis, who despite her 79 years recently made the train trip here to visit her son, one of her greatest admirers.

Hospital Group To Meet Here

Representatives of hospitals in 30 counties of Lubbock area are to be guests at a luncheon in Lubbock hotel Friday noon at which Dr. W. H. Groseclose and Bryce Twitty, both of Dallas, will be principal speakers according to announcement Saturday by C. E. Hunt, superintendent of Lubbock sanitarium.

Dr. Groseclose is president and Twitty is administrator for Group Hospital Service, inc., for which Lubbock is the headquarters in the area serving 30 counties with Harlie D. Woods as area manager. Hunt is a director and will preside at the luncheon.

To Discuss Problems

Invited to the luncheon, Woods said, are the staff members, nurses, administrative employes and others connected with the hospitals. Plans already have been made, he added, for a minimum attendance of 75 with the possibility it will be considerably larger. Problems in connection with the operation of hospitals are to be discussed and the group hospital plan will be explained.

The luncheon will be one of the two meetings in Lubbock at which Dr. Groseclose and Twitty will speak while making the longest stop in Lubbock on the itinerary of a state tour. They are to arrive Thursday afternoon and will appear at a meeting at 8 o'clock Thursday night, also in the Lubbock, to which the public will be invited.

Methods For Improving The Reading Of High School Students Being Studied

To improve the reading ability of students of Junior and Senior High school has been the primary purpose of the language arts faculties of both schools, coordinated by Miss Grace Padley.

To accomplish this purpose the language arts teachers have concentrated on seventh grade students but have established special classes in the eighth grade and have organized two reading classes in Senior High school.

Experiments Conducted

According to Miss Padley the faculty will seek to continue work in improving methods to include more experiences of children next year. One of the main things which has been done to improve methods is the experimenting which has been going on in the classes of Mrs. Virgil Wolfe and D. M. Howell, the language arts coordinator, said.

Phases of the work in the department which have been outstanding this year are special Book week programs, a series of radio programs called "Paths to Poetry" given over KFYO by Mrs. J. L. Teal, poetry and essay contest including Shakespeare, poetry, and health made provision for special interests and needs of students through special courses, including journalism, speech, general language, commercial English, and special reading classes, made a revised course of study, had five teachers attend the regional conference of National Council of Teachers of English held this year in San Antonio had Mrs. Teal named chairman of the district conference of English teachers and Howell was chairman of the English section at the Texas State Teachers association.

Each and every one has been disqualified by private, but widely-quoted, expressions of acute distaste for the brain trusters. If the White House coterie had its way, these gents wouldn't even be allowed on the bandwagon.

Wall Streeters Lining Up

But the most curious source of Roosevelt strength is one which has so far received very litle publicity. It comes, oddly enough, from a class which has hitherto been nearer apoplexy thas enthusiasm upon the mention of the president's name—the moguls of the mythical and actual Wall street. Interventionists to a man, and for perfectly sound business reasons, these financial opportunists have been quietly edging toward the third-term idea. Every time a Republican candidate comes out flatly against intervention, the Wall streeters hate Mr. Roosevelt just a little less. The stock market's spurt on learning the news of Oslo's capitulation to the Nazis was an excellent barometer of this attitude. The moguls may be somewhat short-sighted about social-reform, but they always recognize buttered bread when they see it.

Thus, the old saying that politics fakes strange bedfellows was never more tritely true than at the present moment. And yet all the members of this weird third-term coalition do have one desire in common. They all want a "dependable" man. The New Dealers want a man who can be depended upon to continue their social revolution. The political bosses want a man who can be depended on to dish out the patronage. And the Wall streeters want a man who can be depended on to do "the right thing" by the Allies and our 1,800 potential munition factories. The three strange bedfellows agree that the dependable man's name is F. D. Roosevelt.

Cracks About Jessel And His Romance Ruled Off Air

BY PAUL HARRISON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, April 13—Short takes: George Jessel has been the subject of so many jokes, because of his near marriage to that 15-year-old show cutie, that major radio networks have issued orders forbidding further air references to the romance. . . . Other evening Judy Garland wore her mother's wedding ring (on her right hand) while dining out, and someone asked if she weren't afraid rumors would begin to fly. "No," she said, "Everyone knows I'm much too old for Jessel."

Jimmy Cagney is a little annoyed about a story that's going the rounds as fact. Seems that after rehearsing a simple scene for "Torrid Zone" several times, he forgot the line when the camera began to turn. Also in the scene, merely for atmosphere, was a parrot. But Director William Keighley says the parrot prompted Cagney on his speech.

Seek Chorus Girls

ANOTHER picture is being prepared at Metro for Eddie Cantor, and the comedian will play the role of a man whose life is made miserable because he looks exactly like Eddie Cantor . . . The Marx brothers are going crazy—crazier, anyway—trying to find three chorus girls who look alike for roles in the next Marx flicker. Everyone thought they'd be easy to find because half the cuties in Hollywood, when you look at 'em on the street or in night clubs, appear to have been cast in the same mold. But they don't photograph that way.

Bette Davis wants to do a comedy under Frank Capra, and Capra wants to do one, too, if he can find a story. In the Warner restaurant at lunch, she called across to his table, "Have you found something for me yet?" He replied, "There isn't anything you haven't got."

A lot more pictures will be made in Technicolor after next autumn, when a new single-film process for the original photography will be used. It will save an enormous amount of money for the studios, although the laboratory processes of printing from three negative films will be unchanged.

The intolerance boys are busy again. "Strange Cargo," the Clark Gable-Joan Crawford penal colony picture, which tried its level best to handle its religious aspects reverently, has been encountering local censor trouble here and there and now has been condemned by the Legion of Decency, not only because of its treatment of religion but because of "lustful implications in dialog and situation." This is the first major film of which the Legion has ever wholly disapproved.

Won't Need To Leave

BASIL RATHBONE, who takes part in one of the radio medicine shows, plugging a cold remedy, had such a bad cold before a recent program that they had to boil him in a steam cabinet and send a nurse with him to the broadcast.

Albert Basserman, famed German actor who scored so sensationally in a bit role in "Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet," isn't going to be deported, after all. After hundreds of Hollywoodsmen interceded for him, Basserman was allowed to go to Mexico and re-enter the United States under a new visa. Warner Brothers plan to star him in "One Hour of Glory." . . . The town is almost as busy casting "Escape" as it was in nominating players for "Gone With the Wind." Six Metro directors have asked for the assignment, and almost every player on the lot is hoping for a role. Newest report is that Pola Negri will return to Hollywood to play the countess.

Description of Boris Karloff: "The face thats holding back television."

Laugh Affair On At Texan

WEAVING a dramatic romance about a girl from the wrong side of the tracks and her Prince Charming who runs a hamburger stand, "Primrose Path" brings Ginger Rogers and Joel McCrea to the Palace theater today in their first co-starring vehicle in six years.

Adapted from the sensational Broadway dramatic success, the story deals with the stormy romance of Ellie May Adams and Ed Wallace. Ellie May, desperately ashamed of her dissolute family and determined to keep decent herself, meets Ed while digging clams at the beach. She falls instantly in love with him. Her sincerity affects him and they are married and for a few weeks are blissfully happy.

Bound To Learn Truth

But Ellie May realizes that sooner or later Ed will learn the truth about her family, and decides to bring them together. The meeting breaks up their marriage. Ed furious at Ellie May's deception and believing she is tarred with the same brush, storms away.

How Ed's subsequent efforts at reconciliation are frustrated by Ellie May's waspish grandmother, the girl's losing battle to support the family after her mother dies, and the manner in which the young couple's troubles are straightened out, make for striking drama and suspense.

Fine Supporting Cast

Besides offering exceptional opportunities to Miss Rogers and McCrea, the picture has a distinguished supporting cast.

Marjorie Rambeau and Miles Mander as Ellie May's easy-going mother and broken-down father respectively; Joan Carroll as her sassy little sister; and Queenie Vassar, famous stage actress making her screen debut, as the malicious grandmother, comprise the Adams family. Henry Travers has the role of McCrea's sympathetic grandfather and Vivienne Osborne and Carmen Morales play other important parts.

Comedy Is At Texan

A comedy pure and simple throughout, a comedy of murders and gangsters and reporters, is "The Housekeeper's Daughter," which opens today at the Texan theater.

Adolphe Menjou and William Gargan carry the brunt of the comedy for quite a stretch as drunken reporters. Donald Meek comes in somewhat later as a dyspeptic city editor and Marc Lawrence joins on as a gangster nobody takes seriously.

Joan Bennett lets out the emotional stop slightly as a good girl fresh from the rackets and John Hubbard is seen as the wealthy young man who wishes himself into the reporting profession and blunders into a series of phoney scoops that turn out to be real and get him all but killed.

Jack Teagarden Is On 'Show Of Week'

Jack Teagarden, torrid trombonist and his orchestra star on Mutual's "Show of the Week" over KFYO this afternoon from 5:30 to 6 p. m.

On April 21 the band sensation of the nation, Orrin Tucker and baby-voiced Bonnie Baker romp through "The Show of the Week" for KFYO listeners. Of course, they'll feature "Oh Johnny," the tune that has skyrocketed them to success.

SUCTION CAUSES MOVEMENT

The starfish progresses by means of its suction cap arms. It creates a vacuum in its tubes by filling them with water, placing the cups against a surface, and then withdrawing the water into its body.

Actor's Former Wife Is Discovered Dead

NEW YORK, April 13 (U.P.)—Helen Derby Meredith, former wife of the actor, Burgess Meredith, was found dead in her basement apartment today, apparently a suicide by gas.

Mrs. Meredith wrote a note on a kitchen memo pad before opening the jets of the stove. As she died she wrote this postscript: "I'm feeling fine except for the fumes."

The tragedy was discovered by the governess for Mrs. Meredith's 12 year old daughter by her first husband, Stephen Berrian, jr., a former junior amateur golf champion. The child was spending the week-end with Mrs. Meredith's father, Harry L. Derby, former president of the American Cyanamid and Chemical Co.

Here are scenes from "The Dead End Kids On Dress Parade," now on at the Broadway. John Litel, Frankie Thomas and Sissie Loftus appear with them.

First-Run Films On At Broadway

A NEW schedule of first-run pictures will be inaugurated at the Broadway theater this week, according to announcement Saturday by Kenneth Taylor, manager.

The attractions will be offered due to the fact that the Lindsey theater is being remodeled and its bookings have been shifted to the Broadway. Taylor also announced that the Lyric has been undergoing renovations and that first class second-run productions will be shown there.

Dead End Kids Back

A smartly attired bunch of Dead End Kids will start the week's bill at the Broadway in "The Dead End Kids On Dress Parade," a fast-stepping cadet picture.

The boys who have made their reputations as young tenement toughs will this time enjoy life as a model group of American youths at a military academy.

The story tells of a hardened slum kid who is sent by his dead father's war buddy to a military school in an effort to salvage what there is left of a pretty toughened existence. At the school he runs into the others and the fun begins.

Takes Things In Own Hands

He decides to run things his way, having little or no regard for military discipline. He gets into a multitude of scenes which wind up with his seriously injuring a student officer.

When the young officer refuses to prosecute the tough sees the error of his ways and resolves to reform. But the others refuse to acknowledge him and it takes a school fire in which he distinguishes himself to bring him into the

Pastor Fails In His Fight Against Indecency Of Show

SAN ANTONIO, April 13 (U.P.) — The show moved on to Dallas today after the Rev. Neal Ellis' one-man crusade against the "indecency" of a stage production fizzled. He said the showgirls of Stars Over Broadway didn't wear enough clothes during their theater appearance.

The Rev. Ellis, middle-aged, bespectacled pastor who had led PTA drives against marble machines and has campaigned to oust beer concessions from city parks, brought charges of indecent exposure against five showgirls and Count Berni Vici, their manager.

He Saw Show Twice

"Those poor girls didn't wear enough to wad a shotgun," the Rev. Ellis told Corporation Judge Temple Calhoun.

"I know, because I saw the show twice—first from the balcony, then pretty close up, to be sure I was right about the exposure."

The Rev. Ellis went to court with a dictionary, to read a definition of nudity. He clashed repeatedly with Defense Attorney Frank Baskin.

Blushing, the Rev. Ellis described the showgirls as each wearing a hat, a red cape, and shoes. Beneath the cape, he said, they wore "very little."

Only Half Grown

It was brought out that the girls were wearing brassieres.

"But I wouldn't call them brassieres," the Rev. Ellis said. "They were only half grown. I'd call them baby brassieres."

Finally, Judge Calhoun said the case "doesn't hold water" and dismissed the charges.

"I was afraid of that," the Rev. Ellis said, "but I still think it's a shame those girls have to make a living that way."

Orson Welles Draws Wrath Of Hollywood Upon Himself

BUDDING BEAUTY — Striking, brunette Senorita Lillian Somoza, daughter of the President of Nicarauga, was recently chosen Queen of the 17th Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival, to be held in Winchester, Va., May 2. Senorita Somoza, nearly 18, is a senior at Gunston Hall, Washington, D. C.

HOLLYWOOD, April 13 (U.P.) — What Orson Welles, the "boy wonder," thinks about the "future of the theatre" brought the wrath of Hollywood down upon him today.

Movie actors, Welles said in Kansas City, are "really the same class as those who wait on tables . . . . Of the movies, I will speak only in terms of contempt."

"He's just trying to imitate a Harvard undergraduate," said Ann Sheridan, the $100,000 a year "oomph girl" the Harvard Lampoon selected as the actress "most likely not to succeed."

Just A Cute Beard

"He came out here to make pictures, and as a producer he turned out to be a good conversationalist—with a cute beard," Olivia De Havilland, the English actress, said. "Now, I am told, he hasn't even the beard."

Bette Davis thought he was "unkind."

"I know some very nice waiters and waitresses. I only hope they won't mind being put in the same class with those of us in Hollywood," she commented.

Pat O'Brien, husky Irish actor said: "I know it sounds awful screwy, but I met Orson once and he's really a nice kid."

Welles, who makes a four-figure weekly salary from radio, but has yet to complete his first major picture as Hollywood's only director-producer-writer-actor, said in Kansas City that the average person attends the movies because "it is better than drink."

W. C. Fields, the bulbous nosed Comedian, remarked:

"Well, I don't know about that."

Lubbock Band Is In Contest

Boys in the Senior High school band, directed by C. S. Eskridge, are literally getting in step, in preparation for the marching contest at the national regional contest to be held in Waco on May 9, 10 and 11. At this contest the Senior High boys will make their first appearance with the new color guard purchased recently by the athletic council.

In its maneuvers at Waco the band will include some of the floating designs which it did during the football contests which allowed the band appearances before large crowds from the middle of September until the last of December.

Lubbock In Region Six

Eskridge explained that the nation is divided into ten regions, and Lubbock is included in region six, which takes in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Louisiana. Bands which win first division in the national regional contests are considered the finest bands in the nation. Since the Plainview contest the entire band has been rehearsing on "A Secret Marriage" by Cimarosa. The number is taken from the light opera by the same name, and will require many brass and reed drills this month.

Plans are now for the Westerner band to leave on Friday, May 10, in three buses, accompanied by the Junior High band in two buses and a bus for the Senior High orchestra. Hotel reservations have already been made for the 160 Lubbock band boys.

There has been no census of Persia taken in modern times.

TO APPEAR ON PALACE STAGE—This all-girl band will supply the musical background for Harry Berry and his Sunkist Vanities, stage attraction, when they appear on the Palace theater stage here Wednesday and Thursday. In addition to the pretty musicians shown above there are 10 headline acts, offering rhythm and dancing, comedy and novelty. The Vanities will present three shows daily, once in the afternoon and twice at night.

Edward Ellis and Alice Eden as they appear in "Career," with Anne Shirley at the Broadway Wednesday.

Shirley Temple as she appears in "The Bluebird," coming to the Palace Friday.

POINTING A FUR

The phrase, "to point a fur," used in the fur garment industry in making artificial silver fox fur, means to add white hairs to a pelt to give it the frosty effect of a genuine skin. These pelts always are labeled "pointed fox" by reliable dealers.

Adventure Picture Starts At Cactus

Richard Barthelmess and Rita Hayworth in "Only Angels Have Wings," now at the Cactus.

Arthur, Grant In Top Roles

ADVENTURE and romance in South America will be provided patrons at the Cactus theater today with the offering of "Only Angels Have Wings."

The picture depends for spectacles and thrills upon the dangers of flying "crates" over the Andes mountains, and battling storms.

A Dual Love Story

It has a dual love story, that of Cary Grant and Jean Arthur, and a shunned flier and his wife, played by Richard Barthelmess and Rita Hayworth.

Grant is seen as the head of an airplane group who drives his fliers to almost suicidal trips in decrepit planes. Miss Arthur, a showgirl, falls in love with Grant at first sight and leaves her boat in the little port to be near him. He continues to ignore her in his drive to continue regular flights to gain an important subsidy from the South American republic.

Romance Complicated

Further complicating their romance is the arrival of Miss Hayworth, to whom Grant was formerly married, and her husband, a pariah among fliers.

In a series of extraordinary events the romance is culminated and Barthelmess redeems himself.

Others who have roles in the picture include Thomas Mitchell, Allyn Joslyn, Sig Rumann, Victor Kilian, John Carroll, Donald Barry, Noah Beery, Jr.

Failure to vote in Uruguay is punishable by fine.

Should We Buy Greenland? Scandanavian Coup May Lead United States To W

Big Island Is Threat To U. S.

It Must Not Fall Into An Enemy's Hands

STATUS of Denmark's huge island of Greenland might form one of the more difficult problems for the United States growing out of the European war if the Danes lose independence. Suggestion by Sen. Lundeen of Minnesota that we try to buy the island therefore is timely.

It is unthinkable that the United States would permit Germany to gain control of the island. Not only would that be in direct conflict with our Monroe doctrine, but it would supply a potential enemy with excellent bases from which to launch attacks against our continent.

If Germany can hold Denmark but not take Greenland, claims to the island by the United States, England and Canada are almost certain. The Monroe doctrine would be as much a bar to England's claims as those of any nation. Canada's claims would be stronger because of geographical nearness. Still, Canada would be little more than a front for England as the owner of Greenland. That would mean trading and commerce privileges in the island for the British Empire, but denied to the United States.

As property, Greenland's value seems negligible. Yet no one actually knows what may be hidden within its 750,000 square miles — nearly half again larger than Alaska. Rich mineral deposits are known to exist. Fishing already is important. Considering that Alaska was thought the world's prize lemon when bought by the United States, no one can safely belittle Greenland's potentialities.

However, if it were known the island never would produce a dime's worth of material wealth, its location is too important as a possible springboard for war against us and as a link in peace-time commerce, including trans-Atlantic air stops, for us to permit the islands to become the possession of potential enemies or trade rivals.

The "50-For-50" Endeavor

NEXT year, 1941, as many already know, will mark the 50th anniversary of the founding of Lubbock and Lubbock county.

In order to fittingly observe the Golden Jubilee, the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, aided by various and sundry citizens, is seeking to entertain in 1941 a record number of district and state meetings, conferences and conventions. "Fifty conventions for Fifty Years" is the slogan adopted in connection with the project and already numerous 1941 gatherings have been assured.

This is a project in which Lubbock and South Plains citizens, as individuals can play an important and decidedly helpful part.

If you belong to some sort of an organization, whether trade, professional or otherwise—and whether large or small—check with the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce before attending the 1940 meeting. The chances are, with the aid of the chamber of commerce, the individual can bring to Lubbock in 1941 the meeting of the organization of which he is an active member.

This suggestion is not confined to persons who are residents of Lubbock.

Throughout the South Plains area, in all the neighboring cities, are men and, in some cases, women, too, who are members of state and district organizations who can help in Lubbock's endeavor to secure a banner number of conventions for next year. In the event that these neighbors do not want to bring their organizations to their home town, we believe they will want to bring them to Lubbock.

Let everybody swing in behind Lubbock's 1941 convention effort and give it the needed push.

The One-Minute Sermon

Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

I said, Lord, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against three. —Psalm 41; 1 through 4.

Assassination Of Lincoln Is Recalled

This contemporary sketch, from "Harper's Weekly," shows Booth fleeing on the stage after his leap from the Presidential box, upper right.

Emanuel Hertz is a New York attorney who has made himself one of the greatest living authorities on Lincoln. His Lincoln collection has included at various times thousands of important items, many unique. His notebook, thousands of closely typed pages, is perhaps the finest privately-owned source of Lincoln material, and his publications on Lincoln run into the dozens. Two of his most recent books are "Lincoln Talks" and "The Hidden Lincoln."

SEVENTY-FIVE years ago today, April 14, John Wilkes Booth walked unhindered into the box at Ford's theater, in the capital of a nation of 30 million people, and shot the chief of the nation with a pistol that nearly touched the head of his victim.

The plan was conceived and matured the same day. The box was examined, the hole in the middle of the door was bored that afternoon.

The leap from the box, the flight, the tortuous travels of the assassin, his capture and the self-inflicted wound that resulted in death—are all the anti-climax to the deed on the evening of that dismal Good Friday.

The nine hours of travail, the Iliad of woe inflicted on an entire people—the work of the doctors and surgeons—an entire faculty, assembled in the Peterson House, to which the dying president was removed—have now been documented to the last occurrence.

Time, The Historian

THE clashes of fact and fiction have been winnowed by time—that most reliable of historians; we have now segregated fact from fiction, and the history of the greatest crime in the history of the continent has now been written.

So many things happened that night to befog the simple issue that we might well excuse the early reporters for mixing fact and fiction liberally, and overlooking events which should have prominence at all times.

It is generally overlooked that the city of Washington and all the inhabitants thereof were tired. A bloody war, endless lines of hospital wagons and multitudes of wounded men were seen at all times fo rfour years; and rumors of every nature were now in the air. All wanted rest, longed for rest and prayed for rest.

And when Appomatox came and went, rest apparently had settled down upon a weary capital and its tired people.

When the greatest shock of the entire period was experienced it affected an entire people. A nation for the moment became inarticulate. The press, while it recorded the news and the reports, had little to say editorially until the passing of 48 hours. And then the press indulged in superlatives of woe and wailed like the rest of the people.

The religious leaders of the nation, the preachers of every denomination had prepared a different message to the congregants—an Easter Sunday message. Those had to be shelbed and another message had to be composed. But who could

DENMARK surrendered to Germany out of necessity rather than desire. The Norwegian nations—Denmark, Finland, Sweden and Norway—are privately committed to and sympathetic to the Allies. They cotton to the Allies as they did in 1914. They are now more afraid of Der Fuehrer than they were of Der Kaiser.

Hitler, of course, realizes that the Scandinavian nations would like to line up with the Allies. Therefore, to block such an alliance, he has speeded his army-navy troops into the Scandinavian Peninsula. Withn a few weeks Washington expects him to make a military move through the low countries—Holland and Belgium.

Washington hopes to maintain a policy of strict neutrality. But, in view of Herr Hitler's aggressions in the Scandinavian Peninsula and elsewhere, the betting here is 50-50 that Uncle Sam will be an active participant in the war within 12 months.

STRENGTH: Tom Dewey's political popularity in the agricultural states has frightened New Deal political scouts. The New York prosecutor is running strong in states which should be extremely pro-Roosevelt.

The rural voters appear to like Tom for the very reasons for which regular Republicans oppose him. They like his youth, his anti-Tammany crusade, his convictions of vice captains like Luciano. Mr. Dewey, in the opinion of the country voter, stands for the decencies as against the moral and political liberalism of the cities.

Private checkups reveal that in the Wisconsin primary Mr. Dewey got his largest vote in the farming districts. He carried those areas by four and five-to-one, whereas his majority in industrial centers like Milwaukee was only 2½ to 1. Both private and public political checks indicate that Tom will carry most of the Western states if he should be the Republican nominee.

PRETTY: Paul V. McNutt's backers have grown cocky, now that it appears the Treasury will absolve the Hoosierites' Presidential candidate of any intent to violate the income tax statutes. Here is an excerpt from the political postcard which Paul's managers are sending to delegates already named to the Democratic national convention:

"If the President isn't the candidate, you can rest assured that Paul V. McNutt will be. Governor McNutt's supporters are working hand in hand with the President's friends in filing groups of delegates that both sides will support. Should the President not be a candidate before the national convention, Governor McNutt is hopeful of being the next choice of the Roosevelt forces. Such a tieup with President Roosevelt forces has been effected in several of the states."

The only thing wrong with this pretty McNutt picture is that FDR will never back him either for President or Vice-President.

UNKIND: In a recent address before the nation's Federal district attorneys J. Edgar Hoover welcomed an investigation of wiretapping, but he did so with a sweet sideswipe at Interior Secretary Harold L. Ickes.

"Of course I have tapped wires," said Mr. Hoover in his behind-the-doors-talk, "and I am willing to tell the whole story to any investigating committee. But if the Senate is going to investigate my wiretapping, I am going to insist that they investigate the wiretapping and the use of dictaphones by the Interior department."

That was rather unkind of J. Edgar. For Interior Secretary Ickes and Under-Secretary Burlew are shaking in their boots over the prospect of a wiretapping expose. They won't want FDR to know, for instance, that they placed a dictaphone in an Atlanta hotel to check up on an afternoon's conversation between Presidential Secretary Marvin McIntyre and the Democrats' national treasurer—Chip Robert.

MEEK: Great Britain's recent manipulation of her currency represents the most serious attack on the United States that the war has precipitated. The Hull-Morgenthau indifference to this move is apparently in accord with the White House program of aiding the Allies with "methods short of war," even though it means that American commerce takes a severe licking.

Britain today has two kinds of sterling currency. "Official sterling" is valued at $4.02, whereas "free sterling" touched $3.46 when the Nazis went into Scandinavia. When the United States wants to buy such essential materials as tin, rubber and jute, over which London has a practical monopoly, we must pay $4.02 for these articles. But when Britain sells textiles and other articles in competition with Uncle Sam in world commerce, she markets those competitive goods at the lower price of $3.50 or less.

NEW YORK
By Richard Waldo

BOTH versions of the Scandinavian blitzkrieg, the Allied and the German, are being ignored by the banking groups most heavily involved. For the backstage story of cause, and coming effects, the banks rely on the Norse, Danes, Swedes, secondarily on information available in Holland and Belgium. These sources won't be immune to bias or the propaganda touch—but it won't be so raw as the propaganda barrages now expected out of London, Paris and Berlin.

From these sources the banks piece together the Scandinavian war story as follows: From the day Winston Churchill was elevated to the command of all defense forces, Germany has been preparing for the showdown on a Northern battle front. Churchill had to have action; the only area in Europe where Germany is vulnerable—and at the same time geographically approachable by Allies—is Scandinavia. (Czecho-Slovakia, Poland and Finland were out of reach.) When Norway proved unable, unwilling, or both, to stop British mine-laying within the Norwegian territorial waters, it became a race for hegemony over Norwegian neutrality. The German general staff saw Oslo as incapable of preventing Allied occupation of naval bases as she was of removing mines offshore. The waiting fleet of transports was given the green light.

The banks incline to the belief that the German maneuver is strictly a military occupation—for the duration—will not become political annexation a la Warsaw and Prague. The first stock market operations bear this out. Scandinavians dropped 27 points, would have hit the bottom except for the appearance of buyers who don't see German intent, or ability, to incorporate, and hold, Norway or Sweden permanently.

REVERSED: Private and uncensored cables make the first report that the combined troops entering Denmark and Norway totaled 200,000. Figure is probably high, but fact remains that the concentration of men and transports has been under way at least two weeks. British mine-laying was the peg for sailing orders of a fleet already mobilized.

It is inconceivable that British naval intelligence didn't know every detail of this wholesale preparation of the expeditionary force. The mine-laying is regarded locally as a calculated gage thrown in Nazi teeth. The story is similarly discounted that the British Admiralty was caught off base by surprise march orders. Best opinion here figures London knew the flotilla was under way, but suffered a breakdown in aerial observation. A British naval challenge had to be delayed until it was clear whether the German objective was Scotland or Norway. The indecision permitted Hitler to reach Bergen first.

Whether he did so with the most men is still far from conclusive. Allied strategy during the three months of the Finnish war was to force an Allied-Scandinavian coalition on a Northern battlefield. The battlefield may still develop there as planned, with the difference that the Scandinavian forces—whatever they're worth—are now immobilized, and the further difference that the Nazis have the basis of a new army already on the inside.

"Sioux City" Joins Fictional Recreation

J. Hyatt Downing Handles Picture Of Prairie Bo

"SIOUX CITY," by J. Hyatt Downing. (Putnam, New York.)

J. HYATT DOWNING'S "Sioux City" is a notable addition to the fictional recreation of the Middle West as it once was, and the Middle West is certainly the happy hunting ground of the American novelist today. It has been "done" a great many times, but less frequently than any other section. And its material is as rich as even that of the South, besides having no magnolia blossoms to clutter up the scene.

Downing has been living in Sioux City. He, being a novelist, has probably been looking about for a way to present the colorful past of the town, and he has found it. Mr. Downing's mirror is one Anthony Trant, who personifies for him the spirit of adventure on which the Sioux Cities of the Eighties grew. Though Anthony was no plainsman with buffalo gun, but a young man with a ledger.

Father Disgusted Son

Anthony returned to Sioux City from Chicago, having decided not to become a doctor like his father. Anthony wanted a lot of money very soon, and the sight of his father patiently continuing his ministrations, quietly forgetting to collect for most of them, disgusted the son a little. The son went into a bank, for in a town growing at the pace Sioux City was growing in those days a bank looked to be the best source of income. For Anthony the difficulty was that with elevated lines being built to hardly discernible suburbs, cable lines projected hither and yon, a legitimate bank was too slow.

Anthony went faster, if somewhat unethically, when he joined up with a brilliantly unstable lawyer named Blessington. The two of them sold lots in new additions, and other things as well. Lincoln's Death

It was too much to bear. Some attempted to speculate at the inscrutable ways of Providence. A few men recovered promptly. Edwin M. Stanton, after an hour of fright—genuine fright, fanned by his wife's warnings—assumed the reins of government, in the Peterson House and slowly inaugurated a government ad interim between the end of the administration of the dying President, and the swearing in of his constitutional successor in the forenoon of the next day. So that General Garfield, a future President, in New York's great convulsion of the people could say re-assuringly "God reigns above, and the government in Washington still lives."

News by Telegraph

THE telegraph was pre-empted by Stanton and he notified the key men in the whole country. Witnesses were examined in order to establish the identity of the assassin—who was even then haltingly speeding for safety.

The doctors, under the leadership of the youthful Dr. Leale, did all that human effort could for Lincoln.

The hour and the minute arrived. Lincoln died. The struggle lasted from 10:15 to 7:22 the next morning. Dr. Gurley intoned the final prayer. Lincoln's ascension to glory was a fact—an entire country found relief in prayer. Stanton stood up erect, placed his hat onhis leonine head and murmured "Now he belongs to the ages."

HITCH-HIKING CLAY

BRAYMER, Mo. (AP)—Out of curiosity Dr. D. W. Michael, a veterinarian, had a filling station save and weigh the mud from his car when it was cleaned after a long trip over a dirt road. It balanced the scales at exactly one ton.

The gigantic soft drink trade owes its inception to a Philadelphia perfumer, who mixed fruit syrups with carbonated water.

Staking Of Offset To Extension Not Yet Completed, Finishing Well With 759-Barrel Potential Feature Hockley Oil Activities

BY JOHN B. BREWER
Special Oil Writer

Staking by S. W. Richardson of a location for a southeast offset to a one-mile north extension not yet completed and finishing of The Texas Co. No. 8 Bob Slaughter block with a daily potential of 759 barrels of oil were among chief developments this week in the Slaughter field in southwestern Hockley county.

Developments of note elsewhere in the West Texas Permian Basin included rigging up for a wildcat in southwestern Andrews county, spudding of a wildcat equidistant from the Goldsmith and Johnson pools in Ector county and announcement of an offset to the opener of the Apco Ordovician field in northern Pecos county. No strikes or extensions were reported.

Oil Rises 4,200 Feet

George Etz No. 1-A J. T. Caddell, indicated half mile northwest extension of the Slaughter pool in Hockley county from Richardson No. 1 Slaughter, was acidizing, bottomed at 4,996 feet. Oil rose 4,200 feet from pay at 4,965-75 feet. The test is in the southwest corner of labor 31-39-Maverick.

S. W. Richardson staked No. 1 Veal-Slaughter in the northwest corner of labor 33-40-Maverick, a diagonal southeast offset to Delta Drilling Co. and George Etz No. 1-A Slaughter, a producer awaiting a potential test at 4,976 feet. The Delta-Etz well is in the southeast corner of labor 21-41-Maverick, one mile north and slightly east of Richardson No. 1 Slaughter.

Stanolind No. 1 Thos. S. Riley, three miles north and 1 1-2 miles west of Stanolind No. 1 Rayner, opener of the Cedar Lake pool in northeastern Gaines county, pumped 11 barrels of oil and 61 barrels of water in 24 hours for completion at 4,864 feet in lime. It was treated with 15,000 gallons of acid. Location is 660 from the south, 1,980 feet from the east line of section 11-H-D&W.

Production Is Increased

Deepening of Adams & Bradley No. 1 Crain in the north part of the Seminole field in Gaines county from 5,286 feet to 5,345 feet and treating with 5,000 gallons of acid increased production from 143 to 342 barrels daily, flowing. The well is 1,980 from the north, 660 feet from the west line of section 216-G-WTRR.

The new Andrews county wildcat, Atlantic and Helmerich & Payne No. 1 University, rigging up a machine, is 660 feet out of the northeast corner of section 11-11-U. It is slated to drill 5,500 feet unless production is obtained shallower. Three miles to the southwest, Richmond Drilling Co. and Tom F. Hunter No. 1 University, in the northeast corner of section 21-11-U, had drilled past 5,676 feet in hard lime. Illinois No. 1 University, wildcat in the northwest corner of section 14-12-U, had passed 2,960 in anhydrite.

Awaiting Drill Pipe

Devonian No. 1 Hudgens, north offset to Geo. P. Livermore No. 1 Glimp, producing 1 1-2 mile southwest outpost to the Slaughter field in Hockley county, was awaiting drill pipe at 4,962 feet in lime. Livermore No. 1 Jacobson in Terry county, three-quarters of a mile south and slightly east of Livermore No. 1 Glimp, had drilled to 4,870 in lime. It topped the solid lime at 4,220 feet. Tide Water No. 1 Buckner, wildcat on the south line of Terry county, in the southwest quarter of section 3-C37-psl, halted at 4,442 feet in lime and anhydrite for the fourth cementing of a split in 8 5-8-inch casing believed to be at around 1,850-60 feet.

Everis Drilling Co. of Dallas spudded No. 4 J. L. Johnson, scheduled 4,500-foot wildcat in Ector county about two miles from the southeast end of the Goldsmith field and the same distance from the northwest tip of the Johnson pool. M. A. Grisham and others' No. 1 R. B. Cowden, wildcat northwest of the Goldsmith field in the northeast corner of section 4-45-1n-T&P, shut down for orders at 6,010 feet in lime after making a Schlumberger survey.

Log Continues Favorably

Forest Development Corp. No. 1 Paul Moss, wildcat in the northeast corner of section 37-43-2s-T&P, one mile east of the Addis pool and 1 1-2 miles south of the Foster pool, continued to log favorably in topping the Yates sand at 2,720 feet, 207 feet above sea level, and showing the first frosted quartz grains at 2,780. It drilled ahead below 3,670 feet in anhydrite.

Barnsdall No. 1 Blakeney, half mile northwest of Gulf No. 1 Holt, discovery Holt deep Permian lime pay well on the west side of the North Cowden field, topped the Clear Fork at 5,160 feet, showed 50 per cent saturation in the first core from 5,175-90 feet and recovered 14 feet of fossiliferous lime with scattered saturation and porosity from the next core from 5,190 to 5,205 feet. Llano Oil Co. staked No. 2-B Holt in the northwest corner of the northeast quarter of section 18-A-psl, diagonal southeast offset to Gulf No. 1 Holt and direct south offset to Sinclair-Prairie No. 3 Holt, also a Holt pay well.

Deep Test Is Planned

E. E. Fogelson of Dallas announced he would start at once a deep test in the Hordan pool on the line of Ector and Crane counties to explore the Holt and Tubb zones. It will be in the southwest quarter of section 7-35-U in Ector county or in the southwest quarter of section 8-35-U lying mostly in Crane county.

Childress Royalty Co. of Joplin, Mo., will drill a diagonal west offset to Anderson-Prichard and Monte Warner's No. 1 J. S. Masterson, opener of the Apco Ordovician field in northern Pecos county, and a direct northwest offset to Magnolia No. 1 M. I. Masterson, a larger producer. It will be on 40 acres, the north quarter of the west quarter of section 104-10-H&GN, belonging to Mrs. M. I. Masterson of Chicago. The tract had been unleased since the pool was opened last June. Humble No. 1 Mrs. Bertha D. Young, wildcat nine miles northwest of the Apco pool, in the west quarter of section 33-10-H&GN, had drilled past 6,892 feet in Simpson, middle Ordivician, lime and shale. It topped the Simpson at 5,624 feet, 3,169 feet below sea level.

Continental and others' No. 2-B J. S. Todd estate in north central Crockett county, Strawn lime discovery of apparent magnitude, was given a daily allowable of 50 barrels. On an official gauge it had flowed 840 barrels of 40.6 gravity oil in 12 1-2 hours through an 11-64th-inch choke on 2-inch tubing, with the total depth 5,691 1-2 feet. An 1,170-foot east offset, Conoco and others' No. 3-B Todd, 1,980 from the south, 2,100 feet from the east line of section 29-WX-GC&SF, drilled with a spudder to 510 feet, cemented 13-inch casing at 504 feet and was skidding on rotary derrick.

LIKES UNCLE SAM—Smiling her pleasure at arriving safely in the United States, pigtailed Lottie Landau, youthful German refugee, is pictured as she recently landed in New York. She will live with her parents in Buffalo, N. Y., and hopes to continue her career as a pianist.

Students Work At Varied Jobs

Of the 2,284 men students, 44.4 per cent earn part of their college expenses.

How They're Divided

Clerical work occupies 103, manual labor, 85, and waiting tables, 79. Local grocery stores employ 28 as clerks, delivery boys, sign painters and stock boys, hotels employ 30 as bell hops, bus boys, cooks, desk clerks, dishwashers, elevator operators, kitchen helpers, manager or menu printer.

Artists, bakers, musicians, bank clerks, barbers, bus drivers, butchers, carpenters, collectors, funeral home assistants, salesmen, photographers, newsboys, night watchmen, printers and hospital assistants attend college classes when not on duty.

National Youth administration jobs pay 191 youths an average of $15 monthly, and regular college employes total 343. Average salary per month for all working men students is $29.50, or 33.72 cents an hour. Average working period daily is 3.37.

ANTLERS IMPROVE

The male red deer, each year grows a new set of antlers, each succeednig set more complete than its predecessors. As a young "knobber," he has only a pair of knobs, but, as a royal hart, he may have a magnificent 3-foot spread of antlers, weighing 70 pounds and decorated with 12 or more points.

EARTHQUAKES AND SUNSPOTS

Much remains to be learned as to why earthquakes occur more frequently during certain periods of the year than during others, but there seems to be sufficient data on hand to prove that most quakes occur in years when sunspots are fewer.
