Tax Rate Reductions Are Announced

Townsend Proposes One-House Congress In U. S.

85 CENTS ON EACH $100 VALUATION GIVEN APPROVAL

NEW LOW LEVEL
Rates Now 65 Cents Lower Than In Year 1932

Taxpayers of Midland county today were advised of further reductions when county commissioners met, approved the budget and set the 1936 tax rate at 85 cents per one hundred dollars valuation since 1932 of exactly 65 cents, the rate in that year being $1.50. It was reduced to $1.10 in 1933, to $1.00 in 1934, to ninety cents in 1935 and the latest reduction bringing it down to 85 cents.

The new assessment was made by the commissioners after looking into the valuations in the county and agreeing that the reduction could be made by them. The tax rate being dependent upon the valuations and the returns warranting the reductions it was made. A motion for the reduction was introduced by B. T. Graham and seconded by Carl Smith. It was unanimously passed by the other members of the court.

Officials expressed thanks to the taxpayers for substantial payments of delinquent and current taxes, making the reduction possible. They recalled that a plea was made at the last tax paying season for as heavy payments as possible in order to hold the rate at 90 cents. When payments of delinquent taxes exceeded the expectations of the governing bodies, it was decided to increase the reduction.

Interest and sinking fund payments on county bond issues are all up to date, all bills against the county are paid and there are no outstanding warrants, it was pointed out. The budget approved Monday was unprecedented, calling for economy in administration of county affairs without reducing service or sacrificing maintenance of properties. Much road equipment has been added in the last year and is all paid for.

The state rate, set last year at 62 cents, and the county rate of 85 cents makes a total of $1.47 cents on the low valuation policy in use. It has been expressed authoritatively that the state rate will be maintained at the same level again this year.

Year	County	State
1932	$1.50	$1.69
1933	$1.10	$1.77
1934	$1.00	$1.62
1935	$1.00	$1.62
1936	$1.00	$1.62

Siamese Twin Will Wed at Centennial

DALLAS, Tex.—Perhaps the strangest wedding ceremony ever performed will be solemnized at the Texas Centennial here on Saturday night, when Miss Violet Hilton, of the famous Texas Siamese twin Hilton, will be wed to James Moore, of Cleveland, Ohio. The ceremony will take place in the Cotton Bowl and the public is invited to witness this strange wedding rite.

Refused licenses in many parts of the country, this young couple finally turned to Texas, the home of the bride, and County Clerk Ed Steger of Dallas County, could find no law to forbid his issuing a license to the couple. They sought the aid of the man who put them in vaudeville years ago for help in the ceremony—Terry Turner, who is associated with DuFour and Rogers in Warden Lawes Crime Prevention Exposition, who played them in vaudeville for years.

Violet and Daisy were born in England, but were raised in San Antonio, Texas, which they still claim as their home. They have recently completed a tour of Continental Europe.

HOSPITAL NOTES
Miss Joyce Williams underwent an appendix operation in a local hospital Saturday.

Drag Water Hole In Search For Man

A Barrel of Fun

This little girl is amused at the older generation, which is always talking about the weather, but is too dignified to do anything about it. For her, a hot time in the old town is just a barrel of fun. She just buys her puppy and herself a cone, gets a water hose, hies to a good old rain barrel, and lets the sun do its worst.

Search Is Spurred By Discovery Of Clothes

ROUND ROCK, July 14 (P)—Officers attempting to solve Round Rock's "disappearing body" mystery were spurred to redoubled efforts Monday with the discovery of a bloody shirt and white belt at the edge of a water hole on the E. J. Walsh ranch. They immediately began dragging the hole.
The hole is only a short distance from the spot where Quincy Surber saw a man Thursday night whom he believed to be dead. By the time Surber returned after notifying officers, the man had disappeared. There was a blood-stained rock with which the man apparently had been severely beaten, a hat and a pair of shoes.
Officers theorized someone probably had been beaten unconscious but had regained semi-consciousness and staggered away.
Sheriff J. B. Arnold of Beeville concluded today that the missing man was Bryan Black, Skidmore civil engineer, after examining the hat and shoes and hair found in the field.
E. J. Walsh, Sr., and E. J. Walsh Jr., said their attention was attracted to the water hole by buzzards circling over it. Upon investigation they found the shirt, the belt and a trail of blood leading to the hole.

LANDRETH WELL RECEIVES SHOT

BY FRANK GARDNER
Landreth Production Company No. 1-B Scharbauer, east offset to Dummies No. 1 Scharbauer, recent mile and a half extension to the Goldsmith pool in Ector county, was shot late yesterday with 160 quarts of nitro from 4,100 to 4,225, and flowed 2 1/2 barrels the first hour, 17 1/2 the second and 15 the third. It is reported that the hole appeared to have bled after the shot exploded. Gas volume is large, estimates ranging above 6,000,000 cubic feet per day.
The Landreth well was drilled in with oil under pressure, and the exact points at which pays were logged are not known. Its total depth of 4,230 is over 50 feet deeper than that reached by the extension well, and shallower than that of Gulf No. 6 Goldsmith, which drilled into water. It is 440 feet from the coast and 2,200 feet from the east line of section 33, block 44, township 1 north, T. & P. survey.
In territory farther northwest, Grisham and Hunter No. 1 R. B. Cowden in the southwest quarter of section 10, block 45, township 2 north, T. & P. survey, is drilling anhydrite at 2,950 feet. Top of the Yates sand was called at 2,770 feet in the test lower than in the Davison No. 1 Cummins and said to be at a favorable point.
Grisham and Hunter No. 2 R. B. Cowden in the center of the southeast quarter of section 8 is drilling at 2,375 feet in salt anhydrite.
TIDE WATER I EDWARDS TO TREAT WITH ACID
With a natural rating of 400 barrels per day, Tide Water No. 1 Edwards, north extension to the Waddell pool in Crane county, is running tubing in preparation for treating with acid. The only pay section encountered in the pool's oil horizon was from 3,578 to 3,581, and drilling was halted at 3,590. Before striking this lime pay, the No. 1 Edwards had been making small flows from sand at 3,350 to 3,360. Location is in section 2, block B-23, public school land.
In the same section, Magnolia No. 6 Edwards is drilling anhydrite at 3,030.

He assailed democratic and republican parties which he described as "un-American and un-democratic," and in place of the political parties aid he would substitute "town hall, neighborhood group" meetings.
The doctor intimated that he favored the candidacy of Lemke, union party candidate, for president but is expected to abide by any decisions made at the convention.

ASSASSINS TAKE LIFE OF SOTELO. MONARCHIST HEAD

Spaniard Shot Down By Disguised Enemies

MADRID, July 14 (P)—Cemetery assassins in the uniform of Spanish assault guard Monday kidnaped and killed Jose Calvo Sotelo, one of the country's most powerful monarchist leaders.

Mysterious circumstances surrounded the slaying of the rightist former minister. While officials refused to confirm that the kidnapers actually were assault guards it was learned at least three of the federal police formation were being held for questioning.

Calvo Sotelo's family insisted the assassination was a terrorist act of vengeance for the killing of an assault guard captain, Jose de Castilla, slain last night by alleged fascists. But police said they believed the crime was carried out by persons disguised in assault guard uniforms.

In the hours after midnight the rightist leader was taken from home by several men. Shortly thereafter his body was found in the municipal cemetery, clubbed, stabbed and shot.

BEHIND THE SCENES

WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER

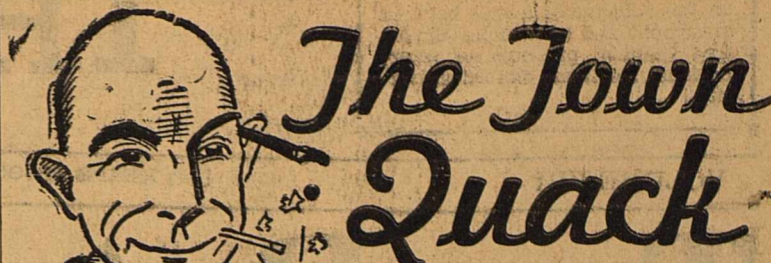

Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 14—First report of alleged irregularities to the senate committee which will investigate campaign expenditures has to do with thousands of purportedly faked poll tax receipts in San Antonio, Texas. Pressure on the committee, chairman of which is Senator Lonergan of Connecticut, to investigate the charges has been strong, since the congressional district involved is that of Representative Maury Maverick, one of the most popular and valuable members of the house. Maverick is having a hard fight for renomination—equivalent to re-election in this heavily democratic territory—because of the huge sum of money being spent to defeat him. It is understood here that Maverick is one of several congressmen marked for political death by power interests, as a result of his active participation in the battle for the last eight months has exceeded Chevrolet's best previous sales record for the corresponding month in all previous years. "Every one of the nine regional territories in which Chevrolet has divided its national sales organization has shared in the upturn indicated by the new record of first half sales. The eastern region, including many large cities and industrial districts, led with a 62.9 per cent gain, followed closely by the southwest and the Pacific coast region, which gained 58.5 and 58.7 per cent respectively. In the mid-west region a 53 per cent increase was made. The Flint region, covering the northern central states and industrial cities such as Cleveland and Detroit gained 46.1 per cent, and the Atlantic coast region, which includes New York City and Philadelphia, 45.3 per cent. In none of the nine regions was the gain less than 37.2 per cent. "Chevrolet sales of trucks in June were 20,500, or only 250 below the total for May, indicating that there is to be no sudden falling off of business in summer months. Incidentally, I believe that the payment of the soldiers' bonus was as beneficial to the truck business as to the passenger car business, and that many ex-service men are putting their bonus money in trucks as a profit-making investment. The bonus payment also has undoubtedly contributed to the large sales of used trucks, of which Chevrolet dealers sold 24,873 in June. "However, used truck sales have been showing a big boom all during the year. Chevrolet dealers delivered reported a total of 118,310 deliveries of used trucks to the end of June. These heavy sales have enabled the Chevrolet dealers to reduce their stock of used trucks by 3,358 units in the last two months. "Based on the latest available registration statistics for commercial cars, there has been an increase of 52,956 trucks in the Chevrolet weight class as compared with last year, of which 27,759 are Chevrolet units. These figures represent a gain of 41.7 per cent for Chevrolet as compared with slightly more than 20 per cent for the remainder of the industry manufacturing trucks in this classification."

Someone was kind enough to send this in: "When a country allows a man to have more than one wife, that is polygamy. "When only one wife is permitted, that is monogamy." Pete Johnson, of Stanton: "Man may be made of dust, but woman isn't—else my wife would dry up once in awhile." If a man never was in the army, he is called "Colonel." It is said Santa Claus gets discouraged everytime he tries to fill the stockings of the girls in Odessa. Jude Johnson never plants cucumbers, because the directions say cucumbers should be planted in little hills. Mr. Johnson's lots are level. The wisest man we know is he who gets a raise in wages without his wife learning about it.

BRITAIN URGED AS JAPANESE ALLY TO MAINTAIN TRUCES

TOKYO, July 14 (U.P.)—An Anglo-Japanese alliance would be the greatest possible influence toward world peace, it is asserted in a pamphlet issued by the Kenkokukai, patriotic organization. "Since it withdrew from the League of Nations, Japan has been internationally isolated. It is, however, with the purpose of strengthening the peace and order of Manchukuo and not to encroach against China that Japan has helped Manchukuo's national construction work. "Japan's international uneasiness has reached its height. It is engrossed in bringing about friendship with China. Nevertheless, China, far from coming into friendly relations with Japan, has tried to resist by taking advantage of foreign powers. It is true, however, that China is fearing Japan's military power. Britain and the United States have confronted Japan in economic affairs. By taking advantage of this situation, Soviet Russia is ready to make a southward advance at any moment. "Heavy Armament Defended "To meet such a delicate situation, Japan has made and will be required to make efforts for strengthening armaments, with excessive expenses for armaments. What is worse, it is expected that, in case of emergency, Japan would be isolated from every other country. Even if the Japanese patriotism and armaments were strong enough to meet the worst possible case, we should avoid it if possible. And it should be advisable to reduce the burden of military manufacturing and to bring about and strengthen the friendship with other nations. We should say that in present-day Japan the military affairs are leading the diplomacy. This is, however, a very abnormal happening to be seen in the time of emergency. We, therefore, should try every possible effort to restore it to the ordinary status. "One of the reasons why Japan has experienced the present uneasiness should be attributed to the abrogation of the Anglo-Japan Alliance. It was in 1902 that the alliance was concluded between the two nations. It was because Britain, who was wearied after the South African war, wished to protect rights in China through obtaining Japan's support. Through the alliance, however, not only Britain but also Japan enjoyed a considerable advantage; that is to say, it could check Russia's southward advance. "Pact Cancelled by Britain "After the Russo-Japanese war, it has been extended to an offensive and defensive alliance, with a view to securing a peace in both China and India. In 1911, in view of the fact that the United States seemed to collide with Japan in regard to the China question, Britain proposed and succeeded in revising the alliance. When the world war broke out, Japan attacked Germany because it placed high value upon the Anglo-Japan alliance. Despite this fact, dissatisfied with Japan's ris-

'San Francisco' Said 'Unforgettable' Film

"SAN FRANCISCO," which is showing for the last times today at the Yucca Theatre promises to become one of the most talked-about pictures in many, many months. First, it teams three of the most popular screen stars for the first time—Clark Gable, Jeanette MacDonald and Spencer Tracy. It is a picture brimming with romance, love, comedy, beautiful music and excitement. CLARK GABLE offers one of his greatest characterizations as Blackie Norton, owner of the most popular resort on the Coast. Jeanette MacDonald is superb as the country girl who starts her singing career on the Barbary Coast and rises to great operatic heights, only to return to the Coast because of the man she loves. Spencer Tracy scores in an unusual role as a kindly priest who chose the wicked street for his evangelistic work. In the excellent supporting cast are Jack Holt, Jessie Ralph, Ted Healey, Shirley Ross, Margaret Irving, Harold Huber and Al Shean. Girl Farmers Preferred HAMILTON CITY, Cal. (U.P.)—Agricultural preparation seems to be the best road to matrimony here. Out of nine girls who started in this year's high school agricultural class four have married and one is engaged.

'Ride, Ranger, Ride' Theme Song of Film

DALLAS, July 14—'Ride, Ranger, Ride,' the song which Governor James V. Allred has approved as the official Ranger-Texas Centennial song will be used as the theme song for a new picture of the same title to be produced by Republic Pictures in Hollywood. The song was written by Vern Spencer and will be featured by Gene Autry who will play the lead in the new film. Governor Allred first heard the song when he attended the Rose Bowl game last New Year's day. He was so impressed with it that he later wired his approval of the tune as the official Ranger-Centennial song. Arrangements are now being made to include the new melody in the repertoire of Texas tunes played by the various bands at the Texas centennial exposition in Dallas. Eagles, crows, ravens, and swans are among the birds which sometimes live to be 100 or more.

Chevrolet Sales To Record Breaking Top

Record-breaking sales of motor trucks during the first six months of 1936 are declared by W. E. Fish, manager of the Chevrolet Motor company's commercial car department, to be an index of higher levels in business, industry, and agriculture throughout the country. Chevrolet's first six months' business in trucks," said Mr. Fish, "set a record of sales that exceeded any previous first half in the history of the company, with a total of 119,294 new units delivered, as compared with the previous record of 102,321, which has stood since 1929. # Athletes to Total 5,000 In Olympic Competition; 53 Nations File Entries

Germany Enters 448, Maximum Quota; Italy And U. S. to Have 400 Each; Tiny Countries In

BERLIN, (AP)— Fifty-three countries have announced their participation in the 1936 Olympic Games, with an approximate total of 5,000 athletes.

The countries range from the tiny principality of Liechtenstein, sandwiched in between Austria and Switzerland, with its population of 10,120 to huge China with its 448,000,000 inhabitants, while teams range from the 448—the maximum number permitted—put in the field by Germany and the 400 each, which Italy and the United States have announced, to the one and two-men teams of Haiti and Bolivia.

In a series of dispatches these 33 countries and their approximate number of entries will be presented in alphabetical order, together with a brief survey of what the respective national teams have achieved in previous Olympic or what they might be expected to achieve in the coming Berlin games.

With regard to the number of entries, one qualification must be made. In many instances these numbers represent the tentative announcement of the countries in question. Experience at previous Olympic Games has proved that the number of actual entries almost invariably is smaller than the number tentatively announced. According to the rules governing the games, final entries in all events are not until July 28.

The Afghans and they are sending a team of 22 to the Olympic hockey tournament. In a recent meet an all-Afghan eleven held to a 3-3 tie a representative team from India, the country which won the hockey tournament at two Olympics, at Amsterdam in 1928, and at Los Angeles in 1932.

ARGENTINE— This South American Republic has announced that it will send approximately 70 athletes to Berlin. The most important triumph of Argentine in track and field sports was Juan Carlos Zabala's victory in the Marathon race at Los Angeles, 1932. Zabala's time of 2:31:36 was the fastest ever attained at Olympic Games. The next fastest was that made by Hannes Kohlemainen, Finland, in 1920 at Antwerp.

Another noteworthy Argentine Olympic victory was the first place of Zorilla in the 400 meter freestyle swimming event at Amsterdam, beating the odds-on favorite "Boy" Charlton, Australia, and Arne Borg, Sweden, Borg collapsed after touching the finish and had to be dragged out of the water unconscious.

Argentine won most of its Olympic gold medals in boxing; two at Amsterdam with Ayenda and Jurado in the lightweight and the heavy weight division respectively, and two more at Los Angeles when Robledo won in the featherweight division while in the heavyweight Jose Lovell. Another Olympic division first place was clinched by gold medals Argentine won at Paris, 1924, with its polo team which also for Berlin is a favorite.

AUSTRIA— About 30 athletes, the largest number ever sent to Olympic Games, will compete at Berlin. Austria won a gold medal as early as the first modern Olympics, at Athens, 1896, when Schmal pedaled to victory in the 12-hour bicycle race, covering 315 kilometers. This was the only time the event was on the Olympic program. At subsequent Olympics fencers, swimmers, and the "strong man" won six additional gold medals. At the coming Games Austria's best chances are in the wrestling and weight-lifting contests.

BELGIUM— This little nation will send approximately 150 athletes. It has won nine Olympic gold medals, four in the first post-war Olympics which were held on Belgian soil at Antwerp in 1920. However none of these medals was won in track and field sports. Belgium won its first gold medal in the Olympic shooting contest at London in 1908.

Three gold medals were won by its swordsmen who fought their way to victory in one individual and the team contest at Stockholm in 1912, and in one individual event at Paris in 1924.

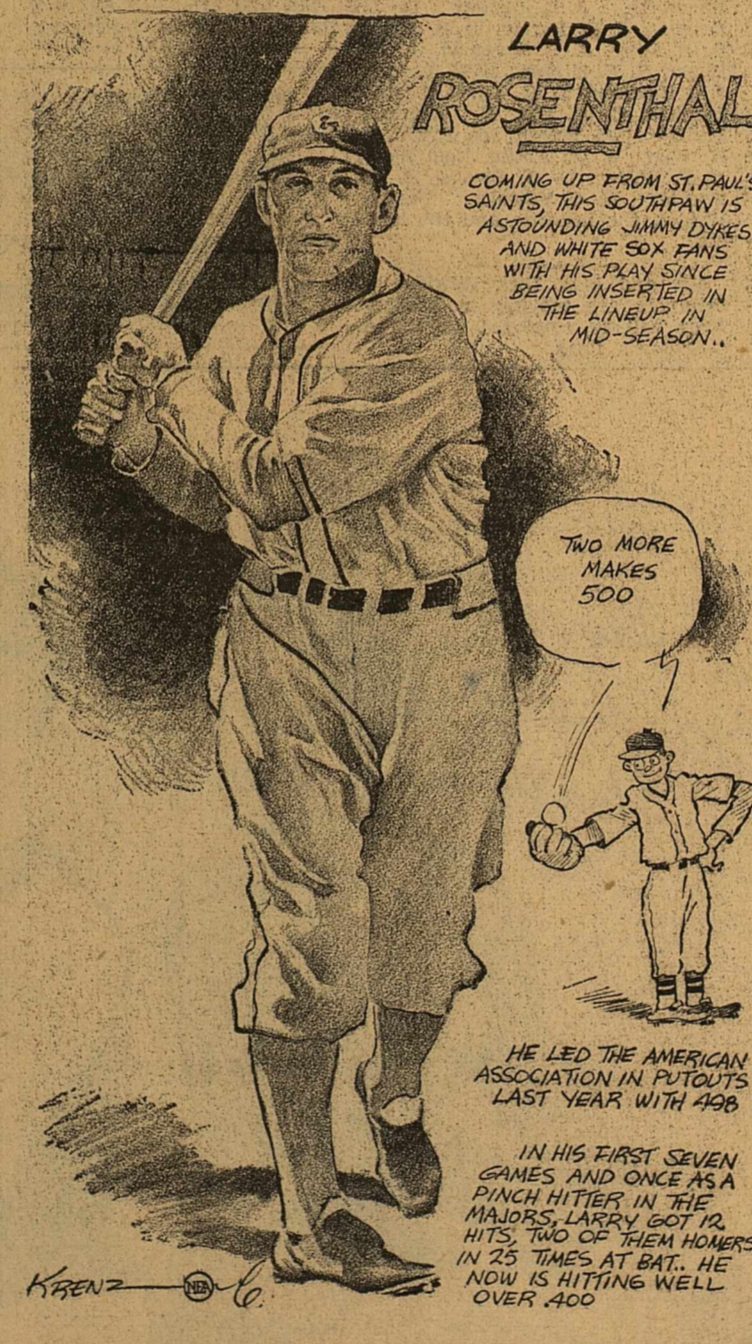

The other gold medals were won in football, boxing, weight-lifting, yachting, and bicycling. Belgian football players and water-poloists enjoy a good reputation in Europe as do its weight-lifters.

Low Prices Prevail At The Centennial

DALLAS.—One of the outstanding features of the Texas Centennial Exposition's amusement zone is the low scale of prevailing prices for the many attractions as well as the eating establishments. A recent check on the grounds and admission charges revealed that an adult can visit eighteen of the leading attractions on the grounds for less than six dollars. This included the fifty-cent general admission price to the Exposition itself.

The majority of the shows throughout the Exposition have a twenty-five cent top price. This includes Streets of Paris, Streets of All Nations, Little America, Black Forest, Midget City and many others. Shows with a forty-cent admission charge are limited in number and are chiefy confined to the legitimate theatrical presentations where production costs are higher. In this group are "Cavalcade of Texas," the Exposition's quarter of a million dollar dramatic pageant; the Shakespearean plays at the Old Globe Theatre; "The Drunkard" on board the landbound Show Boat; Ripley's Believe It Or Not Odditorium and Warden Lawes Crime Prevention Exhibit.

Soft drinks and double-dip cones are a nickel at the many refreshment stands, hot dogs and hamburgers a dime and hearty plate dinners starts at thirty-five cents. Rest rooms are free and in most of the attractions the patron is invited to stay as long as he wishes. On Tuesdays "Kids' Day" is observed and admission to the grounds and many attractions is only five cents for youngsters up to twelve years.

The Exposition's survey revealed that two adults can spend twelve hours, eat two meals and have a whale of a lot of fun for ten dollars.

I have to foot the bills, and while all these things sold me on Dodge, I know that Dodge owners have reported getting 18 to 24 miles to the gallon of gas... and saving up to 20% on oil. I have averaged over 19 miles to the gallon.

AUSTRALIA— The country from "down under" is sending a team of approximately 30 athletes. "Boy" Charlton in the swimming and Bob Pearce in rowing were responsible for Australia's biggest Olympic triumphs of the past. Pearce especially. He twice won the sculls, at Amsterdam and at Los Angeles. He since has turned professional.

Another recent Australian Olympic victory was that of Miss C. Dennis in the 200 meter breast-stroke at Los Angeles. Her winning came as a surprise as Miss Jacobsen, Denmark, who came in third, had started as a favorite. Miss Dennis' time was a world record, and, of course, still stands.

The only gold medal Australia garnered in track and field sports was won by A. W. Winter in the hop-step-and-jump at Paris, 1924. At Los Angeles, Australia did not get

BOLIVIA— Two representatives, one for the shooting contest and one for swimming events, will represent Bolivia. Whether they will do anything outside of carrying the flag in the opening ceremony remains to be seen.

BRAZIL— About 45 athletes will represent Brazil. They will compete in 13 categories including track and field, wrestling, boxing, fencing—where it also announced entries for the women's division—swimming, rowing and basketball. Brazilian oarsmen have competed in two previous games without, however, winning a medal.

'Miss Texas State Grange' New Title

DALLAS.— "Miss Texas State Grange" will be elected in a colorful ceremony at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas on July 29 when Grangers from all over the state gather to celebrate at the nation's newest World's Fair.

The days of July 29-30 have been set aside at the big Exposition for the Texas granges and special activities have been planned to honor the agricultural association. The queen of the festivities will be selected on the first day from the ranks of the county sweethearts of the participating organizations. Harold W. Gault, Dallas, acting for the national grange organization announced that Louis J. Taber, Columbus, Ohio, grand master of the national body will escort the queen to her throne and preside over the coronation ceremonies which are planned for eleven-fifteen, the morning of the second day. The festi-ties will be staged in the arena of the Exposition's Livestock Building, in the million dollar Agrarian group at an Empire On Parade.

Members of the many grange lodges, supported by the 125-piece band of the Future Farmers of America, along with members of the 4-H Clubs and kindred organizations will participate in this colorful ceremony. The queen of the granges will be sponsored by the sweetheart of the Dallas County Grange on a tour of the Centennial following her selection.

The coronation ceremonies and Grand Master Taber's address will be broadcast nationally.

Equipment of Ford Trucks Registered

Recognizing the increasing attention which the public is paying to smart looking delivery equipment and the business building value of such equipment to its owners as revealed in a study made by Ford engineers, the Ford motor company today announced the availability of deluxe equipment in all its trucks and commercial cars.

All units on 112, 113 1/2 and 157-inch wheelbase chassis are now obtainable at small extra cost with ventilating back window, dome lamp, tandem windshield wipers, sun visor for driver, ash tray, cigar lighter, twin horns and heavy chrome finish on the windshield frame, rear view mirror, and radiator shell and grill. Other types are furnished with most of these items.

Good looking equipment is effectively used in three ways, the Ford survey indicated. One is to call the public's attention to a new firm or one comparatively unknown. The second is to increase the prestige of a firm already known and the third is to build customer satisfaction.

Aviation's first aerial parasites, sketched above, are being created at Rochester, England, for the Imperial Airways in an attempt to surmount difficulties that have blocked long range, non-stop airmail flights. Too heavily loaded to be able to take off under its own power, a 5000-mile airmail ship is mounted atop a huge flying boat, designed to help lift it into the air. After reaching cruising altitude, the lower unit will return to the airport for duty as a passenger carrier on shorter flights.

Compositions By All Texans Being Sought

Search for compositions by Texas musicians and composers will be started with auditions July 15 at the Texas centennial exposition. Sponsored jointly by the exposition and Chrysler motors, the contest will be heard on the third Wednesday of each month in Chrysler penthouse lounge at the exposition, and finalists will compete for the Walter P. Chrysler trophy, a diamond-set, lyre label pin, engraved in recognition of the honor that attaches to the finally judged best composition.

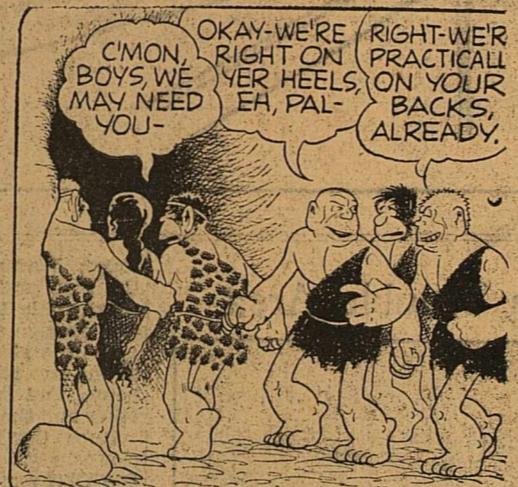

Details of the contest are being handled by the State Federation through its exposition representatives, Mrs. Charles Clinton Jones, immediate past president of the Dallas Federation of Music clubs. ### 10,000 Gulf Employees Expected To Attend Centennial In Dallas July 18

A minimum of 10,000 Gulf oil corporation employees, dealers and their families from all sections of Texas are expected to gather in Dallas Saturday, July 18, to attend the Texas centennial central exposition, according to an announcement made today by O. H. Carlisle, division manager.

July 18 has been officially designated as "Gulf day" and the company is providing free admission tickets to the grounds to all employees, dealers and members of the employee's or dealer's immediate family. Special tickets are being printed for the event and an elaborate program is being planned in honor of the Gulf party.

Headquarters offices of the Gulf company in Houston will close at noon Friday, July 17, and remain closed until Monday. This will include all departments, production, pipe line, refining and sales.

A majority of the 1,200 employees in the Houston office building, with their families, are expected to go by special train, automobile and bus.

July 18 has been officially declared a holiday for all Gulf employees and dealers throughout the state with the exception of the skeleton crews necessary to the operation of the organization.

Large delegations are expected from Port Arthur, where the huge Gulf refinery is located; from production headquarters in east and west Texas; and from each of the major cities in the state.

The Jockey Club, adjacent to the old race track grandstand now used in the presentation of the centennial spectacle "Cavalcade of Texas" has been secured as Gulf headquarters for the day. Registration and information headquarters will be set up here.

A special program of entertainment has been arranged for by the exposition and several radio programs are scheduled to originate in the Gulf radio studios on the exposition grounds and through the Gulf centennial network.

Saturday night has been designated as Gulf "amateur night" at the radio studios, and amateur musicians and entertainers from all sections of the state will compete for an opportunity to appear in the radio studios during a two-hour program.

W. A. Webb, general manager of the exposition, has written a letter, addressed to all Gulf employees, dealers and their families, advising them of the official designation of "Gulf day" and outlining plans for the big oil company party.

In his letter he said, "We want you to see Texas' magnificent $25,000,000 world's fair. We are particularly anxious that you should see the beautiful radio studios your company has built here; and that you should hear the programs that go out from these studios over the Gulf centennial network.

"Everyone in any way connected with Gulf should feel proud of the contribution his company has made to the success of the centennial. The Gulf radio and public address system is unique. It is undoubtedly the finest system of its kind ever installed at an exposition. It contributes to the pleasure and entertainment of every exposition visitor; it makes possible many programs and events that would be impossible without it. Further than that, it has been of inestimable value to us in our job of 'telling the world about Texas.'"

"It is indeed and in truth the voice of the centennial, as it is now popularly called. For by it and through it, people from far and wide are hearing not only about our great central exposition in Dallas; they are hearing about every section of Texas, being invited to see all of Texas.

"We salute you, hope that Gulf day will be a grand and glorious holiday for many thousands of you!"

Rushed to China Trouble Area

In the event a crisis develops in southern China as a result of the Cantonese troop movements toward the north, American interests will be under protection of the U. S. Cruiser Asheville (above), which sped southward from Shanghai toward the trouble area under full steam.

25 years of age, and they seem to believe that by donning a marine corps uniform they will immediately launch themselves on a career filled with story-book possibilities," says Colonel Thrasher.

"If the life of the average marine is any criterion, these young fellows are not far wrong. We cannot promise them an immediate cruise to the south seas or to Europe, but we can guarantee that a four-year enlistment will give them about as much novelty and variety as they could find in any military service anywhere."

The reason, Colonel Thrasher explains, lies in the widely diversified duties of marines. Besides serving aboard battleships and cruisers, they are in China, the Philippines, Guam, Hawaii, Cuba, Panama and elsewhere, in addition to localities along the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard.

Some of them become infantrymen, artillerymen, machine gunners, or signalmen, and individuals often change about from one unit to another. They even take to the saddle and become mounted troops when they are required to patrol wide stretches of territory.

Units for the fleet marine force, planned especially for service with the ships of the navy, are stationed on the east and west coasts, and are modern crusaders in every sense of the word. These special troops are ready to "hop off" at a moment's notice, and they keep in practice by maneuvers held in the Pacific or in the West Indies.

When a recruit completes his training at San Diego, California, he may expect almost any kind of duty anywhere. A month after his first assignment, he may have a complete change of station and duties.

Centennial Gains Many Noted Shows For Many Visitors

DALLAS, July 14—World-famous orchestras, five acts of first class vaudeville and marionettes presenting a lively newspaper are only a few of the free attractions at the Texas Centennial exposition.

"Admission to the grounds of the $25,000,000 world's fair is 50 cents, but thereafter a visitor may be entertained for two days or more without spending a nickel," W. A. Webb, general manager, pointed out.

Ace Brigade and his Virginians play free concerts in the General Motors Auditorium. They succeeded Jan Garber and will be followed by Art Castle. Jose Manbanares and his South Americans play free concerts in the Ford court, while Merle Clark plays periodic organ concerts in the Chrysler Hall of Mirrors.

In addition to these "regular" performers such name bands as Rudy Vallee and his Connecticut Yankees are being brought in for free concerts from time to time.

Two Mexican orchestras play free concerts, the exposition presenting Don Francisco and his Charros orchestra and the Texas Company of featuring Don Ramon. A mixed negro chorus, the Jubilaires, sings oldtime spirituals, plantation and work songs; Warner Brothers' "Sons of the Pioneers" sing oldtime western songs, while Texas Rangers, both old and young, on horseback and off, infest the place. The oldtimers nod in the sun at the Rangers' old log-house, and swap stories with each other and the public.

Rube Curtis and his troupe of clowns, a group of nonchalant goats, Pat Christian doing rope tricks in the old western way, Mildred Douglas in an exhibition of expert rifle shooting and Don Francisco's orchestra comprise the five acts of vaudeville, presented twice nightly. Ad Topperwein, of San Antonio, world's champion rifle shot, demonstrates his art at the Winchester exhibit during the day.

Sue Hastings' marionettes give a topical show in the Chrysler hall of celebrities, the 80 horsemen who make up troop F of the fifth cavalry make their horses dance and put them through a "monkey" drill. The Chase and Sanborn amateurs perform and General Electric presents its house of magic, in which the wonders of the electric eye are brought home. Bechnutt offers an elaborate mechanical circus, a mechanical cow is milked and there are scads of free movies.

Dallas hotels are abiding by their agreement not to raise their rates, and have plenty of rooms. There is parking space for 40,000 automobiles within two blocks of the exposition grounds, and the charge for parking all day is only 15 to 25 cents.

Salt Lake Navy Grows

SALT LAKE CITY, (U.P.)—A building race between the Salt Lake County sheriff's office and the city police craft for rescue work on the Great Salt Lake started recently when the county appropriated $500 for improving Sheriff S. Grant Young's "one boat navy."

Louisiana's fur crop is made up largely of muskrat pelts, of which five or six million are taken annually. Opsums, raccoons, minks, skunks, otters, and foxes help to swell the state's trapper income to about $8,000,000 yearly.

According to a Kansas statute, it is illegal to eat snakes in public.

Chesterfield Puts Andre Kostelanetz Orchestra on Air

A new and different dance program is being broadcast over the Columbia network these summer weeks, sponsored by Chesterfield cigarettes with a huge cast of 83 musicians and singers led by the versatile Andre Kostelanetz. For thirty fast moving minutes every Wednesday and Friday night a turn of the dial will take you through the paces of swing dances, waltzes, rhumbas, tangos—every kind of dance tune that's popular, interspersed with clever and original vocal arrangements.

The fact alone that more than half a hundred people take part in the Chesterfield productions makes a bewildered layman wonder how such a large group can be handled so smoothly before the sensitive "mikes." The Kostelanetz orchestra is the largest dance orchestra broadcasting today—45 musicians, many of whom have led their own orchestras or played in leading orchestras here and abroad. In addition there are the signers... the romantic young baritone, Ray Heatherton, the popular harmonizer, Kay Thompson and a chorus of rhythm makers composed of twelve girls and three boys. These various groups pack a world of entertainment into a half hour and do it in a way that really "satisfies."

Constant rehearsing is the secret of smooth radio performance. On radio now the Kostelanetz cast has the reputation of rehearsing hours on end. Programs are memorized by the singers as much as four weeks in advance, complete with special lyrics, swing tricks and hard-mony. Old songs are mixed with new, and the change of pace is as surprising as a big league pitcher's. But instead of being a hodgepodge, the program is knit together to perfection and the half hour glides along to a sparkling finish. Radio program directors are mastering the skill of smooth showmanship that keeps an audience's interest unflinched from the opening number right up to the closing strains of the signing-off time.

Texas Proven Not To Be A New Country

DALLAS, July 14—The opinion current with many Texans, not to mention non-Texas residents, is that the Lone Star state is a new land. But as early as 1540 El Paso del Norte, near where the present city of El Paso now stands, was very definitely on the map as an important place of entry into the land of fabled wealth.

In 1542 Coronado, the Conquistadore, returned from his fruitless search for the seven golden cities of the Cibola to the far north. He was near where the present city of the Panhandles "level as the sea," which he had staked with sticks and buffalo bones to mark his backward route. The staked plains were on the map of the land of the Tejas, along with the Pala Duro Canyon which had halted Coronado's men in wonder.

The dramatic story back of the naming of "Llano Estacado" is one of the many thrilling scenes in the first episode of the Cavalcade of Texas, at the Texas Centennial exposition which depicts the birth and growth of an empire. "El Turco," the treacherous Indian guide, who tried to lead the conquistadores to death, the noble Spaniard Coronado, with his golden armor and his plumed bonnet, the red coated soldiers of Aragon and the humble Franciscan friars who plodded over the vast panhandle plains, are all to be seen in "Cavalcade" which presents the stirring events in the history of Texas four centuries ago.

Today "Llano Estacado" is covered with miles of fertile wheat fields. The grandeur of Pala Duro still holds the beholder enthralled as it did when the Spaniards first beheld it, and the city of El Paso guards the one famous "gateway to the north" where lay the fabled wealth.

The conquistadores and cavaliers found no golden cities with roofs that glimmer in the sun. The wealth of Texas lay in the land. El Paso is one of the modern cibola cities of Texas, which has been builded within four centuries. And the staked plains which Coronado scorned, are sources of boundless wealth for the Lone Star state.
