Prisoners Accused in Robbery of White Couple; Returning Home from Honeymoon Trip; Money and Jewelry Taken

(By The Associated Press) COOBA, Miss., Sept. 10.—County authorities were without clues tonight as to the personnel of a masked band of men who lynched two negroes after forcibly taking them from two Kemper county deputy sheriffs today.

The negroes, Pig Lockett and Holly White, were being taken from DeKalb to Cooba, for preliminary hearing on robbery charges when they were seized and hanged in trees.

The two deputies, Guy Byrd and J. J. Dotson, were tied to a tree by the masked band, but later released.

Accused of Robbery
Lockett and White had been accused of robbing Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCoy as the couple motored from California to their home in Athens, Ga. The McCoy, returning from a honeymoon trip, said the negroes stopped them by waving flashlights after which they were robbed of jewelry and $42. McCoy said the negroes threatened his life and threatened to kidnap his wife.

The negroes were arrested about a week ago in connection with the robbery and had been taken to DeKalb for safe keeping.

Loan Policies Are Outlined

Dan Moody Says Intermediate Credit Bank Plan on Drought Relief Agricultural Loans "Reasonable and Liberal"

(By The Associated Press) HOUSTON, Sept. 10.—Intermediate credit bank policies on drought relief agricultural loans, described by Governor Dan Moody as "reasonable and liberal," were tentatively outlined at a conference here this afternoon and will be presented formally to the state wide drought committee and to county relief representatives from 70 West Texas counties at a conference Monday at Haskell.

After today's discussion, M. H. Gossett, president of the Federal Farm Loan Bank and the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, prepared a formal statement for submission to O. B. Martin of College Station, chairman of the drought committee appointed by Governor Moody in pursuance to President Hoover's drought relief plan.

"Judge Gossett and R. D. Johnson, vice-president of the Intermediate Credit Bank," Governor Moody said, "outlined reasonable and liberal policies toward assisting people in the drought areas needing agricultural loans. We hope to have a full and representative attendance at our West Texas meeting despite the fact the time is short. It is essential that drought relief committees state and county attend so that a basis for relief loans may be reached."

QUESTION TREATMENT

Doctors Disagree Over Cure For Cancer During Meet

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10. (P)—The new cancer treatment of Doctors Coffey and Humber of San Francisco, was questioned at the medical session of the American Chemical Society here today by Dr. Ellice McDonald, director of cancer research at the graduate medical school of the University of Pennsylvania.

The Coffey-Humber treatment is by injecting an extract made from the covering of the adrenal glands of certain animals.

McDonald said that in his laboratory extensive experiments for the past eight months on animals with cancer by use of extracts from this gland covering showed the cancerous tissue to be useless for cancer.

Governor of New York Issues Statement Against Eighteenth Amendment; Right of States Championed

(By The Associated Press) ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Governor Roosevelt today broke a two-year official silence concerning the prohibition question to announce himself for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment and substitution of the federal statute granting each state the right to control the sale of intoxicants.

In a letter to United States Senator Robert F. Wagner, made public here, the governor included the subject of prohibition among the topics he believed should be stressed at the Democratic state convention in Syracuse the latter part of this month and added he was "positive in saying that there must be some definite assurance that by no possibility at any time or in any place the old saloon can come back."

Favors State Control
The governor urged that not only should states be given control of liquor but that there should be "definite recognition of the extension of home rule to the lower subdivisions of government—in other words, a recognition of the right of cities, villages or towns by popular vote to prohibit the sale of intoxicants within their own borders."

"The Eighteenth amendment," the governor said, "has not furthered the cause of a greater temperance in our population."

He expanded this statement by quoting a resolution of the American Legion which said the law had "led to corruption and hypocrisy," and added this declaration, "I personally share this opinion."

INSURGENTS LOSE SUIT

Injunction Against Miners Is Upheld by Court

JOLIET, Ill., Sept. 10. (P)—Members of the insurgent faction of the Illinois Miners union today lost their fight to dissolve an injunction restraining them from using the name of assets of the United Mine Workers of America.

The injunction, obtained at Benton, Ill., August 12, by supporters of John L. Lewis, international president of the original union, was upheld by County Judge Frederick A. Hill.

Candidate Elected Nominee for Both

Senator and Governor Forms Problem

(By The Associated Press) CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 10.—Albert W. Noone, 44-year-old Peterboro, man who entered Congress in 1912, who turned a problem to political experts by his unprecedented nomination in yesterday's primary as the Democratic candidate for the United States senate and the governorship, today said he would not yield either of the honors.

"I am completely torn," he said, "between the two offices. I cannot do both. I have no choice but to choose one."

Republican Incumbents Are Successful in Primaries in New Hampshire and Michigan in Tuesday Voting

(By Associated Press) WITH two southern Democrats' senators lost in the primary shuffle of Tuesday, interest centered today on the identity of the candidate selected in Georgia yesterday for the general election in November.

Senator Coleman L. Blease gave way to James P. Byrnes as the Democratic nominee from South Carolina while Senator Joseph E. Ransdell, of Michigan, was defeated by Governor Huey P. Long in Louisiana. In Georgia, Senator William J. Harris was opposed by former Governor John M. Slaton. In all three states the Democratic nomination assured election.

Incumbents Successful
In the two Republican primaries of Tuesday in which the senatorial incumbents sought renomination, they were successful. Henry Keyes being unopposed in New Hampshire and James Couzens, defeating former governor, Chas. S. Osborn in Michigan. George H. Shaw, former chairman of the state Republican committee, was designated in Colorado as his party's candidate to succeed Senator Lawrence C. Phillips, who will retire next March.

UNION PASSES LAW

Protection from Costly Court Actions Aim of Passage

HOUSTON, Sept. 10. (P)—A law designed to protect its members from costly civil court actions was passed today by the International Typographical Union in 75th annual convention here. Likewise, four prospective 1931 convention cities—Dayton, Ohio; St. Petersburg, Florida; Boston, Mass. and Winnipeg, Canada—were nominated. One of them will be chosen tomorrow.

The new law provides that a member disciplined for unbecoming conduct shall not seek redress in the civil courts, under penalty of summary expulsion, but must exhaust his right of appeal with the executive council of the union.

Mystery of Louisiana Disappearance Explodes as 2 Missing Men Appear

(By The Associated Press) NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 10.—With dramatic suddenness, the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Samuel Irby and James Terrell was exploded in federal district court today when Irby walked into the courtroom and said he didn't know what all the tumult was about.

In the presence of Governor Huey P. Long, Democratic nominee for the United States senate, who had been accused of having the men kidnaped to prevent their filing suits against him in the closing days of his campaign, Irby said he and Terrell had been down on Grand Isle, off the Louisiana coast, since they left Shreveport last Thursday and had not been mistreated.

Dismissal Asked
An application for a writ of habeas corpus had been filed in the federal court demanding the delivery of Terrell and Irby in open court. Through counsel, Irby asked that the case be dismissed and a statement was presented to the court as signed by the men, saying they had not been held and that Terrell then was on his way to his home in El Dorado, Ark.

Governor Long said on the federal witness stand today that last night after he had learned from election returns he had been nominated to the senate, he had driven in his automobile into the country and met Irby and Terrell and had seen them sign the statement which the lawyer presented to the court.

Plan Held Absurd
In the statement, the men were quoted as saying they wished the whole case dismissed as they never had been in custody and the statements that they planned to sue Governor Long were "absurd."

After listening to the testimony, Judge Wayne G. Borah dismissed the application for "lack of evidence."

Department of Agriculture Issues Predictions Based on Excessive Heat; Corn to Reach Low Level

(By FRANK L. WELLER, Associated Press Farm Editor) WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. (P)—The lowest crop yields in twenty years or more, except possibly in 1921, was predicted by the Department of Agriculture today as weather reports continued to show large sections of the drought area still unrelieved.

Corn suffered another staggering blow from the excessive heat of August the prospective yield falling off 10.4 per cent during the month for a prospective crop of only 1,983,000,000 bushels. As now forecast, the corn crop will be the smallest since 1901 and the first in 19 years to fall below 2,000,000,000 bushels. It will be 34.2 per cent less than the 1929 production and 26.8 per cent less than the 5-year average. The actual shortage is estimated at more than 700,000,000 bushels.

Drought Continues
Continuation into August of the record-breaking drought in most of the states affected in July and an extension of drought injury northward into states that had not previously suffered severely damaged a wide variety of late crops.

Prospects for potatoes were reduced by 34,000,000 bushels, hay more than 1,000,000 tons and serious declines were recorded for beans, grain sorghums, buck wheat and vegetables for canning. Important declines were shown for tobacco, flaxseed, soy beans, cowpeas, sweet potatoes, sorgo and cane for syrup, broomcorn, grapes, cabbage and various northern vegetables.

Pastures, which were the poorest on record a month ago, declined to a new low level September 1, and milk production per cow was reduced 6.4 per cent below the corresponding date a year ago.

POCKETBOOKS FATTER

More Money in Circulation in August, Report Shows

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. (P)—More money got into general circulation during August than was passing from pocketbook to pocketbook in July, with the per capita allotment reaching $36.73 as compared with $35.92 the previous month.

The treasury circulation statement, issued today showed $4,534,471,449 in general circulation on August 31, compared with $4,426,493,631 on July 31. There was slightly more cash going the rounds a year ago the total reaching $4,839,888,915.

The total amount of United States money on August 31 was placed at $6,253,541,522 of which $4,007,08,747 was held in the treasury.

Substitutes for "Rejuvenation" Just Beginning to Develop, Chemists Say

(By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE, Associated Press Science Editor) CINCINNATI, Sept. 10. (P)—Substitutes for the gland grafting of "rejuvenation" fame, which chemists are just beginning to develop were explained to the division of medical chemistry at the American Chemical society meeting today.

Substitutes are secretions of three glands, and of other glands that probably never can be transplanted. The chemist extract the secretions and administer them like ordinary medical remedies.

Cars Needed for Booster Trip

Unless citizens and business houses volunteer to place automobiles in the motorcade Friday to advertise the Panhandle-South Plains fair, the booster trip either will be whittled down to unimpressive proportions or be postponed.

Fifty cars are needed and although committee men spent Wednesday canvassing only 13 were pledged.

Today is the only one remaining before the start of the first of four trips to nurture good will among South Plains residents and direct attention to the 1930 exposition.

Those desiring to enter cars in the first motorcade should communicate with the chamber of commerce immediately.

Charges Filed In Booze Raid

Austin Beasley Arrested by County Officers; Whiskey, Revolver and Auto Confiscated; Another Man Held

Charges of illegal possession and transportation of liquor were filed Wednesday night against Austin Beasley, about 35, of 1814 Twenty-sixth street, who was arrested by officers of the sheriff's department as he started to enter a Lubbock hotel from an alleyway, carrying a brief case which officers said contained half a gallon of whiskey and a loaded .38 caliber revolver. A concealed weapon charge will be entered against him today, officers said.

A sack of roofing nails was found in Beasley's car which he had left in the alley officers said. The automobile, a small 1928 model roadster, was confiscated. About $400 in currency was found of Beasley when he was searched, preparatory to being placed in the county jail, according to officers.

Convicted Previously
Beasley was sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary when convicted of liquor possession in seventy-second district court, in Hockley county last March and was free on appeal, bond when arrested Wednesday night, county officers said.

As a result of his arrest Wednesday night, Beasley's case will be placed before the grand jury in session today, attaches of the sheriff's office reported.

Another man arrested by county officers Wednesday night probably will be charged today with liquor possession and transportation. He was arrested in the ally in which Beasley was taken into custody about 30 minutes later, as he started to enter the hotel. County officers said he was carrying a sack.

First Double Execution for Many Months to Take Lives of Mexican and Negro Early Tomorrow Morning

(By Associated Press) HUNTSVILLE, Sept. 10.—Two convicted murderers, Luz A. Arcos, Mexican, and Jesse Lee Washington, negro, are to be executed at the state prison early Friday. It will be the first double electrocution in many months.

Arcos, accused slayer of three Mexicans in Medina county, and Washington convicted of killing a white woman near Shamrock, Texas, were silent in their cells today.

The negro's life was to have been taken September 8, but at the request of the negro prison chaplain, he was granted a respite by Governor Moody that he might be prepared "mentally and spiritually" to die.

CLEAN UP STREETS

British Sailors Remove Storm Debris in Hurricane Area

SONTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, Sept. 10. (P)—Sailors from the British cruiser Danae came ashore this afternoon, adopted the role of "white wings" and before night had made a decided change in the appearance of the streets of this hurricane-stricken city.

Clad in white and wearing their regulation cork helmets, the seamen were assigned in squads to direct the work by local labor. They quickly tired of the part of directors, pitched in and moved vast amounts of the accumulated refuse which has been threatening to cause a serious epidemic.

The tropical heat soon caused the tars to become begrimed, but they did not halt their labors, while their junior officers, as bosses, remained spotless and natty.

CANDIDATES WITHDRAW

Three Republicans Drop from Ticket in Texas Race

DALLAS, Sept. 10. (P)—Withdrawal of three candidates for state offices on the Republican ticket became known here today. They were Mike H. Thomas of Dallas, candidate for lieutenant governor, George S. Atkinson of Dallas, candidate for attorney general, and L. J. Benckenstein of Beaumont, candidate for railroad commissioner. The action placed the duty of naming other candidates on the Republican state executive committee. Thomas withdrew for business reasons, and the others because they were members of the executive committee.

Substitutes for "Rejuvenation" Just Beginning to Develop, Chemists Say

(By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE, Associated Press Science Editor) CINCINNATI, Sept. 10. (P)—Substitutes for the gland grafting of "rejuvenation" fame, which chemists are just beginning to develop were explained to the division of medical chemistry at the American Chemical society meeting today.

Substitutes are secretions of three glands, and of other glands that probably never can be transplanted. The chemist extract the secretions and administer them like ordinary medical remedies.

Their experiments have barely touched on human uses yet, but indicate a field of human application like that of other medicines in alleviating premature age or aiding subnormal youth.

No miracles like restoration of youth were even foreshadowed, but amazing practical experiments were reported.

F. C. Koch, of the University of Chicago, said a male sex extract, called a hormone, obtained from young men, when injected into roosters, caused growth of the combs and wattles which are nature's ornamental badges of maleness in the chicken family.

High Voltage Wire Contact Causes Death

Three Meet Death in Attempt to Rescue First Man Touching Heavily Charged Cable Near West Wednesday

Several Hours Attempt at Resuscitation Proves Futile; Foreman Pulls Wire from Bodies with Piece of Rope

(By The Associated Press) WEST, Sept. 10.—Four Linemen of the Texas Power & Light company were killed here today when they came in contact with a heavily charged electric wire.

The dead: H. S. Wadley, Waxahachie. H. F. Dodson, Waxahachie. O. L. Beavers, Waxahachie. Fred Mayberry, Ennis.

While working on lines in the vicinity of the West High school building, one of the men touched a wire carrying high voltage and the others went to his rescue. All became unconscious.

Resuscitation Fails
Officials of the company came here from Dallas, Hillsboro and Waxahachie and took charge of efforts to revive the men. Physicians and others worked for several hours, but the attempt at resuscitation was futile.

Plans were to send the body of Mayberry to Ennis, that of Wadley to Palmer, where his people reside, and that of Dodson to Waxahachie. Disposition of Beavers body was withheld pending communication with his family, said to live in South Texas.

One of the men died instantly but the other three were unconscious from the time of the flash until two hours of effort at resuscitation failed.

C. A. Gilley, foreman of the "floating crew" which was stringing the wire said Mayberry, Dodson and Wadley were on the ground under the wire which has been tied to the cross arms on one pole and were guiding the wire with their hands while Beavers was reeling it on a reel about a block away. Lester McCluney was on a pole above Beavers.

Pulled Wire Away
Gilley, who was standing about two hundred yards away, said he looked up to see McCluney coming down the pole rapidly and saw three men lying on the ground. Gilley tied a rope around the wire and pulled it away from the bodies.

Gilley said he believed the unbalanced copper wire which the men were stringing swung once against

Revolution Government Takes Control of Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 10. (P)—The revolutionary government of General Evaristo Uriburu, which displaced that of the aged President Hipolito Yrigoyen Saturday, appeared to have obtained a master hand in a situation tonight which for 48 hours had presented all the earmarks of an incipient civil warfare.

There has been no firing in the streets of Buenos Aires or elsewhere throughout the republic of Argentina, so far as Provisional President Uriburu and his new official family are aware. The Uriburu sentiment seems to be prevalent by an overwhelming majority.

THE WOMAN'S ANGLE

BY BLANCH E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

ACCORDING to Florence Ziegfeld, the difference between the chorus girl and the show girl is that the show girl is the big girl who receives all the money and the chorus girl is the little girl who does all the work. He thinks it should be different but "as long as the public will pay more to see beauty than it will talent, this condition must exist."

This story reminds me of a lot of families. There is the beautiful sister who sits about and receives all the compliments and beaux and the homage of her family and who mustn't do anything because she might ruin her beauty. And there is the wily little sister, who has no beauty to ruin, and who must dash about on errands and take made-over clothes and a college education if any money is left when beautiful sister gets through.

That's a favorite theme for fiction but it is repeated often enough in life to have real human interest. A pleasant note in this story is that neither of these has assured happiness. That's one of the paradoxes of life.

Beauty or money or advantages of any sort do not spell happiness and that's the star of hope for humanity because too many intangible things are contributing to the joys of life. Sometimes I think that people spend too much time trying to help the poor by giving them material things. Perhaps they will be more unhappy after they have once grasped things which they cannot provide for themselves and greed and avarice will ruin the remainder of their lives.

BEAUTY DOES HELP
A woman is now saying that "It's the surface view that gets a girl a job these days and helps her keep it, too" and she's right.

Mrs. Dorothy Henry, beauty consultant of the Home-Making Center in New York City, a permanent exhibit sponsored by the New York Federation of Women's clubs, says any woman may be beautiful, and she has worked out a budget for salaried girls in which she says that a girl making $18 per week is entitled to spend $50 a year on grooming, a girl earning $25 a week may spend $75 a year, and so on, in proportion.

It is the wise girl today who keeps her hair curled and her nails polished and her shiny nose subdued as much as possible for beauty does count in business as much as it does in social life. A girl shouldn't be so inefficient in her grooming that she must spend all her time in public going through the exigencies of the operation, but she should spend enough time outside her office that she looks as beautiful as possible during her stay there.

Beauty doesn't mean excessive make-up. Beauty aids are supposed to make us look natural or "as we should be" as none of us ever do.

Looking beautiful in a hot and dirty office at 3 o'clock of a summer afternoon when one is "up to her chin" in work is a problem that can't be solved with platitudes, however, and the person who can find the way to be beautiful and do the work is going to get a lot of thanks from some Lubbock office girls.

A STYLE HINT
PARIS has sent out a fashion note saying that when dresses are finished with the fashionable saw-tooth edge, hat brims repeat the motif. One afternoon costume at a smart dress establishment is a black crepe de chine dress with notched edges, according to the dispatch, and with it goes a brimmed hat of black felt, also notched.

MOTHERS MUST WORK
HERE are some interesting figures from a survey made in Cleveland, Ohio, by the department of labor. In a study of 350 mothers engaged in wage-earning occupations, it was found that in 295 cases the husbands were living with their wives, 119 women were widows, 62 were divorced and 46 had been deserted. In 13 cases the husbands were in institutions.

Of the 295 women whose husbands were living at home, 187 said that their reason for going to work was the insufficient income of the husbands, personal preference was the reason of 34, while the husbands of 33 were ill and the husbands of 36 were jobless. In 90 percent of the cases where insufficient income was the reason, given, the husbands were making less than $30 per week. The families studied averaged 2.3 children.

More than half of these women did all of the laundry work themselves. Fifty mothers sent the children to a nursery while they worked, 29 had them cared for by relatives or friends and 183 said no body cared for them.

Working outside the home is a hardship on the usual married woman with a home and, outside the professions, few such women are working altogether from choice. They have been forced into the wage-earning ranks by circumstances.

Australia's automobile show at Melbourne this year has had a larger attendance and 24 more exhibitors than a year ago.

The house has docks for loading and unloading from trucks at the same time.

Man Is Sought For Beatings

Witnesses Describe Attack on Two Women Near Laredo on Corpus Christi Road; Auto and Assaultant Escape

LAREDO, Sept. 10. (AP)—Webb county officers today were searching for a man alleged to have badly beaten two women about 12 miles east of Laredo on the Corpus Christi highway.

The attack was described by Robert C. Pearson and his sister Mrs. James Arrendal of Mirando City. They told officers that while they were en route here from Mirando City they saw an automobile suddenly stop. In it, they said, were a man and a woman in the front seat and a man and two women in the rumble seat.

"The man in the rumble seat pulled one of the women out and severely beat her," Mrs. Arrendal related. "He then grabbed the other woman and started beating her before we could stop. The first woman rushed up to our automobile and screamed, 'help! They've killed my baby sister.'"

The couple said the automobile then sped away, leaving behind one of the women. She was taken to a hospital for treatment. Mrs. Arrendal was unable to say how badly hurt the woman was that was attacked in the car but said she tumbled into the bottom of the car when struck.

Market Week Planned Here For 2nd Time

Annual Event Will Be Held in October; Display Will Be Greater Than Ever if Present Plans Materialize

Arrangements are being made for Lubbock's second semi-annual market week program, which will be presented October 5, 6, 7 and 8, and present indications are that the fall event will attract a larger number of retailers, wholesalers and jobbers than the first, which was held here in March.

Invitations to attend and bring displays to the merchandise show are being mailed by the chamber of commerce to about 200 wholesalers in different parts of the country.

A group of about 2,000 retail-merchants in West Texas and eastern New Mexico are being sent letters describing the program and pointing out the opportunity to view new styles and models at the fall market exposition.

To Exceed First One
Officials of the chamber of commerce this morning expressed confidence that the second affair would greatly exceed the first in interest and that the displays to be brought there by wholesalers will equal in beauty and interest any of those featured in larger cities.

One of the outstanding features of the market week program will be a style show which will be held on the night of October 8th. Time and place for the show has not been determined.

"In a time when business is slower than usual, we should advertise our city more than ever," he said, "and this year through our booster trips we plan to make the advertisement of Lubbock stand out even more vividly than in previous years."

Other members of Mr. Bowman's committee include Fred Litton, H. A. Davidson and Dean J. M. Gordon.

Friday's tour will include Slaton, Southland, Close City, Post, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa and Wilson. Lunch will be served the trippers at Tahoka.

Escape Plans Meet Failure

Attempt of Hobbs Prisoner to Break Jail Frustrated by Officers; Held for Kansas City Officials

(By Staff Correspondent)
HOBBS, N. M., Sept. 10.—Attempt of Dawson G. Meredith, of Kansas City, Mo., held here in jail for Kansas City officers on a charge of jumping a $1,500 bond, to flee from the local holdover failed when Leo W. de Cordova, chief of police, and D. E. Smith, of the sheriff's peace officers association, frustrated the plot.

Meredith was using the alias of S. E. Hooper when arrested. He was chained to the floor of the city jail. The chief and Officer Smith went to the jail at dusk to see about things. They saw two men standing there, who walked quickly away.

Opening the door the officers found Meredith, alias Hooper, getting up from the floor sans chains. A motor car, with engine running, was across the street from the jail. The car left immediately on the arrival of the officers.

EXCESSIVE GUM IN GASOLENE CAUSES HIGH FUEL CONSUMPTION

KOOLMOTOR GASOLENE is FREE FROM HARMFUL GUM

GASOLENES that are carelessly refined and of inferior quality deposit a sticky, gummy, clinging substance on your valves. This causes delayed seating and, in some cases, complete sticking of intake valves. Faulty valve operation allows unburned gasoline to blow out through the exhaust—unused and wasted.

Koolmotor—the original high test, anti-knock green gas—protects you against this waste of fuel because it is free from harmful gum.

A special Cities Service process—the mini-gum process—has reduced the gum content in Koolmotor Gasolene to a harmless minimum. It keeps your valves clean and free-moving—always ready to do their best—unburdened with sticky, gummy deposits.

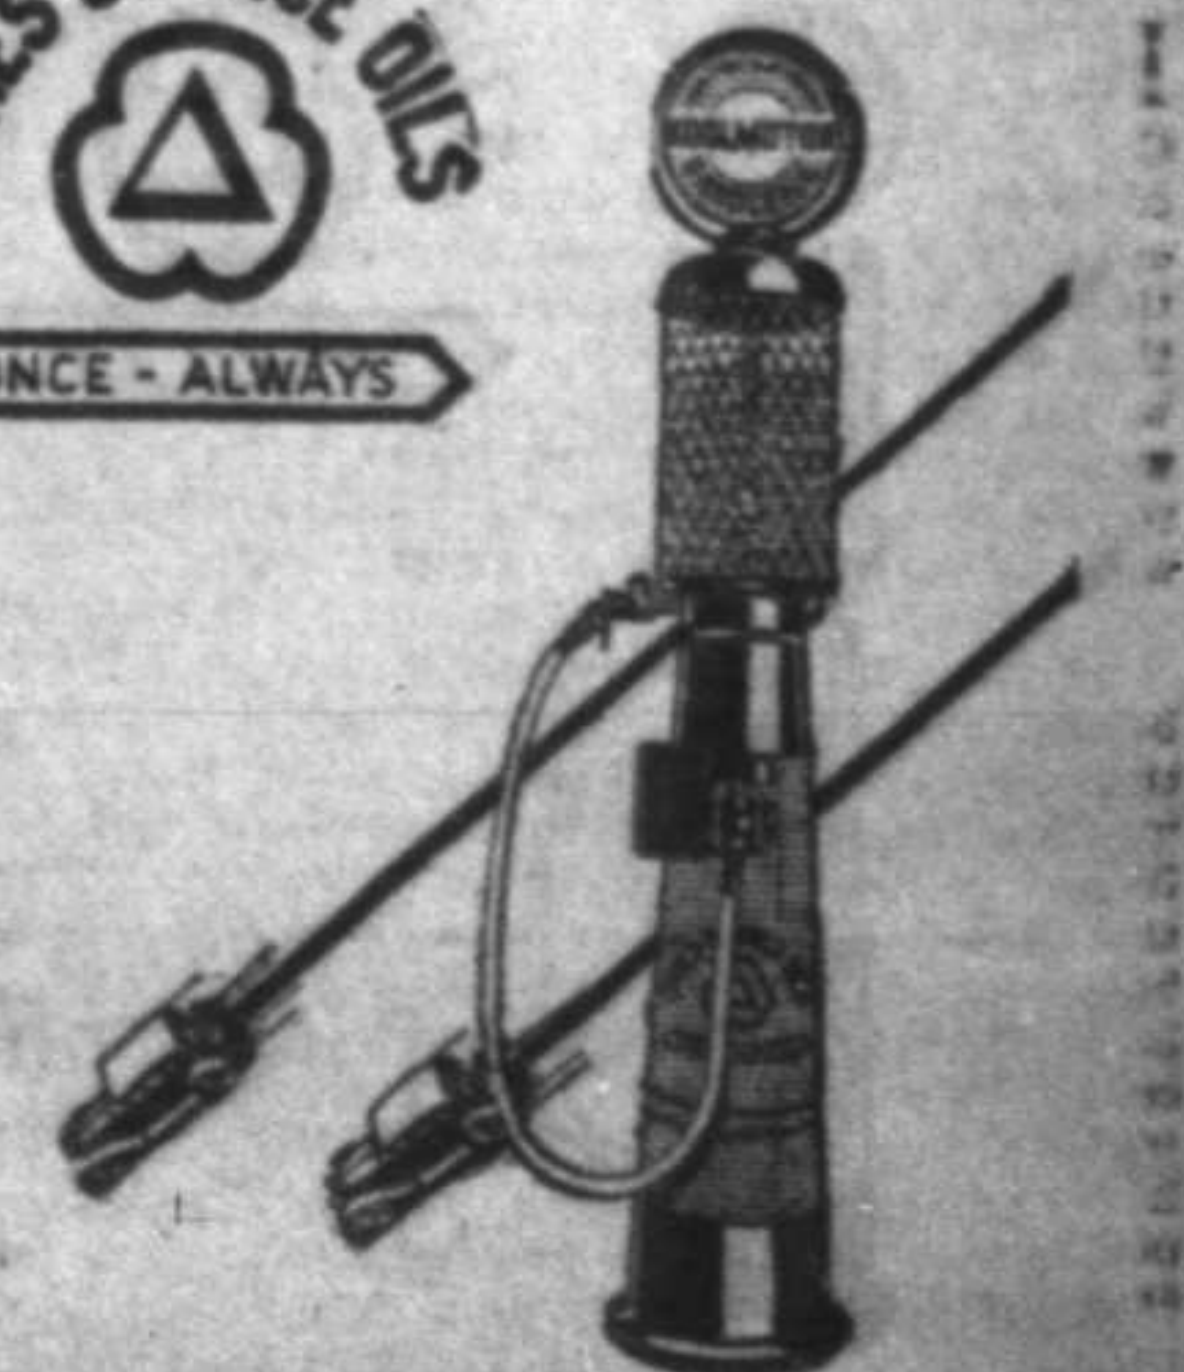

For a powerful and smooth-running motor and full mileage from your gasoline, keep your tank full of Koolmotor—the gas that is free from harmful gum.

Martial Law Is Tightened In Argentina

New Government Adopts Most Severe Measures in Plan to Prevent Counter-Revolution by Ousted Officials

Buenos Aires, Sept. 10. (AP)—The new government of the Argentine today adopted the most severe measures to prevent reprisals and counter-revolutionary tactics by friends of the ousted administration of the resigned president, Hipolito Yrigoyen.

Rule by martial law was tightened. Heavy guards were maintained over the city; troops moved through the streets, and fighting planes maneuvered overhead. A censorship more rigid than has been known heretofore was imposed. The chief of the Argentine press section advised all foreign correspondents that no messages could be sent out of the country which had not been approved by authorized censors. The prohibition applied alike to cable, telegraph and telephone. The correspondents were told that anyone violating the order would be expelled. No code messages were accepted.

The government appeared greatly concerned because quantities of arms were taken from city arsenals during the fighting Monday night.

Two military edicts were issued prescribing trial by court martial for anyone found in possession of arms after 6 p. m. yesterday, for anyone acting in any manner against the government, and for anyone failing to return within twelve hours any arms belonging to the government.

Reports Discredited. Reports that Yrigoyen had been placed aboard the warship Belgrano to be taken to an unknown

World's Greatest Show Offers Many Oddities

Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey giant helps midget feed tall animal.

How'd you like to get a sore throat if you happened to be a giraffe? But think how much better ice cream would taste if it could travel all that way down.

Only the "spotted girl" as Old Andrew, keeper of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey herd calls, his giraffes, never get ice cream. They have to worry along on clover hay, chopped carrots and now and then an onion or two.

Nope, no mistake about the onions. It's what they like best for dessert. Nobody minds though. Heads always a dozen feet above the words that visit the menagerie.

There are over 1,600 people traveling with the big show this season. Half that many horses, about 30 elephants, and a whole slaughter of wild animals in cages. Here some are of the strangest.

Nosy giraffe, tallest of all, height 31 feet.

John, world's biggest elephant, weights 19,879 pounds.

Fatima, the three ton hippo, homeliest animal on earth.

Major Mite, smallest member of the big show, 22 years old, 18 inches high.

Jim Tarver, the Texas giant, world's tallest man.

Sam and Gus, twin baby Shetlands, smallest of the 800 horses.

Rajah, a tiger "cub" less than three years old, weighs 600 pounds and still growing.

Course that's only part of it. No end of other things—barback riggers, aerialists and all like that.

Clowns? Huh! Whole hundred of 'em. Oh, yes—and zebras and llamas hitched up together and driven like horses in the grand tournament.

The circus men say that's never been done before. They'll all be here to make a fellow's eyes pop when the big show comes to exhibit in Lubbock Tuesday, September 16.

Is Coffee Tasting 'Flat' to You These Days?

Just For A Change Try These Rare Coffees From Central America

Twice The Richness Twice The Flavor Never "Thin" Or "Flat"

WHEN your coffee is not tasting right—no matter how many different brands you try—or ways of making it—here's a suggestion.

Try an entirely different kind of coffee. Try the rare flavor of coffees from the West Coast of Central America.

In the tiny spots on the map below are grown coffees that leading experts the world over, concede have the tangiest flavor, the fullest mellow-rich body of probably any coffee known today.

Grown in rich volcanic soil, nurtured by brilliant mountain sunlight and steaming tropic rain, Nature herself gives them a richer, finer taste that is captivating the world. In these coffees there are none of the "rough" offensive oils. Just the pure, clear, invigorating flavor.

First Introduced By Folger

Years ago these coffees were first served in the old Bohemian restaurants of metropolitan San Francisco where they were brought by Folger. Travelers tasting them there were captivated. They wrote back for shipments. Connoisseurs among the European nobility, it is said, even purchased private plantations in Central America to secure these rare coffees—first for their own tables, and later to exploit commercially in Europe.

Through your grocer, Folger now brings you these coffees packed in flavor-sealed vacuum tins, always as fresh as they left the roasting ovens.

If you have never tasted Folger's, your first cup will probably be a revelation. To satisfy your curiosity, if for no other reason,

In The Folger Plant—Here you see a sack of the world-famed Antigua coffee being opened in one of Folger's modern roasting plants. The latest scientific equipment is used to bring out all of the rich rare flavor that Nature put into the growing berries in the mountains of Central America. Result—Coffee like you never tasted before!

son, we suggest you try the famous Folger Flavor test.

Accept A Pound To Try

Just go to your grocer and buy a pound of Folger's. Drink it tomorrow morning. Next morning serve the coffee you have been using. The third morning serve Folger's again. Then choose between them.

Antigua, Guatemala—Back in the days when New York was still a Dutch settlement Antigua was a flourishing city of almost 100,000 population. In 1776 the Spanish capital was removed to Guatemala City, and today Antigua is largely inhabited by Indians. But many of the imposing public buildings still stand, monuments to the grandeur that was Spain in the days of Philip II. Here you see a coffee pack train bringing in the rare Antigua coffee from the surrounding mountain plantations, through a suburb of the city. This coffee, used by Folger, is one of the world's most famous varieties.

The "Volcano of Water"—Near Antigua, Guatemala, are two famous volcanoes. "The Volcano of Fire" and "The Volcano of Water." Experts credit the rich volcanic soil as well as the high altitude (5500 feet) with the remarkably rich, mellow flavor of coffee grown here.

VACUUM PACKED

If, for any reason, you decide against Folger's, your grocer will refund your money. We'll pay him. And you will have a pound of coffee without cost. But if you do as 8 out of 10 do, you'll never be satisfied to return to less flavorful coffees. And you'll become a regular customer of ours. That's why we can afford to make this offer. Try it. You'll be glad you did.

Spudders Splurge In Sixth To Win First Play-off Tilt

Hal Wiltse Is Hurling Hero With 6-2 Win

Perfect Support and Hitting Display of Mates Pleases 6,000 Fans; McCabe Is Knocked Out in Sixth Frame

(By The Associated Press) WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 10.—Hal Wiltse pitched Wichita Falls to a 6-2 victory over Fort Worth here today in the opening game of a series to determine the championship of the Texas League. Approximately 6,000 fans were on hand.

Wiltse was backed by perfect support and the swatting strength that took the Williamsens to the top in the first half of the season. Fort Worth, second half winners, got only nine scattered hits off Wiltse, while the latter's mates bounced 13 hits off McCabe and Roberts.

Storti Homers to Start 6th A big 6th inning, in which McCabe was knocked out of the box, provided the winning margin. Storti slammed a home run over the right center field fence to open it. Then with Kloss aboard, Burns slammed a home run over the center field fence. A triple by Bettencourt and a single by Crouch accounted for the fourth run of the frame and McCabe was relieved by Roberts.

The Spudders scored once off Roberts in the eighth. The Cats pushed their two runs over in the fourth and sixth.

The teams meet in the second game of the series here tomorrow, after which the battle will continue in Fort Worth beginning Saturday.

Singer Will Meet McLarnin Tonight

NEW YORK, Sept. 10. (P)—Rugby for glory and recognition as a genuine champion, young Al Singer, baby ruler of the 135 pound division, will battle Jimmy McLarnin, toughest of the welterweights, in a ten round match tomorrow night in the Yankee Stadium.

The fight faithful, often fooled by ring "naturals" in the past that produced more yawns than action, warmed slightly today to the duel of the Jewish boy and the Irish brawler. Pleasant weather and the growing belief that the 20 year old Singer had almost an even chance to win brought lengthier lines to the Madison Square Garden ticket windows and the prospects of a $25,000 gate.

National Race Tight as Cubs Lose to Robins

Cardinals End Series with Giants and Win 5 to 3 to Remain in Second Place; Luque Hurls for Robins

(By The Associated Press) BROOKLYN, Sept. 10.—For the second day in succession, the Chicago Cubs were shut out with five scattered hits by Brooklyn pitching and tonight the National League leaders found their grip on first place reduced to one game and a half over the Robins and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Adolfo Luque, 41-year-old Cuban veteran, followed in the footsteps of the youthful Ray Phelps to win the second of this three game series 5 to 0. In addition to five hits, Luque yielded four bases on balls, but great support, including three double plays, kept Chicago's score at an irreducible minimum.

The game was decided in the first inning when the Robins lit into Charley Root with a savage assault that yielded five runs. The sudden and furious attack sent Root to the showers before he retired a man in the first inning.

Cards Rally in 8th To Whip Giants

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Scoring four runs in a stirring rally, the St. Louis Cardinals evened their "crucial" series with the Giants with a 5 to 3 victory in the second game today and moved a step nearer the league leading Chicago Cubs. As Chicago was defeated by Brooklyn, the Cards remained in second place only 1 1-2 games behind the league leaders but only one point ahead of the third place Robins.

The game was another brilliant mound duel with big Fred Fitzsimmons holding a slight margin over Sylvester Johnson up to the eighth. Then four hits, of which the last and deciding swing was a home run by Jim Bottomley with Dams and Frisch on base, overcame the slim Giant lead. Athletics Blanked 4 to 0 in Series Closer; Browns Beat Senators but Washington Retains Second Place

(By The Associated Press) DETROIT, Sept. 10.—The Tigers blanked the Philadelphia Athletics, 4 to 0, in the series closer here today, due, in part, to the efforts of Frank Doljack, a recruit from Wheeling, W. Va. With the score 1 to 0, for the Tigers, he hit a home run in the fourth inning, scoring two men ahead of him, to give Vic Sorrell a comfortable lead. 2 Sorrell held the Athletics to four hits, no two of them coming in the same inning.

After the White Sox scored once in three hits in the first inning, MacFayden never let them get more than a hit an inning thereafter. The Red Sox jumped on Urban Faber for a run in the second when Webb hit a home run, added another in the fourth and led away the game in the fifth when Bill Regan hit one of the longest home runs of the year with two men on the base paths.

P. G. A. Champion Is Beaten, 1 Up

FLUSHING, N. Y., Sept. 10. (P)—Harold Sampson, a tall, slight Californian, who cannot hit a golf ball very far, but is very, very straight, today had his hours of golf glory when he removed the champion from the Professional Golfers' Association championship in the second round. Sampson defeated Lee Diegel, one up, although he had to go 38 holes to turn the trick. The 35-year-old pro of the Burlingame Country club sent a 12 foot putt spinning home for a birdie three, at the second extra hole and the man who has been champion for two years, and always a threat in this classic competition, was eliminated.

Not to Divide T. I. A. A. Teams

SAN MARCOS, TEXAS, Sept. 10. (P)—Moved made by officials of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic association last spring to divide the eleven-school association into two divisions and the winners to play off for the championships seems now to have been wasted energy. With the 1930 grid season at hand, nothing has been done to carry out such a plan. O. W. Strahan, head of the athletic department of San Marcos Teachers College, indicated recently that nothing would be done in regard to the sectionalizing plan until 1931.

Back to Tahoka Sunday

The teams meet in the second game of the series this afternoon at Southland. Lefty Squires probably will pitch for Tahoka, Sunday. The teams return to Tahoka for the third game. If a fourth is necessary it will be played at Southland Monday, and the teams will draw for the fifth contest.

Lefty Gregory hurried the route for Southland yesterday, giving up 6 hits, walking two men, and being charged with one wild pitch. Burleson was on the mound for nine innings for Tahoka, and permitted nine bingles. Burleson struck out six men to Gregory's four, and gave one base on balls. A 3-base hit by Jack Wells, Tahoka second baseman, in the fifth scored a mate for one of the exciting plays of the game. Southland was charged with two earned runs, while Tahoka drew one earned run.

Tahoka Makes Brave Attempt to Overcome Lead in 8th; Teams Meet in Southland for Today's Game

TAHOKA, Sept. 10. (Special).—A three-run spree in the third inning plus a single tally in the sixth was enough for Southland to win the first game of the South Plains championship play off series over Tahoka here today by a score of 4 to 3. One of the largest crowds to see a South Plains league game this season was on hand this afternoon and were well paid for their trouble by a game filled with excitement from start to finish.

Although both sides committed numerous errors, the teams showed why they are fighting it out for the title after a season of 27 games. Tahoka won in the first half of the season, with Southland finishing second and the standings were reversed for the last half.

Southwest Conference Clubs Swing Into Practice Season

S. M. U. Mustangs Figure for Big Year; Nearly All Play Intersectional Tilts with Strong East, West Teams

(By The Associated Press) DALLAS, Sept. 10.—A claim to the 1930 national football title goal, Southern Methodist University's serial circus started tuning up today for a campaign that between now and November 29 will carry through the middle west to the Atlantic seaboard and will include three intersectional battles.

Practically unknown outside the Southwest conference until two seasons ago, when they made a spectacular sortie into the east and unloaded a dizzy overhead attack against the Army that barely fell short of victory, the Mustangs are bent upon another "educational" tour.

Notre Dame at South Bend October 4, dedicating the new stadium, and the Navy at Baltimore November 15, are the biggest shots on the Mustang program. Their third intersectional bout will be against Indiana University here October 25, when they again will help dedicate a stadium. Outside of those three games and five within their own conference, the air-minded Mustangs have little to do the next three months.

Matty Bell Starts Aggies Off Strong

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 10. (P)—Disregarding usual preliminary training, Coach Matty Bell sent 55 Texas Aggie grid candidates through the first signal drills of the season today. Jimmie Aston, Farmersville, freshman star last season, Harry Phillips, McKinney, Bob Harling, Houston, Harry Stiller, Southville and Henry Graves, Corsicana, ran the teams as quarterbacks. Definite word was received indicating Red Walker, giant tackle from Dallas, and Gene Overton, Stamford, another big tackle, would not return this fall.

Thirty-Five Report To Arkansas Mentor

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 10. (P)—Thirty-five men reported today to Coach Thompson to start the football training season at the University of Arkansas. Four letter men and a number of last year's varsity and sophomore reserve were not here for the first roll call but were expected before the end of the week. Hard work was a feature of the opening practice. Coaches Tholmen and Bassett assumed the Mustangs were in condition and started tactics from the beginning to win the team into shape for the opening game here Sept. 27 with the College of the Ozarks. Two practice plays will be held daily until the opening of school, Sept. 22.

Letter men reporting were: Kyle, half; Ledbetter, half; Osh Half; Uptmoor, full; Creighton; guard; Bucklew, center; Hays, center; tackle; Robinson, center; and Darr, end.

Baylor Bears Return Nearly 100 Per Cent

WACO, Sept. 10. (P)—Every member of the Baylor football squad reported for duty at the first today and uppermost in the minds of the 50 youngsters was the due game October 4.

Baylor had an intensive practice session at the close of the baseball season last spring and the Baylor mentors will try to take up where they left off then. Jennings hopes to have the Bruins in scrimmage sessions in less than a week.

Among the regulars of last year who reported are: Captain Boek, Coach, "Pony" Witcher, Charlie Morris, Bill Barrett, Jake Willis, Albert Lewter, Lewis Paraded, Kitter Kathcart, Ernest McKelvey, Dutch Furl, Maurice Pierce, B. Kiersky, Red Elkins, Ecco Walsh, Sonny Bob McCallan and Raymond Alford.

Rice Coaches Greet 65 Varsity Hopefuls

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 10. (P)—A tired in track tops, 65 Rice football candidates today went through to practice periods. They composed Rice's largest and most promising football squad.

Approximately two thirds of the gridsters were sophomores, indicating that in 1931 and 1932 the Ow should be formidable contenders for the Southwest conference crown. Head Coach Jack Meagher was assisted by three mentors, two of whom are serving their first year with the Owls. Marvin Durrenberger was with the Owls last year, Johnny Neemie, and Lou Hertzberger and new comers. Uniforms will be issued tomorrow when the training will start earnest.

"I think I do," Anne said.
"I'm not that way myself," Mona confided. "If I see another girl get a break, it sort of encourages me. Oh, I'm not kidding myself about being a star or anything but there's a lot of people getting by. Maybe I will."

"I'm sure you will, son Anne.
Mona laughed. "Life's too short to spend your time worrying. I wish I could make Eva see that."
Mona moved over to the radio and tuned in on another program, and she came back and sat close to Anne on the sofa.

"I want to tell you something else about Eva," she said. "It might help you to understand a few things." She glanced toward Eva's closed door, continued in a lower voice:
"Remember the day after the party that Martin Collins gave?"
Anne nodded.

"Well, remember my asking you who was at the party, and when you mentioned Frank Maury I told you not to say anything to Eva about him, because she couldn't stand him?"
Anne remembered, and smiled.
"I can understand that. I can't stand him myself."

"Well, believe me, I can't either!
The swell-headed chump! But Eva can; Eva's mad about him."
"About Frank Maury?" Anne frowned.

"Yes, he and Eva were extra together, and Eva was crazy about him. I think she still is, although she says she hates him... Any way, he played her the lowest trick a man can pull on a girl. They were engaged to be married, and then when Maury began to get a few breaks, and commenced to mingle with some of the high-hats, he dropped Eva like that."

Mona snapped her fingers.
She said, "Eva's a funny girl.
Anne. She doesn't have much to say, but she thinks a good deal."
Her eyes sought Anne's, and Anne silently assented. "And I know she still thinks a lot about Frank Maury," Mona continued.
"People say Eva Maury is bitter and disillusioned and all that, but there's a reason for it. There usually is. Maury dropped her without saying a word, and she'll never get over it... Somebody ought to break his no-good neck, she finished savagely.

Give Your Dressmaker Silks that Conform to the New Styles

These charming sophisticated new styles are very exacting in their demands. Just any good silk won't do. It must be silk that has the suave elegance characteristic of the present mode or your dress will disappoint you. The silk must be smooth, soft and drapey or your dressmaker cannot possibly carry out the new style effects which are so graceful and smart. MAY DELAY CONFERENCE
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. (AP)—Indication that Secretary Hyde's conference with state drought relief officials may be delayed 10 days or two weeks was seen today in reports from 18 or 21 states that necessary information will not be ready by September 15, the tentative date set for the conference.

Drouth States Get Relief in Helpful Rains

South Atlantic Coast Area Aided During First Week of September, Department of Agriculture Reports

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. (AP)—The agriculture department said today beneficial rains fell in many drought states the first week of September.

The drought has been largely relieved in the South Atlantic coast area from North Carolina to Georgia and Florida while showers were helpful in the extreme lower Mississippi valley, the weekly report said.

Rainfall Needed
In the severely drought sections much of Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and parts of Tennessee were still largely unrelieved at the close of the week and rainfall was badly needed.

The Middle Atlantic area remains generally too dry for plowing. In Texas cotton plants are putting on new growth where there were recent good rains but further deterioration was reported in parts of the northwest and west. Otherwise the week brought little change in the general situation.

Much cotton is open and still un-picked although fair progress has been made in harvesting in all sections with picking far advanced in the southern third of Texas.

Showers Light
Oklahoma had fairly good showers at the close of the week but they were up to that time mostly too light to be effective in breaking the drought.

In Arkansas progress was fair to good in most central and northern sections where showers occurred but in other central-northern districts of the cotton belt it continued generally dry except locally.

In the more eastern states of the belt progress varied from deterioration in a few places to good with considerable complaints of shedding and premature opening. Picking and ginning made generally good progress throughout the cotton area.

FOREST FIRE HALTED
BASTROP, Sept. 10. (AP)—Drenching rains last night and this morning stopped a forest fire in the pine woods east of here that had been going for two days and which had baffled efforts of fire fighters. The fire had burned over an area of a half-mile before the rainfall. No estimate of the damage caused by the fire had been made today. Workmen were hampered in battling the blaze by inadequate equipment.

File Petition In Rates Case

Interstate Commerce Commission Asked to Reconsider Recent Decision Granting Lower Grain Freight Rates

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. (AP)—A petition asking the interstate commerce commission to reconsider its recent decision granting a general reduction in freight rates on grain and grain products in the west and for export was filed today by western railroads.

The petition, filed by all western carriers, asserted that the decision required rates which would substantially reduce revenue "in the face of a general rate level which at present is and for years past has been insufficient to provide a fair return."

It added that the decision was handed down so long after the record in the case was completed that testimony received by the commission no longer applied. The case was argued before the commission early last summer and the decision came last July 1.

The application also charged the reduced rates would deprive the railroads of their property without due process of law in violation of the fifth amendment to the constitution. The rates are to become effective January 1.
