

Two Held Briefly As Posters Torn

By MAX SKELTON
HOUSTON (AP)—Police held two men briefly today after Nixon posters were torn up when Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson arrived at a downtown hotel for a Democratic rally.

Carriers To Take Survey Of Livestock

Rural mail carriers from the Snyder post office will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning Nov. 16. Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms, said Postmaster Dawson Moreland. In distributing the cards, rural carriers pick boxes at random along their routes. "This means that not every box will get a card," Moreland said. "For this reason, it is important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture can get a true sample of the state's livestock holdings."

Carriers assisting with the survey are Warren Dodson, Route 1; Hilton C. Lambert, Route 2; and Joel H. Hamlett, Route 3. Facts and figures secured in the survey are the basis for the Texas and National pig crop report and inventories of livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and many others use this information in making business decisions. Survey results will be widely distributed through Texas crop and livestock reporting service releases, newspapers, farm magazines, radio and television.

"This annual survey has been a joint undertaking of the Post Office and Agricultural Departments since 1924," Moreland said.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To The Daily News: Being a taxpayer of Scurry County and interested in the welfare of the county, I would like to express my opinion of the Optional Road Law Issue that is to be submitted to the voters in the coming election.

In the first place I do not see anything wrong with the present road law. Sure, there could be some improvements but I believe the county commissioners can make those improvements by continually striving for a more efficient and economical method of county road construction and maintenance. Secondly, let's look at some of the added expense that could be incurred by the county in the hiring of a licensed professional engineer that would be required by the Optional Road Law. Salaries alone in all probability would run in a rather large figure for the engineer and other assistants he may need.

Additional engineering equipment normally used in this type work would need be purchased, making an extra expense to the county. If there are some good workable points to the Optional Road Law, why can't the commissioners take advantage of them under the present system, without being forced into something new that might later be regretted by all.

Street sidewalk of the Rice Hotel as several hundred people waited to greet the Democratic candidate for vice president.

The flurry was over by the time Johnson arrived and moved through a crowded lobby entrance to an elevator without incident.

The two men, one middle-aged and the other appearing to be in his early 20s, were detained by a motorcycle patrolman until word came from superiors to "let them go."

One of the signs torn up read: "LBJ. All the way OUT." As the younger man was pulled out of the crowd by the patrolmen, someone shouted: "You are causing a riot." Otherwise, however, the incident was accompanied mostly by laughter.

Several other Nixon signs read "Go Back to Jack," referring to Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate, another read "Double Your Pleasure, Double Your Fun, Scratch Lyndon Twice." Another said "Don't be Half Soft, Scratch Lyndon Twice." Johnson's name appears on the Texas ballot both for vice president and senator.

An elderly woman kept trying to hold a homemade sign of her own in front of the anti-Johnson placards. Her poster read: "Pasadena for JFK and LBJ All the Way." Pasadena is an industrial suburb of Houston.

After Johnson entered the hotel, the crowd moved on to the mezzanine floor for a coffee rally. Only the elevator side of the lobby was jammed. The rest of the lobby had few people.

The automobile carrying Johnson in a motorcade five miles from the Shamrock Hotel to the Rice stopped two doors from the Nixon-Lodge Precinct 28 headquarters.

Suspect Kills Self, Deputy

GLADE SPRING, VA. (AP)—A man charged with three slayings shot and killed himself today after fatally shooting a deputy sheriff at police closed in on his barricaded, flame-engulfed house. The man, Douglas Winfield Graham, 36, took his life with a rifle shot in the head as fire gutted his 1 1/2-story house in this small Washington County community in southwest Virginia.

Fire broke out after police had lobbed tear gas shells into the house and after Graham's four young sons and mother-in-law held as hostages during most of the 16-hour police siege, had escaped.

The deputy killed by a shot from the same rifle was Orville McNish of Damascus. Victims of the triple shooting in neighboring Smyth County were Graham's estranged wife, Hester Graham, 35, her aunt, Bessie Richardson, 76, and Jim Dillman, 56.

The shootings occurred Sunday a mile and a half south of Marion, Va.

SHE WAS WORRIED ABOUT SCHOOL ON SATURDAY

Barbara Flinn, 9-year-old fourth grader, smiles as she displays a letter and autographed photo from Vice President Richard Nixon. Some one spread the rumor that if Nixon was elected president, children will have to go to school on Saturday. This worried Barbara and she wrote the Republican presidential nominee, assuring him of her support, and put the question to him. Nixon replied, thanking Barbara for her support and said the matter of attending school on Saturdays is for local and state officials to decide and is not in the jurisdiction of a federal official such as the President or Vice President. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Wayne Flinn of Oakland, Calif. (AP Wirephoto)

Gallup Poll Indicates Close Race

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—The Gallup poll's final nationwide survey of the presidential race, shows following division of the popular vote among likely voters: Kennedy-Johnson 49 per cent, Nixon-Lodge 48 per cent, Undecided 3 per cent. George Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion, gave the figures in a copyright story.

Gallup also said in part that considering only those voters who expressed a preference, the division would be Kennedy-Johnson 51 per cent, Nixon-Lodge 49 per cent. These results are based upon interviewing conducted during the period Nov. 1 through Nov. 4. This survey, therefore, does not register the impact of President Eisenhower's campaigning in the final days of the last-minute appeals and efforts on television by Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy.

The figures in today's final election report apply solely to the popular vote. For an election poll to estimate the division of the electoral vote it would be necessary to conduct individual surveys in each of the 50 states, Gallup said.

Gallup said the institute's error has averaged between 3 and 4 percentage points during the 25 years since its founding in 1935.

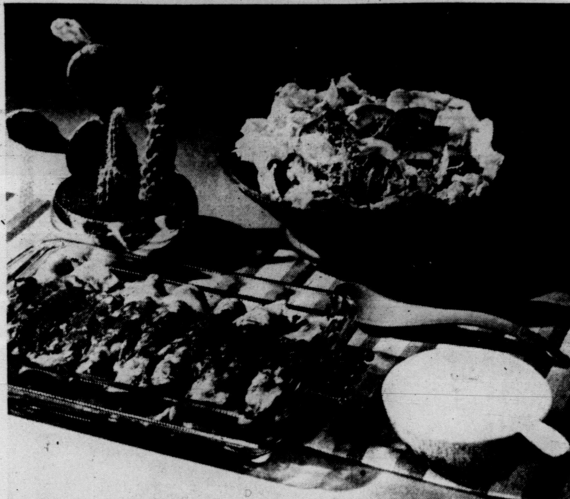

Demos Likely To Hold Solon Edge

By KARL R. BALMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Barring a big political upset, both houses of Congress are expected to remain Democratic majorities in Tuesday's election.

The Democrats are virtually assured control of the Senate even before the voting starts. Democratic politicians for the most part estimated they might have a net loss of 10 to 15 seats in the House. Their Republican counterparts insisted their party would have a minimum gain of 25 or 30 seats.

VIVA!—Cheese Enchiladas combine leftover turkey with cheddar cheese in a peppery Mexican flavored tomato sauce. Creamy cheese dressing teams with tossed greens and avocado for the salad course.

Turkey Goes South Of The Border

Down Mexico way trots turkey, for an especially glamorous left-over dish. We know of no more zesty a route for this bird to take. For Turkey-Cheese Enchiladas make a savory stopover on the road to good eating.

Though this is a foreign-style dish, it's very easy to prepare using ready-made packaged tortillas. These are dipped in a peppery tomato sauce-chili powder, a favorite below the border spice, combined with garlic powder, tomato juice and paste-before lightly frying.

Now the delicious turkey leftovers enter "the picture." Browned with onion cubes in butter, they're rolled up with shredded Cheddar cheese inside each tortilla. If your Holiday turkey has been eaten almost to the bone, this is a particularly economical recipe. One and one-half cups cooked cubed turkey make four generous servings, allowing two enchiladas per person.

Cheddar cheese supplies the additional protein and flavor satisfaction. Melting to a smooth and creamy goodness it blends and binds the ingredients into mouth-watering morsels. Cheddar comes in all stages of flavor. The sharper the Cheddar, the more pungent will be your enchiladas. Those who like their fare on the zippy side should choose the more aged or mature Cheddar.

To accompany these Turkey-Cheese Enchiladas, we suggest tossed greens filled with avocado rings—that tropical fruit so loved by Mexicans. Dressing for the salad should be well-seasoned and tangy, like Creamy Cheese Dressing. Cottage cheese is well-blended

Local Club Hears Pro-Con On Election

The Altrurian Daughters met for their regular meeting at the Martha Ann Woman's Club, Wednesday, at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Ross Carroll, Jr., President, presiding.

The program theme was Democrats and Republicans presented by Mesdames Harold P. Brown and R. E. Patterson.

Mrs. Brown presented the information on the Democratic presidential candidate and Mrs. Patterson the Republican presidential candidate. This information was in the form of an application for the position of President of the United States. Both candidates listed their education, military record, employment record and personal qualifications and references.

A sample ballot was passed around and discussion followed when it became apparent that an alarming few knew what the Optional Road Law of 1947 meant. It was explained that this is an opportunity for Scury County citizens to adopt or reject the law which permits the control of county road operations under one head, with all purchases made for the roads by one county employee, preferably a licensed engineer, whose salary shall not exceed 12,000 per year. All purchases for the roads are to be made by this head, under the direction of the Commissioner's Court.

The program ended on the platform of the two parties and a round table discussion of the dominant issues which have come from the platform, public debate, and recent current events dealing with the gold standard and foreign policy, was held.

In conclusion Mrs. Patterson told the group the importance of their vote in the forthcoming election November 8 and mentioned that sixty percent of the qualified voters cast a ballot.

20th. Century Has Program On Safety

The Twentieth Century Club met at the Martha Ann Woman's Club for a regular meeting recently with 11 members present. One new member, Mrs. Louella Stoker was welcomed to the group.

The thought for the day on happiness was given by Mrs. Dale Clemmer. Mrs. C. O. Holder conducted a parliamentary drill, with questions answered by the group.

A Thanksgiving luncheon was planned for the next meeting to be held in the home of club president, Mrs. G. W. Hicks.

Mrs. Fred Beatty presented a program on safety, stating that "Safety Solutions Save Civilization."

"The statistics on deaths in automobile accidents are appalling. We as responsible citizens need to promote a more intensified educational program on all safety problems of the community, and to support legislative action to assure more effective control of causes and remedies. If anything is to be done about it, it will be women who will take the initiative to correct it."

In this age of super-highways and crowded free ways we must change our driving habits to fit the needs of the day. The Bible says "Thou Shalt Not Kill." This includes killing by traffic accidents through carelessness and disregard for the law. Be your brothers keeper; practice the Golden Rule."

In closing, Mrs. Beatty handed each member a copy of a motorists prayer: "Our Heavenly Father, we ask this day a particular blessing as we take the wheel of our car. Grant us safe passage through all the perils of travel; shelter those who accompany us, and protect us from harm by Thy mercy; steady our hands, and quicken our eyes that we may never take another's life; guide us to our destination safely, confident in the knowledge that Thy blessings go with us through darkness and light, sunshine and shower, forever and ever—Amen."

Mrs. Laura Strayhorn served refreshment to those present.

Influence Of Youngsters Is Felt In Politics Of Today

By ED KOTERBA
 WASHINGTON — The art of punditry becomes most violent in the final days of a Presidential campaign. Practically everybody practices it. And they all have their own theory on why their man will win—or lose.

But there's one mystery factor no one has yet dissected. It's the question: "Where do the pre-voting-age kids stand?"

I've done enough candidate touring to frighten me into thinking the kids are the ones who'll decide the outcome of this election.

Looking into some 50 jammed campaign crowds for both candidates across the country the last several weeks, I found that in almost every case at least half the people in the mobs were youngsters not old enough to vote directly.

Some trainings and airport assemblies were made up of as many as 80 percent youth. Thousands of kids, virtually all the stopping and cheering and screaming and chanting and banner-swinging was initiated by the riotous roosters of school age. And, strangely enough, there were as many kids whooping it up for Nixon as for Kennedy.

What influence do these kids have? Not on mob psychology, but on their voting parents. I've heard a number of dads talking about hot arguments around the dinner table between college student and parent. And these kids know more answers than the old man does, in most cases.

If you doubt that youngsters influence decisions around the house, consider what happens when Father gets Junior's advice on what make car the family should buy. It's usually Junior who swings the vote. It's amazing how far down in age these opinionated pre-voters come these days. A good example may be found in our own household. He's not even nine years old and already he's brandishing threats against his old man to vote "his" way.

I overheard him upstairs telling his mother in tones of stout defiance: "If Daddy doesn't vote for Nixon, I'll never speak to him again." I should have paddled his bottom, but I recognized that he was merely practicing what everybody else in America has been doing for months—vocalizing free expression in a land of democracy.

I learned later that my son was actually a victim of the chain reaction of influence. The closest link in this chain was the cute eight-year-old blonde next door. Which should prove the overpowering influence of our female population. What has incited the youth to the banners in such great numbers this year is apparently the young age of both candidates. It can be truthfully stated that the Presidency of the United States had never before come this close to the teenager.

Maybe it's also because today's youngsters simply come smarter and the pursuit of political science—what with television and all—is much more fashionable than it was in Grandfather's time.

Whatever it is, I still say 'the thinking of our nation's pre-vote youth is the "X" factor that may determine the outcome of the Presidential election on November 8.

British Applaud DeGaulle's Action

LONDON (AP) — British officials voiced strong approval Sunday for what they termed a new initiative by French President Charles de Gaulle on Algeria. They expressed dismay that his broadcast speech Friday was receiving a negative reaction outside France.

Diplomatic officials in London interpreted the speech as the product of intense reflection showing De Gaulle's determination to break the prolonged Algerian deadlock and open new negotiations. De Gaulle stated his aim of a future "Algerian Algeria" but did not stipulate any conditions that must precede a cease-fire with the rebels.

Urges More Civil Defense

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Edward Teller, key figure in the development of the hydrogen bomb, said Sunday the nation's civil defense is in "such a tragic state of unpreparedness that we are practically inviting attack."

Too many Americans, he told newsmen, have an attitude that "all we can do is throw up our hands, take a suicide-pill and die."

Actually, he said, most Americans and the American way of life can survive a nuclear attack if civil defenses are prepared.

He said the United States should construct shelters "that people in cities can reach on foot in 10 minutes," stockpile important materials such as food and machine tools and form a unit to clean up essential areas and keep order.

Return To Liberia

MOROVIA, Liberia (AP) — President William V. S. Tubman returned home Sunday from a European trip. The 65-year-old African leader underwent a minor operation and a medical checkup in Switzerland.

New York Is Continually For Newness

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK (AP)—Here is the only place in the world where a skyline is a calorie.

If you watch it too long, the danger is that it will make you fat with a sense of belonging.

To live in Manhattan is a prolonged invitation to challenge. This is the world's greatest town for saying "hello" — and then plugging, a "sincere elbow between your eyeballs without love or apology."

Like San Francisco and New Orleans, it is a self-conscious citadel. It can afford the luxury of laughing at itself, but still present itself as the great dinosaur of modern western cities.

New York is the most old-fashioned of majestic towns in some ways, the least in others.

Of course, to be old-fashioned here means all you cry when they tear down a 40-year-old apartment house and replace it with a 40-story office building.

The real cause for weeping is this: Some of the buildings that are destroyed are far better architecture than the buildings that succeed them.

There is no major city on earth that tries harder to achieve newness—a city more willing to sacrifice its grandeur of granite to reflect its future in mirrored towers of metal bordered glass.

But in this quicksilver-melting of it's past, Manhattan has happily destroyed some of its finest previous ingredients.

Sure people make buildings, but good buildings, also help make good people—and certainly do sustain them by a pride of belonging.

A building can be more than a place to come into while it is raining. It can be a sunshine shelter too. It can be a spiritual rainbow in stone. It can give you a sense of personal wealth merely because you work in it. It can be part of the salary of living called satisfaction.

This is an odd town. People come from everywhere to Manhattan, but most of them are hearts and minds in transit. They are lookers by intent, if not always by performance. They believe there is something here that can be stolen and taken away and enjoyed better somewhere else.

The truth is, of course, that many of the people who come to take from Manhattan remain to give to it. The stranger in time becomes at home in its concrete forest.

This is a marvelous place to invest a lifetime—as well as a visit. Or at least the productive part of a lifetime.

There are those who say: "Manhattan is the best town to grow old in. I don't know why."

The town's policy of traffic control, fast-paced one way streets that can be crossed safely only if one has the rapidity of the rabbit—can but increase the hazards of the elderly pedestrian and reduce his sense of security and feeling of being essential. It is hard for him to believe he belongs and is wanted.

But it is always a great town to grow and stay young in. The greatest. It is a three-ring civic circus available by seaplane and helicopter as well as by subway.

Because it is, after 300 years of youth, still a young town, one both enjoys and resents its appetite for change.

They tear down so many strong able-bodied buildings here to make way for newer ones that a balding, middle-aged human building has an uneasy sense of teetering on the edge of survival, too.

Gophers Bask In Spotlight

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The world of college football today belongs to Minnesota's resurgent Golden Gophers and their out-maneuvered coach, Murray Warmath. They hope they can hold onto it a bit longer than some of the other kings this season.

A half-step away is a fighting band of Missouri Tigers, whose "glory days" go far back to 1941, the same time Bernie Bierman and the Golden Gophers were the strong men of college football.

The Gophers and Warmath clinched a national season record when they Saturday when they upped their season record to 7-0 by beating Iowa's unbeaten Hawkeyes, ranked first in the Associated Press poll, 27-10. The victory put the Gophers, ranked third before the victory, into the Big Ten lead.

Missouri, a 16-6 victor over Colorado, took over the Big Eight slot and has an 8-0 mark, the most for a Missouri team since Don Farout's team had an 8-3 record in 1948.

Looking toward this week's game against Purdue, with a so-so 4-4 record and three straight losses, Warmath observed: "We don't put in stock in those four defeats. Purdue is a fine football team."

The Gophers don't dare relax. Defending national champion Syracuse, Mississippi and Iowa all held the kingly spot at one time or another this year. Each had the crown snatched rudely away.

A Minnesota victory over Purdue will assure the Gophers at least a tie for the Big Ten title and possibly start its admirers humming in anticipation of a trip to the Rose Bowl, Ohio, where ranked fifth plays the Hawkeyes and the loser is finished in the race.

Missouri, ranked second nationally before its Colorado victory, plays Oklahoma. The Sooners won't make it 13 Big Eight titles in a row after last week's 10-6 loss to Iowa State. But Kansas is still around and if it beats Oklahoma this week, then the Missouri-Kansas game the following Saturday will produce the conference champion.

Things get interesting elsewhere this week. Washington, ranked seventh before beating Southern California 34-0, can nail down a spot to defend its Rose Bowl title by beating California and winning the Big Five crown.

Duke, whose 19-10 victory over previously unbeaten Navy was a surprise Saturday, can gain at least a tie for the Atlantic Coast Conference title by beating Wake Forest. Yale, one of the nation's unbeaten with a 7-0 mark after whipping Penn 34-9, plays Princeton in what will probably be the Ivy League title game. Both are 6-0 in league play. Each has two games left.

Mississippi, ranked sixth, tries to keep its Southeastern Conference lead against Tennessee. The eight-ranked Vols were upset 14-7 by Georgia Tech and were kept from tying Ole Miss for the SEC lead. Mississippi was out of the conference beating Chattanooga 45-0. Auburn and Florida both 4-1 are right behind.

Arkansas' 3-0 upset of 10th-ranked Rice on Mickey Cisell's last-minute field goal puts the Razorbacks atop the Southwest Conference and they play without Southern Methodist this week. Rice, in second place, meets Texas as AAM.

Virginia Military, alone in first place in the Southern Conference after Davidson knocked off Virginia Tech 9-6, meets the Citadel. VMI beat outsider Lehigh last week, 18-14.

Syracuse, ranked ninth, saw its season pretty well go up in smoke when Army handed it a 9-6 licking. It was the second straight loss after a 16-game victory streak.

The only other unbeaten in action, Utah State (8-0), took first place in the Skyline Conference with a 17-13 victory over Wyoming. New Mexico State (7-0) was idle.

Notre Dame's football fortunes ebbed still lower when Pitt handed the Irish a record-making sixth straight loss, 29-13. The Irish have won once and have three games remaining. Auburn's Ed Dyer set a national season record when he kicked his eighth and ninth field goals and tied a career mark of 13 against Mississippi State. The Auburn fullback scored 21 points, adding on a pair of TDs and kicking 3 extra points in a 27-13 victory.

Arkansas Perched In Driver's Seat

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Arkansas is in the driver's seat in more ways than one as the Southwest Conference football rumbles down the last mile.

All the Razorbacks have to do is win their two remaining games—with Southern Methodist and Texas Tech—and they can get no less than a tie for the championship. Southern Methodist hasn't won a game all season and Texas Tech has won only three.

But the way things went Saturday, it wouldn't be too surprising if somebody knocked off Arkansas. Because of that day every favored team got beat or tied.

Arkansas was pulling one of the big upsets as it defeated Rice 3-0 to knock the latter out of the lead and hand it its first conference loss then along came Texas to fell Baylor 12-7 and virtually ruin the Golden Bears' dreams of a championship after 36 years.

Next, Southern Methodist not only played Texas A&M to a scoreless tie but came within a yard of beating the Aggies.

And out in the plains country Texas Tech was tumbling highly rated Tulane 35-21 in an inter-sectional game. This made Arkansas blanch. The Razorbacks had undoubtedly figured Tech a fairly easy mark.

Rice has the toughest schedule because the Owls play Texas A&M, Texas Christian and Baylor, having to win them all to hope for a share of the conference crown.

Texas Christian is in a good position to take over if Arkansas and Rice should falter. The Christians have a 2-1-1 record with Texas, Rice and Southern Methodist to play. Should they win all three and Arkansas and Rice lose one each, the Horned Frogs would be champions.

Baylor and Texas are still in the race with 3-2 records but don't harbor much hope since there are three teams that would have to lose a game for them to figure in the title.

Arkansas has the best shot at the Cotton Bowl. The Razorbacks would get it with a championship and they would also get the bid if they tied Rice, Texas Christian or Texas for it since they beat those teams in regular season play. A tie with Baylor, however, would give the Cotton Bowl to Baylor, which tumbled Arkansas.

Arkansas plays Southern Methodist at Fayetteville Saturday while Texas and Texas Christian clash at Fort Worth and Rice and Texas A&M tangle at Houston. Baylor and Texas Tech play inter-sectional games. Baylor hosting Southern California and Texas Tech entertaining Wyoming.

Immovable Object Superior To Speed

By JIM KLOBUCHAR
MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The immovable object didn't move.

Mammoth Minnesota mowed down Iowa Saturday by applying a simple football principle: No body is fast enough to beat you if he's lying flat on his back.

This is where the Hawkeyes' sprinters spent most of the afternoon in a 27-10 Minnesota victory that was the supreme triumph of the Gophers' destructive line.

It is a line that was compared today by such a knowledgeable judge as Bernie Bierman, the old master, with Minnesota's great lines of the past, some of the best college football has produced.

"It's in a class with some of those old Minnesota combinations," said Bierman. "It's active, big, strong and plays smart football."

Gopher coach Murray Warmath didn't see Bierman's great lines, but he and Bernie joined on this point: If there is a better college lineman in the country than Minnesota's 240-pound ex-Navy policeman, Tom Brown, neither has seen him.

Brown's contribution Saturday was enormous. Almost single-handedly he knocked out nearly one-third of the Iowa offensive repertory, its inside shots that so often had opened the way for long-run knockouts built.

With ends Tom Hall, Bob Degan and Dick Larson, and linebackers Julian Hook and Dick Enga, he blunted the Iowans' outside speed. On offense better than 50 per cent of Minnesota's best rushes went over his guard position.

Three Minnesota touchdowns in the final 25 minutes after Iowa had taken a 10-7 lead drove the Gophers and their once, buffeted coach to heights none had imagined possible two months ago.

With seven straight victories Minnesota is now a hot contender for its first national title in 19 years.

University of Minnesota officials declined to speculate on how the school would react to a Rose Bowl invitation — Minnesota has voted against Big Ten involvement in the past — but they pointedly noted that an entirely new situation would exist this time.

Minnesota has voted strictly on a conference agreement in the past, they said. This time the school would be voting on an invitation extended specifically to one institution, namely, Minnesota.

But there is nothing hazy about the Gophers' Big Ten title prospects. They can clinch at least a tie by beating Purdue Saturday and grab it all with victories over Purdue and Wisconsin.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation 250. At all drug counters.

Trojans Decision Plainview, 20-22

PLAINVIEW — Lincoln High School's Trojans of Snyder rolled up a 22-0 advantage in the first half and went on to decide the Plainview Negro team, 30-22, here Saturday night.

Lincoln got its first touchdown in the opening period when Buford Thompson intercepted a Plainview pass and ran it back to the 10 to set up the score. Joe Phillips carried over left guard for the TD, and Ronald Green ran over the conversion on a fake kick play.

Late in the first quarter Lincoln took over on the 30 and Samuel Stephens then picked up a first down on the 19. Randolph Williams then carried over on a quarterback sneak. Stephens ran for the conversion.

Joe Sanders and John Choyce administered a jarring tackle on a Plainview ball carrier in the second quarter, causing a fumble which was recovered by Willie Daniels for the Trojans. Phillips and John Austin carried for successive first downs, putting the ball on the 9, from where Williams intercepted a pass after setting a tanker vice to the right.

There was no scoring in the third period, but Plainview picked up its first score on a 50-yard screen pass early in the fourth.

Lincoln came back to score again, however, after taking over on the 40. A pass to Ronald Green went to the 18, and Williams, Stephens and Sanders carried for a first down. Then a pass interference call set the Trojans up in business on the 7. Williams started out on a running pass play, but when he found no receiver open, dashed over for the score.

Plainview picked up two more touchdowns which were set up by Lincoln fumbles. The first fumble was recovered on the Trojan 30, from which point Plainview went for the score on the ground.

On the ensuing kickoff, Lincoln fumbled again and Plainview worked the screen pass again from the 19 to produce the final TD.

Mack Taylor, John Choyce, Joseph Creighton, Buford-Thompson and Ronald Green were cited by Coach Calvin Edwards for the good defensive play for the Trojans.

The Los Angeles Daily Post has Lakeview of Big Spring here Friday night.

CUSTOM PROCESSING—Birdwell Burney and W. D. Mickler are shown above as they cut and wrap a quarter of beef to the exact specifications of a customer of the Heath Meat Co., 2003 Twenty-fifth Street. Already packed is their special "high lean content" pork sausage which is very popular in this area.

Heath Meat Co. Beginning Its 5th Year Of Operation

Heath Meat Co., 2003 Twenty-fifth Street, is beginning its fifth year serving Scurry County top grade, grain fed beef purchased in the county for local consumption.

Purchasing grain-fed beef from Scurry farmers and ranchers not only helps the county economy but also helps Heath's delivery to its customers the finest in quick-freezing meats with a minimum expense to air in dressing and getting to the locker. Quick-freezing means a better flavor on the dining table as the processing at 20 degrees below zero preserves the natural juices with the meat being frozen at the exact time after slaughter.

Heath's also has a food plan designed to suit your budget, with payments arranged by the week or month according to the desires of the customer.

You may buy beef by the quarter half or whole for your home freezer, and have it custom-cut and packaged to fit your family's needs. If you don't have a home freezer and would like the convenience of one, ask Heath's about their lockers.

Farmers and ranchers in this area have been using the processing services of Heath Meat Co. for a long time to process their own calves.

Heath meats may also be purchased from their retail market which stocks Scurry County beef, especially for those who like to pick and choose the exact cut of meat for the dinner table.

The A. A. Heaths, owners of the firm, are proud of their four years of service to the area since they brought the Jones Food Locker plant in 1956 and are looking forward to many more years of giving the best in beef and beef processing to the people of Scurry County.

It's a miracle," said Kay Gable, expectant mother and fifth wife of the 38-year-old king of the movies. "He had planned a weekend hunting trip at his duck club near Stockton. There are no phones there and it's miles from a doctor."

"Then Friday night he said: 'I think I'll spend the weekend home with you and the children. I don't think I should go up there.'"

"On Saturday night he seemed prevented more serious, or even fatal, damage to his heart."

Canceled Trip May Have Saved Gable

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Clark Gable—struck by a heart attack that might have been much worse if he hadn't called off a hunting trip—was resting satisfactorily today.

Gable suffered the attack Sunday at his suburban Encino home and was rushed by ambulance to Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital. Doctors and his wife said the quick use of oxygen undoubtedly prevented more serious, or even fatal, damage to his heart.

"Later he said he felt a little sick and went to bed at 9 p.m. About 4 a.m. he awakened and complained of chest pains. He was perspiring and he felt clammy. I gave him two aspirin."

"At 8:15 a.m., he got up and tried to dress but the pains in his chest were too much. He just sat there helpless. I called the doctor immediately."

"The doctor took one look and called a fire department rescue squad and an ambulance."

Gable had no history of heart trouble. His wife said he hadn't even had a cold in years.

Friday he wound up a movie with Marilyn Monroe—"The Misfits."

"I talked with him that day and all he could talk about was his coming fatherhood next March. He will be 60 then, and a father for the first time."

"It is 3 dividend that has come to me late in life," he said. "I'm taking off until the baby is born. I want to be there and I want to be there a good many months afterward."

Mrs. Gable, who married the film king five years ago after divorcing sugar heir Adolph Spreckels Jr., slept on a couch at the foot of Gable's hospital bed.

Once during the night Gable complained of chest pains and irritation from the oxygen plugs in his nostrils. Dr. Fred V. Cerini, his doctor, gave him an injection that put him to sleep almost immediately.

"The physician said Gable couldn't be betted at this stage of the game. His condition is very satisfactory."

EL CAJON, Calif. (AP)—Victor Rojas, 44, Democrat, wanted to watch Sen. John F. Kennedy on television.

His wife, Norma Jean Rojas, 34, a Republican, wanted to watch Lawrence Welk.

In the argument, said deputies, she stabbed him fatally with a paring knife.

Mrs. Rojas was booked at county jail on suspicion of murder following the incident Saturday night.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The San Antonio and Houston Junior Chambers of Commerce are taking seriously their efforts to get out the voters in Tuesday's general election.

The public-affairs committee of each has agreed that the group that gets out fewer voters will spend a night in the other's city jail.

Rites Set Tonight For Mack Sennett

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Rosary will be recited tonight for old-time comedy king Mack Sennett, 80, who died Saturday at the Motion Picture Country Home.

Friends said he was broke—although he made millions in his prime, when he invented the Keystone cops and the pie-in-the-face antics that reigned in the days of slapstick and the silent films.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Hollywood.

Rep. Fisher Off To New Zealand

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Clark Fisher, D-Tex., left Sunday for New Zealand to spend two weeks studying the sheep industry in that country.

"As representatives of one of the largest sheep and wool growing areas in the nation, I am particularly interested in seeing first hand what goes on in the country which provides much of our competition," the San Angelo politician said.

Fisher will spend about a week around McDermid Sound at the South Pole where he will inspect a nuclear reactor being built.

Motorist Victim Of Resident's Wrath

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Walter W. Whaley, 55, a film studio casting director, grew irate at Sunday drivers going mad in Hollywood Hills home to view a new housing development.

Harvey Siegel, 35, happened to drive past at the peak of Whaley's pique.

Officers rushed from his home, swinging a 2-by-4 at Siegel's car.

Siegel, hit on the head, was taken to Hollywood Receiving Hospital. Whaley was booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon.

Teachers In New York Go On Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Teachers struck today for the first time in the history of New York City schools.

Picket lines formed at day-break, with sign-carrying teachers pacing the sidewalks outside schools. They defied threats that they would be fired for such action.

What proportion of the teaching personnel was involved could not be quickly determined. Pupils were advised to report to class as usual.

The striking United Federation of Teachers claims to represent a fourth of the 40,000 teachers in the city's 837 public schools. Enrollment exceeds a million.

Al Shanker, a union official, said more than 5,000 teachers were expected to picket at all 128 junior high schools, 30 of 80 high schools and about 200 of 800 elementary schools.

An hour before classmate, 40 teachers marched outside Seward Park High School on Manhattan's lower East Side. Six pickets patrolled Dunbar Junior High in the Bronx. They said 60 of 80 teachers there were striking. Eight pickets took up posts at La Salle Junior High in midtown Manhattan.

At one school, only one of 20 teachers normally on duty by 8:30 a.m. had reported.

Charles Cogen, UFT president, called the strike "a great success."

The union has accused the school board of breaking promises regarding collective bargaining, sick pay benefits and other issues.

The strike coincided with the start of "Open Week," when parents traditionally are invited to visit schools.

Educational officials have said the striking teachers would lose their jobs and possibly their state teaching certificates. The state's Condon-Wadlin law prohibits work stoppages by public employees.

The AFL-CIO, an affiliate of the UFT, is only one of 30 teacher organizations in the city.

The union seeks higher pay, a union checkoff and a "promotional increment" plan. Another major issue in the dispute is UFT's demand for collective bargaining rights. The Board of Education has approved some concessions, which were called inadequate by the UFT.

Canada Crash Fatal To Nine
TEMPLETON, Que. (AP)—Nine persons were killed Sunday night and at least 10 others injured when a bus and a station wagon collided head-on on a slight curve near this town 10 miles east of Ottawa.

The station wagon penetrated five feet into the bus. All five persons in the car were killed. So were bus driver Paul Potrier, 30, of Buckingham, and three of his 17 passengers.

A light snow was not believed a factor in the crash. A policeman said it was falling too lightly to obscure the drivers' vision and that most of it had blown off the highway.

The bus was en route from Hull to Buckingham.

The driver of the station wagon was Roland Lavigne, 29, of Hull. With him were his brother Emilie, 21, two Ottawa men, Patrick G. Mayville, 21, and Paul Savard, 19, and a fifth person who was not identified.

Police refused to release the names of the dead bus passengers.

Former Sergeant Gives Up Planes
ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—A former Air Force master sergeant has given up airplanes to ride horseback 1,000 miles to Detroit.

James W. Keller of Leesburg left this south Georgia city Sunday on the first leg of a trip expected to take about 25 days. He is traveling the hard way, not even stopping at hotels.

"I'll sleep in my bedroll along the way while the horse gets in some grazing," he said.
