Tie-Breaker Determines Week's Winners; McClure Keeps Hold Of Season Top Spot

The Mustangs and Chieftains tie-breaker got a real working out in picking winners for last week's football contst. Seven contestants missed just one game each with all coming very close to the actual points scored.

Monte Chitwood claims the top winnings, missing by just four points with a 32-7 prediction. Second place belongs to Alice Slater of Arden, N.C. who missed by five points with a 32-8 guess.

Third place money must be divided this week by Steve Culwell and Lupe Saldivar, each missing by seven points, with predictions of 35-7 and 32-10, respectively.

Others just barely eliminated were Doug Goen and Jack Williamson, eight points off, with guesses of 21-6 and 28-7, respectively. Jimmy Parker missed by nine with a guess of 36-8.

Carl McClure maintained hold of the season's top spot with 98 correct picks for the eight weeks. At least four more contests remain to be counted -- more if the Mustangs win the district title and go into play-offs -- and no contestant should stop trying for the grand prize. Contestants with 90 or more points are listed elsewhere in this issue. Any of those persons could be the season winner.

Anyone can be a weekly winner even someone entering for the first week. The contest is fun and costs nothing to enter. It's open to one and all.

Remember, when you deposit your entry with a sponsoring merchant - tell that person you appreciate his helping make the contest possible. Trade with those merchants - they appreciate your business.

MRS. WENDELL POTTS

Cook Of The Week

Recipes are shared this week by a recent newcomer, Mrs. Wendell Potts. Collecting recipes and exchanging recipes with friends add to the pleasure she finds in cooking.

The Potts family moved to Olton in June when Wendell became office manager for Sherman Insurance Agency. Marilyn began work just a couple of weeks later as office manager for Dr. James Kirkpatrick.

Working for Dr. Kirkpatrick is not Marilyn's first experience with the medical field. She has been a records librarian and worked for a time with the vocational rehabilitation program at Parkland Hospital in Dallas.

Marilyn and Wendell have three children. Karen, who attended Texas Tech last year, is employed at the Dairy Mart; Richard is a freshman at Tech and Janabeth is seven. They are members of First Baptist Church.

Sewing is another of Marilyn's favorite pastimes. She likes to play bridge and enjoys spectator sports especially football.

Growing up and attending high school together at Chickasha, Okla., Marilyn and Wendell were married right after graduation from high school and went off to school at Baylor University.

Letter To The Editor

Distorted Notions

I could not help but respond to a front page article in the October 26 edition of the Enterprise.

I consider many things that Jim Blair of Amarillo said of the new constitution to be examples of unfair statements which I have been trying to combat.

The people who went to hear Mr. Blair went to find out about the new constitution. It greatly disturbs me that instead, they left with many distorted notions.

If I might, I'd like to respond briefly to some of the more glaring mistatements which I think could be considered inaccurate.

BLAIR: " . . . . the new constitution . . . . will include . . . . establishment of a salary commission to set legislators' salaries and salary increases would no longer be left to a vote of the people."

The appointed salary commission would not set salaries but would recommend salary levels and amount of allowances. Legislators who voted for the high pay levels could be voted out of office and voters could send to office candidates committed to lower salary levels.

So, again, the people would have the final say. A big job of the commission would be to ride herd on allowances which are at present set by the legislators themselves.

BLAIR: " . . . . The qualifying phrase 'or as set by general law' appears approximately 150 times in the proposed draft and would remove from the people powers which they have always taken for granted would be theirs."

That phrase 'as set by general law' appears 143 times in the NEW document BUT it appears 330 in the PRESENT constitution. I can site at least 35 instances where the legislature has new limitations placed on it that are not in the present constitution.

What should be stressed, is that the new restrictions are imposed where previous experiences has indicated that limitations are necessary; and increased authority where experience has shown that flexibility is needed.

BLAIR: " . . . . H.B. 1545 which grants the comptroller a public account in Austin the power to promulgate the guide ines for land evaluation for ad valorem tax purposes has already been passed and will become law if article VIII . . . . . passes."

The legislature, in its last session, passed HB1535 - not 1545 - to become law if the finance article of the proposed constitution is approved.

I consider this bill the most singly important item to farmers and ranchers in the new constitution. It provides an incentive not only for farmers to stay on their land but it will encourage those farmers and others to bring more land into production.

This bill would provide a tax break for farm and ranch land in that taxes would be based on productivity of the land and not on land's market value.

It so happens a portion of Lamb County was used in a study by Texas A&M University's Texas Real Estate Research Center to investigate the impact of HB1535.

The results are indicative of the consequences farmers all over the state can expect. That study (near Olton) revealed that values on irrigated farm land calculated by using HB1535 guidelines, ranged from $300 to $360 per acre. Market value of prime irrigation land in the area ranges from $700 to $850 per acre.

This means then, that when standard, state wide ad valorem taxation begins -- and I think that it will be done whether the new constitution is adopted or not -- our farmers and ranchers under this bill will receive a much needed tax break.

Thank you for the opportunity for making a response to the article.

Bill Clayton

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Friend . . .

You don't know me. I don't know you. However, my roots go back to Olton and Hart, Texas. I was born on a farm four miles south of Hart. We attended school at Hart, except for one year. It was 1944-45 . . . . Olton needed a band instructor, and they asked if my father would move off the farm for that one year and head up the music program. I was a seventh grader . . . Mr. Fisher was the school principal. That was an enjoyable year. The next year we moved to Albuquerque, N.M., (because of my mother's health) where my folks still live. Some of the old timers may still remember Olen L. Rhodes.

Do you have any pictures or records that would include the seventh grade class or the band? If so, I would appreciate them, and would be glad to repay you for your trouble.

Thank you . . . sincerely,
Bert Rhodes

IS HOSPITALIZED

Mrs. Jeanne Sachse was admitted to the Hale Center Hospital Friday of last week.

You're doing without a Zimmatic center pivot. Saving your hard-earned capital for other improvements. Don't want to borrow right now.

But it's costing you money every year you wait. Two ways. First, you're losing the extra crop production you get under irrigation. Second, inflation is at work. Boosting prices, dropping the value of your dollars.

Why not rent a Zimmatic under our new lease plan? Let the system pay for itself and put some extra money in the bank for you at the same time.

Our rates are reasonable. You can include freight, installation, pump . . . other "above ground" items in one flexible package, tailored to your needs.

Why wait to irrigate? It's just costing you money. Call us today for details on our new lease plan.

That's My Boy

BY REX BOYLES

Happy Birthday to you. Happy Birthday to you. Happy Birthday dear David. Happy Birthday to you . . . on Nov. 2, 1975.

I remember when the nurse brought you from the delivery room and laid you in the nursery. With my nose pressed against the glass I saw you for the first time . . . "That's my boy!"

When I finally got to hold you . . . "That's my boy!" As I watched you gobble your first solid food . . . "That's my boy!" Two little white teeth . . . "That's my boy! You pulled up and stood alone . . . "That's my boy! A few broken sounds and then a word . . . "That's my boy!"

Now you are two years old and no longer a baby (contrary to your mother's opinion). You now have a mouthful of teeth and are eating just about anything you can get in your mouth. You now run all over the house and are even turning a few flips now and then. You now repeat almost every word you hear and are beginning to make up a few of your own. "That's my boy!"

Those two years have been filled with all kinds of things. There has been some laughing and some crying. There has been some petting and some paddling. There has been some soothing and some scolding. You have broken some "pretties" and scratched some furniture. You have spilled food and just generally made some messes. But for the last two years you have made my dad a little bit lighter, my day just a little bit brighter. I think I can say that there has never been a time that I was not ready and even proud to say, "That's my boy!"

What do you get a boy for birthday when he is "my boy"? I will probably get the car little boy birthday things, cars and trucks, a ball, and maybe a NERF-plane, but I want to give you something special. That's why I'm writing this article.

Years from now I want you to read this and to know how much your daddy loved you. I want you to know what your daddy wanted for you.

So here it is my little boy David. Here is what I want you to have; a Confidence in your Father, who is in heaven.

Sometimes now David you wake up in the middle of the night scared and cold. You start to cry, "Daddy! Daddy!" You are confident that Daddy will hear and that when he hears he will come to help.

I want you to have that same confidence in your heavenly Father. I want you to know that whenever you are scared and cold some dark night of sin, He will hear you and come to help.

I want you to have: a compassion for hurt and bruised people.

Not long ago David you broke one of your colors. You brought it to show me. Your face told me what had happened. Your little nose was all wrinkled up and your lips were puckered. You let out a concerned "OOO" and said "bwoke".

David, I want you to feel that way about broken hearts and homes. I want you to care about people so much so that you'll try and mend their hearts and homes by telling them about the Great Physician.

I want you to have: a committment to a life.

You are committed to move the T.V. or pick up your toys you always help. No matter what your doing or playing with, you drop it and come to help.

I want you to be that way for Jesus. Committed to Him so much so that any time He needs something done, money given, men to preach, or missionaries to go, you'll be there to help.

When I saw you asleep in that nursery . . . "That's my boy!" When I saw you stand in front of the sofa . . . "That's my boy!!" When I saw you run down the road to meet me . . . "That's my boy!

I'll probably say it a thousand times more, in many places, but there is one place in particular I want to see you and say it. When the trumpet blows and the saved go to meet Jesus in the air, I want to see you walk through those pearly gates with your mother and me . . . "That's my boy!" Thank you Lord . . . . Rex.

Texans:

If you are tired of bigger government and higher taxes, vote NO on the proposed new constitution November 4.

Don't give future Legislatures a blank check.

The Houston Chronicle calls the new constitution "a dangerous document." Governor Dolph Briscoe warns it will "lead us down the road to a state income tax."

Governor Briscoe says: "It is my personal view that the current Constitution under which Texas has grown and prospered for a century is preferable to the proposed new constitution. Accordingly, I believe it is in the best interest of Texas that all eight propositions on the ballot be rejected."

Play it safe. Keep our present Constitution by voting NO on Tuesday, November 4.

TIE-BREAKER.. OLTON _____ LITTLEFIELD _____

FOOTBALL SCORES

SEVENTH GRADE

Olton Seventh Grade Colts won handily over the Littlefield seventh grade team here Tuesday night, to a tune of 26-14.

Tommy Cabrera ran 35 yards for the first touchdown. Extra points failed. Ken Smith on a 22 yard pass from Greg Smith made another six points and the extras failed again.

Greg Smith ran 29 yards for another score, which came in the second quarter. Lance Phares put the final tally on the home side after a 22 yard run. Greg Smith ran the extra points for a total of 26 points.

Littlefield scored in the final quarter twice to make the score 26-14.

Coach Tom Duncan said, "We eliminated a lot of the past mistakes which plagued us and we came off the ball better and quicker. Defensively, we were more aggressive."

EIGHTH GRADE

The Colts put their brand on the Cats 42-0 when the eighth grade teams took to the gridiron Tuesday.

The first score came after Charles Brown set it up on a 67 yard run. Albert Solis ran in three yards for the six points.

Two scores came in the second quarter. Solis had a 48 yard run to score. Extra points failed. Then Brown carried the pigskin into paydirt on a 15 yard run. The extra points were run by Harrel, making the score 20-0 at the half.

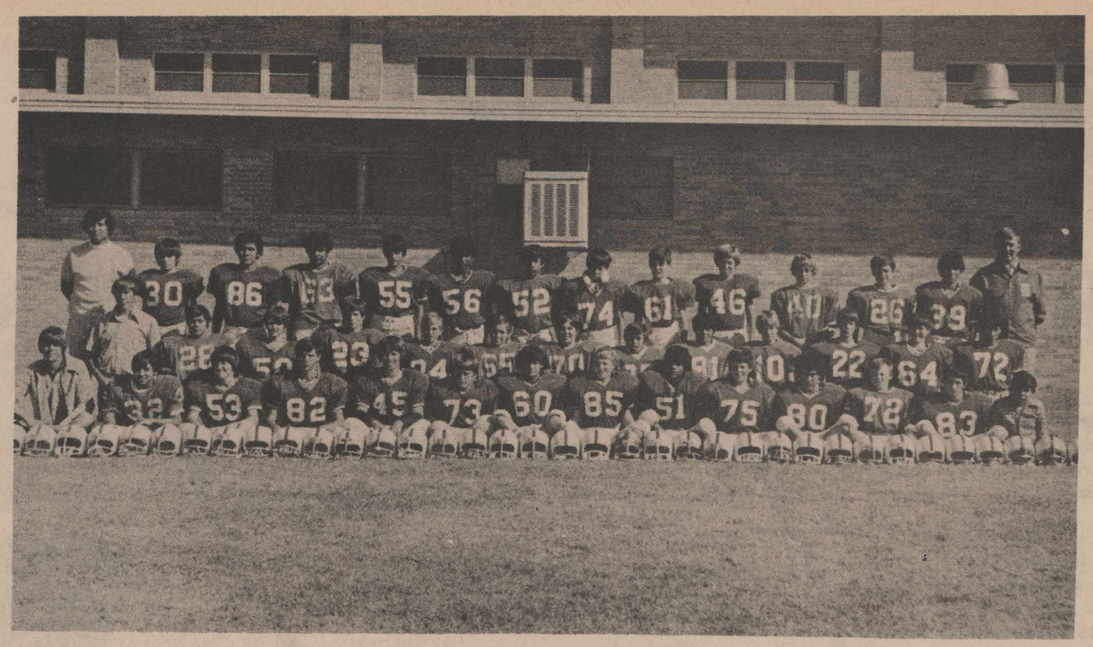

During the third quarter, a ten-yard run by Brown added another six. Then in fourth period of play, Harrell scored on a 20 yard run and Vance Stroebel ran the extras in.

A spectacular 14 yard reception to Greg Davis set up the team for a score. Harrell went in on a one yard run and Stroebel made the two extra points.

Score ended at 42-0, Olton's favor.

Larry Perez and Harrell each blocked punts during the contest and Perez and Greg Burgess recovered fumbles.

The coach remarked, "We played great defense all the game and our whole momentum changed after the first score. We then started playing with a great deal of quickness and emotion. We took advantage of all mistakes Littlefield made during the game. On offense we made a limited number of mistakes and we executed well all night. Littlefield, during the night, got one first down and never penetrated the Colt 40 yard line."
