Rodeo Declared Very Successful

The big four-day Frontier Days rodeo ended here Saturday night following some of the most exciting events staged anywhere, both because of good tough rodeo stock and performers.

Beginning last Wednesday with an hour-long parade, the first night's events included the naming of Miss Nancy Inman as rodeo queen, Al Burnett as winner of the beard growing contest, awarding of trophies to Rainbow Girls as the best float, and to Abernathy Sheriff's Posse as the best riding group.

The stock furnished by the HK Producing Co. of Snyder proved almost too much for many of the cowboys in some events, but made the rodeo performances worth seeing. The second annual Frontier Days was deemed a big success and credit goes to the Tahoka Rodeo Association for staging the event.

Two go-arounds were held in all events except two, bareback bronc riding and bull riding, which had one go-around in the four nights.

The first and second go-arounds and the total winners placing first, second and third, are listed in that order in each event below. A total of $2,582.50 in prize money was given winners in the three divisions.

Saddle Bronc riding, (First): 1. Jim Brock, Lubbock, 166; 2. Elson Rose, Ralls, 160; 3. Jimmy Moore, Post, 159. (Second): 1. Jimmy Moore, 161; 2. Elson Rose, 160; 3. Ron Conaster, Snyder, 153. (Total): 1. (tie) Jimmy Moore and Elson Rose, 320; 3. Ron Conaster, 305.

Tie Down Calf Roping: (First) 1. Buttons Howard, Portales, 11.8; 2. Ed Sims. Post, 13.2; 3. Hershel Timmons, Brownfield, 13.4. (Second): 1. Joe Hall, Eunice, N. M., 11.4: 2. J. L. Kenney, Alpine, 12.0; 3. Walter Arnold, Levelland, 12.3.

Methodist Church At Wilson Building

Wilson Methodist Church has let a contract for a new $30,000.00 sanctuary, in a new location, and construction is scheduled to start in the next few days.

Rev. W. O. Rucker, pastor of the church since last June, told The News Tuesday the church has acquired the two blocks of land immediately west of the business section of town.

A sanctuary, three class rooms, and rest rooms will be built at this time, but plans are drawn so that an addition of other class rooms may be easily added.

Contractor is Killingsworth Construction Co. of Dimmitt, the firm which erected the Church of Christ in Tahoka. Completion is promised in 90 days.

House Numbers Placed On Sale

House numbers will be sold to residents of Tahoka this Saturday by Girl Scout troops, Mrs. Charles McClellan, neighborhood chairman, says.

All home owners and those renting houses who do not have house numbers are urged to buy them at $1.00 per set of four numbers. This is comparatively inexpensive and will greatly aid those looking for addresses. Since the City is erecting street markers, the project is being carried on in conjunction with the City.

The Girl Scouts will canvas the town on Saturday and the numbers can be bought directly from them.

Tahoka, including the business section, has been divided into sections with four troops, fourth through seventh grades, selling the house numbers.

The Scouts will meet at 9:00 a. m. at the Scout Hut. Each girl is asked to bring a "nose bag" lunch and the groups will eat at noon at City Park.

The City is also encouraging business institutions to put up address numbers, and Mrs. McClellan says that anyone who is missed in the canvas can receive their numbers by contacting her or one of the four Scout leaders.

House Destroyed At Boys Ranch

Fire completely destroyed the South Plains Boys Ranch home, located two miles southeast of Tahoka, on the old G. W. Slover stock farm, Tuesday afternoon despite the efforts of Tahoka and O'Donnell fire departments to save the two story structure.

The house was the old S. N. McDaniel home, moved from Tahoka to the site last winter, and was being remodeled at the time. Insurance had not been taken out on the house pending inspections by the fire marshal and State Child welfare.

Eight boys from several West Texas counties were living in the house, being remodeled to take care of 25, but all were in school here when the fire started on the second floor. Mrs. Charles King, wife of the superintendent, at home with her two children, discovered the fire.

Fire Chief Pat Patterson, who said cause of fire was unknown, said Tahoka firemen arrived on the scene at about 2:00 p. m., and the O'Donnell department a while later. Just as they seemed to be making progress in controling the fire, water played out, and by the time additional water was secured the fire was too far along to do further good.

Most of the household goods on the first floor were saved but the boys lost most of their clothes.

Lynn county's vote may be light due to the fact that there are no county-wide local contests.

Level border irrigation systems have been installed on the Reuben Sander farm located three and one-half miles north of Wilson and the Leonard Dube farm located one half mile west and one mile north of Wilson.

Mr. Sander has bench leveled approximately 21 acres and has installed 539 feet of underground irrigation pipe line to complete his system.

Mr. Dube has bench leveled about 11 acres and will used portable irrigation pipe line in his system. By bench leveling their steeper slope, Mr. Sander and Mr. Dube expect to reduce the useless waste of irrigation water and improve the efficiency of their systems. Benching will also serve as an erosion control measure by reducing run-off of rain water.

Mr. J. O. Allen, who farms five miles south and two miles east of New Home, plans to construct a diversion terrace.

Mr. Allen has some flat land which he irrigates above the sloping land which he intends to terrace. In order for a terrace system to be effective, the excess water from adjoining farms plus his own land above the land to be terraced has to be taken care of. This is where a diversion comes in. The diversion terrace, which will be larger than a standard terrace, wil hold back the excess water, thereby protecting the cropland below it.

QUESTIONS FOR VOTERS

Editor Lynn County News:

Pursuant to questions briefly considered last week, I now submit others that should be of more than passing interest to all, especially to those who have become voters in the last decade or so.

1) What is communism? 2) Who were the actual founders of the UN? 3) Is "World War 3" now in progress, who is winning it and why? Discussion of these questions will naturally create in our minds some others of vital importance.

On number 1, first let us note what communism is NOT. It is not just another political party with little power or possibilities, as many think. It is not a democracy. It IS a Godless international conspiracy by plutocratic overlords, and set for the subjugation of all nations; for the utter destruction of self-government everywhere; for reducing all peoples to the status of slaves! In denying the dignity of man it thus classes the populace as mere pawns or chattles like it does livestock, farm and factory equipment, etc. And now by the aid of supposed enemies (some of our own people) it is operating ahead of schedule.

Re: question 2: Some know, but many do not, that the so-called UN is the child of communism. The idea was hatched in Russia and was bargained to the US and England by Joe Stalin at the Yalta conference; then, after the president's death, it was "signed, sealed and delivered" to Truman at Potsdam. There our president sold us out to our sworn enemies by the help of Alger Hiss and other Reds then in our state and defense departments. This whole crooked deal, like other mistakes that followed, was at the request and command of our policy makers, pro-Reds and commie "sympathizers" who had stationed themselves in key positions within our government! Some will remember "Esau sold his birthright for a mess of pottage." But when Harry S sold our birthright, we got no pottage—just the MESS, and it has grown steadily from bad to worse. UN aims were—and are—a "one world government, one world laws and a one world army with communists ruling! Do you want that? Neither do I. This Red conceived institution has already scrapped parts of our constitution in favor of its avowed aims; but these might be recovered and our ideals preserved if we act in time. However, it will require a reversal of some present policies. We should not have been involved in the "thing" in the first place, and should GET OUT. Incidentally, "nations" were instituted by Almighty God; and He broke up a "one world pact" at Babel. See Gen. 10:5 and 11:1-9. So, one world or one nationism is anti-Bible!

On question 3: Is World War 3 already in progress? It certainly is. It really began before the end of W. War 2, but became manifest after the defeat of Germany and Japan. Russian officers told our soldiers, after they took Berlin, that the time for their conquest of the US was coming soon. They have taken nearly all of Asia, North and Central Africa; parts of South America and Cuba. Practically all of this gain was secured without any "shooting war" on their part. We are encircled and threatened. But as long as we are adequately armed that threat is not a grave one. Regardless of the twaddle of our chiefs, our most serious danger is from within. The Reds are winning by stealth; we are losing by default. And while our leaders kowtow to enemy "dignitaries" and downgrade American patriots they are helping our enemy.

Both sides call this a "cold war." And Krushchev's battle cry is "peaceful co-existence." As totally unreal as that idea is, it has captured the minds of many top men—even the president fell for it! Co-existence of two ideologies as wide apart as the poles is no more possible than it is for a man to live and thrive on a diet of "fried snowballs!" Communists know their goal and are striving for it; we don't know ours, and we aren't. To me this ceaseless "negotiating" is childish; and talk of disarmament is foolish.

Cordially, N. W. Allphin.

Everyday Religion

By J. B. Thompson

This column is not political nor demonstrational in its approach to "Everyday Religion," but the pari-mutuel race track betting "straw vote" to be held in connection with the state primary election Saturday is of great concern to this writer.

I have before me the names of Texans who are vigorously opposing the legalizing of pari-mutuel betting. Some of them are:

Dr. James H. Landes, President of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Don H. Morris, President of Abilene Christian College, J. Hoytt Boyles, Synod Executive of the United Presbyterian Church, the three Methodist Bishops of Texas, Paul Galloway, Paul Martin and William C. Martin.

Dr. W. R. White, Chancellor of Baylor University, Dr. Paul Garrett, District Superintendent of Church of the Nazarene, Carr Collins Sr., Dallas, Jim Lindsey, Midland, Howard Butt Sr., Corpus Christi, T. A. Patterson, Executive Secretary, Baptist General Convention of Texas, E. B. Germany, Dallas, R. W. Fair, Tyler, Retha Martin, Lubbock, Joe Birdwell, Wichita Falls, Tom James, Dallas, Pat Thompson, Bay City, Hines Baker, Houston, W. W. Jackson, San Antonio, S. E. McCreeless, San Antonio, and others.

Also every candidate for Governor in both the Republican and Democratic primaries.

This seems to this writer to be a good crowd to string along with. As these men have said, "The evil effects of this type of gambling upon individuals, morals and economic sanity have been demonstrated over and over in other states." Everyday Religion is against it.

Junior-Senior Banquet Tonight

The annual Junior-Senior banquet will be held tonight in the Tahoka school cafeteria at 7:00 o'clock honoring the Senior Class of 1962, of which there are 42 members.

A prom, sponsored by a group of Junior Class parents, will be held at the City-Legion building at 9:00 p. m. Music will be furnished by Phil Pearce and his band.

The banquet program will include the invocation by Andy Bray; welcome by Larry Price; response, Fred Hegi; a solo, Sandra Reid; the coronation, Larry Price; class history, Donna Copelin; class will, Elayne Buchanan; and class prophecy, Craig Leslie.

Theme of the event will not be revealed until banquet time.

CHURCH HOSTS TO JUNIORS, SENIORS AFTER BANQUET

Inaugurating what is hoped will be an annual event, the First Baptist Church, in cooperation with the Tahoka Church of Christ, will host a Junior-Senior party tonight (Friday) in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist church. The activities will begin immediately following the Junior-Senior banquet, and all members of Tahoka High Schools' two upper classes and their dates are invited.

"We feel that we have a top-notch program lined up," stated James Hollars, the general chairman of the party. "We want to extend a most cordial invitation to all our Juniors and Seniors to come and join in the fun."

Highlighting the party will be the appearance of Bill McAlister as master of ceremonies for the program. McAlister is a well-known disc jockey on Lubbock's KSEL.

A half-hour of side-splitting laughter is promised by the antics of Les-Groupe, a comic trio from Texas Tech. The group is rated by those who have seen and heard them as one of the funniest comedy teams in the area.

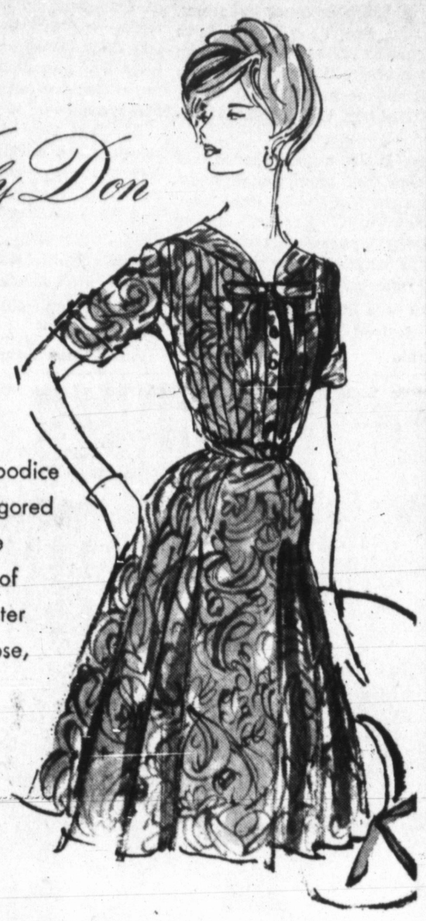

Rounding out the evening's entertainment will be a Bud Abbott-Lou Costello-Marjorie Main movie, "The Wistful Widow of Wagon Gap."

The federal government's deficit for the fiscal year ending last June was $3,900,000,000. The Administration estimates the deficit for the fiscal year ending next June at $7,000,000,000. Others, Senator Byrd among them, think it will be higher—as much as $9,000,000,000. What next?

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jaquess of Covina, Calif. are living in their new home and are enjoying California, according to his father, J. W. Jaquess. They wrote that their area received 17 inches of rain in February.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Tate returned home Monday from Truth or Consequences, N. M., where they spent a month taking the mineral baths. Bob says he won't have to take another bath all summer.

Texas Has 226,000 Farm Operators

College Station, May 1—When you see someone plowing a field or tending a herd you are looking at one of the more than 226,000 Texas farm and-or ranch operators, says Tom Prater, extension farm management specialist. If this man is the average Texas operator, his annual net income is $3,630, which is $307 above the national average.

These is also a good chance that this man has some non-farm income, says Prater. In 1961, over 109,000 Texas farmers and-or ranchmen reported that they had off-farm employment, and over 96,000 reported that their non-farm income was greater than the income derived from their farming operation.

When this man puts his tractor away for the night he must make the switch from farm laborer to farm manager, and this is no easy feat. He has a sizable investment in his operation and if he is to realize a profit he must manipulate the factors of production carefully. One miscalculation can mean the difference between profit and loss, points out the specialist.

He must also keep up with the latest technological developments. New methods of controlling insects and plant diseases, new fertilization practices and new management techniques are constantly coming from researchers. The farmer must decide which of these are best applicable to his operation.

All of this describes the average Texas farmer. There are some above average and some below. "Where do you fit in this picture?" asks Prater.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

The recently announced completion of negotiations on tariff cutting under the present Reciprocal Trade Treaty Act probably best illustrates a point of futility about the proposals to slash U.S. protective tariffs even further.

* * *

C. W. Harder

It is the contention of the adherents of this new measure that if the U.S. cuts its tariffs to permit greater floods of cheap labor into the American market, the European nations will also cut their tariffs so that the U.S. can sell more to them. As part and parcel of the plan, the U.S. taxpayer will be called upon to finance aid for workers, and for industries that are liquidated in U.S.

* * *

In the recent tariff go around, one of the items on which tariffs were further cut was automobiles. The U.S. agreed to cut the tariff and European nations agreed to cut their tariffs on U.S. made cars.

* * *

From the standpoint of money it works about like the following. The U. S. import duty on one small, cheap European "puddle jumper" type of cars will be about $25 lower. The typical European duty on a standard sized American car will be about $125 lower.

* * *

Does this mean there will be a big rush on foreign orders for the products of Detroit? In 1960 the U.S. imported $596 million dollars worth of foreign cars, exported to Europe only $76 million worth.

* * *

There are two basic reasons why more Europeans do not buy American cars. One is that they do not make enough money to afford them. The second is that their own governments put such a high purchase tax on autos, foreign or domestic built, that they are priced out of the market.

* * *

Consider a typical illustration. A medium priced American car can now be landed in England for about $125 less than formerly. How powerful a buying incentive is this? It is perhaps as much an incentive as a price reduction of $500 on a 100 foot yacht would be to someone living on Social Security payments.

* * *

For there is a matter of a 55% purchase tax in England.

* * *

Thus, for example, an American medium priced car is sold by Detroit to a British dealer for $2,000. When freight, dealer mark-up, other extras are added, the cost to the potential buyer is around $3000, or about equal to full two years income for the average Englishman.

* * *

But if this average Englishman figures out how he can afford it, he has to pay a tax of 55% on $2,000 manufacturer's price, or pay over $4,000.

* * *

This perhaps well illustrates the nonsense at the heart of a great deal of the current mystical fervor about "free trade."

* * *

For as long as governments use power to inflate wages in the U.S., or hold them down as in other nations, as long as world wide monopolies can rig prices of basic commodities, and as long as governments can levy taxes on transactions in the market place, the whole concept of "free trade" is an illusory myth.

The American Medical Association points out that the main causes of blindness in the United States are glaucoma, cataracts and accidents. Most of the accidents could be prevented by the exercise of simple precautions on the part of children and their parents. Most cases of cataracts can be dealt with by surgery. Glaucoma, if recognized in its early stages, and if adequate and sustained treatment is given, can be checked and stabilized. One reliable estimate says that half the blindness in this country could be prevented or cured.

POWER LAWN MOWERS CAN BE DANGEROUS

With warmer weather, the job of keeping lawns neatly trimmed and mowed will become a regular chore. Power tools are readily available for doing jobs and power mowers are regular equipment around most homes.

The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council offers this word of advice about their use—"Improperly used mowers can run up the cost of lawn mowing by being accident hazards. They can even become lethal weapons when used on lawns or weed patches not checked before mowing for objects which might be hurled by the mower into the operator or persons nearby. Be careful," warns the Council.

Latin-American Language Class For This Summer

In an effort to help young Latin American children take advantage of their opportunity for an education, the Tahoka schools urge all persons to notify non-English speaking children who have never attended school but who will be six years old before September of the summer session being provided for them.

The language classes for Spanish speaking children will be held from June 4 through July 27 from 8:00 to 11:00 a. m. Monday through Friday in South Elementary School. Mrs. Thelma Dewbre will be the teacher. The class is expected to help the children attain some knowledge of the English language before entering the first grade in September.

This year more than 50 children started to school who had no knowledge of English at all.

State Screwworm Meeting Is Set

An important meeting on the Screwworm Eradication Program, of interest to all livestock producers, will be held May 9 in Tyler at 1:30 p. m. at the East Texas Fairgrounds. A report of progress of the program, including the recent outbreaks of infestations north of the control line and measures being taken to combat them, will be given at the meeting.

Mr. C. G. Scruggs, president of the board of trustees of the Foundation will present members of the board, as well as heads of agencies concerned with the eradication program. All interested producers are invited to attend and participate in this meeting and get the latest information on the progress of the program they are supporting.

County Agent Bill Griffin states screwworms were reported already showing up this year as near as Scurry county. Any livestock producer finding worms is asked to contact Mr. Griffin or Jerry Church of Wilson, chairman of the county program, who can furnish bottles in which to send off worms for positive identification.

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

IS BAPTIIST NECESSARY FOR SALVATION?

God commanded through John the Baptist baptism as a starting point to a new life with God. Jesus submitted to it as a duty he owed to God. God recognized him as his Son before the world when he submitted to it and bestowed on him the fulness of his Spirit. Christ himself ordained baptism as the act in which he would be confessed. "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mk 16:16). The believing is paramount to accepting Christ in the act of baptism as the Leader and the Savior. The Holy Spirit came to guide man into the remission of sins. He commanded those who believed in Christ to "repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins." (Acts 2:38) From that time forward every one—Jew, Samaritan, Gentile, rich and poor, the prince and the beggar — who came to Christ, believing on him, was required to be baptized as a condition of acceptance with God. Cornelius, the centurion, "A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always," was told to be baptized as a means of his salvation. No one from that time forward was ever recognized as a child of God or in a saved state until he had believed, repented, and had been baptized into the names of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

God requires it of every mortal that would come to him and receive of his blessing. We know of no higher, better, or stronger reason that any many can have for doing anything. If he cannot do it because God requires and commands it, he ought not to do it at all. Acts submitted to or works done in religion on any other ground are presumptuous, and presumption is the highest of sins in the sight of God. The human family has sinned against God and has rebelled against his authority. God demands that every one should take this oath of loyalty, this expressive abnegation and denial of self, and this putting on Christ as his Lord and Master before God will accept any service from him. This is done in baptism.

You are invited to send your questions to: Don Browning Box 812, Tahoka, Texas. You are also inveted to attend the services of the Church of Christ

MOMENTS WITH GOD

THE KING'S BUSINESS

Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.—Mark 16:15.

* * *

Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures, and Christ arose for us that we might have everlasting life. This is the Gospel of God, His very own power unto salvation to them that believe. This is the Good News that creates the faith that establishes communion with God.

But it all depends on whether Jesus Christ truly rose from the dead. St. Paul assures us that if Christ be not raised, our faith is vain and we are yet in our sins. The Gospel of salvation is good news to us personally only as Jesus died for us, only as He lives for us.

Did Christ rise? Do we have a living Savior? God's Gospel tells us that Christ is raised from the dead, raised even for our justification, for our being eternally just in the sight of God.

Yet we can still live our lives on the other side of Easter. We can go through life as though we went alone and as though there were nothing but a grave for us at the end.

Is Christ risen?. Preach the Gospel to every creature. Does Christ go before us? Then we will go too. Does He lead on? Then we will follow. The final certainty of our own faith is our preaching the Gospel, our telling others in the name of God that Christ died for us and rose again.

Lord Jesus, be Lord and King also of our mouths. Amen.

* * *

If you believe in Jesus Christ as your Savior from sin and death and the Lord of your life, but have no church-home, then come worship Him with us each Sunday at 7:00 p. m. in the W.O.W. Hall here in Tahoka.

Skin Divers Help Hunt For Body

Skin divers from the Tahoka Diving Club went to Lake Thomas to help locate the body of T. H. Dicus, 52, of Hobbs, N. M. who was believed to have drowned on the lake in a Sunday afternoon boating accident.

Upon their return to Tahoka, however, the body had not been found.

Those participating in the search, along with skin divers from Lubbock, Hobbs and Abilene, were Bill Craig, Charles McClellan, Edward Pool, John Curry and Harvey Grayson.

The local group said that in a case where skin divers are needed, if called immediately before the water is muddied up, a body can usually be found quickly.

Another man, Jay Harwell, swam ashore after the boat in which they were riding overturned in high waves.

All this has contributed so graciously toward my recovery. May God bless each of you as richly as I have been blessed. —Mrs. W. H. Eudy. 1tp

Ranch Fire . . .

The eight boys, age nine up, are living in the Jack Miller rent house on North Second Street.

Townspepole have rushed to the boys aid with new and used clothing, Mrs. Miller says, and greatest need right now are bed clothing, linens, furniture, large pots and pans, and other household goods.

"The one thing we really need is a house," one official stated. Some preliminary work is already being done on obtaining living quarters at the ranch site. The Ranch is being financed mainly by contributions, although home counties of the boys are paying a fixed amount monthly.

But, noteworthy of those who face disaster, there is no talk of "giving up." All speak of "how and when we can rebuild."

The ranch was begun late in 1961 by a group of Lynn and Dawson county men, including Police Chief Jack Miller, on whose land the project was initiated.

Coach Harley Reden of Wayland Is Speaker At Tahoka Athletic Banquet

About 70 Tahoka High School athletes were honored with the annual Athletic Banquet Tuesday night at a Lubbock cafeteria when special athletic awards were announced and Coach Harley Reden, coach of the Flying Queens of Wayland College, spoke to the group.

Beginning this year, a permanent plaque will be hung in Tahoka gymnasium inscribed with the names of Tahoka athletes winning the various honors.

Curtis Harvick was named the best athlete in football by Coach Jerry Don Brown. The best athlete in girls basketball went to Judy Thomas, and the best in track to Lester Ford. The two were named by Coach J. D. Atwell. Coach Milt Fitts announced Craig Leslie as the best athlete in boys basketball. Coach Jake Jacobs, who served as master of ceremonies, announced the girl and boy athlete as winner of the following honors: Leadership, Brooksie Reece and Craig Leslie; Scholarship, Jerre Ann Wyatt and Allen Cox; Sportsmanship, Jerre Ann Wyatt and Fred Hegi.

The boys and girls were chosen by a committee who based their selections on records of the past year.

Coach Reden of Wayland told the group of the Flying Queens experiences while playing in foreign countries, in addition to playing foreign teams in the United States.

Although the team has played others from Mexico, Latin America, those from the Soviet Russia are the toughest. He said that women from that country are very muscular and strong. They can defeat United States teams because of that strength and their unlimited stamina. However, U. S. men's teams are every bit as good as Russian teams.

While in the United States several years ago, Russian teams were careful not to be impressed by U. S. cities, automobiles and way of life, even though the "red carpet" was rolled out for them by the State Department to the extent of housing them in the Waldorf Astoria in New York City.

While touring Russia last May, the Wayland team was shown every courtesy by the fans, Coach Reden stated. Fans even went to the extreme to cheer for the visitors and to seek their autographs following a game. Even before crowds of 10 to 30 thousand, no signs of bad sportsmanship were evident.

He told of playing in Southern Georgia on an outdoor floor in the huge soccer field before a crowd of 30,000 fans. Before the game it began to rain and the floor became so slick it was almost impossible to finish the game. He said the team, however, never played on a basketball floor that was comparable to the United States standards.

Always playing by International basketball rules, Wayland will again meet Russian teams in this country next November.

Telling the boys and girls to always try to be good athletes, he said the qualities include cooperation, sportsmanship, loyalty, and that one should always play his best. He stressed physical fitness and urged athletes never to abuse their bodies. An athlete, Reden said, should have faith in himself, in his school, and in God.

"Don't be a doubter—be positive. 'If the sun and moon should doubt, they would immediately go out.'"

The invocation was given by Supt. Otis Spears and the benediction by Principal Clifton Gardner.

Cotton Variety Demonstration Result Recounted By Lynn County Agent

Results of 1961 demonstrations on cotton varieties, grain sorghums, fertilizing, and use of gypsum on accumulated salts in soil have been announced by County Agent Bill Griffin and the Lynn County Program Building Committee.

Mr. Griffin says these demonstrations were conducted and are reported to give interested people opportunity to become better acquainted with the results of research in this county. Farmers are cautioned, however, that the results are for one year, and are not entirely conclusive. Results obtained over a three to five year period are necessary for reliability.

All demonstrations were affected in 1961 for the dry period from July 10 to end of the growing season.

Members of the Program Building Committee are: Bertice Askew, chairman; Wilmer Smith, vice chairman; Mrs. W. C. Maeker, secretary; Ellis Barnes, V. L. Botkin, Woodrow Brewer, Ward Eakin, Welch Flippin, Mrs. Lois Greathouse, B. H. Jones, Mrs. Leland White, and Jack Wood.

Carl Sanders Cotton

Carl Sanders, route 3, O'Donnell, carried out a cotton variety demonstration on his farm one mile north and one east of that city, on Amarillo fine sandy loam type soil.

Two acre plots on an east-west layout were planted on land in cotton the four previous years, using 15 pounds per acre, seeded on May 4.

Eight inches of rain was received during the growing season in June and July, and irrigation was applied July 20, August 5, and August 15. A severe hail storm on July 4 influenced the results of the demonstration.

Following were the variety results:

| Variety | Yield | G&S | A. | Value |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| TPSA 6 | 604 | MLS | 15 | $187.61 |
| TPSA 41 | 602.5 | MLS | 31 | 192.60 |
| Lank. 57BR | 588 | M | 31 | 191.00 |
| TPSA 43 | 586 | MLS | 15 | 186.00 |
| West. Storm. | 561.5 | MLS | 15 | 179.96 |

Robert Warren Cotton

Robert Warren, route 4, Tahoka, eight miles north and three west of town, planted 15 pounds per acre on 1½ acre plots on Amarillo loam soil, seeding the land on April 29 and harvesting the crop on November 6 and 7.

The land had been in cotton previously and had been fertilized with 20-40-20, and fertilizer was put down previous to planting 20-40-20 in 20 inch bands. Rainfall during growing season totaled five inches, and irrigation was on Aug-

Rotary Members Present Program

Four new members made brief talks at Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday noon which proved interesting and also brought a lot of laughs.

G. H. (Shorty) Chestnutt said he was born and reared at Cookville, over in deep East Texas, cooked in several famed resort hotels including the Biltmore in Arizona, the Camelback, and others before landing in Tahoka in 1942. He said he was broke and would ever appreciate courtesies extended him by W. H. Harris and F. E. Redwine Jr. He met Mr. Harris, told him he needed some furniture. When he told Mr. Harris he came from six miles from Mount Pleasant, Mr. Harris declared, "Well, anyone coming from where you did needs help," and promptly sold him a house of furniture on credit. In time, he said, he found the people so friendly he just decided this was the place to live. He operates a service station.

Wilton (Jim) Payne said he was born at Edith, attended school there and in Tahoka, and has lived here all his life except while serving in the Army, a part of the time in Europe. On returning here, he worked with Alton Cain at D. W. Gaignat's a while, then went with Lyntegar, where he now is assistant manager of the far-flung rural electric system.

Robert Abbe, accountant, said he was born in Illinois in a little town near Chicago, which drew a handshake from Dale Thuren, also raised in that state, and some boos and an aquisation of "damyankee" from Calloway Huffaker. Bob said later that people down in Mexico call Texans "damyankees." He attended Northwestern University, worked with the Department of Justice and ended up an accountant in Lubbock, from which place he came to Tahoka.

Don Browning, Church of Christ minister, said the Plains and sandstorms were nothing new to him, as he was from Fluvana, attended Abilene Christian College, where he got his B. S. degree, went to the Arkansas hills to preach but felt so hemmed-in by the tall pines he came back to West Texas to preach at Girard while working on his M. A. degree at ACC. There he met his wife, married, moved to Tahoka, the birthplace of the couple's three weeks old daughter, and "the friendliest and best group of people I ever knew."

Happy Smith arranged the program and introduced the speakers.

Prior to the program, Wynne Collier gave the induction to membership talk to G. H. Chestnutt.

President Skiles Thomas announced Calloway Huffaker, incoming president, and others will attend a district assembly in Ralls, where clubs will vote on the next district conference to be held in either Sweetwater or Shamrock.

Mrs. Betty Green served as pianist in the absence of the club sweetheart, Lynnetta Cain.

Roland Huddleston Given High Honor By Medical Society

Ronald W. Huddleston, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. "Mutt" Huddleston, long time residents of Lynn County, was honored by election to membership of the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society, Gamma Chapter of Texas, at the Southwestern Medical School of the University of Texas, Dallas.

The formal initiation was held at the annual banquet of the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society, April 26 at the Dallas Club.

This honor is bestowed on students of outstanding scholastic achievement during the four years of medical school. Ronald will receive his M. D. degree in June, and will do his internship at Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, this coming year.

DAVIS' VISIT TAHOKA

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Davis Jr. and children, Dick and Anne, of Corpus Christi visited Tahoka Saturday through Monday of last week. Mrs. Davis said they have been away from Tahoka 20 years, but they thoroughly enjoyed the Lynn County News. Mrs. Davis is the former Miss Eunice Mullins.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mullins of Seguin, are doing fine.

Heads of golf clubs are generally nickel-plated to prevent them from rusting and pitting.

O'Donnell Teams Place At Relays

O'Donnell placed in two events Saturday in the annual Tech track meet.

In the 440 Relay Dennis Jordan, Charles Burleson, Fernando Lopez, and Billy Amaro came in fifth. Jerry Utecht placed sixth in the high jump.

Iridium, one of the platinum group metals which is used principally as a hardener for platinum, is about eight times heavier than magnesium.

O'Donnell Ladies Help Boys Ranch

O'Donnell 1929 Study Club ladies have taken on as a project the furnishing of some of the needed material for South Plains Boys Ranch, located southeast of Tahoka.

Last week the ladies donated towels, wash cloths and dish towels. They are also seeking chest of drawers, cooking utensils, and reference books for use at the ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Brice and children, Kim age two and one-half, and Charles Neel age six weeks, of Lubbock were here last week end visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brice.

Kind words never die—they just become victims of ingratitude.

Bond Sales For Year Are High

Lynn county was second in the Lubbock district and 9th in the State in U. S. Savings Bond sales at the end of the first three months of 1962, having already purchased 57.7 percent of its quota for the year, according to A. C. Verner, county Savings Bonds committee chairman.

Local citizens invested $35,784.00 in U. S. Bonds during March to bring the total for the year to $144,165.00. Quota for the year in Lynn county is $250,000.00.

Garza county was first in percentage in the Lubbock district with 63.6 percent of its quota of $120,000.00.

State wide, purchases have totaled $41,512,602, or 30.3 percent of the quota.

Printer's Ink-lings . . .

By F. P. H.

Don't forget to vote Saturday!

* * *

A poll, or referendum, on three questions is being taken on this year's ballot—something entirely new, so far as we know. As we understand, the State Executive Committee of each party has authorized the taking of these polls. There is nothing binding about them, but the Texas Legislature may do exactly what the citizens of Texas indicate in this poll.

* * *

Proposition No. 1 on the Democratic ballot seeks to determine whether or not the people want a vote on a Constitutional Amendment to legalize betting on horse races. Proposition No. 2 seeks to determine if the people want the Legislature to legalize by law betting on horse races with the state and track sharing 14 percent of the parimutuel pool, the home county two percent of the total pool, and all other counties receiving one-half of the net state share on the basis of population. The Republican ballot has a similar poll.

* * *

Proposition No. 3 on the Democratic ballot and No. 2 on the Republican ballot asks the voters if they favor a Constitutional Amendment on abolition of the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting. The Republicans are also taking a poll on the Padre Island park proposition.

* * *

Race tracks and betting do more harm than good, in our opinion They bring in a lot of tax money but they also take away a lot of tax money, and bring a lot of scum and punks. Race tracks lead to broken homes, wrecked businesses and lives, vice, as people become addicted to the gambling habit—a disease to which many people fall victim. As an example, Fort Worth and Dallas businessmen had a big hand in abolishing the Arlington Downs racing a few years back on the argument that it was hurting business and leading to broken homes, crime and vice in the two cities.

* * *

There are good arguments for abolishing the poll tax law. There are some just as good against such action. If the poll tax were to be abolished, the state, county and schools would simply make up this loss with some other tax. In lieu of a poll tax, most states have a voter registration law, most of them requiring either 50 cents or $1.00 to register. Therefore, taxes would be raised, not lowered. Of the $1.75 assessed in a poll tax receipt, 25 cents remains in the county, $1.50 goes to the State. Of this $1.50. the available school fund gets $1.00, and 50 cents goes to the state general fund.

* * *

Farmer friend made some remarks to us the other day something like this: There's one good thing about high income taxes. They have reduced the cussing about high school taxes. I pay more income taxes now in one year than I have school taxes in my entire life combined. (He's about 55 years of age). Another thing, we don't see what our income tax goes for, but we can see modern buildings, a lot of teachers returning some of this money to the community, a thousand kids going to school every day and getting an education, activities, sports, and amusements, and our kids and kids we know attaining success as a result of these facilities. Only a few of the millions of dollars that go to Washington ever come back to us directly in something we can see and enjoy.

* * *

We've just read a very enthralling book brought us by L. C. Haney, one of our old Roscoe buddies, and it probably held equal interest to Lum and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Stewart and A. B. Bush, among others. "It All Comes Back" is the life story and experiences, some humorous and some touching, of Dr. J. W. Young Sr., pioneer country doctor who taught school at Frog Liver and worked on the docks at Galveston to get his medical education and by chance located in Roscoe in 1907 where there were already five doctors in that town of 1,000. We came to old Roscoe in 1908 and he was our family physician for 12 years, operated on The Printer, sat at the bedside of a sister as her life ebbed away, and was a true friend. He was and is one of the greatest men our life has ever touched.

* * *

Those were the horse and buggy days of medicine, but Dr. Young was a great doctor by any standard, although he had the first car owned in that town, a 1909 model with no top, no windshield, no doors, no starter but with carbide lights. As a kid, we rode with him on occasion to open gates—but he loved kids and probably enjoyed our company just a little. But, he also kept saddle and buggy horses for years, because an auto was not too dependable in those days. Although he ended up a wealthy man, we doubt if half the people paid him back in those days—unless it was in fat hens, milk and butter, a heifer calf or a horse. He never refused to make a call, whether the patient in need had money or not. He went day and night through typhoid, diphtheria, and flu epidemics. He operated on kitchen tables by lamp light. He even operated on horses, cows, dogs and cats, and we remember once he saved a grief-stricken lad's dog, giving at least an hour of his valuable time setting a pet dog's two hind legs in splints. He tells of one occasion when he rode over 100 miles horseback, wearing out two or three horses, about 36 hours on a stretch without sleep or rest to wait on patients from 17 miles in one direction to 15 in another from town.

* * *

Lum worked in a drug store and also went on some of these trips with the Doctor. Dr. Young and his wife, Iona, were intimate friends of the Tom Dobbins, parents of Lady Stewart, and they named one of their sons for banker Tom Dobbins. Dr. T. D. Young, physician, and Dr. J. Wells Young Jr., a dentist, now operate a clinic in Sweetwater, Dr. Young is retired as a physician but still busy with hobbies, and Mrs. Young is deceased. The Printer also loved Mrs. Young almost as a second mother. We spent many hours in her living room playing their phonograph. We even ate at their table and then went back to playing that phonograph, and we're not entirely sure but what the music box was going when one of the Young boys was born.

* * *

The boys up Washington way seem to think the best way to help unemployment is to create more government jobs. If the trend continues, we'll all be working for the government some day.

* * *

Come to think of it, we are spending about three hours of every eight hour day now working for the government—either in taxes or filling out forms.

* * *

The President got all steamed up about the rise in steel prices, but since the inauguration there has been narry a move for economy in government that amounted to anything. In fact, all we've heard has been more spending and more taxes. Our lawmakers do a lot of figuring on how to spend more money, but seem to give little thought as to how to save money. We wish the President would get a little mad about the rise in taxes and the rise in government spending. If we spent half as much time trying to keep down government costs as we spend trying to devise new taxes, our problems would be solved.

* * *

Just read where the U. S. Naval Academy had flown 39 Texas high school athletes in a R-S-D plane from Texas to Annapolis, Md., for a round of elaborate entertaining in an effort to entice these boys away from Texas colleges. Is this a necessary government expense?

* * *

Last week, a salesman was in our office putting on the pressure for us to buy five new 1961 model typewriters in original packing cases at $90 each that retail for $225. His price was about $100 under wholesale. He said they were "Army Surplus". We asked him how come? He answered that the Army couldn't use them because they were OLD models, and his company had purchased several thousand. Is this necessary government expense?

* * *

Somebody in authority needs to get fighting mad at the labor unions for demanding more and more pay raises. Somebody needs to get mad about the billions in aid that goes to Communist or neutral nations. Somebody needs to get mad about Communist mail sent through our postoffices free of charge or less than cost.

* * *

We're not going to reveal the man's name, but a White ambulance had to go to a liquor store up in Lubbock county about midnight one day recently to pick up and bring home a prominent Tahoka businessman who is a teetotler. Sound like a scandal doesn't it?

* * *

Anyway, here's the story as it was told to us: This man, accompanied by Ivan McWhirter, went to Lubbock about dark to see his wife in the hospital. The car was sorter sputtering along, and the businessman remarked to Ivan, "I'd hate for this car to go dead in front of one of these liquor stores and people from home come by and see my car sitting here." After reaching the hospital, the man decided to stay at his wife's bedside until later in the night, so Ivan came home with Rogers Curry. About midnight, the man started home. You guessed it. His car went dead right in front of a liquor store. He went in the store and called his friend, Martin White, to come after him. Martin thought it was a gag and came very near not going but finally made it up there. The liquor store operator showed the Tahokan every courtesy—but one—and the business man remarked to Martin, "He was so nice I hated not to buy anything from him." As we said, we're not going to embarass this man because he is a devoted member of the Baptist Church, operated a tire store for a long time, and recently bought a hardware and furniture business, and helps Martin White at the funeral home on occasion. Martin declares the man was entirely sober, his car wouldn't start, and he brought home no package whatever. Anyone who recognized the car is informed this was simply a happenstance.

This land was in milo in 1960, cotton in 1959, and rainfall was 4.4 inches during June, July and August. A fertilizer spreader was used to apply 16-20-0 on May 22 at a rate of 80 pounds per acre. No fertilizer had been used the two previous years.

Statement Made By Don Grimes

Don Grimes of Seagraves, candidate for State Representative, has issued the following statement on the eve of the first primary election:

"As I have traveled throughout this District I have found a resurgance of Conservatism. Most of you will be encouraged to know of the tremendous response from all walks of life, people taking an active interest in politics who have never been interested before. These people are from the working level, the laboring class, the educated level, and high school and college students. There is a very keen interest in the 75th District and there is a change brewing. I predict better things as far as government is concerned. There has been a political awakening and people are interested in the Conservative movement. People are opposed to more and more control and are for a preservation of liberty and free enterprise.

"I am for a limited government, for a division of power between the state and federal government. I am for a balanced budget in Texas. I am for good roads, good schools, and progress which we can have on the state and local level and can pay for it ourselves. I am for a revision of the present sales tax, the correction and re-evaluation of the Auto Insurance Law, and the Railroad Commission's power to regulate oil allowables. I am for aid to the aged, blind and needy.

"I have a deep inherent interest in West Texas and the 75th District. It is my home and I want to see it developed and represented fairly in Austin—not tied to any major interest groups. With your help, I can give it this kind of representation.

"The kind of representation, however, depends upon you, the people. If you want to approach the welfare state or try to preserve freedom and liberty the choice is yours. After comparing and considering the qualifications of all the candidates for State Representative of the 75th District if you feel that I can best serve and be of service to you, then I conscientiously solicit your support and Vote Saturday, May 5th, in the Democratic primary."
