City Applying For Federal Sewage Funds

In an effort to obtain the necessary funds to install a grit chamber in the city's sewage system, as recommended by the city's advisory engineers, the City Council has authorized Mayor Herman Johnson to file an application for a grant of a portion of its cost through Federal and State agencies.

This application will be reviewed by the State Health Department, and, if approved, will be assigned a priority number, and become eligible for a Federal grant, up to 30% of the $31,000 estimated cost of the project.

Mayor Johnson said the project must be certified by the State Water Pollution Control Agency, as entitled to this priority over other eligible projects on the basis of financial as well as water pollution control needs.

Mayor Johnson and Water Superintendent Tom Shults were recently in Austin on this project, and since their return have been assembling the data which must accompany the application.

Included in this is a statement delineating the city's maximum legal tax rate, present general fund tax rate, interest and sinking fund tax rate, total tax rate, assessed valuations, percentage of assessment, population figures and a consulting engineer's report.

"This consulting engineer's report," Mayor Johnson said, "must supply data on the present and anticipated sewage flow; actual size and capacity of each treatment unit; adequacy of these units for present and anticipated flows; a sketch of proposed improvements; a chemical analysis of present waste; and a statement of reported nuisance due to the present plant or quality of the present waste."

"If our application is approved," he said, "it could mean that we could obtain approximately $9000 in Federal grants to aid in improvement of the sewer system."

Fulton Lions Sign Petition For School Bond Issue Election

After listening to School Board President Dr. H. F. Elliott, the Fulton Lions Club unanimously endorsed plans for a $650,000 school bond issue, and all signed one of the petitions asking that the election be called.

In other business the members set Sunday, April 15, for Ladies' night, and laid plans for an oyster supper to be served at the Goose Island Concession Hall, starting at 5 p.m. on that date.

Aransas Refuge Seeks Storm Cleanup Funds

Congress has been asked to appropriate $165,000 for repair of Hurricane Carla damage to Aransas National Wildlife Refuge near here. The Fish and Wildlife Service announced recently in Washington, D.

The Aransas request was by far the most asked in appropriations totaling $382,000 at 11 federal wildlife refuges in seven southern states.

Jim Johnson, manager of the Aransas sanctuary, which is the winter home of the country's flock of less than 40 whooping cranes, said $81,600 of repair costs will go for roads, trails and fences.

Johnson said about 21 miles of mud shell roads were inundated in the September hurricane.

The manager said 75 miles of water boundaries and 73 miles of land markers will have to be replaced. Johnson said the "Blue Goose" metal land posts are located every quarter mile. In the water, proclamation boundary signs must be erected by survey crews.

Johnson said one six-room house which housed a maintenance man and his family, was demolished and it will cost $20,000 to rebuild. It was located on Dagger Point on San Antonio Bay.

The manager said other repairs include a boat house, a storage barn and other living quarters, totaling about $25,300.

Other repairs include: Dikes and levees, $28,900, and other restorations, $9,200.

The refuge, which contains 47,610 acres, was opened in 1937. It is supported by the Fish and Wildlife Service.

The vote was light.

Pirate Golfers Are Second In District Tourney

On March 29 four Aransas County High School golfers journeyed to Sinton to participate in the district U.I.L. golf tourney.

The schools participating were Calallen, Mathis, and Aransas County. The two low medalists for the tourney were Jim Duff and Roger Elam of Calallen. Fifth and sixth low medalists were Gary Tuer and Andy Everett of Aransas County.

The first place team honors went to Calallen with a total team score of 363 and Aransas County taking second place with a total team score of 427.

Making the trip with E. G. Brooks the following made up the Aransas County Team: Andy Everett, Gary Tuer, Joe Hugenberger, and Chester Brumley. Jim Duff of Calallen took first in this regional last year; he is a senior and is expected to take the regional this year and be a very strong contender for the state title.

The A.C.H.S. team qualified for the regional tourney and expect to travel to Victoria this coming April 13th.

In boys singles Benny Duff of Ingleside took the title and Bill Auten and Mike Cox, his team mates, won senior boys doubles. Barbara Boring of Ingleside won the senior girls singles while the Calallen tandem of Carol Reeb and Linda McLean won girls doubles.

The fourth of a series of meditations on the Book of Psalms will be delivered by Harry Carter, Lay Minister, at the 7:30 p.m. Lenten Evening Prayer Service at St. Peters Episcopal Church on Wednesday, April 11th.

WINTER SET—Beth Lloyd and the family dog "Shep" seem to enjoy the improvised sleigh, while brother Phil provides the pushing power on a pond in Mineral Ridge, Ohio.

Toast of the Coast Is Theme Of P-TA Conference

"The Toast of the Coast" was the local theme for the Annual Spring Conference of the 21st District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Highlighting the Tuesday morning session was the presentation of the Conference theme, "Parents Plus Teachers Equals Community Strength," by the president, Mrs. J. W. Eakin of Sinton and the address by Mrs. L. L. Ledger of Copperas Cove, speaking to the subject, "Members Plus Information Equals Community Strength."

The keynote of Mrs. Ledger's address was that the number of members is important only if they signify strength and that the vital point is the combined efforts of parents and teachers.

She further stressed the fact that while the P-TA has functioned for more than a half a century, it is not to be regarded as a worn-out organization but as a progressive, enthusiastic group for parents and teachers who are looking at present day problems and how they affect our youth.

She closed her remarks with a quotation from "The Builder" who was not erecting a bridge for his faltering steps but for those who come after him.

At the Aransas County High School, Tuesday night following the banquet, Mrs. R. R. Beal, Sr., of Corpus Christi, a former District President, was in charge of the Life Membership presentation (Continued on Page 8)

Three Local Women Honored By P-TA Convention Here

Delegates and visitors numbering 337 from a 17 county area, attended the 7th Annual Conference of the 21st District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Flag Presentation At Sacred Heart Held Sunday

A formal ceremony was held Sunday afternoon, when members of the local VFW post and Ladies' Auxiliary presented the new Sacred Heart School with an American flag.

Chester Johnson, Junior Vice Commander of District Six, VFW, was the principal speaker for the occasion.

The flag was presented by Mrs. H. C. Mullinax, President of the Ladies' Auxiliary, and in receiving it, the Right Reverend Monsignor Gerald J. O'Doherty, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, expressed his own and the school's thanks in a very inspiring talk on patriotism and our schools.

After the blessing of the flag by Msgr. O'Doherty, the flag was raised, while Darrell Lichte, of the Aransas County High School Band, blew the "Call to Colors" on his bugle.

The flag raising was followed by the pledge of allegiance, given by everyone present, after which children of Sacred Heart School led the assemblage in The Star Spangled Banner.

Commander H. E. Carter, of the VFW post, then gave a short talk on the history of the flag. Vernon Kleypas, post adjutant, acted as master of ceremonies. The program was concluded with a prayer by Msgr. O'Doherty.

Elementary School Safe Broken Open Thursday

The safe at the Rockport Elementary School was opened last Thursday night, and a small amount of money was stolen. The burglars gained access to the building through the auditorium, but left by the front door.

Early reports that the safe had been blown open were incorrect. The burglars apparently used a bar to peel the strong box and reach the money.

C of C Directors Endorse School Board Planning

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce set the date for next year's annual banquet for March 9, and passed a resolution endorsing the Aransas County School Board's plan for a $650,000 bond issue before the end of school as part of the business transacted at their regular meeting for April.

Shelley Roaten, of the School Board, told the directors that Rockport Elementary School was already so crowded that it would be necessary to rent an empty store building across the street to hold some classes in next year, and pointed out that the need here for new classrooms was crucial.

He outlined needs at the junior and senior high schools, and at Fulton Elementary.

Asked how soon the program could be started, Roaten answered that even at best, if the bond issue passed, it would probably be late this year before construction could get under way.

Prime need in the program, he (Continued on Page 8)

ACHS Band To Take Part In Contests

The Aransas County High School Band will go to Vanderbilt, Friday, April 6, for the University Inter-scholastic League Playing and Sight Reading Contest.

Each band is required to play three numbers: A march and two overtures from a prescribed list. Bands are judged against a set of standards and not against each other.

Doug Williamson of Pleasanton, Ray Bostick of Pearsall, and Weldon Covington will be concert judges, while Lyle Skinner of Waco will be the sight reading judge.

The contest will begin at 8:50 a.m. with Industrial followed by Aransas County, Yorktown, Woodsboro, Shiner, Pettus, Tidehaven, and Bloomington, all Class A bands. These bands will be followed by the 2A, 3A, and 4A bands.

A total of 20 bands will perform Friday and 10 Class B and Junior Bands on Saturday.

LOCAL TAXPAYERS TOLD AGAIN THEY ARE WRONG

The 4th Court of Civil Appeals in San Antonio Wednesday overruled a motion for a rehearing in a suit challenging the hiring of a professional tax valuation firm.

E. T. White and 132 other taxpayers here had filed suit to void a contract made by Aransas County with Thomas Y. Pickett Co., Inc., of Dallas, evaluating engineers.

Judge Joe Wade ruled in 156th District Court that the county can legally hire consultants on tax valuations.

Program to Mark Service Graves

Judge Wendell Appoints Committee to Urge And Aid Memorial Markers on Graves of Every Service Man in Aransas Cemeteries

A program to mark the graves of all service men and women now buried in Aransas County, from Revolutionary War times on, was announced today by County Judge John D. Wendell, who appointed a committee of four to work with the Army Quartermaster General's Department on the project. "Some years ago," Judge Wendell said, "a Federal law was passed whereby the government will furnish, free of charge, a headstone or marker, to be placed on the unmarked grave of a member of the Armed Forces of the United States or the Confederate States of America, who died in service, or whose last discharge was an honorable one."

Judge Wendell pointed out that many of the early graves in Aransas County's cemeteries are unmarked. Mrs. W. B. Allen, a member of Judge Wendell's appointive committee, said that she has records of at least 125 soldiers buried in Aransas County.

"But I don't know how many of them are unmarked," she added.

These soldiers fought in practically every war the United States has ever had, and there are even one or two that fought in the Texas revolution who, incidentally, aren't covered in the offer, because Texas was then a foreign country.

Judge Wendell said that the duty of Mrs. Allen and the other three members of the committee—Mrs. E. J. Johnson, Vernon Kleypas and J. L. Baughman—will be to urge and aid proper recognition of the graves of all these men.

"It's simple," he said. "The committee already has some of the government applications for the markers. Anyone who wishes to have a service man's grave marked should contact one of these committee members or see me. There is a choice of marble or bronze markers, on which will be given the name and military record of the man or woman whose grave it marks. There is no charge for the marker, which will be furnished by the government."

The committee's main job, Judge Wendell said, will be to help applicants fill out the forms requesting the markers, and to see that these are properly erected once they arrive here from the memorial manufacturer.

When this is done," Judge Wendell said, "it is my hope that the local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, with which we hope to work closely throughout the program, will arrange memorial services at the county cemeteries, no matter how small or half-forgotten they may be."

Youth Sponsors Plan Outdoor Patio For Dances

At the annual meeting of the Aransas County Youth Sponsors Association, C. C. Crabb presented plans for a patio to be built at the rear of the present building and enclosed by a fence, where dances can be held in the summer time.

The plans were approved by the group, which included six student representatives: Becky Rouquette, Janine Torres, George Corbett, Kay Huffmeyer, Hugh Morrison and Robert Wright.

Construction of the patio will begin within the next two weeks, Crabb said, so that it can be finished in time to use this summer.

In other business, the student representatives chose a combo for a dance to be held this month, the date to be announced later.

There will also be the regular dances, with disc jockey Bobby Brock of Corpus Christi acting as master of ceremonies for the one to be held this Saturday.

MICHAEL'S PUPILS TAKE MOST GOLIAD ART SHOW PRIZES

Students of Simon G. Michael for Victoria, Goliad, Beeville and surrounding towns walked off with most of the ribbons at the Art Show held in connection with the Goliad Fair recently. It was not unusual for all the prizes in a class to be awarded to the pupils that Michael has been instructing.

Mrs. Ralph Organ of San Antonio judged the work of the 33 exhibitors from DeWitt, Victoria, Bee, Karnes and Goliad counties. Mrs. Frank Martin and Mrs. W. W. Pettus were co-chairmen of the event.

WE INVITE—

We invite Mrs. Theo Johnson and guest to see "The Ladies Man" playing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Cove Drive In Theatre.

WE HAVE THEM

HYPO-ALLERGENIC

This word—which you may never have heard of nor seen—can be the KEY to your whole problem of SAFE beauty care for sensitive skin

It's a long word, with a formidable scientific sound (Hypo-allur-jen-ic). But you will soon hear it pronounced by women you know. You will hear it mentioned with a sense of excitement—a feeling of deliverance from a beauty problem... a tragic problem for many women. For millions of women—at least one in six—suffer allergy reactions to conventional cosmetics. Often they do not recognize the cause of their distress unless a doctor discovers it and recommends hypo-allergic cosmetics, meaning cosmetics which are free from substances known to cause allergic reactions or irritation. Under the brand name, AR-EX, these cosmetics are available in scented and unscented form in our cosmetic department.

Nasal Irritation with hay fever symptoms may be caused by conventional cosmetics or their perfume ingredients.

Infamed Eyelids can result when eyelids are touched with fingertips on which conventional nail polish or remover has been used.

Cracked Swollen Lips can be caused by a lipstick, especially one containing indelible dye.

Body Rashes may be traceable to allergy-causing substances in lotions, creams, soaps, body powder, nail polish or deodorant.

Chapped Hands may be caused by the use of conventional soaps, lotions or detergents.

Other members of the family, (even pets!) may suffer from allergy to a woman's cosmetics. A change to AR-EX Hypo-Allergic Cosmetics will help them.

The Wesleyan Service Guild of First Methodist Church met Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. During the business meeting the president, Florence Horton presiding, plans were discussed for the breakfast to honor the Seniors of 1962. The date set was Wednesday, April 25 at 7:30 a.m.

Plans for the election and installation of officers were discussed. Mrs. E. N. Adams gave a report on the District Meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild at Oak Park Methodist Church in Corpus Christi, which she and Mrs. Florence Horton attended. MRS. HOOKER'S CLASS MAKES MUSEUM TRIP

Mrs. Hooker's fifth grade class recently made a trip to the Corpus Christi Museum, and later, one of the members described it in his language class. The description follows:

"On March 2, 1962, Mrs. Hooker's 5th grade class went to the Corpus Christi Museum. They were taken in cars by Mr. Paul Clark Sorenson, Mrs. Z. A. Blackwell, Mrs. C. R. Roy, Sr., Mrs. Noak Taylor, and Mrs. W. Z. Moss.

"After they got there they lined up in front of the building.

"Then they went to a lecture room where Mrs. Thompson talked to them about prehistoric animals, petrified bones, and petrified wood.

"After that they had a recess. Then they saw stuffed animals, shrunken heads, rocks, shells, spears and shrimp.

"Then they lined up and another man told them about a tribe of Indians.

"After that they came back to Rockport. And they all had a good time.

and local members honored were Mrs. Jack Sparks, with Mr. Albert Griffith, making the presentation for the Rockport Parent Teacher Association; Mrs. Everal West from the Fulton Parent Teacher Association, with Mrs. Griffith making the presentation and Mrs. Don Henderson, being honored by the Aransas County High School Parent Teacher Association, with Mr. Chester Barre making the presentation.

The speaker of the evening, Mr. C. E. Sanderson of Austin, Vice President of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, stated that the P-TA movement had grown in the past few years from a membership of 401,000 to 750,000 and he characterized it as a "sleeping giant", waiting to be thoroughly awakened and on its way to making the goal.

He said his observation had shown him that members are divided into three classes; the first class made up of active, dedicated people; the second, of "occasional members" and the third class, just card carriers. If all of these classes could become first class, there would be no limit to what could be accomplished. Mr. Sanders also urged a more active legislative program and a program whereby the community is made to realize its responsibility in backing the P-TA.

Highlighting the Wednesday morning session was the panel discussion moderated by Mr. J. D. Gray and participated in Superintendent J. D. Carlisle, Sinton, Supt. W. A. Reeves, Woodsboro and Aransas County High School students, Betty Stryker, Peggy Eick-enroht and Jimmy Jackson. In other business, the directors listened to reports of the various standing committee chairmen, and were especially interested in plans for expanding the Chamber's membership and income explained by Seth Steele and Jack Sanders, Jr.

These plans are tied in with an expanded advertising program which the advertising committee headed by Jack Sanders hopes to get under way soon, using bill boards placed at strategic spots in the area to head people towards Rockport and Fulton.

Seth Steele, membership chairman, said that three new members had joined since the last meeting. These are the Key Allegro Island Estates, now engaged in developing Frandoli Island; Live Oak Lodge, and Harold E. Wise.

She also showed them a petrified shell. Miss Thompson explained about how coal is formed from a plant. She also asked the class questions about the lecture. The class was given a recess to go and see the exhibits. After about 20 minutes, a bell rang and the class was asked to form a semi-circle in front of an exhibit for another lecture. The man told us about the Karanakawa Indians that lived around this area. He showed how the Indian boys learned to hunt and how the Indian girls made holes in rocks to make jewelry.

marker, several things are needed. First of course, is the name of the service man or woman, and the branch in which they served.

If the committee has that, they can probably unearth the needed information in soldiers of the Civil and Spanish American Wars, although more information would be exceedingly helpful.

As a matter of fact, the Quartermaster General's office lists the following steps:

(1) The last, first and middle names in full of the deceased whose grave site will be marked. (If a different name was used in the service, show that name also.) Be sure name is correctly printed or typed. If the application is for a memorial stone or marker for a service member whose remains were nonrecoverable, please print the word NON-RECOVERABLE below the name in this block.

(2) The full service serial number of the deceased, when available.

(3) The pension number or Veterans' Administration Claim number, if known.

(4) (5) The month, day, and year the deceased entered service and the date of discharge. (If more than one enlistment and discharge, give dates for each.)

(6) The state or foreign country of residence, birth, enlistment, or death. The state or country you designate will appear on the headstone or marker.

(7) Any medals awarded the deceased for Federal Service; such as Purple Heart, Distinguished Service Medal, Medal of Honor, et cetera.

(8) (9) The highest grade or rank held by the deceased, the Branch of service (Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, Marines) and the organization (company, regiment, division, wing or squadron) in which the deceased held the grade/rank.

(10) (11) Complete dates (month, day, year) of birth and death.

(12) The religious emblem you wish on the headstone or marker.

(13) The type of headstone or marker you wish.

However, Judge Wendell emphasized, if you don't have all these things and want the grave of someone near and dear marked; bring in the name and all the information you have, and the committee will try to do the rest.

WMU NIGHT CIRCLE MEETS FOR ROYAL SERVICE

Many Gem Stones Found In Texas

Joe Hissong, rock hound and gem cutter, says that Texas produces jewels rare and strange—topazes, agates, cairngorms and garnets, rare black spinels, lovely rose quartz, and opals with fire imprisoned in their hearts.

To bear his statement witness, he'll point to the Texas Almanac which shows in the last two years of record, more than 200,000 pounds produced. It all depends on where you look, he says, whether you find plain old rocks or come up with some dull pebble with beauty in its "innards".

Around Eagle Pass, Joe says, in the coal veins, and out at Terlingua where the mercury mines are found, the careful prospector may find amber, translucent, with tiny insects inside, suitable for grinding and polishing.

There's augite around Eagle Pass, also used to fashion black faceted stones and cabochons that resemble obsidian.

Bery crystals, are found in Llano, Blanco and Gillespie counties, but so far none of gem quality have been uncovered. But, Joe says, it's only a matter of time, for a University of Texas geologist has predicted that one of these days the lovely crystals will be uncovered, ready to fashion into jewelry.

There are even diamonds, for a small brownish one, was found out in Foard County as long ago as 1911, big enough to yield a cut stone of about a quarter carat. But he says, the fact that one was found there doesn't mean that the prospects of finding more there are better than anywhere else in the State.

Almost all diamonds found in the United States, with the exception of some in Arkansas, have been found in the gravel of stream beds, and are just as apt to occur in one river as another.

Much colorful petrified wood is found in McMullen and Live Oak counties. Also to be found there are mastodon bones (replaced with agate) and teeth; moss, banded, iris and sagenite agates.

In Duval County, common opals of many colors are found together with many of the agates. Laredo agates show up in bright reds, yellows and greens around the Falcon Dam area, and Indian arrowheads are also found often while looking for these stones.

For perfect, blue-white topazes, Hissong says the place to look is in the Mason and Llano County areas. Topaz from Mason County, when cut, costs from $4 per carat for the lower grades on up to $10 a carat for top quality, sky-blue gems.

Epidote, in brownish-green, green and pistachio green also comes from Llano County and so do garnets, which have also been found in Blanco, Burnett and Gillespie counties, widely scattered in stream gravels.

Many of them are small, but good crystals yielding flawless deep red faceted stones of 2 carats are not uncommon. Jet, a type of fossil wood, is a Presidio County product, the rock hound said, as does gem-quality obsidian or volcanic glass, and there are lots of opals in Brewster County, not far from Alpine.

In Texas, pearls have been found in fresh water clams in most of the major streams, and pearl fishing was once a thriving industry in the Caddo Lake region, and in the Brazos, Concho, Guadalupe, Colorado, Llano, Nueces, Sabine, Rio Grande and Trinity rivers, Hissong said.

"Some of those fresh water pearls were worth thousands of dollars," Joe said, "back in the early part of the century, but you seldom hear of anyone even fishing for them any more. The beds were pretty well killed out by overfishing."

Amethysts gave Amethyst Hill up in Llano County its name, and others have been found in Brewster, Presidio, Culberson and Hudspeth counties in the Big Bend, and a few turned up in Burnett County.

Rock crystal, rose quartz, and cairngorms, all belonging to the quartz family, like the amethyst, are found in many places in Texas.

"In many parts of the world," Joe said, fine quality, beautifully colored, transparent spinels are found and used as gems, but Texas spinels are different. They are good quality, all right, but they're black, and while mineral collectors go for them in a big way, they don't make good jewelry.

RETIREMENT YEARS CAN BE GOOD YEARS

For many people, retirement in older years can be an interesting experience. On this subject, a new booklet, "Now That You Are Retiring" is available at your social security office. Also available are booklets explaining the various provisions of the old-age, survivors and disability insurance program.

H. M. Cleveland, district manager of the Corpus Christi social security office says that this new booklet will be of interest to people who are now retired, as well as to those who are beginning to make plans for their retirement. "It answers a lot of the questions we hear from people who are applying for benefits," he said.

The new booklet explores such questions as: "What will I do with my time?" "Will my income really be enough?" "Will my health last—and what if I get sick?" "Where can I go for help when I run into problems?"

A copy of the booklet may be obtained by writing or visiting the social security office at 530 South Water Street, or by calling telephone TULIP 3-4447.

APRIL DRAFT CALLS FOR 244 TEXANS

AUSTIN—The state quota for Texas draft boards in April calls for 244 men, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, announced Friday.

The state's April call of 244 compares with a quota of 228 for March and 296 for February. The April call is the state's share of a national quota of 6,000 men, all for the Army.

Colonel Schwartz also announced that local boards would send no men for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in April. Local board quotas for the April call already have been figured and sent to the state's 137 local boards.

The April quota will be filled with men who are at least 22 years old on April 1, with the exception of volunteers, or those termed officially delinquent under the law, who may be younger.

(AHTNC)—Army Pvt. James A. Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walton L. Haynes, Rockport, Texas, recently arrived in Korea and is now assigned to the 728th Military Police Battalion.

Haynes, a military policeman in the battalion's Headquarters Detachment, entered the Army in August 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

The 24-year-old soldier was graduated from Aransas County Ind. High School, in 1955.

FOUR "ALL-TOO-COMMON" ERRORS IN INCOME TAX RETURNS

Taxpayers in this area are making four "all-too-common" errors in their tax returns, according to administrative officer, Robert H. Kintner, of Internal Revenue Service, Corpus Christi. These are: "Failure to print or write legibly, forgetting to sign, not reporting all income, and mistakes in arithmetic."

The administrative officer continues, "Three out of ten taxpayers who make major arithmetic errors pay too much tax, or select the wrong tax from the tax table."

"Unreported income often stems from bank-bearing interest; taxpayers with time deposits frequently overlook the bank credits to their account. Also, we find taxpayers forgetting that some of the money received when they cash Series 'E' bonds is interest income, if the bond has reached interest-bearing life."

"Dependency errors, especially those involving working wives, are 'all-too-common' on 1961 returns. Some working wives earning less than $600 are filing separate returns to get a refund on their withholding tax. This separate filing actually costs the couple money, because the husband cannot claim the wife's exemption. These couples should file joint returns, and when joint returns are filed both parties must be sure to sign the returns."

BIRDS BEGIN SPRING MOVE THROUGH STATE

AUSTIN—Spring migration of birds has begun in Texas, although some of the waterfowl heading north for their nesting area have hit new cold waves. But robins have moved into South Texas by the thousands. This is the report reaching Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

Most interesting news of the week, however, was the announcement of H. J. Johnson, Aransas Wildlife Refuge manager, that two more whooping cranes had been counted on the refuge. This now brings the total to 38 birds wintering there.

At first it was believed there were only 36 whoopers on the area. However, flights over the area during the past 10 days have proved conclusively that there are now 38 birds, with 22 adults and 5 juveniles.

Johnson also reports the present deer population on the area is approximately 7200, along with many young javelinas. The quail population is very low, with only two small coveys seen following Hurricane Carla last September.

MARCH, APRIL CRITICAL FOR SPAWNING SHRIMP

AUSTIN—March and April will be the critical months for shrimp in our coastal waters, according to the marine biologists of the Game and Fish Commission. This is the spawning period for the brown shrimp, the major species in the Texas shrimp fishery. These shrimp spawn in the offshore waters of the Gulf of Mexico, and the newly-hatched young must make their way into the shallow, fertile bay nursery areas.

A late norther at the end of March last year was an important factor in the great decline in shrimp production. Texas, which has the largest of this, the country's most valuable fishery, had a decline of over 23 million pounds of shrimp in 1961.

Young brown shrimp, which arrive in the bays at a size of 1/4 inch, receive some legal assistance from the closed bay shrimping season during their nursery period. After a rapid growth, these shrimp, still too small for the fishery, will return to the Gulf in June and will receive additional protection from a 45-day closed Gulf season beginning June 1. In mid-July these shrimp will be ready for the fishing fleet.

The peak strength of the United States during World War II, was 12,300,000 men and women.

The total number of banks in the United States is 13,986.

County Sends Few To Prison

During the 40 year period from 1920 through 1959 a total of 109,949 individuals were committed to the Texas Prison System, according to study of crime in Texas, recently completed by Dr. R. C. Koeninger, director of the Department of Sociology, Sam Houston State Teachers College, Huntsville.

The study was made by Dr. Koeninger, a sociologist and criminologist, to show the trends in prison commitments for the State and for each county in Texas.

Aransas county committed 42 persons to the prison during the period studied, and ranks 228 in the state for the number of persons committed during the 40 year period.

"One third, or a total of 35,989 of those committed came from five counties in Texas," Koeninger said. "The five most populous counties, Harris, with 12,943; Dallas, with 9,350; Bexar, with 5,322; Tarrant, with 4,328; and El Paso, with 4,046, send more persons to prison, but this does not indicate that the population of these five counties are more criminal than other areas."

Koeninger bases his statement on the ratio of commitments to prison for each 1,000 persons over the 40 year period. "For example," Koeninger said, "El Paso county has committed a total of 21 persons for each 1,000 of its population over the 40 year period, while Harris county committed a total of 17 persons for each 1,000 of its population over the same period."

The rating of 9.91 for Aransas county indicates that 211 counties of the state send more persons for each 1,000 of its population, over the 40 year period.
