Vandals Do Thousands Damage In Rifle Foray On Plate Glass

Vandals with air rifles have done thousands of dollars worth of damage here during the past few weeks. Police Chief Vernie Head reported Tuesday.

Nazarenes Move Next Sunday

Olton Church of the Nazarenes will hold its first service next Sunday in the building being vacated by Olton Methodists.

Head said he has a list of suspects narrowed down and expects definite information on the case in the near future.

At the ball park, $150 worth of flood lights were destroyed. This damage is likewise believed to have been done with BB guns or pellet guns, the police chief said.

Head indicated that suspects in the case may be asked to take lie detector tests as the value of the property vandalized is considerable.

COTTON UP; PESTS MAKE APPEARANCE

Almost all of the cotton in the Olton community is up but already the insects are giving cotton farmers trouble.

One observer said that about 99 per cent of the crop is up. Thrip and snow flea are the insects now bothering the young plants. Some farmers already are spraying.

These insects have bred in alfalfa fields and in the lush foliage along the bar ditches. Cotton hoeing also was in progress this week.

Pavers Finish Re-Surface Job; Move Equipment

Paving equipment was pulled out of Olton Tuesday after re-topping pavement for the city on a $7,050 contract and surfacing the bus loading area on the school grounds.

Re-surfacing was started a week ago Monday and was completed in just a little more than a week.

Baptists Plan Airconditioner Installation

Olton Baptists will install a refrigerated airconditioner in the church building in the near future. This information came this week from Rev. John Lewis, pastor.

Ducts will be run into the balcony and vestibule as well as into the auditorium.

On the committee in charge of airconditioning is Bill Smith, Doc Miller and Emmett Harper.

certainly welcome those choosing to visit the church at that time," declared Rev. McAnally.

Final Sunday service in the old church building was last Sunday. Last formal service in the old building was the night of May 14.

Preaching for that service was Dr. Dallas Dennison, who was Methodist pastor here when the old building was erected in 1934.

Methodists were to officially move their headquarters in Olton from the old church to the new building Thursday.

Rev. McAnally pointed out that next Sunday's service in the new building will be only the first service and not the dedication service. "Methodist Churches are not dedicated until they are free of debt," he declared.

"The idea to build was born of necessity," said Rev. McAnally.

Finance Committee

Carrying the brunt of providing funds to start the new building was the finance committee made up of Gene Trotter, chairman; and Gene Wilson, Mrs. L. S. Kennedy, H. R. Curtis, Willie Gene Green, W. T. Hall, Jr., H. D. Thomas, Mrs. E. R. Spain and Truitt Sides.

This committee worked in the latter part of 1956 and about $23,000 was raised.

The church adopted the Farrow plan for raising money in 1957. The plan was outlined by Roy L.

Mrs. Carson was complimented with a tea Saturday afternoon in the new Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. The tea was sponsored by Olton's Women's Clubs.

The identity of the "Clubwoman" was not known until the presentation of the engraved plaque by Mrs. Troy Martin Saturday. Candidates for the title, other than Mrs. Carson who represented the Olton P.T.A., were Mesdames Fred Burgess, Bykotas; Harry Ford, Classroom Teachers; George Bohner, Garden Club; Jack Straw, Olton Study; and Tom Carlisle, New Century.

Mrs. Burrus Presides

Mrs. Paul Burrus, 1956-57 Clubwoman, was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Burrus pointed out some needs in Olton that clubwomen could have a part in doing something about. Two of the needs are enlarged facilities of the public school and youth recreation.

Pink rosebud corsages were presented to the nominees and to Mrs. Burrus and Mrs. Martin, by Mrs. A. D. Melton.

CLUBWOMAN

Public Is Urged To Attend Meet

It takes two years to build a school plant! Olton voters will have an opportunity to hear schoolmen, architects and builders explain this statement and tell why school buildings must be planned for the future.

That opportunity will come at 8 o'clock next Monday night in a mass meeting in Olton High School Auditorium as a forerunner to balloting on a proposed $550,000 bond issue June 7.

School Supt. Noel Johnson pointed out this week that four months are required for making of detailed working drawings.

A month is required for prospective bidders to examine specifications and plans. About a month is required for taking of bids and awarding the contract. Eighteen months will be required for construction of Olton's new school plant if the bond issue carries.

Three Years

Actually, culmination of a building program takes much longer than two years.

Here at Olton a citizen's committee began studying Olton's school needs more than a year ago. The committee made recommendations to the school board. The board employed architects and began studying plans and designs.

Mr. Johnson said delivery of the building may be expected about February of 1960 if the bond issue is approved. This will be about three years after first planning on the building program began.

"Class rooms must be provided on a five-year plan," Mr. Johnson declared. "You simply can't wait until you have to have them before you start building them."

Plans call for 14 elementary class rooms and an all-purpose room. Mr. Johnson said nine of the class rooms will go into immediate use when the building is delivered.

Next autumn, two third grade classes will be taught in the present high school plant. One class will be taught in a teacherage and two elementary classes will be taught in temporary buildings.

School Growing

The school is growing at a rate of about two classes per year. All 14 class rooms will be in use

Olton Methodists To Hold First Service In New Building Sunday

PASTOR

REV. RUSSELL McANALLY ... At ground breaking

Olton Methodists will hold the first worship service in their new $125,000 building at the northeastern outskirts of Olton next Sunday.

Rev. Russell McAnally, pastor, said the opening service will follow the general pattern of a regular worship service.

The program will begin at 10:45 o'clock Sunday morning and continue until noon. Dr. Luther R. Kirk, Plainview District superintendent, will be present as will some other visiting ministers.

Sunday School will be at 9:45, as usual.

Rev. McAnally said it is impossible to announce the program in detail as yet as it will be built around those who attend.

Special Music

There will be special music. The choir will sing special numbers.

Don Spain will sing a solo as will Joyce Curtis and possibly Dr. Jim Spain, Purdue University professor who is here visiting relatives.

Rev. McAnally will be the principal speaker but others may also talk.

The public has been invited to view the new church building during the open house between 3 and 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Evening Service

There will be an evening service beginning at 6 o'clock. "We certainly welcome those choosing to visit the church at that time," declared Rev. McAnally.

Final Sunday service in the old church building was last Sunday. Last formal service in the old building was the night of May 14.

Preaching for that service was Dr. Dallas Dennison, who was Methodist pastor here when the old building was erected in 1934.

This committee worked in the latter part of 1956 and about $23,000 was raised.

The church adopted the Farrow plan for raising money in 1957. The plan was outlined by Roy L.

Farrow, who is employed by the Methodist Churches of Texas.

Truitt Sides was leader in the fund-raising campaign after Mr. Farrow came here and set up a program. Mr. Sides was assisted by about 75 other persons in staging the campaign which brought the building fund to about $53,000.

This sum in hand, Methodists began construction. The church borrowed approximately $50,000 to complete the building. Sale of church property at the old site brought in about $18,000.

Cost Less

Rev. McAnally said construction of the building was steered in such a manner that the total cost to the church will run only about $125,000. This includes the cost of the land on which the building was erected and scheduled paving projects around the church.

"This is our cost," said the pastor, "but there are other Methodist Churches in our conference which have cost more than $175,000 and still have less seating capacity and less educational building."

"The contributions of work, materials and property by the people of our church and friends of our church have helped in keeping the cost of the building as low as it is," the pastor continued. "We are

Parade To Open Small Fry Season

Pee Wee baseball season will open with pomp and ceremony next Tuesday.

More than 70 small fry baseball players will parade down Olton's main street at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. At the baseball park they will hear a welcoming address by Don Williams, president of the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Parents of Pee Wee baseball players will have a concession stand at the park. Profits will be used to pay expenses for the season. Mrs. Bud Huckabee is in charge of this undertaking.

OLTON CIVIC LEADERS STUDY PLANS FOR TENNIS COURTS

Olton civic leaders are studying plans for building a new tennis court and play area.

Spearheading the drive is the Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. The proposed court would be lighted permitting night play.

A group of civic leaders met the latter part of last week with Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture board of directors.

Meeting with the board were Louis Hair, representing Olton school board; Joe Turner, Quarterback Club; Mrs. D. M. Granberry and Mrs. Elmer Moore, Olton Study Club; Mrs. J. C. Brown and Mrs. Murray Snyder, New Century Study Club; Mrs. Doyle Pinson, Garden Club; and Mrs. Melvin Hines, P.T.A.

Other farmers also may ask questions concerning other farm labor prospects. The meeting will be held in the high school study hall at 8 o'clock.

Karl Lovelady Speaks To The Farmers

I believe in a broader "Farm-to-Market" road program, by trying to get an additional $50,000,000 per year to the amount now spent, for more farm roads.

I believe in a much broader rural electrification and rural telephone program so that every farmer will benefit.

I would like to see a state-supported experimental farm, to be located in the heart of the vegetable growing district, for experimentation in the growing of vegetables.

I would support a program to conserve our surface water supply by the state expending money for the construction of dams on all rivers and draws where needed. (In doing this we would also have places for recreation right here in West Texas.)

I would amend the present employment law so that the TEXAS EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION would bring into any given area suitable labor to be used on the farm where said labor is not locally available at the time when this labor is most needed by the farmer.

I would vote for and support a stronger seed regulation law in order to put this state on a par with other states in seed regulation. I will always oppose any legislation to unionize farm labor.

In my entire life, both as a private citizen and a public official, I have worked one hundred per cent with the farmer, and when elected your State Senator I will continue to be one hundred per cent behind the wishes of the farm people.

Sincerely yours,
KARL L. LOVELADY

Senator

the honor—I can't think of anyone who has worked harder or longer than she.

It is a sweet story that Mrs. Carson tells of how she joined P-T-A about 20 years ago. (She was Clubwoman nominee from the P-T-A.)

It seems that in those days, she worked helping her husband in his farm work. Her oldest son, Wayne, was in the first grade and he asked his mother to join the P-T-A.

She said, "Hon, I don't see how I'd have time to go to the meetings, I have to help Daddy." So, the matter was dropped—or so she thought.

Somewhere later, Wayne came in from school and said "Mother, you are a member of the P-T-A. I joined you with my allowance money, that I saved."

Since that day, Mrs. Carson has become a local, county, regional, and state P-T-A worker that "just can't say no." She seems to be untiring in any work that has to do with people. I've heard Mrs. Carson state many times, "I love to work with people because I love people!"

So, to Mrs. Carson, was given the "Clubwoman of 1958" award and to those who know her, it was "about time" she was recognized!

Wes Izzard said it: "No nation has done more for its neighbors—for all humanity—than the United States."

"Our motives may have been mixed. Trade and the dollar have had something to do with it."

"But the great underlying reason for our helpfulness to others, has been simple compassion."

"NO NATION, and as individuals, we Americans have never been able to see others suffer without doing something. It has been a Christian attitude. As did the Good Samaritan, we have stooped down to those in distress and lifted them out of their despair."

Emmett McLaughlin puts it this way in New Outlook:

"America's love has never been equalled in human history. 'She turns her cheek seventy times seven. She fights only to defend her family. But when she has defeated her enemies, she binds their wounds, feeds the children, pays their bills, and hands forth billions of dollars to restore them to an honorable place among the nations of the world.'"

"Yet today we seem to be the most reviled of all nations."

"Wherever we turn—the Middle East, South America, Asia, even Europe—the forces of unreasoning hatred and envy seem to bar our way."

"It is worth it? Is our moral, Christian attitude toward the world working?"

"ONCE THERE WAS a man who went about doing good. He taught the people, and healed them; and blessed all who came His way."

"But the forces of hatred and envy were stirred up against him, and he was delivered to his enemies."

"Not once in his earthly career did this man doubt. Not once did

S-W-S

Olton's new Methodist Church is the loveliest in this part of the country. Really something beautiful for us to be proud of.

S-W-S

Been thinking how badly Olton needs a nice park with picnic tables and barbecue grills.

Would really be nice. Know folks here would appreciate one VERY MUCH.

(Everytime our family goes out of town to a park, we always meet several Oltonites there too.)

Not just a roadside park, but a place for the kids to run and play and a place for the Old Folks (meaning Husband and I) to stretch out and rest under shade trees.

Have an idea that if some nice person would donate some land for a city park, some of the clubs and organizations in Olton would see that it is landscaped and fixed up.

How about it?

Books on Parade

SCHOOLS WITHOUT SCHOLARS by John Keats, Houghton-Mifflin Co., $3.00.

This new book could be called a startling indictment to be served on a complacent public.

The author says, "Better communities have always built better schools." And by the term "better schools" Mr. Keats does not mean the PHYSICAL PLANT alone but also the CURRICULUM.

The purpose of the schools should be to develop in children a passionate love for learning—to produce scholars. And you do not have to be too observing to notice there is a very obvious lack of serious learning going on in America.

The first 111 pages of the book contrast two extremist philosophies of education, and at times Mr. Keats becomes a trifle boring.

But the chapters on "Vocational Training and Other Frills", "What Makes a Good Teacher Good"—"Building and Administration" provide stimulating reading.

The author deplores the trend towards teaching beauty culture and related vocational subjects in our high schools to the neglect of basic subjects of intellectual value.

And the author's views on educational courses as taught in our teachers' colleges will not cause him to win any popularity contests in certain educational circles. He thinks too much emphasis has been placed on "How to teach and not made on what is taught and why. But he leaves us with a ray of hope in the last chapter—"What One Community Did."

HOW TO DO NOTHING WITH NOBODY ALL ALONE BY YOURSELF by Robert Paul Smith, W. W. Norton and Co., $2.95.

The man who wrote the current best seller with the zany title "Where Did You Go?" "Out," "What Did You Do?" "Nothing," has written another nostalgic bit of nonsense.

It seems the author is concerned about the modern child's inability to use solitude and imagination.

So he has written this book to create a revival of interest in making such exciting things as rubber-band guns, and slings, and boomerangs, and spool tanks.

The author says, "If things were as they should be, another kid would be telling you how to do these things, or you'd be telling another kid. But since I'm the only kid left around who knows how to do these things—I'm forty-two years old, but about these things I'm still a kid—I guess it's up to me."

These are things you can do by yourself. There are no kits to build these things. There are no classes to learn these things, no teachers to teach them, you don't need any help from your mother or your father or anybody. The rule about this book is there's no hollering for help. If you follow the instructions, these things will work, if you don't, they won't. Supposedly, it is a book for kids, but adults will not be prosecuted for reading it.

Edwards Wins AAU Half Mile Run Event

Gerald Edwards won the half mile run in a breath-taking time of 1:52.2 in an AAU meet at Houston last week.

The former Olton High School football star was representing Abilene Christian College. ACC's Coach Oliver Jackson dubbed Edwards one of the finest trackmen ever to attend ACC.

Full impact of this honor will be realized by track fans who consider that ACC's Bobby Morrow won the sprint events in the last Olympic Games.

Edwards is being groomed for the Olympics himself. Jackson was quoted here as having said that Edwards probably will be one of the greatest half milers in the United States by the time he is a senior.

Gerald played football for Olton and was an all-district end. He went to state in the quarter mile run in 1955.

Girls Enroll For Summer Homemaking

Forty-two Olton High School girls have registered for summer homemaking courses, according to Mrs. Myrtle Austin, homemaking teacher.

Projects selected by the girls for the summer include child care, food preparation, food preservation, yard improvement, clothing and clothing care, home improvement and home management.

Planned recreation is a part of the summer program.

Each girl has enrolled in four or more projects. One half high school credit is given. Classes will meet twice a week during June.

Work is to be completed by Aug. 23. Records of accomplishments, hours worked and pictures of projects will be included in records prepared by the girls to be called "My Summer Homemaking."

Mrs. Austin will visit the girls during the summer and inspect the projects.

Beauty, Comfort Combined In New Church

BY KORKYE MARTIN

Olton Methodists will worship in beauty and comfort the year-round in their new church building.

Their new sanctuary is perhaps the most elaborate and luxurious to be found in Olton, and their classrooms, as well, are convenient and pleasing to the eye.

Furthermore, Rev. Russell McAnally, pastor, states that the edifice is, as far as he knows, the only Methodist church in this area with a baptistry.

The baptistry is located in the spacious fellowship hall, in the educational unit.

Nave Is Unusual

Oak veneer pews, designed with body-form backs, are enhanced by aqua two-inch foam rubber cushions. In the nave, including choir, they will seat about 450 persons. An innovation in church furniture is the pew screen, which is installed in front of the first row of pews.

The choir, piano and organ are enclosed on the carpeted platform in oak rails, attractively designed in panelings of three. Behind the choir, centered, is a 14-foot cross encased in the brick wall, uniquely spot-lighted.

In the nave, there are ten hanging chandeliers, of a rare design probably not to be found elsewhere in this part of the country. The platform is illuminated by adjustable spot-lights.

Walls are rose-beige, in both the sanctuary and throughout the educational classrooms. Oak panelling is used lavishly in the nave. Asphalt tile covering the floor is of harmonizing shades of beige-brown-maroon. Carpeting in the aisles, altar space and platform is a blend of maroon and white to give a beige effect.

Symbolize Trinity

The rose stained glass windows in the sanctuary are in groups of three. Rev. McAnally explains that very often in churches, various aspects of the design and decor are arranged in groups of three symbolical of the Holy Trinity.

There are 20 memorial windows, and rather than each one containing its own identifiable engraving, all information will be engraved on a "false" window on either side toward the back.

Pulpit furniture, including the pulpit, communion table and two sedalias, is also a memorial gift.

The nave is completely equipped with central heating and refrigerated air conditioning.

Attendants will enter the sanctuary at the back of the room, when coming from the educational unit. With this arrangement—the front of the auditorium is literally the front of the building—the heaviest traffic will enter from the back. There are, however, outside entrances at the front on both east and west, in addition to double doors on the east, to accommodate funerals.

Vestibule Flexible

The narthex, or vestibule, is separated from the nave only by a part-wall, and this is formed in the top half of glass panelling. This is a feature, Rev. McAnally points out, which will enable the congregation to place seats in the vestibule if necessary, to accommodate an additional 100 persons.

Furthermore, directly behind the narthex are two large rooms designed for nurseries. These are paneled in glass also, so that from the nursery it is possible to watch the entire worship service.

The public address system will be directed into the narthex and into these two rooms, and in extreme circumstances, these rooms could also accommodate an additional 100 persons.

For use as nurseries they are separated by a large toilet.

Color Scheme Same

In general, there are five toilet units—finished in colorful metal tile—two drinking fountains, nine outside entrances, and 19 classrooms.

The educational unit is separated from the sanctuary portion by double doors in the wide hallway.

The color scheme of the nave continues through the educational building. In addition, acoustical material is installed in ceilings.

The heating units are vented in the ceilings of each room, and Rev. McAnally says that refrigerated air conditioning can be added at any time.

Another unusual feature of the new structure is the Senior Youth Room adjacent to the fellowship hall. This room is equipped with pews and cushions identical to those in the nave. It also has an oak built-in altar worship center. Seating capacity is 35.

There is a front, outside entrance to this room, and it will easily "double" as a chapel for small weddings and other formal ceremonies.

Kitchen Is Ideal

The vast kitchen—28x50—is the answer to the missionary ladies' worries when it comes to serving large groups.

There are nine double top cabinet units, with the same amount of space below. These extend around three walls of the kitchen leaving space for the electric stove. An exhaust fan is provided above the range.

Two double sinks are installed back to back on an island in the center of the kitchen, with drop leaves in addition to the permanent cabinet space.

All the finish is in rose beige. Four sets of light are provided overhead.

There is an outside door in addition to two inside doors into the kitchen.

On the wall between the kitchen and fellowship hall is a wide serving counter, with folding doors.

Room Is Versatile

The commodious and lovely fellowship hall will seat 150 at banquet tables; 200 otherwise. Down the center, a folding curtain can be drawn, but is otherwise subtly hidden in the wall. There is also a front outside door to this unit.

Also adjacent to the hall is the

Final Rites For L. D. Bartlett, 89, Pioneer Bronc Buster Held Friday

One of 89-year-old L. D. Bartlett's dreams was to attend the first service in the new Methodist Church Building.

It would have given Mr. Bartlett a great deal of satisfaction to have known that he did. The first services in the new church were funeral services for Mr. Bartlett.

The aging cowboy, bronc buster and farmer died Wednesday afternoon after a long illness. He suffered a heart attack and died en route to a Plainview hospital.

Funeral services for Mr. Bartlett were held Friday afternoon. Officiating were Rev. Russell McAnally, pastor of Olton Methodist Church, and Rev. R. H. Campbell, pastor of the Gruver Methodist Church. Rev. Campbell formerly was pastor at Olton.

Burial was in Olton Cemetery, under direction of Lemons Funeral Home of Plainview. Pallbearers were Angus Davis, J. B. James, C. M. Moss, A. A. Smith, Tom McGill and Lee Green.

Honorary pallbearers included C. T. Mason, J. G. Cole, L. S. Kennedy, C. R. Dobbs, W. A. Schreier, Raiford Daniel, Len Irvin, Troy Martin, E. L. Fancher, A. A. Curry, J. A. Ragle, S. P. McSwain, W. C. Herndon, Bill Thomas, Vernon Jefferies, Lloyd Graham and B. J. Souders.

Mr. Bartlett was buried by the side of his wife, Mrs. Amelia Reeves Bartlett, who preceded him in death in 1940.

Mr. Bartlett was born Jan. 21, 1869 in Tenn. He came to Texas with his parents at the age of eight.

Goodwill toward man was the philosophy of life which Mr. Bartlett credited with aiding him to a long and useful life.

"I've never lived where I didn't like the people," Mr. Bartlett once declared. "I want all the friends I can get and no enemies at all."

The friendship held for him was attested by the crowd which thronged and overflowed the auditorium at Olton Methodist Church Friday afternoon.

On coming to Texas Mr. Bartlett lived with his family in Fannin County and then in Grayson County. They later moved to Wise County.

Mr. Bartlett and Miss Amelia Reeves were married Dec. 23, 1890. Mr. Bartlett once said that he and Mrs. Bartlett "raised good crops and good kids and who could want anything more than that."

Mr. Bartlett bought 375 acres of land in Donley County for $3 an acre and two years later sold it for $12.50 an acre. He then bought 400 acres near Plainview and a freshman-sophomore youth room, also with a built-in worship center.

There are three other double rooms with folding curtains. In the Primary department, the curtain is aqua. In the Junior room, it is a unique shade of red; in the Intermediate room, the curtain is beige.

little later sold it for $33.50 an acre.

In 1907 he purchased a half section at Wellington. After 21 years in Wellington, he traded his Wellington holdings for a section of land southwest of Olton.

He made his home at Olton until the time of his death.

In 1936, Mr. Bartlett took smallpox. Mrs. Bartlett took the disease and never fully recovered from it. She died in 1940.

After that Mr. Bartlett lived alone in a home in northeast Olton. Independent to the last, he maintained his home, cooked his own meals and kept his house in spite of the entreaties from his children to make his home with one of them.

It was only during his last illness that Mr. Bartlett went to stay with a daughter, Mrs. J. T. Gibson of Springlake.

Mr. Bartlett was of the rough and ready type that built Texas and the Old West. In his younger days he was never more at home than when astride a salty bronc.

"I wish I could see all the horses I've broken in one bunch," Mr. Bartlett once declared. "I don't have any idea how many there would be."

Mr. Bartlett went into the world on his own at the age of 16. With little formal education himself, he once told his wife, "I'd work my fingers to the bone to give my kids an education." Papa Bartlett had a great deal of respect for learning.

In his later years Papa Bartlett was a well known figure in Olton. With his striking white

McClure Home Destroyed By Wednesday Fire

Fire early Wednesday of last week destroyed the Bo McClure home at Springlake.

Olton firemen went to the blaze. Firechief Tom Smith said the home and furnishings was a total loss.

The McClure family escaped unhurt. Chief Smith was the only casualty of the blaze. He suffered a severe gash on the hand. His hand was cut by broken glass. Eleven stitches were required to close the wound.

Mrs. H. B. Carson, "Clubwoman of Year" Is One of Olton's Most Colorful Persons

Mrs. H. B. Carson, 1958 "Clubwoman of the Year," is a woman of many skills and much ability.

The mother of five children has been active in the P-TA work, Garden Club work, and WMU and church work. She was recently selected as a member of the Olton Study Club.

Mrs. Carson, whose first name is Lucille, says her greatest love is people. "People amaze me! I guess my greatest entertainment is observing people."

Last fall, Mr. and Mrs. Carson made a trip to Lubbock. Mr. Carson left Mrs. Carson to shop in town. "When it came lunchtime, I stopped and ate at Hemp Hill's. I sat by a lady and she told me everything about herself," Mrs. Carson related.

Later, on the way home, Mrs. Carson told her husband about the lady who ate next to her at lunch—and she knew the woman's life story!

"You can find out more about people and their troubles in such a short time!" Mr. Carson told his wife.

"I've done a lot of work—the very hardest," Mrs. Carson says with a twinkle. She has five children (Eddie, Harlan, Wayne, who is married, Mrs. Uil Gunter, and Mrs. Gerald Allcorn) and five grandchildren.

"At home I work all the time. In bad weather, the children all say that 'Mother cooks all the pots full,'" she exclaimed. Mrs. Carson loves cooking and living with her family. "I especially look forward to the kids and grandchildren coming home."

When asked the secret of success, she said, "I think if a person completely submits to the will of the Lord, their life will work out successfully."

Flowers, flower arranging and teaching her Intermediate Girls' Sunday School Class are Mrs. Carson's hobbies.

Active in community affairs, she is past president of the Olton Garden Club, and is a board member of the 14th District Parent-Teacher Association. She has served as president of the P-TA for two years and has been on the County Council for two years.

She is chairman of the Citizen's Committee to study the school situation. "I have enjoyed that more than anything this year," Mrs. Carson declared, "because our children are more important than anything."

Mrs. Carson also holds a life membership in the P-TA. "My kids all laugh at me," she says in characteristic humor, "because when I was in high school, I was president of my senior class, president of my high school 4-H Club, and president of the county 4-H Club. The kids say that 'mother gets president and makes everybody else work!'"

Herschell and Lucille Carson were married in June, 1930, and moved to Olton the same week they were married. "We have lived in Olton all of that time except six months."

When the Carsons moved to Olton they "didn't have anything!" It was during the worst of the depression, she said, and about all they had was a 1927 Chevrolet.

Now a farmer and rancher, Mr. Carson enjoys working with the American Legion baseball teams and FFA. He is an honorary member of the FFA and has served as FFA director.

"I love living in Olton!" Mrs. Carson enthusiastically exclaimed. "Olton's a wonderful place to live—I'd hate to live anywhere else."

For one who is a housewife, mother, and grandmother; a Sunday School teacher; an active clubwoman in three Olton clubs; and a community leader, Mrs. Carson is a very humble person when she says:

"I don't know anything I ever did!"

Attends Banquet

It could serve as a play room in periods of inclement weather.

Probably of most importance, Mr. Johnson said, it would be a buffer and would preclude the need of temporary class rooms in the future. When needed as a class room facility it could quickly and economically be partitioned into four class rooms, he pointed out.

Lunch Room

The proposed lunch room improvement would accommodate 1,500 students in three sittings of 500 each, the superintendent reported.

The new cafeteria would encompass a double serving line, separated by a folding partition. High school students might be served at the same time as elementary students but the two groups would eat separately.

The folding partition could be opened so as to accommodate 500 people. A folding stage at one end of the lunch room would be ideal for programs at banquets and other gatherings.

Mr. Johnson pointed out that the same cooks would be able to prepare food for both high school students and elementary students with only one kitchen facility. This would serve a dual purpose without dual expense and responsibility.

Building plans also call for construction of a gymnasium, with a playing surface of 75 by 100 feet.

The tea honoring "clubwoman of the year" Saturday afternoon fulfilled — and surpassed — my brightest hopes.

Everything in my estimation was perfect: the flowers, the program, the excellent job Mrs. Burrus did presiding, the refreshments—everything. Couldn't have had twelve more capable and talented women working together.

The only regret was that we didn't have SIX plaques to present, rather than only one.

However, Mrs. H. B. Carson well-deserved the honor of Clubwoman of the Year, and, 1958 is ANOTHER YEAR!

My sincere gratitude to all the women whose interest, work, and attendance made this lovely affair possible. I believe they would all agree it is worthwhile and will look forward to the second one.

Another point of view: Sometime ago, I fussed a bit in this column about all these breakfast meetings, and how it was nearly impossible to have the man of the house home for meals anymore, even BREAKFAST.

Well, one popular businessman pointed out to me that it's all in the way you look at it.

For instance, he says that as he leaves home in the wee morning hours, he plugs the coffee pot in so his wife can have a hot cup soon's she rises sometime later!

It is thrilling the interest men and women—and youngsters too—are taking in the golf course. To be sure, it is perhaps the most popular strip of land in the country these days.

And I understand flowers should go to Mrs. A. D. Melton for her gracious gesture of bringing "five" leaves and two fishes" to feed the "five thousand" women out there in the tourney last week. According to my information, the women were stranded at noontime with nothing to eat. Mrs. Melton, who was around but not even playing, rose to the situation and dashed off, bringing back with her sandwiches and chips enough to quench a great hunger.

And this was the woman who did nothing else last but furnish flowers and arrangements for at least four very special occasions!

Many of you have already left for vacations. Many others will soon be leaving.

Let me remind you to DRIVE CAUTIOUSLY and not take chances. Also, how about taking along a paper sack for your LITTERBAG, and in such a small way, save yourself a good bit of tax money that would be spent cleaning up the mess you strew along the highways as you travel.

Personally, I look forward to the day when our air-conditioned autos also have a built-in drinking faucet with ice water.

And someday they will have. I'm sure of it.

Next Sunday, June 1, will mark the ending of our sixth year in this town, and the end of the fourth as sole owners of The Olton Enterprise.

And after six years, what do we have?

Well, we're still in debt. We still have personnel problems. We still have "people" troubles. Troy about has an ulcer, has given up smoking, coffee, most ALL things he likes to eat, has gained too much weight, and still works almost every night, with not even time to take off fishing at Buffalo Lake Saturday afternoon or run out to the golf course for a few holes. That's for six years' toil, tension and strain.

But that isn't the whole picture. In these years, of course, there's been a lot of water under the bridge, some of it muddy. But, if I may go on with the corny figure of speech, it seems to be becoming more clear and cool all the time.

For truthfully, those debts aren't piled quite as high; we have some wonderful people working in our offices. Most readers are very cooperative now.

And as far as the ulcer is concerned, well, TEMPERANCE in all things makes a man, you know.

And then, we still have hope of someday having a little time to ourselves.

But most important, the newspaper is far more than a way to make a living. It is, for us, a way of life. It is our mission, our call to service, it IS our life.

Ours may not be the best newspaper in the state, but we believe it is far from the worst. We do not know everything about publishing, but we learn more all the time.

As we begin our seventh year, we are more conscious than ever of the meaning of FREEDOM OF THE PRESS, and shall strive to impress upon our readers that this, and LIBERTY OF OPINION, the ardent criteria of William

Hysingers Enjoy All The Comforts Of Home During Three-Year Hitch In Army In Germany

Americans can do everything in Germany that they can do here at home.

This was the statement of Mrs. Jim (Gayle) Hysinger, when she returned to the United States after spending three years in Nuremberg, Germany, with her captain husband and three boys.

"It's true," she goes on, "We had all the comforts of home—except home."

The Hysingers spent several weeks in Olton on their arrival back in the states from Germany. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hysinger. They have gone on to Omaha, Neb., however, where Capt. Hysinger is an aide to General Derill Daniel in the 16th Corps.

Three Boys Go

When Mrs. Hysinger went to Germany, her three boys were four (Larry), three (Paul) and six months (Stevie). The two older boys started kindergarten at ages five and four, and then went on to school.

Naturally, they attended American schools provided by the government and tutored by civil service teachers.

The quartermaster, Mrs. Hysinger, explains, provides everything for American service families, from living quarters, to China, draperies, and all the furniture.

We had lovely quarters," she says. "The first two years we lived in a very adequate apartment, which was only two blocks from school. The last year, we moved away to a large—three-stories—house. However, we didn't even use the third floor."

Have Maid

The family had a full-time German maid, who did everything but cook, and even that on occasion.

Mrs. Hysinger was a member of the P-T-A and a women's club. "We did everything there that you do at home," she says. They helped in the German orphanages, secured clothing for refugees, provided Christmas parties, etc.

There were no problems concerning food, clothing, medicine, education, or anything else, Mrs. Hysinger boasts.

The only problem was being several thousand miles from their hometown.

At that, they were not so far away that they weren't surrounded by other Texans, and even ran into C. L. and Veda Ogletree (brother of Malcolm Ogletree here), who were stationed about 50 kilometers from Nuremberg. They are now in Lawton, Okla.

The Hysingers returned home on "The American," one of the most luxurious liners afloat. They visited Gayle's parents in Dallas before coming on to Olton.

Capt. Hysinger has ten years' service behind him, and will remain in the army at least another ten.

Mrs. Hysinger summarizes that living abroad for three years did indeed "broaden our outlook."

Lamb County is my home, and except for the years spent in army service and at college, I have lived in Lamb County all of my life. My wife and I now reside in Littlefield, at 702 East Thirteenth Street, with our two children, Betty, almost 6 years of age, and little Pat, almost 4 1/2 years of age.

In 1939, I graduated from Littlefield High School and in that same year entered The University of Texas. In 1942, I left the university for military service, and in 1946, I was honorably discharged from the U. S. Army as a Staff Sergeant, following 20 months' service in the United States and 21 months' service overseas. Following my discharge, I resumed studies at The University of Texas, where I graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree, with honors, as a member of Phi Beta Kappa honorary society, and a Bachelor of Laws degree, with honors. Since completion of my college work, I have been practicing law in Lamb County.

I hold a license to practice law in all courts of the State of Texas, and am a member of the State Bar of Texas and the American Bar Association.

During the major part of my life, I have been active in the cattle business, and in my law practice I have been intimately associated with public officials, business men and farmers, and with their problems. My legal training and familiarity with Texas laws, as well as my experience in dealing with the problems of my clients in my law practice, have been invaluable to me in meeting the problems facing Lamb County.

The duties of the County Judge are as follows:

1. Supervision over the handling of the estates of deceased persons, under a will or otherwise, and of the estates of minor children and persons unable to handle their own business affairs.

2. Presiding over civil suits and special proceedings in the County Court, including commitment of persons requiring mental treatment, the admission to state schools of mentally retarded children, and condemnation of property for road and highway purposes.

3. Presiding over criminal cases in County Court.

4. Administration of the County's business affairs, as presiding officer of the Commissioners' Court.

I believe myself qualified to discharge these duties effectively, and I enjoy and appreciate the privilege of serving as your County Judge. For your vote and support, I pledge my best efforts and abilities for so long as I am permitted to serve you as County Judge.

You be my judge—I ask to be yours.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Olton, Texas:

Section 1. Every person whose work brings him or her in contact with the production, handling, storage and transportation of food or food products, where the same is consumed on the premises, shall procure and hold a certificate from a licensed physician, certifying to the fact that within three months, laboratory and other examinations have been made, indicating that said person is free of tuberculosis, that said person is not a carrier of typhoid fever and that said person is free of any disease capable of being spread through food or food products.

Section 2. The health officer of the City of Olton may cite the holder of any health certificate to a re-examination at any time such holder of such certificate is known or suspected to be afflicted with any sickness or disease as set out in Section 1 hereof; and such re-examination shall be without cost to the holder, and shall not extend the time of such certificate issued.

Section 3. Proprietors or managers of establishments, where food or food products or drinks are prepared, handled, served and dispensed will be held responsible for the health certificates of their employees and shall only employ persons who hold such health certificates and such proprietors shall be subject to similar fines as imposed on the actual handlers of such foods or drinks.

Section 4: The owner, lessee or operator of any food establishment shall call the health officer within twenty-four hours of any food handler upon whose premises or in whose place of business any case of sickness or any infectious, contagious or communicable disease occurs.

Section 5: Any person who may be found guilty of violating any one or more of the sections of this ordinance shall be fined in a sum not less than $5.00, nor more than $100.00; and each day shall constitute a separate offense.

says Mrs. E. B. McMahan
BOISE CITY, OKLAHOMA

★ Mrs. McMahan insisted on clean cooking 30 years ago when electric ranges were something of a novelty. Her first electric range was only 27 inches wide, "But," says Mrs. McMahan, "It was clean — and that's what I wanted most."

Today Mrs. McMahan has a modern double-oven electric range with automatic control on both ovens. She has push-buttons, too, and bakes pies, 5 at a time, to put in her electric home freezer. This grand lady, who has kept pace with the advances in electric cooking, says of her electric range, "Nothing goes wrong and the porcelain finish is so easy to keep clean." In addition to her range, Mrs. McMahan has every modern convenience in her kitchen and laundry — all completely electric.

MUSTANG TALE

BY GAYLE MCANALLY

The "Ever Together Six"—Lila Lee McFadden, Lonna May, Sharon Smith, Cecilia Gallaway, Donna May, and Shirley Cole—were together again. They had a picnic recently near the Sand Hills. After the eats, they went for a drive in the country and then returned to Lila Lee's home and made ice cream.

Joyce Curtis and David Cole were together Wednesday night. What a couple! He is as tall and big as she is short and small.

Sydney Hair, Lana Hair, Koenia Schenck, and Janet Oak were in Plainview Saturday night bowling. At the bowling alleys they saw Leah Eby and Evelyn Critchfield.

Quite a few groups of girls have been seen together lately. The reason for this congregating couldn't have a thing to do with the Senior boys being gone on the Senior trip, could it?

Gayle Machen's car journeyed to Plainview Sunday afternoon. In it were five girls, all of which were going to see "Sayonara." They were Gayle, Judy Moore, Sydney Hair, and Sharon and Maenette Dennis.

Another group going to see the same show were Judy Ogletree, Charlotte Loveless, Charla Granberry, Paula Jones, Vicki Ogletree, and Mike Ogletree. (Mrs. E. C. Jones and Mrs. Mardema Ogletree accompanied them.)

At the Legion Swimming Pool in Plainview Sunday afternoon were Janet Oak, Jean Williams, Coy Carlisle, Marion Green, Danny

THE OLTON ENTERPRISE

Aussies Like American Action Says Visitor

John Luscombe of Melbourne, Australia is impressed with the similarity of the Olton Plains country to the rolling farm lands surrounding his own home town.
Mr. Luscombe, a retired Melbourne businessman, is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Raymond Skelton.
Spry at the age of 70, Mr. Luscombe describes himself as a "jack of all trades." Actually Mr. Luscombe did well for himself in the land of opportunity down under.
He was our equivalent to a traveling salesman in his younger days and later operated a general store.
Mr. Luscombe says he's very glad to be in America at this time of the year because at present his homeland is in the grip of winter.

Temperatures are at the freezing point or below right now in Melbourne. Mr. Luscombe plans to stay here until about Christmas and sail back to an Australia basking in the warmth of summer.
Mr. Luscombe's father migrated to Australia from England and his mother was a native of Germany.
"Olton puts me in mind of home," Mr. Luscombe declared. "But we've got mountains in the background."
The area around Melbourne is irrigated with surface water from canals. "Australia will be like America one day," Mr. Luscombe declared. He said his country now has a population of 11,000,000 and an area almost as vast as the North American continent.

"Millions of pounds of American money is being spent over there developing industry," he declared. He rather sadly pointed out that Australia is handicapped by her vast distance from the markets of the world.

"We're only 100 years old," he added brightly. "In another hundred years it will be colossal."

Mr. Luscombe said Australians particularly like the direct methods of American industrialists. "They take the bull by the horns and get things done," he declared. "The British take too long."

Will Australia break away from the Commonwealth of British Nations?

"We wouldn't want to break away," he replied "from the depths of 2,000 years of British tradition. The Queen was down there with us a few months ago," he went on.

No Australian has ever been able to talk about Australia without grade and the Seniors upon their graduation. We'll miss the Seniors but we're looking forward to having the new freshmen.

talking about rabbits. Mr. Luscombe was no exception.

"Pests!" he declared with feeling. "Pests they are. Two rabbits can breed themselves into thousands within a short time," he asserted.

"There's been as many as 5,000 rabbits in one warren." Three rabbits will eat as much as a sheep.

He said government scientists have discovered a disease peculiar to rabbits. One or two rabbits on a farm are injected with the fatal disease and then turned loose.

Mosquitoes bite the infected rabbits and spread the disease among the other rabbits. The disease is fatal and it won't be long until the rabbits are gone.

Mr. Luscombe came to America by ship and from California to Clovis, NM, by train. On his return journey his daughter will take him by automobile to San Francisco and give him an opportunity to take a good look at America.

In the meantime, the Skelton children, Sandra, 8 years old, and Ricky, 10, are enjoying their granddad's stay and his stories of strange things on the continent down under.

Three Mishaps Plague Hart Motorists

A rash of three automobile accidents near Hart last week resulted in hospitalization of a Hart boy and extensive damage to an automobile and a pick-up. Monty Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Phillips is in an Amarillo hospital for treatment of a broken jaw and multiple cuts and bruises. The injuries were received when his car was involved in an accident about three miles south and west of Hart early Sunday morning. The automobile was demolished.

Mrs. Jimmy Bostick received emergency treatment at a Dimmitt hospital Saturday evening when the pick-up she was driving overturned and was damaged beyond repair. However, she sustained no serious injuries and was released.

This &amp; That

BY MYRT LOMAN

Let's not forget that May 30th is Memorial Day, a day to decorate the graves of our loved ones. Last Friday a group met at the Hart Cemetery, with our hoes, rakes, lawn mowers and other tools. In such a short time the Cemetery was cleaned and raked. It looks so nice. Some of the graves have flowers growing on them and others were decorated with artificial flowers.

If you have not taken a drive out in the country you should do so. The wheat fields are beautiful. The Master's goodness to us is unmeasurable. He has given us moisture and wonderful weather, to produce grain and food. A number of acres are planted in potatoes and onions. Cotton is looking pretty also. Let's pause and give HIM THANKS for His goodness to us, who are so unworthy.

While the days are just a bit long why not drive over to Boy's Ranch, north of Vega. Not a bad drive at all as roads are now paved. When you see the wonderful things that have been accomplished by the boys you will be proud we have a place in Texas where if a boy is given a shirttail to hang on, he will become a man. The boys are so nice to show their home to visitors.

Now that school is out, some of the youngsters are entering College in June, and others will be looking for a job. I once had a school teacher who told us "An idle brain is the Devil's workshop." Let's think the old proverb over and try to find a job for our young people.

O. D. Dinwiddie is so thoughtful and it seems always at the right time. He sent some of the men from the elevator to help clean up at the cemetery last week. That is just one of the many things the men do. Sometimes a task would be such a JOB for one to do but when all get together it is no job at all.

Now that school is out for three months YOU had better call 2372 and give your news. I am sure you would not like to get a blank page, so please call me before MONDAY each week. Thanks to each of you for your help for without it, we would not have a paper.

Mesdames W. R. Reed, T. B. Cox, and I. S. Scott spent Friday, Friday night, and part of Saturday at Burson lake near Silverton fishing. The ladies brought home the proof of the catch, and the big one did not get away. Mrs. Reed caught a five-pound bass and three good size catfish. In all they caught 36 and voted Mrs. Reed as best fisherman.

Have you ever stopped to think of some of the many things our pastors are ask to do? The weather is never too bad for us to expect them to be out visiting the sick, or inviting new people in our community to Church, and members that we are still having Services at our Churches each Sunday.

They conduct funeral services with no charge, and imagine have even performed a few marriages with no pay. We sometimes criticize our pastor for things he says or does some of the things he says so badly hurt our toes, but if we were not guilty, it would not hurt us for he would be talking to
