Jail Battle... Razor Blades vs. Cell Bars

Sheriff Points Out Damage

THIS WEEK

Grand Jury To Check Cell Case

The case of razor blades and Mitchell County Jail's damaged cell goes before Mitchell County grand jury this week.

Members of the grand jury are scheduled to convene.

District Attorney Eldon Mahon said evidence in the case would be placed before the grand jury for study.

However, Saturday morning the district attorney said he still had not yet had opportunity for a full investigation of the cell bars sawing with Sheriff R. E. (Dick) Gregory.

Steel plates connecting sections of a jail cell's barred walls were discovered cut in a cell occupied by David W. Leach, Colorado City ex-convict now awaiting trial on 2 indictments, and James D. Reed, indicted on charge of unlawful removal of mortgage property.

Bolts connecting the cell wall to the ceiling had also been loosened, a steel bar had been ripped from a bunk and a gash had been cut in a steel plate above the cell bar.

Record Gain for Savings and Loan

Colorado Federal Savings & Loan Association Saturday reported 1959 brought the largest gain in assets in history of the association.

During the same 12-month period the association's savings and investments accounts were substantially above previous years.

Assets for Colorado Federal at end of December 1959 were $2,752,259 — $467,161 more than the same time in 1958. The increase was almost $100,000 more than the previous record hike of $368,810 recorded in 1957.

Savings capital as of December 1959 amounted to $2,531,099 — an increase of $450,149 over the previous year. This gain was far ahead of the 339,785 registered in 1958 when savings capital was $2,080,949 and the $348,454 increase that came in 1957 when savings capital was up to $1,741,164.

Colorado Federal's annual report showed a continuous increase in outstanding balance of loans — $2,248,636 as of December 1959, compared to $1,798,334 in 1958 and $1,634,123 in 1957.

During 1959 the association made a total of 84 loans for $653,666 for purchase or construction of homes. Improvement loans amounted to $38,227.

Earnings of the association in 1959 were distributed 17.8 per cent for expenses, 17.1 per cent to reserves for losses and 65.1 per cent for dividends.

A. L. Maddin, who lives here at 324 Elm St., was elected a member of the Colorado Federal Savings & Loan board of directors at its annual membership meeting. He fills the vacancy created by the voluntary retirement from the board of J. W. Randle, who had been a director since 1936.

Elected vice president of the board, a post previously filled by Randle, was J. S. (Jess) Craddock.

Preliminary Plans for 25 Duplexes

Colorado City Housing Authority Friday approved preliminary construction plans for 2 developments totaling $519,600.

The action moves the city's low rent housing project into final stage before actual construction.

Contract is expected to be awarded in about 90 days after final approval of plans by Federal Public Housing Administration.

Plans receiving preliminary okay here Friday from the C-City housing commissioners are for 2 separate developments with a total of 25 brick veneer duplex residences.

One development will be at E. 17th St. and Chestnut with 9 duplexes (18 apartment units) adjacent to Chestnut and E. 17th St. for whites and 6 duplexes (12 apartment units) adjacent to E. 17th (west of the other residences) for Latin Americans.

The other development will be 10 duplexes (20 apartment units) for Negro families. Site will be in the city's southeast section on a tract bordered by Temple, College and Terrell Sts.

Studying the preliminary plans in City Hall with Edwin Fitch, Houston architect, were Leonard Henderson, chairman of the local housing authority; D. M. (Jake) Merritt, J. C. Compton, Pritchett and R. B. Baker, housing commissioners; and Dan Pritchett, new executive-secretary for the local authority.

Vote for approval of the plans was unanimous.

Fitch said the $519,600 estimate for the 2 developments was for a "turn key" job. This includes the finished residences, concrete streets, grass lawns, trees and shrubs, office buildings on the development site.

To be added to the duplexes by the local housing authority will be kitchen ranges and refrigerators. These will be paid for out of an additional $11,250 sum allocated for such purchases.

The FPHA has authorized $650,212 for the low rent housing project in Colorado City. However, the local authority will sell bonds to pay for the cost of land, planning, construction and appliances. These bonds, with FPHA guaranty, will be paid off in a long-term plan with revenue from the duplex rentals.

In the development at E. 17th St. and Chestnut will be 2 apartments with 1 bedroom, 10 with 2 bedrooms, 14 with 3 bedrooms and 4 with 4 bedrooms.

The duplexes for whites will be in rows of 3 at the corner of 17th and Chestnut (3 on each street). Three of

Church Groups to Hear Negro Leader

Paul A. Sims of Fort Worth, director of Negro work for the Texas Board of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), will speak to 2 church congregations here today.

In addition, he will conduct an informal discussion during the afternoon with representatives from several churches of the community.

Sims, who has served as a pastor and traveled extensively in the U. S. and Europe, will preach at the morning service of First Methodist Church.

Earlier, he will talk with the senior young people's department of First Methodist.

At 2:30 p. m. he will meet with an interdenominational group from several churches for discussion in Fellowship Hall of First Methodist.

Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Sims will speak at the evening service of First Christian Church.

Sims, who began his state duties for Christian Churches in 1956 as the first Negro to be employed by the Texas board, formerly was pastor of Forest Ave. Christian Church in Dallas, largest Negro Christian church in Texas. He also was minister for churches in Kansas City, Topeka and Atchison, Kan.

He has studied at University of Kansas and Texas Christian University. Winner of the Bronze Star in combat with 82nd Infantry Division in Europe in World War 2, Sims in 1947 represented the Disciples of Christ in the first post-war World Conference of Christian Youth in Oslo, Norway, and now is an officer of the Disciples' International Christian Youth Fellowship.

NEW CANDIDATES

Adams, Barber, Wilson In Commissioner Races

Four new candidates—three of whom will seek offices of county commissioner—spiced Mitchell County politics Saturday.

They were in the late rush filing for places on the May 7 Democratic Party primary election ballot.

Deadline for candidates to file for a ballot place is Monday.

The new campaigners Saturday set up competition for Precinct 3 commissioners and Precinct 1 constable and expanded the candidate list for Precinct 1 commissioner from 2 to 4.

Announcing their candidacy for Precinct 1 commissioner were:

John Adams, a local resident all of his life, and Ivan J. Barber, who has lived in the county for 19 years.

Making it a race for Precinct 3 commissioner is Merlin O. Wilson, 39, Spade stock farmer.

Mose Allen, who formerly was constable, revealed he will be a candidate again for that office in Precinct 1. Previously announced was Bill Owens, who is seeking re-election to a new 4-year term.

Barber and Adams join incumbent Sam C. Thompson and W. M. (Marcus) Vest as candidates for Precinct 1 commissioner — making a crowded field for that race.

Wilson, the new candidate for Precinct 3 commissioner, opposed Jesse C. (Jake) Northcutt, who is seeking reelection to another term.

The commissioner's race is one of 2 local campaigns shaping up with at least 4 candidates. The other is for sheriff — an office sought already by 4 early announced candidates who include Sheriff R. E. (Dick) Gregory Jr., W. R. (Bob) McGuire, Lewis Claxton and Howard Bynum.

Without announced competition Saturday were 3 local and district candidates seeking re-election — County Attorney Frank Ginzel, County Tax Assessor Collector Tom Glover and State Representative Max Carriker.

District Attorney Eldon Mahon, candidate for 32nd District judge, and Nolan County Attorney Weldon Kirk, seeking the district attorney's post, also were without opposition.

Hardegree in Tax Race

M. D. (Monty) Hardegree, long-time Colorado City business man, Saturday afternoon placed his political hat in the candidate's ring.

He said he will be a candidate for the office of County Tax Assessor-Collector.

The office now is held by Tom Glover, who is seeking re-election.

Hardegree for years owned and operated Hardegree's Bakery. Later he was distributor for Baldridge Bread, and recently opened an automatic laundry in Loraine.

Poll tax payments Saturday afternoon had climbed to [illegible] here in Mitchell County, according to Tax Assessor-Collector Tom Glover.

Latecomers continued to keep Glover's staff busy [illegible] the tax receipts during the afternoon.

FOR FIRST MONTH

Low Construction Still Leads '59

Building permits for Colorado City during the first month of 1960 add up to $12,500 in new construction.

The figure is low compared to the 12-month total of [illegible] for last year. But the present January construction still is slightly ahead of the opening month of 1958.

All of the eight permits issued at City Hall this January have been for residential building, according to City Building Inspector J.A. Sadler Jr.

Largest among the new '60 permits was for $6,000 — a new 2 bedroom frame residence [illegible] square feet by contractor John Harvey at 1041 E. 13th St.

2 OTHERS PLEAD GUILTY

Appealed Speed Case Draws $50 Fine in County Court

State Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger filed a speeding complaint last Oct. against Robert Walter Sickles, local truck driver.

The patrolman claimed Sickles was driving 60 miles per hour in a 45 mile per hour zone.

Speeding cases usually are settled in Justice of Peace Court, but Sickles appealed to County Court.

Wednesday [illegible] reported for the County Court jury who heard the case. The verdict: guilty.

And the defendant, Sickles, ended up with a $50 fine plus $27.50 court costs plus attorney fees.

William Renfro, who lives on a farm southwest of the city, was fined $125 and $27.50 court costs Wednesday for transporting beer and whiskey.

He pleaded guilty before County Judge Elmer Martin. The [illegible] charge was filed last Sept. 21, the same time Renfro was charged with driving while intoxicated. A jury Dec. 10, however, returned a verdict of not guilty in the DWI case.

Alex Suarez, Mexican national who works full-time at a local farm, pleaded guilty in County Court to driving while intoxicated.

He was sentenced to 3 days in jail, fined $50 and $27.50 court costs.

Rowdy Comedy . . .

David Niven, Mitzi Gaynor, Monique Van Vooren and Carl Reiner star in the hilarious comedy, "Happy Anniversary", showing Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Palace Theatre. The Sin-Ascope movie features Loring Smith, Phyllis Povah and Patty Duke.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

Broadway Hit; Hilarious Movie

"Happy Anniversary," a movie for adult entertainment, opens Wednesday at the Palace Theatre.

The United Artist release is a frank and funny exploration of a subject which most married couples — including the one in the film — try to shove under the carpet when the kiddies (or the in-laws) are around.

Adapted from the spicy, occasionally rowdy Broadway comedy hit by Joseph Fields and Jerome Chodorov, "Happy Anniversary" stars David Niven and Mitzi Gaynor as the couple above mentioned, and co-stars Carl Reiner, Loring Smith, Monique Van Vooren and Phyllis Povah. The featured cast is headed by Elizabeth Wilson, Patty Duke and Kevin Coughlin.

Niven, who last year won his first Oscar for his work in "Separate Tables," is one of Hollywood's wittiest and deftest men performers in that most difficult of all acting, light comedy.

Mitzi Gaynor, at 27, plays the role of a 32-year-old woman, a bit of precocity which has characterized her career from the start.

were moved to another cell and the work.

Sheriff R. E. (Dick) Gregory described it all as an attempt to break out of jail.

However, a person can not be tried for jail break unless the act is committed after the person already has been found guilty of a crime or causes injury to someone in the act.

Mahon said the grand jury probably will look at the possibility of filing charges of destroying property.

Deputy Sheriff Russ Hines discovered the cell damage after climbing into the cell area late at night.

The steel cutting had been covered up, the sheriff said, by soap colored by the black from cigarette lighter or match smoke.

TELEPHONE TALK

by Truman Black, Manager

How We Manage The Telephone Business

With the beginning of a new year, many folks take stock of their old resolutions and make any changes that are needed.

Here at the telephone company there's one resolution that never changes, no matter how many times we review it. It is to manage the business in the best interest of the public, employees and shareowners.

The telephone company exists for one purpose: to furnish you the best possible telephone service at reasonable cost—a cost consistent with financial safety and fair treatment of employees.

Service Has Been Improved

Good service, of course, is our first objective. But since the only good service is one that continually improves, a planned program of service improvements is called for.

That's why our staff constantly studies the business and economic trends, the growth and path of expansion of this community. We try to anticipate and be ready for what might come next.

For instance, when we at Southwestern Bell installed the dial system exchange here a few years ago at corner of Walnut and E. 5th St., the look was to the future when the city would need even more facilities at the exchange.

The growth has been continuous and now the exchange will be expanded this spring to keep pace with the demand for service. However, because of the look ahead when the exchange building was first built, the expansion will be carried out at minimum expense and best economy.

A Big Job

Improvement of telephone service is a big job, but probably the biggest of all is expanding the telephone network. Just look at the growth here in Colorado City: 2,856 phones today, compared with 2,179 in 1951!

Good service also takes willing owners, folks who've invested savings in the business and depend on management to run it in a sound, profitable manner. If their money can't earn a reasonable profit in the telephone business, who can expect them to continue investing it with us?

With good earnings, we can plan ahead with confidence, build for the future, striving always to give you the best telephone service we know how.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

EXPLAINS MRS. TAYLOR

Balance Your Diet By Using Apples

Mrs. Cricket Taylor, County Home Demonstration Agent, tells us some more pointers on how to include apples in our every day living.

She says that if you want to drink your "apple a day" try this punch.

In 3/4 cup brown sugar firmly packed, 1 cup water, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon allspice, cinnamon sticks, 3/4 teaspoon cloves, 2 cans jellied cranberry sauce, 3 cups water, 1 quart apple juice and butter.

Combine sugar, 1 cup water, salt and all spice in sauce pan and bring to a boil on high heat. Crush cranberry sauce with fork. Add 3 cups water and beat with rotary beater until smooth and add cranberry liquid and apple juice to hot spiced syrup and heat to boiling point again. Serve hot. Dot with butter. ½ teaspoon per cup. This will serve 20.

Mrs. Taylor suggests these tricks with apples.

Roll biscuit dough thin. Sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon; dot with butter. Sprinkle generously with finely chopped apples and roll up, cut like cinnamon rolls and bake in hot oven.

Mrs. Taylor says that you can serve wedges of apples and cheese on a refreshment plaate or appetizer tray.
