DEAD MAN "BAD" WHEN DRINKING WITNESSES SAY

WHEN SOBER, HOWEVER, HE WAS 'KIND,' NORRIS TRIAL REVEALS

(By Associated Press)
COURT ROOM, AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 17.—Witnesses testified today that Dexter E. Chipps who was killed by Dr. J. Frank Norris in the pastor's study at Fort Worth last July was "a bad man" while drinking. When sober he was "polite, genteel, and kind" the same witnesses testified.

The entire morning session was taken up with an attack on Chipps' character in an attempt by the defense to show that the slain man was dangerous when intoxicated; that he drank heavily; and that all these facts were known to Dr. Norris, who believed his life endangered when Chipps called at his office to protest against Norris' pulp attacks upon the Fort Worth city administration.

Club Members Shun Him

A Fort Worth city detective and six Fort Worth business men, some of whom had been members of Chipps' club, the Fort Worth club, testified that the dead man was "violent and dangerous" when under the influence of liquor. One man testified he played cards with Chipps at the club and that sometimes Chipps got so quarrelsome "members of the club got up and left."

Detective Harry Conner testified that Chipps, the day before he was killed, had threatened to kill Norris, and that at the time of the threat he carried a gun.

George Young, 17, Is Winner Of Catalina Channel Swim

Hungry Girl Eats Heartily In Jail

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17 (AP)—Charges with the theft of two eggs, valued at six cents, Miss Bertha Libbert, a former stenographer who has been unable to secure employment for several months, today was in the city prison enjoying the first substantial food she has eaten in months.

Tormented by the pangs of hunger, unable to secure work and with her last fifty cents in her purse, Miss Libbert gave way to temptation and took two eggs from a stand in front of a downtown store last Saturday.

An employe of the store seeing her take the eggs asked her to buy them and when she refused called the police.

CANADIAN FINDS FORTUNE IN HIS RECORD SPLASH

$25,000 PRIZE GOES TO YOUTH; HE'LL BUILD HOME FOR MOTHER

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—The twin sisters, fame and fortune, smilingly dangled motion picture and vaudeville contracts today before George Young, 17 year old Canadian who won the Wrigley $25,000 Catalina channel marathon, last the young conqueror hesitated.

What he wants most of all is his mother. He left her in Toronto abandoned his standing as a Canadian amateur and turned up here nearly broke in order to compete in the swim. And when the tumult and the shouting had died and the "captains and kings of the aquatic world" had fallen behind him one by one, he floundered out of the water at Point Vicente early yesterday morning. The only one of the 94 of those who essayed to swim the 22 mile gap between Catalina Island and the mainland.

To Enter Other Swims

Young declared last night he expected to enter some swimming competitions in California.

Young planned to rest today in the home of Henry O'Byrne, his manager. He still complained of a soreness in his shoulder, the only ill effect from his strenuous battle against tide and waves.

When Young said good-bye to his mother in Toronto, Ont., and started out with a companion, William Hastings, to take his chance among more seasoned competitors in the 21 mile channel race, he had visions of a little home in the west, where he and his mother might live in happiness and comfort.

He arrived here, after traveling most of the way across the continent in a side car of a motorcycle with only a few dollars. Today, he counted himself worth $25,000.

Contracts Offered Him

While Young is thinking only of the home which is soon to be a realization, along with the flood of congratulations which has poured in by mail and telegraph since he became the world's swimming hero, is an avalanche of both film and vaudeville contracts.

Young, who was in the water 15 hours and 45 minutes, landed on the California mainland at 3:06 a. m. after a pretty game of "freeze-out" and endurance with some of the world's best swimmers. He negotiated a distance of between 30 and 34 miles in spanning the 22 mile channel, and in water averaging around 57 degrees. He is a non-user of alcohol and tobacco.

Carroll Is Given Stay Of Sentence

NEW YORK, Jan. 17 (AP)—A 30 day stay in the execution of the sentence which requires Earl Carroll, theatrical producer, to serve a year and a day for perjury at Atlanta penitentiary was granted by the United States circuit court of appeals today.

Carroll was convicted of swearing falsely before two grand juries that Joyce Hawley, a show girl, had not occupied a bath tub on the stage of his theater at a party last year. He lost his first appeal and the stay was granted so that his attorneys might prepare papers to bring the case before the United States supreme court.

HUGE SUM WILL BE SPENT HERE FOR STRUCTURE

OTHER TEXAS CITIES IN LINE FOR BUILDINGS; 200 RECOMMENDED

A new postoffice building for Lubbock to cost $165,000, has been approved in a report of the Postmaster General and Secretary of the Treasury to President Coolidge, according to advices received today by Dr. John C. Granbery and the Lubbock chamber of commerce from Earle B. Mayfield, Senator from this district in Congress. The advices are confirmed in an Associated Press dispatch from Washington. The message from Senator Mayfield follows:

"In report to President Coolidge under Elliott postoffice bill, Lubbock is included for a new postoffice building to cost $165,000."

Is Considered Certain

The building, on which interested citizens, through the chamber of commerce, have been working for some time, is now considered certain. In view of the fact that full and complete power regarding location of federal buildings now has largely with the Postmaster General and Secretary of the Treasury under terms of the Elliott postoffice bill passed by the last session of Congress.

No mention is made of the proposed federal court, on which efforts have been under way for the past ten years through the chamber of commerce. This, according to leaders in the movement, is the only disappointment in the negotiations, but efforts will be renewed toward this end. It was said:

Five Years Allowed

Under provisions of the $100,000,000 appropriation for such public buildings, approved at the last session of Congress, five years is allowed for construction of the approved projects, and no information has yet been obtained here regarding the time the appropriation will be made available. Final approval of the report rests with President Coolidge.

John L. Vaughan, Lubbock postmaster, has for some time been negotiating for a site for the new building under instructions from the postal department in connection with a survey of conditions at the office here recently completed by him, but he would not comment today on the probable location of the new building, if approval is given the project by President Coolidge.

U. S. Sticks To Its Nicaraguan Policy

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Secretary Kellogg issued a formal statement today denying published stories that a change is contemplated in the American policy toward Nicaragua. In issuing the statement Mr. Kellogg took words from an article appearing in the Washington Post today forecasting a "change in tactics" in dealing with the Central American problem, and a rejection from the position stated in President Coolidge's special message to Congress. The article also demanded moves were being made toward a compromise that might involve the retirement of Adolfo Diaz as the Nicaraguan president.

The statement issued by the secretary follows:

"There has been no change whatsoever in this government's attitude toward Nicaragua as outlined in the president's message. From the beginning of the trouble over a year ago, the United States offered its good offices and exerted its influence to compose the differences. KEEPING AHEAD OF YOURSELF

We talk about keeping two jumps ahead of the devil or the sheriff or other unpleasant celebrities—but how about keeping a good jump ahead of ourselves, speaking of New Year's resolutions.

Our chief national crime is wanting time. I don't mean laziness or thumb-waddling. I mean poor judgment in using our time. Doing things we needn't do, and neglecting things that should be done. We get ourselves into a sort of occupational jam. The two hours we are getting to be our glibest alibi, when as a matter of fact we should say, "I'm a poor manager of time. I can't get round to things."

I'll admit it is confusing. Such a hodge-podge of things to spend our time on. What we all need is a special course in the art of discrimination. We should learn to pick out the things that are of the most importance in life and stick to them—make a definite program of procedure and stick to it. Throw out what you don't need and learn to exercise quick judgment.

Do you stock up last month's magazines and the month's before so you can read them before you tackle the ones just out? Will the new ones be ancient history by the time you get to them?

Do it! Make a quick decision. Throw out your old magazines and start right in on today's. I know a woman who subscribes for a New York daily that is big enough to choke a hippopotamus. She goes to Europe, the daily arrives—daily—and is stacked up for weeks. Why, when she comes home she can't get into her library. She is chronically reading her beloved paper every minute she is at home, often six weeks old.

We waste time in deciding things that do not matter—the pattern of a deck of cards took a woman in the store half an hour of choice. She didn't know whether she liked a girl in a field of daisies or a Spanish dancer. Another woman couldn't tell whether her nephew would prefer socks with yellow dye or red and black checks. Everybody in the aisle was trying to make up nephew's mind for her.

It costs the store a double personnel force—this indecision—and the public pays for it.

NOTED FOR THEIR POISE

SAIGON, French Indo-China (AP)—The tallest, slimmest and most strikingly Asiatic women observable by a traveler in the Far East, are to be found in this beautiful city of wide streets and semi-tropical verdure. Cobb-Speaker Scandal Claimed Started By Landis

BASEBALL CZAR IS BLAMED FOR WHOLE EPISODE

BAN JOHNSON, AMERICAN LEAGUE HEAD, RAPS COMMISSIONER

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—The Chicago Tribune today said that Ban Johnson, president of the American League, openly charged that Baseball Commissioner Landis was responsible for tarring the reputation of Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb.

Breaking a silence that began last September when directors of the American League, meeting in Chicago, voted to give unconditional release to Cobb and Speaker, President Johnson declared that neither of the two would ever again manage or play on an American League club, although he paid a high tribute to the former Detroit manager.

Mr. Johnson, the Tribune said, declared he had accepted the "unqualified challenge" of Commissioner Landis to bare all the facts in the Cobb-Speaker baseball drama, and would take the stand next Monday at the special American League meeting called by the baseball head. He said his testimony at that meeting would prove the American League acted to protect Cobb and Speaker, and that Landis alone, was to blame for the cloud and rumors about their names.

Speaker's Lawyer Acts

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 17. (AP)—William Boyd, attorney for Tris Speaker, former manager of the Cleveland Indians, issued a statement here today in Speaker's behalf challenging Ban Johnson, president of the American League, to reveal any proof of alleged irregularities for which Speaker was relieved of his connection with the Cleveland club.

YANKS TO KEEP SAME CLUB FOR 1927 CAMPAIGN

AMERICAN LEAGUE KINGS PRESENT STRONG TEAM FOR NEXT YEAR

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The club that smashed its way to the 1926 American League pennant, opening pre-season predictions probably will take the field intact for the 1927 campaign.

Seasoned by their victory as well as by a world series fight that was lost only by a narrow margin, the New York Yankees, most critics believe, have a well-balanced combination of youth and experience, speed and hitting power that will be difficult to stop.

While many of their rivals face reorganization this spring—five of them having acquired new managers—the Yankees have the advantage of keeping their ranks solid. They went through a drastic shake-up a year ago but packed sufficient punch to offset any weaknesses developed in moulding a new "kid infielder."

He's Still For Koenig

This inner circle, Manager Miller Huggins believes, will be the high spot of the 1927 Yankee drive. He looks for the combination of Gehrig, Lazzeri and Koenig, along with the veteran third-sacker, Dugan, to smooth out the links and show big improvement. Koenig was an uncertain link last season and there was talk that he would be replaced by Huggins has not lost confidence in the former St. Paul star.

Babe Ruth, who staged a come-back last year, is out for another crack at his home run record. Huggins believes the Babe again will be the main gun on attack, flanked by Bob Munsell and Earl Combs, other outfield regulars, as well as the big bats of Lazzeri and Gehrig.

Unless new pitching strength is acquired from a batch of recruits or via the trade route, the club again must depend on its veterans, Shawkey and Jones have shown signs of slipping but Pennington and Hoyt, stars of the world's series, again were counted on as mainstays, along with Shocker and Ruch, capable veterans.

Behind the bat, Bengough, his arm recovered from last season's break, will do the bulk of the work, aided by Grabowski, acquired from the White Sox, along with Roy Morehart, infielder, in exchange for Aaron Ward. This deal is the only one of consequence the Yankees have made this winter thus far.

BEST GOLFERS WILL TRY FOR GOLD MASHIE

(By NEA Service)

NEWPORT, R. I., Jan. 17.—The classic field in history will compete for the fifth annual gold mashie, it was announced here by T. Saffern Talley, owner whose private links the golf tournament will be held August 5, 6, 7.

George Van Elm, national amateur champion, will lead a fast field of amateur stars which will include Jess Sweetser, Max R. Marston, Francis Quimet and Chick Evans.

The meet will be over 72 holes. Turkish authorities recently issued the order that girls and young women wearing white dresses must not wear with them ribbons of blue or orange colors. The reason is that the combination of these colors is to be found in the national flags of Armenia and Greece.

most of the alleged fixed games, has been a desire to let this or that team cut in on the place, show, or fourth money, the winning or losing of the game having no bearing on the standing of the other clubs in the race.

Crud for money has been baseball's besetting sin, and it certainly is up to the magnates to remedy the root of the evil.

PEANUT LEADS THE PONIES WITH FASTEST TRACK MARK

(By NEA Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The beagles in the scrapes sure met some mighty fast speed marks for the 1927 dogs to shoot at. Which is no thing more than race track lingo to the effect that the ponies travelled pretty fast during the past twelve months.

Peanut, a four-year-old, set a new American record at Aqueduct, Sept. 15; that dazzles. He traveled 1 1/4 miles in 1:48 3/8 seconds.

The fastest mile was run by Mary D., a three-year-old, at Lincoln field, Chicago. The stop watches all caught her at 1:28 flat, which is some galloping.

Keppin, with 126 pounds up, ran the fastest 1 1/2 miles when he capped the Lawrence Realization in 2:42 seconds.

Crusader has two fine marks which ought to make his esteemed papa, Man O' War, feel proud as the dickens. Crusader, at Coney Island, July 24, traveled the fastest 1 1/4 miles in 2:02 and later at Belmont park he wized around two miles in 3:25.

Helen's Babe steamed over the fastest 1 1/2 miles in 1:42 seconds.

Turkish authorities recently issued the order that girls and young women wearing white dresses must not wear with them ribbons of blue or orange colors. The reason is that the combination of these colors is to be found in the national flags of Armenia and Greece.

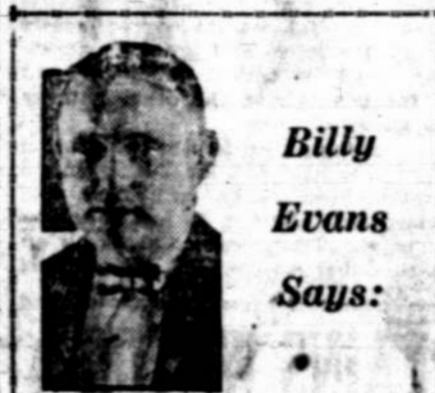

WOULD CHANGE PARDON POWER

Bowen Pope, Hamlin Solon, Is Author Of Bill Before State Legislators

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 17.—A constitutional amendment to distribute the pardoning power between the governor, chief justice of the supreme court and the attorney general, to supplant the present sole power of the governor, is sought in a house joint resolution introduced Monday by Representative Bowen Pope of Hamlin, Jones county.

The proposed pardon trio would be required to file with the secretary of state reasons for clemency acts.

Billy Evans Says:

Crud for money is the root of all evil. Some smart guy connected that one many years ago, even long before there were any counterfeiters.

Along those lines, it might be argued, that the immense world series receipts have been responsible for many of the evils that have arisen in baseball.

No doubt the assorted scandals that are being aired in baseball at the present time, many of them so old they have whiskers as long as old Slip Van Winkle after hitting the hay for 40 years, will result in the stereotyped cry of:

"Call the world series off and thereby eliminate the evil."

Abolish World Series? I certainly do not favor such drastic action. The world series is one of sport's greatest spectacles; it is the crux of the baseball season for which the public and players anxiously wait.

I am inclined to think that general interest in baseball would suffer with no world series as the fall desert of the diamond pasture.

If the magnates would escape some of the petty fixing that has been either real or alleged, all they need do is get back to the old system of dividing the receipts among the two pennant winners only. It need be no more than under the present system.

Do away with the second, third and fourth place money that appear to have caused some of the players in their greed for money to resort to tactics that would hardly be construed as good sportsmanship.

Cutting the Melon The intent of the magnates in offering second, third and fourth place moneys out of the world series receipts, was to stimulate all the players to put forth their very best efforts until the close of the season. Some of the players appear to have gone even further in their efforts to land these prizes.

In order to keep the players on their toes until the final game of the season, this money now given to the clubs finishing second, third and fourth in each major league, could be distributed into individual and team prizes for superior play in various departments of the game.

There could be batting prizes, as well as many others for fielding, base-running, pitching, driving in the most runs and so on down the line. As a special reward there could be a prize for the most valuable player on each team.

While the suggestion may appear a trifle intricate on the surface, it would be an easy matter to work out the details.

Individual and team prizes thus distributed would make it possible for players on second division clubs who were stars, to cut in on the world series receipts and receive a suitable monetary reward.

Eliminate Evil The world series is a meeting between the pennant winning teams of the two major leagues. Those two teams alone as teams should share in the receipts.

In all the scandal talk that has so far been aired, the reason back of

The Matadors are driving into seige of hard workouts all this week to be ready for the opening contest with the Sul Ross quintet on next Monday night.

The opening card for the Matadors should have a full attendance. All basketball contests will be held at the new assembly hall this year and will care for something like 1,500 people.

Gene Alford, a former floor performer for the Tech, is a member of the Lobo quintet and will no doubt be troublesome for the Matadors. Alford is a sure shot on field goals and was a valuable man to the Tech club last season.

The Sul Ross aggregation will be here next Monday with a well seasoned bunch of men who have plenty of the team are men who have of good hard experience. The major worked together for the past few seasons and the machine is well organized.

Every Headache Is A Warning

What is a headache? Physicians tell us that headache is "the cry of over-taxed nerves for rest." The cause of simple headaches is high nerve tension or strain. High nerve tension leads to high blood pressure, apoplexy and serious injury to the nervous system. The next time you have a headache or neuralgic pain, try the improved method of relief—two teaspoonfuls of Capudine in a little water. Being liquid Capudine acts almost instantly—in one-fifth the time required by tablets or powders.

If the use of Capudine, as directed, does not give you full and permanent freedom from headaches, you may be sure that they are caused by some organic condition which should receive the attention of your oculist, dentist or family physician. Physicians and druggists recommend Capudine as the safe, quick and dependable agent for relieving nervous pains and high nerve tension. Every home should be supplied with Capudine. Get a bottle today at your druggist's and if you do not like it far better than anything you have ever tried, the manufacturers will cheerfully refund the price upon request. Bristling Battles of Bare Fist Days

MY LIFE STORY

By Jack McAuliffe

(Copyright, 1925, NEA Service, Inc.)

Fighters were treated like dogs in those days. It was matched to fight Jack Hopper, the man who bit me a terrible blow above my cheek bone in our fight and paralyzed my mind so I could not remember a single thing that happened for four rounds. We were to meet in back of the Cedarhurst country club, it was February 27th in 1918, late at night.

My, how the cold, raw wind blew! Our teeth were chattering, our faces were blue. Twenty of New York's biggest swells, all great men, from Wall Street, were in the club house eating and drinking before a warm fire when we reached the building.

We tried to get in the club house to get warm.

"No fighters in here," said the bull at the door. "Stay out and freeze for all I care. And you don't get nothing to eat either."

"We went over to the grand stand in the darkness and tucked together until one by one, taking their sweet time, the swells came out to see us.

We stripped our clothes off and it's a wonder we didn't catch pneumonia! A thin layer of ice coated the water bucket held by my brother Con.

Hopper and I started off at a fast pace to keep warm. Every time we drew a quick deep breath it seemed like a million needles were piercing our lungs. I thought Hopper would be easy but he sure was tough.

The swells sat in their seats and, protected by heavy blankets, watched us maul each other while the wind cut to the bone. Hopper and I each put up a $250 side bet and all fights then were on a winner-take-all basis.

I can remember one of the swells yelling "See Hopper doesn't last three rounds."

I gritted my teeth, angered at the whole affair. Angered at the terrible treatment given us when we applied for food and warmth early in the night and angered at the foppish swells whom we were amusing.

I purposely laid back for three rounds and the swell lost his bet. There was a well-known scion of a wealthy and prominent New York family there. He was born without arms and legs and two servants set him on top of a barrel and between rounds they'd carry him over near a fire and then back again.

Finally in the 17th round I knocked out Hopper.

Then after that grueling pace and all the hardships we had just put our clothes on and were sitting down, half famished, to eat when the cry of "Police!" echoed across the frosty night air!

IN NEW YORK SEE-SAWING and BROADWAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Uncle Sam has gone into the speakeasy business on Broadway on an elaborate scale. It would seem.

Bootleggers who considered themselves rather wise awakened the other morning to discover that one of the busiest little blind pigs on 44th street had been operated all the time by the government.

Just what other speakeasies in the "white light" belt are operated by "under cover" men is giving the bootleggers a bit of worry.

By running a bar Uncle Sam is able to find who the rum runners and big bootleg men are, buy booze from them and get the goods.

An amusing story is told of a rum runner who wanted to hire a prohibition agent. The briber feared to meet the agent in a public place for fear of a "plant."

Finally he agreed upon a speakeasy and the agent suggested the government bar on 44th street. The bootlegger readily consented and, thus, his entire bribe negotiation was recorded on dictaphones. He started a couple of years' sentence the other day.

To celebrate the "3 o'clock-in-the-morning" curfew law for night club which became effective on New Year's eve, one popular resort held a funeral.

A hearse with six white horses drew up before the door in the early morning hours. The entire throng congregated in the cabaret became a procession of mourners and services were held over the corpse of all-night dancing.

The best tale we have heard in a month concerning Manhattan and its "Able's Irish Rose" population has to do with an Irishman who, it was discovered the other day, had for years been operating a kosher butcher shop.

A great deal of fuss resulted and the Irishman admitted his operation, pointing out that kosher butcher was employed and everything operated according to the orthodox rulings.

WASHINGTON LETTER

LOMSONE TO HEAR BORAH? WAIT, HE'S GETTING READY By RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Senator William E. Borah, whose internationally famous speeches have been missed thus far in the short session of congress, is to be heard from at more length following the holiday recess.

Several matters in which the chairman of the foreign relations committee is deeply interested are on the program, and any or all of them may be expected to call forth a Borah speech to ring the rafters.

Dearest to the Idaho senator's heart is the Lausanne treaty with Turkey. It probably will occasion one of his best oratorical efforts.

Borah is strongly in favor of the Louisiana agreement because he feels it will bring about better commercial relations and a better understanding between the two countries. Peace and good will between the Borah faith, in his mind germinated what became the Washington arms conference, Ever and anon he demands American recognition of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics.

W. K. Dickinson Scores Designation Of Idalou Highway, To Attempt To Have Route Changed By Highway Men

In answer to an announcement here recently that state and federal approval had been given an unconditional designation for state highway No. 23 over the north route to Idalou, backers of the south project, which would lead east out of Lubbock on Broadway, are preparing to contest the designation, that, it is charged, "was a political move, taken when affairs in the highway department were very unsettled and uncertain."

If plans for the north project, backed by the Abernathy interests "purely from a selfish standpoint," are allowed to go on, it will be one of the worst blows ever struck at Lubbock from a highway standpoint, W. K. Dickinson, leader of the group seeking the south route said today.

Dickinson Is Incensed Such a route as they plan will not in any measure fill the requirements that people of this county expect of a highway, Mr. Dickinson said, in expressing the belief that if the matter is put to a vote of the people, an overwhelming majority would be scored by the south route. He said he believed fully eighty per cent of the people of the county favor the south route, and that a larger majority than this-of-city inhabitants, favor this project.

The statement of J. E. Vickers, attorney for the Abernathy interests, is gross misrepresentation, he countered, and as proof he cites estimates on the two projects as sent in to the state department by division-highway officials here, which show that there is only an approximate $500 or $600 difference in the grade and drainage structures.

Mr. Vickers in his statement issued the latter part of last week said that grade and drainage structures alone on the south route would cost over $80,000 more than similar work on the north route. Mr. Dickinson cited figures compiled by the county resident engineer, and submitted to state department by division engineer, showing that both projects can be built easily with what Mr. Vickers said would be the difference in cost of the two.

Estimates Are Cited Estimates on either of the projects place the total cost at approximately $37,000 for grade and drainage structures, half of which would be paid by the county and the other half by the state.

In making a plea for the designation over the south route, Mr. Dickinson, an avowed good roads enthusiast, explained that highway 23 has been one leg of the Transcontinental Trail, an international system, that negotiations

PLAINS WATCH NEW GOVERNOR

Appointments Of New Office Holder Expected To Be Most Interesting

South Plains people are watching with much interest for the appointments of Governor-elect Dan Moody, who tomorrow will be formally inaugurated as the governor of Texas, due mainly to the fact that a movement had been under way for some time pursuant to selection on the state highway commission of a West Texas man.

While rumors are afloat that several men from this part of the state are being seriously considered for the appointment, no public announcement has yet been made regarding the one most likely to draw the appointment.

According to information coming out of Austin, seat of the state government, it is generally conceded that West Texas is entitled to representation on the commission, due to many reasons, the most important of which probably is the fact that in this part of the state concerted efforts for better highways are being carried on.

The plea for such representation was launched primarily by the Daily Journal several months ago, when both personal letters and press publicity signifying the desire of West Texas people, went out over the state. Since then the press all over West Texas and in some instances, in other parts of the state, has been joined in the cry, and in the opinion of close followers of the situation, this will bear fruit.

Lubbock county people are doubly interested in the appointments, due to the above, and to the fact that a giant highway building program is beginning to get under way. It is expected that the appointment of the commission will be among the first official acts of Mr. Moody, as the state now is without a commission following automatic resignation of the body after the senate refused to vote confirmation of the appointments.

TEXAS CASES DISMISSED WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Upon motion of the federal government, the supreme court today dismissed two cases involving stamp taxes imposed upon the American Refining company of Wichita Falls, Texas. In the lower courts the government lost and won in part in the controversy that the stamp tax upon certain stock purchases in 1921 was assessable under the revenue act of 1918.

Among eccentric wagers was one that Lord Orford, of England, won recently. He backed a flock of geese to race an equal number of turkeys from Norwich to London. The geese won, keeping to the road all the time, while the turkeys, when darkness fell, flew to roost in the trees.

BONDS PASS IN COTTLE COUNTY

$800,000 For Improvements In Highways Voted; Other Counties To Ballot

A bond issue of $800,000 for highway improvement in Cottle county, on which the citizens of the county voted Saturday carried by a majority of approximately five to one, according to advices received at the office of Geo. A. Field, division engineer of the state highway department here today.

Cottle is one of the nine counties involved in plans of nine counties on

Of course the groom is most interested in bestowing his name upon the bride, but in case a rich uncle dies or something of the kind, it might be well for him to know the bride's maiden name. A Lubbock newlywed was sought by a Journal reporter concerning recent nuptials. But one thing baffled him and that was how to spell the bride's maiden name. After several trials and he gave up. "Ask the County Clerk," he cried, "he knows."

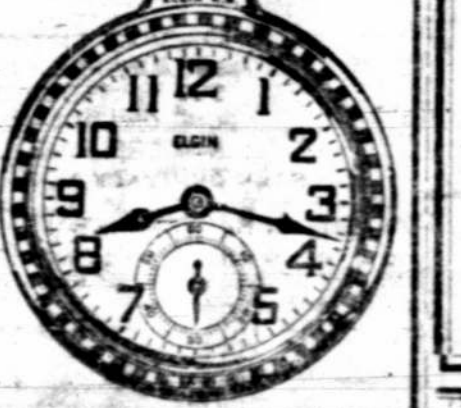

an east and west line from Vernon to Farwell which are negotiating for hard surface on the Lee highway. Similar issues recently were defeated in Hale, Floyd and Motley counties, but it is understood that these counties are now planning to call elections again in the near future to again vote on the project.

Issue Beaten in Hale
Hale county citizens defeated the issue, which requires a two-third majority, by approximately 80 votes, while Floyd lacked only about 65 votes of gaining the necessary two-thirds majority. Motley also recently voted on a $500,000 issue, which was defeated by a small majority, and it is planned by officials of this county to raise the issue to $250,000 and vote again in the near future.

Forward county, another one of the nine, plans to vote on a $500,000 issue January 28, while Valparaiso already had approved an issue of more than $100 million for highway improvement. Lamb, Bailey and Farmer, the other three counties affected by the program, have assumed an attitude of watch-

Nicaraguan Situation Shows Only Little Change; Kellogg Is Target For Criticism In A Mass Meeting

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—With congress inactive until Wednesday as far as any set program dealing with the Nicaraguan situation is concerned, wide interest continues to be manifested in this government's policy as evidenced by comments from abroad and in the United States. Protest demonstrations also continue, but so far no disorders have occurred.

Latest word from Nicaragua, where the American-organized, conservative regime under President Diaz is opposed in civil war by Juan B. Scaese, Mexican-recruited liberals, tells of a force of 700 liberals under General Zapata being forced into Costa Rica and plotting to invade the Nicaraguan coast.

Liberal propaganda which is taken may break the backbone of the Diaz government's view.

Brazil is excited. A statement that Brazil faces the peril of being Americanized, was applauded at a meeting of some students of the University Law school at Rio de Janeiro, while a resolution demanding that Secretary Kellogg be discharged from office as "being intellectually, morally and morally unfit to hold a post of honor or responsibility" was adopted at a mass meeting in Baltimore attended by several hundred persons.

Moscow and Paris furnished some of the week-end comment on the General American situation, advices from the Russian soviet capital carrying blanket denials from Soviet officials that the Russian government is disseminating anti-American propaganda anywhere in the world.

Editorial comment from New York and Washington papers, printed in Russia for the first time together with Secretary Kellogg's charges concerning Communistic activities against the United States in Mexico and Central America, is said to have impressed Russian readers that President Coolidge's policy in Nicaragua, while it probably will be approved by the senate, is condemned by the majority of the American journals.

No Conflict Expected. President John D. Barry, former president of Mexico and former ambassador to Washington, declared in Paris in an interview with the Associated Press that he did not believe a conflict can arise between Mexico and the United States.

Resolutions demanding withdrawal of American naval forces from Nicaragua will be taken up Wednesday by the senate foreign relations committee. At the same time the committee will determine whether it will make public the "corrected" copy of the transcript of Secretary Kellogg's Nicaraguan testimony given last week in executive session.

Nobody believes a "no Smoking" sign.

NEW POSTOFFICE

from providing for new postoffices or federal buildings or enlargement of present structures in more than two hundred cities has been prepared for congress by the treasury and postoffice departments.

The allotments were made under the $160,000,000 act passed at the last session, congress but appropriation of another $100,000,000 probably will be required to carry into effect the full program which is to be stretched over a five year period. Legislation for that purpose already is pending.

Projects listed in the recommendations are in addition to those for which allotments were made several months ago.

Million At Dallas. The recommendations include: Texas. Dallas—Sale of federal building, valued at $1,000,000, and erection of new building on another site $1,150,000. Recommended also that consideration be given to purchase of Young street station.

Fort Worth—Erection of new building for use for postal purposes only to cost with site $1,500,000. All other government activities would be grouped in present federal building.

Houston—Sale of federal building valued at $1,250,000 and erection of new one elsewhere $2,100,000.

Galveston—Addition to federal building, including purchase of land $479,400.

San Antonio—Sale of federal building, valued at $260,000 and erection of

SEWER WORK IS TO START SOON

John Dalrymple, Contractor, Says Construction May Begin Tomorrow

Construction work on the system of storm sewers that will accompany the laying of nearly a quarter million dollars worth of paving here, contract for which was awarded last week to the Panhandle Construction company, will be started probably Tuesday, John Dalrymple, of the construction firm said today.

The storm sewer project calls for expenditure of more than $12,000,000 all to be paid by the city, and work on the sewer project probably will be started on Texas Avenue, it was said.

Prepare For Paving
In the meantime, the company is shaping up legal matters pertaining to the paving program, and said that as soon as this is completed, or as soon as any project in the program is completed, work on the paving will be started. Notes to secure payment of the paving must be in the hands of company officials before work is started. These notes will be payable in six installments if desired by the property owner, one-sixth cash, and the other in five equal annual payments.

While nothing definite will be known as to the place of beginning of the pavement, Mr. Dalrymple said that the first street to finish signing the papers will probably be the one on which work is started. 38 blocks of new paving are included in the program.

new one which, with site, would cost $2,000,000.

El Paso—All recommendations for new construction rejected.

Waco—Recommended that no action be taken at this time.

Corpus Christi—Addition to building $95,000.

Greenville—Addition to building $60,000.

Lubbock—New building $165,000.

Huntsville—New building $60,000.

NORRIS TRIAL

administration.

Littleton Chipp's Friend
Littleton said he had been a friend of Chipp's. Dayton Moses, defense counsel, asked if he was acquainted with the reputation of Chipp when the latter was intoxicated, "as to whether he was polite and inoffensive or dangerous and quarrelsome."

"His reputation was bad when intoxicated," Littleton said.

Attorney William McLean for the state asked if the witness knew a kinder or more polite man when sober, and Littleton said he did not.

City Detective Harry Conner of Fort Worth, testified Chipp's reputation as a drinker was bad.

Conner said he met Chipp in front of the Texas hotel in Fort Worth July 16 last, that Chipp had a gun and was intoxicated.

"Chipp said he was going to kill Norris," witness said. "I told him he would get into more trouble than he could get out of in nine years. He was quarrelsome and cursed Norris. I loaded him into an automobile and sent him to his hotel."

McLean Raps Witness
"Did you turn a drunken man loose on the streets with a gun?" McLean asked abruptly.

"Yes."

"Stand aside," shouted McLean.

Fred D. Holland, former Fort Worth policeman, had testified Saturday he had heard the conversation in which Chipp said he was going to kill Norris. Holland said he repeated the conversation to Norris.

A. E. Hamm, livestock commission man of Fort Worth, testified Chipp had a reputation of being "violent" when drunk and was a heavy drinker.

Attorney Moses asked if witness had met Chipp in front of the cigar stand in the Texas hotel on the occasion when Chipp was charged with firing a shot at Norris.

State objected as having nothing to do with the case and the question was reworded and Hamm was asked if he ever knew of an occasion when Chipp was armed with a pistol. State objected because it was not shown that such information had even been communicated to Norris. The question was changed to read "do you know whether Chipp ever borrowed a pistol from any one?"

Borrowed His Pistol
Hamm said Chipp borrowed a pistol from him about eight years ago. Witness said he did not know what was done with the gun but that it was returned to him by a policeman.

Hamm said he always "ducked" Chipp when the latter was intoxicated but that Chipp was "polite, kind, and considerate" when sober.

Moses tried to draw from the witness information as to what had been done with the pistol while Chipp had it, but state objected that this was immaterial as having no bearing on the Norris case and that a statement of a policeman about the use of the pistol would be hearsay. Court sustained the objection.

Chipp was charged with the incident in which Chipp is alleged to have threatened Fenton Baker at the hotel.

J. C. Hart, owner of a sand and gravel plant at Fort Worth, said

Chipp's reputation when drinking was "bad."

"Now you mean by that he quarreled?" Attorney McLean asked.

"Yes."

"Stand aside," the special prosecutor snapped.

Banker Is Called
J. P. Pemberton, former president of the Farmers and Mechanics bank of Fort Worth, member of the Norris church, testified Chipp's reputation as a "violent man when drunk was bad."

McLean asked the banker if he ever drank with Chipp.

"I don't think so," Pemberton answered.

"Well, did Chipp swear when somebody dealt him a flush or a straight?" McLean asked.

"Never played poker with him."

"Well, was it pitch or seven up?"

"I played run with him and he was a little quarrelsome at times. He got so offensive club members got up and left."

"I didn't ask you that," McLean said and the attorney asked that the last remark be stricken. Judge James R. Hamilton, presiding, told the witness not to volunteer information not asked for.

Pemberton said he was a deacon in Norris' church.

A. P. Mitchell, Fort Worth automobile dealer, said he was a member of the Fort Worth club when Chipp was a member and that Chipp's reputation when intoxicated was "bad."

Leonard Witherton Is Called
Leonard Witherton, secretary of the Texas Republican party, with his right arm in a sling, took the stand. He was suffering with a poisoned arm. He testified Chipp was "quarrelsome under the influence of liquor." The witness was dismissed without questions by the state.

Legislator On Stand
A. D. Harding, member of the legislature from Fort Worth, said Chipp's reputation as a "violent man" when drinking was bad. Howard Huby, of the Texas hotel, said Chipp was a powerful man of about 175 pounds weight.

W. E. Young, house detective at the Texas hotel, Fort Worth, was called. He said he weighed 230 pounds and that Chipp "was just about as big" as himself.

"Did you ever have an opportunity to test Chipp's strength?" Attorney Simpson asked.

"I did, one night, and found he was as strong as I am," the witness said.

E. F. Parks, Fort Worth barber, testified Chipp was under the influence of intoxicating liquor "about half the time" and that on the day Chipp was shot he saw him about "fifty percent drunk." H. C. Lee, another barber, said Chipp was a heavy drinker.

They Shaved Him
These barbers had shaved Chipp frequently. The state witnesses without questioning them.

R. E. Hancock, another barber, testified that Chipp was in the barber shop where he worked between 11:30 and 12 o'clock on the day Chipp was shot and that the lumberman was drunk.

Flashes Of Life
Anti-Lipsticks
NEWARK, N. J.—Lips to which lipsticks are touched shall never touch mine! Such a motto for youth might be suggested by a bulletin from Dr. Charles V. Craster, the city's chief health officer. He says that every time a lipstick user wets her lips she takes a mess of microbes into her mouth; also that lipsticks, hand-shakes and kisses are all in the same class; they should not be permitted.

Barbers Happy
ALBANY, N. Y.—Master barbers are feeling optimistic. In state convention they were informed whiskers and mustaches would not be "a la mode" in the U. S. A., notwithstanding increasing popularity in England.

Might Help
WASHINGTON—Anybody North of the golf and swimming districts of Florida and California just now who is having a row with his landlord over steam may find benefits in a bulletin issued by the Smithsonian institution. It shows how primitive man used fire to defeat the cold.

Thirteen
NEW YORK—There must be something in such a number. Thirteen bottles of liquor were seized from one of 13 Hermann couples returning from Bermuda on the 13th day of the month.

He's Figurin'
WASHINGTON—Uncle Gary is contemplating getting himself one or two Leviathans of the air, three times as big as the Shenandoah. He is inviting bids for the construction of air ships 780 feet long, with a capacity of 6,500,000 cubic feet helium, speed of 70 miles an hour, cruising range of 150 hours, able to carry several airplanes and attach or detach them during flight; accommodating a personnel of 42.

Petty Thieves Raid Two Chicken Roosts Childress Lad Held On Charge of Murder

Petty thieves Sunday night raided two chicken roosts in the southeast part of the city, and escaped with two or three fowls from each roost, according to reports to police headquarters this morning.

While practically no clues are held, officers said today they believe boys are responsible.

REGRET BILL PASSED
AUSTIN, Jan. 17 (AP).—A resolution of regret at the death of David R. Francis, former governor of Missouri, was adopted here Monday by the senate of the 49th legislature.

CHILDRESS, Texas, Jan. 17 (AP).—Hub Waldrip, son of a minister, was being held in jail here in connection with the fatal stabbing Saturday night of Barney White, 27, at a country dance. Waldrip is charged with murder.

The grand jury will convene Wednesday.
