Rep. George Mahon reports that he is reasonably confident that a one-year extension of the present farm program will be approved before Congress adjourns this year. But it is requiring some maneuvering to enhance the extension without limiting government payments to producers.

For example, Rep. Mahon opposed the limitation of payments but ultimately supported final passage of the bill, but only to give the Senate-House Conferees a chance to work out an acceptable bill. The Senate passed a bill without payment limitations on July 20, and Mahon said that by sending the House bill to the conference with the Senate, he felt most hopeful that a one-year extension without limitations would be worked out and later submitted to both houses for final approval.

The farm program expires at the end of next year and it is generally felt that a one - year extension would assist farmers with their long-range planning and at the same time give the next Congress more time to work up its own farm legislation. 8

Theoretically, a vacation is supposed to take a person away from his daily environment for a change of pace and, if he is lucky, some rest here and there.

However, it is difficult sometimes while travelling to refrain from comparing the home town with others of comparable size. Wherever I have traveled in recent years, Snyder has "stacked up" well; especially in general appearance. Yet, this summer I was surprised by the number of small cities that have mercury vapor street lighting throughout their residential areas — many of them smaller than Snyder, and not only in Texas, but in other states as well.

But we are going to catch up on this score.

"Some people didn't believe we were actually going to succeed till they saw the work being done," said L. M. Dawson, president of the U&F (Union and Fluvanna) Water Authority. Dawson said the requests for service by the new rural water system perked up considerably after the contractor began work on the pipe line. Now, the rural system which will go into operation soon has over 175 customers. —WACIL McNAIR.

NIXON GOES INTO ACTION —. This was scene as Richard M. Nixon made his first public appearance at Miami Beach following start of Republican National Convention to pick candidates. Nixon won a first-ballot nomination. (AP Wirephoto)

Nixon Takes Agnew As Running Mate

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, winner of the Republican presidential nomination, today picked Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland as his running mate.

Nixon made the announcement in a brief news conference at 12:40 p.m. He said some 100 party leaders had been consulted.

The selection of Agnew, a onetime supporter of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, was a major surprise. The Maryland governor delivered the nominating speech for Nixon Wednesday night.

Nixon opened his news conference saying the deliberations "have been very thorough on what we think is a tremendously important decision."

He said he wanted a man qualified to be president, who could campaign effectively and who would be able to assume new responsibilities dealing especially with the problems of the nation's cities.

Nixon said he will recommend the convention nominate Agnew for vice president.

Agnew was elected governor of Maryland in 1966 after a term as county executive of Baltimore County, which surrounds the city of Baltimore.

He attracted considerable Democratic support in the heavily Democratic state after George Mahoney, an outspoken foe of open housing, had captured the Democratic nomination for governor.

Nixon won a smashing first ballot Republican presidential nomination early today by bowling over Rockefeller and Gov. Ronald Reagan of California. Since then, he told the reporters, he had been closeted with party leaders and speaking with them by telephone looking for a running mate. Smiling, he said he trounced a definite right-winger.

The announcement of a running mate had been expected between 10 and 11 a.m. EDT. Shortly after 11, Nixon's communications manager, Herbert G. Klein, said the discussions were continuing. He had a similar announcement a few minutes before Nixon turned up.

Nixon, 55, will be running with a 49-year-old vice presidential candidate. But first the party delegates, at a session tonight, will have to go through the motions of ratifying Nixon's selection. The two candidates then will make acceptance speeches.

Nixon's first ballot victory culminated a smoothly organized campaign for a second try at the presidency. Nixon lost out to John F. Kennedy in a tight race in 1960.

Delegates erupted in a turbulent shouting, band-blaring, sign-waving, demonstration when Wisconsin was reached on the state roll call. Nixon had sewed up the 30 Wisconsin votes in a primary and it was those votes which put him over the 667 count necessary for the nomination.

Nixon later summed up his victory in these words at a news conference:

"I was ready, I was willing and the events were such that the party wanted me. . . ."

The next order of business today was for Nixon to name his choice for the vice-presidential spot.

At the storied 3 o'clock in the morning, celebrated in an old song, Nixon got a call from the man he thinks he will oppose in November, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

There was some unreported banter between the two friendly enemies, each wary of an unexpected cut from an opponent with the respected ability of expert fencers to deliver a political wound. They joked about a vice president's combatant society, Rep. Clark MacGregor, R-Minn., reported.

Miami Negro Rally Erupts In Disorder

By STRATTON L. DOUTHAT
Associated Press Writer

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Bands of young Negroes set fire to cars, stoned white motorists and looted stores in a five-block area of northwest Miami Wednesday night in a disturbance touched off when police massed at a rally aimed at airing problems facing Negroes.

Some 25 persons were injured, including two Negroes who police said were shot by unknown gunmen.

About 100 Negroes were arrested, mostly on charges of disorderly conduct leading to rioting.

Trouble broke out in the predominantly Negro area about 6:30 p.m., several hours before Republican delegates 10 miles away across Biscayne Bay on Miami Beach nominated Richard M. Nixon as their presidential candidate.

Miami Police Lt. Jay Golden said both of the men who were shot were in good condition. He said: "The police have not fired one bullet."

Clarence Curry, 25, was wounded as he was being questioned in a looting case. Golden said two shots rang out in the darkness but no gunman was seen. The other shooting victim, Cephus Griffen, was hit by a stray bullet as he walked along a sidewalk, police said.

Most of the injured suffered cuts from broken glass and bruises from rocks and bottles.

Police said at least 32 stores were broken into and seven were looted. Three cars were burned and two were damaged by rocks.

Four newsmen were among the injured and a man driving a car with a George Wallace bumper sticker was stoned as hundreds of Negroes circled his wrecked automobile. Dazed and bleeding, he was pulled to safety in a bar by two Negroes.

The violence ended after the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, leading his Poor People's Campaign at the GOP convention, and Gov. Claude Kirk, a convention delegate, walked through the streets urging calm and conferred with Negro leaders.

Exchange Student Due Here Saturday

Snyder's Foreign Exchange student for the 1968-1969 school year will arrive here Saturday evening. Edna Venegas Francas, 18, from Sao Paulo Brazil, will be welcomed by local officials at about 6 p.m. that day on the north side of the court house.

Miss Francas, who will live with the Roy Carter family, 2901 Thirty-third Street arrived in New York Tuesday. She will fly to Dallas, landing at Love Field there shortly before noon Saturday. She will be met by the Carters, who will drive her to Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter, and son, Roy Lee, will leave Friday for Dallas. A daughter, Barbara, is in El Paso, where she is taking part in the River Mission Ministry, which is being sponsored by the Mitchell-Scurry Baptist Association. Barbara will take a plane from El Paso to Dallas, arriving there early Saturday.

The welcoming ceremony here will involve a number of officials. The new resident of Snyder will be welcomed by County Judge Sterling Taylor. Renal Rosson, state representative, will present her with a certificate naming her as an honorary citizen of Texas, while Snyder Mayor Bobby McCormick will present her with such a city certificate.

The Gold Coaters will unroll the gold carpet for the newest exchange student, and will also serve as a part of the welcoming committee. Others who are expected to take part in the ceremony are Dan Cotton, president of the local chapter of the American Field Service, Ben Brock, principal of Snyder High School, and Mike Levens, president of the Student Council.

Cotton stated that he hopes a large number of Snyder and area citizens will turn out to give Miss Francas a real warm Texas and Snyder welcome. Her first impression will probably be a lasting one.

BODIES BEING RECOVERED

Nine Die In Mine Explosion

By HOWARD KERCHEVAL
Associated Press Writer

GREENVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Rescue workers began the slow process today of carrying out the bodies of nine miners reported killed Wednesday in a fiery explosion in a coal mine shaft near here.

A mine employe, who asked to remain unidentified, said the rescue workers had found eight bodies in one area of the mine. The body of the ninth miner was found nearby, he said.

The employe said it would take some time for the workers to bring the victims to the surface because the shaft area was small. The first body was discovered at about 4 a.m. EDT today—14 hours after the accident was reported.

Throughout the rescue operation and the reported finding of the bodies, mine officials, police and other authorities have refused to discuss the accident with newsmen.

The entire area leading to the River Queen mine entrance was cordond off soon after the accidnt and newsmen have not been permitted in.

The mine, owned and operated by Peabody Coal Co., is just south of this small coal-mining community in Western Kentucky.

About 300 persons—women, children and miners—lined the road leading from the mine area to seek out loved ones, relatives and friends among those being carried out.

One of those bystanders, a middle-aged man wearing a green work uniform said: "I've been in mining all my life and my brother-in-law is down there, and I know there is no chance."

The explosion rocked a shaft inside the mine with a series of blasts. A miner who had been working in a nearby area, said, "The blast knocked you down every time you got up—just like a cyclone."

Rescue operations, coordinated by the Kentucky Division of Mines and Minerals, began soon afterward.

It was estimated that the trapped miners were nearly 8,000 feet back from the entrance to the mine and about 90 feet beneath the surface.

REFLECTS INCREASED PLANTING

1968 Cotton Yield Estimated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department estimated the cotton crop today at 10,976,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight. Last year's production, smallest since 1895, was 7,455,000. The 1962-66 average was 13,896,000.

The Texas crop was estimated at 3,325,000 bales, grown on 4,175,000 acres producing an average of 382 pounds of lint.

The estimate was the first for this year's crop. It reflected increased plantings.

Production was cut back the last two seasons in an effort to head off increasing supplies. Poor growing conditions and the heavy abandonment of 15.4 per cent last year resulted in a much smaller crop than expected.

The department estimated there will be 10,318,000 acres of cotton this year for harvest. Last month the department estimated farmers had planted 11,051,000 acres, 17 per cent more than a year earlier.

Yield of actual cotton lint per harvested acre this year was estimated at 511 pounds, compared with 447 pounds in 1967 and the average of 500.

The estimated areage for harvest, yield per acre and production, respectively, for the 1968 crop for other states included:

Mississippi 1,150,000; 672 and 1,610,000.

Arkansas 1,025,000; 503 and 1,07500.

Louisiana 41000; 632 and 540,000.

Oklahoma 380,000; 253 and 200,000.

New Mexico 153,00; 565 and 180,000.

Arizona 295,000; 1,033 and 635,000.

California 680,000; 1,041 and 1,475,00.

The estimate for American-Egyptian type cotton is included in state and national totals, the department said. This type is grown in Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California.

Toal production of American-Egyptian cotton was estimated at 72,800 bales, an average yield of 518 pounds from 67,400 acres for harvest.

Arabs Warn Reprisals Are Planned

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arab commando organizations warned today they will strike at Israeli civilians from now on with an "eye for an eye" policy in reprisal for Israeli attacks on Arab territory.

The El Fatah guerrillas in a Cairo broadcast said this is in retalization for last Sunday's Israeli attack on the Salt area of Jordan in which Jordan said, 23 Arab civilians were killed and 76 wounded.

Israel said its air force attacked guerrilla camps near Salt in reprisal for raids by Arab commandos.

Al Fatah accused Israel of waging genocide against the Palestinian Arabs.

"The policy of extermination against civilians is a two-edged weapon," it sad. "Israeli civilans should not hope to be safe if Arab civilians are subjected to genocide."

The Israeli-Jordinian frontier flared up again today as troops entrenched on opposide sides of the Jordan river exchanged fire. Each side accused the other of starting it, and neither side reported any casualties.

At U.N. headquarters in New York, Arab delegations were working on a resolution to have the Security Council condemn Israel's bombing attack on Jordan. Informants said Algeria, Pakistan and Senegal have worked up a drafi which would reaffirm a March 24 resolution condemning an Israeli land thrust into Jordan and warning of "more effective measures" in the event of repetition.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a good man in many ways, but he has one terrible fault which I think is inexcusable. He "tells all" (and I do mean ALL) to his men friends.

I feel that we have no intimate husband-wife secrets like other married couples. My husband tells guys he hasn't even known very long everything that goes on between us. I know he has because he's told me so.

Knowing that all his men friends know all those intimate things about me, I can't face them.

What is the matter with a man who acts like this? I have grown cold toward him, and we've only been married 2 years. Do you blame me?

COLD WIFE

DEAR COLD: Either your husband is very immature or he thinks he's invented something. Your talkative husband is "telling all" to the wrong people. If he can't keep his mouth shut, he should lie down on a couch, and tell it to a psychiatrist.

DEAR ABBY: I am a recent divorcee, and as such, most men take me for an "easy mark." They all ask the same question, "What do you have to lose?"

I am in my late thirties, and I'm certainly not a child. But what is a good answer for these eager beavers? The word "NO" doesn't seem to mean anything to them. They want to know WHY! Please give me a good answer.

INDIANA READER

DEAR READER: Just say, "NO — that's not my style," . . . and don't engage in a debate with any of these clowns or you're sunk.

DEAR ABBY: Ben and I have been happily married for 4 years (no children yet) and I wouldn't think of being unfaithful. He says he trusts me, and he isn't the least bit jealous.

Well, the employes at my office recently got up a bowling team, and since I am a pretty good bowler, I joined. The other married bowlers always come alone and go home alone, and their spouses never come to "watch" them.

Ben and I each drive our own cars, but on my bowling night, Ben drives me to work. I go to the bowling alley with a co-worker, then Ben calls for me at the alley. He always comes so early that it's right at the beginning of the game, so he "waits" for me. While he waits, he watches every move I make. This affects my game and I go to pieces and can't bowl. Once Ben had car trouble and didn't get there until after the game, and that was the only time I bowled my usual game, and our team won.

I can't tell Ben not to come so early or he'll think I'm hiding something. Yet when he watches me bowl I am so bad the team suffers. Please, please help me.

BOWLING BLUES

DEAR BLUES: Don't pussyfoot around. Tell Ben that you cannot bowl your best when he is watching you, so to please do you, and the team, a favor and come AFTER the game.

Casualties Decrease Last Week

SAIGON (AP) — Combat casualties among American and enemy forces decreased again last week, the U.S. Command reported, continuing to reflect the lull in major ground fighting in the Vietnam war.

The number of South Vietnamese troops reported killed increased slightly over the total for the week before, while the number of wounded decreased.

The U.S. Command said 171 Americans were killed in action last week, compared with 193 a week earlier. The number of wounded last week was 1,050, down slightly from 1,066 the week before. Of the wounded last week, 563 required hospitalization.

The American command reported 899 of the enemy killed last week, the lowest weekly total reported since the first week of January 1967. But the enemy casualty total each week is usually increased considerably in the following week's report as ground sweeps turn up more bodies.

The South Vietnamese command said 250 government soldiers were killed last week compared with 243 a week earlier. The wounded totaled 738, there were 781 the previous week. The number of missing or captured last week was 10, compared with 25 the previous week.

The U.S. Command said the casualty report raised to 26,461 the number of Americans killed in action in Vietnam from Jan. 1, 1961, through Aug. 3, while the total wounded rose to 166,180. The command said 1,187 Americans are missing in action.

Truck Hits Pole

Some damage was done to city property about 10:45 Wednesday morning when a U. S. Government panel truck hit a lamp pole at the corner of Twenty-sixth Street and Avenue S. The pole was destroyed and some shrubbery was damaged. The Snyder Police investigated the accident.

A Shau Valley Invaded By Allies

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — American and South Vietnamese troops have invaded the A Shau Valley for the second time in three and a half months, disrupting the major Communist supply base again as part of their campaign to blunt the big enemy offensive expected in the next month or so.

A fleet of 200 helicopters landed more than 3,000 soldiers of the U.S. 101st Air Cavalry Division and the Vietnamese 1st Infantry Division in the valley in the northern part of South Vietnam Sunday and Monday, but announcement of the operation was withheld until today for security reasons.

The U.S. Command in Saigon said the allied force has met with "minimal resistance" so far. Probably warned by the heavy air activity that preceded the invasion, the North Vietnamese presumably pulled back across the nearby Laotian border.

U.S. headquarters reported that 15 North Vietnamese troops had been killed in the first four days of the operation. U.S. losses were two dead and 22 wounded, while eight South Vietnamese were killed and 18 wounded.

Three helicopter gunships were shot down during the first minutes of the massive assault by 200 troop-carrying helicopters and their escorts. One crashed and burned, killing a crewman and injuring three others, and heavy barrages that destroyed or damaged 129 U.S. helicopters. But the antiaircraft fire during the first invasion of the valley was scanty compared to that in April.

File Damage Suit In Copter Crash

FORT WORTH (AP) — A $502,000 damage suit has been filed in federal district court here against Mobil Oil Corp. and Bell Aerosppace Corp.

The suit was filed by Mrs. Francis Higginbotham of Vermillion Parish, La., and her daughter, Donna Joyce, 11.

They alleged negligence in the helicopter crash last year that killed Mrs. Higginbotham's husband, Marshall Higginbotham, 43, and three other persons.

They said in the suit that a Bell Jet Ranger helicopter operated by Mobil crashed in the Gulf of Mexico several miles from an oil platform south-southwest of Morgan City, La.

Farmer's Body Found In Field

COOPER, Tex. (AP) — The body of missing W. H. Wright, 88, was found near here Wednesday during an air-ground search.

More than 100 Delta County residents combed Wright's farm after he was reported missing. A helicopter crew and Mike Toon, 16, of Cooper, who was on the ground, spotted the body in a cottonfield after a 12-hour search.

A justice of the peace ruled it a natural death.

Firemen Called Out

Snyder Firemen answered two calls Wednesday evening and early Thursday morning. The first run was made at 7:10 p.m. yesterday to a grass fire at 201 Thirty-ninth Street. The other run, at 2 a.m. today, was to an automobile fire at 1600 Thirtieth Street. The 1963 Chevrolet, owned by James E. Simmons, suffered some damage to the interior and minor damage to the engine.

The Bethel Baptist Training Union group one, two and three, held their quarterly social Tuesday evening at Towle Park pavilion.

Bro. Virgil Mott led opening prayer, then challenged the group to increase their church activities 10 percent for the new quarter.

Audine McCann, a visitor, played the accordian and sang two songs. E. E. Pinkerton gave a talk taken from the book of Matthew and led in testamonial exercise. Miss McCann, Etta Barry, also a visitor, and Bro. Mott sang a special.

Pluma Chunn, chairman of entertainment committee, presented E. E. Pinkerton with two certificates from his friends in appreciation for the Christian work he is doing in Snyder, including work in his church and other churches.

Red and yellow watermelons were enjoyed by the following: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pinkerton, Rev. and Mrs. Mott, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walls, Mrs. Essie Orms, Mrs. Pluma Chunn, Mrs. G. A. Newton, Mrs. McIver, Mr. Tom Tatum, Mrs. Audine McCain, Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, Mrs. Lois Fulghum and Mrs. Etta Barry.

Celery With Mushrooms

3 tablespoons butter
2 medium onions (peeled, quartered and cut into thin strips to make about 1 cup)
1 can (8 ounces broiled mushrooms, drained
1 chicken bouillon cube
1 cup boiling water
3 cups thinly sliced celery

In an 8-inch skillet over low heat melt the butter; add onion and cook, stirring often, until golden; mix in mushrooms and cook a few minutes to blend flavors; set aside. In a medium saucepan, dissolve bouillon cube in water; add celery; bring to a boil; cover and boil gently until celery is tender-crisp — 8 to 10 minutes. Drain off liquid — save it, if you like, to add to a soup or sauce. To celery, add mushroom - onion mixture and reheat. Makes 6 servings.

Note: Use a swivel - blade vegetable peeler to remove coarse strings from outer surface of celery ribs before slicing into crescents.

Kidnaping Fails To Force Compromise By Uruguay

By ISAAC A. LEVI
Associated Press Writer

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — The Uruguayan government says it won't compromise with pro-Peking terrorists who kidnaped a key official in an attempt to force a softening of President Jorge Pacheco Areco's austerity program.

The largest manhunt in the country's history was under way for Dr. Ulises Pereira Reverbel, head of the state electric and telephone company, and a male secretary. They were kidnaped Wednesday by four members of the Tupamaro National Liberation Front. Armed with machine guns, the kidnapers wounded Pereira's chauffeur and another secretary.

Reverbel, 48, a wealthy cattle rancher, lawyer and close adviser to the president, had been a strong advocate of Pacheco's crackdown on labor agitation and his program of belt tightening to check inflation.

A leaflet distributed by the front said Reverbel was kidnaped "as a warning that nothing will remain unpunished and that popular justice will be exercised through the most convenient channels."

The leaflet accused Pacheco of "having sold our country to North American capital through the International Monetary Fund and through the meddling of neighboring dictatorship."

A government spokesman, who described the front as a Peking Communist group, said: "The government will not deal with delinquents—they are extremist elements who are out to intimidate but will not succeed."

Authorities said Reverbel's chauffeur identified two of the terrorists, saying they were Jorge Amilcar Llueveras, 38, a minor union leader, and Eloises Rivero Cedres, 30, a former Socialist militant. Both are known in left-wing circles as Peking Communists.

Another Planning Session Is Slated

Another planning meeting for Operation Teen Challenge is scheduled for tonight. Those interested in helping with the Youth Crusade, which will be Aug. 15-16 in the Scurry County Coliseum, are asked to meet at 6:30 in the Towle Park Barn.

Status Quo Is Goal Of Green Bay Coach

By BOB GREENE
Associaed Press Sports Writer

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Phil Bengtson is a man on the spot.

For the new Green Bay Packers' coach, there seems to be only one way to go, and that's down. But the sages who are predicting the demise of the Packers aren't taking into consideration Bengtsons philosophy. He believes in the status quo.

"We won't be satisfied with anything less than No. 4," Bengtson says, referring to the Packers' three consecutive National Football League championships.

Vince Lombardi stepped out of the coaching post after leading the Packers to six NFL titles and to two consecutive Super Bowl crowns. In nine years, Lombardi's teams won 141 games, lost 39 and tied four, including both preseason and postseason clashes.

Bengtson, who came to Green Bay with Lombardi as his top assistant, has been the quiet man in the background who has shaped the vaunted Packer defense. Last season, the Pack led the NFL in seven defensive categories, not to mention over-all team defense.

Willie Davis, 6-foot-3 and 245 pounds, and Lionel Aldridge, 6-4 by 245, anchor the defensive line. Ron Kostelnik at 6-4, 240, and Henry Jordan, 6-3, 250, provide an agile, mobile and hostile interior.

Top draft choice Fred Carr 6-5, 240, will get a shot at tight end.

The linebackers, considered the finest trio in football, are Dave Robinson, 6-3 and 245; Ray Nitschke, 6-3, 240, and Lee Roy Caffey, 6-3, 250.

Both Herb Adderly, 6-1, 210 starting his eighth year and six-year veteran Bob Jeter, 6-1, 205, have been All-Pro picks at cornerback. Willie Wood, 5-10, 190, is another All-NFL performer at safety, aided by five-year veteran Tom Brown, 6-1, 190.

Offensively, the Packers are just as strong.

Quarterback Bart Starr has no peers. Even in what admittedly was an off-year in 1967, Starr completed 54.8 per cent of his passes for 1,823 yards and nine touchdowns.

In last week's College All-Star Game, Starr hit 17-of-23, including 10 in a row, and was "unusually sharp," according to Bengtson.

When injuries slowed the former Alabama star, 13-year vet Zeke Bratkowski came off the bench and did his ususal competent job.

With super back Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor no longer around, super brats Donny Anderson, 6-3, 215, and Jim Grabowski, 6-2, 220, took up the slack. Grabowski and running back Elijah Pitts, 6-1, 205, showed no signs of last year's injuries in the All-Star contest.

Bengtson can also call on fullbacks Boen Wilson and Chuck Mercein and speedster Travis Williams, better known as The Road Runner. Last season, Williams returned four kickoffs for touchdowns, including two against the Cleveland Browns in a single quarter.

Up front, where it counts, Bob Hyland, 6-5, 250, and Ken Bowman, 6-3, 235 will battle it out for the center spot. Whoever wins will be flanked by All-Pro Jerry Kramer 6-3, 245, and Gale Gillingham, 6-3 by 255, at guards. Bill Lueck, 6-3, 235, also a first-round draft pick is bidding for a backup spot at guard.

The tackle positions will be manned by Bob Skoronski, 6-3, 250, and 12-year veteran Forrest Gregg, 6-4, 250.

If Starr chooses to move through the air, he can utilize the talents of veteran split end Boyd Dowler, 6-5, 230; flanker Carroll Dale, 6-2, 200; their replacement, Bob Long, 6-3, 190 or tight end Marv Fleming.

Then there's the Packer pride that intangible that separates champions from second-place finishers.

"There's only one way to go," Bengtson says. "Four in a row. It's unheard of, but I see no reason why we can't continue winning."

Cowboys Taper Off; Prepare For 49ers

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Dallas Cowboy players breathed a sigh of relief Wednesday. Coach Tom Landry announced that the two-a-day workouts are over.

The Cowboys will now start tapering off in preparation for their pre-season game Sunday with the San Francisco 49ers.

However, two players will not be suiting up for the game. Center Dave Manders is still recovering from a foot infection and guard Leon Donohue has not recovered fully from an off-season knee operation.

Landry said Wednesday's drill was a good one and quarterback Don Meredith "continues to look very god throwing." He expects Meredith and Jerry Rhome to split the signal-calling duties Sunday.

Race Track Suspends Six Persons

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Four trainers and two jockeys have been suspended dy the Evangeline Downs stewards as a result of a state police raid on the horse race track here July 13.

A brief announcement Wednesday said only that suspension was under Louisiana State Racing Commission regulations. The stewards declined further comment.

The regulation cited bars possession of "any prohibit drugs, hypodermic syringes or needles."

Jockeys suspended were Joe Adams of Arlington, Tex., and Garland Godfrey of Bryan, Tex.

The trainers: James A. Beall, Broken Arrow, Okla.; Dan Dettwiler, Slidel, La.; Roland Daigrepont, New Orleans, and William L. Fox, Grand Coteau, La.

Trainer Thomas John Arhopulos of Bryan Tex., also was suspended, pending his appearance before the stewards.

The suspensions were referred to the State Racing Commission for any further action. The cases are expected to be reviewed at an Aug. 16 meeting.

Police raiders swept through the restricted barn area of the track in the early morning hours, arresting five persons on charges of vagrancy and confiscating syringes, hypodermic needles and unidentified drugs.

Just what drugs were involved remains secret. The stewards wouldn't say. And State Police Supt. Thomas Burbank said only that officers confiscated 26 syringes, 31 needles and 140 vials of "different types of fluids."

BIG HAUL — V. O. Rannefeld and Frank Beigh are shown with some of the haul they made as a team in the bass tourname held recently at Lake J. B. Thomas. The largest fish seen here weighed 5 punds, 1 ounce, and took second place. The Snyder Bass Club, which sponsored e tourney, will hold its regulalr meeting at 7:30 tonight in the Texas Electric dontown office.

Fast Way To Lose Pounds

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

In a crash diet, the New York Jets dropped 330 pounds in one day—and all of them belonged to Sherman Plunkett.

The rotund offensive tackle had played in every game — 70 of them — in the Jets' history in the American Football League but he ate himself out of 71.

"We just had to let him go," Coach Weeb Eubank said of the 34-year-old, 11-year pro football veteran who carries his 330 pounds over a 6 foot 2 frame. "He got too far out of shape.

"Sherman was one of the greatest offensive linemen I've ever coached," added Eubank, who coached Plunkett at Baltimore in the National League. "He rivals Jim Parker, Lou Rymkus and Winston Hill."

But Eubank still ordered Plunkett to report to training camp at 300 pounds. Plunkett, however, came in at 337 and managed to lose only seven pounds and his starting job to 6-6, 270-pound rookie Sam Walton of East Texas State.

Plunkett asked to be placed on waivers and is hopeful he can catch on with another team.

Another big offensive tackle, Walt Rock of San Francisco of the NFL, is having geographical problems.

The 6-5, 265-pounder with five years in the league said he might retire at the age of 26 unless he is traded to Baltimore or Washington.

Rock said he has taken over his late father-in-law's prosperous garage door business on the East Coast, but is bound to the 49ers by the option clause of a two-year contract he signed in 1966.

He said that the 49ers told him before he signed they would work out a trade, but now say Washington is "offering only trash for me."

"I read that Otto Graham, the Washington general manager, says he would like to have me but that the 49ers want too much for me.

"I am not a holdout and I am not 'playing' out my option because you can not 'sit' out the option year; you have to 'play' it out by joining the team. I had to 'retire.'"

Palmer Sets Out To Defend Title

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Arnold Palmer set out today to break the shackles of a long slump as firing opened in the first round of the $125,000 American Golf Classic.

The muscular Pennsylvanian and 127 other pros and three anateurs challenged the back-breaking Firestone Country Club course. The par-70 Firestone layout, rated one of the best in the world, measures 7,180 yards.

Palmer, golf's all-time leading money winner, has only one victory to show this year on the long tour. He won the Bob Hope Classic last winter and has been up and down since.

The millionaire golfer has a lot going for him here. The defending Classic champion, he captured this event twice. In four other Classics, he finished second twice, third once and fourth in 1961.

Palmer waited out a mid-afternoon thunderstorm Wednesday before touring the monster course in a hurried practice round.

"Not too good," he said afterward about his tuneup.

But win or lose, Arnie's Army stays solidly loyal as Palmer continues to draw the large gallery and the autograph seekers.

Another crowd-pleaser expected to be in hot contention was Jack Nicklaus, the Columbus, Ohio, bomber who won the Western Open last weekend in Chicago, his first tour triumph in 9½ months.

Nicklaus, who said he was pleased with his practice round, hasn't had much luck in the Classic. His best showing was a tie for third place in 1962, the year Palmer was winining his first title here.

Other threats were leading money winner Tom Weiskopf, who already has won me than $140,000; towering Geon Archer, U.S. Open king Leerevino; Miller Barber; PGA ampion Julius Boros, and Al Gberger, who won here in 1965 d again in 1966 when the FA was staged at Firestone.

Among the notables absent were No. 2 money winr Billy Casper, British Op titlist Gary Player and Cifornian Dave Stockton.

Rookies Don't Know AboutHomerFamine

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Keough and Dave Campbell obviously haven't been around long enough to adjust to 1968's Great Hit Famine.

Keough of Oklland and Campbell of Detroit had a total of six major league at bats between them before Wednesday—all of them belonging to the Tiger infielder.

Today they both have their home runs and Keough, fourth member of Oakland's Arizona State Alumni Association, also has a small spot in baseball's record book.

Keough, called up from the minor leagues earlier this week, became the 37th player to hit a homer in his first big league at bat—the 10th one to do it as a pinch hitter—and helped Oakland defeat the New York Yankees 4-3 in the second game of a Wednesday doubleheader. New York took the opener 3-0.

Campbell, playing in his sixth game, and first as a starter for the Tigers, tagged his first major league hit—a homer naturally—as Detroit defeated Cleveland 6-1.

Elsewhere in the American League Wednesday, Boston clipped Chicago 3-2, California dropped Washington 4-2 and Baltimore swept a doubleheader from Minnesota 3-0 and 9-6. Detroit also completed a 5-2 victory over Cleveland in a game suspended after eight innings Tuesday night.

In the National League, San Francisco nipped Philadelphia 4-3, Houston edged New York 4-3, Atlanta pounded Chicago 10-2, St. Louis topped Cincinnati 3-1 and Los Angeles beat Pittsburgh 6-2.

Keough, like teammates Rick Monday, Sal Bando and Reggies Jackson, came to the A's off the Arizona State campus, and was batting .303 at Birmingham of the Southern League when Oakland sold Floyd Robinson to Boston last week and Keough came up.

He got his first major league swing in the eighth inning of the second game with Oakland trailing 3-2 and tagged a Lindy McDaniel pitch into Yankee Stadium's right field seats. That tied the score and two innings later, Jackson, not to be outdone by his old school chum, singled Oakland's winning run home.

In the rain-delayed opener, Mel Stottlemyre won his 15th on a six-hitter with Joe Pepitone's two-run homer providing all the offense he needed.

Campbell's first homer was somewhat less dramatic than Keough's. It came in the eighth inning with the Tigers already enjoying a 4-1 edge.

Detroit packed three runs in the first inning—two of them on Bill Freehan's doube. Earl Wilson, with late-inning help from Daryl Patterson, won his 10th and Willie Horton clubbed his 27th home run.

Reliever John Wyatt retired the Indians in the ninth inning of the suspended game to nail down the 5-2 victory.

Ken Harrelson whacked his 29th homer—a two-run shot that led Boston past Chicago. The blow keyed a three-run first inning for the Red Sox and gave Dick Ellsworth enough working room for his 11th victory.

Harrelson, taking dead aim at the Triple Crown, now leads the American League in batting with a .297 mark, in runs batted in with 93 and is second only to Washington's Frank Howard in homers.

Howard smashed his 32nd but it couldn't prevent California from taking Washington. Chuck Hinton, an ex-Senator, did most of the damage, doubling and scoring in the fifth inning and then singling the tie-breaking run home in the seventh after twice failing to sacrifice.

Jim Hardin's six-hitter shut out Minnesota in the first game of Baltimore's doubleheader against the Twins with homers by Curt Blefary and Frank Robinson providing the muscle.

In the nightcap, the Orioles just outlasted the Twins with Robinson coming off the bench to touch off a pair of three-run Baltimore rallies. Paul Blair's two-run pinch single and a two-run double by Brooks Robinson keyed the Baltimore comeback.

Kidnaping Fails To Force Compromise By Uruguay

By ISAAC A. LEVI
Associated Press Writer

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — The Uruguayan government says it won't compromise with pro-Peking terrorists who kidnaped a key official in an attempt to force a softening of President Jorge Pacheco Areco's austerity program.

The largest manhunt in the country's history was under way for Dr. Ulises Pereira Reverbel, head of the state electric and telephone company, and a male secretary. They were kidnaped Wednesday by four members of the Tupamaro National Liberation Front. Armed with machine guns, the kidnapers wounded Pereira's chauffeur and another secretary.

Reverbel, 48, a wealthy cattle rancher, lawyer and close adviser to the president, had been a strong advocate of Pacheco's crackdown on labor agitation and his program of belt tightening to check inflation.

A leaflet distributed by the front said Reverbel was kidnaped "as a warning that nothing will remain unpunished and that popular justice will be exercised through the most convenient channels."

The leaflet accused Pacheco of "having sold our country to North American capital through the International Monetary Fund and through the meddling of neighboring dictatorships."

A government spokesman, who described the front as a Peking Communist group, said "The government will not deal with delinquents—they are extremist elements who are out to intimidate but will not succeed."

Authorities said Reverbel's chauffeur identified two of the terrorists, saying they were Jorge Amilcar Llueveras, 38, a minor union leader, and Eloises Rivero Cedres, 30, a former Socialist militant. Both are known in left-wing circles as Peking Communists.

Another Planning Session Is Slated

Another planning meeting for Operation Teen Challenge is scheduled for tonight. Those interested in helping with the Youth Crusade, which will be Aug. 15-16 in the Scurry County Coliseum, are asked to meet at 6:30 in the Towle Park Barn.

Status Quo Is Goal Of Green Bay Coach

By BOB GREENE
Associated Press Sports Writer

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Phil Bengtson is a man on the spot.

For the new Green Bay Packers' coach, there seems to be only one way to go, and that's down. But the sages who are predicting the demise of the Packers aren't taking into consideration Bengtsons philosophy. He believes in the status quo.

We won't be satisfied with anything less than No. 4," Bengtson says, referring to the Packers' three consecutive National Football League championships.

Vince Lombardi stepped out of the coaching post after leading the Packers to six NFL titles and to two consecutive Super Bowl crowns. In nine years, Lombardi's teams won 141 games, lost 39 and tied four, including both preseason and postseason clashes.

Bengtson, who came to Green Bay with Lombardi as his top assistant, has been the quiet mag in the background who has shaped the vaunted Packer defense. Last season, the Pack led the NFL in seven defensive categories, not to mention over-all team defense.

Willie Davis, 6-foot-3 and 245 pounds, and Lionel Aldridge, 6-4 by 245, anchor the defensive line. Ron Kostelnik at 6-4, 240, and Henry Jordan, 6-3, 250, provide an agile, mobile and hostile interior.

Top draft choice Fred Carr 6-5, 240, will get a shot at tight end.

The linebackers, considered the finest trio in football, are Dave Robinson, 6-3, and 245; Ray Nitschke, 6-3, 240, and Lee Roy Caffey, 6-3, 250.

Both Herb Adderly, 6-1, 210 starting his eighth year and six-year veteran Bob Jeter, 6-1, 205, have been All-Pro picks at cornerback. Willie Wood, 5-10, 190, is another All-NFL performer at safety, aided by five-year veteran Tom Brown, 6-1, 190.

Offensively, the Packers are just as strong.

Quarterback Bart Starr has no peers. Even in what admittedly was an off-year in 1967, Starr completed 54.8 per cent of his passes for 1,823 yards and nine touchdowns.

In last week's College All-Star Game, Starr hit 17-of-22, including 10 in a row, and was "unusually sharp," according to Bengtson.

When injuries slowed the former Alabama star, 13-year vet Zeke Bratkowski came off the bench and did his usual competent job.

With super back Paul Hornung still on the sidelines, Bengtson says, "Four in a row around, Super brats Donny Anderson, 6-2, 215, and Jim Grabowski, 6-2, 220, look up the slack. Grabowski and running back Elijah Pitts, 6-1, 205, showed no signs of last year's injuries in the All-Star contest.

Bengtson can also call on fullbacks Ben Wilson and Chuck Mercein and speedster Travis Williams, better known as The Road Runner. Last season, Williams returned four kickoffs for touchdowns, including two against the Cleveland Browns in a single quarter.

Up front, where it counts, Bob Hyland, 6-3, 250, and Ken Bowman, 6-2, 255, will battle it out for the center spot. Whoever wins will be flanked by All-Pro Jerry Kramer, 6-3, 245, and Gale Gillingham, 6-3 by 255, at guards. Bill Lueck, 6-3, 235, also a first-round draft pick is bidding for a backup spot at guard.

The tackle positions will be manned by Bob Skoronski, 6-3, 250, and 12-year veteran Forrest Gregg, 6-4, 250.

If Starr chooses to move through the air, he can utilize the talents of veteran split end Boyd Dowler, 6-5, 230, flanker Carroll Dale, 6-2, 200, their replacement, Bob Long, 6-5, 190 or tight end Mary Fleming.

Then there's the Packer pride that intangible that separates champions from second-place finishers.

"There's only one way to go," Bengtson says. "Four in a row, that's unheard of, but I see no reason why we can't continue winning."

Cowboys Taper Off: Prepare For 49ers

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Dallas Cowboy players breathed a sigh of relief Wednesday. Coach Tom Landry announced that the two-a-day workouts are over.

The Cowboys will now start tapering off in preparation for their pre-season game Sunday with the San Francisco 49ers.

However, two players will not be suiting up for the game. Center Dave Manders is still recovering from a foot infection and guard Leon Donohue has not recovered fully from an off-season knee operation.

Landry said Wednesday's drill was a good one and quarterback Don Meredith "continues to look very good throwing." He expects Meredith and Jerry Rhome to split the signal-calling duties Sunday.

Race Track Suspends Six Persons

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Four trainers and two jockeys have been suspended by the Evangeline Downs stewards as a result of a state police raid on the horse race track here July 13.

A brief announcement Wednesday said only that suspension was under Louisiana State Racing Commission regulations. The stewards declined further comment.

The regulation cited bars possession of "any prohibited drugs, hypodermic syringes or needles."

Jockeys suspended were Joe Adams of Arlington, Tex., and Garland Godfrey of Bryan, Tex.

The trainers: James A. Beall, Broken Arrow, Okla.; Dan Detwiler, Slidell, La.; Roland Dugrepont, New Orleans, and William L. Fox, Grand Coteau, La.

Trainer Thomas John Arhopalos of Bryan, Tex., also was suspended, pending his appearance before the stewards.

The suspensions were referred to the State Racing Commission for any further action. The cases are expected to be reviewed at an Aug. 16 meeting.

Police raiders swept through the restricted barn area of the track in the early morning hours, arresting five persons on charges of vagrancy and confiscating syringes, hypodermic needles and unidentified drugs.

Just what drugs were involved remains secret. The stewards wouldn't say. And State Police Supt. Thomas Burbank said only that officers confiscated 28 syringes, 31 needles and 140 vials of "different types of fluids."

BIG HAUL — V. O. Rannefeld and Frank Beights are shown with some of the haul they made as a team in the bass tournament held recently at Lake J. B. Thomas. The largest fish seen here weighed 5 pounds, 1 ounce, and took second place. The Snyder Bass Club, which sponsored the tourney, will hold its regulalr meeting at 7:30 tonight in the Texas Electric downtown office.

Fast Way To Lose Pounds

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

In a crash diet, the New York Jets dropped 330 pounds in one day—and all of them belonged to Sherman Plunkett.

The rotund offensive tackle had played in every game — 70 of them — in the Jets' history in the American Football League but he ate himself out of 71.

"We just had to let him go," Coach Weeb Eubank said of the 34-year-old, 11-year pro football veteran who carries his 330 pounds over a 6 foot 2 frame. "He got too far out of shape.

"Sherman was one of the greatest offensive linemen I've ever coached," added Eubank, who coached Plunkett at Baltimore in the National League. "He rivals Jim Parker, Lou Rymkus and Winston Hill."

But Eubank still ordered Plunkett to report to training camp at 300 pounds. Plunkett, however, came in at 337 and managed to lose only seven pounds and his starting job to 6-6, 270-pound rookie Sam Walton of East Texas State.

Plunkett asked to be placed on waivers and is hopeful he can catch on with another team.

Another big offensive tackle, Walt Rock of San Francisco of the NFL, is having geographical problems.

The 6-5, 265-pounder with five years in the league said he might retire at the age of 26 unless he is traded to Baltimore or Washington.

Rock said he has taken over his late father-in-law's prosperous garage door business on the East Coast, but is bound to the 49ers by the option clause of a two-year contract he signed in 1966.

He said that the 49ers told him before he signed they would work out a trade, but now say Washington is "offering only trash for me."

"I read that Otto Graham, the Washington general manager, says he would like to have me but that the 49ers want too much for me.

"I am not a holdout and I am not 'playing' out my option because you can not 'sit' out the option year; you have to 'play' it out by joining the team. I had to 'retire.'"

But win or lose, Arnie's Army stays solidly loyal as Palmer continues to draw the large gallery and the autograph seekers.

Another crowd-pleaser expected to be in hot contention was Jack Nicklaus, the Columbus, Ohio, bomber who won the Western Open last weekend in Chicago, his first tour triumph in 9½ months.

Nicklaus, who said he was pleased with his practice round, hasn't had much luck in the Classic. His best showing was a tie for third place in 1962, the year Palmer was winning his first title here.

Other threats were leading money winner Tom Weiskopf, who already has won more than $140,000; towering George Archer, U.S. Open king Lee Trevino, Miller Barber, PGA champion Julius Boros, and Al Geiberger, who won here in 1965 and again in 1966 when the PGA was staged at Firestone.

Among the notables absent were No. 2 money winner Billy Casper, British Open titlist Gary Player and Californian Dave Stockton.

Rookies Don't Know About Homer Famine

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Keough and Dave Campbell obviously haven't been around long enough to adjust to 1968's Great Hit Famine.

Keough of Oakland and Campbell of Detroit had a total of six major league at bats between them before Wednesday—all of them belonging to the Tiger infielder.

Today they both have their home runs and Keough, fourth member of Oakland's Arizona State Alumni Association, also has a small spot in baseball's record book.

Keough, called up from the minor leagues earlier this week, became the 37th player to hit a homer in his first big league at bat—the 10th one to do it as a pinch hitter—and helped Oakland defeat the New York Yankees 4-3 in the second game of a Wednesday doubleheader. New York took the opener 3-0.

Campbell, playing in his sixth game, and first as a starter for the Tigers, tagged his first major league hit—a homer naturally—as Detroit defeated Cleveland 6-1.

Elsewhere in the American League Wednesday, Boston clipped Chicago 3-2, California dropped Washington 4-2 and Baltimore swept a doubleheader from Minnesota 3-0 and 9-6. Detroit also completed a 5-2 victory over Cleveland in a game suspended after eight innings Tuesday night.

In the National League, San Francisco nipped Philadelphia 4-3, Houston edged New York 4-3, Atlanta pounded Chicago 10-2, St. Louis topped Cincinnati 3-1 and Los Angeles beat Pittsburgh 6-2.

Keough, like teammates Rick Monday, Sal Bando and Reggies Jackson, came to the A's off the Arizona State campus, and was batting .303 at Birmingham of the Southern League when Oakland sold Floyd Robinson to Boston last week and Keough came up.

He got his first major league swing in the eighth inning of the second game with Oakland trailing 3-2 and tagged a Lindy McDaniel pitch into Yankee Stadium's right field seats. That tied the score and two innings later, Jackson, not to be outdone by his old school chum, singled Oakland's winning run home.

In the rain-delayed opener, Mel Stottlemyre won his 15th on a six-hitter with Joe Pepitone's two-run homer providing all the offense he needed.

Campbell's first homer was somewhat less dramatic than Keough's. It came in the eighth inning with the Tigers already enjoying a 4-1 edge.

Detroit packed three runs in the first inning—two of them on Bill Freehan's double. Earl Wilson, with late-inning help from Daryl Patterson, won his 10th and Willie Horton clubbed his 27th home run.

Reliever John Wyatt retired the Indians in the ninth inning of the suspended game to nail down the 3-2 victory.

Ken Harrelson whacked his 28th homer—a two-run shot that led Boston past Chicago. The blow keyed a three-run first inning for the Red Sox and gave Dick Ellsworth enough working room for his 11th victory.

Harrelson, taking dead aim at the Triple Crown, now leads the American League in batting with a .297 mark, in runs batted in with 83 and is second only to Washington's Frank Howard in homers.

Howard smashed his 32nd but it couldn't prevent California from taking Washington. Chuck Hinton, an ex-Senator, did most of the damage, doubling and scoring in the fifth inning and then singling the tie-breaking run home in the seventh after twice failing to sacrifice.

Jim Hardin's six-hitter shut out Minnesota in the first game of Baltimore's doubleheader against the Twins with homers by Curt Blefary and Frank Robinson providing the muscle.

In the nightcap, the Orioles just outlasted the Twins with Robinson coming off the bench to touch off a pair of three-run Baltimore rallies. Paul Blair's two-run pinch single and a two-run double by Brooks Robinson keyed the Baltimore comeback.

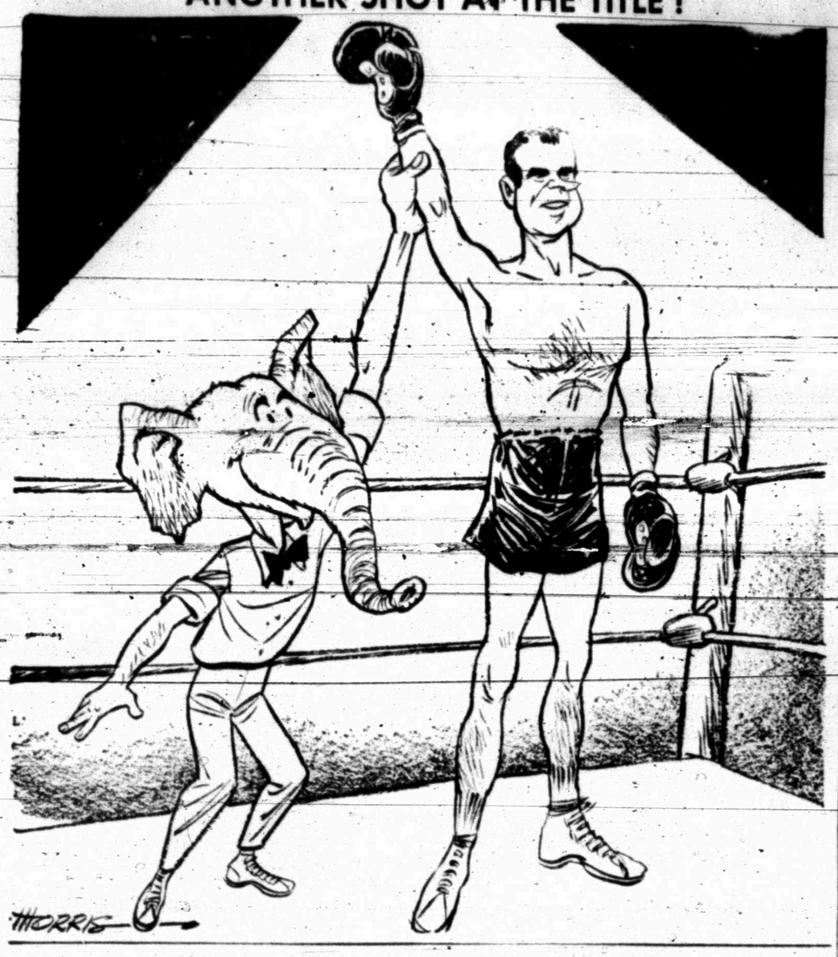
ANOTHER SHOT AT THE TITLE!



Sound Of Booming Economy Helps Muffle Inflation Noise

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Nothing is more certain to cause normally calm men to lose their breath, their rationality and control of their blood pressure than the subject of inflation or, as some say, the debasement of currency.

Tell a man with two children that today he must earn $14,282 a year to equal the purchasing power of $5,000 in 1939 and the animal response is immediate, ranging in pitch from a bleat to a roar.

This quivering enemy—victim of inflation might actually become irrational to learn, as the First National City Bank reported this week, that the annual rate or dollar depreciation last year was 2.7 per cent, a rate greater than that of Britain, France and Germany, and Iran and Greece as well.

To strike this man dumb, however, one need only inform him that the currency showing the least depreciation in the past 10 years, according to First National City, is not the dollar but the quetzal of Guatemala.

Since 1957 the quetzal reportedly has dropped in value just one-tenth of one per cent a year, or in dollar equivalent, just one penny in 10 years. The dollar has shrunk 16 cents in that time.

And, difficult as it is to believe, the First National City charts also show that the El Salcador colon, Venezuela Bolivar and Thailand both have maintained their values better than the dollar.

Such statistics as these give fits to inflation-frantic people. And even Dr. Franz Pick, a money and gold expert whose continental accent becomes heavy with denunciation when he speaks of the subject, refers to the U.S. dollarette.

Somehow, though, the figures just don't add up.

Seeking comfort, some slight relief was found in looking at the very worst, even though somebody else's headache doesn't necessarily cure the pain in another man's head.

In Brazil, to illustrate, 100 centavos of the year 1957 are now worth two centavos. In Argentina, 100 centavos in 10 years have been reduced to the purchasing power of six. And in Chile, 100 centesimos now get you only 11.

But it still doesn't seem right. Raw figures can lie, especially when the raw figures themselves are little more than lies to begin with.

The $5,000-a-year man of 1939 isn't nearly three times as badly off today, even though he must earn $14,282. The fact is, he is earning it—and more. He's much better off.

In addition, all that extra money isn't going into the filling of basic needs. A lot more of it is going to pay for what the man of 1939 couldn't aspire to: more education, better health care, pensions, a second car, television, hi-fi.

In other words, depreciation of currency doesn't always mean a reduction in take-home pay, not if the take-home pay is rising faster than inflation, as it has recently in the United States.

Still the figures do look puzzling, and so First National City was queried. And from there it was determined that the statistics are, at best, the only figures available of a rather bad lot.

For one thing, the statistics on cost of living in industrial countries and less well developed nations are hardly comparable at all. The figure for Saudi Arabia, in fact, looked too good to be true. First National City tossed it out.

It seems that the most accurate statistics generally are maintained by the industrial nations. In some small countries, for example, cost of living indexes are really based on surveys made years ago and not updated for changes in living habits. They could have more inflation than they admit.

The figures also might be distorted by the simplicity of the standard of living, which admits of no change, or by the fixing of prices on the one major crop, or simply, by stagnation of the economy at a low standard of living.

An absence of inflation in a country with a bogged-down economy is nothing to brag about. And though the depreciation of money and inflation are something to holler about, it's nice to know that the noise is muffled a bit by the sound of a booming economy.

Junior Editors Quiz on ARCTIC ANIMALS

QUESTION: How can animals survive in the frozen Antarctic and Arctic?

* * *

ANSWER: The main part of Antarctica is a land mass almost completely covered with ice and snow. It is so cold that there are no animals in the inland parts and almost no plant life. Along the sea coast it is different, for the Antarctic Ocean is rich in the minute plant and animal life called plankton, on which fish feed. Penguins and certain sea birds subsist on the fish, and huge whales live on plankton — the warm-blooded animals keep warm because they are protected by layers of oily blubber. By contrast, most of the Arctic is pack ice floating over the Arctic Ocean. The cold is less severe there. Here, too, there is plankton for fish and whales to use for food. Many seals feed on the fish, and big, white, polar bears live on the seals. In the land part of the Arctic, there is enough vegetation to supply food for reindeer, caribou and musk oxen. Smaller animals are the Arctic hare and lemming; various predators live by catching the plant eaters. All these animals are kept warm by layers of blubber or heavy fur. In summer, many birds nest in the Arctic.

It's Dreams That Make A Man Happy

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) It isn't what a man gets or does that makes him happy—it's what he dreams of getting or doing.

When a man runs out of goals in this world he usually runs out of breath shortly thereafter. Rust clogs him, ennui mows him down.

No matter how fruitless, inappropriate or downright foolish a dream may be, so long as it attracts that person's interest it keeps him alive. Most day-dreams, in fact, are mock heroic. In his heart of hearts the most rut-bound man is always galloping off with the Three Musketeers on missions of danger and adventure.

For example, I find in making a rollcall of my own frustrated daydreams, I have yet to—

Stun a bully with a karate chop.

Play "kneesy under the table" with Kim Novak.

Bulldog a steer or ride a bucking horse in a rodeo.

Buy a kitchen sink garbage grinder.

Belly up to the bar in the Ritz Hotel in Paris and ask the bartender whom he really liked better—F. Scott Fitzgerald or Ernest Hemingway.

Eat a pickled eel or a tiger steak.

Defeat Charles de Gaulle in a game of Indian hand wrestling.

Cry "mush!" to a dog sled team as a pack of arctic wolves closed in silently from behind.

Get a royal flush in a poker game when there was more than 68 cents in the pot.

Lead an elephant into a subway car during the morning rush hour—and then sit down in its lap.

Defeat a desert sheik in a horse race across the burning sands of Araby.

Save a wealthy danker's daughter from drowning by crawling across thin ice to the rescue.

Have my life changed for the better by following the advice given in a Chinese fortune cookie.

Beat a bongo drum in the Congo.

Hand a stack of chips to a mysterious blonde standing next to me at a roulette table at Monte Carlo and tell her, "Play any number you want, baby there's lots more where that came from."

Pack up my troubles in my old kit bag, and smile, smile, smile.

Burn a joss stick in a ruined Chinese temple.

Wear a figleaf and a monocle to a dull P.T.A. meeting.

Well, that's a partial list of one man's unachieved daydreams. What are yours?

REAGAN BACKERS THWARTED

Delegate Split May Echo In Texas

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Texas Republicans backed Richard Nixon over Ronald Reagan early today with a 41-15 split decision certain to carry the national convention controversy into party affairs back home.

Nixon's supporters among the 56 delegates were jubilant, not only for the Nixon victory but for the opportunity it might offer Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., to be the vice presidential nominee.

Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., said Tower was among 12 strong vice presidential possibilities being considered by Nixon's advisers.

Reagan backers claimed Tower and state GOP chairman Peter O'Donnell thwarted their efforts to present Reagan's abilities adequately in a delegation caucus.

Most of Reagan's delegates came from West Texas and the Houston-Beaumont areas, GOP strongholds vitally needed if Nixon is to carry Texas in November. A Nixon loss would give the Reaganites a chance to say: "We told you so," and likely would bring on an effort to overthrow present party machinery.

Tower said there was no need for a final caucus. Since coming to Miami Beach he had predicted the vote would be "about 40-16".

After Nixon had the required majority and other states began switching votes to him, Texas cast a revised vote total of 54 for Nixon and two for Reagan. Voting for Reagan to the last were Mrs. Dale Hager and Dr. Charles Walker, both of Beaumont.

Texas delegates made their decision after hearing personal appeals from Nixon and Reagan and from Nelson A. Rockefeller's brother David. They even got a visit from Harold Stassen.

O'Donnell called a caucus for Wednesday morning, saying Nixon and Reagan would be discussed at length behind closed doors and a preliminary poll of delegates, taken. The caucus was postponed until afternoon and then canceled in favor of a caucus at the convention hall.

Later Tower said there was no need to call a caucus—that a nose count would be taken by his lieutenants just before Texas was to vote.

Star Farmers Are Expert At Developing Farm Assets

WASHINGTON (AP) — American agriculture changes are illustrated well in the yearly recognition program of the Future Farmers of America.

Each year hundreds of FFA menbers vie nationally for their Farmer of America—which is announced in the fall at the group's annual meeting in Kansas City, Mo.

It would be inaccurate to say Star Farmers are typical of today's breed of rural youth; they are the cream of the crop, representative of the best that will be required for the survival of family-style agriculture.

In a sense, the Star Farmer each year represents the tradition, resourcefulness, education and financial capacity for competing in tomorrow's agriculture.

Currently, there are four regional finalists in the Star Farmer race. They are: DeLane Ruess, 20, Owosso, Mich.; Jack W. Gibbons, 20, Clymer, N.Y.; Boyd Joe Spencer Jr., 21 Albert, Okla., and Michel L. Oakley, 20, Scio, Ore.

One will be named Star Farmer at the FFA convention on Oct. 17.

All have been assisted by their parents in accumulating resources needed to develop their own programs, but the youngsters themselves have achieved the momentum to keep going.

Ruess farms in partnership with his father and attends Michigan State University. The family enterprise includes 360 acres and a milking herd of 66 Holstein cows, plus replacements, calves and a poultry flock of 2,200 laying hens. Crops include 185 acres of hay, 20 acres of oats and 16 acres of wheat.

In five years, Ruess has earned about $51,000 from his share of the operation. His financial statement shows assets of $60,000 and a net worth—after deducting indebtedness—of about $36,000.

Gibbons has managed his family's farm for the past three years. His father is in ill health and has arranged for Gibbons to buy the farm outright when he is 21. The 214-acre farm includes a 54-cow Holstein milking herd averaging 13,243 pounds of milk per cow a year.

His present net worth is about $37,000.

Spencer attends Oklahoma State University, majoring in agricultural economics, and is married. His farming programs include a 65-cow purebred Polled Hereford beef herd in partnership with his father and has bought two farms totaling 240 acres.

His earnings for six years total $52,752.

Oakley is married and has a two-year-old child. His father operates a dairy farm but during high school he struck out on different production programs.

He is one of two produeers in the country of Rio Verde cabbage seed and also raises sugarbeet seed, strawberries, mint and wheat. His land includes 87 acres of irrigated acreage, which he bought, and 46 acres which he rents.

Oakley's net worth is about $22,500.

The four young men have shown FFA officials that they can manage and develop farm assets. Each has had a base from which to launch his farm programs, and has utilized help available from educators, bankers and other experienced people.

This is the essence of tomorrow's agriculture.

Poll Rates Democrats

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey runs better than Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy anong rank-and-file Democrats, but McCarthy had the greater support of independents when the two candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination were pitted against each other, the Gallup Poll reported.

The Gallup organization said Wednesday that 53 per cent of rank-and-file Democrats favored Humphrey for their presidential nomination while McCarthy won support from 39 per cent.

But the poll said that independents favor McCarthy over over Humphrey by 53 to 32 per cent.

Gallup said the Minnesota senator is "far stronger" with young Democrats, from 21 to 29 years old. He also holds an edge with those who have a college background and Democrats living in the Far West.

There will be no entry fee charge to the contestants. First prize in both the Fiddler's Contest and in the Talent Show will be $50. Second prize in each of the two divisions will be $25 and third prize, $10. Besides this, a $100 prize will be awarded to the "Best of Show."

Easterwood is scheduled to receive the bachelor of science in electrical engineering.

Fewer Heat Strokes In Football

CHICAGO (AP) — Heat stroke fatalities in football have dropped from an average of six to seven from 1958 to 1965 to about two a year at the present time, the American Medical Association said today.

The decrease, the AMA said, was due to a program by the AMA committee in medical aspects of sports and the national federation of state high school athletic associations. Football coaches and athletic trainers were advised of the hazards of improper training procedures.

"Working up a good sweat could be fatal to the out-of-shape football player," said the AMA. "The athlete who works out in very warm humid weather is susceptible to heat fatigue caused by depletion of salt and water. The old belief that water should not be drunk during workouts has been discounted."

Failure to replace water and salt lost by the body in strenuous exercise is one way to invite heat exhaustion.

"Heat fatigue dulls the athlete's skillful alertness and makes him more vulnerable to injuries," said the AMA.
