NE Terry Wildcat Looks High On Pay

Houston Oil Company No. 1 H. C. Hinson, Northeast Terry County wildcat, one mile west of the Mound Lake - Pennsylvanian field, appears to be approximately 100 feet high to the two oil wells in the nearby producing area.

This prospector entered a lime in the Pennsylvanian at 9,310 feet, on an elevation of 3,271 feet, to give it a datum of minus 6.093 feet at that point.

Operator drilled ahead at 9,320 feet and was still in lime at that point. A core was started there.

It is thought that the core will determine whether or not the venture has found the true Mound Lake lime zone.

Some Oil Signs

If that turns out to be the case the Houston Oil No. 1 Hinson will be approximately 100 feet high to the nearest producer.

The samples between 9,310 feet and 9,320 feet carried some slight signs of oil.

Location is 660 feet from west and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 2, block T, D&W survey. That makes it about eight and one-half miles northeast of Brownfield.

The wildcat is on acreage secured by Houston Oil in a farmout deal with Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware.

C-W Glasscock Gets 8,000-Foot Wildcat

Hubbard S. Russell of Maricopa, Calif., has staked an 8,000-foot wildcat in extreme Central - West Glasscock County, approximately 19 miles southeast of the City of Midland.

The proposed venture is the No. 1-20 Wrage-Hendrickson, located 2,030 feet from west and 663 feet from north lines of section 20, block 36, T-3-S, T&P survey. Drillsite is four and one-half miles east and slightly south of production in the Tex-Harvey field, which produces from the Spraberry.

General American Oil Company previously staked a wildcat in the same quarter section as the Russell No. 1 Wrage-Hendrickson. The General American venture will not be drilled.

SW Kent Stepout Recovers Free Oil

Kewanee Oil Company No. 2-D Wil, five-eighths of a mile northwest stepout to the East Polar-Pennsylvanian pool in Southwest Kent County, has recovered oil in commercial quantities from the reef pay of that area.

On a drillstem test at 6,935-6,960 feet, recovery after one hour was 1,080 feet of gas, 50 feet of free oil, and 240 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud. Good pressures were reported on the test.

The venture is now being cored ahead. The 2-D Wil topped the reef pay of that area at 6,875 feet, on a minus datum of 4,654 feet, which is 25 feet low to Kewanee No. 1-D Wil, north offset to the discovery.

The No. 1-D Wil is reported running casing to total depth of 7,056 feet. Production will be developed through perforations.

Discovery In Terry Perforates Casing

Five and one-half inch oil string has been perforated with 300 shots from 9,998 to 10,073 feet at Union Oil Company of California No. 1 Laura A. Cotten in preparation for a completion from a Pennsylvanian reef.

This wildcat showed for commercial production from 9,969 feet down to 10,123 feet. Hole is bottomed at 10,182 feet.

It is located 660 feet from east and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 91, block T, D&W survey and four miles southeast of Brownfield in East-Central Terry County.

N-C Crane Venture Has Slight Signs

A slight show of oil was found in Atlantic No. 1-LL University, wildcat in North-Central Crane County, on a drillstem test at 10.063-10,169 feet. Operator is now preparing to retest the lower part of the section tested.

Recovery on the drillstem test at 10,063-10,169 feet was 90 feet of gas-cut mud and 1,530 feet of oil and gas-cut salt water from the Devonian. Tool was open one hour. There was a good blow throughout the test.

On the retest operator will try to determine where the salt water is coming from. Hole is bottomed at 10,169 feet.

This wildcat is located 1,980 feet from the south and east lines of section 6, block 31, University survey and 20 miles northwest of the town of Crane.

55 Persons Die When TWA Airliner Crashes

CAIRO, EGYPT—(AP)—A Trans World Airline Constellation plane carrying 55 persons, 23 of them Americans, crashed and burned Thursday north of Cairo, killing all aboard.

The airline announced there were no survivors among the 48 passengers and seven crewmen. Reports from the scene said the plane was so badly burned only a small section of it remained intact.

The bodies of the victims, many of them notables and representing a dozen countries, were so badly charred identification at once was impossible.

48 Passengers

Officials of the district governor's office in Behaira Province placed the scene of the crash near Etay Baroud, about 75 miles northwest of Cairo. Eyewitnesses said they saw the big four-engine "Star of Maryland" plummet to earth in flames.

Five of the crew of seven aboard the plane, bound from Bombay, India, to Rome, were Americans. The other two were French. Eighteen of the 48 passengers were Americans, and the remainder represented 11 other nationalities. Two passengers were Indian nationals enroute to a United Nations meeting in Paris. Another passenger was the Egyptian movie star Lilianne Cohen, whose screen name is Camelia. She is known as "the Lana Turner of the Middle East."

The Americans listed aboard included Aubrey William Schofield, 52, a native of San Antonio, Texas, who has been living in New York. He has been manager of the Eastern Hemisphere foreign production division of the Gulf Oil Company. Recently he has been filling in as manager of the Kuwait Oil Company.

Three U. S. Airmen

Another American was listed as William C. Gist, son of Justie Ervin Gist of Lake City, Iowa. The senior Gist is administration services and transportation officer at the U. S. Embassy in Cairo.

Three other Americans on the passenger list were identified as from the U. S. Air Force Base at Dhahran, Saudi Arabia. The names were listed as Melvin Hanson, Derek Owen William and Harry Richard Woods. No addresses were given.

The loss of 55 lives makes the crash one of the most disastrous in

Rangers Put Hex On Mick Cohen's Plans For Texas

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Gambler Mickey Cohen, his Texas stay interrupted by Texas Rangers, arrived in Fort Worth Thursday and caught a plane for California.

He was escorted by Texas Rangers whose chief said the west coast underworld character had planned to set up a "gambling and racketeering empire" in Texas.

The rangers arrested the short, dapper gambler early Thursday in Wichita Falls in North Texas. They roused him out of his hotel room and made reservations for his westward flight.

Homer Garrison, Jr., state police director, said at Austin rangers arrested and questioned Cohen on reports he came to Texas to set up a "gambling and racketeering empire."

"After the questioning, he apparently decided the Texas atmosphere was not good for him," said Garrison.

"We were acting on definite information that he was planning to come to Texas and set up a gambling and racketeering empire. We didn't want that."

Investigating Oil Business

Cohen and his companions came here by car from Wichita Falls. An American Airlines spokesman said the rangers had put the party aboard a plane arriving in El Paso at 12:12 p.m. and that Cohen was to take an American airliner leaving

West Texas hospitality is "the worst in the world," according to Mickey Cohen, the Los Angeles gambler and would-be oil man who arrived in Midland Thursday and departed again immediately as Col. Milan Plavsic, Midland Director of Public Safety, and Ranger John Wood stood by the plane side, with hardware showing.

Cohen said he was returning to Los Angeles — at the insistence of Texas Rangers — to consult his attorneys,

"I may take this thing to federal court," the pudgy racketeer told a Reporter-Telegram reporter. "What would happen if all 48 states decided I couldn't enter? Where would I go—to Russia, or something?"

11 Hospitalized In Derailment Of Crack Diesel Streamliner

"We were awfully lucky no one was killed or critically hurt," a spokesman for the railroad said.

The diesel-powered train, making its regular run from Los Angeles to Houston, derailed in rolling country about 12 miles west of this Central Texas town about 3 a. m.

Eleven injured were hospitalized. Several received only first aid treatment.

The injured under treatment at Rolland Brooks Hospital here were:

Miss Rae Shield, 19, Houston; Mrs. Ernest Lykins, 32, Coleman; D. S. Kennedy, 40, Snyder; Arthur Moody, 32, Oakland, Calif., and four negroes.

Taken to the Santa Fe Hospital in Temple were: J. P. Butler and F. W. Wilson of Temple, the conductor and brakeman, and a news agent, whose name was not available.

A Santa Fe spokesman said the train, No. 76, due in Houston at 7:14 a. m., was "making a reasonable rate of speed" at the time of derailment.

He said three sleepers left the rails but did not overturn, and that the chair car, lounge car and "Jim Crow" car (which carries negro passengers) left the rails and overturned.

The engine, mail car and baggage car did not leave the rails and proceeded to Temple.

Fair Committeemen Meet To Determine Fate Of Annual Fair

Members of the Fair Committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce were to meet Thursday afternoon to decide the fate of the annual Midland County Fair.

H. B. Schauer, chairman, called the meeting after Chamber directors last week authorized the committee to decide whether to continue the fair, disband it in favor of a farm appreciation day, or place added emphasis on the annual Midland Junior Livestock Show.

A lack of facilities and a noted lack of interest among citizens have been advanced as reasons for possible abandonment of the annual fair.

Members of the fair committee include Schauer, J. T. Baker, Charles W. Green, J. R. Cuffman, Newnie W. Ellis, A. G. Bohannan and L. T. Sledge, Jr.

R. L. Miller, director in charge of agriculture for the Chamber of Commerce; Delbert Downing, Chamber of Commerce manager, and Burvin Hines, assistant manager, also were to meet with the group.

Canadian Trains Roll Again After Nine-Day Stoppage

OTTAWA —(AP)— Canada's trains rolled and telegraph lines clicked again Thursday, ending a nine-day nationwide strike.

The first such general tie-up in the nation's history was called off by union leaders Wednesday night just 19 minutes after a special government back-to-work bill became law. It called for the strike to end in 48 hours.

The vanguard of the 124,000 strikers responded promptly to the back-to-work call broadcast by strike leaders Frank H. Hall and A. R. Mosher.

Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railway officials indicated it would be 24 hours before operations were normal.

Hall and Mosher told union members they had won "distinct gains" in the emergency-approved legislation, forced through a non-stop session of the House of Commons.

Hand Shaking Still Proves Valuable To Friendly Citizens

Handshakes continued to be valuable Wednesday as two more Midlanders found themselves the winners of the $5 certificates offered by The Reporter-Telegram as a part of GET ACQUAINTED WEEK.

Winners of the certificates Wednesday were Mrs. James L. George, 1806 South Big Spring Street, and J. J. Schlichting, 2201 West Texas Street.

Mrs. George, herself a newcomer to Midland from Wichita Falls, introduced herself to "Mrs. Get Acquainted"—Mrs. L. W. Dorbandt, 1807 West Louisiana Street, as both were waiting in a washateria. Mrs. Dorbandt is a two-month resident, having moved here in July from Abilene. Her husband is associated with the Bradford Oil Company, as a geologist.

Two more anonymous Midlanders were holding certificates Thursday—ready to give them to the first person who introduced himself or herself to them. The awarding of certificates to Mr., Mrs. or Miss Get Acquainted will continue through Saturday, one of the numerous features of GET ACQUAINTED WEEK.

Naturally friendly West Texans should make an effort this week to make the acquaintance of any and all strangers they may meet—to make new friends and possibly to earn a $5 bonus for friendliness.

The annual Chamber of Commerce-sponsored "Get Acquainted" barbecue honoring teachers and members of their families at Cole Park Friday evening will be a special feature of "GET ACQUAINTED WEEK." More than 750 teachers and members of their families and Chamber of Commerce members and their families are expected to attend the outing, which is scheduled at 6:30 p.m.

Allies Break Up Eastern Coastal Push

TOKYO—(AP)—The Korean Reds threw a major two-division assault against the U. S. 25th Division in extreme South Korea Friday.

There were fragmentary reports that the Reds also were attacking the U. S. Second Division farther north along the Naktong River.

AP Correspondent Stan Swinton reported from the southern front just west of Masan that the North Korean invaders struck before dawn at 15 points after a heavy preparatory barrage.

Fighting was raging Friday all along that front in what might be the start of a new general Red offensive, Swinton reported.

The new Communist onslaught, which had been long expected but had been delayed, followed stalling of Red efforts to crack the United Nations defense lines on the northern and eastern fronts.

The new outbreak came as American and South Korean forces on the east coast anchor of the defenses hurled the Reds back north of the port of Pohang.

The enemy had tried for two days to crack through to Pohang along the east coast road but General MacArthur's post-midnight summary said they had been driven back within 500 yards of their starting point, about four miles north of Pohang.

Reds Miss Target Deadline

The Reds still were firing artillery and mortars in the area of ravaged Kigye, nine miles northwest of Pohang.

In the face of light fire, the Americans reopened the road north from the threatened port on the Sea of Japan.

They moved from three to four miles north of the city beyond the spot where an enemy roadblock Wednesday had made it impassable.

Army photographer Ray Turnbull of Miami Beach, Fla., reported the road reopened. He accompanied American tanks and infantrymen north of the port city and returned to Taegu, main Allied bastion west of Pohang later in the day.

The Reds had missed their target deadline—Thursday midnight—for driving the United Nations forces out of Korea. It was set by Red Premier Kim Il Sung.

Allied planes continued to hammer targets with a fury that gradually was eliminating Communist rolling stock, industrial plants, ammunition dumps and materiel stockpiles.

The North Koreans were reported losing 1,000 men a day in the drive on Pohang mounted by 26,000 men.

The Air Force estimated it killed 1,200 North Koreans in strafing and bombing on the front lines at Pohang. Seven hundred Red dead were counted in one sector and 500 more in another.

Warships and tank guns added heavily to the enemy losses during Thursday, when the North Korean

Gulf Storm Deals Coast Minor Blow

NEW ORLEANS —(AP)— The freakish gulf hurricane that swept inland Wednesday night near Mobile, Ala., appeared Thursday to have delivered its heaviest punch at Panama City, Fla.

No loss of life was reported, and the storm apparently caused little damage elsewhere.

Mayor Carl Gray of the coastal resort in extreme northwest Florida said in a radio broadcast a dock was destroyed by high winds and tides. Several other docks and beach property were damaged. He said 3,500 persons were evacuated from low ground to Red Cross shelters.

New Hurricane Sighted

Another hurricane grew in size and intensity in the far Eastern Caribbean Thursday. The Weather Bureau at San Juan, Puerto Rico, reported winds of hurricane force extending as much as 75 to 100 miles north and northeast of the new storm center.

The big wind was placed at a point about 210 miles east of Martinique in the West Indies.

A third hurricane shoved northward in the Atlantic about 500 miles east of Bermuda.

Winds as high as 115 miles an hour had been reported by the New Orleans Weather Bureau as the gulf tropical storm at first advanced toward the Mississippi-Alabama-northwest Florida coastline.

However the highest wind velocity reported on land was a Coast Guard estimate of 98 miles an hour at Santa Rosa Island, an isolated

Four Injured In Stackup Of Fast Rock Island Freight

TEAGUE, TEXAS. —(AP)— Four men were injured in a stackup of a fast Rock Island freight train on the edge of this Central Texas city at 4:40 a.m. Thursday.

F. L. Perry of the Teague Chronicle said 47 cars of the 64-car train were practically destroyed in the derailment.

"Cars were stacked as high as 30 feet and maize and oil were scattered along the right of way for three blocks," he said.

Three crewmen were reported only slightly hurt, but a transient was taken to City Hospital with a badly crushed leg and other injuries.

The Rock Island listed the injured as R. E. Batts, engineer; W. S. Traywick, fireman, and Lonnie A. McCool, conductor, all of Fort Worth.

The injured transient was identified as Hilton Nichols, New Orleans.

Cool Wave Escorts August From Texas

By The Associated Press

August bowed out of Texas Thursday with a cool wave and scattered rains.

Texans from the Panhandle to San Antonio reached for extra covers in the early morning as temperatures fell to the 50's and 60's.

Lubbock and Amarillo, in the Panhandle, were coldest with readings of 57. But San Antonio had a 66, San Marcos 63 and Houston 69.

Largest Bond Slice For Water System

By DALMON McNAIR
(Second of A Series)

Largest earmark on the $3,500,000 bond issue on which Midlanders will vote next week is $1,600,000 for water works improvements.

An increased supply of water, larger and more adequate water mains, extensions in all directions, and additional fire hydrants have been declared necessities if the city is to keep pace with the increased demand of a growing population.

Part of the water bonds would be used to add to the water supply to an extent which would be determined when sufficient facts are available on whether Midland should utilize a surface supply or continue with underground supply.

The city's present sources of water possibly may meet the demands through 1951, according to City Manager W. H. Oswalt, if certain additions can be made to the pumping stations. However, the estimate on the water consumption for next year, and the city's estimated production capacity are so close that no one can be sure if the supply actually will meet the demand.

Danger Of Draining

With the full development of the new Wadley tract, the city will be able to produce about 11,500,000 gallons of water daily next year, Oswalt says, but there will be the danger of draining the underground resources. It is estimated the city may reach a consumption of 11,000,000 gallons daily. The peak this year was 8,600,000 gallons.

An important project to be included in the water improvement program will be the addition of new fire hydrants and larger trunk lines whereby more adequate fire protection can be assured all portions of the city. Larger lines would replace smaller ones, particularly in the southwest section of the city, where pressure is too low. Some sections of the city, where fire insurance penalties now are in effect, would be given added pressure and more fire hydrants.

Delivery of water pipe already has been assured the city at the cheapest purchase price since World War II. A contract, with two firms, has been let by the city council, calling for pipe valued at more than $500,000. The contract may be cancelled if the bond proposal is not approved.

Extensions of the city's water system into those areas not now served will receive first priority, according to the city manager. The south and southeast sections particularly will receive prompt attention if the issue is approved. The city also would be able to extend the water system to new areas as they develop, with developers continuing to pay the pro rata charge.

If the bond proposal for the water improvements is not approved, the city soon will not be able to supply all the water which residents will require for normal use, city officials say. Fire insurance rates probably will be raised, the city will not be able to serve the sections not now receiving service and it may have to revise the policy and basis of charges to new developments, they say.

Originally the wireless distress call at sea was "CQD" but this was changed to "SOS" primarily because its coded three dots, three dashes and three dots are much easier read.

Swanson Has Glamor At Age 51 Proving '50 Is Gloria's Year

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—"I'm still big — it's pictures that have grown small."

The picture is not the story of Gloria's life but that one line pops up to sum up any arguments that Gloria Swanson ever has been washed up despite a nine-year absence from movie make-up.

The line was prophetic.

Gloria's still big — bigger than ever. The engravers can start putting her name on that Oscar.

Norma Desmond, the neurotic doll Gloria plays in "Sunset Boulevard," tries for a film comeback but fails. That's the way Charley Brackett and Billy Wilder wrote the script.

But now that the movie is being released Gloria is writing her own script and a lot of Junior Miss movie queens are being pushed into lobby popcorn machines while the 51-year-old, twice-a-grandmother star steps into the spotlight.

Back from a punishing three-month, 30-city tour as advance agent for "Sunset Boulevard," Gloria confided to me that she has 10 film offers—"I think I should do a comedy next"—and that, like Bill Boyd, she's going into the merchandise field.

There will be Gloria Swanson hats, perfume, belts, chocolates and jewelry.

Artist At Outdrawing

Ten thousand fans turned out when they gave her the key to the city of Oakland on the city hall steps. "It was terrific," a Paramount press agent whispered. "She outdrew Jimmy Roosevelt" (campaigning for governor of California).

The Paramount publicity department was celebrating Gloria's return from the long junket with a party for "a job that places Gloria in the ranks of great showmen."

There was a big, gooey cake with Gloria's name on it and all the publicity boys were there along with agent Helen Ainsworth and Bill Holden, her co-star in the picture.

Gloria greeted him with "Hello, Lover Boy"—she calls him that in the picture—and a kiss. Norman Siegel, head of the publicity department, presented Gloria with a gold card reading: "First Honorary Member of the Paramount Publicity Department" and then said:

"As long as there are stars like Gloria Swanson the screen will never lose its glamor." The press agents sighed "Amen."

Gloria's reply should be included in a text book for movie stars. She said:

"I've decided as I've grown up that one person doesn't make a career, even if the younger ones think so. It's teamwork. And when the camera stops there's still a lot of work to do."

The crying towel kids in Hollywood have been wailing that "Sunset Boulevard" will do horrible things to Hollywood. But Gloria said she didn't hear a single word of criticism along the line on her long junket around the nation.

Expensive Account

The only criticism at all came at first from Paramount. Someone decided Gloria was spending too much money by inviting newspaper reporters and critics to lunch and dinner with her at the highest-priced restaurants and cafes in the towns she visited.

"Can't you take it easy on the expense account?" Gloria was advised.

She came back with the blast: "Look, I'm selling glamor. And I can't sell it in some beanery."

The studio thought it over and agreed with Gloria.

She was out on Sunset Blvd., the other day, standing on a ladder and dusting off a Sunset Boulevard sign while a photographer clicked his camera. In the midst of it all, her daughter, Gloria, drove up and quipped:

"I was two blocks away but I knew it was mother. Only mother would do something like this."

Her other daughter, 18-year-old Michelle, is getting howls from her confession in a magazine story that she learned a lot about men from Gloria.

"I must admit that I had better luck with the older gentlemen who came to call on mother than with the younger ones who came to pick me up. The younger men stood glued to the floor staring at mother until it was time for us to go out."

Citizen support perhaps is the main thing needed by the Midland High School Bulldogs in their coming football wars.

And as Chamber of Commerce President Bob Wood said recently, "The best way to support the vastly improved Bulldog team of 1950 is to fill the stands at the Midland Memorial Stadium for all home games."

The Bulldog Booster Club and the Sports Committee of the Chamber of Commerce now are conducting an intensive campaign to accomplish that very thing by selling all available season tickets in advance.

The season tickets go on sale to the public at 8 a.m. Friday in the Chamber of Commerce, with the sale scheduled to continue until Saturday noon. After that, teams of volunteer workers will hit the streets in an effort to dispose of the remaining ducats.

Everyone is urged to obtain his or her season ticket in advance so there will be no disappointed persons when the "Standing Room Only" sign is displayed later in the season.

* * *

The Midland High School Bulldogs—the school boys who work long and hard in practice sessions, who train throughout the year, and who give their very all for MHS in the scheduled football games—certainly are deserving of the attendance support of Midlanders at the five home games.

Attendance at most home games last year was shameful and it is hoped the fans this year will make up for last by overflowing the stands at all games here.

The Bulldogs themselves would be the last persons to complain about attendance, but you can imagine how good it would make them feel to look up and see the stands at Memorial Stadium filled to their 10,187-person capacity. It surely would encourage them to play even better football.

* * *

Head Coach Tugboat Jones told the Lions Club Wednesday noon, "We will have a 'good' football team." He did not elaborate further on the team's prospects for a winning season, but his brief statement is good enough for us, since coaches usually will not go that far unless the prospects at least are "reasonably fair."

At any rate, the Bulldogs will be doing their dead level best to win all games for MHS.

It is hoped the Midland fans will do their very best for the Bulldogs by purchasing season tickets and attending as many games as possible.

Doin' What Comes Unnaturally

There was a great to-do down in Houston when a pretty young elevator operator at City Hall complained that a middleaged city councilman kissed her while he was riding in her elevator. The furor seems to have been caused by the fact he was not campaigning for office at the time.

Our Changing World

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: Too much military encroachment on civilian government; Truman believes generals should win wars not declare them; Air College at Maxwell Field preaches preventive war.

WASHINGTON — Inside fact about the White House crackdowns on Secretary of the Navy Matthews and General MacArthur is that the Administration had been waiting for a chance to knock down the increasing eagerness of the military to encoach on the civilian branches of government.

A lot of things have been going on which the public doesn't know about, all pointing toward more and more military rule. One was the quiet attempt by Secretary of Defense Johnson to keep Guam under the military when it was supposed to go under a civilian governor July 1. Another is the Navy's attempt to hold on to the "Trust Islands" of the Pacific. Another has been General MacArthur's repeated attempts to dictate foreign policy.

Another flagrant intervention of the military into foreign policy was when eleven generals secretly went up to Congress and urged a $100,000,000 loan to Dictator Franco of Spain—despite the fact that their commander-in-chief in the White House had ruled against such a loan.

President Truman was icy cool with his Secretary of Defense when he heard of this. Unsmiling, he turned to Louey Johnson in a Cabinet meeting and snapped: "And I don't want any more trips by you or your generals to Congress regarding a loan to Franco."

Generals Want War

The two public crackdowns were aimed directly at MacArthur, and indirectly at Johnson through his secretary of the Navy. Actually, Secretary Matthews is a sincere, idealistic, lovable person, the top lay Catholic in the United States, and neither the State Department nor the White House wanted to hit him personally.

However, the statement by a Cabinet officer in favor of a preventive war, it was decided, had to be disavowed publicly. For it played directly into the hands of European propagandists, already partly successful in branding us as warmongers.

Another reason for the crackdown was that General Orvil Anderson, commander of the Air War College at Maxwell Air Base, Montgomery, Ala., has been staging a series of lectures in which a preventive war is urged openly.

One of the distinguished speakers at the Air War College has been Father Edmund Walsh of Georgetown University, a friend of Secretary Matthews, who voiced almost the same preventive war idea as Matthews.

Another earlier speaker at the Air College was Brig. Gen. S. D. Grubbs former commander at Maxwell, who, in an address before a civilian group in Montgomery during the Berlin blockade, urged an ultimatum to Russia that if the blockade was not lifted in 36 hours we should declare war.

General Maxwell himself, speaking some time ago before the Kiwanis Club at Montgomery, indicated that he favored immediate war with Russia; and there has been concrete evidence that the general follows a deliberate program at the Air College aimed to indoctrinate students with the idea of an immediate attack.

All these matters have been reported to the White House from time to time; and as a result President Truman is determined that the original concept of military duty laid down by the founding fathers shall be followed, namely that it is the military's job to win wars not declare them.

Note 1—If the United States followed the advice of the generals in favor of an early war, it would appear—based on results in Korea—that the military are a long way from being prepared.

Note 2—A group of farsighted senators, led by Brien McMahon of Connecticut, has introduced a resolution calling for a disarmament conference to show the world that we would reduce armament if Russia would do the same. While they have no great illusions that Russia would reduce, they feel it important to keep this peaceful goal before the world.

Capital News Capsules

Lecture in London—U. S. Ambassador Douglas has bawled out the British for talking rearmament but doing nothing. Last week he told Foreign Minister Bevin in very plain English that the United States was shocked at failure to call Parliament back into session. The ambassador also told Bevin that Britain's current plan for rearmament is completely inadequate, that whereas the United States is calling up thousands of men, Britain merely is marking time.

Bevin's last conference — British Foreign Minister Bevin has cabled Secretary Acheson asking a full review of Anglo-American policies for the Far East when Bevin comes to New York next month. This will be Bevin's last major conference as foreign minister of Great Britain. Among other things he will try to persuade the United States not to become embroiled with Chiang Kai-Shek and the Kuomintang any further. The reason: Communist China and the Kremlin are making tragic headway in calling this a war between the yellow races and the white race. Bevin fears we'll lose out all over Asia.

Warning Nehru — U. S. Ambassador Loy Henderson has warned Prime Minster Nehru that he should call off his proposed trip to Communist China. Peace-making efforts in Korea, our ambassador told the prime minister, should be left to the United Nations. If Nehru feels he wants to contribute, Henderson said, he should fly to Lake Success to head the Indian delegation . . . Meanwhile the Kremlin secretly is currying favor with Nehru by offering large quantities of wheat to India's starving millions. The State Department, on the other hand, hasn't been able to get Congress to permit us to ship agricultural surpluses to India.

Loyalty begins at home — Hard-hitting Tony Tauriello, the congressman from Buffalo, N. Y., has made a unique appeal to Louey Johnson to resign as secretary of Defense. Tauriello puts it on the ground of loyalty . . . "The Chief Executive is loyal to his friends, loyal to his Cabinet officers, sometimes loyal to a fault," the congressman wrote Johnson direct. "You should resign because you have lost your usefulness to him and you have lost your usefulness to the American people. Remember that loyalty works both ways. And if you are loyal to Mr. Truman in the true sense, you will act in his interest, not your own."

Basing point row again — Senator Ed Johnson of Colorado and a subcommittee are trying to overrule a Supreme Court decision and a Presidential veto—in a most unusual way. Both the court and the White House ruled emphatically against the basing-point system. But now, five senators, all violently pro-basing point, are giving a third-degree interrogation to the Federal Trade Commission, which must enforce the basing-point decision. Coaching the senators backstage is William Simon, a registered lobbyist for the basing-point business group.

"Nicely played," said Hard Luck Joe.

"Thanks," said Larceny Lou.

"Why don't you stop?" asked East irritably. "You steal the eye teeth out of our heads and then you have the gall to thank us for it!"

Joe looked bewildered, and Lou looked the other way. Lou had swindled Joe so neatly that he still didn't know what had happened.

Hard Luck Joe, holding the West cards, opened the king of hearts. Larceny Lou won with dummy's ace and cashed the ace and king of spades, hoping to drop the queen. When it became apparent that West had a trump trick, Lou cashed three rounds of clubs and ruffed dummy's remaining heart in his own hand. He then gave up the trump trick to Joe's queen.

Joe looked anxiously at the dummy and saw that a heart return would give Lou a chance to ruff in dummy and discard from his own hand. Joe therefore returned the jack of diamonds.

This was just what Lou had been hoping for. He had made up his mind to play the diamond honors to be split. He therefore won in dummy with the king of diamonds and returned a diamond, finessing the ten from his own hand. This finesse held, and the ace of diamonds dropped the queen. The rest of the tricks were therefore easy.

Joe was correct as far as he went. It was perfectly true that he would give declarer a ruff and sluff by returning a heart. However, this would not allow Lou to make the contract since Lou would still have a losing diamond in each hand.

It should have been easy for Joe to count the hand out. He knew that declarer had started with five trumps and one heart. The club situation was also quite clear since East carefully discarded the thirteenth club on the trump trick that was given to West.

This made it obvious that Lou had four diamonds in his own hand as well as four diamonds in dummy. One discard from either hand could not help declarer very much. Joe should therefore have returned a third round of hearts.

You have a maid who lives in your home.

WRONG: Feel perfectly free to look through the maid's personal belongings when she is away from the house.

RIGHT: Respect the maid's right to privacy.

Tot Wounds Nurse With 'Toy' Pistol

CHESTER, PA. —(AP)— Police said a nursemaid was shot Wednesday night with a pistol she had given a three-year-old boy, thinking it was a toy.

Mrs. Peggy Rose, 34, of Chester managed to reach the home of a neighbor. She was taken to Chester Hospital, where doctors said she was in serious condition with a back wound.

Police said Mrs. Rose told them she gave a .22 caliber pistol to three-year-old David Palmer after finding the weapon on a window sill in the home of her employer—the boy's father, Jackson Palmer.

As she was putting the child to bed, the gun went off, police quoted the maid as saying.

Please Don't Shoot Wires, Telephone Company Requests

"Please don't shoot at birds on telephone lines," is the plea of A. W. Case, manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company here, who says that each year thousands of telephone wires are broken by stray shots during the hunting season.

"Birds can fly away," Case said, "but telephone wires just have to sit there and take it. It's not that the hunters deliberately try to hit the wires, and I don't think sportmen would shoot at a sitting bird on a wire, but I guess they just don't realize that a hasty shot, might cause serious damage to telephone lines and disrupt long distance service."

Explaining the yearly dilemma, Case pointed out that each hunting season, money, man-hours, and telephone calls are lost through gunfire damage to telephone lines. "It would help a lot," he said, "if hunters would be very careful when they are in the vicinity of telephone lines. Even if a bullet or shot only nicks the wire, when cold weather comes the wire contracts and the added stress may cause it to break."

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Pennsylvania Congressman Frank Buchanan's Select Committee to Investigate Lobbying Activities is preparing to drop a dozen hot reports soon. They should do much to throw the spotlight on Washington's $8,000,000-a-year high-pressure industry.

But according to Chairman Buchanan himself, "This just scratches the surface. There is still much unfinished business."

The Buchanan Committee's money is now about all gone, or will be by the time it concludes hearings and gets its reports and legislative recommendations printed by the end of September. The committee was given $40,000 to start on. Then it got another $45,000. Whether the investigation which the Buchanan Committee has begun will be continued and completed is of course up to the next Congress.

What the investigation has proved so far, says Chairman Buchanan, is that lobbying has gone underground. It has gone into the fields of propaganda. It has become subtle. It seeks to influence public opinion by indirection. And it needs watching and exposure.

Ways have been found to evade the Lobby Registration Act which was made part of the Congressional Reorganization plan of 1946. One of the Buchanan Committee's most important reports, still in the drafting stage, will be legislative recommendations to strengthen the Lobby Registration Act now on the books.

The committee already has issued two reports. One covered a detailed study of the housing and real estate lobbies. The other was a preliminary report on lobbying by the Federal Security Agency in behalf of its own proposals for health insurance.

To be released within the next week or so are three reports, each dealing with a pair of opposing lobbies—one supported by liberal interests, the other by conservatives. This manner of presentation was decided on to meet divided political opinion in the committee, also to avoid any appearance that the reports were slanted either to the right or the left.

One report will cover lobbying activities of Public Affairs Institute, and the Foundation for Economic Education. Public Affairs Institute, run by Dewey Anderson, was financed by a grant from Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. Foundation for Economic Freedom, whose executive secretary is Leonard Reed, was financed by big business contributions.

Another report will cover activities of Dr. Edward A. Rumley's Committee for Constitutional Government and William L. Patterson's Civil Rights Congress. Both Dr. Rumley and Patterson have refused to disclose completely the sources of their financial backing, and they face a possible committee recommendation that they be cited for contempt of Congress.

Also facing possible citation for contempt is Joseph P. Kamp, vice president of the Constitutional Education League. Kamp already has been sentenced to four months in jail for refusing to disclose the source of his backing to the House Campaign Committee.

Merwin K. Hart's National Economic Council and Americans for Democratic Action—whose chairman is ex-Attorney General Francis Biddle—will be the subjects of the select committee's third in this series of special agency reports.

Government Agencies

Other reports to come from the committee will cover lobbying activities by Department of State, Department of Agriculture and other government agencies. American Bar Association witnesses are to testify in September and their appearance will be followed by a report on contingency fee lobbying, the particular pet of the legal profession in Washington.

A series of four special reports will be issued on lobbying activities investigated by the committee's staff, but on which there has been no time to conduct hearings. They will cover activities of the small business groups, the electric power lobby, the medical profession's lobby, the savings and loan companies' lobby.

Another special report will analyze returns from a questionnaire sent out by the Buchanan Committee to business, labor, farm and other pressure group organizations active in Washington.

Finally there will be an over-all report by the committee, summarizing the results of its investigations thus far.

The committee has had a somewhat stormy year. The two ranking Republican members, Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio and Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, have warred constantly with Chairman Buchanan and the committee counsel, Benedict F. Fitz-Gerald, Jr., over objectives and methods of the investigation.

But it has uncovered a lot of useful information on how the pressure groups operate and how they attempt to influence legislation. It has shown that these are subjects which require almost constant policing in the public interest.

Poor Health And Work Habits Often Cause Nearsightedness

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

When a person is nearsighted it is spoken of medically as myopia. There is a strong hereditary tendency to myopia, that is, it seems to run, to some extent, in families. It may begin at an early age but its progress can stop at almost any point. The eyeball almost always is lengthened in myopia, that is, the distance between the front of the eye and the back becomes greater.

The cause of nearsightedness is not exactly known. It seems to be more common among the highly educated groups and those who study excessively or do a lot of close work. Reading of poor print, poor lighting, faulty posture, poor construction of desks and poor health all seem to contribute to the development of nearsightedness. Those who do not get enough outdoor exercise also have a tendency to nearsightedness.

In many cases moderate myopia develops fairly early in youth but stops worsening at or about the time of full maturity. In those cases where severe nearsightedness continues to become worse it is called progressive myopia.

Most of those who are nearsighted do not have any particular symptoms except that when they look off in the distance the objects appear blurred. They can continue to do close work, like reading or sewing with perfect comfort.

A hyperopic, or farsighted eye, needs a convex glass of just the right strength to cause the light rays to focus clearly at the back of the eye or retina. This corrects the difficulty so that objects held closer to the eye become clear and sharp instead of blurred and indistinct.

Farsightedness Not Rare

A certain amount of farsightedness is extremely common. Many young people need glasses to help them read or to do other close work in order to avoid eye fatigue. Hyperopia often is complicated by astigmatism which is another condition involving a difference in the curvatures of the eye. When the two are combined, the lens has to correct not only the farsightedness, but also the astigmatism.

There is also a condition called presbyopia which involves a loss of the focusing ability with age. It may affect normal, nearsighted or farsighted people. It requires a stronger glass for reading than is needed for distance. If distance correction is necessary bifocals are usually prescribed if the patient is more than 45 years old.

THE news that Mrs. Muchmore had died and that I might have prevented it, except that my shoe lace had broken and I had fallen down a flight of stairs and landed in a hospital, brought back the bees in my head for a moment. When I straightened up again, Betsy Sharpe was talking:

"Aunt Myra's at the Muchmore house," she said. "She thought she could help."

"Let's go," I told Roger Blessen. I was expecting Sally and a flock of orderlies and internes to come boiling out of the hospital in search of me, the runaway patient.

Roger stepped on the starter and in a couple of minutes we were safely away. Then I thought of something else. "Did the vet save her Pekinese—Ching?" I asked.

Roger shook his head. "Ching was dead before Mrs. Muchmore got him to Dr. Doan's place. She went straight from his place to her lawyers and it was all over town that I was going to be arrested. But she got sick—"

Roger sighed from his shoestrings.

"Heaven knows if I'll ever be in the clear," he finished miserably.

I saw Betsy's hand tighten over his. "Doc can do something about it," she told him confidently. "Now that he's out of the hospital, he can find the person that's been poisoning those dogs."

I straightened my shoulders and set back with my chest out. I may not look like Sir Launcelot, but a fair lady had every faith that I could kill her personal dragon just as well as any boiler-plated knight in full flower. It was something to know that Betsy relied on me—if she couldn't love me—I'd probably get over it in time, and Sally really did have nice blue eyes.

* * *

THE late Mrs. Muchmore's maid looked at us from a tear-swollen face as she answered our ring. Grace Muchmore had been a good old girl; when your servants love you that's a mighty good sign.

Catching a glimpse in the hall mirror of the white beehive I wore on my head and remembering that I was barefooted, I wasn't surprised that the maid stared. But she showed us into the little parlor her dead mistress had called the morning room.

Miss Myra Sharpe turned quickly away from the desk as we came in. She gasped in astonishment when she saw me.

"Doc! Why, I thought you were in the hospital!"

"I'm all right. They let me out for an emergency." I gave Betsy and Roger a straight look that told them to keep their little traps shut, even if they believed that I had gone off my rocker, too.

"But your head—"

"That?" I tapped the beehive with a casual finger. "That's the new look in bandages." Then I got serious. "I was certainly sorry to hear about Mrs. Muchmore's death. It must have been a terrible shock to you, losing a friend so suddenly. I hate to come barging in at a time like this, but I had to see you."

Miss Myra looked surprised and so did Roger and Betsy. I went on earnestly:

"Do you remember those tablets I put up for your father last summer? Dr. James has a patient with a similar heart ailment now and when I went to give him some of those tablets—they're standard medication—I found I'm temporarily out of them. Of course, I wired for more and they will come in on the afternoon train, but if you could let me have the rest of the tablets from the last prescription I filled for your father, it would be a real help. When I looked up the prescription I saw that I'd filled it for 50 tablets the day before the old gentleman died."

Miss Myra shook her head, but she tried to remember. "I can't recall that there were any tablets left after Father passed on—" She fiddled with the catch of her bag, then shook her head some more.

"Surely there were," I insisted. "The dose was only two a day."

"I suppose there must have been," Miss Myra agreed reluctantly, "but I don't remember. But I do remember that I threw away all the medicines when I cleaned up Father's room—afterward."

"Well, that's that," I shrugged my shoulders. "If you don't have them, you don't have them. I guess Doc James' patient will get along until the train comes in. But I thought it was worth trying to see if you had the tablets still." I wandered aimlessly around the little morning room as I talked, fingering a pile of magazines, straightening the lid on the empty candy jar on the desk, peering into the waste basket.

"Why don't you want Betsy to get married?" I asked Miss Myra.

* * *

MISS MYRA stared at me with her mouth open so long I noticed that she was overly long in the tooth. I repeated the question.

"You certainly are acting queer," she said then, her voice tart. "I don't think you should be out of the hospital. I have no objection whatever to Betsy marrying. If it's any of your business!"

While Betsy and Roger stared at me, I told Miss Myra, "It is my business. Because I'm fond of Betsy . . . because I really want her to be happy. Why are you trying to break up Betsy and Roger?"

"Your choice of words is as unfortunate as your nosiness," Miss Myra said in a huff. "I'm not trying to 'break up' Betsy and Roger." Then her voice became self-righteous. "But I would be doing less than my duty if I didn't point out to Betsy that she'd be making a mistake to marry a man of such violent temper and unpredictable actions—a man who could easily slip over the borderline into—"

Petroleum Activity Shows Increase In Midland District

Oil activity in the Midland area increased during the last week, as shown by records of the Oil and Gas Division of the Railroad Commission of Texas. During the seven-day period, 82 applications to drill were filed—an increase of three over last week's total.

Scurry County gained 21 new field locations. Ector followed with 12 projects. Seven new locations were staked in Crane County.

Drillsites were established for six explorations in Garza County and for five in Kent County. Andrews, Cochran and Pecos Counties each listed three new projects.

Dawson, Howard, Loving and Midland Counties each reported two new explorations.

The remaining new sites were distributed one each to Borden, Hockley, Sterling and Ward Counties.

Locations were staked for 10 wildcats during the week. They were divided one each among Borden, Ector, Glasscock, Kent, Lamb, Lubbock, Mitchell, Pecos, Schleicher and Winkler Counties.

Amended applications covering changes on five explorations in the district also were filed. Cochran County had three amended applications. One amended application was filed in each of Crane and Hockley Counties.

Just a Few of Thousands Upon Thousands of Interesting Records of Folks With Such Deficiencies Who Have Been Helped

Mrs. C. C. Keller, 1629½ Frederick Avenue, St. Joseph, Missouri, says HADACOL really has put a stop to her neuritis pains. She was in a very bad condition with aches and pains and unable to sleep and was forced to give up her position as a practical nurse. She had severe pains in wrists and stiffness in her hips, being almost unable to walk. Now after taking one bottle of HADACOL, she is able to do her own housework. She most enthusiastically recommends HADACOL to all sufferers from neuritis pains.

Floyd Mabe, 1401A South 7th Street, St. Louis, Missouri: "For some time after a wartime injury I had been troubled with neuritis pains in my legs and could not work. Nothing seemed to help me until I tried HADACOL. After taking a half bottle, I seemed to feel better. My wife told me it was only my imagination, but I continued to take HADACOL and up to the present have taken 13 bottles. Now I feel fine with no more pains in my legs." (HADACOL is so effective because it relieves THE REAL CAUSE of neuritis aches when due to such deficiencies. Why don't you give HADACOL a chance to help you?)

Link Robinson (a steel worker for over 20 years), 519 Lindsey, Newport, Kentucky: "When your stomach is in bad shape as mine, couldn't eat, gas pains, stomach bloating and nervousness, then your body doesn't get the proper foods it needs. My boss told me about HADACOL and I started taking it immediately. After the second bottle I could tell a definite improvement. Now I can eat anything I want to. Best of all I haven't got those terrific gas pains and stomach bloating."

Mrs. John Geary, 840 Ursuline Street, New Orleans, Louisiana: "I had such a nervous stomach I was unable to eat regularly. Lots of times I was unable to hold any food on my stomach. Then I heard about HADACOL. After the first few bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now my stomach doesn't trouble me at all. I eat anything I want. HADACOL is wonderful. You can see that, if it did so much for me after suffering so." (A big improvement is often noticed within a few days' time. One of the many advantages of HADACOL is that continued use helps prevent such stomach distress from returning. Don't continue to suffer. Start taking HADACOL today!)

Mrs. L. Crifasi, 327 N. 14th Street, Springfield, Illinois: "I am elated with the wonderful results obtained by taking HADACOL. I had emotional indigestion, which is stomach distress and makes a person feel down and out. HADACOL seemed to be prepared for my ailment, for it made a new woman of me."

W. E. Hoxworth, a skilled maintenance man in Waco, Texas: "I almost had to give up my job because of suffering from stomach distress. I couldn't hold my food, as no food agreed with me. After hearing about HADACOL and completing a second bottle, I began to feel better and regain the weight I lost, and suffered no more indigestion. I now take HADACOL regularly to help stay well." (Why don't you try HADACOL?)

Mrs. J. Sciessinski, 514 Krieger, Ottumwa, Iowa: "My daughter, Marilyn Sue, is five years old and for some time lacked pep, had a poor appetite, was generally run-down. Since giving her HADACOL, we have noticed wonderful results. She has a much better appetite, eats everything on the table and doesn't seem tired like she used to. Incidentally, she likes to take her HADACOL, too." (Kiddies sure do like HADACOL.)

LeBlanc—eminent statesman of Louisiana and creator of this great new HADACOL nutritional formula — it's at last possible to relieve the REAL CAUSE of such ailments as neuritis pains, stomach distress, gas pains, heartburn, indigestion, insomnia, certain nervous disorders and a general run-down condition due to lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin.

Senator LeBlanc has just completed a modern $250,000 manufacturing plant and a similar one is well under way so that this wonderful HADACOL will always be available to the public.

What the Great HADACOL Does ...

And continued use of HADACOL helps prevent such ailments from coming back. Naturally, there's an explanation for this. You see, HADACOL not only feeds deficient, run-down systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese — elements so vital to help maintain good health and guard against such deficiency sickness.

Chinese Reds Again Charge U. S. Planes Attack Manchurians

LONDON —(AP)— The Chinese Communists again Thursday accused the U. S. Air Force of violating China's borders.

A broadcast by the New China News Agency, the Peiping government's official organ, charged that American fighter planes on Tuesday killed five persons and wounded five others on Chinese territory, near the China-Korea border.

The Chinese Communists on Sunday registered their first complaint that U. S. plane had bombed Manchuria. The U. S. vigorously denied that charge.

In Tokyo, a U. S. Air Force spokesman Thursday said no American planes have gone north of Korea's boundaries.

"We do not plan to comment on each such report," the spokesman added.

M. Davis, Northwest Runnels County semi-wildcat, two miles southeast of Winters.

This exploration drilled to a total depth of 4,710 feet in barren Ellenburger. It did not encounter any shows of possible production in any zone it drilled through.

It was located 1,124 feet from east and 830 feet from south lines of section 329, H&TC survey. That put it 933 feet southwest of the same operator's No. 1 Davis, the discovery well of the Davis-Palo Pinto field which was completed several weeks ago.

Pegasus Extension Is Completed In Midland

Magnolia Petroleum Company has completed its No. 4 Roy Glass, extension on the Midland County side of the Pegasus multipay pool.

The new addition, located one-fourth of a mile east of the nearest producer, was completed for a flowing potential of 937.65 barrels of 52.9-gravity oil and no water daily.

Flow was through a 24/64th-inch choke. Gas-oil ratio was 1,333-1. Casing pressure was 550 pounds, and tubing pressure was 1,850 pounds.

Top of the pay is 12,815 feet; total depth is 13,069 feet. The nearest producer is Magnolia No. 2 Glass.

Offset Completed By Midlander In Runnels

Earl Wells of Midland No. 1 Harper has been completed as a South offset to the recent Gardner Sand discovery in East Runnels County two and one-haf miles north of Crews.

The No. 1 Harper flowed 858 barrels of 44-gravity oil in 24 hours, through a five-eighths inch choke, from the open hole in the Gardner sand at 3,872-93 feet.

Casing pressure was 585 pounds and flowing tubing pressure was 250 pounds. Gas-oil ratio was 1,-805-1.

Location is 330 feet from the north and east lines of section 7, H&TB survey.

The discovery well was the C. B. Cree No. 1 Sykes, which made 330 barrels of oil in 24 hours.

One Plugged

C. E. (Jack) Prince has plugged and abandoned the No. 1 Lucille M. Fisher, wildcat two miles north of Swenson at total depth of 6,512 feet.

Location was 660 feet from the north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 210, block d, H&TC survey.

Tester Spotted In C-E Runnels

L. D. Gullatt & Jay Kirkmen have spotted their No. 1 E. S. Malone as a 3,000-foot wildcat seven miles northeast of Ballinger in Central-East Runnels County.

It will be 2,179 feet from the south and 812 feet from the west lines of section 38, M. J. Parramore survey 26.

G. W. Strake of Houston will drill the No. 1 Mary L. Stubblefield as an outpost in the Ford Chadbourne field area five miles northwest of Wilmeth.

This 5,800-foot test will be 330 feet from the north and 1,800 feet from the east lines of G. Villareal survey 280.

Canyon Reef Outpost Scheduled For Borden

Shell Oil Company has staked a one and one-quarter mile east outpost to a recently discovered Canyon Reef structure in Southeast Borden County between the Von Roeder and Reinecke Canyon pools.

The proposed venture will be Shell's No. 1 T. J. Sterling, located 679 feet from north and 656 feet from west lines of section 70, block 25, H&TC survey.

Drillsite is one and one-quarter miles east of P. R. Rutherford and Heep Oil Corporation No. 1 John Gilmer Davis, new Canyon discovery in section 68.

Shell acquired the acreage on which the No. 1 Sterling is to be drilled from Brown & Wheeler of Fort Worth, with an obligation to drill two Canyon tests.

Scurry Gets Four More Operations

Magnolia Petroleum Company and Standard Oil Company of Texas have each scheduled a project for the Kelley-Snyder field of Scurry County and Lion Oil Company and Sun Oil Company have spotted locations in the Diamond M-Canyon and North Snyder-Strawn fields of the same county respectively.

Magnolia's Kelley-Snyder venture will be the No. 8 Harvey Shuler, 467 feet from west and 1,870 feet from the south lines of section 292, block 97, H&TC survey inside production on the west side of the field.

Standard will drill its No. 8-5 Mrs. Jessie W. Brown, 467 feet from the south and 975 feet from the east lines of section 441, block 97, H&TC survey, eight and one-half miles north of Snyder at the east side of the Kelley-Snyder pool.

The Lion venture, inside production in the south portion of the Diamond M-Canyon field, will be the No. 49 McLaughlin, 660 feet from the south and 1,802 feet from the east lines of section 182, block 97, H&TC survey. That makes it 12 miles west of Snyder.

Drilling operations are to commence immediately on all four of the projects.

At Mobile, 1,050 persons were evacuated from Blakeley Island across Mobile River, and 380 from Bayou La Batre.

Parts of U. S. Highway 90 along the coast were reported under water at times. The Mobile Causeway to the east was shut down because of high water, but it was expected to be opened up momentarily.

To the west of Mobile, high water blocked U. S. 90 near Pascagoula, Miss.

The storm or its weak leftover wind blew into Central Alabama during the early morning hours.

It threw gales and drenching rains over South Alabama.

Conferences Being Held By Teachers; Last Through Friday

Pre-season conferences for faculty members of the Midland Public Schools began at 9 a.m. Wednesday in the auditorium of the high school, and are to continue through Friday. The sessions, held annually before the opening of school, are designed to orient teachers new to the system and to reacquaint old teachers.

At the general session held from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Wednesday, Superintendent Frank Monroe performed introductions of administrative personnel, and also introduced Delbert Downing, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, who made the address of welcome.

R. W. Hamilton, chairman of the board of trustees of the Midland Independent School District, also spoke to the faculty members, and Monroe spoke on "The Teaching Profession Today."

At 11 a.m., a second meeting was held to outline special services of the schools. Hospitalization, professional organizations, service organizations, audio-visual aids and health services were explained during this conference.

The meeting was scheduled to resume at 1:30 p.m., with grade level meetings at North Elementary School, and junior and senior high school departmental meetings at the junior and senior high schools.

Special Meetings

Music and art teachers were scheduled to attend special meetings at 2:30 p.m., with R. C. Michener, music director, and Inez Parker, art director.

Friday's meetings are to be held at individual schools, with entire faculty of each school meeting at 8:30 a.m. At 10 a.m. teachers will work in classrooms, preparing for school opening on September 5.

General meetings again are scheduled for the afternoon, with Superintendent Monroe slated to speak at 1:30 p.m. in the high schol auditorium, on the subject "The Midland Public Schools."

At 2:30 p.m., a series of talks will begin, outlining the administrative policies essential to the operation of a good school.

WAINWRIGHT COLLECTS

SAN ANTONIO —(AP)— Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, retired, hero of Bataan, said Thursday he had received a check for $1,210, representing $1 for each day he spent in Japanese prison camps.

Cohen—

El Paso at 3:25 p.m. and arriving in Los Angeles at 5:20 p.m.

Cohen had said he was in Texas to investigate the oil business. Ranger Capt. M. P. (Lone Wolf) Gonzaullos, who led arresting rangers at Wichita Falls, said "Mickey decided to leave the State of Texas by his own free will and accord and by air immediately."

Four rangers arrested, fingerprinted, mugged and questioned the Californian at the Wichita Falls Police Station.

Cohen and his party arrived at Odessa, by plane from Los Angeles Wednesday. Immediately a pickup order was given out by the Texas Rangers, but the group made off and was not heard from until Wednesday night, when they turned up in Wichita Falls.

Technical Arrest

With Cohen were two men he introduced as Harry Brook and Denny Morrison of Los Angeles. Cohen referred to Morrison as "my publicity man."

Cohen was put under technical arrest upon arrival in Wichita Falls, but was released to the custody of Jack L. Story, an oil well drilling contractor. Sheriff Hammett Vance said the party came by auto from Odessa.

Story said the Californian contacted him after they reached here. He said he had never seen them before in his life.

The Odessa American reported that when Cohen arrived at Midland airport, a limousine whisked him and four others away—and that the driver reported taking the men directly to "Paul Harvey's place."

'Never Heard Of Harvey'

Harvey, an Odessa sportsman and oil man who has a showplace home a few miles from Odessa, denied Cohen was at his home. He said he didn't know Cohen, didn't know he was coming to town, and had no plans to meet him.

Morrison told the Wichita Falls Record News he, Brook and Cohen never had heard of Harvey.

Morrison said the three flew to Odessa after they had received a hurry up phone call on a hot oil deal there—that they were to meet a man he named as Grant Dillon—but no Grant Dillon showed up, and the deal didn't p..n out.

The three stopped a man on the street, gave him $50 and the man drove them to Wichita Falls. Morrison didn't identify the driver, or better identify Dillon.

He said they decided to come to Wichita Falls when they found the Odessa Country Club wasn't a hotel.

Francis C. Hood, 4419 Wabash, Kansas City, Mo., says that HADACOL has done so much for him in giving him the pep and vitality he now has because he found out his system was deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron, that he wants to fill his pick-up truck full of HADACOL and give it to sick folks—so they, too, can be put on the road to feeling better.

This is Mr. Hood's statement: "Before I started taking HADACOL I was very nervous and sleepy all the time. Seems like no matter how much sleep I tried to get, it didn't work—I would just toss and turn all night. Then in the daytime I would be groggy and sleepy—I just felt miserable all the time. It really got me down—I was beside myself in knowing just what to do. Then one day I heard how HADACOL had helped many other sick folks.

"Now after taking 6 bottles of HADACOL I get a wonderful night's sleep and never wake up once during the night. I'm not a bit nervous any more either. In fact, right now I feel better than I have ever felt in my life, thanks to HADACOL."

MAJOR LEAGUES—

New York Yanks Cop Two, Return To First Place

By The Associated Press

The New York Yankees are leading the American League Thursday and big John Mize is one of the big reasons.

Mize Wednesday hit two home runs—one in each game—as the Yankees dusted off Cleveland 4-3, 3-0 and shoved them past Detroit, which split with Washington.

Washington won the first game 3-2 but Detroit took the second 10-8.

In the National League, Philadelphia stretched its lead to six and one-half games with a 9-8 win over St. Louis. Chicago beat Brooklyn 6-5, Boston defeated Cincinnati 9-4 and New York blanked Pittsburgh 5-0.

St. Louis shoved Philadelphia into the cellar of the American League 2-1, 7-6.

Texas League—

Beaumont Takes Over First Spot

By The Associated Press

Rogers Hornsby's Beaumont Roughnecks bounced into a healthy lead in the Texas League Wednesday night—thanks to a terrific assist from the San Antonio Missions.

While Beaumont walloped Tulsa 16-6, San Antonio kayoed Fort Worth 16-11, 2-0 to drop the Cats a game and one-half back of the Roughnecks. It was the first time Fort Worth has been out of the lead since early May.

For Hornsby's Club it is the climax to a terrific struggle—one that brought them from deep in the second division to the top spot.

Dallas dropped a 6-1 decision to Houston Wednesday in a day game, while Shreveport went ten innings to knock off Oklahoma City 4-2.

Six runs in the seventh inning cinced a victory for San Antonio in its first game and the Missions went ten innings to lick the Cats in the second. They got only two hits off Ray Moore, too.

Beaumont blasted Tulsa for 20 hits, including two singles, a double and a triple by Gil McDougald. The Roughnecks salted the game away with an eight-run fourth inning.

Jerry Witte double home three runs in the third inning to start Houston off to its easy win.

Two walks and a pair of singles helped Shreveport to its game winning runs in the tenth.

Travelers Cop Title

The Shorthorn League baseball season came to an end Wednesday afternoon at Borden Field as the Travelers clouted the Broncos 7 to 0 to win the loop crown. It was the final game of a best-two-out-of-three championship series.

The count stood at one win each before the Wednesday fracas. The Travelers won the first tilt by forfeit when the Broncos failed to field a team.

The Broncos came back in the second game to take a 3-2 decision Monday behind the fine pitching of Celestino Gonzales.

But the die was cast Wednesday. Wayne Parmley hurled the Travelers to the shutout victory in easy fashion. Gonzales was the losing pitcher, being charged with his first defeat in four starts in the playoffs.

Awards will be presented to outstanding players and to the championship team.

Oilers Blast Indians 9 To 1

The Midland Indians take their last shot of the season at the Odessa Oilers at 8:15 p.m. Thursday in Oiler Park at Odessa.

Lefty Leon Hayes is due to pitch for the Indians. Ray Knoblauch or Manny Ortega will go for Odessa.

ODESSA—The Odessa Oilers clouted the ball around like mad here Wednesday night and took an easy 9-1 victory over the Midland Indians in the opener of a two-game series.

Ralph Blair, just returning to the Indians after several days off for a visit to his draft board, didn't have his usual stuff. He was touched for 11 hits by the powerful Oiler batting order, six of them for extra bases.

Lefty Carson issued only seven bingles to the Indians to notch his fourteenth victory.

Midland's only run came after Odessa had piled up a big lead. The tally crossed the plate in the seventh inning on a walk to Bob Phillion and a double by George Firnback.

The Oilers counted two in the first inning, enough to win on, and kept adding more as the game progressed.

Three hits and two Midland errors gave the Oilers three more in the second. They added single runs in the third and sixth before finishing up with two in the seventh on two hits and an error.

Pete Hernandez clouted a homer in the third with the bases empty.

By The Associated Press

Big Spring jumped into third place in the Longhorn League Wednesday night on a 12-6 win over Sweetwater. Vernon dropped back to fourth when it lost to Ballinger 6-4.

League-leading Odessa blasted Midland 9-1 as Jim Carson notched his fourteenth victory and San Angelo knock off Roswell 8-5, using a five-run eighth inning to cinch matters.

Clarence Tinkler set Vernon down with three hits and hit three for four. It was his first appearance for the Cats.

Seven runs in the third inning off six hits, two hit batsmen, an error and a walk insured San Angelo's victory.

Texans Shine As Washington Wins

DALLAS—(AP)—It was homecoming for a flock of football players Wednesday night in the Cotton Bowl and those Texans didn't fail to put on a show.

Lone Star Staters sparkled brightest in a wide-open offensive struggle which the Washington Redskins won over the Detroit Lions 28-24 as a crowd of 50,000 looked on.

Bobby Layne, the great passer of the University of Texas who had his greatest day in football in the Cotton Bowl in 1946 against Missouri, was up to his old tricks. He completed 14 passes out of 15 for 209 yards and three of his throws brought touchdowns as he kept Detroit in the lead most of the time.

Doak Walker, Southern Methodist's famed All-America, also had a big night, taking six passes for 123 yards and dazzling the Redskins with his sleek running.

And Cloyce Box of West Texas State caught two of Layne's touchdown throws.

The Old Master

But it was that greatest passer of football history—that indestructible Slingin' Sammy Baugh—who came through when the chips were down and when Washington sorely needed help.

Young Harry Gilmer of Alabama had done a good job, completing six passes out of ten for 168 yards and two touchdowns. But it was Baugh who pulled the Redskins together for a great 80-yard drive with four minutes to go. Passes from Baugh worked the ball down to the one-yard line where, on fourth down with one foot to go, Bob Goode of Texas A&M rammed over for the winning touchdown.

Sam completed eight passes for 103 yards while he was making periodic visits to the line-up.

Stout Of TCU

Pete Stout, the old Texas Christian fullback, was another bright star for Washington. He took three passes for 72 yards and was rough smacking the line when a few yards were needed.

Walker kicked a 15-yard field goal and three points after touchdown for Detroit. He also gave the crowd a thrill with some quick thinking in the clinches. Back to run and trapped near his goal line, the Doaker stopped suddenly and kicked the ball far down the field. It carried to the Washington 34.

Rotary, Western Plastic Triumph

The tables were turned Wednesday night in the Shaughnessy playoffs of the JayCee-sponsored City Major League. The Rotary Engineers outscored Standard of Texas 7-5 and Western Plastic blasted out an 11-0 victory over the Shell nine. In both cases the winners lost their opening games Tuesday.

The Engineers got off on the right foot with a three-run rally in the first frame. Lefty Martin drove in one tally with a line single and the other two runs scored on a wild throw to third base.

Standard went into the last inning trailing 7-3. Bob Evans started the surge with a booming double. The next batter flew out and then Harold Sherrod plated Evans with a double. Jim robbed Bill Smith of an apparent home run with a great running catch out beyond the lights in left field and Sherrod was held on second. He scored moments later on Milt (Daddy) Montgomery's vicious one-bagger. Hugh Reynolds grounded out to end the rally.

Finalists in the City Major League playoffs will be determined Thursday night on the Wadley Park diamond as Western Plastic meets Shell and the Rotary Engineers play Standard of Texas. The Plastic-Shell tilt is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. Each of the four teams have won one game.

Evans took batting honors for the game with a double and two singles in four trips. Martin hit two for three for the winners.

Jerry Matejek's mound victory was aided by four unearned runs.

Western Plastic showed its usual snap and power to good advantage in downing the hard-trying Shell nine. Dell Taylor walloped a grand-slam homer to right field and big Harold Wilson drove a Will Salmon pitch down the third base line for a four-bagger with one man on base.

Winning pitcher Jack Dunlap gave up a double to Frank McCormick and a single to Hilton Ladner in his four innings on the mound. He struck out two and walked one. Burt David singled off Phil Brock with two away in the last inning for the only other Shell bingle.

The line scores:

Coaches Expect 37 To Report For A Squad

The Midland Bulldogs swing into action at 8 a.m. Friday in the first workout of the 1950 season at Memorial Stadium practice field. Coach Tugboat Jones and his assistants expect 37 A team candidates and more than 100 B and C teamers to draw equipment.

The Bulldogs varsity will take both morning and afternoon workouts the first three days of the training season and will go to one-a-day after school opens Tuesday. The afternoon sessions start at 3:30.

Several scrimmages with Class A teams from District 5-A have been lined up for the Bulldogs before their opening game with Ysleta here September 22.

The Bulldogs this year will have probably better material than they have had in several seasons. The line will be heavy and will be studded with returning lettermen at every position.

The backfield, although lacking speed will be a group which saw enough game action last season to make it a good outfit. Several lettermen are returning for duty.

The varsity will play one of the roughest schedules in years, meeting Ysleta, Forest High (Dallas), Mineral Wells, Sweetwater, Brownwood, Plainview, Big Spring, Odessa, Lubbock and Lamesa in that order. Ysleta, Mineral Wells, Plainview, Big Spring and Odessa will meet the Bulldogs in Memorial Stadium.

The MHS coaches went into training 10 days ago and are in shape to get things started off right from the first minute. Coach Jones heads the staff and will be assisted by Line Coach Audrey Gill, End Coach Red Rutledge, B team Coaches John Hidgon and Keith Bobo and C team Coach Pat Patterson.

The varsity squad will include:

ENDS — Jimmy Linebarger, Bill Spence, Graham Mackey, Bill Medart, W. H. Black, Leo Hatfield and Dwane Bush. Linebarger, Mackey, Medart and Bush are lettermen.

TACKLES — Bob Woods, Stan Coker, Charles Hendrix, Fred Underwood, David Laverty and Guy Vanderpool. Woods and Coker are veterans.

GUARDS—Pete English, Dalton Byerley, Charles Jones, Jerry Culp, Glenn Baker and Al Scoggins. English, Byerley and Culp are lettermen.

CENTERS—Jimmy O'Neal, Robert Burks and Loren Roberts. O'Neal and Burks are lettermen.

Season Grid Tickets On Sale Friday

Friday is the day! The time is 8 a.m.

Season tickets for the home games of the Midland Bulldogs go on sale at the Chamber of Commerce. The advance sale will last only until Saturday noon.

A canvass of oil companies and business firms will be conducted by members of the Bulldog Booster Club and the Chamber of Commerce to help make this year's season ducat sale the most successful ever.

For just $6 you can purchase a ticket good for all five home games of the Bulldogs.

Fans are urged to take advantage of the opporunity to buy tickets early.

Pilot Blamed For Dallas Air Disaster

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Civil Aeronautics Board reports the probable cause of an American Airlines crash that killed 28 at Dallas last November 29 was the faulty execution of a landing approach with one engine out.

Lawrence Claude, 52, of Fort Worth, a pilot for American Airlines for 18 years, was pilot of the plane.

The report said Claude "did not comply with the approved operating procedures for an engine-out approach with a DC-6 aircraft."

Malik's Term As Council President Expires Thursday

LAKE SUCCESS —(AP)— Jakob A. Malik's month as president of the United Nations Security Council ends Thursday.

For the 31 days of August the Russian delegate has used the presidency to hamstring council consideration of the Korean war and explode propaganda blasts against the United States and the other Western Democracies.

Observers expected him to fire his biggest gun at Thursday afternoon's session but didn't know what he'd use for ammunition. They were sure, however, Malik would not turn over the chair to Britain's suave Sir Gladwyn Jebb, September president, without one final propaganda barrage.

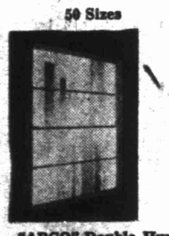

Malik has indicated he will continue to attend council meetings after his presidency ends.

Youth Center Chatter

By JUNE HAZLIP and JOYCE HOWELL

Hello, Hello, Hello! We told you we'd be back again this week and sure enough . . . here we are! We really are in a festive mood on account of how the big formal is set Thursday night. We hope to see everyone there! Fellas, if you haven't got a date already, why don't you pick up that phone and call some lucky gal! It isn't too late and we'll bet that she'd love to go!

This is "GET ACQUAINTED WEEK," you know, and we noticed that several Teeners had their pictures in The Reporter-Telegram Sunday. West Texas Office Supply, seemed to have the most Youth Center regulars, with Camden Chancellor, Leo Manning, Dwayne Hanway and Bill Adams. (Bill and Dwayne are in the Air Force now, having left this week.) The Reporter-Telegram also had a goodly array of Teeners with Charles Linebarger, Robert Price, Russell Moore, Jim Allison and Glen Pine. Don Clark, Preston (Bob) Conner and Marshall Meeks were seen on the Piggly Wiggly page, while Yates Brown and Casy Harding grinned out of the Furr Food ad. Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn, the Youth Center directors, Jo Underwood and Fran Claybrook were on the Ray Gwyn Office Supply page. Don Frasier, Luther Mooney, and Don Bradshaw are working hard for Johnson News Agency. Tom Armstrong and Richard Patton added to the A&L Lumber Company ad with their smiling faces, and Bill Morningstar was in the Rockwell Brothers Lumber Company ad. Bunt Hightower, R. A. Whitson, Phil Slough and Mike Brunner were the Teeners pictured with Brooks Grocery, Baker Oil, Midland Studio and Basin Supply, respectively. Fred Harvey and James Dobson were seen on the Penney's page.

We're going to "Get Acquainted" this week . . . won't you? If you are a newcomer to Midland or if you just haven't gotten around to the Youth Center, then come on down during "GET ACQUAINTED WEEK." You'll meet loads of people . . . sane and otherwise . . . around the Center!

We think Wayne Richardson was the "Musical Attraction" of the week. He was seen, and heard, playing . . . uh, playing . . . uh, well, playing something! We aren't sure what it was but it sounded very interesting.

Seems as though the migration back to schools all over the country already has started. Bill Little and Nancy Warren left this week and by now, they will be hard at work. Nancy will be a sophomore at Radford School for Girls in El Paso, and we have been unable to find out about Bill's destination. Maggie Murphey will leave Sunday for St. Louis, Mo., where she will be a freshman at Washington University. David Weaver also left this week to register in Tulsa University. David and former Midlander Ronny Estel plan to attend the school together.

Yep, with school about to open, Teeners are beginning to trickle home from vacations all over the world! (Well, anyway, all over this half of it!) Emily Hamilton returned this week from a month long trip to Guatemala with friends. We asked Emily how she liked the trip . . . quote "had fun." The biggest excitement of the trip, according to Emily, was when they missed a hurricane and an erupting volcano by one day. Said Emily . . . "What a disappointment . . . we missed all the fun!" We bet the rest of the party was just as glad to have missed it! Emily sailed from New Orleans to Cuba, where she spent two days before going on to Guatemala. The Mayan Indians, their customs, dress and homes were a source of much interest to Emily. Anyone wishing to hear Emily spout Mayan and Guatamalan can find her around most anytime. She'll speak it but we doubt if you'll understand her . . . we tried.

Emily wasn't the only Midlander who had the pleasure of visiting in Guatemala this Summer. Frank and Ann Ashby were there earlier in the Summer, a fact we neglected to mention in an earlier column . . . our apologies, kids!

Nancy Warren returned last week from Alaska, but was off again, almost immediately, for school. We did manage to catch her long enough for a statement on her trip. Said Nancy . . . "Alaska was all right, but you should have seen the boys on the boat!" Nan and several of her friends have been sporting little silver totem poles on chains around their necks since her return. Cute!

Watson LaForce, a lad we don't see around in the Winter much, will return to NMMI in Roswell, New Mexico, September 4. Watson will be a senior. Also off to NMMI this year will be Charles Faris.

Daffy Hikers

Oophs, we meant to say "Daffy and her hikers!" Yep, Daffy Tabor, Gail Black and Dorothy Black hiked all the way to Odessa (20 long miles) this last week. These three girls left Midland early in the morning (before five o'clock) and walked to Odessa. They refused all rides and stopped only to eat and dip their feet in the VFW Swimming Pool as they passed by. They arrived in Odessa around noon. The reason for this jaunt was that they wanted to visit friends over there and all the Midland teeners had bet the girls they wouldn't make the trip. Daffy said they really were worn out by the time they got within sight of Odessa, but by telling themselves the trip was almost over, they gathered up their energy and finally made it! Mrs. J. J. Black went over after the girls and brought them home that evening. Even after their long hike, Daffy still had the energy to get cleaned up and go down to the Center that night.

Jimmy Lock and Freddy Bilbo also returned from a short trip this last week. The two boys went to San Angelo with Jimmy's parents on Saturday evening. They returned on Monday morning—by thumbing a ride home. The boys were all ready to thumb a quick ride home when they discovered they had been standing on the wrong highway for quite a long time! They walked over to the new Midland highway and soon got a ride—on a truck with cows and a few pigs. They did get back to Midland, safe and sound, and from the way they talk, we'd say they had a nice time.

The girls were—and still are talking about the big dance Thursday. This is the final Summer formal dance of the year. The college teeners soon will be leaving for another year away from home and this will be the last big get-together. Music will be furnished by Jimmy Furman and the dancing begins at 9 p.m. The dance will end at midnight, after refreshments have been served. Hope we will see a lot of you at the dance.

Bowling truly is a great sport—and many teeners agree. Tom Carrathers, Christmas Barber and Wayne Richardson were at the bowling alley the other night and having a grand time. Tom was rather bored with the way the game was progressing, so he did a few trick shots—you know, the type of shots you see only in the movies. Tom bowled a few times by rolling the ball between his legs. Of course, the ball always went in the gutter! —but, with a few years of practice, he may keep the ball in the alley.

Barbara Whitson really was dressed up a few nights ago. She had on a new pair of bright red high heels and they certainly were pretty shoes. The boys teased her a lot about the new shoes, but we certainly liked them.

"Is he really a wonderful person?" "Why, he certainly is!" "Everytime he asks me to buy a Coke for him he actually gives me a whole nickel for it!" Who is this wonderful guy? Why, he is Jerry Webb, and from what Charlie Douglass tells us, he is beyond comparison with the average person. We haven't decided whether Jerry pays Charlie or not.

We noticed a couple of very unusual hats this last week at the Center. Russell Moore was sporting a small straw hat, much like those worn by donkeys, and very becoming to Russell. Don Forrest also was wearing an unusual hat. His was a Napoleon hat from way back.

That's about all for this week, so, so long for now. Don't forget about the dance at nine, and we'll be seeing you!

Red-Directed Group Uses Assassination In Anti-Vietnam Coup

SAIGON —(AP)— The Communist-led Vietminh today are employing wholesale political assassination in a caluculated drive to disrupt organization of the French-sponsored state of Vietnam.

Ho Chi Minh's terrorists have designated Bao Dai government officials as their leading targets. The strategy is to rob the infant Vietnamese government of key members and to frighten others away from official service.

Terrorists has wounded two Vietnamese cabinet members and shot down several newspapermen within the last weeks in Saigon itself. The most recent victim is the Deputy-Governor of Central Vienam who was killed at his desk in the provincial capital, Hue. The assassins escaped in each case.

Only the attacks on prominent individuals are publicised. But in towns and villages all over the country, Vietminh terrorism is applied.

The Vietminh Radio recently disclosed that during 1949, in South Vietnam alone, 2,385 "spies and enemy agents" were killed, and 1,633 other wounded. The broadcast said 213 village officials were "suppressed" and 104 others forced to quit.

In the Indochina war, the French also use mass terrorism. Whole villages are sometimes razed on flimsey evidence that they have harbored Vietminh or are accountable for some local Vietminh operation. The taking of hostages is practiced by both sides.

Prime objective now in securing French forces are being augmented by a Vietnamese national army and expanded police agencies.

Powers of police normally have been turned over to the Bao Dai government. However, the French have maintained their own police security forces which work closely with the Vietnamese.

To date, well organized Vietminh underground works effectively in Saigon, principal stronghold of French power in Indochina. Bombs are thrown almost nightly into the city's crowded cafes to warn the populace that the Vietminh are omnipresent. Killings occur on busy streets with bystanders making no effort to halt the escaping assassins.

The Vietminh terrorists have been helped in their work by at least the tacit cooperation of the people. Many of them are in open sympathy. Others fear retaliation.

No quarter is asked or given and no holds are barred by either side. The Vietminh have publicly marked the top police officials of the French and Vietnamese Surete for execution. Some of the sentences have already been carried out.

The French and Vietnamese Surete won their most important victory recently. The leaders and most of the Vietminh terrorist organization for Saigon were rounded up in a single day's raids. Valuable files were taken as well as weapons and propaganda material.

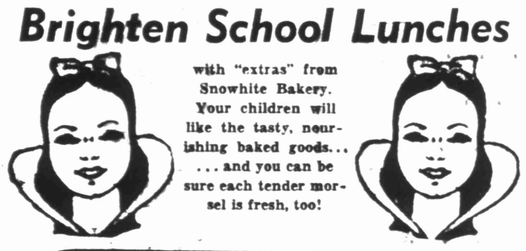

The Vietnamese Chief of Surete, Nguyen Van Tam, found his own dossier the most interesting among those seized. He was scheduled to be assassinated before July 30.

It is a certainty that the police will soon face a replacement terrorist cell furnished by the vast Vietminh underground that is fed from the areas controlled by Ho Chi Minh's troops.

The Vietminh underground in the French zone is part of and corresponds to the administration in the Vietminh areas. The twin cities of Saigon and Cholon are demarcated as a special zone. It comes directly under the jurisdiction of the provincial "Administrative Resistance Committee." A strong attempt is made to collect taxes on a systematic basis.

Salad Meals Need Added Protein

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

A large salad for lunch on a hot day may be all you want. However, your body needs some protein despite the weather. That's why many chefs in famous restaurants add strips of cheese to their salads. The cheese, rich in protein turns the refreshing salad bowl into a one dish hot day meal.

Sour cream, another dairy food growing steadily in popularity, makes a refreshing salad dressing. Try these two recipes together and stay cool and well fed at the same time.

Cheese Vegetable Salad
(Serves 6)

One-half pound American cheese, 1 package frozen peas, cooked, 10 to 12 black olives, 6 stalks celery, 3 green pepper rings, 1 bunch radishes, lettuce leaves.

Cut cheese into strips about 1/4-inch wide. Arrange lettuce leaves in bottom of a red or yellow glass bowl. Place olives in the center of the dish. Spoon cooked peas into three lettuce cups placed on each of three sides. Slip cheese strips through green pepper rings and place between the mounds of peas. Place the celery stalks and radishes in remaining corners. Serve with sour cream dressing and tall glasses of cold milk.

Sour Cream Dressing
(Makes about 1 cup dressing)

One cup sour cream, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

Combine sour cream, sugar, mustard and salt. Slowly stir in lemon juice. Serve with cheese vegetable salad.

Bookkeeper Turns Talents To Rosin

LAKE BUTLER, FLA.—(AP)—One day Tom Aycock of the Aycock-Lindsey Corporation, a turpentine firm here, mentioned that he needed another rosin grader. Mary Margaret Raulerson, a bookkeeper for the firm, said jokingly:

"Let me grade it."

He did and now Miss Raulerson is the first woman authorized by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to grade rosin.

"I was a trifle nervous at first," she stated. "But I got over that and finally caught on."

In her work Miss Raulerson classifies the rosin after it is processed in the firm's twin-fire still and put in drums. She compares samples from each drum with a U. S. Bureau of Standards grading chart. On an average she grades about 42 drums a day.

1,150 Youngsters At Film, Hear Talk

More than 1,150 Midland youngsters attended a free movie and heard a safety talk Wednesday at the Yucca Theater.

They saw the film "Robin Hood" and listened to a talk by Col. Milan Plavsic, Director of Public Safety for the City of Midland.

The free movie was sponsored by Midland Theaters, S&Q Clothiers, Dunlap's and Midland Hardware.

A tall can of evaporated milk contains 14 1/2 ounces of undiluted milk; to dilute mix it with an equal amount of water.

PINEAPPLE FROSTING

A half cup of drained crushed pineapple that is left over may be utilized in a frosting for bought cup cakes. Cream three tablespoons of butter or margarine with a dash of salt and a half cup of sifted confectioners' sugar. Then add alternately two-and-one-half cups more of the sugar and the half cup of pineapple. Sifting the confectioners' sugar helps to make the frosting smooth.

DELICIOUS DRINK

PARBOIL PEPPERS

It's a good idea to par-boil green peppers before stuffing them so as to cut down on the baking time.

When onions begin to sprout they may be wrapped in waxed paper or aluminum foil and placed in the refrigerator. Just make sure that they are tightly wrapped so their odor won't escape and affect other foods.

CHEESE OMELET

When adding cheese to an omelet try dicing, rather than grating it, and fold in just before the eggs are set.

TIP ON CUSTARDS

The reason custard cups are put in a pan of hot water during baking is to keep the temperature around them even.

Tint, Starch White Gloves

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

The care of white fabric gloves is a persistent year-round problem with many women who use them both for a light touch in Winter and for a frosty accent in Summer.

To keep your gloves from losing their costume importance, as they do with first signs of dirt or dropiness, try starching them after each washing.

This coats them with a soil-resistant film and provides a body which protects against wear and prolongs their life.

If an end-of-season examination of your gloves indicates they are stained, yellowed from age or marred with fingertip grime that resists your best efforts, dyeing is one answer.

Black, navy or brown will usually conceal these defects, and you can derive every possible day of wear from your gloves without apology for their appearance.

The same starch trick that kept them spruce in their white-as-lamb days will enhance their dark-horse era too.

PINEAPPLE CHERRY COBBLER takes on added flavor when topped with ice cream to make a delicious summer dessert.

Here Is An Ideal Summer Dessert

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Here's a pleasant Summer picture—an oblong heat-resistant glass utility dish filled with pineapple cherry cobbler. And on top of each individual cobbler goes a large scoop of bulk ice cream. Interested?

Pineapple Cherry Cobbler a la Mode
(Serves 6)

One quart vanilla ice cream (bulk), 6 slices canned pineapple, 2 cups canned pitted sour cherries, drained; 1/2 cup chopped nut meats, 2 cups sifted flour, 1/2 cup sugar, 3 teaspoons baking powder, pinch of salt, 1/4 cup butter, 1/2 cup milk, 1 egg, beaten.

Place ice cream in freezing compartment of the refrigerator until ready to use. Arrange pineapple slices and cherries in a buttered 2-quart heat-resistant glass utility dish. Sprinkle with chopped nut meats.

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together. Cut butter into flour mixture until particles are the size of small peas. Combine milk and beaten egg. Stir into flour mixture mixing just enough to dampen the dry ingredients. Pat dough out lightly on a floured board about 1/4-inch thick. Cut into 6 rounds with a 3-inch biscuit cutter.

Place rounds on top of cherries in approximately the same position as the pineapple slices. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for one hour. When serving, invert each serving so that the biscuit is on the bottom. Top with a large scoop of ice cream.

Apple Cheese Crisp
(Serves 5)

Five cups sliced apples, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/2 cup grated Cheddar cheese, 2/3 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup uncooked oatmeal, 1/4 cup butter.

Arrange apple slices in a greased 10-inch heat-resistant glass fluted edge pie plate. Pour lemon juice over apples. Combine cheese, sugar, spices, salt, oatmeal and shortening; mix thoroughly. Spread over apple slices. Bake about 50 minutes in moderate oven (350 degrees F.). Serve hot or cold.

EASY TO MAKE

Pineapple Upsidedown Cake is easy to make now that there are so many good white cake mixes on the market. Just melt six tablespoons of butter in an eight-inch square pan, then sprinkle with two-thirds cup of brown sugar and arrange a No. 2 can of crushed pineapple (well drained) over the sugar. Add the cake batter and bake in a moderate over for 50 to 60 minutes. Be sure to let the upside-down cake stand for about five minutes before turning it out on your serving plate.

HOT WEATHER SUPPER

Serve a puffy omelet with a tomato sauce for a hot-weather supper. To make the omelet separate the yolks from the whites, then beat both and fold together—whites into yolks. Don't turn the omelet when the bottom is cooker, just cover the skillet until the top is firm.

CHEF'S SALAD

Nothing's better than a Chef's Salad for a warm weather luncheon. All you do to make it is to add thin slivers of chicken, tongue or luncheon meat, and Swiss cheese to a bowl of salad greens. Use lettuce, endive, escarole, chicory and watercress for the greens if they are available.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Burglars And Things

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, was talking with the Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf. They were there at the Huffen's hollow tree house.

"Daddy Ringtail," said the Huffen, "I have been doing some thinking, I have."

Daddy Ringtail smiled to hear these words. Doing some thinking is always a happy thing to do. Besides, the Huffen doesn't think very often.

"Yes," said the Huffen, "I was thinking, I was, that I would make something to keep away burglars and things from my house."

Daddy Ringtail smiled again. Oh, he knew that burglars and dangerous things were never found in the Great Forest. And so he knew there was never a reason for the Huffen to build a something to keep them away.

Well, Daddy Ringtail didn't tell the Huffen that his thinker wasn't working well. Daddy Ringtail didn't tell the Huffen that there weren't any burglars or dangerous things in the Great Forest. Daddy Ringtail waited to see what would happen. Right away it began to happen, all right.

The Huffen got out his hammer and saw and nails and some wood. He hammered and sawed and sawed and hammered and chuckled all the while. Oh, the Huffen was very pleased with himself, he was, and pleased with the thinking he had done about the thing he was doing.

At last he had done it. There! All finished. He had made a little box with a lid. Yes, and when a someone raised the lid, up would jump a little wooden man. The man had a wooden hammer in his hand, and as soon as he jumped out—"Kerbong!" is what he would do with his hammer on the head of anyone standing near. Too bad now if any burglars or dangerous things came around, but the Huffen didn't care at all that there were no burglars or dangerous things. No sir, he didn't care.

He had thought of the fun of making the man in the box, and now he had made it and had his fun, and so the Huffen's thinker was working all right this time, it was, all on a very fine day. Happy day!

"Cherry Juniors" Are Summer Treat

Here's a summer dessert dish which combines the tart taste of red cherries with the smooth goodness of cream cheese. The result—"Cherry Juniors"—a real eating treat for all the family.

Here's how to make this delicious five-ingredient dessert:

1 #2 can pie cherries
⅓ cup sugar (or to taste)
2 tablespoons tapioca
Pastry using 2 cups flour
or
1 package pie crust mix
1 package cream cheese (3 oz.)

Drain cherries and measure 1 cup juice. Combine sugar and cornstarch, and stir in the 1 cup juice. Heat to boiling, boil for 1 minute, stirring constantly. Meanwhile make pastry—line 4 individual pie pans and bake about 15 minutes at 525 degrees F, then allow to cool.

Combine cherries with cooled, thickened juice and pour into cold pie shells. To garnish — top with cream cheese mixed with sufficient cream or milk to soften slightly. (Makes 4 individual pies.)

To make twisted edge on pie crust: Cut pastry strips ¼ inch wide and twist two strips together. Moisten edge of pastry in pan and place twisted strip in place, pressing gently.

Humble Esso Extra gives Texas motorists Extra value

First of modern, post-war gasolines still the leader in quality parade

Improves performance of any car

Change to Esso Extra, the gasoline that has the highest anti-knock rating statewide in Texas.

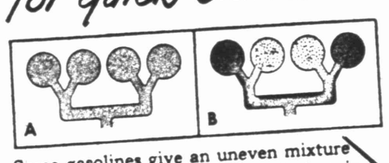

First of modern post-war gasolines, Humble Esso Extra still gives Texas motorists something extra for their money... extra anti-knock performance, extra power, extra quick pick-up, a patented solvent oil that keeps your engine extra clean.

Many automobile dealers recommend Esso Extra for new cars with high compression engines; Esso Extra's extra qualities give better performance to any car, whatever the make or model.

You'll prefer Esso Extra — fill up with this fine gasoline at any Humble sign.

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING CO.

Extra power... for quick starts, hard pulls

Some gasolines give an uneven mixture of gasoline and air to the cylinders in your car, as shown in Sketch B. This results in uneven sluggish performance. Esso Extra is so manufactured that you get an even, powerful mixture in every cylinder (Sketch A); this means extra power from your car.

The patented solvent oil in Esso Extra keeps your engine extra clean...

This oil is not a lubricant. It enters the engine with the gasoline and dissolves the gummy substances which collect carbon and soot on top of pistons and under valves. These go out the exhaust, leaving your engine extra clean.

Ask your friends about Esso Extra

Many of them will use no other gasoline. They want the extra value they get when they buy Humble Esso Extra. Once you try it, so will you.

Still the Leader!
