Government Moves To Minimize Travel

Reservations Cut To Five Days And Soldiers Furloughed As Workmen

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Faced with a tremendous rail transport job as the nation's armed might swings toward Japan, the government today:

1. Decreed that reservations on passenger trains may be obtained no more than five days in advance, instead of the present 30-day limit.

2. Ordered 4,000 soldiers furloughed for 30 days' work on the railroads to avert a breakdown and keep troops and supplies rolling to the Pacific.

Effective At Midnight

The five-day limit, effective at midnight tonight, may play hob with many a vacation plan. Unable to buy pullman reservations or reserved seats in chair cars more than five days in advance, departing vacationers will not be sure that they can return on time by rail.

The step was part of a drive to discourage trips considered unessential. Director J. Monroe Johnson of the Office of Defense Transportation, which issued the order, said it was taken to "assure the maximum utilization of the limited amount of space now available to civilians as a result of the greatly increased demand for military transportation."

Will Aid Soldiers

Officials explained that another purpose of the order is to make it easier for furloughed soldiers to obtain train space Under the 30-day limit, it was explained, it was possible for vacationers and other civilians to tie up much of the available space.

However, reservations already made are not cancelled by the order.

Most of the furloughed soldiers, all experienced railroaders, will be assigned to transcontinental lines west of Chicago which are carrying the heaviest loads and are the hardest pressed for workers.

Due On Jobs Next Week

The soldiers are now being "screened" for the assignment and will begin reporting on the job next week. They will receive both Army pay and regular railroad wages fo rtheir work as brakemen, boilermakers, locomotive firemen, machinists and similar jobs. All will be over 26 years of age and the majority will be past 30.

The furloughs were authorized as a result of an "urgent" request from the railroads, Undersecretary of War Patterson said.

Patterson called on the public to help with the problem by staying off the trains unless it is absolutely necessary to travel and by taking, where possible, a job on the railroads.

Clear Slate For Charter Sought

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, June 29 — Republicans asked the Senate leadership today to clear the books of other legislation for early and full consideration of the United Nations charter.

Caucausing shortly after their chairman, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, had told the Senate that the "heart and core of humanity's hope for tomorrow" lie in the peaceful adjustments pledged in the 50-nation agreement, the minority gave a green light signal to speedy consideration of the treaty.

Full Attention Asked

At the same time, Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the Republican steering committee, said the minority wants other issues laid aside when hearings begin, possibly July 9, so that members can devote their full attention to the international document.

Vandenberg, one of the United States delegates to San Francisco, told 64 attentive colleagues that he intends to support the United Nations charter "with all the resources at my command." When he had finished there was thunderous applause.

But it seemed likely that the Republican side would provide one of the major fights of the ratification debate with proposals to limit the power of Edward F. Stettinius, jr., former secretary of state, who has been named by President Truman as this nation's representative on the powerful security council.

Vandenberg's Appeal

Vandenberg's appeal for Senate approval of the charter followed a similar plea yesterday by Chairman Connelly (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee. The Michigan senator said he is committed to wholehearted support of the document he helped fashion.

"I shall do this in the deep conviction that the alternative is physical and moral chaos in many weary places of the earth," he said in a voice made hoarse by the fatigue of nine weeks of conferences at San Francisco.

He expressed doubt that "there could ever be another or a better start."

Speaks 55 Minutes

With 64 colleagues in their seats, Vandenberg spoke for 55 minutes in the second review of the 50-nation agreement that the Senate has received in as many days. Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the foreign relations committee, who led off yesterday, was one of the first to congratulate the smiling Michigan member when he finished.

Thus launched informally, the charter will get its official start when President Truman appears in person at 1 p. m. (EWT) Monday for a 10 minute address and delivery of the document.

Mighty Seventh Closes Tonight

The "Mighty Seventh" closes today and Lubbock county citizens have but little time to prevent it from being a "Weak Seventh," insofar as purchases of E bonds are concerned.

Although the county is well over its over-all quota of $4,540,000, it has been slow to invest in the important "little bonds." At midweek the county had reached only 65 per cent of its $1,700,000 quota.

Campaign heads would not predict that the E goal would be reached but they held an attitude that with an extra spurt "it could be done."

Closes At Midnight

The drive closes officially at midnight.

The county faced a greater job in the Seventh. While the quota in past drives averaged $380,000 a month, the latest campaign set a pace of almost $600,000 a month.

The over-all quota had been exceeded more than $300,000 on June 22.

Neil H. Wright is general chairman of the campaign and Clarence Bestwick chairman of the executive committee.

Man Admits Shooting His Brother-In-Law

BEAUMONT, June 29. (U.P.) — Surrendering to local police, H. H. Henson, a shipyard worker, admitted today that he shot his brother-in-law last night because "there was nothing else I could do."

Henson said he shot Ernest Miller, 21, also a Beaumont shipbuilder, after the brother-in-law threatened him. He said "I had to fire the shot" when Miller returned to his home last night after making the threats earlier yesterday.

Miller came to Beaumont from Fort Worth two years ago.

Pioneers Urged To Attend Ceremony Sunday Morning

Members of the thinning ranks of pioneers who were on hand when the "Iron Horse" puffed into Lubbock 35 years ago have been invited to be special guests at Municipal airport Sunday morning when the first regular scheduled airline plane lands there to mark another milestone in the progress of transportation on the South Plains.

As time is short and there is no available list of persons who were on hand when the first passenger train pulled into Lubbock back on Jan. 9, 1910, the City Airport board has extended a blanket invitation to all those who were present on that historic day to be on hand Sunday morning at 11 o'clock when the Braniff plane lands at the airport.

Those pioneers who saw the arrival of the first train in Lubbock are to take part in the brief radio broadcast program during the inaugural flight ceremonies. Their pictures will also be made in connection with the ceremonies.

New 'Succession' Bill Passes House

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—The House today passed the administration bill putting its speaker next in line for the presidency, after vice president.

A voice vote sent the measure to the Senate where an uncertain reception awaits it.

The legislation, asked by President Truman in a special message two weeks ago, substitutes the speaker for the secretary of state as the official who would take over the White House in the absence of a president and vice president.

If there is no speaker the presidency would go to the president pro tem of the Senate to serve until the House can elect a speaker.

Before passing the bill the House killed a proposal for a special presidential election in the event of a White House vacancy. The special election proposal was attacked as unconstitutional.

Texan Confirmed As Congress Librarian

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—Luther H. Evans of Texas was confirmed by the Senate today as librarian of Congress.

Landon Lauds HST's World Policy Plans

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
Associated Press Staff Writer

KANSAS CITY, June 29.—Alf M. Landon of Kansas observed today after a presidential conference here, that President Truman is developing a foreign policy under which both parties may be able to unite.

The 1936 Republican presidential nominee also declared that the President was fully aware of dissatisfaction with the farm program and that he has in mind "a very practical and sound" flood control program.

Food Problems

Leaving his conference with the President at the latter's hotel suite here the former Kansas governor told reporters:

"The President agreed with me on the general proposition that difficulties in the food program were largely a state of mind" growing out of farmers seeing their crops "rot in the fields" for lack of machinery.

Landon said the President told him he wanted "to develop an American foreign policy that would unite both parties behind it and provide a continuity in our foreign relations" regardless of any differences on domestic issues and any changes in administration over a long period of years."

Bases For Agreement

Landon said that generally speaking "the general policy being developed by the President offers hope that it might be the basis for such an agreement."

Landon did not disclose whether he made any specific proposals to the President on the food problem. He said he did not expect to see Truman again soon. He said he came over from Kansas at the President's invitation.

He said he was in basis agreement with much that the President had to say on foreign policy, but that he had not read Mr. Truman's speech in Kansas City last night

Congratulates MacArthur

President Truman congratulated General Douglas MacArthur today on the successful redemption of his pledge to liberate the Philippines and predicted that a powerful base being established in the liberated islands would play a vital part in the final knockout blow against Japan.

Between visits from a second cousin and his former haberdashery store partner and a speech to a luncheon club in which he gave a biblical prescription he uses to avoid going "high hat," the President:

1. Congratulated Gen. MacArthur upon the liberation of Luzon.

2. Signed an executive order transferring to Agriculture Secretary Clinton PP. Anderson the functions of the War Food administration in line with a program to unify control over agricultural production.

3. Started work again on a message he will submit ot the Senate Monday when he formally presents the peace charter for its ratification.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said the message would require about five minutes to read but he would not confirm Washington reports that it would be delivered in person.

Japs Report U. S. Massing For Major Attack From Aleutians

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Radio Tokyo warned the Japanese homefront today that United States was massing ground and naval forces in the Aleutians for an attack from the north, and disclosed that speedy transfer of Nipponese war industries to Manchuria was underway to escape further destruction from the air.

Tokyo said American mountain-trained fighters and paratroopers were gathering in the Aleutians and the U. S. Ninth Fleet was on the prowl, awaiting a chance to strike the mainland of Japan.

Removal of war industries to the Asiatic continent to escape American aerial blows was admittedly "more fundamental" than "the large scale dispersion of munitions industries in Japan."

Cabinet In Long Session

And while the invasion-anxious cabinet of Premier Suzuki held a seven hour session to discuss "the situation when the homeland may be converted into 'a battlefield,'" Tokyo added that American air attacks had interfered with communications with Manchuria, further complicating the situation.

Tokyo said the U. S. Aleutian force was being stationed on Agattu island, in the outer areas near Attu, while Vice Adm. Frank Jack Fletcher's Ninth Fleet, a light unit of which recently attacked a Japanese convoy in the Sea of Okhotsk, offered another menace from the north.

YANKS TAKE ISLAND 50 MILES BEYOND OKINAWA

GUAM, Saturday, June 30. (AP)—American patrols have occupied all of little Kume island without resistance, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced today—extending the American invasion springboard another 50 miles westward and adding possible airstrip sites and small-craft port facilities.

Tokyo radio, in reporting the landings last Tuesday, asserted "heavy fighting" was in progress, but today's fleet communique said "no enemy troops were encountered." There had been no confirmation of the American landings until today.

300 Miles From Formosa

Kume, within 300 miles of Formosa and 370 from Kyushu, is about seven miles long and three miles wide at its broadest point. Saddle-shaped, the center is flat, with a 1,070-foot peak in the north and a 961-foot height in the south. About three-fourths of the area is forested. Deep channels pierce the protective coral reef at several points and small finger piers and wharves can accommodate small steamers.

Peacetime pursuits of the 13,414 civilian inhabitants included raising sugar cane, sweet potatoes, rice and other crops, weaving pongee and mats and operating sugar mills.

Kume is only 32 miles west of the Kerama islands, the first of the Okinawa group invaded by the Americans.

BIG HONSHU REFINERY BATTERED BY B-29s

GUAM, Saturday, June 30. (AP) — American Superforts pounded the big Kudumatsu oil refining plant near Tokuyama on the Japanese home island of Honshu last night in the fourth air attack on Nippon within a week.

Nearly 50 B-29s struck the refinery of the Nippon Oil company with high explosive bombs just before midnight. The plant is on the southwestern Honshu coast, where other refineries were seriously damaged in first raids on Japan's oil industry May 10.

Several Areas Pounded

Search Liberators of Fleet Air Wing 18, based on Okinawa, struck the coast of Honshu, damaging shipping, warehouses and railroads around Katsuura harbor southeast of Tokyo Friday, today's fleet communique reported. A small Japanese cargo ship was sunk south of Honshu.

A fishing vessel was sunk by search planes of Fleet Air Wing One south of Shikoku the same day, and Marine and Army aircraft from Okinawa struck shipping and shore installations at Amami and the Sakishimas. Sev-

Change In Line Of Succession Sought

AUSTIN, June 29. (AP)—A bill making the speaker of the house next in line to the lieutenant-governor for succession to the governorship will be introduced at the 1947 general session of the Texas legislature, Rep. Will Lee Smith of Beaumont said today.

Smith, chairman of the House committee on privileges, suffrage and elections, said the proposal would make the line of succession as follows; governor, lieutenant governor, speaker of the house, president pro tempore of the Senate and secretary of state.

Bombs Wreck Great Borneo Oil Centers

By SPENCER DAVIS
Associated Press Staff Writer

MANILA, Saturday, June 30.—The once-great Japanese oil-cracking plants and refinery center at Balikpapan on Borneo's southeast coast were being consumed by flames today from 281 additional tons of bombs dropped by airmen of the American Far Eastern Air force.

In announcing this latest and heaviest of a series of neutralization raids, a spokesman at Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said that more than 130 Liberator and Mitchell bombers flew over the Thursday at low and medium altitudes and encountered ovly slight to moderate ground fire.

Whole Area Wrecked

The port's barracks, warehouses and installations of an adjacent airfield already were blazing from more than 2,300 tons of bombs unloaded in the past two weeks by Gen. George C. Kenney's Fifth and 13th Air forces, which make up the Far Eastern Air force, along with portions of the Royal Australian Air force.

Other bombers of those forces hit Kendari and Makassar airdromes, in the southern Celebes across the Makassar straits from Balikpapan. Light Allied naval units shot up the Borneo northwest coastal area at night.

MacArthur's communique gave no further word concerning American warships which he disclosed yesterday were on the prowl in Makassar straits, but attention focussed on Japanese reports that Balikpapan had been under naval bombardment for ten days past.

Jap Reports Ignored

There still was no American confirmation of the Japanese reports, which also have claimed that Allied landing attempts at Balikpapan were repulsed and that Allied minesweepers were busy clearing the way for a new invasion move.

MacArthur's communique today announced that ashore on British North Borneo Australian Ninth division troops completed capture of Beaufort, on the narrow-gauge railway to the Japanese base of Jesselton, and that the Australians controlled 135 miles of the wild north coast from Beaufort southwest to the Miri oil field area.

New Defense Abandoned

In taking Beaufort the Australians met no opposition but found many newly-built pillboxes and trenches—all abandoned.

The Australian force which took the Lutong refineries and Miri oil fields down the coast pushed north and joined forces on the Baram peninsula with another Aussie column that moved down from Seria.

In the Philippines, MacArthur announced continuing extensive patrols in Luzon's Cagayan valley, scene of the Japanese collapse on that island, and said enemy remnants were being further compressed in the mountains to the west. On the southeastern Philippine island of Mindanao mopping-up operations were conducted in recently-freed territory.

Planes Range Afar

U. S. 13th Air force planes gave support to American ground forces in the Philippines, while Fifth Air force Liberators ranged out to China Tuesday night and hit the former Texaco oil center at Shanghai and docks at Canton.

On the all-but-forgotten by-passed front in the Solomons, MacArthur announced that Australian Sixth division troops had taken the key positions on the highest part of the Prince Alexander mountains south of Wewak, Bougainville.

Coroner Recites Sordid Findings Leading Up To Sailor's Slaying

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 29 (AP)—Coroner Theodore E. Steiber held today that Imogene Stevens shot a young submarine sailor in "aura of sex recriminaiton, beer and window smashing reprisals" created by a dispute over a neighbor's husband in which the sailor had no part.

The dispute, said the coroner in a six-page finding blaming the death of the sailor, Albert Kovacs, 19, on the "criminal act" of Mrs. Stevens, occurred just before the shooting last Saturday night between her and Mrs. Charles A. Milton, at whose New Canaan home the slaying occurred.

Meanwhile, late today, Prosecutor Edmond L. Morrison of New Canaan said that Mrs. Stevens would be arraigned in municipal court in that town Saturday at 2 p. m. (EWT) before Judge Arba B. Marvin.

The coroner said that from statements made to police by the Miltons and Mrs. Stevens, 24-year-old wife of an Army major and mother of a six-year-old daughter by a previous marriage, "it would appear that an illicit love affair had existed" between her and Milton, aircraft company executive.

As a result, the finding said, feeling between the two women became "so intense" on the night of the slaying that an altercation occurred between them during which one flourished an icepick and the other hurled a beer glass through a window.

Severe Emotional State

"It must be in this aura of sex recrimination, beer and window smashing reprisals that we judge the acts and the emotional state of Mrs. Imogene Stevens just before the shooting," said the coroner.

Young Kovacs, who lives in nearby Norwalk and was home on leave, had called to see Faith Coombs, a childhood classmate, who lives with the Milton, cared for their three young children and was described by the coroner as more of a companion to Mrs. Milton than a maid.

Kovacs was accompanied by his brother, James, a young Norwalk business man, who drove him over to the Miltons to keep the date, the coroner found.

Absent from the lighted and opened home were Mr. and Mrs. Milton the had taken her for a walk to sober her up, the coroner

Gen. Jacob Devers To Succeed Stilwell

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—General Jacob L. Devers will command the Army ground forces in place of General Joseph W. Stilwell, the War department announced tonight.

Stilwell has taken over command of the 10th Army on Okinawa, succeeding Lt. Gen. Simon Bolliver Buckner, who was killed in action.

Devers, a native of York, Pa., commanded the Sixth Army group in the European theater of operations during the war against Germany. Prior to that he had been deputy supreme allied commander in the Mediterranean theater and commanding general in charge of American forces in the North African theater.

For almost two years at the beginning of the war he was chief of the armored force.

Devers is now in the United States.

Daring Glider Pickup Saves Isolated Trio

By RALPH MORTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLANDIA, New Guinea, June 28. (Delayed)—A ground-skimming transport plane jerked a glider aloft today from "Hidden Valley" in the mountainous wilds of New Guinea and brought out a pretty WAC corporal and two Army airmen, isolated there since a plane crash last May 13.

It was one of the most daring and thrilling rescue attempts ever undertaken in the Southwest Pacific.

Brought out were:

Hazel-eyed WAC Cpl. Margaret Hastings, of Owego, N. Y., whose beauty had so captivated the native women they had offered to build her a "queen's throne."

Lt John B. McCollom, of Trenton, Mo., who calmly assumed charge after the plane of sightseers crashed and burned on a mountain slope, killing 20 other occupants.

Sgt. Kenneth Decker, of Kelso, Wash., the most severely injured of the trio who, although deeply scarred, managed a brave smile as he stepped out with the others on landing at Hollandia today.

Going in and coming back, the glider had to be towed where no glider had been before—at 10,000 feet through jagged, mountain canyons, over treacherous peaks, through or around puffy clouds which might conceal death-dealing mountain tops.

The actual rescue from a glider strip built in the fantastic valley of inter-warring tribesmen by parachuted Filipinos was a thing of split second timing.

The glider, with the trio and two of the Filipino paratroopers aboard, was snatched aloft at 9:47 a.m. by a C-47 which was flying within 20 feet of the valley floor, trailing a grab line. After negotiating the dangerous 150 miles back to Hollandia, the party landed an hour and 20 minutes later.

"The greatest thrill I got," said Miss Hastings, "was when that tow cable held and our glider swooped off the valley floor. I prayed the cable wouldn't break. When we started off into the air safely, I figured someone else could do the praying for me from now on."

The rescue was the climax of daring operations which included parachuting medics to attend the trio's slight injuries, paratroopers to build the glider strip in the valley and risky flights daily to the remote region to parachute supplies and equipment.

Miss Hastings looked extraordinarily fit after the ordeal. Her hazel eyes sparkled. Her face was tanned.

"Send the ambulances away; we don't need them," said bewhiskered McCollom.

The happiest men in Hollandia were the rescue pilots who had worked long on the dangerous undertaking. The crew chief was Pfc. E. F. Sims, of Waco, Tex.

DEAR:

A special flight is due here Saturday as a forerunner to inauguration of regular airline service for Lubbock by Braniff Airways. Included in the special visitors will be Tom E. Braniff, president of the company, and Mrs. Braniff and Charles Beard, vice president.

A special flight will leave Dallas Saturday at noon, pickup a group at Fort Worth and lunch will be served on the plane en route to Lubbock. Arrival is scheduled at 2:45 p.m. and the same plane will leave here a few minutes later, fly to Amarillo with a group of ten Lubbock people, pick up an Amarillo delegation and return to Lubbock by 5:30 p.m.

The first regularly-scheduled southbound plane is due to arrive at 12:10 p.m. Sunday en route from Amarillo to Dallas.

Essair, Inc., will not start passenger service here until after July 20, C. L. Odear, jr., station manager, said this week. Mail and express runs on the Houston to Amarillo line will be established 20 days before passenger service, he said.

Water systems for the Mexican section and Carver Heights will be improved, following action taken by the City commission at Thursday meeting. Work will begin as soon as materials arrive.

During the session, the commissioners authorized the drawing of an ordinance extending the parking meter zones and parallel parking.

After having served as county tax assessor collector since 1937, H. B. Bryan has resigned to enter private business and Bedford P. Carpenter, chief deputy in the office, was named by the county commissioner's court to succeed him.

Bryan will become associated with the Lydick-Hamilton Roofing company, having bought C. H. (Brownie) Hamilton's interest. He also became half owner and partner of Wayne Martin in Hamilton-Martin Sheet Metal works, having acquired Hamilton's share.

No action wa staken by the court of criminal appeals this week in the appeal of Jim Thomas from a death conviction growing out of the Littlefield murder of Dr. Roy E. Hunt and the court may not act before adjourning for the summer, at the end of the week. The court does not sit in July, August and September—its term being set for only nine months of the year. This would mean that, should no action be taken this week, nothing could be announced before October, attorneys here said.

Lubbockites got six degrees of relief yesterday after literally "sweating out" Wednesday, the hottest day — 107 degrees—since July 10, 1940. If you are based in India or China or somewhere near the Equator, likely you won't be the slightest concerned in our weather reports.

Capt. William Aubrey McCarty, plane commander on a B-29 in the Pacific theater of war, is listed by the War department as missing in action, according to a telegram received this week by his father, Rev. C. J. McCarty, pastor of Calvary Baptist church. Capt. McCarty left the states May 13 for the Pacific. His last base in the United States was at Pyote Army Air field.

Lt. (j.g.) Lloyd Croslin, U. S. Navy, former assistant county attorney and partner in a local law firm, is on leave here, visiting his wife and two sons. He reports to San Francisco for ship duty upon termination of his leave.

Aboard the USS Bunker Hill, carrier announced as this week as being hit by two Jap suicide planes and now at Puget Sound Navy yard for repairs were three Lubbock men. They were Delbert R. Waggoner, gunner's mate 1/c, who was wounded and has been recommended for the Purple Heart for his gallant fight in helping to save the carrier after it was hit May 11; Billy B. Sides, seaman 2/c, who was a powderman stationed in the forward area of the ship and remained at his post when terrific fires threatened the big carrier and Lt. (j.g.) Ralph Cocanougher, now home on leave who was a Navy flier based on the carrier.

This week Lt. Cocanougher described the two hits and the fire control work that saved the Bunker Hill, flag ship of Vice Admiral Mitscher.

Sgt. Weldon S. Hudnall, who has been missing in action since Oct. 1944, is declared officially dead, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hudnall through the International Red Cross. He was aboard the ship bearing a group of Japanese prisoners of war being sent to the mainland on Oct. 24 which was sunk some 200 miles off the coast of China. Byrnes Said Slated For Cabinet Post

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—Capital circles heard today that President Truman intends to send to the Senate Monday the nomination of James F. Byrnes to be secretary of state.

The former Supreme court justice and war mobilizer would succeed Edward R. Stettinius, jr., whose resignation and appointment as head of the American delegation to the proposed United Nations organization was announced by the President Wednesday.

Although there is some resentment among senators at Mr. Truman's summary action in altering the status of Stettinius, approval of the Byrnes nomination is regarded as a foregone conclusion.

Southwest Is Slated To Get More Chicken

DALLAS, June 29. (AP)—Civilians in the southwest will be able to get some more chicken as a result of a modification of the chicken set-aside order now in effect in large poultry producing sections of the Missouri-Oklahoma-Arkansas area, C. M. Evans, War Food administration dairy and poultry representative, said today.

Seasonal reductions in current Army buying make the action possible, Evans said.

Under the new plan poultry will still be processed in accordance with Army specifications and 70 per cent of the established goal will be selected and purchased by the Army.

Since the established goal is set up on the basis of a 40-hour week, civilians will get 30 per cent of the 40-hour production in addition to chicken processed in excess of the goal, Evans said.

Plans Uncertain In El Paso Murder Case

EL PASO, June 29. (AP)—Plans for formal arraignment of William F. Main on charges of murder in the slaying of a county poor farm inmate were called indefinite today by Sheriff Alan G. Falby due to the condition of the young man, wounded in a bullet exchange when officers sought to question him.

Falby also said it had not been decided when a grand jury would meet to study the case.

William R. Main of the Philadelphia firm of Main and Co., accountants, visited his son briefly yesterday.

Falby said the father told him that Main left a Pennsylvania state institution for mental patients last March "without permission."

Enhanced Penalty Is Sought For Fowler

An enhanced penalty was asked Friday for B. F. (Lefty) Fowler, 30, when a county court charge of liquor law violation set out two prior liquor law convictions.

Fowler posted bail of $1,000.

Bail in similar amount was given by the defendant several days ago on a charge of aggrivated assault by a motor vehicle, growing out of the complaint of an Army man that Fowler's car had crashed into his on the Slaton highway.

A second count drawn by County Attorney Syrian E. Marbut charged possession of an illicit beverage, whisky on which there was no affixed state revenue stamp.

Arraignment was before Judge Walter Davies.

Liquor Control board Inspector Frank Mitchell, J. N. Yantis and John Truly informed Marbut the raid was staged in Fowler's cabin near Buffalo Lakes, and said the haul consisted of 11 full quarts of Whisky, gin and rum, and a part of another quart of liquor, all found in a "radio-size elaborate bar" which the officals brought into court as evidence.

The cabin, officials said, is fitted out with a neon sign portraying two dice.

Chicago Cubs Reduce Lead Of Dodgers By Even Break

BROOKLYN, June 29 (AP) — Brooklyn and Chicago split a doubleheader today, the Dodgers taking the opener, 5 to 4, with a three-run rally in the ninth and losing the nightcap, 3 to 1. As a result of the outcome the Dodgers' lead in the National League was cut to two and a half games, the Cards, in second place, having won their single engagement with the Phillies.

Hy Vandenberg held the Dodgers to four hits in the nightcap and their only run resulted from a homer by Augie Galan. Vic Lombardi who opposed Vandenberg for eight frames allowed four hits but poor control aided in his downfall. He walked Billy Nicholson and hit Phil Cavarretta in the fourth and both scored when Andy Pafko and Peanuts Lowrey made singles and Mickey Livingston hoisted an outfield fly.

ABC Nips Lions To Extend Lead

Lester York pitched and batted the American Business club junior baseball nine to a three game lead in the American League race Friday afternoon at the Lubbock Boys club diamond with a 14 to 7 win over the Lions club.

York limited the Lions to four hits from the mound, and it was his lusty triple with the bases full and the score tied in the fourth inning that clinched the ball game for ABC.

ABC jumped on John Potts in the first inning for six runs, then while being held scoreless for the next two frames, the Lions staged a game comeback to score two runs per inning and the game at 6-6 in the top half of the fourth.

It was then that the ABC's broke up a good ball game. Clark led off with a single, and stole his way to second and third. George Guy walked and stole second, and Strickland walked to fill the bases. It was then that York drove the ball over the head of the Lions left fielder for the triple. Hits and errors were bunched after this for four more runs, and iced the ball game.

OPTIMISTS SLAMS ROTARY

A big fourth inning, in which 19 runs were scored, featured a 22 to 12 victory for the Optimists club junior baseball nine over the Rotary club team Friday afternoon.

The Optimists started off on Lefty Jack McCabe and continued to pound the ball hard against Johnson to score six runs in the first, three in the third, nine in the fourth and four in the fifth.

Billy Travis had one bad inning, but weathered the storm all the way to turn in the win. The Rotary rallied in the top of the fourth to score 10 runs and take an 11-9 lead, but outside this one inning, Travis was in full control.

Amarillo Gold Sox Blasts Legion Nine

AMARILLO, June 29 (Special)—Jumping on Denny Davidson for eight runs in the first inning, the Amarillo Junior Gold Sox blasted the Lubbock American Legion nine for a 16 to 4 victory here tonight at Tri-State park before a good turnout of fans.

Jack Vaughn, who relieved Davidson, turned in a good pitching job for the rest of the route, but sloppy fielding, coupled with the newness of the lights, the Lubbock club was never able to offer a threat to the superiority of the Gold Sox.

Lubbock got only six hits off Henry and Mathis, while Amarillo was coming up with 11 hits. Lubbock was charged with eight errors.

The two teams will play a return game in Lubbock soon. The Lubbock nine will move on to Hedley tomorrow afternoon for a second game of the present road trip.

Rocky Graziano KOs Champ Red Cochrane

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP) — Rocky Graziano of Brooklyn, knocked out Welterweight Champion Freddie "Red" Cochrane, of Elizabeth, N. J., in 16 seconds of the tenth and last round of their non-title bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The end, marking Graziano's third straight knockout triumph, came with the first punch of the 10th stanza after the bell had saved the champion from a ninth-round kayo.

A terrific right to the chin, Graziano's Sunday punch, floored Cochrane just before the end of the ninth. The bell rang at five although referee Johnny Burns kept counting to eight before he stopped.

Accidental falls from ladders and stepstools in and around the home are responsible each year for about 200 deaths, and thousands of serious injuries in the United States.

WOLVES WIN AGAIN

WACO, June 29 (AP)—The Waco Army Air field Wolves defeated Love field 12-5 last night. It was the Wolves' 16th straight victory. Hoot Evers got two singles and a double in three trips to the plate.

Youngsters Cop Honors At AAU

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP) — Youth definitely took over the Junior National AAU track and field championships today with a trio of beardless high schools youths winning titles in the three featured events from their more mature opponents.

Jack Dianetti, 16-year-old junior East Rochestery, N. Y., High school, pulled the biggest surprise when he steamed by all his rivals in the metric mile, the 1,500 meter run. Eighth at the half-mile mark and no better than fifth at the three-quarter pole he shot by his older rivals in the last 80 yards to win by 10 yards in 4:04.1.

Among his defeated rivals was Carmen Bova of Hunter Field, former Seton Hall and Southern California athlete, and Robert Umstattd of Austin, Texas, undefeated Southwest Conference mile king. Bova, also unbeaten until today, was second and Umstattd sixth.

Only Olympic, National AAU, National Collegiate and I. C.-4A champions are barred from the juniors.

Perry Samuels, 18-year-old graduate of a week from Thomas Jefferson High school in San Antonio, Tex., registered his expected win in the 100-meter dash while August Erfurth, Breckenridge High school graduate of the same length and also from San Antonio, snared the 110-meter high hurdles and a sixth in the 200-meter lows.

Samuels, whose :09.5 for the 100-yard dash is the country's fastest for the year, hit the tape in :11.5, compared with the :11.1 turned in by Charles Parker, from the same school, in winning last year's title.

Samuels finished a stride in front of Rudy Nedd of the New York Pioneer club. Erfurth bounded over the high barriers in :15.3.

In the medieval theater actors were expected to suffer for their parts and actually were beaten so violently on stage that they occasionally fainted.

A Tip To Democracies

Let Them Be "Salesmen," Too

A RECENT dispatch from inside Germany by Curt Riess, the widely known war and foreign correspondent, offers food for thought—especially in the U. S. and Britain. Mr. Riess, whose articles frequently appear in The Morning Avalanche, reports that the Russians are much more lenient in their dealing with Germans in the USSR-occupied zone than are Americans and British in their own territories within the Reich.

This indicates, of course, that Russia still is anxious to sell the communistic form of government everywhere possible—even in the land of its erstwhile enemies. It indicates, too, that Russia will not be satisfied with sovietizing only such neighboring countries as Poland, Hungary, Austria and Finland, but will seek, too, to gain converts in Germany—and everywhere else possible.

The United States, Britain and the other nations of the world still not greatly infected with the disease called communism, will do well to meet the Russia sales offensive with similar sales offensives of their own. While, theoretically speaking, it should not be the business of one nation to influence the governmental policies of another, in practice it is quite conceivable that to exert such influence is desirable, if not essential, for peaceful living and to freedom of the individual.

If the democracies of the world seriously will attempt to sell democracy to the nations which do not now enjoy it, there need be no fear of the errant or backward lands choosing communism.

After all, as W. L. White said in his "Report on the Russians," communism in no way offers or delivers to the individual anywhere near the fruits of satisfactory living which are the everyday fare of the people of the United States.

A Rededication Is Needed

INDICATIONS are now that the next twelve months will be the most crucial time of all for automobile transportation in the United States.

Recent increases in gasoline allotments, although small, will permit more driving that most motorists have been able to do for several years. Although a few more tires are available for B and C card-holders, not many—if any—more will be available to the luckless A card folks. Thus more travel will mean more and greater wear on tires as well as more demands on aging motors, gears, transmissions, etc.

In line with this situation is the urgent appeal of John L. Collyer, speical director of the WPB rubber programs, for strict observance of the 35-mile-an-hour speed limit in the warm months in order to save tire wear.

Collyer said that production of new tires will continue to run behind demand and that it will be impossible to meet military and essential civilian transportation needs for many months. He pointed out that tire wear is 50 per cent greater at 50 miles an hour than at 35. He asked governors of all states to urge civilians to rededicate themselves to the 35-mile limit.

In view of the need for keeping all available cars on the road to prevent transportation breakdowns, it is a rededication all motorists ought to be willing and eager to make—not only in the best interests of the nation as a whole, but for the good of themselves.

The Awful Waste Of War

MOST Americans no doubt realize deeply the heavy losses by death and wounds among the nation's armed forces in the present war. The casualty lists daily tell the tragic story of what has happened and still is happening to the brave lads where the fighting rages. Along with the blighting of the flower of humanity also are losses of materials with which the public is not familiar.

Thus the nation may be surprised to be told that American forces lost 865,056 weapons and 81,379 vehicles, including tanks, in eleven months of fighting on the Western front—from D-Day to VE-Day. These losses do not include hundreds of items of engineering and special purpose equipment ranging from steam shovels to bridges. Eighteen of the latter were lost after they were completed.

Weapon losses included 861,326 small arms and automatic weapons, 2,263 artillery pieces, 958 tank destroyer and 509 anti-aircraft weapons. Vehicle losses included 13,056 tanks and other armored vehicles, 66,698 motor vehicles, not including trailers, and 1,625 amphibious vehicles.

Small wonder that the nation's military leaders never have had any delusions as to the utter wastefulness of war. Statistics of losses of humanity and of weapons and equipment bear them out. But the most sorrowful phase of it all is that while damaged or lost material can be replaced, the men who have given their all on land and sea and in the air are gone forever.

The best way to maintain peace would be to keep a crew of 300,000 foolkillers working in three shifts, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

As the summer passed, Mr. Cutter ate more, slept more, and worked less. Any hour of the day you might find him dozing on his stool, his face supported by his two white hands. If you went to tell him that the water was low, he would pick up his pen and nod with a weary, harassed look as if to say he would come when he could ever get clear of what he was doing. Half and hour later, when you went again, you couldn't find him.

He began to get irritable. One of my favorite pastimes was poring over the hotel register, especially its early pages.

I liked to finger the copper paper weight while I read. Mr. Cutter allowed me to take both that and the register less and less willingly. Often after no more than 10 minutes he began to tap on his desk and beckon. When I put them back, he would straighten them with exaggerated care and then would return to his nap or his circles.

I used to complain a good deal about him. "He's crabby," I said, vehemently. "And Papa is always just so nice to him."

"Your father is nice to everyone," my mother reproved me.

But she must have noticed, as I did, that my father was especially nice to Mr. Cutter. Every noon he took the paper to him, and every evening he sat with him for a time in the office, though they seldom talked.

"Mama," Sue said one day, looking puzzled. "Is Mr. Cutter Ada's fellow?"

"Of course not," my mother answered.

"She likes him anyway," Sue argued.

This was getting more and more apparent to us all. She had made him a beaded napkin ring, and then, undaunted by his indifference, a sweet-grass basket for his handkerchiefs.

"All of us like him," my mother said, being very careful.

"I don't," Julia put in.

"But Ada shows it," Sue persisted. "She ought not to do that, ought she, Mama?"

"It isn't up to us to pass judgment," my mother said. "Of course, if it were one of you girls. . . ."

My cheeks warmed. I showed how I liked Benjamin. I showed it all the time. But Benjamin—whose eyes always went wandering off after Ada—didn't notice. He didn't notice anything any more. He was growing very glum. Once he had done his pumping after supper while Ada was washing the dishes, and they had had a great time plaguing each other.

"You're slower than cold molasses," Ada would taunt.

"Slow, am I?" He would go faster and faster, his big muscles bulging. "A slow-poke, am I?" His face would get red and his breath come hard. Sometimes he wouldn't stop until the water came bubbling from the overflow in the sink. After that he would sit down on the stairs, blocking her way when she started up.

"You let me by, Mister."

"Did you say something?" he would ask, seizing her wrists. "I don't hear very good tonight."

But Ada had no time for him now. Every spare minute went in making things for Mr. Cutter or just sitting on the steps outside of the office.

Benjamin began to do his pumping in the morning. He didn't have a thing to say to Mr. Cutter. If there was a message that had to go to the office, he sent it by Boshy. Day after day he would drive out alone in a carriage, not even seeing me waiting—hoping—on the steps.

Mrs. Guptill kept her eye on everything Mr. Cutter did, ready to find fault. It wasn't just that he was lazy, she said. He was wasteful, too. He left the office inkwell open. At meals he reordered, then neglected to clean his plate. Moreover, he was using too much kerosene. Every morning Ada brought his lamp down, bone dry. All of the other lamps were more than half full. Such extravagance! He must be burning it all night, she said.

Suddenly one day she noticed something. The lamp was bone dry, but the wick barely needed trimming. It didn't make sense. Something funny was going on, she decided.

She lit into Ada, demanding an explanation. Ada flared right back. Let people mind their own business. . . .

This had gone far enough, my mother decided.

That night she spoke to my father about it. "Mr. Cutter is turning this place upside down," she said, "and I think you should discharge him."

"It isn't his fault, is it?" my father demanded.

"Maybe not, directly," my mother granted. "But he is the disturbing influence. Besides, we haven't enough business to warrant his staying."

"Oh, I don't know about that," my father said, picking up his paper. He never liked to face unpleasant facts.

"I know," my mother said. She had gone through a lot that summer, and her patience was getting sorely tried. "He's no earthly good, anyway, and it's costing us money to keep him. I'm going to insist that you send him back." My mother seldom took a real stand.

There was a long, strained silence.

My father got up and folded his paper, "I can't send him back," he said quietly. "I couldn't even if I made up my mind to it."

He went out and closed the door.

Marine Recruiter To Get Discharge

The officer in charge of recruiting at Lubbock Marine corps station, S/Sgt. Charles W. Clark, is in El Paso where he will receive an honorable discharge from the service.

Clark enlisted in the special service branch some three years ago and is subject to discharge under the Marine Corps' new ruling whereby ex-combat men will be returned to recruiting jobs.

S/Sgt. D. N. Pope continues as officer in charge of the local station. He said that 100 young men, 17 years of age, will be eligible for enlistment at the local station during July.

Those men enlisting now will serve for the duration and six months. Recruits wishing to do so may go on to duty immediately, or be placed on the inactive list for 30 days, Pope said.

Those interested are asked to write or call the recruiting office, 217 Post Office building. Pope asked that applicants bring, or enclose in letters, their birth certificates.

Looking At Life ------ By Erich Brandeis

HERE is a little happening that reads like a fable, but if you read on you'll see why I am telling it.

There is a farmer I know who is very poor.

As a matter of fact he is so poor that he couldn't keep up the farm any longer and had to put it on sale.

A real estate man found a buyer for him and offered him $10,000, much less than the farm is worth.

BRANDEIS

But he needed the money so desperately that he was willing to sell at any price.

Then another real estate man came along and offered him $12,000.

The farmer was very happy over that extra $2,000 and eagerly accepted the offer.

Then when the real estate man's lawyer came around and asked the farmer to sign the necessary papers, he said:

"No, I don't think I'll sell for $12,000. I just had a letter from one of my sons who told me not to take less than $15,000."

The lawyer and the real estate man said "No" and left.

The farmer waited a while for a $15,000 buyer but none came. Then he went back to the man who had offered $10,000 and told him he could have the place now at that price.

But the fellow had bought another place, and, at the present writing the farm is still for sale—and now for $9,000 or less and the farmer's bills are pilling up.

* * *

You may ask why I am telling you this story.

Well, I don't know much about politics and statesmanship and all that.

But somehow that story comes back to me every time I read about General De Gaulle and about Tito and about all the little nations that want so much in San Francisco.

Somehow I wonder by what right they think they are entitled to so much when, without our help, they could do so little.

Oh, I know, that farmer has worked very hard all his life and it isn't his fault that he isn't more successful.

But why be so greedy?

When you are little and in debt and can't make ends meet by your own efforts, why not take the best you can get and not sit on your high horse and play the grand seigneur?

* * *

THAT farmer came to his senses after it was too late, and now he's in the soup for fair.

I wish General De Gaulle could read this story, only, unfortunately he can't read English and I don't feel like translating it for him.

And furthermore, when a man knows everything, what can be learn from me?

Elliott's "Loan" Stirs Reform

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

REVELATION of John Hartford's unrepaid $196,000 loan to Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt, made with the late President Roosevelt's reported approval, will result in a closer and more conscientious check on the Internal Revenue bureau's handling of similar politico-economic transactions.

The tax-collecting authority may be required to furnish Congress with periodical reports on refunds, OKs of "bad debt" deductions and other favors to important personages.

The legislators thought that they had established such a semi-judicial agency when they created the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation as far back as 1926. They specifically authorized this House-Senate group of ten members, five from each body, to ride herd on the administration, operations and effects of the bureau's policies. Funds were provided for counsel, economic experts and investigators.

This organization was supposed to be a congressional creature akin to the Office of Comptroller General. It was counted on to keep the legislative branch informed of any skulduggery in this extremely important executive unit. It came into being because of the late Senator "Jim" Couzen's numerous clashes with the Treasury, which was then headed by the late Andrew W. Mellon.

TUCKER

When the Michigan senator and former Ford executive learned of and revealed the fabulous refunds which the pro-business Coolidge administration had made to corporate friends, he insisted on and obtained authorization for this committee.

In return for his activities, Internal Revenue sued him for $30,000,000 on the ground that the value of his sale of Ford stock to Henry had been underestimated. Couzens won easily in that test. But the former Detroit mayor was a crusty person, and he retaliated by forming this committee.

It has broad powers, plenty of personnel and facilities. Of late years, however, it has fallen down on the job completely and has served the administration instead of Congress.

The new plan, inspired by the Roosevelt-Hartford transaction, is to make the group a day-by-day watchdog over Internal Revenue, where so many concessions can be made behind the doors to favored individuals and corporations.

* * *

TRAINING: The Army High Command is privately disturbed by its apparent failure to sell compulsory military training at hearings before the Woodrum Postwar Policy committee.

It staged a spectacular performance, producing favorable testimony from high ranking officers and civilian officials. But the opposition of labor, farm organizations, educators and the churchmen has left members in a critical mood.

It had been expected that these sessions, deliberately held in the aftermath of German surrender and in the redeployment of our forces aganist Japan, would stimulate great public interest and make black headlines.

Audience reaction was chilly. Only a few committeemen ever showed up for meetings. Listeners consisted of a handful of hostile Communists, a score of assigned Army officers, a few newspapermen and school-church antis.

War Secretary Henry L. Stimson, his congressional friends and the Grenville Clark group which sponsored Selective Service, are still campaigning for their objective. Several times a week they hold luncheons here, in New York, Chicago and elsewhere at which they try to make influential converts. The opposition has resorted to the same technique, and the issue may be decided by the amount of pressure which these off-the-record seances can mobilize.

WINNING THE WAR
By Albert Leman

THE RESOUNDING homecoming receptions to conquering military heroes has raised a delicate question in the other services.

Although Navy men do not mention the subject openly, they discuss it privately; their feelings are hurt because their branch has not been given public acclaim.

First of all, it should be clearly understood that from admirals to gobs they do not begrudge the honors heaped on General Eisenhower. Like the rest of us they believe that the peerless leader deserves the world-wide praise that he is receiving, as do Bradley, Devers, McNarney, Patton, Simpson, Spaatz, Doolittle and other Army men back from Europe.

But they point out with a tinge of regret that, while cities were cheering the generals, there were also in the United States, almost unnoticed, Admirals Halsey, Kinkaid and Mitscher. They were skipped by their countrymen, although it is doubtful whether the Japs will ever forget the thrashings they gave Nippon.

LEMAN

A distinguished American admiral — whose name is withheld at his request — said to the writer, "It seems a pity that the visits of Halsey and Kinkaid were entirely overlooked or ignored.

"They were in command and won the victory at Leyte, or the Battle of the Philippines. This probably was the outstanding naval triumph of this war or any other war that I can think of.

"It overshadows the defeat of the Spanish Armada, the battles of the Nile, Trafalgar and Jutland—until now the most decisive of all sea fights. The pair succeeded in administering to the Japanese navy such crushing disaster that thereafter it ceased to exist as a first-class naval power; previously it ranked third to the United States and Great Britain.

"It has never since dared to venture forth as an organized naval force. The great engagements of Midway and the Coral Sea were almost preliminary skirmishes compared with this titanic Battle of the Philippines.

"The people of the United States do not recognize that this Japanese debacle made possible the recovery of the Philippines, the cutting off of the Japanese military, naval and merchant marine forces to the south, the liberation of other islands in the Pacific archipelago including the rich oil center of Borneo, and the winning of Okinawa.

"Because of what Halsey, Kinkaid and the men under them accomplished, we can now blockade and isolate Japan, obliterate her industries by bombing and shorten the Pacific war. Rarely in history have such stupendous results stemmed from a single battle."

* * *

ATTENTION: Indirectly Vice Admiral Alan G. Kirk, who commanded the Naval Task Force in the Normandy invasion, was honored with General Eisenhower in New York. He drove around and sat on the platform with "Ike." But there was so much gold braid everywhere that the modest seafaring hero was unidentified by the crowds.

Perhaps the Army's public relations staff in Washington is more on its toes than is the Navy's in seeing that its men receive the proper applause. But, apart from that, something deeper is involved.

The Navy's big show has been, is and for some months will be in the Pacific. The Far Eastern struggle, unlike the European campaign, is not over. Some high officials consider that it would be unseemingly to take time out in the middle of a half-finished conflict for ovations.

On the other hand, if the Japanese drive follows the usual course of modern wars, the ground forces will complete the job. Their generals — McArthur, Stilwell, Wedemeyer, or whoever they may be — will be in the public eye. The deeds of Nimitz, Halsey, Kinkaid, Sprusance, Mitscher, Turner, Oldendorf, Fletcher and other sea dogs will be so much in the past that the nation as a whole may forget them.

And once more they and their men may miss triumphal marches down the avenues.

We don't know whether or not the saying is true that the average person can't stand prosperity, but we'd like very much to have the opportunity of trying to stand it.

Side Glances --- By Galbraith

World May Be Thankful For Press Freedom

No Secrets At San Francisco

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—One thing that should not be overlooked in connection with the San Francisco United Nations conference was the free and easy access to it enjoyed by the press, not only of this country, but of other nations.

We are likely to take that for granted, which is a tribute to our democratic system.

STOKES

The advantage for the people of this country, as well as the rest of the world, was that the conference was held in the United States where press and information privileges have been developed to a degree achieved nowhere else. This has not just happened. It is the result of a long batile, and constant vigilance.

The press access to and coverage of the San Francisco conference set a new record in international conferences. It is something to celebrate a bit alorig with the success of the conference itself. It was a good precedent to establish as we start on this new experiment in international organization.

* * *

Conference Well "Covered"

It is a striking contrast to what might have happened elsewhere, or even here, when you stop to consider.

Much of the important work at San Francisco was done, it is true, in secret sessions. That happens also at our own national political conventions and even in Congress where committees lock themselves up for discussion and decision on some matters.

But alert reporters have always been able to use their legs and their heads to find out what is done in closed sessions at national conventions and in Congress, and this they did too, at San Francisco, to the occasional annoyance and embarrassment of big figures there.

Nobody could stop them, and nobody tried to stop them.

* * *

THE press conference, that peculiarly American institution, was used often and widely at San Francisco. It was, to be sure, abused to some extent, speaking here of those mass meetings that often developed where the "friends" of this and that cause got admitted to press conferences and resorted to stump speeches in the form of five-minute rhetorical questions.

Through press confereences reporters got an opportunity to shoot questions at the leading figures in the San Francisco deliberations, to study them under fire, so to speak, to judge them to some extent. They were taken off their pedestals and examined at close view.

The press conference, of course, can work both ways, as the late President Roosevelt discovered and capitalized so effectively. It can serve as a forum. Diplomats from other countries found this out quickly, too, and when they got into trouble on some issue, or wanted to get their views before the public, they would call a press conference. But that all contributes to the fund of information.

* * *

Soviet Foreign Commissar Molotov discovered this quickly. He held three press conferences at San Francisco, primarily perhaps to present his views on controversial issues, but, at the same time, he submitted freely to all sorts of questions. In Russia he could tell them what to write. But not here.

He didn't intend to establish the American system when he went back home—oh no! But something might come of it sometime.

PRESS privileges at the Versailles Peace conference after the last war were literally primitive compared to San Francisco, according to veterans covering both. Which recalls a story told about Herbert Bayard Swope, then correspondent for the New York World. All reporters could not witness the signing of the peace treaty, unlike the signing of the charter at San Francisco. Only a few could go. They were drawn by lot. Mr. Swope was not among the few chosen. But he thought his paper ought to have a story first hand.

So he dressed up like a diplomat, which is easy. And he hired himself a big automobile and he got it into line with the diplomatic cars, alighted with dignity, and walked right in under his top hat with the poise and eclat of a diplomat. And there he was.

This is not to suggest that reporters dress like diplomats. At least it wasn't necessary at San Francisco. That looks like progress.

Tonight Is Deadline For Auto Use Stamps

Tonight at midnight is the dead line for automobile owners to purchase Federal use stamps, L. B. Barkley, head of the district office of Internal Revenue, reminded motorists.

Barkley said that those persons not buying stamps by deadline time will be subject to a $25 fine or 30 days in jail, or both, and added that special efforts are to be made this year to check automobiles and penalties will be assessed if the stamps are not in place on windshields.

Stamps having been bought to date total 4,300, Barkley said. He noted that it is also a violation, and leaves the owner subject to fine or jail, if the marker is not properly in place on the windshield.

The stamps are available at the district offices, on the second floor of the Lubbock National Bank building, or in the post office. They will continue on sale at these two places after July 1.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Buses are overburdened as never before. A crisis is near. With more men, tires and gas going to war, present service can barely be maintained. Each day brings greater loads. When you must travel locally, let this be your creed:

1. Do Not Ride in Rush Hours, except to and from your job.
2. Have Exact Fare Ready, saves time and fuss.
3. Move Back When Driver Asks, speeds your ride.

This simple creed will work wonders.

Hitler Almost Sunk To Point Of Wishing For Assassination

BERCHTESGADEN, June 29 (U.P.)—Adolf Hitler may or may not have chewed carpets, but he did have some black moments last summer when he said he almost wished for an assassin's bullet.

Evidence that the fuehrer more than once was wracked by despair was unearthed by Allied intelligence officers in the stenographic record of a conference Hitler held at his East Prussian headquarters last Aug. 31.

Hitler was so depressed by the endless sucession of German military defeats and the defeatist attitude of his generals that he confessed a mild regret over failure of the July 20 attempt on his life.

Would Have Ended Worries

"If that explosion had ended my life," he told his Nazi conferees, "it would have been liberation from all cares, worries, sleepless nights and nervous strain.

"It is only that fraction of a second—then one is free and finds rest and eternal peace."

The fuehrer's glum mood was in keeping with the general tone of the conference. He had summoned Lt. Gen. Westphal and Gen. Krebs to his headquarters after discovering that Field Marshal Guenther von Kluge had attempted to surrender to the Americans in France. Von Kluge killed himself when the plot fell through in mid-August, but even that failed to buoy Hitler's spirits.

Sharp Rise Indicated In Unemployment

WASHINGTON, June 29 (U.P.)—The War Manpower commission predicted today that 1,800,000 people will be unemployed by July 1, 1946.

Actually, about 7,700,000 people will lose their jobs or be discharged from the armed forces during the next 12 months—but 6,300,000 of them will be reemployed in an expanding civilian economy, WMC said.

By Jan. 1, 1946, WMC said, unemployment will rise from the general wartime level of 700,000 to 1,300,000. The additional unemployment of 500,000 will follow after that.

In a forecast which approximated an earlier estimate by the War Production board, Manpower Chief Paul V. McNutt pointed out that while unemployment increases in some areas, there will continue to be critical manpower shortages in others.

His statement said that unemployment decreased slightly in April as compared to March, although in a period from March 15 to June 1, munitions employment decreased from 9,000,000 to 8,400,000.

During the same period, 29 important war production centers underwent changes in shifts in the war program which eased their manpower problems in varying degrees, McNutt said. These included Detroit, the nation's first war production center, as well as several shipyards on both coasts.

STOCKS RECOVER SLIGHTLY

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—The stock market made an effort to regain its stability today but was only partially successful.

There was a smattering of modest plus signs at the close. Transfers of 2,020,000 shares compared with yesterday's five-year peak of 2,940,000.

Bears still were plentiful, however, as the belief persisted that Washington was preparing to crack down on speculation.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was off .8 of a point at 61 and had wiped out virtually all of its advance of the preceding two weeks.

Broad sprinter was American Distilling which, in the morning, added 4½ points to its five-point jump of the day before, backed into a two-point loss at the beginning of the final period on large blocks, and ended with a net gain of a point on the day.

On the losing end were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, Du Pont, Standard Oil (NJ), Union Pacific, Anaconda and U. S. Rubber. Plus marks were rationed by Hudson Motors, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Woolworth, Pan-American Airways, Electric Power and Light, Schenley and National Distillers.

Railway bonds retreated.

Cotton..

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—Evening up operations in July again dominated price movements in today's cotton futures which closed 30 cents a bale lower to 30 cents higher.

Issuance of 18 additional transferable notices brought further liquidation in July which declined 90 cents a bale in earlier dealings.

Mill buying of spot cotton declined during the week according to private advices but sales of loan cotton by producers increased.

News Briefs

B. Coker, McLennan county sheriff, and W. E. Westmoreland, city detective, of Waco, arrived in Lubbock Friday night to take custody of a 48-year-old negro, Will Adams, charged in three cases of felony swindling at Waco. The 230-pound black, known as "Do Right," has been to the Texas penitentiary three times and to a federal prison once, Westmoreland said. He was arrested here Thursday by Chief Deputy Sheriff Raymond Land and Bill Mabray, assistant chief of police. The officers established his identity by fingerprints after finding his picture and prints in a Department of Public Saftey bulletin. Adams is accused of swindling farmers for whom he had agreed to work, Westmoreland said.

A 1938 black Chevrolet two-door sedan was stolen early Friday afternoon in Plainview, it was reported to Lubbock officers by Chief of Police Hoyt Curry of Plainview. Papers in the glove compartment are made out to Ran Mayfield, Curry said.

Theft reports to police: A tire from C. M. Dyer, 1704 Ave. O; a shotgun from the 1712 Ave. O address of H. W. Fulton; a lawn mower from N. E. Holloway, 1121 Twenty-first; mechanical tools, a hydraulic jack and two sets of tools from Clarence A. Mount of Lubbock route 1.

said after a long beer drinking party) and Faith, who left earlier with a girl friend and two other youths. The quartet left after the row at the Stevens' residence.

As Albert was fingering the Milton piano, Mrs. Stevens entered the house armed wit ha pistol, which police said she admitted having twice fired in her own home to test it. She demanded the youths leave. They demurred. Albert went to a staircase to see if Faith was upstairs with the Milton children and both were looking in that direction, James swore, when, without provocation Mrs. Stevens opened fire.

Shot Twice More

As he reached his slumped brother, Mrs. Stevens shot twice again (the coroner said the third shot was that which proved fatal) crying out, James testified, "now will you get him out of here."

James helped Albert to the lawn, from which he rolled into a gutter and died. Arriving police, summoned by Mrs. Stevens, found her, they said, with the youngest of the Milton children under one arm and the gun still held in the other hand.

The coroner said that the flare-up between Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Milton on the night of the slaying marked a renewal of differences between them which resulted from Mrs. Stevens' relations with Milton and which "caused the Milton home to be broken up for a number of months."

Negroes As Soldiers Called Utter Failure

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP) — Senator Eastland (D-Miss), carrying on today the southern filibuster against the FEPC, injected into the long discussion an assertion that negro troops are "an utter and abysmal failure."

Flailing his arms and jerking his tie askew, the Mississippian declared "high ranking generals" had told him on a recent European trip that the negro troops would neither work nor fight.

In Normandy, he shouted, they criminally assaulted members of the families of French farmers.

"And we're asked here," he said "to set up an unfair preference against a white soldier solely because the negro minority sells its votes to the highest bidder in a political campaign. If it weren't for political considerations, this measure wouldn't get 10 votes in the Senate.

The War department had no immediate comment on Eastland's statements.

Anti High Hat Recipe

The President returned to his suite in the Muehlebach hotel to await a 4 p.m. visit of former Governor Landon after a talk to the Jesters club, a Masonic organization, in which he said he had not let public tribute to his office go too much to his head.

All he has to do to keep from "going high hat or stuffed shirt," Mrs Truman told the members, is to read the 6th chapter of Luke, 26th verse. He told the members to go home and read it for themselves.

Newspaper men, hunting up a hotel bible, read the following passage:

"Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you, for so did their fathers to the false prophets."

OIL MAN IMPROVING

DALLAS, June 28. (AP)—D. A. Little, president of the Magnolia Petroleum company and widely-known in southwestern oil circles, was reported greatly improved today from a stroke he suffered a week ago.

Strike Ties Up Interurban Line

DALLAS, June 29. (AP)—A walkout by employes of four departments of the Texas Electric Railway company over what a union official described as a delay in contract negotiations, today halted all passenger, freight and express service on the company's interurban lines.

The company's bus and street car service in Waco and bus service at Denison and Sherman also was at a standstill.

Mail service to Vickery, Richardson, Anna, Van Alstyne and McKinney was interrupted.

Long Effort Fails

Rufus High, president of the United Railroad Workers of America, CIO, branch of the railway company's employes said "this work stoppage is caused by failure of the employes to obtain any adjustments whatever in numerous grievances through the regular channels of collective bargaining over a period of the last 15 months"

Some 400 employes in transportation, shops, line and power departments were affected by the walkout, company President James P. Griffin said. "The walkout came without notice and at the very beginning of negotiations between the company and the CIO toward reaching an agreement."

City buses stopped running about 5:30 a.m., leaving many early morning workers without transportation, a report from Sherman said. A defense plant there manufacturing mortar shells was sending transportation for commuting workers from Denison and other points.

Many Late To Work

Many residents of Denison reported late to work as bus service halted there. Some of the larger concerns sent autos along bus routes at intervals to collect employes.

Denison employes said a contract was sought calling for an eight hour day and time and one half for overtime, and that motormen and bus drivers were asking a wage increase of from 75 to 90 cents an hour.

High said in a prepared statement the company had made efforts to "divide its employes into three separate groups under three separate contracts" and that "employes are extremely anxious to be covered by one contract.

Three Separate Crafts

Griffin, referring to High's statement, said later that a single contract with the workers was impossible; that the National Mediation board required they be dealt with under three classifications determined by crafts.

"We feel the company is stalling. However, we are ready to attempt to negotiate a settlement of the dispute if the company will bargain in good faith."

Griffin said, also in a statement, "the company has never failed to meet and negotiate with the CIO at any time they requested"

Three Germans Pay For Butchering Yank

RHEINBACH, Germany, June 29. — A triple hanging of German civilians at dawn today avenged an unidentified American Army flier who parachuted into Germany from a flaming plane last Aug. 15 and was shot, clubbed and hammered to death.

The three Germans, Peter Back, Peter Kohn and Matthias Gierens, were hanged by U. S. Army executioners carrying out the verdict of the first civilian war crime case tried on German soil since the Nazis surrendered.

They and a fourth defendant were convicted by a military commission. The death sentence of Matthias Krein was commuted to life imprisonment by Lt. Gen. Leonard T. Gerow, commander of the 15th Army.

Slaughter Quotas Cut Next Quarter

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—Slaughterers will be permitted to kill fewer good and choice cattle during the next three accounting periods, the OPA announced today.

The OPA imposed no limit on the total amount of cattle that may be slaughtered, but only applied quotas to good and choice grades, so that more of the less desirable grades would be slaughtered. The percentages for the next three accounting periods: (ending on or about)

	July 31	Aug. 31	Sept. 30
Zone "A"	80	70	60
Zone "B"	85	75	65
Zone "C"	60	50	40

The maximum percentages during April, May and June were 90 per cent in zones A and B and 75 per cent in zone C.

OPA said the revised percentages take into account the usual increased marketing of lower grades during the next three months.

Zone "A" includes the Pacific coast states, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico and the western part of Texas lying directly south of New Mexico.

Zone "B" includes North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia, the District of Columbia, and all states to the east and north. The rest of the country makes up zone "C."

House Delays Final Action On OPA Fund

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—Final congressional action prolonging OPA's life—which otherwise expires at midnight tomorrow—was postponed today because the House was busy with other matters.

The Democratic leadership called the House to an unusual 10 a.m., Saturday session, determined to get the one-year price control extension bill to the White House before nightfall.

Another bitter battle, pivoting on food shortages, is bound to precede final disposition of the bill.

A number of House Republicans organized a drive to reject the House-Senate compromise bill and restore House provisions that would make the incoming secretary of agriculture, Rep Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM), virtual czar of the food front.

The Senate already has approved the compromise which deletes some of the supreme powers voted Anderson by the House.

Requests Pile Up For Reservations On Braniff Lines

Fifty requests for reservations on Braniff planes, which will start flying passengers in and out of Lubbock beginning Sunday, had been made up to Friday night, according to James Gorman, Braniff station manager here.

About half the requests were granted, Gorman said.

The official said that remodeling of the Braniff office at South Plains Army Air field had almost been completed and that the office would be in operation by Sunday.

He announced that the local office could arrange reservations on other lines with which the Houston-Lubbock-Amarillo run made connections.

Gorman was transferred here from Dallas, where he was agent in charge of the Braniff office there.

Sheriff's Tenacity Leads To Recovery Of Jap Balloon

SALT LAKE CITY, June 28 (AP) Authorities obtained intact one of the balloons Japan has been sending over North America—thanks to the tenacity of a western sheriff.

The Salt Lake Desert News told the story.

Informed that a balloon had lodged against a hillside, the sheriff drove to the spot, the News said, just as the big bag started to ascend.

The officer started after it in his car, which mired in a mudhole, then continued the case on foot.

"I ran for more than two miles, up and down hills, before I finally grabbed hold of it when it was forced to the ground by a down draft in a deep ravine," the sheriff said.

But the balloon started to rise again.

"I fought that darned thing for 55 minutes," the officer related, "before it dropped to the ground and I succeeded in tying it to a choke cherry bush."

Sales Prices Set On War-Built Vessels

WASHINGTON, June 28. (U.P.)—The House merchant marine committee today approved legislation setting minimum and maximum sales prices on war-built merchant ships. It also would restrict sales of those ships to foreigners.

The measure is intended to maintain a fleet:

1. Capable of handling all domestic water-borne commerce and a "substantial portion" of the country's foreign commerce.
2. Capable of serving as a naval and military auxiliary in time of war.
3. Owned and operated by United States citizens.
4. Composed of the best equipped, safest and most suitable type of vessel.
5. Supplemented by American-owned facilities for repairs, marine insurance and other services.

Electra Is Heavily Damaged By Storm

ELECTRA, June 29 (AP)—Damage estimated unofficially at half a million dollars was caused by a windstorm which struck Electra yesterday, isolating the town from telephone communications for more than two hours.

The storm hit about 9 p. m. and unroofed houses, demolished small buildings, twisted off trees, tangled wires and leveled or damaged oil field derricks and pump stations.

Today repair crews were untangling light and telephone wires after part of the city was without power throughout the night. Telephones in rural districts were still out today.

No injuries were reported. Porches were torn from residences in the northeast part of town, where the storm was most severe, and garages wrecked. Few houses in the residential section escaped damage.

Heavy rain, accompanied by a high wind, hit the town two hours after the first early blow.

High winds struck Vernon, but no damage was reported there.

The winds smashed farm outbuildings in the immediate Wichita Falls area.
