DOLLAR TARIFF ON OIL IS DRAFTED

The NEWS is downright grateful for compliments received since merging the morning and evening editions and retaining the same staff. A newspaper is not an abstract thing which just happens, but a flesh-and-blood creation of individual citizen-workers.

Quite True
H. L. Polley hit the nail on the head when he said that a city is judged by its best newspaper. Under the two-edition plan, this principle could not be put into effect. Until a city gets up in the 20,000 population class, it cannot adequately support two daily editions. This is adequately proved by reference to any newspaper directory.

Within a few days the new staff arrangement will be fully worked out. It is based on cooperation of the public as well as on energy of the staff. For instance, The NEWS wants the names of the out-of-town people who come here on business, pleasure, or to visit. To print their names will be to encourage them to come back. The NEWS is going into homes all over this territory, hence these news items will be read by those concerned as well as by local readers.

Cooperation
Our idea of cooperation is that extended by W. C. de Cordova. W. C. came in yesterday and without any ado sat down at a typewriter and beat out a story. Not everyone cares to do that, but there's the Rev. F. W. O'Malley, who wields a skillful pencil. However, The NEWS is ready to put a staff man on any story, big or little.

Pampa aspires to render service to this area by providing wholesale facilities. Such a plan is necessary for a community center. What is more, Pampa must continue to be courteous to the shoppers coming here. Strenuous efforts are being made to make Pampa the Christmas shopping center. Do your part, readers, by extending a real Pampa welcome to the visitors.

Look at These
Do you know that Pampa income tax returns for persons in 1928 numbered 2313. And look at these comparisons, as shown by returns for that year in other cities: Fort Arthur 1,411; San Angelo 1,147; Wichita Falls 2,717; Lubbock 471; Denison 388; Corsicana 653; Abilene 1,047; Amarillo 2,330.

TWINKLES

Prevalence of unshorn faces in the West. Foster vicinity prompts the suggestion that a municipal shaving room be established.

Rev. O'Malley says the Pampa is intelligent for having known that squash makes the best "punkin" pie what am. But we disagree on the kind of squash: he favors the old-fashioned cushaw.

Mail early: If all would do that we would have time to send cards to those who unexpectedly send them to us.

Isn't it nice to read of Panhandle farmers sweeping downstate while the sun comes out nice and warm up here.

Maybe the Japanese and Chinese are getting the Christmas spirit, too.

RETURN TO CARLSBAD
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vasey and daughter, Mary Catherine, have returned to Carlsbad, N. M., after spending a few days here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nance. Mr. and Mrs. Vasey lived in Pampa before moving to Carlsbad.

COPIES OF THE NEWS DISTRIBUTED BY MEMBERS

Pampa's new Junior chamber of commerce last night heard its committee report plans complete for Santa day next Friday and its membership chairman announce a total of 160 young men on the rolls. Half of these attended the meeting.

Jack Vance, chairman of the membership committee, said that he had never seen a more popular movement, nor one in which the younger men seemed so uniformly interested.

After commending The NEWS on the special Santa day edition issued yesterday, the Junior chamber assigned to members the duty of taking extra copies to twelve other towns. These will be distributed today.

NEWSPAPER—WHAT IS IT?

Newspapers are more than masses of machinery and a few rolls of paper.

They cannot be built in a day, or a month, or a year. Newspapers exist upon accumulated business prestige born of actual results. Newspapers are not vehicles of any man, or group of men, but of the entire business structure of a community.

A newspaper to a merchant is something that he knows through experience to be valuable in his business. It carries his business news to his prospective customers and builds up his business. He could write letters to these same persons, but that method has proved to be too expensive and too annoying to the recipients. Effectiveness of advertising depends much upon habit and good will. When the children meet the home newspaper at the door with joyous whoops, when the old folks read it thoroughly and believe in its cleanliness, honesty, and integrity—that is when the advertising brings in the desired business.

And that is why the established newspaper, with its steady following among young and old over a territory, is much more than machinery, ink and paper. The Pampa Daily NEWS has the confidence of this community—its readers, its business men, its ministers, its educators. Such an institution will live on because it is intrinsically of and for the flesh-and-blood of the community it serves.

Fisher to Speak At P-T. A. Meeting

Supt. R. B. Fisher will speak on learning, giving a number of facts concerning education, at a program tomorrow afternoon for the San Houston Parent-Teacher association.

A play, "His First Dress Suit," will be presented by a group of high school pupils under the direction of Miss Arless O'Keefe. Characters in the comedy include Mrs. Harding, played by Dorothy Doucette; Betty Harding, Owen Wright; Betty Harding, Florida Freeman; Johnny Drake, Lloyd Moore.

More than 36,000 persons visited a chrysanthemum show at Missouri Botanical Gardens, St. Louis, in a week.

ROBBED

Two hold-up men in Dallas put a new wrinkle in their business when they took more than $300 and watches from W. D. Mangrum and G. Ellis of this city recently. Getting a good hold on the seats of the victims' pants, they cut the seats out with shears so the embarrassed young men could not hurry for help.

LEGION GROUP TO BE LARGE

Pampans Going to Borger For Sessions of 18th District Saturday.

Legionnaires of the 18th district will gather in Borger Saturday and Sunday for the annual district convention. Members of the Legion Auxiliary and Forty and Eight will also take part in the big event. Pampa is expected to have the largest delegation at the convention. Dr. R. A. Webb is district committeeman and D. W. Thurman is secretary.

Saturday will be devoted to a monster parade and the 40 and 8 wreck, which will be followed by a ball at the Legion hut.

Sunday will be devoted to band concerts, services, luncheon, and business meetings. Several prominent speakers from Texas and Oklahoma will be on the program. Josh Lee of Oklahoma University will be the chief speaker. Other dignitaries on the program include V. Earl Earp, of Sweetwater, department commander; Lt. Gov. Edgar Witt; Ross Cole, past department adjutant; J. S. Isbell, department chaplain; Allen C. Ater, chairman membership department; H. A. Wyatt, assistant state service officer.

The Auxiliary also will be active Sunday. A business meeting will be held with Mrs. Van Stewart of Perryton, state president, being the chief speaker.

Josh Lee's speech will be in that humorous vein for which he is famous.

CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS BEGINS NEXT MONDAY

GOAL OF $10,000 HAS BEEN FIXED AS MINIMUM

TREASURER IN REPORT

LAYMEN WILL SPEAK AT CHURCHES ON SUNDAY

The time has come, the advisory council of the Welfare Board decided last night, to talk about the welfare work that must be done during the coming year, and to do something about after the talking has been done. The goal this year is $10,000 for welfare work.

The council fired its first gun in the preliminary talking campaign at the American Legion meeting last night. The annual drive will begin next Monday. Between now and then, the council members and many others will give talks on welfare work and the drive at meetings of the various clubs this week.

Sunday, laymen will make short speeches at the churches, and the pastors will mention the subject in their sermons.

Friday at 2 p. m. the advisory council will meet at the city hall to perfect plans for the drive.

The drive will be conducted by teams representing the American Legion, Legion Auxiliary, Business and Professional Women's club, Kiwanis, Lions, and Rotary clubs. Each team will comprise about ten members each of whom will have 10 names on their list.

PRIEST IS FREED
EL PASO, Dec. 2. (P)—The Rev. Luis Guizar, bishop of Campeche, Mexico, was safe here today after being released by bandits who kidnapped him in Chihuahua. Father Guizar said the bandits gave him pesos before leaving him at the international boundary near Presidio, Texas.

"Saloon Is Dead" But Bonus Alive to Tom Blanton

ABILENE, Dec. 2. (P)—Thos. L. Blanton, 17th district congressman, departed today for Washington for the opening of congress next Monday. He was resolved, he said, to work against efforts for modification or repeal of prohibition, and to favor full payment of bonus to ex-service men.

"The saloon is dead," he said. "There is not one-tenth of one per cent of liquor now used that was used formerly, and with 75-mile an hour highways, no life would be safe with return to road houses."

Blanton said he would fight graft in legislation; oppose foreclosure of liens on farms by the Federal Land banks; oppose debt cancellation of foreign governments; "earnestly strive to make it impossible for our executive department to embroil us in dangerous foreign entanglements;" favor an enlarged building program by the federal government to give employment to heads of families now out of work; and oppose a sales tax.

Bigamy Trial Being Argued Before Jury

Without introducing any testimony, the defense on the trial of Dawson P. Parker, charged with bigamy, closed this morning after the state had placed four witnesses on the stand and then closed.

Arguments are due to be heard beginning at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. A verdict was expected today. Selection of the jury required several hours yesterday afternoon. Three state witnesses testified last night, and two were called back to the stand by the state this morning. Seven witnesses qualified to offer testimony.

In presenting the state's case, District Attorney Raymond Allred introduced in evidence certified copies of marriage licenses issued to Mr. Parker and six women between 1920 and 1931. Objections made by defense attorneys W. J. Smith and John Sturgeon to the introduction of the licenses were over-ruled.

The copies of the purported marriage licenses were introduced by the state for the purpose of trying to Wurzbach, to give Democrats a definite control of the house, leaves his big ranch and his cattle in Kleburg county to go to Washington. Although he studied law, Kleburg preferred to roam the mesquite and help brand the cattle at King ranch.

ORDINANCE PUTTING LIBRARY UNDER CITY TAX IS PASSED

SEVEN-MEMBER BOARD TO SUPERVISE PROJECT

A city ordinance creating a public library was accepted by city commissioners in session yesterday afternoon. The ordinance will go into effect January 1, when the library becomes supported by taxation. An election to set aside three cents on the hundred dollar valuation for the support of the library was carried last summer.

The ordinance states that the city commission and city manager will appoint a board of seven members to act as an advisory board. They will elect necessary officers from their number. They will serve three years without pay and will be eligible for reappointment.

The board will be selected at the first meeting of the city commission after January 1, when a set of rules will also be drawn. The city commission will appoint the librarian.

No action was taken regarding holding of an election to change the city charter so that one new city commissioner would be elected each year, because of the absence of one of the commissioners.

Daily NEWS IS Buying New Photo Service on Texas

The Pampa Daily News calls attention today to the new Texas News photos which are appearing in this newspaper.

This is a brand-new feature and The NEWS is one of the few dailies in West Texas to buy it. It contains timely pictures, cartoons, and booster material for Texas only.

This is another example of how The NEWS is taking steps to serve its readers. Watch for the Texas pictures—the first available for newspaper use.

HEAD OF INSTITUTE IN PRAISE OF TEXAS MARTIAL LAW

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. (P)—A bill imposing a charge of $1 a barrel on imports of crude petroleum and 50 per cent ad valorem on by-products was prepared today by Senator Shortridge, Republican, California, for introduction next week.

Senator Shortridge said "every oil producing state—and I hope all thoughtful Americans—will favor a bill of this kind." It is similar to a measure which he introduced last session but which got no farther than the commerce committee.

"All the independent oil producers in Texas, Oklahoma and California not only want this, but absolutely need it," the senator said.

AUSTIN, Dec. 2. (P)—Amos L. Beatty of New York, president of the American Petroleum Institute, held a conference with Gov. R. S. Sterling today.

Beatty said he told the governor he commended his martial law policy in the East Texas field.

"His action in sending troops there to control the field was courageous and right," Beatty said. "It was entirely within his authority."

"I offered my service to him and Texas in any way I could serve in helping maintain the situation."

Beatty also said he would visit

Legion Band To Practice Tomorrow For Two Events

The American Legion band will rehearse tomorrow evening at 7:45 in the basement of the city hall.

Director Pete Bradford stated that it was important that all members attend, as plans would be made for two events, the Santa day parade and the eighteenth district American Legion convention to be held in Borger Saturday and Sunday.

The local band will lead two parades in Borger, one Saturday and one Sunday morning, with Gordon Burch, Borger, as drum major.

PANHANDLE GAS IS MENACED

By OLIN E. HINKLE

(AN EDITORIAL)

Natural gas is, next to oil, the Panhandle's richest mineral heritage. SHALL IT BE EXHAUSTED WITHOUT PROPER REMUNERATION OF OUR CITIZENS?

That is the issue which the residents of the Pampa gas area, in common with the Panhandle, face today. It is bad enough to see distant industries feeding off the Pampa gas, but to have that gas bought here for a widow's mite is more than we can bear without a fight.

The Texhoma Natural Gas company is leading in the movement to reduce the prevailing rate for our natural gas to a 2-cent basis per thousand cubic feet. This means a royalty value of one-fourth cent. One Pampa man endorsed a check on the 2-cent basis before he noticed the cut, but he will not do so again and doubtless many local royalty and gas land owners will follow the example of L. McConnell, who returned his check in protest.

Eastern capitalists are attempting to beat down price to a pittance for the precious fuel which they get a handsome price to industries and other consumers in distant states. It is a flagrant waste of what should prove to be one of our greatest assets. Land owners should be very careful about what they sign, for their interests are at stake. The small landowners are the ones most endangered, since the big estate are under long-term leases at higher prices for the fuel.

The gas business is in a critical stage. With the market limited and huge pipelines carrying hundreds of millions of cubic feet of fuel daily out of this territory, it is a fight to the finish.

We know that we have the gas—the richest field in the world. Its boundaries are proven. Certainly we should begin to realize material benefit from its presence and exploitation in the markets of commerce. However, the gas syndicates have calculated the millions they intend to make as they exhaust the field over a long period of years. And evidently they intend to take other millions which rightfully belong to the land and royalty owners of the Panhandle.

The state common purchaser law as applied to gas gave promise of helping the landowners. Certainly the state, which grants land patents and agrees to protect title, should likewise protect the landowners in the development of the minerals underlying. But because the gas is transported across state lines to distant consumers, it also is a federal problem. Evidently the Texhoma corporation intends to defy state regulation and seek refuge in federal courts.

Meanwhile, citizens of Gray and Carson counties are being offered 2 cents per thousand for gas formerly sold for 3 and 4 cents. This cut, without warning, amounts to arbitrary confiscation of property. Nowhere else does gas sell for such a figure. It is known that certain large own-erships are getting 6 and even 8 cents for gas. WHY PEN-ALIZE GRAY AND CARSON COUNTIES? Is it a deliberate attempt to take advantage of the independent producers who own about 30 gas wells and who wish, naturally, a ratable market for their fuel?

Landowners and interests not owned by the Texhoma and other pipeline interests possess in the immediate area an estimated 20,000 acres of proven gas land of great value.
The question is how to realize on this great wealth for the benefit of Panhandle people and Panhandle institutions.

To accept the 2-cent price is to admit that the State of Texas is unable to carry out its obligation to protect the interests of the people to whom it sold and patented this land. We live, we work, we develop our gas lands under the laws of Texas. The state prohibits us from drilling a gas well on a tract without producing oil in reasonable quantities, if we propose to produce gasoline or manufacture carbon black. This law is eminently satisfactory to the gas corporations. But a companion law requiring common purchasing is another matter and they would declare it unconstitutional if they could.

Because of the nature of the business, the gas monopoly is the tightest with which we have to deal. The protection of the gas land owner against such a monopoly, such a predatory eastern combine, IS MANDATORY UPON AT-TORNEY GENERAL ALLRED AND OTHER PUBLIC OFFICIALS OF THIS STATE. It is to be assumed that the land and royalty owners will not accept their pittance without a fight, and that the State of Texas shall take immediate court action to protect these citizens and their property.

Shattering of the gas leasehold as a property of value will cost not only the land and royalty owners, but the county and state as well. When valuations fall, taxes go with them. And there can be no taxable values if the gas monopoly is allowed to destroy them. THE ONLY IN-FLUENCE THE GAS CORPORATIONS KNOW IS POWER—WITH THE STATE OF TEXAS AND COUR-AGEOUS TEXANS EXERTING IT.

PARIS, Dec. 2. (AP)—News that the Japanese government was insisting that Marshal Chang Hsueh-Liang's government be withdrawn from Chinchow behind the great wall as well as his troops threw new alarm into league quarters this afternoon.

NANKING, Dec. 2. (AP)—Chinese government officials here expressed annoyance today over Japanese reports that Tokyo diplomatic representatives at Nanking and Peiping are discussing with Dr. Wellington
Koo and Marshal Chang Hsueh-Liang separately, terms for a solution of the Manchurian problem.

The arrival of the diplomatic officials was characterized as a "clever Japanese maneuver, aimed at distressing the League of Nations and showing that China is ready to negotiate direct negotiations."

Chinese Shipment of arms, munitions and supplies

Peiping have been continuing and the Japanese government officials of the foreign office and the ject of Manchuria are proceeding, either here or at Peiping.

As a campaign slogan for Vice President Curtis, we suggest "Curtis-y Pays."

Congratulations to George W. Briggs. It takes a popular man to be placed on three committees in such an organization as the Panhandle Plains Dairy association.

Now is the time for all wise men to come to the aid of the merchants. Don't "swamp" the merchants on Christmas eve, thus making them spend Christmas day in bed resting "the day after the night before."

The Christmas shopping season will open Friday—the mayor said so. Yet many have been doing pre-season Christmas shopping.

We have had several requests for a Pike's Peak squash pie, so here it is—enough for two pies. To one pint of boiled squash, pressed through a colander, add one cupful of brown sugar, three eggs, two tablespoons of melted butter, one tablespoonful of ginger, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, a pinch of salt, from one-half to one pint of milk, and three-fourths cup of shredded coconut. Pour into thinly rolled pie crusts and bake until the mixture is firm. Chill before serving.

We find Pike's Peak squash to be delicious when eaten in this manner, and baked with a little butter and sugar. We like it better than sweet potato, which it resembles, and is unusual enough to be interesting.

"I feel like throwing a brick at anyone I hear mention depression," said one man yesterday. If more people felt that way, it would be hard on gloom-seekers.

Every mail brings to the Pampa Daily News office letters from little boys and girls telling Santa Claus exactly what they want him to bring them on Christmas morning. All of these letters will be published a few days before Christmas. Almost every little girl wants a doll, and there is a little request for a little red wagon.

Healthiest 4-H Club Girl and Boy Are Chosen

CHICAGO, Dec. 2. (AP)—America's healthiest 4-H club girl is 15-year-old Gertrude Heikes of Dakota City, Neb., and she's all but perfect so far as her physical condition is concerned.

She scored 99.9 points to win the national 4-H health contest over the competitors of 48 other states. Only a slight imperfection in the alignment of her teeth kept her from a 100 per cent rating. And she's a good looking girl too.

William Sanders, a Hopedale, Ind., who like Miss Heikes lives on a farm, was proclaimed the healthiest 4-H boy in the country with a rating of 99.1. A light skin eruption, a defective nasal passage and somewhat faulty teeth were the only defects examining physicians and dentists said they could find when the results of the contest were announced yesterday.

Neither of the winners goes in for any special diet but they drink lots of milk, get up at the crack of dawn, aren't afraid of a little work, go to bed early, and, last but not possibly not least, they both eat stimulants. They were emphatic about that. But cigarettes, coffee, tea or opiates of any kind are taboo.

A total of 850,000 boys and girls participated in the various states contests from which the finalists were named for yesterday's judging.

Baptist W. M. S. Hears Program

A program on China and Japan presented by Circle 1 at a meeting of the First Baptist Woman's Missionary society yesterday afternoon took the form of a playlet, in which each character chatted informally of conditions in the Orient. Those taking part were Mrs. F. E. Hoffman, Mrs. R. L. Edmondson, Mrs. F. M. McAfee, Mrs. C. L. Stephens, Mrs. J. T. Morrow, Mrs. A. C. Shaw and Mrs. J. Powell Wehring. The group also discussed the 13 causes aided by the Lottie Moon offering.

Miss Ova White and Mrs. Dan McKinstry sang "Whisper a Prayer." They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Marvin Lewis.

It was announced that V. L. David, returned missionary from Spain, would speak in the interest of the Lottie Moon offering Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Twenty-five women attended yesterday's meeting, the second of a series in observance of week of prayer.

Africa will be studied at the meeting tomorrow.

William Dull has moved from 613 W. Browning avenue to 817 W. Francis avenue.

Russell Smith, Caterpillar tractor dealer in 13 Panhandle counties, is transacting business in Wheeler today.

Mrs. Tom E. Rose, a member, and Mrs. F. M. Gwin, a guest, were announced as high score winners when the Amusu club was entertained Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Siler Faulkner.

Refreshments were served at the close of the bridge games to Mrs. F. M. Gwin and Miss Virginia Faulkner, guests, and to the following members: Mesdames Lynn Boyd, J. M. Dodson, Dick Walker, J. M. McDonald, C. T. Hunkapiller, William C. Craven, George Walstad, C. F. Buckler, Alex Schneider, W. A. Bratton, W. J. Smith, Tom E. Rose, Clifford Braly, Charlie Thut, and the hostess.

The club is to meet Dec. 15 in the home of Mrs. J. M. Dodson.

Eastern Folk Champions in Bridge Games

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2. (AP)—Easterners broke a middle western monopoly on four action bridge championships early today and strove to retain their domination of the contract titles as play started in that division.

A team of four representing the Knickerbocker Whist club of New York captured the national team championship at the fifth annual American Bridge league tournament.

The members of the team, Baron Waldemar Von Zedtwitz and P. Hal Sims, won the national pair title and the other two members, Oswald Jacoby and David Burnside, were runners-up.

Two Philadelphia women, Mrs. J. S. Jones and Mrs. H. L. Peterson, annexed the pair trophy in their division although the team of four in which they played finished third.

The only victory of the mid-westerners was that of four Cleveland women players as a team but representing no club.

LEGION GROUP DOES YULETIDE BUYING EARLY

The American Legion auxiliary is doing its Christmas shopping early. It has to do its shopping early, because it has the longest Christmas list in the world. More than 50,000 names are on the list to receive Christmas presents from the auxiliary.

The names on the auxiliary's list are those of disabled world war veterans who will be forced to spend Christmas in hospitals. Every disabled veteran in a hospital anywhere in the United States will receive a gift from the auxiliary on Christmas, to add a touch of cheer to the day for him and to remind him that his services and sacrifices are not forgotten.

The purchases of the gifts are being made by the state organizations in each state. Each state department of the auxiliary is responsible for providing Christmas gifts for all veterans in hospitals within the state. Funds for the activity are contributed by auxiliary units and the local unit is giving its proportionate amount to the work. States having a large number of hospitalized veterans in proportion to the auxiliary membership will receive financial aid from funds with lighter responsibility through a national Christmas gift fund.

The distribution of Christmas gifts to all hospitalized veterans is a part of the auxiliary's continuous work for disabled men. As far as possible, the gifts are selected to meet the individual needs and desires of the men receiving them. In many hospitals they are distributed by auxiliary women on Christmas day, with personal greetings and best wishes from the auxiliary.

SERVE LUNCHEONS Mothers of children taught by Mrs. E. A. Stover and Miss Clara Brown at Horace Mann school served luncheons at the school today in order to raise money to buy library books. Delicious meals were served for only 15 cents. This same method of raising money has been used by a number of other mothers in the school.

Thos. R. Kirby of the southwest part of the county, former commissioner of precinct No. 3, was in town yesterday on business.

MRS. KEYS WILL HAVE TITLE ROLE IN DULCY

Rehearsals are being held each evening for Dulcy, a three-act farce comedy by George Kaufman and Maek Connelly. The comedy, one of the Little Theater's three major productions of the year, will be given publicly Tuesday evening, Dec. 8 at the city hall auditorium. Mrs. Helen Turner is director.

The story is of a week-end party given by Dulcy, the role being played by Mrs. H. D. Keys. In order to help her husband, played by Dick Hughes, close business deal with Forbes, a successful business man, played by I. A. Freeman.

Mrs. J. C. Carroll will take the role of Forbes' wife; W. B. Weathered, Dulcy's brother, a comedy part; Emmett Smith, lunatic who thinks he is a millionaire; Jack Foster, scenario writer; Miss Louise Barton, Forbes' daughter; C. W. Stowell, a butler, who is a convict on probation; Russell Kennedy, a lawyer and cousin of the lunatic; Ed Whitburn, Forbes' advertising manager.

Mrs. E. M. Conley is chairman of properties; Russ Allen is business manager; Russ Allen Lubek is promoter, and Miss Arless O'Keefe is in charge of make-up.

GROUP PLANS SINGING FOR NEAR FUTURE

ALSO ARRANGES TREAT FOR PUPILS ON DEC. 18

"Keep a family budget," advised those who took part on the Merten Parent-Teacher association program yesterday afternoon. "A certain per cent," they said, "should be allowed for each luxury the family can afford." There were 35 members present, so far the largest attendance so far this year.

A part of the program also was devoted to planning and furnishing a home. It was brought out that physical needs should be cared for first, that proper heating and ventilation were very important. A child's sleeping room should be one of perfect quiet, it was said. Importance of allowing each member of the family to help in planning the home was stressed.

The meeting was opened with a song, Battle Hymn of the Republic, and Mrs. Tom Allford led in prayer. Mrs. B. T. Hargis, leader, made a short talk, and other talks included the following: "The Family Wants," Mrs. C. E. Nelson; "Dividing the Dollar," Mrs. J. W. Browning; "Wise Spending," Miss Mildred Smith; "Physical Needs," Mrs. H. E. Hall; "Planning and Furnishing the Home," Mrs. A. C. Jones; "House Furnishing," Mrs. J. M. Simon.

During a business meeting, plans were made for a pie supper and sing-song to be held at Merten school the evening of Dec. 11 at the school building. The public is invited to attend. Tom Allford will lead the singing.

Plans also were made and a collection was taken for a treat to be given children of Merten school in connection with a program on Friday, Dec. 18.

Club Girls Like Hats and Purses To Match Frocks

By RUTH BALDWIN COWAN CHICAGO, Dec. 2. (AP)—Bag and hat of the same material as the dress. That was a favored fashion note observed at the National 4-H club style show last night in which young feminists demonstrated their skill with the needle and modeled with "the well dressed school girl" is wearing that is smart, yet easy on the purse.

Annette Yonkelowitz, 15, Hopkinton, Ill., who was awarded the title of style queen, placed first in the tailored wool dress class with a light green novelty wool frock with collar, cuffs and waist of egg shell crepe made at a cost of $10.31. Her entire outfit including dress, hat, shoes and undergarments, totaled $34.90.

Louise Morgan, 17, Buchanan, Ga., won first place in the cotton dress class with a brown and orange cotton tweed sport frock that looked like Fifth Avenue. Her jaunty tam and envelop bag were of the same material. The investment in the dress was $6.30 and in the outfit $15.65.

A dark brown crepe dress with a clever tan yoke won the blue ribbon in the semi-tailored silk dress class for Helen Louise Thomas, 15, of Amesville, Ohio. Her dress cost her $8.96 and the outfit $13.37.

Tall, slim Mary Marley, 17, from Ashland, Mass., modeled a soft, flowered green chiffon voile frock and was awarded first honor in the informal party dress class. Her dress represented an outlay of $5.92 and the outfit $19.76.

Tele-Typewriters Now in Service

Installation was scheduled today for the new lined wire service separately and jointly by Postal Telegraph and Western Union. Telegraph-operated typewriters are available to customers both for sending and receiving messages from other subscribers similarly equipped.

The telegraph-primar machines are in use in about 10,000 offices of the country. Trunk line connections permit quick dispatching of the messages. The charge is based upon the number of minutes the patron operates his machine. A skilled typist can send as many as 60 words per minute.

LADY with a PAST

BY HARRIET HENRY

SYNOPSIS: Venice Muir finds herself in a predicament, as she is playing a careful game of living on. In a previous life in Paris she collected sufficient information about the way to return to New York with the aid of an adventurous friend. Years of being considered untrustworthy have given her a suppressed desire for popularity. She meets an American, Guy Bryson, whom she engages in a friendly way to take her about the city. He introduces her to persons of importance, among them the Marquis de Thénardier. In the midst of her construction of an exciting "past," Lola Ward, a New York friend, arrives unexpectedly. To impress Lola, Venice invites her to her husband to dinner, with herself and a friend. She is disappointed when she tries to secure Guy for the evening, to find him not at home.

Chapter 22

LOLA IS AMAZED

SHE thought of René de Thénardier and asked the concierge to find his number. He had an apartment in the Faubourg-St. Honoré.

"Hello, René?"
"Mais oui."
"It's Venice Muir."
"Ah, over the telephone I kiss your hand. How are you, Venice?"
"Excellent. Some American friends have just turned up and I wondered if you'd dine with us tonight?"
"It would be a great pleasure."

"You are the most beautiful thing in the world," said René. "Beautiful things are to be looked at, not touched."

"That's nice. Will you stop by for me at the Louis-Le-Grand at quarter of eight?"

"At twenty minutes of eight I will stop by for you."

She laughed and bade him au revoir. Dressing she felt pleased and excited. But what about the check? Lola and Jerry must never know that it was her dinner.

Shaking hands with René in the parlour downstairs she tried to explain to him.

"I told them we'd meet at the Tour d'Argent. I can't sign a check there. May I give you some money now, René? It's my party, you know."

Her cheeks were dyed pomegranate. She felt stupid and embarrassed. Colour crept into his olive face. He seemed uncomfortable and shy about it, too.

"But no, Venice."
"Please. You must."
"Well, it is very odd. But I will do as you wish." She felt sure that he could not have afforded to pay for the dinner anyway and was only embarrassed with the fear that she might realize it.

"Thank you. It makes it all much easier for me."

In the taxi she had nothing to say. The old diffidence clutched her.

"Are you in Europe alone?" He suddenly broke on her thoughts and it occurred to her that he had given some time to wondering about her exact social status.

"I came over with my mother. She died suddenly about two months ago. She didn't want me to incur in the formal way so I've been going about."

"My deep condolences, Venice."
"Thank you."
"I want you to meet my mother. She is in the South. But she will come up to Paris one of these days."

"I'd love to meet her." Venice was puzzled. Was he serious about her? She remembered what Guy had said about his search for American dollars.

"We are here," René stepped to the curb and held out a hand to assist her. Lola and Jerry were waiting.

"Le Marquis de Thénardier, Mr. and Mrs. Ward."
She hoped she had introduced René properly. She was not quite sure about titles. Lola looked subtly impressed. She kissed Venice and was able to whisper as they walked towards their table ahead of the men. "Is he a heavy beau?" Venice nodded indifferently.
René ordered a delicious dinner. He hit it off splendidly with Lola and Jerry. And he paid marked and graceful attention to Venice. Here she had something to be sure of. There was no cause to belittle herself and she was Venice at her most natural and brightest. Lola looked so frankly happy at the metamorphosis that for Venice the earlier prick was eased. It was a merry evening. Afterwards they went to a cinema and she allowed René to hold her hand in the concealing dark. The wee small hours found them at Harry's Bar sipping whiskies and soda.
"I am having a little party tomorrow night. Will you and Mr. Ward honour me?" René asked Lola.
"I wish we could. We're going to Le Touquet at four something."
"You must stay over," he begged. "Venice is coming with her American."
Lola felt that the heavens were about to fall.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

Most homemakers clearly recognize the necessity of serving uncooked food daily, but during the winter months the resources seem limited and head lettuce becomes the standby.

The winter salad fills an important place in the dietary. It must supply bulk to menus apt to be made up of rich and "concentrated" foods. It must also furnish mineral salts and vitamins and maintain the proper balance of the diet. Its contrasting flavor and texture as well as its attractive appearance, are worth-while qualities that deserve consideration.

Hearty salads of meat, fish and eggs usually are wanted for special occasions and seldom find a place in the regular menu. Cream cheese, nuts and nut butters, dried fruits, canned fruits, fresh fruits, canned and fresh vegetables and jellied combinations all are suitable and appetizing for winter salads. Most of them always are available. An excellent substitute for fresh tomatoes is found in tomato jelly.

Its bright red color makes it particularly desirable for the holiday season if a party luncheon or dinner salad is wanted. The trick of scooping out the center of individual molds and filling the molds with extra material is worth keeping in mind. Any mixture that might be used for fresh tomatoes can be used for the filling.
Bright red apples, carefully washed and polished make a gay salad. Carefully remove the core and then cut each apple, peel-fashion, almost to the blossom. The petals must be cut narrow enough to make the salad easy to eat. Fill the cavity with any preferred combination well moistened with salad dressing.
Too often when lettuce is used principally for the salad green—as a bed for some salad mixture—it is not eaten and means a waste of both money and food elements. Lettuce rolls, an arrangement in which the salad mixture is rolled in a lettuce leaf, insures against this waste. Shredded lettuce and the tiny leaves from the heart of head lettuce can be combined with other salad materials to good advantage. This makes sure of some of the valuable vitamins being eaten, even if the bed is left untouched.

You probably know the stuffed prune salad in which cream cheese and nuts are used for the stuffing, but the following rule may be new to you.

Prune and Cabbage Salad
Sixteen to 20 fine large prunes,

1 tablespoon grated horseradish, 1 cup finely diced celery, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 2 cups shredded cabbage, French dressing.
Wash prunes well through several waters. Cover with water and let boil one hour, letting water cook away. Remove pits from prunes. Combine horseradish and celery with salt and mayonnaise to make moist. Fill prunes with this mixture. Marinate cabbage in French dressing on ice for 30 minutes. Arrange on individual salad plates or a platter and put prepared prunes on the cabbage. Serve with French dressing.
If the 1931 crop of improved peaches could be divided among the nation's population each person would receive about one-half pound.

KANSAS BANK ROBBED
HUTCHINSON, Kan., Dec. 2. (P)—An unmasked bandit robbed the First Prairie State bank this morning and escaped in a small automobile with loot estimated at $1,500.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE WILL OFFICIALLY START TODAY

SQUAD TO BE DIVIDED THEN TRAINED FULLY

COACH KELLEY CALLING GIRLS TO PLAN SCHEDULE

Although the first official basketball practice will not be held until this afternoon, 32 boys were out for practice at the high school gymnasium yesterday afternoon. Coach Odus Mitchell stated that he would issue a bulletin calling for basketball boys to report at the gymnasium this afternoon.

The coach expects to have his first string chosen by the end of the week, when intensive training will start. The best 10 boys to show up sensationally will constitute the Harvester squad and will be under the command of Coach Mitchell. The second 10 boys will work under Coach Argus Fox and will be the second string or the team that will make the Harvesters step.

The next 20 boys will be split, and will work under Coach G. B. Gordon and Coach Warren Moore. They will be known as the Gorillas. The rest of the boys will play intramural games and work for places on the Gorillas as they show up.

The coaches expected more than 75 boys to report this afternoon. Practice schedules will be arranged so that practices will not conflict. Coach Harry Kelley has ordered his girls to report this afternoon to arrange practice sessions. He has 32 names on his list. Miss Betty James is captain of the squad this year.

Boiler Explosion Kills 3 Men

SWEDSBORO, N. J., Dec. 2. (AP)—Two men were killed and the lives of several other persons were endangered today when a three-ton boiler attached to a 10,000-gallon still exploded in a barn at Woodstown, near here. The dead were mangled beyond recognition.

The blast shook the countryside for miles and sent the boiler hurtling through the air. It tore a 10-foot hole in the home of Fred Danforth, 48, on whose farm the still was located, and fell in a field 100 yards away.

Danner said he had leased the barn some time ago to the two men who said they intended to manufacture talow. He did not know their names.

Snow Is Forecast for This Section

Although the weather forecast for tonight was probably rain or snow, with Thursday cloudy, the snow which fell this morning melted quickly and at noon the sun was shining.

(By The Associated Press)
Unsettled weather, with the probability of continued rain was in the forecast for Texas today. Overcast skies throughout the state indicated little change could be expected in the next 24 hours. Temperatures climbed a few degrees but remained cool.

Shippers were warned by weather bureau observers to protect consignments against freezing in the north and northwest sections.

Precipitation occurred in practically every part of the state yesterday and last night. Reports indicated drizzling rain covered all but the southwest region. A snow storm of two days duration struck there.

Wheat shipments from New Orleans during October were nearly double the shipments of the same month last year.

COUGERS ARE SURE TO GIVE TULANE RUN

But Washington State Not The Powerful Outfit of 1930 Champ Team.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2. (AP)—The Washington State Cougars of 1931 are not the all-conquering outfit that swept through to a Pacific Coast conference championship last year but there may be strength enough left to give Tulane at least a few uneasy moments at New Orleans Saturday.

This is a pivotal clash so far as Tulane is concerned for if the Southern conference title-holders can chalk up a decisive victory they are almost certain to be invited to battle Southern California in the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena New Year's day.

The yard-stick by which Tulane's right to such an invitation may be measured is the 38 to 6 trouncing Washington State accepted from Southern California early in October. If the Green Wave can run up a score approximating that count the invitation in all likelihood will be forthcoming.

While Tulane is trying to earn its invitation to the far west, Southern California will try to clinch the Pacific Coast conference title by whipping Washington.

PRO CHAMPION NOW LONGVIEW TITLE HOLDER

DICK METZ TURNS IN 287 CARD FOR 72 HOLES

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Staff Writer.
LONGVIEW, Dec. 2.—Dick Metz, Texas Professional Golf association champion and holder of several minor titles, added another jewel to his crown yesterday by winning the first annual Texas professional golf organization tournament with a 72-hole card of 142-145-287.

Tony Butler, Corpus Christi professional whose 141 led Monday at the conclusion of the first 36 holes, finished five strokes back of Metz for second place with 141-181-292. Jimmy McConagill, Dallas amateur, and Ray Garrett, Tyler professional, tied with 299 for third place. Garrett got the money and McConagill a trophy.

Starting the final 36 holes, Butler had a one up lead over Metz. At the conclusion of 45 holes, Butler had increased his lead with a 36 for 177 against Metz's 37 for 179, but on the next nine, Butler's drives started straying and before he could get them under control he had carded a 40 while Metz breezed in with a 33, two under par, for a 70 and a 54-hole title of 212 against 217 for Butler.

The sudden gain was good throughout the last 18 when Metz turned in a 75 along with Butler. William Robinson, who displayed one of the finest assortments of approach shots in the tournament, won fourth place with 148-153-301. His card was just one stroke better than those of Ted Longworth, Fort Worth, professional, Bert Hatzenbuehler and Hugh Carpenter, Dallas professionals, and Oren Williams, Longview professional. Others who finished in the money were Floyd Boone of Corsicana, Hubby of Waco, Bud Clark of Dallas, Levi Lynch of Dallas and Lefty Stackhouse of Dallas.

Democrat Wins In New Jersey

ELIAZBETH, N. J., Dec. 2. (AP)—Percy H. Stewart, Democrat, was elected to congress from the regular Republican fifth district of New Jersey by a plurality of 1,912 votes.

The special election yesterday saw a normally Republican majority of 35,000 overturned, with complete returns from the 198 districts giving Stewart 31,567 and Donald M. McLean, Republican, 29,955.

The national Republican administration was the major issue in the campaign in which Stewart, an ardent wet, urged a Democratic victory as a repudiation of President Hoover and his policies.

McLean, answering the challenge, pleaded for support as a vote of confidence in the president.

DRAKE GIVEN FOUR PLACES ON ALL-STARS

GRINNELL SECOND WITH THREE ON A. P. ROLL

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 2. (AP)—A fast backfield and a husky, hard charging line made up the 1931 All-Missouri Valley football team selected by coaches, athletic directors and critics for the Associated Press today.

Drake, which won its three conference contests to lay claim to another title, placed four men, Grinnell rated three, and Oklahoma A. and M. and Creighton, two each.

Henry Thomas, Grinnell quarterback, was unanimous choice for that post. The heaviest man in the backfield, Conrad Collin of Creighton, was voted a halfback berth. The Oklahoma Aggie midget, Hayden Trigg, whose brilliance was one of the features of the Aggie attack, drew the other halfback post.

The fullback post went to Lloyd Lansrud, 158-pound Drake star.

Missouri Valley all-conference football selections:

John Briley, Drake, end.
Fred Blanck, Drake, tackle.
Milo Bowers, Drake, guard.
Oscar Christoffersen, Grinnell, center.

Bill Oates, Oklahoma A. and M., guard.
Richard Sklenar, Creighton, tackle.

Frank Duncan, Grinnell, end.
Henry Thomas, Grinnell, quarterback.

Hayden Trigg, Oklahoma A. and M., halfback.
Conrad Collin, Creighton, halfback.
Lloyd Lansrud, Drake, fullback.

Hoover Working on His Message

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. (AP)—President Hoover has given out little information of late so observers believe he is saving up some real news for his annual and budget message to congress.

Usually the president talks to newspaper correspondents twice a week and one of his secretaries sees them twice a day but Mr. Hoover has cancelled both of his last press engagements and little has been said by his aides.

The chief executive's annual message is to appear before congress Tuesday. In order to give it a last-minute twist, the president is expected to hold up its completion until late this week or possibly the first of next. The budget message is due for delivery Wednesday.

Paroled Texan in Trouble Now

MALESTER, Okla., Dec. 2. (AP)—State prison officials were advised today that Claude Newton, the "truth serum" convict paroled three months ago from a life term for killing an Oklahoma City policeman, is in the Port Worth, Texas, jail in connection with an investigation into possession of stolen property.

Authorities here were uncertain what action would be taken. Governor Murray granted Newton an "exile" parole, stipulating that he go to Texas, on Aug. 1. At that time Newton had served nearly seven years for the killing of Briggs Chumley in 1924.

The prisoner attracted some attention in 1926 when he took a "truth serum" test before a peace officers' convention at Holdenville. Under the influence of the drug he steadfastly denied his guilt.

MARTIN IN NEW HERO ROLE

Every hit that made John "Pepper" Martin the hero of the last world's series, it develops, was a body blow to a mortgage on the home of his 67-year-old mother in Oklahoma City, Okla. Pepper and his proud mother are shown above holding the document which was marked "paid in full" after the St. Louis outfielder handed over a share of his world's series profits.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS IN CAREER OF RED MICHAEL

Local Red-Head Featured on Majestic Program With Pancho Viteia, Mexican.

Red Michael, Pampa's red-headed wrestling cyclone, will get his big opportunity Friday night at the Majestic auditorium when he meets Pancho Viteia of Old Mexico in the final bout on the card.

The local flash has been after a chance at a main go for some time, and he has improved to such an extent that fans have asked Promoter Frank Hunt to give him a chance. Viteia is a cat on the mat. The red-thatched boy will probably be the stronger, but the Mexican's speed and knowledge of holds will even up the weight and strength problem and fans are expecting to see a real battle.

Red and Pancho wrestled to a 30-minute draw in Amarillo last month and since that time the Pampa boy has been working hard for this new opportunity.

Mike Sanchez, full-blooded Indian, will meet Clarence Lee in the semi-final bout. Fans who have seen the Indian youth in action say that he is one of the real wrestling prospects of this year. He is fast, sly, and nows his holds. He has been improving lately and has shown up several of the best boys in his class.

Barber Kelly and Slim Jones open the card. They have an old grudge to settle and will make it Thursday night at 8:15 o'clock.

Hiccoughs Are In Thirteenth Day

MT. VERNON, O., Dec. 2. (AP)—An injection of serum failed to cure the protracted hiccoughing attack that has weakened Carl Horlacher and his physician said he probably would be removed to a Columbia hospital for observation and further treatment. Horlacher today began his 13th day of hiccoughing.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2. (AP)—Wheat prices averaged higher and corn lower early today. Upturns in Liverpool wheat quotations with improvement in British exchange rates gave some encouragement to wheat bulls. Opening unchanged to 1-2 cent up, wheat afterward rose all around but then receded. Corn started at 1-8 decline to 1-4 advance and subsequently sagged.

Wabash Railroad Up to Receivers

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 2. (AP)—Falling in the last minute efforts to obtain financial aid, the Wabash Railroad company today was in the hands of receivers—the first major business casualty in railroad circles since the stock market crash and subsequent business lull.

Unable to meet its operating expenses in the face of drastic cuts in freight revenue, the road consented yesterday to the appointment in federal court of two receivers, Walter S. Franklin, St. Louis, newly elected president of the system, and Frank C. Nicodemus Jr., New York, assistant general counsel of the road.

The receivers were named on petition of the T. J. Moss Tie company, which claimed the road was "completely insolvent" and based its action on a claim of $46,651. The road likewise defaulted on large interest payments.

E. J. Gething of Miami was shopping and attending court here Tuesday.

Walter Mails Is Purchased Again

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 2. (AP)—Walter Mails, veteran baseball pitcher, most recently with the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league, has been sold to Chattanooga of the Southern association. Announcement of the sale was telegraphed here by Tom Turner, president of the Portland club, who is attending the minor league meeting at West Baden, Ind. Mails formerly pitched for Cleveland in the American league.

One or more children of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McCollum have been enrolled at the Magnolia, Ark. A. and M. college since 1916, and there are enough children to keep the record unbroken through 1933.

GREAT ALBIE BOOTH ALWAYS MISSES ALL-AMERICA RATING BECAUSE OF SERIOUS HURTS

YALE MITE CONFINED TO HIS BED AT HOSPITAL

NEW YORK, Dec. 2. (AP)—Albie Booth, the dynamic mite, is resting in the Gaylord sanitarium at Wallingford, Conn., today, bound to a hospital cot for perhaps four months, his story book career now only a matter of Yale athletic records.

His is the story of a small-town boy who made good in his own neighborhood, a New Haven high school idol who stepped into Yale's big league, all 145 pounds of him, and instantaneously coming to every team, football, baseball or basketball, on which he played.

Albie is the greatest broken field runner, the finest leader in Yale's modern football history, a ball-carrying back whose sudden scoring spurges are rivalled only by feats of the gridiron's great past of redheads, Grange of Illinois and Cagle of Army. Yet in his three sensational years, Albie never "made" an All-America Eleven. Always some injury or some illness such as the pleurisy and bronchitis which now have ended his Yale career, forced him to the sidelines.

Yet in his three years in the Yale backfield, Booth probably generated as much publicity as either Cagle or Cagle. He had the same spark of inspirational leadership, the dash and spetacular ability to function best in a crisis, the nerve of a winning ball player.

Three highspots blaze through Booth's career, two of them in a pair of magnificent scoring outbursts, the third in the last few minutes of the Harvard-Yale game, just as his career, when he dropped back and kicked the field goal that gave the Elis a 3-0 victory.

As a sophomore he leaped overnight into national fame by tearing Army apart in a little more than a period to score 24 points after the debacle, with "Red" Cagle in the ascendancy, had gained a lead of 13-0.

Official timers who credited Bayles with an average speed of 284.72 miles an hour immediately after his flight yesterday, corrected the figure today and disclosed that the actual average was 281.9 miles an hour. New Speed Mark For Planes Denied DETROIT, Dec. 2. (AP)—Denied a new world's land plane speed record through a check of the time he made in a third attempt yesterday and the failure of one of the timers to get a photographic record of the finish, Lowell R. Bayles, of Springfield, Mass., aviator, plans to make a fourth attempt and hopes to reach 300 miles an hour.

Three Tulane Stars on Honor Roll of Sport

ATLANTA, Dec. 2. (AP)—Tulane university, claimant of the southern conference gridiron championship for the third successive year, placed three of its brightest stars on the 1931—all-southern team selected today for the Associated Press by coaches and sport writers.

The green wave, conference titlist this year, is represented by Jerry Dalrymple, end; Don Zimmerman, halfback and John Seafide, guard.

The 1931 all-southern football team:

Jerry Dalrymple, Tulane, end.
Chas. Leyendecker, Vanderbilt, of Waco, tackle.
Herman Hickman, Tennessee, guard.

Clarence Gracey, Vanderbilt, center.
John Seafide, Tulane, guard.
Ray Saunders, Tennessee, tackle.

Austin Downes, Tulane, halfback.
Gene McEver Tennessee, halfback.
John Cain, Alabama, fullback.

COTTON QUIET

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 2. (AP)—The cotton market had a quiet and irregular opening today. Cables were a shade worse than due and first trades here showed 2 points gain to 2 points decline. The market eased off slightly after the start on a little liquidation, January dropping to 6.03, and March to 6.18, or 4 to 5 points down from yesterday's close.

There was little disposition to trade, operations being disposed to wait for the government estimate due early next week.

Near the end of the first hour the market was quiet and steady and at the lows.

A private authority estimated the crop at 17,200,000 bales.

"Small Man" Is Sought in Affray at San Angelo

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 2 (AP)—Authorities today sought "a small man" who Mrs. Terry B. Sterrett said shot her in the back at her home and then fled.

She was wounded seriously in an affray at the Sterrett garage Monday night which cost the life of Tom McAfee, 44, a former Big Lake peace officer.

Sterrett, a druggist, said he was attacked by two men when he and his wife drove into their garage. He said he fired one shot and then heard another shot and a scream from his wife.

A justice of the peace gave a verdict that McAfee died apparently from gunshot wounds "inflicted by a weapon in the hands of Terry B. Sterrett."

The police theory was the men attempted to hold up Sterrett, knowing he carried about $5,000 in cash and checks. One man was arrested.

Mrs. Sterrett said she was shot by a small man and she believed she could identify him. McAfee was a large man.

The drive this year is to be conducted solely for the benefit of welfare work, and none of the organizations which participated in the chest fund last year will derive support from the welfare drive next week.

In order that last year's contributors to the community chest may know how the cash they gave was spent, J. O. Gillham, treasurer, yesterday filed a statement of receipts and disbursements of the chest fund for 1930-31.

On Dec. 1 there was a total of $291.90 in the First National bank. This amount represents the total amount of the cash balance.

Fund is Exhausted
The report shows a total amount of $12,539.22 in cash and received during the drive and subsequent collections. Disbursements totaled $12,277.62.

These were distributed as follows: Welfare association, $8,153.17; Salvation Army, $1,692; American Red Cross, $50.20; boy scouts, $1,700; Red Cross chapter $600; advertising incident to drive, including buttons, printing, signs, etc., $74.75; collector for services, $17.50.

The welfare association spent its appropriation in the following manner: medical services to the needy, $477; welfare work, $4,461.22; welfare kitchen, $1,179.95; manager's salary, $1,715; manager-assistant's salary, $300.

This fall the Salvation Army withdrew from the chest and conducted its own drive.

various stores. One float will carry musicians. In single file on each side of the floats and decorated cars will be the members of the Junior chamber, wearing armbands and helping Santa distribute souvenirs.

Tumblers to Perform
At 2 o'clock, a special gymnastic program will be given by tumblers in front of the city hall. The Pampa band also will give a concert. As a grand finale, a fireworks display of great brilliance will be given at Harvester park north of the city just after dusk.

The parade will necessitate special traffic arrangements, which are in charge of Traffic Officer Joe Persky and his junior school police. Many hundreds of persons are expected to come from neighboring towns if the weather is good, and several thousand local people will be spectators.

Merchants are co-operating by decorating their windows and entering floats. Prizes will be awarded by the judges. Street decorating is in charge of the American Legion, whose plans were formally endorsed last night by the Junior chamber.

Starts Fiscal Year
The new fiscalization yesterday began its fiscal year. C. B. "Brownie" Akers is president and A. Frank Hill is secretary. Dozens of committees have been given duties. The chamber has been asked to send six members to the annual banquet of the Wichita Falls Junior chamber Saturday night.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 2—Without saying a word to anybody but airport officials, Santa Claus hopped off before dawn this morning for Denver, en route to Pampa, Texas. Pampa is planning a big celebration in his honor Friday.

Yesterday was a big day for the old fellow. He took the leading part in a big parade here, distributed souvenirs of his trip, and talked to hundreds of children. Tonight he will romp all over Denver with the children of that Colorado city.

Having abandoned his reindeer for the modern airplane, Santa is making fast time and will arrive in Pampa at noon Friday. He has sent many toys and gifts ahead so that the children may see them at the stores before he arrives. He also has asked them to write to him in care of the Pampa Daily News.

Those who volunteered to distribute issues of THE NEWS today were: D. A. Fingelstein, to LeFors; H. P. Elliott, to Miami; Jack Cunningham, to Claude; E. A. Hancock, to Mobeetie; Wheeler, to Canadian; Dr. W. A. Snyder, to Skellytown; R. F. Fuller, to McLean and Alvarado; L. R. Bruner and A. J. Herring, to south oilfields; R. L. Edmondson, White Deer; R. A. Bradshaws, Alvarado, Jericho, and Clarendon.

There will be no school Friday afternoon, in order that every boy and girl in Pampa may see the Santa Claus parade. The high school band will have a prominent part in the procession.

McClesky Says
Contention Upheld
By State Ruling

Commissioner H. G. McClesky of precinct No. 2 pointed out today that the state highway commission yesterday upheld his contention that Panhandle roads should not be built of concrete, but of caliche and asphalt.

Yesterday the commission refused to let a concrete paving contract on Highway 7 from Lubbock northwest.

Two weeks ago the Gray county commissioners let a contract to pave four and one-half miles of county roads with concrete over the strenuous objections of Mr. McClesky who declared that if caliche and asphalt were used the county could pave twice as many roads at about $7,000, or save the difference in the cost to the county.

Mr. McClesky predicted that the commission would refuse to let concrete paving contracts for state roads in this county. He termed it absurd to pave county roads with concrete at a cost of about $17,000 per mile, and declared the contract should be rescinded.

At Austin yesterday, W. R. Ely, chairman of the highway commission told the Lubbock delegation that the state could give Lubbock county a much better road at considerable less expense and leave the county with sufficient funds to materially improve other roads. Ely said asphalt and caliche would be in good condition for several years where concrete paving would deteriorate rapidly.

Mr. McClesky said that Gray county has ample caliche to build roads in the county.

members of the Texas Railroad commission, administrators of Texas conservation laws in normal times. The commission, however, at this time has been enjoined from administering proration in East Texas, that function having been taken over by Governor Sterling under martial law powers.

Beatty said he did not care to discuss the Allied suit.

"That is a matter for lawyers to consider," he said.

Asked if he would call on General Allied, he said:

"I had not thought about that, but I may."

Looks to Congress
DALLAS, Dec. 2 (AP)—Amos L. Beatty, New York, president of the American Petroleum Institute, looks to congress to correct what he terms an emergency in the oil industry.

Speaking here last night, he said foreign countries had shown the way with "effective measures, while imports continued to demoralize American oil markets."

He sketched a depressing picture of the oil industry, saying its 1931 balance sheet would resemble a communist flag. He said if current production had been curtailed 10 per cent further the condition would have been better.

He called Gov. Ross Sterling's curbing of production in East Texas by martial law a "drastic" measure, but commended it as "better than violence and bloodshed."

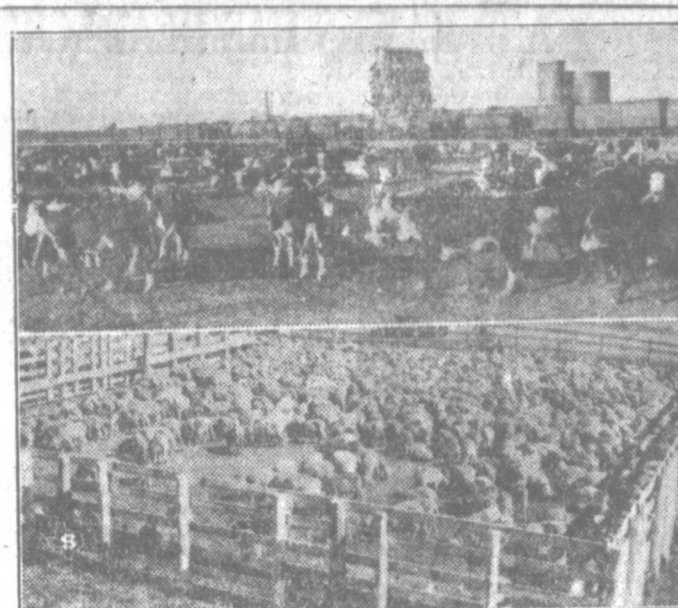

Mr. Beatty declared antiquated anti-trust laws would be modified so that commerce might serve its purpose. At the same time, he recognized public interest should come first.

Held Back Order
DALLAS, Dec. 2 (AP)—Gov. R. S. Sterling held in abeyance this week his proposal to reduce production allowable in the East Texas oil field from 125 to 110 barrels per well daily while oilmen considered the advisability of further pinching production in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

The governor issued the order Monday, then suddenly rescinded it, due, he said, to "inclement weather and other causes." He said advice had reached him that a protracted period of rain in the East Texas field had slowed drilling operations until there was no immediate chance for aggregate production to mount rapidly under the existing well allowable.

FEEDING OUT STOCK IN DALHART

Dalhart is rapidly gaining prominence as a stock feeding center, and fresh impetus was gained this year as a result of low grain prices and high freight rates. Pictures above show extensive cattle and sheep pens recently erected there to hold stock. Nearly 100,000 head of stock are now being fed around Dalhart.

Well Gauging Is Near Completion—Potential Hikes

Gauging of Panhandle wells is nearly two-thirds completed and by the middle of this month the potential of the Panhandle oilfield should be known, J. M. McDonald and W. B. Hamilton of the oil and gas division of the railroad commission said this morning.

Ten men have been making five-days' gauges of Panhandle wells for the past month.

The potential will be much larger than anticipated, Mr. McDonald says. At present, the potential is running about 109,000 barrels daily. He does not expect that figure to change much at the end of the test. The company potential handed in before the 11th meeting in Amarillo gave about 115,000 barrels, while officials doubted if the actual figure would reach 90,000 barrels.

"The Panhandle field is capable of producing more oil than we anticipated," Mr. McDonald declared this morning.

There are 1,952 producing wells in the Panhandle field.

Lou Reichers Is After Record of Frank Hawks

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 2. (AP)—Lou Reichers took off in his speed plane from the Municipal airport at 8:04 a. m. today in an attempt to beat Frank Hawks' flight time to Havana and return.

Reichers, aviation editor of the magazine Liberty, was accompanied by T. O. Warfield.

Hawks' record, established July 23 was 17 hours and 3 minutes, of which 14 hours and 35 minutes actually were spent in the air. Reichers planned to refuel at Miami both going and coming.

Franks Disagree
Frank Allison and Frank Foster, the two "Franks" who are business neighbors on West Foster, are not inclined to agree with Edna Wallace Hopper, the woman who is 60 and looks 18. Miss Hopper says about 100 words a minute on how to keep young, over the radio at intervals during the week. Miss Hopper advocates sleeping on one's back. Mr. Foster says he's got to sleep on his side if he gets any rest, and that he had to have a certain kind of mattress. Mr. Allison also said he had to sleep on his side, and his sleep depended on what he ate.

Tom Rose, owner and manager of the Tom Rose Buick company, has lived in Pampa 10 years. He came here from Chillicothe, Texas. Mr. Rose was born in Paris, Tex., March 25, 1889. He was graduated from Anson high school and later attended college in Abilene.

Mr. Rose has been a conscientious worker for everything that would result in civilized progress for the community. He was one of the original directors of the Board of City Development. He is a present secretary of the Rotary club, and chairman of the finance committee of the First Baptist church. He is also also a director of the Chamber of Commerce, and has been chairman of the highway committee two years.

Mr. Rose helped organize the Adobe Walls Boy Scouts council, and was vice-president and president. His two sons Tom Jr., and Rex, are interested in Scout work. A daughter, Virginia, is a student in Judson college, Marion, Ala., and there-by hangs a tale.

Mrs. Rose, who is one of the best known women in Pampa is a native of Alabama. She attended Judson college when a girl, and was graduated from it in music. The daughter wanted to attend her mother's alma mater. Mrs. Rose is pianist at the First Baptist church. Mrs. Rose is also a member of the A. A. U. W., and is president of the Twentieth Century club.

Mr. Rose has been in the automobile business during the last 16 years. From 1922 to 1931 he had the Ford agency in Pampa. Early this year he released the Ford agency and assumed charge of the Buick agency. He and his brother, B. W. Rose constructed the Rose building in 1929 at the corner of Kingsmill and Cuyler.

In 1926, Mr. Rose was a member of the city commission.

Canadian Money Much Discounted

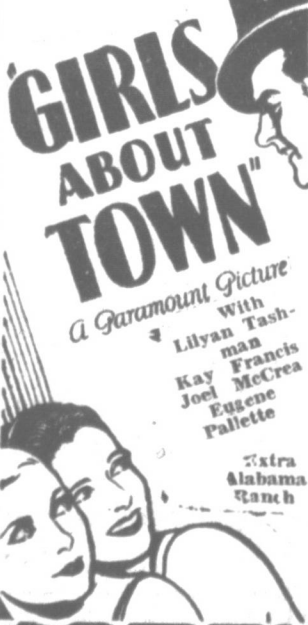

Canadian money is not worth much in the United States today as a couple of citizens found out when they went to the bank to cash Canadian checks.

They got their money all right, but a few days later got notice that a big discount had been charged because of the fact that Canada had accepted the English standard.

This morning Canadian money was worth only $3.20 for $5. During the war the discount failed to drop below 15 cents on the dollar.

Few Car Owners Buying Licenses

Few Gray county car owners took advantage of the early opportunity to purchase licenses for 1932. The tags went on sale yesterday morning but last night only six had been sold. Although the plates may be bought now they cannot be used until Jan. 1.

Truck drivers are also purchasing chauffeurs licenses as the time of leniency has expired and every driver of a truck of one ton or more capacity is compelled to have a license. Following the signing of an affidavit the license may be purchased from Tom Barnes, tax collector, for $3.

Made FRESH never parched, never toasted CAMELS are KEPT Fresh!

You probably know that heat is used in the treatment of all cigarette tobaccos.

But you know too that excessive heat can destroy freshness and fragrance.

That's why there could be no truly fresh cigarette except for scientifically developed methods of applying heat.

Reynolds is proud of having discovered and perfected methods for getting the benefits of heat treatments and still avoiding ever parching or toasting.

With every assurance we tell you, Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh — not parched or toasted — and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

If you wish to know why the swing to Camels is nationwide and steadily growing — switch to them for just one day — then leave them, if you can
