NEW WORLD MURAL

Members of the United Nations Security Council look at Norwegian artist Per Krohg's 16x20 foot mural at its informal unveiling in the Security Council chamber in New York. The mural, gift of the Norwegian government, depicts Krohg's conception of the world in the future as a result of man's efforts and the efforts of the United Nations .It arrived in New York early this month.

State Probers To Check Scurry Jury Transcript

A wire from Snyder's district attorney, Bob Davie, apparently got results from the House Crime Committee this morning.

The Associated Press reported today that committee wanted to study a 71-page transcript of testimony given to a Scurry County grand jury here last October.

Davie said here this morning that he had no reply from the committee concerning his offer of the transcript on West Texas bootlegging.

Davie's wire, addressed to Rep. Waggoner Carr, stated:

"Will furnish your committee transcript of 71 pages of sworn testimony by 12 different Scurry County grand jury witnesses to show the method of operation of the West Texas liquor syndicate:

"1. Liquor and beer is distributed to selected bootleggers in Scurry County on consignment basis.

"2. An advance warning service has been furnished local bootleggers when a liquor control board raid would be made.

"3. Police protection is furnished to syndicate by raiding, fining and driving non-syndicate bootleggers out of business.

"Unless your committee is only hearing Coke Stevenson, Jr., and Pinkie Roden's side of the story this office will gladly join Amarillo and Lubbock to give you this evidence at your committee's beck and call."

The committee also announced today that it felt Liquor Board Administrator Coke Stevenson, Jr., had made "great improvement" in a "bad condition" that existed up until about a year ago among a small group of liquor board employees.

Those statements summarized a final report of the committee on two days of secret hearings that started Monday. The report was released by Rep. Horace Houston Jr., Dallas, committee member.

Houston said Dist. Atty. Bob Davie of Scurry County had offered the committee access to the transcript of evidence from 12 witnesses on West Texas bootleg operations.

Rep. Waggoner Carr, Lubbock committee member, will study this testimony before the committee gets together again, Houston said.

Carr said yesterday the committee had turned up evidence of bootlegging in West Texas but not to the extent indicated by a recent Potter County grand jury report.

He said no new cases of bribery or attempted bribery were uncovered but the hearing had not progressed to such a point that would likely disclose such law violations.

The committee heard 11 witnesses yesterday. Among them were Liquor Control Board Administrator Coke R. Stevenson Jr., who spent more than two hours before the committee, and Odessa liquor retailer Tom Roden, who was before the committee more than four hours.

"On the basis of testimony received Tuesday, operations of the Roden enterprises —Pinkie's Liquor Stores—do not appear to be as extensive as the Amarillo grand jury's report would indicate," Carr said.

He said evience reflected multi-million dollar gross sales and that some sales had been made to bootleggers. He said the part of the sales involving liquor that was later resold would not approach the million-dollar figure. He also noted that such sales were not necessarily illegal.

The committee withheld a decision on whether to proceed further until it has time to study its testimony and records so far.

Fifth Project Is Staked In North Howard

Cosden Petroleum Corp. has staked location for a fifth project in the Coronet 2900 field of extreme Northeast Howard County.

It will be the No. 1-B Chester L. Jones, 330 feet from north and east lines of the south half of the northeast quarter of section 5-25-H&TC, about two miles east of Vincent. It is about one-half mile north and one-quarter mile west of Coronet's No. 1 Brokhage, the field opener.

Contract depth is 3,000 feet or pay at a lesser depth, with operations to start at once.

FISHER COUNTY

General Crude Oil Co. has staked location for the No. 2 Edwin Aiken as a three-quarter mile southwest outpost to the Claytonville field of Fisher County.

The drillsite is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 251-3-H&TC. Contract depth is 6,000 feet.

KENT LOCATION

A new location in the Salt Creek field of Kent County has been announced by General Crude Oil Co.

It will be drilled as the No. 1-2-1 General Crude - Percy Jones, 660 feet from south and 1,846 feet from east lines of the northeast half of section 1-ZZ-Boley Brown survey, about eight miles northwest of Clairemont. Projected depth is 6,800 feet.

American Trading No. 2-A Elmer Howell, Southeast Scurry Elenburger field test, is drilling below 5,280 feet in lime and shale.

Federal Probe Of Nixon Was Started By Unknown Source

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special Justice Department examination of federal laws in relation to "outside financial help" received by public official is under way amid considerable confusion as to how it got started.

The White House at first claimed credit for originating the idea in connection with the $18,000 expense account provided Sen. Richard Nixon by California supporters, and then disclaimed having anything to do with it whatsoever.

At the Justice Department, where a crisp "No comment" greeted all inquirie about the undertaking, the indications were that the project was an extension of Atty. Gen. McGranery's apparent policy of "doing something" about everything that comes up within his jurisdiction.

McGranery, latest of a series of government "clean-up" men, took office last May in succession to Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath, who went out under loud Republican criticism that he had "dragged his feet" on matters requiring prompt action.

The department itself has not as yet officially admitted any inquiry into the matter of supplemental funds for federal officers. However, shortly after it became known that McGranery had directed aides to study the statues in this connection, a White House secretary told reporters that President Truman himself had asked the attorney general to look into the matter of Nixon's supplemental funds.

A few hours later the same secretary announced he had been mistaken, that the White House had given no directive to the Justice Department.

"There has been no White House intervention at all," he said.

One report had it that McGranery ordered the inquiry after the President "mentioned" the Nixon fund to him after last Friday's weekly Cabinet meeting.

However, it was learned that Nixon's speech of last night leaving to the Republican campaign managers the question of whether he will continue as the GOP candidate for vice president made no difference in the study project.

Chairman Sure Nixon To Stay On Party Slate

CLEVELAND, Sept. 24 (AP)—GOP National Chairman Arthur E. Summerfield said today, "I am certain that Sen. Richard Nixon will remain the Republican candidate for vice president."

Summerfield made this statement in reply to a reporter's question.

He said he had talked with both Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the presidential candidate, and Nixon by telephone this morning.

Nixon, he said, will meet with Gen. Eisenhower at 7:30 p.m. (CST) in Wheeling, W. Va., tonight.

Summerfield said, that judging from the response to Nixon's speech last night, "The smear attack on Sen. Nixon has backfired. This is the turning point of the 1952 campaign."

He said Nixon—who speaks today at Missoula, Mont.—will leave for Wheeling by plane.

Summerfield said he did not know whether he himself could attend tonight's conference. By his conversation, he indicated that conference would settle the matter.

The problem: Should Nixon be permitted to stay as the party's vice presidential candidate in view of a disclosure that he accepted an $18,235 expense fund as a California senator?

The GOP National Committee chairman said he had asked the Republican National Committee members for their opinions.

"The Democrats are probably sorry they ever started this thing," said Summerfield.

Already, he said, at Washington GOP headquarters 20,000 telegrams were received by this morning, almost all in favor of retaining Nixon.

Bribery Case Venue Change

CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 24 (AP)—The trial of Mayor Lewie Wasserman of Corpus Christi, on charges of bribery, has been transferred to 24th District Court at Cuero.

Judge H. D. Barrow of 105th District Court ordered the change of venue yesterday on the court's own motion.

Judge Barrow earlier overruled defense motions to quash two counts of the indictment against Wasserman in which he is charged with accepting bribes in granting oil and gas leases on city land near Lake Corpus Christi.

Barrow sustained defense motion to quash two counts of bribery charging the mayor with accepting money to permit gambling in the city but overruled another motion to dismiss the indictment as a whole.

Wasserman was born in Cuero but Judge Barrow left town before he could be asked to comment on that phase of the transfer.

Dist. Atty. J. D. Todd Jr. said he did not know Wasserman was born in Cuero but thought it "wouldn't make any difference." Wasserman has lived in or near Corpus Christi since 1929.

Still Checking Fraud In Starr

RIO GRANDE CITY, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Starr County grand jurys probe of alleged election irregularities continued here today as two contempt of court motions were considered by Judge Sam Reams.

Yesterday, Austin Attorney Gerald Weatherly was the only witness on the election fraud matter who appeared before the jury following Dist. Atty. Homer Dean's charge to the body.

Weatherly presented the fraud charges to Atty. Gen. Price Daniel last week in behalf of two Starr County citizens.

Adlai Silent On Names Of Givers And Receivers

No New Laws Needed To Keep Grain Storage On Up And Up

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Two senators said today that mistakes in the government's vast farm price support program—estimated to have cost the taxpayers millions of dollars—can be corrected without legislation.

Sen. Anderson (D-NM), former secretary of agriculture, told a reporter "there is plenty of authority now to correct errors and deficiencies."

"All that is needed is more and tighter supervision at the top," he said.

Sen. Young (R-ND) agreed in a separate interview.

"All this could be straightened out by administrative action in the Department of Agriculture," Young said. "If officials there don't correct it, Congress may have to step in."

A highly critical, 43 page report on the situation was approved by the Senate Agriculture Committee yesterday.

NO EMPLOYES PROFITED

The report estimated that more than 10 million dollars worth of government-owned grain, acquired under price support operations, had been embezzled or taken by "criminal conversion."

The report agreed with Secretary Brannan that no department officials or employes had personally profited or been involved criminally.

Despite sharp criticism, the report credited the department with doing "a tremendous job" in handling some 10 billion dollars worth of farm commodities since 1947.

The report sharply criticized department officials for dropping criminal prosecution when a warehouseman or farmer agreed to pay up shortages.

TWO CRITICIZED

Activities of two former top officials in the department drew sharp censure.

The report said Jack Cowart, former asistant PMA administrator, used his position to get personal profits and payments and that Secretary Brannan ignored early complaints about Cowart's activities. Cowart was convicted in a federal court of accepting payment from a grain-bin manufacturer.

The report also cited C. D. Walker, former director of PMA's cotton branch, for passing purchase secrets to an Egyptian cotton broker, enabling him to corner the market in long staple cotton.

Nixon Swamped With Wires After Address

(By The Associated Press)

Republican national campaign headquarters in Washington was hip-deep today in still uncounted thousands of telegrams from every corner of America.

A spokesman said the communications overwhelmingly vindicated Sen. Richard Nixon.

The GOP vice presidential nominee's nation-wide radio-TV appeal that people let party headquarters know how they felt about his explanation of an $18,000 political fund drew what some called an unprecedented response.

An official report from party headquarters was scheduled later in the day

GOP national committeemen who could be reached for comment were almost unanimously in favor of retaining Nixon on the ticket.

There was no immediate comment from either the White House or the Democratic National Committee.

Shortly after Nixon told a multi-million radio-TV audience last night that he was innocent of wrong - doing and felt he should stay on the ticket as Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's running mate, Western Union offices were swamped to take their message.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La) at a news conference in Washington discusses a Senate agriculture committee report that it had found embezzlements totaling 10 million dollars in government-owned grain. Ellender is chairman of the committee. The report said agriculture department employes had not profited personally.

Low 56 Last Night

The temperature reached 60 degrees at 7:30 o'clock this morning, according to Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, Snyder offical weather observer.

Last night's low was 56 degrees, and yesterday's high was 68 degrees. There were no traces of rainfall, she said.

Says No Point In Giving Out Information

BALTIMORE, Sept. 24 (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson said today he will not reveal the name of those who contributed to or received money from a special cash fund he set up to supplement the pay of some Illinois state officials.

"There is no point in revealing any names," the Democratic presidential nominee said

"It would be publicity they do not deserve and a breach of good faith on my part, too."

Sen. Richard Nixon, the Republican vice presidential nominee and several other Republican have demanded Stevenson reveal details of the fund. Nixon talked about it in his report last night on his own $18,000 fund for political expenses.

The governor discussed his fund at a breakfast of 50 Volunteers for Stevenson which wound up a week's campaigning in the East.

He said he chose the method of raising the income of "key state employes" because the positions were filled by men who not only took the job at less money than they had been receiving "but gave up security for the hazards of government."

He said one official had at least three time turned down offers from private enterprises at more than three times his public salary.

The governor also said uniform salary scales adopted by most states are not as "satisfactory or practical as flexible scale paid by private business.

He insited there was no connection between the contributor and the recipient in the Illinios fund. Neither has ever known who the other was Stevenson said nor have other state officials known who has been receiving what.

Stevenson closed his campaign swing with assertion he is sure of victory in the presidential election.

In his final major speech of the eastern jaunt he declared the Republicans—and particularly Sen. Robert A. Taft—are responsible for inflation and the high cost of living.

Ike Will Meet Nixon Tonight

Aboard Eisenhower Special, Sept. 24 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sen. Richard M. Nixon will meet face to face in Wheeling, W. Va., tonight for the fateful decision expected to keep Nixon on the Republican ticket.

James Hagerty, Eisenhower press representative, announced plans to arrange the meeting after Eisenhower himself hopped off this campaign train at Portsmouth, O., to talk by telephone with GOP National Chairman Arthur Summerfield in Cleveland.

Summerfield later said Nixon would fly to Wheeling tonight.

Eisenhower had asked Nixon to meet him in Wheeling after applauding last night the "courage" of his vice presidential running mate in explaining his financial operations on a nation-wide radio and television program.

Nixon flew to Missoula, Mont., to resume campaigning for the day.

When Eisenhower finished talking to a crowd of 3,000 at Portsmouth, O., he announced he was leaving the train to make a telephone call.

He left the train with Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, Sen. William Knowland of California, Rep. Hugh D. Scott of Pennsylvania, former GOP national chairman; Stanley Pratt, an assistant to Summerfield, and Hagerty.

Ike strode swiftly to a station telephone booth where Knowland already had managed to make a connection with Summerfield.

The general went into the booth at 9:15 a.m., EST, and closed the doors. A curious crowd gathered quickly.

Then the telephone booth door opened and Eisenhower leaned out to talk to Adams, who then squeezed into the booth with the general.

Operation Mainbrace Is Brought To Close With Blasting Of Raider

ABOARD USS MIDWAY (AP) — NATO naval chiefs rang the curtain down on "Operation Mainbrace" today after the American cruiser Quincy "blasted" a make-believe enemy raider out of the North Sea.

The raider—disguised as a merchant ship—was the British Minelayer Apollo. It had raced out of the Kattegat Straits between Denmark and Sweden, presumably impersonating a Russian surface vessel breaking out of the Baltic Sea.

Stevenson Ignores Demand For Him To Drop Off Demo Ticket

CHICAGO (AP) — Aides to Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson appeared today to have ignored a demand that the governor withdraw from the presidential campaign in view of disclosure of a private cash fund he promoted to help pay part of some state salaries.

C. Wayland Brooks, Illinois Republican national committeeman and former U. S. senator from Illinois, made the demand yesterday in a letter to Stephen Mitchell, chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

"I think that's ridiculous," was Mitchell's reply to newsmen in Washington who asked him if he would demand that Stevenson withdraw. He said he was not going to talk about the fund because Stevenson had made a statement about it.

Mitchell has demanded that Sen. Richard Nixon of California resign as Republican vice presidential candidate because of the $18,235 contributed by a group of California businessmen to supplement his government income and expense funds.

Stevenson has acknowledged that he collected a fund to augment state salaries of some of his appointive officers. However, he said, there was nothing secretive or improper about the fund.

In Baltimore, where Stevenson made a major address last night, newsmen asked his press secretary, William Flanagan, about the demand by Brooks.

"We wouldn't dignify Curley Brooks with an answer," was Flanagan's reply.

As Brooks disclosed his demand, an Illinois Republican party official accused Stevenson and a State Department head of payroll padding in the State Welfare Department.

Brooks, long prominent in Republican party affairs and now a Chicago attorney also called for a congressional committee investigation of the Stevenson fund collection in an attempt to disclose who contributed the money and how it was spent.

McGrath Knew Much On White House, Caudle Tells Panel

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—T. Lamar Caudle testified today that former Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath once told him, "I know enough about the White House to blow it so high the force of gravity would never bring it back to earth."

Caudle also said McGrath, his old boss in the Justice Department, reported Caudle lost his job because of "a White House clique."

Caudle said the former attorney general told him "The same clique" that was behind Caudle's dimissal as assistant attorney general last November was also "after" McGrath.

McGrath was ousted as attorney general last April a few hours after he fired Newbold Morris, government cleanup man.

Caudle was closing several days of testimony before a House Judiciary subcommittee headed by Rep. Chelf (D-Ky) which is investigating the Justice Department.

He did not elaborate on McGrath's statement about the White House.

He told the committee yesterday he looks upon his dismissal by President Truman as "a grave injustice."

And he testified yesterday he has been told that this view is shared by the man who fired him — President Truman. Not so, rejoined the White House.

Caudle, who faces further questioning today by a House judiciary subcommittee that is investigating the Justice Department, gave two sources for his information that the Chief Executive had a change of heart after throwing out the North Carolinian.

However, Roger Tubby, assistant White House press secretary, told reporters there was "no truth" in the assertion that Truman had changed his view.

On another part of Caudle's testimony — that White House Secretary Matthew Connelly once persuaded him to delay action on a St. Louis tax fraud case for two months — Tubby said there was no comment.

Caudle said Rep. Boykin (D-Ala) after a conference with Truman last March, quoted the President as saying he had "done a grave injustice" to Caudle.

He added he had received a similar report from Donald Dawson, a presidential aide who, on the eve of his dismissal, assured him "the White House is behind you 100 per cent."

The reason given for separating Caudle from his job as an assistant attorney general was that he had engaged in outside activities not compatible with his official duties.

Caudle, who reached the climax of the story of his dismissal with tears in his eyes, said he still does not understand why the President acted as he did.

The Chief Executive, he went on, never gave him a hearing beforehand. And he said he has been unable to get anything from him directly since.

Caudle told of cordial relations between him and his "chief" during the months and weeks prior to the blow-up.

Caudle said he had no indication whatever that the President was displeased with his service. And he called "a terrible indictment" the comment the President made afterward to the effect that he had had his eye on Caudle for a long time.

"I have no bitterness," said Caudle. "I can get mad but I can't stay mad."

No Change In Cotton Plow Up

AUSTIN, Sept. 24 (AP)—No extensions will be granted on cotton stalk plow-ups in 14 South Texas counties after the deadline of midnight tomorrow night, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said today.

White said he did not think farmers would have trouble complying with the plow-up regulations except in San Patricio and southern Refugio Counties. Rains there have kept farmers out of their fields.

The plow-up is part of the pink bollworm control plan.

These are the counties affected by the deadline:

San Patricio, Nueces, Kenedy, Brooks, Jim Hogg, Zapata, Webb, Duval, Jim Wells, Kleberg, Aransas, northern portions of Hidalgo and Starr, and the southern part of Refugio.

White said inspectors will keep a close check in San Patricio and Refugio Counties. Farmers who fail to destroy the stalks for any reason other than extremely wet fields will be subject to heavy fines.

White said strict compliance is especially important this year in view of the huge buildup of pink bollworm in South Texas.

Texans On Both Sides Active In Political Circles Today

(By The Associated Press)

Texans by the hundreds responded to Senator Nixon's plea for public support Tuesday night with telegrams urging the Republican vice presidential candidate to "stay in there and fight."

Nixon made a stirring plea for support as he recounted much of his personal financial history to answer critics of an $18,000 expense fund.

But the Texas response to the Nixon speech was only one of the day's developments. Others:

1. Col. Lawrence Westbrook, assistant chairman of the Democratic National Committee, filled in for Speaker Sam Rayburn at a press conference in Dallas and predicted a Democratic victory in November in Texas and the nation.

2. William McCraw, former state attorney general, and District Judge Sarah Hughes of Dallas were the principal speakers at an old-fashioned political rally for the Stevenson-Sparkman Democratic ticket in McKinney.

DOWDY LEADS VOTE

3. John Dowdy of Athens apparently won a special election in the Seventh Congressional District to fill the seat left vacant when Rep. Tom Pickett resigned to take a post with a coal association. Dowdy, elected for a regular term in the August run-off primary, was opposed by two opponents for the interim job. He had an overwhelming majority in the first returns from a generally light vote.

4. At Wichita Falls, Frank Wood was named chairman of the Second Senatorial District Democrats-for-Eisenhower organization. The Wichita Falls oilman is a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee. About 50 representatives from the 20-county district endorsed the candidacy of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower but failed to mention the name of his running mate, Senator Nixon.

Jack Porter, National Republican Committeeman in Texas, said at Houston that he thought the Nixon speech was a "marvelous job," and added:

JACK PORTER HAPPY

"I'm confident that Mr. Mitchell and Senator Sparkman now wish they had never heard of the Nixon fund." Porter was referring to National Democratic Chairman Stephen Mitchell and the Democratic vice presidential nominee.

GOP headquarters in Dallas said their five telephones rang 700 times within an hour. Western Union Manager P. A. Hoag in San Antonio said nearly all of 500 messages sent from there backed Nixon. The Dallas News city desk had to call for help to answer the incoming calls wanting to know the Nixon headquarters address.

Similar reports of heavy Nixon backing came from San Antonio, Fort Worth and Houston. Austin, Texarkana, and Waco newspapers reported lesser numbers of telegrams backing the embattled candidate.

BIG McKINNEY CROWD

A public address system at McKinney piped all over the town speeches backing Stevenson and Sparkman. Barrels of free lemonade flavored the affair which drew a crowd estimated at 2,000 persons. High school bands played.

Col. Westbrook at his press conference—initially scheduled as a Rayburn press conference—declined a discussion of the tidelands controversy and referred questions concerning it to McGraw who was present at the conference.

Westbrook said he thought the Democratic Party's "watered down" FEPC measure was more appealing to the South than the similar plank in the 1948 Democratic platform.

Illness of a sister necessitated Speaker Rayburn's absence from the conference. He was scheduled back in the Dallas headquarters Wednesday.

NIXON RELAXES

Sen. Richard Nixon (left), Republican vice-presidential candidate, relaxes with William Rogers, Washington attorney, beside the pool at the Ambassador Hotel at Los Angeles before breaking off his campaign trip in the Pacific Northwest. He flew back to Los Angeles to make a nationwide radio and television explanation of his controversial $18,235 expense fund provided for him by a group of southern California Republicans.

Snyder Bootlegger Is Again Given Maximum Fine, Jail Rap

Anderson Davis, Jr., Snyder Negro bootlegger, was assessed the maximum penalty this morning in county court after being found guilty of possession of liquor for the purpose of sale.

Davis, free at the time of the trial on appearance bonds for former liquor cases now on appeal, already is under sentences totaling five years in jail $2,750 in fines, and $85.50 in court costs. His penalty assessed by a jury this morning was a year in jail and fine of $1,000 plus $28.50 court cost, bringing his grand total to six years, $3,750 fine, and $114 court cost.

Pat Beene, attorney for Davis, gave notice in court that he would appeal the case. One other case appealed by Davis is to come up before the appellate court Oct. 18. The decision in that case, in which the penalty was four years in jail and $1,000 fine on an enhanced punishment trial, the court previously upheld the lower court's decision but later granted a rehearing.

Bill Zimmerman, highway patrolman, testified in this morning's trial that he was completing an accident report on Nov. 10, 1951 of a wreck 12 miles south of Snyder on State Highway 350 when a Buick passed the scene of the accident traveling toward Snyder. Zimmerman said that by the time he saw the car speed up and got into his patrol car, the Buick was almost out of sight. He added that he persued the car at speeds between 95 and 100 miles per hour and finally radioed ahead to Snyder, where city policemen stopped Davis in the car answering decription made by Zimmerman.

Toy Gideon, one of the policemen who stopped Davis, testified that Davis got out of his car when he stopped, said "Well, you caught me," then opened the trunk of his car. Zimmerman, who said he arrived at the scene just as the trunk was opened, said Davis carried more than 230 halfpints of whisky in the car. The patrolman then took Davis and the liquor to the county jail.

Zimmerman presented 16 halfpints of the whisky found in Davis' car to the court to be used as evidence.

Keith Merrick, county attorney, said in his argument for the state that the only way to stop the defendent's bootlegging here is to put him in jail. He added "What should be done with this defendent to help curb his illicif trade the only way you'll ever stop him is to give him the maximum penalty."

Merrick, in his argument, stated that Davis, although caught at bootlegging and fined many times before, continued to bootleg and that he was entitled to and "asked" for the maximum. After he made that statement, Beene asked the court to declare a mistrial because of Merrick's statement, but his motion was denied by County Judge Edgar Taylor.

Jurymen, who stayed out 20 minutes before they returned a verdict of guilty, were L. B. McCravey, L. C. Gordon, C. H. Mason, Roy Brown, Scott Casey, and D. N. Buchanan.

Taylor recessed the jury until 1 o'clock this afternoon, when Louis Gore was to be tried on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Legion To Hold Zone Meeting

More than 100 guests are expected to attend a convention of zone No. 7 of the American Legion, here Thurday night, Jim Reynolds, adjutant of the Snyder legion post, said today.

Hilton Lambert, one commander, invited all the posts in the zone to send delegates to the convention, Reynold said.

Posts to be represented at the convention are Big Spring, Colorado City, Loraine, Cohoma, Stanton, Hermleigh, and Snyder.

Reynolds said that visiting legionnaires and their wives will be fed at a supper to be prepared by the Snyder Legion auxiliary at 6:30 o'clock Thurdasy ngiht, and that the convention will get under way at 8 o'clock.

Bob Kirk, 19th District commander of Littlefield, is expected to attend and be one of the featured speakers at the convention Reynolds said.

Fire And False Alarm

A fire shortly after midnight last night burned the attic in a small house at the Lee Courts on the Lubbock Highway.

Two trucks went to the fire and extinguished the flames. While the trucks were at the fire, another alarm was turned in for the Sears Hotel near the square. When firemen reached the scene of the second report, they found it had been a false alarm.

Damage at the Lee Courts cabin was estimated at between $300 and $400.

Finding Wrong Man Results In Liquor Arrest

An employee of Clyde Beatty's circus has been fined in Coke County on a liquor law violation after being arrested as an indirect result of a fight at the circus when it was held here last Thursday.

Wesley Alvin Speich, 40, was arrested by Coke County's sheriff, Paul Good, as units of the circus passed through Robert Lee en route from Snyder to San Angelo.

Speich was driving an automobile reported belonging to another circus employe who was sought at that time in connection with a fight here Thurdsay night. Lloyd Merritt sheriff said he attempted to stop a fight at the circus here between the owner of the automobile and another employe. He said a third circus employe assualted him (Merritt) when he attempted to separate the fighters and that one of the fighters fled.

Merritt said he pursued the circus units toward Robert Lee as they left here and that he stopped the car belonging to the man he was seeking. The car, however, was driven by another circus man and was towing a house trailer in which 11 quarts of whisky and 288 cans of beer were found. Merritt notified Good who arrested Speich.

Speich pleaded guilty to the charge of illegal transportation of liquor and was fined $125 plus $33.40 court cost.

The man charged here with assaulting Merritt was fined $250 plus court cost of $23.50.

Clark's 82nd Birthday

The Rev. and Mrs. M.W. Clark, 2811 Avenue X, are holding a joint birthday celebration today on the anniversary of Mr. Clark's eighty-second birthday.

Members of the First Methodist Church Women's Society for Christian Service have presented Mr. and Mrs. Clark with a large cake, and will be among the guests at an informal open house during the afternoon and evening.

Codgell Past Crisis

Billy Cogdell, polio patient who has been critically ill since late last week, is believed to have passed the crisis. He is now able to move both hands, although light paralysis had previouly been noted in both arms.

Cogdell was admitted to Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene Friday and remains there.

Nixon Going To Keep His Dog

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24 (AP)—Sen. Richard Nixon got one gift from Texas—a dog for his children—that he isn't going to return.

He told about it in his radio and television address last night:

"A man down in Texas heard Pat (Mrs. Nixon) on the radio mention the fact that our two youngsters would like to have a dog, and believe it or not the day before we left on this campaign trip we got a message from Union Station in Baltimore, saying they had a package for us. We went down to get it.

"It was a little cocker spaniel dog, in a crate that he had sent all the way from Texas, black and white, spotted, and our little girl, Tricia, the six-year-old, named it Checks.

"And, you know, the kids, like all kids, loved the dog, and I just want to say this right now, that regardless of what they say about it, we are going to keep it."

Bids In Navajo Lease Auction

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz., Sept. 24 (AP)—Top price of $200,000 for 3,160 acres of San Juan County, New Mexico, land in a Navajo oil and gas lease sale was bid by Southern Union Gas Co.

Bonuses offered on 24,280 acre of Indian lands, all in New Mexico, yesterday totaled $578,878.11. The bonuses are to be paid in addition to the regular lease rentals of $1.25 per acre and 12½ per cent royalties to the tribe.

Reservation lands brought an average bonus per acre of $25.60. Average bonus offered for small tracts of allotted Indian lands off the reservation was 50 cent per acre.

Other high bidders and bonuses included:

McKinley County—Roger Peters and Jack Buzzard, Phoenix, Ariz., 160 acres, $80; John B. Mills, Phoenix, 640 acres, $320; Superior Oil Co., Denver, 2,560 acres, $12,928; El Paso Natural Gas Co., two tracts, 3,200 and 2,560 acres, $42,720 and $41,344; Atla Refining Co., Dallas, 2,560 acres, $13,184; Pure Oil Co., Billings, Mont., two tracts, both 2,560 acres, $64,199 and $89,799.

Sandoval County—Magnolia Petroleum Co., 1,280 acres, $11,625.

San Juan County—Deep Rock Oil Co., Tulsa, Okla., 160 acres $5,192.91; Pubco Development Co., Albuquerque, 320 acres, $3,571.20; Honolulu Oil Co., Midland, Tex., 2,560 acres, $91,755.20.

Game Tickets On Sale Here

Reserved seat tickets for the Snyder Tigers—Friday night game in Levelland are now on sale here, according to Art Nicholas, school business administrator.

Nicholas said the school has received 500 reserved seat tickets, which will be sold for $1.50 each, and 300 student tickets, on sale for 30 cents each. All tickets will be on sale until noon Friday.

The reserved seats are between the 35 yard lines on the visitors' side of the field. Tickets for one side of the 50 yard line are on sale in the school administration building, while the other half are at the office of T. D. Wiman, Jr. high school prinicpal.

Brother Of Snyder Woman Dies In Calif.

Mrs. Ruth Reese, 1007 Twenty-third Street, has been notified of the death of her brother, W. R. Hunt of Red Bluff, Calif.

Mr. Hunt died Monday night of injuries sustained in an automobile accident earlier that day. Funeral services are to be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, in Red Bluff.

Survivors in addition to the widow and Mr. Reese include six children and several grandchildren, seven other sisters and two brothers.

Prison Riot Brought Down With Tear Gas

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—A two-hour tear gas barrage by state policemen and prison guards Tuesday night quelled a 27-hour rebellion by 300 convicts at Menard State Prison.

Three inmates were injured in the riot which began at supper time Monday as prison authorities awaited the arrival this week of a legislative committee to inspect the insitution.

One policeman was injured slightly when a tear gas gun backfired. Warden Jerome Munie estimated damage to the prison at $5,000.

Cites Bribe In Adlai's State

BALTIMORE (AP) — While Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois received congratulations from Democrats after his inflation speech last night, Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin pictured him as a man with a tarnished state record.

McKeldin, Maryland Republican, criticized the Democratic presidential candidate for appointing men under him who "have been involved in briberies and unethical profits."

McKeldin's remarks were in a speech intended for delivery over a nation-wide radio network. At the last minute a recorded address by Dwight D. Eisenhower was subtituted for it.

Radio station WFBR here said the McKeldin talk would be recorded and aired at a later date.

While there has been a big mess in Washington, there has been a middle sized mess in Illinois, the Maryland governor said, and added:

"A careful look at the record in the last four years indicates that more men in Gov. Stevenson's administration have been involved in briberby and wrongful conduct in the last four years than in any other state in the union."

McKeldin listed among the "shameful scandals" among Stevenson appointees the "horse meat and race track sordid chapter." He added that $600,000 was paid out in bribes to Stevenson's administrative office-holders and noted that last week Charles W. Wray, the Illinois governor's meat inspection chief, "pleaded guilty to accepting such bribes."

Demos Said Dragging

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire, a Republican member of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee, accused the Democrats today of "dragging their feet" on breaking up organized crime.

NOW YOU GET MORE FOR YOUR BOND MONEY!

New law says—

U.S. Series E Bonds can earn interest 10 years longer-at 3%

1. If you bought U. S. Series E Bonds ten years ago and have held them ever since you'll profit by this new law NOW! For those same bonds which you expected to mature finally in 1952 can now earn 3% interest every year for ten more years—till 1962—without your even lifting a finger! Extended earning is automatic.

2. And there's absolutely nothing for you to do. Just hold on to your bonds and let them go on earning! The new extended earning period applies to any Series E Bond—those you already own or those you buy from now on. What's more, every Series E Bond you buy now begins earning interest sooner, and at a higher rate. It matures earlier and averages 3%, compounded semiannually if held to maturity.

3. If you wish, you may still cash any Series E Bond at any time after you've owned it two months. But you'll be wiser to hold your bonds, just as you're wiser to hold savings in any form. Cash in the pocket melts away, too often with nothing to show for it. But cash in bond savings is always there—always growing with no effort on your part. And there's the added safeguard that if your bonds should be accidentally lost or destroyed they will be replaced, at full value, with no cost to you.

4. So if you are not already one of the millions of wise Americans who are investing in a secure future, why not start now? Buy Defense Bonds today . . . and buy them regularly through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Thousands say it's the one sure way to save—because it saves something out of every check before you have a chance to spend it. You know, no matter how small your income, you can't afford not to save something for yourself! So join the Plan today. Strengthen your own future and that of your country by saving your money through U. S. Defense Bonds.

3 new money-making opportunities for you!
NEW SERIES H, J, AND K DEFENSE BONDS
PAY 2.76% TO 3%!

If you want to get the interest on your bonds in the form of current income, or if you want to invest more than the annual limit for E Bonds, ask at your bank for descriptive folders about these new bonds:

SERIES H. A new current-income bond, available in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Sold at par. Matures in 9 years 8 months and pays an average 3% interest per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Annual limit, $20,000 maturity value.

SERIES J. A new 12-year appreciation bond, available in denominations of $25 to $100,000. Sold at 72% of par value. Pays 2.76% compounded semiannually if held to maturity. Annual limit, $200,000 issue price jointly with Series K Bonds.

SERIES K. A new 12-year current-income bond in denominations of $500 to $100,000. Pays interest semiannually by Treasury check at the rate of 2.76% per annum. Sold at par. Annual limit, $200,000 issue price jointly with Series J Bonds.

Now even better! Invest more in Defense Bonds!

MOTHER'S GRIEF

Mrs. Della Baird struggles with two neighbors over the body of her three-year-old baby girl, Laura Rowena Baird, who died of suffocation when she and her playmate, Tamarrah Elizabeth Boucher, also, 3, locked themselves in an unused ice-box in the Boucher garage at Bellflower, Calif. Firemen's efforts failed to revive either child. Police estimated they had been in the ice-box three hours.

Helps For Homemakers

Send your questions to "Helps for Homemakers", Snyder Daily News, or call 3-6488.

Recently I acquired an electric mixer and I'm often hesitant about using it. Do you have any pointers to offer? Mrs. G.

Operating on a low speed, your mixer will cut shortening into flour for pastry, mix heavier batters and doughs, mash potatoes, blend in flour, beat uncooked frostings and juice citrus fruits (with a juicer attachment). At a medium speed, it will cream shortening, cream butter and sugar together, mix thin batters or beat cooked frostings. And at a high speed, it will beat mayonnaise or salad dressing, whip cream and beat egg whites.

If your mixer has three beaters, you'll find mixing jobs going even faster and resulting in more actual food volume because more air is whipped into the food. Use three beaters when you're working with a large mixing bowl.

If you're using a small mixing mixing bowl, two beaters will do. Use the two front beaters for ordinary mixing and the back two beaters for mixing heavier batters. A single beater comes in handy for stirring cooked puddings and fillings and for mixng in a small bowl, or blending ingredients in a measuring cup.

Is it likely that freezing food is catching up with canning food as a method of preservation? I am curious. R.

Foods and nutrition specialists at Texas A&M College Agricultural still retains a major portion of the food preservation budget, but freezing is catching up. A 1951 report showed two and a half million quarts of fruits, vegetables and meat canned, plus nearly 400,000 quarts of pickles and relishes. The same report estimates that in addition more than 24 million pounds of vegetables, fruits, meat and poultry were frozen.

Reds Winning Propaganda Tilt Among Burma's Men On Street

RANGOON (AP) — This "neutral" capital of Burma is the hottest spot of Communist propaganda in Southeast Asia.

Two out of every three bookstalls plash expensively printed magazines extolling the glories of Stalin and Mao Tze-tung. Queues line up at the downtown King Theater, leased by the Soviet Embassy, to see Russian-made motion pictures.

The Communist "peace dove" decorate the Rangoon University magazine, published by students who recently elected a Red-dominated "Progressive party" slate in university elections.

You can buy—and lots of Burmese are doing so—the special issue of "China Pictorial" featuring "irrefutable evidence concerning the use of bacteriological warfare by the American aggressors."

The United States so far has allocated 31 million dollars for economic aid to Burma in the form of machinery, materials and services of technicians. The United States Information Service library is fairly well attended and USIS technical training films are in demand.

Much of this has been effective, particularly in winning the appreciation of some government officials, but in the street among the masses, the Communists are far ahead of America in this propaganda battle.

Tons of literature, given away or sold for a few cents, pour into Burma from Red China and the Soviet Union. The propaganda campaign is directed by people who know their business.

The usual tracts on Marxism are outshone by dozen of slick paper magazines with color printing fully as good as America's best. The Soviet - leased theater, which operates like an ordinary movie house, mixes its out-and-out propaganda films with some of Russia's best movies. The Communists have subsidized a Burmese motion picture company to make Red-slanted movies in the local language.

To meet this propaganda challenge in the same arena, a privately financed American organization, the Committee for Free Asia, has set up shop in Rangoon and other Asian areas. It is headed by Alan Valentine as president, with headquarters in San Francisco.

One CFA project in Rangoon is a "Free World" book store selling anti-Communist books and magazines at or below cost. Its aim is to out-propagandize the Reds at their own game.

CFA is meeting the movie challenge by assisting in the production of anti-Communist Burmese films. It will aid independent student movements in the university fighting the well-organized Communists. Books will be translated into Burmese and printed on CFA presses.

Do you call psychologists when you change your socks? The Army does, especially when it concern climate.

Dr. Robert F. Utter, of the University of New Mexico psychology department, has just returned from a year' leave of absence during which time he's been working on how to keep a soldier happy when he changes his clothes.

Utter, who was head of the psychology unit of the Quartermaster Climatic Research Laboratory at Lawrence, Mass., said that "among other things, I was testing the reactions of the men to new type of clothing materials. Since these materials feel different, we wanted to find out how long it took a soldier to get used to them." This can have a definite effect on the job the man does, the school men claim.

And up in Darien, Conn., educators say junior high school pupils don't throw stones. The pupils have a new school addition that lets in daylight through floor-to-ceiling windows. Corridors are also lined with glass walls. The school men say they never were bothered with the kind of vandalism that makes 100 per cent replacement of window glass necessary every two years in some metropolitan areas.

Jersey Joe Walcott, former heavyweight champion, weighed in at 196 pounds as Rocky Marciano, new titleholder, looked on. Marciano himself came up to 184 pounds, enough to put Walcott under.

One Blow Finishes Walcott In Same Way That He Won Crown

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rocky Marciano, the guy Jersey Joe Walcott and many others said "can't fight,' 'is the new world heavyweight champion.

"They'll probably say he still can't fight," said trainer Charley Goldman shortly after the dynamic, 28-year-old flattened Walcott in 43 seconds of the 13th round with one perfect right and sent him into retirement.

"But who's going to beat him?"

Marciano's manager, Al Weill, discussing the future of his fighter said early today that Rocky's next opponent might be Rex Layne, Roland La Starza or Ezzard Charles.

"Maybe it will be Walcott again," added the portly manager. "Who knows? Maybe he'll change his mind and not quit. All I know is that I signed a contract to meet Walcott again in 90 days and if he wants that fight he can have it. Only it's got to be where I say — maybe Miami and maybe Chicago.

"If Walcott is really through, then we'll see about the others. He's gonna be a fighting champion, ain'tcha Rocky?"

"Sure," said Rocky as he held a wet towel to a mouse under his left eye while blood trickled from a cut in his scalp and from a gash between his eyes. It took eight stitches to sew up an ugly inch and a quarter on his head and six to patch up the cut on his forehead.

"But first my wife and I are going to have a wonderful time," said Rocky. "We're going to go to New York and see every show in town. We're going to have a wonderful time."

All the while Rocky was in training for the climactic fight of his career, his wife Barbara was barred from camp. Although she expects a child in November, Barbara watched the thrilling slugfest along with 40,379 paying fans in mammoth Municipal Stadium.

She saw her husband, battered and bleeding, knocked down for the first time in his career, come back to end one of the most exciting battles of modern times with one perfectly executed right hand blow to Walcott's jaw.

Rocky followed with a left that grazed the stricken champion's head as the 38-year-old Walcott slowly fell to the deck. But it was the right that turned the tables just as it was Jerry Joe's one left hook that enabled him to knock the crown off Charles' head in the steaming heat of Pittsburgh on July 18, 1951.

Walcott's eyes went blank. The old guy, who put up one of the greatest fights of his long career, sank slowly to the canvas. One knee was twisted under him and his forehead rested on the floor as Referee Charley Daggert tolled the fatal 10. Then Walcott stretched out on his back.

Up until then it had gone mostly Walcott's way. Jersey Joe floored Marciano in the first round. It was the first time the Rock had ever gone down. But he was up at the four count.

It was a dilly the rest of the way.

In the sixth, when they fought head to head, Walcott came out with a wide cut over his left eye while Rocky suffered his scalp wound.

The old gent was well ahead on the scorecards of all three officials at the end. Referee Charley Daggert had it 7-4-1; Judge Pete Tomasco scored it 7-5 and Judge Zach Taylor saw it 8-4

The AP scorecard had Walcott in front 7-4-1. There was hardly a dissent in the house.

Thus, as he won the title, Jersey Joe lost it — with one blow.

"He's through," said Walcott's manager Felix Bocchicchio.

"Whatever Felix says I'll do," said the heart-broken ex-champion.

"He looked pathetic against the ropes and I don't want him to get hurt," said Bocchicchio. "He still has all his faculties and has money in the bank. Joe made over a million dollars in the ring. He's retiring. Joe has been a great champ and that's the way we want people to remember him."

"Felix brought me this far from nothing," said Jersey Joe. "If he says I'm through, I'm through. We expect to go into business together. I don't know what kind of a business yet."

Probably millions of dollars traded hands on the one punch. It was one of the biggest betting fights in years with Rocky winding up as the 9 to 5 favorite. Walcott, oldest champion ever to defend his crown, outweighed Rocky 196 to 184.

The fight grossed $504,645 at the gate and theater-television probably will add another $125,000. On his 40 per cent Walcott earned approximately $188,000. Rocky, cut in for 20 per cent, reaped about $94,035.

Subway Series Is Likely In New York

(By The Associated Press)

The prospect of New York's 10th "subway" World Series since 1921 is extremely bright today with the Brooklyn Dodgers already "in" and the New York Yankees pounding on the door.

Brooklyn provided the long suffering fans of Flatbush their first restful sleep in three years last night as they clinched the 1952 National League pennant, their ninth since 1890.

True, the Brooks won the bunting only three years ago but many a member of the faithful experienced countless nightmares the past two seasons. In 1950 the Brooks missed tying Philadelphia for the pennant by bowing to the Phils on the last day of the season. Last year the Dodgers blew a 13½-game lead and were beaten out for the blue ribbon by the New York Giants in a three-game playoff.

The Brooks nailed it up as Johnny Rutherford pitched Dressen's Dandies to a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia in the first game of a twi-night doubleheader. The Phils won the anti-climatic game, 1-0, in 12 innings.

Rutherford's seven-hit triumph gave Brooklyn 95 victories and made it impossible for the second-place New York Giants to pull another miracle. The Giants have 88 victories and only six games remaining.

The Yanks, meanwhile, moved 1½ games ahead of Cleveland in the waning American League struggle without flexing their muscles. While the Bombers loafed in Boston, the Indians were ambushed 10-1, by the Chicago White Sox. The Yanks' game with the Red Sox was rained out.

New York can assure itself of no worse than a tie for the flag by winning only three of its remaining six games. Both the Yanks and Indians have each won 90 games but the crestfallen Indians have lost three more.

Joe Dobson, a member of the Indians many moons ago, choked off his former associates on six hits while the White Sox flayed Mike Garcia and three firemen for 14 assorted blows.

The A's nipped the Senators 4-3 with old Bobo Newson gaining credit for the victory. Bobby Shantz was struck by one of Walt Masterson's pitches in the second inning and suffered a broken left wrist.

Brooklyn was forced to come from behind to beat the Phils before 24,408 screaming fans who showed up at Ebbets Field for the kill. Gran Hamner rocked Rutherford for a grand-slam homer in the third to give the invaders a 4-1 lead.

The Dodgers got back one in the fourth on a four-bagger by George Shuba and locked it up against Karl Drews with three in the fifth. Pinch-hitter Johnny Wyrostek doubled home Ed Waitkus with the winning run in the marathon nightcap.

The jubilant Dodgers hoisted Manager Charley Dressen on their shoulders during a gala celebration in their clubhouse.

Dressen praised rookie relief ace Joe Black and reserve outfielder Shuba. "We'd never won the pennant without them," Chuck said.

The happy Dodger skipper said he may start Black in the first World Series game and added, "We'll give them a battle, no matter who it is."

In other games, the St. Louis Browns defeated Detroit, 3-1, behind Bobby Cain and the St. Louis Cardinals nipped Cincinnati, 4-3, in 10 innings. A doubleheader between the Giants and Boston Braves was rained out. Pittsburgh and Chicago were idle.

Payoff Starts In Gulf Coast

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Gulf Coast League, where Texas baseball of 1952 will make its last stand, opened its championship play-off series here Tuesday night and Harlingen kept on winning.

Harlingen put down Port Arthur, the regular season champion, 8-7 in the best-of-seven series opener, the Capitols fifth straight victory.

The teams meet here Wednesday, then move to Harlingen for three games, skipping Friday night, and return to Port Arthur if more games are necessary after Saturday.

Both clubs kept up the big-inning tenor of the regular season for the opener. And Harlingen got the best of that, a five-run fourth inning to shade a first-inning, four run spree by the Seahawks.

At the end, reliefer Bill Guthrie was rushed in with one run across, the tying and winning runs on base, to save Harlingen's victory for Starter Roger Powell. Guthrie fanned the only ninth-inning batter he faced, Gene Depperschmidt, to put out the fire.

Three singles, two walks and a sacrifice pushed Port Arthur ahead 4-0 in the opening stanza. Then Harlingen roared back on Jim Bynon' solo homer in the scond and a five-run outburst that routed Bart DiMaggio in the fourth.

Powell's two-run double was the big blow of five hits off DiMaggio and Les Kash in the frame.

After Harlingen led, 6-5, through four innings, the clubs traded single runs in the seventh and ninth frames to retain that margin.

Dinty Moore (8-4) will open at Port Arthur's pitcher in the second game against Manny Rodriguez (12-4) of Harlingen.

Dykes Gets Knockout

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Bobby Dykes, 152, topnotch welterweight contender, scored an eight round knockout over Cisto Saenz, 152, of Phoenix, Ariz., last night.

Bout Is Called History's Best

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — This was one that will go down in the history of great heavyweight fights. There hasn't been a greater one in the past 21 years to our certain knowledge.

Going into the 13th round last night at Philadelphia Stadium, we didn't think Rocky Marciano had an earthly chance of winning the title from Jersey Joe Walcott. The boy from Brockton was behind, 7 rounds to 5, on our scorecard, and he appeared to be fading.

Then the Rock shot his right, and it landed flush on Walcott's jaw—almost the first punch of the round. It carried behind it every ounce in the sturdy frame of the shoemaker's son, and from the instant of its sickening impact there was never a doubt of what had happened.

Jersey Joe, an admirabe old fighter in his final defense, went down as though he had been poleaxed. A left hook caught him as he fell, but it meant nothing. He was insensible as his head struck the floor, and there was never a chance he would get up again.

But as long as he was in there throwing those six-ounce gloves, the Pappy Guy from Camden gave the roaring throng as great a thrill as it is ever likely to get at a sports event. Marciano won the respect he had never known before. He fought his powerful young opponent with a heart and a fury which were at times astonishing.

Several times, even toward the end, Walcott ripped into Marciano with lethal left hooks to the body and head which almost sent the new champion down. Only a wonderful constitution kept Rocky on his feet. That is, of course, one of the requisites of a champion.

Ex-High School Star Signs With Dodgers

HOUSTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Mickey Pillow, former star athlete at Baytown High School, has signed a professional baseball contract with the Brooklyn Dodger for a reported $15,000.

Pillow played with the Baytown Humble Oilers last summer, starring at third base and shortstop. He entered Rice on a scholarship but withdrew to accept the Brooklyn offer.

He will report to the Brooklyn spring training camp at Vero Beach, Fla., next February. He has been assigned to Newport News Va. of the Piedmont League.

Jr. Colleges In Loop Play

(By The Associated Press)

Two teams of the Texas Junior College Athletic Conference this week turn from a non-conference grind that has treated members rather unkindly and engage in the first league battle.

The opening conference battles find Southwest Texas Junior College entertaining Cisco Junior College at Uvalde Saturday.

In early season games, only Henderson County of Athens, Tex., has weathered an outside schedule for a victory. The Cardinals tripped Paris, 27-7.

But, already this week, Henderson County has lost to Polytechnic of Mexico, 19-14.

Bringing the TJCAC records up to date, Blinn College of Brenham slipped before Tyler, 40-0; Navarro County was bested by Kilgore, 21-0; and Cisco was stopped by Arlington State, 21-0.

Last week, Southwest Texas lost to Schreiner, 21-0; Allen lost to Ellington Air Force Base of Houston; 196 Cisco feel before Tarlton State, 32-6, and Decatur was beaten by Arlington State, 62-0.

This week looks bleak too as Decatur goes to Commerce to vie with the East Texas State B team and Henderson County invades Arlington State, both Thursday.

Saturday night, Ranger is at Bryan against Allen Academy, Blinn faces the University of Houston freshmen at Brenham and Cisco and Southwest Texas vie at Uvalde. Navarro County has an open date.

Shreveport Is Holding Texas League Crown

OKLAHOMA City, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Shreveport Sports, a club that never won the Texas League regular season pennant, now owns the 1952 playoff crown and its right to compete in the Dixie Series.

A brash, young club that hasn't succumbed to affiliating with the major leagues, Shreveport finished off their play-off triumph last night, winning 7-2 over Oklahoma City in the fifth series game.

Oddly enough, Shreveport spent half this season on the cellar floor yet suffered the fewest play-off setbacks in Texas League Shaughnessy play-off history. Only a 14-inning, 8-4 loss to Oklahoma City marred the Sports' nine-game playoff mark. They mowed down Fort Worth in four games to reach the finals.

Jim Willis, Joe Szekely and Grant Dunlap teamed up to give the Sports last night's win, their third championship and first since 1942.

Willis held the Indians at bay on his six-hit hurling. Szekely and Dunlap thumped homers and drove in all seven runs in the 11-hit Shreveport attack.

Amarillo In League Finals

AMARILLO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Two homers by Merv Connors and a pay-off triple by Bob Byrnes Tuesday night put one foot of the Amarillo Gold Sox in the title room of the West Texas-New Mexico League.

The two sluggers led Amarillo to a 9-7 victory over Borger in the third game of the championship play-off. Borger hasn't won any of the three games. And Amarillo could take the best-of-seven series—also the title—to night when the two meet here again.

While Borger cracked three Amarillo pitchers for 11-hits, the Gold Sox built up 2-0 and 7-2 leads, only to blow them. First, Connors' two-run homer in the first got his team ahead, then he did it again with a three-run round-tripper in the fourth.

Films Shown Last Night At Quarterback Club

Two films were shown to Quarterback Club members last night at their regular meeting.

The films were the Snyder-Thomas Jefferson game, which the Tigers won 21-0 Sept. 12, and the Snyder - Levelland game of 1951 which was won by Levelland 18-0. The Tigers are scheduled to meet Levelland there Friday night in a non-conference battle.

Among the 65 persons attending the meeting were 14 new members.

PITCHER INJURED

Trainer Packy Schwartz of the Philadelphia Athletics holds the injured left wrist of star pitcher Bobby Shantz in Philadelphia who was struck by a pitched ball while at bat in a game against the Washington Senators. X-Rays disclosed that Shantz's pitching wrist is broken, which finishes the 1952 baseball season for the American League's leading pitcher. Bobby's record was 24 wins and 7 losses.

San Antonio Mission Manager Out No Matter Who Owns His Team

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 24 (AP)—San Antonio of the Texas League apparently will have a new manager next season no matter who owns the club.

Joyner (Jo-Jo) White said he had asked for and been given his outright release. This time, he added, it will be "for good."

Last season White was released as manager when the St. Louis Browns, owner of the franchise, were talking about selling the club. The sale wasn't made and White was called back and signed for 1952.

He said he wouldn't come back next year even if the club stays in the St. Louis Browns chain.

The San Antonio Light says there are rumors that at least three groups are interested in buying the club from the Browns.

100-Mile Rule Catches Two El Paso Youths

EL PASO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Playing in a softball game in Mexico resulted in loss of athletic eligibility for two El Paso High School boys. It came under the "100-mile" rule of the Texas Interscholastic League which forbids a boy participating in an athletic contest more than 100 miles from the Texas border without permission of the league.

The two boy, Manny Morales, Bowie High School halfback, and Roy Lewis, El Paso High School quarterback, were declared ineligible for a year because they played in a softball game at Chihuahua City, Mexico, without permission of the league.

One out of every five married women in Britain has a paid job.

Feeling Runs High Here Over Closure Of Churches Of Christ

While most Snyder ministers are optimistic about re-opening of the recently closed Churches of Christ in Italy, one minister made a bitter attack on the Catholic Church in connection with the incident.

Boyd Fanning, minister of the Church of Christ here, blamed the closure order on the Catholic Church in Italy, but the Rev. Edward Chrisman said that the Catholic Church is not the Italian government.

An unconfirmed report that a Baptist church was also closed brought comments from Baptist leaders in Snyder.

"It might be that pressure can be brought upon the Italian government by the United States State department to re-open the churches." The Rev. T. Gerald Cates, pastor of the Calvery Baptist church said.

"Freedom of religion in Catholic controlled countries means only freedom for Roman Catholics," Mr. Fanning said. "We'd have the same thing here in America if the Catholics had the same majority they have in Spain and Italy. We've converted a number of Catholic priests over there," Mr. Fanning added. He stated he expected the churches to be re-opened only if enough other protestant churches are closed and the people of the United States get concerned."

The Rev. W. W. Adcock of the First Methodist Church and the Rev. E. K. Shepherd of the First Baptist agree with Fanning that the Roman Catholic church is behind the closings but feel that all the churches may again be opened through diplomatic channels. "The Methodists have some churches around Naples which may have been closed, but I haven't heard," Mr. Adcock stated.

The Rev. Robert Owens of the Assembly of God isn't so hopeful. "Possibly the church will open, but it is doubtful. They will probably close some more. We have a church in Rome, but as far as I know nothing has happened to it yet," he added.

The Presbyterians also have some churches located in Italy. "I expect the state department will bring pressure to re-open the churches," the Rev. Ronald Hubbard said.

Giving the Catholic point of view here, Father Chrisman of the St. John's Catholic Church in Hermleigh explained, "The Catholic Church as such is not the Italian government," although Catholicism is the official state religion in Italy.

The churches in question have disobeyed Italian registration laws and have failed to get official recognition necessary to practice a religion in Italy, he said.

The law under which the churches were closed was enacted during the reign of Mussolini and specifies that all religions must be officially recognized, and that the ministers must register. Church of Christ leaders say they have applied for recognition, but no action has been taken on their request.

Father Chrisman said that the Catholics in Italy have not looked with favor upon the forcible ejection of any religion. He cited the fact that Catholics hid Jews in Italy when Germans were in many parts of Italy during World War II.

Going further, Father Chrisman said that the church's attitude toward a recent incident in Italy when Church of Christ members were stoned was that it was wrong. A priest on the spot tried to stop the stoners, he said.

Another thing that some Americans may not understand, Father Chrisman said, is that Italians take disrespect for the official state religion the same as Americans might take disrespect for the United States flag.

Many protestant churches operate in Italy freely and completely within the law, he stated.

Soviet Efforts To Stop West Not Working

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russia's effort to stall West German rearmament by making propaganda on German unity is being written off by American diplomats as a failure.

Authorities summarizing the results of an eight-note exchange between the Western power and the Soviets on Germany's future said today they were convinced the Soviets have not succeeded in creating any serious new obstacles to plans for adding German forces to the West European defense setup.

The treaty establishing the European Defense Community has still to get parliamentary action at both Bonn and Paris, but there is strong expectation here that the West German Bundestag will approve after sharp debate. There is if anything somewhat less optimism about French approval—not because of the Soviet diplomatic drive but because of strong French fears about the recreation of German military forces.

The United States, British and French Embassies in Moscow yesterday delivered identical notes on the German issue to the Soviet Foreign Office. The exchange was started by the Kremlin last March 10 and in the intervening six months there have been a total of four note exchanges. The initial Soviet proposal was that the Big Four governments should meet and talk about drafting a German peace treaty and the unification of East and West Germany. The most recent note from Moscow was along substantially the same lines.

The Western position, in the identical notes which London, Paris and Washington have sent in reply, has similarly been basically the same.

The Western Powers assert that if Germany is to be unified now it must be under an all-German government which must be chosen in free elections, and that therefore the initial step is to determine that conditions for free elections exist. This is the opposite of the Russian line.

Yesterday's note said that "the Soviet government evaded this clear issue."

Four Children In One Family Die Of Polio

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Polio has struck the Leo B. Linnemanstons family its fourth fatal blow in nine days.

Barbara, 13, died last night.

Ten days ago, the Linnemanstons parents took a drive in the country with the seven of their eight children who lived at home. They were looking forward to the time when their oldest, John, 20, a Marine, could rejoin them.

The next day, Sunday, 16-year-old Paul was hospitalized with bulbar polio. He died on Monday, the day his sister Lorraine, 4, became ill. Lorraine died Tuesday. Mary Ann was stricken on Thurdsay the day of Paul and Lorraine's double funeral.

After Mary Ann died Saturday night, the grieving father said, "A person has to be afraid to wake up in the morning."

Sunday morning Barbara, 13, awakened with the headache and stiff neck which had anounced bulbar polio three times before. She died 12 hours after Mary Ann's funeral yesterday.

Presenting the medal, the Cuban Tourist Commission said the book was an outstanding achievement in Cuba's behalf.

Touchy Man Must Go

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A man who confused a dog's name with an insult was sentenced yesterday to 15 years in prison for homicide.

The Supreme Court confirmed the sentence against Guadalupe Chavez' appeal said he shot when he heard Castro shouting "fierabra" (tough guy). He said he thought Castro was insulting him and it was only after the shooting he learned the man was calling his dog, named Fierabras.

Summons For Ike At Trial

BALTIMORE (AP)—Attorneys for George Edward Grammer, accused of killing his wife and trying to make it look like an accident, have summoned Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to appear as a character witness in the murder trial beginning Oct. 6.

Anthony S. Federico, counsel for the 36-year-old New Yorker, said the Republican presidential candidate was among 26 witnesses called because Grammer once served in an Army counter - intelligence unit which threw him into contact with Eisenhower.

Eisenhower reportedly once gave Grammer a recommendation for employment.

Federico said he expected a deputy sheriff to serve the summons on the general late Thursday when Eisenhower speaks here at the 5th Regiment Armory.

Courthouse attaches said Eisenhower probably would be excused from attending the trial because of the campaign and that a letter from him would be acceptable.

Dorothy May Grammer, 28, was found dead in her car after it careened down a hilly road in North Baltimore. It first appeared she died from injuries sustained in the crash of her car at the bottom of the hill, but medical examination later showed she had been fatally injured before the crash.

PARDON MY GUST!

BENEATH that big broad bonnet is the reason for this headline.

It's a four-barreled automatic carburetor—Airpower by name—which has a way of gulping in what the dictionary defines as "a sudden blast of wind" when extra power is needed.

And the way this gorgeous performer can step out as this occurs is something you'll always remember.

For ordinary driving, two barrels are all you need—and two barrels are all that are working. They give you an extra thrifty flow of fuel for round-town cruising.

When extra power is wanted in a hurry—the "reserves" swing into action—feeding extra fuel and extra air in an ever-thrifty mixture, which delivers the greatest horsepower in Buick history.

This is one of many distinctions that endear ROADMASTERS to fine-car owners.

It's a car as rich in finish as it is in power—a car of expansive room—restful silence—level in gait—beautifully responsive to your mood and will.

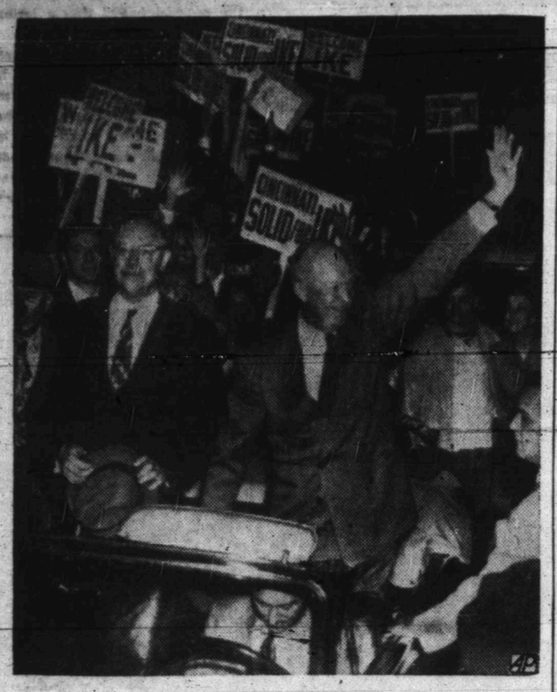

And it offers the effortless ease of Power Steering* especially engineered by Buick to save your strength in parking and slow-motion maneuvers, and still let you feel a proud sense of command and a sure sense of control on the highway.

There's just one question we'd like to ask: When are you going to come in and enjoy the ride of your life?

*Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. Optional at extra cost on ROADMASTER and SUPER only.

Candidates Differ On Inflation Causes, What To Do About It

CLEVELAND (AP)—The presidential candidates have set forth in detail their views on inflation, but their proposed solutions have little in common.

At Baltimore last night Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson blamed "agents in the Kremlin" for having "dumped a barrel of yeast in the bread of our economy."

During the whistle-stop crossing of Ohio and in a major speech he prepared for delivery here, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower declared, "The inflation we suffer is not an accident; it is a policy" of the administration.

Just as they disagreed on inflation's causes, so were the two candidates far apart in their ideas of what to do about it. But there were some areas of agreement.

Both called for a clamp down on federal spending and acknowledged a substantial part of the slash must come in military spending.

Stevenson outlined a four-point program calling for wage, price and rent controls "until prices stop going up" and for taxes on as nearly a "pay-as-you-go" level as possible.

Eisenhower, in his trip through Ohio to Cleveland and in the speech he scrapped here to deal with the controversy over Sen. Richard Nixon's $18,000 expense fund, said:

"With one hand the administration has been turning up the water pressure at the hydrant, while on the other hand it has been trying to check the water's flow. The administration's controls over prices are nothing but weak stop-gaps."

The Republican standard-bearer's answer to inflation was to cut taxes and expenditures and stop government agencies, such as the Treasury and Federal Reserve Board, from working at what he described as cross-purposes on credit controls.

Accusing the Truman administration of deliberately encouraging inflation "to fool the people with a deceptive prosperity," Eisenhower said money had been so cheapened that while the average family has gained in income since 1945, it actually can buy less goods.

"This is a measure of the achievement of an administration which loudly claims: Millions will vote for us—because they never had it so good,'" he said scornfully.

He attacked what he said was the administration theory that "national prosperity depends on the production of armaments and that any reduction in arms output might bring on another recession."

"Does this mean, then," he demanded, "that the continued failure of our foreign policy is the only way to pay for the failure of our fiscal policy? According to his way of thinking, the success of our foreign policy would mean a depression."

"We cannot bear this huge burden indefinitely," he went on. "We cannot—year after year, decade after decade—both maintain our standard of living, finance huge armaments and help to rebuild the economies of nations all around the globe. We cannot, in short, win the peace with a foreign policy of drift, makeshit and make-believe."

What the country needs is a soundly conceived program of tax reduction," he said, adding:

"Such an approach would seek to fill the economic gap left when rearmament can be reduced. A reduction is a way to boost consumer buying power and let the people spend their own money instead of the government spending it for them."

From his own experience, Eisenhower said, he knows "substantial savings" can be made in armaments outlays, which he called "the area of greatest cost to the American taxpayer."

"This does not mean slowing the speed or cutting the size of the rearmament program we need," he said. "No responsible citizen could foster such folly in today's world. . . . I tell you this from my own experience: Informed, intelligent scrutiny of military spending can effect substantial savings in our huge defense program."

Another opportuntiy for economizing, Eisenhower said, is to "save those other sums, taken out of American pocketbooks and bank accounts, that for years bought nothing but governmental waste and corruption."

Nixon Radio Talk Stirs Ike's Crowd Of 16,000 In Dayton

CLEVELAND, O. (AP)—Last night 16,000 people sat in this city's huge Public Hall in almost hypnotic silence under the spell of a voice that was pleading political honesty.

It was the voice of Sen. Richard M. Nixon speaking from California. The plea was this: He had done no wrong in accepting an $18,000 private expense fund from a group of businessmen—and he had not profited personally from this help.

These people had expected an address by GOP presidential nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower, whiplashing the Democratic administration for what he called "cheap money" policies.

But the candidate delayed this talk in order to hear Nixon's nation-wide defense, which was in effect a fight for his political life. While thousands waited in the hall, Eisenhower sat in a side room at the hall with his wife Mamie, watching and hearing the television-radio broadcast. They were alone.

Outside, the audience had just given a ringing cheer for Sen. Robert A. Taft's appeal for a GOP victory in November.

Then the voice suddenly came from the loudspeaker. A hush fell over the crowd. They hunched forward in their chairs, tense and expectant.

"My fellow Americans," the voice said, "I come before you tonight as a candidate for the vice presidency and as a man whose honesty and integrity has been questioned . . ."

There was only the sound of the voice. There was no television screen carrying the image of the senator. Only the voice.

The sea of faces stared toward the platform as though the voice was coming from the speaker's rostrum.

". . . That is why I am here tonight. I want to tell you my side of the case . . ."

The voice went on.

On the speaker's stage, Sen. Taft leafed through a little black notebook. He shuffled some papers in his hands. He jotted down a few notes. Next to him, Sen. John W. Bricker sat with folded arms. Then Bricker looked around him as though trying to read what was in the sea of faces.

There was hardly a movement. A tiny flag waved from side to side in slow motion in a big woman's hands. A man rubbed his chin. A head turned slowly to look around. But there was almost no sound, minute after minute.

Down front, a small boy sleepily rubbed his eyes and looked up at the woman beside him, probably his mother. But she was so intent on the voice that she paid no heed to the boy. He went back to a serious study of his fingers.

Across the stage from Taft, a gray-haired woman sat in an attitude of frozen concentration. Around her, every face was a study in serious thought or introspection.

What were they thinking? No one but they could say. But no one in that hall could escape the electric emotions that held the audience for minutes.

Then they laughed. Nixon told of receiving a gift of a dog. The spell was broken. They roared approval of Nixon remaining on the ticket. They broke into a cheer when Eisenhower strode to the stage and said: "Tonight I saw an example of courage."

It looked like Dick Nixon had won his fight to be the Republican vice presidential candidate.

'Dollars For Nixon' Fund Started In Calif.

CARMEL, Calif. (AP) — Monterey County Republicans have launched a "Dollars for Nixon" campaign.

A crowd attending a meeting at the Monterey Peninsula Fairgrounds anted up $317.25 to be forwarded to Dana Smith, Los Angeles attorney who is trustee of the controversial $18,000 expense fund for Sen. Richard Nixon.

The group also approved a resolution submitted last night by Edward W. Cochrane, president of the Monterey County Republican Assembly, urging "citizens' sponsorship funds" be established throughout the country to "attract vigorous, honest young men into public life."

Grand Jury Refuses To Indict Blind Man

BALTIMORE (AP) — A federal grand jury has refused to indict the blind operator of a news stand in the main Postoffice who had been accused of taking some money he reported stolen.

The action yesterday amounted to a dismissal of the charges against Ben L. Bond, 50.

Bond reported the news stand had been broken into and almost $300 taken on an August weekend. Several days later, while detectives were working on the case, he stepped up to a guard in the Post office, gave him a paper bag containing the money, and said it had been returned.

Bond was arrested and accused of taking $300, the amount advanced for operation of the business by the Maryland Workshop for the Blind.
