Ochiltree County Acquires Annex to Courthouse

Ochiltree at Lambs to Market

Estimate 25,000 Lambs
Now on Wheat Pasture
to Market by Feb. 1

The lambs have started moving to market from Ochiltree County. Luther Wade shipped two loads Thursday to Kansas City.
Saturday, shipments went to Kansas City as follows: T. M. Osborne, three carloads; G. M. Cooper, one carload; John Rogers, three carloads; O. C. Rogers, three cars; L. R.
Rogers, two cars.

On Monday C. W. Barker shipped a load to Oklahoma City by train. Total movement amounted approximately 3,650 head.
Included in the Wade, Barker load are two Rogers' lots were a considerable number of crossbred native lambs of good quality and finish. The rest of the lambs had been shipped from the San Angelo country.
The range bred Ramboulllets all lambs had been fattened out on Sudan and wheat pasture. A few received a small amount of corn. First shipments of feeder lambs were received in the county August 15. Most of the estimated 25,000 head of lambs being grazed on wheat pasture in the county will be marketed as finished lambs by Feb. 1. The number on pasture this year is at least 50 per cent greater than last year.

sion on construction of Highway

Kellys in Wreck Thanksgiving Eve

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kelly narrowly escaped serious injury when their overturned Thanksgiving eve.
The Kellys were enroute to the home of Mrs. Kelly's mother at Guthrie for Thanksgiving.
The accident was caused by a tire going flat, causing the car to leave from the pavement, turn over and roll down a fifteen foot embankment. The car came to a stop in an upright position.
They did not go on to Guthrie.
The car back to Perryton for its own power. Mrs. Kelly is recovering from bruises and shock.

Deer on Highway Southeast of Perryton

While returning from Dallas, Monday night, James L. L. Perryton filling station operator ran into and killed a deer with his car on Highway 83 between Canadian and Perryton. Mr. L. L. Perryton said the deer jumped on the highway and into the front of his car before he could stop. He loaded the deer, a medium sized doe, on his car and brought it into Perryton, turning it over to Sheriff J. S.
Talley. Sheriff Talley contacted the game warden at Canadian and he instructed him to take the carcass to the Perryton Hospital.
Summary: L. L. Perryton operator, the hospital gets the deer, L. L. is out $20 for returning the front end of his car but even $20 is a pretty cheap deer hunt.

Dec. 15 Last Day for War Ration Book No. 1

Persons who do not have copies of ration book one must apply to their local war price and rationing boards before December 15, OPA officials announced. Book one, already used for rationing sugar, will also be used for coffee rationing, and in addition must be turned in about the first of the year in order to receive war ration book two. Boards were warned to examine closely all persons who claim never to have applied for book one.

Funeral Rites For J. W. Short

Friends of John William Short, a pioneer of this community, gathered at the First Baptist Church this afternoon for simple, impressive funeral rites conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. R. McClung. A quarter from the church choir sang his favorite songs.
Members of the Masonic Order, of which he has been a member over fifty years, paid him final honors at the Ochiltree Cemetery, where interment was made under the direction of the Wilson Funeral Home.
Survivors are the widow; one sister, Mrs. W. P. Taylor, Perryton; two brothers, J. C. Short, Lefors and Rice Short, Buffalo, Okla.; a number of nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

John William was born to Josiah and Sarah Ellen Short July 26, 1864
at Rutledge, Mo., and passed away at Perryton at the age of 78 years, 4 months and 5 days. He became ill about ten days ago and grew worse until he slipped away in slumber Tuesday evening, December 1.
He was united in marriage to Miss Ella J. Kelley at Liberal, Kansas on June 14, 1905 and they have since made their home in Beaver County and in this county with the exception of a few years at Silton, Texas.

American Legion Will Not Give Christmas Baskets

Due to the general prosperity of the people of this area together with the fact that there is no need for unemployment by any person that is able and willing to work, the Perryton Post of the American Legion voted Monday night not to give Christmas baskets this year.

This decision was made after a careful survey divulged that there are few families in the entire Perryton area that do not have sufficient means to provide their own Christmas dinner. The few families that are needy will be taken care of by other sources.

Motion Pictures And Lectures On Africa

Coming at a time when the African continent is very much in the news, the visit of Dr. J. Christie Pool, a missionary to the Dark Continent for many years, is of particular importance. Dr. Pool opened a four day series of lectures and picture exhibition at the First Baptist church last night.

He will lecture and show motion pictures Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 o'clock. A special feature for the young people at 7:30 precedes his lecture.

Dr. Pool comes to Perryton as part of the local congregation's special observance of Foreign Mission Week.

The regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Baptist Association will be held at the church Friday.

Must Keep Records of Food Used

OPA Requires all
Institutional Food
Users to Keep Record

The Office of Price Administration has called on all institutional users of food to keep an accurate record of many foods used in such establishments during the month of December. Forms for making returns at the end of the month have been mailed to local institutional users by the Ochiltree County Rationing Board.

Classified as institutional users are boarding houses, drug stores who serve food, restaurants, hotels, clubs, etc. Included in the information required is the number of persons served during the month, each serving counted as a separate person; gross dollar revenue from service of food and beverages (this information not required where there is no charge); and the quantity of each of the following commodities used during the month and the amount on hand at the close of business, Dec. 31, 1942.

Sugar, coffee, butter, poultry, meats (including canned and edible parts such as liver, hearts and kidneys); pork, beef, veal, lamb and mutton; sausage, scrapple luncheon meats, etc.; canned fish, cheese (except cottage, pit and bakers), margarine, lard and compound shortening, cooking and salad oil, canned fruits and vegetables, canned fruit and vegetable juices, and merchandise frozen vegetables and fruits, dried and dehydrated fruits, dried peas and beans, canned evaporated and condensed milk, fresh milk, fresh cream and ice cream.

Heart Attack Fatal to Fred Mannen

Fred Mannen, prominent Perryton contractor and builder, died shortly before noon, Wednesday, of a heart attack. He suffered a severe heart attack October 9 and after several weeks hospitalization, appeared to be on the way to recovery.
He was up and about and had been down a number of times during the past few weeks. He arose as usual Wednesday morning and was apparently feeling fine. The end was sudden.

Jacob Fred Mannen was born Oct. 31, 1879 in Lincoln county, Kansas. He was married to Miss Myrtle Elsie Burt at Beloit, Kan., June 10, 1908. One child, Helen, was born to this union. Mr. and Mrs.
Mannen moved to Texas in 1926.
Mannen resided at Spearman for one year before coming to Perryton.
Surviving are the wife and daughter, Miss Helen Mannen; one son, Fred Mannen, Jr.

Holding C. of C. Director Election

Ballots are now in the hands of the members of the Perryton Chamber of Commerce for the annual election of directors. The report of the nominating committee consisting of W. B. LaMaster, chairman; R. T. Shindler, and Virgil R. Castle was turned to the directors at their meeting last Monday evening at the city hall.

The slate of candidates from which the membership will elect seven directors is as follows: John Sammons, R. B. Orrill, H. C. Sanford, H. I. Hudson, T. R. Murray, H.
D. Malone, Tom Waugh, Charley
Kent, H. Woodward, Wesley Bryan, Steiner Mason, O. O. Cox, Dewey R.
Allen and Horace Lackey.

Members are requested to vote for seven of the fourteen candidates or they have the privilege of writing in the name of any member.

Of the above fourteen candidates, only one, John Sammons, is a member of the present board. Mr. Sam-mons, manager of the Perryton Coca Cola Bottling Co., is now serving his first year on the board.

Retiring members of the board are Aldon Bell, president; R. T. Shindler, vice president; Louis Bryan, W.
E. Castle, Harold Hawk and L. D.
Stinson.

Members must vote their ballots and return to W. B. LaMaster on or before Monday, Dec. 7.

Methodists to District Meeting November 25

Members of the Perryton Methodist Church were in Borger last Wednesday for an all day four-in-one district meeting for preachers, district stewards, W. S. C. S. and missionary institute. Dist. Supt.
McReynolds presided at the general meeting. These meetings were held at the same time to conserve time and gas. Among those from the Perryton church attending were: Rev. and Mrs. William E.
Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Wiley,
Mrs. J. W. Chase, Mrs. C. B. Rogers,
Mrs. W. E. McMillen, Mrs.
Frank Spencer, Mrs. Chas. Garrett and Miss Grace Spencer.

District Court Closes Fall Term Sat.

No Jury Cases
Tried During Three Weeks of Court

When District Judge Jack Allen discharged the petit jury panel for the third week of court, Wednesday morning, it meant the regular fall term of the 84th Judicial Court would pass without a single jury case. The panel reported Monday morning and was dismissed to report back Wednesday morning when they were dismissed for the term.

It was thought that the separate cases of the State of Texas vs. T.
O. Calhoun and Gus Bryan would be brought to trial. When the case against Calhoun was called, being separate cases, growing out of the same transaction, Calhoun filed a motion under the provisions of Article 561 of Criminal Procedure.
The case against Bryan was tried first as Bryan's testimony was necessary to Calhoun's defense. Judge Allen granted the motion, this being the right under which the defendant is entitled by law.

The case of the State of Texas against Bryan was continued on application of the defendant with physician's testimony that the defendant was not physically able to attend trial.

The indictments in these two cases were returned by the grand jury the first week of this term of court.
The defendants were represented by Attorneys Dan E. Archer and R. T. Correll.

Other Cases on Docket
Following are cases that have been heard before Judge Allen since Tuesday of last week.

State of Texas vs. Bob Keeney, dismissed on motion of District Attorney W. L. McConnell on indictment returned in 1939.

State of Texas vs. Dennis Selby, aggravated assault. Default waived right of trial by jury and plead guilty. Fined $100 and costs and sentenced to six months in jail.
Jail sentence suspended during his good behavior. Attorney for defense, Dan E. Archer.

Emma Schwab vs. Jacob Schwab, dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

Margaret Ferguson vs. Fred H.
Ferguson, dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

E. D. Herlicker vs. J. A. Shahan and Opal Herlicker, trespass to try title suit, judgement for plaintiff.
Oscar C. Flowers, attorney for plaintiff, Max W. Boyer, appointed attorney for defendants by court.

Grover C. Butler vs. J. P. Marion et al, trespass to try title suit involving one-half section of land.
Judgement under five, ten and twenty-five year statute of limitation. Oscar C. Flowers, attorney for plaintiff, Max W. Boyer, attorney for defendant, appointed by court.

Judge Allen states that there are a number of non-jury cases in which decisions will be made before court adjourns for the term, Saturday, Dec. 5.

C. of C. Urges Decorations For Christmas

Due to the fact that it is impossible to obtain wire for connecting up the street lights, Perryton streets will not be decorated with colored lights during the Christmas season.
The directors of the Perryton Chamber of Commerce at their meeting Monday night, voted to put up the street lights the same this year as in years past.

John Sammons, L. D. Stinson and Louis Bryan were appointed by President Aldon Bell to confer with C. E. Whippo, manager of the Community Public Service Co., to see if the lights could be erected. While the Chamber of Commerce owns the wiring that crosses the streets and all sockets and bulbs, Mr. Whippo stated that it would be impossible to procure the wire to carry the current from the power lines to Main Street.

The above committee made arrangements to have three large Christmas trees erected on Main Street. The trees will be decorated and lighted.

The Chamber of Commerce urges every downtown business to make every effort to decorate the fronts of their store buildings with lights, trees and Christmas decorations.

Apply for Sugar and Coffee Rationing on Thursdays Only

The Ochiltree county war price and rationing office will transact business pertaining to sugar and coffee rationing on Thursdays of each week. If you want extra sugar or have never obtained your War Ration Book No. 1 without which you cannot buy coffee, go to the office on Thursday. This ruling was made necessary on account of the vast amount of work connected with the gas rationing program which is taking all the time of the office. Miss Helen Dorrrie, chief clerk of the rationing force, states that it is probable that the Thursday rule can be changed after the gasoline rationing rush is over.

Mailing B. C And Truck Ration Books

Persons who have submitted applications for supplemental gasoline rationing for B and C books and for trucks do not have to call at the rationing office for their books. The B and C and truck rationing books will be mailed to them. This announcement was made Wednesday afternoon by Board Chairman L. L. Lance.

Mr. Lance cautions all who receive books by mail to write in the number of their Federal Use Tax stamp in the place designated on each book.

Light Snow; Drops To 14 Above

A light snow which fell Monday night had the roof tops white for a few hours Tuesday morning.
Amount of moisture from the snow was negligible. The temperature has been down since Saturday, ranging between 14 and 20 degrees above in the morning. Temperature at 8 a.
m. today was 16 above.

Takes Lease on Carter Hotel With Option to Buy Within Three Months from Owner

The Ochiltree County Commissioners' Court closed a deal last week whereby they acquired immediate possession of the Hotel Carter building, located directly across Main street from the courthouse.
Title to the building was obtained from Dr. G. L. Kengle under a 10-year lease with an option to buy for $11,000 within 90 days.

JUST HERE and THERE

We see by the paper that Uncle Sam is having some trouble handling the huge volume of mail, which the war is helping to increase day by day. The government, it seems, is putting part of the blame on the "free" mailing privileges granted servicemen, which has increased the volume about 30 per cent. But somehow, the thousands of tons of franked propaganda from useless bureaus and agencies, which has been cluttering up the nation's mailbags for 16 years, has not been mentioned. Get rid of it, and give the soldiers a chance to write home.—Buffalo, Okla. Journal.

The Commissioners' Court is to be commended for their action in acquiring the Carter Hotel building for a courthouse annex. There is a great need for more office space by the county and existing Federal agencies.

Many Federal agencies are housed in the courthouse at the present time, using space that is needed for carrying on the regular business of the county. Other agencies are housed in the building south of Baumann Cleaners and the Stump Building to the west of the First National Bank.

By acquiring this property the Commissioners' Court has provided needed office space at a much lesser cost than an addition to the present courthouse would cost. If in the future, an addition to the courthouse be built, then in the Carter Hotel, the county has a saleable property.

On the Home Front of World War II

(A weekly summary of developments in the Victory Program, prepared by the Regional Information Office, OEM)

Business establishments hailed many of the restrictions put on deliveries by the Office of Defense Transportation—it was a healthy sign that the United States Government wanted to do away with unnecessary "frills" in war-time. Labor shortages, smaller and other troubles have become major problems on the business front. Business men were glad to have U. S. approval of a war-time streamlined program.

During the past week, retailers were given additional suggestions on how to remove "excess baggage," this time by the Office of Price Administration. OPA authorized curtailment of many peacetime services without requiring reductions in prices. Except as specifically provided to the contrary, OPA authorized retailers to curtail or discontinue the following:

Deliveries of reasonably carryable
packages, except such emergency
packages as prescriptions and sick-
room supplies.

Sales on approval.
Gift wrapping and gift packaging.
Lay-away and will-call privileges.
Free telephone calls.
Acceptance of articles returned by customers. (This does not extend to articles not delivered as represented or ordered.)

Among recommendations for wartime management policies were the following:

Use self-service if feasible.
Standardize and urge manufacturers to standardize sizes.
Simplify your line, with unnecessary sizes and varieties dropped.
Pool deliveries.
Adjust store hours to war labor conditions.

Do no unnecessary remodeling, repairing or elaborate maintenance work.

Consumers may not like the inconveniences brought about by war, but the time for pinching off useless frills has come. It means a greater concentration on the job at hand—that of winning the war.

Deliveries of reasonably carryable
packages, except such emergency
packages as prescriptions and sick-
room supplies.

Sales on approval.

or ordered.)

Perryton Cagers Win First Game

The Perryton Rangers opened their basketball season with a win over the Spearman Lynx, Tuesday night, Dec. 1. The game was close from the start to finish with the Rangers holding a one point lead at the half and ending the game with the score; Perryton 16, Spearman 14.

The starting line-up for the A team were: Donald Ellis, Dale Parvin, Bill Allen, Clayton Schollenberger, Jack Phelps. Donald was high point man of the game.

The Perryton B squad lost to the Lynx. The final score was Perryton 21, Spearman 24.

The Lynx will play a return game with the Rangers next Wednesday, here.

November 29, sugar was the only food product actually rationed, although we had begun the voluntary share-the-meat program as a first step toward rationing of "red meats" early next year. Meat is such a vital part of military diet that severe penalties will be invoked against violators of the October 1 order limiting delivery for civilian use of meat from cattle, calves, sheep, lambs and hogs. The order applies to all slaughterers, including small country slaughterers and butchers, and farmers who kill animals except for the use of themselves and their families.

In 1943 we'll have reductions in some kinds of foods, fruits, and vegetables, especially in certain canned goods. Distributors already have been given monthly quotas on the delivery of canned foods, local milk shortages have developed, and 50 per cent of all butter stocks in 35 major dairy markets have been reserved for military and lend-lease needs. Many imported spices and condiments are scarce, and imported fruits, such as bananas, are almost unobtainable.

There are other problems on the Home Front, too. There will be need of many more women workers in our war plants next year—the manpower shortage will be even greater than it is today. Already the intercity bus industry is critically short sociation will be held at the school ing to announcement of newly elected chairman A. L. Swink.

ginning of the meeting and this will

SERMONETTE

Rev. Dan L. Blickenstaff
Waka Church of the Brethren

THE PRINCIPAL THING

A man over 80 years of age, when speaking of the forces which had aided him in prolonging his life and strength, said, "I have made Christianity the principal thing in my life." He had been a consistent Christian for over 60 years. He knew where to place religion. He knew its importance.

Some people do not give religion any place in their lives. They fail to "seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness." They think that they can do without it. Yet they want all the benefits to be found in a Christian community. They would not think of living in the midst of a heathen community. Yet they act like heathens. They will not pay their debts to the organization which makes possible and promotes the good things and benefits which they enjoy—the Church. They seldom attend its services. Perhaps attend a funeral once a year. A parasite!

Some people give religion some place in their lives. They claim to hold it in esteem—and perhaps do, to a certain extent—but they do not make it the principal thing. They give more thought, more time, more money to everything else. Yet they deceive themselves if they think that religion has some place in their lives. If it has it is a very unimportant place.

The only way in which we can obey God is to do exactly what we are told—and put first things first—make religion the principal thing, and give it the chief place in our lives. 1. Because this is the place the Bible gives it. "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness." The Bible puts religion before pleasure, before wealth, fame, education, friends, kindred or anything else. It is absolutely the first thing, the principal thing according to God's word. That is the place we should put it.

In the second place, religion must be given first place or else it is really not anything. A religion that is not above all else is not religion. We are to give it first place in point of time. We are neither to put it off, nor allow anything else to get in ahead of it. We should seek to put it first, too, as a matter of first and highest importance. Nothing else can ever be of any great importance as compared with the gaining of a part in the Kingdom of God and the righteousness thereof. This is the pearl of greatest price, the supreme treasure, the indispensable blessing, the one and only thing that can make us happy here and hereafter. Make it first in point of time and importance.

Christian Science

"God the only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 6.

The Golden Text is: "All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone" (Psalms 96:9, 10).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else" (Isaiah 45:18).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God fashions all things, after His own likeness. Life is reflected in existence. Truth in truthfulness. God in goodness, which impart their own peace and permanence" (page 516).

NEWS IN THE WORLD OF RELIGION

By W. W. Reid

The Rev. W. David Owl, Cherokee Indian, missionary and community worker among the Iroquois in New York State, has been awarded the 1942 Indian Achievement Medal, presented annually by the Indian Council Fire of Chicago. For fifteen years Mr. Owl has represented Baptists and Presbyterians among Six Nations of the historic Iroquois Confederacy in New York State. Mr. Owl is a former director of Religious education activities among the Pima Indians of Arizona and at Haskell Institute, the largest government vocational high school for Indians. He is actively identified with the Buffalo Council of Social Agencies, the Boy Scouts of America, the Federal Council of Churches, 4-H Clubs (Erie County, New York), the Home Missions Council, and Six Nations Association.

Because it finds juvenile delinquency on the increase, and young men and women facing not only danger and death in battle but also facing temptations and baffling problems at home, the International Council of Religious Education, which has a constituency of 25,000,000 people, has undertaken an extended wartime program of service. It plans to give increased service to children in defense and adjacent areas, to young men and young women who are the reserves of tomorrow's fighting and service forces, to the millions under arms who need a religious ministry, and to men and women at home "who not only need spiritual insight and power for the experiences of the war and the post-war period, but who ought also to be enlisted and trained for Christian leadership during the emergency."

"One of the war aims of our nation should be the strengthening of the religious spirit among the people and the increased support of religious institutions," according to Dr. Israel Goldstein, president of the Synagogue Council of America. "When a nation fights for its very existence, spiritual stamina is a priority need. America needs the soul power which religion qualifies. We need the faith in the victor of the right which religion embues. We also need the universal outlook of religion for the building of a just peace after victory comes. Religious institutions, the churches and the synagogues, which are the carriers of the religious message and program, have a priority claim upon the allegiance and support of the American people."

Word reaching the United States from Norway indicates that Bishop Eivind Joseph Berggrav, head of the Norwegian Church who has been imprisoned by the Nazis, has begun the translation of the New Testament into modern Norwegian while he is in prison. Due to efforts to replace several dialects of the country by a Norway-wide tongue, a new translation has become a matter of importance during recent years.

Bishop Berggrav is starting by translating the Epistles written by St. Paul while a prisoner in Rome.

While the churches and mission boards that have missionaries in the Philippine Islands have had no direct word or other contact from their scores of representatives in churches and schools there since Manila fell into Japanese hands, there is increasing evidence that these men and women are being well treated and that many of them, if not all, are carrying on some of their former activities among the Filipino people. A recent Tokyo broadcast confirms earlier information that American missionaries were at first interned, then released on condition they would do strictly missionary work. Now the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church has received through the American Red Cross, relayed by the Japanese Red Cross, a message from Superintendent Ernest E. Tuck, of Manila, that he and his group of some 25 Methodist missionaries are "safe and well." Presbyterians, Congregationalists and some others have somewhat similar assurances.

The Rev. Charles E. Winter, of Hingham, and the Rev. E. Pearce Hayes, of Puting, China, missionaries of the Methodist Church, report that recent months have seen one of the worst epidemics of bubonic plague they have experienced in twenty years in central China. Some cases have been found within the mission compound at Puting. "It may be that the resistance of the people has been weakened by the years of privation," says Mr. Winter, "or that the home-made vaccine is not as effective as the pre-war variety. Recently I attended the graduation exercises of our primary school at Kio Sauh. A few days later one of the little girls who took part on the program died from bubonic. Some boys in the Guthrie High School, and girls in the Hinton Girls school have been stricken down with it." One of the great difficulties is in securing serum.

Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Fred Huston were Homestead, Okla. visitors over the week-end. Mrs. Huston remained for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. R. H. Reames. Fred returned to Perryton Monday.

Your Country Needs Your "Christmas Money"

Instead of those frivolous things we used to send each other—things that expressed our warmth of Christmas spirit but sometimes weren't much use—our country asks us this year to do one simple thing:

Give United States War Savings Bonds and Stamps as Christmas presents. Give as many as you can. Give them because they are the most valuable presents you can offer . . . gifts that increase in value every year until maturity. Give them because your country needs the money you invest in them—needs it now, this very day, to pay for the tanks, planes and ships our boys must have.

Give U. S. War Savings Bonds and you give doubly . . . you provide American soldiers with the equipment to win, and you give your loved ones the safest investment in the world.

Santa Says: "Here's The Greatest Christmas List in the World!"

Did you know that Ochiltree County citizens have bought nearly half a million dollars worth of Bonds since Jan. 1, 1942 to date—Let's pass the Half Million Dollar Mark before Jan. 1, 1943.

This Christmas your money can do something it never did before. Yes—this year Christmas money can save a drowning sailor's life . . . bring a wounded marine back to health . . . or mean a safe return of a flying fortress to its base. Or it may help to sink a U-boat . . . or blast a Zero out of the sky.

this Christmas.

Unhindered Bureaucracy

There are no more patriotic people in the country than those of the great Southwest. No one denies that. Check the casualty lists. Check the bond buying records.

For generations the Southwest has been known as a two-fisted patriotic, freedom-loving slice of God's green earth.

In spite of this record for patriotism—or because of it, perhaps—it was inevitable that a great roar of resentment should go up over the particular plan of "mileage rationing" that is being imposed on the entire country. The people, while agreeing that some form of mileage curtailment is necessary for the conservation of rubber, object to the application of the formula used in the East for the conservation of gasoline. It is felt that this plan does not fit the Southwest; that it is unnecessarily driving men out of business and out of their jobs; that it does not take into consideration the distances and the way of life peculiar to the Southwest.

That is the cry that has gone up. But it is not so much mileage rationing in itself that has caused the resentment. It is the fact that Washington bureaucrats are increasing to a painful degree their practice of telling the people of the Southwest how to run their businesses and their lives. If Washington would entrust the job of conserving rubber to state or community boards the effect would be the same but the stigma of bureaucracy would be absent. The piecemeal details and myriad regulations that are tying up the effective application of mileage rationing are regarded as unreasonable. One line of aptage type in the rule book can put a farm insurance man out of business.

Now comes the suggestion from Washington that spending money be rationed. Under the suggested plan we would receive a small amount of our income in coupons, and in order to draw the remainder we would have to pay a fee or tax which would increase in amount drawn exceeded say $5,000 a year, it would cost us $2 to spend $1.

What will the independent-minded people of the Southwest say to that?

All this protest is not against the administration as such; not against President Roosevelt; not against the Democratic party. It is a protest against growing bureaucracy; against the practice of Washington desk men ordering our lives in every detail.

The Southwest wants to win the war. It is ready to make any reasonable sacrifice. Its boys are dying on the battlefields and on the high seas. War is a serious thing to us. In fact, it is too serious a matter to be gummed up by bureaucrats who would guide our every step toward victory in war and reform at home.

—Amarillo Daily News.

'Acres of Diamonds'

Sharp dissension is developing in Congress over the administration's proposal to import labor. One group contends that because of the manpower shortage it is necessary to import a minimum of 100,000 workers.

The other group declares that our existing manpower resources are not being fully and efficiently utilized and that no foreign workers should be brought into this country until we have exhausted all of the domestic labor reserve. Furthermore, they contend that the proper allocation of manpower will eliminate any necessity for importing workers.

The War Manpower Commission cooperating with the State Department has discussed with four governments, plans for importing workers. The discussions involved the importation of up to 50,000 Mexicans, 10,000 laborers from Cuba, as many workers as available from Puerto Rico, and 40,000 negro laborers from the Bahama Islands.

Before this action is taken would it not be advisable to step up our work week from 40 to 48 hours a week and eliminate strikes, absenteeism, and some of the other time-wasters? Maybe we are searching all over the landscape for something we already have in our own back yard.

To Meet Doubled Ship Quota

A military event like the invasion of Africa brings home to us, all, more poignantly than ever, the importance of shipping in the crucial battles of this war.

It is more than gratifying, therefore, to learn from Rear Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the U. S. Maritime Commission and head of the War Shipping Administration, that the construction goal of 24,000,000 deadweight tons of merchant ships in 1942 and 1943 is being met.

Only a year ago our plans called for a total of but 12,000,000 tons; then the program was stepped up to 18,000,000 tons. Completion on schedule thus far of the 24,000,000 goal (6,000,000 of the 8,000,000 called for this year already delivered) is a tribute to an industry that has geared itself to meet the requirements of our fighting forces.

A Week of the War

Operations on all fronts against the Axis are progressing favorably, Secretary of War Stimson said. He summarized the situation as follows: (1) The Germans have failed in all of their main objectives for the year in Russia and will have to withdraw from wide areas unless they can stop the Russian counter-offensive. (2) The Allies are building up strong assault forces in Tunisia to oust the Axis, but the enemy there will "offer strong resistance." (3) Japanese troops between Gona and Buna in New Guinea. (4) Although weather conditions make extensive activity difficult in the Aleutians, American fliers are doing everything possible to harass the enemy.

Navy Secretary Knox said it is unlikely the Japanese can get reinforcements into Guadalcanal. Australian troops, advancing on Buna, have smashed Japanese counterattacks, while Allied bombers blasted enemy gun nests and mortar emplacements. Gen. MacArthur's New Guinea headquarters reported November 28, Japanese naval forces, however, despite heavy losses, have landed "strong, fresh reinforcements" on the Buna-Gona beachhead. Earlier, Allied airmen sank two and probably three troop-laden destroyers and definitely sank one other destroyer and two smaller vessels.

Communications during the week reported Allied forces in North Africa destroyed 100 Axis planes and 21 medium tanks at the cost of nine Allied planes destroyed and four damaged. The War Department estimated U. S. Army and COMMERCE, Texas, Nov. 30.—The Texas State Teachers College Athletic Council has voted letters and championship awards to nineteen members of the Lion football team, which won the Lone Star Conference title this year. Among these students are Clarence Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Morris of Perryton, who played center for the Lions; and Clarence Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Lewis of Perryton, who played back for the team.

Morris, a junior student, is a member of the Naval V-7 Reserve, and Lewis is also a junior and a member of the Marine Reserve. Both plan to enter training upon completion of their college work.

Mr. and Mrs. Debs Riley and children, Lyndol, Marion and Gene and Mrs. Edna Watson had Thanksgiving dinner with the Loney Bull family.

A large measure the automobile tires now in use on the 27 million trucks should be able to replace in passenger cars and the 5 million trucks operating in the United States.

The Office of Civilian Defense said that beginning November 30, 2 million civilian defense block leaders will "swing into action to carry in a coordinated national campaign the government's voluntary share-the-meat plan to every city, town and village in the land."

The War Labor Board delegated to War Secretary Stimson the power to rule upon all wage and salary adjustments of the more than one million civilian employees in the U. S. and Alaska employed by the War Department, the Army Exchange Service, and government-owned, privately-operated facilities of the department. The Board issued a list of 29 industries employing 8 million workers in which its regional directors will be authorized to act on requests for wage increases to correct maladjustments by applying the little steel formula without board review.

The Armed Forces

War Secretary Stimson announced Army furloughs will be granted between December 12 and January 12 to no more than 10 per cent of the enlisted strength of any camp or station at any one time. Mr. Stimson said many young officers have been transferred from Washington jobs to combat duty, and they will continue to be transferred until at least two-thirds of the officers on duty in Washington will be men more than 35. The Federal Communications Commission announced that after December 1 members of the armed forces and persons sending money to them will receive a 50 per cent rate reduction on domestic telegraph money orders up to $25.

Selective service registrants will be required to carry classification cards as well as registration cards with them at all times, beginning January 1.

Farm Production and Prices

Agriculture Secretary Wickard announced 1943 food-for-freedom goals asking the highest production in the history of American agriculture. The goals will shape next year's farm production to the needs of the United Nations, and are aimed at maintaining or exceeding the record level attained this year. The 1943 corn acreage allotment for the commercial corn area will be 43,423,000 acres, as compared to 41,338,000 acres in 1942. In order to insure feed for 1944 and beyond.

To combat a critical butter shortage, the WPB prohibited dairy producers from distributing whipping cream or other heavy cream. The order does not affect coffee cream and does not apply to any farmer who delivers up to four quarts of heavy cream per day if his deliveries averaged less than one gallon daily in the three months ended November 25.

Labor Supply and Disputes

Selective Service Director Hershey instructed all local draft boards to refuse releases for enlistment of essential aircraft or shipbuilding workers—registrants employed in these industries who are or should be classified in Class 2-B or 3-B. War Manpower Chairman McNutt announced that a comprehensive list of "essential" occupations has been prepared to guide selective service boards in determining occupational deferment and to aid the U. S. Employment Service in deciding activities having a prior claim on a worker available for placement.

The Office of War Information reported that approximately 15 million U. S. Women—less than 23 per cent of the total female population—are now gainfully employed, 4 million of them in war jobs. The office estimated there will be 18 million women in paid employment by next year—6 million of them in war industries. Germany as early as 1939 had 37 per cent of her women working. The WLB announced the number of man-days lost from war industry strikes decreased from 318,892 in September to 167,965 in October—the lowest since last January.

Transportation

The public Roads Administration said its surveys show the average speed of passenger cars on rural highways since the institution of the 35-mile-an-hour speed limit has been reduced to 37 miles per hour and trucks to 36 miles per hour. Another survey showed that in 12 war plants in six states the majority of the employees travel to work by automobile. Office of Defense Transportation Director Eastman recommended that buses and street cars space their stopping places in cities at distances from 600 to 1,200 feet. He said any distance less than 500 feet would be wasteful of rubber, gasoline and equipment.

Farmers to Receive Temporary Transport Gasoline Rations

COLLEGE STATION, No. 30.—Temporary transport rations are in store for owners of farm vehicles whose certificates of war necessity do not provide sufficient gasoline for 30 days essential operation.

Under an adjustment phase of the transportation program, the Texas USDA War Board announced this week that farm vehicle operators should make requests for additional gasoline to local War Price and Rationing Boards where obvious errors have been made in certificates.

The procedure for handling emergency cases was agreed upon by the Department of Agriculture and the Office of Price Administration.

The War Board explained that when allowances are corrected by the local War Price and Rationing Boards, operators will receive motor fuel rations for operation to December 31 and the amount of gasoline used will be deducted later from the total gallons of motor fuel allowed on a corrected certificate of war necessity.

County Farm Transportation Committees are scheduled to handle appeal cases from farmers for corrected certificates. The War Board said in explaining that regular ODT appeal forms would be sent to committees as soon as possible.

Temporary rations will take care of emergency cases and give committees sufficient time to consider appeals and make proper recommendations to ODT under regular appeal procedure. The Board pointed out.

This week the United States Government begins the task of borrowing nine billion dollars from accumulated savings and idle funds in the next several weeks as an essential part of winning the war more quickly and more completely.

During these critical weeks you probably will be visited by a representative of one of the securities firms or banks which are contributing their time and effort—without compensation of any kind—to the Victory Fund Committee. He will explain to you, for instance, the benefits that you can obtain from the new Victory 2½'s—available for the first time. Welcome him as a war worker when he calls. If you miss him, ask your banker or securities dealer for full particulars. There is no limit to the amount that you can purchase.

But the government, you, government, is not asking you to give anything to this Nine Billion Dollar Drive. It is asking you to lend it all of the money you can possibly invest in what is the safest investment in the world—at a good rate of interest.

When the Victory Fund representative calls, please remember this: it is in your own interest, as well as that of your country, to listen to him—and to invest.

Miss Frances Finch Is Lovely Bride of Capt. Jeff G. Ray

In a single ring ceremony in the new Post Chapel at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, Frances Finch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Finch of Morton, Texas, became the bride of Capt. Jeff G. Ray, son of Mrs. J. C. Ray of Oklahoma City on Friday evening, November 20, 8:30 o'clock.

The pre-nuptial music was played by Corporal Chas. B. Moore, organist, and the selections were "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Schubert's Serenade," "Because," and "Indian Love Call." Pfc David Gish sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly," and "Leibestraum" was played softly during the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The impressive lines were read by Chaplain Rex Kendall and the vows were exchanged before the candle lighted altar and an artistic arrangement of large white chrysanthemum bouquets, back of which stood seven brimming candelabra holding lighted cathedral candles.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Malouf Abraham, Canadian, who wore a fur trimmed brown costume suit with light blue blouse and hat, and a corsage of yellow rose-buds.

The groom's attendant was Capt. George Knapp of Fort Sill. The little ringbearer was Master Malouf Abraham who wore a military suit and a Sam Brown belt, and carried the ring in a white chrysanthemum.

(No. 4 of a Series)

Use One Large Bulb Instead of Several Smaller Ones

Offhand it would seem that four 25-watt bulbs would produce the same amount of light as one 100-watt bulb. But such is not the case. A 100-watt bulb produces as much light as SIX 25-watt bulbs, yet uses one-third less current. Therefore, when practical, always use one large bulb instead of several smaller ones of same total wattage and you'll get more light for your money.

Typical scene of pioneer days was comically presented by the students: Jack Elledge, starring as "The Bandit"; Bill Parkers as the driver of the stage coach; passengers, Eugene Wade, Betty Schollenbarger, Jack Parker and Mary Moss.

Meet the Teachers

Mrs. Martin L. Stevens has attended both N. T. S. T. C. and W. T. S. T. C. She has a B. S. degree and has done graduate work in both the above colleges. She is now working on her Master's degree.

Mrs. Stevens is an experienced teacher, teaching in the Booker Elementary school four years before coming to Perryton. Mineral Wells is her home town. She is particularly interested in primary work, in which she is now engaged. Reading professional literature is her hobby.

Basketball has her vote of preference in the sports world, and Bing Crosby's crooning is tops in Mrs. Stevens opinion. She considers any food most delectable that happens to be handy when she is hungry. Not being an ardent movie fan, Mrs. Stevens has no decided opinion in that direction.

Among her likes, is one very certain dislike or pet peeve, she doesn't like to be interrupted during class work. Mrs. Stevens is the wife of Senior High principal, Martin L. Stevens, and the mother of Juanelle Stevens.

In case that still isn't enough information, she is of slight stature and slender build, with dark hair and eyes. She has a ready smile of real friendliness and an attractiveness in both personality and appearance. Mrs. Stevens is enthusiastic in her liking for Perryton and the Perryton Public School.

Senior High Cage Team Working Out

The swish of the net and the sound of a bouncing basketball echoes from the gym, as Coach George Philbrick's Perryton Rangers prepare for a winning season.

Last year the Ranger cagers won second in their conference and they should have placed first. The last two heartbreaking games on decided off nights cost them the title.

With just as good or better material this season the Rangers already show speed and class in their workouts. They have a fast breaking attack and seem to have a good eye for the basket.

There are about fifteen boys working out each evening. Those who are interested are invited to come to the gym and see them in action. They are as follows: Bill Allen, Dale Parvin, Jack Parker, Don Ellis, Elmer Schollenbarger, Gale Rogers, Danny Ellis, Bill Parker, Travis French, Johnny Dunlavy, J. V. Pearson, Dean Bennett, Raymond Hall, Eldon Boese and Jack Dodson.

Grade School Wins In War Stamp Sales

Perryton school students are doing their share in financing this war. The Grade School led the buying of bonds and stamps this week by a wide margin. They bought $223.35; Junior High was second with $143.85; and Senior High was last with $71.65. The total sales for last week were $438.85. The grand total for all three schools since school started is $2,162.75.

From all indications Perryton school students intend to have their names on some of the bonds that will eventually bring about the destruction of Tokyo and the Axis powers.

WASTED TIME

Before the war began, time wasted meant dollars lost. But now lost time may mean lost lives. Now as never before we Americans should realize the value of time. On the battle field the loss of ten seconds may mean the loss of a decisive battle. If time could be rationed as tires or sugar and those wasted minutes put to work, this war would be won much easier and quicker.

The R. C. A. Manufacturing Co. distributed six inch cardboard rulers among its employees in an effort to cut down tardiness. On the rulers was printed the following words: "You and I lost in tardiness 172,980 minutes in one month alone. Poland was conquered in 37,440 minutes. France after the Maginot Line broke fell in 44,640 minutes." The month after these rulers were issued, tardiness dropped over 36 per cent.

You will doubtless think, "This would help in war industries but it doesn't concern me." This is where many of us are mistaken. We all help with defense or war work one way or another. It stands to reason the time saved, and used on such worthy causes as the scrap metal drive, and the rubber campaign are extra help and protection for our fighting boys.

From a very reliable source, it was learned that Bill Allen while in Lubbock was shown around by a friendly Tech freshman, and it wasn't a member of the weaker sex.

The DeMolay's should give a dance more often. Many of the guys and gals go together when they wouldn't otherwise. Some of the people seen at the dance were: Paul Dowers shyly jitterbugging with Ruby Ann Patton, Delos Pugh coming with Shannon Daniels, Bob Turner trying to get in a word with Mary Lou Rupprecht, A. J. Eudy as usual dancing with Betty Jean Pugh, Donald Schuster proudly dancing with Anna Evans, and last but not least Robert Holland whispering sweet nothings into the ear of Clytia Goettche.

Ochiltree Now in Oklahoma City Naval District

Transfer of Texas' 26 northernmost counties from the Dallas to the Oklahoma City Naval recruiting district has been completed and Panhandle Navy recruits are being sent to the Oklahoma capital for acceptance, the Navy has announced.

Result of an economy move to cut travel expenses of recruits to a main station for final physical examinations and enrollment, the transfer will bring into the Oklahoma district one of Texas' most productive recruiting areas, Lt. P. F. Adam, officer in charge of the Oklahoma City recruiting district, said. Recruits from the Texas Panhandle formerly were enrolled in Dallas.

Counties included in the transfer are Briscoe, Armstrong, Carson, Castro, Childress, Collinsworth, Dallas, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Farmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher and Wheeler.

Transfer of personnel and equipment to the new district was effected between Lt. Adam and Lt. L. H. Rideout, officer in charge of the Dallas recruiting district, in Amarillo during the early part of the week, it was announced. No changes in personnel at the sub-recruiting station at Amarillo or in the five part-time stations in the area will be necessary.

The Library Corner

If you wish to know more about our Russian allies and what American does not wish to be understood then better? read "Mission to Moscow" now in your Public Library. It was written by Joseph E. Davies, our ambassador to the U. S. S. R. from 1936 to the eve of the Czechoslovak crisis. Since then he has served as special assistant to the State Department in Washington in the field of Russian-American relations. "Mission to Moscow" is a report to the American people, a comprehensive picture of the Soviet Union as it was seen by a man who made no secret of his capitalistic interests but who went there with an open mind and an understanding heart. It is a story of history in the making, written at the time by one of the men who helped to make it. By throwing new light on the recent past, it also reveals new perspectives for the future.

The recent death of Rachel Field has deprived us of our more important American novelist. Her last book "And Now Tomorrow" will move and delight anew the many enthusiastic readers of her "All This and Heaven Too" and "Time Out of Mind." In it Emily Blair looks back over her life—an unusual one. The mingling of two backgrounds made her, more than other people, sensitive to the lives around her. Then there was her personal tragedy—the deafness which befell her on the verge of marriage to the young man with whom she had been so deeply in love. She learns what few people ever do: who will remain loyal and who desert when misfortune strikes. Now she recognizes the shattering which a surface change can bring, as well as those loyalties which endure. Here Rachel Field combines that nostalgia for the past with as beautiful prose and as heart-warming a love story as she ever wrote. Ask for "And Now Tomorrow" at the library.

Another recent revival well worth your time is "Look to the Mountain" by LeGrand Cannon, Jr., a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for November. In her review of it Dorothy Canfield writes "The book is an intimate portrayal of what daily existence really was to those American pioneers who pushed their way up into the thickly wooded regions that later became Maine, Vermont and New Hampshire. In Melissa, the girl-wife, so lovely and touchingly human, all our great-grandmothers—the best of them, anyhow—stand up before us."

"35 won't hurt your car if you're careful at 00 miles an hour..."

"Couple of my customers could even get a new car by U. S. regulations. But they're careful with the car they've got—doing under 35, same as others in wartime. That's the spirit!"

"And this 35-mile 'tops' can make your car last longer yet, if you don't hunt up grief at 00 miles an hour! That's no wisecrack—00 miles an hour. It's when your car is standing and your engine is starting cold, needing lubrication the worst of ever. So I don't just change your oil. I change you to an OIL-PLATED engine with my Conoco Nth oil that attaches OIL-PLATING inside your engine, sort of by 'magnetism'—keeping OIL-PLATING from all draining down to the crankcase overnight, and all day, etc.

"Sooner than you're in the car, OIL-PLATING is up where you need it—instead of taking time getting there. You've had lots of people's word besides mine, that the worst danger of wear comes in starting cold. But what's plainer to get around that, than OIL-PLATING your engine with Conoco Nth oil? Regulate Farm Slaughter of Animals

DALLAS, Nov. 30—Farmers and others who slaughter animals for their own consumption are not subject to the OPA meat restriction order of October 1, but every person in the U. S. who slaughters and delivers to others even so much as an animal of the sort listed in the order is subject to the regulation's restrictions and to its penalties in case of violation, regional OPA officials warned today.

Animals covered by the order are cattle, sheep, lambs and hogs. Delivery of meat from these animals to civilians is limited so that there shall be enough for the fighting forces of the United States and its Allies.

Officials said that records of all slaughter for delivery to others must be kept and be available to inspectors of the OPA by everyone from the country butcher, or the farmer who slaughters meat for others, to the largest packing houses. False statements of the number of animals slaughtered and delivered, or other violations of the restriction order, subject offenders to fines up to $10,000 or ten years in jail, or both.

Limits set by the order fall into two classes. The larger slaughterers—those who kill more than 500,000 pounds in a quarter—are limited in their civilian deliveries to the following percentages of the kinds of meat covered that they delivered to civilians in the corresponding quarters of 1941—beef, 70; pork, 75; lamb and mutton, 85; and veal, 100. The other slaughterers, including everyone else, are limited to no more than the same amount of each of the kinds of meat that they slaughtered and delivered to others in the corresponding quarter of 1941. Cutter and canner grades of beef are defined as a special kind, and here, too, "non-quota" slaughterers may not deliver more of this kind than they did in the same quarter of 1941.

of good mechanics and service men, and so is the truck-hire industry. Track workers are needed on western railroads, and there are 60,000 job vacancies among the home carriers. The battle on the Home Front involves tremendous problems and can only be won by brilliant planning, vigorous prosecution and all-out cooperation. The Home Front program can only be as strong as its weakest part. To win the battle on the fighting front, we must win the battle at home.

SHORTS SHORTENED. PAJAMAS SIMPLIFIED: Shirts and pajamas for men and boys came under the WPA axe, with issuance of a simplification order requiring that two to three inches be taken off the length of shirts, and collars, cuffs and cuffs be eliminated from pajamas made after December 15. More than 10,000,000 additional shirts can be made from the material saved by the order, and more than 2,300,000 pairs of pajamas may be manufactured. Shirts with blousing or box pleated backs are banned, and no more shirts may be made with pleated fronts. Shirts or pajamas made for men over six feet two inches tall are exempted from provisions of the order, except that no unnecessary material may be used.

GRADE III TIRE CEILING SET: Retail and wholesale ceiling prices were announced by OPA for new passenger car tires of reclaimed rubber being produced under War Production Board restrictions. The maximum retail price for a size 6.00 x16 tire is $13.25. Only persons who obtain certificates from their local war price and rationing boards will be eligible to buy these tires. Dealers are required to attach to each casing a label showing the maximum retail price and indicating that it is a Grade III tire for rationing purposes.

WHIPPING CREAM DELIVERY HALTED: To conserve milk for consumer use, and for the manufacture of dried whole milk, cheese, butter and some other manufactured dairy products, WPB has prohibited dairy producers from distributing whipping cream or other heavy cream, to household consumers, retailers, restaurants, institutions and others. Coffee cream is not affected.

TRUCK OWNERS TO GET TEMPORARY GAS ALLOWANCE: Commercial vehicle owners who have applied for but have not received ODT certificates of war necessity may receive temporary rationing of gasoline from their local war price and rationing boards. Gallons issued will later be deducted from amounts allowed by the certificate of war necessity. Rationing for use through December 31 may be obtained. ODT motor transport district offices will correct promptly and errors made in certificates already issued. Regional Manager John C. Massenburg announced. Where no errors were made, commercial vehicle operators must wait thirty days after issuance of the certificate to appeal for an adjustment.

Gas Saving is a Matter of Careful and Watchful Driving

With nationwide gasoline rationing about to become effective, motor engineers have offered a recapitulation of gasoline saving rules confirmed by million of miles of test driving under all conditions.

Gasoline saving can only be obtained by careful driving in a well-conditioned car. The rules, therefore, are divided into two sections. How do you and your car stack up?

The Automobile

1. Keep engine in A-1 condition. It is surprising what difference a valve timing, clean spark plugs, correct timing and clean combustion chamber will make in your economy.

2. Don't let tire pressure drop below recommended pressure. Soft tires not only rob you of gasoline but also wear out faster. Keep them up to recommended pressure by checking with a tire gauge every few days.

3. Maintain correct toe-in. Too much or too little toe-in of front wheels causes scrubbing instead of rolling, eats up extra fuel and scrubs precious rubber off your tires. Have front wheels examined by an expert occasionally and adjusted when necessary.

4. See that brakes do not drag. Use lightest recommended oil—summer and winter. Dragging brakes and thick oil are arch enemies of gasoline economy. Particularly in winter and to a lesser extent in summer, thick oil causes extra friction.

Your dealer or service station is the logical place to have your automobile serviced. Trained service station attendants can tell you when your car needs adjusting in line with the above suggestions.

The Driver

5. Push out clutch and don't race engine when starting. No matter what kind of oil you have in the transmission, your engine will start easier and take less fuel in starting if you depress the clutch pedal. Incidentally, this practice will make your battery last longer. Racing the engine not only pumps extra raw gasoline into the engine but tends to wash lubricating oil off the cylinder walls causing undue wear on cylinders, pistons and piston rings.

6. Get into high gear at about 15 M. P. H. Some drivers accelerate in low and second gears up to the road speed desired before shifting into high. This practice is wasteful of fuel. Better economy will result from shifting into high around 15 miles per hour.

7. Use low and second gears less. Actual economy in low drops to between 2 1/2 and 8 miles per gal. In second it tests from 3 1/2 to 15 miles per gallon; the lower figure in both cases corresponds to wide open throttle position of accelerator pedal. Minimum use of these gears will promote better economy.

8. Anticipate stops and coast more. Use brakes less. It takes energy to bring your automobile up to speed. Every time the brakes are applied a portion of that energy is lost in heat. Hence, coast to a stop wherever possible and use brakes less.

9. Coast in neutral whenever it is possible and safe. It is illegal to coast down grade in neutral in some states. However, wherever it is practicable and safe on gentle grades, shift to neutral and coast with throttle closed. This practice observed will stretch your operating radius importantly.

10. Don't increase speed on a grade. It takes less fuel to climb a grade at a uniform speed than to increase your speed while climbing. It takes extra fuel to accelerate and this fuel is lost so far as economy is concerned.

11. Use accelerator pedal gently. Trying to beat the other fellow at traffic lights is exceedingly wasteful of gasoline. Keep up with traffic but use accelerator pedal gently. Never push accelerator pedal down to floor except in an emergency. Gentle starts and gentle stops will also conserve your tires.

12. Select routes which have least stops. It seems a small thing but every time you hope to bring your car up to speed it requires extra fuel. Braking for a stop uses up part of the energy built up in the car, wasting it in friction and heat. Select routes which have the least stops.

13. Drive at uniform speed. 25-30 miles for maximum economy. Light cars driven at uniform speed of 25-30 miles per hour show economy of 20 miles per gallon or better. Starts, stops, acceleration, hills, braking and high wind combine to reduce this maximum. Hence the greater distances driven at these ideal speeds, the greater the net economy.

Visitor's First Trip To Dodge in 59 Years

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Patching Sr., Clarendon, were guests last week in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Craig. Mr. Patching an early day cowboy, came to the United States from England 61 years ago and started working for the T. Anchor ranch near Canyon at the age of 16.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Craig and Mr. and Mrs. Patching drove to Dodge City, Kansas, which was the shipping point for the cattle men of this area some 50 years ago.

It had been 59 years since Mr. Patching had been in Dodge City, but he recognized buildings, etc., and recalled many incidents of his former visits when he was a young man and shipping cattle from Dodge.

FOR VICTORY BUY BONDS

The South is Lowest in War Bond Sales

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A recent survey by the Gallup poll revealed that 78% of Americans have bought War Bonds or Stamps.

Reporters for the poll asked a representative cross-section of the voting population this question: "Do you happen to have bought any war bonds or stamps?"

The result was: Yes—78 per cent. No—22 per cent.

Dr. George H. Gallup, head of the Institute of Public Opinion, said the findings were splendid testimony to the effectiveness of the Treasury Department's War Savings Campaign.

Seeking the answer to the failure of one out of every five adult Americans to buy War Bonds or Stamps, Dr. Gallup made a further study and found that two large segments of the population, the lower income group and farmers, are responsible for this situation.

Following is a table comparing the purchase by the various groups:

	Have Bought	Have Not Bought
Middle Income & Well-to-do	90%	10%
Lower income group	68%	32%
Farm	71%	29%
Cities (10,000 over)	81%	19%

A breakdown of the bond and stamp purchases by occupations reveals that the professional man, the businessman, and the white collar workers are well ahead of other occupational groups in their bond and stamp buying.

Here is the comparison by occupations:

	Have Bought	Have Not Bought
Professional	92%	8%
Businessmen	88%	12%
White-collar Workers	88%	12%
Skilled & Semi-Skilled Workers	78%	22%
Unskilled and Service Workers	65%	35%

Furthermore, some sections of the country are far better bond and stamp buyers than others. The East Central section, comprising Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan, is highest on the list, in the relative proportion who have bought bonds or stamps, 81 per cent of the voting adults having bought bonds or stamps in this area. The New England, Middle Atlantic and West Central areas are next, with 79 per cent holding bonds or stamps. Next comes the mountain area and the far west, with 78 per cent. The south stands lowest in the sectional groupings, with 66 per cent of the voting population having bought bonds and stamps.

In the new building will be a well furnished ladies lounge which will add much to the comfort of women from the Perryton area while shopping or visiting in Perryton.

In our opinion, there will be a need for federal agencies for many years. In fact, we expect an increase, rather than a decrease, in the reconstruction and readjustment days following the present war.

We've been hearing a lot of criticism of the local members of the rationing board because they don't do this and do that in the gas rationing program. We just want to add this word that a lot of this "poppin' off" is uncalled for.

The members of the rationing board are serving hours and hours each day without pay as a contribution to the war effort. How much time are you giving to the war effort?

The board is overrun with applications for supplemental rations. They are just humans and can do just so much. We know for a fact that many of the applications received by them for supplemental gasoline are filled out incorrectly. Many do not have the necessary information on which to issue supplemental gasoline.

Just be patient and we feel sure that when this gasoline rationing is all straightened out, everyone is going to get sufficient gasoline to attend to their business affairs. Now as for pleasure driving, put this down in your pipe and smoke, you're not going to get much gasoline for this purpose unless you "chisel" and obtain the gasoline for an essential purpose and use it for a non-essential use.

So quit your "griping" about having to give up pleasure driving. Remember the boys in uniform, they signed up to give their life, if necessary, and a lot of them are doing just that every day.

Sharing Meat at Butchering Time

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 2.—Butchering time has arrived and farmers are asking how to comply with the Share-the-Meat program when they have excess quantities of fresh meat.

Roy W. Snyder, animal industries specialist for the A. and M. College Extension Service, suggests an answer to this question.

First, he says, stagger butchering of hogs. Instead of butchering two or three at one time, butcher one, then wait a few weeks to butcher another.

Second, share fresh meat with neighbors at butchering time. Families can "take turn about" in butchering, trading meat between them.

Third, cure hams, shoulders, bacon, and loins. Cured sausage. This leaves the spareribs, head and feet the only meat to be consumed at the time of butchering. The other parts of the animal such as the heart, liver, and tongue are not included in the weekly sharing allowance. Mr. Snyder says similar management should be followed when a family butchers beef, veal, and mutton.

Finally, the specialist says: "If these suggestions cannot be followed, farmers may find it necessary to consume larger quantities of meat in any one week, but the average of two and one-half pounds per adult should be maintained throughout the year. The important thing is: Don't waste meat and don't eat more than your share."

Free publications on killing, cutting, and storing are available from county Extension agents or from Extension headquarters at College Station.
