Alderman Hides Feasibility Study

On Monday, July 27, representatives of the Amarillo Globe News and The Clarendon News learned that the City of Clarendon had received the feasibility study that the city paid for with hotel/motel taxes. Both newspapers requested copies of the report, but city employees refused, saying that they were following the specific instructions of Alderman David Pitts.

The correspondant for the Globe News then sent a registered letter to the City of Clarendon formally and officially requesting a copy of the report, citing Article 6252-17a, Section 4 of the Texas Open Records Act.

The Texas Open Records Act specifically prohibits public officials from suppressing or hiding information. The law provides for up to six months in the county jail and $1,000 fine for withholding information from the public.

The Thunder Junction feasibility study was paid for by the city, following heated controversy.

The city claims that the certified letter that requested copies of the feasibility study was not delivered to them on Tuesday. However, between 3:00 and 4:00 p.m., Alderman Pitts went to City Hall and removed the document.

At the regularly scheduled city meeting, representatives of the Amarillo Globe News presented copies of the letter to the Aldermen. The council took no action, but informally agreed to refer that matter to the city attorney.

The news media are consulting the Freedom of Information Foundation and legal council to compel the City to obey the laws of the State of Texas.

MIKE NEWHOUSE, Horace Green, and several other producers raised successful onion crops this year. The onions above are bagged and waiting shipment on a farm North of Clarendon that Newhouse has leased . Many area farmers are looking for alternatives to traditional crops like cotton, grain sorghum, and cattle.

Tourist Trail Approved

AUSTIN--The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission has taken steps to created the Caprock Canyon State Park Trailway, which should be a boon to the economy of West Texas. On July 9, the commission authorized staff to accept donation of about 65 miles of abandoned railroad corridor and develop it into a new trail in Floyd, Briscoe and Hall Counties.

This will open new opportunities in hiking, mountain biking and horseback riding for trail enthusiasts from across Texas and the United States. People in Lubbock, Amarillo, Plainview and numerous other Texas Panhandle towns will benefit from easy access to the second longest trail in the state.

The 64.25 mile trail begins 28 miles east of Plainview in South Plains, moves through Quitaque and Turkey near the State Park and ends in Estelline. Local officials believe it will be an important force in economic development.

"We've already seen Quitaque become a travel stop for almost 150,000 people a year going to Caprock Canyons State Park," said Elgin Conner, mayor of Quitaque.

Quitaque's population dropped from 696 people in 1980 to 513 in 1990. The tiny town, like others near by, was hit hard by a depressed farming economy in the 1980's, but sales tax revenue in the area has been up for the last two years.

"I think that's directly tied to tourism," said Mayor Conner. "And the rail-to trail project will provide a big boost to Quitaque, simply having more people come through town. We are extremely excited by the possibilities."

The Rails-to-Trails Conservancy, a national nonprofit group in Washington DC, was instrumental in acquiring the abandoned rail corridor from the railroad company, Burlington Northern. Money to buy the land, tracks and structures was obtained from a salvage company which buys and sells salvaged rail materials. This win-win arrangement will allow the TPWD to acquire the land at no coast.

"After being encouraged by community leaders to create the trail, we met with landowners in the area to discuss their concerns," said Rusty Sargent, park superintendent at Caprock Canyons State Park. "Based on their input, we believe this will be a good project for all concerned. We intend to be good neighbors."

"For the state park, I think it's going to be a tremendous drawing card. We'll now have almost 100 miles of trails in one location when you combine the rail-trail with our current park trails."

In terms of natural features, from west to east, the trail moves through the cultivated fields of the Texas High Plains, drops into the rugged canyons of the Caprock Escarpment, and winds down into the famous Red River Valley.

Economy Up and Down

According to sales tax receipt figures from the State Comptroller's office, the economy is up--and down.

Figures for the state as a whole are bout 5.5% above last years receipts. But receipts for the area seem to be mostly off.

Donley County fared better than many. July sales tax receipts (reflecting June sales) were off by 6.49% for the county for the period, but up 5.10% for the year-to-date. Clarendon was down 12.33% on June sales, but up 2.17% YTD. Hedley does not report on a monthly basis, but improved a whopping 45.24% YTD. Howardwick performed even better, up 50.63% for June, up 22.80% for the year. Up, up and away!

Armstrong County (Claude) saw their economy trickle down 11.95% and 2.36% respectively for the two periods. Briscoe sagged 18.28 for the month, but zipped up 16.08% for the year. (Quitaque lost only 5.99% for the month and gained 49.96% for the first half of the year. Silverton hurt by 18.28% for June, and lost 4.26% YTD).

Carson County declined by 17.85% for the month, but struggled in with a 5.90 boost for the longer period.

Childress and Collingsworth Counties (Wellington) both raised their local sales taxes from .01 to .015, so their figures are not comparable to earlier receipts.

Gray County turned in unique figures in that they went up in June, down for the year, +8.98 and -1.38. Hall County was up 38.71 and 23.41 overall, but most of that gain was in Memphis, which reported +60.34 and +29.32. Estelline and Turkey turned in negative numbers for the month, -29.81 and -38.26. YTD's were +3.68 and -6.67. Hemphill County (Canadian) suffered a 24.11% and a 11.71% decline. Motley was up and down 11.92 and 3.75.

Perryton slid 5.56% and 12.75%. Potter gained 3.92% and 4.51%. Randall settled off .75% below last year in June sales, but chalked up an increase of 4.46% YTD. Roberts did not fare as well: +.87% and -6.92%.

Generally speaking, most of West Texas from Laredo to Wichita Falls and west seems to be losing, while urban areas thrive. Part of the reason may well be the state tax structure. West Texas citizens generally get back about 15¢ out of every dollar sent to Austin, while rich urban districts get considerably more than a dollar--sometimes more than two dollars--for each tax dollar collected in their area. In other words, the State of Texas is robbing the rural poor to give to urban rich.

Stress and High Blood Pressure

Although high blood pressure affects all age groups, it is most commonly seen in the elderly, especially black elderly. There are many potentially harmful effects of high blood pressure, including heart attack, loss of vision, stroke, and loss of kidney function. Therefore, it is wise for everyone to have his or her blood pressure checked periodically. Also it is advisable to eliminate or modify factors that increase the blood pressure. One such factor is stress.

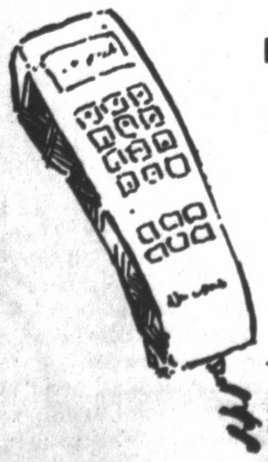

Dr. David Nash, Clinical Professor of Medicine at State University of New York Health Science Center has studied the effect of stress on blood pressure. According to Dr. Nash, writing in a recent issue of Pharmacy Times, the role of stress and high blood pressure in persons who previously had normal blood pressure is not fully understood. However, research has shown that persons with stressful jobs, such as air traffic controllers, experience more high blood pressure than do other groups. Dr. Nash calls this condition "hyperkinetic hypertension."

Eliminating risk factor, such as smoking and obesity in the hyperkinetic hypertensive person may help control blood pressure. Exercise, relaxation, and biofeedback may help also. Prescription medicines such as beta blockers ACE inhibitors, and calcium blockers may be needed if non-drug approaches are not effective.

Container Recycling Planned

By Tim Trimble CEA-AG

Agricultural producers and homeowners across the Texas Panhandle will have an opportunity in September to dispose of empty pesticide containers, thanks to a coordinated effort by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and county extension agents in the area.

SCT Environmental, Inc., will be in the Texas Panhandle September 23-30 to receive and recycle properly cleaned pesticide containers, said Tim Trimble, Donley County Extension agent. "At present the date for those in Donley, Gray, Armstrong and Collingsworth Counties to participate is September 30. Groom will likely be the place that empty containers will have to be delivered to. The place and time has not been set yet," according to Trimble.

"Now is the time agricultural producers, chemical applicators and homeowners should begin gathering up and properly preparing the containers so they can turn them in," Trimble said. New laws and regulations sharply limit the options people have for safely disposing of unwanted chemical containers.

To be recycled, each container must be triple-rinsed and punctured before being brought to the collection site. Properly prepared containers accepted at the sites are recycled and used in the pesticide industry.

"This is the first time such a service has been offered in the Panhandle area," Trimble said. Times and locations for the collection will be announced in the near future.

Who Cares What the Law Says?

In casual conversation, many local residents have commented on a class of "Good Ol' Boys" in various Clarendon governments who do not seem to care what is legal or illegal. They act as though they believe that the citizens of Clarendon have no right to know what they do while in office, and no right to question their actions.

That attitude was shown very clearly by some Aldermen Tuesday night.

This was not, however, the first time that some of the aldermen had disregarded Freedom of Information laws in Texas. Several of the aldermen met in secret on February 7 to discuss ways for the city to give money to Thunder Junction to pay for a feasibility study. That secret was soon common knowledge on the streets of Clarendon, and played into the hands of opponents of the project who asked, "What do they have to hide?"

That February the newspeople who report on activities in Clarendon struggled with what course of action to take in view of the illegal meeting. The Clarendon News decided to assume that the politicians involved probably acted in ignorance rather than in blatant disregard for the law. For that reason the paper published the entire Texas Open Meetings Act and the Texas Open Records Act. Each law took up a full page in the newspaper, one in the issue of March 5 and one March 12.

However, it would now appear that some public officials in Donley County do not care what the law states. Perhaps they feel that the rules do not apply to them. Yet one of the oldest concepts in Anglo-American jurisprudence is that even the king is not above the law.

The Clarendon News is not anti-Thunder Junction nor pro-Thunder Junction. The paper is pro-Clarendon. It also supports obedience to the law. And it supports prosecution for those who willfully violate the law.

The newspaper's employees had to work overtime last night to get out the story of the Aldermen's action. The space that this story occupies on page one was originally devoted to a press release from Yesterday's Children. But the actions of the theme parks supporters has raised serious questions in the mind of the editor and the staff? If this project is on the up-and-up, why try to hide public documents on it?

Apparently, Amarillo's executives, editors and reporters have similar misgivings. They, too, have pulled the press release until the claims in it can be verified.

If Thunder Junction succeeds, it will have a dramatic impact on the local economy, mostly positive. Every local businessman and every employee will benefit. It will make new jobs.

But for Thunder Junction to succeed, it will require the support of virtually every area resident. That support cannot come without public confidence. Hiding public documents and holding illegal meetings does not generate trust and confidence.

JANET RISLEY BENNETT

Risley and Bennett Exchange Vows

Miss Janet Elizabeth Risley and Mr. Paul William Bennett were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 25, 1992 in the First Baptist Church of Clarendon, Texas, the Reverend William R. Lawrence officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lee Risley of Clarendon. A graduate of Clarendon High School and Lubbock Christian University, she is a third year law student at Texas Tech University School of Law in Lubbock.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Amon Bennett of Tyler, Texas. He is the grandson of Mrs. Edna Rouse, also of Tyler, Texas. A graduate of Robert E. Lee High School and Austin College, he is also a third year law student at Texas Tech University of Law in Lubbock.

Prelude music was provided by organist, Valorie Ashcraft, who also played the wedding march. Soloist, Dan Hall, sang "We've Only Just Begun", and "Always". Matron of Honor, Laura Whitehead, sang "Whither Thou Goest". Accompaniment on the piano was provided by Sheila Wade. Dan Hall also sang "The Wedding Song" at the lighting of the unity candle.

The church was decorated at the front with three brass fan candelabras, each accented with greenery entertwined with baby's breath and a white satin bow. An arrangement of White spider chrysanthemums and gadilola decorated the front of the altar. A brass unity candelabra also decorated with greenery, stood on the left of the altar. The aisle pews were marked with six brass hurricane candelabras accented with greenery and white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride chose a chapel length gown of candlelight ivory silk shantung. The pointed drop-waist bodice contained panels of alencon lace, pearls and sequins in the front and back. A delicately scalloped sabrina neckline connected the double puff elbow length sleeves that were sprinkled with matching appliques of lace, pearls and sequins. Double bows of silkshantung were placed at the back of the waist. The chapel length train flowed out from the bows giving the appearance of a long full double sash. A wide scalloped border of alencon lace and pearls encircled the skirt.

The bride's head piece was an open crown designed with patterns of tear drop pearls and tiny crystal beads. In the back of the crown was a pouf with two veils. The top layer was a finger tip veil over a long chapel length veil.

She carried a bouquet of fresh pink petia roses, white delphinimum, monte casino, and baby's breath. The bride carried the tradition of something old, a wedding ring belonging to her maternal great-grandmother, Mary Cornelia Davis; something new, her wedding gown; something borrowed and blue, a pale blue garter belonging to her matron of honor.

The groom wore a black classic tuxedo with a jacket length coat, and ivory vest. Two fresh petia roses and baby's breath formed his boutonniere.

Mrs. Laura Whitehead of Lubbock served as Matron of Honor and Miss Rachel Bowling of Amarillo served as Maid of Honor. The attendants were Mrs. Kristy White of Farwell, and Miss Tricia Thornberry of Lubbock, cousin of the bride. The attendants wore magenta, tea length, shantung two-piece dresses fashioned with rounded portrait collars and accented with two pearl buttons at the waist, over softly pleated skirts. They carried arm bouquets of fresh pink roses, purple statis and baby's breath. An ivory bow gathered the arrangement.

Mr. Benton J. Barton of San Antonio attended the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Mr. John R. Jarvis of Dallas, Mr. Eric Higgins of Plano, and Mr. William N. Coleman, Jr. of Dallas. Guests were seated by Mr. Rodney K. Bradley of San Antonio and Mr. Warren O. Waterman of Lubbock. The gentlemen in the wedding party wore black classic tuxedos with black ties and cumberbunds. The boutonnieres were fresh ivory roses.

The mother of the bride wore an acetate pink shantung two-piece dress accented with irridescent buttons. She carried a lace handkerchief which had belonged to the bride's paternal grandmother, Icy Risley. The mother of the groom wore a soft two- piece tapestry dress of pale mauve, accented with pink lace flowers and sequins on the jacket. Corsages for the mothers were deep pink roses.

Attending the guest register was Mrs. Terri White of Amarillo. The registry table, which held the bride's book and plume pen, a portrait of the bride and a silver candelabra with white candles, was covered with finger pleated white taffeta cloth edged with greenery and flowers.

Larissa Lindley of Clarendon served as flower girl. Her ankle length dress was made of a pink floral polish cotton and ivory moir chintz. Her dress had a rounded collar, puffed sleeves, ivory chintz roses on the sleeves and a bow at the waist. She carried a basket of pink rose petals, and wore a garland of pink roses with pink and ivory satin ribbons in her hair.

Trent Lindley of Clarendon served as ring bearer. He wore a black classic tuxedo with a black bow tie and cumberbund. He carried an ivory satin lace pillow and wore an ivory rose boutonniere.

The candles were lighted by Lindsay Leigh McKie and Meredith Kay McKie, both of Flemington, New Jersey and nieces of the groom. They wore dresses of pink floral polished cotton. The dresses featured a rounded neckline, puffed sleeves and layers of ruffles at the back of the skirt. Small fabric roses accented the sleeves and the back waist of the dress. A garland of pink roses with pink and ivory satin ribbons was worn by each.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The tables were covered with white finger-pleated taffeta, edged with white tulle and magenta bows. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with icing roses and topped with an arrangement of fresh flowers consisting of pink carnations, blue delphinimum, white daisies, monte casino, and baby's breath. A silver punch bowl, candelabras with white candles and a bouquet of white spider lilies and matching flowers decorated the table.

A chocolate cake with raspberry filling and fudge icing served as the groom's cake, topped with a wedding cross. A third table featured a fresh fruit cascade, cheese, and mini sandwiches.

Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Kim Lindley of Clarendon, Mrs. Dawn Coulter of Wheeler, Miss Shanna Cole of Arlington, Mrs. Connie Longan of Canyon and Miss Traci Burch of Amarillo.

On the eve of the wedding, the groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Bar H Ranch, with a four piece band playing dinner music. The outdoor tables were decorated with red baskets of daisies and carnations, accented with knotted red bandanna napkins. Tiny clear lights outlined the covered patio.

On the day of the wedding, a bridal luncheon was hosted by the bride and her mother in their home, assisted by Miss Rachel Bowling of Amarillo, Mrs. Jack Rolf of Irving and Mrs. Lana Rolf McDaniel of Dallas.

Clinic Scheduled

The Breast Cancer Screening Program of the Don and Sybill Harrington Cancer Center and High Plains Baptist Hospital of Amarillo will continue community outreach clinics for early detection of breast cancer..

Early detection of breast cancer is the major goal of cancer control for each woman seen in the clinic. The clinic provided low cost screening which includes a breast exam by a Registered Nurse trained in breast cancer detection, teaching of breast self examination, and a mammogram.

Currently, the most effective method known to win the battle against breast cancer is early detection. Early detection is best done by following the guidelines recommended by the American Caner Society for breast cancer screening for women who have no signs or symptoms of breast cancer.

A clinic will be held in Clarendon on Friday, July 31, 1992 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Clarendon Medical Center Clinic HWY 70 N. Exams are done by appointment only. For information about the clinic or to make an appointment, please call the Harrington Caner Center at our toll free number 1-800-377-HOPE(4673).

1992 Property Tax Rates in CED #25

This notice concerns 1992 property tax rates for County Education District #25. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:

Last year's operating taxes	$ 6,500,632
Last year's debt taxes	$ 0
Last year's total taxes	$ 6,500,632
Last year's tax base	$833,200,759
Last year's total tax rate	$ .7802	/$100

This year's effective tax rate:

Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 6,475,710
+ This year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting value of new property)	$779,861,039
= This year's effective tax rate	$ .83036	/$100
x 1.03 = maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearing	$ .85527	/$100

This year's rollback tax rate:

Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 6,475,710
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$779,861,039
= This year's effective operating rate	$ .83036	/$100
x 1.08 (or add $.08 for schools) = this year's maximum operating rate	$ .89678	/$100
+ This year's debt rate	$ .0	/$100
= This year's rollback rate	$ .89678	/$100

This notice contains a summary of actual effective and rollback tax rates' calculations. You can inspect a copy of the full calculations at the Donley County Appraisal District.

Local citizens, by innovative ideas like Trade Days, dude ranches, community theatres and similar measures, are helping Clarendon to buck the prevailing trend in the region. Imagination, new ideas, hard work, and smart marketing can help-- and is helping--the area. Economic growth will continue only if it is consciously, constantly and intelligently pursued.

Antique Tractor Show Set

When the Silverton Volunteer Fire Department sponsors its Antique Tractor Show in Silverton Saturday and Sunday, August 8-9, it is expected that those with old tractors and implements will attend from a large area.

This is an event of the Briscoe County Centennial.

Even though antique tractors of all makes are invited to take part in the show, the event will be an official playday of the Texas Plains Chapter of the Two Cylinder Club. Don Sarchet of Amarillo is president of the club.

Although it is not known for sure what will be brought to the Silverton Show, owners of antique vehicles, cars, trucks, etc. also are invited to show their "pride and joy".

A brisket lunch will be served at the concession stand at noon and a hamburger supper will be served at the Briscoe County Showbarn on Saturday night. Local Musicians are invited to entertain. The firemen will be operating their concession stand at the location of the show, which is Wood Memorial Arena, adjacent to the showbarn.

In addition to the antiques implement show, Silverton artisans will set up booths in the showbarn.

A swap meet will be held in conjunction with the tractor show. This for anyone who may have antique tractor parts, antiques tractors they don't wish to repair themselves, etc., and will be beneficial to those who are interested in repairing their old tractors. Memorabilia can be displayed and/or sold at the show.

The antiques will be paraded down the rodeo arena and through downtown Silverton during the weekend.

Admission to the show is free, and everyone is invited to come have a good time in Silverton August 8-9, the weekend before the official Briscoe County Centennial Birthday Celebration and Silverton School Homecoming.

Ranch Joins Association

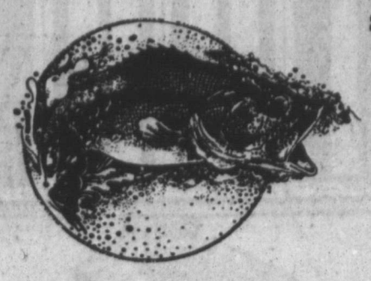

Gunboat Mountain Ranch, Clarendon Texas, is a new member of the American Angus Association, reports Dick Spader, executive vice president of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri.

The Association records ancestral information and keeps records of production on individual animals for its members. These permanent records help members select and mate the best animals in their herds to produce high quality, efficient breeding cattle which are then recorded with the American Angus Association. Most of these registered Angus are used by the U.S. farmers and ranchers who raise high quality beef for U.S. consumption.

1992 Property Tax Rates in Donley Co. Hospital Donley County

This notice concerns 1992 property tax rates for Hospital District. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:

Last year's operating taxes	$ 145,915
Last year's debt taxes	$ 48,276
Last year's total taxes	$ 194,191
Last year's tax base	$ 100,700,831

Juniper, shinnery oak, mesquite and plum trees abound on the Escarpment, and cottonwood trees line the small streams nearby. Pheasant, quail, dove, turkey and mule deer are also common in the area.

A unique feature of the trail near the Escarpment it a 1000-foot long abandoned tunnel, which is on the National Register of Historic Places as one of only a few such structures in Texas.

The trail also moves through the Valley of Tears, where Commanche Indians once traded white hostages, and across the mighty F Ranch, one of the first great ranches on the Texas plains.

The new Texas trail is second in length only to the 118-mile Lone Star Trail at Sam Houston National Forest in East Texas.

The rail-trail project was made possible under the 1983 federal railbanking law, which provides for the sale of abandoned rail corridors for public trails, with the understanding that the corridors may be repurchased for rail use later if need be.

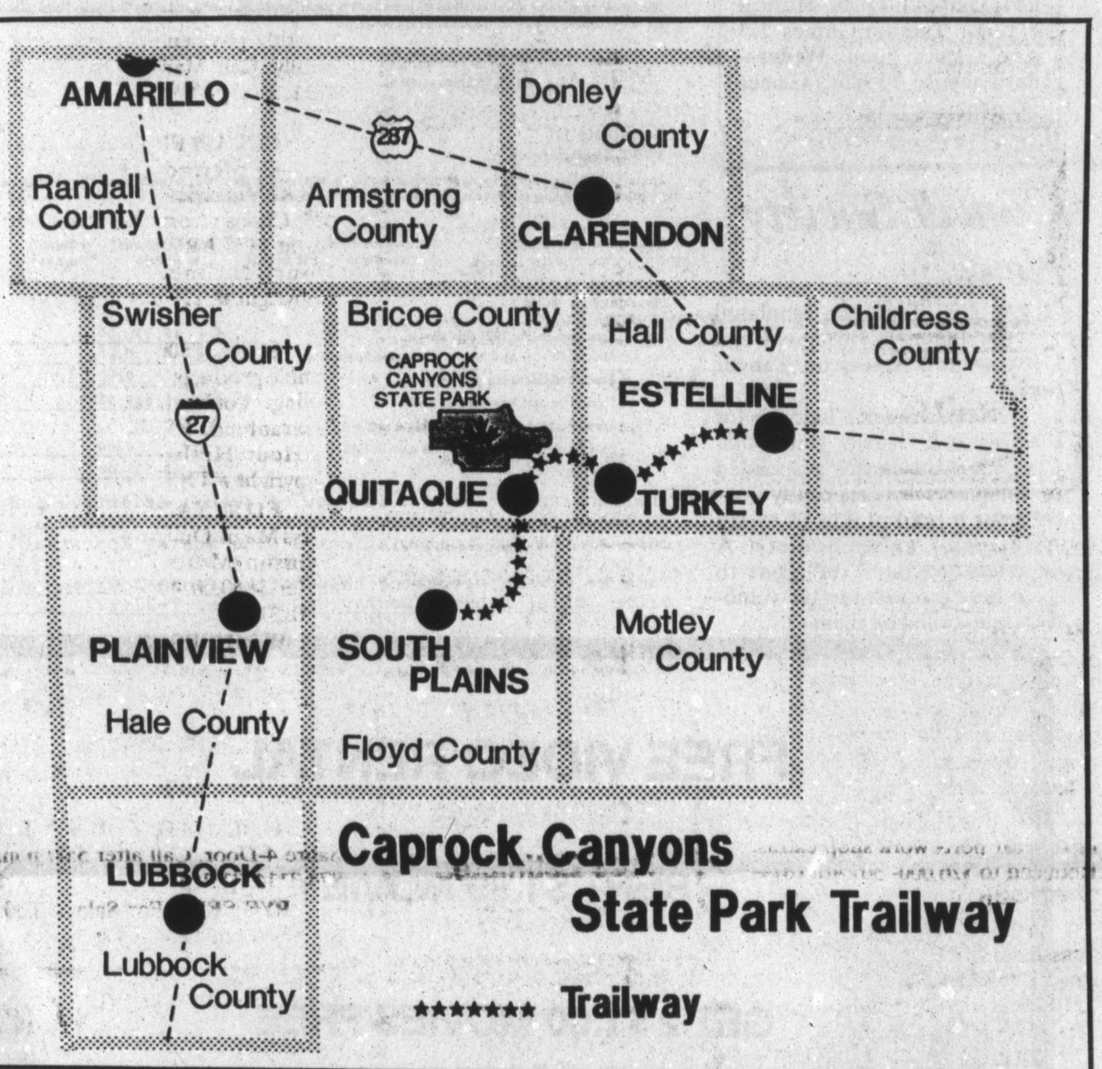

Volunteers from trail groups or others interested in helping develop the trail should contact Rusty Sargent at (806) 455-1492. For more information on the trail or the park, write to: Caprock Canyons State Park, P.O. Box 204, Quitaque, TX 79255.

A UNIQUE HISTORIC feature of the new Caprock Canyons State Park Trailway is a 1000-foot abandoned railroad tunnel. One of only a few such tunnels in Texas, it is listed in the National Register of Historic Places. Photo Courtesy: Texas Parks & Wildlife Dept.

A SECTION OF THE NEW Caprock Canyons State Park Trailway rounds a curve through steep bluffs on the Caprock Escarpment. The trail will be developed along about 65 miles of abandoned rail corridor. Photo Courtesy: Texas Parks & Wildlife Dept.

Stewardship Money Available

By Tim Trimble CEA-AG

Time is eroding for $530,000 in federal funds earmarked for improving natural resources on private forests in Texas.

Only about a dozen Texas landowner applications have been received since the program was announced in April, according to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service state office. That has the state forest service worried.

"We have to obligate the money by Oct. 1, but we aren't getting many sign-ups," said Ed Barron, Texas Forest Service resource development department head.

The Stewardship Incentive Program, authorized by Congress in the 1990 farm bill, provides for $19 million a year through 1995 to cost-share improvements on private, nonindustrial forests with wildlife habitat, soil and water protection, wetland preservation, reforestation and other practices.

The national goal is to place 25 million acres of private forest land under a 10-year stewardship program for environmental and economic improvement.

In Texas, more than 90 counties are approved for assistance in East and Central Texas, the Panhandle and the High Plains. Funding in Central Texas may help replace oak trees killed by oak wilt disease. The treeless northwestern part of the state is approved for windbreaks and natural snow fence plantings.

Landowners of 10 to 1,000 acres can sign up for cost-share assistance at county ASCS offices. That agency then notifies the forest service which assists the landowner in developing a stewardship plan and installing the necessary land improvements.

"We are trying to reach the non-traditional landowners who may not be interested in timber management from the forest standpoint but in multi-uses--bringing in the wildlife and recreational aspects, for example," said Tom Boggus, staff forester with the stewardship program.

Boggus believes the program's few takers doesn't indicate a lack of need. He said Texas got a slow start pushing the program in part because res e to winter and spring floo took priority at ASCS offices.

"Having to handle the flood disaster certainly didn't help," said Darrel Davis, chief of the Texas ASCS conservation division. "But the biggest problem is people aren't familiar with the program."

Davis said a similar project, the Forestry Incentive Program which assists with tree planting, also started slow when it began in the mid-1970s.

"The first year or two of that program we had more money than we could spend. Now we can't get enough," Davis said.

Boggus said many landowners may not have received the stewardship information because they do not farm so are not on ASCS mailing lists.

Insect Report

By Tim Trimble CEA-AG

Many cotton fields have received extensive fleahopper damage the past several weeks and fleahoppers are still present in most fields. Limited sprayings have occurred for fleahoppers. Boll weevils and bollworms are showing up in some fields, but damage has been very light to this point.

With recent rains cotton producers may want to look at the use of a plant growth regulator such as Pix. Much of the cotton in the county is growing extremely fast and is in some what of a vegetative mode. Cotton should not be treated if in a moisture stress situation.

Peanuts appear to be doing fairly well with no major insect or disease problems. The annual Donley and Collingsworth Peanut Tour is set for August 14.

Corn and sorghum also appear to be doing well with no major insect problems.
