RULES FOR MAILING YULE GIFTS OVERSEAS, SEPT. 15 TO OCT. 15 . . .

Millions of Christmas gifts will go overseas again this year to our armed forces. It will be especially difficult to deliver these gifts safely and on time, the Army and Navy point out, unless families of service men and women co-operate in starting them off right. The following rules are therefore suggested for mailing Christmas packages abroad:

1. If your soldier is enroute home or about to come home, do not send him a Christmas package.
2. Use his latest address and be sure it's complete and accurate; name, rank, serial number, organization and unit, APO, in care of Postmaster at port of embarkation. Address it—and then check it.
3. Mail Christmas gifts overseas from Sept. 15 to Oct. 15. In the Army, this is the only time you can mail a parcel overseas without a written request from your soldier. But . . .
4. If ther's reason to believe he may move to a new location, it's safer to wait 'til you can mail your gift to the new address, even if this means asknig him for a letter requesting your gift so that you can mail it after October 15.
5. Use a heavy box and strong cord. (Government-approved overseas boxes can be bought at retail stores.)
6. Send only useable gifts like tinned fruit, canned luxury foods, razor blades, fountain pens, wallets, watches, etc.
7. Don't mail perishable foods, intoxicants, weapons, poisons, and all inflamable materials, including matches and lighter fluid.
8. Your package must not weigh over 5 lbs. It must not be any more than 15 inches in length nor 36 inches in length and girth combined.

Navy gifts should be sent during the same period—from Sept. 15 to Oct. 15. However, gifts destined for Navy, Marine or Coast Guard personnel may be sent throughout the year without a written request.

Mail Christmas cards any time, but seal them and put on first class postage.

"ME WORRY ABOUT FOOD PROBLEMS . . . NO! — NEVER!" — SAY MANY WOMEN
During the war when I bothered about points, I just let McAlister's do the worrying for me. I traded regularly at McAlister's and as a result, my family was well provided with the best foods, at the least money.
Now that peace has returned and rationing is being lifted—and will soon pass out—there is all the more reason to trade at one good place all the time, and leave it up to the trained saff of food handlers.
I know that all I have to do is give my family needs to McAlister's and prompt service will be given."

CHURCH RITES UNITE COUPLE IN MARRIAGE

(From the Bend Bulletin, Bend, Ore.)

La Verna Ballard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer W. Mayrand of Bend, and Major Fred E. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Thompson, Abernathy, were united in marriage Thursday, Aug. 16, at 7:30 p. m., in the St. Francis rectory. Father Edmund Hyladn read the double-ring eremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Major Thomas Rebur of Portland acted as best man.

Mrs. Thompson wore a two-piece dress of blue crepe and lace with brown accessories and carried her white prayer book with an orchid. Margaret Dougherty, maid of honor, chose a grey crepe dress with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of gladioli blossoms and roses. The bride's mother wore a blue two-piece ensemble with a corsage of gladioli and roses.

Some 30 relatives and close friends attended a reception-dinner afterwards at the Pine Tavern. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ballard of Burns. Before the reception-dinner, the wedding party was entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Woerner.

Mrs. Thompson was employed at a Bend lumber company. She was secretary to the Bend chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Major Thompson was a student at Texas Tech before entering service. He spent nearly three years in the South Pacific with the army air force. After a two weeks honeymoon, Major and Mrs. Thompson will be at home in Santa Maria, Calif., where he is stationed.
