First Frost of Season Sunday

First frost of the fall season arrived in the Perryton area Sunday night and early Monday morning when the thermometer dipped to 26 degrees. The frost came on the heels of a cold front which moved in Sunday morning, dropping the temperature from a balmy 78 to an even 50 in about an hour. Along with the cold came some dust, but nothing serious. In former years, farmers depended upon the first frost to signal the harvesting of gain sorghum, but most present varieties mature without the frost and the milo harvest has been in progress for several weeks.

Scout Drive Is Going Well

"Operation Greenback", the annual Boy Scout fund drive, opened with a kickoff breakfast Tuesday morning at the Hotel Coffee Shop and general solicitations chairman J. B. Whigham said response seems excellent thus far.

Team captains for the drive are Dean McCutcheon, Gordon Shackelford, Gilbert Mize, Max McLarty, Walter LaMaster and Troy Sullivan.

Sidney Jines, general chairman for the Boy Scout drive, said that advance gifts committee, headed by Bruce Baumann, had brought in approximately $1,700, which is slightly more than last year.

The local drive is expected to total $3,500 when the general solicitations campaign is finished.

Lions Club Gives $1875 In Year To Community

The Perryton Lions Club contributed a total of $1,875.50 to various community activities during the past year, as revealed in a report to the executive committee by secretary A. P. Spicer.

President W. H. Lance had requested the report in order to let the public know what the Lions did with the money they made on various projects during the year.

The Lions Club is sponsoring "Quartets In Review" at the school auditorium on Nov. 17, featuring the international champion Four Hearsemen of Amarillo.

Biggest expenditure of the year was $700 which the club gave toward the expenses of Cecil Regier, Ochiltree county farm boy who is now in Iran under the International Foreign Youth Exchange program. Money for this was made from the "Rastus

"Operation Randy"

Halloween' Trick or Treat' To Be Different This Year

Perryton high school students are planning a different kind of "trick or treat" Halloween this year.

They will prefer cash instead of treats, but all contributions will go for a 5-year-old spastic victim, Randy Bevans.

This project, sponsored by the Perryton high school student council, will be to collect funds with which to send Randy to the Institute of Logopedics in Wichita, Kansas, where it is hoped treatments will enable him to talk.

The lad is able to walk, and although he has trouble in his muscular coordination, is able to do things for himself fairly well. Special treatment is needed before he is able to talk, however, and his mother hopes this can be accomplished at the speech clinic.

The student council, consisting of three representatives from the senior class, and two each from th junior, sophomore and freshmen classes, voted to make this Halloween a different type and to try and raise money for Randy. Jimmy Todd is president of the council.

Present plans are for all high school students to canvass the town immediately after the Teen Town Variety Show, which will be over at about 9 p. m. Monday night. The town will be divided into blocks and various groups will work each block. Each group of "trick or treaters" will carry with them a placard or similar identification.

Headquarters for "Operation Randy" will be the Teen Town building. A masquerade party will be staged at Teen Town following th canvass for funds.

Randys' mother, Mrs. Nettie Bevans who lives at 118 N. Eton with Randy, has no steady employment, but does washing and ironing. She has secured an appointment at the Wichita speech clinic for November 15, and said she didn't know how she would get her son there, but plans to manage some way.

Randy was not able to sit up until he was two years old, and

Warren Petroleum Co. Bowles Well Comes In As 1,000 Barrel Oiler from Upper Morrow Sand

Second big oil strike of recent weeks in the Perryton area blew in early Wednesday morning when the Warren Petroleum Corp. No. 1 Bowles, located 15 miles northwest of Perryton, came in as a big oil well. The new well is on land owned by Ray Bowles, prominent Beaver county farmer.

The pay zone is in the upper Morrow, 7255-81 feet, where oil flowed at the rate of 75 barrels an hour. With the tool open an hour, gas came to the surface in 25 minutes and 53000 feet of free oil was recovered, along with 200 feet of heavy oil cut mud.

Bottom hole pressure was 1,725 pounds and final flow pressure was 1,305 pounds.

Bob McGhee, company geologist, said the well is definitely an oiler, with very little gas. "This should certainly change the complexion of drilling operations in this area," he remarked.

Marion Dale, Warren drilling superintendent, said he didn't know what would be developed. They were drilling for a gas well and the heavy oil production came as somewhat of a surprise, he said.

"This could be classed as a 1,000 barrel a day well," Dale said.

The well is located in 22-1N-2ecm, about four miles west and two miles south of Gray or nine miles north and five miles west of Perryton. It is in Beaver county, about two miles north of the state line.

This well ranks with the Woodson discovery well near Perryton in size and has aroused new excitement in oil circles.

Adding impetus to the oil excitement this week was the news that the Magnolia Petroleum No. 1 George Mounts, five north of Perryton, is being completed as a gasser from the Morrow formation.

No advance sale of tickets will be made, but local fans attending the game are requested to ask for these Perryton reserved seat tickets at the Phillips ticket window. Another feature of this game will come before the game, when the Ranger Band will be supper guests of the crack Phillips Blackhawks band at the school cafeteria. This supper is to be at 6 p. m.

Ranger B Team Meets Phillips

The Rangers have beaten Canadian, Borger and White Deer, while losing to Follett, Borger and Dalhart.

The Phillips B team, one of the two B teams operated by Phillips has trounced Hereford and Dalhart B teams thus far this year.

The afternoon was spent in demonstrating techniques in preparing and serving food for large numbers of people. Mrs. Martha Buttrill, district superintendent of the School Lunchroom Program, Lubbock, had charge of this part of the program.

School lunchroom representatives were present from Spearman, Gruver, Morse, Canadian, Booker, Darrouzett, Follett, Skellytown, and Stinnett, as well as Perryton.

The home of Mrs. F. C. Spencer and Grace Spencer, 821 S. Grinnell, was declared the 1955 winner of the Most Beautiful Yard contst sponsored by the Perryton Garden Club and the Chamber of Commerce.

The grand prize for the season is six rose plants.

The Spencer home won first place in the August judging and then accumulated the most points in the other judging periods of the year to win the grand prize.

This contest is in its third year. The homes of J. H. Neufeld and A. P. McCelvey won the grand prize the first year and Mrs. O. O. Cox won it last year.

In the October judging, the committees declared the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hergert, 821 S. Harvard as first place winner. Second went to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Baumann, 1401 S. Drake and third went to Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Lee, 1402 S. Fordham.

The committees pointed out that many yards had evergreens which need trimming and there are a lot of dead trees whose removal would add to the beauty of the city as much as anything.

There were more outstanding petunia beds this time than in August and there were many outstanding roses and fall flowers.

Adults Blamed For Juvenile Trouble Today

"Discipline is an old fashioned word that needs some modern recognition," Rev. Walter E. Hoskin, Vicar of St. Peter's Episcopal church, Borger, told a big Parent-Teacher Association audience on Monday night at the school auditorium.

The visiting churchman said that "discipline is the basic and fundamental way for any Democracy to survive; that it is vitally necessary to understanding and that many nations have lost themselves because discipline was lost."

The Vicar defined discipline as "the way or means for individuals to subornate their goals to the best needs of a group." He pointed out that discipline was achieved thru: fear or outside force or achieved thru love.

More than 500 PTA guests heard Rev. Hoskin explain that discipline became a part of character and that character was that innermost reserve that individuals called on when needed.

"We give our children luxuries, yet we fail to give them the understanding of character building that money cannot buy," the visitor explained.

"I blame adults for all juvenile trouble today. We give them cars that will go 90 miles per hour and turn questionable entertainment to them without batting an eye; yet we don't take the time to stress and help build character," he shouted.

"Parents that have juvenile problems haven't given their children anything except merchandise and gadgets, and it's high time that care, concern and love, the three fundamentals of character, were issued on the same plater with all the other," Rev. Hoskin declared.

"Yes, we are the nation," the Vicar exclaimed, "that spends billions for battleships and pennies for souls. It takes trial, effort and patience to teach discipline and when this great word is taught to its fullest meaning, you will have given your youngsters something real to live on," he concluded.

The fourth grade chorus, directed by Mrs. Vera Keller, elementary music instructor, furnished an interesting part of the program. Fourth graders were from rooms of Mrs. Spencer Whippo, Mrs. H. E. Smith and Mrs. Raymond Bowen.

Parents of Mrs. Spencer Whippo's room won the PTA room count with 50 persons registering.

Besides the more than 500 in the auditorium, another 60 children were entertained in the nursery.

Glen Lemon Gets All-American On A & M Yearbook

The Redskin, Oklahoma A&M College's student yearbook, has been rated "All American," the nation's highest professional honor rating and Glen Lemon of Booker, editor of the yearbook, has received considerable praise from this achievement.

Lemon was editor-in-chief of the yearbook which was entered in the group of yearbooks from colleges and universities with enrollment of 7,000 and up. Only one other college yearbook was rated All-American.

This rating went to only 10 college yearbooks in the United States.

Lemon is majoring in business journalism and is now doing graduate work at A&M.

Mrs. Chisum Is Smith Winner

Mrs. Gloria Chisum, 1517 S. Amherst, won the big prize at Smith's Service Station grand opening Saturday. The prize was a set of Goodyear nylon tires.

More than 1,450 guests registered during opening day, Harley Smith, owner, reported. Favors were given to all who attended the event.

Dick Dixon, district sales representative of Sinclair Oil Co., said that the crowd was one of the largest to attend an opening day celebration in this district.

Golfer Faces Legal Hazards

Most golfers are only too familiar with sand and water hazards. However, the game involves some legal hazards as well. These won't add strokes to your score, but can be far more costly.

The courts have held that a golfer has a legal obligation to exercise ordinary care to prevent injury to others. Before hitting, it is a player's duty to give a "timely warning" to persons he knows are in line, or close to the line, of intended flight of the ball. Therefore, a healthy yell of "fore" is of far more importance than most golfers realize.

The courts have recognized that the average golfer cannot control the direction or destination of his ball. They have therefore held that a golfer assumes the risk that he might be hit by a ball which is sliced or hooked into the fairway on which he is playing. A golfer injured by such a hit could not recover for his injuries.

Courts have also held that if it is impossible to anticipate that a fellow golfer might be injured by a shot, there is no liability. A situation such as this might arise when a ball is hit at right angles to the intended line of flight as would happen if the ball were hit off either the toe or shank of the club.

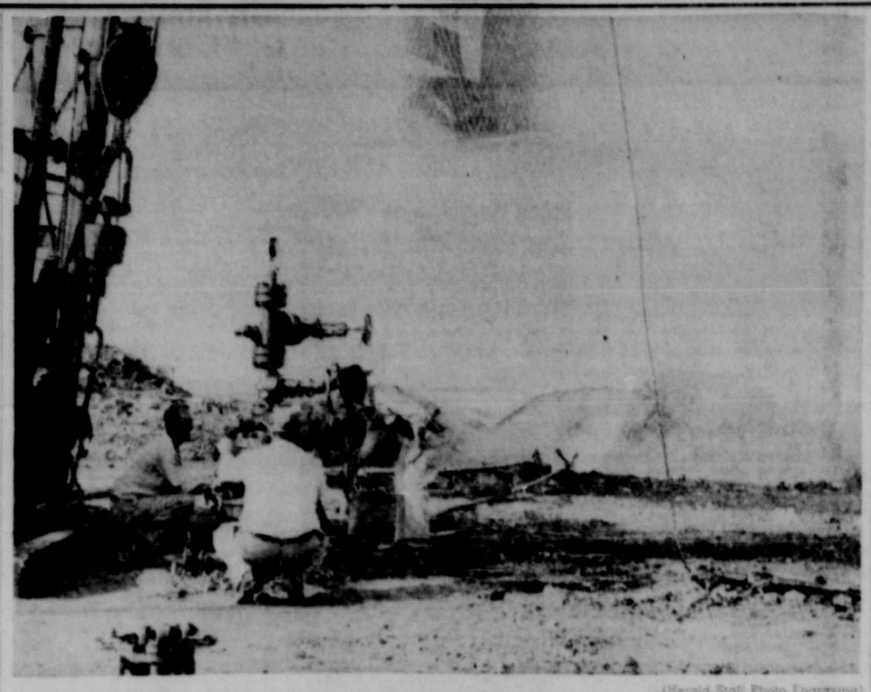

A person standing at right angles to the person hitting is in a position of relative safety, and it is not possible for the hitter to anticipate his ball will take such a line of flight.

Generally, to avoid the legal hazards of golf for injury to others, study the rules and customs of the United States Golfers Association. Above all be courteous on the course. Give the players in front of you a fighting chance to get out of the range of the ball. Wait until other players are completely out of line or have left the green which is your objective, before you hit. If there is anyone in line of your shot always yell "fore" before you hit.

Insurance is available from many companies at a relatively low cost to protect you from liability and provide anyone you might injure with the necessary funds to secure proper medical treatment.

Legal hazards are the costly ones, and common sense and a study of the USGA rules and customs will help you avoid them.

CADILLAC for 1956

Top to bottom—Eldorado Seville, Sedan de Ville, Sixty Special

Presenting the Most Inspiring Motor Cars the World Has Ever Seen!

You are looking at three of the most magnificent and inspiring creations ever to issue from the drawing boards of Cadillac's designers and engineers.

These spectacular new Cadillacs—in company with the other Cadillac models for 1956—introduce a standard of automotive excellence that will find no counterpart on the highways of the world.

Where, for instance, could you find anything to match them for beauty and elegance? Their long, low, sweeping lines . . . their jewel-like grille and rear-fender designs . . . their brilliant new color combinations . . . their sparkling highlights of chrome and gold . . . all combine to create a beauty that is truly unique.

Where could you find anything to equal them in luxury? Inside are fabrics of rare richness and pattern . . . and features of comfort and convenience that will delight even the most experienced Cadillac owner.

And where could you find anything to rival them in performance? There's a completely redesigned Cadillac engine developing 285 and 305 horsepower . . . a new, controlled-coupling Hydra-Matic Drive . . . and advanced Cadillac Power Steering and Power Braking.

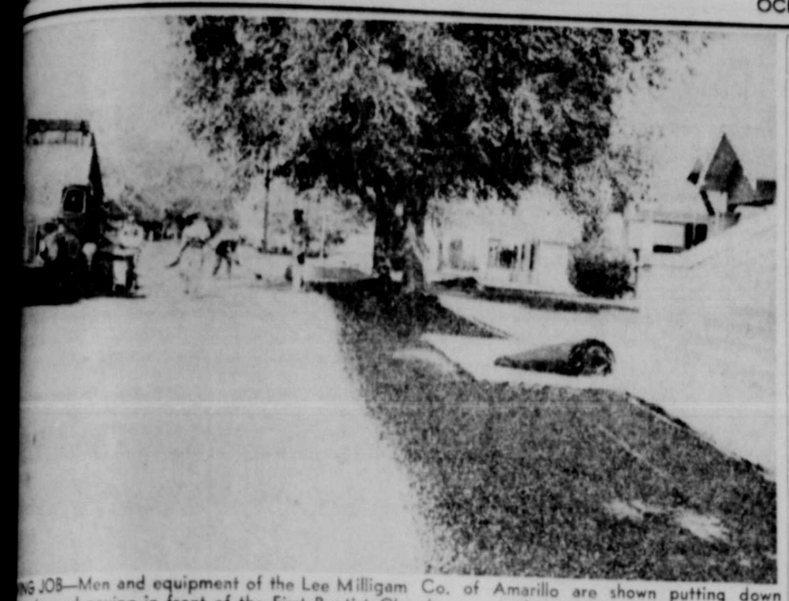

This extraordinary new Cadillac beauty . . . and this brilliant new Cadillac luxury . . . and this dynamic new Cadillac performance . . . have been interpreted in four separate series and in nine individual body styles.

We sincerely urge you to stop in for a personal inspection and demonstration at your earliest convenience.

We know you will agree that, in every way, they are the most inspiring motor cars the world has ever seen!

Dual Death

DANVILLE, Va. (AP)—The coroner's report said only that Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Scarce died enroute to a hospital after an automobile accident.

Which died first became an important question. They left no children. The estate would go to the nearrest relatives of the last to die. A jury pondered and decided they died at the same time.

More California Fruit

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Production of deciduous fruits—apples, apricots, cherries, grapes, freestone peaches, pears and plums—increased 27 per cent in California in the 1949-1953 period compared with 1934-1938. National production meanwhile increased less than 7 per cent. In the postwar period California has accounted for close to 50 per cent of the nation's total commercial tonnage of these fruits.

Color Confusion

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Those bright new colors on 1955 automobiles are pretty, but at least one Philadelphia woman thinks they're also confusing.

She wanted a taxicab, hailed a brightly-painted car at an intersection and began tugging at the rear door handle.

"Please, lady," said the driver. "This is my car, my own private car. It's not a cab."

Boom-Boom Days Here, Expert Says

That Dallas woman who fired her gardner for showing up for work in a car bigger and newer than hers just didn't know these are the boom-boom days.

The boom days, our elders tell us, were in predepression 1929 when bricklayers bought $10 silk shirts to work in.

If those were the boom days, what's happening now deserves at least a boom-boom. We speak of:

Delton Pomone, taxi driver of 1080 Pela St., Houston. For years he threw all the dimes and quarters he got as tips into a brass vase doorstop which he emptied each Dec. 1 to buy Christmas presents for his children. This year the vase spilled over Sept. 27 and quarters outnumbered dimes for the first time.

R. N. O. Wordsworth, business man of 200 Uxley St., San Angelo. After 10 good years as a farmer implement dealer he opened a sideline of selling foreign sports cars. He's making more money now selling sports cars—to farmers—than he ever did selling farm machines.

Charles V. Liebriecher, stock salesman of 2221 W. 42nd St., San Antonio. Two-thirds of his new business this year has been with carpenters and plasterers. "I have one carpenter who invests $120 a week in blue-chip stocks," says Liebriecher, "and a plasterer who has built his holdings up to $72,000."

Ramery Jones, door to door salesman of 97 Penelope St., Tyler. "The secret of selling now is to spend all your time in what looks like the slums," says Jones. "The people there aren't used to salesman, they're flattered to have you call. And they have money, lots of money." Jones reported $183 net profit one week, a six-month average of $171.50 a week.

Ludwig Holsum, union painter of 1914 E. Sand St., Lubbock. Discovered by the local newspaper painting a house during a rainstorm, protecting himself with an umbrella, on a Sunday which was also a union holiday, he explained:

"Sunday mean's it's overtime pay, and being a holiday, I get double overtime. I told the contractor the rain's washing this paint off as fast as I put it on, but he said 'stay on the job.' If he wants to pay me $19.80 an hour, it's no skin off my nose."

It's time now to admit this is all made up—all lies.

But times are good and the best proof the stories aren't fantastic are that they are believable.

You believed them, didn't you, until we got to the painter with his umbrella?

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN, Tex. — Speculation is running high that both Gov. Allan Shivers and U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson will have leading roles in the selection of the next Democratic presidential nominee.

Both have denied participation in any movement for a Southern coalition to block re-nomination of Adlai Stevenson.

Johnson denies that he is heading up a coalition. Nomination is up to the delegates, he said, and he will support whoever wins out. And, he is not a "conservative," the senator stressed but a "moderate."

Johnson, before his heart attack last summer, was considered a likely future contender for presidential nomination. Some believe, should he regain his health sufficiently, he again will enter the picture.

Gov. Shivers, at the conclusion of the Southern Governors Conference, took a slightly different approach. He said he will vote for the presidential candidate "I think is best for the future of my country, and I hope the Democrats can produce that man." He also said he knew nothing of a drive for Southern control.

DAC vs DSE

Texas has two Democratic organization drives, highly competitive, under way. Selection of Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey as a harmony-unity choice for Democratic State Committeeman so far has not reduced the competition.

Leaders of the Texas Democratic Advisory Council, set up by Speaker Sam Rayburn, say they plan to carry on organizational and money-raising efforts. This liberal group, organized to "carry on the functions of national committeeman" during the years Wright Morrow was barred from the seat, has raised money the past four years for the national party. It now is busy organizing for control of presidential conventions next year.

On the other side of the picture is the Democratic State Executive Committee, conservative pro-Shivers organization. DSE also is carrying on organizational and money-raising efforts and has no intention of stopping, according to State Chairman George W. Sandlin.

A DAC meeting is scheduled for Nov. 4, to select a leader to replace Navarro County Judge Jim Sewell.

Outside observers have suggested a connection between the resignation of Sewell from the liberal group and the ousting by conservatives of Wright Morrow. It is part of an over-all effort, they hint, to rid both groups of extreme lifet and right-wingers and merge Democratic party factions for a strong voice in national affairs.

Third Shot Necessary

Officials of the State Health Department have declared that three Salk polio shots are necessary for maximum protection against crippling effects of polio.

Children who have had two shots should have the third "booster shot" early in the Spring of 1956, the Department urged.

In answer to a series of questions, the Health Department explained that it is not known at present exactly how long protection from three Salk shots will last.

University Sets Strict Tests For Admission

AUSTIN, Tex.—All Texas high schools will receive complete information as soon as possible concerning new University of Texas aptitude tests for freshmen and transfers from other colleges.

An acceptable score in the test will be required as a condition of admission, beginning next September. The move was dictated by rapidly increasing enrollment and the necessity for eliminating waste in admitting students who will be unsuccessful in college, officials explained. The new tests supplement present admission requirements.

The tests will be administered without cost to the applicant in numerous centers throughout the state. They will measure general abilities common to many subjects, rather than abilities in separate subjects. They are neither entrance examinations nor intelligence quotient tests.

Officials said the tests probably will be given in the winter, spring and summer preceding the opening of the 1956 Fall Semester. They are designed to provide a better basis for judging the probability that applicants will be successful in their work if admitted to the University. The probability of success, in turn will be a determining factor in admitting or rejecting applicants.

The cutting point between admission and rejection will vary with the number and qualifications of applicants and with the number to be admitted at any

Plenty Food At Thanksgiving

COLLEGE STATION—The November plentiful foods list is heavy with Thanksgiving favorites. So much so, it is described as a shopping list for the traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

Heading the list of favorites for the holiday season is turkeys. Then, says Mae Belle Smith, extension specialist in consumer education, there is an abundant supply of rice for stuffing the turkey and plenty of cranberries, raisins, grapes and potatoes.

Other favorite foods include beef, broilers and fryers, milk and other dairy products and canned tuna. But taking the featured spot for the month are pork and winter pears.

Stocks of lard and vegetable fats continue to increase as hog marketings climb and new crops of soybeans and cottonseed move to market.

All in all, Miss Smith says, there should be no shortage of the long-time food favorites of the holiday season and shopping should be made easier.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Allen returned home last Wednesday from a two weeks visit with friends and relatives in Rogers and Bentonville, Ark. and Lubbock. In Lubbock they were guests of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Allen, Cinday and Lex. Mr. Allen attended a Tax Conference in Lubbock Oct. 17-19.

Garden Visits Amarillo

Note: The junior garden club of Perryton made a trip to Amarillo recently to visit the zoo and see the sights. Report of their trip was given by Sandy Griffith, a member of the club.)

The group left Perryton early Saturday morning to visit Amarillo. The group consisted of 25 girls, their leaders, Mrs. Dan Hall and Mrs. G. R. LaMaster, two women from the Perryton Garden Club who sponsor us as a group of our mothers. One mother, Mrs. C. W. King, was unable to go with us.

We arrived in Amarillo around 10:30 and our first stop was at Birch's Nursery. Mr. Birch showed us the different kinds of trees and shrubs. To name a few: jaspers, Chinese elms, American elms, globe poplars, and many others. Mr. Birch showed us how he grafted trees. He showed us the results of insect stings on the arbor shrubs and the damage that borers do to poplar trees.

After we had visited Birch's nursery, we went out to Wolflin Park at noon and enjoyed our delicious picnic lunch which we had brought from home.

Our next stop that afternoon was Johnson's Aquarium. Mr. Johnson showed us some rare and beautiful tropical fish, some of which cost $150 each.

We saw some of the prettiest and funniest looking fish I have ever seen before. He had some with black stripes, some pure black, and some that were blue and red.

After we had visited Johnson's Aquarium, our next stop was Town and Country Bird and Pet Shop. They had many different kinds of birds and animals from foreign countries. To name a few: parakeets, love birds, Siamese cats, peacocks, parrots and white cocatoos.

Then we went on to Beechthold Garden Shop which to me was the highlight of our trip. They had some of the most beautiful flowers and plants that I have ever seen. There was one special greenhouse for the rare tropical plants and flowers where the temperature was kept at a certain degree.

Our last stop was Rose Garden and Amarillo Garden Center. It was a beautiful place. They had a big building and in their garden they had little squares in which they had many different kinds of flowers, trees and shrubs. After we had signed our name on the guest register, we went to the Wolflin Village drug store.

We started home at 4:30 and arrived at about 7 p. m., a tired but happy bunch.

We want to thank the mothers who furnished the cars in order for us to make the trip. They were Mrs. Redfern, Mrs. Bolerjack, Mrs. Boxwell, Mrs. Headlee, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. LaMaster.

An Ever Changing Market

Perryton has some merchants who have the idea, "I don't really need to advertise. Everyone in town knows we are here."

Even if this is true, it does not follow that very many in town, let alone everyone, knows what particular values, quality and services his or any other store is offering at any particular time—without being told through the medium of advertising.

And even this basic idea is wrong—in Perryton for example, the complexion of the community is constantly changing—new people are coming in and young people are growing up and establishing families.

Some astonishing figures on this latter point were given recently by Edgar S. Bayol, press counsel for the Coca Cola company, in a talk before the Virginia Press Association.

He said, "You can never rest on your laurels. The impression you make on this generation will not extend over the next. You must continue to make the impression—every day.

"In the United States, during the past ten years, 14 million 600 thousand newspaper readers, subscribers and advertisers have died.

"Thirty-nine million future readers, subscribers and advertisers have been born.

"More than one third of all present American families have been formed.

"And just ponder these facts about forgetting: Of the 165 million people in America today, 65 per cent do NOT remember World War I; 42 per cent don't even remember the great depression.

"Yes, my friends, the parade is passing mighty fast. Don't let it pass your door without a favorable impression."

How To Live Longer

Longevity is something everyone is interested in, and everyone is interested in finding out the best ways to prolong his life. We were interested in a statement by famed Dr. Karl Menninger of Kansas, who said, "In the end each man kills himself in his own selected way, fast or slow, soon or late."

1. Quit worrying about your health.
2. Have fun.
3. Enjoy work, but don't live solely for it.
4. Conquer your work jitters.
5. Keep life simple and be satisfied with what you have.
6. Make the most out of the present.
7. Don't blow your top too often.

Women, Lay Off!

A famous designer of woman's clothes is about to undertake the design of a few items of men's apparel such as ties, bathrobes, socks. This appalling news has been received calmly, even complacently, in the nation's press.

This shows to what extent men have let matters such as the atomic bomb, a possible invasion from Mars and the current football season distract them from really important affairs.

Perhaps it was the subtle announcement that left men napping. "Just a few things like socks, ties, etc.," men say, and go back to the sports news.

But let this sort of thing pass unnoticed and we can foresee this scene a few years hence:

Jones has called Wilson—about the golf tournament, the ball game, the price of cars? No.

Mr. Jones: "Well, Jack, theey say Schaparelli's insisting on the three-quarter, flaring sleeve for men's business suits this season."

Mr. Wilson: "Yeah, and don't you love the tucked effect on Dior's dinner ensembles. My wife is so envious of mine I may have to let her wear it next time we go out."

No, it hasn't happened here yet. But it could. Now is the time, when it's only socks and bathrobes—to stand up and fight like an undesigned man.

From the SIDELINE

with HAROLD HUDSON

No, that was not this department you heard hollering from the press box at the Dalhart-Perryton game Friday night. The gentleman who split our eardrums with shrieks of joy when the Wolves pulled a good play was Don Houk, a member of the Dalhart Texan staff. And those dirty looks from the spectators parked immediately in front of the press box did not suppress the exuberance of booster Houk one whit.

The Rangers got slipped up on in the Dalhart game—expecting an easy foe, they found a tough one. A similar situation arose in 1948, you may remember. The Rangers went into the Dalhart game with a 7-1 record and were looking to the Phillips game a week later. Having scrimmaged Dalhart in pre-season camp, they took the game lightly and were stunned by a freshman named Bill Cessnum who ran for four touchdowns in beating Perryton 26-13.

This was the third tie game of the season, and this sets a record in Perryton football. Never before have the Rangers had three tie games in a single season. In fact, there have been only three seasons since 1925 when there were two tie games on the record. These were in 1926, 1934 and 1952. Coach Pete Peterson is the "tyingest" coach in Ranger history. Since he came here in 1951, his teams have tied seven games. From 1925 through 1950, there were only 11 tie games played by the Rangers.

At that, we're satisfied with a tie if we can't get a win. We'd sure rather have a tie than a loss.

One parent chided us for drumming up business for the dentists after reading the story a week ago about the PTA health clinic which revealed that half of the elementary school children have dental defects. His was a rather farfetching reasoning, based on the statement that it was apparent that dental cavities were not being filled and that children showed up for inspection this year carrying the same decayed teeth they had a year earlier.

And what is wrong with repairing teeth? And what is to be gained by letting the teeth go until they have to be pulled? We must face facts—everyone must have teeth, either the natural or the false variety. We prefer the natural type and our toothless friends tell us it is easier to keep the natural ones than to have false ones put in. Also cheaper. Therefore we recommend fixing the children's teeth. If you're too tight to see a dentist, fix them yourselves.

It may be true that man does not live by bread alone—but look at the guys getting along on crust.

Homer Steen down at the Floydada Hesperian wants to know if blue northers are a thing of the past. The old time kind that whirled down from the north and froze everything stiff on a two-hour notice, that's the kind he's talking about. Old timers are not daydreaming when they tell of such, as the record books are full of them, but not in recent years. Has there been a change in the southwestern climatic conditions, or is it that we are a weather cycle longer than the memory of man. Whatever it is, the weather in recent decades is different from that of the seventies to the nineties of the past century.

There's a reason why you can't take it with you. It goes before you do.

Las Vegas' new $3,000,000 Moulin Rouge, the city's first and only interracial hotel, built by a group of wealthy Negroes from the entertainment world, has been shut down by debtors after only five months operation. Other gambling joints are doing well, although a general slump is reported in the gambling capital of the U. S. The demise of the interracial Moulin Rouge may indicate that racial segregation is, after all, a matter of social preference and not necessarily a matter of segregation laws.

We visited Smith Service Station's grand opening Saturday and got some balloons and yo-yos for sons Jimmy and Johnny, then picked up more balloons at Holdeman Motor Co. Friday when we saw the new De Soto, then got an Indian headdress and more balloons at Redfern Pontiac-Cadillac when they showed their new Pontiac and Cadillac. All this has spoiled the boys. Now they want us to have some kind of present every time we come home. We have explained to them that when we have a chance to get a free souvenir, we will certainly do so, but they can't count on us bringing home stuff that costs cold cash.

The PHS Student Council is sponsoring a project which could be one of the outstanding Halloween projects in the state this year. On Monday night, Oct. 31, students of Perryton high school will call at every house in town on a "trick or treat" mission, except they will ask for contributions to a very worthy cause. This is Randy Deven Day, and the money collected will be used to send 5-year-old Randy to the speech clinic in Wichita, Kansas, where he will be taught to talk.

Randy, born a spastic victim, needs some help. He can walk, but his muscular coordination is poor and his speech needs training.

The students eagerly seized upon this idea when it was presented to them, and they want to make the project a success. This success, of course, depends upon how much money they can collect for Randy. We think people will be generous, if they understand the reason.

There is a story about Randy in this issue. You might keep it in mind Monday night.

Wolf Creek Philosopher

Some Folks Can Sleep On Farm

(Ed. note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher sure ought to know his subject this week, since he's talking about sleep.)

Dear editar:

A copy of Time magazine turned up out here on this farm the other day, I don't know how it got here unless the mail carrier got mixed up and put it in my box instead of my intellectual neighbor's box down the road, although understand taking the magazine is no proof that you're an intellectual or it is either, but I was glad to get my hands on it and was especially interested in an article on the champion boy farmer in the U. S.

This boy is really an outstanding farmer and a hard worker, but one part of the article about him disturbed me.

According to it, this boy gets only about four or five hours o sleep a night, staggering up out of bed at 4:30 a. m. and work ng until anywhere from 10 p. m. to midnight before he falls asleep in the middle of a letter to his girl.

This is vicious propaganda. Out of years of experimenting, I wish to state that a man can get just as much sleep on a farm as he can in a city, maybe more. This idea that farming might be all right if you could stand the loss of sleep is a lot of nonsense, although understand I'm not arguing that more people ought to farm, the way it looks now, judging from the stacks of surpluses we've got piled up all over the country, too many people are farming as it is.

But it has been my observation that more white collar workers and business executives fall asleep in church than farmers. More townpeople go to sleep driving their car than farmers. Have you ever heard of a farmer falling asleep while driving a tractor? While milking a cow? While borrowing money at the bank?

A man may not be able to make as much money as he wants farming, but he sure can get plenty of sleep. I've tried it and I know. Furthermore, I intend to keep on getting plenty.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

OF BOUNDS—Ranger fullback Dempsey Gyger was forced out of bounds but made a first down Dalhart 9 in this exciting play Friday night. The Rangers got to the 1-yard-line but saw victory d away when the ball was fumbled at the 1 with 13 seconds in the ball game. Wolves coming up with the tackle are Larry Womble (12) and Kenneth Meeks (44). At the right is Ranger tackle Burton.

AY STOPPED—Jimmy Todd and Freddy Chisum of the Rangers stop Dalhart quarterback Bill Gray a 14-yard pickup in the third quarter of the Dalhart-Perryton football game Friday night. The game in a scoreless tie.

Rangers and Dalhart Wolves Battle To Scoreless Tie

The Rangers and the Dalhart Wolves battled to a scoreless tie Friday night, with the Rangers threatening early and late, but failing to push across that all-important touchdown.

This was the poorest offensive showing of the season for Perryton. The team appeared "flat," bearing little resemblance to the team which pounded Hereford into submission a week earlier.

The Rangers started off like they would take the victory, as they drove from their 32 with the opening kickoff and marched down to the Dalhart 11 in ten plays. Here quarterback Tommy Johnson tried a jump pass which was intercepted by big Dalhart tackle C. Wallace and this was probably the most crucial play of the ball game.

The Wolves came to life with this interception and the Rangers went dead. Dalhart hammered down the field to the Ranger 39 in nine plays and seemed on their way to a touchdown until a fumble stopped the drive on the Ranger 28.

After the halftime intermission when both the Ranger band and the Dalhart band performed in fine style, the Wolves came back with a bang. They took the opening kickoff on their 5 and drove to the Ranger 30 before Bob Beck intercepted a pass and ran out to the Dalhart 40.

The Rangers drove down to the Dalhart 16 only to be stalled by a weird bit of officiating which saw the ball moved three times by the officials amid storms of protest from both Perryton and Dalhart coaches. After a roughing penalty, the ball was finally spotted on the Dalhart 32, which gave the Rangers fourth down and 23. Jimmy Todd carried up to the 22, where the Wolves took over and the Rangers stopped.

Late in the game, Perryton fans thought they had the victory, when the Rangers put on a determined drive from their 19 down to the 39, then got what could have been the deciding break of the game.

Tommy Johnson's punt was caught by the Dalhart safety man on his 29, but he dropped the ball and Neal Flathers covered it to set up the Rangers on the 29 with three minutes to go.

A roughing penalty set them back on the 41, then a pass put it on the 25. Gyger and Pearson ran it down to the 1, where there were 20 seconds left when Gyger and Pearson rammed over left guard, only to drop the ball on the 1, where Dalhart recovered and snuffed out the threat.

There was time for only one play when the game ended.

The Rangers had slightly the better of it in the statistics, but the game goes into the record book as one-half game won and one-half game lost.

QUITE A HASSLE—Ranger football players and coaches, along with Dalhart players and coaches surround the officials in the Friday night game when a dispute arose in the third quarter. The Rangers had driven to the Dalhart 16, and after a penalty, swapping the ball back and forth by the officials, Dalhart wound up with it on the 22. The game ended a score less tie.

Judgment Day

GALVESTON, Texas (AP)—City Judge C. C. Wright witnessed an automobile accident, then watched as one irate woman driver assailed the other one.

He interposed to say he thought the irate one was in the wrong.

"That will be for the judge to decide," she snapped.

"I am the judge, lady," he replied.

The case was settled out of court.

The first railroad locomotive to reach America came from England in 1829, but there is no record that it was ever operated in this country.

This is the fifth in a series of messages written by ministers of this trade area. This week's message was written by Rev. A. B. Cockrell, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, Perryton.

LET US BE ONE IN CHRIST

Next Monday marks the 438th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation under the leadership of Martin Luther. This might well be called the "Declaration of Independence of the Christian Church." It was not only the beginning of the various protestant groups, but it led to reforms even within the Roman Church.

With this break from religious regimentation, and with this new found freedom, came the risk of too much division in "the body of Christ." We now have well over 200 denominations and sects in the United States. Although we believe that some contribution is made in our present culture to the spiritual life of our country by most of these groups, and we would not in any way, limit the right to form new denominations, I believe we would all agree that there is too much division.

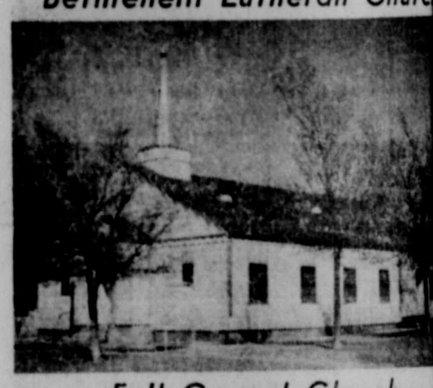

The solution is not outside restriction, no religious authoritarianism. It lies in an inner consciousness of brotherhood—a spirit of co-operation. If we lay any claim to being followers of Christ, it should follow that we will march hand-in-hand with all Christians. The spirit of Christian co-operation should transcend the differences of doctrine and polity.

The strongest criticism from the lips of Jesus came when provoked by religious arrogance and self-righteousness. The scribes and Pharasees of His day seemed to think they had all the religious answers, but Jesus once said to a group, "Unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharasees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." It was a Samaritan who showed mercy that received praise in one of his stories, and not a priest who knew the Scriptures. It was a penitent publican, who likely knew nothing of doctrine, that was "justified" and not a person who was thankfully "not as other people." Jesus once said, "And I have other sheep, that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will heed my voice. So there shall be one flock, and one shepherd."

I have no right to say to another, "You are not of the fold, because you are not of my church." I have the responsibility of saying, "Brother, we may have different concepts about some things, but we are all followers of Christ. Let us join hands and praise our Redeemer."

SEDAN DE VILLE: Cadillac's Sedan de Ville, a four-door hardtop presented for the first time for 1956, preserves the graceful Florentine window styling of two-door hardtops yet provides the roominess and four-door convenience of sedan models. Rear seat head and leg room in the Sedan de Ville is greater than in two-door hardtop models. The car features a new power train consisting of a new 285 horsepower engine and a "controlled coupling" Hydra-Matic transmission which is completely new in principle and mechanical parts.

Veterans Forum

Q. I am drawing monthly disability compensation payments from VA, and I also am paying monthly premiums on my GI insurance. Would there be any way for VA to deduct enough money out of my compensation to take care of my insurance premiums, so that I wouldn't have to bother with them every month?

A. Yes. So long as your disability compensation checks are large enough to cover your GI insurance premiums, you may apply to VA to have the premiums taken out of your compensation.

Q. I am a Korea veteran and I have just been discharged from service. I plan to apply for Korean GI term insurance within 120 days from my separation. Will I have to take a physical examination?

A. No. A physical examination is not required. All you need do is file an application and pay your first premium—within the 120 days after your separation.

Q. If I buy a house with a GI loan, is the salesman's commission considered a part of the closing costs or a part of the purchase price of the house?

A. The salesman's commission is considered as a part of the purchase price of the house. The sales price including the commission may not exceed the "reasonable value" as set by VA.

Q. I understand a veteran's Korean GI training entitlement can be extended if it runs out when he is more than half-way through his semester at school. What about on-the-job training? Can entitlement be extended here, too?

A. No. GI training entitlement may not be extended for veterans taking on-the-job training.

Jones, Holden Star In Strange Love Story

"Love Is A Many Splendored Thing," starring Jennifer Jones and William Holden, comes Sunday and Monday to the Ellis Theatre.

The story is a personal one of a beautiful Eurasian woman doctor, half-English and half-Chinese, whose love for the already married, but estranged, American war correspondent defied racial custom and social convention. The picture is both a delicately told love story and a social document, giving audiences a close look at the turbulence of human emotions in the British Crown Colony where the East and the West meet and mix with more suspicion than understanding.

Miss Jones portrays Dr. Suyin, the beautiful Eurasian, and Mr. Holden has the role of the newspaper correspondent. Other members of the stellar cast include Torin Thatcher, Isobel Elsom, Murray Matheson, Virginia Gregg Richard Loo, Soo Yong, Philip Ahn, Jorja Curtright and Donna Martell.

Tandy Farm Is Identified In Mystery Series

The farm of Mrs. Golta L. Tandy, located 21 miles southeast of Perryton, was identified as last week's Herald Mystery Farm of the Air.

Mrs. Tandy has lived on the farm since 1927. The land was first homesteaded by Eubanks and was later bought from Joe Smith by A. R. Tandy.

The house was rebuilt in 1944. The trees and the improvements have been put on the farm since 1927.

Mrs. Tandy has two children, Mrs. Cora Lee Wright and Roger Tandy, both of Perryton. Roger farms his mother's land.

Mrs. Tandy is a member of the Methodist church and the Perryton Sorosis Club. Her hobbies are craft work, leather, copper and some painting. Taking care of her yard is her real hobby, she says.

There are 416 acres of farmland in the Tandy farm and 71½ acres of grass. The farm was the first in the county to construct terraces and soil conservation practices have long been observed. Wheat and grain sorghums are the principal crops grown on the land.

Mrs. Tandy is considering putting down an irrigation well, to be used primarily to irrigate feed and pasture in order to grow livestock.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cooper and Mrs. Nancy Cooper visited in Guymon, Okla. Sunday, in the Roy Bailey home.

The story of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the "Gibson Girl" of the early 1900s. The story of one of the nation's most notorious murder cases. Another big entertainment hit that only your motion picture screen can bring you. Another look at vaudeville of the 1900. We think you'll enjoy the evening.
