Ira Foster Wins Gridiron Contest

Gridiron guessers met with frustration in last week's Enterprise Football Contest. It was a week of misses with the weekly winners having to be determined by the tie-breaker, Mustang-Mules game.

Ira Foster, Melvin Rape and Jack Williamson captured the winnings in that order. Foster, with his prediction of 27 to 19, picked up the first place check for five dollars when his 11 points off proved to be the closest to the actual score of 21-14.

Rape guessed the game at 35 to 7, missing by 21 points. Twenty-three points off with his 36-6 prediction was Williamson. They will receive the second and third place awards, respectively.

Ironically, the three's misses reflected the number of "upsets" in the contest. Foster missed the Nazareth-New Home game which upset a total of 87 contestants. He also missed the Ralls- Kress and Oilers-Steelers games. The Kress upset threw 82 person in the contest.

Rape missed with his predictions of the Andrews-Snyder, West Texas State-Lamar Tech and Denver City-Brownfield tilts. The West Texas game proved to be the biggest hurdle for Enterprise contestants with a whopping 122 persons falling with the Buffaloes.

Williamson missed with his choices in the Hale Center-Springlake-Earth, West Texas-Lamar Tech and Post-Lockney tilts. Sixty contestants were wrong on the Springlake-Earth defeat.

The top three were not surprised by Texas Tech's victory over Kansas but 72 contestants did come up with the wrong prediction.

This week's guesses also put Foster to the top of the list for the season. He leads the contest with 29 correct guesses, two points ahead of seven other hopefuls.

Upsets are the name of the game quite often so contestants should not despair of becoming the season winner. So keep trying guessers. You might be the winner next week.

Anyone can be a weekly winner. It's fun and it's easy. Just pick up last week's Enterprise and enter. Mark the winners of each game, predict the tie-breaker and be sure and sign your name.

Entries must be mailed or left with any sponsoring merchant. Remember, those sponsors are the ones who make the contest possible. Show them your appreciation by trading with them each week.

Old Pictures From Enterprise To Give Away

Got a yen for old photos? Then drop by the Enterprise and look through the mountain of old pictures we uncovered when we were cleaning house last week.

Some of them date back several years and are good for a laugh.

They are yours -- simply pick up the ones that you see that you want.

After about a month, they will be burned. So hurry on up and look 'em over.

S-T-O-P Or Get A Ticket

S-T-O-P does not spell hesitation.

All motorists are aware of this but many have become careless about observing stop signs in Olton. City Marshall Ped Hunt observed that many of the guilty persons are "mothers and daddies instead of the teenagers."

Effective with this warning, motorists will be issued tickets for the violations. Hunt said.

"It may be an expensive lesson for some and maybe embarrassing but offenders will be fined."

Mustangs To Tahoka

Olton's Mustangs take to the road for their first football away from home this Friday night at Tahoka. Game time is 8 at Tahoka.

The Tahoka Bulldogs will be the best team that the Mustangs have faced so far this year. They will probably use a slot-T type of offense. Their defense will be something similar to Olton's.

Big Men for the Bulldogs this year are Larry Durham, Ladd Roberts, Johnny Martin and all-district linebacker from last year, Robert Montemayer.

Montemayer is starting for his fourth year this year. He has lettered all three previous years along with being an all-district performer last season.

Durham, 165 pound fullback runs with good speed. He plays defenseive end also and is one of the best in his district at that position. Roberts is an offensive tackle and defensive linebacker.

Martin is an offensive guard and is a real fine nose guard on defense.

As a team, the Bulldogs are described as being real quick and very aggressive. They have a good ability to captilize on other teams mistakes.

Olton coach Jerry Blakely says that the Bulldogs will be about the same size team as Olton. He says that Olton has had a real good week of workouts and that his Mustangs are really expecting a tough game at Tahoka Friday night.

Speaking about last week's game with Muleshoe, Blakely said he was well pleased with the Mustangs. He said they played well, showed a lot of character and hit real hard.

Steve Lewis had a real good night in the offensive line opening good holes for the Mustang runners. Marlos May carried the ball real well and threw some terrific blocks for the ball carries.

Standouts on defense for the Mustangs were Jimmy Mc Curry, and Jim Key both defensive tackles. Luis Rey, Gary Durham and Mike Parsons who got numerous tackles.

Probable offensive lineup for Olton will include: Steve Stockdale, Marlos May, Keith Workman, Luis Rey, Mike Parsons, Alonzo Springer, Alfred Garcia, Luis Jiminez, Gary Durham, Steve Lewis, Jim Key, Emiliano Marquez and Carrol Blackwell.

Defensively it will probably be Gary Durham, Jim Key, Jimmy McCurry, Marlos May, Luis Jiminez, Alfred Garcia, Mike Parsons, Gary Kelley, Emiliano Marquez, Luis Rey and Johnny Arroyos.

26 Youngsters Are Enrolled In Junior High CVAE Class

Twenty-six young men are enrolled in the CVAE class offered in Olton Junior High for the first time this year.

Co-ordinated Vocational Academic Education program, designed for probable student dropouts, is being taught by David Maxey. Jack Burkhalter is counselor.

Divided into two groups, the seventh grade students meet at 11 a. m. and the eighth and freshmen boys meet at 2 p. m.

They begin building such items as picture frames and bird houses and gradually work into larger projects.

Carpentry, electrical training, painting, pumbing repairs and cement finishing will be among the things the boys will be taught.

The boys will quickly tell you that "it's better than just school," when asked how they like the new program. The groups stay together throughout the day for their basic subjects of reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic. And they are eligible for football. There are eight seventh grade students who are "going out" for football and two that are serving as managers. Eighth grade and freshmen total only three on the football squads.

The program is partially financed by government funds and the shop is located in a petitioned room in the ag department building.

Appliances include a table saw, radial arm saw, jointer and grinder and a host of smaller tools.

Boys enrolled in this course may take advantage of the program for a total of four years if they wish.

13 Accidents Recorded In County During Month

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 13 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of August, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person killed, one person injured, and an estimated property damage of $18,575.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first eight months of 1970 shows a total of 76 accidents resulting in four persons killed, 32 persons injured, and an estimated, property damage of $67,633.00.

The sergeant reminded all Texas motorists that vehicles bearing red motor vehicle inspection stickers with the large black numeral "9" in the lower left-hand corner of the windshield must be reinspected before midnight, September 30.

SEVENTH GRADE WORKOUTS --- Early morning workouts are the order of the day for these seventh grade football players. First period is the time for the workout and coaches are Ben Cates and Robert Bolton.

LENDING A HELPING HAND --- A friend in need is a friend indeed! And Olton farmers helped prove this old adage when they came to help harvest his maize crop Wednesday. Several combines pulled into the sixty acre patch and had it finished before many hours passed. The crop belongs to Bill Collins, who has been spending his time at the bedside of his wife, Dona, who has been a cancer patient in the Littlefield Hospital. She was flown to Houston in an ambulance plane early Thursday morning by local pilot Delbert Howell for further treatment. The combines moved to another field Thursday and will move to still another when that is finished.

Destroying Incentive

If welfare recipients are to enjoy a higher standard of living than men and women who work at a job, the incentive for the self-reliant life is likely to disappear from our society.

Concern on this score is being felt as a result of the administration's efforts to win congressional approval of the Family Assistance Act. Many legislative leaders in both parties believe that the welfare plan would be a destroyer of incentive. The Senate Finance Committee very properly is giving the legislative proposal extremely close scrutiny.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, in an editorial on the plan, commented: "Investigation showed that a woman earning $7,000 a year in New York City could have less money (after taxes) at the end of the year than a mother of three fatherless children with no income other than benefits under the administration's plan."

If this is the case, and the evidence indicates it is, then it seems clear that the proposal will cause some people to choose a permanent welfare existence rather than gainful employment and a self-reliant way of life.

The administration's plan penalizes the citizen who desires to be self-supporting. A columnist for the BALTIMORE SUN reports that -- under the plan -- a woman with four dependents and a jobpaying $5,000 would take a drop in income if she took a job paying $6,000 and gave up Family Assistance. Again, if that's the case, how does the administration proposal help get people off the welfare rolls?

It is really incredible that a plan should be offered as a "reform" of welfare laws when, in fact, it makes non-work more rewarding than work.

The Senate Finance Committee also is concerned about the colossal dimensions of the Family Assistance plan. The number of persons receiving public assistance would be tripled in 13 states if the plan is enacted into law. In 16 states, more than 15 per cent of the population would be covered by this welfare plan and would receive financial assistance. In the case of one state, Mississippi, 35 to 40 per cent of the population would be on welfare. The cost to the nation's taxpayers would soar from the current $4.5 billion welfare bill to a fantastic $9.1 billion.

In effect, the Family Assistance plan would be legislation aimed at redistributing wealth. Self-supporting citizens would have to pay much higher taxes in order to maintain the huge non-working population on the welfare rolls.

Furthermore, existing state administration of welfare programs would be eliminated. Dependent individuals would simply sign up for federal benefits. No thorough check would be made on applicants for aid under the Family Assistance plan. The absence of regular investigators by state welfare agencies would be an open invitation for falsification of facts and other abuses.

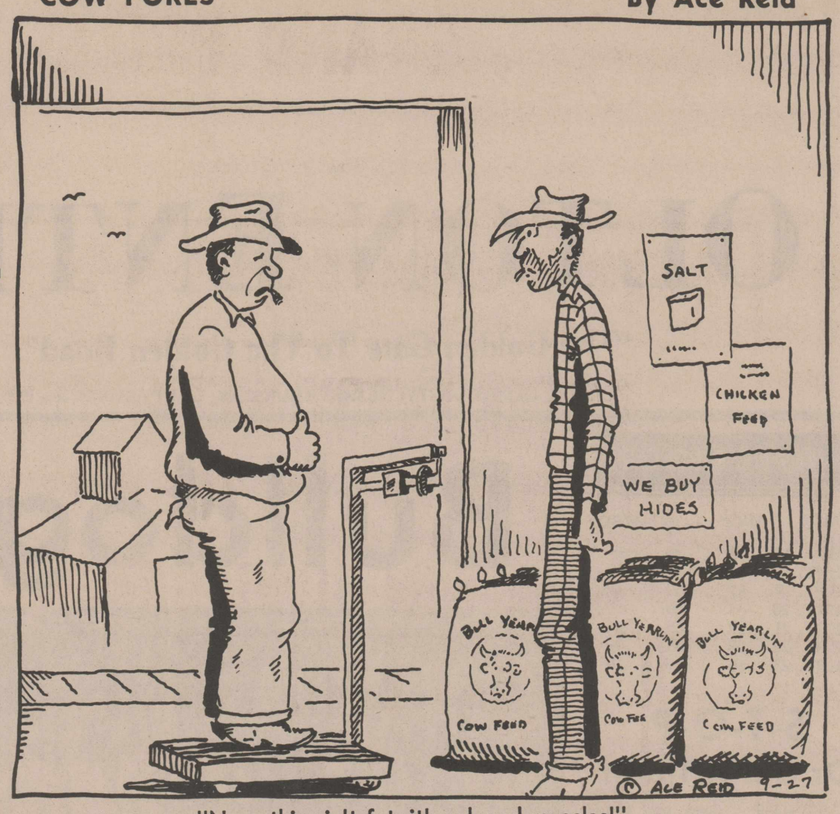

It is no wonder, therefore, that U. S. Rep. John M. Ashbrook (R-Ohio) said that many congressmen -- both Republicans and Democrats -- regard the Family Assistance plan as "questionable, to say the least."

Realistic citizens know that a considerable number of people in our society are not strongly motivated towards work and self-reliance. At best, these people have marginal motivation. If these types realize that work isn't necessary, that they can collect cash and food stamps adequate to meet their needs, they will not seek employment.

America cannot afford to have people of this type withdraw from the work force and make a lifetime commitment to indolence at taxpayer expense. Every able-bodied person must work to support himself, his family and the society of which he is a part. Federal and state legislatior should be geared to motivating the shiftless and to otherwise inducing non-workers to change their ways and start contributing something to the country in which they live.

The Nixon administration's Family Assistance plan is an affront to working Americans. As such, the bill should be killed in the Senate. The legislative proposal represents a dangerous step towards sanctioning of a drone society within America's working society.

Book Review Presented Monday By Mrs. Burrus

Presenting a review of "Winter Count", a new historical novel written by D. Chief Eagle, Mrs. Paul Burrus depicted for members of Olton Study Club the Indian's side of Custer's Last Stand, and of the Dakota Redmen's battle to save their land and birthright.

For his book, the Sioux Indian Chief chose the title "Winter Count" from the ancient Indian practice of setting down happenings of the year through the long, cold, idle winter months in an attempt at making a permanent historical record of their tribes.

Around such records Chief Eagle has woven a narrative that reveals Sioux faith and culture as well as their fight for survival in the land of the Tetons.

"In the pages of the book," Mrs. Burrus said, "one walks in the moccasins of the Sioux ...in these times when so much is being written about Indians from the White Man's point of view, we do well to examine a tribesman's viewpoint."

Mrs. Roye Aikman was hostess for the event held in her home, Monday, Sept. 21. Mrs. E. R. Spain, president, presided in a short business session preceding the review.

Plans were made for participation in Womans Clubs Community dinner to be served in the school cafeteria Oct. 2, prior to the Friona football game.

MRS. DAVID MARTIN BRYANT

Bryant-Autry Vows Said In Candlelight Ceremony

Wedding vows were solemnized in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church in Clarendon for Miss Kathryn Joye Autry and David Martin Bryant.

Rev. W. R. Lawrence directed the double ring vows before a setting illuminated by a twenty-one branch candelabra and a background of jade foliage. Spiraling candelabras flanked each side and a three branch Trinity candelabra stood at the right of the altar. Garlands of greenery caught with clusters of rose buds adorned the kneeling bench.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Autry of Clarendon and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur L. Bryant of Hartley. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Huckabee.

Mrs. Raleigh Adams, organist, provided wedding selections and accompanied Rev. Paul Hancock as he sang "More" and "A Time For Us."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of ivory silk cloud satin designed with a fitted empire bodice of Alencon lace on English net. The victorian neckline was edged with scalloped Alencon lace and the leg-of-mutton sleeves were caught by a fitted cuff below the elbow. Her A-line skirt swept to back fullness and cascaded into a full chapel train.

Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was overlaid with Alencon lace flowers and accented by seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of ivory cymbidium orchids and stephanotis blossoms.

For "something old", she wore her late Grandmother Autry's ruby engagement ring and for "something new", ivory kid gloves, a gift from her parents. She "borrowed" a silk handkerchief from her aunt, Mrs. T. L. Abernathy and wore the traditional blue garter. She carried a lucky sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. David Gruhlkey was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Anna Beth Simmons and the bride's cousins, Debby Bickly and Peggy Hudgins. They wore formal length gowns of deep luster pink with empire design. Their shoulder length veils were held by small Dior bows of matching color.

Miss Jana Huckabee, cousin of the bride, and Miss Rachelle La Munyon, cousin of the groom, were flower girls. They wore formal length gowns styled identical to the bridesmaids and matron of honor.

Steven Bryant was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Jerry Bryant, brother of the groom, Jim Baker and Sam Thompson. John David Thompson was ring bearer.

Guests were seated by David Gruhlkey, Wayne Stribling, Leslie Abernathy, cousin of the bride, and George Bryant, brother of the groom.

Guests were registered by Miss Susan McAnear.

A reception was held in fellowship hall. Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Steven Bryant and Misses Suzanne Moore, Donna Bookout, Cheryl Hardin, Lanette Allison and Debe McAnear.

For travel the bride changed to a purple tunic dress with printed scarf and a corsage lifted from the bridal bouquet.

The couple are at home at Howardwick Town, Clarendon. Both are students at Clarendon College.

MRS. JOE BOB SMITH

Cook Of The Week

Our Cook of the Week, Mrs. Joe Bob Smith, has been a resident of the South Plains all her life but has only lived in Olton two years. She grew up at Muleshoe where her parents still live.

Deborah and Joe Bob lived in Levelland for a short time after their marriage in February 1969. Joe Bob attended South Plains College. Since that time they have made their home southeast of town. Joe Bob is engaged in carpentry.

For her birthday, Deborah was given a sewing machine and is learning to sew. She plans to get plenty of experience sewing for her small daughter, Julie, who will be three years old next month.

The "littlest Smith" is nine months old Jody Brandon.

Deborah loves to sing, and, although she has not studied hair dressing, enjoys fixing hair. Her pretty brunette hair always looks as if she had just visited a beauty shop.

Although she gets teased by Joe Bob that he never knows where he might expect to find the furniture, Deborah loves to "rearrange things."

Mustangs Outrun Mules, Workman Is 'Workhorse'

BY ELMER HOUSTON

Olton's Mustangs proved again Friday night that it really takes a team effort to win a ball game.

Muleshoe took the opening kickoff and marched down the field for the first score of the game, only to have the stubborn Mustangs come right back and go ahead to stay, 17 seconds after the Mules kicked off to the Mustangs.

Olton widened the score to 14-6 at half time. Scoring again early in the third quarter, the Mustangs made it 21-6. Then the stubborn and fired-up Mules scored to make it 21-14 and that's the way the game ended.

Muleshoe took the opening kickoff and marched steadily up the field, blessed with timely penalties and very strong running. Halfback Bobby Hayes was the work mule of the night for Muleshoe as he repeatedly penetrated the Mustang line for short yardage. He carried the ball a whopping 29 times for the Mules.

On the first drive of the night the Mules sent Hayes and Donny Wheat into the line for 3 and 4 yards at a time, picking up five first downs and moving to the Mustang 10.

With a first at the ten, Hayes went off tackle for two yards to the eight. The next play was something that Muleshoe has been looking for a long time.

Hayes took the handoff and plowed his way through the left side of the line for the first T.D. of the night and it was the first time that Muleshoe had been ahead of Olton in a football game in several years.

In scoring this touchdown Mules used up 9 minutes and 18 seconds of the first quarter of play.

Extra point try failed as the Mules tried to run for the two point conversion.

With 2:42 showing on the clock, the Mules kicked off to Olton with Luis Rey returning the kickoff 27 yards out to the Olton 41.

On the first play from scrimmage, sophomore tailback Keith Workman took the handoff from Stockdale, roared through a large hole in the Mule line, picked up a couple of good blocks and outran the last two defenders into the end zone 59 yards away.

Quarterback Steve Stockdale kicked the extra point to put the Mustangs in front 7-6. Favian Minjarez held the ball for Stockdale to make his first kick for extra point of the night. He kicked two others also later in the game.

Muleshoe had led for 17 seconds, they stayed behind the Mustangs from then on.

Hayes took the Olton kickoff on the Muleshoe 8 and returned it to the 34 before being brought down by a herd of Mustangs. Olton's defense stiffened this time with Muleshoe forced to punt from their 40.

Workman received the Muleshoe punt for the Mustangs and returned it 10 yards out to the Mustangs 39. One more offensive play was run by the Mustangs to end the first quarter of play.

On third down Stockdale passed to end Mike Parsons at the Muleshoe 47 for a first down. A penalty moved the ball five yards for Olton with Luis Rey getting another first down on the Mule 34.

Marlos May got 4 hard yards to the 30 before being brought down. On second down, May carried again for five more yards at the 25. A bad snap lost back to the 28 and Olton was faced with fourth and four.

A Muleshoe defender luckily got just enough of his hand on the ball to deflect a nearly perfect pass from Stockdale to Luis Rey and Muleshoe took over on their 28.

Mustang Gary Durham dropped Mule Donny Wheat for a yard loss on first down. Faced with third and eight Muleshoe pulled a halfback pass with Wheat passing to Hayes at the 40 for a first down.

A red flag gave the visitors another first down at the Olton 37. Wheat gained four yards before the Mustangs defense led by Arroyos, Key, McCurry and Durham slammed the door shut for a fourth down and 12 yards needed.

On the punt, one of the officials had the red flag flying again and Muleshoe was rewarded the ball on the Olton 25 with a new lease on life.

On second down, Bull Durham recovered a Mule fumble on the Olton 25. Leather popped on that play as Key, McCurry and all the rest went in after Muleshoe.

Workhorse Workman carried three times for a first down at the 41. Stockdale passed to Workman who juggled the ball and out-faked tacklers for 8 yards to the 49.

A penalty moved the ball to the Mule 38 and another first down for the Mustangs. Stockdale passed to Springer at the 25 for another first.

Luis Rey moved it to the 18 before Olton took to the air again with Springer at the 15. Springer took it on the run and threaded and bulled his way to the 6.

Stockdale plowed his way to the 3 and May moved it to the 1 foot line. Workman blasted his way for that one foot, for his second T. D. of the night. This drive had taken the Mustangs 75 yards in five first downs and 9 plays.

Stockdale kicked the point after to give the Ponies a 14-6 halftime lead. At the half Workman had gained 104 yards.

Luis Rey took the second half opening kickoff and returned it 16 yards to the Olton 38. Marlos May and Workman gobbled the yardage up as they moved to the Muleshoe 35 for a first down.

May got 8 more hard yards to the Mule 27 before being faced with fourth and 2. Workman got the two yards plus five more to go with them to the 20.

May busted for seven more to the 13, then eight more to the five. Workman drove for four to the 1.

With 7:42 remaining in the third quarter Workman drove in for the score, his third of the night. Stockdale kicked the point with Minjarez holding to give Olton a 21-6 advantage. This drive took 12 plays.

Muleshoe took the kickoff and ran Hayes to the left, the right and up the middle. They ran him nearly every play with Donny Wheat carrying rarely.

The stubborn Mules ground out the yards with fourth and one, third and one, fourth and six inches until they were at the Olton 13.

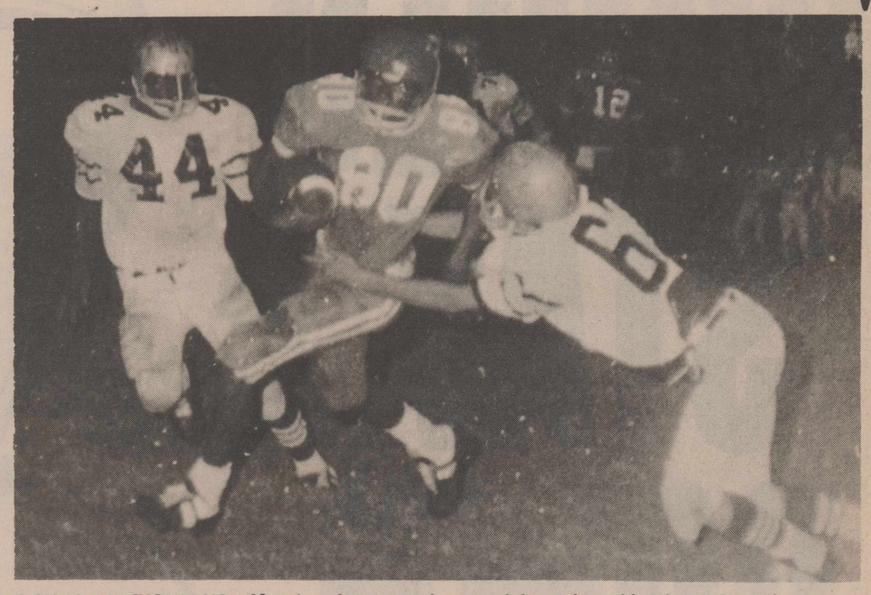

Once more they went to Hayes as he skirted the end to the three for a first down. On the next play Hayes fell into the end zone for the T. D. Wheat ran the extra point and Muleshoe had 14 points.

The fourth quarter turned into a seesaw battle with the Mustangs not giving the Mules anything and penalties stopped Olton. After another fourth and four try Olton took over the ball on their own 40.

In four plays Workman moved to the Mule 25 for another Mustang first down. May gathered another at the 15.

Stockdale moved it to the 12 and Luis Rey plowed to the Mule five as the gun sounded, ending the game.

Mustang meet the Tahoka Bulldogs this Friday night at 8 p. m. in Tahoka.

ALONZO SPRINGER NO. 80 takes his second pass of the night and heads south and to be ran out of bounds short of the goal line.
