DIRIGIBLE IS SIGHTED AT STEINS, N. M. AT 1:23 P. M.

(By Associated Press)

LORDSBURG, N. M., Aug. 27.—The Graf Zeppelin was reported sighted at Steins, N. M., at 1:23 P. M., M. S. T. It was flying at an altitude of about 1,500 feet. Steins is on the Arizona-New Mexico border.

ZEP HAS SLIGHT MISHAP IN TAKEOFF

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27 (AP).—The globe circling dirigible Graf Zeppelin came within a few feet of encountering potentially serious trouble but escaped with only slight damage here today as its tail scraped a high tension electric line shortly after the takeoff for Lakehurst, N. J.

The big ship, containing thousands of cubic feet of hydrogen, a highly inflammable gas, scraped the electric line as it fought to gain altitude immediately after the takeoff at Municipal Airport at 12:14 a. m., Pacific coast time.

First word of the accident reached here about two hours later when the Radio Corporation of America intercepted a message from the air liner saying the damage had been slight and would not interfere with the trip.

Second Accident

This was the second accident of the Graf Zeppelin's world flight. While being taken out of a hangar at Kasumigaura, Japan, for the trans-Pacific flight, a downward movement of the stern caused a rear gondola to strike the ground and two gondola struts were broken.

Field workers here realized almost immediately the dirigible was hav-

HOME STRESSED IN HAM REVIVAL

Stressing the home as a unit of Christianity, of government, and of civilization, the Rev. Mr. M. F. Ham, told the vast audience last night at the co-operative revival tabernacle, Texas Avenue and Sixteenth street, that the parent's influence dominates the lives of sons and daughtes.

"The Christian Home," was subject of his discourse.

The Rev. Mr. Ham quoted statistics on preachers, presidents, statesmen, millionaires and others of prominence, showing that the sons of ministers have predominated in numbers among the leaders of this nation.

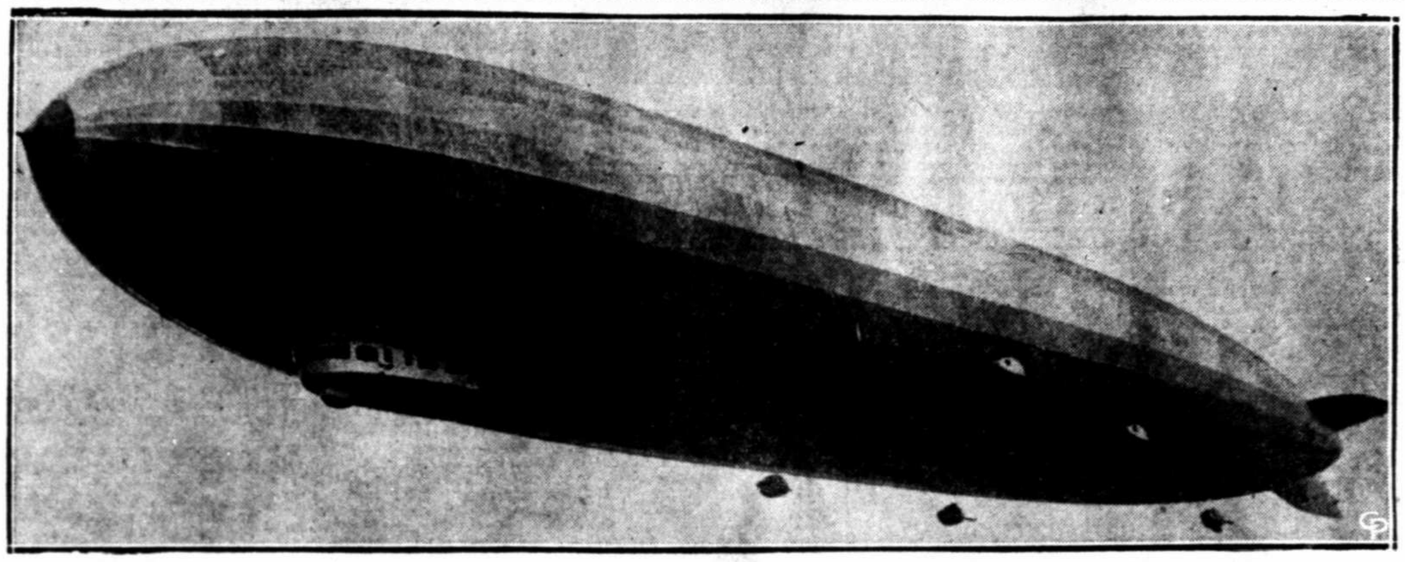

He made a plea for perfect unions, homes which are built on love, saying that these are the foundation of government and the salvation of the nation.

Humbleness No Disgrace

"It is no disgrace to come from an humble home, but it is a disgrace to come from a Godless home," he said. "One never hears a man

UNREST IS SPREADING

DISORDERS TURNING INTO SYRIA AND TRANS-JORDINIA

(By Associated Press)

Reports that Moslem unrest and disorders have spread from Palestine into trans-Jordania and Syria were received from the Near East today as sporadic looting and demonstrations continued in Jerusalem.

Further British reinforcements of troops and war vessels were rushed to the affected area from Malta and from Cairo.

Frontier Closed

The trans-Jordanian frontier has been closed to prevent Arabs from crossing into Palestine while Jewish Telegraphic Agency dispatches from Beirut reported great excitement there and in Damascus.

Continued attacks by Arabs on outlying districts were reported from Cairo.

The Moslem version of the cause of the disturbances stated the rioting followed the hurling of a hand grenade and throwing of acid at Moslems leaving the Mosque of Omar, of which the Wailing Wall is an integral part.

Arab tribes in Palestine were reported greatly excited and preparing to advance on southern Jerusalem by thousands.

Looks Big Factor In Harmony In Home, 'Tis Said

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP)—Beauty doctors have saved more marriages from going on the rocks than the domestic relations courts, Miss Frances Martell of Chicago, declared today before the National Association of Cosmeticians.

Miss Martell warned wives to beware of husbands who declare they love their mates for themselves rather than for their looks.

"The matron who gets the most attention from her husband is the one whose cheeks are pink, whose lips are vermilion and whose nails are newly manicured," she said. "Nine out of ten husbands in divorce suits are married to drab wives."

CLUB WOMEN TO START MARKET

Recently organized by Miss Louise Baird, Lubbock county home demonstration agent, the City Line Club Market, to be operated by the City Line Home Demonstration Club of Slaton, will begin a regular Saturday marketing plan September 14, it was announced today.

"The market will continue each Saturday throughout the winter months, or as long as it seems profitable," said Miss Baird. "The aim of the market is to sell produce and home products directly to the consumer through a central selling point and thereby increase profits.

"The present plan is to stamp those products which measure up to definite standard as to quality with a special stamp. These products will be on sale each Saturday. Other products which can be sold only in a limited quantity will not be stamped but will measure up to standard quality.

"Any home demonstration club members in the county will be able to sell through this market by signing the market agreement adopted by the City Line Club."

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27.—Dr. Hugo Eckener, Graf Zeppelin commander, who found his stay in Los Angeles too busy and too short to grant extended interviews to newspaper men, just before his departure with the dirigible for Lakehurst today, dictated a discussion of the practical and commercial aspect of cruises such as that being completed by the Zeppelin. Commander Eckener based his statement on questions submitted to him.

C. L. WISE WOUNDED BY BILL DAVIS WHEN FAMILY TROUBLE CLIMAXES IN GUN PLAY HERE

C. L. Wise, 26, of 302 Avenue N, was shot with a 32-calibre pistol in his right arm, above the elbow, the bullet also searing a mark on his breast, this morning at 10 o'clock near the intersection of Broadway and Avenue G, following an argument and altercation, termed as the aftermath of domestic difficulties.

Bill Davis, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Davis, 306 Avenue O, whose sister is the estranged wife of the wounded man, was arrested after the incident and charged in Justice of Peace G. R. Scott's court with assault with intent to kill in connection with the shooting.

Taken To Sanitarium

The wounded man was rushed to the Lubbock sanitarium in an automobile by V. C. Evans, 1922 Twenty-fourth street, who drove by the scene, shortly after the occurence.

Chief Deputy Sheriff O. B. Conley arrested young Davis, while scores of persons, many returning from points of safety, crowded around the bloody spot where the shooting occurred.

Bystanders Intervene

Intervention of S. A. Beard, 2602 Twenty-first street, and S. M. Delaney, 1914 Avenue P, saved Wise's life.

Scores of shoppers and persons going to and returning from the postoffice scattered in frenzied alarm as the first shot, which went wild, rang through the stillness of early forenoon. The street was virtually cleared when the two men clashed following the first shot.

Helps Pleading Man

Beard, who was across the street south, at the service station owned by his son, rushed to the scene of the altercation, at the south side of Hodges Brothers building, when the two men clashed. Wise was pleading for help, said Beard. "I did not know the nature of the scuffle at first, for the first shot did not alarm me, as I thought it was noise of a tire blowout. I rushed over when I heard Wise's plea, and

In addition to these, the non-stop spurt from Los Angeles, to be raced at any time the pilots elect so long as they finish in the afternoon, drew attention to the third race expected to bring some of the entrants diving across the finish line today. The race was opened yesterday by the brilliant flight of Lee Schoenhair who lapped the country in 13 hours, 51 minutes and 10.8 seconds.

FARMER LEGGE SQUELCHES THE 'HIGH HAT SOCIETY IN CAPITAL'

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP)—Alexander Legge was loath today to become excited over his status in Washington society.

The chairman of President Hoover's new Farm board displayed interest over reports that Washington hostesses were at a loss how to classify him socially. As Mr. Legge saw it, the question was whether he rated near the head of the table or the foot. To solve the problem, he suggested that he eat in the kitchen.

"Get this right," said the man who resigned a $100,000 a year job with the International Harvester company to help the administration with the farm question, "when it comes to society, I'm a dud."

He explained his social status became a matter of concern shortly after he went to Washington. Hostesses and their secretaries began telephoning, inquiring of his stenographer into the Legge family history and his Chicago social connections.

"I told my stenographer I'd handle all future inquiries of that nature myself," Legge said. "Soon I got a call from one of them. I said to him:

"My first claim to any prominence was robbing Wells-Fargo stage coaches. When that went out I took up train robbery, rustling horses between, as a member of Doc Middleton's gang of hoss thieves.

"Since I've been in Chicago, I signed with Al Capone, and you can just put me down wherever this rates me." The fellow hung up before I finished.

"We farmers are busy and we don't hanker after any social functioning. We don't want to to to any select dinners; but if we have to, and we have to put on fried shirts and such things, then all I want to say is this:

"We respectfully ask that we be given places in the kitchen, with the rest of the help, and if that interferes with the culinary business, we want to wait for the second table.. We don't belong in any high crowds, and we want to be just farmers. It don't seem to use that social functions can ever help the farmer in any way, so I guess they'd better just count us out."

IT ISN'T FRONT PAGE NEWS FOR NORWEGIAN WOMEN TO FLY

BY JULIA BLANSHARD
NEA Service Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 27, — Norway apparently is one country where freedom for women is so taken as a matter of course that there is no "story" there in a woman's winning this or that honor or occupying this or that position heretofore held only by men.

That is what makes it slightly shocking to a returning American, Mrs. Bowman Hansen, to find women featured as "news" here every time one of them is made president of a concern, flies a plane, or does anything else that can be played up as "a new step in feminism."

Mrs. Hansen is a Bostonian by birth who met her Nordic husband when he was a student at Harvard. They have lived for a number of years in Oslo, Norway, where Mr. Hansen is owner of the Hotel Continental, known as a center of theatrical, literary and art life. In the midst of this active group, Mr. Hansen is in a position to get an unusual cross-section of feminine Norway.

They came back this summer with their daughter Ellen to visit.

Norway's Attitude

"Norway gave women the vote long ago. They have had equal rights, have owned property, held positions and been interested in municipal affairs for so long a time that no one thinks of it as being unusual for a woman to accomplish things," Mrs. Hansen explained her lack of enthusiasm for the "woman's angle" America takes.

It is difficult to compare the actual position held by women there and here, for Norway does not have a great middle class from which the majority of our women successes come. But, according to Mrs. Hansen, Norwegian women are persons who work if they want to, without any fuss being made about it.

"Norwegians are a serious race, greatly interested in the arts and sciences and very interested in their homes and family life," Mrs. Hansen said. "Women lead a tremendously interesting and pleasant life. Everyone is active and in winter the whole town turns out on their skiis (she pronounced it she-s). Long walks are daily routine. Little Ellen who is eight thinks nothing of a seven-mile walk. And most women ride, swim and play tennis.

"Home women usually have music or art interests and business girls do, too. There is not an engrossing devotion to business found there. Girls who work in shops or as secretaries have their recreations, too. The whole fabric of Norwegian life assumes that women, working or at home, are persons.

"It seems as if Norwegian women have more real freedom and less superficial 'featuring' than women have here," she reflected. "Take the subject of divorce, for instance. A divorce in Norway costs approximately a quarter in American money and can be had by mutual consent of both husband and wife without any publicity or any statements from either. The couple merely appears before the judge, announces their decision to separate and if he cannot effect a reconciliation, he grants them legal sanction. The divorce really is legal in one year but a woman must wait six months before remarrying. Usually the wife gets the children. Alimony, however, is usually small, given for the child's support."

The difference in freedom of women here and abroad, in Mrs. Hansen's opinion, is a difference in viewpoint, rather than fact. It is American for every step taken by women to be advertised and "put over" as feminism. It is Norwegian to accept women's accomplishments as natural.

"I really thing most 'movements' are universal," Mrs. Hansen said. "Women all over the world are going into work. Women all bobbed their hair, shortened their skirts and began to use make-up. There is the 'younger generation' problem that concerns every country. I think the difference in things in one country and another usually is merely the difference in the characteristics of the country. America often is ahead of the world and, because it is characteristic for us to talk about things, the whole world knows just what is being done here. But all Continental Europe has its feminism. It is woman's age everywhere, I think."

There's a matter-of-fact acceptance of feminism in Norway, says Mrs. Boman Hansen, an American woman who lives in Oslo. She and her daughter Ellen, shown above, are now visiting in the United States.

Living and Loving

BY MRS. VIRGINIA LEE

Do the little mottoes, "Keep Smiling," and the like infuriate you as much as they do me, I wonder? They make me feel more like saying naughty words than of doing as they bid.

But smiling does help a lot, if you know what I mean. If you are looking at a baby in a carriage and the little thing smiles up at you, don't you get the most delightful feeling? Don't you swell up a bit and feel that you're not such a bad fellow after all?

And every friendly, smiling eye you meet through your day, does help you a lot, doesn't it? All right, then, see if you can't cultivate that jolly, friendly attitude toward the world at large. You'll find plenty of friends and life will seem much rosier to you.

"DEAR VIRGINIA LEE: I am invited to a card party and dance. I am going with a very nice boy. He is jealous of me. There will be a lot of boy friends of his at the party. Now they will play "postoffice" and "spin the bottle" and the like. Will he think I give kisses cheaply when he sees me kissing other boys?

"Even though it is at a party I am afraid he will think this and also will think less of me if he kisses me quite a few times. Do you think so? You know it is always thought good policy to keep the boy friend chasing or anxious. I do not let him kiss me as much as he wants to. Do you think that this party will ruin everything? Don't tell me not to go because it is impossible to back out."

"PATIENCE."

He will be kissing other girls, too, don't forget, if you are playing kissing games, so will have no reason to scold you. I don't believe he will mind if you are circumspect. At those parties most girls manage to kiss in such a manner that the boys hardly know they've kissed them at all.

J. K.: You are over 50 pounds too heavy for your height. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ten cents (coin) and I will send you the pamphlet you write of.

D. D.: I don't wonder George's company rather palls when he comes every night and you have to stay at home all the time. That would get tiresome with married people. They have to get out once in awhile. Can't you persuade your people to let you go out occasionally to a picture show or to visit friends? You are old enough to be trusted, surely. If not, I'd try to make George see that every other night would be better. Tell him you have to see your girl friends once in awhile.

I'd give a pretty to know if the letter signed "One of Your Lost but Found Friends" is a hoax. That signature sounds suspicious to me, and the letter itself is a bit too tragic to be real. Anyway the writer wants to warn other girls from sewing too many wild oats. The reaping's not so good, according to her.

DIMPLES and BABY FACE: It's just as well for a girl of 16 to be careful of the company of a man of 24 unless she knows him and his family very well. He really is too old for such a young girl. Self-consciousness is overcome by forgetting yourself and thinking of others and of your surroundings. You will probably get over it naturally, as you grow older and have more experience.

Another unhappy child complains of her "cruel" parents:

"DEAR VIRGINIA LEE: My mother and father will not allow me to be out after 10:30 o'clock at night. I am 18 years old. They also do not believe in good times. I cannot go to parties like other girls or even a dance. I love good times and where can I go with a fellow and come home at that time?

"No matter what fellow I introduce to mother or dad, they don't like him and call me all kinds of names, never believe a word I say. All they think of is my other sisters. They're just wonderful and can go where they please. Please, Virginia, help me and I'll be so grateful.

"UNHAPPY CHILD."

You're the youngest, I take it, and father and mother can't get over the idea that you're a baby too young to go out. Don't whine and feel sorry for yourself. That never helps. I think you should be allowed to stay out later than 10:30 once in awhile, but you need plenty of sleep, you know, to keep your health.

You would not be any happier away from home, would you? Try to be deserving of trust and see if you are in any way to blame when you think you are mistreated, and if things do not get better, you can always leave and fend for yourself, you know.

A.: You are divorced from your husband, I take it. You did wrong to "step out" on your friend, in the first place, but he "got even," I should say, and if he cared a great deal he would not break the friendship.

You can write him if you wish, but it rarely does any good in these cases. However, you would have the satisfaction of knowing that you did what you could to win him back, and it is just possible he might be.

leans. He fought for the South during the Civil War and was so proud of his part in that conflict that he carried memories of it to his death bed.

Following the Civil War, Dr. Westlake came to Texas and lived at various towns, Nacona, Sanger and other towns before he settled at Ranger. Later he drifted westward and during the last 23 years he had been in Lubbock. Until a few years ago he had an active practice here as a physician and until his last illness a few of his patients continued to come to him for ministry.

LOCAL SHOOTING

the second shot which resulted in the wound was fired while I was crossing the street."

While Beard was attempting to restrain young Davis, S. M. Delaney, 1914 Avenue P, arrived and wrested the pistol from the youth's hand.

Meet In Postoffice

Davis and Wise had met, prior to the shooting, in the postoffice building, 1113 Avenue G. Talking from his cell in the county jail, one hour after the incident, Davis said that Wise placed his foot in a position to trip him while he (Davis) was leaving the postoffice.

A few minutes later the pair met at the corner of Broadway and Avenue G. "Davis asked me why I had it in for him when we met on the walk near Hodges Brothers building." Wise related calmly while in the surgery room at the sanitarium. "I told him that I didn't have it in for him, but that I didn't feel right knowing that he and his father were carrying guns for me."

Says "Start Shooting"

"He told me I'd better leave town," said Wise, "and also told me that he'd kill me if I didn't. I told him I wouldn't leave town, and for him to start shooting."

"When I said that he went to his truck parked against the curb south of the building," Wise continued, "and picked up his gun which was in the back of the seat. I was standing about 10 feet from the truck. He shot at me through the windshield, the shot going wild. I ran up the street west and he followed. I knew that I didn't have a chance in the open, so I turned back and rushed upon him. We clinched. We was trying to point the gun at my stomach, but I had the mouth of the pistol at a glance away from my body when he fired."

Had Previous Trouble

The two engaged in a fist fight last fall, while Wise and his wife were living together, Davis admitted, after charging that the wounded man had been cruel to his sister.

Following separation about three months ago, Wise had tried several times to see his one-year-old daughter, Billie Joyce, he said. "Mr. Davis, my wife's father, had refused to allow me to see her," Wise claimed.

Efforts were being made this afternoon to furnish bond of $1,000 after it has been set at 2 o'clock in the court of Justice of Peace G. R. Scott, following waiving of preliminary trial.

Eckener said, "but such ships designed for regular commercial service should be larger and faster than the Graf Zepelin.

Need Ground Support

"The maintenance of regular passenger service by Zeppelin airships around the world presents no technical difficulties, but presumes the establishment of complete ground support for the airships, such as hangars, masts and fuel supplies.

"The flight now nearly finished proved that Zeppelin airships need not fear any type of meteorlogical disturbance. For instance, we flew 40 hours through fog and rain, and at the end of that time, when we came verify our position with a Japanese merchant vessel, we found we were on our course."

MOTOR BALKY

Lindy Has Time In Starting Motor of Plane

CLEVELAND, Aug. 27 (AP).—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh lost his wonted inscrutability late Monday, although it was probably no less than any other flier would have done after 15 tugs at the propeller of his plane in an effort to start a balky motor.

The Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh visited the national air races at municipal airport on their way out of town after spending the day with Parmley Herrick, son of the late ambassador to France.

Mrs. Lindbergh took the controls as her husband winged the propeller. Fifteen times he spun it and stepped back, but the motor would not start. He perspired freely but said no word. An official offered him the assistance of a mechanic if he wished to take the controls himself but the colonel replied, "No, she knows how to do it. We'll get started some way."

After ten more tries the motor roared and the colonel grinned. "We" took off for an unannounced destination.

REPORTS FROM THE INJURED

COTHERN YOUTH IS CARRIED HOME

Oscar Cothern, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Cothern, 1118 seventh street, who sustained a shotgun wound Friday night on a farm one and one-half miles southwest of this city, was returned home today from the Lubbock sanitarium, following rapid development in his condition.

The lad will be convalescing several days.

W. A. Wolfe, 74-year-old farmer, was released Saturday on $1,000 bond following investigation in connection with the shooting, which is alleged to have occurred when Wolfe heard a disturbance in his watermelon patch.

PIRTLE GIRL IS ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

Miss Billie Pirtle, 20, of Anton, daughter of Dr. J. B. Pirtle of that city, is recovering satisfactorily at the Lubbock sanitarium today following poisoning, self administered, Sunday, according to announcement this afternoon.

Miss Pirtle, in a spell of despondency, is said to have swallowed four potassium permanganate tablets. She is resting easily today, attaches at the sanitarium announce.

LOVELESS CHILD IS UNCHANGED TODAY

Although her temperature is slightly lower, condition of Nadine Loveless, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Loveless of the Carlisle community, wounded yesterday morning by accidental discharge of a 32 caliber rifle, remains unchanged today, attendants at the West Texas hospital announced this afternoon.

There is some hope for recovery, provided no complications arise, it was said.

The child was shot through the neck when Barney Beeland, 8, her half-brother, was playing with a gun, while the Loveless family was enroute to New Mexico. The accident occurred 20 miles west of Brownfield.

REPORT FALSE ON KELLEY GIRL

Following a rumor prevalent last night that Madeline Kelly, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kelly, 410 Avenue U, who was injured critically in an automobile accident August 11, had taken a turn for the worse, officials at the Lubbock sanitarium announced this afternoon that the report is positively false.

Miss Kelly is recovering nicely and her condition is no longer considered serious, it was announced.

RISINGER IMPROVED SLIGHTLY TODAY

Alvin P. Risinger, 20-year-old Texas Tech student, who sustained a crushed skull in a motor cycle accident August 18, is reported by Dr. W. L. Baugh at the West Texas hospital as slightly improved this afternoon, following a fairly restful night.

Risinger is resting fairly quiet this afternoon, although his general condition, indicating waning strenth offers little encouragement.

TAHOKA MAN IS BETTER TODAY

Ernest Hill, 23, of Tahoka, who sustained injuries Monday while working on a pipe line near Quitaque, is reported improving today at the Lubbock sanitarium.

Hill was injured by some falling pipe and was rushed to this city for treatment. He sustained several lacerations about the head and his chest was slightly crushed.

ing trouble in gaining altitude. As the ship soared over the edge of the field a large quantity of canned food was hastily dumped overboard to lighten the load.

Alter First Part.

Difficulty in gaining altitude was believed to have led Dr. Eckener to alter the first part of his course to Lakehurst. Instead of heading southeastward to go through the Southern California mountains at San Gorgonio Pass he directed his ship straight toward the south. Tl have gone through San Gorgonio pass the air liner would have had to attain a height of some 9,000 feet.

Necessity of climbing to such an altitude was obviated by taking a course along the Mexican border. Two hours after the takeoff the ship reached a point near the international line at San Diego and headed east. When sighted at Yuma., Ariz., at 4.43 a. m., Pacific time it apparently had increased its speed to 100 miles an hour.

Epic Flight Nears End.

With only 2,500 miles to go to bring to an end the epic flight the last lap was expected to be an easy one for the ship which had outridden the storms of the Atlantic, crossed the frozen steppes of Russia and Siberia and resisted the blustery challenge of the Pacific.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the German lighter-than-air craft, with his navigators were carefully studying meteorological maps as the ship left Los Angeles to ascertain the most practical course across the United States.

Fifty-One Aboard

There were fifty-one men and one woman aboard the ship. The woman, Lady Grace Drummond Hay of London, and fifteen men were passengers, and the crew consisted of thirty-six.

For 16,880 miles the great German dirigible cruised through the skies in three great hops, one across the Atlantic from Lakehurst, N. J., to Friedrichshafen, Germany; the second across Russia and Siberia to Japan, and the third across the Pacific to Los Angeles.

Whether the ship would pay a visit to the National Air races in Cleveland, Ohio, tomorrow hinged upon the meteorological situation. It was the intention of Dr. Eckener to circle Cleveland if weather conditions permitted.

It was believed the dirigible would reach its goal some time tomorrow night. The average speed of the Zeppelin across sthe American continent was expected to be eighty miles an hour.

HIGHWAYS TO BE GOAL OF ASSOCIATION

BEAUTIFICATION OF OLD SPANISH TRAIL IS PROJECT

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 27.—Beautification of the Old Spanish Trail from Orange to El Paso is the major project to be undertaken by the Southeast and West Texas association, recently etntatively formed at Galveston and permanently organized here today.

Called the most unique organization in the south by Mayor Walter E. Montieth of Houston, temporary president, the membership will be limited to city and county officials interested in permanent highways and civic groups and associations whose eligibility is sanctioned by the executive committee.

Not Political

The organization is not political in the slightest and will strive only to "Safeguard and Protest" the interests of the section represented by its membership, speakers emphasized.

"And section can get what it wants if it wants it bad enough." Mayor C. M. Chambers of San Antonio, one of the originators of the organization, stated in delivering the address of welcome to some 1[illegible] delegates, mostly county judges and commissioners along the route of the Old Spanish Trail. Southeast and West Texas, and the section adjacent to San Antonio, particularly, are suffering for want of organization and co-operation."

He said he had noticed signs along principal highways traversing the state directing traffic by way of Fort Worth and Dallas.

"This is unfair to south Texas," he said.

He said San Antonians could not get to Laredo, to Corpus Christi, or to Kerrville without the necessity of traveling over unpaved gaps in the highways.

Mayor Montieth pledged not only the support of Houston but the fullest co-operation of Harris county.

DENIAL MADE ON REPORTS

CABINET CRISIS IS NOT FACING MEXICO, SO OFFICIALS SAY

(By Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 27—Rumors of a cabinet crisis, which were prevalent here, have been denied by Felipe Canales, acting secretary of the interior, who declared that the only secretary likely to retire in the near future is Marte R. Gomez, who holds the agriculture portfolio.

Gomez, it was explained, is considering abandoning his job in the cabinet temporarily to resume his seat in the chamber of deputies for the purpose of defending the projected national labor law, up for discussion at the session opening Sept. 1.

General Joaquin Amaro, secretary of war, has returned from Coahuila, where he spent a two weeks vacation, and Dr. Puig Casaurano, chief of the federal district government, is back from a trip to Los Angeles, Calif.

Simultaneously with Canales denial of the likelihood of a cabinet crisis the federal district military authorities announced that persons caught spreading alarmist rumors would be arrester and severely punished.

HORRORS OF MASSACRE OF JEWS IN HOLY LANDS DESCRIBED IN REPORT FROM HEBRON; WHOLE FAMILIES DIE

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Aug. 27 — The first details to trickle through the strict Palestine censorship revealed this morning the full horror of the massacre at Hebron on Saturday where 72 Jews were cut down by infuriated Arabs. The victims included men, women and children of whom 12 were young American Jewish students at the Slobodka Rabbinical Seminary.

The fiercest fighting seemed to have been enacted in that Biblical town 16 miles from Jerusalem, where David reigned for seven years as king of Judah and where Abraham and Jacob were buried.

Were Eating Meal

C. J. Ketchum, special correspondent of the Daily Express, reported the Jewish population of Hebron quietly partaking of the Sabbath meal when Arab tribesmen descended on the little village. In one home, that of A. D. Slonim, manager of the Anglo-Palestine bank, 18 persons were killed, including the manager, his wife, two children and the parents of Mrs. Slonim.

Saul Gordon, manager of the Jerusalem branch of the same bank, organized a guard of 30 or 40 men to protect his home at Talpioth which stands on the highest hill in the vicinity and was the main object of the Arab attack there. For nearly 48 hours it was under Arab rifle fire.

Business was at a standstill. Whole villages were pillaged and homes burned.

Pampa Editor Has Praise For Lubbock

Lubbock perhaps has more brick homes in proportion to population than any city in West Texas, is the opinion of Olin E. Hinkle, managing editor of the Pampa Daily News who left this morning for Canyon after a brief visit here.

"One gets a distinct shock, however, when arriving in a city so beautiful as Lubbock, after traveling over an unpaved road to the incorporate limits," said Mr. Hinkle.

HOOKS AND SLIDES
By Henry L. Farrell

Wives Cause Trouble

This is a tale dealing with the trouble that wives can cause on a ball club, which was referred to recently in this department. The real names of the ball players involved in this little tale will not be given, for obvious reasons. We'll call them Smith and Jones.

Smith was a high-salaried man and he was lavish in providing swell attire for his wife. Jones was a good ball player, too, but he didn't make enough money to provide the luxuries that Mrs. Smith displayed.

The two players were not on the same ball club or in the same league, but they happened to connect in the same town on an exhibition trip one spring several years ago.

A Friendly Little Tea

The wives of most of the ball players were with them and they arranged an afternoon tea while their husbands were working.

Mrs. Smith came down from her room wearing a magnificent polo coat and the other ladies raved about it.

"That coat is gorgeous," Mrs. Jones said. "I wish Bill was making enough money to get me one like that."

"Do you really like it?" Mrs. Smith asked.

Mrs. Jones said she really liked it.

Came a Knock on the Door

The ball players returned from the park and went to their rooms. The ladies were still in the tea room.

Jones was sitting in his room writing a letter when a knock came on the door. It was a bell hop bearing a neatly bound package.

"What's this?" Jones asked.

"It's something for Mrs. Jones, with the compliments of Joe Smith," the bell hop told him.

Jones opened the package and found the magnificent polo coat that Mrs. Smith had worn earlier in the afternoon.

Murder in His Heart

Jones flew into a rage and dashed down the corridor to Smith's room. Smith was resting on the bed after a shower and Jones went after him.

"Get up and put up your hands, you big bum, I'm going to let you have one," he said.

"What's the matter with you?" Smith wanted to know.

"Whaddye mean by sending clothes to my wife?" Jones roared. "You may be making a lot of dough but you're not going to send any clothes to my wife."

Just when physical combat was impending Mrs. Smith entered the room and explained that she had sent the coat to Mrs. Jones as a present, and that Smith didn't know anything about it.

There was no handshaking between the two belligerents, however. They never spoke afterwards and bad feeling resulted on the club with which Jones played when his teammates kept kidding him about the incident. And they are still riding him about the coat.

FEES SOUGHT IN LAW SUIT

WIDOW OF FORMER TAX COLLECTOR ASKS FOR BACK FUNDS

(By Associated Press)

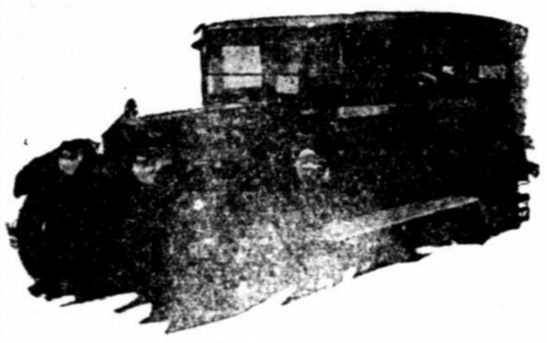

DALLAS, Aug. 27.—Close upon the heels of the legislative investigation of fees of county officials, in which back fees were discussed, Mrs. John M. Lowry, widow of a former Dallas tax collector, today petitioned the county commissioners court to pay her $80,262.29, alleged back fees due her husband's estate.

The petition lists the fees due for the fiscal years from December 1, 1920, to November 30, 1926, ranging from $6,731.34 for the first year to $21,770.66 for the last year. The figures were certified as correct by Henry Schupback, chief deputy clerk under Lowry.

Grounds for the claim were set forth in the petition to be the passage of a law in 1923, known as the Eonham bill, which provided for the making of back tax collection fees an unaccountable or ex officio fees Lowry while in office paid all such fees over to the county under protest.

CONTROLLABLE PROPELLERS SEEN AS IMPROVEMENT IN AVIATION PROGRESS

By ALLAN QUINN
Associated Press Aviation Editor

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 27 (AP)—Airplanes flying at high altitudes at perhaps double the speed posible near the ground through use of propellers whose pitch is controllable by the pilot, were pictured to aeronautic engineers here today.

Solution of the problem of the controllable pitch propeller is inevitable in the next few years, T. P. Wright and W. R. Turnbill, engineers of the Curtiss aeroplane and motor company, reported to a joint meeting of the Society of Automotive Engineers and the aeronautical chamber of commerce, and it must come if the full efficiency of the airplane is to be realized.

They told of work being done on several pitch controlling devices.

"In the future of flying" the engineers said "a line of development can easily be foreseen by which airplanes will no longer fly near the sea level, but will ascend to great altitudes and fly at much greater speed than any heretofore attained with expenditures of no more fuel than they would use near sea level.

The first bale of the season was brought in yesterday morning by S. W. Smith, nine miles west of this city.

A price of 17 cents was offered for the bales Monday and owners refused.

ALL-STARS MEET HUBBERS HERE IN MID-WEEK GAME WEDNESDAY

CUBS CONSIDERED "IN" AS LOOP PENNANT WINNERS

IN THE REALM OF SPORT

WITH ALLAN CARNEY
Journal Sports Editor

The season of the year has arrived when football coaches assume their most melancholy outlook, take on long faces and begin to moan about the lack of material they have on hand and the strength of their opponents. And we don't blame them in the least. Why should they predict a whirlwind season and be forced to retract all this when they see their club buried under an avalanche of touchdowns.

It is much wiser to take the pessimistic angle when the prospects for the season are in doubt. Predict a bad season and if things turn out rosy, you are a wizard or something of this nature—this is the attitude all wise members of the coaching profession have learned to take.

We were reminded of this subject by the long wail heard from Vernon where Heinie Weir is master of grid ceremonies. The head Lion mentor points out the almost unsurmountable task of filling the shoes of such men as Cox, Coffee, Hindman, Stevens, Sharp and Ramsey. Only the impossible will give Vernon a winning club this fall, the Lion coach intimates. This strange change in tune is alarming. Only recently football fans of the Wilbarger county capital were telling the world that Weir was certain to have the best team Vernon has seen in years and years. Since returning from a coaching school at Evanston, Ill., Weir and his assistant, Ralph Binion, have adopted the gloomy attitude to the extent that a menacing cloud has formed over the Vernon high school building. The Vernon sport scribe is likely to predict a Quanah victory over his homelings before the storm cloud has passed.

From what we can gather, the 1929 Vernon Lions will be outstanding contenders for the district crown. The Jungle Kings have the advantage of meeting both Amarillo and Lubbock in their own lair. And don't let anyone tell you that Vernon is easy to beat in its own back yard. No city in the district is behind its high school team any stronger than Vernon. Lubbock football fans might well take a tip from the Lion enthusiasts. A crowd of 5,000 at a conference game there is nothing unusual. With college football here to stimulate interest, Lubbock should allow no member of District One to outdo her in the matter of attendance.

Contrary to general opinion, the chances of Texas Tech to gain admission to the Southwestern Conference will depend mainly on the turnout here for the games with Southwest Conference teams. A first favorable impression was made in 1927 when 7,500 turned out for the Tech-A. and M. battle. This next season the T. C. U. Horned Frogs will be seen in action on the Tech gridiron and the gate figures will be watched a great deal more closely than the score. A tidy sum must be raised to bring a conference team to Lubbock and it will be up to the football fans of this city and section to prove that a Southwest Conference membership will pay in Lubbock.

The business end of intercollegiate athletics can not possibly be overlooked. The factor is uppermost in the minds of officials when schedules are arranged as it will likewise be when Texas Tech bids again for a berth in the conference. The Matadors have proven their drawing power away from home on several occasions and now the only remaining question is whether or not Lubbock can make a conference team pay.

Word comes that thirty-three candidates are out for the Ralls high school eleven. Coach Froggie Lowvorn is to have three assistants this year to work with the Jackrabbits. These are H. H. Rumph, R. M. Read and J. M. Rankin. Lowvorn and his assistants have started out in earnest to prepare for their first game of the season here with the Westerners on Sept. 20.

Huggins Begins To Wreck And Revamp Club For '30

PURCHASE OF GOMEZ IS PART OF WORK FOR NEW TEAM

By WERNER LAUFER
NEA Service Writer

As far as Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yankes, is concerned, the pennant race for this year is all over but the shouting.

Not that his boys are not running out their base hits or that his pitchers are not bearing down, but as for catching up with Connie Mack's high-flying Athletics, even little Miller has formally thrown in the sponge.

His main concern for the balance of the summer is warding off the belligerent Cleveland Indians, who are seriously considering a climb into second place. But for Messrs. Ruppert, Barrows and Huggins to stay curled up and let the Athletics take away their role of perennial champions is another story.

Meusel to Depart.

It is generally known that the Yankee management contemplates wrecking the old championship club. With a monotonous succession of pennant and world series victories the team became pennant rich. The pitching staff suffered the inroads of old age.

Babe Ruth, still the monarch of the league's home run hitters, will admit he is past the crest. Bob Meusel, with the Yankees many years, seems to have outlived his usefulness to the champions. He is sure to be seen in a different uniform next season.

But most of the crumbling has been in Huggins' hurling staff, and here is where the bulk of the rebuilding is being done. Just recently Bill Essick, western scout for the Yanks, completed a deal with the San Francisco Seals for Vernon Gomez, 19-year-old lefthanded pitcher who has made quite a record on the coast this summer.

Information comes that the Yankees shelled out $25,000 and two players, yet to be named, for the recruit. Gomez had won 13 games and lost six when the deal was made.

Great Prospect

This is his second season in professional baseball. He labored in the Utah-Idaho League last year. He is said to be one of the greatest mound prospects ever graduated by the Coast League to the big show.

Two other prospects for Huggins' hurling department next year are Ivy Andrews from Mobile and John Allen of the Asheville Sally League club. For Andrews the Yanks rang the paid-out wey to the tune of 20,000 smackers. For Allen they pried of $10,000.

Both men are pitching excellent ball in the minors and are said to be quite ready for major league firing. And then the Yanks have secured Pitcher L. A. McEvoy of the Oakland club. It is said he cost plenty. Pitchers Daglia and Craighead of the same club are under Yankee option and may branch out as major leaguers next spring.

At Third Base

The work at third has not altogether satisfied the mite manager this year. Hence Third Baseman Chapman of the St. Paul American Association club has been purchased. If Chapman can hit and field as well for Hug as he did in the big minor league this year, he will plug the hole left when Joe Dugan departed. Chapman at late figuring was hitting .342 and leading the league in runs batted in with 87.

Muggins has as much as said that Bob Meusel will go. And he has hopes that Outfielder Cooke, also of St. Paul, will take Bob's place. Just how far the Yanks dug into the old clubhouse sock for this bird has not been divulged.

But it must have been quite a bundle of lettuce when you consider that Cooke is the classiest outfielder in the Association. He is leading all the regulars in hitting with a .383 mark, which, even though it may be shaved down somewhat by American League pitching, is enough to insure him a fine chance to start the 1930 season alongside of Babe Ruth and Earl Combs. Sam Byrd and Cedric Durst are good ball players, but they do not quite satiate the New York fans' epicurean tastes.

If all of Huggins' present plans pan out, the Yanks will be in the thick of it again next year. Many believe he can hold the Athletics' lease of first place to one year.

Lou Gehrig, Babe Ruth, Tony Lazzeri, Earl Combs, Mark Koenig and Bill Dickey are good enough to hold their own with the rank and file of the A's. It is in pitching that the Mackmen have the big edge. Give Huggins some luck with his newcomers and he will make it tough for Connie's men.

Young Bill Dickey is the best young catcher to come up since Mickey Cochrane came out of the Coast League. He has improved so fast he threatens to be as great a catcher as Mickey himself, if such a feat is possible.

The New York fans have become so used to having at least one team in the world series, they will yell murder should both the Yanks and Giants decay even so little as to become chronic runner-up teams. Jake Ruppert knows there is big money only in winners. And Jake Ruppert is no slouch of a business man.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Sammy Dorfman, New York lightweight won on a foul in the second round of his ten round match with Augie Pisano of New York, at Dexter Park, Brooklyn, last night.

Vernon Gomez . . . The Yanks outbit the Giants to bring him from the coast.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27 (AP)—A second complaint, charging theft of labor, was ordered filed today by City Prosecutor Lloyd S. Nix against C. C. Pyle, sports promoter, in connection with allegedly unpaid labor bills pending from his trans-continental footrace of a few weeks ago.

The complaint was signed by Jim Thorpe, famous Indian athlete, who charge that $259 due him in connection with the "bunion derby" had not been paid. Saturday a complaint charging Pyle with violation of the state labor laws was issued by Nix following failure of the promoter to satisfy a $483 labor claim. SPUDDERS ON TOP AGAIN IN TEXAS LEAGUE

PAYNE'S HURLING IS FACTOR AGAIN IN TEAM'S WIN

By GAYLE TALBOT, Jr.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The three-quarter pole in the northern clubs' last junket through the southern sector was reached today with the Spudders nursing a one-game lead accumulated yesterday and favored by a friendly schedule that sent them against the somnolent San Antonio Indians for three days.

Offhand it looked like a real break for Galloway's hard pressed warriors. Stimulated by a parting victory over the Exporters, 12 to 4, and with Andy Messenger ready to go against his former mates in the opening game, things were looking up. The tribe has been folding up before everybody else, so there is no reason to believe it can hold the Spudders.

Steers Face Buffs

While the leaders are hitting what has come to be the soft spot on the circuit, their closest pursuers, Houston and Dallas, respectively will be engaged in a merry game of cut-throat in the Bayou city. The Steers were two contests back of the Bisons, with an opportunity to climb into second place. Theirs is the weeks crucial series, if any.

The fourth-place Shreveporters, last of four club now given a chance to cop the second half, faced a trio of games at Beaumont. A set-back here might prove fatal to Sport hopes. Fort Worth, admittedly out of it and building for next season, invaded Katy Park at Waco for three days, during which the usual quota of homeruns no doubt will be knocked.

George Payne Delivers

George Payne so far has proved the salvation of the Spudders on their Southern jaunt. Out of three victories credited to the oilers in 10 starts on the road, Ol' Rubber Arm has turned in two. He limited the Exporters to seven knocks yesterday and, incidentally, ran his personal record to 24 wins and 10 losses this season. His closest rivals, Caldwell of Waco and Lindsey of Houston, have won 18 apiece.

The Cats needed only two big innings to salvage the final game of their Houston series and knock the Buffaloes off the peak. Four runs off Wachtel in the second and two more in the eighth accounted for the 6 to 3 verdict. Paulio allowed his old mates 16 safeties. Bonowitz, with a double and two singles, was the worst offender. Lil Stoner relieved Walkup in the ninth and whiffed the last three batters.

FIGHT BETWEEN 3 SWIMMERS LOOMS

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 27 (AP)—Another three-cornered international duel is in prospect in the fourth Wrigley 15-mile marathon swim in Lake Ontario here tomorrow.

In a field of more than 400 entries, three stand out in advance calculations — George Young of Canada; Ernest Vierkoetter of Germany, and Georges Michel of France.

Young first leaped into fame when he captured the first Wrigley marathon at Catalina Island three years ago. Vierkoetter won the second and Michel took down most of the prize money last year although he failed to finish. The Frenchman covered 12 1-4 miles in 11 hours and 12 minutes and was the sole survivor when he was forced to withdraw.

BRAGS COSTLY

Football Player In Jail Thinking of His Next Play

LAWRENCE, Kas., Aug. 27. (AP)—T. J. Brenan, 22, drove into town yesterday afternoon and parked his sport model roadster before a leading hotel and entered to partake of nourishment.

"A nice motor car," ventured a stranger. "Must cost a lot to operate it."

"Well, I make plenty," admitted Brenan modestly, "I'm on my way to join Red Grange's football team."

"Oh, are you a football player?" asked the affable stranger with the proper degree of awe."

"Former all-American tackle," said Brenan, inhaling deeply.

"I guess you're the man, then," said the stranger. "I'm Will Johnson, chief of police here, and I've been asked by the Santa Monica, Calif., authorities to tackle you when you came through here for giving a $1,825 worthless draft on a New York city bank."

Brenan was in jail today thinking out the next play.

BETTENCOURT AND AKERS STRONGEST

DALLAS, Aug. 27 (AP)—There are plenty of players in the Texas League who can sizzle a ball across the diamond, but a canvas of the circuit's infielders has revealed that Larry Bettencourt of the Spudders and Bill Akers of Beaumont are the lads with the most powerful throwing arms.

Due to the argument as to which has more smoke, it has been suggested that they be matched for a game of "burn out," but it probably could not be arranged. Both, other players agree, would come out with broken hands.

Akers, crack Exporter shortstop, warms up like a pitcher before every game. Claude Robertson uses a catcher's mitt for the purpose. His rifle-like shots broke the hands of a youn first baseman in the spring and now the veteran, Bill Kelly, takes his heaves from short with a "give" of his glove.

Bettenoourt, Spud utility man, throws just as hard. Recently, while the Spudders were playing Fort Worth, he playfully tossed one across the diamond to Ray Grimes, veteran Cat first baseman, with such force that Grimes was knocked from the bag. Grimes refused to take another of his throws.

CLUB'S LEAD OVER PIRATES IS INCREASED

BRUINS ARE 13½ GAMES IN FRONT; HORNSBY STILL HITTING

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Cub pitching fails, Joe McCarthy's batsmen come to the rescue with basehits to keep the Bruins well in advance of any National league pursuers.

It was a terrific batting rally in the eighth inning yesterday that enabled the Chicago pennant hopes to down Cincinnati, 9 to 5, and stretch their lead over the second place Pittsburgh Pirates to 13 1-2 games.

Hornsby and Kiki Cuyler were the most active batsmen with three hits apiece. A crowd of 35,000 turned out to see the battle.

In the only other National league game of the day, the Phillies nosed out the St. Louis Cardinals, 7 to 6, in a heetic fray decided in the last two innings. The Phils, trailing by 6 to 2 at the end of the first half of the eighth, came within one of a tie when Davis hit a home run with two on. In the ninth three singles and a wild throw by Ernest Orsatti gave the Phils two more runs and the game.

The American league had a day off while eastern teams were getting back to their home bases from the west.

VEECK FALTERS IN PREPARATION STAND

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP)—A margin of 13 1-2 games over Pittsburgh has caused President William Veeck of the Cubs to falter in his resolution to do nothing about world series tickets until the Cubs are "in."

Mr. Veeck relaxed enough to say no extra bleacher seats would be built over streets adjacent to Wrigley field. He said about 10,000 more fans could be accommodated by spending $40,000 on extra seats outside the park and the club would not get back more than half that amount.

Applications continue to pour into the Cub office, but they are being returned as rapidly as received.

NEW HIGHWAY ROUTE TO NEW MEXICO IS TOURED

MOTORCADE GOES OVER NEW ROUTE DURING MONDAY

Twenty automobiles, carrying 100 Lubbock citizens, returned to this city last night, after having attended the highway meeting Monday at Portales, N. M., and motored 300 miles in the interest of the Panhandle South Plains fair and the proposed new Texas-New Mexico connecting route.

The Lubbock delegation was accompanied by the Lubbock high school band, under direction of H. A. Anderson.

Cars Join Group

Seven cars joined the motorcade at Levelland and the caravan was increased 20 automobiles at Morton, where George Lance, president of the Morton Chamber of Commerce, headed a big delegation. Towns of Enmy, Causey and Dora, N. M., were visited. Five cars were added to the motorcade at Causey and 15 at Elida.

The Texas portion of the route abounded in cotton, corn, grain, sorghums and some broom corn, with hundreds of cattle grazing over green ranges.

Crops Abundant

In New Mexico, in the shallow-water belt adjacent to Portales and Elida, there is an abundance of broom corn, sweet potatoes, peanuts, fruit trees, poultry and dairy cattle.

R. J. Murray, pace maker and speech maker of the motorcade, with James H. Goodman and Dr. George Smallwood, delivered to crowds at every stop the message of invitation to come to the Panhandle-South Plains fair, at Lubbock, September 30 to October 5, inclusive. From every place came expressions of goodwill toward Lubbock and definite promises that those communities would be represented, by exhibits and by citizens.

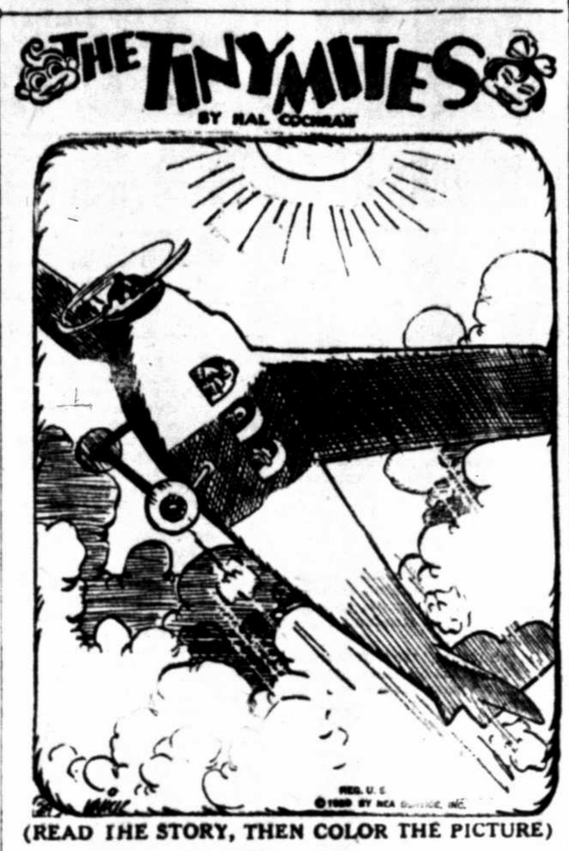

Elida Welcomes

Elida welcomed the delegation with cold lemonade, served by young ladies of the city, R. L. Allen, and Rev. Joe F. Grizzle, of that place, delivering addresses of welcome.

In the cooling shade of giant cottonwood trees, where the headquarters of "Billy, The Kid" once were in existence, Cole Howard, former member of the New Mexico legislature; Mrs. Marie Cavanaugh, present legislator of that state, and Sam M. Seay, secretary of the Portales chamber of commerce, welcomed the visitors and told the romantic tale of the change come over the Portales section since the days of outlawry ruled.

Portales not only has changed from a pioneer trading point to a bustling agricultural metropolis, but it is preparing to become a college city, with the building of the New Mexico State Teachers college there in the near future.

The personnel of the Lubbock boosters included, L. G. West, Mr. and Mrs Morton J. Smith, George Benson, Mrs. W. A. Goodman, R. J. Murray, K. Carter, jr., James H. Goodman, Wayne Hutson, Sheriff Wade Hardy, Alton Hutson, Garnett Reeves, George H. Moore, E. Kancher, E. A. Tusha, R. M. Walker, Dr. George Smallwood, H. A. Anderson, Elmo Wall, T. E. Boyd, C. J. Meyers, W. H. Grissom, while from Hurlwood there were, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pincher, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Peach, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Horton and daughter, Evelyn, W. F. Revill and Mrs. Margaret Jones.

Customs Agents Are Burned In Explosion

DETROIT Aug. 27 (AP)—Three agents of the United States customs border patrol were burned seriously late Monday by an explosion which wrecked a customs patrol launch as it was leaving the patrol base here. The cause was not determined.

E. R. Norwood head of the dry enforcement agents operating in the Detroit River Lake Erie and Lake St. Clair said he believed the launch might have been tampered with by rum runners. An investigation has been ordered.

LYNN AND DAWSON COUNTIES HAVE ON GREATEST DIVERSIFICATION PROGRAM IN HISTORY; DAIRYING IS FEATURED

O'DONNELL Aug. 27—Lynn and Dawson counties have on the greatest program of diversification that has yet been experienced in the history of this section. With the cotton crop cut short on account of the dry weather the chambers of commerce of O'Donnell, Lamesa and Tahoka have on a program that is covering the two counties like a blanket.

People in general are realizing the value of, and are turning to diversification as never before. The chief project of the diversification program is that of dairying and while it was started some time ago it is just now reaching proportions worthy of the attention of the state in general. With the two hundred thousand dollar powdered milk plant being built at Lamesa and the cooling station which will be built at Tahoka when the plant is ready to consume large quantities of milk, the cow finance plan which will accompany them, and the truck lines which will reach every part of the two counties, this section will become one of the greatest dairying centers in the whole southwest within a very short time.

Have Farm Agents

Each of the counties have a farm agent, a home demonstration agent, and Lynn county has three vocational agriculture men while Lamesa has one. Lamesa, Tahoka and O'Donnell, which is built on the county line between the two counties, all maintain active chambers of commerce with exceptionally large budgets compared to the size of the towns and all are co-operating in the diversification drive especially the dairy project. This makes a combined force of three chamber of commerce secretaries, two county farm agents, two home demonstration agents, and four vocational agriculture men at work besides the many committees of business men, farmers and individuals who are helping in the campaign. The Douthit Engineering company of Chicago, which is putting up half of the capital for and is building the milk plant at Lamesa and will build the cooling station at Tahoka has announced that their cow survey exceeded their expectations. There are already about four thousand milk cows and heifers coming into production this fall, and about fifty registered dairy bulls, most of them exceptionally well bred, in the two counties and this number will be greatly increased during the next year.

"LITTLE FOX'S" RECORD CERTIFIED

Veteran Texas Officer Said To Be Carrying 22 Leaden Slugs In Body; Has Colorful Career

AUSTIN, Aug. 26 (AP)—The "Little Fox" is having his service record for 34 years with the Texas Rangers certified.

The "Little Fox," otherwise Deputy Joe Bell of Bexar county, is supposed to have more bullets in his body than any living Texan. Although he is 69 he carries his age and 22 leaden slugs like a youngster. His original ranger service record destroyed years ago when the old capitol here burned.

"Little Fox" was brought to the United States from Germany when a child. At 15 he joined the rangers. Twice captured by the Apache Indians, three times by the Comanches, he always escaped. The Apaches he said, once tied him to a cot, stripped him of his clothing placed him between two poisoned spears that would have pierced his cheeks had he moved and then stirred up a bed of red ants underneath him. He survived the torture.

Bell always followed the rule that he would not shoot unless he had to.

"A man who knows the power of powder and lead won't use it," he said. "When it leaves the muzzle of that gun you have no control of it. I've always treated everybody like I want them to treat me.

"The eye is quicker than the trigger finger. You can look a man out of shooting quicker than you can shoot him."

Thought For Today

Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help. —Daniel 11:34.

It is a noble and a great thing to cover the blemishes and excuse the failings of a friend.—South.

In 10 Seconds

Lieutenant Alford Williams, the U. S. navy's crack speed flyer, has a new seaplane of unique design in which he is going to try to break the world speed record of 318 miles per hour at the international speed races in England in September.

It is reported that he will try to reach a speed of 400 miles per hour in his tiny plane, nearly all of which is motor and which looks a lot like an overgrown mosquito.

The little ship is said to be the fastest airplane ever built. It is of 1100 horsepower and weighs only four pounds to the horsepower, a ratio never before achieved. It has a 24-cylinder motor with 48 sparkplugs, four carburetors and four distributors. The wings are so tiny in proportion to the motor that if the engine stopped the ship would fall like a plummet as it could not glide. In other words, it has to go through the air like a bullet, mostly on its momentum.

It has a minimum speed of 100 miles per hour, meaning that Lieutenant Williams must land and take off at a speed greater than the maximum of most planes. This makes landing on the water especially dangerous because if a pontoon struck even a small piece of driftwood at this terrific speed there might be a disaster.

Four hundred miles per hour is approximately six and one-half miles per minute, or a mile every 10 seconds. Consider a speed like that; consider how much even the slightest misjudgment of direction or altitude on Lieutenant Williams' part would mean. In the time required to bat an eye he might be hundreds of feet off his course. He might crash before his brain could re-act on his muscles to shift the controls.

It's interesting, all right—and it will be heroic and thrilling if he does it. The test may add to the knowledge of airplane design and of motors and thereby benefit practical aviation.

We fail to see where very much is going to be accomplished for aviation by a stunt like this, but we can't help but admire Lieutenant Williams for his courage and the tremendous risk he will assume in making the attempt. If he succeeds in breaking the record in this frail, bullet-like plane on which the experts have labored so long, it will be not because of the machine, but because there was a man who was daring enough to fly it.

We wish him well; we hope he makes it. It's going to be a thrilling attempt and his bravery should be rewarded with success.

But, after all, it will be only a stunt and—succeed or fail—of slight valuee to aid sound common-sense, business-like commercial aviation.

Respect

Newton D. Baker, defending a Cleveland editor from a charge of contempt of court, declared that a court can best inspire respect and admiration, not by punishing those who criticize it, but by gaining a reputation for wisdom, fairness and poise.

That is a point that is worth emphasizing. The power of a judge to punish for contempt of court is often used to make a judge's actions immune from criticism. And the judge who abuses his power in that regard is doing far more to bring his court into contempt than the man who ventured to argue with him.

As Mr. Baker points out: if a man be a judge, and another man thinks him an improper person to be a judge, the judge does not become proper by restraining the man who thinks him improper from expressing his opinion.

The wife of a well-known Chicago singer complained because her husband stopped serenading her after they were married. Judge sentenced him to sing to her twice a day. One way of keeping harmony in the home.

THE PLAINSMAN Says

That Girl on Broadway says it's all right for a woman to make over the man she marries—but she shouldn't make over him too much.

The neighboring sport writer who laments that kicking is a lost art has never been in the middle of a lot of Lubbock motorists when the lady driver ahead stalls her motor on a green light.

The Plainsman is going to watch with interest the success or failure of the new grading method to be instituted in Lubbock high school this year. Those of you who read Superintendent M. H. Duncan's explanation in the Sunday paper will remember that under the new system it will be possible for high school students to apply themselves and get a diploma in less than the regular four year period and, in reverse order, will keep those who do not do par work in the institution for as long as a five year term.

This writer is very much like every other man outside the teaching profession—he doesn't know any more about its problems than a hog knows about Christmas. For that reason he's perfectly willing to let school people run the schools and base their principles upon actual experience in that line. Yet, like everyone else who thinks at all, he is interested in anything which deals with public education and particularly with new innovations incorporated therein.

Like all other basic professions, the teaching business has been more or less hide-bound for a number of generations. Educators generally, like ministers, doctors and lawyers, have frowned upon new innovations and have been backed up in their timerity by the public which in all things is inclined to take the stand that "what was good enough for paw and maw is good enough for me." As a result, education has not kept pace with business, commerce and invention and The Plainsman, for one, is perfectly willing to see steps taken in an effort to improve upon archaic customs and principles.

Improvement in any line is dependent upon new customs, new innovations. No person, no business can rock along in the same old rut, year after year and benefit as greatly as if either embraced advantages offered by progress. The same thing holds good with the schools. It's all right to sit on a fence post, upon is tacked a sign "To New York," if you want to but you'll never get to New York just sitting there. You'll have to try some means of locomotion and the schools, to become more efficient, in keeping with the outside world, will have to act similarly.

Doubtless there are many in Lubbock who, if given the opportunity, would rule against the change instituted in high school grading. The Plainsman, frankly, has no idea whether or not the plan is a good one. But he's willing to leave the matter to those who have made a life study of schools and education and who should, if anyone does, know what they're doing. The outcome is going to be highly interesting to watch.

Editor-Legislator Frank Baldwin, of the Waco News-Tribune and Times-Herald, has been browsing through the news reports from over Texas and, under the caption "So This is Texas!" tells what he found. Here 'tis:

"With a single stroke of his pen, County Judge O'Neal of Hunt county wiped a town off the map. The town of Roberts, named after Governor Roberts, had disappeared, so far as buildings go, so it was officially wiped out by a court order.

"After a hunt of 12 years, prison authorities recaptured Bud Russell of Lufkin.

"The disappointments of public office are great. Mayor Tate of Dallas has been told he can't ride in the circus parade, for the reason the circus won't have any parade.

"Quite a stir arose when Amarillo found it had a crook in jail—of all places. A man picked the pockets of others, it was claimed. "He ought to be locked up," one prisoner growled.

"Yo-yo claimed its first victim when Frank Lemonica, Houston boy, was killed while trying to retrieve a toy from the street.

"Another man of poor aim. A Quanah peddler got out his gun while quarreling but the shot struck him, rather than the other fellow, and killed him.

"But Miana Sanchez at Galveston thinks the fellow who attacked him was probably the poorest shot, though a few small pellets peppered him.

"A San Antonio negro tried to "milk" some rattlesnake venom from a dead snake, but got the scare of his life when it squirted into his eye. He was told the poison was harmless, unless it got into his blood."

Secretary Wilbur Believes Troubles With Uncle Sam's Indian Wards Can Be Ended By Providing Jobs For Them

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. — Work for the Indians!" is the keynote of the program which Secretary of the Interior Ray Lyman Wilbur is working out for the rehabilitation of the 350,000 redeem on the government's 200 reservations.

"We want to get them away from the reservations," Wilbur says. "Reservations are the worst kind of places for them and they ought to have a chance to share in American prosperity."

The next session of Congress probably will receive requests from the Indian bureau for authorization and appropriations for an Indian employment agency, which will be the foremost item in plans now under formulation by Wilbur and Indian Commissioner Charles J. Rhoads.

He Hasn't Much Chance

Wilbur and Rhoads are going on the theory that the Indian's lack of opportunity for productive effort is largely responsible for his many troubles. Health conditions on the reservations, which have long been a public scandal, are now traced to under-nourishment brought about by the Indian's inability to feed himself.

Baby death rates and tuberculosis death rates have been four or five times as high among the Indians as among white populations, and trachoma has for years been a racial scourge.

The custom has been to attribute this to the non-resistance of the aborigines to white men's disease. Congressional committees have gone to the reservations to investigate, seen the terrible conditions for themselves and returnd to yell for more doctors, nurses and hospitals.

But Wilbur believes he has gotten to the root of the trouble when he cites under-nourishment as the great evil of the Indians.

The Institute for Government Research after its exhaustive study, reported that 90 per cent of the reservation Indians were undernourished.

Wilbur says they have lacked food because they have lacked jobs. On the reservations they are isolated and absolutely idle, with no chance to earn any money. So they sit and starve and die. Meanwhile the southwestern country calls for labor and half a million Mexicans have been imported for work in the last 10 years. The theory is that, with the reservations so nearby, tens of thousands of these jobs could have been taken over by Indians. The Indians are regarded as good workers, clever with hands, tools and machines.

The interior secretary's theory of course, is a frightful commentary on the intelligence and competence of previous administrators of Indian affairs. It is a tacit admission that the third-rate politicians who have landed nterior Department and Indian bureau jobs in the past have let their situation go from bad to worse while the Indians suffered and died.

The government disclaim s responsibility for feeding its Indian wards. It has been many years since they were rationed. Reservation superintendents are still supposed to ration destitute and decrepit men and women, but that hasn't affected the general condition of under-nourishment.

William Atherton Du Puy of the Interior Department, a lifelong student of the Indians, tells your correspondent of an instance where the "Work for Indians" theory has already demonstrated its success. He was out on the Sacaton agency in Arizona recently talking to Hugh Patton, a full-blooded Pima Indian who keeps a store there.

More Work—Less Sickness

Du Puy knew that these Indians once had a great deal of tuberculosis and trachoma and he asked Patton why these diseases had mostly disappeared.

"The Pimas used to be very poor," he quotes Patton as replying. "They were stranded here with no chance to make a decent living. From the time they were small children until they grew old they rarely had all they wanted to eat. They were unable to throw off disease, so weak were their bodies.

"But in recent years they have been going away and earning money. They have been working especially in the cotton fields of Salt River Valley. They have had plenty of money to buy food and they have been well nourished. So they have thrown off the diseases they used to have and got well. The young ones have not contracted disease. They are a quite healthy people."

He was out five minutes, he fractured his jaw.

Treasure Is Sought In Ancient Palace

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 27 (AP) — Legends of a treasure trove beneath the old Spanish Governor's Palace have caused many night searches by seekers of hidden gold in the structure which has been acquired by the city and will be restored to its original form.

Many nocturnal visitors became so eager in their hunt that they tore up portions of the floor and dug earth in a score of places. As a result the city has erected a high wire fence around the building and placed the palace under lock and key.

Workmen's picks and shovels recently yielded a 40-foot wall under the structure which probably had been covered for more than a century.

Going Places With Swan

Gilbert Swan

DETROIT, Aug. 27—One day last winter, I was lunching with one of those more-or-less celebrated English novelists who visit our shores and spend the rest of the year writing about it.

"You Americans don't know your own United States," he was upbraiding me. "Just a few hours away from your New York is your modern Bagdad—I mean a place which is like some capital of the ancient Orient. You know of course, how travelers from all the far-flung countries of the world would make their way to those old Oriental centers; how they would study the works and the ways and exchange the subjects of the earth."

Timidly, I inquired what this place might be. And his answer was, "Detroit." I smiled, thinking of Ford parts and terrific automotive production, of machines and a mechanical age.

"Do you realize," the author snapped at me, "that all Europe travels to Detroit to see those wheels go round? London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Moscow—they all want to know how they do it there. I will venture a guess that 80 per cent of all business-minded men who come to Ameirca, look over New York by necessity, but visit Detrot to look and wonder. Do you realze that the jungles and the boulevards have to know Detroit if they're going to travel on wheels? To the world it's the high spot in this new mechanical age. And its turrets are as the minarets of old—it is fantastic and fabulous. And you take it as a matter of course."

Well, I'm sitting in a hotel room on a very hot day, looking down upon a triangular park and streets hedged in trees. I don't know my Bagdad and ancient Orient perhaps as I should. Nor can I find any columnist who recorded the day-to-day impressions. I have some vague memory of reading staggering figures concerning the millions made by a certain Mr. Ford and by General Motors. And I was far from ignorant regarding the number of pilgrimages which are made to his busy shrine.

Still and all, taking a river boat just before dusk and looking shoreward at the miles of flats upon which furnaces belch their Fourth of Julyesque spectacles, it's difficult to disagree with the visiting Englishman who sees these things from a happier perspective.

Being closer to those problems one hears discussed on street corners, it was the new skyline of Windsor, Ontario, which left me staggered.

Here, when I was a lad, was the sleepiest river town one could find in a year's travels. From Sarnia back and forth, the little towns slumbered in a blissful Canadian lethargy. Indians wove baskets and took them across to the American summer resorts. Bicyclists took the Canadian roads to avoid "scorchers." And now a dozen sky-reaching hotels rise and thrive and everything is brisk and busy as in the most active of communities. Down the river at Walkerville the bourbon and rye plants turn out pints by the boatload. And on a Saturday or Sunday, the Windsor-bound ferryboat slips are swamped with Americanos rushing over to hire a hotel room and order up some ale and rye.

Looking over the narrow expanse of river and watching the fleets of little boats rushing back and forth, one can not but wonder how a vast traffic in wet goods is to be curbed. If I ever see my English friend again, I'm going to ask him what part the English ale played in his Detroit adventures.

GILBERT SWAN.

CHANGE OF OCCUPATION AS A CURE FOR ASTHMA ADVISED BY DR. PETERS

Flaxseed Dust Causes Asthma

"Dear Doctor: My husband has been suffering with asthma. He is a longshoreman and has to inhale all kinds of dust, including flaxseed meal, and this is no less than a poison to him. His eyes get red and watery and he sneezes a lot and has an almost steady discharge from the nose. He gets some eruptions on his face and other parts of his body; but all this is nothing compared with the agony of the difficulty of breathing. What can he do?

"MRS. A."

Your husband's asthma is no doubt due to the flaxseed dust, Mrs. A. He is suffering from what is known as an allergy. (It is also known as an idiosyncrasy, or an anaphylaxis, or a sensitization.) Many cases of asthma, hives, hay fever, eczema and migraine (one-sided headache) are due to these sensitizatians. The mucous membranes of his bronchial tubes and intestinal tract are irritated just as his eyes are.

He will have to change his work, Mrs. A., because it is improbable that he will ever get over his asthma until he does.

We have an article on Colds, which takes up asthma. You may have this by following column rules.

Mrs. M. Says that I did not answer her last letter. She writes again, for the Bible says that "for his importunity he will answer!" So, as I must fulfill the prophecy, here's your answer, Mrs. M.

Do not put your faith in any of those advertised medications for tumors. The one you speak of is a monumental fake. "Predigested food that builds up the body naturally," rubbing the tumors for two hours at a time, etc., etc. Such a criminal fake! Undoubtedly the cause of many deaths from the cancers which had been treated correctly, in time, might have been cured. One of the things you must avoid in the case of tumors, is any passage, for if there should be cancer cells present, they will more quickly be distributed.

Yes, fibroid tumors of the uterus unless they are too large, frequently disappear after the menopause. One of the treatments is the use of the X-ray or radium, which not only favorably affects the tumors themselves, but brings on the menopause so the uterus will have a natural shrinking, and the tumor shrink along with it.

You didn't say what your weight is(but I imagine you are overweight, as you are also suffering from gall bladder trouble, possibly stones, and this is most frequent in the overweight. And you also have high blood pressure, which is also very common in the overweight! You need to be under the care of a competent physician, and no doubt he will tell you that you should gradually reduce your weight.

We have an article on Flood Pressure, and pamphlets on Reducing and Gaining Weight, and Hygiene of Women, if you are interested, all of which you can obtain by following column rules.

Mrs. H. wants to know about the water cure for infantile paralysis?

There is no water cure of infantile paralysis, Mrs. H. It is found that children can learn to use their damaged muscles better while immersed in water, because the buoyancy of the water helps them, and in institutions where infantile paralysis is treated, this is used.

Editor's Note: Dr. Peters cannot diagnose, nor give personal advice. If she considers your questions of general interest, they will be answered in the column, in turn. Requests for articles on hand must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope and two cents in coin for each; for the pamphlets on "Reducing and Gaining," "The Kidney and its Excretions" and the "Hygiene of Women," 10 cents in coin (for each) and fully self-addressed, stamped envelope, must be enclosed. (These charges are to cover the cost of printing and handling.) Address Dr. Peters, in care of this paper.

Tomorrow: Will Power Slipping.

POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS THROUGHOUT WORLD BELITTLED

BY JAMES J. DAVIS, Secretary of Labor

(James J. Davis was born in Tredegar, South Wales, Oct. 27, 1873. He was educated in the public schools and later took a business course for several months. He holds honorary degrees from two American universities. He came to the United States with his parents in 1881 and began working as a puddler's assistant in an iron works at Sharon, Pa., and later in Pittsburgh. He moved to Elwood, Ind., in 1893 and worked in steel and tin plate mills there. He was elected director general of the Loyal Order of Moose in 1906 and was appointed secretary of Labor in 1921. He founded the Mooseheart Home and School of Mooseheart, Ill.)

Today business and economic bonds are tying the world together so tightly that political considerations hardly count any more. They count so little that even at this short distance from the late serious political difference, a business convention can be held in the capital city of our former enemy, for the express purpose of putting a new good will into international trade.

JAMES J. DAVIS

Business is beginning to run the world. And good business hates war.

In this modern world all nations are now so interlocked in trade relations, they depend so much upon each other for markets, or for supplies of raw material, that any military threat means enormous loss to them all—a loss they are no longer willing to tolerate.

And every condition of life is now riveting tighter than ever these business bonds. The modern business man regards the whole world as his market, and travels over it to understand his business. We ourselves constantly receive such visitors from abroad.

More people, from all walks of life, find it possible to travel, now. And almost daily the means of communication are increased in number and lessened in cost. And constantly these personal contacts are spreading this universal understanding among the people which is necessary to peace.

Every traveler who returns home pleased with the lands and the people he has visited, becomes a booster for those people in his own country. So the common fellowship spreads ever wider.

In addition to the new possibilities of travel, we have these other new means of contact—the radio telephone, the increasing use of the air; for certainly the day will come when the oceans will be spanned and the world itself girdled daily by means of the aeroplane and the dirigible.

The motion picture is another and a most vivid means we have of learning the lives of other people, and of showing these other people how we Americans live and work and feel in our homes.

In fact, the whole world is becoming a home for every one in it. And because nobody wants to wreck his home, and because war has come to strike us all as just that wrecking of a home, the world has one more reason to turn its back on the ancient curse.

FLY-TOX

DEVELOPED AT MELLON INSTITUTE OF INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH BY REX RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP 2959

It is marvelous how quickly fragrant FLY-TOX kills mosquitoes . . and other insects. A vast army of insects is bred in FLY-TOX laboratories to be released in the FLY-TOX "Chamber of Death" to test and certify the positive killing qualities of FLY-TOX before it is sold to you.

FLY-TOX is absolutely harmless to people. Will not stain.

Frats Fall Down In Scholastic Work

AUSTIN, Aug. 27 (AP)—Scholastic averages at the University of Texas for 1928-29 were one point higher than the previous year, but tentative figures compiled by Dean V. I. Moore reveal that seven fraternities fell below the all-university average barring them from initiation of new members until the mark is raised.

Another check of the Greek letter records is being made before the beginning of the fall term.

The all-university average was 5.23 and that of the freshman class 4.23. Grades for the School of Law were 16 per cent lower than the general average and those of the College of Engeneering five per cent below.

For a heavy smoker to stop suddenly the use of tobacco is liable to have an adverse effect on the heart, as the effect of smoking is to steady down the action of that organ.

PRAISES ORGATONE FOR GOOD IT DID

"I'm Glad To Endorse It So That Others May Know What Relieved Me," Says Lubbock Man

"I was just going down hill and kept getting weaker and my health was gradually leaving me," said Frank J. Null, of 415 Avenue H, Lubbock, Texas in a conversation with the Orgatone representative.

"I had suffered," he continued, "with stomach trouble and indigestion for four long years, until I was getting in such a bad condition I could hardly stand it. Everything I would eat hurt me and the pains in my stomach and chest were just awful. I also had intense pains that would run up and down my back, caused from the bad condition of my kidneys. At times the pains in my abdomen from indigestion would hurt me so I could hardly stand it. Every time I ate anything I would suffer hours after eating, and gas formed on my stomach until I could hardly get my breath. I certainly was in a terrible fix and just kept getting worse in spite of all I could do, until I began taking Orgatone.

"Orgatone is not like any other medicine I ever took, it seemed to soothe my stomach and give me an appetite in just a few days. I have just finished my second bottle and don't have any more gas or indigestion. I eat anything I want, breathe easy and sleep fine every night and get up in the morning ready for my day's work, willing and ready to enjoy the day. All of those tired, worn out, listless feelings have disappeared and I'm glad to endorse Orgatone, so that others may know what relieved me, for Orgatone has restored my health after everything else had failed. I can't ever say too much for Orgatone.

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific bile treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by the Bowen's Drug Store who are direct laboratory agents. Adv.

STOCKS TAKE UPWARD TREND

ELECTRIC SHARES RISE ON OPENING TO NEW HIGH RECORDS

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP).—Stock prices bounded upward at the opening of today's market under leadership of high priced issues. General Electric opened 3 point higher, Westinghouse Electric 2 1-2, and U. S. Steel Common, Lackawanna, American International and American Bosch Magneto showed initial gains of 1 to 1 1-2 points. Stone and Webster advanced 2 3-4 points on the first sale of a new high record at 179 3-4. Safeway Stores dropped 1 point.

Irregularity developed after the opening when heavy profit taking took place in the communications shares, which were the strong features of yesterday's market, but the main trend continued upward, with rails taking a more prominent part in the advance.

Rails Advance

Pennsylvania quickly moved up 3 points to a new high at 105, and St. Paul preferred touched 65 for the first time. New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio and New Haven advanced a point.

Commercial solvents, which did not sell yesterday, jumped 10 1-4 points above last week's final price to 500 1-4. Air reduction moved up 5 points to a new high at 202 and American Linseed crossed 82 to a new peak.

International Telephone and Johns Manville slumped 2 1-2 points on the first outbreak of selling and American Telephone and Rock Island 2 each. Radio, corn products, consolidated gas and a few others yielded a point or so.

Foreign exchanges opened steady with cables unchanged at $4.84 3-4.

COTTON TAKES SLIGHT RISE

MARKET OPENS TODAY IS STRONGER ON STEADY CABLES

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP).—The cotton market opened 10 to 15 points higher on buying influenced by steady cables and a private report stating the condition of the crop has continued to decline and for the belt as a whole had dropped to about 58 per cent. December after selling at 18.90 at the start, reached to 18.80, while March sold off from 19.18 to 19.09, with the market ruling about 3 to 8 points net higher at the end of the first half hour.

The market was quiet later with fluctuations narrow and irregular. There was a little selling on the weather map, but many traders felt showers reported in the southwest were inadequate and the official forecast, while calling for rains on the Texas coast, was for partly cloudy weather in West Texas and Oklahoma. The market at mid-day was 2 to 7 points net higher.

OPENING IS FIRM IN NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 27 (AP).—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of six points. Relatively higher cables seemed the only incentive behind the early advance to 18.53 for October, 18.80 for December and 18.88 for March, or 10 to 12 points above yesteday's close. Some overnight buying orders were encountered and added to the steadiness.

Towards the end of the first hour uneasiness over the weather caused some selling and prices eased off about 7 points from the top. The undertone continued steady.

Hedge selling entered the market during the second hour and extended the decline to 18.42 for October, 18.70 for December and 18.75 for January, or 10 to 11 points below the early highs. When offerings were absorbed the market became steadier, supported by a bullish private crop report.

At mid-session the market was quiet but steady and prices were 5 to 6 points above the lows.

OIL NEWS NOTES

LIBERTY, Kas., Aug. 26 (AP).—The Gulfs Production company' Boyt No. 2, which blew in Sunday with such a force that the Derrick was destroyed, today was blowing gas into th air. The well is 650 feet north of the Boyt No. 1, the discovery well. There was no oil in the gas. The well is about 3,800 feet deep.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 27 (AP)—Banishing a jinx that had hovered 1t for several months, number 1 Petty well of the Shell Petroleum Corporation in NWC NE 30-11-2 W in the South Oklahoma City field was flowing oil into the slush pit today, with 2,687 barrels of crude having been recovered during the night. It was the 13th producer in the area.

Lengthy fishing operations were necessitated at the well by the loss of a string of drilling tools and two sets of fishing tools. When the fishing tools were recovered, gas blew the drilling tools out of the well, almost wrecking the derrick. Sparks ignited the gas and a hard fight was necessary to save the derrick.

The well was estimated to be good for more than 200 barrels an hour with considerable gas pressure. Total depth was 6,505 feet in lime.

SHERIFF ADVISES BRANDING CATTLE

Shades of the old West!

"Brand your cattle," is the request of Sheriff Wade Hardy, following the loss of several cattle through theft in Lubbock county within the last few weeks.

"It seems that cattlemen and farmers have forgotten the pioneer methods of retrieving stolen stock," said Sheriff Hardy. "The brand will serve a double purpose. Thieves will not so readily steal a branded cow, and in case such theft we will have an easier way of identifying the stock."

A two-year-old registered bull, reported lost or stolen from the farm of Crouch and Mathews, farmers living about six miles south of Lubbock, was recovered Monday in a small shack, 100 yards from the farm house. The bull had supposedly wandered into the shack and the door locked when the wind closed it. The animal had been living six days with cotton seed as sole nourishment.

A cow and two heifers, property of Buel Boles, 10 miles southeast of Lubbock, which were believed stolen Sunday, were found late yesterday in a pasture near the Boles farm. The stock had wandered into the pasture through an opening in the fence.

MICHIGAN FARMER RESCUED AFTER 51 HOURS OF IMPRISONMENT IN CAVE-IN

(By Associated Press)

ALLEGAN, Mich., Aug. 27.—After 51 hours of imprisonment in a vise of rocks and earth, George Peet, 26, farmer, was lifted with a derrick by rescue workers late Monday from the 30 foot well where he was caught Saturday afternoon by a cave in as he worked.

Physicians said he was uninjured.

Peet was under the influence of an anaesthetic during the actual rescue. The anaesthetic, a gas, was pumped into the well after L. G. Reynolds, a neighbors, fastened a harness arrangement of ropes around the farmer. Reynolds hung head downward in the well for 15 minute intervals over a period of three hours before the ropes were securely placed.

At the first attempt to pull the prisoner from the well a pulley on the derrick broke and Peet revived from the first administring of the anaesthetic before it could be repaired. A second quantity of the gas was pumped into the well and he was lifted out.

LINDBERGH SAYS DIRIGIBLE IS NOW SUPERIOR FOR TRANSOCEANIC FLYING

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Aug. 27.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, who first showed the way across the Atlantic from New York to Paris, told newspaper men here that "the dirigible, as now developed, is superior to the airplane for transoceanic flying," and expressed hope that a lighter than air passenger line would soon be opened in the United States.

"There is no conflict between airplanes and lighter than air craft," he said. "Increased use of one would benefit the other, and in any event, should one overcome the other, the ultimate result would be development of air navigation. This, after all, is what is desired."

LAW BODY TO MEET SEPT. 4

HOOVER'S COMMITTEE TO GATHER FOR FURTHER PLAN

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—After laying its groundwork with the accumulation of a huge mass of statistics and information, the National law enforcement commission will meet September 4 to begin what probably will result in the most exhaustive analysis ever undertaken of crime and upholding of laws in the United States.

The commission recently divided its study into 11 phases of the problem, with its members formed into committees concentrate on different subjects relating to crime conditions and law observance and enforcement. It is planned to facilitate the work of each committee through employment of experts in its particular field of investigation.

Four experts already have been selected, and Chicago university is to co-operate with a study of one of the subjects—criminal justice and the foreign born. Commission officials expect the organization of specialized assistance will be completed before the meeting next week.

AIR TRAILS

today was rounted over South Bend, Ind.

Close Race Record

Another close race was recorded in the pre-final lap ending at Louisville last night. George E. Halsey of Buffalo barely exceeded a half-hour margin in elapsed time over C. D. Bowyer, of Westfield, N. J., in the class "A" division.

Two other derbies today scattered the events of the races far and wide. The Oakland, Calif., race stopped last night at Omaha with Robert E. Nagel of Oakland, leading on the day's lap from Salt Lake City, Utah, but conceding leadership in elapsed time to Loren Mendell.

The Philadelphia derby starting today was mapped through the east, with tonight's control point established at Boston.

Mrs. Louise McPhetridge Thaden won approximately $10,000 in prizes by finishing first in the women's derby from Santa Monica, Calif., yesterday.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 27 (AP)—C. D. Boyyer, Westfield, N. J., led the Miami-Miami Beach-Cleveland air derbyists in the hop off from here at 9 a. m. (C. S. T.) today. Thirteen other fliers left at one minute intervals.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 27 (AP)—Five remaining fliers in the Oakland-to-Cleveland air derby took off from the airport here shortly after 9 a. m., today and headed for Springfield, Ill., their next stop. D. G. Warren, of Oakland, was the first in the air.

FUEL ADDED TO FIGHT ON TARIFF BILL

DEMOCRATIC WAR FOR NEW ACT CONTINUES; REPORT COMING

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON Aug. 27 — The democratic bombardment against the tariff bill continued today as Chairman Smoot prepared to make public on Wednesday the entire bill as rewritten by the Senate Finance committee and on Thursday or Friday a tentative majority report giving reasons for the proposed revisions.

"Defense of the pending bill on the ground that the finance committee has removed the curse from the Hawley bill as it passed the House" said a statement by the democratic national committee "is a transparent subterfuge."

Soft Bed Planned

"It is intended to make a soft bed for the administration to fall upon" the statement said adding that while some duties in the House measure had been lowered others had been "correspondingly increased."

"The inquitious character of the bill remains unchanged though some of its features have been altered," it continued. "The major burdens are retained and can not be cloaked by the specious plea that the finance committe has worked out a tariff unmindful of the hideous lines that disfigure the face and form of the Hawley bill."

Connally Gives Statement

In another statement issued through the democrat national committee, Senator Connally, democrat, Texas, a member of the finance committee, referred to a statement attributed to Senator Watson, of Indiana, the republican leader, to the effect that action on the tariff would be postponed a year if a vote were delayed by democrats and republican independents, and said:

"One of two things is true. Either bill is such as can not be safely defended or it is not. If it can not be defended, of course, the republican leaders are afraid for the American people to pass on the bill as an issue in the elections of 1930. If the bill is fair and just to the American people it ought to be enacted at an early date."

STATES AID IN DRY WORK

COOPERATION ON NEW STATUE BENEFITING PROHIBITION

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON Aug. 27—Collaboration of state authorities with the prohibition bureau in closing places selling liquor under the nuisance statute where there is no prohibition law was said today by Assistant Secretary Lowman to be proving helpful in the enforcement of prohibition.

The practice relieves the government of part of the enforcement burden he pointed out and aids in preventing further congestion of the federal courts calendars. He added the bureau would seek to increase cooperation from state authorities.

The use of the nuisance statutes to close speakeasies was started several months ago Lowman said after the court of appeals of New York the state's highest court upheld a deision of a supreme court justice that state authorities could padlock places convicted of maintaining a nuisance through the sale of liquor.

Conferences were held by special agents of the bureau with prosecuting officers of various states with the result that state cooperation proved much assistance to the bureau.

Lowman did not make public the names of other states where the plan is now in operation.

Insurance Companies Gain Legal Victory

AUSTIN, Aug. 27 (AP)—Three Dallas Insurance companies, the Gulf, Commercial-Standard and Utility, today won a legal victory when District Judge J. D. Moore issued an injunction restraining the State Board of Insurance commissioners from interfering with agent contracts.

The controversy will be settled in October when a court trial will determine the validity of an order issued by the Insurance Board, setting a 20 per cent flat rate on fire insurance commissions and a 25 per cent rate on automobile commissions.

Judge Moore told litigants that if the order is upheld, the three Dallas companies would be subjected to penalties and forfeitures for its violation while the injunction remains in effect.
