Blast Kills Girl

NEW YORK (AP)—A dynamite bomb exploded with a thunderous, shattering roar aboard a subway train deep under Harlem Sunday night, killing a young girl and injuring 18 other persons.

Police did not believe it was the work of New York's "Sunday bomber," who has been blamed for four other explosions since Oct. 2.

HIDDEN
The bomb had been hidden under a straw-covered seat at the rear of the fifth car of a six-car Independent line express train. The southbound train was halted at the 125th Street station in the heart of Harlem when the bomb exploded.

The force of the blast bulged out the steel sides of the car, gouged out a two-foot hole in the floor, shattered every window but one. Big chunks of concrete were ripped from the station platform. About 30 passengers were aboard the fatal car. A girl sitting directly over the bomb, was killed—her legs torn off. Two youths sitting across the aisle were injured critically.

The girl was identified as Sandra Breland, 15, of Brooklyn. Her handbag was blown to bits. Cordell Jones, 18, was just boarding the train when the bomb exploded. He was blown across the platform and onto the southbound local tracks. He suffered head, neck and back injuries.

"It looked like the seats blew into the roof," he said.

DYNAMITE
Police searching the wreckage found a detonating cap, which they said, confirmed that the explosive probably was dynamite.

Leads were skimpy. Two injured youths said they saw a man hurriedly leave the car several stops before it arrived at the 125th Street station. The train's conductor remembered there had been a troublesome passenger who had bothered women passengers before getting off one stop before the blast.

Mercury Shot Is Postponed

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The civilian space agency today postponed a proposed Mercury capsule test launching.

It had been scheduled as a crucial test intended to lead to a similar flight by an American astronaut within four months.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the launching of a capsule aboard a Redstone rocket was postponed "because of altitude control difficulty."

A new firing date has not been scheduled, NASA said.

The launching had been planned primarily to test a production version of the capsule in a short ballistic flight.

The capsule was not to carry a man, or any animals or biological specimens. There was to be no attempt to put it into orbit—the eventual goal of the man-in-space program.

UF Drive Moves Into Final Push

Report meetings are scheduled every day this week as division leaders make the big push to get the United Fund drive within 90 per cent of the goal by Saturday.

With 80 per cent of the goal already accounted for, Randall Folk, president, urged workers to keep up the fine work and bring the campaign to a successful conclusion.

Workers were reminded that 12 welfare agencies and guidance organizations depend in large part on their efforts in this campaign. Most of them receive all of their financial support from the United Fund.

The goal of $90,210 this year will guarantee that these organizations can continue their needed services to the community. Big Spring and Howard County have always met these needs.

Light Rain Forecast

By The Associated Press
Scattered showers were forecast for Northwest and Southwest Texas Monday as clouds spread over the state.

A cool front that pushed across the state Sunday made little dent in temperatures.

School On Saturday

Barbara Flinn, 9-year-old fourth grader, smiles as she displays a letter and autographed photo of Vice President Nixon. Someone spread the rumor that if Nixon was elected president, children will have to go to school on Saturdays. This worried Barbara and she wrote the Republican presidential nominee, assuring him of her support, and put the question to him. Nixon replied, thanking Barbara for her support and said the matter of attending school on Saturdays is for local and state officials to decide and is not in the jurisdiction of a federal official such as the President or Vice President. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Wayne Flinn of Oakland, Calif. (AP Wirephoto)

Record-Breaking Vote Forecast

A record vote for Howard County loomed today as a probability as partisans made their final bid for ballots.

At stake are offices from the precinct to the presidency. For the first time since 1948, when J. Strom Thurman led a Southern ticket, there has been a campaign on a three-prong front. This time the third group has been the Constitution party, which, along with Democrats and Republicans, has been actively driving for votes.

Howard County reached its peak of 8,212 votes in 1952, and that year there were 827 absentee votes. This year there have been 640 absentee ballots, but most observers think there will be a large turnout at the polls. The county's apparent voting strength is 10,730, and any total between 8,500 and 9,500 would not be surprising.

Polis open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.
How rapidly the county results can be known depends in a large measure on the amount of split-ticket voting as well as on the total vote. Although tickets may be split as many ways as the voter desires, usually there is only a one-way, and possibly two-way, split. At least two judges have increased their crews in an effort to expedite the count. The special canvass board (for absentee voting) also will have a double force to speed up its tally.

Five boxes to be used on Tuesday's big election still remain unclaimed in the office of the county clerk at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Pauline Petty, clerk, urged the judges in the five precincts which have yet to claim their supplies, to pick them up as soon as possible.

Ample ballots and other supplies have been packed in the boxes for each precinct. Every effort to speed up tabulation of the vote is to be made.

Mrs. Petty has announced her office will remain open Tuesday night to receive the tabulations. She asked that each precinct judge bring his box to the office as soon as counting is completed. Telephone reports from the boxes which may be late in reaching the office will be appreciated.

'Johnson Law' To Get Ruling
AUSTIN (AP)—The Supreme Court heard arguments today in a suit testing the constitutionality of the so-called "Johnson For President Law."

The 1959 statute permits Sen. Lyndon Johnson to run for both senator and vice president. The suit, which also seeks to prevent Secretary of State Zollic Steakley from counting any votes cast for Johnson Tuesday, was thrown out of 116th District Court in Dallas because of "no justifiable interest."

The Supreme Court probably will rule on the election eve appeal later today.

William Billings and James Donovan of Dallas argued that Atty. Gen. Will Wilson illegally represented Steakley in the Dallas court. They said state law restricts the attorney general, except in certain instances, to appellate courts.

Wilson replied that representatives of his office are now legally arguing cases in district courts all over Texas.

New Attacks Launched As Campaign Closes

Nixon—Million Would Lose Jobs

By MARVIN ARROWSMITH MADISON, Wis. (AP)— Vice President Richard M. Nixon started this final day of the campaign early—and with a vigorous new attack on his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Facing a grueling last round of battling, including four hours of answering voters' questions on nationwide television, Nixon arrived here shortly before 8 a.m. CST, after an overnight flight from Anchorage, Alaska.

He got a rousing welcome from a crowd, estimated unofficially at 3,500, which turned out for an airport rally in chilly weather. The ground was white with frost as Nixon and his wife, Pat, came down the ramp from their jet liner.

FARM PROGRAM
Nixon tore into Kennedy's farm program in this rich dairy state. "The program would cause a million jobs to be lost on the farms of America," he told his audience.

Dealing specifically with the situation in Wisconsin, Nixon said the Kennedy plan would cut farmers' total sales of milk and cream. Nixon dealt briefly with the situation in Cuba and the Fidel Castro regime there.

He said Cuba "needed a revolution," which Castro led. But, the vice president added, the people of Cuba "need an honest government, a good government. Then Nixon said to cheers: "The time will come when the tyrants will come down and the free people will rise."

BIGGEST CHEERS
Nixon got perhaps his biggest cheers when he declared: "We don't think America is a second-rate power or a second-rate country in any respect."

Nixon concluded by calling on the audience to "go out and work hard for 24 hours and win this election."

The vice president swung into the Midwest from Alaska for a marathon final day of campaigning in his quest for the presidency. By midnight tonight he will have sped 7,000 miles in 32 hours by chartered jet airliner in a barnstorming blitz, circling from Los Angeles to Alaska, the continental heartland and return.

During a whirlwind day of activity Sunday, Nixon: Proposed that President Eisenhower join with former presidents Truman and Hoover after he leaves office in January for a "torch of freedom" journey to the Red satellite countries of Eastern Europe.

INSULT ALASKANS
Accused his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, of insulting Alaskans in particular and Americans generally.

Pledged he would meet the Communist threat "any place in the world."

And said America's defenses would be kept strong regardless of cost, but dollars for defense would not be wasted.

Nixon called for the goodwill tour abroad by the three ex-presidents during a coast-to-coast television address broadcast from Los Angeles after his departure for Alaska. Before his takeoff he referred to the 30-minute tape-recorded talk as "the most important half hour of the campaign."

Nixon described Eisenhower, Truman and Hoover as "our most distinguished Americans," and said they could carry the nation's message of peace and friendship behind the Iron Curtain.

Record Vote Expected In Texas Polling

By The Associated Press

A predicted record-breaking 2,250,000 Texas voters go to the polls Tuesday with both Democratic and Republican leaders claiming victories for their presidential slates in the close and embittered contest.

President Eisenhower carried the state with comfortable margins in 1952 and 1956. Only once before in this century—in 1928 when Herbert Hoover edged Al Smith—has the Republican presidential candidate been victorious in Texas.

Despite their victory claims, neither side was showing any lessening of effort for the state's 24 electoral votes, which could be pivotal ones in a close national race.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, Monday night climaxed an intensive last-minute swing through his home state with a statewide telecast from Austin. Earlier Monday he planned appearances in Houston, San Antonio and San Marcos.

OTHER CAMPS
In the opposing camp, former Gov. Allan Shivers, head of Texas Democrats for Nixon-Lodge, also staged a statewide telecast Monday night from Austin.

Numerous other rallies were scheduled for Monday over the state and intensive door-to-door and telephone campaigning was planned by both parties in a number of cities in the last-day effort to bring out the vote and sway the undecided voter.

State Democratic Campaign Director Gerald C. Mann Sunday night released the results of a professional poll which showed John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, and Johnson favored by 53 per cent of the Texas voters while the Republican slate of Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge favored by 47 per cent. Undecided voters were allocated on the basis of those stating a choice.

CITING POLLS
Republicans are citing other polls which give the Nixon-Lodge ticket and edge over their Democratic opponents.

Democrats claim that the heckling and booing of Sen. and Mrs. Johnson by Dallas Republicans Friday reacted in favor of the Democratic vice presidential nominee and cited a number of page-one editorials carried by Texas newspapers, deploring the actions of the anti-Johnson demonstrators.

The religious issue, which has been a major campaign theme, was cited by the Nixon-Lodge ticket.

FREE TRAVEL
In return, officials of these captive countries would be invited to visit and travel freely in the United States.

The idea had scarcely been broached before Truman said he would have no part of it. The former president said in Harrisburg, Pa., his lecture dates next year would not permit it.

"It's a little late now for such a thing. If it were going to be done, it should have been done seven years ago before things started going to pot," Truman said.

There was no immediate comment from Hoover, and the White House press secretary James C. Hagerly had nothing to say about the plan in Washington.

Nixon carried his campaign to this new state nearest the Soviet Union to fulfill a promise to visit each of the 50 states.

WROTE TEXT
On the flight north he wrote into the text of a prepared address at a Republican rally here the accusation that Kennedy had insulted the people when he campaigned in Alaska in early September.

Kennedy said both in Anchorage and nearby Palmer that the proposed giant Rampart Canyon power dam on the Yukon River would already be under way if Alaska still belonged to the Russians.

Nixon remarked caustically that "implicit in that was the idea you might have been better off if your region had stayed in Russian hands." He said Kennedy's statement was "part of his campaign to downgrade the United States."

A crowd of 3,000 turned out to greet Nixon at the airport here in 31 degree snowless weather. He said after addressing the overflow turnout at the 3,200-seat high school auditorium that no state had given him a more enthusiastic, warmer welcome.

Kennedy—What Promises Made?

By RELMAN MORIN WITH KENNEDY in New England (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy opened the last day of his presidential campaign today with a charge that Vice President Richard M. Nixon believes that peace can be secured "by parades and visits to the Soviet Union."

He said in Providence, R.I., that the productive power of the United States "put to great purposes" is the only real answer to the struggle with the Communists.

BASIC ISSUE
That, Kennedy said, is the "basic issue" of the campaign.

Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said estimates indicated that the Republicans are spending $600,000 for television time today. He said this includes Nixon's four-hour question and answer telecast this afternoon and three "choice one-half-hour spots."

"We are demanding to know from the vice president sometime during his telecast what is the origin of these funds and what commitments were made to get them," Salinger said.

Salinger said the $600,000 represents "the largest expenditure for television or radio time on the day before election in history."

APPLAUSE
The Democratic candidate was using the "give 'em hell" style that he began three days ago. Roaring applause and chanted answers indicated that the crowd liked it.

Kennedy said to expand peace and freedom "our country has to go back to work again here in the United States."

There are "no short cuts, no easy way, no overnight weekend meeting which will bring a change in the balance of power in the world," he said.

In a speech prepared for delivery at Springfield, Kennedy said: "I believe Mr. Nixon's failure to tell the truth to the American people—or perhaps his failure to understand the truth himself—is a clear demonstration of his incapacity to lead this nation through the troubling and hazardous years which lie ahead."

ZERO HOUR
As the zero hour neared, his lieutenants radiated optimism about the outcome of Tuesday's election.

There was an atmosphere in his camp of "it's all over but the tabulating."

Tremendous crowds and near-delirious receptions for Kennedy—even in some Republican strongholds—heightened the impression that the Democratic presidential candidate was ahead as the race came into the stretch drive.

Late reports to his headquarters from around the country, along with some polls, appeared to confirm this. Kennedy was taking no chances.

CLOSE ELECTION
"This is a close election," he told his audiences. "It may be decided by one or two per cent of the vote in the major states."

His aides are watching closely for last-minute reports from California, Texas, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and New Jersey.

Kennedy planned these moves in the final hours:

1. He prepared to go on television tonight to replay to Nixon after the vice president's four-hour question-and-answer marathon today. Pierre Salinger, his press secretary, said the channel was not yet certain, but Kennedy would make the appearance some time between 6 and 8 p.m. EST.

2. A telephone drive for support, reaching toward three million persons, was under way. Kennedy's aides said they already have pledged guaranteeing 2,600,000 calls and "more are coming in by the hour."

BULLETINS

2. The Democratic National Committee prepared to issue hourly bulletins starting at 3 p.m. EST today to "analyze Nixon's answers" during his telecast.

4. Kennedy started on a whirlwind drive through Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts. He closes the campaign in Boston, his home town, with a national telecast starting at 11 p.m. EST from historic Faneuil Hall, his wife, Jacqueline Kennedy, may go before the cameras with him.

Kennedy moved at a furious pace in the closing hours of the campaign.

Five More Miles Of Roads Paved

Five additional miles of county roads have now been paved.

The Howard County Commissioners Court was to make an inspection trip this afternoon over the completed road road job.

The newly paved roads are the work road to the new Sid Richardson Carbon Black Plant, 75 mile; the Culp Street road in Coahoma, 1.25 miles; Silver Heels road, 1.25 miles and the Stanfield Road east of Coahoma, 1.25 miles.

Election In Hands Of The 'Undecided' Voters

By GEORGE GALLUP DIRECTOR, AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC OPINION, COLUMBIA, 1960

PRINCETON, N. J.—The Gallup Poll's final nationwide survey on the 1960 race shows the following division of the popular vote among likely voters:

Kennedy-Johnson—49 per cent.
Nixon-Lodge—48 per cent.
Undecided—3 per cent.

Considering only those voters who expressed a preference. The division would be:
Kennedy-Johnson—51 per cent.
Nixon-Lodge—49 per cent.

The election result Tuesday may lie in the hands of an estimated 2,000,000 voters who were undecided on their choice as late as Friday night.

These results are based upon interviewing conducted during the period Nov. 1 through Friday, Nov. 4. This final survey, therefore, does not register the impact of President Eisenhower's campaigning in the final days, nor the last-minute appeals and efforts on television by the two candidates. Moreover, when candidates are separated by only a few percentage points, readers must take account of sampling error normally inherent in all survey results.

The 1960 campaign has been a see-saw race as shown by survey results in August, September and October. In seven previous Gallup Poll reports since the conventions, the lead has changed hands frequently. Nixon was reported ahead twice, Kennedy led three times, and the candidates were even in two reports. Kennedy's largest lead occurred in late October when he had a 53-47 advantage.

As the popular vote totals come in on election night, it should be kept in mind that a candidate who leads by only a narrow margin in the large states may actually obtain a substantial majority of the electoral college votes.

In 1952, for example, Eisenhower polled 85 per cent of the popular vote, but collected 83 per cent of the electoral college votes.

It is estimated that 65 per cent of those old enough to vote will go to the polls on Tuesday, or an estimated 65 to 70 million voters.

One-Time Enemies Meet

Sen. John Kennedy poses with a former Japanese naval officer, Fujio Onozeki, who was aboard the Japanese destroyer Amagiri in 1943 when it sailed in two the Navy PT boat of which Kennedy was skipper. Kennedy holds a card, signed by Onozeki and other surviving officers of the destroyer, wishing the Democratic senator success in his campaign for president. Kennedy was a Navy lieutenant when his PT boat was hit by the destroyer in the Solomons. He and other crew members were rescued from a nearby brush island.

Special Awards

Two sergeants from the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Webb AFB recently received cash suggestion awards totaling $65.

The cash awards of $35 and $15, going to T. Sgt. Ralph R. Hiles and S. Sgt. Quinn G. Martin respectively, were presented by the squadron commander, Lt. Col. Dick M. Crowell, during the last Commander's Call.

T. Sgt. Hiles was awarded a $50 check for suggesting a foot-operated shut-off switch for the sheet metal shop's power metal former machine. This switch enables the operator to shut off power to the machine quickly if the normal switch is not able to be reached by hand. He received a letter, signed by Maj. Gen. R. W. Puryear, chief of staff, giving him personal thanks for his initiative and ingenuity which may someday save someone an arm or even his life.

Sgt. Hiles joined the 331st last March when he came from the 37th F.I.S. at Burlington, Vt. This $15 check was the second cash award that S. Sgt. Martin has received for his development of sheet metal rivet bins which saves the Air Force many man hours of labor. He received $25 last April before his suggestion was sent to higher headquarters for Air Force-wide adoption.

Batchelor Involved In Crash Death

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A San Antonio woman was killed and her husband was seriously injured in a collision Friday night involving a car driven by Korean War turncoat Claude Batchelor, 28, of San Antonio.

Killed was Mrs. Simona Barrera, 46. Her husband, Pedro Barrera, 60, suffered undetermined injuries.

Highway patrolmen and Deputy Sheriff Alred Carreon said the Batchelor auto apparently was behind the Barrera car before the accident. No charges had been filed.

Officers said the collision knocked the Barrera auto off the road, throwing Mrs. Barrera out.

Batchelor, formerly of Kermit and later listing his home as Von Ormy, was assessed a life sentence in September, 1954, in a court-martial at Ft. Sam Houston for aiding his Communist captors during the Korean conflict. The sentence was reduced to 30, then 10 and finally 7 years. Batchelor was paroled in 1959.

approaching, experts are urging 'flu shots especially for anyone with heart or blood vessel diseases.

Medical evidence over the last three years has confirmed that risks from influenza are greater for patients with heart or lung ailments than for other persons, say Dr. A. Carlton Ernestine, president of the American Heart Assn., and Dr. James Watt, director of the National Heart Institute.

SAFE MEDICINE CABINET
A medicine cabinet which will open only when two particular buttons are pushed simultaneously has been developed by Dr. A. L. Chapman of the U.S. Public Health Service.

The idea is to make it impossible for children to open the cabinet and accidentally swallow dangerous drugs. The cabinet, now being considered for manufacture, has five buttons, but opens only when the second and fourth buttons are pressed, and these buttons are spaced too far apart for a child's hand to span. Drug poisoning killed more than 400 children in 1958, comments Scope Weekly.

NEW JOB
Hydrogen peroxide, an old medical standby, seems destined for revival as a germ killer in ointment form, says Dr. Herbert M. Cohn and Emanuel Plotkin of Temple University.

The ointment cleanses wounds, and also appears effective against some if not all resistant strains of staphylococci, which are responsible for many serious infections.

TAKING THOSE SHOTS
Let a child see himself being injected with a medical needle, if he wants to look, advises Dr. Hermann E. Hillebo, New York State Commissioner of Health. "If a child is told not to look," you implant the idea that a needle is something to fear, and an injection is too terrifying to be seen. Don't tell a child not to cry; tears are often his best friend at such moments. Above all, tell the truth. You'll lose face if you tell a child a needle will not hurt when obviously it will."

Survey Has Demo Gain

By GEOFFREY GOULD
WASHINGTON (AP)—An Associated Press survey shows that Sen. John F. Kennedy has gained considerably in his electoral vote outlook since a similar check three weeks ago.

However, many of the states were in the doubtful or tossup category, including several of the bigger ones. Vice President Richard M. Nixon could overtake Kennedy if he wins a significant number of these doubtful states while keeping his own bloc intact.

It is possible that the latest AP survey, conducted last week, does not fully reflect any influence President Eisenhower's late-inning speechmaking may have had in Nixon's favor.

JUDGEMENTS

The survey was based on judgments of AP political observers in all parts of the country, newspaper analyses, party leaders and certain poll findings. It was believed that in a number of states the silent, undecided vote was big enough to tip the result one way or the other.

The survey provided this breakdown: Kennedy ahead in 15 states with 197 electoral votes — 72 short of the 269 needed to win. There are a total of 537 electoral votes.

Nixon ahead in 17 states with 112 electoral votes — 85 behind Kennedy and 137 short of the 269 minimum needed for election.

Listed as tossups were 18 states with 228 electoral votes.

In the AP survey three weeks ago Nixon was given a lead in 19 states with 141 electoral votes;

Kennedy was credited with 14 states with 129 votes, and 17 states with 267 votes were listed as doubtful.

JACK'S JUMP

Kennedy's jump into the forefront is traced to his gaining an apparent lead in New York (45) and California (32), both listed as doubtful last time. But the California edge for Kennedy is considered very small.

Nixon gained Utah (4) from the doubtful group. But Illinois (27), Wyoming (3) and Hawaii (2) moved from the Nixon column into the doubtful category.

Nixon has been saying he senses a strong tide of victory running in his favor. But with the possible exception of Ohio (25), the AP survey did not show any clear signs of such a tide.

Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion was reported as contributing to the doubtful status of Minnesota, (11), Texas (24), North Carolina (14), Missouri (13) and Kentucky (10).

However, in some large industrial states with sizable Catholic populations there was some indication that Kennedy's religion was an advantage.

FINAL SURVEY

The final AP survey gives these states to Kennedy, with margins ranging from substantial to minute:

Alaska (3), Alabama (11), Arkansas (8), California (32), Connecticut (8), Georgia (12), Louisiana (10), Maryland (9), Massachusetts (16), Nevada (3), New Jersey (16), New York (45), Rhode Island (4), West Virginia (8), and Wisconsin (12).

But in Alabama and Georgia and in undecided Mississippi too, a Democratic's popular vote victory would not necessarily assure Kennedy of all the electoral votes of those states. In Alabama five electors on the Democratic ticket are pledged to Kennedy, with six unpledged to anyone.

All 12 of Georgia's Democratic electors are unpledged, but most of them have announced support of Kennedy.

UNPLEGGED

Louisiana has an unpledged State Rights slate bidding for its 10 electoral votes. Two slates of Democratic electors—one pledged to Kennedy, the other unpledged—are competing for Mississippi's eight electoral votes.

These states are listed as for Nixon by varying margins: Delaware (3), Florida (10), Idaho (4), Iowa (10), Indiana (13), Kansas (8), Maine (5), North Dakota (4), New Hampshire (4), Nebraska (6), Oklahoma (8), Oregon (6), South Carolina (8), South Dakota (4), Utah (4), Virginia (12), and Vermont (3).

Doubtful states viewed as possibly leaning toward Kennedy were Mississippi (8), Missouri (13), North Carolina (14), Ohio (25), and Tennessee (11).

Doubtful states possibly leaning toward Nixon were Kentucky (10), and Wyoming (3).

Other tossup states, not listed as leaning either way, were Arizona (4), Colorado (6), Hawaii (3), Illinois (27), Michigan (20), Minnesota (11), Montana (4), New Mexico (4), Pennsylvania (22), Texas (24) and Washington (9).

Chasing Kennedy Car

Chicago patrolman Vincent Moretti holds in his hand a pistol he says was being carried by the man pinned to the ground by another officer. Texas Farmers Welcome Return Of Open Weather

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Texas farmers welcomed the return this week of open weather.

Harvests had been stopped or delayed in all sections due to rains which have been excessive in southern areas while the first freeze and frost were recorded in northwest areas, according to Director John E. Hutchison of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Hutchison said the winter-like weather in the northwest apparently had caused little or no damage and is expected to be an aid to machine harvesting of cotton.

Both cotton and grain sorghum harvests are resuming in that area as fields again become dry enough to permit field work.

Range conditions in all sections of the state were improved by the rains as were small grains, the director said. Livestock are in good condition in all sections as ranchmen and stockmen prepare for the winter season. Moisture is adequate to surplus in all sections of Texas.

ADEQUATE

W. W. Grisham Jr., from Amarillo said that moisture was adequate in all counties in the Panhandle and that cattle are being moved in increasing numbers to wheat pastures. The cotton and grain sorghum harvests are resuming.

Light frost on the South Plains district did little damage to cotton said W. H. Jones from Lubbock. He added that good weather had speeded up harvests.

Fields have dried enough to permit a resumption of the cotton and grain sorghum harvests in the rolling plains section, reported James Simunons from Vernon. He said small grains were making excellent growth and that ranges were described as good.

Moisture is adequate in North Central Texas and ranges and pastures are good for this time of the year, said Ted Martin from Denton.

TOO WET

Two inches of rain last week has left fields too wet to work but have improved pastures and growth of legumes and small grain crops, said John Surovik from Mt. Pleasant. Most cotton in this North-east Texas district has been harvested but other harvesting is at a standstill.

Last week's rains have improved range conditions in all counties in far West Texas and fall sown grains were also aided and will soon be furnishing grazing, said Ray Siegmund from Ft. Stockton. Cotton harvest had been slowed.

Conditions have improved greatly since the good rains of last week and livestock are going into the winter season in good condition, said Roy Huckabee from San Angelo. The cotton harvest, about 75 per cent complete, has been delayed but a good pecan harvest is in progress.

HARVEST STOPPED

Rainy, cloudy and cool weather has stopped the cotton harvest, which is near completion, and delayed the peanut harvest in Central Texas, reported R. G. Burwell from Stephenville. He said moisture was adequate in all counties and that livestock were in good condition.

Excessive rains in some counties caused packing and washing of cultivated soils and overflowing of river bottoms in South Central Texas, said Joe Glover from Gonzales. Ranges and pastures are good and stock tanks are full of water in the area.

Wet weather continues to slow all outdoor work in the upper coastal counties, reported Silver Whitsett from Richmond. Cattle marketings are reported on the increase. Fall vegetables are being marketed and a fair pecan crop harvested.

Continuing showers have improved the moisture situation in far South Texas but have delayed field work and weeds are a real problem in vegetable fields, said Joe Rothe from Weslaco. He described the general outlook for fall vegetables and winter pastures as excellent.

Political Dispute Ends In Violence

EL CAJON, Calif. (AP)—Victor Rojas, 44, a Democrat, wanted to watch Sen. John F. Kennedy on television.

His wife, Norma Jean Rojas, 34, a Republican, wanted to watch Lawrence Welk on television.

In the argument, said deputies, she stabbed him fatally with a paring knife.

Mrs. Rojas was booked at county jail on suspicion of murder following the incident Saturday night.

Johnson Lashes Out At Dallas GOP Hecklers

BEAUMONT (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson lashed out at Republicans Saturday, declaring their campaign "has reached an all-time low."

The Democratic vice presidential candidate, who was caught up in a jostling crowd of Republican hecklers Friday when he tried to reach a campaign rally in Dallas, gave a roaring welcome from a police estimated crowd of 7,500 as he arrived at Jefferson County Airport here.

"It has become a campaign to prevent people from speaking their minds, to frighten them out of expressing their opinions, to substitute spit and taint for reason and logic," Johnson said in referring to the Dallas incident.

Charging that the Dallas demonstration had approval of high Republican officials, including an elected member of Congress, Johnson continued:

"The Republican party cannot wash its hands on this one. It cannot claim that this was a group of people not under their control."

Johnson referred to Rep. Bruce Alger, Dallas Republican, and Harry W. Bass Jr., a Dallas Republican leader, who were present during the demonstration.

Alger denied Saturday there was any "discourtesy, profanity or jostling."

"The hubbub was the normal excitement of any crowd," Alger said.

"Under no circumstances do I condone rudeness, jostling, pushing, shoving or interference with the right of a man to be heard."

Alger added that people should "not confuse rudeness with fighting for principle."

Turning to other issues in the campaign, Johnson declared that Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate, has "dedicated himself to a course of conduct which will mean, if he is elected, that America will be a frustrated nation."

"It has only been from time to time that Richard Nixon has really debated the issues in this campaign," Johnson said. "A great deal of his time has been spent in declaring war on the leaders of the Democratic party."

This wise old dog named Boy really takes the frosting off the cake. Boy, a huge red-brown dog of Chow and German shepherd heritage, turned 15 and his mistress, Mrs. Joe Chastain of Dallas, threw a big party. In attendance were 11 youngsters in the neighborhood and a new playmate, a monkey named Cricket. By some dog expert's reckoning, Boy would be about 105 human years old. It was the first time Boy was allowed to approach the table like this, and he acquitted himself handsomely. (AP Wirephoto)

Teller Urges Civil Defenses

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Edward Teller, key figure in the development of the hydrogen bomb, said Sunday the nation's civil defense is in "such a tragic state of unpreparedness that we are practically inviting attack."

Too many Americans, he told newsmen, have an attitude that "all we can do is throw up our hands, take a suicide pill and die."

Actually, he said, most Americans and the American way of life can survive a nuclear attack if civil defenses are prepared.

He said the United States should construct shelters "that people in cities can reach on foot in 10 minutes," stockpile important materials such as food and machine tools and form a unit to clean up essential areas and keep order.

ed minesweeper owned by Texas A&M College was expected to start a systematic search of the crash area this morning. The boat left Galveston Saturday.

The Hidalgo is loaded with electronic gear not used in any of the four previous searches for the plane. The plane crashed in the Gulf Nov. 14, 1959. At last radar contact the plane was 70 miles from New Orleans.

The possibility that a bomb may have caused the crash has spurred efforts to locate the plane.

One man listed as a passenger, Robert V. Swears, a Dallas naturopath, was believed to have died in the crash. But he was later located near Phoenix, Ariz. Swears is serving a prison term of five years in California for possession of a stolen car.

Charles B. Officer, a geology lecturer at Rice University in Houston and an official in two marine geophysical companies, initiated the fifth search.

Officer is president of the Marine Geophysical Services of Houston and vice president of Alpine Geophysical Associates of New-wood, N.J.

"How long they stay will depend on a number of things," Officer said. He said weather, and what is found will be the most important things in determining how long the men search.

The equipment aboard the Hidalgo includes a "raydist," which enables the boat to pinpoint its exact position as it makes turns in the search pattern.

There is also a precision depth recorder, an underwater camera, a survey echo finder, a magnetometer and a magnetron probe meter aboard. The magnetron probe meter locates iron within a 50 to 100 foot range.

The Civil Aeronautics Board contracted with Marine and Alpine for the search.

Charles S. Collier of Miami, Fla., a CAB investigator, is supervising the search. The technical operation is under Walter C. Beckman, president of Alpine, and John Ewing, an Alpine geophysicist.

Officer said he devised the plan for the search after he read of other attempts that failed.

The Navy, the Coast Guard and the Fish and Wildlife Service made attempts to locate the plane.

Clark Gable Survives Heart Attack; Described As Miracle

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Clark Gable—struck by a heart attack that might have been much worse if he hadn't called off a hunting trip—was resting satisfactorily today.

Gable suffered the attack Sunday at his suburban Encino home and was rushed by ambulance to Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital. Doctors and his wife said the quick use of oxygen undoubtedly prevented more serious or even fatal damage to his heart.

"It's a miracle," said Kay Gable, expectant mother and fifth wife of the 59-year-old king of the movies. "He had planned a week-end hunting trip at his duck club near Stockton. There are no phones there and it's miles from a doctor."

"Then Friday night he said, 'I think I'll spend the weekend home with you and the children. I don't think I should go up there.'"

"On Saturday night he seemed fine, wrestling with my two children all over the living room floor."

"Later he said he felt a little sick and went to bed at 9 p.m. About 4 a.m., he awakened and complained of chest pains. He was perspiring and he felt clammy. I gave him two aspirin."

"At 8:15 a.m. he got up and tried to dress but the pains in his chest were too much. He just sat there helpless. I called the doctor immediately."

"The doctor took one look and called a fire department rescue squad and an ambulance."

Gable had no history of heart trouble. His wife said he hadn't even had a cold in years.

Friday he wound up a movie

with Marilyn Monroe—"The Misfits."

"I talked with him that day and all he could talk about was his coming fatherhood next March. He will be 60 then, and a father for the first time."

"This is a dividend that has come to me late in life," he said. "I'm taking off until the baby is born. I want to be there and I want to be there a good many months afterward."

Mrs. Gable, who married the film king five years ago after divorcing sugar bear Adolph Spreckels Jr., slept on a couch at the foot of Gable's hospital bed.

Once during the night Gable complained of chest pains and irritation from the oxygen pumps in his nostrils. Dr. Fred V. Cerini, his doctor, gave him an injection that put him to sleep almost immediately.

The physician said Gable "couldn't be better at this stage of the game. His condition is very satisfactory."

Politics, Parents Get The Spotlight

Dear Editor:
Richard Nixon has claimed again and again that his monetary policies would benefit everyone while Sen. Kennedy's would only put a heavier tax burden on the middle income and low-income groups and raise financial pain with the nation's economy. Being no expert on finances, I can't tell if this is so or not. But I do know that earlier in the campaign, Mr. Nixon stated he would do all he could to lower corporate income taxes. Now we know that the tax money will have to come from somewhere and if corporate taxes are lowered, who will have to pay the difference? Obviously the lower and middle-income groups will have to take up the slack. Also, a little earlier in this campaign, Mr. Nixon made a statement to the effect that as long as there were only four to five million people out of work, there was no cause for worry. I wonder where his concern for the lower and middle income groups was then?

I would, if I may, make one other point. This concerns the wage earner. Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) often has been referred to as the great leader and "ideal Republican" in Mr. Nixon's party. Yet this same man is quoted as saying that no man in overall, no matter how skilled, is worth more than a dollar per hour. Does this sound like an expression from a party that is for progress, for the majority of Americans? Not to me, it doesn't.

With the words of President Eisenhower a few nights ago in New York, "with my chin up and my chest out," I'm voting for John F. Kennedy for president. At least he is aware of our nation's problems.

DEAR SIR:
I am writing this because of the great concern I feel over the manner in which the GOP is attempting to brainwash the working men and women of our country into believing their party is working for them. (Fortunately a guy like Allan Shivers can do more to help the Democratic party by going over to the Republicans than I or a hundred like me could do.) A look at the Record destroys the myth that the GOP is for anyone except the big money class. Statistics I have show that since the Republicans came into office, profits of the 100 largest corporations have soared by a whopping 75 per cent, while wages increased but 2 per cent. During the same period farm income decreased 21 per cent.

Observe how Mr. Nixon attempts to disavow himself from his party by stating, "vote for the man, not the party." Should he be elected, watch how swiftly he wraps himself in the Republican cloak of "conservatism." Note that "conservatism" like the shopworn phrase "states rights" means the act of doing nothing. A government that does nothing enables those with the means to set the pace, in their own manner and for their own benefit. Those without the means either do without or act in accordance with the rules set out by those with means, without regard for a person's status, income, welfare or what have you.

The Federal government is so huge today solely because of the State's failure to act. With every right goes a commensurate responsibility, but the "state's rights" desire only the privilege of doing nothing. The records will show that when the Federal government has moved into an area, it is due to a state's failure to accept the responsibility in behalf of its citizens. This is true in housing, education, welfare and others. I hope the Federal government will continue to be active in these matters, for without them the working people would be at the mercy of big business.

Strange isn't it, that if the government plows a few million dollars into a certain type of business it is sound business practice, but let the government buy hot lunches for needy school children, who might otherwise have no thing to eat, and immediately the hue and cry of Socialism is raised. I want my tax dollars to provide this. I want to see elderly people able to retire with dignity, have medical expenses when ill, to see working people receive a living wage for the fruits of their labor. Any employer who says he cannot afford to pay a minimum of $1.25 per hour to his employees in this day and age may not be qualified to be in business.

I believe the election of the Democratic ticket and the earnest pursuit of its platform will do much to improve the lot of the working man. I ask working men and women of this area, have you been prospering these past five or six years? If so, does your spouse also work? Are you living solely on the wages you earn? If so, I commend you for being an excellent manager—or a miser. Unfortunately you are an exception; most of us haven't been able to keep abreast of constantly rising prices.

The religious issue? On the eve of this election approximately 60,000 Gold Star Catholic Mothers must be wondering if their sons died to help preserve a true democracy. Did they?

Roy E. Watkins

Dear Editor:
My wife and I, with a group of friends, attended the football game in Odessa a week ago. Behind us sat another group of people from Big Spring, and if the boys could have seen and heard these adults, they would have hung their heads in shame.

To begin with they had been drinking. One woman used profane words constantly throughout the game. These people couldn't even keep their mouths shut during the raising of our flag and the playing of the Star-Spangled Banner. They also criticized the coaching staff constantly.

I think all of us should take a long look at ourselves in the mirror. Just what kind of an example are we setting for our children?

We have a very good school system and one of the best coaching staffs in the state. Why is it that the boys don't have the hustle, drive and determination to play the game or attain the highest goal? Why is it that we have good athletes who should be in school who are not even in the athletic program? Why is it that we have boys dropping out of the program?

Now we couldn't possibly be at fault, because we give junior everything he wants. He's got a new car to drive and always has money in his trousers, and doesn't have to come in until he gets ready. This statement may sound foolish, but isn't it (sometime) the truth?

I would like to say that I think

De Gaulle Wins British Favor

LONDON (AP) — British officials voiced strong approval Sunday for what they termed a new initiative by French President Charles de Gaulle on Algeria. They expressed dismay that his broadcast speech Friday was receiving a negative reaction outside France.

Diplomatic officials in London interpreted the speech as the product of intense reflection showing de Gaulle's determination to break the prolonged Algerian deadlock and open new negotiations.

De Gaulle stated his aim of a future "Algerian Algeria" but did not stipulate any conditions that must precede a cease-fire with the rebels.

CHILPANCINGO, Mexico (AP) — Students and federal troops clashed here Sunday night. Two students were hurt critically and dozens had minor injuries.

The battle climaxed a day of unrest, as the people of Chilpancingo pressed demands to have Gov. Caballero Aburto removed from office.

Demonstrations have been taking place in this capital of the state of Guerrero for the last few days, as charges of corruption, crime and mismanagement of public funds were made against Caballero.

Blue Lustre's Magic Solves Carpet, Upholstery Cleaning

Carpet and upholstery cleaning problems have been solved for housewives everywhere with the magic of Blue Lustre. This unusual foam cleaner was developed especially for home carpet cleaning care and provides a safe, easy and economical method of carpet care which saves the busy housewife time, effort and money. Housewives who use Blue Lustre realize that it is the cleaning quality of the foam that produces such excellent results and have found this true regardless of the type of rug shampoo applicator used and even a long handled brush will give satisfactory results. Using Blue Lustre Carpet and Upholstery Cleaner is really very simple. Vacuum carpets first. Then, after mixing Blue Lustre concentrate with water as directed, apply foam with any type of shampoo applicator or long handled brush. Let dry and vacuum again. The soil disappears and the colors spring back to life again, leaving the pile of the rug open and fluffy.

Actually what happens is that the Blue Lustre foam penetrates instantly into the carpet soil and its unique action holds the dirt particles in suspension for easy removal.

Since all carpet soil and cleaning agent is removed, there is no residue of any kind left in the carpet to cause rapid re-soiling — consequently, rugs and carpets stay cleaner longer. Many housewives have found it convenient to keep Blue Lustre on hand so that they can give prompt attention to any soiled spots or traffic paths when they appear since it is unnecessary to go over the entire carpet again. One half gallon size of Blue Lustre is sufficient to clean three 9 x 12 rugs and it is also available in the other convenient sizes of quarts and gallons. This outstanding product can be purchased from Big Spring Hardware.

Base Offered

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — The Netherlands government has proposed establishment of a U.S. naval base on the Dutch Antilles island of Bonaire, off the coast of Venezuela. Vice Premier C. D. Kroon said today Bonaire was offered as an alternative to the U.S. base at Guantanamo, Cuba, in view of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's campaign to force the United States out of the Cuban base.

It's Time To Prepare For Winter

Charlie Minchew, operator of Charlie's Humble Station, 4th and Scurry, suggests that it is time motorists make certain their cars are ready for cold weather. He recommends the famous Atlas Perma-Guard anti-freeze—once this fine product has been put in a radiator the car is protected for the season. Minchew is always happy to discuss the qualities of the Perma-Guard.

No Roach Is A Good Trap For All Kinds Of Roaches

"I've invented a trap for roaches," writes Miss E. G., "my garbage can! I simply painted the brush on liquid Johnston's No-Roach on the lid of my garbage can. Shortly after I picked up the lid, and lo and behold, the roaches were having a regular feast of No-Roach! Soon they were all dead as doornails, and that's the last I've seen of these pests for several months now!"

When you use No-Roach, there's no need to move dishes, or to breathe harmful sprays. Just brush this odorless, colorless liquid on cabinets, baseboards, windowsills, doorsteps, cracks, drainpipes — wherever roaches and ants may enter. It dries quickly to form an invisible Death Zone for all crawling insects. They walk across it—and die within minutes! Brush on No-Roach and forget it for months! It stays effective 24 hours a day. No Roach works against roaches, ants, waterbugs, spiders, silverfish, all crawling insects. In the 8 oz bottle and pint available at your favorite drug store or supermarket.

15 Texans Die By Violence; 10 In Traffic

By The Associated Press
At least 15 persons met violent deaths over the weekend in Texas with traffic mishaps accounting for 10 of the fatalities.
The Associated Press tabulation covered the period from 6 p.m. Friday through Sunday midnight.
Kealy Williams, 75-year-old Bastrop County resident, was killed Sunday night when struck by an automobile as he walked along State Highway 95 within the city limits of Elgin.

DROWNED
Charles P. Dagwell, 19, a resident of Austin on leave from the San Diego, Calif., Naval Base, drowned in Lake Travis Sunday.
Scarlett Hazel Blackstone, 11, died Sunday of injuries she received when she fell from a horse on a ranch near Porter.

Two men died 10 miles west of Seymour early Sunday in a car-truck crash which also killed 250 of the 360 sheep in the truck. The collision killed Clyde Couch, 35, and his nephew Jimmy Couch, 30, both of the Vera Community near Seymour. Bobby Ray Boren of San Angelo, the truck driver, suffered a severe hand injury.

A Tarrant County collision of a car and pickup truck 1 1/2 miles north of Hazlett killed C. J. Zachary, 19, Rt. 2, Denton, identified by police as driver of the car, and Donald G. Miller, 22, of Lewisville. Three others were injured.

WRECK
Mrs. Martha Henderson, 58, of Gruver, in the Texas Panhandle, died Sunday of injuries suffered as a car rammied a roadside embankment five miles north of Weatherford. Her husband, Lewis Henderson, escaped with minor injuries.

An airman stationed at San Antonio, Thomas Myles Pelkey, 17, died at Tyler several hours after his car ran off a road and smashed into a tree 2.8 miles north of Tyler.

R. J. Garner, 43, of Flint near Tyler, drowned Sunday in the Tyler area when the boat from which he was fishing overturned.

John E. Plunkett, 36, of Orange drowned in the Sabine River near Orange Sunday when a boat from which he was fishing overturned.

JOHNNY HORTON
Recording star Johnny Horton, 35, was killed Saturday in a two-car collision on a railroad overpass at Milano in Central Texas. Horton was a resident of Shreveport, La.

Connie Mack Lamb, 19, of Tyler was killed in a two-car collision just south of Tyler's city limits early Saturday. Two other youths were injured.

Mrs. Simona Barrera, 46, of San Antonio died Friday night in a two-car collision at San Antonio. Alfonso Monter, 38, was killed by a shot in the chest at San Antonio. Officials ruled Monter's death was San Antonio's 52nd suicide of the year.

More Politics Than Westerns

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It may be a good thing that Allen Funt and his "Candid Camera" crew decided to hold up their filmed political poll until a late date—Sunday night—in the campaign.

They asked 35 customers in an airlines office whether a candidate known to have scruples should be removed from the ticket, whether vice president Richard M. Nixon was the more reticent candidate and if they thought Sen. John F. Kennedy was the more superfluous speaker.

Fifteen or so of the prospective voters who were asked these nonsense questions expressed firm opinions even though they obviously had no idea what the words—scruples, reticent and superfluous—meant. It was funny but it was also a sharp commentary on human nature. Anyway, it's too late now to have scruples or lack of them becoming a burning issue in the campaign.

Meanwhile, television continued to be full of politics over the entire weekend.

In addition to many long and short paid telecasts, there were the usual analyses, interviews, projections, plus frequent plugs by each network for its forthcoming election night coverage.
The campaign managers of the two presidential candidates (on "Meet the Press") acknowledged they thought the campaign went on for too long a time in this era of electronic bustings. It's almost over now, but we've all had a pretty steady TV diet of politics and politicking since July. During the last couple of weeks there have been more political programs than westerns.

Ed Sullivan gave us a tour of Chicago and Dinah Shore took us on a trip through Spain and Portugal Sunday night.

So little imagination was used on the backgrounds of the Sullivan show it might just as well have stood in its New York theater. But where else on television could you learn that the electric washing machine was first introduced in Chicago in 1907?

GOP Has Good Chance Tuesday

By GARTH JONES
Associated Press Staff Writer
Texas Republicans stand the best chance in years Tuesday of sending at least one GOP lawmaker to the Legislature.
The last non-Democratic legislator was Edward Dicker of Dallas, a Republican in the 1951 Legislature.
Last-minute GOP hopes this year center on three and possibly four state legislative races where Republican nominees have at least a mathematical chance of victory.

OPPOSITION
The ballot shows four Democratic nominees for State Senate and 24 Democratic nominees for the House with Republican and Constitution Party opposition. This year the Republicans put up three senatorial nominees and 19 House candidates.

Republicans think one of their best is not the best, chances of electing a GOP House member in the 10-county 78th District in the heart of the Hill Country where Republicans have always been strong. Republican W. G. Stacy of Kerrville is considered likely to carry Kerr County, largest county of the district, and has heavy support in the towns of Junction and Bandera. The Democratic nominee, James Nugent, 30 of Kerrville, is a favorite among ranchers. Kerr County elected a GOP county judge and voted heavily for President Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956.

ANOTHER CHANCE
The Republicans also have a chance in one of the hottest inter-party races ever staged in San Antonio. Retired gambler V. E. Redl Berry, the Democrat, faces insurance man Henry Catto, Jr., the Republican. Berry has appeared on television to call his opponent "Fat Cat Catto" and charge that out-of-county money is backing Catto. The Republican nominee has hit back with Berry's police record.

Another Republican possibility in the race is San Antonio attorney Ike Kampmann Jr. who has waged against Sen. Henry Gonzalez, liberal Democrat and campaigner for John Kennedy.
Although Catto and Kampmann have fought hard it would be considered an upset if either won.

J. D. Gary Rites Slated Tuesday

COLORADO CITY (C)—Jerry D. Gary, 82, Colorado City, died Sunday in the Root Memorial Hospital, following an illness of several years. He was born Aug. 30, 1878, in Rusk County but had lived in Mitchell County for 31 years. He was a retired farmer and a member of the First Baptist Church. He married Katie Houston in Rusk County in 1900.
Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the First Baptist Church with burial in the Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of the Kiker and Son Funeral Home. Rev. E. V. Brooks, pastor of the Oak St. Baptist Church will officiate.

He is survived by his widow, three sons, Harper and Carl of Colorado City, and W. P. Gary of Odessa; four daughters, Mrs. Ralph Gladden and Mrs. T. J. Geiger, both of Colorado City, Mrs. Clyde Roberts, San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Delmar Roberts, Pecos; one brother, John Gary, Henderson; five sisters, Mrs. Ora Davis, Mrs. Eva Maddox, Mrs. Mary Compton and Mrs. Adeline Hager, all of Henderson, and Mrs. Ollie Neely, Texas City; 18 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Coahoma P-TA
The Coahoma P-TA will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the new high school auditorium. Mrs. Bill Davis of Big Spring will project a film, "Strangers," said Mrs. Hezlie Read, publicity chairman.

Police Harried By Minor Thefts

Burglars carried off 20 packages of cigarettes and about $7 in change from the cigarette machine at the Gomez Cafe, 510 NW 4th, in one of seven assorted thefts and burglaries Saturday night.
A coin changing machine was taken from the Nabors Automatic Laundry, 1604 1/2 E. 4th, but was later recovered in a nearby patch of weeds.
Willie Williamson, 1705 Young reported the theft of a floor mat from his car, taken while the vehicle was parked in the 400 block of Main.
R. A. Davis, 1611 Harding, reported the theft of the radio antenna from his car while it was parked at the Medical Arts Hospital.

Charles B. Smith, 1600 Cardinal, told police a .22 caliber pistol was stolen from his car, and Ennis Cochran, 608 E. 13th, reported the theft of a bicycle.
A pair of shoes was reported shoplifted from the Burton Shoe Store, 1507 Gregg.

Excess Almost Gone

Lake J. B. Thomas neared spillway level Monday after draining excess water for the past three weeks. Elevation was 2258.04, or half an inch over the spillway lip. The lake has been draining the surplus water at about a half an inch a day.

Heavy Schedule To Face City Council

A heavy schedule of business faces the city commissioners who will meet Tuesday in a regular session at 5:15 p.m. at City Hall.
A proposed subdivision ordinance, which City Manager A. K. Steinheimer is working feverishly on to have ready in time for commission study, should be one of the main topics discussed Tuesday, if it is presented.
Steinheimer will present a list of streets which he said should be abandoned from the paving assessment program, as well as others which he said are due further consideration for inclusion at this time.

Those streets due to be stricken from the list are those where little interest in paving has been shown by property owners. Steinheimer said. At the last commission meeting commissioners agreed to abandon such streets, using the city's share of that money saved on streets where interest warrants paving and city expenditure.
Two streets and alleys will be considered for closing, including the alley north of West 16th in the Indian Hills Addition, and 18th between Lancaster and Aylford.
James Duncan has proposed closing the alley and Mrs. Laura Baker requested the closing of 18th.
Additional consideration is due Tuesday concerning the lease or deed for city land now being used by Webb AFB. Last week basic officials presented a proposal for deeding the land to the government for simple and commissionaires at that time felt more time was needed before a decision was made.
Other items due discussion are the proposed salvage yard ordinance, and a right-of-way request by Pioneer Natural Gas Co. to construct a high pressure gas line across the city park property.
A lease agreement between the city and the federal government concerning the construction of a nuclear fallout shelter at 18th and Main is due consideration, as is a request from the Corps of Engineers to build a concession stand at the Little League ball park at Webb AFB.

WEATHER

NORTHWEST TEXAS: Cloudy through Tuesday with occasional light rain and a little warmer this afternoon and tonight and in east and north Texas. Cooler Panhandle late Tuesday. Low tonight 48 to 50. High Tuesday 60 to 70.
SOUTHWEST TEXAS: Mostly cloudy and a little warmer through Tuesday, with occasional light rain Tuesday and in north this afternoon and tonight. Lowest tonight 48 to 50. Highest Tuesday 60 to 70.

Girl Injured In Horse Fall

A 14-year-old Big Spring girl, who received undetermined injuries Sunday afternoon when she was thrown from a horse, was reported resting comfortably today at the Howard County Hospital.
Linda Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davidson, NE 2nd, fell while riding in the vicinity of 5th and Birdwell. Hospital attendants said the full extent of her injuries have not been determined. She was taken to the hospital in a River ambulance.

Gets Pointers

John Tower Discusses Dallas Incident At C. City Meeting

COLORADO CITY (C)—A breakfast held at the Baker Hotel Sunday morning to honor John G. Tower, Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate, was spiced with informal talks by local Texans for Nixon-Lodge.
"If you've ever felt like you'd been double-crossed," he said, "you know that it leaves you with some pretty strong emotions."
About 60 attended the breakfast, and many were still present when Tower, who was an hour and a half late, arrived.
Tower talked informally with the group and, following the meeting, with a correspondent who questioned him with regard to the alleged mob scenes in Dallas hotels.
Tower said that he carried no gun as reported by some Texas newspapers, and said that he was sitting on a table in the hotel lobby with a bunch of newspapermen, when the Johnson entourage arrived. There was a group of Republican people in the lobby conducting a noisy but orderly demonstration when Johnson came in. The Republican crowd was largely made up of women, the Johnson group was largely big husky men. It seemed to me that they (Johnson's group) did most of the shouting.
Tower said that Mrs. Tower was one of those who got pushed. He added that TV coverage of the incident was objective, but that some of the newspaper reporters present gave a biased account of the incident.
Tower left Colorado City by plane for Monahans, where he was to attend another meeting.

Civil Suit Goes To Trial Today

Jury panel in 118th District Court will not have to report on Tuesday morning. Instead they will come back to the court on Wednesday at 1 p.m.
The off-day will enable the voters to ballot in the general election and the 1 p.m. Wednesday schedule will absorb any lost sleep time the members of the panel may have suffered by waiting out the election returns on Tuesday night.
Meantime, trial of one of three cases left on the civil docket was to begin at 1:30 p.m. today. The panel reported at that hour. Fifty-eight of the original 100 members were still on the court's list at that time.
The first case is a damage suit versus Neel's Transfer & Storage versus Jack Mitchell Transfer and Storage. Attorneys indicated it was quite possible this case could be completed this afternoon. If not, only a short time will be required to end it Tuesday morning.
Two tax suits brought by the City of Big Spring and others remain to be disposed of this week. In one of these against Joe Arnold, both defense attorneys notified the court this morning they were withdrawing from the case. They were Hartman Hooser and Clyde E. Thomas. What disposition may be made of this case when it comes up on Wednesday remains to be determined. The second tax suit is the City of Big Spring and others against Jesuita C. Jara. John Burgess, city attorney, represents the taxing agencies in both these cases.
One other civil case is tentatively still alive on the docket. Whether it will come up for trial this week depends on the health of Harvey Hooser Jr., the defense attorney. He expects to be able to be back in court later this week. It is a damage suit. Dave Harlin and others versus George E. Babb.

Cook Named To WT Committee

Pete Cook was elected chairman of the West Texas Physical Education committee during the annual PE Congress of the YMCA during the weekend at Dallas.
Joe Leach, PE director of the local association, attended the Congress reporting a large number of laymen and Y personnel on hand. He added that Cook was also named to the area (four state) PE committee.
One of the major issues of the Congress was admittance of girls and women to the annual area sports festival. Leach said this change in policy was approved after considerable discussion.

RECORD VOTE

subsidized in recent weeks, still remained a question mark. A number of Protestant ministers have opposed the election of Kennedy, a Catholic.
"If there was no religious issue injected in this campaign, Jack Kennedy would carry every state in the Union," Johnson told a Democratic rally at Harlingen Sunday.
The same poll that gave the Kennedy-Johnson slate the edge also showed Johnson to be favored by 59 per cent of the voters for re-election to the Senate. The poll gave his Republican opponent, John Tower of Wichita Falls, 41 per cent.
9 OPPONENTS
Nine of the state's 21 Democratic congressmen have either Republican or Constitution Party opponents. The lone GOP representative from Texas, Bruce Alger, is opposed by Joe Pool, former state legislator.
In his Harlingen address Johnson Sunday predicted a "sweeping victory for the Democrats" in the national election Tuesday.
"John Kennedy is going to call me early Tuesday night to tell me he has swept Massachusetts. I hope that I can tell him I am sweeping Texas," Johnson said.
The vice presidential candidate was greeted by a crowd of 2,000 persons including some youths carrying Nixon signs on his arrival at the airport. A crowd estimated at 6,000 by newsmen heard him deliver his address at the Harlingen baseball park.
RELIGIOUS ISSUE
In discussing the religious issue, Johnson said:
"We must not convert our faith into a means of influencing the ballot box."
"It seems to me it is wrong to vote for a man just because he is a fellow co-religionist. But by the same token it is wrong to vote against a man because he worships a just God in a different manner," the senator said in the predominantly Latin-American area.
Johnson was to climax a 65,000-mile campaign in Austin's famed Old Driskill Hotel with a Monday night party.

4 Minor Wrecks Are Reported

Four minor traffic accidents occurred late Saturday and Sunday without a reported injury, according to investigating police.
Lidward Arlis Haynes, Roscoe, and Kay Thornton, 1004 Wood, were in collision at 3rd and Goliad.
Mrs. Aubrey R. Weatherly, 406 Washington Blvd., collided at 2nd and Rummels.
Johnnie Clarence Nixon, 1000 Goliad, and Rafael Heredia Lopez, 502 NW 7th, were involved in a collision in the 100 block of E. 4th.
Dewey Wayne Phillips, 3311 Drexel, was in collision with Shirley Ann Watson, 503 Nolan, in the 2200 block of Gregg.

Seven States Could Decide Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP)—With the marathon campaign reaching a crescendo, nearly 67 million Americans prepared today to pick a new president.
Whether their choice in Tuesday's election would be Democratic Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts or Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon appeared to hinge primarily on the decision of a majority of the voters in the seven largest states.

CARRY THESE
These states—New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, California and Texas—have 205 of the 269 electoral votes needed for election. To win, either candidate probably will need to carry most of them. New York and California were reported shaded for Kennedy. The rest were listed as doubtful.
Although many of the pollsters and dopsters gave Kennedy the edge, Nixon's partisans maintained outward confidence a last-hour surge would carry their man to narrow victory. Some of Kennedy's backers were talking in terms of an electoral vote landslide.

FEVERISH WINDUP
The two presidential candidates and their running mates scheduled a fittingly feverish windup for a campaign in which they have crisscrossed the nation by air, rail and motorcade for a total of 135,000 miles of travel. Each has been seen in person by millions and on television by additional tens of millions.
Kennedy stumped in about 240 cities and towns, Nixon in about 170. With Sunday's visit to Wichita, Nixon made it to all 50 states. Kennedy bypassed only Alabama, Hawaii, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Dakota and Nevada.
Nixon came up with a new presidential campaign technique—a four-hour a day, seven a week television broadcast today from Detroit, Mich., in which he promised to answer questions phoned or wired to him by voters in all sections of the nation.

TOUR
Nixon also put forth a proposal, if elected, to send President Eisenhower and former president Harry S. Truman and Herbert Hoover on a goodwill tour behind the Iron Curtain.
The Republican nominee said Eisenhower had approved this idea and had suggested that Truman, with whom the President has had virtually no relations for nearly seven and one-half years—be included.
Truman promptly rejected the idea, saying among other things he is booked through next year for a lecture series. He commented also that any such thing "should have been done seven years ago before things started going to pot."
Kennedy had another kind of proposal—one for a federal scholarship plan he said ought to make it possible for every youngster with the necessary talent to get a college education.
The Democratic nominee stumped up his campaign with a national television broadcast (CBS) from Boston tonight. He will vote in Boston Tuesday and go to Hyannis Port, Mass. to get the returns.
Kennedy's running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson will close the campaign in Texas.

After his television stint in Detroit, Nixon flies to Chicago for a joint appearance with Eisenhower in Washington and Henry Cabot Lodge, the vice-presidential nominee, in Boston, on a national television broadcast.

Airport Funds Are Expected

If all goes well the county should be getting a nice fat check in a short time from the Federal Aviation Authority.
The check will represent the unpaid balance of federal funds pledged to the construction of the Howard County Airport. It has been awaited for some months in order to complete the airport, the county transferred funds from other sources and needs the $30,000 still due from the federal government to repay the debt.
Ed Carpenter, county judge, has a letter from the FAA in which he said the legal authorities in the agency have given final approval to the county's claims for money and that no further delay in payment of the obligation is anticipated.

School Case Is Submitted

Gil Jones, who appeared before the Court of Civil Appeals on Nov. 4 to argue in defense of a district court ruling in the Gay Hill-Center Point school district annexation case, does not look for a ruling from the court for at least 30 days.
He said that Hartman Hooser and Bill Kerr, two of the school districts' attorneys, were also present. Only Kerr spoke, however.
Jones represents the Howard County School board. The case before the Eastland court was an appeal brought by the two school districts from a ruling of the 118th District Court that it had no jurisdiction to hear the formal protest they had lodged against the annexation of their districts to the Big Spring Independent School district.
Jones said that the justices in Eastland asked many questions about the case at the close of the formal argument on the appeal.

Services Pend For J. G. DeLay

COLORADO CITY (C)—James G. DeLay, 69, Colorado City, died at the Denson Rest Home in Colorado City Sunday. DeLay had lived in Big Spring for over three years but had been in Colorado City for a week. He was born in Fannin County in 1891. He was a member of the Church of Christ.
Funeral services will be announced from the Kiker and Son Funeral Home in Colorado City.
He is survived by a son, James B. DeLay, Houston; a brother, H. D. DeLay, Midland; five sisters, Mrs. Leona Howell and Mrs. Vennie Venson, both of Leonard, Mrs. Ova Badgewell and Mrs. Julia Cline, both of Wymore, Okla., and Mrs. Oneida Jones, Anton.

Driving Charges Get Heavy Fine

Edward Yrvegas, who was arrested for DWI and for other traffic offenses on Sunday, pleaded guilty to two of the charges in county and justice courts on Monday.
In county court he was fined $75 and sentenced to three days in jail for driving while intoxicated. In justice court he was fined $50 and costs for failure to stop and render aid after an accident. The total bill is $175 plus three days in jail.
Four minors were jailed by the liquor control board for possession of intoxicating liquors.
Hamilton Kerbo, charged with DWI and Selba Visenett, also charged with DWI, each have posted $500 bond. They have been released from custody.

Grandmothers Slate Program

ACKERLY — Grandmothers will be in charge of the program to be presented tonight at the regular meeting of the Ackerly P-TA meeting in the school auditorium. The meeting is at 8 p.m. according to the president, Mrs. Alfred Herrin. The nature of the program planned by the grandmothers has been kept a secret.

THESE ARE THE PLATFORMS OF THE THREE MAJOR PARTIES WHICH HAVE AN INTEREST IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION

NEW DEMOCRATIC PARTY

"Throughout its deliberations, your platform committee this year has been aware that the 1960 election will in all likelihood shape the course of history. Most of us have been fully conscious that we were called upon for new answers and new perspectives.

These pages present the platform which we propose to the convention for adoption. These portions printed in bold face type (representing about 25% of the whole platform), are the platform highlights which will be orally presented before the delegates and the nationwide television audience. This is the greatest, most liberal platform ever adopted by a political party. I am deeply proud to be a member of the party which produced this document." Chester Bowles.

America can meet its obligations only with generous federal financial support in the form of grants for purposes of classroom construction and teachers' salaries.

It will include aid for the construction of academic facilities, as well as dormitories at colleges and universities.

We recommend establishment of a Youth Conservation Corps, to give underprivileged young people a rewarding experience in a healthful environment."

We mean to solve the problem of non uniform seaward boundaries.

Water is a national problem.

Federal action is needed to plan pollution control. We will develop a "comprehensive national water resource policy": a plan for each major river basin, start again to build dams, electric plants, and flood control works. Natural resources are the birthright of all the people. Prevention of their waste and adequate development is a federal responsibility.

"We will repeal the authorization for right to work laws of the separate States."

We shall close the loopholes in depletion allowances.

We propose repeal of the Connally Amendment.

(The United States adherence to the World Court of the United Nations contains a "self judging reservation" the Connally Amendment; which prevents other countries ruling on what we may consider our own domestic affairs.)

We will do whatever necessary to eliminate literacy tests and the payment of poll taxes as requirements for voting.

For F.E.P.C.

Federal Employment Practices Commission. This means that if 25% of our local population were Mongolian, 1 out of every 4 employees of every business would be a Mongolian.

A Democratic president will put an end to present interest rates. An end to present money policies. Public works programs for full employment aids to depressed areas. An increase in economic growth by Federal programs.

We believe in a compulsory system of health insurance for those under social security.

Federal Leadership is required to prevent and control juvenile delinquents.

"This is the most liberal platform ever advanced by a political party" Chester Bowles.

We will expand Federal plans and programs for:

Urban renewal.

Transportation of suburban commuters.

Disposal of Cities garbage.

Clearing Cities slums.

Efficient Giant Power systems from all sources.

Federal aid to housing.

Federal aid to education.

Compulsory medical care for those under Social Security.

Intergroup relations to solve social and religious tensions.

Youth Conservation Corps.

Every major river basin.

Pollution Control,

etc.

We endorse:

John Kennedy

Lyndon Johnson

REPUBLICAN PARTY

The leadership of the United States must be responsible and mature; its promises must be rational and practical, soberly pledged and faithfully undertaken. Its purposes and its aspirations must ascend to that high ground of right and freedom upon which mankind may dwell and progress in decent security.

In the midst of violence and change, we draw strength and confidence from the changeless principles of our free Constitution. Free men are invincible when the power and courage, the patience and the fortitude latent in them are drawn forth by reasonable appeal.

"We are aware of the fact that there is a temporary shortage of classrooms for our elementary and secondary schools in a limited number of states. But this shortage, due to the vigilant action of state legislatures and local school boards, is not increasing, but is decreasing. The respective states as a permanent program can shoulder this long-standing and cherished responsibility easier than can the federal government with its heavy indebtedness.

We believe moreover that any large plan of federal aid to education, such as direct contributions to or grants for teachers' salaries can only lead ultimately to federal domination and control of our schools to which we are unalterably opposed."

Texas and Florida have State ownership of submerged lands out to the 3 league boundary.

We pledge support of the historic policy of Congress in preserving the integrity of the several States to govern water rights.

We restate our belief in the right to work laws of States.

We urge retention of the present oil and gas depletion allowance.

We support and urge retention of the Connally Amendment.

We believe ability to read and understand our Constitution is necessary for intelligent voting.

States' Rights permits States to levy registration fees.

Against F.E.P.C.

We reject the concept of artificial growth forced by massive federal spending and loose money policies.

The effective way to accelerate economic growth is to increase the traditional strengths of a free economy.

We favor maintenance of a stable dollar.

We believe in encouraging sound voluntary systems of health insurance to protect the personal relationship of patient and physician.

The Federal Government should help State and local communities combat juvenile delinquency.

We count on the proved productivity of our own free economy to provide the means for a better life.

We draw strength and confidence from the changeless principles of our free Constitution.

Government should not do for a citizen or a community what they can and should do for themselves.

We Endorse:

Richard Nixon

Henry Cabot Lodge

DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF TEXAS

"As Americans, as Texans, and as Democrats, we seek to bring productive unity to our State. It shall be the goal of the Democratic Party of Texas, which is virtually synonymous with the government of Texas, to devote its energies in the future, as in the past, to unite the majority of our people in behalf of continued progress and good government. In meeting the challenges of the present and future, we pledge adherence to the Constitutional principles of separation of powers, State sovereignty, local self-government, and individual freedom.

"In fulfilling this vital responsibility of State government, it is essential that Texas continue its unwavering course toward the finest public school system in the Nation, and the increased quality of its colleges and universities. This should be accomplished with State and local funds and without general federal aid.

"We recognize that the pressures of a growing scholastic population are of national concern, but we are confident that the States can and will solve their problems unless impeded by federal encroachments upon tax sources rightly belonging to the States. Therefore, we endorse the Hale-Aikin Committee recommendations for public school improvements at the State level and oppose the entry of the Federal Government in the general field of public education. We reaffirm our conviction that local operation and control of the public schools is essential to the preservation of liberty and self-government. We urge strict adherence to all State laws guaranteeing local determination in the operation of the public schools and pledge, by every legal means, to protect the rights and decisions of the people of local school districts in the operation and control of their schools."

We believe in State ownership of submerged lands out to the 3 league (10 1/2 miles) boundary in the Gulf of Mexico.

We believe in the principle of State ownership of the waters of streams and rivers.

Freedom of development of our natural resources from Federal control is necessary.

We restate our belief in the right to work law of States.

We urge retention of the present oil and gas depletion allowance.

We support and urge retention of the Connally Amendment.

We believe ability to read and understand our State and Federal Constitution is necessary for intelligent voting.

States have the right to levy registration fees.

Against F.E.P.C.

We, as advocates of States' rights, recognize the need for strong and efficient State and local government with adequate resources to properly serve the needs of the people.

We are confident that the States can and will solve their problems unless impeded by federal encroachments upon tax sources rightly belonging to the States.

The State assumes responsibility for care and treatment of citizens lacking financial means, and the mentally ill and retarded.

Juvenile crime is our number one social problem. We support stronger State Laws to combat it.

We are against the threat to the Democratic Party of Jefferson and Jackson from the growing and menacing concentration of power in Central government.

We resist unconstitutional Federal encroachments and oppose socialistic proposals which would rob our people of their initiative and freedom.

No endorsement.

Teachers Hold 1st NYC Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Teachers struck today for the first time in the history of New York City schools. Picket lines formed at day-break, with sign-carrying teachers pacing the sidewalks outside schools. They defied threats that they would be fired for such action. What proportion of the teaching personnel was involved could not be quickly determined. Pupils were advised to report to class as usual. The striking United Federation of Teachers claims to represent a fourth of the 40,000 teachers in the city's 837 public schools. Enrollment exceeds a million. At Shanker, a union official, said more than 5,000 teachers were expected to picket at all 128 junior high schools, 80 of 86 high schools and about 200 of 600 elementary schools. An hour before class time, 40 teachers marched outside Seward Park High School on Manhattan's lower East Side. Six pickets patrolled Dunbar Junior High in the Bronx. They said 60 of 80 teachers there were striking. Eight pickets took up posts at La Salle Junior High in midtown Manhattan. At one school, only one of 20 teachers normally on duty by 8:30 a. m. had reported. Charles Cogen, UFT president, called the strike "a great success." The union has accused the school board of breaking promises regarding collective bargaining, sick pay benefits and other issues. The strike coincided with the start of "Open School Week," when parents traditionally are invited to visit schools. Education officials have said the striking teachers would lose their jobs and possibly their state teaching certificates. The state's Condon-Wadlin law prohibits work stoppages by public employees. The UFT, affiliated with the AFL-CIO, is only one of 39 teacher organizations in the city. The union seeks higher pay, a union checkoff and a "promotional increment plan." Another major issue in the dispute is UFT's demand for collective bargaining rights. The Board of Education has approved some concessions, which were called inadequate by the UFT.

Nine Killed In Bus Crash

TEMPLETON, Que (AP)—Nine persons were killed Sunday night and at least 10 others injured when a bus and a station wagon collided head-on on a slight curve near this town 10 miles east of Ottawa. The station wagon penetrated five feet into the bus. All five persons in the car were killed. So were bus driver Paul Poirier, 30, of Buckingham, and three of his 17 passengers. A light snow was not believed a factor in the crash. A policeman said it was falling too lightly to obscure the drivers' vision and that most of it had blown off the highway. The bus was en route from Hull to Buckingham. The driver of the station wagon was Roland Lavigne, 29, of Hull. With him were his brother Emile, 21; two Ottawa men, Patrick G. Mayville, 21, and Paul Sauve, 19, and a fifth person who was not identified. Police refused to release the names of the dead bus passengers.

Democrats Expected To Keep Majorities In Both Houses

WASHINGTON (AP)—Barring a big political upset, both houses of Congress are expected to retain Democratic majorities in Tuesday's election. The Democrats are virtually assured control of the Senate even before the voting starts. In the House even Democratic partisans generally were willing to concede some Republican gains. But only the most optimistic Republicans would go so far as to predict a GOP majority. Democratic politicians for the most part estimated they might have a net loss of 10 to 15 seats in the House. Their Republican counter-parts insisted their party would have a minimum gain of 25 or 30 seats. These appraisals assume the popular vote will be fairly close in the presidential race. A landslide either way in the popular vote could change the picture, but probably not enough to wipe out the Democrats' current 129-vote edge in the House. All 437 of the House seats are up for grabs, as they are every two years, but only 34 of the Senate's 100 seats are at stake. Democrats now outnumber Republicans in the House 283 to 154, including vacancies. In the Senate the Democratic margin is 66-34, a 32-vote majority. Of the 66 Senate seats not involved in Tuesday's election, 43 are held by Democrats, 23 by Republicans. So even before the voting, the Democrats hold all but eight of the 51 seats needed for a majority. Some of the eight are already in the bag. Unopposed are John L. McClellan in Arkansas, Richard B. Russell in Georgia and Strom Thurmond in South Carolina, all Democrats. A Willis Robertson of Virginia, another Democrat, has no Republican opponent. All told, the Democrats count on 10 sure-fire winners in the South. The 34 Senate seats involved in the election now are held 23 Democrats and 11 Republicans. In nine states classed as doubtful in the Senate battle, the winning presidential candidate might carry a senator of his own party into office. Democrats now hold seats in Delaware, Missouri, Montana, Oregon, West Virginia and Wyoming, while Republicans are incumbents in Colorado, Iowa and Idaho.

TEXAS FAMILY WINS HONOR

AMARILLO (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robertson and their nine children have been selected by the National Broadcasting Co. for its pre-Thanksgiving special "Story of a Family." The Robertsons were named Family of the Year in 1957 by a citizens group, came after consideration of nearly 2,000 families nominated by affiliate stations and family service officers across the nation.

Rosary Slated For Mack Sennett

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Rosary will be recited tonight for old-time comedy king Mack Sennett, 80, who died Saturday at the Motion Picture Country Home. Friends said he was broke—although he made millions in his prime, when he invented the Keystone cops and the pie-in-the-face antics that reigned in the days of slapstick and the silent film. A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Hollywood.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that authors made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation 170. At all drug counters.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Solves Difficulty With Hair And Diet

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — When I saw Bonnie Scott on the "Dondi" set in Hollywood recently, she told me she was preparing to make her debut on Broadway. As we chatted in her dressing room, I asked how she got her start.

solved is nail biting. For a while I was good about leaving my nails alone, but I got so nervous thinking about making my Broadway debut that I chewed them off again. I wish I knew a solution, she concluded.

POPULAR DIET

Readers often ask for a short but sure diet. This one is easy, full of variety and guaranteed to help you lose weight. It's a six-day "Body-Balance Reducing Diet." Leaflet M-64, designed to shed a pound a day. Send 10 cents for your copy and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, Big Spring Herald.

"I used to have to starve myself to stay thin. I had a weight problem and there seemed to be no solution. Finally in desperation I went to a doctor. He discovered that my weight was caused by my thyroid. Just think of all those years that I didn't eat! Since I've been under his care, I can eat twice as much and not gain. I think there are many people who are fat because of thyroid trouble. If they could get pills to correct the condition, and they'd feel and look better and be so much happier."

"This is very sound advice," I told her. "Have you solved any other problems?"

"Yes, I have," Bonnie replied. "I used to have a miserable time with my hair. It was too curly. No one with straight hair has any idea how unmanageable curly hair can be. But now I know how to control it. I use a permanent wave solution to straighten it. I comb it through my hair until I feel the wave has reached a desired width and then I wash it out. This solution seems to change my hair structure so that I can dress it any way I like. This is my greatest beauty discovery."

"One problem that I have not

Mrs. Coates Is Hostess For Club

COAHOMA (SC)—Mrs. James Coates was hostess to members of the Mary Jane Club recently. During the fellowship hour refreshments were served to nine members.

The next meeting will be on Nov. 8. The program will be on art culture with Mrs. Terry Patterson of Big Spring as guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett DeVaney of Goldsmith and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne DeVaney and children of Lubbock visited here Friday with their mother Mrs. R. B. DeVaney. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wood spent the weekend visiting with his mother, Mrs. W. H. Wood of Holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Arlon DeVaney were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Cary of Lorraine. They also attended the Lorraine High School Homecoming event.

Pixilated Chicken Baked In Pickle Barbecue Sauce

Whether you've been eating chicken, stewed, fried or roasted, you and your family will find it is still a treat when you try a recipe that's different — baked chicken with a special pickle barbecue sauce.

The sauce is a simple one to get ready for the ingredients are merely mixed together and poured over the browned chicken pieces. It's a palate-tingling combination.

Home economists recommend that you use sharply-flavored dill pickles for more piquant flavor or sweet cucumber pickles for a somewhat milder sauce.

PICKLED BARBECUE CHICKEN Dredge 4 to 6 chicken breasts in flour, salt and pepper. Brown chicken pieces in hot fat on both sides. Meanwhile prepare the following sauce:

Combine 1 six-ounce can tomato paste, 1 cup chopped dill pickles, 1/4 cup chopped onion, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 tablespoon honey, 2 tablespoons soy sauce, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard and 1 1/3 cups water.

Place browned chicken in casserole and pour barbecue sauce over chicken. Cover. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour or until chicken is fork tender. Recipe yields 4 to 6 servings.

Shrimp Sandwiches

Try shrimp, sandwich style.

SHRIMP SANDWICHES 1 pound shrimp (cooked and cleaned and diced)

1/4 cup finely diced celery 1/4 cup mayonnaise-type salad dressing 1 tablespoon hot catchup 2 teaspoons minced scallion (white part only)

Salt Pepper 8 to 12 thin slices buttered bread

Mix together the diced shrimp, celery, salad dressing, catchup, scallion, salt and pepper to taste. (A tomato-base seafood cocktail sauce may be used instead of hot catchup.) Use shrimp mixture as filling for sandwiches made with the bread. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

To cook shrimp, wash in cold water; drain; add to 1 1/2 to 2 cups water (enough to cover) and 1 teaspoon salt; simmer 3 to 5 minutes or until opaque through. Shrimp are done about 28 to the pound are fine to use in this recipe.

Regional Meeting Is Attended By Sorority

The Alpha State regional meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma was held Saturday in Midland.

Eula Lee Carter, retired Spanish teacher at T.C.U., was the guest speaker. She gave a report on the international meeting which was held in Miami in August. Plans are being made to start chapters in the Philippines, she announced. Miss Carter gave three weapons of teachers for the future. They are as follows: Be prepared with knowledge of the changing times and a progressive attitude toward education. Train for better leadership, and be a dedicated leader and be an enthusiastic worker.

There is "nothing so contagious as feelings and no other so vital as enthusiasm," stated the speaker. Mrs. Ruth Rutherford, president of the local chapter, presided over one of the sectional meetings held by the teachers. They discussed the role of the chapters in professional leadership and rededication to the seven purposes of the organization and the role of teachers as "Dimensions of the Future."

The meeting was attended by 203 members. Mrs. Nan Alexander of Big Spring and Mrs. Evelyn Douthitt of Garden City were among the 37 who were initiated. The attendance award was won by the Epsilon Omicron Chapter of Lamesa.

Approximately 35 Beta Kappa members attended from Big Spring.

Mrs. Richardson Is Shower Honoree

Mrs. Jim Richardson was honored Sunday afternoon with a pink and blue shower in the home of Mrs. Dean Weatherly.

Guests were registered along with suggestive names for a baby by Mrs. Gayle Price.

The serving table was covered with a cloth of yellow and white nursery figures. A cake iced in pink and blue was accented with a stork and miniature dolls centered around a rattle.

Mrs. Dean Forrest presented a "This Is Your Life" skit before the presentation of gifts by Mrs. Weatherly.

Assisting Mrs. Weatherly with the hostess duties were Mrs. Price and Charlotte Marstrand.

New Materials Lure Firms To Chemicals

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Price cutting and sales competition have bitten into the profits of the chemical companies. But this seems only to have sharpened their drive to outpace one another in turning cheap and plentiful raw materials into profitable synthetics—either new or cheaper ones.

The prospective harvest to be reaped from new man-made materials continues to lure members of other industries into the field.

The battles start in the laboratory where more than $400 million a year is being poured into research. Then they spill into the marketplace. Some who watch the industry closely feel the current profit squeeze may be just the catalyst to turn today's increasing competition into show-downs—with a number of casualties a good probability.

Inroads of price cutting and slower business into chemical profit margins shown in first reports of July-August-September earnings. They average 13 per cent lower than in the summer of 1959 and 20 per cent down from the April-May-June quarter of 1960. The industry's reports for the first nine months of this year trail the year-ago figures by 7 per cent, although a number of other industries topped their 1959 showings.

Entry of other industries into the chemical business has gained momentum in recent years, underpinned by the average capital investment of $27,000 for each chemical worker, which is larger than in many other lines of endeavor.

The parade has included meat packers, whisky distillers, soap makers, photographic equipment producers, oil companies, metal processors.

Examples of the competitive struggle within the chemical industry: 1. There were two chemical companies producing polyethylene immediately after World War II. Today 17 do. 2. Ten years ago the American farmer had five major suppliers of anhydrous ammonia. Today 30 companies compete in meeting his fertilizer needs. Similar examples can be found in paints, synthetic fibers and plastics.

One chemical discovery that caught on fast and opened a wide market for itself while competing fiercely with other synthetics and natural materials is the relatively newcomer isocyanate. This man-made molecule uses natural gas or salt as a starting point and then combines with other ingredients to produce urethane.

From this can be fashioned rocket fuels, featherweight foam mattresses, insulated ski and sailing clothes, or wear resistant applications for roller skating rinks.

One sideline to the keen competition to develop and exploit urethane is a three-way battle now joined between urethane, latex rubber and the long established metal spring for the mattress and furniture cushioning market.

The chemical industry sports many other intramural contests. But with new cost-cutting and marketing programs—plus some luck from the research laboratories' future findings—the industry hopes to take off by the end of next year on a new growth cycle. It aims at matching the record of the last 25 years when its average growth rate was 7 per cent a year—well above that for manufacturing as a whole.

The chemists hope that in the new cycle profit margins will be restored to boot.

DEAR ABBY

MOTHER'S AHEAD

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: For eleven years I have been married to a man who has had me running in a contest with his mother. No matter what I do, his mother could have done it better, faster and cheaper. It's true, his mother is a very able woman, but in my own way I do all right, too. If he eats something at her house that he likes, I try to make it for him at home, but it never comes out like hers. (Maybe I try too hard.) His mother knits things for him, so I learned to knit, but he never wears my things—only hers. I really like his mother, but she makes everything so difficult for me because she is such an expert. Am I childish for feeling hurt and how can I overcome it?

NO MATCH FOR MAMMA
DEAR NO: Don't try to compete with your husband's mother. She is at least 20 years ahead of you, and always will be. Use a little originality, and quit knocking yourself out trying to top someone who became tops through years of practice and experience.

DEAR ABBY: Bill (not his real name) and I are very much in love, but we are not old enough to get married without our parents' consent. We thought if we HAL-LOWEENed, they would sign for us, so we went ahead and followed that plan. Now it turns out that our parents refuse to sign for us. Bill is on probation and we were told the authorities would force him to marry me after getting me in this condition, but we discovered that wasn't true, either. Can you help us, Abby? I am 15 and Bill is 14. I want to keep my baby, but everyone is against it.

IN TROUBLE
DEAR IN TROUBLE: Better do as your parents advise, kids; otherwise, with this start, you could be in trouble for the rest of your lives—and you both have a long way to go!

DEAR ABBY: I have been reading a lot lately about people who have "willed" their eyes to a blind person. I am over 21 and would like to do this. How do I go about it, please?

JAY L.
DEAR JAY: Get in touch with an International Lions Club or the Medical School in your area for full particulars.

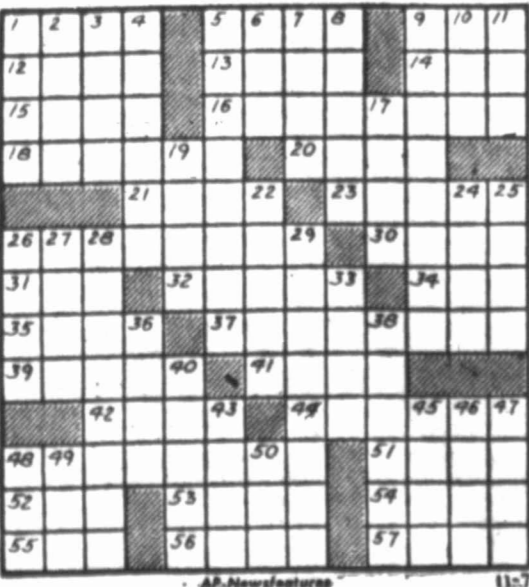

DEAR ABBY: Maybe you can help us barbers. Why do women wait until Saturday to bring their kids in for haircuts? These women have all day. Why can't they bring them in after school? When working men come into the barber shop on Saturday, it is always full of kids.

Also, we barbers would rather have fathers bring in their kids than mothers. The women stand around the chair and tell the barber how to cut hair. I wish the days would come back when no respectable woman would be seen in a barber shop.

BARBER
If you want a personal reply from Abby, write to her in care of The Big Spring Herald and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. She answers ALL letters.

A&I Looms As Contender

By The Associated Press
Texas A&I, the defending champion, sounded a shrill warning to its Lone Star Conference opposition last week.
The Javelinas crushed pace-setting Lamar Tech 40-0 and the two teams now lead the league with 4-1 records. Three others—East Texas, Howard Payne and Sul Ross—remained in contention with 3-2 records as each posted victories Saturday.
East Texas blanketed Southwest Texas 12-0. Howard Payne clipped Stephen F. Austin 27-14 and Sul Ross nudged Sam Houston State 8-0.
The feature game this week matches A&I against Sul Ross at Kingsville. East Texas hosts Lamar Tech. Jack Geron registered Sul Ross' lone touchdown in the fourth quarter as the Lobos, the early season hotshots, won their sixth game of the year.
A fumble and an intercepted pass proved the downfall of Southwest Texas. Both miscues resulted in East Texas touchdowns.
Al Schlosser paced Howard Payne's victory over Stephen F. Austin with two touchdowns.

Minnesota And Missouri Move Up In College Play

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
The world of college football today belongs to Minnesota's resurgent Golden Gophers and their oft-maligned coach, Murray Warmath. They hope they can hold onto it a bit longer than some of the other kingpins this season.
A half-step away is a fighting band of Missouri Tigers, whose glory days go far back to 1941, the same time Bernie Bierman and the Golden Gophers were the strong men of college football.
The Gophers and Warmath climaxed 19 years of "coming back" Saturday when they upped their season record to 7-0 by beating Iowa's unbeaten Hawkeyes, ranked first in The Associated Press poll, 27-10. The victory put the Gophers, ranked third before the victory, into the Big Ten lead.
Missouri, a 16-6 victor over Colorado, took over the Big Eight slot and has an 8-0 mark, the most wins for a Missouri team since Don Farout's team had an 8-3 record in 1948.
Looking toward this week's game against Purdue, with a 50-24-1 record and three straight losses, Warmath observed: "We don't put in stock in those four defeats. Purdue is a fine football team."
The Gophers don't dare relax. Defending national champion Syracuse, Mississippi and Iowa all held the kingly spot at one time or another this year. Each had the crown snatched rudely away.
A Minnesota victory over Purdue will assure the Gophers at least a tie for the Big Ten title and possibly start its admirers humming in anticipation of a trip to the Rose Bowl. Ohio State, ranked fifth in the poll, plays the Hawkeyes, and the loser is finished in the race.
Missouri, ranked second nationally before its Colorado victory, plays Oklahoma. The Sooners won't make it 13 Big Eight titles in a row after last week's 10-6 loss to Iowa State. But Kansas is still around and if it beats Colorado this week, then the Missouri-Kansas game the following Saturday will produce the conference champion.

Things get interesting elsewhere this week. Washington, ranked seventh before beating Southern California 34-0, can nail down a spot to defend its Rose Bowl title by beating California and winning the Big Five crown.
Duke, whose 19-10 victory over previously unbeaten Navy was a surprise Saturday, can gain at least a tie for the Atlantic Coast Conference title by beating Wake Forest. Yale, one of the nation's unbeaten with a 7-0 mark after whipping Penn 34-9, plays Princeton in what will probably be the Ivy League title game. Both are 5-0 in loop play. Each has two games left.
Unbeaten, Untied List Dwindles
By The Associated Press
The list of the nation's unbeaten-untied college football teams was reduced to 25 over the weekend with only five major elevators still on the select list.
The defeat of Navy by Duke and the downfall of Iowa at the hands of Minnesota left Missouri, Utah State, Minnesota, Yale and New Mexico State as the only major teams with perfect slates. Missouri and Utah State have won eight games each, Minnesota, Yale and New Mexico State seven.

DRIVE LOAN SHARKS OUT OF TEXAS

Vote FOR Amendment No. 4

All over America Texas is known as the "Loan Shark State." Ancient and antiquated laws let loan sharks grab millions of dollars each year.

Free Texas of this disgraceful stigma! First step is the adoption of Constitutional Amendment No. 4 which permits the passage of adequate legislation.

In the general election next Tuesday, do your part as a public-spirited Texan...

Vote FOR Amendment No. 4

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART
The current edition of Sports Illustrated magazine (Nov. 7) has a revealing article of the New Mexico State College football team, a bowl-bound outfit that has Big Spring's Charley Johnson as its navigator.

The article, entitled "The Team The Pros Watch," was written by Roy Terrell, a native Texan who undoubtedly was well acquainted with coach Warren Woodson's style of football before he ever departed Corpus Christi.

Terrell writes that NM State may have the best backfield in the nation. As teammates in the Aggie secondary, Johnson has such boys as Pervis Atkins, a 195-pound California Negro who runs the 100 in 9.8; Bob Galters, a 210-pound Negro who loopes the century in 9.8; and Bob Jackson, a 215-pound junior who likes to run over people.

Of Johnson, Terrell says: "One reason Atkins and Galters are able to run so well is Charley Johnson, who weighs 190 pounds and can't really run very well at all. But Johnson is a smart, cool quarterback who likes to gamble, a marvelous team leader who throws a football like Johnny Unitas. He has been drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals and the Cardinals could use him right now. Last season Johnson was second in the nation in total offense, seventh in passing yardage and led everybody with 18 touchdowns passes."

NM State's rise as a football power can, of course, be traced to the time when it hired Warren Woodson, formerly of HSU, as its head mentor. Woodson has never been very diplomatic and is shunned by many people for his lack of drawing-room manners but everyone agrees he knows his football. He gives his quarterbacks instructions to pass the ball at least 20 times a game, at least seven times in the first quarter.

Since he started coaching in 1924, the 57-year-old Woodson has seen his teams experience only four losing seasons.

Johnson has thrown at least one touchdown pass in every game in which he has appeared since donning an NM State uniform. In his article, Terrell says that Charley is "smart and quick and when he is out there Woodson doesn't have to worry about calling any plays from the bench."

Through the University of Houston's first seven football games this fall, Big Spring's Danny Birdwell led the Cougars in playing time with a total of 222 minutes. That averages out to 32 minutes a game.

Danny also holds the one-game mark, having clocked 47 minutes on the field against Mississippi State. Birdwell is a junior.

The town of Anapra, N. M., where Sunland Park race track is located, has been renamed after the track and now has a post office.

Sunland, of course, is only six miles from downtown El Paso.

Southwestern Oklahoma's football team, which met Eastern New Mexico University last weekend, has a starting tackle named Clede Satepauhoolie.

The three Davis boys—Ray, Bill and Don—all of whom are starters in the Stanton Junior High School football line, are not related.

Don Maynard, the Colorado City product, now with the New York Titans, is within striking distance of the all-time record for passes caught in pro football.

Both Candidates Get Red Criticism

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's official newspaper, Peiping People's Daily, criticized U.S. presidential candidates Richard M. Nixon and John F. Kennedy Sunday.

The paper said the two advocated arms expansion and war preparations and sought to aggravate international tension. The article was read over Radio Peiping.

Confesses, Gets Real Roof Free

CANTERBURY, England (AP) — John Doherty confessed before a court to being drunk in charge of his house.

The charge actually was being drunk in charge of his car, but as the barber, 45, explained, "I have been sleeping in my car for eight weeks. Once I got into my car at night it is my house."

He refused to pay $56-fine and went to jail instead—under a real roof and rent free.

Movie Lot Just Like The Old Days

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Well, sir, it was just like the old days. Three movies were shooting at Paramount Studios. Not TV films—real feature movies.

Stage 9 had "Breakfast at Tiffany's," a title with a faint of payola, but then Tiffany's doesn't really serve breakfast, so maybe it's all right. There was Audrey Hepburn playing a tipsy tart and getting a kiss in a hallway from her evening's escort. There was director Blake Edwards, a playful type who delayed calling "cut" so the kiss lasted longer than kisses are allowed to on the screen.

Stage 4 had "On the Double," which is out to prove that there still is room on the screen for good clean fun. There was Danny Kaye, back and busy after a year in the air. He spent the time learning to fly. He was also flying high over the reception to his TV show "Nearly everybody liked it," he said. "If everybody did, I'd worry."

There was Margaret Rutherford, England's grande dame making her Hollywood debut. She was made available by the untimely closing of her Broadway show, "Farewell, Farewell, Eugene." She explained the flop: "It was originally an American play that was Anglicized for me to play in London. Then it was Americanized for New York and something went awry."

There was Marilyn Monroe looking blonde all over — what was visible—and playing a dramatic scene with Eli Wallach, Montgomery Clift and a beagle. The actors did well with their Arthur Miller lines, but several takes were ruined by the beagle.

There was John Huston, lanky and weather-worn, working in a Hollywood studio for the first time in years. He reported "his 1961 project would be a Freudian drama, about Sigmund himself. It will be shot in Vienna with a script by Jean Paul Sartre."

Five Die In Home Blaze
WEINER, Ark (AP) — Five members of one family died in a fire that swept through their five-room house after a heating stove exploded Sunday.
Aaron E. Hurst, 46, died in a hospital an hour after he leaped through a window, his clothes in flames.
The bodies of Kenneth, 9; Wanda, 6; Geraldine, 16, and Alice, 11, were found in the house.
Mrs. Hurst and two other children, David Eugene, 18, and Glenn, 14, were in Little Rock where Glenn had undergone an appendectomy.

Finally Got Fed Up With It

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Walter W. Whaley, 55, a film studio casting director, grew irate at Sunday drivers going past his Hollywood Hills home to view a new housing development.

Harvey Siegel, 35, happened to drive past at the peak of Whaley's pique.

Officers said Whaley rushed from his home, swinging a 2-by-4 at Siegel's car.

Siegel, hit on the head, was taken to Hollywood Receiving Hospital. Whaley was booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon.
