GAS COMPANY ASKS FOR RATE

"Ready-to-Serve" Petition Is Given to Council Monday

Formal application for the assessment of a service charge of 50 cents per month for each meter in the city was made by the Municipal Gas company Monday night before the city council. J. W. Hassell, formerly of the state railroad commission and now representing the gas company; C. B. McKinney, president of the concern, and S. A. L. Morgan, resident attorney, appeared before the commissioners with their petition.

Presents Petition

In presenting the company's case, Mr. Hassell produced a formally drafted petition in which was set forth the reason for the charge being asked. He also made verbal explanation of all the points involved and answered numerous questions asked by the commissioners.

The petition, after qualifying the gas company as a legally organized corporation doing business in Wichita Falls, set forth that revenues of the concern as now allowed by law were insufficient to meet the annual operating expenses, let alone realize a profit on the investments. It stated that the reasonable expenditures of the company for a year were $526,601.78 and that a substantial deficit had been realized last year in the operation of the system here.

Is Best Plan

Mr. Hassell declared that in appraising the situation, the company had decided that a monthly ready to serve charge of 50 cents would be more equitable to all concerned than a raise in gas rates. He brought out one point heretofore overlooked, this being that the 50-cent charge each month abolished the $1 minimum service charge, heretofore levied whether any gas was used by a consumer or not. As long as a meter was in a house, it was pointed out, this $1 was assessed, but with the ready-to-serve charge effective, the $1 minimum would be stricken out.

75 Cents Per 1,000 Feet

Under the new regulations which, if allowed to become effective Sept. 1, as wanted, charges for gas here will be 75 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, less 10 per cent for cash in 10 days. This will make the charge 67½ cents per 1,000 cubic feet. Added to this will be the new 50 cents assessment.

Acting on the petition as presented, the council passed a resolution accepting the paper and agreeing to study its provisions carefully. The commissioners are also to take advantage of the gas company's offer to inspect at any time all books and records relating to the conduct of the business in Wichita Falls.

Commissioners Court Condemns Way In Which Matron's Pay Is Cut By Sheriff.

Declaring that as a court they "condemned this action" and "invited the attention of the grand jury and district attorney to these matters," members of the county commissioners court Monday afternoon took Sheriff Pat Murphy to task for alleged irregularities in the way he had been handling funds of his office. A motion was passed, with opposition, which publicly condemned the sheriff for his supposed irregularities.

The matter occupied practically the entire afternoon and came up over a dispute in the salary of Mrs. Harley Snyder, matron of the woman's wards at the county jail. The attention of the commissioners to the case was invited by County Auditor E. P. Walsh who has finished checking books of the sheriff's department.

No Shortage

It was made plain that the sheriff has always accounted for every cent taken in by his department and that he was in no way under suspicion on this account. The manner in which some salary matters had been handled however, was roundly assailed.

In bringing the matter before the court, it was pointed out by Mr. Walsh that on January 1 of this year Mrs. Snyder was engaged by Mr. Murphy to act as matron. It was agreed between she and the sheriff, it developed, that she was to be paid $90 a month, this being at the rate of about $3 per day. Prior to this, however, it was charged by the court that Mr. Murphy had asked the commissioners that he be allowed to pay a matron $4.50 a day.

Pays Big Sum

It was then brought out that last Saturday when some intimation came that an investigation of the case might start, the sheriff had given Mrs. Snyder a check for $229.50, this being the difference between the salary she had been drawing and that she would have received on a $4.50 basis since the first of the year.

The sheriff appeared before the commissioners and explained his position by saying that he regarded it permissable to make contracts with his deputies as he was able and that it was equally permissable to turn into the treasury any sums that might accumulate over these amounts. He stated that he had been given a legal opinion by the county attorney to this effect.

Questioned By Sartin

When questioned by Judge Sartin as to whether or not he had not early in the year told the commissioners he was going to pay Mrs. Snyder $150 a month and that it would be necessary for him to pay $15 a month of this from some other source because he was only allowed $4.50 a day by the county the sheriff replied emphatically that he had not.

Prior to passing the motion recommending a grand jury investigation, the commissioners spread on the minutes an order instructing the sheriff to return to the county treasury the $229.50 he had paid Mrs. Snyder last Saturday. This was done, it was explained, because Mrs. Snyder had agreed with the sheriff to work for $90 per month and that despite the fact that she was entitled to $4.50 a day under the statute, no contract to this effect existed.

Murphy Agrees

Sheriff Murphy readily agreed to this, stating that he was perfectly willing to do anything that would fix it with the court.

Mrs. Snyder, however, objected to this later and stated that inasmuch as it had been paid her she felt that she was entitled to it. The commissioners however, refused to rescind their order. They did later agree that Mrs. Snyder was entitled to pay at the rate of $4.50 a day and on her own solicitation she was allowed to take this matter up with the sheriff.

In all the arguments and questioning, Judge Sartin and Commissioner Kuntz of Iowa Park, led the attack.

HARDING GIVES OPPOSITION TO NATIONAL COAL

Coal Commission to Bring New Understanding, Cheyenne Hears

SPEAKS IN UTAH TODAY

Mine Owners Given Part Of Blame For Coal Strikes

Associated Press Dispatch

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 24.—In the discussion here of the nation's coal problems, in which he mentioned the industry, the consuming public and the government's interests in all phases of the coal operations, President Harding recorded himself as being opposed to "nationalizing the mines" and declared that the United States coal commission would bring the country "a new understanding of the problem" and point out a solution in behalf of "a vital public interest."

Mines Blamed for Strike

The chief executive spoke from the observation platform of the car in which he came here from Denver to his first Wyoming audience. He also mentioned the problems of the livestock producers of the state, the wool interests and called attention to relief measures which, he said, congress and the war finance corporation had given after war's inflation and later deflation.

In developing his principal, the coal and meat problems, he referred to the strike of last year, asserting his opinion that many mine owners were as much responsible for that situation as the men who struck.

World Needs Work

"The biggest need of the world today," the president said, was work, adding that the world has no use for a loafer, big or little, "whether commanding capital or directing labor."

Mexico Draws Up New Proposal On U.S. Recognition

Associated Press Dispatch

MEXICO CITY, June 25.—While President Obregon was understood to be considering the formula for the solution of the sub-soil question as drawn up by the recognition commission last week, the Mexican commissioners today planned to present a concrete offer covering the agrarian issue, which is the remaining obstacle before the conference.

Dispute on Stand.

The United States commissioners are known to have stood for the recognition of the rights of all American land owners to titles in their property regardless of whether they had previously declared an inenion of exploiting it for petroleum. The Mexican commissioners contended that the rights of petroleum companies and individuals who had sought oil or who had declared their intention of prosecuting for it under the Mexican laws of 1884, 1892 and 1909, were still intact and that all others were without petroleum rights except those who had complied with legislative decrees subsequent to the adoption of the 1917 constitution.

Charles B. Warren, for the United States, insisted that his government was not championing the rights of the oil companies, but was representing the American people. It therefore could not discriminate between the land owners who had exercised the right to explore for oil and those who had not.

Young Jess James Robs Way Across Kansas But Coin Trail Catches Him

International News Dispatch

OLATHE, Kan., June 25.—"And Jesse James leaped on his steed and rode west."

Roscoe Lapetina, 12-year-old Italian boy, did not have a steed, nor could he find one in Kansas City, where he lived, but, anyway—he rode west.

If he had been grown up, Roscoe might have been hanging at the lower end of a rope by now, but he was only a kid, and so they just arrested him.

Saturday Roscoe decided it would be a fine and adventurous thing to emulate Jesse James and ride west. He started on a street car. At Waldo, Kan., the nearest he could come to a "steed" was a bicycle, which he "found" and rode further west. At Lenexa, Kan., he sold the wheel, but still he could find no horse.

But he went on—rode a stage line to Olathe. By this time it was dark and at last Roscoe found a horse. Tied to a hitching post, bridled and saddled, the steed seemed to be waiting for him. He "leaped" on to it and—rode west.

At Gardner, Kan., according to authorities, he robbed a drug store of a tin box containing $7 in soda fountain receipts. He spent the night at a deserted house and at dawn continued his journey.

But like Jesse James and others who have "lived by the sword," Roscoe overlooked one thing. The box he got at the drug store leaked, and he was leaving a perfect trail of coins as he dashed toward where the sun sets. When officers caught him Roscoe had eight watches and enough silverware to go into the silverware business—nine farm houses had been robbed.

"Aw, you can't 'rest me," Roscoe told the sheriff, "muh father's Tony Lapetina, and he knows de cops in Kansas City."

But Tony's son was a long way from Kansas City.

GATEWOOD WELL GIVES SWASTIKA WIDE EXTENSION

So Think Olney Oil Men As Well Comes In For 100 Barrels

MAY BE KEMP LINK

Editors Guests of Town Are Given Tour Through Field

Special Dispatch to Record News

OLNEY, June 25.—Members of the oil fraternity tonight were discussing the Gatewood, Laneve and O'Neil well on the Hawkins tract, brought in for 100 barrels as amounting to a potential proof of eight miles of territory.

Some seem to think that this will amount to virtually an 8-mile extension of the Swastika field or the linking of the Swastika with the Kemp pool. Should it prove this strong, derricks would dot the entire area for eight miles.

Far From Production.

The Gatewood development is generally looked upon as either an extension or a new sand. There is a difference of approximately 100 feet in the elevation of the Swastika and Gatewood wells.

Olney played in Swastika luck with a group of out-of-town oil editors and other newspaper men as guests when a new well came in. The new well looks good for 100 barrels and was brought in three and a half miles from production by the Gatewood, Laneve and O'Neal company.

Newspaper Men to Field

Bringing in newspaper correspondents from Dallas and Fort Worth and a representative of the Record News, the only Wichita Falls newspaper men present, Ralph Shuffler took it upon himself to introduce the Swastika and the Peter Kemp fields to the visitors. Shuffler is editor and owner

SEVEN KILLED IN TROLLEY CRASH

New York Major Charges Faulty Construction Is Responsible

NEW YORK, June 25.—Seven persons were killed and 83 injured today when two wooden cars plunged from a Brooklyn elevated structure into the Borough's busiest traffic intersection. The killed included two persons in an automobile which was buried under the elevated cars.

The two-car train, well filled with an early afternoon crowd of women, children and a few men, jumped the rails, ripped through rotted guard beams, tottered on the edge of the structure while hundreds of passers-by stood spellbound in terror, and panic stricken, on its side to the pavement, a mass of splintered debris.

Motorman Arrested.

Edward Parcell, motorman of the train, who escaped without a scratch, was arrested and charged with homicide.

While hundreds of employes with 50 wreckage cars removed the debris, Mayor Hylan, District Attorney Dodd, Gerhardt Dahl, chairman of the board of directors of the Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit company which operated the train, and the police started inquiries into the cause of the accident.

The mayor and district attorney, after inspection of 25 yards of ties ripped to splinters, announced their opinion, that the loss of life had been caused by faulty construction.

Mayor Makes Charges.

"I am convinced," said the mayor, "that the accident was caused by a defective truck leaving the tracks and crashing through a rotten guard rail which, if good, should have prevented the fall to the pavement. The guard rails are 30 years old. The cars are from 35 to 40 years old."

All investigating officials agreed that the accident had had its inception at a switch 50 feet beyond which the train had plunged to the street. The mayor, who had worked as an employe on the elevated road when it was built many years ago, asserted that the second car had been derailed at the switch, had dragged along on the ties and had pulled the first with it through the rotten gdard rail.

Although Parcell, the motorman, asserted that he seen the switch turn to green, giving him right of way, the switch was turned to red after the accident. The mayor openly charged that it had been tampered with after the crash.

Nine More Vessels in Port Today With New Wet Goods To Be Seized By U. S.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Eight great foreign liners which sailed into New York harbor during the week-end with their return supply of liquor under government seals are today preparing to put out for home with closed bars. The supplies of two of these ships, the Baltic and Berengaria have been seized by United States customs officials. The others will lose their drinkables tomorrow or the next day.

Nine More Due Today

Thousands of gallons of liquors, wines and beers has been confiscated. Many thousands more will be taken tomorrow. If seizure continues at the present rate, liners will be held in port over their schedule within a day or two.

Tomorrow nine more vessels are due, all reported to have liquor on board. These ships represent five nations and their liquor is under their government seals.

The Berengaria and Baltic have been left a liberal supply of spirits and beer for medicinal purposes. English law requires all English liners to carry at least one gallon of brandy for each 100 passengers and crew.

Plenty of "Medicine"

On this scale the Baltic has been allowed enough liquor for a passenger list of 25,000, according to officers of the line. The Berengaria has about the same percentage.

Steamers which came in over the week-end and which as yet have their seals unbroken are the Paris, with 2,700 bottles of spirits and cigar, and 200 casks of wine and beer; the Cedric with 12,000 quarts listed as "medicine"; the Suffren, with 2,200 bottles of assorted wines and liquors, the Conte Verdi with 2,000 gallons of wine; the Providence with 265 liters of wine and 24 quarts of brandy; the Tuscania and the Carmania with assorted beverages.

"Dance Over—Get Out," Shreveport Marathon Dancers Told By Church

Associated Press Dispatch

SHREVEPORT, La., June 25.—About 150 men and women in attendance at a Methodist-Presbyterian union church service Sunday night at Cedar Grove a nearby factory town, went in a body from the church to a hall where a marathon dance was in progress, broke up the dance so far as Cedar Grove was concerned, and forced the dancers to leave town. The contest was launched Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the American Legion.

The ev. H. L. Johns, pastor of the church, referred to the dance briefly at the morning service. At the conclusion of the joint service in the evening, W. C. Ford, layman, suggested there be held immediately a meeting of those assembled to discuss the dancing. It was declared dancing was a desecration of the Sabbath and that the marathon contest was undesirable to many citizens.

The assemblage was not long in reaching a decision to stop the dance. Male members of the party which went to the dance hall entered and as spokesmen told the dancers: "This dance is over; get out."

The dancers went to Agurs, another suburb, and continued their contest, but the Agurs authorities this forenoon ordered them to move and at last reports they were en route to Eureka Park, several miles north of Shreveport.

New York Liquor Repeal "Blunder" Says President

Associated Press Dispatch

DENVER, Colo., June 25.—President Harding, speaking here today, definitely placed himself, his administration and his political fortunes on the side of those opposed to modification of the prohibition question.

The president furthermore served notice in his address, delivered in the municipal auditorium, that so long as he remained in the White House, the prohibition and other laws would not be permitted to become a "by-word" even should the burden of enforcement be increasingly passed on to the federal government by the states. He did not mention specifically the recent action of New York in repealing its enforcement code, but in a portion of his address, generally construed as referring to New York, he predicted that "the new nullificationists * * * will discover that they have perpetrated what is likely to prove one of the greatest political blunders in history."

"I am convinced that they are a small and greatly mistaken minority who believe the eighteenth amendment will ever be repealed," the president said in taking his stand on the prohibition enforcement issue.

INDIANA PAVING BIDS SUBMITTED

Council Has Three Proposals for Downtown Improvement

Although no contract was let and but little discussion had, bids on the repaving of one block of Indiana avenue were opened and considered at Monday night's meeting of the city council. Three bids were presented.

Lowest Bid by Plains.

The lowest bid offered was that of the Plains Paving company which offered to do the work on one block for $5,949.90, paving with standard brick and using the old base. Certain labor and some material was to be furnished by the city on this job. The Jordan Construction company bid in at $7,237.50, paving with brick, and the West Texas Construction company, using bitulithic, submittted two plans, one entailing a cost of $7,910.56 for the block and the other $8,314.34.

Submission of the bids marks another step in the campaign to repave the Indiana and Ohio avenues in the down town business district. It is understood now that the propositions of the paving companies will be submitted the chamber of commerce committee representing property owners on the two streets and that the next move is up to them.

This did not prove to be the case, however.

Passage of the ordinance on one more reading makes it become effective.

RONNIE, BORN AT 70 MILES AN HOUR, LIVES UP TO REPUTATION

Tony and Bebe have brought us a good one this time in "The Exciters," at the Olympic. Bebe, as Ronnie Rand, is an exciter all right—she was born on an express train going 70 miles an hour, much to the dismay of her old aunt, Veronica, who predicted "that she'd be marked, sure as fate!"

Twenty years later, Ronnie is living up to the prophecy at Miami, Florida, where she is the chief "exciter" with her daredevil stunts. Speed is her mania—motor boat racing, aquaplaning, and mad aeroplane riding—and all because Aunt Veronica's will stipulates that she shall be married before she is 21. Everything has been arranged for her to wed Roger Patton, an apatehtic little jelly fish whose idea of speed is a private ambulance.

The day before her birthday—and her wedding day—Ronnie is delivering Christmas presents to the poor by aeroplane and in attempting a landing near her home, loses control of her plane and crashes into the trees. The minister who is with her, and the mechanician are thrown clear, but Ronnie is pinned under the machine.

Tony Moreno as "Pierre," with the help of the maid, is robbing the safe in Ronnie's home, and hearing the crash, rushes out, rescues Ronnie and carries her into the house. He tells the minister that he thinks she is dying, and Ronnie, regaining consciousness, remembers the will and demands that she be married immediately. She asks the mechanician, but he is already married, so she tries Pierre and the minister ties the knot, thus saving Aunt Veronica's millions for the Rand family.

The family comes home only to find their daughter badly hurt and married to a thief. Does this perturb fair Ronnie? Not in the least.

When Pierre returns, he demands a check for $100,000 from Ronnie's dad for annulment of the marriage, but Ronnie insists on seeing her husband—a real live burglar—and when he comes, she chides him and asks if he would sell his wife. Pierre looks into her eyes, and tears up the check, returning to the band of crooks under penalty of death.

Ronnie, the "exciter," the speed-girl, gets in some fine work and saves the situation and everybody's happy.

This is the first time that Bebe and Tony have worked together but you'll certainly hope it isn't the last time. They are both brunettes, both live, peppy and loveable. Bebe is a Dallas girl, you know, and has been playing since she was four years old. Here's to ya, Bebe!

VERA GORDON, STAR OF "HUMORESQUE," LOVELIEST MOTHER ON SCREEN

"The best friend a fellow ever had is his mother!"—and Vera Gordon is one of the loveliest mothers on the screen. In "Your Best Friend," Miss Gordon plays the part of a widow, the mother of two sons, who loves them, sympathizes with them and never for a minute misunderstands them. When her son introduces his bride, the mother who didn't even know he had a sweetheart, takes the shock calmly and goes to greet the little wife with open arms only to find that she is a cold-hearted selfish little snob, who ridicules the widow's modestly furnished home.

To please her son, Mrs. Meyers is transported from a lowly existence to one among the social elect. Here she sees her daughter-in-law with her mother squandering money on gay parties and midnight suppers.

After returning to her own home, Mrs. Meyers is visited by her daughter-in-law accompanied by her mother. During their stay, the house is quarantined on account of smallpox. Both society women are compelled to do menial household tasks, and in the days that follow a closer bond of understanding comes over them and they realize their shameful and selfish attitudes toward their best friend.

LOVE—MOTHER LOVE AND GIRL LOVE—REVEALED BY ETHEL CLAYTON

Have you seen Ethel Clayton's answer at the Empress? When a picture bares a woman's soul it is great; when it bares a mother's soul, it is greater. Ethel Clayton plays the girl mother whose husband was killed in France, and the age-old question comes to her when she looks at little Tom and wonders about their future.

It's the stirring story of a woman who deceived for the sake of her baby boy, and who repented for love of the man she deceived.

It's a picture that delves deep down into the very heart of a wonderful woman whose mother-love made her strong and brave enough to practice a great deception, yet whose girl-heart made her just a love hungry woman after all.

JACK OF ALL

Chum of Gallito, Spain's greatest bull fighter, baker's boy, assistant to a priest, gas meter reader and stage electrician. That, in brief, is the story of the early life of Antonio Moreno, Paramount star, playing this week in "The Exciters," with Bebe Daniels, at the Olympic.

SEVEN ON WAY TO CHILLICOTHE HURT IN TOLBERT WRECK

CHILLICOTHE, Texas, June 26.—Frank Whorton and six boys, members of his Sunday school class, were injured Sunday evenin about four o'clock when their car overturned one-half mile west of Tolbert.

Hubert Stevens suffered a broken collar bone, other than severe bruises. The others escaped serious injury. The boys and their teacher were returning from Vernon where they visited a member of the class who is a patient in the Sandifer sanitarium.

The car turned completely over, breaking two wheels. A loose steering gear is attributed as the cause of the accident.

SUPPLY COMPANY KICKS AT AWARD OF HOSE CONTRACT

A vigorous complaint against action of the city council in purchasing 3,000 feet of new fire hose recently without considering all the bids submitted was made to the city council Monday night by representatives of the Petrolia Supply company, local equipment concern. Representatives from the local and Dallas offices of the concern appeared before the commissioners in protest.

It was charged by the men that the council had bought 3,000 feet of hose at $1.30 a foot, whereas the Petrolia Supply company could provide hose of equal quality to that obtained at $1.15 per foot. It was also alleged that the council had failed to open the bid, properly submitted by the local house. Certain allegations that misrepresentations regarding the time of submitting the bids and the method to be followed had been made to them were set forth in the protests.

It was stated that the bid of the company had been duly presented but had not been taken to the council meeting on the night the hose was purchased. Mayor Collier apologized for this neglect but said that on recommendations of Fire Chief McClure the council had decided on the other hose as being best suited for use here.

MURPHY

on the sheriff. Commissioner Knauth of Burkburnett, while readily agreeing to the investigation, was inclined to side with Mr. Murphy.

"Too Much Fuss"

"It seems to me," he said at one time, "that there is a lot of fuss being raised over nothing of importance. The county has not lost a cent. Mr. Murphy has agreed to return the $2.50 he paid Mrs. Snyder last week and I don't see any need of carrying this thing on to the grand jury."

He was voted down, however, when the question was put.

The sheriff stated after the meeting was over that his records were open for inspection at all times and that he still believed he was within his rights in the case. He said he would welcome any grand jury investigation that the commissioners might want.

GATEWOOD

of the Olney Enterprise and has seen 13 summers go by here. Now he is watching the town boom through oil.

With A. A. Cooper and Clark Davis, the former secretary of the chamber of commerce and the latter president of the Swastika syndicate, Shuffler took the visitors through the fields, snapped pictures of everybody of importance to the oil game here, and introduced the correspondents to R. J. McLain, founder of the field.

Geologist Backs Judgment

Gatewood, Laneve and O'Neal on the Hawkins tract, Young county, early today, cored six and one half feet into pay sand, picked up at 1,240 feet. The well looks good for 100 barrels. This well is due west of Olney, six and one half miles on a direct line between the Swastika and Kemp fields, half way between each. The location for this well was made by R. O. Laneve, geologist of Mineral Wells, who backed his judgment with his money and made good.

What possibly proves of greater importance in booming Olney than the remarkable Swastika developments appeared Monday in the new shallow field five and one half miles east of town in the Peter Kemp lease. The second test of this company had been previously put on the pump and it flowed 96 barrels in 36 hours at a depth of 1,058 feet Sunday. Outside casing was pulled and drillers were preparing to run the rod in the well when the producer cut loose and began to flow and in an hour and eight minutes, 45 barrels of oil had filled the slush pit.

New Test Planned

Today this was the sensation of Olney and H. A. Jones, general manager of the Peter Kemp Oil company, announced a new test would begin at once 482 feet east of No. 2. Material is being moved to the new location. Jones stated the sensation had been drilled with a Star machine in 14 days and in 17 days it was on the pump. This is a record and if the new well should show for 100 barrels or a fourth of that, it is believed that the 1,000 acres belonging to the Peter Kemp will be literally honeycombed with derricks in two months time.

Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls tonight is having material moved for two tests to offset the two new shallow producers in the Kemp field 350 feet to the south.

Seven Wells to Come In

In the Swastika field Monday revealed to visiting newspaper men five producing wells on the pump and also seven others on the sand waiting to come in momentarily. The original Swastika company has two of the wells on the sand, the Texas company one, Walling and Clark have two, Shamrock one, and American Refining company one. Five thousand barrels are in storage on the Swastika tract from the two producing wells and Sunday these had to be cut off to await pipe line completions promised Wednesday at the latest.

HARDING

another point in his remarks, Mr. Harding said:

"A few years ago, one of your Wyoming statesmen made the astounding statement that your state alone contained enough coal to supply the entire land with fuel for four centuries to come. Whether the statement was extravagant or not, it was at least an intimation of your mineral resources of which the nation had never dreamed."

"It may seem a far cry to talk about the coal problem in Wyoming, but it is one of the pressing problems of the country. In New England today there is anxiety about next winter's fuel supply traceable to the experienced hardships of last winter. That severe trial, to New England in particular, followed the coal and railway strikes, when winter came on with inadequate supply and insufficient transportation facilities.

Government Investigating

"The government is not blind to this situation, or deaf to appeals. It is doing everything possible, so far as authorized by law to dispel public apprehension. Under the authority of an act of congress, the United States coal commission, made up of able and earnest men, has been engaged in a thorough investigation of this vital problem and will report to the congress next December.

"It is going thoroughly into the labor controversy, studying living conditions and the community life in the mining regions, ascertaining facts about inadequacies which prevent prompt distribution, inquiring into engineering problems and the economic errors incident to over development, looking to the excess in profits, reflected inordinate charges for coal, and preparing an exhaustive report on the entire industry. It will be revealing, and we hope, remedial.

"It is too early to say whether the commission will suggest plans of permanent cure which the congress will adopt. I do know that it will bring us to a new understanding of a problem which must be solved. We shall have a publicity which will make greed impossible, and point the way to solve a question, which must be answered in behalf of a vital public interest. Doubtless there will be a recommendation of vast storage during season of light consumption."

Salt Lake City Today

The president's arrival at Cheyenne was signaled in advance to the waiting crowds through an aerial escort of five United States mail airships, which met the train about 25 miles from the city and followed the tracks, flying high above the train and dropping roses about the moving cars.

On arriving, the chief executive was greeted by Governor Ross, Senator Warren and a small reception committee. After a public reception and the formal address, the president left for Ogden, Utah, where he is scheduled to arrive tomorrow morning, for a brief stop before motoring to Salt Lake City, where he speaks tomorrow night. The president spoke at Denver this morning on law enforcement.

Toussaint Will Accept Sentence Expected Soon

Special Dispatch to Record News

ANSON, Texas, June 25.—Although it has been agreed by Henry J. Toussaint that he will accept the life sentence imposed on him Saturday by a jury in district court here, no order to that effect was issued Monday. Judge Chapman, before whom Toussaint was tried on a charge of murdering his father, was engaged in the trial of another case throughout the day.

It is thought possible that sentence may be passed today, although no announcement to this effect has been made.

Retracting his original intentions, announced immediately after the verdict was read Saturday, Toussaint yesterday sent word to the court that he would accept the penalty. The defendant, who now is to spend the remainder of his life behind prison bars, at first stated that he would appeal to the higher courts. After a conference with his attorneys, however, this decision was changed.

In case sentence is passed today by Judge Chapman, it is expected that Toussaint will be taken to the state penitentiary within the next few days to begin his term.

Police Recover Clothes In Less Than One Hour

In less than an hour from the time the theft of some wearing apparel had been reported from the home of J. H. Murphy, 1406 Burnett street, city police had recovered the stolen property Monday night and had arrested and obtained a confession from a young negro woman. Charges of theft will be filed this morning.

Mrs. Murphy phoned police at 11 o'clock that she had just come in from Oklahoma City and had missed an evening dress and a cape. Drawers had been ransacked and trunks overturned at the house, it was stated.

Detectives Lay, Jenson and Scott immediately went to work on the case and before midnight had found the negress wearing the dress in a dance hall in the flats. She was taken to the city hall and after being questioned admitted that she had broken into the house at 8 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Customer Charge

Monthly dues are paid in a club to cover the overhead costs of maintaining the club ready to serve its members at their demand. When members take their meals at the club additional payment is made proportional to the number of meals taken. The customer charge like the membership dues of a club pays the cost of the service of maintaining the gas system ready to serve you without an instant's notice and the charge per thousand cubic feet pays for the amount of the commodity delivered.

Raisin Sandwich—Cut whole wheat bread rather thin, spread generously with butter and lay seeded raisins on one slice. Cover with a lettuce leaf and another slice of bread.

Broiled Pike—Butter grate in broiling pan. When one side of fish is well browned, butter well, season and turn. Treat opposite side the same. Serve with pieces of lemon.

Prune Whip—Two egge whites one-half cup chopped prunes, one-half cup chopped nut meats, one-quarter cup sugar. Beat egg whites until dry, add prunes, nuts and sugar. Put in individual molds, set in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven half to three-quarters of an hour.

Custard Sauce—Two egg yolks, two tablespoons sugar, one cup milk, one-half teaspoon vanilla. Beat egg yolks, add sugar and milk and cook until it just begins to boil—no longer. Add vanilla and cool. To be absolutely sure that it will not curdle, cook in double boiler.

SUGGESTIONS

Prevents Frayed Edges—Wishing to preserve the cutwork in a table cover, which was only machine stitched, but of beautiful design, and had begun to fray in laundering, a housekeeper button-holed all the cut edges, using the heavy stitching or padding cord. The result was all that could be wished, and the piece was durable as well as effective.

Radish Roses—Spring vegetables belong to a dinner served at this time of the year. Radish roses are an attractive garnish for a planked steak or for a green salad. As soon as they are prepared, put them into a bowl of ice water.

List for the Hope Chest—A good list for the hope chest is as follows: Six dish towels, six glass towels, nine kitchen hand towels, six bath towels, six linen or guest towels, six wash cloths, two dish cloths (white), two sink cloths (gray), two stove cloths (black), three white tablecloths, with a dozen napkins to match each, three breakfast or luncheon sets, scarfs or runners for the buffet, china closet, side table, library table and piano (two each), between meal center pieces, covers for sewing machine, cabinet or other articles of furniture (two each), six sheets—more or less, depending on the number of beds you intend making up—with two pillow slips to each sheet, three bedspreads, three or four double blankets for winter use, six dresser scarfs, a half dozen holders, and other little needful things which readily occur. Such lists vary, of course, according to one's requirements, but this has been found practical.

Your Heart and Home Problems Solved By Elizabeth Thompsun

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been a widow more than six years with three little boys. A splendid man with a little son about the age of my eldest has come into my life. At first we were only friends because we were in sympathy with each other for our lives had been very much the same. But our friendship gradually grew into love and a year ago we became engaged.

He has given several excuses for our not marrying before this, which all seemed reasonable and I waited. Then we planned on marrying in July. About two weeks ago he told me his little boy was told of our intentions and he objected and said he would not live with us. After talking with him he gave in and now seems all right, but the father again is not satisfied. He says while he loves me dearly and if we do not marry he will never marry any one, he does not think marriage best.

Our hearts are broken and it seems as if we cannot give each other up. He says he is going to try to fight it out. Always before in my trials, and I have had many, I have been determined to pull through and I have managed under many difficulties to work and keep my little boys with me. Now it seems more than I can bear. I cannot see any future without the man I love.

I thought perhaps it was a streak of blues that had come over him, but he says not. He has been fighting this feeling for six months but could not tell me.

What do you suppose the trouble is? He offered to release me from my promise to him if I desired so that I might be free to go with others. With such love as we both have, won't God have mercy and make this man see what the trouble is that is making him hesitate. PUZZLED.

The man wants a woman to love and enjoy as a companion, but he is not willing to take any chances on the future. Your friendship means a lot to him, but he cares only for his own enjoyment and is willing to sacrifice your happiness.

Of course a widow or widower with a child or children has to be very cautious before marrying again, because happiness is impossible where the children are dissatisfied. The man realizes this and he is unwilling to take any chances on the future.

As long as you are made to suffer by seeing the man you love, realizing that he will not marry you, your courage will be broken. My advice is to tell him you think it best not to see him again. As soon as he has gone out of your life, you will find it easier to be brave and face the future in the spirit you have lost the past six years. Perhaps when the man sees he is losing you completely, he will realize how much you mean to him, and then he will want you as his wife. In either case it is better to take the matter in your own hands and be through with a situation which causes you to be so unhappy.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT STAND

Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

Glens Falls, N. Y.—"For over two months I was so sick I was not able to stand on my feet, and my husband did my housework. The doctor said an operation might be necessary. I read testimonial letters about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take it. Before I had finished taking the first bottle I saw what good it was doing me. I am now well and strong, doing all my work for a family of four, all my washing and my sewing, which I think is remarkable, as I had not dared to run my sewing machine, but had done all my sewing by hand. I truly feel that were it not for your medicine I would not be here today as my case seemed very serious."—Mrs. GEORGE W. BURCHELL, Glens Falls, N. Y.

WOMAN'S PAINS LIKE TORTURE

Kentucky Lady, In a Dangerous Condition After A Seige of Influenza, Found Cardui Very Helpful

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Influenza left Mrs. Volney A. Handy, of 127 North Sixteenth street, this city, in a dangerous condition. "I suffered tortures with my sides," she says, "and across my back. It seemed the pain would start at the back of my neck and down in my back and sides—a pain that felt like I was pulling in two. I couldn't stand on my feet. My limbs just gave way.....

"I had taken Cardui as a tonic. I knew it was good. I told my husband I would try it again. I had used other things without relief.....After one-half bottle of Cardui, the pain got less hard, and I seemed to relax. I could straighten up. After one and a half bottles, I was able to walk around and do my work. My back was stronger and the bearing-down pains left. I took altogether three bottles, and it strengthened me.

"Why, before I took Cardui, I was so nervous and in such a fix I couldn't eat or sleep. Afterwards my nerves were better. I gained my strength. I began to eat and sleep and was like another person."

Womanly pains cause great suffering, and a medicine that will relieve them is indeed worth knowing about. Thousands of women have written to tell that Cardui helped them, relieving such symptoms as those described above. If you suffer in this way—

Outside Precincts in Library Project Ask More Representatives On Board

Accepting all the major provisions of the contract, but suggesting that they be allowed three representatives instead of one on the library board, representatives of Electra, Burkburnett and Iowa Park met here Monday afternoon to go over provisions of the new county branch library project. A meeting of the chamber of commerce library committee and the library board will be held this morning to act on the suggestion.

Only Given One.

As originally planned by the committee drawing up the contract between city and county and which establishes branch libraries in the three out-of-town precincts, one representative from each of the three points involved was to be added to the city library board. It was this feature that was protested against by the out-of-town representatives. They stated that they believed three representatives would be more equitable and asked that such a number be allowed.

Other Complaint.

The only other complaint made against the contract as originally drawn related to the time on which the branches were to be opened. This matter was ironed out smoothly on Thursday afternoon.

With all other provisions of the contract accepted and indications that the representation feature will be adjusted, it now appears certain that the branch library project will be carried to a speedy conclusion.

30TH GRAND JURY TO REPORT TODAY

A final report from the grand jury of the Thirtieth district which convened last Monday, is expected to be made to Judge H. R. Wilson today. The jurors adjourned last Friday to Tuesday morning, intimating that at that time they would be ready to make a complete report of their findings.

As matters turned out, the grand jury had an exceptionally light docket and finished up its labors in short order.

Smoke and Excitement In Drug Store Fire

A small pile of burning trash under the counter in the Ellis drug store, Eighth and Brook, caused a lot of smoke and more excitement early Monday night. Actual loss at the place was about $5.00.

When smoke clouds began rolling up from the salesroom into apartments on the second floor of the building, frenzied calls for the fire department were sent in. The firemen were forced to hunt for some time before they finally located the cause of all the consternation, but it was finally found under the show case.

A match had probably been stepped on, it was explained, and accidentally kicked into a pile of rubbish on the floor.

Leavenworth For Young County Man Who Raised Bills

One year and a day in the Leavenworth federal penitentiary was the penalty given D. D. Bowman of Young county, who pleaded guilty Monday to the charge of passing raised bills. Judge H. H. ...ner of the United States district court assessed the penalty and also fined the culprit $100. It was brought out that the prisoner had raised $1 bills to $10.

The bond of Frank McDowell, formerly a Graham banker, was ordered to be raised from $7,500 to $15,000 by Judge Atwell. The indictment charges McDowell with embezzlement of national bank funds.

After having pleaded guilty to the violation of the prohibition laws, Seth Kirkpatrick was fined $50 and costs. Henderson Bates pleaded not guilty to a similar charge and was found not guilty.

Bonds ordered forfeited were: M. T. Frazier, $500; Short Shelton, $1,000; C. S. Gilpin, $750; Buck Tredawell, $500; W. F. Dreher, $1,500; Jim Baker, $500; K. B. McCracken, $500; B. M. "WHY NOT ROCKEFELLER?"

Chauncey M. Depew is one of the famous men of America. He has been in politics 70 years. He is only 90 and he is in politics yet when he isn't dressing the ocean, playing the financial game or making after-dinner speeches. This wise old New Yorker is puzzled. He cannot understand the psychology that makes Henry Ford a presidential candidate.

John D. Rockefeller and Chauncey M. Depew are life-long friends. The New Yorker, who voted for Abraham Lincoln for president, says John D. Rockefeller has spent $500,000,000 for humanity, and yet he is cocksure that Rockefeller could not be elected to any office. On the other hand "Henry Ford, who has also devoted himself to making money, although he has not given much of it away, appears to be a popular choice for the presidency."

Depew says he cannot understand it. He does not believe Ford will be nominated; he does not believe Gov. Al Smith will be nominated. He is sure that President Harding will be renominated and elected. This world-famous after-dinner speaker is quite certain that Governor Smith has given the democratic party a big political problem; he believes that Smith, in signing the repeal bill, had aroused all over the country a sentiment for a change in the Volstead act and it is his point of view that the sentiment of the people is not so much against the prohibition amendment or for a return to the saloon, as it is a desire for beer and light wine.

Chauncey M. Depew is opposed to the saloon; he is opposed to the return of the saloon, but being a rich New Yorker and a globe trotter, he is for Pilsner and light wines. And thus it is that a man who has lived for more than 90 years can not get it out of his system that the eighteenth amendment prohibits the sale or the manufacture or the importation of beer with a kick or wine that is intoxicating. He has the New York idea.

If he would take a trip through the provinces, a way down south or a way out west he would be better informed. Depew has attended every national convention held by the republican party, including the one that nominated Abraham Lincoln. He is a regular. He is for President Harding. President Harding is for the enforcement of all dry laws. President Harding was a mild anti who loved his cocktail before the coming of prohibition. Now, he is going to take the dry side of it, but republican wets like Depew are going to vote the Harding ticket.

President Harding is for a world's court, Chauncey M. Depew isn't. He is quite certain that the underlying sentiment in this country has been anti-European every since Georg Washington advised against European entanglement. Moreover, he is of the opinion that this is what defeated the league of nations and gave Warren G. Harding his seven million plurality.

All the farm blocs under the American flag were responsible for the seven million plurality. There were German-American blocs, Irish-American blocs, Italian-American blocs, Bohemian-American blocs and many other blocs, including native blocs who accepted Washington's farewell address as their sheet anchor of hope and political gospel of salvation.

John D. Rockefeller has given away $500,00,000, mostly for church extension work and medical research work. Henry Ford in the long ago when the money came pouring in, established a minimum wage of $6 per day for all employes, including the scrub women, at his plants. He did many other things to lighten the load of the American wage worker, whose name happened to be on his pay roll.

And then there are millions of Americans who have been told that Henry Ford fought Wall street to a finish and throttled for the time being the money giant at the very throne of mammon. They never heard that John D. Rockefeller had established a minimum wage of six dollars per day or had gone to the mat with the Wall street giant and had emerged from the contest a bloody winner.

Henry Ford knows the value of publicity; John D. Rockefeller was three score and ten before he would permit a publicity agent around or about the Standard Oil plant.

In some sections the drill is the thing; in by-gone ages the sword was the thing; now the typewriter plays an amazing part in the game of life as the game is played by Titan players.

Russina is coming back. Russia planted to grain last year 135,000,000 acres. In 1923 the acreage is placed at 159,000,000. In 1922 millions of Russians were fed by the relief commission supported by the generosity of America and Great Britain. Now, there is a tremendous grain harvest in sight and the prosperous Russians should be able to feed their own this year. Former Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas, hit the nail on the head on his return from Europe when he asserted that if all the Europeans would go to work they would be able to feed themselves and in time rehabilitate the nations financially ruined by the war and the sword.

A London cablegram says the financiers of that capital of commerce and trade are hopeful of the German problem. Germany has a floating debt 10 trillions greater than it was in January. Is this a problem or a repudiation?

PINCHOT, THE BOSS

Pennsylvania lawmakers enacted a prohibition enforcement act and then defeated an appropriation of $250,000 to make the act effective. Politicians are rare birds. Many of them are for drastic laws and non-enforcement to the letter. Governor Pinchot asked for the law and the appropriation. His fellow republican lawmakers gave him the law and then they gave him the laugh.

President Harding must have overlooked the Pennsylvania nullification act. He did not overlook the New York repeal act. He handed a smashing blow to Governor Al Smith but he was as silent as the tomb in his conduct, official or otherwise, when the news reached him that Pennsylvania had a new pro act and no money to provide for its enforcement.

Governor Pinchot is not discouraged. He has not lost heart. He is a man of large fortune. He is going to use Pinchot money, if necessary, to trap and convict the higher ups identified with the illicit booze traffic in his state.

Pinchot is a man of his word. He said he would put the rum runners out of business and the people of Pennsylvania would elect him governor. Now he is on the road. Now he threatens to fill the jails and the penitentiary.

Incidentally, after he has won all along the time he entertains hopes that presidential lightning may strike him in 1928. There are men who are ever looking ahead.

ALIENS

Italy will send 42,000 immigrants to the United States the coming fiscal year, beginning July 7, and the Italian commissioner in Rome has selected the first batch of 7,300, giving the highest types of workers the preference in the new quota. All quotas for this year, except Germany's, have been filled.

Germans are not coming to America. Those who desert the fatherland go to Brazil or other South American countries. According to the government officials vast numbers of aliens are coming to the United States in the hope that they will be able to claim entry after July 1 and be counted in the new yearly allotments.

If it were not for the drastic immigration laws millions of Europeans for economic reasons would come to these shores every year. Europe is over-populated, deeply in debt, poverty and disease ridden, and not an inviting place for the ambitious men and women workers who wish to get on in the new world.

American ports of entry have been closed to all intents and purposes. Instead of 1,500,000 a year, as in pre-war days, less than a third of a million are admitted to the United States through the ports of entry. This is one of the things that the world war did for the American nation and the American people.

Organized labor fought for restricted immigration for 50 years and then it happened almost in a day. Not because of the demand of organized labor but for the reason that conditions not only demanded but justified the exclusion.

Wall Street cannot understand the downward drift of the New York stock exchange in the face of such industrial news as record breaking iron and steel production and the almost unprecedented large loadings of railway freight and purchases of cotton by American spinners. Wall street is puzzled and the Times says that the "downward drift has sadly perplexed the Wall street mind." What has gone wrong with the street? Are the lambs growing wary? Are they hiding out in their pastures in the provinces?

UNCOMMON SENSE

By JOHN BLAKE

AN OPEN SECRET

If you ask a successful man how he succeeded he will be glad to tell you, provided he has time.

If you do not ask him, sooner or later you will see a magazine article by him in which he tells all the world the method and manner of his success.

If you want to know how Caesar, Napoleon Disraeli, Daniel Webster or Henry Ford succeeded, you can learn all about their success and how they achieved in books or newspapers.

Success is about as secret as sunlight.

One of the difficult things in life is avoid being told how other people succeeded.

Parents begin disclosing this secret to children when they are old enough to understand words of two syllables.

Teachers din it into the ears of their pupils in schools and colleges.

Ministers preach it from the pulpit.

Lecturers talk about it on the platform.

Plays are built around successful men, and show them winning success in the last act after struggling for it in the preceding two or three acts.

But if you want to know how you can succeed, you must do more than ask questions of other people.

You must ask them of yourself.

Your case is different way of looking at things, and a different way of thinking about them.

You have a different set of good habits which can be utilized to your advantage, and a different set of bad habits which you will have to get rid of.

The rules are easy enough. Any one will tell you them.

But how to follow them is your own job.

You can hardly expect any successful man or woman to take the time to analyze your particular case and tell you exactly what you ought to do in every circumstances.

In other words you cannot expect others to think for you.

Whatever is your occupation there is some means by which you can rise in it, even to the top, if you are determined and industrious.

But how that is to be done is for you to work out.

Read all you can find about success and how it is won. Some cases of it will be more helpful than others, but all will be of some guidance to you.

Then sit down and think out a way to climb, as you would if you were climbing a mountain without trails.

Whether you succeed or fail will depend on you. The only secret about it is one which can be found in you.

TODAY AND YOU

CANCER

Conditions are good until 1 o'clock after which good and adverse aspects alternate, giving mixed vibrations and forming a doubtful period in which important matters might best be postponed. It is a favorable time only for routine duties.

A child born today will be energetic.

You are an opportunist if today is your birthday. You are shrewd, resourceful and not very scrupulous. You do not really hold a belief in an ideal, or in the abstract in anything for that matter, but you can and do follow certain rules of conduct and behavior which you consider wise and expedient.

Fate offers you the chance of fame or of infamy, and whichever you choose you will achieve thoroughly and irrevocably. You are not a person to be content with half-way measures.

You have an abundance of personal magnetism. You charm people by the politeness and consideration of your address and you hold their allegiance with your obvious intellectual powers. However, you are tempted to use others for your own purposes to the point of driving them to resistance and revolt, but your natural intuitive sagacity will seldom let you go thus far.

You are dominate, resolute and fearless. You will always be in a position of leadership in anything you undertake. You are also quite willing to bear the brunt of your mistakes.

You are fond of activity and you like going about in society because it offers your mind the swift challenge of new problems of studying human personalities.

You are cold and unresponsive in nature, but too much of an artist to appear bored in your manner.

Well known people born on this date are:

Sereno E. Payne, lawyer and congressman.

Thomas W. Knox, author, traveler and inventor.

George W. Flagg, artist.

POEMS THAT LIVE

THE TIGER

Tiger, tiger, burning bright
In the forests of the night,
What immortal hand or eye
Could frame thy fearful symmetry?

In what distant deeps or skies
Burnt the fire of thine eyes?
On what wings dare he aspire?
What the hand dare seize the fire?

And what shoulder and what art
Could twist the sinews of thy heart?
And, when the heart began to beat,
What dread hand and what dread feet?

What the hammer? What the chain?
In what furnace was thy brain?
What the anvil? What dread grasp.
Dare its deadly terrors clasp?

When the stars threw down their spears,
And water'd heaven with their tears
Did He smile His work to see?
Did He who made the lamb make thee?

Tiger, tiger, burning bright
In the forests of the night,
What immortal hand or eye
Dare frame they fearful symmetry?

—William Blake.

SUNSHINE PELLETS

It's not so much the diet,
It isn't always drink—
It's our bloomin' excesses
That puts us on the blink.

Dirty dairies beget mourning mothers.

When perspiration's inspiration, then we gardeners dig.

A low ball at the 18th hole may be a high-ball at the 19th.

Paint the fence and paint the face, a little paint improves the place.

Insure while you're young and well, you can't when you're old and sick.

I like to hear the Robin—
A note that spring is near;
Then I think of sassafras,
The root that's in the beer.

The higher the score the cleaner the dairy the fewer the germs the cleaner the milk.

Who hath a family and no nife insurance is betting against the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death.

When we speak glibly about "boiling out" malaria, we are not familiar with the pathology of that disease.

Ice cream, containing not less than 10 per cent of butter fat, prepared from clean ingredients, in a cleanly manner is a most wholesome, nourishing food.

We take a heap o' chances when we hire an unknown cook.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

A BELATED WARNING

I always sincerely believed as a kid,
'Ere the wisdom of manhood I'd got,
That my mother—though kindly disposed—overdid
This tooth-scrubbing business a lot.
I often remarked that my teeth would be hurt
By usage so cruelly rough;
I said that to rid them of all forms of dirt,
A scrub once a week was enough.

But in spite of my protests, each morning and night
My mother beside me would stand,
Her face with fanatical pleasure alight,
And the powder and brush in her hand.
I could not go to bed; I could not go to play,
For me dawned no prospect of fun;
No dreaming by night, or no romping by day,
Till the scrubbing was thoroughly done!

And now I have read that a doctor declares
That scrubbing is far from a boon,
The friction of constantly brushing 'em wears
The gloss from one's snappers too soon.
Far better to give them a rest now and then,
Than to rapidly wear out their treads,
So that when we grow up to be women—or men—
We shall not have a tooth in our heads.

Alas! that these tidings should reach me so late,
If I'd heard it when I was a lad,
I would not have been treated so roughly by fate,
And a far better time I'd have had.
Still, I'm forced to admit that I've scrubbed them for years,
In the same rough and strenuous way,
And in spite of the doctor's wise words, it appears
That my teeth are all sound to this day!

IRRIGATION

By A. M. McPHERSON
Kahn Bldg., Eighth and Indiana
Consulting Engineer

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What Will an Acre of Irrigated Land Produce on the Average?

The average production of an acre of irrigated land depends upon what crop or crops you have in mind, where the land is located, and many other factors.

In 1920 the average value per acre of the crops grown on all of the irrigation projects of the United States reclamation service was $58.30. This figure, of course, includes many thousands of acres of valuable orchards having a very high return per acre.

The highest average for any government project was $127.40 per acre on the Yakima in central Washington where the famous Yakima apples are grown.

The lowest average was $14.08 on the Sun river project in Montana. Wheat is the principal crop grown on the Sun river.

Neither wheat or apples are likely to be major crops here after irrigation is ready. From present indications it would seem that for some years at least cotton will be the main money crop grown. Therefore it will be of interest to see what the reclamation service projects that grow cotton are making per acre.

In 1920 four reclamation projects grew cotton. The Salt river project at Phoenix, Arizona, raised more cotton than the other three put together. It had 142,320 acres which yielded 200 pounds of 2-5 of a bale to the acre. Much of the cotton grown was long staple so an average price of 43 1-4 cents per pound was received by the growers. The average return to the grower per acre for both lint and seed was $91 per acre.

The Salt river project is a very fertile project. It has wonderful orange, lemon and grapefruit groves. The growing season covers the entire year. It is the one place picked by the great Goodyear Rubber company as being the best in the world for the growing of long staple cotton.

Thirty-Three Years of Successful Business In Wichita Falls

The City National bank, one of the leading banking institutions of Wichita Falls, is an instance of the business acumen of two leading Wichitans—J. A. Kemp, chairman of the bank board and former president, and P. P. Langford, president of the bank.

As Wichita Falls grew, so did the City National Bank grow. Founded in 1890, with Col. John J. James as president, capital placed at $50,000, today the bank has a capital of a million dollars with resources reaching nearly eleven million dollars.

Locked in the large steel vault of the bank's new site at Eighth and Scott, is the story of the bank's progress as written in the minute bank. It tells the story of the first directors meeting, held on March 11, 1890—now 33 years ago.

The same book holds the record of perhaps one of the most important meetings in the bank's history—March 16, 1892—when J. A. Kemp, one of the leaders who wrote the faith that built Wichita Falls. Mr. Kemp was president of the bank from that day until early in 1922, when he resigned to become chairman of the board of directors. He was succeeded by Mr. Langford, himself a pioneer with the bank.

Written on the white ledger paper of the minute book, reposing in the bank vault, is plenty of action and of thrill—of the stuff that was common when Wichita Falls was only a small trading town nestling out on the plains.

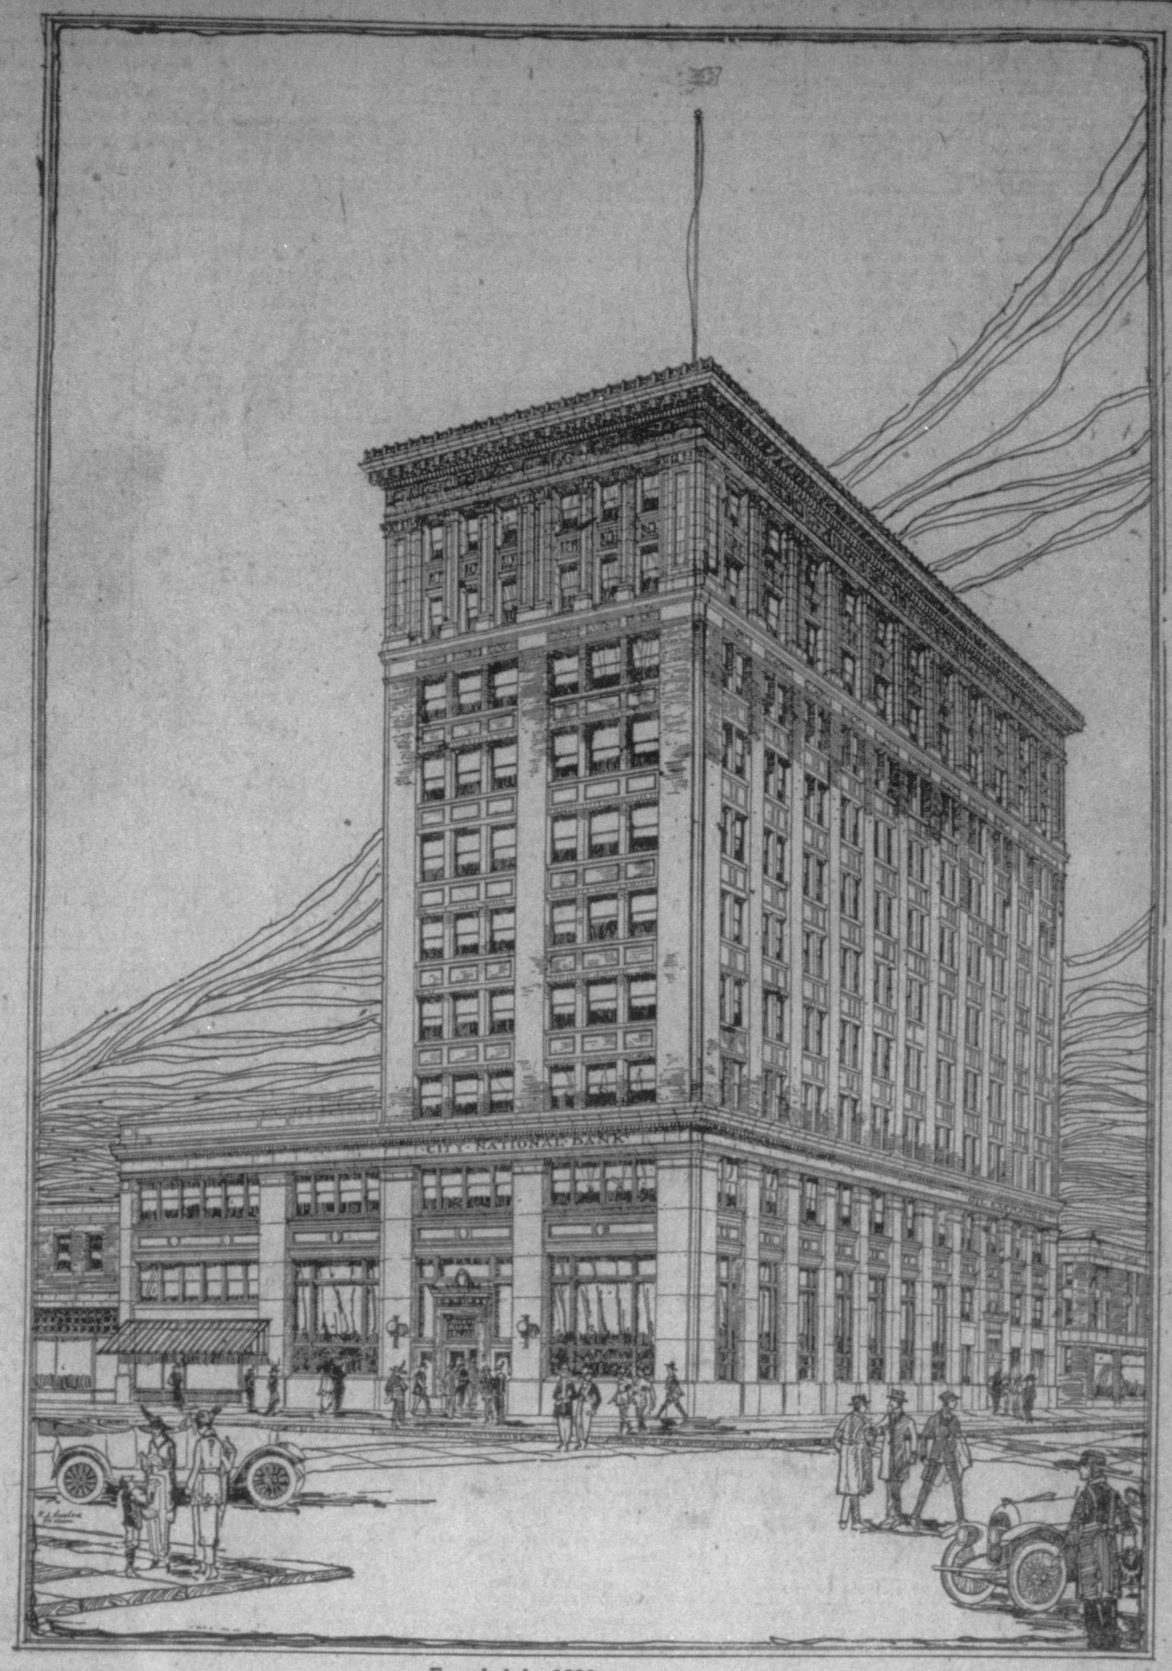

Possibly one of the most thrilling incidents in the bank's history was the famous robbery of Feb. 25, 1896. Frank Dorsey, cashier, paid with his life and Mr. Langford was shot as the bandits promiscuously turned loose with their guns.

The bandits—Crawford and "The Kid"—were caught on the Red river several days later by Captain Bill McDonald of the Texas Rangers and were hanged at Seventh and Ohio by a mob. Crawford gave up courage, the story goes, but "The Kid" was cursing his killers to the end.

Mr. Langford became cashier of the bank after the killing of Dorsey by the robbers.

It was on May 3, 1920, that the City National Bank made its formal opening in the new skyscraper home at Eighth and Scott, moving from the old Kemp and Kell building, now known as the Morgan building. Before that time the bank had been located at Seventh and Ohio.

The list of officers of the bank is as follows: Chairman of the Board, J. A. Kemp; president, P. P. Langford; vice presidents, J. T. Harrell, W. L. Robertson, G. E. Basham; cashier, O. A. Jones; directors, G. E. Basham, A. H. Britain, C. H. Clark, J. T. Harrell, R. O. Harvey, Leslie Humphrey, O. A. Jones, J. A. Kemp, P. P. Langford, J. J. Lory, N. H. Martin, J. L. McMahon, J. J. Perkins, W. L. Robertson, W. W. Silk and G. W. Snider.

Founded in 1890.

Berger's Homer Wins For Spudders, 3 to 2

STUELAND EASILY MASTER OF FIELD BUT BISCHOFF'S ERROR LETS TWO SCORE

Bills Rain On Berger As He Trots to Plate After Scoring Grigsby Ahead of Him For Winning Runs.

By DON WELDON

Joe Berger was the hero of yesterday's battle, sending the ball over the left field wall after two were out in the ninth, and scoring Grigsby ahead of him for a one-run win for the Spudders, 3 to 2. After Stueland, new hurler who was gotten from the Cubs, by pitching sensational ball for eight innings, had held the Exporters scoreless, Bischoff gave them two runs by the rankest bonehead pulled in the Spudder park this season, when he threw wild to third, entirely without reason on the fourth ball as Strong was walked. Allen and Huber crossed the plate on the error, and took the one-run lead from the locals, the game being saved in the last frame when Berger slammed the ball over the fence for the circuit.

George Stueland made his debut in Spudderdom by pitching one of the prettiest exhibitions seen in the Texas loop, when he won a hurlers' duel from Bradshaw, who has held the Salms at bay on two former occasions. With his easy side arm delivery the new Spudder moundsman was the master of the box and proved himself to be more than an ordinary pitcher. He allowed only four scattered hits, and the Exporters went through the game without a single earned run, Stueland stopping them safely every time they threatened, which was seldom.

The finish for the Spudders was sensational to the extreme, Berger's homer overcoming a onerun lead and giving the Salm's the win. The finish should not have been necessary, for the Exporters at no time were in a position to score until Bischoff let two across the rubber in the ninth. As Berger trotted across the plate behind Grigsby, he was met by a rain of coins, and within a few minutes three hatfuls of money were in the possession of the Spudder stick artist. The homer was Berger's first of the season.

R. O. Harvey, Spudder prexy, met the hero of the game at the plate and pressed a handful of bills which had been given him by the fans, into Berger's hand as he congratulated him.

Stueland Stops Exporters

The first three innings failed to result in either the Spudders or the Exporters counting, but in the fourth the locals forced Cotter across for the one counter that was made in the first eight stanzas. In the first Stueland yielded one hit, when Turgeon bingled to left, and Coombs' error let him get to second. DeMaggio sacrificing him to third. Stueland stopped the Exporters in plenty of time though when Allen popped up to short.

In the second two passes got him in a little trouble, from wihch he extricated himself with a bit of fast fielding, catching Huber at second by a speedy turn and throw after catching Bradshaw's hot smash.

Coombs got a double off Bradshaw in the opening frame, and although he reached third he was left there as three went out. Coombs seemed to havi Bradshaw's number and out of four times at bat hit safely three times, getting half of the bingles allowed by the Exporter twirler.

In the third Cotter got to the initial sack via the four-ball route, and was sacrificed to second by Grigsby. Weiss came through with a hard single to right that sent him across the rubber for a counter, before a double play, Huber to Black to Strong, retired the side.

Two hits off Stueland came in the sixth and the eighth, each the only one in the inning and without result. It was in the ninth that one hit put the Exporters in position to score on Bischoff's error.

Bischoff Error Costly

Kirkham was out at first before Allen slammed a fast one past second base for a single, going to second when Huber walked. Strong was at bat when Bischoff pulled his prime bonehead, dropping the Spudder lead to Kitchen's crew. With three balls on Strong, Bischoff seemingly thought the fourth one a strike, and threw to third to catch Allen. He threw without cause, and the ball went far wide of the plate, letting Allen and Huber gallop across the rubber for the Exporters' only two counters. Lothes was out at first and Bradshaw went out fanning.

The Spudders came up for the last time as the crowds began to file from the stand. It looked hopeless as Cotter watched three cut the plate, but Grigsby got a single to right before the second out was made by Weiss, who popped to left field. Berger, who had batted three times in the game without the least semblance of a hit, stepped to the plate and smashed the first ball pitched squarely for the circuit, running Grigsby across ahead of him, and saving the game for the Spudders.

WILLARD OKEHED BY DOCTORS FOR BIG FIGHT WITH FIRPO

Associated Press Dispatch

JERSEY CITY, N. J., June 25.—The New Jersey boxing commission today put its official stamp of approval upon the heavyweight match on July 12 between Jess Willard, former champion, and Luis Angel Firpo, giant from the Argentine, after Willard had passed a special examination to determine his fitness as an opponent for the South American.

Physicians engaged by the boxing commission subjected the big Kansan to an examination that lasted 25 minutes, after which they signed a brief statement declaring him to be "free from physical defects."

Willard was characterized as a remarkable "physical specimen" in every respect by Dr. T. H. Lemmerse, at whose office the examining was conducted in the presence of newspaper men and photographers.

HUB HOLLIS CALLED BACK FROM PARIS

Hub Hollis, Spudder second baseman, who was farmed out to the Paris club at the beginning of the season, has been called in and will arrive in Spudderdom this morning. He will work regularly at second, according to Skipper Salm's plans, and Coombs will probably go to the center pasture position.

Hollis is a promising youngster and his work in the field is good. He has been hitting .288 and is an all-around good man.

What is the best club to use when the ball lies in the sand?

Answered by
BOB CRUIKSHANK

The man who, in 1921, defeated Hutchinson, Sarazen, and Barnes in an invitation tournament at St. Joseph, Mo. Runner up in Pittsburgh tournament for professional golfers, 1922, being defeated only by Sarazen.

If the ball is sunk in the sand, use a niblick because it has a sharp blade and cuts through the sand easily. Tighten the grip as the club head approaches the ball on the down swing.

If the ball lies clean on the sand, an iron or jigger should be used, or even a spoon, if the lie and distance warrant. The sand may be slightly scraped by the sole of the clubs of the ball may be hit cleanly. When playing in sand always make sure that the feet are firmly planted. Otherwise, the power of the blow will be lessened. I always dig my heels into the sand until they are firmly set.

JULY 4TH BENEFIT IN TEXAS LEAGUE FOR MRS. SENTELL

Associated Press Dispatch

DALLAS, Tex., June 25.—A July fourth benefit planned for the eight Texas league clubs for the widow of Paul Sentell, veteran player, manager, and umpire, who graduated from the Texas league arbiting staff to the National league, where he died in harness, was announced today by J. Doak Roberts, president of the Texas league.

During the July fourth double headers in the league, players on each club and fans would be asked to contribute to a fund for Mrs. Sentell. The clubs not at home on July fourth will put the same plan in vogue on their first home Sunday following the fourth.

Sentell, after a noble career in the National and Southern league, came to the Texas league in 1915 as playing manager of the Galveston club. He was chief of staff for President Roberts in 1921. He made good in the National league as an umpire in 1922 and was in service this year when stricken by appendicitis, dying as the result of the operation. Sentell's home was in New Orleans and his widow resides there.

NEED SNAPPY OUTFIELDER?

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Any big league managers who may be seeking a hard-hitting youngster to play in their outfield may well consider Mr. Casey Stengel. This rookie, who started playing with the Dodgers in 1913, is hitting at a .350 gait, no less, for the New York Giants and playing the outfield in A1 shape when shoved in by Jawn McGraw. That he still has the dash and fire of youth is indicated that it took three cops to put him off the field a short time ago.

That Stengel may be considered a coming young slugger is indicated by the fact that he just hit his stride last season—his tenth in the big show. Back in 1914 Casey the comedian hit .316. He failed to enter the so-called charmed circle again until last year when he rang up the modest average of .368. He compiled this little record in a total of 84 games with the National league champs.

"Dark Horse" Lewis White Of Texas Defeated In Intercollegiate Singles

Associated Press Dispatch

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—Elimination of five of the seven members of the combined Oxford-Cambridge tennis team from England, the defeat of Lewis White of the University of Texas, and double victories by Lucien Williams of Yale, present champion and Phil Neer of Leland Stanford, former title holder, featured the opening match of the intercollegiate tennis tournament today at the Marion cricket club.

White, the Texas star whom Leland Stanford regarded as the "dark horse" of the tournament, advanced to the second round through default of H. L. Bromfield of Colgate and then met Gerland B. Merson of Columbia in the second round. The South Orange, N. J., player, played too fast for him and won the match 6-4, 7-5. "Red" Thalheimer of Texas, White's partner, won from B. S. Balsch of Connell, 6-2, 6-1.

Coleman, of Rice Institute, defeated Louis Daily of Priceton, 6-4, 9-7, but lost to W. S. Watt, of Oxford, 6-3, 6-3.

Six of the British players won their first matches, but only two were able to make the grade in the second round.

Williams eliminated William Lingle of Pennsylvania, on a three set match, and then defeated Karl S. Pfaffman of Harvard, in one second round. The title holder did not appear as speedy as last year.

L. R. Ramamami, Indian member of the Oxford-Cambridge team, who defeated W. R. Woodson of Rice Institute, of Houston, in the opening round, lost to Roy Lewis of Priceton in the second round. A. N. Wilder, former Yale player, now at Oxford, was beaten by David Conrad, of California, in the first round.

J. S. Lenard, of Cambridge, had little trouble defeating S. A. Fitch, of Rice, in his first match, but lost to Frank T. Anderson at Columbia in the second round. J. N. Lowry, captain of the combined Oxford-Cambridge team who defeated Arthur J. Harrison, of Rutgers in his first match, lost to Johnny Howard, Princeton, in the second round.

Wheezes From The Press Coop

By Don Weldon

Berger's homer yesterday was still rising as it cleared the left field wall! And Joe was still collecting the cash that was cast out on the lot when the sun went down, according to the latest reports. Just how much the boy got is not known, but it is a sure thing that he got enough to outfit him in several new suits. He earned it, too!

His homer was a mighty pretty one, but he never should have gotton it. If Bischoff hadn't made the awful blunder in the ninth the game would have ended without Berger getting to bat agin. Bischoff's error was the rankest seen on the home lot in many a day, and showed a lot of careless thinking. If he had kept up with the count of balls on Strong the Exporters would never have scored.

* * *

But everyone will make mistakes once in a while and "Bisch" has played good enough ball in the past to enable one to look over a few errors, even when they are so flagrant as the one yesterday. It was just a rank piece of bonehead play, and no one can be blamed but Bischoff himself, but we can forget it when we remember the runs he has counted. Stay in there, "Bisch," we are for you!

* * *

But, Mr. Umphs, we have a crow to pick with you!

* * *

We want to know "how come" you let Turgeon get to first when the ball hit his bat. Even Turgeon himself didn't expect it to be called anything but a foul, and the Exporters were laughing at the umps as much as anyone else. We wonder why it was that the umps was the only one to think it hit Turgeon? Of course it may have been a mistake, but if it was a mistake when everyone else looked at it differently, somebody ouht to get a new pair of spectacles!

* * *

Meine is out with a sore arm. Not bad though, and he'll be back in a few days.

Hub Hollis is back in town. He will probably work today.

Demaggio hit one over the right field wall in batting practice, but didn't have the steam behind those he connected with in the game. They had a habit of dropping into the waiting glove of some Spud fielder, and Demaggio didn't get very far with his licks.

Walter Salm got peeved in the ninth when his nibs, the umpire, called a strike on Cotter. It did look like it was not exactly over the plate, and the skipper took a chance to argue the point. It was a strike, though, according to Estell, and a strike it stayed!

George Stueland got a lively hand when he came to bat in the third inning, his first time with a Spudder stick in his hands. The fans gave him a warm welcome, but he didn't show up so well as a hitter.

But when it comes to dropping that pill down the old line, and making it slip by the bats of the ambitious batsman, he knows his stuff, and he had the Exporters on his hip and the fans on his side before he had pitched two frames yesterday. That Stueland is a good example of the specie "pitcher," known peculiarly on the North American continent, and the Exporters who tried out his qualifications along that line found out that Skipper Salm made no bad move when he acquired him. He ought to come in handy.

And some credit is due Salm, too, for picking him. Also for starting him yesterday. Salm had things figured out in his own way, no doubt, and whether it was luck or just good ability to size up the situation, the fact remains that Stueland won a game where probably no other Spudder hurler could have done it.

* * *

For Bradshaw pitched a game that would have won in any other place and against any other hurler than Stueland. It was a real hurlers battle from the start, and the best man won.

Verschoyle Well Contnues Flowing Monday Evening

Despite between 300 and 400 feet of mud in the hole, the Charles Verschoyle No. 1 well, two miles southwest of the old Panther pool, continued to flow at two-hour intervals Monday night and now gives promise of being a valuable producer. The well is making from 44 to 48 barrels on each flow and has been going since Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Verschoyle, who returned from the field late last night, stated that lack of storage prevented cleaning of the test, but that this would probably be attended to today. Two tanks are already on the ground, he stated, and two more will go up Tuesday.

The well, it is thought, has picked up an extension of the 1,590 foot Peterson sand. It opens a new producing territory, oil men believe.

HEARING CONTINUED

The hearing of protests on paving Thirteenth, Huff and Clark streets, was continued for another week when the matter came before the city council Monday night. Only one property owner appeared regarding the work.

This is the second continuance of the hearing granted by the council since the project was started.

Babe Ruth Faces Suspension When He Fails to Play

Associated Press Dispatch

NEW YORK, June 25.—Babe Ruth faced a fine and possible suspension today, according to reports from Boston, for his failure to appear in the lineup of the New York Yankees at an exhibition game yesterday with the New Haven club of the Eastern league. His absence cost the Yankees about $2,000, which the New Haven club has announced will refund to disappointed fans.

EIGHTH TO BE PAVED

Declaring the paving of Eighth street between Fillmore and Van Buren a public necessity, the city council Monday night called for bids on the improvement of that district. Certain blocks on Van Buren and Denver are also included in the proposed paving plan, submitted by the Plains Paving company.

The paving, if ordered in, will be on brick construction.

Sand Crabs Open Here For Two Day Stay in Spud Camp

A new aggregation will face the Spudders on the home lot this afternoon when Pat Newnams Sand Crabs attack the Salmites for the first of two games. The Galveston crew will arrive early today, and will stay for a pair of battles, one today and the other Wednesday, before going on to Fort Worth to meet the Cats.

After taking two out of three games from the Beaumont Exporters, the Spuds will be in the best of shape to handle the new invaders, and Skipper Salm looks to his club to annex a pair of wins from the Crabs, before a three day engagement with the Buffs of Houston. However, the Crabs have made things hot for the locals in more than one game and there will be no snap either way. The Spudders will have to play baseball to win, but they have just about enough stuff to turn the trick.

CROP REPORTS DISREGARDED

July Leads Decline After Rallies Featuring Last Week

Associated Press Dispatch

NEW YORK, June 25.—The rallies of late last week were followed by reactions in the cotton market today. The failure of another private report, pointing to an indicated yield of slightly under 11,000,000 bales, to further stimulate buying seemed to be taken as a meaning that bullish end-June crop figures had been pretty well discounted. This probably accounted from some of the reactionary sentiment, while the market was unsettled by a renewal of July liquidation in preparation for possible notices tomorrow.

July Leads Decline.

July led the decline, selling off to 27.08, or 68 points net lower, while October broke to 24.80, making a net loss of 58 points. Rallies followed on covering and the close was steady, but last prices showed net losses of 25 to 50 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 18 points on July, with later months unchanged to four points lower. There was some buying on a report placing the condition of the crop at 70.2 and the increase in acreage at 7.6 per cent. The market soon weakened with sentiment evidently unsettled by the further liquidations of near month contracts, reports of weakness in the stock and a favorable view of prevailing weather conditions in the belt. December sold off to 24.30, or 55 points net lower. Bulges were not fully maintained, although last prices were 18 to 25 points up from the lowest.

Exports today, 19,610, making 4,507,577 so far this season. Port receipts, 7,459. United States port stocks, 325,484.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK.

FORT WORTH, June 25.—Receipts of cattle were liberal and the market was a slow performer. The count called for 6,000 head of cattle and 1,500 calves, but of that number about 1,000 head of cattle were on through billing. Early trading was around steady on such stuff as was needed to start the killing gangs, some low priced steers and cows finding an outlet, but later sales were lower and the general market was around 10 to 15 cents lower. Calves were steady from the outset and the clearance was at a fairly seasonable hour.

Hogs were disposed of to a broad demand, the market being 5 to 10 cents higher. Shippers paid 7.35 and packers bought up to 7.25. Bulk sales made a range of 7.00@7.25. Pigs were steady at a spread of 5.00 to 5.75. Hog receipts were only 750 head.

Sheep sold on a near steady basis, the best going at 6.85, but lambs were slow and 25 cents lower, with an early top of 13.00.

RAW SUGAR FIRMER

NEW YORK.—The raw sugar market was firmer and Cubas sold at six cents, cost and freight, equal to 7.78 for centrifugal, an advance of 25 points. There were sales of about 55,000 bags of Cubas to local and out port refiners and a lot of about 5,000 bags to a Canadian refiner, for prompt and July shipment at the six-cent level.

The raw sugar futures market was firmer early in late trading under heavy liquidation. Final prices were at the lowest and from 2 to 15 points below the previous close. Closing: July, 5.65; September, 5.70; December, 518; March, 4.09.

There was a better inquiry reported for refined sugar and prices were unchanged at 9.25 to 9.90 for fine granulated.

FARMERS HOLD WHEAT CROPS

Bull Side of Market At Chicago Is Given Advantage

Associated Press Dispatch

CHICAGO, June 25.—Indications of a holding policy on the part of the farmers gave something of an advantage today to the bull side of the wheat market. Prices closed firm, 1-8 to 5-8 cent higher, with September 1.04 3-8 to 1.04 1-2 and December 1.07 1-8. Corn finished 1-8 to 1 cent up, oats varying from 1-8 cent decline to 1@1-8 cents advance, and provisions 2 to 7 cents off.

With heavy rains banishing complaints of dryness in the spring wheat territory and with hot, dry weather facilitating the harvest in the winter crop belt, the wheat market at first showed a tendency to fall in price.

Corn and oats averaged higher with wheat. Lower quotations on hogs weakened the provision market.

BEARS FORCE NEW REACTION

Leading Stocks Touch New Low Marks But Total Of Sales Small

Associated Press Dispatch

NEW YORK, June 25.—Professional bear traders forced another sharp reaction in today's stock market, net losses of standard issues ranging from one to five points.

While a number of leading stocks touched new low records for the year, the volume of sales was relatively small, indicating that the amount of forced liquidation was considerably lower than that of the bad break last Wednesday.

Selling Drive on Motors.

Announcement of the failure of another stock exchange house, which was petitioned into bankruptcy Saturday afternoon, tended to depress speculative sentiment, despite the fact that the house was a small one and had been comparatively inactive for two years, the liabilities totalling only $125,000.

Selling pressure was directed chiefly against the motor shares, Studebaker, Chandler and Pierce-Arrow preferred all dropping to new low records for the year. Weakness of these issues was based on unconfirmed rumors of further price cuts in the industry, particularly in some of the low priced cars.

Other industrials yielded in sympathy and when bear traders sensed the absence of support in these issues they increased their offerings, being encouraged somewhat by the marking up of the call money rate to six per cent.

Rail Issues Lose Ground.

Additional cuts in tire prices brought further selling into the rubber group, Kelly Springfield dropping 2 3-4 and United States Rubber 1 1-2.

Rails also lost ground, despite the fact that the first May earnings reports were highly satisfactory.

Foreign exchange trading was quiet with only nominal change in rates. Demand sterling was quoted around $4.61½, French francs around 6.18 cents and German marks at .00008 3-4 cent.

It will result in considerable more taxes, according to the commissioners, as all property that has been valued too low will be increased.

Texhoma Clamps Down On Entire Drilling Program

It was decided at a meeting of the executive committee of the Texhoma Oil and Refining company Monday morning to cut down all drilling operations with the exception of offset wells and drilling leases which are already under contract. This step taken by the Texhoma is only following out their general plan for the past 30 days, more than 40 per cent of drilling operations being stopped in that period.

The act taken, according to Hamilton, is an endeavor to prevent an over-production of crude at this time.

Hamilton said that there was not now such an over-production of crude, but unless drilling operations are cut to some extent there will be an over-production this summer despite increased demand for refined products.

"Despite a large amount of propaganda made by the jobbers to force down the price of crude, stating there is a sea of gasoline on hand, this is not true. A large order for export is now being placed among the refineries in the mid-continent field which will almost wipe out the surplus stock which is now on hand."

NEW OIL FIELD BELIEVED HIT

Art-Haynes No. 1 Hits Sand At 1,500 Feet Near Archer City

Associated Press Dispatch

ARCHER CITY, June 25.—Art-Haynes well No. 1, on the American Tribune colony survey, struck sand today at 4 p. m. at about 1,500 feet and at a late hour this afternoon a core was being taken. The sand struck was the same as on the White lease. Shelton and others who are drilling one-half mile south of the Art-Haynes well expect to drill in in the next 24 hours.

No estimate can be formed of the Art-Haynes well as the sand has not been entirely penetrated, but from all indications, it looks like the opening of a new field with some good producing wells.

PRAIRIE CUTS OIL PURCHASES

Proration of Runs From Wells May Run Up To 50 Per Cent

Associated Press Dispatch

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., June 25. The Prairie Oil and Gas company today announced that effective tomorrow, it will curtail its purchases of crude oil in all fields in Oklahoma, Kansas and North Texas by pro-rating runs from wells.

Possibly Half Cut.

The company explained it could not continue to purchase and store a large proportion of the mid-continent production which has steadily increased from month to month in the face of decreased sales to refineries, many of which are supplying their needs from other sources, including California.

Officials of the Prairie company said they were unable to say what per cent of the runs would be decreased, but that it was planned to make a general curtailment to bring daily purchases near in line with daily sales of crude. This, it was said, might require as much as a 50 per cent proration, although officials expressed the belief that this would not be necessary.

New Oil Not Wanted.

Announcement also was made that in order to give the greatest possible relief to the producers from whom the Prairie is purchasing, the company would run no oil from new properties nor would it increase runs from properties to which it is now connected on account of new well. Hope was expressed that if production declines and market condition improves, the pro-ration period would be short.

The situation confronting the Prairie company, it was announced, is not entirely due to increased production. Under existing marketing conditions, it was explained, many competitors are not taking as much oil from producers as they ordinarily do under normal conditions. Producers thus confronted with a surplus of crude have turned to the Prairie, it was said, which has forced the Prairie company to curtail its purchases and give preference to its regular producers.

VERNON POWER PLANT FIGHTS

Company Files Amended Petition Against City Plans

Special Dispatch to Record News

VERNON, June 25.—The Vernon Electric and Ice company, through its attorneys, Berry, Stokes and Killough of this city and Judge S. J. Brooks and ex-Mayor Clinton G. Brown of San Antonio, Monday morning filed in the Forty-sixth district court here an amended petition to an original petition filed in May seeking to prevent the city from erecting its own light plant. Judge James Y. Lenk set the hearing for 10 o'clock next Friday morning.

In the original fight the city won both in the district court here and in the court of civil appeals at Amarillo. The action sought now is on the grounds that the city charter calls for a maximum tax rate of $1.75 on the $100 valuation and that if the light bonds passed are put into force the tax rate will be $2.23. It also alleges that instead of pushing the suit to cancel the bond issue which suit is now pending, the city devised another scheme to build a light plant by issuing warrants and the complaining company alleges the city illegally diverted funds for this purpose.

DAVIS-PRUIT

Miss Eunice Davis of Waurika and Earl D. Pruit of Norman were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Davis last Sunday.

The wedding, which was to have been an event of September, was changed to an earlier date and carried out with the utmost simplicity, there being no guests except Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pruit, and little daughter, and J. T. Eschild, a family friend of the Pruits.

Rev. Anson Campbell of Ryan read the beautiful ring ceremony at 10 a. m. and the young couple left immediately afterward for Norman, where the groom is in school during the summer months.

STRUCK DEAD

(From the St. Louis Star.)

"May God strike me dead if I'm guilty!" cried John Sturmer, denying in a Swiss court that he had murdered his wife. As he spoke these words he droped to the floor and died.

Was he killed by supernatural power? Vast numbers of people who read of the occurrence will think so. But suppose he had cried, "May God lift me through the roof if I'm guilty!" Would he have been lifted through the roof?"

The autopsy showed that death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage of the brain is brought on by intense excitement. Joy, anger, fear—any violent emotional expression—is sufficient to produce it in a person whose arteries are hardened. The intense excitement under which Sturmer was laboring is revealed in his dramatic cry. He was an ideal candidate for the death that befell him. To conclude that his death was supernatural is to ignore the natural.

It is an odd commentary upon our modern times that an occurrence of this sort is a cause for debate. But it is, and the more peculiar thing about it is that Sturmer himself, if he could join the discussion, would probably argue with the supernaturalists.

$25,000 LOSS IN HOLLIDAY FIRE

Six Buildings Destroyed By Early Morning Blaze

Special Dispatch to Record News

HOLLIDAY, Texas, June 25.—A fire which broke out in a garage owned by B. Campbell at 12:45 o'clock this morning caused the destruction of six buildings and a loss estimated at $25,000. The fire was discovered by Charlie Hunt, night watchman, and the alarm was immedintely turned in to all the hotels tand rooming houses so as to clear them of guests. Three cars were destroyed in the garage where the fire broke out and the garag was a total loss. The flames spread rapidly to the next building, which was occupied by a barber shop, then to the bank building, from there to the hotel, then to the Farmers' bank building, from there to the Tolley confectionery and then to the Lee Master restaurant. Some of the buildings were partly covered by insurance.

Just a few minutes before the main fire was discovered a fire also destroyed a small shed on the other side of town. Some think that the main fire was caused by sparke from the shed, but the general opinion is that it started in the garage where a Delco light plant was running.

The fire was on the west side of the street and a bucket bridage was all that kept the fire from spreading to an adjoining hotel on the north. Several other buildings were ignited, but the workmen kept coatrol of the flames. The postoffice narrowly escaped.

$12,000 RAISED FOR T-O FAIR

Ready Response of Stockholders To Mean Raising $30,000

Responding without urging to the announcement that $30,000 more was needed by the Texas-Oklahoma Fair association for the construction of a new grandstand, stockholders Monday noon raised over $12,000 in an hour's time and virtually assured the complete success of the fair the coming season. The response met with Monday means but one thing, directors believe, which is that the balance of $30,000 wanted will be forthcoming within a short time.

Weeks Outlines Program.

Monday's subscriptions were taken at a luncheon of stockholders held in the Wichita club rooms. With George Keith presiding, the matter of a new grandstand was laid before the men present and subscribing started immediately.

Fred Weeks, one of the most active members of the board of directors, outlined the absolute need of a grandstand capable of holding 15,000 persons and warned that the "association is in too deep now to back out on anything." He then started the subscription ball rooling by reading a letter from J. L. Staley, announcing that the banker and oil man was purchasing $5,000 stock in the association. A check for $1,000 was enclosed with the letter which warmly commended the fair as a civic benefit and wished for it complete success. A $1,000 subscription from the Bradley Oil company was also anounced by Weeks.

Verschoyle Applauded.

Other announcements of increased purchases of stock included those from Kemp and Kell, the Wichita Falls Electric company, the Municipal Gas company, Nafzigler Baking company, W. W. Anderson, Peoples Ice, C. H. Verschoyle, T. B. Noble and practically all the others attending the session.

One contribution which brought prolonged applause from the stockholders was of $500 given by C. H. Verschoyle, secretary of the fair association, who stated that he was increasing his subscription by this amount in payment for the work the association was allowing him to do. Verschoyle has been exceedingly active in all work for the fair.

A rosy picture of features to be offered at the fair grounds next October was painted by Verschoyle and others in charge of the exhibits.

Races To Be Fast.

The horse races, which are expected to be the main drawing card, were extolled to the skies by W. L. McClure, in charge of thes vntstesetm Clure, in charge of these events. He stated that over 400 of the fastest ponies in the country were now assured for the fair here and that the class of races to be staged would be surpassed only on the Louisville, New Orleans and Atlantic City tracks.

J. A. Kemp declared at the meeting that in his opinion the fair was a tremendous asset to the city and that it should be encouraged in every way possible. He predicted for it an unqualified success next October.

Amarillo Trade Trippers Parade In Wichita Today

Making this city one of the principal stops on their long swing through Southern Oklahoma and Northern Texas, 125 Amarillo trade extension excursionists will visit Wichita Falls for several hours early this morning. The party leaves about 9 o'clock via the Denver on the last lap of the return trip to Amarillo.

Coming down the Wichita Falls & Northwestern from Oklahoma, the special train is scheduled to arrive here at 4 o'clock. A committee from the local chamber of commerce is to meet the visitors at 7 o'clock, at which time breakfast will be taken at the Kemp hotel. A parade through the city will start promptly at 8:30, ending with several brief speeches.

A message was received here Monday from E. O. Thompson, in charge of the visiting delegation. The Amarillo men are spending several days on the road and making extensive advances in the trade extension line. In addition to capable speakers, primed to the muzzle with facts about Amarillo's trade advantages, the special train carries the Khiva Temple Shrine band.

ELECTRA TO K. M. A. BRIDGE TO BE OUT BIG PART OF WEEK

The Wichita river bridge between Electra and the K. M. A. fields will probably be closed most of this week, it was stated Monday by County Engineer Isbell. The structure was closed last Thursday to undergo repairs with the expectation that the work would require only a few days.

Some trouble with a piledriver held up work for a time and it now appears that completion of the job cannot be made for at least three or four more days.

While the bridge is blocked, traffic from Electra to the new Archer county oil fields is detouring through Iowa Park and out the old Holliday road.

THINGS YOU SAY, DO AND SEE AND SOME YOU DON'T

"Howdy, Amarillo."

Jim Flannery of New Orleans is here on a business trip.

James Brandenbury of Parkersburg, W. Va., is here on business.

Yes, it was quite a busy day around the court house, thank you.

D. R. Benson, attorney of Bowie, was in the city Monday on business.

Roger Waldrip of Denver arrived in the city Monday on a brief business trip.

It was a light day around the police station Monday, too. Only a few arrests were made.

D. C. Nelson, who has been in Olney for the past week on business, returned to Wichita Falls Monday.

No heart failures were chronicled at the ball game when that ninth inning came around, but it wasn't Joe Berger's fault.

All soda fountains in the city were thronged by large crowds Monday in an attempt to find some cool drink to retieve the heat.

Charles Mutchenson, 10-year-old boy who was hurt at Haven park swimming pool Sunday, is reported to be rapidly improving.

The weather man says it was only 103 Monday, but Town Stuff didn't notice a lot of difference between that day and Sunday, when it was 105.

W. P. Withers, general agent for the Gulf and Ship Island railroad system, with offices in Dallas, was in Wichita Falls Monday on business.

Passage of bills and attending to routine business matters was the only thing the county commissioners did Monday—aside from the Murphy rumpus.

This is given for what it is worth. A barometer in the city health department offices read about 29 Monday afternoon and the experts said this presaged rain.

Mrs. W. W. Murphy, Misses Burch and Fair Murphy, wife and two daughters of Sheriff Pat Murphy, left this morning for Fort Worth, where they will visit relatives for two weeks.

The Wichita Falls Rainbow Girls' assembly No. 18 will meet tonight at the Masonic temple at 7:45 o'clock. All members are urged to attend, as important business will be discussed.

H. G. Smith, division freight and passenger agent of the M. K. & T. railroad system, left Monday for Elk City, where he will meet the Amarillo chamber of commerce trade train which will arrive here this morning.

Tenth street between Indians and Lamar is now pretty well torn up by the new gas lines being laid down.

Another scorching day was registered in Wichita Falls Monday when the temperature rose to 103 degrees in the shade at 3 p. m. Although the temperature went well above the century mark, the day did not seem as hot as it really was, due to the cool breeze that was blowing throughout the day. Yesterday marked the third day in which the temprature has passed the 100-degree mark, and yet no reports have been received telling of prostrations in this part of the state.

Mrs. P. W. Nolen Dies Monday At Daughter's Home

Word was received here yesterday of the death of Mrs. P. W. Nolen, of Bentonville, Ark., at 3 p. m. Monday. Mrs. Nolen is the mother of W. J. Nolen of this city, and the body will be brought here for burial. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Nolen have spent the past year in Bentonville with their daughter, Mrs. H. L. Baker, at whose home Mrs. Nolen died.

Mrs. Nolen has been in declining health for the past several years. In March her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Grant, of Evanston, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nolen were called to her bedside, but she rallied from the attack. She was stricken last Wednesday, death resulting.

A native Kentuckian, Mrs. Nolen had been a citizen of Texas for 31 years and of Wichita Falls 12 years prior to her death. She was 83 years of age at the time of her death and is survived by her husband, P. W. Nolen; one son, W. J. Nolen, of this city; and two daughters, Mrs. H. L. Baker, of Bentonville, Ark., and Mrs. W. E. Grant, of Evanston, Ill.

The body is being accompanied to Wichita Falls by P. W. Nolen and Mrs. Baker. They will be met in Dallas by W. J. Nolen and grandson, Earl Clayton. The body will arrive in Wichita Falls at 11 p. m. Tuesday and funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the First Methodist church, south, Tenth and Lamar streets.

Wichita Radio Program Monday Makes Big Hit

Judging from local and long distance phone calls coming in soon after the beginning of the radio program at 7:30 p. m., last night, the W. S. company's broadcast from Wichita Falls was a big success, notwithstanding the summer static, so many stations complain of. The well known musical aggregation known as Eddie's Trumpeters furnished the talent and the W. S. company station WKAF did the broadcasting with its new 300-meter apparatus. Radio fans who received the Wichita Falls broadcast are invited to drop a postal to the radio editor and state whether the program was clear or if static seriously interfered. Many broadcasting stations, including some government stations, discontinue operations during the summer months, and WKAF will be guided largely by the verdict of radio fans mailed to either the editor or to the W. S. Radio Supply company direct. Eddie's Trumpeters rendered an exceptionally fine program last night. The artists were Eddie Whitley at the piano; Jimmie Van Osdell, Dan Van Osdell, Connie Webster, Brown Tomme, Sam Bird and Happy Jerry Tomas.

Flavoring Drink Sale Awarded 30 Day Term In Jail

What is thought to be one of the first convictions of its kind ever obtained in North Texas was recorded in federal court Monday when Lemule Hudson of Crowell was found guilty of selling flavoring extracts as beverages. He was sentenced to 30 days in jail for the offense.

The man was arrested May 10 on charges of violating federal stautes by sale of flavoring extracts.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Rinehart, who is aiding in conducting prosecutions here, stated that so far as he knew, this was the first conviction ever obtained in this section under the statute regulating sale of extracts.

M'GREGOR TALKS TO KIWANIANS

He Tells of Interesting Tour Through Japan Last Winter

At the regular weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club Monday at the Kemp Hotel, W. M. McGregor said he was especially impressed by the work of the Japanese in the island of Formosa. He said that the Japanese had made much more progress in this island than had the Americans in the Philippines and yet they were secured by the countries at approximately the same time. He also dealt in length upon the condition existing in Java. "There are seventy million people living on this island which is about one-fifth the size of Texas, yet there is no poverty. The majority of the people only work about one-half of the time and the remainder they sleep.

To Speak Again.

In a way that kept the attention of the assembly, Mr. McGregor told of amusing experiences in the islands in the Pacific, China, Japan and India, describing the people and their customs in each of these countries.

Due to the lack of time, the speaker was unable to finish his talk and a motion was made asking Mr. McGregor to speak at a later date telling of his experiences in Europe.

Mrs. C. Y. Talley, accompanied by Miss Annette Walsh at the piano, entertained the club with a program of vocal solos.

THIRD MOVIE REEL FOR CAMP ARRIVES

A third moving picture reel for shows at the Wichita county girls' camp starting next Thursday has been secured by Georgia Lansford, home demonstration agent, who is to be in charge of the camp. The reel arrived Monday from Washington, and displays various canning methods.

This makes four reels in all that are to be shown at the camp at Haven park next Thursday night. The other three deal with various phases of domestic science.

It was announced Monday by Miss Lansford that everything was in readiness for the opening Thursday noon. It is expected that about 50 girls from all parts of the county will be in attendance at the three-day period of study and recreation to be held at Haveners.

DOZEN JUDGMENTS

About a dozen judgments were entered Monday by Judge H. R. Wilson, of the Thirteen district court after he had called his civil docket for the week. Several small cases were heard.

The week's docket was also called by Judge P. A. Martin of the eighty-ninth district court but none of the principals or attorneys involved appeared.

MILLION LOST IN VALUATIONS

County Assessor Checks First Seven Letters Of Alphabet

Over $1,000,000 in county valuations have been lost in the first seven letters of the alphabet, according to reports Monday from the county tax assessor's office. In adding up the renditions of the entire county, Assessor Deaton has gone through the letter G and has found that a decline of over a million has been made this year against the same letters for the past year.

This reduction, also, it is said, is apparent despite the fact that more renditions have been made in the present period that were recorded last year. This is taken to mean, it is shown, that renditions on a whole are much lower.

Deaton announced Monday that he expected to be able to give the county commissioners' court next Friday an estimate of the countys' total valuation. The state has called for an estimate of the various county valuations and every effort is being made here to provide this at the earliest possible date.

It is regarded as possible that the commissioners next Friday will set the county tax rate for the coming year.

FEDERAL COURT WORKS IN HURRY

Belief that federal court here may conclude its work at least by Thursday of this week, if not before, was expressed Monday by officials at work in the city now. It was originally expected that court would occupy the entire week.

The speed with which cases were dispatched Monday leaves only enough settings to last through Wednesday night, it was reported, and there is little likelihood of more being brought in.
