MARY had a little lamb; that time has passed away, No lamb could follow up the gate that Mary goes today. For now she rides on air-shod wheels in skirts too short by half; no lambkin shares her airy flight, but you can see her calf. But is there one who can complain or cry in woe. "Alas" so long as Mary's calve's all right, the lamb can go to grass. So all the men delight to gaze, their joy is not a sham, for while the other critter'sout they have no use for lamb.-Ex.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures There is not the least danger in giving it, and for cough, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by Pearce & Dobbs.

Every Heart-Ache

Every pain in the breast, difficult breathing, palpitation, fluttering or dizzy spell means that your heart is straining itself in its effort to keep in motion. This is dangerous.

Some sudden strain from overexertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop.

Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery.

Take no chances; make your heart strong and vigorous with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"I suffered terribly with heart disease. I have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without results. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me."
CHARLES GOODRICH.
Caruthersville, Mo.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE PUBLIC ON POSTAL SUBJECTS.

How to Direct and Mail Letters.—Mail matter should be addressed legibly and compleiely, giving the name of the post office, county and State, and the post office box of the person addressed, if he has one; if to a city having a free delivery, the street and number should be added. To secure rturn to the seader in case of misdirection insufficient paymeny of postage, his name shold be written or printed upon the upper left-hand corner of all mail: it will then be returned if not called at its destination without going to the Dead-Letter Office, and, if a letter will be returnd free.

Dispatch is haetened by mailing early, especially when large numbers of letters, newspapers or circulars are mailed at once.

When a number of letters or circulars are mailed together, addressed to the same destination, it is well to tie them in bundles with the addresses facing the same side. On letters for places in foriegn countries, especially Canada and England, in which many post offices have the same name as offices in the United States, the name of the country as well as the post office should be given in full. Letters addressed, for instance, merely to "London" without adding "England," are frequently sent to London, Canada, and vice versa, thereby causing delay, and often serious loss. Letters addressed to Burlington, N. S. (Nova Scotia), often go to Burlington New York, on account of the resemblance between S and Y when carelessly written.

Avoid Thin Envelopes.—Thin envelopes, or those made of weak or poor, unsubstantial paper, should not be used, especially for large packages. Being often handled, and subjected to pressure and friction in mail bags, such envelopes are frequently torn open or burst, without fault of those who handle them. It is best to us: Stamped Envelopes wherever it is conlenient and practical to do so.

Register Valuable Matter.—All valuable matter should be registered. Registry fee is eight ceuts, which, with full postage, must be prepaid, and name and address of sender must be given on the outside of envelope or wrapper. Money should be sent by a money order or registered letter; otherwise it is liable to loss.

The Convenience of Letter Boxes.—Patrons in cities where letter carriers are imployed are advised to provide letter boxes at places or private residences' thereby saving delay in the delivery of mail matter.

Affix Stamps should be placed upon the upper right-sand corner of the address side of all mail matter, care being taken that they securely affixed.

General Suggestions.—A subscriber to a newspaper or periodical who changes his residence and post office should at once notify the publisher, and have the publication sent to his new address.

Hotel Matter.—That is, matter addressed for delivery at hotels, should be returned to the post office as soon as it is evident tras it will not be claimed. Proprietors of hotels, officers of clubs and boards of trade, or exchanges, should not oold unclaimed letters longer tean ten days, except at the request of the person addressed, and should re-direct them for forwarding, if the present address is known; otherwise they should be returned to the post office.

Letters addressed to persons temporarily sojourning in a city where the Free Delivery System is in operation should be marked "Transient" or "General Delivery" if not addressed to a street and number or some other designated place of delivery.

DANGER IN CALOMEL

The American Cyclopedia says: "Calomel is being rapidly discarded by physicians to the great good of the community."

WHY? Simply because it is excessive blazes, of mercury, it continued use will wreck the strongest constitution.

NEW MEXICO NEWS SUMMARY

The three Navajo Indians who ran away from the United States Indian Training School at Santa Fe, were captured at Jamez, forty miles west of Santa Fe, and returned to the school.

Three more prisoners have been brought to Las Vegas from the Beck grant charged with cutting fences and killing stock there. This makes seven of the band that attempted whitecap proceedings in that section.

The Santa Fe company has begun work on a new two-story office building of large size on the grounds directly adjacent to the Castaneda hotel in Las Vegas. The superintendents, solicitors, dispatchers and all other Santa Fe officers will be housed here and the whole Castaneda building will be given over to hotel purposes.

In a shooting affray at Santa Fe, Policeman Camilo Martinez was shot in the groin and wounded by the shot from a revolver in the hands of ex-Chief of Police Ricardo Alarid. Alarid claims he shot in self-defense. There had been bad blood between the two men for some time. Alarid was placed in jail by Martinez, who may die.

The stockholders of the Eastern Railway of New Mexico, which is building from Texico to Belen, met October 15th in Las Vegas and elected the following directors: E. P. Ripley, Chicago; V. Morawetz, E. H. Berwind, New York; R. E. Twitchell, M. R. Williams, W. E. Gortner, Charles Russell, Las Vegas. Mr. Ripley was re-elected president.

At Albuquerque, early on the morning on the 16th inst., the grocery store and saloon of Mori & Azario was entered by burglars and the safe robbed of between $300 and $400 in money. One of the proprietors, Lorenzo Azario, said that when he left the store he forgot to lock the safe and it therefore was an easy matter for the burglars to get the money.

The Masonic Grand Lodge at Albuquerque elected the following officers: Grand master, J. G. Fitch of Socorro; deputy grand master, A. N. Pratt of Carlsbad; senior grand warden, W. E. Dame of Albuquerque; grand junior warden, J. W. Willson of Roswell; grand secretary, A. A. Keen of Albuquerque; grand treasurer, A. J. Maloy of Albuquerque.

"The forest rangers on the Pecos reserve have opened three new trails in different parts of the reserve. This is very praiseworthy and if it is followed up with a cleaning out of the dead timber blockading some of the old trails, they will have done more for the cause of good roads than either the counties of San Miguel or Santa Fe have done for many years," says the New Mexican.

At Santa Fe on the 16th inst., Mrs. Juliana Martinez of Trinidad, Colorado, who was visiting Ramon Ortaga, her brother-in-law, and who was blind and quite old, fell from the front porch of the Ortaga house and broke her back. She died in a few minutes. On the same day, Edward, the five-year-old son of W. N. Armar of Kingston, fell from a wagon, striking on his head, death ensuing from his injuries.

At the convocation of the grand chapter Order of the Eastern Star of New Mexico, at Albuquerque, officers were elected as follows: Grand matron, Mrs. Minnie Miller, Albuquerque; grand patron, Dr. J. C. Stack, Clayton; associate grand matron, Mrs. Emma Benedict, Las Vegas; associate grand matron, John E. Griffith, Socorro; grand secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Harsch, Albuquerque; grand treasurer, Mrs. M. B. Reed, Las Vegas; grand conductress, Mrs. Lena Bolton, Carlsbad; associate grand conductress, Mrs. C. G. Duncan, Socorro.

A Las Vegas dispatch to the Denver Republican says: Every member of the congressional party which reached here to-day on the return trip expressed himself in favor of separate statehood for the territories. They are satisfied that both territories want no statehood but the separate form and they advise the people to agree to accept no other kind, as they say admission cannot be refused for many more years. They expressed the unanimous opinion that the joint statehood bill had no chance of passing in the next Congress.

A Roswell dispatch of October 17th says: Lester Simpson and his wife left to-day for the bedside of his father, Hon. Jerry Simpson, who is dying in Wichita, Kansas. It is the desire of the distinguished patient that he be removed to his home here and that his last days be spent in the Pecos valley. This probably cannot be done, as private messages to-night from Mrs. Simpson state that her husband is dying. Lester Simpson is a farmer and is the only child of the ex-congressman. Jerry Simpson is one of the best beloved men in southwestern New Mexico. He has made his home in Roswell for over four years.

Supt. Clinton J. Crandall of the United States Indian Training School, in Santa Fe, has introduced the card system in keeping the statistics of the Pueblos of northern New Mexico over which he has supervision. Each card is devoted to the head of a family, and gives his biography, the number of acres he cultivates, the number of cattle, sheep and horses he owns, the names of his wife and children, and such other vital statistics as are demanded by the Indian Bureau. Every three months the day school teacher at each Pueblo is asked to revise the cards. Thus, the statistics for each village are always at hand in a convenient and accurate form.

P. A. Walker of Tulsa, I. T., representing the Irrigated Lands Investmen Company of Denver, was caught under a wrecked passenger car on the Denver & Rio Grand railroad at Caliente, October 20th and killed. The car left the track because of spreading rails. Manuel Atencio of Santa Cruz lost one leg and probably will die. Caliente does not have even a station house and no habitation within many miles and therefore it was some time before medical help could be secured at Espanola, about forty miles distant. The train was bound from Antonito to Santa Fe. The road is narrow gauge and there is but one passenger train each way daily. There was one woman on the train. She escaped without serious injury.

A Greeley, Colorado, dispatch says: Three Greeks, Gust Kolumbus, John Dagimes and John Tondiker, were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Camp yesterday on a charge of destroying seven miles of Rio Grande railroad track near Farmington, New Mexico, a month ago Special Rio Grande Agent A. W. Emx and thereby delaying trains seven hours. Special Rio Grande Agent A. W. Brown arrived here with requisition papers and took the men with him to New Mexico.

An Albuquerque dispatch says: Hon. Henry Hammond Howard died at San Marcial Monday. He had been sick from a complication of diseases for about a year. He was publisher and editor of the San Marcial Bee, a weekly newspaper, for about ten years, but about two years ago was put out of business by the flood in the Rio Grande valley, washing away his office. The deceased represented the district composed by Socorro and Sierra counties in the lower house of the Territorial Legislature two terms as a Republican. He was born at Woodstock, province of Ontario, Canada, in 1863.

An Albuquerque dispatch says: Plans are on foot for another big sanitarium in New Mexico for the treatment of tuberculosis. This time Dr. G. O. Pelgram of New York proposes to establish such an institution at Deming. The doctor and his wife have been in Albuquerque several weeks, but left to-day for Deming to look over a proposed site for the sanitarium. It is the doctor's intention to build an institution that may even exceed in size the National Fraternal Sanitarium, to be located at Las Vegas. It has been known for some time that eastern physicians have been considering Deming as one of the most favorable locations in the territory for such an institution and the trip of Dr. Pelgram is believed to be in the interest of these eastern parties.

Congressmen at Albuquerque.

An Albuquerque dispatch of November 19th, says: For nearly two hours this morning a committee of the Joint Statehood League entertained Congressman Tawney and his party of nine other congressmen. They had been touring Arizona on a special train, and were on their way East.

Congressman Tawney, although the leader of the party, was reticent here, and referred to Congressman Adams of Wisconsin as the spokesman of the party. The latter said:

"Upon the question of joint statehood with New Mexico, the people of Arizona seem to be almost a unit. They are not only opposed to it, but they are very enthusiastic and determined in their opposition. It seemed to be the impression among a large portion of the business men and men in political life in Arizona that the territory would make no effort at the coming session of Congress to be admitted as an independent state."

"This means," continued Congressman Adams, "that Arizona, before accepting jointure with New Mexico, will ask Congress to let it remain as a territory until she can secure single statehood.

"Perhaps it would not be becoming for any member of this party to make suggestions to the people of Arizona and New Mexico as to what their line of action should be with reference to state-hood, but it seems to me that if I were a resident of either territory the plan which would seem most reasonable and which I should endeavor to pursue would be to drop the question of statehood for the time being and wait for a little broader development and a little more time to instruct the public judgment in order that a winning fight might be made.

"The people of these territories will, very naturally say in reply to this, that they have waited a great many years and that they are entiled to statehood now. The reply to this, is, in part, that within three years vast areas of what is now called desert land will become productive, and that they will soon have an increase in agricultural population which is always the most permanent and fixed in its character.

"The members of this party of course, have seen more of Arizona than of New Mexico, but we have received the same favorable impression of this territory that we have of the one which has been investigated more thoroughly."

While in Arizona the party found less than fifty people favoring joint statehood, including twenty who presented a petition for jointure at Tucson.

Before reaching Albuquerque the congressmen visited the Indian pueblo at Laguna and attended church there early this morning. The party will reach Chicago Saturday morning.

New Mexico Railroad Builders.

An Albuquerque dispatch says: Hon. W. H. Andrews, Governor Francis J. Torrance and T. Lee Clarke, all mentioned in connection with the failure of the Enterprise National Bank of Alleghany, Pennsylvania, and the latter a suicide, are well known here, and are heavily interested in some big enterprises in this vicinity.

They financed and built the Santa Fe Central from Torrance, a connection on the Rock Island, to Santa Fe, where the Denver & Rio Grande ends in this territory. They are also interested in the construction of the Albuquerque Eastern road, which has been graded and several miles of ties laid, and some time ago purchased the Hagan coal fields, immense in proportion, just north of the city and surveyed a branch line into the coal fields.

It is understood here that any financial troubles of Messrs. Andrews and Torrance and the suicide of Mr. Clarke, who was treasurer of these enterprises, will not in the least interfere with the completion of the Albuquerque Eastern, as all arrangements had been made beforehand to build the road, and those in a position to know say it will be done. If Andrews and Torrance are embarrassed to such an extent that they cannot complete the road, citizens here will take hold of it.

Mr. Andrews is the delegate-elect from this territory to Congress.

New Mexico School Census.

The annual school census of New Mexico has been completed and the totals given out by Hiram Hadley, superintendent of public instruction. They indicate that the territory has gained 70,000 in population since the last census, or almost forty per cent. The school population, which includes all persons between the ages of five and twenty years, was 72,929 October 1st, which indicates a total population of 255,248, outside of the 14,000 Indians in the territory. The counties rank as follows:

San Miguel, 26,722; Bernalillo, 25,399; Santa Fe, 17,325; Socorro, 15,896; Rio Arriba, 15,818; Dona Ana, 14,681; Mora, 13,615; Taos, 12,516; Grant, 12,276; Colfax, 11,610; Valencia, 9,405; Chaves, 9,198; Otero, 7,882; Guadalupe, 7,774; Union, 7,749; Sandoval, 7,616; Eddy, 7,168; Lincoln, 6,850; San Juan, 5,407; Roosevelt, 5,250; Sierra, 4,410; Luna, 3,585; Torrance, 2887; Quay, 2,520; McKinley, 2,250.

Bernalillo county leads in the amount of money expended for its public schools, the amount being $81,742.70.

Would Help Pecos Settlers.

A Washington dispatch says that Secretary Hitchcock is advised that a most deplorable condition exists in the Pecos valley, near Carlsbad, New Mexico. Eighteen thousand acres of irrigated land tributary to Carlsbad and dependent for water upon the Pecos Irrigation Company, has been without water since the disastrous floods of 1904 carried out the dam and other works. The result has been the death of trees and vines, total failure of crops and great financial loss.

Unless the Avalon dam is built in time to furnish water in the early spring, all property situated under this canal system, including the town of Carlsbad, amounting to between two and three millions of dollars, is threatened with total extinction.

Engineers of the reclamation service have made detailed examinations and surveys and perfected plans for the relief of the settlers, subject to the approval of the secretary of the interior. It is possible the government may take over the water works of the Pecos Irrigation Company and construct a permanent system for irrigation of the lands now under water, and additional acreage, but this action may be rendered impossible on account of the limited condition of the reclamation fund, and the legitimate demands upon it in other localities. The department is assembling data upon all projects in the arid region and until these are taken into consideration it is probable no action can be taken in this matter.

The work of storing flood waters of the Rio Grande river in its lower course through New Mexico, which has engaged the attention of the Geological Survey for years, has shown the necessity for establishing of forest reserves to protect certain of its headwaters in Colorado and New Mexico, as the ordinary flow of the river, or what is known as its permanent water, for 900 miles of its course above El Paso, representing the drainage of 38,000 square miles, comes almost entirely from a comparatively small area in south-central Colorado and upper New Mexico, where there is heavy snowfall in the mountains.

Below this area the rainfall is so meager and erratic that the country through which the river passes requires all the water that comes down stream. At present much of this flow is wasted, owing to the Rio Grande being essentially a torrential stream, subject to heavy and irregular floods which frequently results in great scarcity of water in the river in New Mexico. To remedy this the reclamation service is impounding the flood waters by a dam near Engle, New Mexico, for the storage of sufficient water to reclaim 180,000 acres of land. The success of this project, which will necessitate a reservoir forty miles in length, and involves an outlay of over $7,000,000, is largely dependent upon conserving and equalizing the flow in certain streams tributary to the Rio Grande in its upper course, which can only be accomplished by affording proper protection to forests which cover their various watersheds.

The establishment, some months ago, of the San Juan and Cochetopa forest reserves, in Colorado, extended protection over the sources of a number of these tributaries. It has since, however, been found advisable to reserve an additional area, across the line in New Mexico. The President has accordingly proclaimed the Jemez reserve, embracing 1,252,000 acres of mountainous region in Rio Arriba and Sandoval counties, containing a portion of the drainage basins of the Rio Chama, Rio Puerco, Rio Jamez and other important tributary streams.

New Mexico Forest Reserve.

The establishment of forest reserves in the northern part of New Mexico along the drainage area of the Rio Grande will receive the approval of all men who are informed in regard to the physical character of that country and the importance of protecting its sources of water supply.

A large percentage of the water in the Rio Grande below the Colorado line originates in the mountains where the Chama, Jemez and Puerco rivers rise. These mountains lie to the west of the valley and there has been almost no occasion for inroads upon their forests, there having been little mining and practically no agriculture in that section. It has been occupied almost exclusively by live stock, and the establishment of reservations to include these forests will save much timber which otherwise may be destroyed in the near future.

The eastern slopes of the Sandia, Ladrone and other mountains bounding the Rio Grande valley on the east were long ago deprived of their forests, but the decaying stumps testify to the existence of a valuable growth in years gone by. What relation this destruction of timber may have had to the streams flowing eastward from these mountains may be a matter of dispute and radical difference of opinion; but the fact is that comparatively little water available for irrigation can be found at present, whereas the remains of prehistoric ditches testify to the practicability of irrigation in former times.

The subject of forest preservation in New Mexico and Arizona calls for special attention from the bureau of forestry, for the total timber area being relatively small, its destruction would result in great injury. The streams of New Mexico are more or less torrential, and the Rio Grande in particular is apt to lose much of its water in the sands over which it finds its way. These considerations suggest that there is special reason for preserving the forests and particularly those in which the tributaries of the Rio Grande take their rise.—Denver Republican.

RAILROAD LAWS

POWER NEEDED TO CORRECT UNREASONABLE RATES.

PRESIDENT AT RALEIGH N. C.

Opposed to Government Ownership—But Government Supervision is a Necessity—Experience Has Shown That Railroads Must Be Controlled.

Raleigh, N. C.—With the music of the band and hearty cheers greeting him, the President reached Raleigh promptly on time.

There were nearly 40,000 people in the fair grounds when the President arrived. The President was introduced by Lieutenant Governor Winston, and began his remarks with a pleasant reference to the occasion, continuing as follows:

"I do not believe in government ownership of anything which can with propriety be left in private hands, and in particular I should most strenuously object to government ownership of railroads. But I believe with equal firmness that it is out of the question for the government not to exercise a supervisory and regulatory right over the railroads; for it is vital to the well-being of the public that they should be managed in a spirit of fairness and justice toward all the public.

"Actual experience has shown that it is not possible to leave the railroads uncontrolled. Such a system, or rather such a lack of system, is fertile in abuses of every kind, and puts a premium upon unscrupulous and ruthless cunning in railroad management.

"There are some big shippers and some railroad managers who are always willing to take unfair advantage of their weaker competitors, and they thereby force other big shippers and big railroad men who would like to do decently into similar acts of wrong and injustice, under penalty of being left behind in the race of success.

"Government supervision is needed quite as much in the interest of the big shipper and of the railroad man who want to do right as in the interest of the small shipper and the consumer.

"Experience has shown that the present laws are defective and need amendment. The effort to prohibit all restraint of competition, whether reasonable or unreasonable, is unwise. What we need is to have some administrative body with ample power to forbid combination that is hurtful to the public, and to prevent favoritism to one individual at the expense of another.

"But in my judgment the most important thing to do is to give to this administrative body power to make its finding effective, and this can be done only by giving it power, when complaint is made of a given rate as being unjust or unreasonable, if it finds the complaint proper, then itself to fix a maximum rate which it regards as just and reasonable, this rate to go into effect practically at once, that is within a reasonable time, and to stay in effect, unless reserved by the courts.

"I earnestly hope that we shall see a law giving this power passed by Congress."

CANAL WILL BE BUILT.

So Says the President at Jacksonville, Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla.—The reception to President Roosevelt Saturday was a hearty one. Thousands thronged the streets on the line of march and the President showed in his manner his appreciation of the good will that was manifested on every side. In his address he said:

"Here in Florida, the first of the Gulf states which I have visited upon this trip, I wish to say a special word about the Panama canal. I believe that the canal will be of great benefit to all our people, but most of all to the states of the South Atlantic, the Gulf and the Pacific slope.

"When completed the canal will stand as a monument to this nation; for it will be the greatest engineering feat ever accomplished in the world. It will be a good thing for the world as a whole, and for the people of the Isthmus and the the northern portions of South America in particular. Because of our especial interest in it, and because of the position we occupy on this hemisphere, it is a matter of special pride to us that our nation, the American nation, should have undertaken the performance of this world duty.

"A body of the most eminent engineers in the world, both Americans and foreigners, has been summoned to advise as to the exact type of canal which should be built. At no distant date I hope to be able to announce what their advice is, and also the action taken upon their advice. Meanwhile the work is already well under way, and has advanced sufficiently far to enable me to announce with certainty that it can surely be accomplished, and probably at rather less expense than was anticipated.

"But upon the last point, as well as upon the question of time, no positive statement can be made until the report of the commission of engineers as to the exact type of canal has been received. The work is as difficult as it is important; and it is of course inevitable that from time to time difficulties will occur and checks be encountered.

"No check that may come will be of more than trivial and passing consequences, will inflict any permanent damage, or cause any serious delay. The work can be done, is being done, and will be done. What has already been accomplished is a guaranty as to the future.

"The veterans of the Civil War who are here present will tell you that the very rear of an army, even when it is victorious, is apt to look and behave as if the victory were defeat. And just the same thing is true in any great enterprise in civil life; there are always weaklings who get trampled down or lose heart, and there are always people who listen to their complaints. They amount to nothing one way or the other, so far as achieving results is concerned; and their complaints and outcries need never detain us."

New Chicago Union Depot.

Chicago.—Plans for the construction of a new union railway station at a cost of from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 and enlargement of passenger terminals to cost the rest of $25,000,000, are being considered by the five tenants of the present union station at Canal and Adams streets, the Pennsylvania, the Panhandle, Chicago & Alton, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and Burlington railroads.

STOCKMEN COMBINE.

Executive Committees of Rival Associations Agree to Unite.

Denver.—Pressing desire for reform measures was responsible Saturday for bringing the two executive committees of the stockmen's associations to a basis of harmony. The success of future efforts for bringing the desired changes about seemed to depend so entirely upon the consolidation, that personal differences and conflicting theories were laid aside for the common good.

The agreement at this time is due to the persistent efforts of President Hagenbarth of the national association to restore harmony. To accomplish this he conceded everything, making it a victory for the American Stock Growers' Association. It was the only way to bring peace, as the cattlemen of the West refused to countenance the packing interests on their executive committee, so the packers had to go. The railroad interests had been shut out previously, and these interests will now be dealt with from without the organization, rather than within it.

Following is the full text of the agreement, signed by the executive officers of each organization:

"First—The membership to consist of live stock producing and maturing interests of the country.

"Second—The constitution and by-laws of the American Stock Growers' Association, modified so as to admit to membership associations of live stock producers, as well as individuals, to be made the basis.

"Third—One strong central committee, appointed by the association thus formed, to carry on the business of the association.

"Fourth—The association to co-operate with all allied interests through such sub-committees as may be appointed by the executive committee, whenever and wherever the interests of said association and such allied interests are mutual.

"Fifth—The objects of the organization thus formed will be, to represent the live stock interests in all matters of general and public importance, and to conserve the interests, protect the rights and to redress the wrongs of each and all of its members.

Signed) "F. J. HAGENBARTH,
"President National Live Stock Association.
(Signed) "MURDO MACKENZIE,
"President American Stock Growers' Association."

GREAT C. F. AND I. CANAL.

Immense Enterprise to Supply Water for Steel Works.

Denver.—A Republican special from Florence says:

According to local representatives of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, construction work on the monster canal to be built from Portland, this county, to the Minnequa works, will be commenced not later than December 1st. Bids for the construction will be opened Friday next and the contracts let.

Few canals in the world have been constructed under more adverse circumstances. Its length will be thirty-eight miles, its depth five feet and the width seven feet. A great portion will be cut through solid rock and thousands of pounds of dynamite will be necessary in the work. It will be commenced one-half mile west of Adobe.

Several miles of siphon work will be constructed, also several thousand feet of tunnel. The longest tunnel will be on the W. B. Housler ranch and will be 1,100 feet long, seven feet wide and seven feet high. It will be cemented on the bottom and sides. One tunnel 220 feet long and another ninety-five will be bored through a hill on the Senator McCandless ranch, just east of this city. All the other tunnels will be short.

FOOTBALL TRAGEDY.

Canon City High School Boy Killed by Rough Play.

Denver.—A Canon City special to the Republican says: James E. Bryant, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bryant of 901 Prospect avenue, South Canon, was killed at noon Friday while playing football on the grounds of the grammar school building almost directly across the street from his home.

Young Bryant was a member of the freshman class of the South Canon high school, but having no recitations in the afternoon had been in the habit of remaining at home for study. Observing the boys at the Prospect Avenue grammar school getting ready for a practice game of football, Bryant walked over to where they were and asked permission to play.

In a scrimmage which followed he was butted in the pit of the stomach by one of the opposing team and fell to the ground, a dozen boys piling on top of him in a scramble to get possession of the ball, which he held. It was noticed by those on top of him that Bryant made no effort to get up. An investigation revealed the fact that he was limp and lifeless.

The body was carried to his home and a physician summoned, but the boy was dead. After an investigation the physician gave it as his opinion that death was caused by a blow on the solar plexus. Bryant was seventeen years of age and was an ardent devotee of all kinds of athletics. At the recent field day meet of the representatives of the Cripple Creek, Victor, Canon and South Canon high schools he won the pole vault, making a record of eight feet one inch.

D. & R. G. Directors.

Denver.—The annual meeting of the Denver & Rio Grande stockholders was held yesterday in the offices at the Equitable building. Most of the voting was done by proxy. Only one change was made in the board of directors. Edwin Gould succeeding William H. Taylor, who filled the office last year while Mr. Gould was abroad. Following is the personnel of the board as elected: George J. Gould, Edward T. Jeffrey, Winslow S. Pierce, Arthur Coppell, Mortimer L. Schiff, Edwin Gould, A. H. Calef, Charles H. Schlacks, Joel F. Valle.

Aided the Revolutionists.

New York.—Gen. Francis V. Greene, former president of the National Asphalt Company, was examined to-day before United States Commissioner Gilchrist as a witness in behalf of the Venezuelan government in the action instituted by the latter against the New York & Bermudez Company to recover about $11,000,000 because of the latter organization's alleged assistance of the Matos' revolution in 1901.

General Greene was asked but one question, his reply being to the effect that the defendant company did materially aid the revolutionists.

DOWN IN GEORGIA

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WARMLY GREETED AT ATLANTA.

DISCUSSES CORPORATIONS

Visits His Mother's Old Home at Roswell.—Remarkable Ovation at Georgia's Capital—Plain Talk on National Questions.

Atlanta.—Following his brief sojourn at his mother's old home in Roswell, where he showed deep feeling, the President's visit to Atlanta on Friday was a marked event in the history of the state of Georgia. He was greeted on his arrival by her most distinguished citizens, and throughout the day on every hand were shouted words of welcome that left no room for doubt of their sincerity.

The city was in gala attire and business was practically suspended that all might greet the distinguished guest. South Carolina, in the person of Governor Heyward, added its welcome to the South. It was estimated that not less than 100,000 persons saw and welcomed the President. His address here was devoted to the advantages of protection, the regulation of corporations by the government, crookedness in politics, dishonesty in business and the Chinese question. He declared that coolies should be kept out, but other Chinese coming here should be well treated.

In his address at Piedmont park, the President said:

"The problems which we of America have to face to-day are very serious, but we will do well to remember that after all they are only part of the price which we have to pay for the triumphs we have won, for the high position to which we have attained. If we were a backward and stationary country we would not have to face these problems at all; but I think that most of us are agreed that to be backward and stationary would be altogether too heavy a price to pay for the avoidance of the problems in question.

"There are no labor problems where there is no work to be done by labor. There are no troubles about corporations where the poverty of the community is such that it is not worth while to form corporations. There is no difficulty in regulating railroads where the resources of a region are so few that it does not pay to build railroads.

"There are many excellent people who shake their heads over the difficulties that as a nation we now have to face; but their melancholy is not warranted save in a very partial degree, for most of the things of which they complain are the inevitable accompaniments of the growth and greatness of which we are proud.

"Undoubtedly there is need of regulation by the government, in the interest of the public, of these great corporations which in modern life have shown themselves to be the most efficient implements, and which are, therefore, the implements commonly employed by the owners of large fortunes. The corporation is the creature of the state. It should always be held accountable to some sovereign authority, and this accountability should be real and not sham. Therefore, in my judgment, all corporations doing an interstate business—and this means the great majority of the largest corporations—should be held accountable to the federal government, because their accountability should be co-extensive with their field of action. But most certainly we should not strive to prevent or limit corporate activity.

"The unwisdom of any well-meaning but misguided effort to check corporate activity has been shown in striking fashion in recent years by our experience in the Philippines and in Porto Rico. Our national legislators very properly determined that the islands should not be exploited by adventurers without regard to the interests of the people of the islands themselves. But unfortunately in their zeal to prevent the islands from being improperly exploited, they took measures of such severity as to seriously, and in some respects vitally, hamper and retard the development of the islands."

Czar's Peace Manifesto.

St. Petersburg.—An imperial manifesto has been issued proclaiming the ratification of peace between Russia and Japan. It says:

"God has caused our fatherland to suffer sore trials from the blows of fate in a sanguinary war, but the struggle has afforded manifold proofs of the bravery and courage of our glorious troops against a brave and mighty enemy. This war, so painful for us all, is now over. The eastern portion of our country will develop itself in peace and good neighborliness with the Japanese empire, which has now become our friend.

"In communicating the restoration of peace to our subjects, we are sure they will join in our prayers to God to give a blessing on our great labors in conjunction with men elected by the people for the development and prosperity of Russia."

Suicide of Former Coloradan.

Aitken, Minn.—Dr. W. C. Aarons, the bonesetter, convicted of bigamy and grand larceny and on Friday sentenced by Judge Spooner to six years in the penitentiary, committed suicide in his cell at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, blowing the top of his head completely off with a Colt revolver.

Dr. Aarons was arrested about six weeks ago in Colorado Springs on a charge of forgery. The investigation resulting from this arrest developed the fact that he had an extra wife, and he was brought here to answer to the charge of bigamy. He was well-known throughout the country.

Successful Airship Flight.

Paris.—The Lebaudy military dirigible balloon made its third successful flight on Saturday and maneuvered against the wind. Several army officers accompanied the balloon, dropping blank cartridges upon forts from an altitude of 4,500 feet, thus demonstrating the practicability of launching projectiles from dirigible balloons in times of war.

During the flight automobiles pursued the balloon and fired shots in its direction, leading to the determination that automobiles carrying light guns could seriously endanger aerial maneuvers.

Indian Territory Tornado.

Tulsa, I. T.—In a tornado which passed one mile west of Mannford, Indian Territory, Tuesday night, two children of E. R. Anderson were killed and Mrs. Anderson and Miss Maude Root were seriously injured. The path of the storm was a quarter of a mile wide and several miles in length.

Gen. A. L. Mills, superintendent of the military academy at West Point, in his annual report pictures very satisfactory conditions as to discipline, military bearing and soldierly conduct of the cadets, and says that hazing in any form has shown no symptom of reappearing.

The discontinuance of racing reports caused a decrease of $215,755 in the gross earnings of the Western Union Telegraph Company for the year ended June 30th last. The decrease, President Clowry reports, resulted in spite of a large increase of revenue from message business.

Secretary of War Taft is a very big man physically. In order to furnish him with a comfortable place to sleep in the cruiser Columbia on his trip to Panama it became necessary to make a special bunk, which was placed where there would be the least jar from the machinery.

According to the report of the naval board of inspection and survey the final forty-eight-hour trial of the cruiser Galveston was satisfactory in every way. The average speed for a four-hour run under forced draft was 15.56 knots an hour, the speed which the vessel was designed to make being 16:5 knots.

Five tons of molten metal exploded at the Joliet plant of the Illinois Steel Company, falling in a shower of death on a band of workmen about the converter. One man is dead, three are fatally burned and a half dozen injured so badly that they may die. Many others suffered severe burns on their feet and hands.

The American Hawaiian Steamship Company expects to ship at least 300,000 tons of Hawaiian sugar annually across the Mexican isthmus under the contract recently entered into with the National Railroad of Tehuantepec pending the completion of the Panama canal. Two new steamers are being built for the company at California yards.

Valuable gifts were received by the board of regents for the California State University at its last monthly meeting, Mrs. Hearst's donation alone amounting to nearly $500,000. For seven years she has been collecting from all parts of the world archaeological and anthropological material, and this collection she has given to the university.

The work of the Sinaloa Land Company, which was organized at Los Angeles to survey the public lands of Sinaloa, Mexico, under a government concession, is nearing completion. The public lands of the state amount to about 10,000,000 acres. The company will receive one-third of the land surveyed and plans to bring over thousands of Japanese and Germans.

The negro Baptist convention of Texas, at Waco, adopted a resolution commending John D. Rockefeller and saying that in the opinion of the convention he was an inspired giver. They also commended what he had done for the advancement of education and religion in the religious world.

Greatest Dam on Earth.

Fifteen years ago the highest dam in existence was the Furens dam (in France), the total height of which was 170 feet. Since then three very much larger dams have been built in the United States. These are the Croton dam in New York, the Clinton water works dam at Boston and the water works dam near Denver, on the South Fork of the Platte river, says Crittenden Marriott in November Technical World Magazine. Each of these at present holds the record in one respect or another; the Denver dam is the highest in the world; the Clinton impounds the largest amount of water, and the Croton dam contains the largest mass of masonry. But the Salt River dam, when finished, will exceed each of these in its own specialty; it will be higher than Denver, will exceed the Croton dam in masonry, and will impound twice as much water as all three put together. It will be 270 feet high from foundation to parapet, will contain 300,000 cubic yards of masonry, and will impound more than a million acre-feet of water; that is, more than enough to cover a million acres (1,500 square miles) to a depth of one foot. It will form a lake five miles long and one to two miles wide, covering an area of 14,000 acres. Its cost, with maintenance for ten years, will be $3,000,000 or $4,000,000.

Good News for All.

Bradford, Tenn., Oct. 23d.—(Special.)—Scientific research shows Kidney Trouble to be the father of so many diseases that news of a discovery of a sure cure for it cannot fail to be welcomed all over the country. And according to Mr. J. A. Davis of this place just such a cure is found in Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Davis says:

"Dodd's Kidney Pills are all that is claimed for them. They have done me more good than anything I have ever taken. I had Kidney Trouble very bad and after taking a few boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I am completely cured. I cannot praise them too much."

Kidney Complaint develops into Bright's Disease, Dropsy, Diabetes, Rheumatism and other painful and fatal diseases. The safeguard is to cure your kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills when they show the first symptom of disease.

That silly young man who flirts with trouble is apt to find himself married to it sooner or later.

TORTURING HUMOUR.

Body a Mass of Sores—Treated by Three Doctors but Grew Worse —Cured by Cuticura for 75c.

"My little daughter was a mass of sores all over her body. Her face was eaten away, and her ears looked as if they would drop off. I called in three doctors, but she grew worse. Neighbors advised Cuticura, and before I had used half of the cake of soap and box of ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's skin was as clear as a new-born babe's. I would not be without Cuticura again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby. Mrs. G. J. Steese, 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio."

Great Slaughter of Ducks.

Every duck hunter who went out to the lakes Sunday came home with as many ducks as he could safely carry under the law. The slaughter was one of the greatest known in the history of the state, as the weather was ideal for hunting and the game was plentiful in all parts. One inquisitive hunter, who had his own bag well filled, counted over 800 ducks at the station at Barr, when the crowd was waiting for the train. This did not include the kill made by the members of the Hot Air Club, who came in by a later train, or of those secured by the men who shot Upper Barr lake. The latter usually go to their blinds in automobiles, returning the same way. A safe estimate of the number killed about the Barr lakes is therefore about 1,100. As this is only one of the many places to which the Denver hunters went, some idea may be secured of the number of duck dinners enjoyed in this city yesterday.—Denver Republican.

America's First Locomotive.

It is only seventy-five years since the first steam locomotive was built in this country. It was the diminutive "Tom Thumb," which Peter Cooper first ran in Baltimore, in 1830, and the difference between it and the marvelous flyers of to-day are marked to a wonderful degree.

In the limited period of three-quarters of a century American inventiveness. American mechanical genius to put it more accurately, has developed locomotive building from an experiment into the wonderful system that is really the foundation of the marvelous industrial progress of the country.

THE SECRET OF YOUTH.

De Soto looked for the secret of youth in a spring of gushing, life-giving waters, which he was sure he would find in the New World. Alchemists and sages (thousands of them), have spent their lives in quest for it, but it is only found by those happy people who can digest and assimilate the right food which keeps the physical body perfect that peace and comfort are the sure results.

A remarkable man of 94 says: "For many long years I suffered more or less with chronic costiveness and painful indigestion. This condition made life a great burden to me, as you may well imagine.

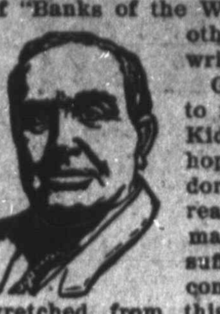

"Two years ago I began to use Grape-Nuts as food, and am thankful that I did. It has been a blessing to me in every way. I first noticed that it had restored my digestion. This was a great gain but was nothing to compare in importance with the fact that in a short time my bowels were restored to free and normal action.

"The cure seemed to be complete; for two years I have had none of the old trouble. I use the Grape-Nuts food every morning for breakfast and frequently eat nothing else. The use has made me comfortable and happy, and although I will be 94 years old next fall, I have become strong and supple again, erect in figure and can walk with anybody and enjoy it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "There's a reason."

GREAT SONG WRITER.

Paul Dresser, the Popular Composer, Cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Paul Dresser of New York, author of "Banks of the Wabash" and many other great song hits, writes:

Gentlemen: I wish to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, in the hope that my endorsement will be read by some of the many thousands of sufferers from kidney complaint. I was so wretched from this malady that I could not sleep, rest nor eat, and had a weak and aching back. Doan's Kidney Pills effectually cured me, and I wish that others may know.

W. J. BLACK.

New Passenger Traffic Manager for the Santa Fe Road.

William J. Black, who has just been promoted by the Santa Fe railroad to be passenger traffic manager of the entire system, with headquarters in Chicago, was born Oct. 3, 1864, in St. Louis, and has been in the railway service since 1879, beginning as an office boy with the Vandalia at the age of 15 years. He retained his first position five years, when he became rate clerk in the passenger department of the Missouri Pacific. In March, 1886, he was given a similar position by the Santa Fe. He was promoted to chief clerk in the passenger department in April, 1887, and to assistant general passenger agent Jan. 1, 1892. He has been general passenger agent, with headquarters at Topeka, Kan., since Feb. 1, 1897.

Home Climate Cures Best.

Emphasizing the fact that he did not deprecate the value of high altitudes in the cure of tuberculosis, Dr. S. A. Knopf, before the New York State Medical Association, asserted his belief that cures obtained in ordinary home climates, while requiring longer, seem to be more lasting.

Dr. Kopf declared that the modern sanitarium for consumption is the safest place not to contract a tuberculosis disease and instead of being a menace to the neighborhood, is a benefit, because of the lesson of cleanliness and health it teaches.

STRENGTHEN THE STOMACH

There are plenty of remedies by which you can relieve for the time heartburn, pain and gas on the stomach and can smother nervous sensations and induce artificial sleep. You can humor your stomach by giving it predigested food. But when you take your next meal all your trouble begins afresh.

There is only one sensible thing to do. Strengthen the stomach and do away with the necessity for drugs and artificial foods. The best remedy ever found for this purpose is the one that was used by E. E. Strong, of Capleville, Shelby county, Tenn.

"For years," he states, "I suffered greatly from indigestion. I tried many differen. remedies and some of them would relieve me for a time, but the trouble always came back. About six months ago I had an unusually severe attack, and while I tried everything I had ever heard of, I found that none of the ordinary remedies would reach the difficulty this time.

"One day I read in a Memphis paper how Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured a Michigan woman, a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia of a most stubborn type. I then tried the same remedy and it proved just as successful in my case. I took only three boxes, and was cured. I have not had the slightest symptoms of indigestion since."

The tonic treatment has a sound principle as its basis, and abundant success in actual use. Multitudes of cases that had defied all other remedies have been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The pills actually make new blood and strike at the root of all diseases caused by bad blood. They contain no harmful stimulants or opiates. Every dyspeptic should read, "What to Eat and How to Eat." ALCOHOL IN MEDICINES.

Indispensable Requisite in Compounding of Some Prescriptions.

It is of course true that some proprietary medicines contain alcohol and nearly all liquid medicines prescribed by physicians contain it. No honest man will defend the sale of intoxicants under the guise of medicine; but every honest man should protest against a system of wholesale denunciation born of malice, or ignorance of pharmaceutical principles, and fostered by selfish interests. It is assumed that alcohol is the cause of intemperance; but there is a great difference between alcohol and whisky. If a substitute for alcohol could be found for use in the manufacture of medicines, its discoverer would render a great service to the profession of pharmacy and the science of medicine, for alcohol is a very expensive ingredient and a cheaper substitute would be gladly accepted. Unfortunately the word alcohol, in the minds of many people is associated exclusively with bar-rooms, drunkenness and all forms of degradation and vice. This is due to a lack of knowledge by the general public of the fact that alcohol is an indispensable requisite in drugs, tinctures and fluid extracts. All fluid extracts and tinctures on the druggists' shelves contain from 20 to 90 per cent of alcohol; and of all liquid medicines prescribed by physicians more than 75 per cent contain it in large proportions.

Alcohol is required to preserve organic substances from deterioration and from freezing, and it is also required to dissolve substances not soluble in water, while it contributes to their preservation when dissolved. Diluted alcohol is largely employed in fluid extracts; and whenever a greater strength of alcohol is required as a solvent (for extracting medicinal principles) the medicine is of such a character as to preclude a large dosage; and for this reason preparations, even if containing 50 per cent or more of alcohol, are practically less intoxicating than beer. In such cases the character of the medicinal constituents is such as to absolutely forbid the taking of the medicine in any way except in very small doses and at stated intervals only. To assume that any great number of proprietary medicines are used as beverages is the veriest absurdity.—Exchange.

Insist on Getting It.

Some grocers say they don't keep Defiance Starch. This is because they have a stock on hand of other brands containing only 12 oz in a package, which they won't be able to sell first, because Defiance contains 16 oz. for the same money.

THE CHANGE OF LIFE

INTELLIGENT WOMEN PREPARE

Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs A.E.G. Hyland

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women as this time draws near is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period, and may be relied upon to overcome all distressing symptoms and carry them safely through to a healthy and happy old age.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other medicine can.

Mrs A. E. G. Hyland, of Chestertown, Md., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had been suffering with falling of the womb for years and was passing through the change of life. My womb was badly swollen. I had a good deal of soreness, dizzy spells, headaches, and was very nervous. I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me, and I have passed safely through the change of life a well woman."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. It is free and always helpful.

The contest which was run on Ed. J. Neer's farm has been settled by Mr. Neer paying $100.00 blood money. The contest was one that ought not to have been brought and, in all probability, would never have been brought by any others than those who instituted it. The entire proceeding shows a lack of good faith by those who began the contest, and the terms of the settlement are such as to remove any doubt which could possibly exist as to the object of the contestants. The fact that Mr. Neer had shown good faith all through was so well known that this case has caused much comment and general indignation and, while it has cost him $100, it has not raised the promoters in the estimation of the general public.

One hundred dollars retainer fee is rather high for simply filing a contest.

Seed Wheat From Kansas.

AMARILLO, TEX., Sept. 8, 1905.—In order to give the farmers in the territributary to our lines the best possible advantage in securing their seed wheat for this season's planting, I have arranged for the publication of one-half the carload rate on all less that carload shipments of seed wheat from any points on the A. T. & S. F. Ry. to all points on System lines under the jurisdiction of this office, and it has also been agreed that the rates will apply in Oklahoma, Woodward and west. It should be specially understood that this concession will be made only on less than carload shipments. Any one desiring to secure seed wheat under this arrangement can get supply from following parties:

The Rock Mill & Elevator Co., Hutchinson, Kan; Farmers Cooperative Association, Sterling, Kansas; A. A. Itken, St. John, Kansas; Nessly & Rucker, Mulvane, Kansas; Knox & Down, Belle Plaine, Kansas.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.

First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlains Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequaled. For sale by Pearce & Dobbs.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Pearce & Dobbs.
