

Bond Sales Still $60,000 Short Of Overall Quota

Although the time set for the close of the Victory Loan Drive is almost over, Collingsworth County has fallen far short of filling its $165,000 quota, Chairman John Forbis declared Wednesday morning after a check with bond selling agencies of the county.

Of the overall quota, $105,262.25 in bonds have been sold. Only $19,855.75 of this is E bonds, representing the type that individuals generally buy.

However, Mr. Forbis has been notified that all E bonds sold during the month of December will be credited on the $80,000 E Bond quota.

"Christmas time is coming on, and Christmas goods are still in art. What could make a better gift than a Bond?" Mr. Forbis reminded buyers. "Such a purchase would be a gift not only to the person who actually receives the bond, it will be a gift and a boost to those men in service, who will actually receive the benefits which bond purchases provide, and those veterans who are receiving service benefits.

"The state as a whole is $11,500,000 short of its normal E bond sales. And Collingsworth County stands far down on the list of counties in the state," he stated.

Actually, the county has sold only about one-fourth of its $80,000 E bond quota and it is $60,000 short on the overall quota.

"This is the worst showing we've ever made, but we can still make our quota if every one of us will go to the banks or post office and buy our bonds. We can do it if we will. If the quota is not raised by voluntary purchases, then the committees will have to get out and beat the bushes to raise it," Mr. Forbis said.

Capt. E. K. Jones Has Fellowship

Capt. Elmer Knox Jones, now on terminal leave from the Army, has received a fellowship from the Alton Ochsner Foundation in New Orleans for the study of internal medicine.

The fellowship is for one year's duration. It is the only one for that period of time offered by the foundation.

Capt. Jones will begin his work January 1. Upon completing his study, he will take the American Board of Internal Medicine examination for approval by that body.

A graduate of the University of Texas School of Medicine, he interned at St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas before enlisting in the Army Medical Corps. He served with the Baylor Hospital Unit, activated April 10, 1942, which went overseas as the 56th Evacuation Hospital and served throughout the Italian campaign. Since returning to the United States in June he has been stationed at Fort Sam Houston.

Capt. and Mrs. Jones and their little daughter, Janet, arrived here November 24. Until they leave for New Orleans, he will be associated with his father, Dr. E. W. Jones.

B-29 Gunner Ends Service In Pacific

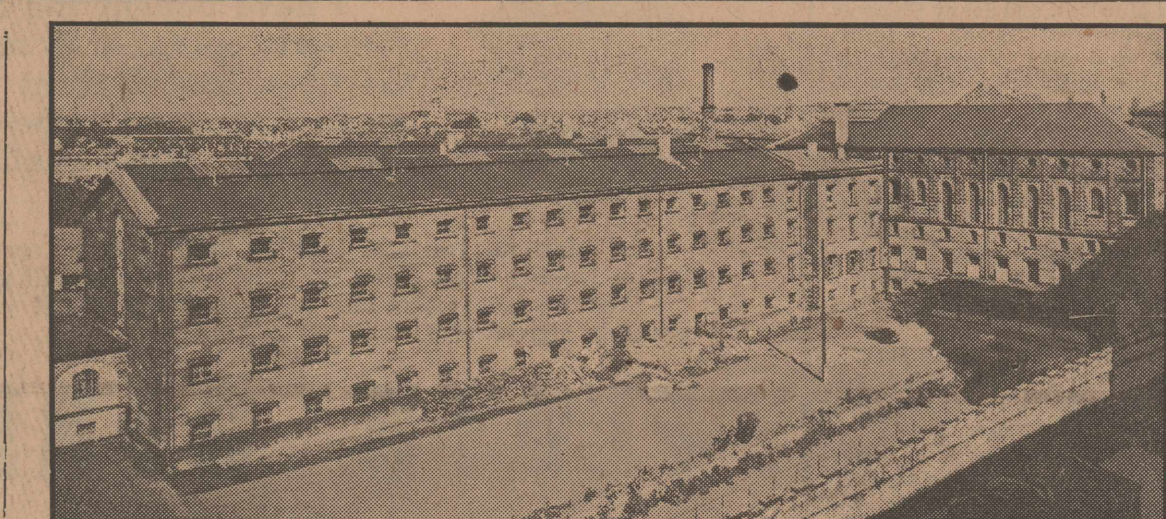

Cpl. Tim Baird of Dodson, who was discharged from the Army Air Force December 1, flew as a gunner on a B-29 during the last days of war against Japan, then took part in the Peace Day formation that accompanied the battleship Missouri for the signing of the surrender.

"We went prepared for trouble, and there were plenty of us over there," he recalls. The trouble didn't develop, but the men had a first class air view of what went on.

Baird reached the United States November 24 after 18 months with the 20th Air Force in the Pacific. Altogether, he had been in service three years and two months.

At the time he went overseas, Cpl. Baird was a member of a ground crew, but late in the war he was assigned as a combat flyer and made eight missions before the Japanese surrender, on flights over the Japanese homeland. His base on Tinian was the largest B-29 bomber base in the world.

While he was right over in the part of the world where the atomic bomb made history, Cpl. Baird said that he heard more about it

C. D. Burger, Retired Farmer, Dies Nov. 29

C. D. Burger, 77-year-old retired farmer, died at 2:10 a. m. Thursday morning, November 29. He had suffered a stroke early Thanksgiving morning and was critically ill until his death. He had been a resident of this county for 31 years.

A life-long Texan, Mr. Burger was born at Jacksonville on March 20, 1868, and at the time of his death he was 77 years, 8 months and 9 days of age.

Upon coming to this county, Mr. Burger settled in the Lurie community and made that his home there for a number of years. Upon retiring from the management of his own farm, Mr. Burger moved to Wellington, more than 15 years ago, and had continued to make this his home.

He was active in community affairs and took part in many enterprises for the improvement of his section. His many friends throughout this section found in him a true friend and neighbor, one who worked for their interest as well as his own. In the years since he had retired, he continued to draw to him those friends he had known during his earlier years here, and to continually enlarge his circle of acquaintances.

Funeral services for Mr. Burger were conducted from the Methodist Church Friday morning with Rev. C. C. Armstrong in charge. Pall bearers were John Forbis, Ernest Tate, Ike Rogers, Earl Alexander, Lee Roark and Jack Lowry. Flower bearers were Patsy Roark, Joann Rountree, Faye Jolly, Sterlene Pittman, Betty Jo Fain and Rhea Rhea Fain.

Interment was in the Wellington cemetery with the Ellis Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Burger is survived by his widow, Mrs. Verda Burger of Wellington; a brother, Jim E. Burger of San Saba; a sister-in-law, Mrs. A. C. Burger of O'Donnell; and these nieces and nephews, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Gillim of O'Donnell, Creed Burger of Waurika, Okla.; Mrs. Dona Tolleson and Mrs. Lyle Griffin of Oklahoma City; Miss Avil Brown of Temple; Mrs. Etta Archer of Eden; Will Brown of San Saba; and Miss Flora Brown of San Angelo.

Santa Claus Most Popular Man In Town

By all count, the most popular man in town right now is Santa Claus. Dozens of boys and girls from over the county have written their letters to him, to be published in The Wellington Leader just before Christmas.

All youngsters who have not already written are urged to do so as early as possible. Every letter will be printed and the original sent on to Santa Claus at the North Pole, The Leader assures.

Printing of the letters to Santa is a yearly tradition of The Leader, and many parents of children who now write letters wrote similar letters to be printed when they were young.

Veterans Of Pacific Service Get Discharges

Russell Hopson
Russell Hopson, Phm 1-c, who served at the Aiea Navy Hospital in Pearl Harbor for nearly two years, received his discharge at San Pedro two weeks ago, and late in November he reached Wellington to take up the job he left to enter service, with the Nowlin Wholesale Co.

Hopson entered service in May 1942 as a hospital apprentice and was stationed at San Diego until he received his overseas orders.

For the last six months he was at Pearl Harbor he served as fire marshal in charge of one of three companies at the hospital.

Outside his hours on duty, Hopson spent considerable time getting together an outstanding collection of pictures of the island.

In addition to the complaints which most Navy men have of the island—crowded conditions, loneliness, etc.—Hopson has voiced one other dislike. During his stay he observed that only a few families control the island industries and wealth, and that others cannot rise to compete with them. This, he has declared to friends here, he is not used to and does not like.

Mr. Hopson was employed by Mr. and Mrs. Nowlin for 11 years before he entered service. This week he is in Dallas buying supplies for the wholesale company.

Frank Cook
Frank Cook, AMM 2-c, who completed two tours of duty in the Pacific, was discharged from the Naval Air Force November 19, after 37 months and 21 days service.

Cook was assigned to the Naval Air Transport Service as a ground crew man. First he worked on engines, but later he was placed as an instrument specialist.

His first tour was at Honolulu, where he was assigned to a PBM Squadron. Later he was sent to the Admiralty Islands, where he worked on Navy RY's, the Army

Jackie Strong Is Home From Army Hospital

Pfc. Jackie Strong returned to Wellington on a sixty day furlough from Dibble General Hospital at Menlo Park, California. He was flown from California. He was and came from there by bus and train.

Pfc. Strong was wounded on Cebu on April 28 when the fighting in the Pacific was reaching its peak. He was transferred to Leyte; but the circumstances were such that he was not given detailed medical attention until two weeks later. He was returned to the United States on May 20 at which time plastic surgeons began a series of operations which have resulted in a remarkable improvement considering the gravity of his original condition and wounds.

When his furlough is up, Strong will return to the hospital for further medical treatment. Although he faces a long period under medical care, he is cheerful about the prospects of successful treatment.

S. W. Norwood Suffers Stroke

S. W. Norwood of Samnorwood is well on the road to recovery after suffering a light stroke on Tuesday night, November 27, members of his family report. He is in St. Mary's Hospital at Shamrock for treatment.

Mr. Norwood is 85 years of age. He was one of the county's earliest settlers and in the more than 50 years he has been here he has lived near the town which now bears his name.

A granddaughter, Mrs. E. K. Jones, lives in Wellington.

Aberdeen Church To Sponsor Pie Supper Dec. 7

The Aberdeen Methodist Church is sponsoring a pie supper Friday night, December 7, for the benefit of the church.

"Everyone, both old and young, is urged to bring pies and take part, and to have a grand time with us," said Mrs. Elmer Willard, who is helping with the arrangements.

Crash And Romance A Part Of Italian Tour Of Duty

With the pilot dead at the controls, the rest of the crew dying, one engine of the two-engine light bomber shot out and the gas tank punctured, Staff Sergeant Paul Thompson survived the crash of the spinning plane just over the Allied lines. He is now back hard at work at a peace-time job—here in Wellington.

Only recently discharged, Thompson came here to be associated with his brother, Albert Thompson, in the Thompson Food Market.

His close call came on his third mission, and it was pretty bad, but this Air Force gunner stayed in the hospital only eight days before he was flying again. He had completed 58 missions when the war ended.

Another dangerous incident occurred the night the Eighth Army jumped off on the final push which ended the war in Northern Italy.

Final Rites For J. H. Birchfield Held Nov. 28

Final tribute was paid J. H. Birchfield, beloved pioneer rancher, in services held at the Kelley church Wednesday afternoon, November 28. Friends filled the building as Rev. Don Culberson of Childress, former Methodist pastor at Dodson, conducted the service.

Mr. Birchfield's death came Monday, November 26, at the age of 77 years, 8 months and 9 days.

Pall bearers for the service were Charlie Eddins, Will Eddins, Windell Eddins, Miller Duke, DeWitt Vardy and Lee Vardy. Flower bearers were Lena Jackson, Ava Thomason, Christine Scott, Mrs. Lee White, Lera Mae Hightower, Mrs. Evelyn Carter, Mrs. Dewey Malone, Mrs. E. J. Smith and Mrs. Hugh Painter.

Hymns were "Rock of Ages," "The Sweet Bye and Bye," and "The Eastern Gate," sung by Mr. and Mrs. Orville Vaughan and Mr. and Mrs. Mat Lewis. Burial was in the Wellington cemetery with the Ellis Funeral Home in charge.

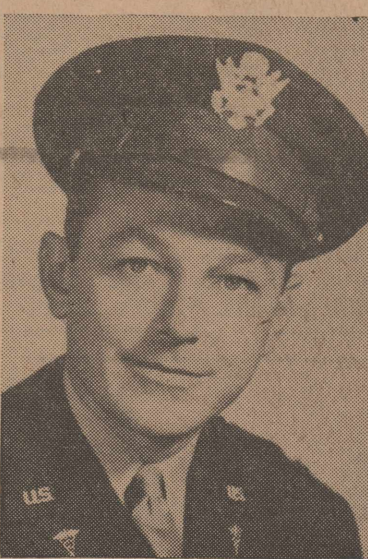

Mr. Birchfield's life had spanned much of the history of cattle raising in West Texas, from the big drives up the trail to Wyoming to the thoroughbred Herefords that are so important a part of the section's wealth. Upon coming to this area, he was first a cowboy for the Mill Iron Ranch. Then he became manager of the Cottonwood unit. Still later he engaged in stock raising for himself in the Kelley community.

For several years he had been in ill health, but as long as he was able he continued to look after his land and stock and to take an active interest in community affairs.

Joseph Herbert Birchfield was born March 17, 1868, in Kaufman County. Having lost his parents in early childhood, he was reared by Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Nash. While still a young man he went to Throckmorton and served as deputy sheriff of that county for four years. He then moved to Seymour, where he was employed by the Continental Land and Cattle Company, owned by the late Col. William E. Hughes and others. It was during this time that he twice drove cattle up the trail to Wyoming. The last drive, in 1892, ended disastrously, he often recalled. One night, after fording their cattle across a large river, the drivers camped. A blizzard struck and the cattle began drifting back south and were lost. Next morning, Mr. Birchfield was the only cowboy whose horse did not freeze to death during the night, and that was because he covered it with his tarpaulin.

In 1898 Mr. Birchfield came to Estelline, and there he was married to Miss Laura Josephine Eddins on April 4, 1901. He was employed by the Mill Iron Ranch there until March 1904, when he and his family moved to East Texas. Two years later they came to Collingsworth County, when Mr.

AWARDED FELLOWSHIP

Capt. Elmer K. Jones, now on terminal leave from the Army, has received a fellowship from the Alton Ochsner Foundation, New Orleans, for the study of internal medicine. He will begin his work January 1.

Funeral For Mrs. J. R. Brewer Is Held Sunday

Mrs. J. R. Brewer, beloved Wellington farm woman, died shortly after noon Friday, November 30, after a critical illness of several days. She had been in ill health for several years, and in recent months her condition had grown steadily worse.

Mrs. Brewer had lived in Collingsworth for almost 39 years.

Born September 14, 1882, in Tennessee, Mrs. Brewer was 63 years, two months and 16 days of age at the time of her death. She was before her marriage Miss Lillie Pearl Dickey, the daughter of the late James Louis and Sarah Ann Dickey, who for many years lived in this county.

Her early childhood was spent in her native state, but while still young she moved to Arkansas with her parents. There she grew to young womanhood. Approximately 40 years ago she and Mr. Brewer were married. They continued to make their home in that state for several years, then moved to Collingsworth County.

Mrs. Brewer was converted at the age of 14 and from that time on she had lived as a devoted Christian and church worker. Her membership was in the Church of the Nazarene in Wellington.

In addition to her church work, Mrs. Brewer had given much time to work among farm women's organizations.

A devoted neighbor and friend, hundreds throughout the county valued her for her generosity, her hospitality, and her sincerity in dealing with those about her. It was her graciousness in the little ways of life that drew people to

With the county's cotton crop estimated at between 85 and 90 per cent picked, 15,500 bales have been ginned to date, a survey of the gins of the county Tuesday evening revealed.

With good weather continuing through the month, it is believed that this will be the earliest that any cotton crop has been gathered in the county in recent years. It has likewise been gathered more steadily and with fewer days lost from bad weather.

Around eighty-five per cent of the cotton is gathered around Wellington, ginneries believe. The grade of this year's crop has held up steadily through the season, and is considered good for this time of year. Most of the cotton being sold here at present is strict low middling. The staple on most samples pulls 7-8 or 29-32. One ginner reported, however, that the staple had fallen off a little recently due to the dry weather.

The market in Wellington Tuesday was from 19c to 19 1-2c. Practically all of the cotton was reported out around Fresno.

Between 85 and 90 per cent was believed out in the vicinity of Dodson. Both grade and staple of cotton in the southeastern part of the county has fallen off during the last week and around half the cotton now being sold is 13-16 and grades low middling.

An estimated three-fourths of the cotton is out around Rolla and through the southwestern part of the county.

The biggest part of the crop was reported gathered at Quail. While the grade and staple of the cotton has held up fairly well through the western part of the county to date, some of the bolls being brought in now are not mature and the cotton is spotty, reports state.

Cotton in the central section of the county, north of Salt Fork, is practically all gathered, while in the northern part of the county a few hundred bales remains to be picked, it is estimated.

1945 Poultry Show Cancelled

The annual county poultry show will not be held this winter, poultry growers decided at a meeting Saturday afternoon, December 1.

This decision was made because coops for a show are practically impossible to obtain and also because there are no vocational agriculture poultry projects in the county this year.

The next show has been set tentatively for December 1946.

In the meantime, those interested in the show will conduct a drive to raise money to buy coops, which will be obtainable by that time. In the past, coops have been borrowed for the show.

V. H. Lindsey was re-elected superintendent of the show and Miss Charline Hyer will serve as secretary-treasurer.

Lindsey Wins In Kansas Show

With six birds entered in the Kansas State Poultry Show at Topeka, Kansas, V. H. Lindsey was notified this week that he had placed on all entries. All birds were White Crested Black Polish bantams.

Mr. Lindsey received first and second prizes on hens, first and second on cockerels and third and fourth on pullets.

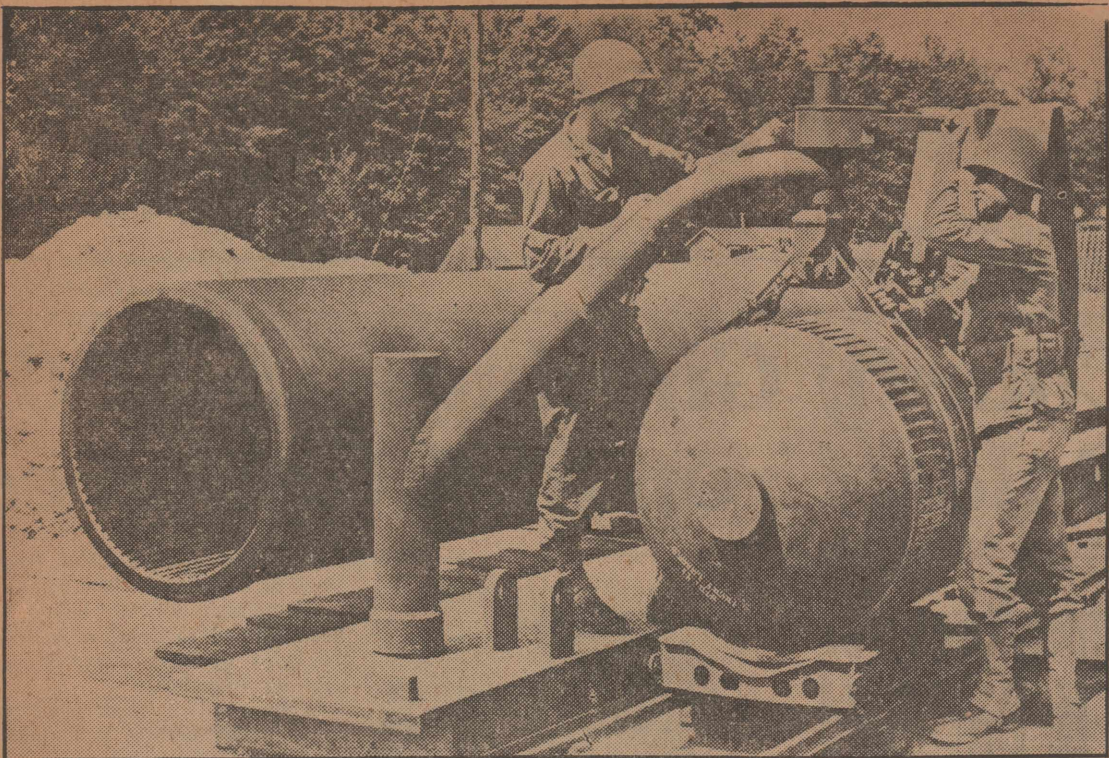

These birds are now being exhibited at the Oklahoma State Poultry Show, which opened in Oklahoma City Tuesday, December 4. It will continue through Sunday.

They will also be entered in the Madison Square Poultry Show, largest in the nation, which is scheduled from December 26 through January 1.

Mrs. W. G. Hite Is Improving After Critical Illness

Mrs. W. G. Hite, who has been confined to St. Joseph's Hospital since November 16, is reported as improving. She underwent major surgery on November 21, and for several days following this her condition was regarded as critical.

Four children came to be at her bedside, Miss Ethel Garrett and Miss Sue Garrett of Sacramento, Calif.; Miss Cora Mae Garrett of Artesia, N. M., and J. H. Garrett of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Newell Shields Given Pink And Blue Shower Recently

Mrs. Newell Shields was entertained recently in the home of Mrs. Clyde Brown when friends complimented her with a pink and blue shower.

The gifts were displayed for the group attending and the hostess served refreshments.

Those present were Meses. Sam Brown, Jet E. Roberts, Barney Floyd, L. G. Yarbrough, C. E. Pitts, Hill Wells, Alex Shields, C. E. Allen, John Messer, Jack Miller, Clarence Cason, Bob Thomas, Rube Mitchell, Charles Cason, George Creede, honoree and hostess.

Gifts were sent by Meses. Johnnie Whitehead, Walter Gentry, J. E. Hughes, Ray Cunningham, Joe Jett, George Thomas, W. P. Gilbreath, Frank Boyles, Charlie DePaw, Judah Bell, and Mary Bell.

Birthday Dinner Honors Judge R. H. Cocke In Richards Home

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Richards were hosts Monday evening at a dinner party honoring Judge R. H. Cocke on his birthday and also members of the Cocke family for a family reunion.

The supper was served buffet style to 23 guests. A decorated birthday cake was presented to Judge Cocke by his daughter, Mrs. Pat Swift.

Out of town guests attending the family get-together were E. W. Cocke and son, Sam Dick Cocke, of Littleton, Colo.; Billy Joe Cocke on an 18 day furlough from Camp Swift; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Swafford and Henry Cocke.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Cocke, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Drake and children; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Swift and children; Mrs. W. O. Richards, Miss Effie Lee Richards, Miss Bessie Rainer, and hosts. After dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Abbott.

Rev. H. H. Kinkeade Speaks To B. And P. W. Club

In speaking to the Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening, Rev. H. H. Kinkeade talked on the Thanksgiving spirit. He pointed out that even though the date had passed that Thanksgiving could be observed on any day. Using the text, "Father, I Thank Thee," he linked his remarks with a religious theme. He stated that people should feel Thanksgiving not from the head but from the heart. Miss Bessie Rainer was program chairman.

Plans for a Christmas party on December 18 were made. Gifts will be exchanged among the members and the club will be entertained by Miss Sara Jones' kindergarten pupils. A committee will work out plans for a good will contribution to a needy cause.

The meeting Thursday night was held in the regular meeting place at the Wellington Hotel.

Miss Evelyn Joy Aaron Bride Of Thurman Emmert In Ceremony Thursday, Nov. 22

Thurman Emmerts Given Shower At Nazarene Church

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Emmert, who were married on Thursday, November 22, were complimented with a miscellaneous bridal shower in the parlor of the Nazarene Church by the church members on Friday, November 30.

The entertaining room was decorated with fall garden flowers and one end of the room was curtained off for the display of the gifts. After playing a game in which Mr. and Mrs. Emmert were winners, the curtain was drawn and the gifts were presented as a prize.

Mrs. Austin Moore, Mrs. B. B. Callahan and Mrs. Dorothy Byers were in charge of the arrangements for the refreshments and games. Hot chocolate, pie, cookies and fruit were served to about 40 guests.

Attending were Messrs. and Meses. John Martin, Earl Gibbs and Drusille; Otis Emmert, L. E. Goswick, Lawrence Warrick and Joyce; Kenneth Cass and Gay; Austin Moore, Jackie and Gene; Meses. Ella Love, W. Golightly, Rodell Byers, J. C. Emmert, B. B. Callahan, Jack and Glenn; J. M. Bishop, Herman Pales and girls; Scarberry; G. L. Jones, J. S. Aaron, C. M. Aaron, Levi Duncan and Joyce; Jimmie Kelso; Meses Ruby Scarberry, Dona Bishop, Eva Bishop, Maxine Bishop and Letha Mae Gibbs.

Gifts were sent by Messrs. and Meses. Jesse Wilson, Thad Bounds, Emil Kersten, S. R. Davis, Jim Lotter, T. C. Cass and boys; J. D. Aaron, Merritt James, Pat Kimbro, Hugh Longino, Robert Posey, O. B. Raburn, George Clark, W. E. Leach, L. M. Bartlett and Gwendolyn; J. T. Slater, Milburn Gibbs, E. W. Carter, E. F. Bartlett; Meses. Blanche Dakil, Mack Saied, Dorothy Scott, Annie Barker, Merle Breedlove; Meses. Waytasha Bounds, Barbara and Marjorie Wilson.

Brack Garrison served as best man for Mr. Pendergraft. Ushers were Gene Groom and Cecil Franks.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Everett Fain of Wellington. She wore a pale blue suit and a bonnet fashioned of white feathers. Her accessories were brown. She carried a white Bible, on which lay a shower bouquet of orchids.

The bride's mother was gown in a black afternoon dress with sequin trim.

Mrs. Pendergraft, mother of the bridegroom, wore an all-black ensemble. Both Mesdames Fain and Pendergraft wore corsages of gardenias.

A reception followed the wedding in the church parlor.

Centering the bride's table was a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by white tapers in silver holders. At each end of the table were bouquets of white chrysanthemums in silver cypresses. Mrs. Bruce Nance, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. R. D. Oldham, sister of the bride, presided at the serving, while Mrs. Guy Davis secured signatures for the bride's book.

Mrs. Pendergraft is a graduate of Wellington High School. She worked in Washington, D. C., for a year, and at the time of her marriage was employed by the Pittsburg Plate Glass Co.

Mr. Pendergraft graduated from Amarillo High School and was recently discharged from the Army after five years of service. He is associated with the Pittsburg Plate Glass Co.

The couple is at home in Amarillo.

Delia Pearl Bell was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital December 1 for medical treatment.

Miss Evelyn Joy Aaron, daughter of Mrs. J. C. Emmert, and Thurman Emmert, son of J. C. Emmert, were married in the parsonage of the Nazarene Church in Wellington Thursday, November 22, at 2:30 o'clock p. m. Rev. Austin Moore read the marriage vows in the presence of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. C. Emmert, and Mrs. B. B. Callahan and the members of the Moore family.

The bride was dressed in a light blue wool suit and used black accessories. Her hat was black felt with white sequin trim. Pink carnations and baby's breath formed her shoulder corsage.

The groom, who received his discharge in August from the U. S. Army, served almost five years. He spent three of these years overseas and was in 13 European countries during that time. Before going into the service he was engaged in farming near Cross Roads and plans to continue farming.

The bride was attending Quail High School at the time of her marriage. She was a member of the basket ball team and active in many school organizations.

Both the bride and groom are lifelong residents of this county and have many friends in this section. They are also active in church work. Mr. and Mrs. Emmert will live in the Cross Roads community.

Shower In Lindsey Home For Mrs. Ralph Gray

Friends surprised Mrs. Ralph Gray recently when a stork shower was given in her honor at the home of Mrs. S. L. Lindsey. Hostesses were Mrs. Joe Coleman, Mrs. Barney Glenn, Mrs. Claude McKinney and Mrs. Lindsey.

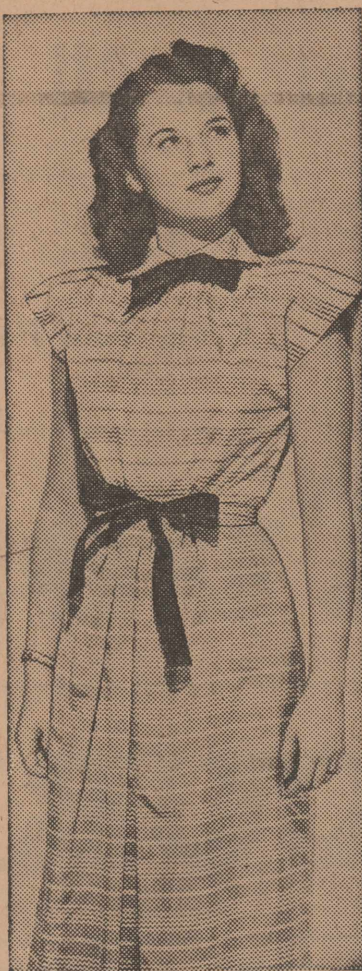

The gifts were displayed in the bedroom arranged on the bed with a miniature stork standing in the center of the gifts.

Refreshments were served from a tea table which was covered with a lace cloth. Pink, blue and white candles lighted the dining room and flanked the centerpiece, a floating arrangement of pink and white carnations and coddle ducks. The flower arrangement was enhanced by a reflector.

The guest list included Meses. Walter Smith, Burlin Wilson, Susie Patrick, Claude Nelson, Lucille Baird, Sam Berryman, W. W. Johnson, Jack Hurst, Robert Roark, Alvin Horton, Fred Capps, Earl Tompkins, Millard Brown, Paul Brewer, Vaughn Shofner, E. J. Norman, Wayne Parker, B. G. Glenn, I. O. Ruby, Rufus Hays, J. B. Thanksgiving Dinner For O.E.S. Chapter And Families

By ALDA WYNN
The O.E.S. Wellington Chapter's Pot-Luck Thanksgiving Supper was held as scheduled in the Community Building on Tuesday night, November 27, in honor of the Masons and their families of Wellington Lodge. There were probably 150 persons present.

The table was appropriately decorated with patriotic and traditional Thanksgiving motifs. The centerpiece consisted of a huge pumpkin filled with white chrysanthemums, interspersed with gilded and silvered leaf sprays. The pumpkin was set upon a bed of natural red autumn leaves. Brooding over the artist's dream was the flag of our country supported to stand upright.

On either side of the centerpiece, midway between it and the end of the table was a smaller pumpkin but still large, filled with ears of corn and apples pierced with smaller flags. Miniature paper mache turkeys amid plates of corn and flags were arranged at intervals. The red, white and blue runners which bordered the table added just the right finish.

The decoration plan was conceived in the mind of Mrs. Ethel Strong, chairman of the Decoration Committee, and kind hands helped her to fulfill her plan.

The assembly was called to order by Mrs. Alda Wynn, worthy matron of Wellington Chapter, O. E. S.

After the invocation by Rev. A. O. Sweatt, the invitation to dine was in order. Everyone helped himself to the turkey and other things provided, and each decided that a pot-luck supper was luck indeed.

After the feast, Mrs. Inez Cummings, program chairman of the local chapter, presided. She sponsored the following program:

Solos: Indian Love Call; By the Waters of Minnetonka—Miss Helen Holder.

Address: Brother J. W. Matthews.

Assembly singing: The More We Get Together.

Miss Holder was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. B. O. Wilson.

Brother J. W. Matthews who talked upon Thanksgiving, pleased the audience by saying that he was thankful that he lived in the west and that he was finding the descendants of the pioneers, whom he knew and loved, good company.

After singing the final selection, the good company parted. Lingeringly and reluctantly, bright smiles and soft laughter faded away in the stillness of a peaceful night.

Hayride And Weiner Roast For Senior Play Cast

A recent entertainment which delighted the seniors who took part in the senior play was the hayride and weiner roast held on Friday night, November 22, following the senior play. The weiner roast was held at the J. B. Baumgardner farm, a popular place with all the younger set.

Attending were Teresa Hunsaker, Gay Reeves, Virginia Sachse, Lynn Moore, Sterlene Pittman, Geraldine Langford, Naomi Blasingame, Linnie Lou Coleman, I. D. Russell, George Cristy, Edd Harrison, O. B. Raburn, Ted O'Neil, Herbert Shanks, Jackie McPherson, David Baumgardner, Marion Baumgardner, Junior Orr, Barbara Baumgardner, Mrs. Raymond Railroad, Miss Delia Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Todd, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baumgardner and Priscilla.

Mrs. John D. Glenn President Of 1924 Study Club

Mrs. J. B. Castleberry was hostess Thursday of last week to the members of the 1924 Study Club at which time Mrs. John D. Glenn accepted the office of president. She appointed Miss Katherine Boverie, Mrs. Clark Anderson and Mrs. D. G. Ellis to serve on the program committee. Plans were made to complete the program for the new year and begin regular meetings in January.

Due to wartime restrictions the 1924 Study Club has met only once a month for several years but with the new year the club will resume regular programs and meeting dates. The regular days will be on Thursdays every two weeks.

Guests present for the meeting were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Pharr, Mrs. Joe McWilliams and Miss Charlotte Cone of Tucson, who is a house guest in the home of Mrs. Kelly Pigg.

Members present were Mmes. Frank Anderson, Clark Anderson, D. G. Ellis, John D. Glenn, Chester Fires, Frank Eikenburg, Morris Wells, Miss Boverie and hostess, Mrs. Castleberry.

Ida Louise Knoll President Of Samnorwood 4-H Club

The Samnorwood 4-H Club girls met on November 28, to elect new officers to serve in 1946. Ida Louise Knoll was named president and will be assisted by the following: Ravena Cunningham, vice president; Patsy Roark, secretary-treasurer; Maxine Eagle, reporter; Mary Whitson and Joan Tanner, song leaders; Mrs. Ike Rogers and Mrs. Nathan Thompson, sponsors.

Attending the meeting were Ida Louise Knoll, Ravena Cunningham, Mary Whitson, Wanda Morgan, Ruby Plukett, Mazie Benton, Maxine Eagle, Bonnie Ruth Kidwell, Paula Jean Bodine, Betty Sue Bradley, Peggy Garner, Mary Frances Whitson, Christine Whitson, Patsy Roark, Joan Tanner, Mrs. Ike Rogers, Mrs. Nathan Thompson and Miss Charline Hyer. Club Women To Hold Food Sale Saturday

Saturday, December 8, the Home Demonstration Women will hold a food sale at the West Texas Utilities. Pies, cakes, butter, cream and eggs will be featured during the day beginning at 10 o'clock through 5 o'clock p. m.

All club members are asked to bring their food anytime between the hours of 8 to 10 o'clock, Miss Charline Hyer, demonstration agent, said.

With the scarcity of sugar, butter, cream and eggs a quick sell-out is anticipated by the council members who are sponsoring the event.

Personal

Johnny Hall, six-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hall, was a medical patient in St. Joseph's Hospital recently.

Jean Wright On Hardin-Simmons Drive Committee

ABILENE — Jean Wright of Wellington is a member of one of the campus teams for the student drive of the Greater Hardin-Simmons University million dollar building program launched Wednesday morning on the campus of the Abilene school. A "kick-off" chapel program Tuesday morning was followed by a breakfast for team members Wednesday morning when the teams were given their assignments by John Earl Seelig, Fredericksburg, student chairman. Goal of the three day drive, closing Friday, is $21,000.

The student drive is only one phase of the comprehensive program planned to meet the greatly increased demands upon the university's facilities since the end of the war. The immediate needs now being presented to friends and ex-students everywhere are for a girls dormitory, student center building, homes for ministerial students and their families, and reconditioning of several existing buildings.

Mrs. Bill Hill was a recent patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, where she was treated for a throat ailment.

Pfc. D. E. Herring left Saturday for Fort Riley, Kansas, after two-weeks furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Herring.

In service for nine months, Pfc. Herring is assigned to the First Armored Division. He has been stationed at Fort Knox, Ky., as a tank driver. His medals include those for expert marksmanship with tank weapons, rifle and sub-machine gun.

Mrs. Herring has been with her husband at Fort Knox, but she will remain here for the present.

Samuel A. Combs, ART 2-c, husband of Mrs. Edna E. Combs, is on his way home.

Combs is one of over 4,200 high-point Navy veterans whom the "Magic Carpet" is bringing back to the States aboard the USS Yorktown.

The USS Yorktown — one of more than 250 carriers, battle-ships, cruisers, and attack transports in the Navy's famed "Magic Carpet" fleet—left Guam November 17, and was scheduled to arrive in San Francisco about December 1.

Passengers will go directly to the Separation Centers nearest their homes to complete the formalities of obtaining their discharges before returning to civilian life.

Combs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Combs of Wellington.

FT. DOUGLAS, Utah — Discharged November 29 from the Army at the Fort Douglas Separation Center, under the adjusted service rating plan was Sgt. Curtis M. Owens, husband of Mrs. Altha Owens, 821 Holden St., Fort Worth. Sgt. Owens served for 40 months in the U. S.

Prior to entering the Army on August 26, 1942, Owens was employed as a grocery clerk at Fort Worth.

His wife, the former Altha C. Gatewood, is the daughter of Mrs. Arrie Gatewood, of 1108 West 16th

NEXT YEAR'S HARVEST SHOULD BE A CINCH!

Patched-up implements farmers struggled with to produce those record crops during war years can be replaced for next year's harvest. Here are two examples of the many implements in production: Top—A pull-type combine, designed primarily for average acreages, photographed in a Montana wheat field. It harvests all threshable crops from swath and windrow. A bagging attachment enables threshing and bagging of grain or seed in one operation on the field. Lower—A small, automatic, tractor-drawn hay baler, something new in postwar equipment. Powered by the tractor, it picks up hay directly from the windrow, makes and ties the bales, delivers them to the rack. Both machines were shown recently at International Harvester's field demonstration at Hinsdale, Ill.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Owens of Quail and he formerly lived in that community.

WITH THE 1st CAVALRY DIVISION IN TOKYO—Private Albert V. Van, Wellington, is now serving with the famous 1st Cavalry Division as a clerk in the G-3 Section of Headquarters Detachment.

Overseas 6 months, Van wears the Asiatic-Pacific Theater Ribbon with one star for Luzon. He also wears the Philippine Liberation Ribbon with one star.

As a civilian, Van attended the Wellington High School, and later was a farmer. He entered the Army October 1, 1944, and took basic training at Little Rock, Arkansas. After discharge he plans to return to the farm.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Van, reside at 308 South Wall Street, Shamrock. His wife, Juanita Van, and daughter, Diane, live in Wellington.

Pioneering

into the FUTURE

Katy's 75 years are packed with pioneering... a stirring saga of iron men blazing an iron trail to a new frontier. This year the Katy celebrates the Diamond Anniversary of that day 75 years ago when two flimsy rails first pushed their way from the north into Indian Territory and the great Southwest.

But for both the Katy and the Southwest there is more pioneering ahead than behind. A greater destiny is still to come... greater cities lifting monuments of steel and stone to the skies... greater industries pouring forth the goods of peace... a greater people, loyal to Southwestern tradition, carrying the glory of "God's Country" to greater heights.

All these served by a great railroad... the Katy of the Future! Today the Southwest's "Home Town Railroad" is geared to project its 75 years of pioneering into a train of even more prosperous Tomorrows... a completely modernized transportation system with all equipment in apple-pie order... ultra-modern streamlined passenger trains and diesel freight locomotives soon to come... hundreds of new automobile, hopper and freight cars now building, and a young, vigorous, experienced personnel, from top executives to call boys, with the pioneering urge strong in their veins, eager to make the future of both road and region greater than the past.

Yes, big things are "cookin'" on the Katy... bigger than have ever come out of the past...

a new and greater Southwest served by a new and finer Katy.

When you ship or travel to or from the Southwest, remember Katy.

Cook returned to the United States in February and was sent to Chicago for additional training. Upon completing the course in June, he was transferred to Oakland, Calif., and later to Moffett Field, near San Jose.

Before enlisting, Cook was employed at the Naval Air Base at Corpus Christi. His wife and baby remained in Wellington while he was in service.

For the present he will remain in Wellington, helping his father, Jess Cook, in his plumbing shop. Later he plans to go to some city to work as an instrument specialist.

Birchfield became manager of the Mill Iron Ranch here. They made their home at Hay Camp, as the headquarters was then known, now Cottonwood. Mr. Birchfield remained as manager of the ranch until 1928, when he moved to his own land.

Mr. Birchfield was a member of the Methodist Church, having joined in 1895. He was active in church work, and as president of the Epworth League in 1897, he attended the convention in Galveston.

He was active in other community affairs as well and for a number of years served on the school board of the Kelly district.

Mr. Birchfield was of a sturdy pioneer nature, hard-working, honest, modest, and sincere. His was the friendliness of the open range and the pioneer days, and this remained a part of his nature throughout his life. His neighborliness and helpfulness is recalled by hundreds, both those who live here and those who have moved away. The sturdiness of his character was revealed in the little ways of everyday living, in the encouragement which he gave constantly to his family and friends, and through his efforts that Collingsworth County might be a better place to live.

Surviving Mr. Birchfield are his wife and these children: Mrs. Daisy Jacobs of Ann Arbor, Mich.; Bob Birchfield of Amarillo, Joseph Herbert Birchfield and Thomas Hughes Birchfield of the Kelley community; and Paul Harris Birchfield, now listed as missing by the U. S. Navy. One son, William Jackson Birchfield, died in infancy. Other survivors are a brother, Marion Birchfield of Sulphur Springs, four granddaughters and two grandsons.

Cecil Carl Berryman, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Berryman, was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital November 27. Although quite ill for several days, he is improved and has been returned to his home.

Mrs. S. B. Crabtree of Amarillo is a medical patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, where she is reported as doing nicely. Mrs. Crabtree is the mother of Mrs. W. R. Orr.

Farmers Name
AAA Committees
In Election Sat.

AAA committeemen in the 10 communities of the county to administer the 1946 government farm program will be named in the community elections Saturday, December 8.

"These committee elections are the one place where every farmer can voice his opinion in the AAA program. Your committeemen handle the important farm program for you, and because of this, we urge every farmer to come out and vote, Millard Brown of the AAA office said.

Voting this year will differ from the procedure in past years, Mr. Brown explained. A polling place has been designated for each of the 10 AAA communities and these will be open from 10 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. Committeemen will be chosen by secret ballot.

Fourteen names will be printed on each ballot, from which county farmers will elect seven officers. These are chairman of the community committee, vice chairman, one regular member, first alternate, second alternate, a delegate to the county convention and an alternate delegate.

Eligible to vote is any person who is an owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper on a farm on which AAA payments, either in the form of cash or conservation materials or services, have been made or may be made under the 1945 AAA program, or anyone having a contract with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

Voting places will be:
Community A, Midway School.
Community B, Fresno Gin.
Community C, Rolla Gin.
Community D, County Court House, Wellington.
Community E, Crossroads School.
Community F, Quail Gin.
Community G, Marella Church.
Community H, Dozier Church.
Community I, Samnorwood School.
Community J, Lutie Gin.

New Teachers On Quail Faculty

Two new teachers have been announced on the faculty of the Quail School.

Mrs. Nina Wright taught at Post before coming to Quail. She received her B. S. degree from West Texas State College, Canyon, and attended Chico State College at Chico, Calif. Her home is at Childress.

Rev. Guy W. Killian, pastor of the Quail Baptist Church, is also a new instructor. Before coming to Quail last year he and his family lived in Abilene. He has a B. A. degree from Hardin-Simmons University.

These two teachers, along with Mrs. W. W. White and Frank E. Kennedy, who were hired earlier, take the place of Mrs. Sam White, Mr. and Mrs. McCauley and J. B. Patterson.

FFA Officer

Marion Baumgardner of Wellington, a vice president of the National FFA, who was among the 170 outstanding young farmers from 42 states and Hawaii awarded the American Farmer degree at the 18th national meeting of Future Farmers of America held recently in Kansas City, Mo., is commended in an article appearing in the current November-December issue of "The Furrow," national farm publication published by John Deere, Moline, Illinois.

Photographs of all of the award winners present at the meeting and the newly elected officers of the association are used with the article, as well as a picture of David Elk, Eden, New York, who won the national F.F.A. public speaking contest and a check for $250 from Future Farmers of America Foundation, Inc.

Oliver Kinzie, Cushing, Okla., president of the national organization, presided at the Kansas City meeting. In the election of national officers he was succeeded by J. Glyndon Stiff, Dixon, Illinois, past president of the Illinois F.F.A.

WINNING PLAYS THAT MADE THE SKYROCKETS BI-DISTRICT CHAMPIONS

Top picture shows something of the Rockets' great defensive play that enabled them to hold the Floydada Whirlwind to one touchdown while piling up 33 points. Russell, 31, is tackling Robertson while Copeland, 41, and O'Neil, 32, move in to assist. Huffstader is the official with one foot in the air. Bottom picture shows action as Hatch went over for the first Wellington touchdown. Fulton, 40, is on his knee as Jones of Floydada, 45, looks on. Moore, 21, Raburn, 24, and O'Neil, 32, are still on their feet following the play and hunting for somebody to block out.

Football Sidelights

This writer has seen many a football game on the local field; but from a Wellington standpoint there was ever a better played game than the one last Friday? There have been faster backs on the Rocket team than any you saw Friday. There have been bigger and more experienced linemen; but there has never been a team that played any better as a team.

It was Al Duncan's fourth year as coach at Wellington and it was the third time that his team won the bi-district title. School officials did all right by the town when they got him out of Turkey; but coming to Wellington did not hurt Al Duncan either.

Officials for the game were Huffstader of Texas Tech; Johnson of West Texas State, Collum of Auburn, and Gibson of Hardin-Simmons. They did an excellent job. They kept on top of the ball and kept the game moving and it proved to be a remarkably clean game. The only 15 yard penalty was against Wellington and that was for holding. Floydada got some for offside, too many times out and backfield in motion. But they were for only 5 yards as were the Wellington penalties for the same things. It may cost a little more to get officials like these; but they are worth the money when you compare them with some of the boys who have to look something up in a rule book before they can make a decision.

Floydada had a good backfield until they had been hit so hard and so many times that they were just plain exhausted. But we will take our hat off to that left guard Eubanks and to Womack who played end. Womack went out of the game late in the fourth period; but he played a whale of a game until they carried him off the field. Kenneth Winter, who is only 14 years of age and who actually played a swell game, remarked to a friend: "I didn't seem to do so much."

Well, the answer to that is he was playing right opposite this Eubanks who outweighed him about 25 pounds according to the program. Credit to both of them.

Robert Fulton and Bennie Moore are two more of the starters who are only 14 years of age; but you would not have known it from the way they performed. What boys like these will do one year or two years from now is something to think about. There is more star gazing when you think of Walter Johnson, Kenneth Strickland, Gerald Squires and a number of the younger players.

Wellington's line has improved so tremendously during the last few weeks. Covey has constantly improved as an end. Copeland was good at tackle at the start of the season; but now both he and McClendon would rate as a pair of all-district tackles if they had played all season like they played against Floydada. The play of 15-year-old Sam Raburn at right guard was something for the book.

James Winter continues to be a cool and a modest quarterback; but the thing many people overlook is he is pretty tough in his way. Hatch was out a long time last season and both Russell and O'Neil were out this year in one or more games. Furthermore, Winter has been making good yardage in the last few games on the few times he ran with the ball, and he has played every game.

This writer hopes he hasn't neglected too many players; for he wants to speak a piece. The Rockets can take Phillips or Hereford if the whole squad is in the physical condition they were in when they met Floydada.

But if either Russell, O'Neil or Hatch are out of the game, it would become this writer's painful duty to record that the Rockets fought well; but that the other team won. There is something about the play of these three boys that seems to make the rest of the whole team click.

Rusty Russell is undoubtedly the best all round backfield man the Rockets have ever had since Shirley Dobbs, editor of the school annual, picked out the colorful name of Skyrockets to replace the name of the Wellington Wildcats, who wore black and gold uniforms. There have been faster men, bigger men and older men playing for the Rockets, but Russell gets the cake and can have the bulldog.

Wellington has had so many good ends in the last twenty years that it is like putting your foot in boiling water to make any comparison.

In this writer's opinion, Ted O'Neil is the most efficient end the Rockets have ever had. He is football-wise. Fans like to see him take a pass. He is good at that; for he has a way of feinting and getting in the clear even when the opponents know that the Rockets are going to pass. Far more important is his all round play at end. It has been so outstanding that some of the greenhorns have finally decided that there is a lot to watch besides the man who carries the ball.

Tim Hatch runs along with these. He is another player that Wellington cannot do without in championship play. He does not tackle as hard as Russell; but he joins them. He is the shiftest runner and the fastest on the 1945 club. He is also the leading scorer with a total of 113 points to date. His pass interceptions and his recovery of fumbles have been more important than his scoring. He was and is an agile and alert football player.

Football news has to be written in a hurry to get in the paper at all. Any errors concerning this column may be referred to Supt. Logan Cummings. He once wore a black and gold uniform and played under the name of the Wellington Wildcats. The last year Mr. Cummings played at tackle, the Memphis Cyclone beat the Wellington Wildcats 91 to 0.

Here is the last try to wind this column up. C. C. Bishop, former judge of the county, stopped by at a south side barber shop. He mentioned the fact that Frank Anderson did not know that his loan service had been in existence since the early part of the thirties. Frank had just told him that he had never heard of it. Right at this time Otto Russell, father of I. D. Russell, walked in the shop. Bert Starkey asked Otto how I. D. was feeling. Judge Bishop turned around and in his most cordial manner inquired: "Why, Otto, you don't have a son old enough to play football, do you?"

O. T. Nicholson at Shamrock knows that I. D. Russell is old enough to play football; but this writer has a bunch of prize dahlias coming. So let's all forget and forgive everything except Phillips or maybe Hereford.

Dodson Seniors
Sponsor Carnival

The annual Dodson high school carnival has been scheduled for Friday evening, December 7, at the high school building, beginning at 7:00 p. m.

This is not a war-time carnival; it's a good old-fashioned get-together, members of the senior class which is sponsoring the event assure.

Some of the features will be fortune telling, boxing, a leg show, bingo, and food booths.

Climax of the evening will be the crowning of the high school queen and the grammar school queen.

High school candidates are Betty Nell Patterson, senior class; Irma Dell Collins, junior class; Sue Scott, sophomore class; and Betty Lou Martin, freshman class.

Grammar school candidates are Joann Darby, eighth grade; Jenny Nell Scott, seventh grade; Mary Burch, fifth and sixth grades; Jeanette Swift, third and fourth grades; and Jeannette Nipper, first and second grades.

Phillips Meets
Hereford SaturdayAnnual Norwood
Tourney Set For
December 14-15

The annual Samnorwood Basketball Tournament is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, December 14 and 15. Coach J. D. Allen announced this week. Both boys and girls will compete.

Twenty-nine teams have been invited to take part and early indications are that a full two days will be needed to complete the tourney.

Trophies will be given first and second place winners in both the boys and girls divisions. Individual awards will be made the all-tourney winners in both divisions, and a sportsmanship award will be given the boy and girl picked as most outstanding along that line.

"The annual tournament is a highlight of every school year, but this time we feel that it will be better than at any time in recent years. It will be our first peacetime tourney, and not only the boys and girls at Samnorwood, but the coaches and teams of other schools are keenly interested in making it a success," Mr. Allen said.

The public is invited to attend any or all of the games.

R. C. Christmas
Boxes Received

Red Cross Christmas packages, contributed by the people of Collingsworth County for men who are on the high seas December 25, have been received, S. R. Pinkston, chairman, has been notified.

He also announced that the services of the Greenbelt Camp and Hospital chapter have been discontinued. This service was originated under the direction of the Red Cross for the benefit of ill and convalescent soldiers at Childress Army Air Field, and the drastic reduction of personnel at that field has made the service no longer necessary.

"A great many people helped us in preparing the Christmas packages, but I want to especially thank Mrs. E. W. Jones, Miss Katherine Boverie, Miss Bonnie Willis and the people of Dodson and Quail for their work, which was more than that expected of them," Mr. Pinkston said.

Floyd Gardner Is New Owner Of
Phillips Station

Floyd Gardner this week announced that he has bought the service station formerly operated by his brother, Troy Gardner. Known as the Gardner Service Station, it is located at the corner of 8th and Childress streets.

Phillips products are handled. Mr. Gardner returned to Wellington a month ago after serving in the Air Force near San Diego, California.

"I am happy to be able to serve you folks again and I invite all of you to come by. To Troy's friends I want to say that I will have the same fine service you had while he was in charge. And to all the rest, I'd like to invite you to come by and get acquainted," the new owner said.

Wednesday, were Orval Couch, Logan Cummings, J. B. Faulkner, Tolbert Painter of Dodson, A. A. Honard, James Sullivan, J. M. Strong, Lloyd Harper and Noah Cunningham of Quail.

All groups will elect new officers for the coming year.

Attending the Shrine convention in Amarillo Thursday, November 29, were Dick Richards, Fred Cox, Cliff Campbell and James Sullivan. The latter, a novice, was made a Shriner at that time.

Wellington's red-shirted Rockets sewed up the bi-district championship of 3-A and 4-A Friday by defeating a very fine team from Floydada by the lop-sided score of 33 to 6. The Rockets superiority of defensive play was apparent in the first few minutes of the game; but the score was only 7 to 6 and the first downs 3 to 2 at the half as the champions of district 4-A fought determinedly and often brilliantly in their attempt to ouste the Rockets.

At the half Al Duncan must have lit a match to another fuse or Tommie Austin told the Rockets the Whirlwind colors were green and white (same as Shamrock) for the Rockets roared back to make 4 touchdowns and pick up 8 first downs while the Whirlwind was making one first down and no points.

The over-anxious Rockets missed fire on their first scoring chance. Russell kicked to Robertson who was hit by either Hatch, O'Neil or Russell or maybe all three. Robertson fumbled and Russell recovered on the 20 yard mark. Russell hit the line for 1 yard, Hatch made 2, Russell made 5 and Hatch went for 2; but the Whirlwind line held just one yard short of a first down and the ball went over.

Floydada took charge of the ball on their own 11 yard line; but by no means did they take charge of the ball game. The Rocket line, which as a whole turned in by far the best performance of the year, smacked down the first two plays at the line of scrimmage and O'Neil took Jones for a 3 yard loss to force the Whirlwind to punt. Carmack got off a clean punt; but against the wind it traveled only to the Whirlwind 38 and Winter let it roll goalward to the Floydada 35.

From this spot Hatch busted the line for 4 yards and then Russell took off for what looked like a 7 yard gain; but he was tackled tremendously by Payne, who is no little man himself, and Robertson recovered to ease his feelings for having fumbled two minutes earlier. It was a short lived advantage. Carmack dropped back to punt; but Covey blocked the punt and O'Neil recovered on about the 10 yard line. Behind splendid blocking, Russell skirted end and went over the goal line without a hand being laid on him; but the play was called back on an offside penalty and the Rockets had to start over again from the 15 yard line. Hatch dodged and plowed to advance 5 yards and Russell ran and then stuck his head in the stomach of a Whirlwind back to get 7 yards and put the ball on the three yard stripe. On the next play the Rocket line opened a nice hole and Hatch stepped through it untouched to make the score 6 to 0. Russell kicked the ball exactly through the uprights to make it 7 to 0 and all the Wellington fans leaned far back in their seats and took a deep breath; for, with the superlative charging of the red line that was outweighed about 5 pounds to the man by the green, everything seemed to be in the bag.

But the whirl was not out of the Whirlwind by any means. Russell kicked off with a mighty boot that should have traveled to the 10 yard line if it had been 5 feet higher; but it struck fullback Jones right on his belt buckle. Jones, the Whirlwind fullback, played defensive guard and was standing on his own 45 yard line when the ball hit him. He held on to the hard kicked ball and got back to the 47. Then Carmack, Jones and Robertson, with little Robertson doing most of the gaining, advanced the ball from their own 47 to the Wellington 32. Here the quarter ended and the Whirlwind boys had the wind to their backs. Hagood made three yards through the line. From the 29 yard line, Robertson shot a pass to Womack as two Rocket backs came within inches of batting it down. The try for point was blocked. McClendon, Copeland, Covey, O'Neil and Russell were back there; but there is some debate among the writers as to which individual did block the punt.

For the remainder of the second quarter, the Rockets outplayed the boys from Floydada; but a stout defense and a strong southwest wind kept them from scoring even though they were in Whirlwind territory most of the time. The half ended with the score 7 to 6 in favor of Wellington.

Funeral For Mrs. J. D. Boyles Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. J. D. Boyles, 69-year-old Wellington woman, were conducted at the First Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon, November 28, with Rev. H. H. Kinkeade, pastor, and Rev. Tom Burns in charge.

Mrs. Boyles died at her home Monday evening shortly before 8 o'clock. She had lived here for the last 22 years.

Pall bearers for the service were Bill Hall, Wren Hartman, Sid Sessions, Carl Vernon, Sandy Parsons and J. B. Castleberry. Flower bearers were Mrs. Z. E. Chaudoin, Mrs. Wren Hartman, Mrs. Carl Vernon, Luella Trimble, Mary Gentry, Letha Mae Gibbs and Dorothy Byers. Hymns included "Abide With Me," "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "God Will Take Care of You." Interment was in the Wellington cemetery with the Kelso Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Boyles was before her marriage Miss Nancy Elizabeth Hammock, who was born in Arkansas August 18, 1876. Early in life she came to Texas and on December 23, 1894, she was married to Mr. Boyles at Greenville.

Later they and their family moved to Memphis, where they made their home until they came here.

ed to Memphis, where they made their home until they came here.

She became a member of the Baptist Church May 27, 1925 and still held her membership in the Friendship Church. She was devoted to her church, to her family and friends and it was this as well as the other good and generous qualities of her life that endeared her to those about her.

Mrs. Boyles is survived by her husband, J. D. Boyles of Wellington; six daughters and a son, Mrs. W. L. Hancock of McLean, Mrs. R. J. Moore of Claude, Mrs. Virgie Atkinson, Mrs. Ola Tinney, Mrs. Walter Gentry, Opal Boyles and Frank Boyles of Wellington.

Eaglettes Down Little Irishmen

By J. D. ALLEN

In a hard fought game from start to finish, the Eaglettes, Samnorwood's junior basketball team, won their fourth straight basketball game against Shamrock's Little Irishmen at Shamrock Tuesday night, November 27. Their other three games were won over the Quail Partridges.

Johnson is almost three feet tall and weighs 70 pounds. In the final seconds of the game, Johnson let go with all his 70 pounds behind it and sank the final basket which gave a score of 15-14 in favor of the Eaglettes.

Doug Payne was the high point man for the Eaglettes. He made other good plays during the game.

Johnson plays in the forward position and Payne guard. The other participants in this game were Neil Laycock, guard; Claude Caperton, guard; Orus Lee Thomp-

Many Out Of Service Return To Old Jobs

More of Collingsworth County's men came home during the last week, most of them with full discharges, but a few were here on terminal leave. Discharges filed in the office of the county clerk during the last week included:

Ross A. Swift

Ross A. Swift, EM 1-c, of Dodson, was discharged from the U. S. Naval Personnel Separation Center at Norman, Okla., November 19.

His last station before returning for his discharge was aboard the USS Apollo (AS-25). He served for 14 months in the American and Pacific theaters.

During the time he was in service, Mrs. Swift and their two daughters have made their home at Dodson.

C. L. Blandford

After patrol duty in the North Atlantic, C. L. Blandford, RM 1-c, was discharged from the Navy November 21 and the following day reached Wellington.

Blandford was in service three years, two months and 11 days, and after completing his training, he was assigned to the patrol frigate Covington, with New York as his home port.

During the time he was on sea duty, Mrs. Blandford and their daughter, Juann, made their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Thomas.

Within a short time he will return to his peace-time job with the Fort Worth and Denver Railway Co. at Amarillo.

E. E. Preston

A former resident recently discharged from the Army was E. E. Preston, who served as a corporal in the Infantry. In service four years and five months, he was overseas for two years.

Mrs. Preston was before her marriage Miss Loretta Blandford. At present they are visiting members of his family in East Texas.

Mary McCullough

Army life has ended for Pfc. Mary A. McCullough, daughter of Mrs. Dean M. Hobbs, Wellington. Her honorable discharge from the WAC has been announced.

Since she enlisted December 7, 1942, Pfc. McCullough has served with the Western Flying Training Command and Second Air Force. Recently she was stationed at the La Junta, Colo., Army Air Field as a post office and file clerk.

Pfc. McCullough wears the WAC service ribbon, the American Theater ribbon and the Victory medal, plus the Good Conduct Medal.

Sam Lindley

Sam Lindley, who enlisted in the Coast Guard from this county, recently received his discharge and is now at Hereford, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lindley, moved two years ago.

He served in the Coast Guard three years, three and one-half months, and at the time of his discharge he had the rating of seaman first class. After completing his training, he was assigned to duty in the Atlantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley and their son were in Wellington during the week end visiting with relatives.

Duard D. Harris

A veteran of thirty-five months of active duty in North Africa and Europe with the 57th Fighter Group, Pfc. Duard D. Harris was recently returned to the United States and was given his honorable discharge at the Separation Center at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio.

Harris was never wounded during the entire time he was overseas, and was constantly in danger from enemy fire. He helped to bring the wounded and dead of our servicemen back from the front, never once failing in his line of duty. His group worked directly with the infantry. They participated in the battles and campaigns of Egypt-Libya, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Foggia, Rome-Arno, Southern France, Po Valley, Air Combat Balkans, and North Appennines. Pfc. Harris was awarded the EAME campaign medal with nine bronze stars, the Distinguished Unit Badge with two oak leaf clusters, and the Good Conduct Medal. He returned from Europe on the USS Charleston, which landed in the States August 24, and six days later was a civilian again. This ended his army service of three years, four months and twenty-nine days.

He is now at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Harris, who live on a farm in the Buck Creek community.

Dan Bevers

At Ellington Field in Houston, Cpl. Dan Bevers recently received his discharge from the Army Air Forces. His last assignment was at Aloe Field at Victoria, Texas, where he was an airplane mechanic with the 2538th AAF Base Unit.

Bevers entered active service at Ft. Bliss, Texas, in El Paso, on February 27, 1944. At the time of his discharge, he had been in the Air Force for one year and eight months and nine days.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bevers of this city, and he is now working here with the Oil Surveyors.

I Saw...

—By VIRGINIA ROBEY

One charming Wellington woman tells this about herself: Recently she went to Wichita Falls to have her tonsils removed. When she was able to leave the hospital she couldn't find her false teeth or her stockings and garters. An excited search by the nurses disclosed the teeth locked up in an instrument case, but after looking every possible place, they couldn't find her stockings. "I didn't mind losing them, but I did hate not to get my garters back because they were good elastic!" she said.

Friends of the Cocke families have had a treat as some of those who live away came back recently to visit in the R. H. and A. V. Cocke homes. Almost any day you could see Lt. Richard Cocke of Austin, now on terminal leave from the Navy; E. W. Cocke and his two sons, Sam Dick, just out of the Army, and Pvt. Billy Joe Cocke. They all call Colorado home. Then there was Henry Cocke, who has been living at Sunray; Mrs. Edith Conner and her daughter, Mrs. Walter Hartford of Oklahoma City.

Robert Baumgardner with a big, broad grin that showed just how glad he was to be back from the Pacific, with his younger sister, Priscilla, who was proud as punch to have him home... Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Murray buying picture post cards of western scenes. She's an attractive dark-haired girl from New Jersey. They're here for a visit just after he left service.

Hog Killing Time Rolls Around

COLLEGE STATION — Comes now hog killing time.

Not as much as formerly, because with the widespread use of the quick freezer locker, hog killing time is now a year 'round deal on many Texas farms. But most Texas farm people still wait for winter to butcher hogs for home use.

Even at that, according to Roy W. Snyder, meat specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, if the weather gets much above 50 degrees for any length of time while the meat is in cure, it should be taken to a cold storage plant and let it cure under refrigeration.

With sugar scarce, many people will not have enough to cure meat. Salt, Snyder explains, is what actually cures the meat. Sugar improves the flavor and salt-peter makes for a rich red color.

The standard recipe is eight pounds of salt, two pounds of sugar, and two ounces of salt-peter. Mix, divide into three equal parts, and rub one part of the mix into the meat every three days. Pack meat into a meat box or barrel after each rubbing. After the third and last treatment, pack the meat into the container skin side down. Leave ham and shoulders in the mix for from two to three days per pound. A day and a half per pound is enough for bacon.

The longer the meat is kept in cure the saltier it becomes. If there is not enough salt that penetrates the pieces to properly cure the meat, it will spoil unless kept in cold storage. With pork as scarce as it is, farm families will do well to have their meat a little saltier than usual, rather than take a chance on spoilage.

Cane syrup or honey may be substituted for sugar, pound for pound. Sugar is still better than syrup or honey if it is available, and granulated sugar will do just as well as brown.

LETTERS FROM MEN IN SERVICE

(Pfc. Everett S. Herring, who is stationed on Okinawa, wrote the following letter to his brother, Raymond Herring, and family).

October 18, 1945

Dear Bud and family,
I will drop you a few lines to let you know I am okay. You wrote of it raining there for three days; boy, I wish it would stop here in three days. It takes about three weeks here.

I have seen the cemetery here, and there are certainly a lot of boys from home who are buried here. I saw Ocie Raper's grave among the many others. It is certainly hard to believe.

It still isn't very safe over here as the Japs don't believe that the war is over yet. We capture more all the time. I went on patrol the other day, and we got two of them. One had a machine gun and five hand grenades, while the other one I got one night without even firing a gun. He could have killed a whole tent full of men. One got in the fox hole with me and I had to use my knife. The other one tried to call me out of my fox hole. Usually, there are two of us on patrol, but that night there was only one. The Jap called to me to come out, but I wouldn't and told him to as I wasn't taking any chances. He said "Okay" and came out. I could see that he was too small for one of our men, so I had to let him have it. Boy, my nerves are about gone.

Well, Raymond, I will close for this time. Answer soon. Lots of love.

Pfc. E. S. Herring.

MEN IN SERVICE

Pfc. Lester Thomas of the 307th Infantry has been at Hokkaido, Japan since October 5. Overseas for the past ten months, he was on Okinawa with the 77th Division for 22 days of continuous fighting. THIS BLEND of Coffee Makes Every Meal a Celebration

A RICH ROBUST MAGNIFICENT AROMA

The test of a coffee's freshness can be made in that first whiff of aroma you get on opening the package. If it's room-filling in its fragrance, as it is with every pound of Admiration, it's really fresh. That's why we emphasize aroma in our blend. We put the distinctive aroma into Admiration first through scientific selection of coffees for blending and secondly through special roasting. Once there it's there to stay until released into your cup. Small wonder then that a freshly brewed cup of better-tasting Admiration puts you in a celebrating mood. It's the coffee thrill of thousands.

Flu Increases Over State

Austin—Reports coming in from various sections of the State indicate that the number of influenza cases appears to be increasing with the advance of the fall season.

Commenting on this situation, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State health officer, said that most of these cases are mild and lend themselves to treatment readily. He pointed out that two cooperative factors are essential to victims of this disease: First, to call the family physician promptly when suspicious symptoms manifest themselves; and second, to take it easy for a reasonable length of time after the acute stage has subsided.

"It is essential to realize that influenza, no matter how mild the attack, calls for a period of convalescence," Dr. Cox said, "since serious complications can occur if this important fact is ignored. Influenza is not mass-controllable. However, those persons who maintain the highest possible health level at all times, increasing their resistance to communicable disease germs, will have a protective advantage over those more careless persons who abuse their health."

The State Health Officer declared that living by the laws of nature, securing plenty of sleep, daily exercise in the open, nourishing foods and good personal hygiene offers the best known bulwark against all respiratory diseases and all kinds detrimental to maximum well being is a wise course to take in the pursuit of good health.

Katy Buys New Diesel Engines

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The Missouri-Kansas-Texas Lines has placed an order for six 1,000 h.p. diesel switching locomotives, at cost of approximately $500,000.00. D. V. Fraser, Katy president, announced. Order was placed with the Electro Motive Division, General Motors Corporation, and the locomotives will be built in that company's plant at LaGrange, Ill. Delivery is expected early next year, and the locomotives will be placed in service in the railroad's Dallas terminal, replacing steam operations at that terminal.

"This is another step in plans to eventually dieselize all Katy operations," Mr. Fraser said. "We are now preparing to operate diesels on test runs over the entire system to determine the feasibility of handling freight on express train schedules. The test runs will be made within the next few weeks," Fraser added.

The Katy Railroad now has a physical plant capable of providing the Southwest with the greatest improvement in freight service that has come this century," Mr. Fraser said, "and we already are beyond the planning stage in getting ready to operate regular freight trains on schedules averaging better than 50 miles per hour."

The Katy recently ordered diesel equipment for its streamlined passenger train service on the Texas Special route to Texas.

Cattle Grubs Cause Losses

Cattle grubs collect a big toll in money from Texas farmers yearly. Grubs also take a heavy toll indirectly from non-farm people. This is in the form of meat which the grubs make unfit for eating. Paul Gregg, entomologist for the A. & M. College Extension Service, estimates that grubs levy a tax of about five million dollars a year upon Texas cattle growers.

Here's the way he figures it. About 840 thousand of the two million Texas cattle slaughtered yearly are grubby, and these animals are discounted an average of nearly four dollars each. This is the main item of loss. But the remainder of the five million is in damaged hides, a reduction of twenty-five per cent in milk flow, and greater expense in feeding stock afflicted by grubs.

And here's what the parasites take from folks who eat the meat: An average of two pounds per infested animal is destroyed. Gregg estimates that this would be sufficient for the meat ration of forty six hundred persons. And the leather lost because of damage by the grubs is sufficient to make about one million pairs of shoes. The money represented in the loss of meat and hides falls upon the cattle producers, but during meat and shoe rationing the consumer also has a large interest in the problem of controlling the parasite.

Gregg says that rotenone and sulphur is the most effective treatment for grubs. This mixture may be applied as a dust or spray, and as dip when both grubs and lice are to be controlled. The time that the first treatment for control of grubs should be given varies according to the section of the state. Generally, Gregg says, it should be made in the southern half not later than October twentieth. In the east and northeast sections November fifteenth to December fifteenth is the most desirable period, and October twentieth to December first in the Panhandle and West Texas.

For more complete information see your county agricultural agent, or write to Gregg at College Station.

M. Curtis Clement has just been released from the Navy and has returned to his pre-war job as coach of the Fort Sumner school.

Mrs. Clyde Alexander has returned from Temple, where she was at Scott and White Hospital for surgery, to her home here last Sunday. She had been in Temple for the past three weeks.

Miss Betty Margaret Berry, a student in Texas Tech, Lubbock, was at home last week after suffering an attack of flu. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Berry.

"Me...I'm staying in the Army!"

THERE ARE PLENTY OF REASONS... AND HERE THEY ARE!"

1 "First, I keep my present grade. That means a lot.

2 "By reenlisting for 3 years I can pick my own branch of service in the Air, Ground or Service Forces, and can go to any overseas theater I wish.

3 "I get my mustering-out pay, even though I'm reenlisting. Also, I get $50 a year reenlistment bonus for each year I've been in the Army. My dependents receive family allowances for the full term of my enlistment. And I'll be eligible for GI Bill of Rights benefits when I get out of the Army.

4 "My food, clothes, quarters, medical and dental care are all supplied to me. And I can learn any of 200 skills or trades in the Army schools.

5 "All of us who are reenlisting are going to have from 30 to 90 days' furlough at home with full pay and our travel paid both ways. And we'll have 30 days' furlough every year with pay.

6 "Any time after 20 years I can retire at half pay increasing year by year to three-quarters retirement pay after 30 years of service. And the time I've already served in active military or naval service counts toward my retirement time. Added up—reenlistment seems pretty sound to me!"

Editorial

Any Texan who isn't as well acquainted with his state as he'd like to be would find it interesting to run through the 3,450 Texas towns listed in the newest Texas Almanac. The reading adventure would yield both information and entertainment, and some surprising discoveries. For instance, it would reveal near the head of the list that the good town of Athens is in Henderson County, but further along that the good town of Henderson is in Rusk County, while the good town of Rusk is in Cherokee County, and the good town of Cherokee is in San Saba County. There is more of the same town-and-county exchange. Ozona is in Crockett County, Crockett is in Houston County, Houston in Harris County.

That's stimulating for a starter, but the real surprises are in the infinite variety of names—many of them so quaint, curious, colloquial and flavorsome that one wonders if the Postal Guide will reveal towns in any other state to match them, not excepting the Medicine Hats, the Oshkoshes and the Kalamazoots. Even a casual reading will lead to such Texas towns as Cat Springs, Dime Box, Muleshoe and Gunsight, Bishop and Mahomet, Dimple, Dot, Dressy, Drop, Frijole, Grit, Flat, High, Jolly, Kyote, Okra, Pancake and Wink.

The Spanish tradition lends music and color to the names of many of our towns and cities. And there are others that chal-

• They're Here

A fast-talking short change specialist recently demonstrated his technique to a theater cashier in Mangum. The fellow presented a $20 bill for a 10-cent ticket and received $19.90 in change which he left lying on the counter. Meanwhile, he rummaged in his pockets and found a dime which he offered in payment for the ticket. "I don't want to carry lot of change around, so give me a $10 bill for this money," he told the cashier, indicating the $5 bill, four $1 bills and $1 in silver lying on the counter. The cashier handed him a $10 bill, but the $20 in change remained on the counter. "Now, give me my $20 bill back and we'll be even," he told the cashier, pushing the theater's $20 in change across the counter. She returned the $20 bill and the man left with a 10-cent ticket and the theater's $10 bill. Naturally, the operator picked the theater's busiest hour for the gyp.—The Mangum Star.

• Pay Your Poll Tax

The American Legion has issued a plea to discharged service men to exercise their duty and privilege as free American citizens by immediately paying their poll tax. The statement which is of equal importance to all other citizens follows:

"It is your duty as an American citizen and your privilege as a free born human being to pay your poll tax so that you may have a voice in the affairs of your country.

"There will be issues coming up for vote on which you will want to voice your approval or disapproval through the ballot. There are going to be men asking for office who you will either want to support or vote against so don't overlook this most important tax—pay it immediately.

"Do not be like the man who gripes long and loud about the way his government is running things but does not have enough interest to pay his poll tax so he may try to correct the evils he dislikes by voting against them.

The American Legion urges you to pay your poll tax!"—Albert Cooper in The Wheeler Times.

lence with charm. The late Clyde Walton Hill paid tribute to these in a poem which will endure as long as there is a Texas. One stanza celebrates their names:

The little towns of Texas,

What pretty names they bear!
There's Echo, Garland, Crystal Springs,
Arcadia, Dawn and Dare;
There's Ingleside, and Prairie Home,
And Bells, and Rising Star.

God keep them childlike, restful, clean,
Pure as the prairies are.

Rent Control Not Due To Be Raised Soon

Reports circulated recently that rent control is to be ended shortly in the Childress Defense Rental Area and the Memphis-Quana Defense Rental Area, which includes Wellington, are unfounded, Fay W. Prescott, District Rent Executive for the Fort Worth District of the Office of Price Administration, and Wilmer R. Maudin, Local Area Rent Director, said here today.

"As long as the Price Control Act authorizing rent control remains in effect and the shortage of housing facilities makes it necessary to protect tenants from unwarranted rent increases and evictions, OPA will not lift the safeguards," Mr. Prescott said.

Maudin is Area Rent Director for the Childress Defense Rental Area comprised of Childress County; and the Memphis-Quana Defense Rental Area, comprised of Hall, Hardeman, Cottle and Collingsworth Counties.

Mr. Maudin reminded landlords that failure to comply with any of the following rent regulations subjects them to penalties:

1. All rental housing accommodations, including rooms, apartments and houses, in the Childress and Memphis-Quana Defense Area must be registered with OPA.

2. All changes of tenancy must be reported to OPA within five days after they occur.

3. When a change in tenancy occurs the new tenant must be shown the landlord's copy of the OPA registration statement and his signature must be obtained on the statement, as well as on the OPA change of tenancy form.

4. Owners of rental housing accommodations who bought the housing units after they were originally registered with OPA must file a change of ownership report at the OPA Rent Office.

5. Landlords are permitted to collect no more than the maximum legal rent unless they have first obtained written permission from the Area Rent Office.

6. In general, essential services may not be discontinued until written authority to do so is obtained from the Area Rent Office.

7. No attempt may be made to evict a tenant unless the landlord has a legal right to do so under the rent regulations.

8. Landlords who want to evict a tenant from a housing unit that the former bought on or after December 1, 1942 in the Childress Defense Rental Area and on or after April 1, 1945 in the Memphis-Quana Defense Rental Area, in order to occupy it themselves, must

Marine Corps To Take Enlistments For 2-Year Period

DALLAS—In line with the new streamlined recruiting program currently launched by the United States Marine Corps was the announcement today that prospective Leathernecks may now enlist for a period of two years.

The announcement, made by Colonel John R. Lanigan, Officer in Charge of the Southern Recruiting Division of the Marine Corps, also provided that discharged Marines can re-enlist for a period of two years.

Prior to the new provision, which became effective on Saturday, December 1, Marines were required to enlist or re-enlist for periods of three or four years.

A boost in enlistments was anticipated by Marine Corps recruiting officers as a result of the new plan.

get from the Rent Office a certificate authorizing the eviction.

Landlords and tenants alike were urged by Mr. Maudin to call or write the Area Rent Office, 125½ Commerce St., Childress, when they have any questions on rent control.

Comprehensive Ball Program At Norwood

Basketball at Samnorwood isn't just for those of all-star quality. It takes in the young and the inexperienced, too. Under the direction of Coach J. D. Allen a well rounded basketball program has been worked out to begin with boys now in junior high school, and continue through the high school grades.

Topping the list are the Eagles, the senior boys team. The senior B team also sees considerable action. Others are the girls A and B teams and the junior boys A and B teams.

Games are scheduled with teams of nearby schools through January 18, and within the next few weeks other games will be matched to take the Norwood teams to the close of their season, February 15.

Next event on their calendar is the Kelton tournament Dec. 7 and 8, with the boys, girls and junior boys participating. Other scheduled games are:

Dec. 11, Hedley at Samnorwood.
Dec. 14 and 15, Samnorwood tournament.

Dec. 18, Wheeler at Samnorwood.
Dec. 21, Wheeler at Wheeler.

Dec. 28, Kelton at Samnorwood.
Jan. 1, Hedley at Hedley.

Jan. 4, Kelton at Kelton.
Jan. 8, Memphis at Memphis.

Jan. 11 and 12, Shamrock tournament.
Jan. 15, Open.

Jan. 18, Memphis at Samnorwood.

Dates are open for January 22, Jan. 25, Jan. 29, Feb. 1, Feb. 5, Feb. 12, and Feb. 15.

Members of the senior boys teams are Paul Jones, captain, Charles Young, Royce Laycock and Jessie Thompson, guards; Donald Bradley, co-captain, center; Luther Thompson, Donald Coleman, Harold Bryan and Billie Whitfield, forwards. Cecil Gooch is manager.

is practically the story of two other football teams. Russell opened the stanza with a long kickoff that traveled to the Floydada 18. Copeland, Russell, and Hatch were down fast on the play. Hatch made the tackle, Carmack fumbled, and Robert Fulton recovered the ball on the 17 yard line. Winter, who calls his own signal seldom, picked up 4 to get to the 13. Russell dropped back and shot a pass to Ted O'Neil who had eluded the Floydada backs and was running ten yards in the clear as he took the pass over the goal line. Hatch attempted the kick after conversion but it was not good and the score was 13 to 6.

On the ensuing kickoff Russell booted the ball to the Whirlwind 20. An offside penalty put them up to the 25. Two running plays failed to gain and on the next Russell charged through with a tremendous tackle that could be heard across the gridiron and Robertson was down for a 4 yard loss. Carmack punted against the wind to the Wellington 50 where Winter took it on the run and went to the 42 before he was brought down. On a reverse Winter carried for 15 yards to place the ball on the Whirlwind 27 yard marker. Hatch plowed the center of the line for 2 and Russell for 6. Then with everything set, Russell threw a 19 yard pass to O'Neil who was again in the clear. The kick by Russell was good and the score moved up to 20 to 6.

The Rockets threatened but did not score for the remainder of the third period. It ended with a pass from Russell to Winter being knocked down by Carmack and Floydada took over on their own 14 yard line. By this time the game boys from 4-A had been battered and slowed down to a noticeable degree by the terrific tackling of the Rockets. On the first running play O'Neil hit Robertson behind the line for a 2 yard loss. On the next Hatch and O'Neil swarmed over Carmack as he attempted to pass and he was down dangerously close to his own goal line. The punt was extra long and Winter took it on his own 46 and ran it back to midfield.

It was then the Rockets blazed again; for they seemed to get hotter as the Whirlwind died down. Hatch and Russell carried for 4 and 5 yards respectively to take the ball to the 39 yard line. From this point Russell raced into the secondary where he shouldered a couple and then outran the rest to cross the goal for the fourth touchdown. Hatch tried for point but the wind caught it and the score was 26 to 6.

The last touchdown was set up when Hatch tackled Robertson hard and the ball was recovered by Sam Raburn on the Wellington 44. Russell tore off tackle to go 16 yards and put it on the Floydada 40. A lateral from Orr to Hatch gained 2 yards. Russell made 8 and on the next play Hatch did some fancy stepping to go 13 more. From this point Russell ran for about 17 to carry over for the final counter. Hatch kicked the point to make the score 33 to 6.

The Rockets moved on down the field one more time; and were in easy scoring distance; but apparently Coach Duncan decided that saving tired players from possible injury was better than one more touchdown. He started kicking every starter off one at a time and each received a big hand.

Substitutes for Wellington were Gerald Squyres, Junior Orr, Kenneth Strickland, John D. Ingram, Walter Johnson, Jackie McPherson,

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our deepest appreciation for the kindness and sympathy extended us at the death of our wife and mother. The many things each of you did to help us bear this grief has meant more than we can express. Also the beautiful floral offerings were deeply appreciated. May God bless each of you.
