Roosevelt Succumbs

Death Comes In Sleep in Warm Springs, Georgia, April 12th

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., April 12 (AP)—President Franklin Delano Roosevelt died suddenly at 3:35 p. m., Central War Time, Thursday of a massive cerebral hemorrhage.

Comdr. Howard Bruenn, naval physician, made this announcement to reporters shortly after White House Secretary William D. Hassett called a hurried news conference to announce the death of the nation's only fourth-term chief executive.

Mr. Roosevelt died in the little white house on top of Pine Mountain where he had come for a three-week rest. He was 63 years old.

Dr. Bruenn said he saw the President Thursday morning and he was in excellent spirits at 9:30 a. m.

"At 1 o'clock," Bruenn added, "He was sitting in a chair while sketches were being made of him by an artist. He suddenly complained of a very severe occipital headache (back of the head).

"Within a very few minutes he lost consciousness. He was seen by me at 1:30 p. m., fifteen minutes after the episode had started.

"He did not regain consciousness and he died at 3:35 p. m."

Only others present in the cottage were Cmdr. George Fox, White House pharmacist and long an attendant on the President; Hassett; Miss Grace Tully, confidential secretary, and two cousins, Miss Laura Delano and Miss Margaret Suckley.

Bruenn said he called Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntyre, Navy Surgeon General, and White House physicians in Washington and that McIntyre in turn called Dr. James E. Paullin, Atlanta, an internal medicine practitioner and honorary consultant to the Navy Surgeon General.

Cause of Death Announced to Reporters

Paullin was present when Bruenn gave the statement of the cause of death to reporters of the three national news services.

Hassett gave newsmen the first announcement.

News of the President's death spread like wild fire around the foundation and atop an adjoining mountain where guests were gathering for a barbecue.

The President's late arrival for the barbecue caused some anxiety. A telephone call was put through and a few minutes later representatives of the Associated Press, United Press and International News Service were told to rush immediately to the Carver cottage on the foundation grounds for some news.

In response to a question, Dr. Bruenn said the President died without pain.

News of Death Spreads Rapidly

News of the President's death spread quickly and caused many a tear among the 125 infantile paralysis patients at the foundation, here.

Mayor Frank W. Allcorn of Warm Springs was giving a barbecue at his mountain cabin this afternoon for the President and about fifty other guests. Allcorn was awaiting the President's arrival when reporters got word through the Army Signal Corps radio telephone and Summer White House communication to rush to the foundation.

Miss Louise Hackmeister, veteran White House chief telephone operator, could hardly talk in her excitement.

Millions Join In Mourning For President of the United States

By TOM REEDY, Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 14—Family and friends and the nation's great, paid the capital's last homage to Franklin D. Roosevelt today in the sad splendor of a White House funeral.

And over the world millions joined in the mourning for the man who symbolized for them the ideals and aspirations of the United States. Their high diplomatic representatives stood for them beside the bier in the famed East Room of the executive mansion.

In a flag-draped casket, the body of the fallen leader arrived from Warm Springs, Ga., at 8:50 a. m. cwt., was carried along the once triumphal inaugural route from the union station to the executive mansion, past between 300,000 and 400,000 capital residents who stood in shocked silence.

Truman Joins Relatives and Others

The black Army caisson brought the late President to the door of the mansion at 10:16 a. m. CWT. At 3 p. m. CWT, President Harry S. Truman joined the widow and close relatives, associates of many years and representatives of many foreign governments in the rites of the Episcopal church.

In the flower-decked room, the casket stood on a small oriental rug before an altar.

The Right Rev. Angus Dun, bishop of Washington, officiated at the simple 23-minute ceremony of the faith which Mr. Roosevelt was a lifelong communicant.

On one side stood a vacant wheelchair, mute symbol of the malady which struck the President in his prime but couldn't keep him down.

Enlisted Men's Guard of Honor

Only a small fraction of the huge crowds of the morning funeral procession remained outside but they were the faithful who refused to depart, standing across the street in silent tribute.

After the services, the body rested before a guard of honor of enlisted men chosen from each branch of the armed forces that Mr. Roosevelt helped develop to such a great magnitude.

A special train stood by to carry the body tonight at 10 o'clock for interment in the garden of Mr. Roosevelt's beloved Hyde Park, N. Y., estate.

Mrs. Roosevelt was stoically dry-eyed through the prayers and hymns her husband liked so much but there was many a damp check through the room. There, too, sat Mrs. Woodrow Wilson who endured the same grief a score of years ago.

Harry Hopkins, closest presidential adviser for years, clung to a chair for support, pale and shaken. Anna Roosevelt Boettiger wept. Crown Princess Martha of Norway dabbed at her eyes frequently.

Only Thing To Fear Is Fear Itself

Bishop Dun led prayer and then recalled that Mr. Roosevelt 12 years ago voiced his own deep faith that "the only thing we have to fear is fear itself."

And as that was his first word as President, the bishop, said, "I am sure he would wish it to be his last and that we should go forward into the future as those who go forward without fear of the future, without fear of our Allies and friends, and without fear of our own insufficiencies."

A vested choir led in a hymn that reflected Mr. Roosevelt's love of the sea: "Eternal Father, Strong to the sea." (Continued On Back Page)

Cpl. Aubrey J. Davis Is Performing Vital Part In Air Transport

ATC AIR BASE, BARREIN ISLAND — Corporal Aubrey J. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Davis, 508 North Kelley, Street, Lamesa, Texas, is playing a part in flying vital war materials from this Air Transport Command base just off the coast of southern Arabia, in the Persian Gulf, to Russia and the Far East.

He is a refueling unit operator with the job of supervising the refueling of aircraft which stop here enroute to the Far East. He was inducted at Ft. Sill, Okla., on October, 1942, and saw service at four domestic posts before departing for overseas eight months ago.

Of places he has visited since in North Africa, he likes Alexandria in northern Egypt because it was the cleanest city he saw and reminded him most of his home town.

Cpl. Davis now is taking an Army course in auto mechanics for postwar use. In civilian life he was an automotive electrician for the Whitlow Battery and Electric Company of Lamesa. He attended high school in this city.

Right Feeding Increases Milk

The pressure to grow more food this year brings the dairy cow to the front. She is second to none in changing raw materials like roughage and grain into human food, says G. C. Gibson, dairy husbandman for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

The dairy cow responds to the right kind of feeding and management with an immediate increase in milk production. With cows in the full flush of milking and pastures young and succulent, Gibson believes that Texas dairymen have the biggest opportunity to keep their herds at peak production in order to increase the nation's food stocks.

Gibson says that the Extension Service eight-point dairy program is designed to help do this now and in the months ahead. Under the program dairymen are being urged to grow an abundance of high-quality roughage; balance their herds with their feed supplies; keep

Dr. Cox Says—

The month of April is, by proclamation of Governor Coke R. Stevenson, Cancer Control month in Texas. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, is asking each citizen to consider the danger signals and secure medical advice at the first appearance of any suspicious symptom. There are many causes of cancer; the most common form of which is chronic or prolonged irritation.

One of the questions often asked is whether or not cancer is hereditary in human beings. Tendencies to form cancer may possibly be inherited; however, since the method of inheriting such tendencies is obscure, the presence of cancer in one or both parents should be merely a cause of greater alertness in looking for and recognizing suspicious symptoms on the part of family members. There is no need of a fatalistic attitude. The facts concerning heredity do not justify them.

At the first warning signs recognized, consult your physician. The early symptoms are any sore that does not heal, particularly about the tongue, mouth, or lips, a painless lump or thickening, especially in the breast, lip, or tongue; irregular bleeding or discharge from any natural body opening; progressive change in the size or color of a wart, mole, or birthmark; persistent indigestion; persistent hoarseness or difficulty in swallowing; and any change in normal bowel habits. See your doctor about any of these signals.

Early recognition of cancer symptoms will lead to early diagnosis and treatment, and in many cases the victim can be entirely cured and live out a normal life span.

production records on each cow in their herds; practice disease control; produce milk and cream of the highest quality; adopt labor-saving methods; take care of their land, and develop a sound breeding program.

With the cost of producing milk at high level, Gibson emphasizes that it is most important that only good cows be kept for milking. Culling low producers and giving the cows with the productive capacity proper feed and care will pay off in a larger volume of milk at lower production cost. Dairy herd improvement association figures show that the cost of feeding a cow today is about three times as much as it was five years ago, Gibson explains. In the same period the cost of labor also has increased considerably.

Look! Here's A Queer Duck

AP Newsfeatures
MINNEAPOLIS — Oscar Johnson, regional director of the Federal Fish and Wildlife Service, has spent more than 25 years studying wild life in the Middle West. But he had the tables turned on him recently.

A wild mallard duck had him under close-up observation for more than half an hour—while in flight. It happened like this:

Johnson, driving from Dickinson to Bismarck, N. D., heard a swish of wings close to the open car window and discovered a duck flying alongside.

"It was so close I could have reached out and caught it," says Johnson. "Occasionally it craned its neck around to look inside the car. I tried to shake it by slowing and speeding up the car. But the duck adjusted its flight accordingly.

Bascom Giles, Land Commissioner Outlines Texas Veterans Land Plan

Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, accepted an invitation and appeared before the Texas House of Representatives at 11 a. m., March 28th, at which time he presented a plan to provide for a $25,000,000 "Revolving Fund" to purchase land for disposition exclusively to Texas Veterans of World War II. He pointed out that a Constitutional Amendment would be necessary to permit the use of the Public Free School Fund money and recommended that the Governor, the President of the State Board of Education and himself, constitute a Board to be known as the Veterans Land Board, to purchase these lands so that every possible safe-guard might be thrown about the investment for this fund.

Commissioner Giles recommended the acquisition of such lands in Texas as may be suitable and obtainable as follows:

a. Federal Government Military Installations.

b. Texas Prison and other State Lands.

c. Approximately 500,000 acres of the 1,500,000 acres of Public Free School Land.

d. The purchase of such private lands as would be practicable.

He proposed to dispose of this land through sale by the School Land Board, composed of the Governor, Attorney General and himself, to Texas Veterans of World War II under the following terms and conditions:

a. Begin sales six (6) months after duration of the present war and extend for a period of five (5) years.

b. The State's purchase price of $5,000.00 to be the maximum amount allowed any one Texas Veteran.

c. No land to be sold at less than purchase price.

d. To be sold for all cash or as low as 1.10th down payment, 4 per cent interest, 40 years time on balance. e. 1-8th free royalty on sulphur and 1-16th free royalty on oil and gas and all other minerals reserved to the State.

The recommended plan will provide an opportunity for at least 10,000 Texas Veterans to become the owners of Texas lands, varying in size from 50 to a possible 2500 acres, depending upon the value, Commissioner Giles pointed out.

It affords a very workable plan for the return of large quantities of Federal Government and State owned lands to private ownership, which would be placed back upon the tax rolls of the Counties and State.

This one-fourth (1-4th) of the Permanent School Fund will be in land—the soundest possible investment—the source from which it came. Many bonds now held by this Fund draw as little as 2 1-2 per cent interest, while the money invested in these lands will be a first lien bearing 4 per cent interest.

"We have received numerous letters and visitations to the office from men in the Armed Forces, expressing a desire to own Texas lands and establish homes. This plan would afford them an opportunity to be self-supporting and independent and would not be a gift or dole. The Texas Veterans would receive the benefit of the enormous cash buying power of the State, which would be passed on to them on easy terms.

I appeal to you, Members of the 49th Legislature, to do your duty on behalf of the Texas Veterans of this war. I feel confident you welcome this opportunity," Commissioner Giles said.

Plains Group Fight Road Bond Plan

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article concerning the coming City Charter Election was submitted by V. O. Key. The Courier will accept without charge articles of reasonable length from those who are for or against the proposed charter.

AUSTIN, April 5 (AP) — Representatives of five West Texas counties urged the Senate committee on constitutional amendments to safeguard their participation in the road bond assumption program.

The group, composed of G. P. Beane of Plains, Z. O. Lincoln of Levelland and C. L. Lincoln of Brownfield, represented the counties of Gaines, Yoakum, Terry, Hockley, and Lamb.

They told the committee that if the House-approved constitutional amendment were enacted by the Senate, as it came from the House, they would not be eligible to share in the road bond assumption program, because their bonds were issued between the two deadlines set for participation.

The committee was informed that bonds involved amounted to approximately $1,400,000.

No action will be taken by the committee until next Wednesday, Chairman Jesse Martin announced.

The above item indicates the mess this county would have been in as well, had it not been for a few wide awake citizens.—V. O. Key.

NOTICE

I understand that proponents of the city charter have been making the clubs of the city and having them go on record in favor of the charter. I think this is a very unfair method to the members thereof. The idea of placing a club on record in favor of anything political. If the clubs are going to discuss political questions they surely should hear both sides and then not go on record either way. Don't fail to read my article opposing city charter in this issue.—V. O. Key.

War Bond Drive Began Today for Dawson County

The Seventh War Loan Drive proper will get into full swing today Monday, April 16, in this county and intensive efforts will be put forth in this area to reach the $750,000 over-all quota with the 'E' Bond quota of $445,000 assessed Dawson County.

Cal Farley, of Amarillo, was in this city Friday and addressed school officials, instructing them in the drive—as the drive will largely center around the schools of the county. Mr. Farley and Sam Hunter, also of Amarillo, were guests at the Rotary Club where they spoke in interest of the War Loan Drive.

During the past week Ed DuBoe, over-all chairman for Dawson County, J. R. Earnest, who is in charge of the publicity for the drive, and P. K. Humes, County Supt., visited the rural schools of the county, explaining to them their part in the drive and leaving needed materials.

Prizes will be offered to school children who participate in the campaign. Four $25.00 war bonds will be awarded with 2 bonds going to the rural schools of the county, and 2 allotted to the Lamesa School District.

Two bonds will be given to the boys or girls who sell the largest number of bonds and two will be presented to those selling the largest amount. In addition a $100 bond will be offered to the county champion bond salesman. Other prizes include captured German helmets, mess kits, letters signed by General Eisenhower and General Patton, and those will be given to deserving county school children.

Mrs. Kenneth Esmond, chairman of the women's division and her co-chairmen Mrs. A. E. Jacobs and Mrs. Arthur Hull stated that booths will be open throughout the drive at both banks, for the convenience of bond buyers. Also, each Saturday campaign booths will be placed on each side of the square where bonds and stamps may be bought.

Plans are also being made to canvass the city in interest of the payroll savings plan which will be put into effect during the Seventh War Loan Drive.

The United Nations are on the march. Thousands of our men have stormed Germany, and we are attacking Jap held territory as never before. This is a great day for us. But, it means that the time has come for us to really tighten our belts here on the home front. We have come to a most crucial period in the war, and the success that we will have on the fighting fronts, will depend to a considerable extent upon the degree to which we here at home are willing to work and sacrifice for ultimate victory.

It's going to be a costly victory. We have said that before, but we must repeat it again and again. Your Government must call upon you, the American people, for the money. It is up to all of us here at home to do more than our part and do it more enthusiastically, more thoroughly and with greater sacrifice than any attack has ever been backed by any home front in all history. Everything is at stake. Everyone must help to the very limit of his ability.

Clothing Drive Well Underway In Dawson County

County Judge Killmer B. Corbin, chairman of the United National Clothing Collection Drive for this county, which is being conducted throughout the month of April for destitute peoples of Europe, states that the drive is well underway.

The biggest part of the drive in rural sections will be conducted through the schools. During the past week Judge Corbin visited with the rural schools of this county and plans were made whereby clothing may be left at the schools in each community, after which they will be gathered by a committee.

The local high school will conduct a special drive the last week of April under the direction of Mrs. Robert Wade, Home Economic teacher. Mrs. Wade will be assisted by members of the Home Economics Department.

Points for collection in Lamesa have been designated as the County Judge's Office and the American Legion Hall. A number of articles have been brought in, but much more will be needed to fill Dawson County's quota of 21,000 pounds.

This April clothing drive is the one clothing campaign for overseas relief to be conducted this spring. It is one—for all collection in which the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration and the various voluntary war relief agencies all participate. And, through mutual agreement among them, the destination of the garments, shoes and bedding will be determined by the relative need among the people of all the countries involved.

These millions had their wardrobes five years ago. Many of them had more than a single suit, a single coat or a single pair of shoes. But, when the Axis aggressors invaded their homes, these millions were left with only the clothes they were wearing.

Think as you collect, as you house clean that warm sturdy garments, such as shoes, tied in pair; plains shoes, knitted headgears, hoods, stocking caps, or any sort of clean bedding; clothes and more clothes, any kind, every size, but practical are badly needed. Warmth and wear is the watchword.

During the last week of April a committee of local women will be on duty at the Legion Hall, sorting and packaging the clothing in groups, according to sizes.

Miss Betty Billingsley, Miss Estelle Billingsley and Miss Elizabeth Smith left Sunday for New York City, where they will spend two weeks vacationing.

CITY DRY CLEANERS
CECIL A. POLNAC, manager

So the city folks have done it! Well, WATCH OUR SPEED!

WORD comes from Washington that the fat-salvage problem has got to be licked in the small cities, the towns and on the farms.

We women have to save enough used fats in our kitchens to help make munitions, medicines, fabrics, soap for military and civilian use, and many other essentials.

The job, to date, has been done largely by city people, because arrangements for collecting the fats were made in the cities first. And these city folks are turning in more than twelve million pounds a month!

Now we're called on. And will the women on the farms and in the towns and small cities break that record?

Don't worry — just watch our speed!

HOW TO DO IT: Save all used fats in a tin can. Keep it handy to the stove. Scrape your broilers and roasting pans, skim soups and gravies, for every drop counts. Keep solid pieces of fat, as meat trimmings and table scraps, in a bowl.

Melt down once a week when your oven's going, add the liquid fat to the salvage can.

Take the can to your butcher as soon as it's full. He will give you two red points and up to four cents for every pound. If you have any difficulty, call your County Agent or Home Demonstration Agent. This message is approved by WFA and OPA, and paid for by Industry.

100,000,000 More Pounds Of Used Fats Are Needed This Year!

Pfc. J. H. Curry Killed Feb. 16th In Germany

Mrs. J. W. Richie recently received a telegram from the War Department informing her that her son, Pfc. James H. Curry was killed in action, February 25, in Germany.

Pfc. Curry, 19, entered service in February, 1944, and received training at Camp Roberts, California. He left for overseas in October and was with the Infantry.

Mrs. Richey has three other sons, Pvt. John C. Curry, who is also in the Infantry, Frank 17, and Doyle 15; three daughters, Mrs. W. B. Dulin, El Paso, Texas; Mrs. Irvin Benthall, Brownfield; and Mrs. W. P. Dickison, Monument, New Mexico.

The following letter was written to Mrs. Richey, regarding the death of her son, Pfc. James H. Curry.

My dear Mrs. Curry:
Permit me to offer you my deepest sympathy in the death of your son, Pfc. James H. Curry, killed in action on February 25, 1945. James was a splendid boy and I know what a void this leaves in your life. Though he was with "K" company only a short time, he made many friends and the officers and men asked me to express to you their condolences and regrets.

I was with the battalion at the time and can give you the details. At that time we were part of the First Army in the drive toward the Rhine. Company "K" had the mission of taking a town on a hill, which was a very important place. They started out after dark and succeeded in fighting their way into the town.

James was in a house when a shell struck the building and he fell. His comrades went to his side but there was nothing they could do. Death was merciful in this—it came instantly and he did not suffer.

He is buried in a United States Military Cemetery in eastern Belgium. A Protestant Chaplain conducted services at the cemetery.

May God comfort and console you in your sorrow. James died bravely that the world might be a better place for all mankind. I trust that even in your sorrow you can have a feeling of pride in a gallant son. May God grant that out of such sacrifices as this true and lasting peace may come to a suffering world.

Sincerely yours,
GERALD A. QUINN,
Chaplain.

BOONE DRUG

Above is pictured the late Kenneth Williams, popular young son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams, who was killed in a head-on automobile collision, between Lamesa and O'Donnell, March 16, 1945. Kenneth was very active in school and church activities.

In Memory of Kenneth Williams

By BONNIE WALDROP

The sun arose one bright happy morn,
To reveal a new son born;
So tiny and sweet and lovely was he,
Who someday a man would be.

In childhood he grew, except in size,
In which he never could rise;
So in kindness and love he gave his all,
Instead of growing tall.

As older he grew his love increased,
To live for God he never ceased;
He conquered all he ever tried,
For God was always by his side.

To manhood he gazed with fearless eye,
Little dreaming that he was soon to die;
He prepared for his life with zeal and zest,
But God decided he needed a rest.

So while he was young God took his hand,
"Come Home, my good little man,
Your life has been short, but you lived it for Me,
So Heaven and happiness I want you to see."

One dark silent night he rode out of town,
In his rattling little red strip down,
He left his home with a smile on his face,
And 'twas this he left this place.

On a dark cold highway came the fatal blow,
And 'twas very soon after that Kenneth did go,
Yes, Kenneth has gone, but he's with us yet,
For his lovable life we shall never forget.

HOT BEANS COST $20,000 IN FOXHOLE

SPARTANBURG, S. C. (AP) — Capt. Charles E. Danaher, former adjutant of an Infantry training battalion at Camp Croft here, writes that he was lying in a foxhole in Germany with nothing to eat except two cans of cold beans. He had nothing to burn except a lot of German marks which he had heard were worthless. He kept a few souvenirs and made a pretty good fire with the rest. Several days later he learned that the marks had really been good currency, and that heating his beans had cost $20,000.

Death Comes—

 citement to round up those who had to be informed.

Tears and quivering voice accompanied the announcement of the President's death by Hassett.

Miss Tully, Miss Alice Winegar, Hassett's secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy Brady, presidential stenographer, sat tense on a sofa as Hassett gave the news.

Order by Doctors to Take Rest
 Mr. Roosevelt arrived at Warm Springs March 30. He had been underweight and his doctors wanted him to take it easy to see if he could regain the poundage at which he felt comfortable.

Rumors had been heard the last few days that the President was not picking up as much as his doctors would have liked.

He received reporters last Thursday and, in the presence of Sergio Osmena, President of the Philippine Commonwealth, told of his desire to grant full independence to the islands by autumn.

Mr. Roosevelt also outlined ambitious postwar plans for American participation in the western Pacific to prevent further Japanese aggression.

He said the United States and the other United Nations must accept trusteeship over Japanese-mandated islands, build new naval and air bases and help the Philippines rebuild economically after the commonwealth becomes a self-governing nation. Reports of this news conference were to have been withheld for security reasons until the President returned to Washington.

The death announcement was made in the center of the 2,000-acre Warm Springs Foundation for polio treatment which the President helped found more than twenty years ago. That was before he began serving his first term as Governor of New York.

The announcement was dictated to reporters in a white cottage across a red clay road from the administration building of the foundation where Hassett and four other White House attaches were making their home here.

This was Mr. Roosevelt's second stay here in four months. The President spent nineteen days here only last November-December.

Gray Pallor Noted by Reporters
 Reporters who attended his news conference a week ago Thursday noted his gray pallor. This had been noticeable however for many months and had caused considerable comment among White House correspondents.

Mr. Roosevelt's voice also had become weak in recent months, and he frequently asked reporters to repeat questions.

This was attributable, according to those close to him, to a sinus leakage into the throat which caused slight constrictions.

Hassett gave reporters the first word.

"It is my sad duty," he told the reporters, "to announce the President died at 3:35 p. m., of a cerebral hemorrhage."

The tradition-shattering presidential career of Franklin Delano Roosevelt spanned turbulent years of peace in which he worked to lift the nation out of a depression and tumultuous years of war when he played a dominant role in charting an Allied victory.

While he gained the adulation of millions, the unprecedented moves he made and the political theories he embraced made him the frequent target for blistering criticism.

Accusations ranged from demagoguery to dictatorship. The public debt jumped to a record peacetime high, then to even greater wartime peaks. Critics charged the President with trying to pack the Supreme Court after that tribunal had thrown out several of his favorite projects and he sought to inject "new blood" by reorganizing the membership. Some party stalwarts forsook him.

But he became the first President in history to be elected to a third term — and by a smashing majority — and then won the nomination for a fourth.

10 Lamesa Pupils Will Represent School At Meet

Six Lamesa High School pupils won first places and four additional pupils from the local high school won places in their events at the Conference AA Meet to be held next Saturday at West Texas State College, Canyon. Lamesa pupils won first place in each of the four declamation contests to make a "clean sweep" in that event. Alice Joy Barron, senior girl; Truett Burkett, senior boy; Bobby Joyce Schooler, junior girl and Otis Arnett, junior boy were the declamation winners.

Dorothy Marks won the blue ribbon in Girls' Extemporaneous Speaking. Truett Burkett qualified for the

The bishop prayed:

"Remember thy servant, Franklin Delano, O Lord, according to the favor which thou bearest unto thy people and grant that, increasing in knowledge and love of thee, he may go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in thy heavenly kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

"Oh God, from whom every good gift cometh, we thank thee for the qualities of heart and mind for this, thy servant, brought to the service of our nation and our world."

Mrs. Roosevelt was first to leave the room when the service ended at 3:23 p. m. CWT, and the others filed out slowly, including British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden and the British ambassador, Lord Halifax.

Many Distinguished Visitors

Emir Faisal, son of King Ibn Saud of Arabia, wearing the traditional burnoose, was the only man with covered head. Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York; the Earl of Athlone, governor general of Canada, and many other distinguished visitors were there.

At the same time, the British colony in Washington conducted similar services on the lawn of the embassy.

Prayers at both rites besought guidance and strength for President Truman to carry on.

Throughout the nation, 3 p. m. CWT, was the signal for silent prayer. The Army and Navy set aside five minutes of meditation, here and abroad where war conditions permitted. There will be memorial services tomorrow, the war permitting, wherever American forces are deployed and American ships sail.

NATION OFFERS FINAL TRIBUTE

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
 HYDE PARK, N. Y., April 15 (AP) — As President Truman looked on with a face frozen in grief, Franklin D. Roosevelt was committed Sunday to the warm brown earth of his native soil.

Under a cloudless spring sky the body of the late Chief Executive was lowered solemnly into a grave in the flower garden of his family estate.

Watching with strained faces were members of the family, dignitaries of government and little sad-faced groups of plain people—the employees on the place and neighbors from the countryside.

A detail of grey-clad cadets from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point fired a volley of three farewell salutes. A bugler played "Taps," its sweet but still sad notes echoing through the wooded estate.

Soldiers, sailors and marines who had held an American flag over the casket, folded it and handed it to Mrs. Roosevelt.

The garden where Roosevelt rests lies between the family home where he was born 63 years ago and the library which houses his state papers and the gifts of a world which recognized him as one of its pre-eminent leaders.

Use ground meat promptly. If it is necessary to keep it more than a day, cover and freeze it.

Regional Meet by winning third in the Slide Rule contest.

Biddy White will represent the local school in the typewriting contest by placing third in the Lubbock contest.

Anita Oliver won second place in the Ready Writers Contest and qualified for the Regional Contest in that event.

Dan Boone placed first to lead a fast group of contestants in the 220 yard low hurdles and will compete with the other conference winners at Canyon. Edgar Hawkins, Lamesa Mile Run contestant, took second place to qualify for the Canyon meet.

Lamesa tennis contestants in the boys events won second places in both singles and doubles, but Plainview players will report to Canyon as winners of first places.

Lamesa Honors President In Reverent Memorial Service

Lamesa citizens joined millions of sorrowing Americans in paying tribute to Franklin Delano Roosevelt in a reverent memorial service at the First Baptist Church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Carl Rountree, local lawyer, was the principal speaker and was heard by a solemn and mourning group of Americans. Referring to the early life of the great president, Mr. Rountree lauded the fact that although born of aristocratic and wealthy parents and given every educational and social advantage, Roosevelt early showed sympathy for the common man or "forgotten man" to use his own words.

Continuing his brief resume of the president's life, the speaker pointed out that as a member of the New York Senate, he introduced many bills and assisted in the passage of these bills to aid the common man. He was especially noted for his work in connection with old age pensions and bills to improve the working conditions of factory laborers.

As assistant Secretary of the Navy in World War I, Mr. Rountree told of Mr. Roosevelt's work in planning the nature and type of new construction for the expansion of the navy, rendering valuable service to this country. The young assistant secretary visited the battlefronts learning how men fought. "In his fight for overcoming infantile paralysis he displayed great courage and bravery. His fight to help others so afflicted and the results of those efforts alone would make him a great man if he contributed nothing else to human welfare," the lawyer stated.

During Mr. Roosevelt's tenure as governor of New York his reforms and fight for the common people made him a logical candidate for president of the United States, Mr. Rountree continued. After his election he was wholly unable to see how the government would let any person go jobless and hungry in a country of such great wealth. The president expended every effort to feed the hungry and give jobs to the jobless, doing this by taxing the rich.

The speaker praised the president in foreseeing World War II and told how he tried to arouse the people of the United States to the danger involved by demanding preparedness of the army and navy. "For this effort he was denounced as a war monger and sword rattler. At that time he could have built an army and navy and it is barely possible that the present conflict would have been avoided," Mr. Rountree emphasized.

Concluding his tribute the speaker told his attentive and sorrowing listeners that Mr. Roosevelt's leadership in the present war is too well known to need comment. "Through his leadership we have the greatest and best equipped army and navy that ever went forth to war. He tried to care for each individual soldier as a father would for his own son, governor." "He had every great charge war-time presidents — Washington, Lincoln and Roosevelt." It can truly be said of him as the Virginia Assembly said of a colonial governor." He had every great characteristic both in public and private life with which a human being could be endowed."

Rev. David Murray led the group in prayer and special music was given by a men's choir singing "How Firm a Foundation." Mrs. Richard Young, organist, played "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Clyde Branon read Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" as a tribute.

Rev. Cal Wright gave the benediction and as the flag bearers, Bobbie Foutz, Charles Smith, Walter and Warren Massengale, retreated with the colors, Richard Young played "Taps" and Mrs. Young played "The Star Spangled Banner." The flag bearers were Boy Scouts, under direction of Joe Spikes. Services were well attended.
