Town Talk

By Mac McKinnon

There's been a lot of activity going on here in recent weeks and with September nearly over, it's looking like October will be a busy month.

The month starts off with the annual Mitchell County Fair which promises to be bigger and better than ever. Then later in October comes the annual Railroad Arts & Crafts Fair.

Also during the last two weekends in October will be the melo drama, Lady Audley's Secret or Murder in Lime Tree Walk at Colorado City Playhouse.

During the weekend of the Arts & Crafts Fair will be the final presentations of the melo drama, a turkey shoot has been scheduled by the Mitchell County Gun Club and a cutting horse competition has been scheduled.

During all of this will be football games and homecoming weekend on Oct. 13. So it's stacking up to be a very busy fall.

The new television season is underway and there are a number of new shows that I really enjoy. Probably the best night for TV is Tuesday. There are two new shows on from 7 to 8 p.m. but they probably won't get very high ratings because they are opposite two of the most popular shows on television for the past several years.

At that time on ABC Happy Days and Laverne and Shirley are very popular. I'm a Happy Days fan but I've never really cared much for Laverne and Shirley although judging by the ratings, they're the favorite of the rest of the nation.

On CBS is a new show, Paper Chase starring John House as a law professor. It is a drama with some humor and some tremendous acting. The first episode made me a real fan. Then at that same time on NBC is Jack Albertson in Grandpa Goes To Washington, a tremendously funny show with a lot of truth. Grandpa calls everything as he sees it, much to the chagrin of fellow politicians.

The ratings battle is really on between the networks but CBS and NBC are going to have a hard time overcoming the popularity of shows on ABC. On Tuesday night, CBS and NBC have scheduled blockbuster movies opposite ABC's popular Three's Company and Starsky & Hutch. CBS and NBC might win a few battles but they'll lose the war on that night.

On Tuesday night, it seems ABC has one dud, that's the new show, TAXI. The premiere show was entertaining, although slow to develop but the second show was a real loser.

Monday night, CBS has two new shows, joining two of my favorites, *M*A*S*H* and Lou Grant. One is *W*KR*P* in Cincinnati about a radio station. The first show was good but it'll take some sharp writing to keep it going because the possibilities for this show seem limited. Then there is PEOPLE, with a magazine format starring Phyllis George as hostess. The first show was good and very fast paced. There is nothing new on the other two networks as they return popular shows such as Welcome Back Kotter (which I can't stand), Monday Night Football, Monday Night Movies and Little House On The Prairie.

One new show which seems to be a certain hit is on ABC on Sunday night, Battle Star Galactica. The premiere episode was very good.

On Wednesday night, ABC returns with popular shows Eight Is Enough and Charlie's Angels and have added a private eye show, VEGAS, which is a little different and could prove to be popular.

The other two networks have movies from 8 to 10 with NBC having Dick Clark's Live Wednesday, a variety hour which with Clark's popularity, could be a winner. On CBS, there is The Jeffersons, a popular show and a new show, In The Beginning with McLean Stevenson, formerly of *M*A*S*H*. The first episode proved to be touching and funny.

Thursday night has limited possibilities with ABC having Mork and Mandy (a new show that probably won't make it), What's Happening, Barney Miller, Soap and Family. On CBS there is The Waltons and Barnaby Jones. NBC has Project UFO, Quincy and W.E.B. (another new show that seems destined to fold).

Friday night has one new show with possibilities with Joe Namath starring in Waverly Wonders. The premiere show was good and Namath shows he has acting ability. That's on NBC. Two other shows on NBC are Who's Watching The Kids, which I don't believe will make it through the year and Eddie Capra Mysteries which might make it. On CBS is Wonder Woman and the Incredible Hulk. On ABC is the Donnie and Marie Show and Friday Night Movie.

On Saturday, CBS has two new shows that I don't think will make it, The American Girls and The Dallas. The two-hour premiere of Dallas several months ago was rather boring and The American Girls is attempting to copy Charlie's Angels and one show like that is enough. The same is true of Flying High on Friday on CBS.

NBC has on Saturday Chips and a movie. On ABC is Carter Country, one new show, Apple Pie which I haven't seen, Love Boat and Fantasy Island.

One new show that is enjoyable is WFAA's (Channel 8) PM Magazine at 6:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Two other shows to premiere this next week are Kaz and Mary, both on CBS Sunday.

Teachers Join CISD Staff

Two new teachers have been added to the Colorado Independent School District professional staff since classes began in August.

Susan Garcia was approved by the school board in the September session to teach first grade at Kelley Elementary School.

Mrs. Garcia lives in Sweetwater and she and her husband, Jess, have three children—Daryl, 8, Storm, 7, and Elizabeth 3. Mrs. Garcia earned a B.A. degree from Patterson State in New Jersey and received a Master's Degree from New Mexico Highlands University.

Although the school board has yet to officially approve her application, Katherine Walla has begun teaching in the language learning disability program at Colorado Middle School.

Receiving a B.S. Degree from McMurry College in Abilene, Mrs. Walla is originally from Merkel.

Her husband, Mike, teaches art at the high school and they have lived in Colorado City for six years. They are the parents of two children, Nikki Jo, 3, and Michael Jason, 4 months.

One vacancy still remains in the CISD at Middle School, the position of librarian.

Attendance at Lake Colorado City State Park for the 1977-78 fiscal year has been tallied with 282,337 people visiting the park.

The Texas State Park system fiscal year runs from Sept. 1 to Aug. 31, according to Park Ranger Bill Griffin.

During the 1976-77 fiscal year, there were 287,561 people visiting Lake Colorado City State Park.

Griffin said that this year, park attendance was down by 5,224 people over last year.

Council To Discuss Hangars

City Council of Colorado City will meet Tuesday night in a regular session to discuss various items, including a hangar ground lease agreement for Colorado City Airport.

At the last regular session of the council, the main portion of the meeting revolved around building hangars at the airport.

A proposed hangar ground lease agreement will be considered by the council for approval.

Also listed on the agenda for discussion by the council is the possibility of constructing city-owned multi-plane hangars at the airport.

In other business, the council will open and award a bid for the lease of oil, gas and mineral rights to certain city-owned property.

Consideration of an ordinance granting a rate increase to Texas Electric Service Company will take place at the meeting.

Colorado City Chamber of Commerce has submitted a request to the council for motel occupancy tax funds. That will be considered by the council.

The meeting is set to begin at 7 p.m. at City Hall.

Donut Alley Opens

Grand opening ceremonies will be held Monday at Colorado City's newest business, Donut Alley, 136 Walnut.

Operated by Mike and Norma Irvin with a combined total of 40 years experience in the baking business, Donut Alley, is a complete bakery.

In addition to traditional glazed donuts, Donut Alley has everything imaginable in the line of homemade sweets including apple and cherry critters, cinnamon rolls, cakes, pies, brownies, cookies, sweet rolls, Danish pastries, apple and cherry turnovers, cream puffs, fruit filled coffee cakes and much more.

In addition, Donut Alley has a wide variety of homemade breads including French and Italian loaves, cheese bread, nacho loaves, sourdough bread, natural grain (with molasses & honey) bread, jalapeno bread, garlic bread, and apple-cinnamon bread, all made without preservatives.

Donut Alley also has eight flavors of old fashioned ice cream, soft drinks, coffee, potato chips, milk, real orange juice and 22 different ready to go sandwiches that can be warmed in the micro-wave ovens at Donut Alley.

down about 10,000," said Griffin, explaining that limited visitation was put into effect at state parks this year.

Under limited visitation, the park can only admit as many campers as there are camp sites. Lake Colorado City State Park has 132 camp sites and when those units are filled, no other over-night campers are admitted.

There is, however, unlimited admittance for day use.

Holidays generally draw a big crowd at Lake Colorado City State Park, it was noted.

This year, Easter weekend saw 9,378 vehicles admitted to the park during the three day holiday.

Memorial weekend—despite rain—pulled in a crowd of 10,108 vehicles this year. For 1977, there were 15,500 vehicles to visit the park over Memorial weekend and in 1976 there were 15,200.

Historical Commission Tours Heritage House

Touring the Heritage House, located at 425 Chestnut, was the thrust of Wednesday's meeting of the Mitchell County Historical Commission.

Lee Jones Jr. led the group of about 12 people through the Scott-Majors home which Memory Preservation, Inc., has undertaken as a project to restore. Once completed, the Heritage House will be used for historical tours and the setting for exhibits and other events.

Bobbie Steakley, chairperson of the Historical Commission, pointed out to the group two coal burning fireplaces which are in the Heritage House.

"I've sat in front of both of those fireplaces," remembered Mrs. C. P. Gary.

Jones described various parts of the house, explaining to the group some of the history behind the home.

One of the rooms of the house will be used to keep rare books, old documents and collector's items. This room will also be used to

Rainfall Damages Theatre

Wednesday night's rainfall caused an estimated $2,000 damage to the Palace Theatre, according to Ed Walls, owner and operator of the movie.

Walls said that he was in the process of having a new roof put on the building and the constructor had not yet weatherized the roof. Thus, the rain caused substantial ceiling damage and soaked the carpeting.

The Palace Theatre will be closed until Thursday or Friday for repairs.

1978 saw 5,954 people visit the park, said Griffin.

By a monthly comparison, April saw the biggest attendance at the park this year with 43,484 people passing through the gates. For 1977, the largest attendance month was May when 50,869 people visited the park.

For September of 1977, there were 24,222 people visiting the park in comparison to 21,061 for September of 1976.

October of 1977 also pulled in a larger crowd than the year before with 15,750 visiting in 1977 and 9,946 visiting in 1976.

November of 1977 saw 11,244 visitors to the park while that same month of 1976 had 6,125.

Some 7,277 visited the state park in December of 1977 while 4,566 visited in December, 1976.

In January attendance began to drop for this year in comparison to last year. For 1978, attendance in January was 4,881 in comparison to 4,973 in 1977.

February of 1978 saw 8,176 visitors in contrast to 11,655 for the same month the previous year.

In March attendance was on the increase this year with 26,710 visiting the park. Last March, there were 17,294 visitors at the park.

This year, 43,484 passed through the park gates in April while 35,945 visited the park in the same month of 1977.

May this year saw 36,037 visitors in comparison to 50,869 visitors last year. May 1978 was when the limited visitation began.

June of 1978 had 41,506 park visitors while in 1977, there were 45,789 visitors that same month.

In July this year, 39,659 attended the park while last year there were 47,172 visitors in July.

The final month of the fiscal year for 1977-78 had 23,441 visitors while last year, there were 32,166 park visitors in August.

Students Gain Helpful Experience Working With Elderly In Loraine

The Loraine chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is actively carrying out the goals set up by the executive committee for the club year. The project for the month of September is to "involve youth with adults in individual and group activities." The chapter members have scheduled regular hours to become involved with the adults in the Loraine Nursing Home, both in individual and group contacts.

Two of the members, Ricky Hallmark and Jeff Wooddell have a domino tournament going with the residents there. Karen Tarrt and Lupe Vallejo have a "reading" session. Elba Munoz and Rita Galvan and Jaye Salmon have been writing letters for patients. Tommy Darnell, Kelvin Bailey and Gloria Moreno take the residents for walks.

The students also assist in recreational exercises for the group, with crafts and with serving of snacks. This project has been most meaningful for the students in helping better understand the problems of aging; looking at medical services as career opportunities; and developing skills in communication and recreation.

Look Who's New

Glenda Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Eckler of Colorado City was born in Root Memorial Hospital September 17 weighing 7 lbs. 2 ozs.

FHA takes on a new aspect as Tommy Darnell and Jaye Salmon spend an afternoon visiting with patients who can't get out to visit much. Tommy and Jaye are LHS students.

WORKING WITH the elderly at Loraine Nursing Home has been a meaningful experience for LHS students as well as for the residents. Enjoying an outdoor walk are: (left to right) Rita Galvan, Mrs. Curry and Kelvin Bailey.

Mistakes

Rev. Bob Ford

Pastor

First United Methodist Church

The following is an article that I found in the church newsletter of First United Methodist Church in Paducah, Texas. My friend Henry Salley is the pastor of the church.

"You have probably heard how 'Ivory Soap' was made. It was first made by a mistake. The man in charge of the mixing machine forgot to turn it off at the proper time. The machine ran on and on, until too much air was mixed into the concoction. Thus, the Soap was able to float and was somewhat milder and purer.

"You are probably aware that the first ink blotter was made in an English paper mill. The Mill worker in charge of putting sizing into the vat of paper mix forgot to do it. Low and behold...a worthless batch of paper. He was yelled at. But, it was noticed that this new paper had the property of being absorbant. Thus...a new product and money was on its way.

"You might have heard that once there were no tea bags. It was chance invention...by mistake. In 1904, a tea salesman passed out samples of his company's tea. He had passed out the samples in small silk bags. And yes, some people made the mistake of brewing the tea in the small bags. Thus...'Tea Bags' and a new product.

"If you are like me, I have long thought that God made a mistake in making poisonous snakes. But, low and behold the paper today reflects that a man in Florida is importing over 200 deadly snakes from China. The venom of these snakes will be mixed with the venom of the deadly cobra. The mixture then will be used to treat Lou Gerhig's disease which is a dying of the nerve cells.

"Sometimes good comes from places we least expect it and the blessings of God come in strange ways."

ced that Jo Dammor of Colorado City and Debbie Irene Brame of Wichita Falls, formerly of Loraine, have been selected for inclusion in the 1978 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America.

The Outstanding Young Women of America Program is designed to honor and encourage exceptional young women between the ages of 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in their homes, in their professions and in their communities. Accomplishments such as these are the result of dedication, service and leadership-qualities which deserve to be recognized and remembered.

This is the goal of the many leading women's organizations, college alumni associates and public officials who nominate deserving young women to participate in the program. Serving as chairman of the program's advisory board is Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The women listed, along with approximately 12,000 fellow Outstanding Young Women of America from across the United States, will be presented in the prestigious annual awards volume. In addition they are now being considered for one of the 51 state awards to be presented to those women who have made the most noteworthy contributions in their individual states.

From these 51 state winners, the Ten Outstanding Young Women of America will be chosen and then honored at the annual awards luncheon to be held this fall in Washington, D.C..

Colorado High's ninth grade Wolves copped a 20-14 win over Stamford Thursday night.

Scorers for the Wolves were Todd Neff, Jeff Hammond and Randy Uselton. "On offense, Victor Jackson ran real well with the ball, especially one long run in the fourth quarter when we really needed it," said Coach Mike Hart.

Blocking offensively, Hart noted that Gary Rowe, Doug Tucker and Dennis Heredia played well.

"We had two real good catches by Uselton and Tim Nobles, both leading to touchdowns," Hart said.

"Randy McPhaul and Ricky Luera played defensive tackles and did a good job," Hart added. "Mitchell Williams also did a good job playing safety."

The ninth grade Wolves will meet Post next Thursday in Colorado City with kick-off time 5:30 p.m.

Big Spring Goliad managed to overtake the Colorado City 7th grade football team Thursday 12-0.

Coach Raymond Zamarripa noted that the defensive unit "looked a lot better than last week--the boys were more aggressive."

Zamarripa said Goliad "really didn't hurt us on anything but inexperience."

Next, the 7th grade Wolves will take on Post at Post at 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

In Junior Varsity football action Thursday, the Wolves shot down Stamford 30-0, chalking up the second win of the season for the Colorado City team.

The Wolves defense managed to intercept four Stamford passes and allowed Stamford only two first downs for the night.

Fullback Mark Piland had over 200 yards rushing for the night.

The Wolves JV score could have been higher, it was noted, but several drives by the Colorado City team were stopped on fumbles.

Next, the JV team will take on Post Thursday at 7 p.m. at Wolf Stadium.

Loraine Junior High football team was defeated Thursday night 6-0 by Abilene Christian Junior High.

Abilene Christian Junior High blocked a Bulldog punt in the second quarter, caught the ball and ran it in to score.

"The boys looked better than they did at Roby," said Coach Ken Lightfoot. "Defensively they played a good football game, but

Boxing Meeting Monday

Boxing will get off to an early start this year for the Mitchell County Boys' Club.

Tomorrow (Monday) at 7 p.m. an organizational meeting for those interested in the boxing program will be held at the Boys' Club.

A release form from the parents of the boys who will be participating in boxing will be distributed at the organizational meeting. There is a $2 membership fee.

Coach for the Colorado City Boxing Club this year will be Vince Gaona Sr., who assisted last year's coach, Ken Sanderson.

Painting house numbers on curbs will be a fundraising project the boys will hold this year. Date to paint the house numbers is Sept. 30 beginning at 9 a.m.

Money raised from the project will be used for needed equipment and traveling expenses for the club.

According to Pat Barber, sponsor of the Boys' Club, donations of boxing equipment and weightlifting equipment are needed by the club.

there's still room for improvement."

Thursday the Junior High Bulldogs will meet Forsan at Forsan with kick off time at 6 p.m.

Colorado City's Varsity and Junior Varsity volleyball teams were shot down Thursday night by Kermit.

In the varsity game, the Wolves were downed 15-8, 15-3.

"The score doesn't necessarily reflect the game," said Coach Carol Sue Dakan, "because it was a hard played game."

Coach Dakan added that Maxine Scott had an outstanding night for setting with 19 straight good sets.

"Outstanding net play was provided by Brenda Smith, Jessica Randle, Kim Hardegree and Kathy Garcia," Coach Dakan said.

The JV Wolves lost 15-4, 15-4 to Kermit.

"Sidney Stewart did an outstanding job spiking, along with Deloria Johnson," said Coach Dakan. "There were good sets by Rosa Ausbie and Lydia Aguilar."

Monday the ninth grade, JV and Varsity teams will meet Snyder at Snyder. Games will begin at 5 p.m. with the ninth graders hitting the court.

Loraine's Junior High volleyball team gave Highland a run for their money Tuesday when the Bulldogs won two of the three games played.

TESCO Employees To Meet

Area employees of Texas Electric Service Company will gather at the Colorado City Civic Center Tuesday to honor new members of the company's Quarter Century Club.

Eight employees with 25 years service at Texas Electric will be recognized at the banquet.

Texas Electric President Bill Marquardt of Fort Worth will be featured speaker.

New members of the Quarter Century Club include C. L. Cooley, J. L. Mercer, B. Biggers, J. D. Harris and C. W. Smith of Colorado City.

Other new members to be recognized are C. W. Burgen and R. E. Smith, Jr. of Sweetwater and D. J. Culp of Hermleigh.

In opening action, the Bulldogs were overtaken by Highland 18-10. Scoring for the Bulldogs were Debbie Brown with five points, Mary Lopez, four and Ellie Garcia, one.

Loraine managed to sneak by Highland in the second game 16-14. Debbie Brown scored five points for the Bulldogs while Mary Lopez had six, Leslie Rose, four, and Vanessa McPeters, one.

The final game saw Loraine zipping up the contest with a 15-2 win. Debbie Brown and Mary Lopez led the scoring with five points each. Hortencia Deloera had four and Leslie Rose, one.

When Loraine high school B-team hit the court against Highland, they fell to Highland 15-4, 15-4.

Scorers in the first game were Patty Munoz, one, and Norma Gamez, one, and Tracy Beights, each with two. In the second game, Sandy Briseno scored two and Linda Moreno and

Trojans Shoot Down Bulldogs

Lubbock's Christ the King Trojans stomped the Loraine Bulldogs Friday night in Lubbock 14-0.

It was late in the third quarter before a score was made. The Trojans intercepted a Loraine pass and carried it over the goal for six points. Their extra point attempt proved successful with the score 7-0.

With 9:36 remaining in the fourth quarter the Trojans intercepted another pass from Loraine. Then on a pass play the Trojans marched across the goal for six more points. With the extra point attempt good the Trojans led 14-0. Final score was 14-0.

The Trojans had 13 first downs while Loraine had 11. During the first half the Trojans came out ahead on penetration 5 to 2.

Coach Ken Lightfoot remarked that the team played real well, particularly the defense. Just before the half the Trojans were trying to score again, inches away from the goal line, but the Bulldogs defense held them.

Lake Level Increases

With the recent rainfall, the level at Lake Colorado City has increased.

Wednesday morning, the lake level was 2056.15 feet. Thursday, the lake reading was 2056.45 and Friday morning it had increased to 2056.55. As of 2 p.m. Friday, the level was 2056.85.

Lake Champion did not increase from the rain, an official at Texas Electric Service Company reported. The level of Lake Champion was 2046.90 as of Tuesday.

Farmers Welcome Rainfall

Although the rains may have come a little late, they still were welcomed by farmers, noted Don Stewart, Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service executive director.

Rainfall ranging from 2-3 inches was deposited across Mitchell County Wednesday and Thursday. "It should help the cotton mature," said Stewart, adding that the rain will help the county to have a better quality grade and staple of cotton.

"There's really nothing bad you could say about the rain," Stewart added, explaining that rain now and rain later will cause "a lot of good winter weeds to grow to feed the cattle."

One of the most important aspects affecting the younger cotton, Stewart said, is the date of the freeze.

"The old timers say the frost will be Nov. 10-12," noted Stewart. He explained that the first northerner was 90 days prior to Nov. 11.

Norma Gamez each chalked up one point.

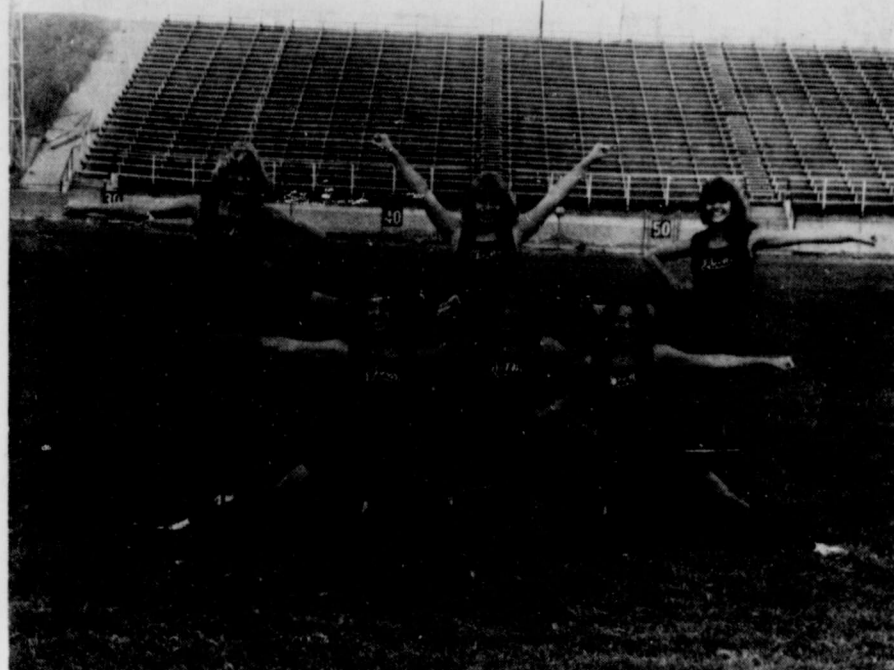

The Bulldog high school A team also suffered two losses to Highland, 15-2, 15-6.

Scoring for Loraine in the first game was Gloria Moreno and Jill Linam, each with one point. In the second game, Gloria Moreno and Jill Linam each scored two while Margaret Munoz and Gay Jones each made one point.

No Booster Meeting

Because Colorado City had an open game this week, there will not be a Booster Club meeting Tuesday.

The next meeting of the Booster Club will be Oct. 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the Middle School cafeteria with the eighth grade Wolves football team introduced. The film from the Post football game will also be viewed at that meeting.

CHEERING the Wolves on during their 1978-79 season are: (left to right) kneeling, Jana Bassinger, Debbie Bowen, Toni Hutto and standing, Kim Fuller, Jamie Parker, head, and Pennie Laws.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL twirlers for 1978-79 are Kathi Wilson, Kim Hutto, Julie Fuller, head, Laurie Mercer and Anne Marcom.

Inflation Prime Issue In District

The partisanship in Congress is dangerous, declared Republican Congressional Candidate Bill Fisher here Friday in an interview with the Record.

He was referring to two recent votes in Congress that directly affect West Texans in the 17th Congressional District which he is seeking to represent.

The votes pertained to a tax cut which affects inflation, the number one issue in this district, Fisher pointed out. The other vote was on energy which is the number two issue in the 17th District which includes Mitchell County.

Both issues failed because of partisan voting, party voting rather than Congressmen voting what is good for the nation, Fisher pointed out.

He noted that Congress is not responding to the people's needs so more people are taking it on their own to make changes. He added that 23 states have passed resolutions asking Congress to pass a constitutional amendment requiring the federal government to work with a balanced budget rather than having deficit spending which leads to inflation.

Fisher is seeking to succeed the retiring Omar Burleson. Democratic candidate for Burleson's seat is Charles Stenholm of Stamford.

About his campaign, Fisher said it is going well and the visit last week by Former President Gerald Ford to Big Spring was a help. Asked if the strong campaigns by other Republican candidates for state and national offices will help, Fisher replied that it will be up to him to help them.

He noted that a number of people who have never voted for Republicans before have said they are going to this year. Fisher said his campaign has good momentum and that financing the campaign has not yet been a problem. That problem crops up in the final stages of campaigns, he noted.

He pointed out that many have told him they see the need for a change to change the direction of the nation.

About the recent state Republican convention, Fisher said there was a very positive mood and that this year the GOP is seeking positive change rather than just being against things.

About Congress, Fisher says the committee structure needs to be changed to speed up the process. Fisher is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and an attorney. There is only one CPA in Congress and no tax attorneys such as he is.

As Fisher outlined the issues concerning this district, he noted that inflation is the number one concern, energy number two and agriculture is number three, all closely related.

Regarding the agriculture problem, Fisher said there needs to be a stable program farmers can live with, one that will not be changed year to year as is now the situation. Farmers need to have access to the market place and agriculture ought to be the number one negotiating tool in foreign trade but it has been relegated to a back seat.

The number four issue is water and management of water resources. This needs to be simplified, Fisher noted.

In the number five slot are several issues including national defense, health care and social security.

Fisher spent the day in Colorado City and was honored at a reception Friday night.

Booster To Meet

The Loraine Sports Boosters will meet in the Teachers Lounge Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m.

All parents and interested persons are urged to attend and give the Bulldogs their support.

Chamber Of Commerce

By Larry Winders, Chamber Manager

For years New York City spent more than it took in. Eventually New York City ran out of money. Why couldn't the same thing happen to the United States Government?

New York City got in a jam because it couldn't stop spending money; because it couldn't raise taxes any higher without forcing people and businesses to leave the City; because it couldn't borrow any more. Lenders were afraid they wouldn't get paid back.

If Uncle Sam went broke it would probably be for the same reasons.

How close is the Federal Government to financial trouble? In some respects, it's as badly off as New York City. Congress has lost the ability—or sees no need—to live within its income. The Federal Government has operated at a deficit for 20 of the last 24 years.

The tax picture, too, is bleaker than most people realize. The national tax burden is already so heavy—and the Government is borrowing so much money—that industry sometimes can't raise the funds it needs for new plants and equipment.

Taxes and government borrowing are soaking up money that would otherwise be used to provide new jobs in business and industry.

The little man's tax burden is heavy, too, partly because of hidden taxes included in the price of everything he buys. Everybody knows about income taxes, Social Security taxes and sales taxes. What you never see are the hidden taxes that are passed along in the price of automobiles, furniture, food and everything we use.

The cost of taxes is no different from the cost of raw materials or labor. Whatever a business spends for taxes has to be added to the price it charges for its product.

Whenever the Government taxes business, it is, indirectly, taking the consumer—rich ones and poor ones alike, whoever uses the product.

Take an automobile, for example. The sales tax you pay is obvious—it's added to the price. But the price of a new car also includes hundreds of taxes paid by the automobile companies and every organization that supplies materials or parts.

Nobody knows exactly how much these taxes amount to. It's a fair guess, however, that when you pay five thousand dollars for a new car, you actually get about $3,500 to $3,600 worth of nuts, bolts, fenders and machinery. The rest of the price represents Federal, State, and local government taxes passed along to the unsuspecting car buyer.

Real Value $3,500; Hidden Taxes $1,000; Estimated Sales Tax $500; All yours for only $5,000.

Because of these hidden taxes the average man's tax bill is much bigger than most people dream. The Tax Foundation estimates that taxes now take 40 out of every $100 we earn.

Why not pass more of the tax burden along to people with big incomes who can better afford to carry it? There are two reasons: (1) people with big incomes are already heavily taxed (believe it or not) and (2) even if you taxed away their entire income, it wouldn't be enough to matter.

Despite what you have heard to the contrary Most People With Big Incomes Pay Big Taxes!

Every year a few escape taxes entirely because of one technicality or another. Nevertheless, Government figures show that better than 99 of every 100 people with incomes of $200,000 or more Do Pay Taxes. And the average tax rate on their income is 60%.

You always hear about the few people with big incomes who pay no taxes. You never hear about the thousands of others who pay colossal taxes—much bigger than the rest of us.

What if we taxed away all the big incomes? What if we closed all the "tax loopholes" and confiscated every cent of taxable income from all incomes of over $10,000 per year? This would provide enough additional money to operate the Federal Government for almost one month. Almost One Month! Why so little? Because the big incomes are already heavily taxed, and because the bulk of the nation's income doesn't go to the rich. Most of it goes to people in lower income brackets.

Maybe this isn't the way you heard it—the politicians don't want you to hear it this way. Nevertheless, it's the truth. You can prove it yourself by looking up the Official Government statistics.

The national tax barrel is empty. People with medium and small incomes are already paying heavily for many of the benefits Congress so generously provides. If benefits increase, so will the load on all of us. More taxes or more inflation—one way or the other we'll all pay the bill. There Is No Such Thing As A Free Lunch.

Federal spending has been running wild—just like New York City. The tax burden is already heavy—just like New York City.

Nevertheless, chances are the U.S. Government will never fail to pay its domestic obligations. Why? Because the U.S. Government controls the money system, New York City doesn't. And That Makes A Whale Of A Difference.

Unfortunately, the Constitution places no limits on how Congress manages—or mismanages—our money system. The Federal Government can borrow from the Federal Reserve Bank to pay its bills. Or just print more money, and use it.

With the approval of Congress, there's no limit to what it can do. So there's not much doubt—the Government's debts will probably be paid. The question is: What Will The Money Be Worth? How Much Will It Actually Buy?

Increasing the money supply in order to pay government debts has caused more disastrous inflations than anything else in the history of the world. They used to increase the money supply by starting up the printing presses and turning out a blizzard of paper money.

Nowadays we're more sophisticated. We do the same thing by extending more credit through the central banking system.

But no matter how you increase the money supply, the risk is the same: Prices start climbing. If you keep it up long enough, Prices Go Right Through The Roof.

Increasing the money supply to help finance Federal deficits is the major cause of our continuing inflation. Without it, the wage-price spiral would be much weaker, and would have ended before now.

In the last twelve months we've seen price increases running at a rate of 8% a year or more. If you're on a pension—or expect to receive one—how long will it support you if it loses 8% of its buying power every year?

The U.S. Government may not go broke because of deficit spending and inflation, but a lot of our older citizens are right on the brink of it. And through no fault of their own.

Fall Quarter To Begin At TSTI

The fall quarter at TSTI Sweetwater begins Sept. 26, and enrolling students will see extensive construction work underway as the register.

There will be two days of registration before classes begin Sept. 28. The final day to register without paying a late fee is Oct. 2. The last day to register is Oct. 4.

Construction crews are on campus erecting four new buildings for existing and proposed programs at the state-supported technical-vocational training facility. Two other projects have been completed and are awaiting members of the 1978-79 class.

For the first time this year, TSTI Sweetwater will offer programs leading to the associate's degree: air conditioning and refrigeration technology, and technical office training.

Earn High School Equivalency Certificate In Adult Education Classes At Wallace

Adult Education classes are being held at Wallace Community Education Center each Tuesday night from 6:30-10.

The program is designed for persons who have not completed their basic education, elementary through 8th grade and secondary education, concentrating on studies in math and language in order that a person may obtain his GED, a certificate equivalent to a high school diploma.

In the past, Adult Education program has had great success. A large percentage of the class has obtained a GED Certificate. Receiving a GED can enable a person to train to be an LVN, to enter college, or to open other doors that require a high school education.

Others in the class have received self-esteem by improving their skills in math, reading, English and spelling or by improving their home and family life through education.

The program is designed so that each student works at his own pace, with individual attention from teachers, Bob Reily and Orphie Conner. Since instruction is individualized, teachers can develop a course of study suited to each student. Students study in a relaxed atmosphere without the pressure of competition.

There is no charge for the class. All books and materials are furnished. Persons who are interested in enrolling should register at the Wallace Center or call 728-2392.

Hill To Fight Inflation

Attorney General John Hill will enlist state government in the fight against inflation after he is elected Governor, said the leader of a group of Hill supporters organized in a campaign caravan which passed through Colorado City Wednesday.

"Inflation is our nation's biggest problem today, and Hill believes our state government should take the lead in showing the federal government how to help our citizens cope with rising prices," said the caravan leader, Mike Perrin, Hill's son-in-law.

Perrin said Hill's anti-inflation program includes these points:

-Veto any new state taxes. Hill believes our taxes are sufficient to provide the state government services our people need, and he will veto any new taxes.

-Fix a constitutional limit on state spending. Hill believes stage government should not grow faster than our state's economy.

-Limit local property taxes levied by school districts. Hill favors property tax limits which will prevent any more sudden large property tax increases like the ones we have seen in recent years.

-Provide tax relief for homeowners and elderly property owners. Hill supports our plans to provide a $5,000 exemption from property taxes on all homesteads and an additional $5,000 exemption from property taxes for all homesteads owned by persons over 65.

-Return state budget surpluses to taxpayers. Hill worked to help win passage of the $450 million tax relief bill during the special session to return to the taxpayers the bulk of a surplus which resulted from sales tax collections boosted by inflation. Future surpluses also should be returned to taxpayers.

Benefit Jamboree Scheduled Oct. 7

What does an evening of Country & Western music and hiring someone to do those chores you can't seem to get around to doing have in common? Both will benefit our local Mitchell County Retarded Children.

Once a month several Texas Country & Western bands volunteer a Saturday evening to perform free of charge at a Jamboree in Colorado City to benefit the ARC. No admission is charged and top-notch entertainment is provided. Donations are taken at the door for the benefit.

And, before winter creeps in, chores such as raking leaves, cleaning yards, washing windows and other outdoor work such as pulling weeds, cleaning alleys and picking garden vegetables can be done for you by participants in our Woodland School project.

Now for specifics: our next Country & Western Jamboree is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 7 at the Middle School Auditorium beginning at 7 p.m. Bring the family or friends and enjoy the music of Mary Ellen and the West Texas Travelers from Meadow, Tex., who have performed widely for benefits plus at Jamborees at the Odessa Globe Theatre. Mary Ellen was a top-ten finalist in the Country & Western female vocalist competition for the Southwest.

And for those chores, phone Mr. or Mrs. Eddie Swinney at 728-8291 and they will line up capable workers for you.
