4 REASONS FOR OPPOSING AMENDMENT 14 TRIAL de NOVO

At The General Election November 6

Vote AGAINST Trial de Novo (Amendment 14—Last on Ballot)

- If Constitutional Amendment No. 14 is adopted by a vote of the people and the Legislature exercises the power it is granted, then it would:
1. Transfer control of local government from the people to the courts.
 2. Destroy a fundamental principle of government—the balance of power between legislative, judicial and executive branches of government.
 3. Subordinate the judicial and executive branches of government to the legislative branch.
 4. Force judges to become executives and administrators.
 5. Swamp the courts with law suits.
 6. Permit appeals to courts for the sole purpose of harassment and delay.
 7. Increase the cost of government by as much as one-third.
 8. Endanger the basic freedoms of all Texans.
 9. Create chaos in established democratic processes.
 10. Render ineffective established and essential executive functions of government.
 11. Stymie local improvements and invite Federal financial aid and control.
 12. Permit a lone disgruntled person to appeal and nullify important decisions relating to education, health, safety and welfare.
 13. Make Texas the only state to abandon the American system of checks and balances.
 14. Discourage qualified candidates from seeking public office or accepting appointment to administrative posts.

The plans were made of the Clara-Fairview Community organizing this year. We organized with the intentions of making and showing what a wonderful community we have. We chose as our main topic for the year to buy our own Community house. We purchased our building from the oil company. The Community house is to be named "Clara Fairview Community." Our building is 52 x 16 x 8. We also purchased a cattle guard, water tower, sign board and various other things that are needed for the building. We have worked at various things to raise money to pay for our building.

1. We had a booth at the National Stubble Mulching.

2. Booth at the Texas and Oklahoma Fair.

3. We entered in the Bridwell Soil Builders contest and other contests.

Our Executive Board is: Elmer Klinkerman, president; Lois Crane, secretary; James Roderick, vice president; E. J. Simons, commissioner of agriculture and Carol Roderick, publicity.

We have twenty other active members.

We have set our goal to landscaping, planting trees for beautification of our community, erect signs along the highway and intersections with names of families on each road. We plan to do these in the very near future.

We have a wonderful group of workers in our community. We are so proud to work together to make this an outstanding community.

Hardin Primary School News

The first grade school children are doing well in getting adjusted to school and to eating in the Cafeteria. It is marvelous to see the adjustment they have made in eight weeks and the amount they have learned. It will not be long before they will be able to use some of the new materials which were secured for them this summer.

All the sections of each grade throughout these schools have about the same number of children. We have been losing some of our children, but more are moving in to take their places. Monday morning our total enrollment in the primary building was 401 and it was 427 in the Hardin building.

We have been able to secure some much needed physical exercise equipment through donations of some of our merchants and also through the Physical Education Department. All of this help is greatly appreciated.

High School Addition

The seventh grade reading classes under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Taylor have been studying about the Constitution. Each different class was divided into panels and given a part of the Constitution to learn and discuss. This was presented as a program. The program started with a group discussing the "Sermon in Stone" by John D. Rockefeller Jr. The group recited by memory the words to the "Sermon in Stone." Following this was a panel discussion on "Our Living Constitution." This group told about the writing of the Constitution, the father of the Constitution and the "Lumadrama." Also a part of the Constitution was read. The next group explained what the Constitution meant in simpler words and told about the "Supreme Law." The next group read and explained Section 1-6 of the Constitution. The panel discussions ended with the last group telling "About the United States Constitution."

Boys and Girls

Dear Boys and Girls—Halloween, Halloween, spookiest sight I've ever seen. This is what you'll be singing soon isn't it? Do you have your costumes yet? I think I will be a ghost this year. I wonder if I'll scare anyone.

Are you going to be in the big "Spook School"? If I were in grade school I would, but I guess I'm just too old. The parade will start promptly at 5:00 in the afternoon, Wednesday, October 31st. Do you know what "promptly" means? Well, it means that if you are late you will miss the parade. A shiny silver dollar will be given to the best boy and girl spooks from each grade. A "trick or treat" bag will be given to all the spooks.

I think I will be there to take pictures of the winners so look for a big ghost with a camera. I hear there will be some cute twirlers marching in the parade, too.

Halloween began a long, long time ago. At first it was a Roman feast in honor of the goddess of fruit trees. In Britain, the Druids celebrated a festival in honor of the sun-god. Finally, it was decided to make it a day to honor all saints. The Feast of All Saints is on November 1st but it is really the eve, or the night before, that is called All Hallow E'en or our shorter way, Halloween. Big bonfires were lighted a long time ago to celebrate the eve which is October 31st.

Many beliefs grew up about this day. One of them was that the spirits of the departed were allowed to visit their old homes on this one evening. Thus came our custom of wearing spook costumes.

I think Halloween is a lot of fun, don't you? Don't forget to look for me at the parade which will begin on the Methodist parking lot.

THE HAND ON THE SCALES

The most discussed domestic problem of the moment can be expressed in a simple phrase: What's holding back the American economy?

Senator Goldwater recently discussed the question. He listed the various obstacles to progress that are commonly cited. Then he wrote: "most of these obstacles stem directly from government meddling with the natural laws of economic freedom. The hand of government in the market place is like the hand of a dishonest butcher on the meat scales. It upsets the balance between supply and demand, which is the essence of brisk commerce."

Then, later on, the Senator said this about centralized paternalistic government: "...more than anything else, it denies freedom—freedom of action and freedom of choice—to the individual American. It hampers, frustrates and denies the maximum use of individual initiative, industry, incentive and inventiveness. And in so doing, government interference is drying up the wellsprings of a nation's greatness."

History—which is concerned only with fact, and with which no one can successfully argue—is on the Senator's side. We need not look far for the primary block to a vibrant, driving economy. The address is Washington, District of Columbia.

RENAISSANCE IN RAILROADING

Historians will mark 1962 as the beginning of a "new renaissance in railroading"—and the railroad industry "is on the threshold of a bright new future of service to the American people."

Thus predicts Daniel P. Loomis, president of the Association of American Railroads. He bases his opinion on the federal government's recognition and acknowledgment of its own primary responsibility not only for railroad difficulties but also for much of the transportation mess. He cited President Kennedy's recent transportation message to Congress as an outstanding example of the increased understanding the year has brought—an understanding, he feels, which is shared by the general public.

Mr. Loomis also touches on some of the other good signs. Progress is being made, despite determined union opposition, to eliminate featherbedding practices which

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

An organized drive is underway inside America to destroy the U.S. economic system.

Best evidence of this is perhaps seen in fact next year California's voters will be asked to vote for an initiative measure to repeal that state's fair trade laws.

It is significant that papers for the initiative were filed by the attorney for an organization styling itself as "Allied Consumers Association of California," which in reality is organization of discount stores.

There have been substantial rumblings discount stores have been heading into trouble. The claim they can sell for less is being exploded. Their profits come largely from selling at high mark-ups. Inferior goods made by cheap labor, much of it foreign. But to keep people coming in, they have to have reliable U.S. brand items which they can "hotshot."

Thus, their success depends on how much merchandise they can obtain in which the makers have invested in promoting for quality and for warranty. When they cannot procure items in which the public has confidence, they draw no trade.

Of course, continuous "foot-balling" of quality goods in the market place will eventually force all quality goods off the market, as manufacturers to survive will be forced to produce at the lowest possible cost.

© National Federation of Independent Business

abandoning quality, warranties, and other factors that build public confidence.

Thus, the conflict is actually between two different concepts of marketing ethics. One can be called the Anglo-Saxon ethic, the other the Mediterranean Basin ethic.

Early in the Industrial Age, North Atlantic nations, including U.S. realized consumer confidence is essential to keep factories operating. Thus, the old doctrine of Caveat Emptor "Let the buyer beware" was largely relegated in favor of ethical, moral and even legal principles which recognized the right of the customer to protection. Without this transition, marketing of factory products would probably have never reached its present level.

But nations around the Mediterranean Basin have never abandoned Caveat Emptor. Once the consumer buys, it is no concern of maker or vendor if the item falls apart on the way home.

Among these peoples such practices are not considered immoral. Every transaction is a duel of wits, with the advantage rightfully belonging to who can be the most clever.

Of course, this duelling in the market place, this lack of confidence has been a major deterrent in the development of the area's economy.

Thus, the drive against fair trade laws is nothing more than a drive to supplant the American system of confidence for the morality of the Mediterranean market place.

result from totally obsolete work rules. Numbers of court decisions have legally supported railroad efforts to compete more effectively with other carriers. Congress and the Administration show sympathy toward soundly conceived mergers.

On top of this, some astonishing technological advancements have become possibilities. One for instance, is fully automatic train operation, "without human hands at the controls."

Let us hope that Mr. Loomis' optimism proves to be fully justified, and that the roadblocks that still exist will be eliminated with a minimum of delay. We must have railroads. And, more than that, we need a taxpaying, driving, private enterprise railroad industry capable of providing the ultimate in service at the minimum in cost.

Whether a major tax reform bill can be passed in Congress even next year is doubtful. That is the view of Chairman Mills of the House Ways and Means Committee. He also said that current tax rates are too high and tend to blunt incentives and stifle economic growth.

IT'S UP TO YOU

By Howard E. Kershner, L.H.D.

In his new book, The Churches and Rapid Social Change, the Rev. Dr. Paul Abrecht, Executive Secretary of the Department of Church and Society of the World Council of Churches, makes the following astonishing statement: "Given the strength of communism in many countries and the weakness or absence of democratic political alternatives, Christianity may be confronted with the need to give at least limited support to Communists. In some situations a Communist-backed party or government is the only practical medium of action for Christians who want to express their concern for political order and justice. In the political alignment in many situations, so it is argued, Communism is not the greatest evil, and the Christian has no choice but to work with them or to support reactionary political movements."

The phrase "so it is argued" in the above quotation thinly disguises Dr. Abrecht's appeal for Christian cooperation with communism under certain circumstances. Dr. Abrecht plainly says that it is better for Christians to support communism than "to support reactionary political movements." In other words, communism is less evil than conservatism. As an important official in the World Council of Churches, Dr. Abrecht's views are of more than ordinary interest. It would appear that he prefers communism to capitalism and that if one is desirous of expressing his "...concern for political order and justice" communism is a better vehicle than capitalism. If communism is not the greatest evil, presumably capitalism is. Of course, Dr. Abrecht uses the phrase "...reactionary political movements." It would be interesting to know how he defines such movements and why he regards them as worse than communism.

Texas Dep't. Of Public Safety

Winterize your driving attitude, is the advice handed today by J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association.

Musick, queried on how motorists can best prepare for the hazards of winter driving, said they should be out of trouble in traffic when it depends on the driver's attitude.

This is especially true of winter driving. While winter driving demands more skill, it also demands a greater amount of patience, Musick said.

The safety director who is of the school that "accidents don't happen, they are caused" said the driver who loses his temper in traffic is "asking for trouble."

He labels speeders and tailgaters as the safety offenders and are the most likely to cause trouble in traffic during bad weather.

"These drivers are so anxious to get ahead of the next fellow, they do not even stop to consider the existing conditions," he said.

"What they fail to recognize is that they are growing about the way the other guy drives, they forget how to drive safely themselves."

Musick said another key to safe and skillful driving during bad weather is keeping a proper speed at all times so you can avoid sudden stops and starts.

"Look ahead and watch your speed so that when a traffic situation requires slowing down or turning, you can do so gradually," he continued.

Modern Study Club Makes Donation

The Modern Study Club recently made a donation of $50.00 to Burk Burnett's Kid Baseball program. This is the second year that they have donated money to the program. Shown above is Jean Dolan, representing the club, handing the check to Johnny Herring, treasurer of Kid Baseball.

hard enough to slide the wheels. Use the gas pedal lightly. At the first sign of a rear wheel spin, ease off the gas."

He also said that following distances should be increased.

"Stopping distances are much longer on slippery surfaces. If the driver ahead makes a sudden stop on dry pavement you may have to stop on an icy surface. Be prepared for such circumstances."

Among other things Musick advises motorists to do for safe driving in bad weather is to keep automobile windows clean and clear for good visibility.

"Be sure wiper blades are in good condition and arm pressure is adequate. Replace blades if they streak and make sure your defroster will clear away fogging and ice," he said.

Musick emphasized that now is the time to give motor vehicles a good safety check for winter.

"Tires should have enough tread left for good traction, particularly in snow and brakes should be adjusted with linings free of grease and dirt."

He warned that a rusty, leaking muffler or exhaust pipe can be a carbon monoxide hazard, especially if an automobile is held up in traffic or stalled in bad weather.

"Seepage of gas into a car is more likely to occur when the engine is running and the car is standing still. A car idling in a garage can produce enough carbon monoxide to make the air deadly in a few minutes," he explained.

"Motorists should get plenty of fresh air when driving and should keep in mind that carbon monoxide poisoning can make a person helpless before he realizes he is affected."

The director said safety experts endorse the use of automobile seat belts at all times, but point out they are of added value when driving on oil slick or icy roads.

Why all the talk now about ice and snow in Texas?

Musick says anyone who has lived in Texas a couple of winters, can answer that question.

"In Texas, we enjoy many Indian summer days, but it does not take an old timer or a meteorologist to know that a Texas size 'blue norther' can blow in any time and tie up plenty of traffic. Especially in Texas, a driver has to be prepared for sudden changes in weather," he concluded.

The Theta Epsilon Sorority met in the home of Helen Cornelius, October 22nd at 7:30.

The kingdom of heaven can not be within us unless we let Christ come in. Most of us saying in the words of the spiritual, I want to be a Christian in my heart" but we fall short.

Mrs. James Haley asked questions to see how many of us remember what we had learned in our Sunday School, the Sunday before. Mrs. Galloup closed the meeting with prayer. A nice refreshment plate was served to the following, Mesdames Jones, Haley, Galloup, Gilbert, Gragg, Sloan, Ady, Gage, Miller, Cauthorn, Morris, Minnick, Vann, Turner and Buntine.

DECA SPOTLIGHT

The following is one in a series of articles which will feature the Distributive Education Course which was begun this year in Burk Burnett High School. Each week a student and their employer will be spotlighted. There are 22 students in the course this year and the DE program has been fortunate the local merchants have co-operated with the new program in such a fine manner. All the students want to give their appreciation to each of the local businesses who have opened their stores to them.

This week's spotlight features Marilyn Bailey. Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denton Bailey. She is a Senior and she has been active in the school activities during her high school years. She is now reporting for the DECA club. Marilyn is employed by the First National Bank, Mrs. Jerry Thomas is her supervisor. Mr. Thomas and Mr. Lloyd Bloodworth coordinator for the course, work together to train Marilyn in the fundamentals of Banking. Her work in the mornings and her school work in the afternoons go along together. She has assignments in D. E. Class which deal with Banking. Marilyn plans to keep her job when she graduates and also to attend the AIB School, which is the American Institute of Banking School where all bank employees go to learn more about Banking. Marilyn tells us that she likes her job "just fine."

Den 1—Pack 156

Den 1 met at the home of their Den Mother, Mrs. Jack Rupard on Tuesday, October 23, 1962. Denner, Randy Green led us in the Flag Ceremony and called the roll and we sang a Cub Scout song.

We planned our skit for the Pack meeting and checked our books for awards. We planned a weiner roast for next meeting at John Bilyeu's house.

We closed with the "Living Circle" and the Cub Scout Promise. A candy treat was served by Bill Poole to Randy Green, Ken Bailey, Joel Rupard and John Bilyeu.

Unity Garden Club Met Oct. 10th With Mrs. S. Vanderburg

The Unity Garden Club met Wednesday, October 10th in the home of Mrs. J. S. Vanderburg with Mrs. Roy Wilson as co-hostess.

Thirteen members and two guests were present. Mrs. Malone from Brownwood was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Troy Miller and Mrs. Allen Riddle, formerly of El Paso, but now a resident of Burk Burnett was the guest of Mrs. J. D. Riddle.

After the reading of the minutes, Mrs. R. C. Gilbow reported on the recent Council meeting and delivered an invitation to a meeting in Denton.

A club project, the making of Christmas wreaths, was discussed, and Saturday, October 31st set as the date for a combined Rummage Sale to be held on the east side of Boyd's Store and the Cake Sale to be on Main Street, near the Famous Department Store.

Reports of committees were followed by a roll call of members, who answered roll call with an explanation of various gardening mistakes they had made.

Date for luncheon was set for November 14th at the Cardinal Inn, following which, Mrs. Herman Miller introduced the program, entitled "Be An Early Bird In The Fall." Mrs. A. L. Gilbow gave a very interesting paper on "Bulbs From Christmas to Easter," followed by a discussion by Mrs. Roy Magers under the heading, "Fall Planting for Easier Spring Gardening." Mrs. Magers gave some valuable pointers on how to treat roses at planting time, and at show time.

After delicious refreshments, meeting was adjourned.

Did any man ever think except when alone, and therefore did anyone ever see a man thinking?

Retail Merchants 'Christmas Days' To Start Thursday, Nov. 1st

Winston Freeman, retail merchant's council president, announced today that "Christmas Days," a promotion planned by the Retail Merchant's Council and sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, will start next Thursday, November 1, in Burk Burnett. At that time, local merchants will begin giving away "Christmas Days" tickets that customers will deposit in store containers.

Drawing Every Saturday
A drawing for $125 merchandise certificates (five prizes of $25 certificates) will be held every Saturday from November 3 through December 22, 1962. These certificates will be honored by "Christmas Days" merchants until the last day in February, 1963. In all, $1,000 in merchandise certificates will be awarded to Burk Burnett shoppers by the local merchants during the eight week promotion. This is our way of expressing our gratitude to loyal customers who shop in Burk Burnett and thereby strengthen this community economic well-being," stated Mr. Freeman.

NOTICE

Voting place for Burk Burnett Precinct 27 has been changed from the High School building to the Youth Center. Commissioner Clark Gresham requested the action, pointing out that the new voting station would provide needed room for voters. The next general election will be November 6, 1962.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

SMOKE IN YOUR EYES

It was a clear, crisp afternoon, and Pete decided to rake his lawn. He carried the leaves to his back yard and burned them just at the entrance of the alley which ran along the rear of his lot.

The leaves were wet, and Pete found that he had to stir them occasionally in order for proper burning, resulting in a dense cloud of smoke.

Al intended to drive his car into the alley in which Pete was burning the leaves. As he approached the alley, he entered a dense cloud of smoke, so dense in fact that his vision was completely obscured. He nevertheless continued to drive his car into the alley, although he did reduce his speed.

As Al entered the alley Pete was standing next to the curb, completely engulfed by the smoke. Al's car struck Pete.

Pete sued Al claiming that he was negligent in driving into the smoke when he could not see. Al, on the other hand, said that Pete was negligent in standing in the alley in such a dense cloud of smoke when he knew that cars were driven in the alley.

Was Al negligent? Can Pete collect from him for his damages? Pete would not win his case, unless the jury found him not negligent in standing in the alley in a cloud of dense smoke. However, the courts have held that a driver must exercise care commensurate with the situation. It has been recognized in a number of cases that more care than normal is required of a driver traveling through smoke which limits his visibility.

It is the duty of the operator of a car to drive it at such a rate of speed that he can bring his car to a standstill within the distance that he can plainly see objects or obstructions ahead of him. If he continues to proceed when he is unable to see because his vision is obscured, he is negligent. When the situation on a highway is such that one's vision is completely obscured it is his duty to slow down or even stop until the cause of such obscured vision is at least in part removed.

VETERANS

Questions & Answers

Q—Can the so-called "contract burial" be used to bury any veteran?

A—No, only those veterans who are under authorized VA care or traveling to or from it by prior VA authorization at the time of death. "Under authorized VA care" means receiving treatment in a VA hospital, or being a patient in a non-VA hospital by VA contract, or residing in a VA domiciliary.

Q—Transportation of the body may be paid in addition to the $250 for burial expenses when the veterans dies at a VA hospital while undergoing authorized VA care. Can transportation expenses be paid also for a veteran who is not under authorized VA care when he dies, i. e., he dies at home?

A—For veterans who are not under authorized VA care at the time of death, the law provides a maximum of $250 to cover both the funeral and burial expenses and the cost of transporting the body to a place of burial. The total amount which may be reimbursed by VA cannot exceed $250. You are right, death when under authorized VA care will afford additional transportation expenses.

Q—How many hospitals does the VA operate?

A—The VA has 169 hospitals. At least one in every state except Hawaii and Alaska, where VA patients are cared for in private hospitals at VA expense.

5,000 Christmas Gifts Needed For State Hospital

One of the most challenging projects the Contemporary Study Club has ever undertaken is the collection of clothing and other necessities for the patients at the State Hospital in Wichita Falls. This has been a project of the club for several years and it is a project which is never completed. The needs of the hospital continue to grow each year due to the increase in the number of patients. At the present time there are approximately 2,500 patients in the hospital. Of this number between 40 and 50 are teenagers.

With the approach of the Christmas season the hospital is making a special request for 5,000 Christmas gifts for the patients, 100 pounds of coffee, 2,000 pounds of candy, lights for 40 trees, decorations for 124 tables, cigarettes, 20 large rolls of Scotch tape, wrapping paper ribbon and boxes for the gifts. The hospital requests that the gifts not be wrapped as the patients enjoy wrapping the gifts they wish to give.

Besides the special gifts for Christmas, many other items are always needed. These include sports equipment, games, dominoes, cards, checkers, Wahoo games, men's clothing, pants, shirts, pajamas, bath robes, house shoes, underwear, socks, belts, ties, billfolds, shaving supplies, old electric shavers, women's clothing, gowns, robes, house shoes, old formal or semi-formal dresses, purses, cosmetics, jewelry and nail polish. An unusual request of the hospital is for plastic jugs, 1 quart to 1 gallon size. The jugs are used to store cleaning fluids, detergents and etc.

The Contemporary Club members are making an effort to collect as many items as possible for the hospital and will make several trips to the hospital before Christmas.

If Burk residents have anything they would like to donate to the hospital, please call 569-2335 or 569-3950 and someone will pick them up for you or you may leave them at the Chamber of Commerce office or the Burk Burnett Star.

All contributions will be greatly appreciated.

DESTINATION?

Postal employees do their best to interpret accurately the addresses written on our mail. However, some are so hastily written, and so poorly addressed that they may never reach their intended destination. A good many people go hastily through life, not realizing that they are headed in the wrong direction. The church points the way to salvation and desires that all should choose the way of our Lord and Saviour.

TAKE TIME FOR THE LORD
ATTEND CHURCH SUNDAY

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Mrs. Alvin Hill Host To Burk Study Club For October Meeting

"To Strengthen the Arm of Liberty" through PUBLIC AFFAIRS was emphasized at the October meeting of the Burkburnett Study Club held in the home of Mrs. Alvin Hill with Mrs. Jack Mathis co-hostess. Mrs. W. H. Preston, president urged members to attend the Santa Rosa District Work Shop which will be held in Crowell, October 23rd. Mrs. James Bohner, Mrs. Harold Van Loh, Mrs. George McClarty and Mrs. W. H. Preston are members of the District Board. Mrs. Philip A. Carpenter and Mrs. Hugh Cole Preston serve on both the District and State Board.

A joint meeting of all Federated Study Club in Burkburnett will be held November 5th. with Mrs. Grover C. Johnson, District President speaking on "A Day to Remember." The Federated Banquet is an annual affair.

The Council of Coordinating Agencies, Mrs. Hugh C. Preston Jr., urged members to preserve our freedom and American way of life by vigilance and active participation in public affairs. Club members were reminded to observe United Nations Day, October 24th.

The leader, Mrs. James Bohner, introduced Mrs. George McClarty and Mrs. Francis Felty chairman of Public Affairs. Mrs. Hugh C. Preston Jr. spoke on "WHAT WE CAN DO ABOUT COMMUNISM" stating that it is time that every American know and understand the extent and the danger of Communism, because a handful of knowledgeable men cannot possible deal with it without help.

What can individual citizens—especially American women—do? She stated that we, as parents, must give greater attention to developing the qualities of religious faith, patriotism, and independence in children. It is our duty to defend and to keep this nation for all those yet unborn. A quiz was given club members on your GOVERNMENT—WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT IT? She stated that the most effective way to fight communism is to understand what it is and where it leads. Americans also should understand and cherish Our Form of Government and the Freedoms it insures. We cannot hope to win if our citizens do not know what they are fighting for or against. The young people under communist rule are thoroughly indoctrinated in the communist system and the "evils" of other forms of government. Yet we find today that many of our youths have little or no knowledge of communism, and even worse, very little understanding of our democratic government.

The women of America can perform a great service for their nation. As mothers and teachers they wield tremendous influence over our young people. If they know America and her enemies, they can insure that the children are properly taught and guided in our current struggle for man's mind. Politics is a conflict between public spirited people with honest difference of opinion. The best way to make democracy work is to see to it that more good citizens are active in political and community work. Most of all, government must be responsive to the people, their needs, their hopes and their progress. Mrs. Jack Smith vocalist closed the meeting by singing "America," accompanied by Mrs. Maxine Creel on the organ.

A delicious dessert plate was served to 17 members and the hostess.

Friendship Class Installs Teachers And Officers For 1962 And 1963

The Friendship Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. J. B. Wright Thursday at 2:00 p. m., October 18, for the installation of class officers and teachers for 1962-63. Other members of group one assisted Mrs. Wright as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Will Teal, the new president, conducted a brief business session before the installation. She called on Mrs. J. D. Kennedy for prayer. Mrs. B. F. Hewell read the minutes of the previous meeting. The treasurer's report was made, and group captains gave reports. Mrs. J. B. Ady reported on the sick. Mrs. Teal pointed out the aim and the motto of the Friendship Class and concluded by reading a poem, "Service and Success."

Mrs. W. B. Short, retiring president, conducted an impressive installation service in which she likened the teachers and officers of the class to parts of a tree. She quoted Ps. 1:3, "And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper." She also read the poem, "Trees," by Joyce Kilmer.

The office of president is symbolized by the trunk of the tree and the vice president by the tap root. Other officers are the branches and leaves.

The following teachers and officers were installed: Teacher, Mrs. Preston Johnson; Assistant Teacher, Mrs. J. G. Cheney; President, Mrs. Will Teal; Vice President, Mrs. Earl Van Deren; Treasurer, Mrs. C. R. Chambers; Secretary, Mrs. B. F. Hewell; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. H. D. Smith; Class Minister, Mrs. J. B. Ady; Card Sender, Mrs. H. S. Butts; Group Captains, Mmes. R. W. Kent, Bob Hinkle, E. H. Logan, Lee Garner; Assistant Captains, Mmes. R. G. Redman, Carl Miller and H. L. Lawrence. The class presented Mrs. Short with a lovely gift at the close of the installation service.

A delicious refreshment plate was served to the following members: Mmes. Preston Johnson, J. B. Ady, E. R. Burns, H. S. Butts, C. R. Chambers, W. V. Combs, B. F. Hewell, Bob Hinkle, J. D. Kennedy, R. W. Kent, A. J. Palmer, R. G. Redman, V. C. Skipwith, H. D. Smith, Will Teal, Earl Van Deren, J. H. Whatley, J. B. Wright, Miss Ella Billingslea, service members, Mmes. J. G. Cheney, H. A. Goodwin and W. B. Short.

Dorothy Harris Hostess Modern Study Club

This month's second meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Newt Crane, with Dorothy Harris as hostess.

Our Year Books, late as usual, were presented by the Vice President, Selma Wright. They are beautiful this year, utilizing the club colors, red and white. Preparing the programs for the Federation Banquet, November 5th, is our duty. Several volunteers were enlisted for this purpose.

Our club was asked to provide five members as helpers for the Oral Polio Vaccine distribution on Sunday, October 28th. We are glad to help this important service to the community.

The resignation of Mrs. Evelyn Nichols was regrettably accepted. We are proud to say that Mrs. Nichols has organized a similar club in Iowa Park and she was elected its first president.

Mrs. Jeanette Case was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Mary Joy Hagstrom brought to our attention a dangerous Amendment to the Texas Constitution, which is to be voted upon November 6th. It is called the Trial De Nova Amendment No. 14.

New Secret Pals were drawn for this year. Helen Resoner presented a delightful program using dolls labeled Mrs. F, E, D, E, R, A, T, I, O, and N. She introduced each doll and explained her duties and ideals for Federation.

Tommie Sue Bavousett won the door prize.

BOOT LACE MATERIAL

Rawhide is the time honored boot lace material, but a new one works equally well. Here it is: lamp cord, plain old plastic lamp cord pulled apart to make single strands. It lasts forever, won't break, is impervious to water, knots tight but unties easy.

Button collectors have formed a society—the American Political Item Collectors Association—for serious study of the deep-dyed tradition. One member recently turned over 20,000 items to the Smithsonian Institution.

Pica Complex And Unexplained

Q. Why do some children eat dirt? Is there something in dirt that they need?
A. It is natural to assume that the abnormal craving for unnatural food (the medical term for this condition is "pica") is due to a lack of something in the diet. Doctors who studied a large number of children with pica concluded that iron deficiency might be the most important single cause. To test this theory the children were given large doses of iron by injection. They went right on eating dirt, chalk, plaster, and what-have-you. The cure of pica, like the cause, seems very complicated, and neither has been solved.

Fried Foods

Q. I have a stomach (peptic) ulcer. My doctor advises that I avoid fried foods but he didn't explain why. Can you?

A. The heating of fats, as in frying, causes chemical changes in the fats that increase in degree the higher the temperature. Frying may raise the temperature to a point where the fat is "polymerized," with consequent loss of digestibility. Unsaturated fatty acids may also be destroyed and irritant substances formed. Hard-to-digest foods should, of course, be avoided by persons with stomach ulcer.

HARDIN P-TA

The Hardin P-T.A. met for its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, October 16, 1962 in the Hardin Grade School Auditorium.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Sonja Landers. Rev. Hollis Morris of the First Baptist Church gave a very inspiring devotional.

In the business session, Mr. Simonson presented a matter for legislation. The Hardin P-T.A. voted to go on record as being opposed to the 14th Amendment to the State Constitution, which is to be presented in our forthcoming election.

Mrs. Wanda Roberts presented the speaker for the evening. He was Royce Kimberlain, Jr. He was a senior student from Iowa Park. He gave a most challenging talk on the "Dangers of Communism."

Mrs. Irene Dunn's 4th grade won the $10.00 membership award. Mrs. Estella Martin and Mrs. Herbertine Olson won the room count awards.
