Popular Attractions

The sights and sounds of the Mitchell County Fair held this past weekend were many. There was a pet show Saturday morning won by a Pomeranian shown by Janna Bruce, second from left. She had the winning pup and winning dog, Harold Price of Westbrook, had the first place kitten. Then were the ever popular horticulture and agriculture shows. Results are listed in story below.

Ag, Horticulture Winners Listed For Fair

The Mitchell County Fair of 1973 had its greatest turnout of entries in the history of the fair and the two divisions that drew the most entries as usual were the agriculture and horticulture categories.

Here are the winners in each of those two divisions:

Woods Expanding

Billy Joe Woods, owner of Wood Cowboy Boots Store on East Interstate 20 Access Road, announced plans Wednesday to expand his store.

Forms for pouring the foundation have already been set and the new addition is expected to be completed within three weeks.

The addition will be 90 square feet and will be used for storage and lay-away space for Christmas gifts, Wood said.

The present facility which was built in the summer of 1971 is 1,500 square feet.

Referendum Vote Golf Course To Voters

Mitchell County Commissioners Tuesday voted to conduct a referendum during the Nov. 7 general election to determine the feelings of county residents on the establishment of a public, tax supported golf course.

The commissioners took the action after they received information on a study they had asked the Colorado City Jaycees to make.

The question on the ballot will ask voters to vote for or against the establishment of a tax supported recreational golf course.

The vote will not be binding and is solely for commissioners to get the total opinion of county tax payers.

Exactly how much tax would be involved is not now known although the Jaycees study indicated that little if any tax money will be needed for the establishment of such a facility.

A survey conducted through the Colorado City Record indicated there was a great deal of interest in the establishment of a public course, enough interest to merit the referendum vote.

Between now and time for the election, commissioners will attempt to talk to officials of various public and private golf courses and several persons who have volunteered to help establish a course here.

Their considerations will be to determine how much it would cost to establish a course and the cost of maintenance and just how much expense would have to

Wolves vs. Brownfield

The Colorado City Wolves travel to Brownfield for a 7:30 p.m. Friday game that will determine if they can stay in the District 3-AAA race.

For all practical purposes, this is a must win game for the Wolves if they are to stay in contention for the District crown.

A win—over the Brownfield Cubs would place the Wolves right back into the District 3-AAA race despite the 20-0 loss last week to Dunbar.

The loss to Dunbar was disappointing but members of the Wolves team are now more determined than ever, according to Coach Weldon Brevard.

The schools athletic director asked that as many people as possible make the trip to Brownfield Friday night to give

Rape Charges Filed Young Woman Assaulted At Her Home

Ernest Luera, 21, an ex-convict, Wednesday was charged with the criminal assault Tuesday evening of a young Colorado City woman.

Luera who is being held in county jail in lieu of $15,000 bond, has been previously convicted of assault to murder and burglary arising out of two separate incidents.

The charge was filed in the court of Peace Justice Leonard Henderson.

The young victim told police the assault occurred shortly after 9 p.m. Tuesday just after she returned home to her apartment.

The woman's young child was a witness to the attack

Police believe a man entered the apartment by cutting a window screen and climbing through the window before the woman arrived at her home.

Apparently the man was hiding in the bathroom when she got home, officers theorized.

She said she was getting ready for bed when the man grabbed her and demanded she take off all her clothes. When she didn't make a move to do as she was told, the man grabbed her by the throat and ripped at her clothing.

Red marks on her throat caused by the assailant were still visible hours after the alleged assault, officers said.

Officers reported they were told the man threatened to kill the woman and her child if she didn't make the child be quiet at that time and he later threatened to kill her if she told anybody about the attack.

He apparently attempted to get her out of the house at one time but when he told her to open a door, she was unable to do so, officers said after talking with her.

The suspect was arrested a short time after the assault and the victim viewed him in a police line-up of six men.

Deputy Sheriff W.R. (Bill) McGuire said the man is not considered a suspect in the criminal assault on an elderly woman in Colorado City during the summer.

Note Burning Sunday Event For Church of Christ

"A mere handful of people met on the courthouse lawn of Colorado in 1906 and established the church of their faith here, the Church of Christ." (The Colorado (Texas) Weekly Record, Feb. 28, 1930.)

And for descendants of that group, now meeting at 22nd & Austin Streets, Sunday will be a day of celebration.

Sunday will be a combination reunion and mortgage burning for the church.

The day long celebration will feature several special participants, some of whom have worked with the congregation before in various positions.

The day will begin at 9:45 a.m. with Bible school with M.L. Daniels teaching the adult class.

Daniels is on the music department faculty at Abilene Christian College and worked with the congregation when they were meeting in a building located at 5th & Elm Street as song director and youth director.

At 10:45 will be the regular worship hour, Harold McCullum bringing the worship message and M.L. Daniels leading the song service.

McCullum, now living and preaching in Kermit, preached here in 1962 and also supervised the construction of the present building.

Lunch will be served at Kelley Elementary School at 12:30 p.m. for all present at the reunion and their guests.

Three o'clock is the time set for the event.

Rees Calls For Teachers Help

"You are the assets of this school system and the quality of education that this school system produces.

"Without you and your professional manner and high ethics, this school system would be nothing more than an institution for the growth of children to their maturity," began Tom Rees as he spoke to the Colorado City Classroom Teachers Association Tuesday night.

Rees, president of the Colorado Independent School District school board spoke to the group during their 7:30 p.m. meeting in the high school cafeteria on what he termed "one of my favorite subjects." He told the group that there are two forces in producing a quality education in school districts such as Colorado School District:

The first being the job and responsibility of the school board and the second being the professional and non-professional employees of the school system and both being of equal importance.

He praised the teachers in

"Liars" On - Stage Play Starts Tonite

"Women should step forward and refuse to have any more sons to be sent to war to be killed."

The poignancy of that statement and much of the dialogue in "Dear Liar," is overwhelming and contemporary.

The statement was written about World War I in a letter by George Bernard Shaw to Mrs. Patrick Campbell. The two carried on a love affair, much of which was via letter, for almost 40 years.

That correspondence has been taken and compiled into a most stirring two-act presentation for the stage, by Jerome Kilty.

Two professional actors will present the lives of these two great people as reflected through their correspondence to each other. "Dear Liar" will go on stage at 8:15 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the Colorado City Opera House.

It is a very emotional, very funny, very tragic, exciting and moving.

It has been said that the English language at its best, is the worst possible means of communication.

Whoever said that must not have heard what Shaw had to say or must not have read any of his writings.

Shaw was a critic who became a brilliant playwright and Mrs. Campbell was one of the most beautiful and exciting stars of the English and American stage.

The correspondence between these two was made into a play in two acts, written by Jerome Kilty.

These two will be portrayed in the "Dear Liars" by Cecil Rutherford and Judy Olson, both of whom have starred in national television, Broadway, off-Broadway and stock theatre.

In a rehearsal Tuesday night, these two magnificent actors presented the lives of two of the world's greatest personalities.

Wolves Set For Brownfield

Coaches Corner

By Jim Slaughter

In our preparation for Dunbar last week, we had decided that a field goal could very easily win the game for us.

We had concentrated our work outs along the lines of perfecting this phase of our kicking game.

This also depended upon our defense playing excellent ball, and our offense getting us close enough to kick a field goal against Dunbar's fine defense. In the ensuing error of neglect towards our punt coverage, by the time we got close enough to kick a field goal, three points would no longer help.

Two touchdowns within three minutes did drastically change our game plan. It did not ruin the spirit of the Wolves. They continued to show the character which has established them as a cohesive unit all year.

The psychological effect upon the team and coaches of losing to Dunbar was tremendous. A winning spirit had established an optimistic feeling that fell hard.

The winning spirit is still there, and the optimism will be replaced with hard work to insure more victories.

Thanks to a larger than ever group of people at Monday night's Booster Club Meeting.

The Coaches got the feeling that the people came to encourage and not just to watch the film. We hope to return the kindness of these people with even better effort on the part of the Wolves and their Coaches.

This Friday night at 7:30 the Wolves will meet an excellent Brownfield team in their second game of District play.

Job Well Done

If you missed this year's edition of the Mitchell County fair, you missed a real treat.

This year's fair was the biggest and best yet. And more people attended this year than in previous years.

The success of the fair is due to the hard work of many people. It would be almost impossible to name all those responsible for the success of the fair, but we would like to single out several persons who played a big part.

First of all there was Curtis Thomason, general chairman of the fair. He put in many long hours in the planning of the fair and then again during the three days it was presented. It seemed almost like he was there 24-hours each of the three days.

At his side were County Agent Bobby Lemons, Home Demonstration Agent Janis Choate, Chamber of Commerce Manager Sefton Pickens and Chamber of Commerce Secretary Sandra Grissom.

All of these, plus many, many more deserve praise and a pat on the back for a job well done.

The show, entitled "Painter of Particular People and Places," contains 22 of her paintings and drawings, recent and old, and will remain open to the public until Oct. 15. Featured in the show are portraits of her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dockrey Sr.

Louise is employed by Shell Oil Company as a stenographer and has lived in Midland for 20 years. She was born here in Colorado City.

Her art training has been largely with Arnold Leonard, who conducted the Midland Institute of Fine Arts in Midland from 1950 to 1966. Other art exposure includes life drawing with Charles Umlauf at the University of Texas in 1944 and several summer workshops from 1964 to 1970 with Antonio

Garcia of Corpus Christi and Saltillo, Mexico.

She is known by many for her efforts in the past on behalf of the fine arts in the Permian Basin Area, and in Texas, since she worked for several years in various capacities with the Midland Arts Association, the Texas Fine Arts Association and the Midland Community Theatre.

She served as president of the Midland Arts Association for two years and was instrumental in initiating the annual Fall Arts & Crafts Exhibit at the Midland County Exhibit Building.

REES

saying, "As I see it, the school board's job is outlined by law, and the do's and don'ts. It is easy, compared to your job and responsibility imposed upon you not by law or do's or don'ts but
by professional pride."

Rees went on to outline what is in the making or what might be the thoughts of the Board of Education of the school district
from his viewpoint.

He stated that principally in the last board meeting, they discussed the renovation of the school facilities, principally in the area of providing the professional personnel with a better environment in which to perform their tasks.

First step in this area will be that of obtaining a coordinating plan for renovating the school facilities.

"The major aspect in this area is that of eliminating certain campuses and then deciding which campuses we desire to continue.

"Then institute a renovation and building program whereby such campuses are improved to their maximum efficiency stage. This may even require building a new campus," Rees stated.

"I look forward to the Board of Education working through this counsel and thereby with you, as classroom teachers, in formulating and helping formulate future policies of the school board pertaining to programs of instruction, operating policies
and procedure, personnel
policies and procedure, program
evaluation, appraisal
procedure, school system improvement plans and practices and professional and ethical conduct of personnel," he concluded.

FIREMEN
A meeting of firemen's wives
will take place at 11:30 a.m.
Saturday at Villa Inn Restaurant.

A special tribute will be held during the convention to the late James Asbury of Baird, first president of the association (1939-1940) and the Association's secretary and treasurer for 10 years.

The program will be called to order by Hartsel Ash of Throckmort; the invocation given by Dalton Fisher of Baird; the pledge will be led by Lon Robertson of Colorado City; Ash
will lead a verse of "America";
Colorado City Mayor C. C.
(Mike) Burt will welcome the firemen to Colorado City and the response will be given by Mike Bell of Baird.

Association President Kenneth Wood of Snyder will then appoint a race judge and committee for the afternoon's pumper races to be conducted in front of City National Bank.

The races as such will not involve fast driving, only fast action by firemen to see who is the fastest in hooking up a fire truck's hoses once it has already been stopped near a hydrant.

The maintenance cost would precede the races will include a speech by W.D. Berry, Howard County Civil Defense director.

Before the races get underway, Wood will consider general business, a report on the state convention will be given and a site for next fall's meeting will be selected.

Following the races, a Bar-B-Q will be held at the Civic House after which there will be a dance at the Col-Tex Club
for the firemen.

be supported by taxes, if any.

If revenue sharing becomes a fact, it may be possible to use funds to the county for such a project as the funds are earmarked for certain categories including recreation.

Also there may be funds available through various governmental agencies to establish and maintain a golf course.

The golf course, if established, probably would be located on land near the city dump ground. The ground is already owned by the city and has sufficient water wells to supply water for a golf course.

City officials have indicated
the city would provide this land
for the establishment of a golf course. And some federal monies might be obtained through governmental projects to reclaim land used for sanitary landfills such as the city has.

Ken Russell, pro at the Lamesa Country Club, has estimated that a first class, 9-hole golf course could be established on city owned land with the water wells at a cost of $23,500 would include a watering system ($9,000), fairways tee
boxes and greens ($5,000), maintenance equipment ($7,000)
and design and contouring of greens ($2,500).

The maintenance cost would run $13,000 per year based on $9,000 for salaries, $1,500 for materials and $2,500 for other.

The maintenance cost could be offset by the selling of 130 family memberships at $100 per year or 100 family memberships at $100 per year plus green fees.

If 130 family memberships
could be sold, green fees taken in could be held in reserve to use for unexpected expenses.

There is now only one golf course in the county and it is the Colorado Country Club,
which is closed to the public (with the exception of out of county residents and they must be accompanied by a club member).

In a study of costs for other golf courses, it was shown that Lamesa Country Club has a net profit of $5,000 per year; Big Spring with an 18-hole course has a loss of $8,600 per year out of $31,000 expenses which includes salaries for four people; and Sweetwater municipal has a 9-hole course and loses $10,000 a year.

The commissioners are to make a complete study and make known as much information possible on expenses and the possible tax increase, if needed, to establish and support a public golf course.

their support to the Wolves.

The game against Brownfield
will be similar to the games Colorado City played against Coahoma and Ballinger, Brevard
noted.

Brownfield has a powerful team and after last week's victory over Estacado they are infected with the win fever. The Estacado loss was the first time the Lubbock team had ever been beaten in district competition.

The District race is expected to go down to the final game
this year with almost every team in the district considered a contender.

Brownfield, sweetwater and Dunbar now lead the district race as they are undefeated in one game each but either Sweetwater or Dunbar probably will drop from the lead after they play each other Friday.

In other district action, Lamesa plays Lake View and Estacado has a week off to get ready for Colorado City.

Colorado City will have to stop the Brownfield quarterback and fullback in order to win. The breaks will settle the game, says Brevard.

Cubs' opponent have been able to move the ball and Brevard believes the Wolves can do so against Brownfield.

The Wolves have had good workouts and just about everybody is in good health. Tim Stansel has had a foot injury
this week but seems to be recovering and Jerry Boyd has had a bout with the flu, has been weak and unable to get a good workout this week, Brevard
noted.

Other Colorado City teams will be in action this week with the 9th graders to play Lamesa
at 5 p.m. Thursday in Lamesa;
the junior varsity will play Lamesa in Lamesa at 6:30 p.m.
Thursday; the 8th graders will play Lamesa here at 6:30 p.m.
Thursday and the 7th grade red team will play Lamesa here at 5 p.m. Thursday.

DON'T TAKE RURAL TEXANS FOR A RIDE...

...AND DON'T TAKE US FOR GRANTED.

HERE'S WHAT NIXON IS DOING TO RURAL AMERICA

WHEAT SCANDAL - Giant wheat exporters made huge profits at the expense of individual wheat farmers, many in Texas, on Soviet trade.

TAXES - Wall Street Journal says federal laws favor the corporation or investor who farms on the side for a tax write-off.

FARM ISSUES - Under Nixon, parity dropped the lowest since 1933. Nixon held up payments of nearly $400 million for feed grains in 1970, forcing farmers to borrow at highest interest rates in history.

CONGLOMERATE SCANDALS - Big Business first, the public second - that's the Republican philosophy. Anti-trust suit against ITT dropped at the same time ITT pledged $400,000 to finance Republican Convention.

Harry S. Truman said, 'The Republicans admire our government so much they want to buy it.'

Let's face it. The Republicans just haven't changed much since the days of our grandfathers. They still favor Big Business over the average working man and woman. And while they're taking us for a ride, they keep telling us what a 'dangerous radical' Senator McGovern is.

That's what they said about Harry S.
Truman.

HERE'S WHAT McGOVERN IS DOING FOR RURAL AMERICA

HIS STANDING - George McGovern has been elected time and again as a Democrat from a Republican farm state ...
because they know where he stands.

TAXES - His tax proposal would end the loopholes for tax-loss farming by giant corporations and the wealthy individuals who compete unfairly with family farmers. McGovern's proposal calls for the same tax on capital gains as on earnings.

FARM ISSUES - He sponsored and co-
sponsored: Meat Import Limitation
Law; Dairy Import Act; Wheat, Feed
Grain, and Soybean Emergency Reserve
Bill; Rural Development, Rural Job Development, and Rural Telephone Acts; Farm Credit Act; and other pieces of important legislation.

HIS BELIEFS - George McGovern knows that the answers to many of our most pressing problems in America today can be found by developing genuine opportunities for everyone in our small towns and rural areas throughout the country.

Let's not be taken for granted by the Nixon Republicans. Rural America has always fared best under a Democratic administration. If you want to stand up and do something good for rural America, the answer is to help put a Democrat
in the White House. We need George McGovern ... and George McGovern needs us.

RURAL TEXANS NEED A DEMOCRAT.

RURAL TEXANS NEED McGOVERN

Read any good clothes lately?

You'll find some very interesting reading on the labels in the new clothes you buy.

After July 3, 1972, all garments manufactured that require care and maintenance for their ordinary use must carry a permanent label giving instructions for care and maintenance.

Any questions you have about whether to wash and dry or to dry clean will be answered right on the label.

For home laundering, you'll find electric dryers are designed for a wide range of modern materials — including polyesters and other permanent press fabrics.

This is just one of many reasons why the flameless electric dryer is America's favorite.

Here are a few tips on how to keep your new permanent press clothes looking their best without spending hours ironing:

1. Never dry more than one washer-load at a time.
2. For truly wrinkle-free clothes, try drying half a load, so they'll have lots of tumbling room.

3. Try fabric conditioners. They not only make clothes softer, but they cut down on the static electricity that makes clothes cling together and wrinkle while drying.

4. Clean your dryer's lint trap after each load, to increase drying efficiency.
5. Read your instruction book carefully to get the most out of your dryer's unique features. File instructions for future reference.

The difference between a brain and a computer can be expressed in a single word: complexity. The large mammalian brain is the most complicated thing, for its size, known to us. The human brain weighs three pounds, but in that three pounds are ten billion neurons and a hundred billion smaller cells. Even the most complicated computer man has yet built can't compare intricacy with the brain. Can a computer think? That depends on what you mean by "think." If solving a mathematical problem is "thinking" then a computer can "think" and do so much faster than a man. But how long will it take to build a computer complex enough to duplicate the human brain? Perhaps not as long as some think!

Do you think you're economizing by using ordinary tap water for all your laundry chores? EVENT for the reunion and mortgage burning program with messages from preachers who formerly worked with the congregation. A gospel singing and recognition of special workers in the congregation among reunion guests and present members will be included in the program.

Evening worship will begin at 6:30 p.m. with Roy Holland as guest speaker.

Holland now lives and preaches in Tucson, Ariz. He was the first preacher in the new building during the years 1962-1964.

The members of the church met in the courthouse for a year with A. J. McCarty holding the first meeting on the courthouse lawn.

When the Cumberland Presbyterian Church abandoned their building in East Colorado was rented and services were conducted there for a few months until arrangements were made for the use of a school building located at 5th & Locust Streets.

A small frame building on East Second Street was used from 1908 until a second building of frame stucco was built in 1925. That building was used until a new building was built in 1930 at 5th & Elm at a cost of $26,000.00. W.W. Whipkey was architect for the building and F. H. Strong was the contractor.

This was "home for the congregation until May of 1963 when the present building at 22nd & Austin Streets was completed at a cost of $102,000.00 on land given by Mr. and Mrs. M.A. Stinson.

Serving as elders of the church were A. V. Sheppard, J.W. Watson, John Hale, J.B. Marshall and G. D. Foster.

Preachers who have worked with local congregation through years have been J. D. Harvey, W.A. Schultz, L.L. Kimmell, Willis Kreeger, Harvey Childress, Woodie Holden, L.C. Bankhead, Floyd J. Spivey, E. Hulen Masters, W.E. Burkham, Earl L. Craig, Roy L. Holland, Robert M. Alexander, Bub Barnes, Charles L. Herron, Mardell Lynch, Eddie Johnson and Clyde Findlay.

Tom Yoakum is presently pastor of the church.

Many invitations to former members and friends of the congregation have been mailed and everyone is invited to attend, according to Yoakum.

PLAY

brings Shaw from behind his beard and pronouncements to show George Bernard Shaw as a passionate, loving, angry, hurt and delightful, very human individual.

He like many other writers, was known to be egotistical. And he was that. But it was strictly because the man believed in himself and his ability as a writer.

He like many other writers in bygone years were outspoken and years ahead of the civilization in which they lived. During much of correspondence, Mrs. Campbell serves as a sounding board for his ideas.

Kitty has done a tremendous job in adapting the correspondence of these two famous people into a fast moving, very interesting presentation.

Rutherford and Mrs. Olson do a delightful job in presenting it. The play lasts a little more than two hours-two very short hours that end too soon.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. each night. Reservations may be made by phoning 728-3491.

Clay Shurtleff

Student Profile

By MARGO TOMB

la Wolf.

(This is the second in a series of articles about Colorado City Schools and students written by a member of the Colorado High School Journalism Department.)

Clay Shurtleff spent a lot of time during his elementary school years in the office of the Principal Brooks Teague.

His time there wasn't for the usual reason of discipline.

He was sent there to show Teague his drawings. It was in those early years of school that Clay's talent as an artist began to reveal itself.

Now a junior at Colorado High School, it is quite probable that Clay inherited his gifted artistic ability.

His father, Darrell Shurtleff, paints in oil and does metal work. Metalwork is an art which Clay finds interesting and he often helps his father in various projects.

Of his early years as an artist, Clay says, "I remember an elephant especially well. Judging from his work now, one wonders what that first early elephant looked like."

At the age of 12, the aspiring artist began taking lessons from Mrs. Charles Walker. After two years of studying with Mrs. Walker, Clay entered high school and studied art under the direction of the high school art teacher, Miss Shei-

To further his art education, Clay last June went to a two-week workshop at Texas Christian University. At TCU, he studied various subjects including lithography and photo silk-screening.

He studied photo silk-screening, a method of printing based on the stencil-principle, and lithography, a process of printing from a flat surface on which the ink for the image is retained by a greasy albuminous deposit.

Clay is like many other students who have their hearts and minds set on a certain career.

"I would like to quit school and spend all my time on art. But I don't see how this is possible."

Future plans of the aspiring artist include attending the renowned school of fine arts at North Texas State University in Denton where he plans to "...get into all kinds of art, and explore all phases of it. I also want to be a freelance artist," he says hopefully.

Also of interest to Clay are iron and copper working. He is already famous for his pen and ink drawings. He has also done some oils, water colors, acrylics and some charcoals.

Most of his work is of landscapes that attract his eyes in person or photographs as well as animals.
