He and Mrs. Crabtree entered the nursing home together January 2.

Funeral services for Mr. Crabtree were conducted at 2:00 p.m. Sunday in the Quail School gymnasium, which he was instrumental in building 40 years ago. L.A. Davis, minister of Quail Church of Christ, officiated. Afterwards, his body was returned to Oklahoma City for interment in Rose Hill Cemetery by Capitol Hill Funeral Home.

Wellington School District Will Determine Bond Issue Saturday

Wellington Independent School District voters will determine the $540,000 school house bond issue in an election Saturday, February 3.

Voting will be in the auditorium foyer of the high school, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Anyone may vote in the election who is a resident of the Wellington School District and who is a registered voter.

Jack Neeley is the election judge and Mrs. A.J. Fires assistant judge.

Absentee balloting closed Wednesday, February 3, at 5:00 p.m. That morning 24 ballots had been cast.

Wording on the ballots will be: For (En por) or Against (En contra):

"The issuance of bonds and the levying of the tax in payment thereof" ("La emision de bonos e el gravamen de los impuestos en pago de esto.")

The proposed improvements which the bonds would cover are:

-A new elementary building consisting of 17 classrooms, combination library and media center, offices, restrooms, nurse quarters, teacher work room and related facilities.

-Remodeled east wing of the present building for four classrooms, tax and administrative office.

-Remodeling and renovation in the high school gymnasium.

-A new heating and cooling system in the high school auditorium. There is neither heat nor cooling at present.

-Addition of storage facilities to the cafeteria.

-Renovating the athletic facilities at the football field.

At present, 42 cents of present tax rate goes to service the bonded indebtedness. The school's financial consultant George B. Buescher, Jr., of Abilene, estimates that an additional 27 cents will service the proposed bond issue, or a total of 69 cents.

What it would mean to taxes within the school district is this: The present tax rate is $1.92. It is estimated that the new tax rate upon issuance of the bonds will be $2.19 per $100 valuation.

The school board does not propose any change in the assessed valuation of property within the district.

In exterior appearance, the proposed new elementary will be similar to the new Shamrock School, which is nearing completion. A number of patrons have already visited that school. The Wellington school administration and school board encourages anyone interested to visit the Shamrock school before the election date.

V.K. Orr, president of the school board, has given a timetable which will be followed if the bonds are approved Saturday.

The bonds will first be rated on the bond market. Texas bonds are presently enjoying a favorable rating, and there is every belief that this will apply to the Wellington schoolhouse bonds.

Final plans of the architect, Thomas Brown, A.I.A., of Ft.

Worth, will be considered and accepted during this period.

Sale of the bonds would be made by about March 22, Mr. Buescher said. The money will be in the bank within the next few days.

In the meantime, the school board can take bids on the work. As soon as the money is in the bank, the board can sign a contract for construction.

Mr. Brown has told the school board that by operating on a close schedule, the work can be finished by the beginning of the 1977-78 school year. Availability of materials and the weather will be determining factors.

The new elementary building will go up first, Mr. Orr, said, with children continuing

Pesticide Applicator Certification Meeting Called Here on Feb. 17

A county-wide open meeting on private pesticide applicators certification will be held Wednesday, February 16, at the club room of Bura Handley Community Center, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

County Extension Agent Don Reeves is urging that every farmer or rancher who uses pesticides of any type of his operations to attend this meeting, since under federal law, certification will be required by October 17, 1977.

Dr. Carl Patrick of Amarillo, area entomologist with the Texas A&M Extension Service, will be the speaker and will explain in detail the requirements of the new law.

Mr. Reeves explained that this certification is an outgrowth of the Federal Insecticide Fungicide and Rodenticide Act. States in turn are required to carry out the provisions of the act.

The Texas Department of Agriculture is the enforcing agency for the state and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service does the educational work on Certification.

Certification itself comes through the Texas Department of Agriculture.

"Certification is mandatory, and attending a training meeting such as the one here February 16 is the easiest way to do it," Reeves emphasized.

"Pesticide" for the purpose of the federal and state law means any substance or mixture of substances intended to prevent, destroy, repel or mitigate any pest, or any substance or mixture of substances intended for use as plant regulator, defoliant, or desiccant, the county agent pointed out.

There is no charge for certification for farmers and ranchers, although commercial applicators do pay a fee.

In Texas, private applicators are exempt under the state law. However, they are not exempt under the federal law that the Texas Department of Agriculture is carrying out.

"Many farmers in this county will be putting down Treflan and other things right away and we feel this meeting will be a good time for you to be certified," Reeves added.

Since Collingsworth is a state-line county, it is pointed out that farmers living in Oklahoma and operating land in Texas, will be certified in Oklahoma. The same applies for Texas farmers with land in Oklahoma. The residents determines the state where the farmer will place seed certification, and so far as is known, he does not have to be certified in both.

REV. FUGITT

Rev. Fugitt Begins Church Pastorate

The Rev. Mickey Fugitt has begun his pastorate at First Baptist Church, and with his wife and small son, arrived here Tuesday, February 1.

He comes here from Immanuel Baptist Church, Abilene, where he served almost three years.

Rev. Fugitt will preach his first sermon as pastor of the Wellington church on Sunday, February 6.

Among his early plans for the Wellington church, Rev. Fugitt said, is an expanded TV ministry, with more hours of programming.

A second staff member will be brought in within the near future to serve as full time music and youth director.

Another of the upcoming activities will be this church's participation in the Good News Texas Campaign, April 17 to 24. Rev. Fugitt plans to do the preaching.

"But my first responsibility is to get acquainted, to get involved with the people here, and to help them," he declared.

Rev. Fugitt's father is also a Baptist clergyman, who is now pastor of First Baptist Church, Clyde. Mickey Fugitt was born at Vernon and graduated from Bel Air High School in El Paso.

A vietnam veteran, he served in the U.S. Navy with service aboard the helicopter carrier USS Boxer. His training was at San Diego and Great Lakes, Illinois, and he completed the nuclear power school at Bainbridge, Md., with additional training aboard a nuclear submarine prototype at Windsor Lakes, Conn.

He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Hardin Simmons University in 1971 with a double major in Bible and sociology. Later he attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Ft. Worth.

Wellington is his third pastorate. He first was at College View Baptist, Abilene, while he was a student at Hardin Simmons, and on April 1, 1972, he went to First Baptist, Wilmer.

In Abilene, he was a member of the Breakfast Optimist Club, serving as vice president for programs and youth work.

Mrs. Fugitt is the former Deborah Kay Hibner of Ona, West Virginia. She has studied at HSU and is presently taking Cisco Junior College extension courses at Clyde, which she will commute to complete.

She has also studied art with Mrs. W.W. Estes of Clyde.

Their son, Micah Reuben, will be four years old on May 1.

Mrs. W.F. Ford Lifelong Area Resident, Dies

Mrs. Frank Ford, a lifelong resident of Collingsworth County, died in Collingsworth General Hospital Saturday, January 29, at 7:00 a.m. She had been in failing health for several months.

She and Mr. Ford had lived in Wellington since they retired from farming in the Dodson area in 1962. The family home is 702 11th Street.

The former Margaret Helen Gardner, she was born at Mansfield February 23, 1902. Her parents, the late A.L. and Dolly Gardner, had come to Collingsworth County in 1901, but returned to Mansfield for her birth.

She attended the Dodson and Wellington Schools, and was married to William Frank Ford at Wellington on December 12, 1920.

A Baptist since early in life, she was active in South Baptist Church, Dodson, and in all events relating to the school as her children were growing up.

Funeral services were conducted at First Baptist Church Sunday at 3:00 p.m. The officiant was the Rev. Ray Wheeler, pastor of Paramount Terrace Christian Church, Amarillo, and burial was in Memorial Gardens Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were Albert Fulcher, Truett Holland, Tom Birchfield, Tommy Lewis, Carthel Lewis and Kenneth Hudson.

Surviving Mrs. Ford are her husband, Frank Ford; a daughter, Mrs. Cotton Vandiver of Phillips; two sons, Lee G. Ford of Borger and Warner B. Ford of Amarillo; two sisters, Mrs. A.L. Allison and Mrs. James Johnson of Amarillo; 6 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Kiwanis Sponsors Variety Show Mon.

The Kiwanis Club is sponsoring The Zogi Variety Revue, a family type entertainment, Monday, February 7, in the high school auditorium. Curtain time is 7:30 p.m.

This is a benefit event, with proceeds to go to the Kiwanis Youth Fund, Lyman Daniel, president, has announced.

A student matinee will be held at 2:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

C.A. Frank, tour manager for the Zogi Variety Revue, called this a stage presentation with special music, produced by Clarence and Gladys, who also star in the cast.

dated back many years. Mr. Crabtree was born in Celina, Tenn., October 6, 1886. As a youth, he worked as an office boy for Cordell Hull, who many years later became Secretary of State under President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

He taught in the public schools of this county, "off and on from the time I was 15 till I was 22" he once said.

Next, he turned to newspaper work and was employed by The Celina Messenger, first newspaper established in his home town.

He graduated from Mount Vale College in Celina in 1909 and worked for the next year for Brown Shoe Co. in St. Louis.

Quail became his home by accident. He came to visit his sister, and liked the people, and went to work for Dr. Ed Beck, who also owned a general merchandise store.

Nearly two years later, he met Miss Hettie Johnson, a student in Cordell, Oklahoma, Christian College, at a Christmas entertainment. They were married Feb. 16, 1913, at Hobart.

The couple farmed at Cordell and north of Mangum until the end of World War I.

In 1919, he was again in Quail, and to his own surprise, he bought a general mercantile store from J.R. Self. It became the Quail Mercantile.

Seeing he did not have the capital to enlarge the store, Mr. Crabtree organized a corporation and sold stock. Later, he bought out the stockholders until he again had full ownership.

The county was then at the peak of its population, and Mr. Crabtree has recalled that he had as many as 12 to 14 employees. In 1935 he began Bank Night, the first merchant to use this popular promotional idea.

Mr. Crabtree served the Quail community in many other ways. For a time he was an undertaker, and for a number of years, he was a commissioned deputy sheriff and a notary public.

By the mid-1930s, Tom Crabtree was working hard with a small group of other men to secure the consolidation of the small schools of the west part of the county into a their work in their present classrooms the remainder of this year.

The fact that much of the construction will come during the summer months is an important factor in favor of its completion.

The need for building-improvement program has been under consideration almost a year, since a group of parents asked the board to do something to improve the 29 year-old elementary building.

At a public meeting, the school administration revealed that the condition of the building would require renovation or a new building. Unless this were done, it was brought out, the school's accreditation could be jeopardized. Should that point be reached, it was likely that the State Education Agency would determine the type of building to be put up, rather than for the school patrons and board to have a free choice.

On Friday, Feb. 4, from 4:15 to 5:00 p.m. KBGH Radio will broadcast a question-and-answer session with E.W. Clement, Wellington School superintendent and several members of the school board. Listeners may call in questions at 447-2911.

large one that would give children of the area educational advantages they were not then getting.

His work was instrumental in bringing this about, and the district became the largest Rural High School District in the United States in area. It's enrollment grew to more than 800.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree were enthusiastic basketball fans and seldom missed a game at Quail.

He served on the Quail board of trustees 12 years, from the school's founding in 1935 until 1947. Much of this time he was president

Mr. Crabtree was a devoted member of the Church of Christ and exerted a strong influence on the religious life of the community. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, and several years ago received his 50-year pin.

He is survived by Mrs. Crabtree and several nieces and nephews.

their sweetheart, Kathleen Reeves, as the girl to be sowed in two, the president said.

The Times of London has said of this show, "Certainly one of the best." The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service said, "The State Department could spend millions and not be able to build the international good will this company is doing."

Reports from other town are that The Zogi Variety Review is playing to packed houses.

Tickets are available from any Kiwanian, Mr. Daniel said.

Obtain Proof of Grain Ownership

AUSTIN—All Texas grain farmers are urged to obtain official grain warehouse receipts for their stored crop, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

"Farmers who receive nothing more than weight tickets as proof of deposit of their grain should exchange them for official receipts as soon as possible to ensure maximum protection under the law," White said.

In the event of a grain warehouse failure, a weight ticket holder could easily be inviting lengthy legal haggling before taking possession of his grain, since scale tickets in themselves do not necessarily constitute legal proof of ownership.

On the other hand, White stated, warehouse receipts, obtained upon request from any grain warehouse, provide clearcut proof of ownership as legal negotiable instruments.

Norwood-Quail To End Season Friday

Quail and Samnorwood Schools end their basketball seasons Friday, February 4, when they meet for the last time this year.

Quail will be the host team and game time is 7:00 p.m.

This friendly rivalry is more than 40 years old, and the two meetings each season are the games guaranteed to pack the bleachers and generate a brand of enthusiasm that only these two communities can produce.

Bill Wilson is coaching the Quails and Bobwhites. Kenneth Martindale coaches Samnorwood Eaglettes and Dale Morris the Eagles.

Fans of the two schools are urged to be on hand and help them close out the season for these District 4-B Schools.

Rev. Fugitt Will Preach at Rally

Rev. Michael Fugitt, pastor of First Baptist church, Wellington, and Dr. Winfred Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Amarillo, will preach at the Panfork Baptist Association Good News Texas Rally to be held at the First Baptist Wheeler, Monday, February 7.

The Rally will seek to inspire the Southern Baptist Churches of this area to participate fully in the state wide evangelistic thrust entitled Good News Texas.

The purpose of Good News Texas is to share the gospel with Texas in an intensive way during 1977 and attempt to strengthen the churches and lead new converts and other church members into Christian discipleship growth.

To accomplish this purpose various methods of presentation will be used. A media campaign entitled Living Proof will share what a difference that Jesus Christ can make in the lives of people. Personal as well as revival evangelism will be used by local churches

RSVP Staff at Meeting on Older Vols

Mrs. Mecca Manuel and Mrs. Jean Reynolds of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, attended the annual regional conference of OAVP directors in New Orleans, La., Tuesday through Friday, January 25 to 28.

Directors of RSVP, Foster Grandparents (FGP) and Senior Companion Program (SCP) were present from Texas, Arkansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Louisiana.

Administering an RSVP program was discussed by Joan Baird, Houston director, and "Making Meetings Produce" covering decision making processes, communications, group dynamics, were covered by Michael F. Murray. Group meetings concluded the opening day's session.

Murray discussed a two-year plan for professional development of project directors Thursday morning, and in the evening, those present heard Victor Hruska, director of the Older American Volunteer Programs (OVAP) and ACTION from Washington D.C. discussing the national perspectives, he told of the status and future of OVAP, policy making processes and policies.

The keynote speaker was Mrs. Marlene Wilson of Boulder, Colorado, who spoke at the Thursday breakfast on "Volunteer Management: Delegating Duties to Volunteers, Interviewing and Counseling Skills."

This theme was continued through the morning and covered such phases as job design, advising councils, volunteer role identification and loyalty, staff, board and volunteer relations.

WHS Ends Season With Claude Fri.

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes end their 1976-77 season Friday, February 4, when they host Claude in a triple header.

A B-team girls game will start at 5:00 p.m., to be followed by varsity boys and girls.

The Rockets lost their first district game to Claude on their court by a three-point margin. Wellington's high scoring Shane Tarver had to spend most of that game on the bench after he got into foul trouble early.

"I feel at our place we can probably beat them-and we look forward to it," said Coach Robert Hicks.

The coach indicated he was well pleased with his team, after five men were lost early in the season, four of them starters.

Three of the present first string will be playing their last game against Claude, Tarver, Tony Martinez and Bob Cummings.

There are no juniors on this team, and the remaining 5 players include three sophomores and two freshmen.

"They should mature and develop over the next two years, and year after next, we should have one of the finest teams in this part of the Panhandle," believes coach Hicks.

Claude has one of the stronger girls teams Wellington has met, and on the Claude court, they defeated Wellington by 13 points.

"We are playing better than we did the first half of the season in district play, although we are still troubled by free throw problems," said Coach Bruce Dollar.

An advertisement for First Federal Savings & Loan, Wellington Branch, on Jan. 20, 1977, incorrectly asked people to go to First Federal "for all personal and business loans."

The ad should have read "for all FHA, Conventional, GI and Home and Business Improvement Loans under FHA Title I."

The Wellington Leader regrets the error.

Wellington Teams Victors In Meeting With Shamrock

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes opened the second half of district play with a double header victory over Shamrock Tuesday, January 22.

The Rockets took their victory 40-37, coming from behind in the fourth quarter and making some crucial free throws in the closing minutes to win the game.

"I felt we started jelling as a team. The five kids played together real well. This is our first district victory and I think it will help a lot for the rest of this season plus the experience for next year," said Coach Robert Hicks.

Wellington led 6-2 at the first period but trailed 16-13 at halftime and 31-29 at the third.

Shane Tarver and Jon Sessions had 12 points each; Carl Taylor 7, Tony Martinez 5 and Bob Cummings four.

Leo Segura, Allen Close and Mickey Mitchell each scored 8 points for Shamrock. Kelley Doss and Gary Aaron 5 each, James Cogburn two and Keith Krug one.

Wellington girls also gave a come-from-behind performance to take their game 46-43.

"This was probably the best game we have played all year long," said Coach Bruce Dollar. "The guards did an outstanding job. Shamrock made only 12 shots from the field in the entire game, none in the last quarter and only two in the whole second half. Our forwards did real well.

Income Tax Seminar Due At Childress

A tax seminar will be conducted by the Childress Chamber of Commerce Thursday, February 10.

It will be in the Ready Kilowatt Room of West Texas Utilities Company on Commerce Street, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Conducting the seminar will be the U.S. Small Business Administration. Millard Townsend will be in charge.

One of the major points of discussion will be the new 1040 short Income Tax form, according to Mrs. Hazel O'Donnell, chamber of commerce secretary.

All persons interested in getting income tax information are invited.

When we got the ball down there, they scored."

The Rockettes, ahead by one point, held the ball an entire minute near the finish, then were fouled by Shamrock and Lee Ann Sessions made two free throws to give the three-point margin.

The score was tied at the first period, then Shamrock was ahead 30-27 at halftime and 40-34 at the third.

Wellington girls had taken a 20-point loss to the Irish Lassies in their first district meeting.

"We have worked for two years getting this program built up and it is starting to pay off," Coach Dollar pointed out.

High point player was Wellington's Lee Ann Sessions with 22, while Suzy Chandler had 14, Pam Ingram 8 and Kloeette Camp 2. Renee Bradley scored 18 points for Shamrock, Mindy Hensley 14, Pam Miller 7 and Cindy Hensley three.

City Receives $1,923 Sales Tax Check

The City of Wellington has received a check for $1,923.10, representing the city sales tax rebate for the preceding month. These were mailed Friday, January 14, by Comptroller Bob Bullock, and total $23.2 million to 620 Texas Cities and at the same time he reminded quarterly sales tax filers of the January 31 deadline for their returns.

The January checks raise to $152.8 million the total in rebates received by the cities for the current fiscal year, compared to $115.3 million for the same five-month period a year ago. This is a 32.5 percent increase.

The city's check represented $2,060.42 collected for the month ending January 7. From this, audit payments of 26 cents and a state service fee of $41.21 were deducted. An additional $66.11 was retained. This is kept in reserve to insure that some money will be in each city's account at all times to cover transfers, hot checks, and to prevent a negative balance.

Label on Return Speeds Refund

Taxpayers can receive their refunds faster by using the preaddressed peel-off label on their returns, the Internal Revenue Service said.

The label, which appears on the cover of the tax package mailed to taxpayers, lists name, address and social security number.

The IRS emphasized that if any information on the label is incorrect, the taxpayer should make corrections right on the label.

The deadline for making application for ACP practices to be performed now is Thursday, February 3, at 5:00 p.m., according to Bob Weatherly, county ASCS executive director.

"One practice of concern right now is deep plowing (12' or deeper). We are getting a lot of applications and do not have much money. We are trying to explain at the counter how will this work. You can still sign up for other practices too. This is not just for deep plowing," said Mr. Weatherly.

Three Steers High At Ft. Worth Show

Three county calves were high in the judging at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show last week, although none was in a top place.

Mark Fourmentin's Angus was seventh in the light weight class for that breed. Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fourmentin.

Stan Tate's Hereford was 12th in the middleweight Hereford class, and his brother, Lynn, had the 12th place steer in the Limousine Cross heavy-light weight class. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Tate of Abra.

The placing was announced by county extension agent Don Reeves.

All three calves sold

Tuesday, February 1, with Mr. Tate and Stan remaining to handle the sale.

"We were pleased, although we thought they could have placed higher in some classes," Mr. Reeves said.

More than 60 steers were in the cross bred classes and approximately 35 in the Hereford Class.

No Transfer of Cotton Acres

The transfer of cotton allotments out of this county will not be allowed, under action of county ASCS committee.

This applies to both lease and sale.

In the past, leasing of cotton allotment acreage out of the county was permitted.

Committee members said they feel there will be a demand in this county for all the acres available.

The grower can still lease or buy cotton allotment acres to come into the county, according to Bob Weatherly, county executive director.

ASCS committee members are Carl Wischkaemper, chairman; Dan Henard, Jr., vice-chairman; and Rudie Tate, member.

B&PW Names Tops Gilreath as Guest Night Banquet Speaker

Miss Tops Gilreath, Hall County Superintendent of Schools, will be the guest speaker at the Business and Professional Women's annual guest banquet Tuesday, Feb.

The banquet will be in Bura Handley Community Center at 7:00 p.m. Banquet chairmen are Mrs. Bura Handley and Mrs. Rufus Seat. Miss Gilreath's speech will be "Responsible Action in Our Community."

Her involvement in Memphis community life, and especially in the schools of Hall County, covers a long period of years. She is currently secretary-treasurer of Hall County Local Unit of Texas State Teachers Association-National Education Association; secretary of Panhandle School Leaders Assn. Superintendents Section; and Secretary of the Texas Assoc. of County Superintendents. A former teacher, she once coached her sister, the late Jimmie Gilreath Stargel to the tennis singles state championship.

Fix-It Tip

Even though warm weather is some time away, you should think about cleaning your screens. Once the weather has turned hot is no time to be sweating it out with storm windows still in place while you get the screens in shape. Check screens now to be certain they are ready for handling. Check to see if they are clean, if they need painting.

Cleaning is generally enough. An accumulation of winter dust can be eliminated with soap and water and a stiff brush. Thorough rinsing is important. Pick a day when you can work outdoors and do the rinsing with a garden hose.

Mrs. James Hosts Club

The Good Neighbor Club met with Mrs. Merritt James Friday, January 21, at 2:00 p.m.

The president, Mrs. R.L. Karnes, presided over the business session. She reminded the members that the club was entering its 28th year. The ladies of the House Log community organized the Help One Another Club in 1949 with the idea of helping their neighbors. One day she recalled they papered two or three rooms for one of the members. In the '50s the name of the club was changed to Good Neighbor.

Mrs. James gave the opening prayer, "A New Year's Prayer" by Katherine Marshall. Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch gave a poem and urged the new officers to fill their office well. The minutes were read by the new secretary, Mrs. Barjenbruch and roll call was answered with a scripture verse.

Mrs. Charles Cason and Mrs. Leonard Karnes were appointed as the gift committee for the coming year.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Ray Clubb, Mrs. Cason, Mrs. Violet Potter, Mrs. Karnes, Mrs. Barjenbruch and the hostess, Mrs. James.

JFF Meets On Saturday

A salad supper followed by games of 42 entertained members of JFF Club and their husbands Saturday evening, January 22, in the Heritage Room. Hostesses were Mrs. James Masten and Mrs. Jimmie Kelso.

Valentine season decorations were used on the buffet and also on the tables for four where the couples were seated.

High score went to Mrs. Jake Leach and R.T. Savage, while low score winners were Mrs. Don Jones and Drury Lacy.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Woody Wood, Mr. and Mrs. R.T. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Drury Lacy, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holton, Mrs. Dick Sweat, Mr. and Mrs. James Masten and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Kelso.

Party Given D'Nae Keller

Anna D'Nae Keller was honored on her sixth birthday Friday, January 28, with a party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Keller.

Games were played by the children, then cup cakes, ice cream and punch were served. A clown theme was carried out in the decorations.

Those attending were Stacey Nelson, Johnnie Settle, Ronnie Mote, Nancy Davis, Joshua Hughes, Wendy Riley, Raquel Neeley, Shane Black, Mark Aguirre, Clay Holland, Kime Henard, Sharon Henard, Crystal Naylor, Marla Keller and Nicole Keller. Club Hears Ratliff Poem

A poem by the late Ben Ratliff, "A Farmer's Lullaby," was given for members of Lillie Club Thursday afternoon, January 27, when Mrs. Lowell Wells was hostess in her home.

Tami Boswell Tells Problems Of the Deaf for B&PW Club

Members of Wellington B&PW Club had Tami Boswell, a high school student, as their guest speaker in the regular meeting Tuesday, January 25, in Bura Handley Community Center.

Young Baptist Unit Meets

The Young Baptist Women met Tuesday, January 18 in the home of Mrs. Dan Langford. The program on the lives of missionary children was given by Mrs. Rodney Myrick.

Often the children of missionaries are in school elsewhere from where their parents are stationed and are only home a few months and then have to leave for school and are separated from their parents six months and more without seeing them, she pointed out.

Following the meeting, a surprise baby shower was given honoring Mrs. Charles Floyd.

Members present were Mrs. Bill Billington, Mrs. Lyman Daniel, Mrs. Garland Strickland, Mrs. Johnnie Nash, Mrs. Jim Forrester, Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Langford and Mrs. Myrick; and the following guests: Mrs. Bill Hill, Mrs. Larry Hammons, Mrs. Bill Langford, Mrs. Billy Wilkerson and Janie.

limited, used as the basis of her talk the speech she gave in the State 4-H Public Speaking contest in the summer of 1976, at College Station, entitled "Joy of Hearing."

She told of the problems of the hard of hearing, drawing on her own experience. She then told of new helps for those with hearing problems.

Tami concluded her program with a poem: "You Have to be Deaf to Understand."

Mrs. Lynn Wright, president, was in charge of the meeting, and the collect was given by Mrs. Dudley Phipps. Mrs. Rufus Sweat led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Program directors were Mrs. Billy Williams, chairman, and Mrs. Claude Smith, vice chairman, with Mrs. Smith introducing the speaker.

Two new members were voted into the club, Mrs. Clifford Christian and Mrs. D.R. McKinney.

Microwave Oven Excellent To Cook Your Wild Game

Many families at this time of year are freshly equipped with both a microwave oven as a result of Christmas and a supply of game as a result of the hunting seasons. All that is needed are some recipes to get the two together.

However, since manufacturers' instructions may vary, be sure to check those for your particular oven before using the following recipes.

All game birds are much juicier cooked the microwave way. Experienced cooks recommend at least seven minutes per pound and piercing the skin before placing the bird in the oven to prevent popping.

Seasoned coating mixes and paprika improve the color of the birds. After they start to brown, cover the wing tips, the high point of the breast and the narrow part of the legs with small tips of foil. Such small amounts will slow the cooking of these areas, but will not damage the unit.

A non-salted vegetable oil is best for basting. Most microwave cooks recommend basting off the juices as they accumulate because the microwave will be attracted to the liquid, resulting in a longer cooking time.

Cook in microwave oven as follows:

breast up: 20-22 minutes
first side: 20-22 minutes
second side: 20-22 minutes back up: 20-22 minutes
Remove turkey from oven and let stand for 10 minutes before serving. Turkey drippings may be used to make gravy.

ROAST PHEASANT

1 pheasant
1 tablespoon dry tarragon
3 tablespoons unsalted, sweet butter
2 tablespoons olive oil
½ teaspoon dry hot red pepper flakes
2 cloves garlic
salt

Wash cavity of bird. Spoon tarragon and one teaspoon butter into cavity, then truss bird. Rub with one table spoon olive oil, then sprinkle with hot pepper. Preheat browning skillet in microwave oven 4½ minutes. Melt remaining butter and oil in skillet in oven. Add garlic and saute until brown. Remove garlic and place pheasant in skillet. Brown pheasant, then remove from skillet and place on glass platter. Cover and cook in microwave oven 20 to 25 minutes. Baste every five minutes with natural juices. Turn pheasant halfway through cooking time. Let stand 10 minutes before serving. Salt lightly. Makes four servings.

Laundering Habits Make Clothes Look New Longer

COLLEGE STATION--Good laundering habits will keep clothing looking fresh and new longer, Margret Ann Vanderpoorten, a clothing specialist, says.

"Clothing too heavily soiled before washing will not wash clean-leaving it dingy," this specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, says.

"Sorting clothing by colors is also important. During washing, white fabrics may absorb color from other garments and become grayed or yellowed. Light colored fabrics that absorb color from darker ones look dull. "Using the correct amount of detergent is crucial. Too little detergent prevents complete removal of soil. Amounts recommended by the detergent manufacturers are usually most effective," she said.

Laundering in small loads works best. Crowding the washer keeps clothes from agitating properly, the specialist explained.

Since most of today's clothing is laundered rather than dry cleaned, improved laundering methods can prolong the appearance of newness and keep clothing wearable longer, she said.

We Must Study Our Options Then Vote Our Convictions

Every person in the Wellington Independent District is urged to carefully consider what is at stake and then vote his convictions in the $540,000 Schoolhouse Bond Election Saturday, February 3.

Their purpose has already been well stated: for construction of a new elementary school and remodeling part of the present building; and for remodeling and updating the high school auditorium, gym and stadium facility.

Passage of these bonds will leave the district's indebtedness still well below the legal debt limit at the present property valuations. Only an additional 27¢ per $100 valuation will be required to cover the proposed new bonds, bringing the total to finance both the old and new indebtedness to 79¢. On the basis of valuations in Wellington, the average homeowner will pay less additional per month than it costs to go out and buy a hamburger and bottle of pop.

The condition of the elementary school is such that something must be done, now or later. If it is put off until the school's accreditation is threatened, the state will be more likely to say what kind of school will go up.

Elementary School was built in the day when lots of windows were the style and the cost of gas was cheap. Can we continue the luxury of the high cost of energy? All present construction looks to energy conservation.

Do we wish to pay the penalty of inflation, at present around 1.5 percent per month in the construction business? Three years from now we aren't going to get as much for our $540,000 as we get now.

Each of us who is eligible to vote in the schoolhouse bond election should weigh all sides of the way we believe will be to the best interest of all.

Wiretaps and Organized Crime

If organized crime has ever been an abstract notion in the minds of many Texans, a new study should dispel any concept of smallness: The Texas Organized Crime Prevention Council estimates that organized crime is costing Texans between $1.8 billion and $3.2 billion annually.

Based on the lower figure, organized crime is the fifth-largest business enterprise in the state.

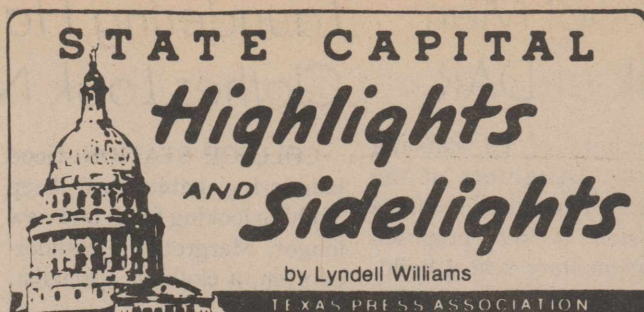

Aside from a moral resurgence among those who use the services offered by organized crime, a necessary tool in the battle against the lawless is wiretapping. Twenty-one states and the federal government already provide law-enforcement officers tightly controlled wiretapping rights. And Texas lawmen need them.

Atty. Gen. John Hill thinks that wiretapping might have to be limited to narcotics cases if the Legislature is to approve it. But a general law would be better. Wiretapping is particularly effective against gambling operations.

Hill and Col. Wilson Speir, director of the Department of Public Safety, agree that any wiretap law must have tight controls to prevent abuse. The law proposed by the crime council would allow courts to give wiretap authority only after sufficient grounds were proved. It also would regulate the admissibility of wiretap information into evidence at trials, require notice to the target subject after the termination of the wiretap and set penalties for illegal use.

Wiretapping is an unpopular cause in the Legislature. But the crime council study indicates that organized crime already is a big business in the state. And it is one facet of our economy that shouldn't be allowed to grow. Wiretapping would help stop this expansion.

-Dallas Morning News

AUSTIN — Atty. Gen. John Hill is setting up a new unit to investigate white-collar crime which costs Texans an estimated $840 million a year.

Hill will rely on the Deceptive Trade Practices Act, the State Securities Act and other laws to crack down on so-called "Corporate crim committed with a fountain pen."

Since Hill has only civil powers, he must cooperate with district attorneys and federal officials where criminal violations are suspected.

A unit director, three investigators and two attorneys will be financed by a $235,000 federal grant extending over an 18-month period.

Investigations already under way include South Texas banking irregularities spotlighted by collapse of banks at Carrizo Springs and Rio Grande City, disappearance of a Wichita Falls grain dealer and possible misapplication of state funds by a state highway employee.

A three year old Chamber of Commerce study classifies as white collar crimes deceptive trade practice, embezzlement and pilferage, securities theft and fraud, receiving stolen property, bribery, payoffs, kickbacks and various other forms of fraud.

Attorneys Dominate

As in most other states and Congress, lawyers dominate other professional groups in the Texas legislature.

Of the 150 House members, 38 per cent are attorneys.

And 21 of 31 Senate places are now held by lawyers.

The House includes 30 businessmen, 11 ranchers and farmers, 15 insurance or real estate men, six school teachers, three homemakers and six who classify themselves as full-time, professional legislators.

The Senate includes three insurance men, a housewife and five in business fields.

Speaker Bill Clayton is a farmer and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby is a newspaper and television executive.

Appointments

Gov. Dolph Briscoe named Sam E. Carter of Temple to the State Banking Board replacing James L. Lindsey of College Station whose term actually expired in 1973.

Briscoe reappointed Raul Jimenez of San Antonio to the State Board of Public Welfare and Jackie St. Clair of Austin as Commissioner of the Texas Department of Labor and Standards.

Other reappointments included Gen. Thomas S. Bishop as Texas adjutant general; Gen. Willie Scott as assistant adjutant general for Army and Gen. Belisario D. J. Flores as assistant adjutant general for Air.

Taxes Booming

Comptroller Bob Bullock reported major state taxes brought in more than $4 billion last year, a 16.8 per cent increase over calendar 1975.

Natural gas tax revenue went up 48.1 per cent and sales tax collection 18.2 per cent, nearly double the national average.

Car sales taxes rose 31.6 per cent and franchise taxes 35.5 per cent.

Bullock noted his earlier projection of $2.9 billion in additional revenue for appropriation by the legislature represents a 34 per cent increase over money available in 1975.

Courts Speak

Finance charges of more than 10 per cent a year cannot be added to customers' open accounts by retail dealers, the State Supreme Court held.

In other actions, the high court:

—Refused to order dismissal of defeated Republican former Congressman Dr. Ron Paul's election contest against Congressman Bob Gammage who defeated him last year by a narrow vote.

—Held a state university cannot legally close a city street without legislative authority.

—Took under study the question whether juries must find "beyond reasonable doubt" that a person should be committed to a mental hospital against his or her will.

—Agreed arson investigation records cannot be kept out of the hands of the property owner.

The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a five-year sentence for aggravated assault given a Killeen woman on grounds evidence didn't show a knife used was a deadly weapon.

AG Opinions

Rules for conduct of hearings issued by Texas Education Agency are inapplicable to hearings before junior college boards except those on vocational and technical programs.

In other recent opinions,

Hill concluded:

—A list of former university students credited with funds remaining in their general property deposit is public information.

—Judges of special juvenile and domestic relations courts retire under terms of the county and district retirement act.

—An agriculture commodity board is not authorized to reduce the number of positions on its board of directors by resolution.

Short Snorts

The State Senate urged television broadcasters not to use their court-won right to televise executions.

Atty. Gen. Hill said portions of a proposed settlement of city suits against Lo Vaca Gathering Company dealing with gas search programs is of questionable legality.

The Senate Jurisprudence Committee approved legislation to provide penalties for sale of babies.

A House committee passed a bill that would take away the state attorney general's power to bring federal anti-trust suits for damages to Texas consumers.

The large number of cattle deaths can be blamed in major part on the weather, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

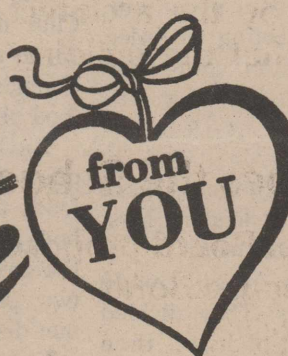

Gov. Briscoe submitted as emergency legislation creation of 23 district courts and reorganization of three existing districts.

Wellington Leader

Vote "FOR" on Saturday Feb. 5

The Wellington School Board of Trustees is made up of seven men, V.K. Orr, Jr., Billy Mac Sims, Carroll Nunnelley, William O'Rear, Benson Long, Jerol Morris and Frank Coleman, Jr., who have the long-term best interest of the community in mind.

We concur with their research and decision that the proposed school improvement program will give us the best school possible for the tax dollars that we can afford.

Artists sketch of proposed Elementary School.

What Will Be the Cost of Improvements?

The cost to build adequate educational facilities for the children of the Wellington School District is estimated by the architect to be $540,000. It is not expected that the building costs will be lower in the future.

What Does the School Board Propose?

The School Board proposes the issuance of $540,000 in Schoolhouse Bonds.

Who May Vote in the Election?

Anyone who meets both of these requirements:
A. Live in the Wellington School District
B. Must be registered

How Will Our Taxes Be Affected?

The present tax rate of the district is $1.92. It is estimated that the new tax rate upon issuance of the bonds will be $2.19.

Why Will Evaporative Cooling Be Installed at Elementary School?

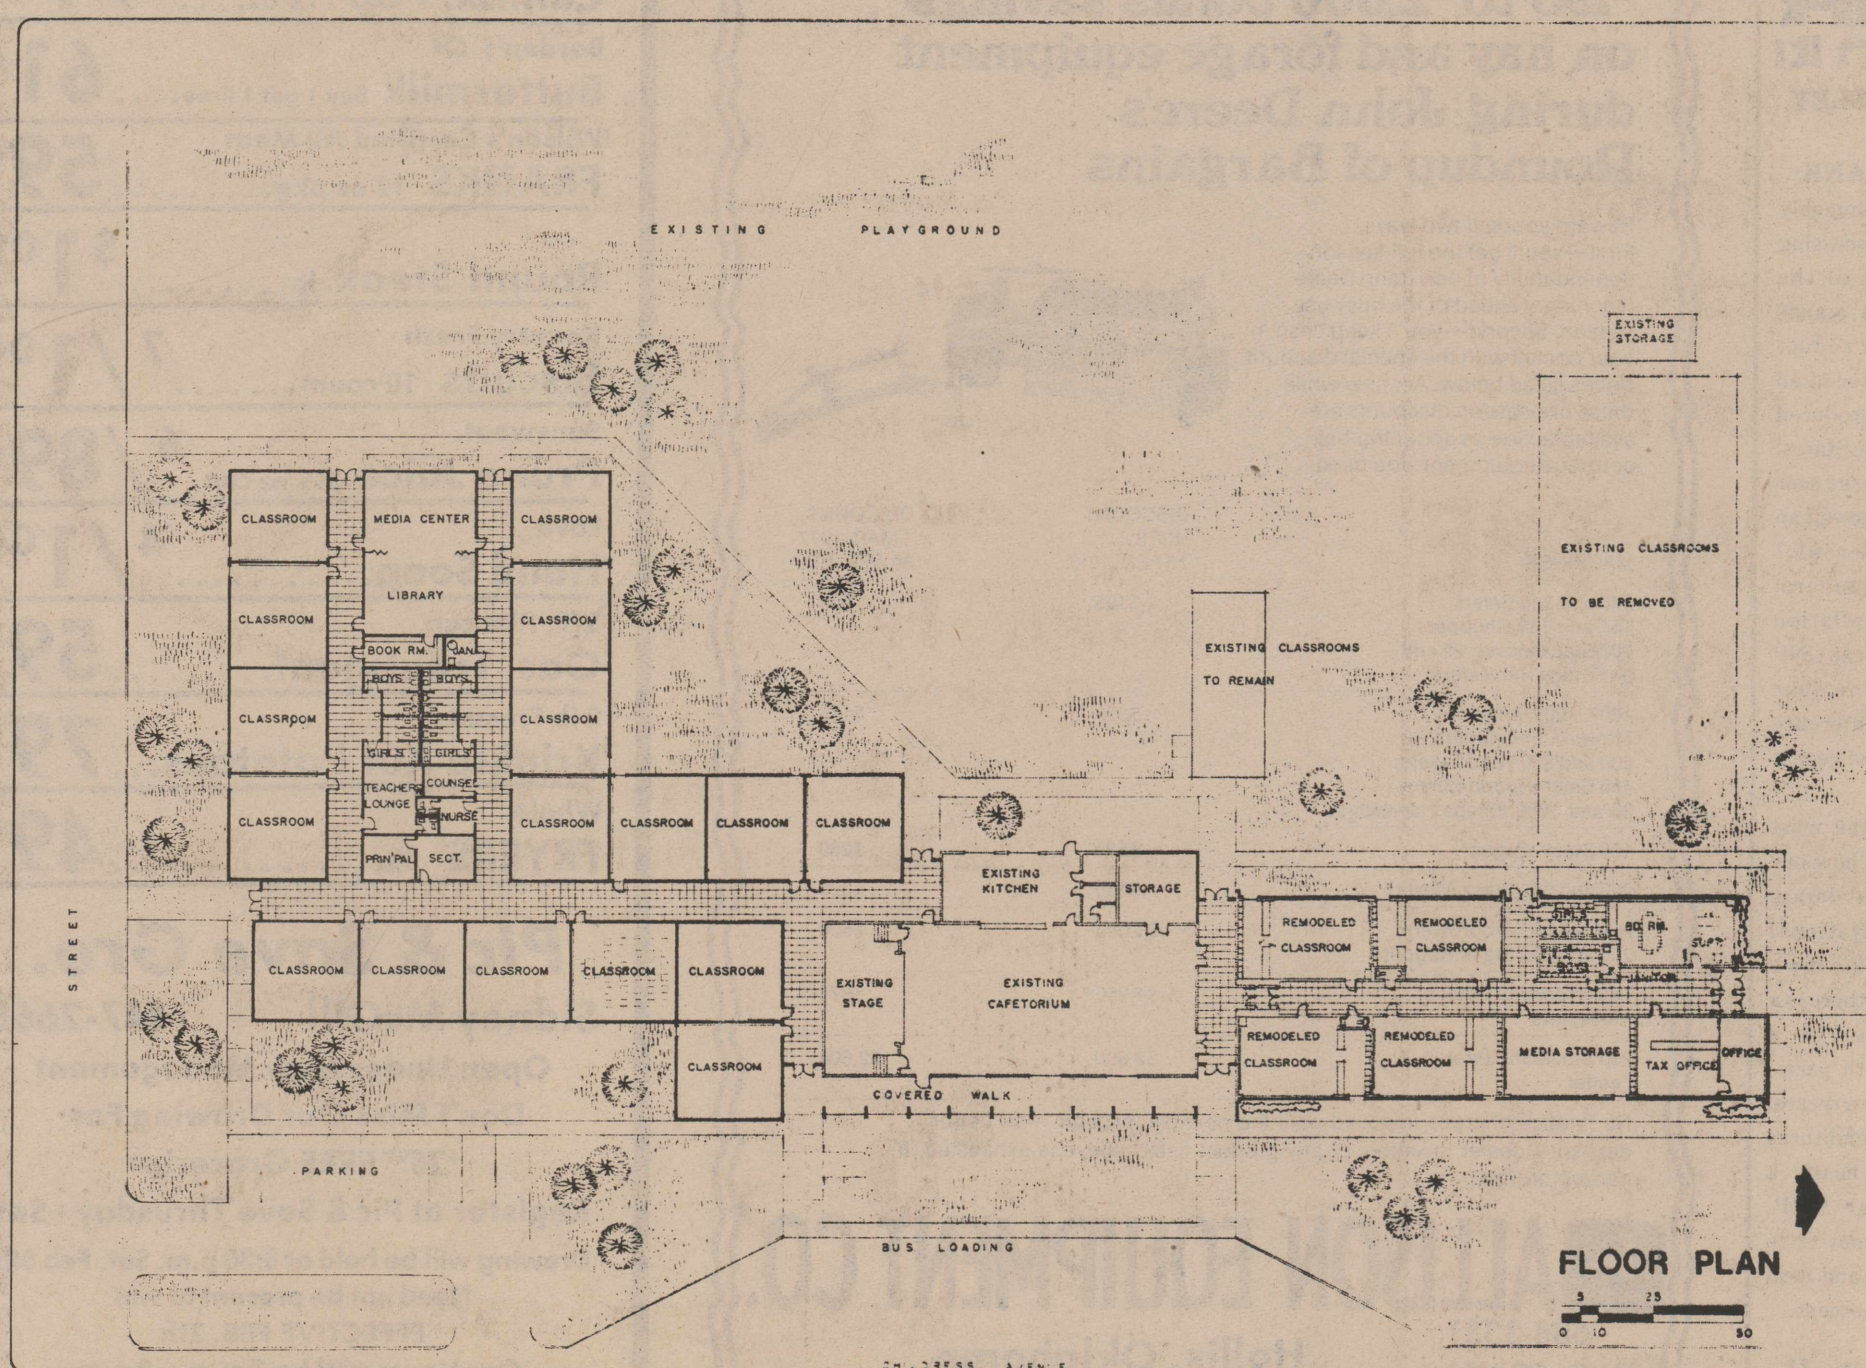

The original unit costs are not much different between evaporative and refrigerated air conditioning for a building of the type proposed. But the difference between fuel costs to run the two systems is large. The recent energy crisis in the Northeast serves as an example that fuel, when it is available, will be more expensive each year.

Where and When Do We Vote?

The election will be held in the High School building on Saturday, February 5, 1977.

Why Will Part of the Old Building Be Torn Down?

Under the proposed plan, the west wing of the building will be torn down. Rooms in this wing are too small to meet state standards, and rebuilding the inside masonry walls is almost as expensive as a new building. Rooms in the south wing of the old building are larger and will require refurbishing only, not new construction.

Floor plan of proposed Elementary School.

We Urge Your Support

We Can Give our children educational facilities which will permit them to compete successfully with children of other schools.

We Should Provide our children with buildings arranged and equipped for today's improved teaching methods.

We Must Provide modern facilities in order to assure us that our schools will remain in our community.

REMEMBER—
If those who support the election do not vote, apathy will win.

One of the most commonly used terms when discussing the economic health of the Nation is GNP. This stands for Gross National Product which is the dollar value of all goods and services produced and sold in the United States.

Quarterly GNP figures near the end of last year showed an annual value of over $1.7 trillion in current dollars. Adjustments for inflation indicated an annual real GNP of $1.27 trillion. The four trillion dollar plus difference indicates the effects of recent inflation.

GNP figures are the most common yardstick of how our overall economy is doing. Therefore, Gross National Product announcements draw most attention when there is a decline (very rare) or a slowing of the growth pace.

During the past few years, government expenditures have accounted for nearly a third of the total GNP. Federal spending about 12 to 14 percent and state and local spending 20 to 22 percent.

What the others are saying, we've already demonstrated.

- Better engine protection.
- Increased fuel economy.
- Better high-temperature performance.
- Fast sub-zero starts.
- Less oil consumption.
- A cleaner engine.
- 25,000-mile oil change.

Too good to be true? No. Because thousands of AMS/OIL users have already experienced these extraordinary performance features. AMS/OIL was first to commercially market an SAE 10W-40 synthetic engine oil to meet API Classification SE, which means AMS/OIL can be used in any car. So while the new synthetic lubricants you see today were still in the test lab, AMS/OIL was in the crankcases of cars and trucks just like yours. And when you're satisfied, that's the final test of a lubricant.

See your AMS/OIL dealer today!

Farmers Swine Short Course Here Feb. 7-10

A Swine Production Short Course for adult farmers will be held Monday through Thursday, Feb. 7-10, under the sponsorship of the Wellington High School Vocational Agriculture Department according to E.W. Clement, superintendent, and Rodney Myrick, teacher of Vocational Agriculture.

Dr. Robert S. Cohen, swine production specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency and the Department of Animal Science of Texas A&M University, will be the instructor. He is headquartered at Texas A&M University.

The short course at Wellington is scheduled to begin Feb. 7 at 7:00 p.m. in the Vocational Agriculture Building. During the dates the short course is in progress, Dr. Cohen will be available to assist Swine producers with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction, according to Mr. Myrick.

Producers interested in attending the short course should write or call the superintendent of schools, Mr. Clement, or the teacher of vocational agriculture, Mr. Myrick. An enrollment fee of $5 will be charged.

Swine Production Short Course certificates will be presented to each Swine producer who attends all the training sessions.

Dr. Cohen received a B.S. degree in Animal Science in 1965, and a M.S. degree in Animal Nutrition in 1972 from Texas A&M University. He has also received the Ph.D. degree in Animal Nutrition from Texas A&M University, 1975.

He was raised on a swine and beef cattle ranch in Southeastern Llano County, Texas, and was very active in FFA and 4-H programs. During the early 1960's, Dr. Cohen was employed at the Texas A&M University Swine Center. Between periods of formal training, he worked for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Williamson and Eastland Counties and completed active duty with the U.S. Air Force Reserve.

Dr. Cohen states that pork producers must make a serious effort to increase efficiency of production in the future. Increasing costs of equipment and services purchased, accompanied by fluctuating prices received at the market are contributing factors. The number of pigs produced per sow per year and the amount of weight gain from a pound of feed are two important measures of productivity to be evaluated. Dr. Cohen indicates the swine production short course will deal with methods to increase efficiency of production. He also states the course will include such important topics as swine selection and breeding programs, feeds and feeding, housing and equipment, herd health and sanitation, management for profitable production, marketing, and records.

"Short courses in swine production, as well as in other areas, are now available to farmers throughout the state under the cooperative program between the Texas Education Agency and Texas A&M University," states Bob Jaska, associate professor, Department of Agricultural Education at Texas A&M University, who coordinates the program for Texas A&M.

Rockets Down Clarendon 50-26 Here

Playing their best defense in district competition, Wellington Skyrockets defeated Clarendon Bronchos 50-26 here Friday, January 28.

The Rockets ran a semi man-to-man or semi-zone play and also ran their fast break better than they have at any time in district play, Coach Robert Hicks pointed out.

The Wellington boys had control of the game in the second period and the mid-point score was 28-12. They dominated the third, bringing their own score to 38 points and allowing Clarendon only two points for a total of 14.

Shane Tarver led Wellington scoring with 20 points, Tony Martinez had 10, Carl Taylor 6, Jon Sessions 5, Charles McIntosh four, Robert Powell three, and Dane Dodge two.

Clarendon's Billy Gardner had 13 points, Kevin Floyd four, Irvin Thomas, John Hall and Gary McClellan two each and Jon Lemons three.

Wellington girls dropped their game to Clarendon 63-48, with free throws making the difference. Clarendon made 17 of 20; Wellington accounted for only 6 of 18.

"Other than that, we played a good game," said Coach Bruce Dollar. "The whole game was exciting and a lot closer than the score indicated."

Clarendon girls were ahead 14-12 at the first period and 31-25 at mid-point. They also led 47-35 at the third period.

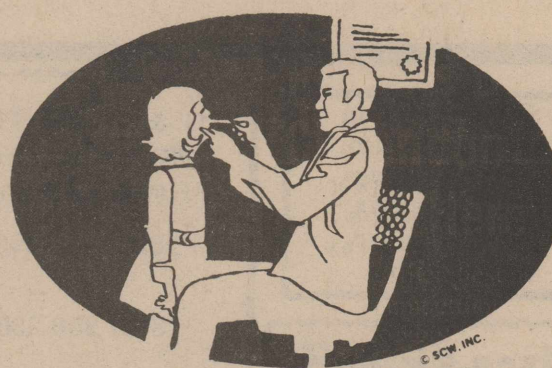

Pam Ingram was Wellington's high point player with 17 points. Micky Tunnel had 43 for Clarendon.

Valentine Page Deadline Friday

Grandparents are reminded that Friday, February 4, is the final day for bringing in pictures of grandchildren to be featured in the Wellington Leader's fifth annual Valentine Section.

This features children from one day to six years whose pictures are presented in Valentine Hearts. Also presented is a brief sketch of each of the children, telling age, names of parents, grandparents, and as many great grandparents as the youngster may have.

It is not limited to local children. Grandparents may bring a picture of their youngsters who live anywhere in the world.

In fact, this is one of the best possible of all ways to let friends see how these children have grown since last year's Valentine Pages, or to show them for the first time.

IRS Computes Income Tax For Taxpayers

Taxpayers can elect to have the Internal Revenue Service compute their income tax on either the short Form 1040A or long Form 1040 if they have an adjusted gross income of $20,000 or less. Persons filing Form 1040 must also take the standard deduction to qualify for the computation.

Another requirement, according to the IRS, is that the taxpayer's income must be solely from wages, salary, tips, dividends, interest, pensions and annuities.

To take advantage of IRS computing the tax, the taxpayer need only compute certain portions of his or her tax return, attach all W-2 forms, sign the return, and mail it by April 15 to the address listed in the tax instruction booklet.

The tax will be determined from the proper tax table and the taxpayer will either receive a refund for any overpayment or be notified of the amount of any tax due.

If you want to be good to your purse
'Cause this economy's really a curse
Come out to our store
For values galore
Else I'm wasting my time on this verse!

It is not even necessary that the grandparents still live here. Just be sure the picture is mailed to reach us by Friday, February 4.

Each child will be presented in a separate heart, with a lacy Valentine border.

There is a charge of $5.00—the same price that has prevailed for all of the years that The Wellington Leader has featured the Valentine children.

It's a way for grandparents to say "Happy Valentine" to their families and friends.

Cycle Club Elects Barnett President

Wellington Cycle Club members elected Jackie Barnett president in their annual election meeting Friday January 28.

He succeeds Kenneth Foster, who headed the organization during 1976.

The new vice president is Boyd Derryberry, who was also re-elected road captain. Jack Needham is secretary-treasurer, and John Alf Thomas, reporter.

Members of the telephone committee are Mrs. Jackie Barnett, Mrs. Boyd Derryberry, Mrs. Jack Needham and Mrs. Redgie Souder.

The club is planning on one major event or trip each month during the year. Among these will be participating in Shamrock's St. Patrick's Day Parade in March; attending the State Motorcycle association rally at San Antonio in June and the Ruidosa, N.M. rally in October.

Plans have been started for the club's second annual rally with the date set tentatively in August.
