Vice Ring Smashed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A $1 million-a-year West Coast prostitution ring center on the Sunset Strip has been broken with the arrest of 14 men and five women, police said today.

Charging a minimum of $100, the girls reportedly worked a regular circuit which began in Los Angeles, to San Francisco, Portland and Seattle, and returned to Los Angeles via Las Vegas and San Diego, said Capt. H. A. Nelson.

Five Still Sought

Nelson said four men and one woman are still being sought. Those arrested were booked on suspicion of pandering and prostitution.

The women, based in Hollywood and along the Sunset Strip, were allowed to keep only 25 per cent of their fees because of the expense of airline tickets, police said.

Hollywood Recruits

Officers said the women—some prostitutes and other madams—helped their male bosses entice girls into working for them. Each man had a group of five to 15 prostitutes, police said.

The ring members lived in high style and worked out of the plushest hotels, police added.

Most girls were recruited in Hollywood and Sunset Strip bars and restaurants and were given assignments in the same establishments, officers said.

One policewoman posed as a call girl to gather evidence, police said, and other information was obtained from tipsters.

Wolcott Not Surprised

GEORGETOWN, Tex. (AP)—County Judge Sam Stone has waived juvenile jurisdiction and transferred shaggy-haired James Wolcott, 16, to a district court to face charges he shot his parents and sister to death Aug. 5.

County Atty. Tim Maresh said the youth has been formally charged with the slayings of Dr. Gordon Wolcott, a Southwestern University biology professor; his wife, Elizabeth, and his daughter, also Elizabeth, 17.

Stone's decision came after a 3½-hour closed hearing.

Young Wolcott has been held without bond in the Williamson County jail since the slayings. All three victims were shot to death with a .22 rifle.

No Trial Date Set

Next step is an examining trial before Dist. Judge Kirby Vance, who will decide whether there are grounds to bind the youth over to the grand jury for possible indictment. Wolcott would be tried as an adult although he could not be sentenced to death if convicted, if the grand jury returned an indictment.

Maresh said no date has been set for the examining trial.

Stone said Wolcott did not testify at the hearing Wednesday. Officers who investigated testified about the killings, he said, but psychiatric reports on the boy were not introduced.

Wolcott said Stone's decision was "exactly what I expected. It didn't surprise me in the least. I think everybody knew what was going to happen."

Lull Hits Bible Fund

The High School Bible Fund appeal encountered a lull Thursday with the target date for closing only days away.

Ten classes, organizations and individuals contributed $87.50, which brought the total to $2,599.76, still several hundred dollars short of the needs from this appeal for voluntary contributions.

Ends Sunday

The formal period of seeking funds will end Sunday, and you are urged to mail or bring your gift to The Herald as promptly as possible so it can be gratefully acknowledged.

Not included in the total, but going to the support of the fund, is a $150 budget appropriation by the East Fourth Baptist Church, which was received today.

Map gives approximate location of Hurricane Beulah which exploded in size and fury today and became once again a dangerous storm in the Caribbean. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Forecasters Eye Beulah And Chloe

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Beulah exploded in size and fury today and became once again a dangerous storm lashing a huge area of the western Caribbean.

"This is going to become a massive storm before we are through with it," said Dr. Robert Simpson, co-director of the National Hurricane Center. "Beulah has become once again a very dangerous storm."

Beulah was a small, tightly-wound hurricane when she roared through the eastern Caribbean, killing at least 18 persons and taking a big toll of crop and property damage.

PULLS SWITCH

Knocked down to a tropical storm by her collision with the mountains of Haiti, she built back up to hurricane force today and Simpson said she was expected to continue to grow in both size and intensity.

She switched from a due west course toward Honduras and began angling toward the west-northwest to the general direction of the Yucatan Peninsula leading into the giant Gulf of Mexico.

A morning satellite picture revealed that Beulah again was fully organized and had spread out over a major portion of the western Caribbean. She was thrashing along slowly, sucking up energy from the warm sea waters.

BAD NEWS

"She has gone through a complete change of chracter," Simpson said. "We will have to watch her very carefully. The slow movement and the location both favor continued development.

"It's bad news all the way around."

Beulah was 250 miles from the coast of Central America and 680 miles due south of Miami.

Two more powerful storms, Chloe and Doria, floundered almost aimlessly in the Atlantic.

Hurricane Chloe churned the waters with 110 m.p.h. winds 725 miles east-southeast of Bermuda and pounded a 400-mile wide area with gales. She was moving toward the north-northwest at about five m.p.h.

Hurricane Dora lay nearly stationary 400 miles southeast of Cape Cod, Mass., and 525 miles due east of Cape Hatteras, but was forecast to drift slowly west-northwest toward the Atlantic coast during the day.

Base Funds Step Ahead

A new base medical center for Webb AFB moved a step nearer Wednesday evening with the authorization of funds by the Senate Armed Services committee.

A total authorization of $2,296,000 was set up for Webb, according to an announcement by Sen. John Tower.

A similar amount had been approved by the House Armed Services Committee, and with action by the Senate as a whole will complete this step. The final appropriation of funds then will become necessary.

An earlier breakdown on the figure showed $2,121,000 for hospital facilities at Webb to replace those originally built in 1942 when the old Big Spring Bombardier School was established. Also in the total is $55,000 for a data processing plant, and $120,000 for automatic sprinkler system for fire protection.

Slum Money Promise Aids Rent Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $1-billion slum investment promise by the life insurance industry has boosted President Johnson's battered rent supplement program.

Life insurance leaders announced at the White House Wednesday they will make $1 billion of their $16 billion in annual investment money available for use in the city slums.

And Gilbert W. Fitzhugh, board chairman of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., said "the rent supplement program is probably the area into which we will move most rapidly."

LIFE FIGHT

Immediately, the move will provide the rent supplements program with private long-term mortgage money which has been lacking. This will counter critics of the rent supplements program who have argued supplements were not feasible because private firms wouldn't invest in the buildings.

The move also could give rent supplements a lift in Congress, where the program is fighting for its life. A House-passed bill would kill it by denying expansion funds. The Senate Appropriations Committee gave new hope to supporters of the program by voting it the full $40 million the administration asked.

LOW-INCOME

Rent supplements are the difference between a determined reasonable rental and the 25 per cent of their income which qualifying families pay.

Wednesday's announcement also gave the President his second announced new thrust into the low-income housing field in as many days. Robert C. Weaver, secretary of housing and urban development, said Tuesday it would be possible to double last fiscal year's output of public housing units to about 70,000 this year.

HCJC Has 815 Enrolled

Included in the figure are 537 full-time students, which is within 29 of the final figure for this category a year ago. The total registration also includes 95 from Webb AFB, but 130 there have been processed for classes, so these are expected to register this evening. Last year's autumn total was 978.

The formal registration period continues through 9 p.m. today at the college. Classes will start Monday, and Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, urged those planning to enroll at the college to sign up as soon as possible. The women's dormitory is filled, but there are some rooms still available at the men's dormitory.

While the 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. period is primarily for evening students, day or full time students may register then if it is more convenient.

Five NTS Pupils Face Dope Counts

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — Five North Texas State students were indicted Wednesday on charges of sale and possession of narcotics.

The indictments stemmed from charges filed following a raid by federal and local officers here Aug. 7.

Two of the indictments accused two women, Leslie Jean Sams, 19, of Waco and Sheila Ball of San Antonio, with selling narcotics.

James Neel, 22, of Sarasota, Fla., and Richard Margolis, 20, and Richard Gardzina, 23, both of Manchester, N.H., were indicted on charges of possessing narcotics.

Tear gas hangs over Milwaukee's South 16th Street after police broke up a crowd of thousands of whites who had been pelting a few cars of Negroes and the police with rocks and bottles. The whites had gathered for the second straight night to wait for Negro open housing marchers to come south across the 16th Street bridge. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Racial Disturbances Flare In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Gangs of white youths pelted Negro motorists and police cars with rocks, bottles and bricks Wednesday night in a fourth straight night of violence on the virtually all- white South Side.

The crowds had gathered for a second successive night in anticipation of an open housing march by Negroes who stopped short of the South Side neighborhood.

GAS BARRAGES

Police finally broke up the crowds of white youths with repeated barrages of tear gas and smoke bombs and with the intimidating blasts of riot guns and revolvers, but not before several police cars and vans were showered with flying debries. Three persons were injured. At least 20 were arrested.

The violence came despite a decision by the Rev. James E. Groppi, a white Roman Catholic priest, and the Milwaukee Youth Council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, to steer clear of the South Side— where their open housing march was greeted with bottles and bricks Monday night.

WHITES MARCH

"We don't have to prove how brave we are," the priest said Wednesday before leading Negro marchers in a demonstration in the virtually all-Negro Inner Core.

It was the 17th straight night of demonstrations by the priest and the council which he advises.

Wednesday's violence was at first directed toward Negro motorists, many of them on their way to or from work in South Side industries.

Police fired tear gas earlier to disperse the crowd after about 300 white youths had marched on the residence of William E. Cousins, the Roman Catholic archbishop of Milwaukee.

The youths were demanding for a second night in a row, that the church censure Father Groppi.

The archbishop came to the front lawn of his residence and spoke briefly to the group, many of whom seemed under 16.

After the archbishop referred the group to an editorial he wrote on the question in the archdiocesan newspaper Wednesday, the group marched back to the South Side where it was greeted with cheers.

The archbishop's editorial neither censured nor supported the controversial priest but warned against confusing Father Groppi with the city's racial problems.

"We are being diverted by emotion and mob psychology into fighting a straw figure while the real enemy goes unscathed," the archbishop said in the editorial.

'A MERE SCRAP OF PAPER'

South Korean Officials Rip Armistice Agreement

SEOUL (AP) — The South Korean government declared today the Korean armistice agreement has become "a mere scrap of paper" because of mounting attacks from the Communist North. It said it would "take certain very serious actions" against any further Red attacks.

Information Minister Hong Jong-chul said after an emergency session of the National Security Council called by President Chung Hee Park that North Korea must bear the responsibility for the situation.

INFILTRATORS

Hong said Foreign Minister Choi Kyu-hah and Defense Minister Kim Sung-eun would confer with U.N. officials and leaders of the U.N. Command.

The council also discussed proposals for reviving the South Korean militia and deploying national police and troops to crush infiltrators from the North, a ranking government official said.

NEW UN BID

A ranking government official reported after the Security Council meeting that the government plans to ask the U.N. General Assembly to send a new U.N. group to supervise the armistice.

"Full and effective supervision of the armed peace in Korea is imperative because of ever-increasing North Korean acts of violence," the official told newsmen after an emergency session of the National Security Council.

President Chung Hee Park called the council together a day after saboteurs believed from the North mined a South Korean freight train hauling U.S. military supplies 10 miles north of Seoul. The explosion wrecked two cars and damaged four. Eight days previously a passenger train 25 miles northeast of Seoul was derailed by an explosion.

SABOTAGE

U.S. and South Korean officials have accused North Korea of launching an intensified campaign of border attacks and guerrilla sabotage deep in the south since last October when Premier Kim Il-Sung ordered his Communist forces to increase espionage and guerrilla actions.

The U.N. command has reported 245 North Korean soldiers killed or captured in nearly 200 incidents in the past 11 months, while nearly 85 South Korean troops and 20 Americans have been killed.

The U.N. command says there were only eight such actions in 1964 and 27 in 1965.

BUFFER TROOPS

The government spokesman said South Korea will confer with other governments on the wording of a resolution the Koreans will ask their allies to bring before the U.N. General Assembly, which meets next Tuesday. South Korea has only observer status at the U.N.

Locks Herself In With Death

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A widow crawled into a refrigerator Wednesday, closed the door and locked herself in with death.

Police discovered the body of Mrs. Gertrude Sterling, 59, today after Police Lt. David Keene received a letter from her telling where she could be found.

Keene and another officer went to Mrs. Sterling's home, broke a window and went to the refrigerator. They found the woman inside, her head tucked between her knees.

The refrigerator had been unplugged and the shelves removed.

Dr. Ruben Santos, assistant county medical examiner, ruled suicide by suffocation. He said she had apparently been dead since Wednesday.

Keene said the woman's husband died about nine years ago. The officer said he didn't know the woman and had no idea why she selected him to receive her letter.

Bombers Blast Missile Sites; Jungle Routes

SAIGON (AP) — High-altitude B52 bombers struck inside North Vietnam today at hidden sites where the Communists were preparing to put up missile stations in an effort to halt the damaging blows from the Stratofortresses along the demilitarized zone.

The B32 raid three miles inside North Vietnamese territory was one of three heavy strikes during which the big bombers unloaded some 450,000 pounds of bombs from the demilitarized zone north.

242 GIs DIE

The heavy pressure in South Vietnam's northern provinces was reflected in last week's casualty figures announced today by the U.S. Command. The number of American and Communist combat dead were the highest in two months, and at least two-thirds of the Americans were around the coastal town of Tam Ky and 150 miles to the north on the fringes of the DMZ.

The U.S. Command said 242 Americans were killed last week, 1,490 were wounded and seven were missing. South Vietnamese forces reported 250 killed, while Communist dead totaled 2,103 killed.

GUNS SMOTHERED

Since the South Vietnamese presidential election Sept. 3 brought an end to a two-month lull in ground fighting, the Communists have repeatedly committed big units to battle in the north and hurled continual mortar and artillery barrages at the Marines holding the line south of the DMZ. The sandbagged, underground fortress at Con Thien has been a repeated target.

Today's B52 raids smothered the jungle routes leading down to Con Thien and blasted suspected artillery gun posts as well as the area north of the zone where preparations were spotted to install the big SAM missiles which can reach an altitude of 70,000 feet.

RUNNING FIGHT

Earlier this year the Communists succeeded in bringing down the big missiles, forcing the Air Force to pull back its high-altitude bombers to targets below the zone.

The Air Force is determined that won't happen again, and is making heavy raids on all suspected missile activity in the southern part of North Vietnam.

The fighting in the north was mainly a series of smaller skirmishes, but in the southern Mekong delta American infantrymen, artillery and air power killed 69 guerrillas in a running fight through muddy rice paddies.

Although the weather over North Vietnam was spotty, American pilots managed an almost average number of 137 missions Wednesday. Some were night radar strikes and others sudden raids through chance openings in the clouds.

RAILS RAKED

There was no report of any lost planes, but returning pilots reported meeting swarms of SAM missiles and flights of swept-wing MIG17s in the Hanoi-Haiphong area. The MIGs skirted the bombing formations in efforts to draw them from targets but stayed far enough away to avoid aerial combat.

Air Force planes raked the northwest rail line between Hanoi and Red China, and Marine pilots made a radar night strike at the Dong Bi power station 10 miles above the port of Haiphong.

DESTROYERS HIT

Navy planes concentrated on supply lines from the Hanoi area south to the demilitarized zone, reporting damage or destruction to 18 bridges and bridge approaches frequently choked with traffic crossing rivers and canals. Although there were no raids in the immediate Hanoi-Haiphong area, U.S. planes hit SAM sites about 25 miles from the capital.

The Navy reported that a destroyer was hit twice in its forward superstructure by Communist artillery while bombarding a coastal defense site near Dong Hoi. The ship reported no casualties. Its name was not revealed.

Front Stalls In West Texas

By The Associated Press

Showers and occasional thunderstorms brought limited moisture today along a cool front which stalled across West Texas without lowering temperatures very much.

Near daylight the forward edge of the front stretched from Childress westward past Lubbock, Midland and El Paso.

As much as .93 inch of rain fell at Childress, Snyder measured .30, Lubbock .41 and Perryton .06, while the moisture was estimated at .20 in Stamford. Many points received only a trace.

Much of the shower activity in early morning dotted areas from Abilene northward around Snyder, Guthrie, Roby, Hamlin, Rule, Stamford, Crowell, Quanah and Breckenridge.

There also were a few showers on the South Plains around Muleshoe, Hale Center and Denver City, between Lubbock and Amarillo, and extending into Oklahoma from points north of Vernon and Wichita Falls.

Temperatures behind the dawdling front sagged to 55 degrees before dawn at Dalhart and Perryton. Early morning marks elsewhere across the state ranged through the 60s and 70s up to 79 at Corpus Christi and Galveston.

Top marks Wednesday afternoon hit only 73 at Dalhart and 75 at Amarillo.

Restoration Of Photos

—By DR. LEONARD REIFFEL

Would you believe that a nuclear power plant could be used to restore photographs?

It sounds a little improbable, but photo restoration and nuclear energy can be very closely related. This strange marriage arises out of work by the Smithsonian Institution in which some very, very old and faded photographs were brought back to life by making them radioactive. They included some historic photographs taken by W.H.F. Talbot, who is credited with the invention of the photographic technique which produces paper prints by means of the negative - positive process. Some of the photographs dated back to the 1830's.

How does it work? A photographic image is actually an arrangement of tiny bits of light-sensitive silver salts in an emulsion on glass, film, or paper. Silver can be made intensely radioactive by placing it inside a nuclear reactor for a short time.

Suppose you had an old and faded photograph in which most of the silver nitrate image had disappeared. You can roll it up inside a tube and place it in a nuclear reactor to be bombarded by neutrons. When neutrons are absorbed by silver atoms, they make the silver radicactive. The photograph can then be taken out of the reactor and placed in contact with a new piece of film. The radioactivity quickly exposes the film, and there you are! A very bright and intense version of the old photograph appears when the new film is developed.

This technique has now been applied to a number of valuable, indeed irreplaceable, pictures. Results have been very heartening. Many fascinating details which seemed forever lost were brought back by the process. Shelves full of fancy dishes and a vase full of flowers suddenly sprang to life in some of Talbot's experimental snapshots. Dignified portraits emerged, as if by magic, from beneath uninteresting streaks and stains. As a result of these successes, it's to be expected that nuclear methods will be used more widely to recover information from the old and faded records of the early history of photography.

Girls In Minis Will Maximize Bet Ticket Buys?

NEW YORK (AP) — Can a miniskirted miss help maximize the sale of New York State lottery tickets?

Apparently a private publicity company thinks they can because the firm has hired a number of pretty girls for the purpose.

The campaign is to get under way at City Hall Thursday with a mayoral proclamation declaring the day Official Lottery Day.

Then the girls will hop into convertibles and tour parts of the city extolling the benefits of the lottery.

Revenues from the lottery have not come up to expectations. The money is used to aid education.

Dr. Lane Back

Dr. Dick Lane has returned from Albuquerque, N.M., where he spent a week in study of dental problems, particularly those affecting the T. M. or hinge-joint of the jaw. This is a field which deals with the maintenance or the restoration of harmony in occlusion (the way teeth come together), and in relieving strain on jaw muscles that may cause muscular and nervous tensions, or persisting and severe pain.

ASC Ballots Are Sent To Farmers

Official ballots for the annual community committee member elections of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee county organization are now in the hands of most farmers eligible to vote.

Deadline for the ballots to be returned to the office of the ASC is Sept. 20. The ballots will be tabulated at a public session in the ASC offices Sept. 22 at 10 a.m.

Five candidates must be voted on each ballot. The candidate receiving the greatest number of votes will be president of the community committee; second high candidate, vice president, and third high will be a member. The other two will be alternates.

Wives of farmers are eligible to vote and are urged to do so, but Gabe Hammack, ASC office manager, stressed that the ballots voted by wives be signed with the given name of the voter — "Mrs. Joan Doe" rather than "Mrs. John Doe."

The three regularly elected members will form the county convention delegates from each community at which the county committee members will be elected. This meeting, open to the public, will be at 10 a.m. Sept. 27 in the ASC office.

Hammack said the official list of candidates from each of the four communities in the county are:

Comunity A — Donald Allred, Morris B. Barnes, Joe Mac Gaskins, Jerry Iden, O. N. Lancaster, R. A. Merrick, Lloyd Robinson, Jerry Roman and Melvin Smith.

Community B — James B Barr, B. O. Drown, Jack Buchanan, S. M. Haney, Winston Kilpatrick, A. F. Lankford, Louis Sturm, Lloyd Underwood, R. C. Wegney Jr.

France To Boost Quebec Benefits

QUEBEC (AP) — France plans a 10-fold increase in cultural aid to the French-speaking Canadian province of Quebec, where President Charles de Gaulle touched off a furor last July by declaiming independence slogans.

French Education Minister Alain Peyrefitte said Paris will, over the next three years, create a pool of French teachers for service in Quebec and increase scholarships in France for Quebec students from the current 90 to about 1,000.

Peyrefitte said these were only a few examples of the plans.

Romney Tour Spurs Mighty Rugged Quiz

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. George Romney took his undeclared quest for the Republican presidential nomination into a Negro neighborhood Wednesday night looking for answers—and got some hard questions.

Among other things, the Michigan governor was asked why he believed he could handle the nation when the major city of his home state had been torn by rioting this summer, rioting described as the worst in this nation's history.

'WON'T GO'

Romney, who says he is making a 19-day sweep across the nation to learn more about the problems of Negroes and the cities, sat down in a storefront headquarters of a Negro organization named FIGHT. On one wall was a photograph of Stokely Carmichael emblazened with his views on Negroes fighting in Vietnam: "Hell no, we won't go."

Romney, intense and serious faced a crowd of about 100 Negroes jammed into the hot room, and said: "I am sure in my own mind people in this country don't realize how close we are to civil guerrilla warfare in America."

LIBERATION

From the crowd came the chant: "Right! Right!"

A middle-aged Negro woman asked the governor: "Do you feel these riots are the result of white America?"

"Liberation, not riots," interrupted a man.

Romney said he didn't think "the responsibility belonged exclusively to either group."

"We haven't applied the Declaration of Independence fully," he said.

"Right! Right!" came the reply.

Said Romney, "We are faced with a very explosive situation."

Applause rocked the little room, along with another chant of "Right! Right!"

A stocky Negro man leaned forward and demanded: "If you can't handle Detroit, what can we expect of you in this nation?"

'TELL HIM'

Romney answered that it was too big for any one man.

Then another man, who said he had lived in Detroit, said: "In Detroit we lived like dogs."

"Tell him!" someone in the crowd yelled, "Tell him!"

A younger man said: "We want to make it to the top on our own. Will you help us help ourselves?"

"Sure," said Romney. "It's the only way."

Romney leaves this city today to spend the next three days in New York City.

Maddox Vote Snags Report

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — A "No" vote by Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia blocked the 1967 Southern Governors Conference from officially endorsing a report calling for upgrading Negro higher education in the South.

The endorsement seemed assured Wednesday until Maddox acted.

In a subsequent roll-call, Maddox was joined by Gov. Paul Johnson of Mississippi in casting negative votes while 11 governors voted "Yes."

The resolution died because conference bylaws say a unanimous vote is necessary for approval.

Gov. John Connally of Texas did not attend the conference.

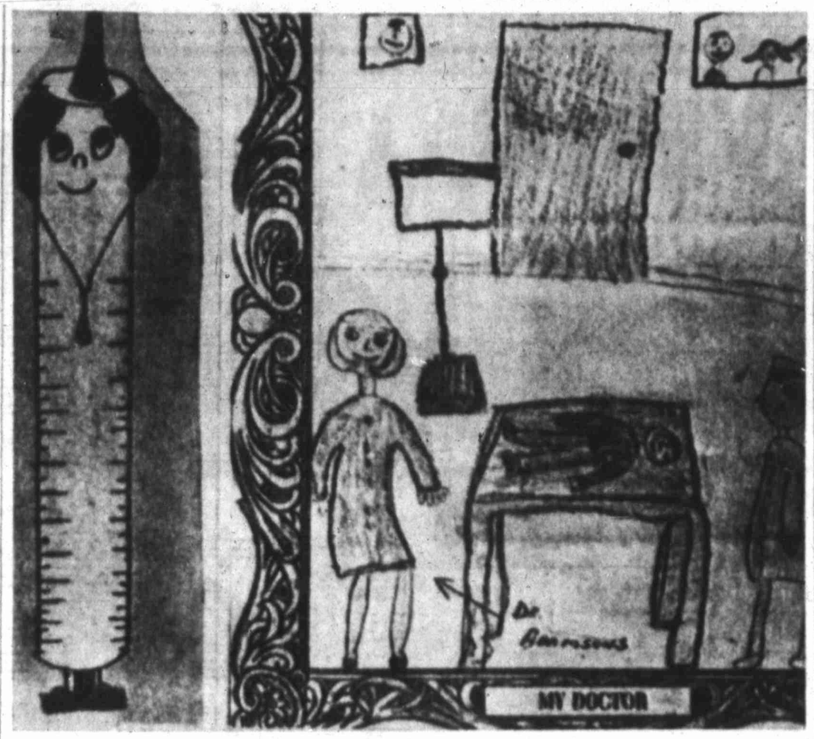

At issue was a Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) report calling for equal higher education opportunities for Negroes in the South and upgrading of Negro colleges.

The 11 governors favoring the report signed a statement endorsing its prime recommendation that an institute to promote higher education for Negroes be established.

Johnson said he voted against the report because he will be leaving office soon and did not want to endorse "something that must be carried on by the next governor of Mississippi."

Maddox described the SREB report as "an effort to destroy completely many fine Negro colleges and universities" and said that the recommendations would be harmful to all students by lowering standards.

The SREB report recommended: (1) Immediate steps be taken to help Negro college students overcome past educational and cultural disadvantages; (2) long-range plans be made to complete the evolution of the South's dual system of higher education into a single system for all students; (3) all educational resources, including traditionally Negro colleges, aid in the effort to achieve equal educational opportunities.

'My Doctor' By The Young At Art

The young at art see doctors in many different ways. Leslie Garrison, 9, draws a smiling face at the end of a giant syringe, while Margaret Walsh, 7, pictures her pediatrician smiling, with long blond hair and bright green eyes. These are just two of more than 1,000 drawings by children who were patients of New York area physicians this summer. Printed frames for the "My Doctor" drawings were supplied by contest sponsors who wanted to find out whether the youngsters were happy with their physicians. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Ex-Bank Bandit Thinks Real Big

CHICAGO (AP) — An ex-convict who spent 11 years in federal prison for three Midwest bank robberies was looking for a job Tuesday with an income in the "$8,000 to $10,000 bracket."

Jack Cope placed an ad in the Chicago Tribune which stated: "Bank robber (retired). 42-year-old ex-convict. Good writer and organizer. 11 years in Leavenworth (Kansas) prison and 15 years of federal parole to go. Want something challenging."

In an interview Cope said he placed the ad because he was not ashamed of his past. "I got an education at Leavenworth, high school, college and real world. I'm rehabilitated."

After his release from prison on good behavior, Cope became a reporter for a suburban newspaper. He said, "I placed the ad because I want to advance a little farther."

Sex Courses Slated For Fifth-Graders

CLINTON, Iowa (AP) — The Clinton Parent-Teacher Association plans a series of panel discussions for fifth-graders on sex, smoking, drinking and other topics.

Mrs. Elaine Lass, president of the PTA City Council, said most schools offer sex education courses only to high school students, but this "is too late to be effective."

Panel participants will be school guidance counselors, parents, students and physicians.

NYC Program Cut In County

Continuation of the Neighborhood Youth Corps program on a reduced basis began last week, according to Roy Anderson, local director of the project. He reported 18 students are enrolled in the fall program, working 10 hours weekly at $1.25 per hour.

"Since less money was appropriated this year for the program, our allotment in Howard County was reduced from 25 to 18," said Anderson. Last fall 25 students were enrolled for 15 hours each week. In addition to the cut in enrollees, the number of hours each could work dropped from 15 to 10.

All of the present enrollees have worked in the program before, said Anderson. To be eligible for participation, applicants must be students and apply through the Texas Employment Commission before placement is made by Anderson. Upon high school graduation or dropping out of school, the student becomes ineligible.

The summer program ended Aug. 26 for 59 students enrolled in the project.

In addition to the in-school program, Anderson said application has been made by the City of Big Spring for a federal work program for non-students between 16-21 years. The area-wide project covering 12 counties has recently received the recommendation of the representative of the regional office. The request asks for $165,800 to finance the out - of - school program.

"The federal government provides 90 per cent of the financial support while the city as sponsor is responsible for the remaining 10 per cent," said Anderson. He pointed out that usually the 10 per cent is in the form of services by officials already on the payroll.

Enrollees in the out-of-school program would work a 30-hour week — "more of a work training program," according to Anderson. Each person could remain in the program until he becomes proficient and finds a job, or until a two-year period expired. Anderson added that enrollees are eligible to attend formal academic and vocational training during the week, with money providing classes and instructors coming from the federal agency. If the enrollee should not elect to attend from four-six hours each week, he may not remain in the program longer than six months."

These non - student workers would earn from $1.25 to $1.40 hourly.

DAN WILKINS

Wilkins To Have Charge Of Stock Brokerage Here

Edward D. Jones & Company will open a stock brokerage office here soon, and Dan Wilkins will be its manager.

The exact time and location are yet to be fixed, but Wilkins, who already has established his home here, said these details should come within a month.

Jones & Co., established in 1871 and the oldest New York stock exchange firm west of the Mississippi, has been expanding operations steadily with more than two score one-man offices to bring the convenience of stock exchange services to the small and medium cities.

The office here will be equipped to furnish immediate listings on the board, immediate quotations on range and last trades, etc. Wilkins will be able to handle stock, bond, mutual fund and other brokerage services.

Wilkins was reared at Fulton, Mo., and took his BA degree from Westminster College. After four years in the Air Force, he did some additional college work, then joined Jones & Company. Mrs. Wilkins is the former Mary Susan Owens, St. Louis, Mo., and they have one son, Keat. The family resides at 3225 Duke.

Judge Hails Texan For Crashing Plane

HILLSBORO, Ohio (AP) — The judge, in effect, gave the pilot an off-the-cuff commendation for crashing his airplane.

It happened in Hillsboro municipal court, where Alfred L. Gordy, 34, of La Marque, Tex., was found innocent of charge of operating an airplane recklessly.

Gordy, an Air Force captain, dropped seven skydivers during a Labor Day celebration at Lynchburg. Then the plane began falling apart.

He set the stricken craft down in an open field, some distance from a crowd gathered to watch the jumpers, and the Ohio Highway Patrol gave Gordy a ticket.

Judge Robert McMullen Jr. ruled that testimony and evidence did not support a guilty verdict. He commented:

"The court does commend the defendant for his action in remaining with the disabled craft and attempting a landing in an area away from the crowd and other persons on the ground at the risk of his own personal safety."

Fuzzy Lip Scrapes New School Code

DETROIT (AP) — With a stiff, but still fuzzy, upper lip, Charles A. Murphy is going to school.

Murphy, 16, won a temporary court order restraining Franklin High School in the Detroit suburb of Livonia from suspending him because his 2-year-old mustache scrapes against a new school grooming code.

Wayne County Circuit Judge James Montante issued the order and set a hearing for Sept. 22. "Good, clean-looking students" is what Livonia School Supt. Benton Yates said he wants. He said mustaches and such "detract from favorable learning conditions" and are a "flaunting of authority."

Murphy said, "I'd feel funny without it."

Steel Exec Dies

WEIRTON, W. Va. (AP) — Thomas E. Millsop, 68, who rose from a riveter to head the nation's fourth-largest steel company, died Tuesday of a heart attack. Millsop retired in 196 as chairman of National Steel Corp. and was honorary chairman at his death. He was with the company 48 years.

Horoscope Forecast

—CARROL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early morning is good for getting in touch with whoever is able to give you the push in the right direction; later you find much confusion of least and possibly intentional deception by yourself of others enters the picture, unless you are very careful of yourself and watchful of others. Keep poised.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) During a.m. you find a new system that is very worthwhile, but be careful later someone does not cause you to sever relations with a good friend. Avoid the social in p.m. Go after personal aims yourself.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) An associate is very cooperative during a.m., but take care you safeguard your reputation later in the day. You feel you should get recognition from the public. Be patient and it will come through later on.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Be alert to whatever is happening around you during morning, but avoid a new contact later who can spell trouble for you. Studying into all kinds of data is fine. However, do not commit yourself to anything yet.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) There are some strong influences that could lead you into wrong channels, so be on your guard. Conservative attitude is best. Don't touch on any topics with mate that could lead to something pretty explosive.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Use tact in discussing important matters with associates and don't be so suspicious of their motives, either. If you have been having trouble with friends, be kindly. Don't start any arguments.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) All that work ahead of you can be best handled by going at it efficiently and not worrying about the gripes of coworkers. Then buy new accessories for your wardrobe. See that it is really up-to-date.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) A little frivolity is good for you today since it can relive pentup emotions, tensions. Make your friends happy. Try not to argue with anyone you like very much or something adverse could occur. Be kind, courteous.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Avoid arguing with kin over some idea you have in mind and for which you want backing. Cooperation. They just don't "dig" it. Be calm and poised, though. Allow them to sleep over it and then all is fine.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Important you drive with utmost care and go over any reports, bills, etc., for any possible errors. An associate is very disturbed. Try to be of real assistance instead of criticizing.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Concentrating upon whatever is of practical nature is wise now, and be sure you rid yourself of the obsolete. Seek advice from seasoned persons in business. Show you appreciate their good judgment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Being at your charming best can gain you the prestige in social affairs that you have long coveted. Endeavor to give your appearance those last-minute touches that spell good grooming. Be at your best.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Get into matters of confidence in a.m. and then impress others that you are a particularly good worker. One you know needs financial backing and you should be eager to give it. Show that you are a good and intelligent person.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow . . . he, or she, will be one of those persons who can make big headway in life because there is a special sensitivity to the desires of others to put their talents to work, and the ability to tell them what to do. Teach to be objective, though, and keep from getting hurt feelings. The fine director, teacher, etc., are here.

Rockefeller's Disavowal Buoys Hopes Of Romney's Supporters

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's fresh disavowal of presidential ambitions buoys hopes of George Romney's supporters that the Michigan governor will get New York's 92 votes at the 1968 Republican convention.

In both moderate and conservative party circles Rockefeller's declaration Wednesday that he was attained a "sense of fulfillment" and no longer is interested in going after the presidential nomination was accepted as defining his present intentions.

But there were quick reservations that shifting political tides —particularly if Romney should falter in the presidential primaries next spring—could force the New York governor to change his mind about becoming available.

NOT CONVINCED

Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., a former GOP national chairman who is plugging for the nomination of a moderate, said he doesn't for one moment question Rockefeller's sincerity.

"I've known for months that he will not seek the nomination, but he is going to do everything he can for Romney," Morton said. "But I still maintain that if the convention delegates seek the man it will be a different bill of goods."

TRYING TIME

Rockefeller himself shrugged off the possibility of a draft, saying, "I'm not convinced these things happen."

Rockefeller's statements to AP correspondent Relman Morin in a New York interview reassured the Romney camp that the Michigan governor's Eastern moderate base is not about to crumble at a trying political time.

Rockefeller voiced the opinion that Romney may be able to convert into an asset what politicians generally regard as Romney's blundering assertion that he was "brainwashed" by Johnson Administration officials on a 1965 visit to Vietnam.

That statement contributed to the Detroit News' suggestion that Romney turn the wheel of his campaign bandwagon over to Rockefeller. The New York Times called Rockefeller his party's strongest candidate.

'NO INNER DRIVE'

Pledging continued support for Romney, Rockefeller said he had passed a psychological turning point and had reached "fulfillment" with his re-election as governor.

"Something happens in life and you lose ambition because you have a sense of fulfillment," he said. "I have no ambition—no inner drive—to get in this thing again."

Observing that he had never been so happy and relaxed as he is now, Rockefeller said: "There are things that happen inside. I'm not a psychiatrist or a psychologist. I can't analyze it for you exactly. But I just don't have the ambition or the need or inner drive, or whatever the word is, to get in again.

HAPPY

"It's not an intellectual thing. I'm not doing this because of any fear or soreness. I achieved a satisfaction in the last gubernatorial election that meant everything to me. I've never been happier or more relaxed or getting more enjoyment or satisfaction out of what I'm doing now."

If his name is entered in presidential preference primaries without his consent, Rockefeller said he will take whatever action is necessary to remove it.

Officers Go To FBI Meets

Recent legal decisions in the realm of law enforcement and a detailed picture of the National Crime Information Center in Washington, D. C., were discussed at area law enforcement conferences earlier this week.

Jay Banks, chief of police, and Leo Hull, assistant chief of police, attended similar meetings sponsored by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Banks went to an Abilene session Tuesday, while Hull traveled to San Angelo Monday.

An FBI agent and representative of the Department of Public Safety told officers of the computer system connected with the National Crime Information Center, opened Jan. 1, 1967.

"The center has a terminal in Austin in direct contact with the computer itself," said Banks. "In less than five minutes the police department in Big Spring could receive information from Washington via Austin on suspicious persons or autos."

From Austin, it takes only as long to receive the information as it does to send it by teletype. The computer flashes the answer back to Austin instantaneously. Actually, Banks said the only time lapse is the length of time to get the teletype message to Austin and back to the department requesting the information.

Hull said the remainder of the meetings was spent in discussion of court rulings affecting law enforcement, as well as changes made by the last legislature in the Texas Code of Criminal Procedures.

Teachers Strikes Stall Education

By The Associated Press

Formal education for more than 1.4 million of the nation's youngsters continued at a virtual standstill today as teachers strikes dragged on in New York City, Detroit and a number of smaller communities.

An extra week's vacation in the Florida sun ended today for 90,000 Broward County pupils who returned to classrooms in 102 public schools after teachers and the school board agreed on salaries.

JAIL PENALTIES

In New York City the strike by the 49,000-member AFL-CIO United Federation of Teachers entered its fourth day with union leaders declaring they would defy a State Supreme Court order to halt the walkout.

Union president Albert Shanker and two other officials were to appear in court to show cause why they should not be cited for contempt. If adjudged guilty they would face a maximum penalty of $250 and 30 days in jail.

City Truck To Be Returned

Two city employes are in San Antonio today to pick up a sanitation packer body and truck bought earlier this summer, according to Roy Anderson, assistant city manager.

The $5,797 truck is equipped with a $4,700 packer body, said Anderson. Installation of the packer body created a slight delay in delivery. Anderson expected the truck to be in operation within a few days since the city will have to install additional equipment.

Ordered To State Prison

Ruben Jiminez, under two-year-probated sentence dating back to Nov. 8, 1966, for assault with intent to murder, was ordered taken to the state penitentiary today by Judge Ralph Caton, in 118th District Court. He must serve the two year term.

Judge Caton granted a motion by Wayne Burns, district attorney, to revoke the probation of the defendant.

Testimony was introduced to show that Jiminez had been arrested by city police recently in possession of a pistol, which was in violation of his probation.

He was remanded to the sheriff's office for removal to the state penitentiary.

Burns said that a warrant has been issued for the apprehension of George Huckabee. The district attorney has filed a motion to revoke probation granted this defendant. The sheriff's office is seeking Huckabee.

Cyclists End Dramatic Ride

It was "one of those days" for a young minister and Big Spring policeman Wednesday as the motorcycle they were riding went out of control, missed a snow cone stand in City Park and collided with a ladder, yet traveled on for 250 feet before coming to a stop atop the driver.

Randall Lee Fuson, Weatherford, driver of the cycle, received minor cuts and abrasions. Patrolman Jerry Morris, 408 Johnson, skinned his hands after jumping from the cycle before it hit the ladder.

The cycle went out of control while making a U-turn, according to police. The ride ended 250 feet and two loops later as the cycle overturned on Fuson. The ladder was still around his neck.

Pleads Guilty

Alfred Hinojos, charged with felony theft, entered a plea of guilty in 118th District Court Wednesday afternoon. Judge Ralph Caton accepted the plea and sentenced the man to four years in prison. He then probated the sentence on good behavior.

Chance Arrives To Save Twins

By The Associated Press

Fit Dean Chance with a fireman's hat and Joe Adcock with something a bit more restraining.

Chance strode out of the Minnesota bullpen for only the second time this season Wednesday night and saved Minnesota's 3-2 victory over Washington and the Twins' share of the American League lead. Boston, tied for first place with Minnesota, defeated Kansas City 4-2 in an afternoon game.

Adcock's Indians, meanwhile, struggled through 17 scoreless innings, nine of them without a hit against Chicago's Gary Peters and finally lost to the White Sox 1-0 on Rocky Colavito's run-scoring single.

Third-place Detroit remained one game off the pace as Mickey Lolich pitched a five-hitter and Al Kaline and Dick Tracewski rapped home runs in a 6-1 victory over Baltimore.

In the only other American League game played Wednesday, New York dropped California 6-4.

Jim Kaat was cruising along on a six-hit shutout going into the ninth against Washington and the Twins' 3-0 lead built mostly on Harmon Killebrew's 39th homer, looked substantial enough.

But Frank Howard and Paul Casanova opened with singles and Fred Valentine drove a double off the right field wall. Tony Oliva, attempting to catch Valentine's drive, crashed into the wall and suffered a three-stitch cut in his left eyelid and superficial knee bruises.

Manager Cal Ermer, who had considered removing Kaat before Valentine's hit, waited no longer. "As soon as I saw the ball head for the fence in right," Ermer said, "I knew I'd made a bad move." Now, he made a good one, calling for Chance.

HE FANS TWO

The ace right-hander gave up a sacrifice fly to rookie Frank Coggins and then struck out Mike Epstein and Cap Peterson, leaving the tying run stranded.

Peters pitched 11 innings of the strangest one-hit ball you're ever likely to see. The White Sox' ace left-hander permitted only a second inning triple by Joe Azcue but walked 10 batters and was in constant trouble.

Sonny Siebert, meanwhile, matched Peters, allowing three hits in the first four innings and no more until the 11th. But the Indians stranded 11 base runners.

The White Sox finally won it in the 17th when Ken Boyer singled with one out and pinch runner Charlie Bradford raced to second on a passed ball. After Tom McCraw was purposely walked, Colavito singled Bradford home.

Lolich, who lost 10 in a row over one stretch, won his sixth straight for the Tigers after spending most of Wednesday in bed, nursing a cold.

Kaline had three hits and scored three runs. His 24th homer in the third inning followed utility man Tracewski's first of the season.

ONLY FOURTH

Tracewski's homer was only the fourth of his major league career and it came against Baltimore's Pete Richert. The two are old friends and Tracewski served as best man at Richert's wedding. "My first two times up in the American League," Tracewski recalled, "he struck me out.

Rico Petrocelli drove in three runs—two of them with a tie-breaking double in the eighth inning as the Red Sox trimmed the Athletics. He singled home Boston's first run in the fourth. Both times, he delivered after Kansas City had purposely walked Ken Harrelson.

So with 15 games remaining for all four contenders, Boston and Minnesota remain tied for the lead, Detroit is one game behind and Chicago three off the pace.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Perhaps the three outstanding defensive performers for Big Spring against Lamesa last week were Lonnie Clanton, R. J. Englert and Johnny Hedges.

Clanton also punished the Golden Tornadoes in countless ways on offense. If he can't run around some one he simply takes the shortest route and tries to run over them.

Few backs anywhere in the state were more effective than Lonnie in their first game this year. When he isn't trying to weave this way through the enemy defensive embroidery, Clanton seeks to keep busy as a blocker and he does very well at it.

Mike Gartman and Chuck Smith were others who delighted in hacking away at would-be tacklers when a team mate has the ball.

Halfback Snake Tucker appears likely to become a great crowd favorite. He seems to be dancing to the tune of "Sweet Georgia Brown" when he runs but he's quicker than he appears and has the faculty for falling forward when he is tackled.

The Steers' downfield blocking is going to have to improve. Several times Steer ball carriers appeared on the verge of going all the way only to have to hold up for the blocking to form.

The passing of quarterback Bill Burchett was better than his record against Lamesa would indicate. He shows to advantage on the throwback pattern and several times put the ball in the arms of the receiver only to have it fall away.

The manner in which Big Spring tacklers were punishing Lamesa ball carriers was something to behold.

Howard County's Perry Walker rode 20 winners and finished in the money on 35 other occasions in the Ruidoso Downs season just completed.

His record at Ruidoso placed him high on the list of riders considered for the 1967 Jockey of the Year award given by the Racing Board of Texas, Inc. Walker rode over 200 times at the mountain track.

Only two of the 32 linksters who rated the championship flight in the Big Spring Invitational Golf tournament five years ago played well enough to qualify for this year's 16-man title flight—Bobby Bluhm and Bobby Wright.

Oddly enough, both got fanned out in the first round of competition and Bluhm later edged Wright in championship consolation finals.

Five other players in the championship flight half a decade ago took part in this year's tournament but were in lower flights. They were Jack Wallace, Roy Peden, R. H. Weaver, Weldon Bryant and Son Powell.

Two of the championship flight campaigners in 1962—Bill Craig and Eddie Don Harris—are deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlen White (he's the basketball coach at Sands High School) are celebrating the arrival of Robert Lynn, a 7 pound, 10½ ounce boy who arrived Sept. 7. If the future cager had been amind to stand, it would have taken a 21-inch tape to measure him.

Bob Clemente Demonstrates How It's Done

By The Associated Press

Roberto Clemente conducted a short course in show and tell Wednesday.

First the Pirate slugger gave some of his teammates a mild dressing-down for not giving their best. Then he showed them just how good somebody's best can be. He got five hits and drove in four runs as the Pirates pulverized Cincinnati 11-3.

Earlier in the day, Clemente had been quoted as saying some of the Pirates hadn't done their best for former Manager Harry Walker, who was fired in June.

Against the Reds, Clemente hit his 21st homer as well as a double and three singles. Tommie Sisk went all the way for Pittsburgh, evening his record at 12-12.

In other National League games Wednesday night, Philadelphia blanked St. Louis 3-0, Los Angeles downed San Francisco 6-3 and New York edged Atlanta 2-1.

Clemente didn't name any of the culprits in his blast, first aired in a radio interview in Puerto Rico. None of them seemed ready to dispute who had given 100 per cent in Wednesday's game.

Larry Jackson conquered a seven-game hex against the Cardinals with a fine two-hitter, giving up only a single to Lou Brock in the fourth and a double to Curt Flood in the ninth. Bill White homered for the Phillies.

Al Ferrara drove in three runs for the Dodgers and Jim Lefebvre homered as Mike McCormick failed to win his 20th game. Ollie Brown homered for the Giants and Claude Osteen, who went the distance, was the winning pitcher, striking out 10.

Jerry Grote's two-out single in the ninth inning drove in Ed Kranepool with the winning run for the Mets. Tom Seaver became the winningest pitcher in Mets' history with his 14th triumph.

Galena Park To Host Top-Ranked Cooper

By The Associated Press

Abilene Cooper, which followed its fine quarterback, Jack Mildren, into the state's No. 1 spot with just one game, risks its pretige early as the feature of Texas schoolboy football's second weekend.

Cooper knocked over rated Wichita Falls 18-9 last week and hit the top spot immediately. Now Cooper plays Galena Park, impressive in a 38-0 victory over Texarkana.

Galena Park isn't among the top 10 yet but a victory over Cooper would get the job done.

There's also an intersectional clash of importance as Port Arthur, second in the rankings, takes on the champions of Louisiana, Broadmoor of Baton Rouge.

Others of the top 10 don't appear to have too much at stake and the 10th team, San Angelo, doesn't even play.

Brownwood, No. 1 in Class AAA, faces a rugged test in meeting Gatesville, another AAA outfit which opened the campaign with a 14-0 decision over Copperas Cove. Brownwood started off by clipping AAAA Cleburne 14-7.

Ennis, the No. 2 outfit of AAA, takes on Plano and here could be a Tartar for the Lions. Plano is ranked ninth in Class AA as the result of a surprising 35-7 strapping of well rated Decatur.

Jacksboro, No. 1 in Class AA, plays Olney and should come through, while Seagraves, the top ranked team of Class A, should have a fairly easy time tackling Frenship. The latter took a 50-6 walloping from Abernathy.

Freer, which edged Tuloso-Midway, furnishes the opposition this week for George West, which took a trimming from Class AA Karnes City. George West dropped to fifth place in the rankings, whereas it was around the top before the campaign started. Another loss could kick the Class A power out of the ratings altogether.

Three Rivers, the team that was supposed to be George West's possible stumbling block in the march to the finals, managed to stick at No. 7 although played to a tie by Class AA Kenedy. This week Three Rivers meets Karnes City and that will afford a George West-Three Rivers comparison.

It's another tremendous schedule with 485 games in the four classes that play to state championships.

There are conference games in every class as the bulky districts get an early start in championship play.

Doubleheader Slated Here

Big Spring's two ninth grade football teams, the Brahmas and the Toros, will be featured in a football doubleheader in Memorial Stadium, starting at 6 o'clock here this evening.

The Toros open the action against Andrews Junior High while the Brahmas square off with Snyder Lamar at 7:30 p.m.

One price of admission will admit fans to both games. Spectators are urged to sit in the East stands, and park their cars accordingly, since the high school band will be drilling on the parking lot west of the stadium and no vehicles will be permitted to park there.

Both teams lost their opening games last week. The Brahmas were beaten in Sweetwater, 14-0, while Lamar was edging the Toros, 2-0.

In each instance, Big Spring showed a fine defense but could mount no offense.

Garland Braun is head coach of the Toros while Frank Pulattie masterminds the Brahmas.

The Runnels eighth graders, who dropped their opening game to Sweetwater last weekend, return to competition in Snyder at 6 o'clock this evening, at which time they take the field against Lamar.

Goliad's eighth graders are not scheduled to see action this weekend. They return to play on the road Sept. 21, opposing Snyder Travis.

Big Spring's junior varsity, blanked by San Angelo in their opening game last week, will see action again here Saturday night against Snyder. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

The Big Spring sophomores visit Forsan for a 10 a.m. contest Saturday.

Ex-Bovines Will Face Each Other

ABILENE — Three former Big Spring High School gridders will probably be in the starting lineup for Abilene Christian College when the Wildcats open their 1967 season against East Texas State University in Commerce at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

They are right guard Dub McMeans, 215 pounds, a member of the offensive unit; and linebacker Jerry Wilson, 195, and left halfback Johnny Hughes, 165, both members of the defensive team.

McMeans and Hughes are juniors while Wilson is listed as a freshman.

They will be facing an East Texas team that has two Big Spring exes in its starting lineup, tackle Tim Smith, 195-pound junior; and quarterback Benny Kirkland, 185-pound junior.

ACC leads the 25-game series, 14-10-1, and won last year's contest, 7-0. The last half of the 1966 game was played on a gridiron covered with water.

East Texas had a 5-3-2 season last year and won the Lone Star Conference. ACC recovered after five straight losses and finished with a 4-6 record.

Frogs Eye Big Push

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Young and aggressive and with a new head coach, the Texas Christian Horned Frogs are looking for a good football season.

The Frogs had a 2-8 record in 1966 and the new coach, Fred Taylor, might consider a 5-5 season a good one compared to that.

But he says his chief aim is for the Frogs to improve game-by-game until at the end of the schedule they will be ready for a strong 1968 team.

The biggest problem is the offense, so Taylor revamped the line and variations of the I and winged-T formations are being featured.

"We want a good straight-ahead offense and I think our running game continues to improve with each practice," Taylor said.

BULAICH LOST

The Frogs suffered a blow earlier in the week when star running back Norman Bulaich was sent to the sidelines with a knee injury. He had a cartilage removed and will miss the entire season.

"Sure, it's a real blow to lose Bulaich," said Taylor "We spent the summer working our offense around him and Ross Montgomery. But we have other backs—and I feel one will forge to the front and do the job we need. But it's hard to replace not only experience but that size and speed (Bulaich weighs 215, runs the 100 in 9.6)."

The other half of the planned Frog running attack, Montgomery, could be one of the country's top men. The big junior, 6-3 and 215, led the Frogs in rushing last fall and was one of the Southwest's top runners at the end of the year.

Montgomery, who also does the 100 in 9.6, will line up at both the slot back and running back in the new Frog formation. For Bulaich, Taylor now turns to veteran Steve Landon, soph back of the year in 1965 but who missed the final five games of 1966 because of an ankle injury. Landon has been bothered with a back hurt and junior Larry Wood or soph Marty Whelan could move in there.

Fullback is manned by dependable Kenny Post, who has had two fine years, and is both a good short-yardage runner and blocker.

FINE PRACTICE

P. D. Shabay, the senior who has had his share of criticism from many points while serving as quarterback the past two seasons, is having a fine fall practice. His passing has improved and the big fellow seems headed for his best year. Taylor said he already was a good runner and blocker.

Danny Carter, who set a passing record as a freshman, is ready to back up Shabay or take over if he falters.

The line has some new faces, notably E. A. Gresham at center, shifted from linebacker. The guards are soph James Ray and senior Dale Johnson, the tackles are junior Fred Barber and tall senior Charles Young and redshirt soph Bill Ferguson and senior letterman Steve Jamail are at ends. Barber is considered the finest blocker on the offensive line while Ferguson is an excellent receiver.

Board Makes Bald Decision

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Joseph Apone, 17-year-old high school junior, cut his hair three times after his principal said it was too long.

Tuesday Apone was suspended from school after he showed up for classes bald.

Apone, a junior at Springfield North High School, and his mother, Rosa Apone Peck, appeared at a Board of Education meeting Tuesday night to plead his case—but to no avail. No hair, no school, the board ruled.

Mrs. Peck said her son had his hair cut before school started and again last week after Principal Robert Lynch said it was too long. But after the second trip to the barber Lynch contended that more hair had to come off.

After a third haircut over the weekend, Apone showed up Monday with what the principal described as an acceptable haircut.

Then on Tuesday, he came to school sheared down to the pate.

"We will not admit him, unless in our opinion, his hair has grown to a reasonable length," Lynch said.

Texas Farmers, Ranchers To Woo European Buyers

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — "Hook 'em up and load 'em out!" was the order, and with it 100 farmers and ranchers guided their wives toward a Europe-bound jet airliner.

The object: More export markets for Texas through a farmer-to-farmer personal contact program.

"Farmers talking to the buyers directly are far more effective than a paid representative" of the farmers, said Steve Lilly of Nacogdoches, a dairy and feeder-pig farmer and an executive in the Texas Farm Bureau which organized the 15-day tour.

"We're interested in finding markets for citrus, onions, carrots, beets, possibly tomatoes—just about any agricultural produce we grow which we can ship over there," Lilly said.

Beef already is being shipped from Texas to Europe and Lilly said he hoped pork markets could be opened up soon.

The group will stop in France, Switzerland, Germany, Holland, Belgium and England.

The trip will combine business with sightseeing jaunts.

The Texans won't be hard to spot, with a majority of the men wearing Stetsons and each traveler carrying a bright red plastic shoulder bag lettered "Texas Farm Bureau."

The Farm Bureau sponsors the tour—its third one to build up export markets—but individuals pay their own way.

"We hope to get the export business built up, especially in Germany and Holland," said J. W. Tole, president of the Wichita County Farm Bureau who lives on a cattle and grain farm 8 miles northeast of Wichita Falls.

"Cotton, cattle and vegetables are the ones I'm most interested in selling abroad," said Otto Riethmayer of Lamesa, who hopes to take a side trip to the German village of Erdmannhausen, near Stuttgart, where his father was born.

"We already have some markets over there but we want to widen them, particularly those of cotton and grain sorghum and especially to Germany," said Ace Phinney, who farms near San Angelo.

P-TA Units Slate Fall Activities At Schools

The school year was in full swing this week as seven area units of the Parent-Teacher Association held their first fall meetings. Faculty and P-TA members were introduced, and tentative plans made for fund-raising events.

GAY HILL

A school carnival was planned for this fall during the Tuesday meeting of the Gay Hill P-TA where Mrs. Freddie Blalock presided and Mrs. James Ellison brought the devotion.

George Archer, principal, introduced the faculty, after which the P-TA officers were recognized. The room count was won by Mrs. George Archer's class.

Refreshments were served to 31 by members of the executive committee, Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. Jack Buchanan, Mrs. Blalack, Mrs. J. M. Wilson and Mrs. F. C. Juneck.

Redenbacher, historian.

Chairmen are Sgt. Gordon Griffin, safety; Mrs. Gordon Griffin, publications; Mrs. Roger Shaw, room representative; Mrs. R. O. Browder, devotion; and Mrs. Herbert Hopkins and Mrs. Bill Truett, hospitality. W. R. Dawes, principal, introduced the faculty.

The year's project will be the continuation of the chain link fence and sidewalk on Connally Street, and funds will be raised with a chili supper this fall.

Room count was won by Mrs. Brooke Eubanks and Mrs. Robert Winders, and Chap. Thomas Black gave the invocation. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee, and the next meeting slated Oct. 3.

WASHINGTON

Officers were installed Tuesday for the Washington P-TA. They are Mrs. Gerry Poteet, president; Mrs. Ben Boadle, vice president; and Mrs. Jimmy Bumgarner, secretary; and Mrs. Ronnie Davidson, treasurer.

Mrs. Garland Braun presided and introduced the P-TA officers, and projects were announced. There will be a Halloween carnival for fund-raising, a book fair for the library, and a playground improvement program.

Mrs. Lee Freeze's first grade won the room count. Members of the hospitality committee served refreshments to 130.

BOYDSTUN

Herman Smith, principal of Boydstun Elementary P-TA, introduced the faculty at the Wednesday meeting of the Boydstun P-TA. Smith gave three recommendations for the coming year. They were to sell United States savings stamps, to hold a membership drive ending Oct. 12, and to sponsor a Mexican supper instead of a Halloween carnival. Room count was won by the sixth grade. Refreshments were served to 39.

A LOVELIER YOU

Correct Mistake Of Overplucked Brow

By MARY SUE MILLER

A Lovely mother writes: My 14-year-old daughter has tweezed her eyebrows into a thin line. It's the newest thing, she says. Be that as it may, the effect my child has achieved is a straggly, uneven line, chopped off at both ends. I suppose there's nothing to do but agonize through the growing-out period.

The Answer: You can help appearances by keeping the brows groomed as they grow out. This is managed with an application of stick hair wax and a good stiff brushing.

Once the brows have returned to their normal shape and size, tweezers should be used only to pluck strands that fall below the fixed outline, or above the nose. Tampering overmuch with the brow leads in many cases to a bald look. The strands simply never grow back.

Currently there is a make-up trend toward a less prominent browline. This has its inspiration in the Thirties Look, when the movie stars wore their brows high and thinly arched. The exaggeration will not be carried that far, however.

The idea is to soften and lighten the brow. The effect is brought about by applications of light brown brush-on brow. Sometimes just by whisking on face powder and brushing it off.

No matter what the fashion over-tweezing the brows is never advisable.

TEEN TRESSES

Is your hair a problem, Miss Teen? Then send for my leaflet, "Teen Tresses, Model Type." It tells how to correct such ailments as oily hair and flaky scalp; fly-away, unmanageable, lackluster locks. Included, too, are styling tips and model grooming quickies. For your copy write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope and 10 cents in coin.

Gardeners Hear Talk

Mrs. D. W. Rankin of Hilltop Greenhouses and Nursery, spoke on pest control and winterizing gardens at the Wednesday meeting of the Oasis Garden Club. Mrs. Paul Kionka, 1610 Pennsylvania, was hostess with Mrs. Donald Judd and Mrs. Boone Horne as cohostesses.

Mrs. Rankin said an essential requirement of an attractive garden is the correct preparation of soil and proper fertilizer. If this is neglected, the result is loss of plant vigor and fresh green color.

Further, Mrs. Rankin said plants should be pruned and all dead and diseased materials removed. Plants should be kept free of pests and properly fertilized for winter in order to have healthy plants in spring.

Mrs. Jim Zike presided. Mrs. Gary Sims, parliamentarian, read the club bylaws, and Mrs. W. T. Hanson, program chairman, distributed yearbooks. Mrs. W. F. Taylor presented the schedule for the fall placement flower show Oct. 27 in the Zike home in Silver Heels. Names were drawn for class entries.

Twenty - two attended. The next meeting will be a flower show workshop, Oct. 2, conducted by Mrs. Zike in the home of Mrs. Guy Cook.

Priest Has Program For Society

The Rev. Francis Beazley brought the Bible study in conjunction with the celebration of the "Holy Name of Mary" at the Tuesday meeting of the Altar Society of Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church.

Rev. Beazley spoke on four topics, "Honoring the Mother of Christ," "Mary, the Mother of World Salvation," "Mary, Mother of the Redeemer," and "Mary, Mother of All Christians."

Mrs. Dan Maestas presided and appointed the altar committee for the month, Mrs. Herman Bool, Mrs. Robert Houser, Mrs. R. L. Anderson and Mrs. Maestas. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Riley Ward and Mrs. Don Hayes.

A game party was set for Sept. 24 at the parish hall with Mrs. Jack Engle as chairman. Mrs. C. C. Choate won the attendance prize.

The fall festival will be Sept. 30, and a barbecue will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. Proceeds will be donated to the Holy Name Society for financing a school bus.

Fourteen attended, including a new member, Mrs. Bill Brantley.

Cake Frosting

A cup of granulated sugar mixed with a half cup of orange juice may be gently boiled for about five minutes and then poured over a white cake baked in a square 9-inch pan.

Foras Look At American Life

"Life—American Style," was announced as the course of study as yearbooks were distributed Tuesday evening at a Spoudazio Fora Study Club meeting in the home of Mrs. Bill C. Coleman, 1100 Lloyd. Mrs. Charles Neefe was cohostess.

Presiding for the year will be Mrs. H. O. Hudgins, president, who recognized her executive committee, Mrs. Neefe, vice president; Mrs. R. L. Reaves, secretary; Mrs. Dudley Jenkins, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. James C. Jones, treasurer. Appointive officers are Mrs. J. W. Dickens, parliamentarian; Mrs. Hulan Harris, historian; Mrs. Reaves, reporter; and Mrs. Ennis Cochran, critic.

"Operation Hope" at the Big Spring State Hospital was chosen as the year's project, and Mrs. Cochran described the personality and needs of a teenage boy which the club will "adopt." Individual donations were made by members to purchase canteen books for the boy, and clothing, personal gifts and entertainment will be provided in the future. Mrs. Bob Clark is project chairman.

Mrs. Hudgins presented a plan for members to purchase Christmas cards and note paper as a fund-raising project, and the constitution and by-laws were read.

Preceding the business session, a salad supper was served and members were seated at quartet tables laid with colorful mats.

The 15 attending were reminded that the next meeting will be Sept. 26 in the home of Mrs. H. D. Stewart, 2904 Goliad.

Friendship Circle Names Officers

New officers were elected for the Friendship Circle of First Presbyterian Church following a supper Monday evening which was attended by 11 members. Mrs. Earl Mathis presided, and the new slate includes Mrs. Dalton Mitchell, chairman; and Mrs. Al Aton, vice president; Mrs. Olen Puckett, secretary; and Mrs. A. B. Brown, treasurer. The installation will be in October. The lesson, "The Bethany Family" was presented by Mrs. Glen Guthrie, and the next meeting will be Oct. 9 at the church.

MRS. JAMES M. HATLER

Well-Managed Home Shows Organization

By RHODA LEMONS

"Organization is the keynote to a well - managed home," said Mrs. James M. Hatler, 2805 Goliad, as she explained a system that has helped her become a better wife and homemaker.

"I feel that if I thoroughly clean just one room a day and straighten the rest of the house, then by the weekend, I will have a completely clean house without undue strain," she said. She practices this belief and affirms that this leaves her with enough energy for planning and cooking her meals, working on her hobbies and enjoying her husband and two children.

Hatler is a vice president at the First National Bank, and their children are Tammie, 9, a fourth grader at Kentwood Elementary School, and Jay, 5, who attends morning classes at the Christian Day School.

Mrs. Hatler prepares two meals a day, and makes a light lunch for herself and Jay. Her favorite is the one-dish casserole combining a meat with vegetables, to which she can add a salad and hot bread for a complete dinner.

"My husband is wonderful to cook for and seems to enjoy all types of foods," said Mrs. Hatler. Although she does not consider her family as being particularly "hearty" eaters, she does try to watch and see that they have well-rounded nutritional meals.

Mrs. Hatler cans a great deal using a pressure cooker. She prefers the flavor of canned foods to that of frozen vegetables and has canned dozens of jars of blackeyed peas, green beans and other foods which her family enjoys.

One of Mrs. Hatler's hobbies is furniture refinishing. She has added the personal touch in every room of her attractive home, and has antiqued an old upright piano red, resulting in a handsome and useful piece of furniture. She has redone her daughter's bedroom and the furnishings in the master bedroom. She made a large, red velvet tufted headboard for a kingsize bed with complimentary red draperies.

Painting is another hobby of Mrs. Hatler, and for a number of years she painted without having any instruction. However, for the past year, she has taken lessons, and still enjoys this interest.

When Mrs. Jim Baum completed her record album, Mrs. Hatler did the cover illustrations for "Margaret Plays." She also did a series of children's pictures for her daughter's room, and "Noah's Ark" for her young son's room.

Mrs. Hatler spends a good deal of time in the yard, and plans to landscape the attractive patio and enclosed area surrounding a small kidney - shaped pool. She wants to plant some flowering shrubs and plants and re-design the simulated waterfall.

Hatler is the outdoor chef and prepares the food at cook-out time. They seldom go out socially without the children unless it is a business occasion. Hatler is also a motorcycle enthusiast, and Mrs. Hatler often accompanies her husband to neighboring towns where they have dinner before the ride home.

They are active in the East Fourth Baptist Church, and she is a member of the Child Study Club and the Kentwood Parent - Teacher Association.

Make It A Super Sandwich

When is a sandwich more than a sandwich? When it's dressed up in open-face style with a slice of tomato, white sauce and hard - cooked egg, separated and yolk put through a sieve to top it.

Two ounces of cooked ham go into each sandwich. These may be "boiled" ham purchased already sliced. They might also be what's left of the ham you baked for the weekend.

Goldenrod is an attractive way of serving some foods, like this sandwich. It means preparing a white sauce, to which has been added the chopped egg white. Egg yolk is pressed through a sieve for the showery golden topper.

A LA GOLDENROD

4 slices bread
4 slices (2 ozs. each) cooked ham
4 slices tomato, cut ½ inch thick
Salt
½ cup finely chopped green onions
2 tbsps. butter or margarine
2 tbsps. flour
¼ tsp. salt
1 cup milk
1 hard-cooked egg

Trim crusts from bread and place on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan and rack so the top of bread is three inches from the the heat. Toast both sides of bread until lightly browned. Place a ham slice on each piece of toast. Top each with a tomato slice and sprinkle with salt. Broil until lightly browned, about five minutes.

Cook onions in butter or margarine three minutes or until tender. Stir flour and salt into onion mixture. Add milk and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cut egg in half and remove yolk. Chop egg white and add to sauce. Heat through. Top each broiled sandwich with about ¼ cup sauce. Rub the egg yolk through a sieve and sprinkle sieved yolk on top of each sandwich. Serve immediately. Yield: four sandwiches.

Cabbage Offers Taste Variety

An interesting addition to panned cabbage.

GREEN CABBAGE

1 qt. tightly packed knife - shredded green cabbage
2-3 cup boiling water
2 tbsps. butter
½ tsp. salt and ⅛ tsp. pepper
¼ cup sliced pitted ripe olives

Into a deep 10-inch skillet, turn the cabbage, water and butter. Cover and boil gently, stirring a few times, until cabbage is tender-crisp—five to seven minutes. Uncover and continue boiling to evaporate liquid. Stir in salt, pepper and olives. Makes four servings.

FOR BREAKFAST
Easy cereal sweet rolls

Breakfast Dodgers Will Beg For Rolls

If "tired of the same old foods" is the cry of breakfast dodgers at your house, treat them occasionally to these Easy Cereal Sweet Rolls. Refrigerated biscuits and crisp high protein cereal are short-cuts taken in their preparation. Marmalade, butter, and nuts complete the ingredients. Baked and served warm, the gooey rolls make tempting eating.

Start now during September Better Breakfast Month to encourage your school - bound children and head-of-the-house to begin each day with an adequate meal based on a breakfast pattern of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and spread. To feel better and to work and play better during the morning hours, an adequate breakfast is a good way to start the day.

EASY CEREAL SWEET ROLLS

⅓ cup thick orange marmalade or raspberry preserves
¼ cup butter or margarine, melted
¼ cup chopped pecans
1½ cups ready-to-eat high protein cereal
2 pkgs. (8 ozs. each) refrigerated biscuits

Mix well marmalade and butter or margarine. Fold in pecans and cereal. Spread 2-3 cup of cereal mixture evenly over bottom of greased nine-inch square pan. Make an identation across center of each biscuit. Place a tablespoonful of cereal mixture on each biscuit and fold in half. Stand biscuit in pan, edges up, in three rows. Spoon any remaining cereal mixture over top. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) until done, 25 to 30 minutes. Yield: 20 sweet rolls.

Blue Cheese Tops Lamb Chops For Broiling

Broiler meals are the quick meals in a homemaker's menu plans. If she's a career woman, too, she'll want something that's really quick.

These lamb shoulder chops are prepared with a topping that goes on for the last two minutes, and requires only 15 minutes cooking time. Frozen French fried potatoes will heat in about that same time while broiled tomatoes with a butter-bread crumb crown take no longer.

Shoulder chops which come from the chuck or forequarter are more meaty than rib or loin varieties, explains Reba Staggs, meat expert.

BROILED LAMB CHOPS

6 lamb shoulder chops, cut ¾ to 1 inch thick
½ cup crumbled blue cheese, firmly packed
2 tbsps. sliced green onions
⅛ tsp. salt
Dash of pepper
2 tbsps. softened butter or margarine

Set regulator for broiling. Place chops on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan and rack so the top of the chops is three inches from the heat. Broil first side until browned, about eight minutes, turn and brown second side, about four minutes. Combine cheese, onions, salt, pepper and butter or margarine. Spread about two tablespoons of cheese mixture evenly over each chop; continue broiling two minutes or until cheese is lightly browned. Makes six servings.

Weekend Dinner Features Fruit

Good fruit cup with which to start the meal because the combination is so refreshing.

THREE FRUIT COCKTAIL

2 medium grapefruit
1½ cups halved seeded red grapes (Emperor if available)
½ cup pineapple tidbits and ½ to ¾ cup syrup from the can of pineapple

Pare grapefruit so no white membrane remains; cut sections away from dividing membranes. Mix grapefruit sections with grapes, pineapple tidbits and pineapple syrup. Chill.

Absenteeism In New York City Schools Exceeds 60 Per Cent

NEW YORK (AP) — Union leaders say they'll defy a State Supreme Court order demanding the end to the strike by city teachers, now in its fourth day. The walkout has provided at least 60 per cent of the city's 1.1 million public school children with extra summer vacation.

The absentee rate among both pupils and volunteer teachers has risen on each successive day of the strike, Board of Education figures show.

PICKETS PLEDGE

Albert Shanker, president of the 49,000-member AFL-CIO United Federation of Teachers said Wednesday its picket lines "will stay until the teachers have ratified a contract."

The temporary injunction prohibiting a continuation of the strike was ordered by Justice Emilio Nunez. The union ignored a prior restraining order when it began the walkout Monday.

Shanker and two other union officials were to appear in court today before Nunez to show cause why they and the union should not be cited for contempt. If found guilty they would face a maximum penalty of $250 and 30 days in jail.

'TALK LATER'

While legal maneuvers continued there were growing signs of student concern. "Teach now, talk later," read signs carried Wednesday by some student counterpickets outside Central Commercial High School.

Attendance at the city's 900 schools fell to only 412,279 students and volunteer help also decreased according to board of education figures. Officials said no plans had yet been made for making up lost instruction time.

Hope of a settlement in the dispute over wages, policy matters and working conditions flared briefly when Justice Nunez proposed that the board and the union submit their dispute to binding arbitration. Both sides refused.

INJUNCTION

Then, declaring "the teachers executed resignations to engage in a concerted work stoppage—in an attempt to evade the law," Nunez ordered the injunction.

In the background of the legal maneuvers is the state's new Taylor Law, as yet untested, which provides fines of up to $10,000 a day against any union directing a strike of public employes.

At the outset the UFT asked a wage scale for teachers of $7,500 to $18,000 a year as opposed to the present scale of $5,400 to $11,950. A special three-man mediation panel recommended a scale of $6,600 to $13,600 a year which the board endorsed.

Writer Fry Dies

EASTON, Conn. (AP) — Varian Fry, 59, leader of a group that helped some 1,500 persons escape from German-occupied France during 1940-41, was found dead in his home Wednesday, apparently of natural causes. Fry, a writer and teacher, worked in France as representative of the Emergency Relief Committee, predecessor to the International Rescue Committee.

Two Motorists Wreck Victims

BASTROP, Tex. (AP) — Two motorists were killed Wednesday night as a car and a heavy truck collided 3 miles northeast of Bastrop on FM 1441.

State police identified one of the dead as Arthur L. Cates, 55, of Elgin, driver of the automobile.

The second victim was a woman whose identity was not determined at once.

Officers said the westbound car hit the truck as it was trying to turn and smashed underneath its trailer unit. The truck driver escaped injury.

Texas Tourism Funds Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Economic Development Administration has allocated $65,000 for a study to determine the impact of promoting tourism in a 37-county area of South Texas to create more jobs.

The study was requested by the Texas Southmost, Coastal Bend and Southwest Economic Development districts.

The counties are Cameron, Hidalgo, Willacy, Aransas, Atascosa, Ben Brooks, Calhoun, DeWitt, Duval, Goliad, Gonzales, Jim Wells, Karnes, Kenedy, Kleberg, Live Oak, McMullen, Nueces, Refugio, San Patricion, Victoria, Wilson, Dimmit, Frio, Jim Hogg, Kenney, La Salle, Maverick, Medina, Real, Starr, Uvalde, Val Verde, Webb, Zapata and Zavala.

The study will be conducted by a contractor to be selected by EDA.

The study will include an inventory and evaluation of recreation and tourism resources, the physical features and attractions, cultural and historical assets, fish and wildlife, and other recreation activities of the area.

Wildcat Truckers' Strike Slows Steel, Sparks Shots

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A wildcat strike by private truckers has interrupted steel shipments in three states and touched off some gunfire, tire slashing and windshield smashing. One man was seriously hurt, another shot.

Most of the violence that erupted Wednesday was against nonstriking truckers hauling steel in Ohio and western Pennsylvania. Shipments were disrupted in those two states, Indiana and into the Midwest.

DRIVER WOUNDED

The driver of one steel-hawling truck was wounded in the arm early today by a shot fired from a passing car on US 224 near Medina, south of Cleveland, the Ohio Highway Patrol reported. The patrol said the driver told officers the car, with Pennsylvania license plates, had followed him from Canton, Ohio.

The wounded driver was not identified immediately. He was hospitalized in Medina.

Meanwhile, steel was piling up in mills and warehouses in this steelmaking center. Some companies were turning to rail for shipping.

PICKETS

"We haven't moved a pound of steel today," said a spokesman for Eclipse Motor Lines, Inc., Pittsburgh, which hires driver-owned trucks.

U.S. Steel Corp. said pickets had a disruptive effect at its Irvin, Pa., works. Pickets at its Lorain, Ohio, works stopped steel hauling by 50 to 60 trucks a day there.

A judge granted an injunction to halt picketing at a Sharon Steel Corp. plant and a hearing was on tap for a similar action filed by Copperweld Steel Corp.

Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. reported "some inconvenience on our westbound shipments."

Inland Steel said truck shipments were "off pace" and Youngstown Sheet & Tube said it was shipping some steel by rail.

The strike started three weeks ago at Gary, Ind., and has spread to several states. The drivers, many of them members of the Teamsters Union, own their own trucks, valued at about $32,000 each, and haul steel under a national contract. They want better terms.

Under the agreement, according to a trucking company spokesman, the driver-owner gets about $180 out of the average cost of $240 for hauling a load of steel from Pittsburgh to Indiana.

The drivers want a bigger cut, $15 an hour after a two-hour wait at a mill to have their trucks loaded and $10 for pulling a tarpaulin over the load, the spokesman said.

Paper Bikinis Cover 'Nudes' In Windows

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Cut out paper bikinis are being slapped hastily on pictures of nude women adorning the covers of three records in South African stores.

The original covers were banned by the government's Publications Control Board following a complaint.

The most revealing of the pictures show in profile a nude girl seated on the ground. Another, also in profile, shows a girl standing with a towel draped across the front of her otherwise naked body.

CENSORSHIP

Censorship designed to protect moral standards is fairly strict here. The Afrikaners who control the government belong mainly to the Calvinistic Dutch Reformed churches and are conservative in tastes. A complaint by an Afrikaner group led to the record cover ban.

Movies showing even slightly sexy scenes are sometimes shortened.

Films are also slashed if they show close contact between white women and black men or vice versa. This is in line with the country's segregationist laws.

Many white South Africans say it is repugnant to let blacks see pictures of a white woman's body. Pictures of black women unclothed from the waist up bring no objection and postcards of these are sold freely.

BOOKS BANNED

Magazines dealing in nudity are banned and even expensive books of paintings by the old masters, displayed in shop windows, often are covered with brown paper. If the jacket reproduces a painting of a naked woman it is likely to be scissored before display.

Books such as "Lady Chatterley's Lover" and "Lolita" are refused entry into the country on moral grounds.

Despite all this, beaches on the Natal province coast and in Cape Town are jammed in summer with shapely girls wearing diminutive swim suits.

Only in the province of Orange Free State, a stronghold of Afrikanerdom, does the bikini seem to offend. At one or two public pools local authorities have forbidden bikinis. Sunbathing couples, following complaints of petting, must lie at least a foot apart.

Sinatra Wearing Jackets On Teeth

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Frank Sinatra's upper lip was still swollen and bruised and he had prefabricated porcelain jackets on two front teeth today.

Dr. A. B. Weinstein, a New York City dentist, fitted the jackets after being flown to California to treat the entertainer injured by a Las Vegas, Nev., casino executive.

"We worked for about three hours or more," the dentist said Wednesday. "Frank is usually nervous, but he was just marvelous. He's that way when the chips are down."

Sinatra reportedly was hit by an official of the Sands Hotel during an incident Sunday that ended the singer's long association with the resort.

Local Owner Has A Winning Dog

First place in a division of the Corpus Christi Kennel Club show Sept. 3 was presented for the sixth time to a champion German shepherd, shown by Neil Given of the Big Spring Kennel Club.

Ch. Ray-Mor Fleet O'Way owned by Given and Audrey St. John, Santa Anna, Calif., is one of the top winning dogs in the country. He was sixth among winning German shepherd dogs in the United States during 1966 and unofficially has 1,027 Phillips points for 1967. To date his record includes 47 best of breed wins with a total of 28 group placements.

In order to compete in group competition, a dog must first win best of breed or variety in his own breed. "Fleet" won in competition with 103 German shepherd dogs, including five other champions, before going on to win the working group at Corpus in which 232 dogs were represented. Almost 800 dogs from across the country were in competition in Corpus Christi.

At a sanctioned match sponsored by the Big Spring Kennel Club Sunday, one of "Fleet's" sons will compete. "Fleet" will not be eligible at the local event since he is already a champion of record and only dogs with less than a three point "major" will be accepted for entry.

The match is set for 1 p.m. at the Big Spring Skateland building on SH 80 west. Entries from a large part of West Texas are expected. Admission is free.

Anyone interested in entering the local match may do so on Sunday if the dog meets requirements for entry. Information may be had from Mrs. Bill W. Tubb, match secretary, or Bob Boland, show committee chairman. Judges are Sam Hearn, Lawton, Okla.; Mrs. Bettie Crawford, El Paso; Craig Grigson, Odessa.

Broadened Bombing Suggests LBJ Heeding Military Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Broadened U.S. bombing in North Vietnam suggests President Johnson may now be heeding his military chiefs more and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara less on the course of the war.

If true, the days ahead may bring more U.S. attacks in high-risk, politically sensitive areas of the Communist country while magnifying whatever differences may exist between McNamara and the military.

HAIPHONG HIT

A few days ago McNamara deprecated the need for striking the three major Communist ports of Haiphong, Cam Pha and Hon Gai. He told Congress this would not prevent the enemy from getting essential supplies through to forces in South Vietnam. The Joint Chiefs of Staff wanted all three hit.

Monday, Cam Pha was bombed.

Tuesday, American planes attacked Haiphong in what the military billed as an attempt to seal off the main port.

Hon Gai may be next on the list, with the timing dependent on when the port is empty of Soviet ships—the condition under which Cam Pha was raided.

These were the latest in a series of new targets to be hit this year.

NEW TARGETS

An Associated Press check of communiques shows that more than 20 new, militarily vital targets have been struck by U.S. planes since February. McNamara reportedly had reservations about the values in bombing at least some of the targets, as well as the risks involved.

McNamara's press office drew a distinction between facilities hit in Haiphong Tuesday, and the inviolate docks.

Phil G. Goulding, chief Pentagon spokesman, denied any approval had been given for striking the port facilities—a move McNamara has long opposed since Soviet vessels often are unloading there.

'NOT CORRECT'

Two bridges, a railyard and a storage warehouse were attacked, all within two miles of Haiphong's center, all previously untouched and all removed from the docks themselves.

The White House for the second time this month denied any major disagreements exist among the top civilian and military heads. White House press secretary George Christian told newsmen Wednesday it was "not correct" to say McNamara opposed bombing within Haiphong.

Despite McNamara's contention that Hanoi cannot be bombed to the negotiating table, the face of the air war has changed significantly this year, both in terms of targets and numbers of flights.

ESCALATION

The emphasis has switched from raids against moving "targets of opportunity" in North Vietnam's southern panhandle to strikes against fixed, key transportation and war-related industrial complexes in the northeast quadrant encompassing Hanoi and Haiphong.

Information gleaned from military reports and interviews indicates that so far this year the administration has authorized three rather distinct phases of what may be loosely termed escalation.

These phases involved attacks on new, but not necessarily new types, of targets.

On Feb. 22, preceding the seasonal weather change which would clear skies over the North and improve bombing capability, President Johnson authorized strikes for the first time against the Thai Nguyen steel mill; three jet airfields; a thermal plant, railroad repair facility and bridges in Hanoi; and a cement plant, fuel dump and military complex in or just outside Haiphong.

NEXT PACKAGE

The next package of new targets allowed bombing closer to the center of Hanoi and within 10 miles of China. The strikes were authorized in early August at a time when Rep. Gerald R. Ford, House Republican leader, was criticizing bombing restrictions and as the Senate defense preparedness subcommittee began conducting a highly publicized hearing on the conduct of the war.

A third, more recent set of targets was checked off for the military after Sen. John B. Stennis' preparedness group wound up its examination of the air war with a report Aug. 31 assailing the civilian throttling of the bombing. These included Cam Pha and a series of attacks designed to cut transportation routes by which Haiphong feeds out imported war supplies. This was an alternative to hitting Haiphong's docks.

Chilly Rain Dots Plains

By The Associated Press

Thundershowers dumped locally heavy rains on the Upper Mississippi Valley today and chilly rain also dampened a wide area from the eastern slopes of the Northern Rockies to the Plains.

Weather forecasters in the Southeast, meanwhile, watched two hurricanes well out in the Atlantic and kept a sharp eye on rebuilding Tropical Storm Beulah in the Caribbean southwest of Jamaica.

The showers developed along a cold front that became almost stationary from West Texas to Wisconsin. Cedar Rapids, Iowa, received a 1.94-inch soaking during the night and 1.32 inches fell at Eau Claire, Wis.

Rainfall in the Northern Plains brought welcome relief from prolonged drouth in some sections. Tinder-dry grasslands in Western North Dakota were given a 2-inch watering Wednesday as rain fell there for the second day in a row—the first general rain for that section in more than three months.

Clear and seasonable weather prevailed over the far West and across the South and East.

Tropical Storm Beulah became better organized during the night, and forecasters in Miami indicated the storm likely would reach hurricane force again late today. Beulah was about 200 miles southwest of Jamaica, moving west at 5 miles per hour.

Hurricane Chloe, packing winds of 110 m.p.h., moved northwestward some 725 miles east-southeast of Bermuda. Doria became a hurricane once again, reversed direction, and was drifting westward very slowly 325 miles north of Bermuda.

Temperatures early today ranged from a low of 35 at ont., to 87 at Blythe, Calif.

Postman's Ring Traps Gunman

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Because a postman "got the message," police apprehended a man in a shotgun-armed robbery attempt.

When Chester York delivered mail at the door of a women's wear shop, a shop employe, Addie Spencer, 63, handed him one of her rings and said, "Here, take care of this for me."

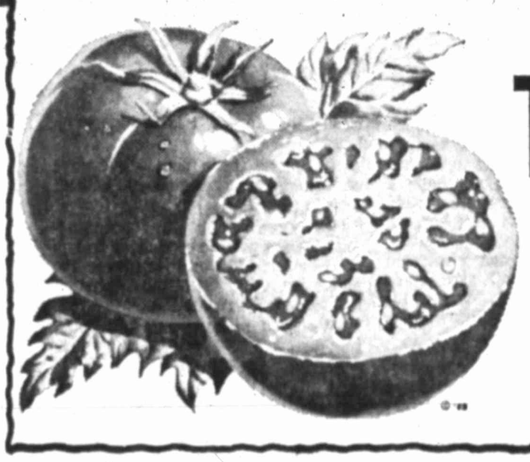

York was startled but after some thought, phoned police.

Officers arrived just as the bandit was attempting to back a car from a nearby garage with Mrs. Spencer as a hostage. Police said the man had menaced a group in the shop more than 20 minutes before getting suspicious after the postman's call.

Waymond G. Small, 29, Cincinnati, was arrested on charges of robbery, kidnaping, drawing a deadly weapon and violation of a firearms act.

A Devotional For The Day

God be merciful unto us, and bless us . . . That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations. (Psalm 67:1-2)

PRAYER: O Lord, while we enjoy Thy manifold gifts, may we be filled with gratitude and praise. Teach us to use our abilities and our means in Thy service, looking for that glorious time when all shall know Thee, from the least to the greatest. We ask in the name of Christ, our Savior. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Head Start On Military Obligation

We don't know what the demand among male students would be, nor what physical and administrative responsibilities would be imposed by such a program, but the arguments presented in behalf of an Air Force ROTC program for the high school seem to be cogent.

Our proximity to and close working relationships with Webb AFB, the presence of many retired Air Force personnnel with a special iterest in this direction, the possibility of getting a head start in service obligations all would argue for the program.

The board of trustees, working with the administration, would need to see if it is practical and would fit logically into the local program. While each level of ROTC training probably stands on it sown, there might be some inquiry into the college level, for the Air Force has been taking cognizance of the potential in two-year colleges as feeders for the four-year college program.

The Public's Interest

Both labor and management appear to have settled down to wait out what appears to be a long strike for the Ford Motor Company.

Both parties will be ably represented in attempts to resolve their differences, but the fact that neither made a proposal which appeared to have a remote chance of settlement by the other would indicate that they do not consider there is any sense or urgency in coming to terms.

There is a third equation, however, and that is what effect this might have on the general economy. Here the public has a stake, and this may be the thing which brings government into the picture before the problem is resolved.

Although Ford apparently was singled out because its defense production is not critical and because it fits the pattern of the United Automobile Workers strategy, there is no absolute insurance that the strike will not spread. For instance, strike of plants furnishing parts, extra equipment or allied services could halt or seriously slow others.

There are two things, aside from the loss of earnings and productions, which may become of public interest —one is prolongation or expansion to a point of adversely affecting trends in economic recovery; the other is a settlement which would be unduly inflationary. The country is sitting on an economic powder keg in this respect, and it would be intolerable to permit a settlement which would threaten to have explosive effects.

'I THINK WE WERE BRAINWASHED'

Holmes Alexander

The Stuff Of Presidential Dreams

WASHINGTON — The pillow talk of a President is apt to be a soliloquy. When the brain-trusters leave him, the brain-stormers stay late. They offer him ideas — the stuff that dreams are made of. Like this:

THAT FELLOW, De Gaulle, who kicked us and NATO out of France, ought to be answered in kind. Living Americans have been expelled, so we ought to withdraw dead Americans — the liberators and defenders of two World Wars and the Cold War. Open the graves, take down the monuments. Yankee come home from France, the old heroes as well as the young defenders. Let us not leave one American soldier in France, quick or dead, until De Gaulle is gone.

A man will dream, won't he? Even if he sleeps in the White House. There are people, not responsible for carrying out policy, who don't mind proposing notions which the Tall Tactician takes into bed. Like this:

FOILED OF A military settlement in Asia, why not try for a diplomatic coup in Europe? This proposal envisions a West Germany that is to be "forever" denuclearized through a nonproliferation treaty in which America and Russia are the enforcing powers. The effect would be that former Naziland would have the only large army in West Europe, but would have no atomic capacity. Such an arrangement would reassure Russia, against whom the Huns have often aggressed. It also would reassure France against which the Kaiser's and Der Fuehrer's legions have charged. Denied nuclear weapons, the Germans would be a threat to nobody, but would be part of the defenses in Western Europe.

A MAN WHO went to sleep on this thought might find it a pleasant dream. If West Germany is eternally denuclearized and cannot attack, retaliate or blackmail in atomic terms, then an important event takes place in Europe. Russia becomes less unwilling to permit a reunification of East and West Germany.

Make no mistake, the Tall Tactician is tempted to dream on this one. He can trade on it. If he gets an agreement for the nonproliferation treaty (no nuclear arms for West Germany), he has the makings of a deal which could unite the two Germanys, ease tensions in Europe and bring about the long-sought honest brokerage of the U.S.S.R. to end the war in Vietnam.

WHAT PERSUASIVE ideas these are. How marvelous a thing it would be for the President to play Communist West against Communist East, using Russia to put the fire out in Vietnam. Brain-trusters, if they're honest, will say it can't be done. But brain-stormers, since they're visionary will push for a bargain in Europe with the argument that it will work wonders in Asia.

DREAMING, the Tall Tactician might entertain such hopes, but waking, he cannot blink away the realities. The Russians see their revolution fully, and see it whole, which is to say, worldwide. For us to yield in Europe does not mean to gain in Asia. If we insult De Gaulle, we do not placate Ho Chi Minh. If we sell out West Germany, we do not buy off Russia.

Wishful dreaming, restful as it may be, is something the President must resist, and so, let's not forget, must the rest of us.

Rockefeller Keeps Door Open

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller sounds like a man who would love to be president if he could have the Republican nomination handed to him.

He is a long way from having closed all the doors on himself.

In view of some of the things he has said and done in the past, it can be taken with a grain of salt when he says, as he has repeatedly, that "under no circumstances will I be" a candidate for the Republican nomination in 1968.

Wednesday in an interview with The Associated Press, he said "I'm just not going to be a candidate." This is probably accurate if it means he won't go stumping the country and campaigning in state primaries.

AND HE repeated what he said before: If his name should be entered in some of the states' preferential primaries where it can be done without an individual's consent, "I will take whatever steps are necessary to remove my name."

Rockefeller, a three-term governor who won last in 1966, gave the impression that so far as he is concerned he has reached the end of his political road and is glad to have it that way.

HE SAYS he has a sense of fulfillment now and has no inner drive to get into another presidential contest.

But when asked what he would do if the Republicans wanted to draft him, he was very evasive, saying: "I'm not convinced these things happen."

This can be put into simple English another way: While he says he won't try for the nomination, he won't pass it up if he can get it without campaigning.

He is as aware as anyone else, of course, that he is frequently being mentioned as a likely prospect at a time when no other Republican in sight looks like a sure shot for the nomination.

THIS ISN'T the first time Rockefeller has given the appearance of taking himself out of consideration.

On Dec. 26, 1959 he said he would not be a candidate for his party's nomination in 1960, a nomination which eventually went to the then- Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

He closed the door on himself that time, or so it seemed, after touring the country and finding Nixon was away out in front.

Rockefeller said his decision was "definite and final."

While Rockefeller gives the impression of being totally satisfied with just being governor, the fact that he won his third-term race in 1966 is probably vitally important to him if he still has hopes for the presidency. It's a launching pad. If he had lost the election, he would be politically finished.

Rockwell Switches Themes

STOCKBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Norman Rockwell, the folksy artist whose conception of the four freedoms inspired Americans in World War II, is pointing his talented brush toward things more controversial.

"Things have changed, and so have I," says the lanky patriarch remembered by most for his more than 360 Saturday Evening Post covers.

After 47 years of recording the foibles of the American public with painstaking accuracy and gentle humor, Rockwell has switched to more topical themes.

"THE KIND of thing I did for years is through," the 73-year-old artist said softly as he folded his Twiggy frame into an antique chair.

Rockwell is feverishly behind schedule, has committed his talents for months ahead and is generally happy about the whole thing.

The shock of hair is silver, but his cavernous eyes are alive with enthusiasm.

"The public doesn't want my type of gentle humor anymore and the magazines don't want it; they're now full of articles on race problems, drug addiction, sex in the suburbs, mass murders and the like. I still get letters from people every day who say, 'Why don't you do those sweet old pictures like you used to do,' but that's just from older people, like myself," he chuckled.

"TO BE honest, I was getting fed up with the cute situations," he explained. "Since the Post, I've been getting some very exciting things to do." Among them he mentioned covers and special inside illustrations for Look and McCall's, such as astronauts and the Peace Corps, even a tongue-in-cheek pictorial comment on women's hair rollers and current hair styles.

He remains as American as red, white and blue, as traditional as Old World courtesy and as aware as New World current events.

Rockwell emphasizes the need for regular work hours. He naps after lunch, ceases work after dinner and tries to get at least eight hours of sleep.

SINCE HE has made more than enough money, he says his compulsion to work is just "bad habit." Though he is selective with art job offers, he adds, "I have a lot more orders than I can do. I take on too many things—one job is only for some little drawings. I don't know why the hell I do it."

As if answering his own thoughts, he concluded, "Art is my life. I've never done anything else."

Billy Graham

I am a teenager and my home is a very unhappy place because my parents are constantly bickering and fighting about trivial things. What can I do? R. M.

It is possible that your parents are both Christians, though it appears somewhat doubtful. If both of them are Christians, then possibly one of them has a very serious nervous disorder that needs treatment. But the most difficult thing in the world is to get people to recognize a need of that kind. They feel insulted if you mention it to them.

At your age it is almost impossible to see things objectively. Be encouraged, because life is worth living but only if you live it for Christ. You do not have to live your life for your parents, and the years you must spend at home are nearly past. Find a clear objective in life and make it one that is worthwhile. Be like the Apostle Paul who said . . . "forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" Phil. 3:13, 14). You will be amazed at how many of life's problems are solved once you do this.

Youth today needs a song to sing — a flag to follow — a creed to believe! I believe Christ offers all this and more! Trust Him and life will take on a glow that you have never known before. Even in the midst of unhappy circumstances there will be peace and joy. You may even win your parents if they see the change in you!

Don't Wait For A Hernia To Get Too Bad

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I have a double hernia but they don't protrude too much and don't bother me when I am walking. I am 46 and do not attempt to do any strenuous lifting, but I want to put my mind at rest.

I just can't see having an operation as the condition doesn't appear to bother me that much. — D.S.

If you expect me to put your mind at rest, you've knocked at the wrong door. The risk is that if a hernia does begin to "bother you that much," the hernia or rupture will have become larger and be more difficult to repair. Or it may even become strangulated, meaning that emergency surgery will be necessary to save your life as well as to relieve the utter agony of that phase of the trouble.

The only sensible advice I can give you is to have your doctor examine you, find out how far each hernia has progressed, and tell you whether to have the surgery now, or whether you can safely wait a little while — with periodic examinations to see how things are going.

A hernia doesn't get better by itself. All it can do is get worse, and the smartest patient is the one who has the surgical repair done before the damage is too great, and while he is still in good health and will tolerate the operation with comparative ease.

Dear Dr. Molner: According to an article I read, fluoridated water tends to prevent hardening of the arteries. If one wanted to fluoridate one's own drinking water, what would one use, and in what proportion? I have also heard that caffeine contributes to hardening of the arteries. Is this so? — A.W.S.

There isn't the slightest doubt in my inquisitive mind that the principal cause of hardening of the arteries is growing older — and I have no desire to stop growing older.

That, and heredity. And I can't change that.

Maybe some important means of preventing hardening of the arteries will be discovered. Let's hope so. But so far as I can discern, neither fluoride nor caffeine nor any of the "health foods," nor anything else has any proved influence that amounts to much in that regard.

If you want to try fluoride, you can get fluoride pills at your drug store. You'll find directions on the bottle.

If you are still around 100 years from now, and decide that fluoride did it, write and tell me. That is, if I'm still here.

Around The Rim

A Conspiracy Of Dullness

The quarterback takes off his helmet, wipes his forehead, and looks up into the stands. He steps back and glances toward the coach's bench, then puts his helmet back on and steps up behind his center. He gazes across at his opponents.

An opposing linebacker then steps back, and rubs his hands on his jersey, kicks at a knot of turf on the ground, makes a few motions toward his coach's bench. He takes off his helmet, studies the lining carefully, then puts it back on and moves back to position.

ABOUT THIS time, one of the coaches strolls slowly out onto the field and calls over the quarterback. They stand almost back-to-back and talk about things in general, how to score that touchdown, and that it sure is a fine day for a football game.

No, all this hasn't happened, and if it did, the football stadiums during the fall would probably be as empty on weekends as they are during the week.

NO WONDER then that the spectator's interest has turned from professional baseball to college and professional football. Even the more avid fans of baseball are slowly turning in their rooter's cards as the game continues to grow slower—and let's face it—dull.

The excitement of watching a pitcher mop his brow, or try to outwait a batter in a fancied war of nerves, is no more interesting than watching grass grow. Those long strolls by the managers, the inevitable wait for a new pitcher and his ensuing warm-up, are just plain dull. And the game seems to be nurturing these quaint traditional practices.

FOR YEARS, professional baseball was the No. 1 sport. A current survey places pro football first with 78 per cent, college football second with 77 per cent, and baseball third with 75 per cent. Sports writers responded to the questions, at the request of the Associated Press committee.

Couple this organized dullness with the fact that the TV producers have controlled the game to the point that a fan has only Saturday afternoon (for the most part) to keep up with his team, and it appears all those who benefit most from the game are conspired to see its demise.

THE FOOTBALL fan is given a much better shake, with games played at night, on weekends, and so arranged that he is certain to catch at least one game weekly on his screen. All this is in addition to the games he might attend in person, locally and in the big leagues.

It's curious that the baseball moguls have taken no steps to speed up their game, shorten their season in order to preserve their players, and seek the widest exposure possible. If such changes are not made, doubtless baseball will probably continue to lose its appeal, even to TV advertisers, due to a lack of fans. And the television bonanza will go the way of the gate.

Was Romney Brainwashed?

WASHINGTON—It is not being publicized at the moment, but Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara will soon announce a plan to build a "wall" around Gov. George Romney.

McNamara hopes the new barrier, which will consist of concrete denials, barbed wire stories and electronic monitoring devices, will slow down Romney's attacks on the Johnson Administration's Vietnam policies.

AN ADMINISTRATION spokesman told me, "Romney has been laying down a barrage of false charges against the President and the secretary of defense, and he's been infiltrating the American electorate. We have no choice but to fire back."

"What about Romney's charges that he was brainwashed in Vietnam?"

"Everyone knows that it is a violation of the Geneva Conventions to brainwash a governor of the United States. All we've ever asked of a politician who visited Vietnam was his name, his rank and his serial number."

"BUT ROMNEY said that he was brainwashed in Saigon two years ago by some very experienced people."

"That's just Republican propaganda. We're willing to open our briefings to the International Red Cross at any time to prove that we treat Republican presidential candidates humanely and in accordance with the articles of war."

"Is it not possible that an overzealous interrogator in Saigon might use methods that the White House does not know about or approve of?"

"THERE IS THAT possibility, but we've investigated the Romney case thoroughly and both Gen. Westmoreland and former Ambassador Lodge swear they never laid a finger on him."

"But aren't there more subtle ways of brainwashing somebody without touching him?"

"I suppose so. But the Johnson administration would never stoop to any of these. If we can't win over the opposition with the truth, then we feel we should resign."

"It's good to hear you say that," I said.

"DON'T FORGET," the administration spokesman continued, "both President Johnson and Secretary McNamara have to shave every morning, and they could never look into a mirror and face themselves if they believed someone on their staff had lied to George Romney."

"I never thought of it that way," I admitted.

"I must admit that we've been tempted at times," he continued. "But then we thought of the millions and millions of little George Romneys throughout this country who believe in us and in what we are doing, and we decided that no matter what the cost we would stick to the truth."

"What you have just said should be put to music."

"YOU CAN'T IMAGINE how it hurts the President when somebody like the governor of Michigan, and a Republican to boot, gets on television and says he has been brainwashed. It isn't the personal damage that worries him, nor is it the attack on his veracity. What bothers the President more than anything is that George Romney would introduce politics into a presidential campaign.

I could only add, "I wonder how Romney can shave in the morning?"

The Profit-Sharing Idea

WASHINGTON—The strike now going on in the automobile industry marks the first time that a large labor union has made a demand for a share of the profits of the employer.

The idea is that, during the next three years which the contract would cover, the employer would agree to give the unions a big wage settlement, with cash raises and "fringe" benefits of at least six per cent a year. But on top of all this, each company would, at the end of its fiscal year, make an extra payment to employes based on the company's profit position during the preceding twelve months.

THUS, IF AN automobile company had a good year of profits, it would have to turn part of the money over to the union's members. If, on the other hand, business was poor that year, the employes still would have the raise guaranteed in the basic contract and would not suffer at all. The stockholders might have to take a cut in dividends and perhaps even get no dividends at all. But the union members would be receiving their annual pay increase just the same, regardless of what a company's profit situation happened to be. What all this amounts to is "heads we win, and tails we win, too."

IT IS BEING suggested by some observers in the automobile world that the union leadership might run into trouble with its members if they ever got a profit-sharing plan. For workers in a company not making a profit might find their fellow workers in other companies getting more through the profit-sharing procedure. These differences in earnings could attract workers from one company to another. Also, employes of a company which didn't make a profit would naturally wish their union to even things up for them by making higher wage demands the next time.

MOST OF THE profit-sharing plans set up in recent years in other industries have been pension plans. Instead of paying out a share of the profit each year, as now is being proposed, the custom has been to put the money away as an added pension for retirement years.

The "big three" auto companies are likely to reject the demand for profit-sharing, and it is believed that the UAW will not insist on this plan if they win their other demands. The employer viewpoint is that, if the workers do not share in the risks as stockholders do, they ought not to share in the profits.

AN ANALYSIS of the relationship between employers and employes in large industries would disclose that profit-sharing plans have been successfully introduced in many businesses but that these involve a recognition of management's problems when it faces a bad year. It is hardly likely that large companies would ever agree to a profit-sharing plan which would require a fixed percentage of the profits to be given to employes each year, irrespective of the total earnings. For this would interfere with a company's planning for the future and particularly its accumulation of a surplus, out of which expansion or improvement of plant is financed.

THE PRINCIPLE of profit-sharing involves reciprocity—a mutual recognition of the fact that risks are taken in business operations and that, if there is a plan for sharing profits, there must also be some way to share losses, or at least not to increase wages during years in which profits are shrinking.

Israel, Egypt Due To Nix UN Plan

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israel will reject a U.N. proposal to keep its ships out of the Gulf of Suez and Egypt is expected to do likewise, Israeli official sources said today.

The ban on the gulf between the southern end of the Suez Canal and the Red Sea was proposed by Lt. Gen. Odd Bull, the U.N. cease-fire supervisor, after shipping in the gulf touched off a clash between Israeli and Egyptian forces on Sept. 4.

Scuba Class Plans Made

A number of inquiries into the YMCA-sponsored SCUBA diving class have been received, although no formal registration has been made, said Curt Mullins of the YMCA today. The first session is set to start Sept. 21 for the first 15 who sign up.

Instruction will continue every Tuesday and Thursday at 7 p.m. until the full YMCA-approved course is completed, possibly toward the end of November.

Information and application forms are available at the YMCA office. There will be a prerequisite swimming examination, and a physical will be required. The fee is $17.50 for YMCA members and $30 for non-members. The course is open to anyone 17 years or older.

No equipment will be required for class members immediately.

In the event any of the enrollees fail to pass the swimming test, the fee will be refunded. During the course, there will be open water sessions at Balmorhea and at Possum Kingdom.

Instructors will be Dr. J. P. Darby, Dr. Floyd Mays, Roger Brown, Bill Towery, Lt. Allen Miller and Mrs. Jim Nelson.

Opening lead: Jack of ♠ South obtained extra mileage out of the trump suit in his six heart contract. By cashing out the hearts at the key stage of the deal, he compelled West to make a fatal discard.

West opened the jack of spades, the three was played from dummy, East covered with the queen and South won the trick with the king.

The ace of hearts was cashed, followed by a small heart to the nine, to draw the adverse trumps which divided evenly. Next came the three top diamonds—South discarding a spade on the third round. If the suit were divided no worse than four-two, it was declarer's intention to ruff out a diamond and thereby establish dummy's long card for his 12th trick.

When West showed out on the second diamond lead, South was obliged to revise his plans. He was convinced from the vulnerable one spade overcall that West held the ace of clubs, and that leading up to the king was a hopeless course. However, with his opponent marked for length in spades it might become difficult for him to retain all of his assets, if he were subjected to the pressure of making several discards.

South overtook dummy's queen of hearts with the king and proceeded to run the entire suit. West, who had discarded two spades on the second and third diamonds, was obliged to make four more discards as the hearts were led. He was able to give up one more spade and the eight and nine of clubs without inconvenience.

On the last heart, West was down to the ten-nine of spades and the ace-queen of clubs, while dummy held the ace-four of spades and the seven-deuce of clubs. In order to protect the spade suit, West was obliged to shed the queen of clubs, so South discarded North's four of spades. The six of clubs was led and West played the ace. Dummy won the spade return and declarer's king of clubs took the fulfilling trick.

Unmanned Cosmos Hurled Into Orbit

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union Wednesday launched its second unmanned Cosmos satellite in three days but did not specify its mission.

The new Cosmos was hurled into a cigar-shaped orbit, an official announcement said, and is whirling around the globe every 102.5 minutes at an inclination of 81.9 degrees to the equator. It said the satellite was designed to carry out "further space research."

The Cosmos series includes satellites that scout the weather, prepare for manned launchings, conduct radiation studies and—say Western experts—spy on foreign installations.

Lions Await Juggernaut

Don Turner took the wraps off the Big Spring High School stage band Wednesday for the Downtown Lions Club, and the club gave the new unit a rousing ovation.

Members for the stag unit must come from those who are in both the marching and the concert bands. There are 25 pieces, featuring the brass and reeds and percussion, but the band also has an electric guitar, xylophone, bass fiddle and piano.

Soloists included Steve Hughes, alto sax; Keith Gum, Kent Fish and Johnny Games, trombone; and David Bentley, guitar. The band ripped off such numbers as "When My Baby Smiles at Me," "Stella by Starlight" and "More Blues."

Dr. Marshall Cauley, district deputy governor, reported at a zone meeting in Stanton Tuesday evening and said that the six clubs in this zone had volunteered a net increase of 20 members during October. Jim Butler, membership chairman, challenged the club to come up with that number by itself. October's enlistment will honor Jorge Bird, San Juan, Puerto Rico, president of Lions International.

In introducing the band, Turner said its purpose was to give students a chance to play all kinds of music. F. D. (Red) Williams was in charge of the program.

56 Bills Worth Million Missing

NEW YORK (AP) — Worldwide alerts have been flashed that negotiable U.S. Treasury bills worth a total of $1,552,000 are missing from the New York investment concern of Hayden Stone Inc.

Banks, trust companies and securities dealers have been notified to be on the lookout for the 56 bills, which resemble stock certificates. Hayden Stone has put a stop order on the bills.

New York City police revealed the loss Wednesday. Hayden Stone had given the denominations and serial numbers of the bills to the police and the FBI on Tuesday. The company said it is fully insured for the loss.

Cunningham Hit In Vietnam

Mrs. Franklin McDonald, 2506 Central Drive, has received word that her son, B.M. 3 Jimmy Cunningham, was wounded Sept. 4 in action while in naval support activity at Da Nang. On river patrol, he was hit by shrapnel in the back and legs, but Mrs. McDonald said she did not think his wounds were unduly serious. Boatswain Mate Cunningham was removed to a base hospital to convalesce.

A 1962 graduate of Toyah High School, he worked here for A. G. Mitchell in farming and operating the Playland, before he entered the U.S. Navy four years ago. He is due to be home on leave around Nov. 1.

Dear Abby

Matter Of Appearance

DEAR ABBY: A kid named Allen came over to see me because my parents think I'm too young to date. I'm 14, but am very mature for my age. Well, when my father met Allen he told me he didn't want to see him around again unless he had a shave and a haircut. It so happens that Allen plays with a band and he HAS to wear his hair like that. But I told him what my father said anyway, and about that time the band broke up, so Allen got his hair cut.

Now, my father says he doesn't like Allen because he never stands up when an older person comes into the room, and he doesn't look clean, and he dresses like a freak, and blah, blah, blah, etc. My father is just looking for things to pick at because he doesn't like him.

How can I get my father to realize that the way a guy looks is none of HIS business. Allen is a good kid and I like him. Please help me.

LIKES ALLEN

DEAR LIKES: The way a "guy" looks may be none of your father's business, but the kind of fellows who call on his 14-year-old daughter is probably the most important business a father has.

A person's appearance is a fairly reliable index to his attitudes, habits, morals, and character. Trust your father's judgment in these matters. You won't regret it.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: "NERVOUS AND AFRAID'S" letter brought back memories of those terrible days when I, too, was nervous and afraid. Nervous about every new situation, and afraid to face people. I had doubts about my sanity, but wouldn't admit that I needed psychiatric help because I thought I might bring "shame" on my family. Finally I had to be committed to a psychiatric hospital.

It was only for a short time, but during my stay there every shameful act, every reason for guilt feelings that haunted me was brought out into the open, and I was cleansed and reborn again. This I did with the help of a psychiatrist. Later I received help from my clergyman (a rabbi) and a social worker.

Let no one try to tell one who suffers from deep depressions that "it is all in her head." It is very real. There is nothing imaginary about a mental illness. Denying it only prolongs the agony and delays the cure which comes from psychiatric treatment. So tell "NERVOUS AND AFRAID" that she must get help. She owes it to herself, her husband, and her children.

Sincerely, "BEEN THERE"

* * *

DEAR ABBY: If I had read that letter signed "NERVOUS AND AFRAID" four years ago, I might be well today. I was exactly like the person who wrote that letter. I was so afraid to face people I couldn't even go into a store! I felt so alone.

I wouldn't admit to myself that I was having a nervous breakdown because I was afraid I would be "sent away." It's nothing like that. I am seeing a psychiatrist and am living at home with my family. My doctor said if I had come to him earlier it wouldn't take so long to cure me.

Too bad I didn't have the luck to see a letter like that four years ago, Abby. Just knowing there was one more person in the world with a problem like mine would have helped a lot.
