Six States Feel Biting Sting Of "Old Man Winter"

Mercury Falls Rapidly; Snow Blocks Traffic

Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Montana, Nebraska, Wyoming Feel Cold Wave; Fog Is Reported Heavy

To Continue Today

Coldest Temperatures Recorded At Sheridan With 24 And Half Foot Of Snow; Santa Fe Reports Fall

(By The Associated Press)

DENVER, Oct. 18.—Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Montana, Nebraska and Wyoming felt the sting of winter today.

The entire southern portion of Wyoming was shrouded in a heavy impenetrable fog that crippled air transportation. Snow and freezing temperatures were general in Wyoming. The first snow of the season fell at Santa Fe, N. M., today and there was a light snow flurry in Denver this afternoon.

Air Traffic Halted

Transcontinental air traffic was halted in Wyoming, the ships being ordered grounded at Salt Lake City and Rock Springs.

Central and northeastern Wyoming was visited by heavy precipitation last night and snow blew into that section today. There were nine inches of snow at Sheridan and Lander this morning and a heavy fall swept over the Yellowstone region.

At Miles City, Mont., the snow depth had reached five inches this morning.

Temperatures Drop

Coldest temperatures of the day were recorded at Sheridan, with 24 above zero, and 26 at Lander.

Cold weather will continue tomorrow in New Mexico, the United States weather bureau said.

The west and central sections of Nebraska were hit by snow and a rain that turned quickly to snow, visited the eastern section of that state. There was six inches of snow at Cedar City, Utah.

Vice Raids Are Staged In City

Both men and women were falling into the law's net at small hotels here early this morning as city and county officers began a series of sweeping vice raids.

Three one-half gallons of whisky were found on the roof of an adjoining building, just outside a hotel window.

Officers at 1 o'clock this morning had no definite count on the number of persons arrested and placed in county jail. At that hour the raids were continuing. It was not until about midnight that the officers began scouring the downtown section.

GUNMEN LOOT BANK

AMBOY, Minn., Oct. 18 (AP)—Four young gunmen, whose leader examined the cash book, robbed the First National bank of $1,892 today. After gathering $500, the leader told Assistant Cashier Herbert Dredge, "you've got more than this," and forced him to open a safe.

Troubles Ended After Trapping

(By The Associated Press)

KINSTON, N. C., Oct. 18. — The troubles of Malachi Berry—so far as rats killing his chickens are concerned—are over.

Rats threatened to exterminate the flock so Berry set a trap. On successive nights he caught:

The family cat.
A stray dog.
A neighbor's cat.
A goose out after hours.
The neighbor's cat again.

Berry threw the trap in a corner of the barn and the next night rats killed the rest of his chickens.

Ordinance On Livestock In City Defeated

Special Zoning Election Held Here Tuesday Draws Total Of 1,204 Voters; Two-To-One Majority Given

"Old Bossy" was upheld by more than a two-to-one majority of Lubbock persons voting in the special election Tuesday. The vote was 812 against the livestock ordinance and 392 for it.

Although the ordinance, had it been upheld, would have barred keeping of cows, calves, hogs, pigs, sheep, goats, mules, horses and burros in a defined zone, most of the opposition was raised by those in sympathy with keeping of cows.

Total Vote Is 1,204

Only about 50 per cent of Lubbock's voting strength was represented by the total vote of 1,204.

The ordinance was passed as an emergency September 22 by City commission. At a later meeting of the commission it was decided to put the adoption or repeal of the measure to the voters. Had it been adopted it would have become effective April 1, 1933.

At the time the ordinance was passed by the commission it was pointed out that an emergency had arisen because "the practice of keeping, grazing, staking, and allowing various kind of livestock mentioned has increased to the extent that the unsanitary conditions in certain parts of the area have become intolerable, and the public health is jeopardized."

References To Al Smith Are Greeted With Applause By Listeners; Major Phases Of Program Are Related

(By The Associated Press)

ABOARD ROOSEVELT SPECIAL, Oct. 18.—Turning from a tumultous welcome today at Rochester where he urged several thousand persons to support the state Democratic ticket in November, Franklin D. Roosevelt moved to Buffalo to raise his voice again in behalf of the state ticket before crossing into Pennsylvania to carry his presidential fight into the farm belt again.

In his first speech of his second major campaign trip, the Democratic candidate devoted virtually all of his attention to telling Rochester citizens what he considered the Democratic party had achieved in the state during the last four years.

Applause Is Given

As he appeared on the platform in the same hall where he was nominated for the governorship in 1928, Mr. Roosevelt had to wait while the structure echoed with applause for several minutes.

As he began his speech, Gov. Roosevelt referred several times to Alfred E. Smith—once as "my old friend Al Smith"—and each time it brought resounding cheers.

The governor related the various measures he said the Democrats had been responsible for enacting, nacing the workmen's compensa-

Jim Ferguson Rushes An Apology To Citizens Of Webb County As Charge Of Fraud Brings Request For Proof

(By The Associated Press)

LAREDO, Oct. 18.—James E. Ferguson today withdrew his allegation of election fraud in Webb county and John A. Valls, district attorney, cancelled a subpoena commanding him to reveal to the Mexican border county grand jury information on which he based the charges.

The former governor had claimed, in answer to a suit filed by Gov. R. S. Sterling, which asserted there had been irregularities in the Aug. 27 run-off Democratic primary, that more than 900 illegal ballots had been cast in this county.

Today he sent a telegram to Valls in which he said he had been misinformed concerning the voters here and expressed regret for the "occurrence which has brought about this unpleasant situation.

"I have the kindliest feelings and friendship for the people of your section," Ferguson said. "I believe the election in Webb county was fairly and legally

Thousands Join In Street Fighting; Scores Injured

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The police intercepted a rush on parliament square by an organized army of several thousand jobless men today and a bloody riot ensued.

The disorder occurred in the poorer class Lambeth section just across the Thames from the historic house of parliament where the national government had reassembled.

Scores Are Injured

Police were successful in turning back the demonstrators but not until six or seven hours of battling in hand to hand fashion. Then came looting by rowdy youths. When order was restored around 11 p. m., scores had been injured, at least 20 of them seriously.

The demonstration began late in the afternoon when several thousand unemployed began to march toward the parliament building from various thoroughfares on the south side of the Thames. Authorities said the men had been marshalled by leaders of the communistic national unemployed workers organization.

Reserves Are Called

Reserves were called and all approaches to parliament square were carefully barred. The demonstrators were permitted to mass in front of the new London county council hall, which is just across Westminster bridge from parliament. The start of the demonstration was peaceful.

Then came a rush for Westminster bridgehead, a prelude to a dash

Drive Against Criminals Gets Underway As Aroused Populace Hears A Subdued Battle Chant

Reward Of $500 Offered For Arrest And Final Conviction Of Slayer Of Robert Tharp; George Bean Named Chairman Of Organization; Mullican Appeals For Law Enforcement

GOLD for informers and lead for criminals! That was the subdued battle song sounded last night by an estimated 1,200 Lubbock county citizens who attended a mass meeting here and, after passing a resolution for posting of rewards, carried to an active stage a movement to obtain volunteer subscriptions to a bounty pot.

The Lubbock County Bar association called the meeting, which was in the First Baptist church auditorium, where George R. Bean, veteran Lubbock attorney subsequently elected chairman, called the assembly to order at 7:45 o'clock as temporary chairman.

Resolution Is Passed By Assembly

A resolution, presented by Judge Clark M. Mullican, submitted as a motion by John L. Ratliff, seconded by W. A. Myrick, sr., and passed by the assembly without a dissenting vote was

"Resolved, that it is the sense of this meeting that a committeee be appointed here and now by the presiding officer of this assembly to solicit subscriptions to a fund, to be used for the following purposes:

"To pay a reward of $500 for information resulting in the arrest and final conviction of the slayer of Robert Tharp; and

In Effect For 12 Months

"To pay a reward of $500 for information resulting in the arrest and conviction of each person who shall, in Lubbock county, during the twelve months next after this date, kill or wound any person while engaged in the commission of robbery or while attempting to escape therefrom."

The words "or wound," in the third paragraph were added, as proposed by Alfred Scott, before the resolution in its entirety was voted upon.

A committee, appointed by Mr. Bean as directed by the assembly, will meet at 10 o'clock this morning at the courthouse to lay plans for solicitation of subscription moneys for rewards for the slayer of a 24-year-old assistant manager of a grocery store here, who died Monday after being shot Saturday by a holdup man, and for the killing or wounding of other robbers caught in the act. John L. Ratliff, chairman, announced the committee meeting at last night's mass gathering. Other members of the committee are Roy Furr, M-System stores manager, for whom the latest gun victim here worked; J. H. Brewer of Slaton, Mrs. N. L. Peters, and R. S. Williams.

M-System Posts Reward

Judge Mullican said the M-System stores, through Mr. Furr, had announced an intention of posting $250 reward to gain the capture and conviction of Tharp's slayer. Mayor J. J. Clements subsequently told the assembly the City would post $250 for use as bounty in the anti-crime drive, as proposed in the resolution. The amount to be asked of the citizenry, it appeared last night, would be $500, unless more than one case occurred to which the second mentioned reward applied.

Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, it was announced last night, said he would donate $100. Mr. Bean started the public pledging by promising $10.

A charge of aggravated assault with a motor vehicle was filed in county court yesterday against O. L. Baisden, purportedly driver of a truck which hit a wagon driven by R. N. Sullivan late Monday at Wolfforth.

Hundreds Pay Last Tribute To Bob Tharp

"Let Us Not Forget With Tomorrow," Pastor Admonishes In Tribute; Crime Comments Made In Rites

"Let us not forget with tomorrow." This admonition was voiced by Dr. C. A. Bickley Tuesday afternoon, in commending lawyers and others on opening a war on crime, as he conducted funeral services for Robert Tharp, 25, who was fatally wounded in a grocery store holdup Saturday evening.

Comments on "a crime that has stirred not only this city but the entire South Plains" were made by Dr. Bickley, presiding elder of the Lubbock Methodist Episcopal district. Assisted by three other Methodist ministers, he conducted the services at First Methodist church here. Hundreds of people from Lubbock and the surrounding territory filled the church auditorium and went to Memorial Park cemetery where burial services were held by Bynum-Stahler Funeral home.

Crisis Of Depression Passed During Summer, Survey Shows

Historic Tokay Wine Harvest Gets Underway

(By The Associated Press)

TOKAY, Hungary, Oct. 18. — The historic Tokay wine harvest festival was in full swing in villages of this region today.

Growers of the famous Tokay wines, which legend relates "make the dumb speak and even diplomats tell the truth," have been scraping depths of an unprecedented depression for more than a year. But the word has passed around that wine imports into the United States may be permitted soon and this has inspired great enthusiasm in this week's celebration.

In some places wine has been literally cheaper than water, with fire departments using barrels of it carelessly for extinguishing blazes where water is scarce.

Standard Statistics Co. Has Composite Expression Given By Business Concerns Over United States

NEW YORK, Oct. 18—Standard Statistics Co. presents as a composite expression of opinion of 530 representative business concerns throughout the United States the belief that "the crisis of the depression and the low point of business activity were passed early last summer."

The result of an extensive field survey by the statistical organization's workers, to be published tomorrow, however, sounds a note of conservatism in also pointing out it was found to be the concensus that "all that can reasonably be expected for the remainder of 1932 and for the full year 1933 is very gradual improvement."

Sale Of Demo Medallions Is Meeting With Hearty Response In Local Area

"THE sale of Roosevelt-Garner medallions has met with a hearty response from the people of this county", states Mrs. W. O. Stevens, co-chairman of the Lubbock county Democratic drive for the presidential election.

"The proceeds of the sale, as is generally known," she explains, "goes to the national Democratic headquarters for the purpose of carrying on the campaign to elect Franklin D. Roosevelt and our own John Nance Garner to office on November 8."

Mrs. R. N. Chitwood, assistant dean of women at Texas Technological college, has been selected recently as chairman of the Tech unit in the drive. Mrs. R. A. Baldwin, precinct chairman in Slaton, reports, according to Mrs. Stevens, a successful campaign in her territory.

"More important than the medallion sale", adds Mrs. Stevens, "is that every woman in Lubbock county go to the polls on election day and support the candidates."

The medallions are being sold at the local banks, for one dollar each, the co-chairman said.

PRAYER MEETING TONIGHT

Four Young Women Entertain With Formal Dinner Party For Society

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

"WHEN you are listing your pet peeves, include mine some day," one woman telephoned this angler last week. And her particular trouble concerned the people who have alibis.

She had been telephoning members of an organization, it seems, about a meeting. And the alibis, which she recognized as nothing more than hollow excuses, were disgusting.

This isn't the first person who has felt that genuine reasons would be much better. There are a few people in the world who are honest enough to tell the reason why they do not do things. Often this is so bluntly done that it is offensive. There are others who tell the truth and do it in a pleasant sort of way. And this is so much better than a hollow excuse that is easily recognizable as such.

And that peeve is mine, too. In clubs that attend luncheons and dinners, at banquets and other occasions there are always people who reserve plates and then do not show up for the occasion. People of this type do not spend all the money, either. There are those who fail to appear on programs, who do not keep appointments or do the other things that promise and then offer no alibi.

OUR PROBLEM

REFUSING to do things for people is one of the most unpleasant tasks that comes to this desk. For, ordinarily, it seems that no explanation is adequate.

It is so hard, for instance, to make a person understand that the refusal comes with it no personal feelings. There are some things that we cannot do because of the policies of this particular paper. There are other reasons why some things cannot be run according to requests.

The postal laws, for instance, prohibit any stories concerning raffles. Yet, occasionally, some church or school society raffles off a quilt and seeks advertising for the scheme through the newspaper. We value our mailing rights, naturally, more than the story. There are libel laws in Texas that are particularly stringent.

Then, in addition to these things, this newspaper, in common with all others, has a set of policies. There are some things that we do not do simply because our policies dictate otherwise and these rules have not been formulated without reason.

Some of the things seem slight enough. There is a rule in this department, for instance, that the paper does not extend invitations. We are glad to publish stories about events. We are glad to state that the functions are public or for particular groups. We will quote officials or others in saying that the affair is for specific or general groups but the newspaper and its staff do not extend invitations, unless they are the sponsors. When we have a cooking school, we invite our readers, but when someone else has the school we do not send out the invitation.

This seems simple enough yet we sometimes have difficulty in explaining it satisfactorily to women.

There is another request that is made frequently and, in spite of our explanations, it is not always understood. We are asked to mention that "an attractive program" will be given, that "an interesting talk" will be made, or that the business meeting is important. Since these statements are so general, we are not eager to make them, however, we are glad to give a basis for them. We suggest, for instance, that numbers on the program be detailed, that the speaker and his topic go into the writeup or that the nature of the "important" business be included, letting the reader judge for himself whether or not the program is "interesting," "attractive" or "important."

We do not refuse the requests to be stubborn. We honestly believe that our paper is better if we follow some of the tested policies in publishing stories.

College Cowboys To Mix It With Cussed Bronchos

An annual Texas Tech Aggie rodeo, enlivened by the boisterous exploits of student cowboys and lent impressiveness by the pageantry of a coronation, will be conducted Friday afternoon and night at the college.

Student broncho "busters" have agreed to match their wits, skill, and luck against the primitive cussedness of miseducated broncs and the bellowing rage of wild steers in the afternoon events. There will be a lively program of races and roping contests. In late afternoon a barbecue will be served free to the public.

Fun In Abundance

Floodlights will be trained on the arena in the evening. Trick roping will be demonstrated by an expert, Billy Lewis, student, of Sweetwater.

There will be "something doing every minute," the students say, with clowns to beguile the audience when interest in other acts flags. One clown, Tom Easly, is scheduled to hitch a wild steer to a chariot and take a ride. Miss Sue Barton of San Angelo, a junior home economics student, will be declared Queen of the Rodeo in a coronation ceremony directed by Misses Johnnye Gilkerson and Zella Riegel, Tech faculty members.

The evening program will close with a scene reminiscent of pioneer days. Crowds will gather around friendly campfires for a chuck wagon feed and a program of cowboy songs and ballads.

Program Is Given

The afternoon program, beginning at 2:30 o'clock, will be as follows: wild cow milching; wild cow relay; bell calf roping; bronch riding; steer riding; potato race; quick change relay race.

The "wild cow relay race" is a new stunt, the students explain. It requires three men to a team. Each man must saddle his cow, ride her across a goal line, race back to help his team. In the bell calf roping act there will be a calf to each contestant and one extra calf with a bell on. The cowboy roping and tying his calf, and then the bell calf, first, will be winner.

Xen Brown, son of the late Frank V. (Leather Hat) Brown, is furnishing broncs that have not been corralled in over a year. Dick Perrin, aggie student from Arizona who rode in the rodeo last year, Al Simmons, architecture student from Santa Anna and rodeo rider, and E. G. Caudle of Big Lake have promised to ride "anything that's trotted out."

The potato race will be ridden on horses and is a contest between seniors and faculty members of the school of agriculture.

To Be Homecoming

The rodeo is the official Aggie homecoming occasion. The managing cowboys, in college to learn the science of farming and ranching, say they hope to raise funds from concessions and gate receipts to send their stock judging team to livestock shows at Chicago, and Wichita, Kan., and Kansas City, Mo. A charge of thirty-five cents for each adult admitted to either afternoon or evening performances is to be levied. The barbecue to be served at 6 o'clock is free to the public.

Student officials of the rodeo are: Curtis Williams, manager; Buford Browning, assistant manager; Gerald Gordon, publicity manager; and Ben Jenkins, secretary-treasurer. All are senior agriculture students.

Mrs. Ralph Moore, 1618 19th street, is at the Lubbock sanitarium following an operation performed there Tuesday.

Harley Sadler Is To Be In Lubbock

Harley Sadler's stock show company will be in Lubbock again next week under the auspices, this time, of the Lubbock Fire department. The show, according to the advanceman of the company, is "bigger and better" with new vaudeville and Eddie See's famous ten piece orchestra.

The opening play will be "Kempy, or "The Princess and the Plumber," with Bart Couch as the plumber and Mrs. "Billie" Sadler as the princess. Sadler portrays the irritable old "Dad", a comedy part. "Ruton's Educated Alley-Dogs" is a feature of the vaudeville section. Then tent will be located at the corner of Eighth street and Avenue H.

Tech Freshmen And Reserves Play Free Game Tonight

Matadors Off Tomorrow For Denver Scrap

Public Invited To Tech Field At 8 O'Clock Tonight For A Regulation Game; Freshmen Plan To "Take" Reserves

To keep the home fires burning while plans are made to invade northern regions for an intersectional game, the Texas Tech Matador reserves will clash with the Tech Picadors, Coach Del Morgan's high-strung freshman crew, tonight at 8 o'clock in a regulation combat at the Tech field.

The Matadors, first and second stringers, will workout this afternoon as usual, their final practice before they entrain tomorrow afternoon for Denver where they meet the Colorado School of Mines Saturday afternoon. It is the first intersectional game of the season, and precedes by six days the second intersectional game. For the latter, the Notre Dame "B" team opposes the Matadors here. The game is set for Friday night, October 28.

Free Gate Tonight.

Tonight's game is free. With that exception, it will bear all the earmarks of a real football game between two fighting teams. There is somewhat of a feud between the freshmen and reserves. Twice they have clashed before, and the reserves have won by slight margins. The Picadors, hepped up over their 46 to 0 victory at Albuquerque last Saturday at the expense of the University of New Mexico yearlings, contend that tonight is their night, and for all the reserves can do about it, they might as well declare a forfeit.

If you have not seen the freshmen in action this season, particularly against the reserves, you have missed something. Toughened by constant scrimmaging against the Matador regulars, the fish are nobody's green pastures, and, take it from the coaches, there'll be plenty of "rockin' and sockin'" tonight at Matador Field.

About 22 men, or two complete teams, will make the trip to Denver. There has been no announcement of the personnel of the traveling club. Coaches Pete Cawthon and Dutchey Smith said early this week that the two teams showing up best after today's workout would be rewarded with the trip north.

As far as the game itself is concerned, Tech will be an overwhelming favorite to win. Last year the teams played on the local grid, the Matadors winning by a margin of seven touchdowns.

Fear Reserve Strength

The only fear Cawthon holds for his team is the lack of reserves. Accustomed to sending in 25 to 50 men in each conflict, the Matador mentor will have only two teams at his disposal. Residing just outside the city limits of Denver, the Miners will have their entire squad on hand, and a steady barrage of fresh players may have its effect on the traveling Matadors.

Yesterday's workout, while not one of the toughest of the season by any means, dealt with fundamentals, pass defense and a few offensive pushes. Care was taken that no injuries should occur. At present, with the exception of a few minor bruises and slashes, the squad is in sound physical condition.

Razorbacks To Meet Louisiana State In Non-Title Contest

FAYETTEVILLE, Oct. 18. (AP)—The University of Arkansas football squad was put through a long drill in fundamentals today and wound up practice with a brisk scrimmage in preparation for the Louisiana State game at Shreveport Saturday.

Head Coach Thomsen expressed satisfaction with improvement shown by the sophomores who played against Baylor last week and announced that seven of them would start this week's game, which will be the teams' twenty-seventh annual engagement.

Minor League Clubs Fail To Take Advantage Of Draft

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 18. (AP)—The second period of the annual minor league draft, assigned to class A leagues, has passed without transfer of any players, it was announced today by John H. Farrel of the National Association. Three Class A leagues, the Southern, Texas and Western, failed to make selection of players from the B, C, and D circuits. Class AA leagues likewise passed up the opportunity to draft during the preceding week.

Slaton Tigers To Play Westerners

Game To Be Played Tomorrow Night At Tech Field

Coach Paul Wright's Slaton High school Tigers, leading contenders for all the Class B football honors the Texas Interscholastic league offers this season, will invade Lubbock tomorrow for the express purpose of hanging another defeat on the Lubbock High school Westerners.

The Lubbock-Slaton gridiron feud will be resumed at Matador Field Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Reports from Slaton have it that the township is shutting up shop early and coming to Lubbock en masse to see the Tigers do a good job of it.

Originally scheduled as a Class A, championship game, the contest reverts back to pre-1931 days with no championship pending the outcome but with plenty of competition featuring the actual conflict. Slaton withdrew from the Class A circle after an unsatisfactory season last year, their first in the big family.

Tigers Beat Plainview

Already Slaton has bowled over a Class A team. Plainview, whose gridsters have been touted as potential champs but who have failed to show much sign of winning, lost a shut-out game to Slaton early in the season. Since then the Tigers have had things very much their own way with one exception. Last week they toppled to the Snyder Tigers, another strong Class B outfit over which Lubbock had trouble in winning.

Losers to Sweetwater and Abilene on successive weekends, the Westerners have lost much of the prestige gained last year when they went through the district to win their first flag and followed it up with a bi-district championship. With nine of the regulars gone by graduation, the team has been struggling along handicapped by inexperience and top-heavy opponents. For the first time this season, however, they are favorites to win tomorrow night's game.

First Royal Wedding Staged In Germany In Years Ready

COBURG, Germany, Oct. 18 (AP)—Germany's first royal wedding since it became a republic will be celebrated here tomorrow and Thursday on the occasion of the civil and religious ceremonies uniting the beautiful Princess Sybille of Saze-Coburg and Gustalf Oscar, eldest son of the Swedish crown prince.

Royalty and nobility of Scandinavia, Germany, Great Britain, Bulgaria and Russia were gathering tonight in this ancient city for the festivities. Wedding presents were on display and a reception at which famous Coburg sausages and beer were served was held at Castle Callenberg.

Mustangs Back To Battle Centenary

DALLAS, Oct. 18. (AP)—Coach Ray Morrison and his Southern Methodist Mustangs returned from New York today where Saturday they defeated Syracuse University, 16 to 6. Tired after the long train ride but willing to carry on, the Mustangs went from the Union station to the Southern Methodist practice field where for two hours they engaged in routine practice. John Burleson, lineman, and Whitey Baccus, halfback, were nursing minor injuries but will be ready for the Mustangs game here Saturday night against Centenary college.

In explaining why this club used only a few passes against Syracuse after he had announced a return to the forward passing game, Morrison said it was not necessary because his backs gained consistently through the Syracuse front wall. Morrison plans to combat the Centenary team with passes Saturday night.

FORT WORTH, Oct. 18. (AP)—Expecting an easy game with Austin College here Saturday, the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs spent the majority of this afternoon's workout in routine drills.

Several of the regulars were not present, spending the afternoon on scholastic work. Foster Howell was among the missing because of a sprained wrist sustained in the A. & M. game.

Slayer Says He Fired Second Shot At Request Of Victim

MANTORVILLE, Minn., Oct. 18 (AP)—A man who confessed a slaying was quoted by officers today as saying he fired a second shot at the request of his victim, critically wounded by the first.

County officers said Raymond Norton, of Byron, in a signed confession asserted he was prowling for alcohol on a farm when Carl Koop, Pine Island farmer, found him 11 days ago.

Norton said he shot, intending to scare Koop, but that the latter was wounded. He fired a second time, his confession said "because Koop wanted me to shoot him again so he could be put out of suffering."

McKeever Of Dodgers Believes Trades In Sight To Make His Team Strongest; Cubs, Giants And Braves Looking

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Even though all hands deny that the Braves, Cubs, Giants and Reds already have hooked up in one of the biggest of all baseball trades, managers all over the National League are tugging at the trunks of rival clubs like thieves in an apple orchard. Before long the fruit may fairly rain down.

There seems to be little foundation at the moment for Boston reports that Wally Berger, clubbing center fielder, and Babe Herman of the Reds ultimately will land here with the Giants to team with Mel Ott in one of the major league's outstanding outfields, with Kiki Cuyler and Gabby Hartnett winding up with the Braves, Freddy Lindstrom and Santy Hogan with the Cubs, and Pat Malone at Cincinnati.

But—Bill Veeck, president of the Cubs, is reported heading east with designs on the outstanding talent of the Giants, Dodgers, Braves and Phillies.

Max Carey, manager of the Robins, is perched in full view of Sam Breadon in St. Louis, pleading his case for one of the Cardinals' three first basemen.

Bill McKechnie of the Braves, is in Boston, eager and willing to talk trade.

Billy Terry, bowing to the adulation o fhome crowds at a private celebration, has one ear cocked for long distance calls from the Giant office in New York, where he left a list of what he wants, and what he will give.

Jimmy Foxx Is Choice For American League's Leader

Maryland Mauler Of Philly Named As Most Valuable

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. — Jimmy Foxx, the Maryland mauler and new home run king of the major leagues, is the choice of the experts as the American League's most valuable player for the 1932 campaign.

The first baseman of the Philadelphia Athletics, by polling 75 points out of a maximum of 80 in the vote conducted by a committee of the Baseball Writers' association of America, beat his New York rival, Larruping Lou Gehrig by a decisive margin. Gehrig, winner in 1927 and now runner-up for the third successive year, received 55 points.

Chuck Klein Elected

The selection of Foxx makes the most valuable player contest an all-Philadelphia affair this year. Chuck Klein, Phillie outfield slugger, already has been designated as the National League's outstanding star of the year, in preference to Lon Warneke of the Cubs and Lefty O'Doul of the Dodgers. The vote in both contests was made public by J. Roy Stockton of St. Louis, chairman of the selection committee in each league.

Foxx is the third of Connie Mack's outstanding stars to gain this individual distinction within the past five years. Mickey Cochrane won the official league award in 1928. Bob Grove was the choice last year of the writers' association, which has taken over the job of selection since the formal awards were abolished by the National and American leagues.

Alexander Leads Hitting

Although nosed out within the last week for the batting championship by Dale Alexander of the Red Sox, Foxx enjoyed his greatest year despite the slump of the A's as a team. The big first sacker, with 58 home runs, set a new major league record for right-handed batsmen and came the closest of anyone to touching Babe Ruth's high mark of 60. Foxx also lead both leagues in runs driven in, with 167, and wound up with a batting percentage of .364.

Most Valuable

JIMMY FOXX

The result of the American League poll put a premium on slugging. Foxx, Gehrig, Heinie Manush of Washington and Earl Averill of Cleveland finished in the top four places, in order, with Lefty Gomez, Yankees southpaw pitcher, fifth. Joe Cronin new Washington manager who won the contest in 1930, and Babe Ruth, winner in 1923, were tied for sixth place.

Warren Corkan, Maryland amateur golf champion, uses a mashie he has played with constantly for 25 years.

Longhorn Camp Pessimistic Over Rice Game Saturday

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (AP)—That the University of Texas Longhorns have only an outside chance for victory over the Rice Owls at Houston Saturday was the gloomy report handed Coach Clyde Littlefield by Assistant Coach C. J. Alderson who scouted the Owls in their game against the Loyola last Saturday.

After the Longhorn squad heard the scout's verdict, smiles were replaced with scowls and the squad took the field in an ugly mood, which presaged a red-hot battle when they meet the featherd tribe hed-on at Houston aSturday.

Taking no chances on injuries, the Steer mentor banned scrimmages for the week and sent his charges through stiff signal drills, perfection of a better pass defense and dummy scrimmage.

Texas Aggies Work Against Pass Offense; Play Baylor

COLLEGE STATION, Oct 18 (AP)—The Texas Aggies practiced pass defense today, fearing that the Baylor Bears would resort to a passing game Saturday.

Peck Merka, a tackle, brought the injured list of Aggie lineman to five today, when it was discovered that he had twisted a knee in the Texas Christian game last Saturday. At first it was thought to have been only a bruise.

DODGERS SIGN MUNGO

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers, apparently determined to get their 1933 baseball cast lined up early, today announced the signing of Van Lingle Mungo, sensational young pitcher. Terms were not announced. He comes from Pageland, S. C.

Sir George Williams was the founder of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The Public's Own Problem

PUBLIC indignation against crime has been the order of the day in Lubbock ever since last Saturday night. The city is aroused and people everywhere are demanding vaguely that "something be done about it."

The Bar association very commendably announced its attitude as being opposed to the criminal element.

A public mass meeting has been held and many expressions have been heard.

Law enforcement officers have gone out determined to round up and sternly prosecute the undesirables making this city the scene of their activities.

All of these things are very fine indeed, because they indicate that Lubbock, momentarily at least, has become awakened to a very unhealthy state of affairs.

But the question is: How long will it last?

Is the citizenship ready for the long pull essential to routing crime in this connection? Or will public lethargy again overtake us and is the present feeling only a 'flash in the pan'?

Will the outraged gentlemen of the bar remain adamant in their decision and will they further refuse to call upon all the legal loopholes and all the red tape which binds our law enforcement in future efforts to turn back upon this city those who shoot and rob, maim and kill in the executions of their lawlessness?

And will our officers of both city and county really, as their leaders have commanded, "give the criminal element hell and bring 'em in"?

Three or four days or a week of indignation is not enough.

A few short hours of public rage is not enough.

And the burden of carrying the crime war to a successful finish here is not upon the lawyers or the officers, but instead is upon the shoulders of the rank and file of citizens whose opinions and determination will guide the courts, the officers and the bar.

John Public, in this as in all other instances, sits as judge and jury in the trial of crime in this community.

And if John Public wants the job done it will be done; if he goes back into his hole of indifference we may expect, sooner or later, a recurrence of this most recent hijacking and brutal murder.

It has been no secret among a large number of Lubbock citizens that the criminal element has been more or less organized here for the past several years. It has been no secret that the criminal element has been growing in both strength and numbers and that officialdom has not been able to cope with crime.

Everyone knows that juries have not been generally exacting and that every legal loophole under the sun has been employed for the protection of the law breaker. And everyone knows that too many crimes have been committed without a semblance of detection.

Now the question is, what does the public expect done to improve conditions?

To what length will the law abiding citizens aid and abet officers, courts and juries—both morally and physically —in the long fight to give honest people the protection which should be theirs?

The proposition is strictly up to that great majority of citizens who obey the law, who believe in law enforcement and who seek the protection which, under the constitution, is guaranteed society.

The citizenship of Lubbock is judge and jury.

What will be the verdict when the evidence is in?

STILL A SENSIBLE IDEA

Several months ago, when so many people were logically demanding that public expenditures be decreased, a hue and cry arose for a decrease in the size of the police force and in the expenditures covering that department.

That came even when Lubbock was in the midst of one of its minor, yet nevertheless disturbing crime waves.

The Morning Avalanche, at that time, publically opposed a slash in the police department, suggesting instead that it be strengthened in the best interests of the people.

At that very time, this newspaper voiced a suggestion which it still contends is sensible.

That is, employ a good, experienced detective to head under-cover work for the police department and employ a good, experienced investigator for the district attorney's office.

Lubbock has become a Mecca for petty thieves, for burglars, for knob knockers and for hijackers, simply because this city has offered to that ilk ridiculously 'easy pickings'. Lubbock will continue to be such a 'soft spot' until our public protection is strengthened to the extent that public life and property may be sufficiently guarded.

Oh, yes. It will cost some money — some tax money.

But the cost won't total a fraction of the loss sustained here through crime and the added protection, judging from past records, will save some lives.

GOP Leaders Embarrassed

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Oct. 18.—Stopping off in Chicago, west bound, three or four weeks ago, I found G.O.P. National Chairman Everett Sanders and members of his political staff, at their Palmer House headquarters, staggering under the impact of the Maine election result.

At the present writing, re-entering Illinois at this point, a couple of hundred miles "down state" from the world's fair city, I find Republican managers glooming over Insull case developments.

Certainly 1932 is a mean year for Republicanism thus far.

The Insull case "broke" as the newspaper boys express it, while I was in Chicago.

At that juncture the impression was that, while investigation of the Insull failure probably would reveal a record of exceedingly high financing, the folk connected with it would prove to have been scrupulously careful to observe all the legalities in the course of their operations. Now indictments are out and extradition measures have been taken. Outright criminality is charged.

ILLINOIS VOTERS undoubtedly understand mighty little of what the complicated Insull case is all about, but they do grasp this—

The Insull scandal is a power scandal.

They know that Governor Roosevelt has been a severe critic of the power "interests"—that power is one of the important issues of his presidential campaign, in fact.

They also readily accept the Democratic claim that attacks by the New Yorker upon the character of the Insull debacle was what drove Cook county Republican officialdom to launch an inquiry into details of the collapse—and it is true that the inquiry did start directly following the governor's publicly-expressed criticism of officialdom's seeming indifference to the two-billion-dollar failure.

THE WHOLE situation redounds to Governor Roosevelt's advantage and embarrasses Republican national strategists, whose first thought is for their presidential ticket.

Agricultural Illinois is not so deeply distressed and consequehtly not so bitterly discontented as agriculture west of the Mississippi and farther to the northward, but industrial Illinois is much more formidably dissatisfied with present conditions than industrial workers in the "food belt" proper, for the simple reason that there are so many more of them—of course largely unemployed or employed only on part time and at heavily reduced wages.

The Insull case naturally does not matter so much as joblessness, but it helps to fill up the cup—and run it over.

OF ALL G.O.P. candidates in the Illinois field, Len Small, again a seeker for the governorship, appears to be making the most telling appeal, anyway to the "down state" voters. In straw ballots—for whatever they may mean—he trails his Democratic rival, Judge Henry Horner, indeed, but by no means so wide a margin as Mr. Hoover trails Governor Roosevelt or as Senator Otis F. Glenn trails Representative William H. Dieterich, his Jeffersonian opponent for the upper house of congress.

Small has his chief adviser, ex-Mayor "Big Bill" Thompson of Chicago, and between them they are waging a religious campaign against Judge Horner, a Jew, with an excellent record on the probate bench and an exceptionally high type of citizen.

Nevertheless, the Small-Thompson policy obviously is making considerable impression on the "down state" electorate. That is, at worst Small promises to lead his ticket.

His prospects do not look so hopeful in the Chicago area, where many, even of President Hoover's supporters, are fighting him.

SUMMED UP, however, the most expert guessing is that Small stands a chance to win of any Illinois Republican does.

Senator Glenn is co-operating with the Small-Thompson combination, but there are few signs that he is profiting appreciably by doing so. Glenn, rightly or wrongly, always has been regarded as spokesman in the senate for the Insull interests, and the downfall of this giant group of utilities occurred at as inopportune a moment for him as possibly could have been hit upon.

Glenn is an ardent Hooverite; Small shows no concern for the national ticket. Wholly to the contrary, Hooverites suspect him of a willingness to throw his strength to Governor Roosevelt if he can win Democratic votes for himself by trading.

The general Illinois drift unquestionably is Democratic, but the cross currents are mighty confusing.

Small clearly knows them as no other G.O.P. navigator does.

What Other People Think

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

THE MOST NON-POLITIC U. S. PRESIDENT:

Zachary Taylor (1784-1850) became a popular favorite as a result of his brilliant victory over the Mexican general Santa Anna, February 23, 1847. Within a month thereafter a Whig convention in Iowa nominated him as their candidate for the Presidency. He would have been the candidate and nominee of the opposition party too, had not the Democratic leaders succeeded in stemming the tide in a last minute frantic effort.

Taylor, whose mature years were passed in the military service of his country, admitted that he had never voted in his life and that he had never allied himself with any political party. He held no views on any political topics and the Whig party which nominated him failed to issue any electional platform that year.

He was elected and served from March 4, 1849 to his death in 1850.

A FOREIGN NATION WITHIN THE U. S.:

The Yaqui Indians have taken refuge in Arizona, fleeing from Mexican retribution for a rebellion against the Government. Their capital is a little village near Tucson, Arizona, called Barrio Pascua. The Yaquis were notorious as the Bad Boys of Mexico, but since they settled as squatters in the United States they have been behaving in an exemplary fashion.

They elect their own ruler, and their tribal council for the settlement of their disputes. They speak their own language and fly their own flag.

THE LIFEBOATS:

The lifeboats of the "Rex" are driven by an arm-pedal arrangement in the operation of which every occupant of the boat can participate. The hand-power so developed is transmitted to a small propeller.

TOMORROW: "A CHAMPION BRIDESMAID".

Bar Association's "Notice To Criminals"

A notice to criminals, submitted as a motion by Judge Clark M. Mullican, seconded by former Judge George R. Bean, and passed by the Lubbock County Bar association Monday, Oct. 17, 1932:

"No member of this bar will for a period of one year from date represent any person charged with the commission of theft, burglary, robbery, or murder committed in the execution of any of these crimes, unless appointed to do so by the court, and in the event of appointment he will assist the court in seeing that the constitutional rights of the defendant are protected."

Between 30 And 35 Obtain Cotton-Picking On Tuesday

Between 30 and 35 jobless persons obtained cotton-picking work Tuesday through the Lubbock corps of the Salvation Army. Through Monday, a total of 503 persons had obtained boll-pulling employment through a bureau established to serve cotton farmers needing pickers and jobless persons wanting to pick.

Most of the persons sent to the fields Tuesday went among families groups. More families, however, are needed, Salvation Army attaches said. Calls for women housekeepers also are being received by the welfare agency.

The Salvation Army's annual financial drive will be conducted October 25, the advisory board decided October 4, it was announced late Monday by Captain and Mrs. W. T. Wilson, officers of the corps. W. W. Campbell, Lubbock lawyer, is chairman of the advisory board.

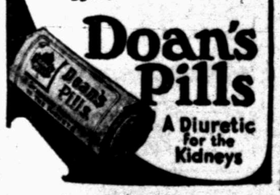

Mississippi's state prison farm this year will produce a cotton crop of 4,000 to 4,500 bales, the superintendent said.

Prisoners in city jail decided a newly received prisoner needed a bath, and required that he take one, policemen said Monday. The prisoner was held for investigation, they said, and added:

An officer said the man's shoes stuck to his feet when he attempted to take them off in order to bathe.

Changes In Scout Exhibit Rules At Local Fair Made

Changes in exhibit rules for scoutcraft at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair were made at a meeting of scout leaders in the office of S. A. Henry, district scout commissioner, here last night. The changes are designed to encourage Boy Scouts to enter articles in the exposition.

Scoutmasters will meet each third Thursday night, it was decided at the session, Scout Executive D. T. Jennings said. Others attending were Mr. Henry; Carroll Thompson, assistant district commissioner; W. G. McMillen, representing No. 2; John S. Ball, No. 3; J. W. Hodges and M. K. Foster, jr., No. 6; Chas. Brock, No. 7; Tom Everheart and James White, No. 8; L. H. Liston, No. 10; Joe Spikes, No. 22 of Lamesa; and William A. Stephens and John Marr, No. 23 for Lamesa.

Jobless Riot

for the forbidden territory of parliament square, where a monster demonstration for additional unemployment relief apparently had been planned.

Police summed motor reinforcements and, for the first time, used automobiles to blockade the crowd. Missiles began to fly. In a short while, there were many bloody heads among the police and the demonstrators.

Other ancient streets close by the towering ecclesiastical precincts saw crisp fighting. Nightfall found St. Thomas' hospital nearby a virtual clearing house for casualties.

Cotton Early Cotton Advance Lost — Livestock Steer, Yearling Trade Is Slower — Grain Wheat Advance Receives Jolt

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 18. (AP)—Although an early advance was lost in cotton today, a sharp upturn in stocks influenced a good demand in later trading and final prices showed gains of 6 to 8 points. The early strength was due to good cables and covering but the market encountered hedge selling and this coupled with a lack of buying support forced prices down near $1 a bale under the highs. The support forced prices down near $1 a bale under the highs. The subsequent advance buoyed prices 13 to 15 points from the bottom levels.

Port receipts 53,068, for week 166,681, for season 2,279,167, last season 2,675,197. Exports 52,152, for week 95,216, for season 1,647,841, last season 1,660,272. Port stock 3,882,346, last year 4,194,971. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 127,518, last year 152,126. Spot sales at southern markets 71,564, last year 69,907.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (AP)—An early advance in cotton was followed by fractions under liquidation and southern selling but after easing off from 6.36 to 6.18 for December, prices steadied on covering with that delivery closing at 6.26. The general market closed steady, net unchanged to 3 points higher.

The opening was 3 to 7 points higher in response to relatively firm Liverpool cables and prospects for rains in West Texas and Oklahoma. The early offerings were readily absorbed by trade buying and covering. Liverpool and Bombay buying was also reported.

Reports from Bombay said the Indian Boycott had been lifted and Liverpool cables reported Bombay and scattered buying with trade calling in that market, also an increasing turnover in cotton cloth especially for Indian account.

president of the Dodgers, points to $200,000, set aside from the profits of the past season for the purpose of acquiring new talent.

While Carey, in St. Louis, attempts to pry either Jim Bottomley, Jim Collins, or even Pat Crawford away from the Cardinals, McKeever wants two right handed pitchers or quality to round out a team he believes will be the strongest in the league. Already the Dodgers have spent $20,000 for Walter Beck, a right hander who won 27 and lost 9 with Memphis last season.

The only man definitely considered on the block in Brooklyn is Dazzy Vance, the veteran who used to burn up the league. Hack Wilson, despite his failure to reach great heights with the Dodgers last season, drove in 122 runs.

The Cubs, facing stiffer home opposition next year by the White Sox' purchase of Al Simmons, Mule Haas, and Jimmy Dykes for $75,000 are scheduled to make a wholesale drive to repair the fences battered down by the Yankees in the world series.

fore his arrest.

His first wife died last spring and Mr. Berrie was arrested August 6, several weeks after he married Ida Bess Bright, a young and comely Sunday school teacher in his church.

The jury was pledged to infliction of the death penalty if evidence warrants, and was sworn to measure "a minister by the same standards as any other Christian."

The hymn-writing minister, 52-years old, was neatly dressed in a grey suit, with white shirt and gray tie. Sitting at his elbow at the counsel table was his wife, who has been his staunchest defender since a grand jury read love poems allegedly written to her by Mr. Berrie. He formerly held a pastorate at Ralls, Texas.

Stocks Refuse To Be Smoked Out Of Early Rally And Show Gain At Close

BY JOHN L. COOLEY,
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (AP)—Stocks refused to be smoked completely out of an early rally by late selling of the tobacco shares today, and the market closed generally higher, nearly cancelling Monday's losses.

Trading was again dull, although livelier than yesterday; it also had a highly professional appearance. In bonds, U. S. governments looked best with an assortment of new 1932 highs. Commodity markets were virtually unchanged at the close.

The market opened firmly and did rather well up to early afternoon. Gains of 1 to 4 were largely cancelled coincident with the special selling just noted, but a late buying flurry stiffened quotations all along the line. Leaders, Bethlehem, American Can, Allied Chemical, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, Harvester, Consolidated Gas, Woolworth, New York Central and Southern Pacific were about 1 to 1 1-8 net higher. American Telephone, American Can, Union Pacific, Case and Santa Fe gained 2 to 3. Transactions totaled 1,029,400 shares.

Weakness of the British pound provided an outstanding feature in financial developments outside the security markets. Sterling's break was attributed largely to withdrawal of support by the Bank of England which for some time had been keeping the quotation fairly steady.

tion law, park, highway, water power and other social legislation.

Smith Gets Praise

"Al Smith," he said, "would still be governor of New York, if we hadn't decided to run him for the presidency. But we did, and we did our best to elect him."

Mr. Roosevelt said that William J. Donovan, the Republican nominee for governor, had ridiculed the "forgotten man." Much of te legislation that he cited, he said had been enacted for the benefit of "the forgotten man."

One by one Mr. Roosevelt took up the major phases of the legislative program he said had been enacted under his direction as governor.

Bonus Question Popped

"Who is responsible for our old age pensions?" he asked.

"This old bolshevik, Roosevelt," he answered his own question.

"How do you stand on the bonus now?" a man shouted from the gallery a moment later. The governor took no notice of the interruption.

He assailed the stand he said the Republicans in the state had taken on the St. Lawrence waterway.

"You've got three weeks in which to think these things over," he said. "Go out and ask the Republican candidate for governor how he stands on the St. Lawrence waterways question."

Hoover Had Record

"You can't take a man just because he has a good war record and expect him to be a good governor," he said, referring to Donovan.

"Hoover had that," injected a man sitting in the balcony.

Roosevelt praised Lieutenant Governor Herbert H. Lehman, saying he was well qualified for the governorship, and called for his election.

Turning to the unemployment problem, Mr. Roosevelt said it was a three-fold one—national, state and local. He said it was the duty of each successive unit to step in when a smaller one was unable to care for its own needy. Under the Democratic program in New York, he said the state had gone farther toward meeting the problem than any other state.

In conclusion, he said that, "when I go down to Washington I propose to start something new.

"I'm going to ask the governors to come down to Washington and talk things over," he said.

Mr. Roosevelt said he had never been asked by the present administration in Washington for his opinon any state matter.

Livestock

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 18. (AP)—Beef steers and yearlings were slow to move in the day's trade. Buyers continued to insist on lower prices and their efforts were successful to the extent of weak to 25 reductions as compared with Monday's business. Chicago sold best 1428 lb. steers up to 9.00 and only a few consignments around the circuit were of quality to sell at 8.00 or above. General bulk of fed steers and yearlings sold at 5.00 to 7.50 with a few common grass steers down to 3.00. Stockers and feeders were steady to 25 lower with most replacement steers at 3.25 to 5.25 and a few loads of yearling stockers at 5.50-75. Receipts for the week at eleven markets totaled 156,200 as compared with 140,875 last week.

Hogs opened on a steady to 15 lower basis but on the close several markets came in with reductions ranging from 10-20 off. Chicago recorded an early top of 3.80.

Lambs were listed as steady to 25 lower, most fat kinds selling in a spread of 4.50-5.25 and a few at 5.35-50. Medium to choice feeding lambs brought 4.40 to 5.00.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH, Oct. 18. (AP)—Hogs 400; truck hogs steady to 5 lower; one load rail hogs topped at 3.70; or 5 higher; bulk better 185-250 pound truck hogs 3.50 to 3.60.

Cattle 2,300; calves 1,100; dull, steady; some fed steers value to sell around 5.00; better fed yearlings 5.25 to 6.00; desirable cows around 2.50 to 3.00; butcher grades around 2.00; stock calves tending lower bidding around 4.50 to 4.75; slaughter calves heavies around 3.00 down.

Sheep 1,000; medium to good lambs 4.00 and 4.25, or fully steady.

Last Tribute

sisted in the funeral services. Tharp's father, Rev. Ed. A. Tharp, is pastor of the Brownfield Methodist church and has held other pastorates over the section.

A brief history of the life of Robert Tharp, who was born March 17, 1907, was read preceding a eulogy to him as a man. "He died climbing," Dr. Bickley asserted, referring again to the manner of his death. Tharp was a football star at McMurry college, Abilene, while attending school there between 1926 and 1930. A tribute to him, sent by Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of the college, was read.

Some Pay Great Price

"His blood cries out to every righteous citizen to see that every law is obeyed," Dr. Bickley continued, saying that "It seems that some pay so great a price. But it has always been the way."

In addition to Reverend Tharp, other survivors are his mother, Mrs. Tharp, and four sisters: Mrs. Elmo McClellan of this city; Miss Ada Tharp of Brownfield, Tharp's twin; Mrs. Decker Magee of Crowell and Mrs. E. Gillispie of Avoca. His fiancee, Miss Asalie Key of Lamesa and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Key, were among those here for the funeral.

Others Are Here

Others who came included Miss Willie Mae Christopher, teacher in McMurry college, Abilene; and Miss Caroline Couch, Abilene; Amon Johnston, Wellington; Alton Roberts, Ovalo; E. B. Wharton and Walter McCandless of Rule; Gilmer Addison, Farwell; Pat Henry, Slaton, and Miss Lillie Mae Reid, Tahoka, all of whom are former or present students in McMurry and had known Tharp and Miss Key.

Many Methodist from over the section were at the funeral.

Grain

FOR WORTH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, Oct. 18. (AP)—Demand was good for wheat, fair for oats and slow for other offerings on the cash grain market here today.

Quotations ranged as follows, basis carloads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid, delivered Texas gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points:

Wheat: No. 2 hard, according to protein and billing 54 3-4 to 57 1-4.

Barley: No. 3 nominally 32-33; No. 3 nominal 31-32.

Sorghums: No. 2 bright milo per 100 pounds 64-66; No. 1 bright kafir 60-61.

Delivered Texas common points or group 3:

Corn: No. 2 mixed 38 1-2 to 39 1-2; No 2 white 41 1-2 to 42 1-2; No. 3 yellow 39-40, all prices nominal.

Delivered Texas common points:

Oats: No. 2 red 22 1-2 to 23 1-2; No 3 red 21 1-2 to 22 1-2.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 18. (AP)—Jolted by a big break in British exchange to the lowest point since last January, wheat and other cereals reacted sharply from advances scored today.

An unsettling influence was the fact that Government-sponsored supporting operations at Winnipeg appeared to be confined to May wheat contracts, with the December delivery left to shift for itself. On the other hand, indications of a better export demand for United States hard wheat developed just before the close, 100,000 bushels being sought at the best premiums on the crop.

Wheat closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1-8 lower, corn 1-8 to 3-8 off, oats at a shade decline, to an equal advance, and provisions unchanged to 12 cents down.

its field workers, who queried corporation executives in all sections of the country and in all lines of endeavor.

"It is important to know that unmistakable signs are at last visible of the throwing off of the depressed feeling to which business has been subjected," Standard says.

The recent improvement in general business, the data indicated, generally speaking "was strictly to accommodate seasonal increases in demand and to prepare distributors inventories for such increases." The survey adds: "There is, to be sure, a fairly general opinion that the upturn recently was fundamental and that a further expansion will be witnessed in late winter or early spring. For the immediate future, however, production schedules will be based strictly on orders for replacement of stocks and to fill seasonal needs."

conducted."

Valls, in reply, sent Ferguson a telegram at Austin stating that his only object in summoning the husband of the Democratic gubernatorial nominee, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, before the grand jury was to ascertain the truth and to seek vindication of Webb county from an "unjust aspersion."

"Any further insistence on my part," Valls said, "would savor of vindictiveness, which is not by purpose. Your frank and manly admission of error releases you from obeying the subpoena and I thank you for the expression of friendship for the people of this section."

Lubbock Citizens Post $500 Reward For Bandits; Drive Gets Underway

Formal pledging of subscriptions will not begin, however, until after this morning's meeting.

Forced To Pay Tribute

Lubbock business men will be forced to "pay tribute to these racketeers," Mr. Bean said in opening the meeting, unless the criminal element is overcome.

Admitting he possibly was subject to criticism, because of his leadership in the anti-crime drive while being judge of a trial court, Judge Mullican declared. "I feel I have a right to appeal to my people here for their support in enforcement of the law."

"You're ignorant of self-defense. You don't know that you have a right to defend yourselves or property or the property of others, do you?" he continued.

Laws Termed As Rot

Terming federal laws regulating firearms "rot," the judge asked:

"Do you know of any federal statute that is enforced to the letter?"

Cautioning that he did not advocate indiscriminate carrying or use of firearms, the judge cited instances of legal possession of guns, and added:

"So many of you who have firearms keep them as you keep your Bible. You couldn't find it with a search warrant."

Biblical Law Quoted

The Biblical law of "an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth" was quoted by Judge Mullican, as he urged business men and home owners to have guns and to keep them loaded and within reach.

"I am not advocating killing, except as the law gives you a right," he warned.

Judge Mullican lashed "this maudlin sentiment that our people surround every criminal with and casting insinuations at the officers of the law." He advised mothers not to use the policeman bugaboo in disciplining their children, but to teach the youngster that the policeman is their friend and a person to go to when they are in trouble.

Peace officers "very often when they buckle a pistol on their hips become intolerable," the judge charged, but the public should reciprocate the consideration it receives from well mannered officers.

Rev. C. J. McCarty, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, charged citizens with evading jury service unnecessarily and condemned indiscriminate signing of pardon petitions.

Mayor T. M. George of Slaton, accompanied by a small delegation from Slaton, spoke.

County Judge E. L. Pitts, answering a suggestion by Judge Mullican, said he did not believe County Commissioners court legally could contribute to a reward as proposed, but expressed his and the court's favor of the campaign against lawlessness. Judge Pitts, who presides over county juvenile court also, reminded that prevention of crime could be effected in a large measure by proper training and care of children.

W. R. Campbell, a grocer, spoke. The meeting adjourned about 9:15 o'clock.

Bits Of News And Comment From Down Austin Way

BY R. W. BARRY

AUSTIN, Oct. 18 (AP)—Repeal or modification of the socalled Robertson insurance law will be one of the major legislative subjects before the 43rd Texas legislature when it meets in January for a four months' session.

Proponents of a change in the law, which, among other things, requires life insurance companies doing business in this state to invest in Texas securities at least seventy-five per cent of their legal reserve accumulated from business done here, already have perfected an organization to promote alteration of what they term the law's too-stringent terms.

When Governor R. S. Sterling issued his proclamation convening the extraordinary session of the legislature late in September to enact tax relief measures, many lawyers claimed the chief executive's call covered all subjects concerning insurance, thus opening the way for consideration of a change in the Robertson insurance law. Champions of modification decided, however, to await convening of the regular session to attempt alteration.

The Robertson law was enacted in 1907 and since then a number of attempts have been made to modify it, but each time they failed.

Enactment of the law, carrying its compulsory investment feature, caused twenty-two large life insurance companies then doing business in the state to withdraw from Texas. Proponents of a change claim that since then only three of those companies have resumed for general business and two for special purposes.

O. M. Fitzhugh of San Antonio, one of the sponsors of the modification movement, said recently in a speech that those companies who withdrew "did not object to that provision of the law (compulsory investments in Texas securities) because of the amount of money it would force them to invest in

About 10,000 Head Of Sheep To Be Fed In Abernathy Area

ABERNATHY, Oct. 18—(Special)—Approximately 10,000 head of sheep will be fed in Abernathy's territory by experienced feeders this winter. Besides these there will be a number of small flocks on farms.

W. G. Murray, Lubbock, feeder, expects to feed between 6,000 and 7,000 head on his farms west of town. He recently bought 3,500 head at San Angelo. Murray fed 4,000 last year.

Ben and Fritz Struve are feeding 2,000 head. They got 800 head recently from New Mexico.

Walter Harp will feed approximately 450 head; Roland Albers 400 head and Jack Barton 800 head.

Harry Pettit is crossing his 500-pound Hampshire yearling buck with his Rambouillet ewes to produce heavy lambs.

Another "Whatish" Being Exhibited In Lynn County

MIDLAND, Oct. 18—(Special)—"whatisit" was being exhibited in Tahoka this week by Dave Childers, manager of T-Bar ranch. Recently, he saw a queer bird sitting in a tree near the ranch headquarters, produced a gun and shot it. So far no one has been able to identify the fowl as ever having been seen in the southwest before. In color it was a tawny or reddish brown with small white specks and resembles both the hawk and owl families. The queer bird has been mounted, and Childers is still trying to find someone who can identify it.

Recently, W. D. Nevels was displaying several queer fowls, cross between turkeys and Rhode Island Reds.

The Swiss flying club has more than 2,600 members, ranging from balloon and glider pilots to aerobatic fliers.

Texas, for the companies which withdrew from the state on account of that law had at that time 90.8 per cent of their total Texas reserves invested in Texas securities."

"Their objection to the law was on the ground, among others, that the law took from the directors and trustees of those life insurance companies the liberty of dealing with the funds of those companies according to their judgment and discretion as to what was best, and in effect substituted the judgment of the legislature of the state for the judgment of those directors and trustees," Fitzhugh said.

Plains Cotton Ginning Drops

Greatly Decreased Activities Revealed In First Report Of 1932; But 16 Per Cent Of 1931 Total

Greatly decreased ginnings for all South Plains counties for the first report of 1932 as compared with the same report for 1931 are shown in the report of cotton ginned prior to October 1. The report was issued by the U. S. bureau of the census at Washington, a part of the department of commerce.

This year's ginnings for 11 of the 16 counties on the caprock, 4,831 bales, is 16 per cent of last year's total for the same counties. This figure was 30,050 bales.

Totals for the state were 1,595,220 bales for 1932 compared with 2,268,303 bales the same date in 1931.

Bailey, Cochran, Garza, Gaines, and Terry counties did not report any ginnings piror to October 1. Lateness of the crop was the reason assigned for this, as replanting of crops washed or hailed out late in June forced farmers to replant crops.

Lamb county with 1,391 bales leads the South Plains with Lubbock second with 1,150 bales.

By counties the ginnings to October 1, are:

County—	1932	1931
Briscoe	441	858
Crosby	234	4,009
Dawson	216	3,790

District Nazarene Superintendent Will Meet With Congregation Here

V. B. ATTEBERRY

V. B. Atteberry of Abilene, district superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, is to meet with the local congregation this evening to complete plans for a district assembly to be conducted at the Lubbock church November 8-13. Mr. Atteberry is to preach at 7:30 o'clock and will aid in planning for the assembly directly afterward. The Abilene man is to leave Lubbock Thursday morning. He has 65 Churches of the Nazarene under his supervision.

The Rev. R. M. Hocker is pastor of the Lubbock Church of the Nazarene.

Man Is Critically Ill After Mistake

Although his condition was better, Geo. Finberg, cotton broker, still was critically ill at West Texas hospital last night as a result of drinking about an ounce of carbolic acid about 4 o'clock Tuesday morning in his home at 2301 Eighteenth street. The poison was taken by mistake, it was said.

Mr. Finberg, suffering from a cold, was said to have gone to a medicine cabinet for medicine he had been taking, and to have swollowed the acid by mistake. His son, Francis A. Finberg, of the same firm, was awakened by his father's groaning, and found him unconscious on the floor of the room in which he had swallowed the acid. A doctor living next door was summoned and injected adrenaline. The elder Mr. Finberg was taken to the hospital in a Bynum-Stahler ambulance.

The neighboring doctor, who continued to attend the cotton buyer, said the stomach virtually had absorbed the acid, as Mr. Finberg had been on the floor perhaps an hour before he was found. His lips, tongue, and throat were burned and swollen. Additional stimulation was given him at the hospital.

Revenue Increase Seen For County

With an increase in picking in Lubbock county cotton fields, an unexpected source of revenue for the county and state has appeared.

W. Hurley Carpenter, deputy tax collector, reports "about 130 or 140 trucks have been licensed since the season opened." Owners who have not been operating their trucks all spring and summer and who had not obtained 1932 licenses, have rushed to the collector's office to get the necessary papers and plates.

Licenses are issued both at Lubbock and at Slaton where a deputy collector resides, Mr. Carpenter said.

Reflectors must be put on trucks and lights on trailers, John C. Kellar, state highway partol chieftain, said Tuesday. Kellar declared highway patrolmen would enforce the state law requiring reflectors and tail-lights. One such violation was detected, and an arrest made, Monday night.

Kellar pointed out that the increase in night driving of trucks hauling cotton to gins, was a menace to motorists unless the truck or trailer was properly equipped lights and reflectors.

Build Up Health and Pains Go Away

WOMEN who suffer from weakness often have many aches and pains which a stronger state of health would prevent.

Women in this condition should take Cardui, a purely vegetable tonic that has been in use for over 50 years.

Take Cardui to improve the general tone of the system in cases of run-down health and "tired nerves." Women have found, in such cases, that Cardui helps them to overcome pains and make the monthly periods easier. CARDUI is safe and wholesome for women of all ages. Try it!

Lubbock Women's Clubs Have Joined In Anti-Crime Drive Opened In City

Lubbock women's clubs have joined, especially in education of their members, in the anti-crime drive begun here late Monday, club women said Tuesday.

"The social relations committee of the City Federation of Women's club," said Mrs. A. T. Biggers, president, "is trying to formulate plans for an organized study of local crime condition to be presented at the next meeting of the federation, October 28."

P. T. A. Is Busy

The Parent-Teacher association, according to Mrs. N. L. Peters, president, has already discussed the ultimate necessity for keeping youngsters, especially of high school age, in school at this particular time.

"So many boys and girls are not in school this year," she explained, "because they simply do not have clothing to wear. We can't force them to go to school unless we provide wearing apparel." The organization has been collecting and distributing clothing all fall for this purpose.

Next week is National Constitution week and many of the clubs, which have not included a study of the constitution in this year's program, are making plans for a special reading and interpretation of it in an effort to better understand the principles of law enforcement, Mrs. Peters said.

"Women of the various city churches, aroused by the sudden renewal of local crime, are concentrating upon law enforcement at the present time," Mrs. R. I. Tubbs, of the First Methodist Women's Missionary society explained.

Crime Foremost Problem

"The foremost problem in our organization is local crime," said Mrs. Tom Campbell, president of the First Baptist Women's Missionary society. Both the Baptist and Methodist organizations are urging the Federation of City churches to form a committee of representatives of each of the city's churches to formulate an influential program in law enforcement. A special meeting of the Federation, which ordinarily will not convene until October 30, may be called, according to Mrs. Campbell.

The Methodist women have a plan whereby local attorneys, judges, and peace officers might be asked to speak before the city church women on "Woman's Influence in Law Enforcement," which they plan to present at the next meeting of the Federation.

All of the women interviewed commended the local Bar association on it's action taken against crime in a recent mass meeting. It is the consensus of opinion among these women that if the lawyers will practice refusing legal aid to criminals that their influence in reducing crime will be paramount.

Local Woman Is Strict Democrat

Mrs. Chas. C. Triplett is a "strict Democrat" and will not serve on a "Republican committee," Mrs. Triplett said last night. She was listed in Tuesday morning's Avalanche as being a member of a committee of Democrats and Republicans interested in the election of Orville Bullington, Republican candidate for governor.

Mrs. Triplett said she would vote the Democratic ticket "from top to bottom."

Only One Settlement Now Is Lacking On Highway No. 24

Only one settlement regarding right-of-way on highway No. 24 east of Lubbock is lacking now, Commissioners court Tuesday having completed three condemnations. Franz Hetler accepted $100 more than the condemnation committee had declared his damages to be and R. L. Sawyer $150 more than the original amount. J. M. Hetler and others accepted the committee's award.

All three cases had been filed in county court on appeal. Only one suit is now pending, that of Mrs. W. G. Nairn, County Judge E. L. Pitts said. Commissioner J. T. Pinkston was only court member voting in opposition to the settlements.

Judge Pitts was instructed by the commissioners to sign a hospitalization agreement between the county and city and Lubbock sanitarium and West Texas hospital. Charity cases will be handled on the basis of the agreement—$4 daily for hospitalization, $10 for major operations, and $5 for minor operations.

With the purchase of a new park and consummation of plans for acquiring another, Missouri's state playgrounds will be increased to 6
