COOPER'S BULLDOGS EDGE PAST TALCO TROJANS FRIDAY 24-22

By KENNETH DAVIS
The highly rated Cooper Bulldogs had to come from behind in the fourth quarter Friday night to edge past a much improved Trojan eleven.

The Bulldogs had it all to themselves the first half while the Trojans made only two first downs. The first quarter went scoreless with the Bulldogs racking up five first downs with no serious threats.

The second quarter, Back Charles McKinney passed to Dick Stringfellow for 6 points. The next series of Bulldog downs, Stringfellow passed to Right End Whitney Miller who crossed the goal line for six more points, to make the score 12-0.

The Bulldogs received the kickoff to open the third quarter. The hard charging of the Trojan line and the alert backfield held the Bulldogs to a net no gain for rushing and passing for the third quarter, while the Trojans scored 16 points the first eight minutes of the third quarter. The first score was set up when Jere Paul Parrish passed to John Whitten for about a 30 yard gain down to the Bulldog 2 yard line. Fullback Freddie Stephenson crashed the line to make the score 12-6 favoring the Bulldogs. Quarterback Jere Paul Parrish carried around right end to make the score 12-8.

The Trojans kicked to Cooper only to regain possession of the ball after one series of plays on the 50 yard line. The Trojans promptly marched to the Cooper 8, where Parrish went over for 6 points to make it 12-14, Talco. The try for extra point failed.

The Bulldogs came back on a series of rushing plays down to the Trojan 2 yard line where Stanley went over from the two. Try for extra points failed. Score at the end of 3rd quarter, 14 for Talco, 18 for Cooper.

The "would not be denied" Trojans came back to pass and rush down to the Bulldog 2 yard line, where Stephenson bulldozed over for 6 more points to make it read 20 for Trojans. Parrish went around right end for the two extra points to make it 22 for the Trojans and 18 for Cooper.

In the closing minutes of the game Cooper regained control of the ball to have Vernon Stanley push it over for the final score, making it 24 for Cooper and 22 for the Trojans.

Talco rode hard on the power running of Jere Parrish and Freddie Stephenson. The two veterans scored all 22 points. Wood pulled the key play late in the fourth quarter when he gambled and won on a fourth down pass. The play between Wood and end Whitney Miller ate up 17 yards and kept Cooper's last scoring drive alive.

It would be hard to mention one outstanding player for the Trojans, so we will just mention the entire Trojan line and backfield as every one of them did a swell job.

General American Has Prospects in Red River Well

General American Oil Company, Dallas, has found prospects for production from the Lewisville section of the Woodbine in its No. 1 Coline Oil Company. J. H. Puthuff survey, five miles northeast of Talco in Red River County.

Drilling below 5,302 in the Paluxy, headed for the Glenrose to around 5,600 feet. If the Glenrose fails, plans are to set casing and try for completion in a 24-foot sand section at 3,496-520 which a drillstem test and sidewall core recoveries indicated productive.

A stem test at 3,490-502 partially covered the section, and recovery here in two hours was 90 feet of mud cut heavily with oil. Bottomhole flowing pressure was 180 pounds.

The above prospect is about two miles northwest of the Trix-Liz field east of Talco, which has Lewisville production.

General American now has filed No. 1 State lease as a south offset to the No. 1 Colino with site falling 50 feet from the south and east lines of the Puthuff survey. The company holds 1,200 acres in this area, obtained from Coline which retained an override.

CITIZENS HONOR MRS. HOPWOOD FOLLOWING HER RETIREMENT

MRS. O. B. HOPWOOD

Mrs. O. B. Hopwood, retiring after 13 years as school tax assessor and collector, was honored with a party at Thursday night's meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association in Talco High School auditorium.

Talco's first acting P-TA president, Mrs. A. L. Rodgers, directed the program, presenting Mrs. Hopwood with an orchid corsage. Other gifts included a traveling bag and an electric blanket from Talco residents, presented by City Commissioner A. G. Norwood and a circulating heater from her relatives, presented for them by a longtime friend, Bird Old of Mt. Pleasant. She also received a bronze plaque, inscribed "To Mrs. Rosalind Hopwood for her many years of devoted service to the citizens of Talco."

Bill Miller, P-TA president, presented Mrs. Hopwood with a gold plated plaque inscribed: "Mrs. Rosalind Hopwood. In appreciation for your many years of faithful service to the citizens of Talco, presented September 10, 1959."

Seated on the stage with Mrs. Hopwood was Mrs. Jessie Mason Lane of Mt. Pleasant, who, with Mrs. Hopwood, had taught in the Talco school, and she recalled their early days together. H. L. Shoffner, school principal the past six years, said that as he had "played doctor to all the school children here in that time, Mrs. Hopwood had played nurse." Others taking part were L. E. Miller, P-TA president; A. C. Newsome, B. L. Gieger and J. L. Cato.

For the occasion, Mrs. Hopwood was dressed in navy crepe, and wore two other gifts, an orchid corsage, and a family heirloom, a strand of onyx beads given to her 52 years old when she received them. It was the first time she had ever worn the treasured necklace.

The happiness which showed in her face and the gracious speech of thanks and gratitude at the close of her party told each one again of her love for her fellowman and the Talco community.

During the social hour, punch, cookies and mints were served by Mrs. B. L. Gieger, Mrs. Maggie Barnard and Mrs. E. W. Smith. Mrs. Billy Joe Vickers and Mrs. T. L. Barton had charge of the register. A pink lace cloth covered the refreshment table, which held a centerpiece of pink roses and fern, and white tapers in double candelabra.

The former Miss Rosalind Watson was born at Fairlie, December 19, 1891, daughter of the late J. A. Watson and the present Mrs. Jones, now 87, to whose care she will devote herself in her retirement. She came to Talco to teach school in 1916.

She was married in 1917 to Mr. Hopwood, helped him for many years in his drug store in addition to her school teaching, civic and church work, and social activities. She helped promote Talco's community fairs back in the 20's, was correspondent for The Paris News and later local reporter 12 years for the Talco Times; helped organize the still active Book Lovers Club in 1925, and is a Church of Christ member.

Her husband died in 1946, one of their two children having died at birth, and their son, Joe Berry Hopwood, in 1955. Her family, besides her mother, includes two grandchildren, Barry Lee Hopwood and Wendlyn Hopwood who make their home with their mother, Mrs. Joe B. Hopwood of Texarkana; a half-brother and sister, Elwood Jones here and Mrs. Margie Cato of Black Oak, Ark., and her step-brother and sister, Felix Jones and Mrs. R. R. Kelley, Talco.

Out of town guests were aunt, Mrs. Rhoda McCoy and her family, Cora Mae McCoy, Weaver McCoy, Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mrs. Tobe McCoy, Mrs. Bessie Neal Heath, Mrs. Willie Nolan, and Miss Brenda McCoy of Douglasville; Mr. and Mrs. Bird Old, Jr., Mrs. Jessie (Mason) Lane, Mrs. Ernestine (Mason) McAfee of Mt. Pleasant, and Mrs. Ethel Smart of Garland.

Butane Cooks Mash; Kitchen Wood Stove

A 35-year-old white man from the Red River area in the northern part of the county, was sentenced to 60 days in jail and ordered to pay a fine of $100 and costs by County Judge Gavin Watson, Jr., in County Court this week after pleading guilty to possessing equipment for the manufacture of an illicit beverage.

The still was found and destroyed by Sheriff R. A. (Slim) Hulen and other law enforcement officers, who located it only 50 feet from the back door of the man's house.

The defendant said in court that he had taken his wife's butane bottle to operate the apparatus and his wife was found cooking on an ancient cookstove at the time of the arrest. She was not charged.

WOULD PRESENT KHRUSHCHEV WITH BAG JOHNSON GRASS SEED

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, takes note of Mr. Khrushchev's visit to the United States, his letter this week reveals.

Dear Editor: I understand Mr. Khrushchev is on a tight schedule and won't be able to stop by my farm out here, which is perfectly all right, I'm on a tight schedule myself and wouldn't have much time to entertain him anyway.

But what has interested me most about his trip to the United States is the reaction of those big-time columnists who write for the big dailies.

One group is arguing Khrushchev shouldn't have been invited at all, but I don't have much feeling on this point. As far as I'm concerned, anybody, including a dictator, is welcome to come over and look us over, so long as he doesn't bring his army with him.

Another group says Khrushchev won't be here long enough to get the feel of America, won't get to know what we think. Some Congressmen have lived here all their lives and every once in a while they prove they don't know what the people think either. They then become ex-Congressmen. I don't know how long Khrushchev would have to stay here to figure us out, but it would be too long, except for the people in the dozen or so countries he has enslaved. As far as they're concerned, he could stay here forever.

Personally, I can't get very excited either way about his visit. I understand he's very interested in studying American farming methods. I am too. I've got one field out here I've been studying for years and never have made up my mind what I ought to do with it.

In case Mr. Khrushchev's caravan has a flat while he's on tour and he should get to this vicinity about that time, I'm all set for him. I have a bag of carefully selected Johnson grass seed I want to present him with. If he'll take it home with him and scatter a few weeds around, it'll set Russian agriculture back 50 years. Yours faithfully, A. A.

Dr. Benson Talks About Nation's Major Problems

America must combat three major problems "or decline as 32 previous major civilizations declined," Dr. George S. Benson said recently.

The president of Harding College, Searcy, Ark., addressed delegates to the eleventh annual Texas Farm Bureau Institute at Dallas.

"American life is built on faith in God, on constitutional government, and on private enterprise," said Dr. Benson. "Ours is the only country where, with 12 per cent of the people on farms, there is a surplus of food. With 7 per cent of the world's population, we have 40 per cent of the world's total wealth."

"But to continue our ascent, we must solve three major problems."

Those problems he listed as (1) international communism, (2) the "critical" state of our financial structure, and (3) crime and irresponsibility.

He said the Reds have not changed their goal (of world conquest) but only their tactics. "At the close of World War II, Communists controlled 7 per cent of the world; they now control 40 per cent."

He said the national debt at 285 billion dollars "is more than the assessed value of all real estate in the United States."

And, he said, "We see our people unemployed. Cet for every car we export for sale we import four."

Dr. Benson praised the farm bureau for its stand "for free enterprise."

STINGING RETORT

An angry visitor dashed up to a beekeeper and complained indignantly, "One of your bees stung me, and I want you to do something about it."

The beekeeper pondered a moment and then replied soothingly, "Why sure, lady—just show me which one it was and I'll punish it."

Trouble that looks like a mountain from a distance, usually is only a hill when you get to it.

WHY HIS DECISION

The superintendent's boy, Johnnie, told his mother he wanted to become a preacher.

"Why, Johnnie," said his mother, "that's wonderful. What made you decide that?"

Johnnie shrugged. "Well, I've got to go to church all my life anyhow and I think it's harder to sit still and be quiet than to stand up and holler."

Proper study light at home means a better student at school

Good light at the study table aids concentration, combats eye fatigue, makes home study hours more productive. In most instances a good table lamp equipped with a 150-watt bulb will provide the right amount of light for easy seeing. The lamp should be tall enough to spread light over the work area and properly shaded to conceal the light source from the eyes. A diffusing bowl is recommended to prevent glare. If the lamp has no diffusing bowl, a 150-watt white indirect bulb may be substituted. It has its own built-in diffusor.
