Webworms

Pests pose threat to Mulberry trees

They're back.

The webworms that left mulberry trees in Colorado City almost leafless two years are back with a vengeance and homeowners are battling the pesky things with a variety of methods - from using insecticides to burning infested limbs.

Mitchell County Extension Agenct Mike Mauldin said he has not received any calls, yet, about the worms, but advises there are usually from two to four generations of worms per year depending upon the locality in the state. The first occurs on mulberry as early as April in south Texas, and as late as June around Lubbock and Amarillo, attacking pecan, willow and popular trees.

Robert Hoback of Colorado Feed and Seed said he has sprayed a number of trees in town. He explained that homeowners who want to do their own spraying may choose from a variety of insecticides - malathion, Sevin, Diazinon, Dursban and Orthene.

However, malathion, Diazinon and Sevin reportedly aren't killing the larger worms. Apparently, the webworms are becoming resistant to Diazinon, as they did with Malathion earlier.

"Webworms may be controlled without using insecticides by thoroughly inspecting trees that have a history of webworm infestations," said Mauldin. "In small trees where the upper parts of easily reached, egg masses on leaves may be located and destroyed. In larger trees, webs can be pruned out and destroyed."

"If webs are too numerous or out of reach for pruning, insecticides may be needed to prevent damage," said Mauldin. "A high pressure sprayer is necessary to reach the tops of tall trees and to penetrate sometimes dense webs. Breaking the webs with a long pole helps the insecticide applications to contact the larvae."

Homeowners can expect to have to spray every three to five days and advises saturating the web if it is accessible.

Colorado City residents report that the webworm population has increased significantly in the past few days and that mulberry trees throughout town have webs in them.

Mauldin said that the mature worms will turn into pupae shortly and then they will emerge as white moths with black spots on the wing. The adults will mate, and the moths will return to the mulberry trees and lay eggs to start the next generation.

Mulberry trees can lose half of their leaves without permanent damage, Mauldin said, but continued, heavy infestations for several summers could possibly cause heavy damage or kill the tree unless control measures are applied.

Hoback says that whatever insecticide used by a homeowner, it will not be effective unless there is enough pressure to penetrate the web.

JEFF DEVER, 23, is a new officer with the Colorado City Police Department. Dever, a native of Coahoma, started work here July 5. A 1980 graduate of Coahoma High School, he is working on his bachelor's degree in law enforcement from Angelo State University, San Angelo. He was formerly in Lamesa.

FmHA accepting emergency loan applications here

Mitchell County was declared eligible for Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) disaster emergency loans on July 1.

"Generally, that means that farmers who have lost at 30 percent of their production due to the drought are eligible for FmHA loans," said Alton R. Pyburn of the local FmHA office. "Proceeds from crop insurance and the PIK program are taken into account when determining eligibility."

The FmHA office is in the G-Kell Building, Interstate 20 and the Snyder Highway in Colorado City. For more information, call 728-2257.

JP applicant number grows

Mitchell County Commissioners' Court will have a busy time interviewing all the applicants for justice of the peace.

As the 5 p.m. deadline neared Friday afternoon, 16 persons had submitted applications for the precinct two job vacancy created by the death of Mrs. Ruby Claxton.

County Judge Mac Morris was out of town Friday and the names of two of the applicants could not be obtained because their applications were in sealed envelopes, said his secretary, Fran Prescott. The two sealed applications will be opened Tuesday.

The other applicants include Linda Clary, Leonard moore, Billie Forbes, Brenda Carpenter, Chris Castillo, John Craft, McKinley Oliver (Mac) Simpson, Jerilyn Sue Pierce, Russell Bird, Dan Wesley Smith, Jeanne Maria Moore, Charlotte Jeanne Clemmer, Penny Salmon and Garry Faye Daughtrey.

Commodities to be distributed

Commodities of flour and egg mix will be distributed Wednesday and Thursday in Mitchell County, said Bertie Kidd, coordinator.

The commodities will be distributed at the ag barn and in Loraine on Wednesday from 9-11 a.m. and at the Wallace Center on Thursday from 9-11 a.m.

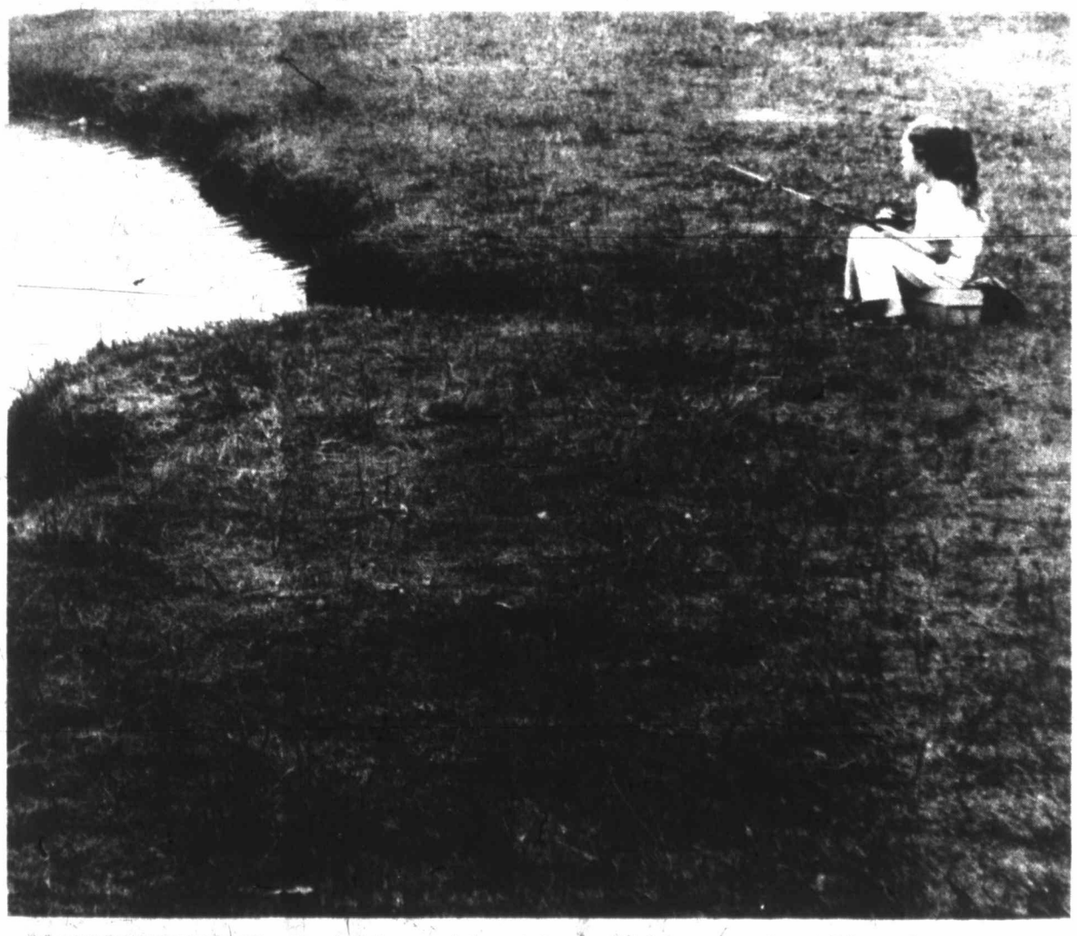

Mrs. Kidd said all recipients are urged to pick up commodities. New applications will be taken after 10 a.m. at the ag barn.

The truck will be unloaded about 7:30 a.m., and workers should be ready to start by 8:45 a.m.

CERTIFICATION - 15 DAY NOTICE

This is your 15 day notice: July 17 is the final date to certify cotton and grain sorghum. Producers not planting should certify "0" planted. This could help hold your bases. Failure to report your acreages could result in the loss of all program benefits. Those producers who have already certified may disregard. REMEMBER a correct acreage report is important to assure program benefits and acreage history. CRP FARMS MUST BE CERTIFIED.

WORKMANLIKE MANNER

To be eligible for program benefits cultural practices common to your area must be carried out to earn 1989 Program Payments. One of the most difficult jobs your committee has is to reduce payments. Your County Committee has and will reduce payments for sloppy farming. Weeds and/or grazing on CRP carries heavy penalty.

CONSERVATION RESERVE PROGRAM (CRP)

The 9th CRP signup begins July 17 and runs through August 4. The CRP is a 10 year program designated to take highly erodible cropland out of production and back into grass. You may signup for 1989 or 1990.

ACR AND CU FOR PAYMENT

Remember, ACR and CU for payment must have a cover crop, kept free of weeds and maintained in a workmanlike manner. NO EXCEPTIONS. 1989 ACR with small grain cover may be prepared for 1990 fall seeded small grain.

Burrus, Fuller, exchange wedding vows

Mrs. Terry Michael Fuller
...nee Michelle Lee Burrus

Michelle Lee Burrus and Terry Michael Fuller were united in marriage at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 17, in the First Christian Church in McKinney with the Rev. Leslie Hames, retired minister of the church, officiating at the rites.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Sanford Burrus of McKinney. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Franklin Fuller of Allen.

She is the granddaughter of Velma Moseley and the late Tommy Moseley of Colorado City and the great-niece of Elizabeth Moore of Sweetwater.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin and imported lace embroidered with seed pearls and sequins.

The basque bodice of satin and lace was fashioned with a batteau neckline in front and a keyhole back. Full crown sleeves with pin tucks and pearls were fitted to the wrist with a lace motif and covered buttons.

A large cut-out lace insert adorned the front of the skirt and three matching inserts graced the cathedral length train.

Her double veil fell to waist length from a bandeau of pearls and flowers with a pouf at the back. She wore a blue satin garter made by her maternal grandmother, and carried a cascade of stargazer lilies and bridal white roses.

Nancy Anderson of Garland was maid of honor. She wore a tea length turquoise moire taffeta dress with a deep V back accented with a bow-tied sash. She carried a bouquet of stargazer lilies, gadecia and pink pixie carnations.

Bridesmaids were Lisa Chambers of San Antonio, Debi Moseley of College Station, cousin of the bride, and Shelly Ladd of McKinney. Their gowns and flowers matched those of the honor attendant.

Flower girl was Mandy Walls of Joshua, cousin of the groom. She wore a tea length gown of white taffeta with a full gathered skirt accented with a turquoise sash and carried a nosegay of gadecia and pixie carnations.

Ringbearer was Stephen Walls of Joshua, cousin of the groom. He was dressed like the groom in white tails and carried a satin pillow made by the bride's maternal grandmother.

Sergio Troiani of Allen served as best man. Groomsmen were Mike Burrus of McKinney, brother of the bride, Tom Walls of Joshua, uncle of the groom, and David Fox of Allen.

Ushers were Matthew Burrus of McKinney, brother of the bride, Curtis Hayes of Dallas and Luca Troiani of Allen. All the groom's attendants wore black tuxedos.

Vows were pledged before a candlelit altar accented with Victorian urns of greenery and an archway of greenery, baby's breath and pink and white pixie carnations. The bride and groom lit a unity candle at the end of the ceremony.

Music was furnished by Sandra Homer, organist, and Cathy Walls, aunt of groom, vocalist, who sang "Honestly," the theme from "Ice Castles" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burrus wore a peach two-piece lace dress with handkerchief hem. The groom's mother chose a beige lace dress with beige satin shoes. Both wore corsages of white orchids and pink rosebuds.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride's and groom's tables were covered in white linen cloths decorated with turquoise bows and ribbon. Punch was served from a fountain on a battenburg lace covered table.

The bride's white four tiered cake was decorated with pink and white silk flowers and topped with a crystal and lace heart. The groom's German chocolate cake was decorated with chocolate roses and chocolate curls.

Members of the houseparty included Cindy Pugh of Bakersfield, Calif., cousin of the groom; Lisa Troiani and Jackie Haraldson of Allen and Linda Smith of McKinney.

The couple went on a honeymoon trip to Aculpo. She wore a street-length red and white dress with red hat and red and white accessories.

The bride is a 1985 graduate of McKinney High School and a 1989 magna cum laude graduate of Texas Woman's University with a bachelor of science degree in nursing. She is employed at Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas as a graduate nurse. The groom is a 1984 graduate of Allen High School and is employed at Fuller and Associates in Plano.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at the Harvey Hotel in Plano. Entertainment was provided by Cindy Pugh, the groom's cousin.

Out-of-town guests were from Sweetwater, Houston, Pasadena, Saginaw and Tyler.

Brown, Love recite vows

Donna Brown of Midland and Joe Love of Midland were married Saturday, June 24, 1989 at 3 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church chapel in Colorado City.

Rev. Jon Farris performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Brown of Colorado City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Furd Love of Midland.

Flowers decorated the archway, and two vases of pink carnations and gladiolas were near the altar on two tables. The pews were marked with pink bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white bridal gown accented with lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations with baby's breath.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Pat McClure, organist, and Nelma Ritchey, soloist.

Maid of honor was her sister, Karen Brown of Colorado City. She wore a floral dress of light pink, white and green. Her bouquet was various shades of pink carnations with baby's breath.

Tim Baird of Kansas City was best man.

Usher was her brother, Jerry Brown of Mesquite. Fran Brown was one of her attendants.

AARP members given update by hospital administrator

The Mitchell County American Association of Retired Persons No. 1461 met Monday, June 19, in the C.C. Thompson Room of City National Bank for its regular luncheon and business meeting.

Luncheon tables were decorated by Eula Pickens, Jeanette Lemons and Velma Pond with white cloths and vases of spring flowers.

Invocation was given by Beaman Dockrey, president, who also presided at the meeting.

The group was led in singing the song America by Louise Sweat. The pledge to the flag was recited.

Faye Spivey, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Richard Murphy, administrator of Mitchell County Hospital. Murphy has been employed at the hospital for 11 years and he and his family recently moved to Colorado City from Sweetwater.

Murphy praised the local hospital and its employees and said that there have been many changes in health care in past years. He also told about the ambulance service.

Eddie Barclay and Faye Spivey presided over the drawing of Susan B. Anthony dollars donated by Raymond and Virginia Fuller. The winners were Lurline Hargrove, Wilford Oyler, Annie Dixon, Eleanor Jeffries, Olman Sweat, Bessie House, Betty Oyler, Maria Feaster, Edna Pace and Lil Brown.

A get-well card was sent to Juanita Coker who was unable to attend.

The president read a letter from Jipper Tolbert, state AARP director, stating that AARP opposes the Texas First Plan proposed by Southwestern Bell Telephone.

Other members present were Ethel Hardegree, Pansy Northcutt, Ida E. Keith, Stanley Merket, Jessie Mae Merket, Garvis Craghead, Margaret Oyler, Nelda Garrett and L.L. Hartsfield.

White Sox, Braves grab wins

The White Sox won over the Cubs 15-4 in the first game Monday night at A. W. Phillips Field in teenage action.

In the top of the first the Sox were unable to score. The Cubs started the bottom of the first with four walks off the Sox young pitcher Jesse Espinoza; relieved by seasoned pitcher Avan Ceballos, who helped the Sox hold the Cubs to only four runs.

The White Sox scored four to tie the game in the top of the second. Runs were scored on doubles by Johnny Martinez, Heath Mann and Jaime Rivera, and a single by Tracy Lynch and a walk by Chris Sanchez.

The Cubs were unable to score the rest of the night while the White Sox continued to add runs to avenge a 5-3 loss to the Cubs earlier in the season. The White Sox scored three runs in the third on hits by Jesse Gonzales, Martinez, Mann and Mike Dossey. Two came in the fourth on hits by Gabriel Salazar, Martinez, Mann and Lynch. They scored six runs in the fifth with hits by Salazar, Gonzales, Martinez, Mann, Ceballos and Sanchez.

The Braves squeaked by the Colts 13-12 in the final game of the regular season.

Cade Proctor, Jason Lawson and Greg Parker all hit singles in the first inning. Their hits, along with three fielding errors by the Colts and a walk by Gary Ginkinger, let the Braves score three runs in the top of the first inning.

The Colts came right back and scored eight in the bottom of the first. Braves pitcher Greg Conway walked five batters. Sammy Luera, Nikko Biggers and Pete Rivera each hit singles to set up the scoring. The Braves had five fielding errors to allow the Colts to move around the bases.

The Braves tried to make a come back but could only score two in the second inning on singles by Doug Conner, Proctor and Conway. The Colts responded with two runs when six batters walked.

Neither team was able to score in the third inning. The Braves scored one in the fourth. The Colts were unable to score but held a 10-6 lead.

Both teams scored in the fifth--the Braves two and Colts one to make it 11-8.

The Braves made a comeback in the top of the sixth with four runs to pull them one ahead of the Colts. Doug Koch singled to start off the bottom of the sixth and was able to score on Braves errors to tie the game.

Conner scored one for the Braves in the top of the seventh. The Braves were then able to keep the Colts from scoring to win the game 13-12.

The Braves won the Teenage League championship with an 11-1 record. They are coached by Danny Molina and A. W. Phillips. Between games, the winning team was presented with a trophy. Three players were picked up from the league to join the Braves for post season play. They are Avan Cebellos and Johnny Martinez from the White Sox and Doug Koch from the Colts. They will be in District play in Sweetwater on July 24.

There were five home run balls hit over the fence this year--three by Jason Lawson of the Braves, two by Gabriel Salazar of the White Sox and one by Richard Gomez of the Cubs.

Letter to the editor

Thanks, everyone

TO THE EDITOR: I would like to tell you I am very proud of Loraine and Colorado City citizens. They showed me they are red-blooded Americans who stand up for what they believe in! The day I passed out petitions in both cities, I felt a little shy about asking some people. But almost everyone was glad to help in my effort to let the United States Supreme Court know we very much disagree with their flag burning decision. That is awful - almost a disgrace - to think of how many of our men and women have given their lives and how many have fought to see that our Old Glory could freely wave. I felt very fortunate to be able to mail in 740 names to Washington, D.C. to say we do disagree.

Thanks to everyone for everything. Gold bless each one.
