FARM BOARD SEEKS BEST FOR FARMERS

COOPERATIVES ORDER BLOW AT "ROLL TOP DESK FARMERS"

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Referring to complaints by grain dealers on the farm board policies on grain buying, Chairman Legge of the board said today that the recently formed wheat stabilization corporation was "still in the ring and does not hesitate to face the fire works."

The farm board chairman asserted a number of the complaints were "strikingly similar to propaganda to discredit stabilization operations."

He said the chief purpose of the operations in wheat directed by the board was to get the farmers the best possible price. Legge added this order to limit the advanced price for wheat to cooperatives was made after it was discovered that "roll top desk farmers" were taking the wheat out of the elevators and offering it on the market as country wheat in an effort to get the advanced prices.

FURTHER RESTRICTIONS GIVEN ON MARKET

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 27. (AP)—Further restrictions on acceptance of wheat by Farm Board Agencies at the loan basis price of $1.15 for No. 1 hard winter grain on the Kansas City market were announced today.

'SCOTCH' CAUSE FOR DIVORCE

CHICAGO, Feb. 27 (AP)—The credulity of Judge Harry A. Lewis was taxed by the case of Johnson vs. Johnson, divorce.

Mrs. Helen Grace Johnson testified her husband, Arthur, was a Scotchman, that he refused her permission to use a vacuum cleaner because it was too severe on the rugs; that he bought all the food—very carefully, and that he forced her to wear magnifying glasses at the table so the food would look like more.

"Surely," interposed the court at this point, "there is a limit, you know, to credulity."

"I am under oath," said Mrs. Johnson, "and I swear it."

She said there was one alarm clock for the whole family. When it rang in the morning, she had to rebind and reset it for other members of the family.

It is superfluous to state no alimony was asked or offered.

Agent's Death May Be Avenged

BORDER PATROLMEN SEEKING RUM RUNNER AFTER BATTLE

(By Associated Press)

EL PASO, Feb. 27.—The death of Ben T. Hill, immigration border patrolman, in a battle with smugglers here more than a year ago, may be avenged through a like battle in almost the same spot where Hill was shot to death.

Patrolmen today were searching for a man whose name was withheld but who had come under suspicion as a rummer, named by one of a trio of smugglers who surrendered after a futile gun battle last night in which they were aided by companions across the Rio Grande river.

The smuggler, Felipe Navarette was shot in the leg. The bullet which struck him was believed to have been fired by one of two companions who began shooting when three patrolmen encountered a trio of smugglers on this side of the river, ordered them to halt.

The smugglers caught between the fire of their friends and the officers dropped their liquor and surrendered.

Navarette, after his arrest, told of Hill's slaying and named the slayer, declaring he was one of the largest rum runners in the southwest.

WURZBACH ASKS EARLY HEARING ON CHARGES IN ELECTION

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 27 (AP)—Declaring he believed his vindication would be expedited by a speedy trial of the indictment against him in connection with charges of accepting contributions from office holders, Congressman Harry M. Wurzbach will seek to bring the case to trial as soon as possible.

Wurzbach made this statement in a telephone conversation from his home at Seguin, where he arrived yesterday. He asserted that "circumstances which developed since the date the indictment was returned" led him to believe it was returned "purely to prejudice my contest before the house of representatives." Wurzbach won the contest against Augustus McCloskey, who already had been seated as congressman from the 14th Texas district.

House Has Spoken

Du Pont Heard In Pro Debate

INDUSTRIAL LEADER IS FOR REPEAL OF DRY LAW, HE SAYS

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Pierre S. Dupont, leader in industrial and financial affairs, today opened the concluding session of the house judiciary committee's hearing on the dry law with the terse statement: "I am for repeal of the eighteenth amendment."

Chairman of the board of E. I. Du Pont De Nemous & company said the question of the use of alcohol must be solved because of its use to excess, and added that it was his opinion the excessive drinkers were few and could be accounted for largely in hospitals.

Advocates Plan

Du Pont picked up the thread of argument against the amendment where W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania railroad and republican national committeeman for Pennsylvania, had left off yesterday with the assertion that placing the sale of liquor under the control of the government, state and national, would advance the cause of temperance.

The hearing today was the last for those opposed to prohibition. Later, possibly next week, the friends of prohibition will have an opportunity to be heard, the committee having arranged to allot them the same amount of time used by the anti-prohibitionists.

Made Study

Du Pont told the committee of his industrial connections and said he became interested in the prohibition question in 1925 when approached by W. H. Stayton of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment. He said he had made a thorough study of the question and had reached the conclusion that he was "for the repeal of the eigh-

FARM BOARD'S PLAN IS NOW TO BE OPEN TO AMERICAN COWMAN

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—The federal government has offered the American livestock grower a chance to participate, like the grain, wool and cotton growers, in the farm board's stabilization program.

James C. Stone, vice chairman of the farm board outlined the proposal to representatives of the 27 livestock cooperatives who attended a meeting for that purpose yesterday. He said organization could be effected as soon as the plan is ratified by directors of the livestock cooperative sales associations.

Cooperatives did a total business of $300,000,000 last year, Stone pointed out. Ratification of the proposal is sought from at least two-thirds of the cooperatives.

To Form Association

Under the farm board plan, a $1,000,000 national livestock marketing association would be established to

NICHOLSON MARVELS AT CAVE SIGHTS

EXPLORER SAYS CAVERN OFFERS BEAUTY NEVER SEEN BEFORE

(Special To The Journal)

CARLSBAD, N. M., Feb. 27.—Amazed at the Carlsbad Caverns, Frank Ernest Nicholson, author and explorer, who will make an extensive study and exploration of the mammoth cave, has described the subterranean showplace as the most interesting thing he has observed during his international travels.

"Never in all my travels have I seen such a wonderland of nature," he said. "I did not begin to realize the immensity of the caverns until we reached the big room where all the lights were turned on. Indeed, I felt small and insignificant among the giant domes and under the towering ceiling."

Make Initial Trip

Nicholson, Superintendent Thomas Boles, Douglas Oliver, the nationally known boy scout, and Geron Mendenhall, who will make motion pictures of the underground exploits, have made an initial trip into the cave to get their bearings and prepare for actual work.

"Everything is in readiness," said Nicholson. "The park officials have given us every possible consideration and to my surprise and delight I found that the man detailed by the interior department to accompany us on all of our trips is Super-

MATTER OF TIME UNTIL GREAT LEADER WILL PASS, STATEMENT

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Broken by weeks of illness, William Howard Taft had lost so much ground in his fight for life today that his physicians said there remained no hope for recovery.

Confirming for the first time the fears of the family and friends of the former president and chief justice, Dr. Francis R. Hagner said at WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—After a visit to former Chief Justice Taft, Dr. Francis Hagner said at 1:30 p. m., today that there had been no change in the critical condition of his patient.

ter a morning call at the Wyoming Avenue home that it now was a question of days, and perhaps only of hours.

Is Critical

"Mr. Taft is in a critical condition," said the physician. "There is no hope of his recovery. Any improvement will only be temporary."

A general breakdown followed upon the combined inroads of the several ailments which early in February forced Mr. Taft to resign as chief justice, and thereafter kept him in bed under the anxious eyes of family and physicians.

Losing Battle

All along the battle was a losing one. He almost held his own for short periods; sometimes there were signs which gave his attendants some slight hope, although their official bulletins never reflected a confidence in his recovery.

His active life, the exertions of which kept him a national figure for a generation, levied heavily on his reserve strength, and left him with less than the normal fighting power of a man of his age. He was 72 last September.

News of his condition spread sadness throughout Washington. Immediately after Dr. Hagner's bulletin was received at the White House, the President and Mrs.

High School Play To Be Held Friday

With the promise that the amateur acting sometimes seen in high school plays will be entirely lacking in "The Quest," members of the senior class of Lubbock high school are offering the annual three-act presentation tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

The manner in which the family act under the new situation forms the telling of the story.

Patterson; the daughter, Constance, aged 17, Mildred Price; Wanda, another daughter, played by Maxine Clark; Billy the ten year old boy, James Lattimore; Herbert Ross, friend of Constance, George Slover; Doctor Wood, the family physician, Felix Ballinger; Mrs. Pat Mulligan, family housekeeper, Miss Lottie Mae Jordan.

At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing Nature's six life-giving salts are carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fibre of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

MORE TIME GIVEN WETS

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—Two additional days have been allowed the wets advocating modification and repeal of the eighteenth amendment in which to present their argument on the anti-prohibition measures before the house judiciary committee.

The witness slates are so large that Representative Linthicum, democrat, Maryland, leader of the house wet bloc, and Dr. F. W. Buck, secretary of the federal dispensary -tax reduction league, said they doubted if all could be heard.

At the judiciary committee rooms it was made known that no list of witnesses had been received from the Rev. Edwin Dinwiddie, of Washington, who has been requested by Chairman Graham of the committee, to take charge of the dry witnesses.

The first half of the all-day session today has been set aside for the witnesses advocating the Sabath resolution to modify the amendment, permit federal dispensaries to distribute liquor in packages.

Four Local Printers Arrested In Slaton

Warrants containing circulars which charged that the Slatonite, Slaton weekly newspaper, is not published by a union shop, four members of the Lubbock Typographical Union, J. R. Miller, Will White, E. C. Whittaker and Wallace Duke, were arrested yesterday afternoon at Slaton and charged with violation of a city ordinance which prohibits passing of circulars on the street.

They were released after Mayor Rose had warned them on the provision of the ordinance and were not fined.

This action on part of the Lubbock printers marks the latest development in a disagreement between the Slatonite and the local union, which resulted February 15 in a suit for $30,000 damages against the union by George H. Brown and W. C. Tillman of Slaton. After being expelled from the printers union, the plaintiffs alleged in their suit that action of expulsion was malicious, without and without

PANTAGES SAID TO BE SICK MAN

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27 (AP)—Alexander T. Pantages, multi-millionaire theater magnate convicted of assault was reported "a pretty sick man" by attendants at the county jail hospital today.

Pantages has suffered a series of heart attacks since his incarceration at the time of his conviction last October. One of the most serious attacks occurred Sunday. Dr. Benjamin Blank, jail physician, said Pantages was very sick and in considerable pain.

Pantages was sentenced to from one to fifty years in San Quentin penitentiary for an attack upon Eunice Pringle, 17, dancer, last August 9. He is held in the county jail pending decision of his appeal.

Disturbance Cuts Down Short Waves

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP)—Broadcast listeners, primed to tune in Europe via radio chains, today learned why they twisted their dials in vain last week.

Magnetic disturbances over the Atlantic robbed short wave signals of their strength so that when they arrived on this side they were too weak to rebroadcast. In fact, engineers explained, the disturbances comprise enemy more difficult to circumvent than static.

Failure of the short wave signals to push through these storm barriers, whose presence cannot be determined very far in advance, prevented the National Broadcasting company from carrying out several proposed pickups from abroad, C. W. Horn, general engineer, said. After spanning the ocean, the short wave signals are cut into the chain for rebroadcast.

Relief from Gas Stomach Pains Dizziness

The doctors tell us that 90 per cent of all sickness is due to stomach and bowel troubles. You can't be well if your digestion is bad; you are likely to get sick unless you relish food and digest it properly.

Tanlac has a wonderful record as a relief from digestive troubles, even those of years standing.

Local people, many of whom you know, are highly endorsing Tanlac. For example, Mrs. Ellen White says: "For years I suffered from indigestion. I got no relief from anything until I took Tanlac. After my fourth bottle I feel like a new person and have a fine appetite."

If you suffer from gas, pains in the stomach or bowels, dizziness, nausea, constipation, or torpid liver; if you have no appetite, can't sleep and are nervous and all run down, you need Tanlac. It is good, pure medicine, made of roots, herbs and barks. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Money back if it doesn't help you. Accept no substitute.

MRS. HUGHES FACES TRIAL

DOUBLE SLAYING CASE UP IN OKLAHOMA COURT TODAY

(By Associated Press)

TISHOMINGO, Okla., Feb. 27—A legal skirmish over admission of testimony by Sheriff Ruel Taylor relating to a purported confession made by Mrs. Ila Hughes, with whom A. J. Eastep, Bryan county farmer, is accused of plotting the deaths of their spouses, marked the opening of evidence today in Eastep's trial on charges of murdering Will Hughes.

The defense objection to Sheriff Taylor's testimony was overruled by Judge Porter Newman, and the sheriff described three different plans alleged to have been proposed by Eastep and Mrs. Hughes for killing her husband. The third plan, that of having Mrs. Hughes send her husband to the barn on their farm, there to be beaten to death by Eastep, was the one adopted. Taylor said the woman confessed to him shortly after her arrest. She related, the witness said, that she sent Hughes to the barn on the pretext the horses were in the corn, after a prearranged signal from Eastep.

CASE TRANSFERRED

LUFKIN, Feb. 27 (AP)—The case of Bob Lester, charged with attacking a white woman in this county last December, was ordered transferred today to Polk county for trial on a change of venue.

ABILENE EDITOR SEES CHANCE FOR LUBBOCK TO MAKE IMPROVEMENTS IN HIGHWAYS, PAVING, AIRPORT WORK

Max Bentley, managing editor of the Abilene Reporter-News, and a widely known writer and commentator, believes that Lubbock is backward in highways, paving and in providing facilities for air transportation.

An expression to that effect, however, was precluded by his generous praise of the city's growth and alertness of the local citizenship when he visited here yesterday.

Mr. Bentley was formerly managing editor of the Houston Chronicle and has been a correspondent for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, The Dearborn Independent and other publications. He returned to Abilene, where he was reared, three years ago to become managing editor of the Reporter and the News.

"I always thought, and predicted it on every hand, that Lubbock was destined to be an important city," he said, "only I did not know it would come so soon. I think the big city honor in West Texas ultimately will fall to either Lubbock, Abilene Amarillo, San Angelo or Wichita Falls, with each town's present chance against the other being no better than a toss-up. However, there is plenty of room for all to develop and reach, say, Fort Worth's present class by the time that Fort Worth has started on its third hundred thousand.

Praise For Abilene

"Our section, down Abilene way, has been hit with three bad crop years, but I offer our record regardless of unfavorable conditions as a fair example of a town that won't stop growing. Twenty years ago we started out to make Abilene a place where people would like to live for the sake of living, as well as a great center for the handling of goods, and we have progressed. Great sums have been spent in public improvements. Five concrete highways traverse the city with the sixth coming up this year and three more on next year's program. In a half-dozen years we will attain our goal of having all West Texas highways hooked into Abilene, directly or indirectly.

"The Abilene municipal air terminal is conceded to be the finest in Texas and one of the finest in the United States. Planned by the most distinguished of airport engineers, B. Russell Shaw of St. Louis, it is a perfect example of utility linked with beauty.

Mention Is "Nudge."

"I mention these matters only as nudge—a suggestion that when and if business conditions slow up here, there is all the more reason why Lubbock should forge ahead. This town is 'natural' if I ever saw one, and if you don't graduate into the big city class, and that right soon it will be Lubbock's own fault."

Fellow Solons To Honor Legislator

AUSTIN, Feb. 27. (AP)—The house of representatievs Wednesday adopted resolutions of respect in memory of Rep. N. R. Strong of Slocum, who died at his home. A committee was appointed to attend his funeral and the flag on the capitol was half-masted.

Rep. Strong was the second member of the house to die in two days, Rep. R. B. Ewing of Franklin having died Tuesday.

Until present members have been graduated from tenderfoot requirement there will be no room for additional members in troop No. 6 before April 15, L. B. Dilley, scoutmaster, announced today.

Any youth who wishes to make application should do so and reservations will be made for work to start as soon as room is created, he said.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

STAGE ALL SET FOR SECOND BATTLE OF PALMS

BIG GUNS READY FOR MIAMI SHOW

With Phil Scott and Jack Sharkey going 15 rounds in the feature mill, the second Battle of the Palms is on tonight at Miami Beach, Florida. The ring card takes on the aspects of a world war with Victorio Campolo and Johnny Risko, Tommy Loughran and Pierre Charles, and Jim Maloney and Moise Bouquillon matched in the preliminaries. Scott is English, Campolo a South American, Charles a Belgian and Bouquillon a Frenchman.

ROVING THE SPORTS WORLD

WITH ALLAN CARNEY
JOURNAL SPORTS EDITOR

Approximately forty counties of the Texas Panhandle will be represented tonight when the Ralls Jackrabbits and Spearman High quintet meet at the college gymnasium in the first game of the series to decide the basketball championship of Districts One and Two of the Interscholastic League.

The series beginning tonight marks the first bi-district playoff in several seasons that has been played in Lubbock. Ralls represents District Two and the Spearman aggregation will uphold the honor of District One. Two wins out of the three games will cinch the title for either team.

In spite of the fact that all the ballyhoo artists have failed to make anything out of the Sharkey-Scott melee at Miami Beach, the second battle of the palms tonight has excited considerable interest because of its international scope. Fight fans will get the fight details over their radios after all, thanks to the old reliable Associated Press. After Madison Square Garden authorities had announced that there would be no ringside broadcast, the Associated Press informed the country that the fight would be broadcast by remote control over a national chain. The stations are to get the blow-by-blow account from the Associated Press wire network and the description by the AP sports editor will be put on the air. The main event between Jack Sharkey and Phil Scott is scheduled to start at 10 o'clock Eastern Standard Time which is 9 o'clock Lubbock time.

Tomorrow afternoon on the college gridiron, the final game of the Tech intramural football series will be staged between the Aggies and Engineers. While the Engineers are strong favorites to win handily over the Farmers, the Wooldridge-Durham aggregation is certain to make a strong bid for the final game. If the Farmers turn back the favorites, the three teams will be tied for honors with a .500 percentage. The odds, however, are strongly against this.

After scanning the prospects for the eight clubs in the Texas league, there appears little left to do but pick Fort Worth, Houston and Wichita Falls to finish one-two-three in the 1930 campaign. The Panther owners have turned loose gobs of dough in assembling the most formidable array of baseball talent the Cowtown entry has had since the days of the Clements Cats. Manager Frank Snyder will have everything necessary to blaze the trail to Pennantville. The Kittens will have possible the best infield in the circuit, a powerful pitching staff and plenty of power at the plate. Snyder's work behind the bat and his ability to handle pitchers will be no small factor in Fort Worth's battle for honors.

The Houston Buffs should be able to finish in the money with their present outlay, but the St. Louis Cardinals are certain to send additional reinforcements to the Bayou City. More pitching seems to be the crying need of the Bisons as well as Wichita. The Spudders appear to have a strong-enough defensive club and a hard-hitting aggregation, but their lineup of slabmen doesn't look so hot.

Shreveport and Beaumont will put stronger teams in the field this year and Waco is certain to give the leaders plenty of trouble. Derrill Pratt can always be counted on to have a hustling ball club and the coming season is not likely to be an exception.

Fred Ankerman, president of the Houston club, is hopeful of uncovering a dark horse hurler in Tony Kaufman, former star moundsman of the Chicago Cubs. At one time when Kaufman was touting for the Bruins, Branch Rickey, business manager of the St. Louis Cardinals rated Kaufman and Pete Donohue as the best pitchers in the National League. Ankerman has a lot of faith in the curing powers of the warm Texas sunshine, which he believes will work wonders with Kaufman's soupbone. Tony's arm was injured several years ago and if the member can recover, the Buffs are likely to have in him an outstanding pitcher.

Strange as it may seem, Joe Mc Carthy, manager of the Chicago Cubs, believes his club will win the National League pennant again this year. He would be an unusual creature to predict otherwise. McCarthy points to the recovery of Gabby Hartnett's arm and the acquisition of Lester Bell at third base as the chief factors in the improvements made by the Chicago owners. Two recruit pitchers have also been added to the Cub roster.

Sled Allen Here On Visit Today

Fletcher M. "Sled" Allen, former major and minor league baseball star and affectionately known throughout West Texas as "The Father of Baseball in the Panhandle", was here today visiting old friends. Sled, as manager of the Lubbock Hubbers for several seasons beginning in 1922, brought fame to Lubbock as a baseball center.

For the past two and a half years he has been residing in Amarillo, relinquishing the managership of the Amarillo Western League baseball club in 1928 to assume managership of the Hillcrest country club, where he is still located.

BI-DISTRICT SERIES OPENS

CROWDS WAIT FOR FISTIANA SHOW TONIGHT

PARTICIPANTS HOPING FOR BEST BUT FEAR FINANCIAL FLOP

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 27 (AP)—Today was fight day along the palm-fringed boulevards, with the crowds and chatter, the balmy breezes and the twittering of the ballyhoo birds that flock to the midwinter carnivals of fistiana.

Behind all the gayety and the glamor of tropical scenes, the boys associated with the second annual battle of the cocoanut palms were hoping for the best, but fearing the worst—hoping an eleventh hour rush for the turnstiles would materialize, but fearing a financial flop; hoping that Phil Scott, the London fire laddie, would make a gallant fight of it all. But fearing that the rough and rugged American, Jack Sharkey, would turn the main event tonight into a one-sided punching bee.

Gentleman Jim Did It

Thirty-six years ago in Jacksonville, Gentleman Jim Corbett, American holder of the world's heavyweight championship, knocked out the pride of England, fiery little Charley Mitchell, in three rounds, in a fugitive prize fight that resulted in the arrest of all concerned as law violators.

Tonight, in the Miami arena built by the Madison Square Garden corporation of New York, Jack Sharkey enters the ring an overwhelming favorite to repeat Anglo-American boxing history by knocking out Phil Scott in the 15-round feature of an all-star heavyweight card of five bouts. Although there is no chance whatever of a sellout, the show appeared certain to attract a notable gathering of wealth and fashion, of talent and celebrities to the ringside.

No Title At Stake

No title was at stake, but the championship aspirations of the principals were involved, for the winner, whether Sharkey or Scott, will be within a stride of a decisive match for the world's heavyweight crown. Only Max Schmeling, German champion, stands in the path of the survivor, and Max is prepared to meet either Sharkey or Scott in June at New York.

Scott, the pale and apprehensive looking Briton, holds the championship of his homeland, but has yet to demonstrate either that he has a punch or that he has much ring ability beyond that of a fair boxer. Quiet by nature and at times even morose, Scott has been well conditioned, but failed to thrive mentally on American methods of gain stimulation from the vocal outpourings and the combative spirit of his New York manager, Jimmy Johnston.

Sharkey At Home

Sharkey, thoroughly at home, splendidly conditioned and experienced, has displayed every determination to remove the stigma of a somewhat erratic career and remove all obstacles in his path to the world championship battle. In speed, punch and resourcefulness, as well as confidence, the American has marked advantages over his British rival. Sharkey has been at his best during rushing, ripping types of fighters like Dempsey, Risko and Maloney. He has been at his best against less aggressive, less powerful punching foes such as Willie Maloney and Loughran. The experts regard Scott as made to order for Sharkey.

Under such circumstances, it has been small wonder that in spite of a supporting card of high caliber headed by the Victorio Campolo-Johnny Risko semi-final, masters of the old fashioned ballyhoo have been at their wits ends to stimulate interest in the fight show and gain consequent results at the box office. There has been little or no debate over the final bout, with Sharkey, a 5 to 1 favorite and picked to score a knockout inside of four or five rounds.

Sale of Tickets Low

Advance sale for the fight has been far below expectations. Forecasts depended upon factors of stimulation today, but it seemed reasonable to most observers to expect not many more than 25,000 customers, if that many, and a "gate" not much beyond $300,000. Garden officials stuck to a prediction of $300,000 or more.

The Campolo-Risko affair, regarded as more of a fighting magnet than the main event, promised the most exciting action of the evening, with the Argentina slight favorite to whip his pudgy American opponent because of big advantages in weight and punch. A six rounder between Raul Bianchi of Argentina and Bill Daring, heavyweight protegee of E. F. Hutton, New York and Palm Beach sportsman, opens the fisticuffs at 8:15 p. m., to be followed by a ten round preliminary between Jimmy Maloney of Boston and Moise Bouquillon of France. The semi-final was slated for around 9:15 and the main bout at 10, followed by a 10-round aftermath affair, involving Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia and Pierre Charles of Belgium.

ALPINE, Feb. 27 (AP)—Sul Ross college ended its basketball season last night by defeating McMurry 32 to 28. The game, besides giving them a clean sweep of their series with McMurry, brought them out of the T. I. A. A. cellar. Jones, with 12 markers, carried off high point honors.

CHATTER FROM TRAINING CAMPS

SHORTS ABOUT HAPPENINGS IN SPRING WORK OF MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL SQUADS

CATCH THEM

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—The New York Yankees evidently are trying to outdo one another in training camp stunts. The catchers failed in their attempts to snare balls tossed from an airplane, so yesterday some of the other players called in a blimp for the stunt and caught a few balls thrown from heights up to 380 feet.

The appearance of Robert Walsh, second pitching son of Big Ed Walsh of Chicago White Sox fame, aroused most of the interest in the regular workout. Rob took a ten minute turn on the mound and showed about as much "stuff" as any of the hurlers at this stage.

HAS SURPRISE

AVALON, Calif., Feb. 27. (AP)—Manager Joe McCarthy of the Chicago Cubs has a surprise for the members of the second squad which will arrive tomorrow—they will go right to work the same afternoon.

In announcing this—McCarthy also said the first practice game, scheduled with Jess Orendorff's baseball school team, had been postponed indefinitely.

POWLEY RECOMMENDED

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Bill Powley, young Pittsburgh semi-pro pitcher, comes well recommended to the New York Giants. It was Honus Wagner, famous "Flying Dutchman," who told Manager John McGraw Powley had the makings of a major leaguer.

But Powley got only a small part of McGraw's attention in the first workout directed by the Giant manager. The team went through two long hard workouts yesterday with a five inning game in the morning and six in the afternoon. And, as usual in the early training contests, the rookie team beat the regulars.

ROBINS NOW

CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—Brooklyn's Robins aren't the Robins until Dazzy Vance is on the job, so real practice starts today. The Dazzler turned up in camp last night ready to don his uniform and get down to work. Vance's appearance helped the team a lot, but there are a few holdouts. Bill Clark's salary demands have been met, but disputes are going on with Babe Herman, Ray Moss, Jim Faulkner and Harvey Hendrick. Manager Robinson said yesterday he had telegraphed each a personal request to accept the latest terms offered by the Brooklyn management.

ART DODGES THEM

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 27. (AP)—The fact that all members of the first squad had reported was of more importance in the camp of the Chicago White Sox today than the information that Art (The Great) Shires had been in San Antonio without giving his mates a tumble.

Art stopped in San Antonio on his way to Harlingen, Texas, to attend a banquet, but even dodged newspapermen. Dutch Henry reported yesterday and participated in the drill.

ROOKIE IMPRESSIVE

ST PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—There's a high school youngster from Hingham, Mass., with the Braves whose control and confidence have already greatly impressed Manager Bill McKechnie. Bob Brown pitched for his home town high school last spring and then moved to Westville, N. S., for the summer. He won 19 out of 20 games, several of them one hit affairs.

McKechnie thinks the boy has more chance of sticking with the Braves than many a rookie up from the minor leagues with a fine record.

FERRELL IS NO. 1

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 27. (AP)—Dick Ferrell, rookie catcher last season, was told he is No. 1 backstop with the St. Louis Browns this year by Manager "Billy the Red" Killefer, as he stepped to the plate to dust the cobwebs from his batting eye on the second day of the spring training jaunt.

"I told you last spring you were the best young catcher I'd seen come up in years," Killefer told the lad. "That still goes."

Fifteen players were in uniform. Eight were absent, but that was explained by the fact transportation had not reached some of the group.

UHLE ONLY ABSENTEE

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 29. (AP)—All but one of the Detroit Tigers pitchers have reported to Manager Bucky Harris at training camp here, and all are said to be in such good condition that a few practice sessions should put them in shape.

George Uhle, veteran right hander and the only absentee, is having his arm treated at Los Angeles.

SPEARMAN VS. RALLS TANGLE HERE TONIGHT

GAME WILL START AT 8 TONIGHT AT TECH GYMNASIUM

Interscholastic League basketball for the Texas Panhandle arrives at the climax of the 1930 season tonight at the Tech gymnasium with two district champions arrayed in the first game of a three-ply series to determine the bi-district title.

Approximately forty counties are represented by Ralls, District Two champion, and Spearman, winner of the District One tournament, in their battle for high honors in this section.

Starting time for the first game of the championship series has been set at 8 o'clock.

Rabbits Underdogs

While the odds favor the North Panhandle quintet, the Ralls cagers from Crosby county are conceded a fighting chance to stop the strong Spearman entry with the aid of the home environment. Both clubs have come through the season with remarkable records, but comparative scores in games with the Eateline quints favors Spearman.

Large delegations are expected from both Ralls and Spearman. Jackrabbit fans are likely to turn out en masse for the games here.

Selection of Lubbock as the site for the titular series came after officials from the two cities were deadlocked on other locations. Spearman held out for Canyon, while the Rabbit backers offered a tidy guarantee to bring the District One team to Ralls for the series. Lubbock was finally selected as a compromise.

Ralls Lineup Unchanged

Coach Froggie Lovjorn will send the same five out against the Spearman basketeers that carried the brunt of the fireworks in the district tourney here last week. This combination is made up of E. Walker and Perryman at forwards, King at center, Richards and T. Z. Walker at guards.

GENE TUNNEY PLANS TO "GET WELL" AND GO INTO "SOME BUSINESS"; HAS RECOLLECTIONS OF RING KNOCKDOWN

BY BRIAN BELL,
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 27. — Gene Tunney, retired undefeated heavyweight boxing champion of the world, plans to "get well" he said today, and then go into "some business." Convalescing from a recent operation in New York the man who left the ring and the championship behind 18 months ago looked forward with keen anticipation to seeing the heavyweights, who seek the honor he has discarded, do battle tonight. He has not seen a ring since he climbed between the ropes at the Yankee Stadium in July 1928 after his farewell bout with the rugged Tom Heeney at the Yankee Stadium in July 1928.

After a man has been knocked down, said Tunney, the most important thing for him to do is to get up. After a man has an operation his most important consideration should be to get well. He is now making satisfactory progress toward recovery of his strength, and when that is accomplished he will turn his mind to thoughts of business.

No Sign Of Invalid

There was no sign of the invalid about the former champion as he walked into the home of one of his oldest friends at Miami Beach where he did much of winter conditioning when he was the ruling king of the heavyweight group.

He carried a cane to bolster a side weakened by the surgeon's knife but the supporting stick seemed to apologize for its presence. There was no semblance of excess poundage, and, in fact, Gene reported his weight 192 pounds, the figure at which he boxed at his best.

"A really game boxer never hears the count of ten," he said. "If he can hear, he will get up," and again "the boxer who knows his business after he has been knocked down remains down until the count of nine. That nine seconds belongs to him, not to his opponent. It is his and his alone, and he has the right to it to clear his head. Only a foolish person, with perhaps some false pride, comes bounding to his feet before he has his nine seconds rest. Probably he will be knocked down again, and then he may not be able to get up."

The former champion talked freely and authoritatively of his only knock down in the seventh round of the second fight with Dempsey. "I had often thought, of course, that I might be knocked down sometime, and I had considered ways to offset this moment when, and if, it came. Usually there are two courses to pursue. Get up, grab and go down again for another count after the blow to the body, which is sure to come. And again if necessary. The other is to take advantage of a likely carelessness in your opponent and try to get in a telling punch at once. I could do neither. Dempsey kept his chin against his chest, and I could not hope to land a blow there. In 20 rounds I never struck him on the chin. So I adopted a third solution. I circled and got in two terrific punches, one of them the hardest I landed in either fight with Dempsey."

"What were your thoughts when you found yourself on the floor?"

"How pleasant and how comfortable it was there and this, mind you with one leg twisted up under my back."

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO—Jack Stewart, San Francisco, stopped Alex Howe, Honolulu, P. I., (5); Benny Gallup, St. Paul, outpointed Johnny O'Donnell, Denver, (6).

DETROIT—George Trafton, Chicago, knocked out Harvey Starr, Detroit, (3).

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Battling Sikl, Phoenix, outpointed Leonard Bennett, Detroit, (10).

Cheatham Not To Play In S. M. U. Tilt

AUSTIN, Feb. 27. (AP)—Frank Cheatham, University of Texas basketball player, and participant in an altercation after the S. M. U.-Texas basketball game with Bruce Kaufman, S. M. U. player will not play in the Texas-Aggie game scheduled for Saturday, H. J. Kitchen, director of athletics said last night.

The university faculty committee in a meeting called to find out the facts of the case called Coach Fred Walker to the meeting and after consulting with him agreed that his suggestion that Cheatham be kept off the squad would be the best policy.

PRATT, AT LEAST, KNOWS WHO HE IS GOING TO WORK WITH; TEAM IS TO BE STRONGEST SINCE CITY WENT CLASS A

(By Associated Press)

WACO, Feb. 27.—Manager Del Pratt of the Waco Cubs has at least one advantage over any other pilot in the Texas League as the 1930 season approaches. Barring holdouts he knows what he will have to work with. He is expecting no help from a major league club and can plan his campaign accordingly.

Where most of the diamond foremen, even after practice is well under way, will be casting their eyes toward the big leagues and wondering what Santa is going to drop into their stocking, Papa Pratt will not have that distraction. He will be busy fashioning another typical Pratt machine—probably not a pennant winner but one that will give them all a battle for their money.

Looks Like Winner

Taken by and large, the 1930 Waco model promises to be one of the strongest since this city went class A. Several stars of last year, including George Blackerby, Earl Caldwell and Wattie Windle, will be missing when the Cubs gather in the pint-size park here March 3 but prospects are that their places will be capably filled.

The outfield should be stronger, the pitching just as good, the catching more dependable and the infield a matter of conjecture. That infield problem is what the fans are doing some fancy worrying about just at present. If Pratt finds a combination that will hold up, the Cubbets should have a good year. If not, dust off a chair in the second division.

First Base Filled

One fourth of the inner works is set. Wally Stuvengen will be back to hold down first base. That settles that. But the matter of replacing Windle at shortstop, Joe Mellano at second, and Felix Vigare at third is something else again.

Tony Piet, who finished with the Cubs in such brilliant fashion last year that he was purchased by Cleveland, is expected to return and looks like the best bet at short. Three others will be after the job. They are Molesworth, a star in the Three-Eye last year; Boken, a flash with Midland in the West Texas last season, a produce of the Carolina league.

May Shift Piet

Manager Pratt has hopes that Molesworth will deliver in the shortfield in which event Piet probably would be transferred to second. The only candidates for the keystone sack are Isey Bandrimer, a veteran signed as a free agent after he had failed with Chattanooga last year, and Lennie Shires, younger brother of The Mr. Shires. Not a promising layout.

Providing he reports, George Gottlieber figures to replace Vigare at third without loss of strength. Gottlieber, obtained in a trade for Vigare, clouted .290 for Wichita in the Western league last year. Just now he is a holdout.

Outfield Strong

Getting around to more pleasant things, it is the outfield that has the fans aflutter. Pitchers that visit Katy Park this year are due to suffer. A possible lineup in the outer works includes Gene Rye, hard-hitting holdover in left, Frankie Zoellers great leadoff man in the Southern Association, in center; and Joe Munson, home run monarch of the Western league in right. Zoellers is a holdout at present, but is expected to sign.

In addition to this ball-spanking trio, the Cubs will have Big Ed Kallina, homerun king and leading batter of the West Texas league; Bob Sanguinet and Frank Roscoe, holdovers from 1929, and a pair of promising youngsters in Spearfirmer Southern Methodist University star and last year in the Three-Eye League, and Robin from the Carolina League. Kallina probably will draw the utility job.

Hurling Staff All Set

The pitching staff is set with five members of last year's mound corps returning. They are the three right-handers, Bill Harris, Preacher Thurman and Russell Brancheau, and two southpaws, Lefty Stein and Hank Thormahlen. To brace this nucleus, there will be House and Becker, both of whom won 20 games in the Western Association last season, and the usual number of youngsters. The pitching will do.

George Bischoff, first string backstop of the champion Dallas Steers last year, is expected to do the biggest part of the catching. If his throwing arm is in shape, the Cubs will have nothing to worry about in that department. Bischoff succeeds Bill Warwick, last year a regular mainman, who announced he would retire from the diamond. Jack Heath, chunky holdover, likely will retain his job as relief backstop.

HUSTON'S AID IN WORK TOLD

SENATE COMMITTEE IS TOLD OF OFFICIAL'S PART IN PLANS

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—How Claude H. Huston, now chairman of the republican national committee, had conferred with a representative of the Tennessee River Improvement Asociation concerning a proposed Muscle Shoals plank for both the democratic and republican platforms in 1928, was described today before the senate lobby committee.

The witness, Chester H. Gray, Washington representative of the American bureau federation, testified that he and J. W. Worthington, chairman of the executive of the Tennessee River Improvement Association, had conferred about the proposed plank and that Worthington had discussed the question with Huston.

Conferred on Planks

Gray also testified that after the conventions which nominated Herbert Hoover and Alfred E. Smith he and Worthington conferred concerning what each candidate would say on Muscle Shoals and that Worthington said he "had contracted with Huston on the same point.

Huston at that time was president of the Tennessee River Improvement Association which has opposed government operation of Muscle Shoals and advocated the proposal of the American Cyanamid company to lease the power and nitrate plant. He resigned his position when elected chairman of the republican national committee a few months ago. The lobby committee expects to call him as a witness.

Gray explained that the plan agreed upon was to have the board of directors of the American Farm Bureau Federation, which has cooperated in advocating the Cyanamid bid, offer resolutions on Muscle Shoals at both the Houston and Kansas City conventions. He said he drew the resolutions which were changed by the board of directors.

Conference Sought On Hospital Plans

AUSTIN, Feb. 27 (AP)—The board of control today decided to seek a conference with the people of Galveston for the purpose of making definite arrangements for placing the psychopathic hospital authorized by the legislature in that city.

Claude Teer, chairman, explained that the board had not definitely decided on Galveston as the site but that it wanted to discuss the proposition with the proper authorities there so it could have all information when and if it did make such decision.

The legislature directed that the hospital be placed in either Galveston or Dallas and left the matter of location to the board of control.

Twitty Has Warning To Drivers Of Cars

Fire Chief W. E. Twitty issued a warning last night to drivers of automobiles and trucks in Lubbock at time of fire sirens.

"We have been experiencing some trouble with drivers," he stated and on various occasions have narrowly averted serious accidents, all due to the fact that citizens are careless in observance of the national fire laws.

"When a fire siren sounds, every unit of the department is automatically given right-of-way on all streets, avenues and alleys while drivers of any other vehicle are required to immediately drive to the curb, or as close as possible and stop.

"The law also reads that no one, unless designated by the department, shall park within 600 feet of a fire or between the truck and scene of the blaze if the distance is greater than 600 feet. This distance also applies to following of trucks by automobiles."

Moderation! THE FRIEND that prolongs your youth

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence

Men who would keep that trim, proper form, women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain that lithe, youthful figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette a man ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

Thought For Today

Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry; for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.—Ecclesiastes 7:9.

Men often make up in wrath what they want in reason.—W. R. Alger.

A Gold Mine

From the looks of the publishers' catalogue, every literate American over 20 years of age who owns a typewriter is spending all of his spare time writing novels.

New books are pouring out in a flood that seems to get deeper as time goes on. No living mortal can remember the names of all the new books brought out in the past year—or the names of the new authors. Whether or not any big percentage of these new books is being sold, at least they are being printed.

The surprising thing is that so many of them are good. We have left the sugar-sweet romances far behind, and heavy literature is breaking about us in waves. Let no man say again that the American public never stops to think. Apparently that is all it is doing.

Yet there is a peculiar thing about these books. If you survey the field, you may presently find yourself wondering if American novelists are not somewhat blind.

What are the current best sellers? Well, there is a book tracing the wanderings of a Florentine coronet down through the ages. There is a book about love and cocktails among New York newspaper folk. There is the life story of a prize fighter. There is the story of a poetic young artist who goes to New York from the raw middle west in search of beauty. There are two or three stories about hectic goings-on among the landed gentry of England. There are sundry detective stories and a flock of war novels.

Many of these books are very well done. Yet not one of them plumbs the depths of current American life. Not one of them has taken advantage of the amazing absorbing fables that the nation constantly produces. A daily newspaper comes closer to giving a picture of "The American scene" that the reviewers talk about so much than do any of her novels.

American life as it is today offers one of the most interesting and exciting fields any creative writer could ask for.

A hundred novels could be written about Chicago. The automobile field around Detroit could inspire as many more. Pennsylvania's steel and coal district ought to draw the attention of novelists by the dozen. And what character in any novel is half as glamorous as interest-compelling, as such Americans as—for instance—Harry F. Sinclair, Al Capone, E. L. Doheny, Henry Ford, Clarence Darrow or William Hale Thompson?

But we don't get these things in our novels. We get stories of marriage, studies of Long Island society, studies of "the new woman," studies of night clubs, and the like. A gold-mine is awaiting exploitation, and our novelists are ignoring it.

The growth of literary activity in America is encouraging. But American literature will not come of age until writers generally look about them and turn their attention to the great, fundamental currents of American life.

Publicity

There is nothing so deadly to corruption and mismanagement in governmental affairs as publicity.

Chicago's financial mess dates back to favoritism and incompetence that prevailed in her tax assessments. For many years the assessments were kept secret; and so, though they were amazingly unequal and unjust, no one knew it, and those who were being fleeced never protested.

A couple of years ago, however, the State Tax Commission ordered the assessment published. And then the trouble came. Chicago citizens rose in wrath, and while the present period of bankruptcy is mighty unpleasant it will end in a much fairer, more efficient assessment and Chicago will be much better off.

Shady political exploits are always pulled off in the dark. If the light of publicity is kept shining all the time graft and incompetence can't get very far.

THE PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says what really reduces reducers is worry over what they can't eat.

SINCE officials of the West Texas Gas company have thus far not seen fit to say anything in regard to the controversy over rates in Lubbock, The Plainsman has decided to let someone else do the firm's talking. We don't want to make this thing one-sided and we have quoted persons to the effect that the rates here are 'out of line'. That being the case, The Plainsman presents a letter written and delivered to this office by a Lubbock business man in which he defends the gas company's rates.

The name of the writer of the following letter is being withheld because the writer does not wish to become embroiled in the question. While he readily admits that the coming of the gas company has given his concern a great deal of business, the letter writer says he is defending the gas company in a spirit of fairness and The Plainsman, knowing him, willingly accepts it as such. Here's the letter:

GAS RATES.

"It has been noted the statements and interest The Plainsman has recently made and taken in the rates for natural gas in Lubbock.

"The occasion for the sudden awakening on the part of The Plainsman that Lubbock has natural gas is not known but to the writer it appears that there are several considerations to be given thought before complaint is made on the gas rates in Lubbock.

Big Sum Spent

"The company supplying Lubbock with natural gas made a proposition to the city officials and it was accepted. To comply with their contract this company has spent hundreds of thousands of dollars, much of which was disbursed here in our city.

"The rates fixed by the gas company were no doubt based on what it requires to make a return on the investment made in placing gas to our city, from past experience in placing gas in new territories.

"As a user of natural gas in Lubbock it is the writer's candid opinion that to arrive at what could be called a just charge for this fuel is in comparison of what it cost to receive like comfort in the manner of heat and cooking facilities before gas was made available. The writer maintains a household and his gas bill for last month was $20.92 and feels that he knows whereof he speaks when he states that to heat and cook with natural gas at the present rates is cheaper and far more convenient than any other methods available in Lubbock. What more could anyone ask or desire?

Cites Amarillo

"It may be true that a city one hundred and forty miles more near the gas fields have cheaper rates. Why shouldn't they? The cost to the company supplying them was naturally less for equipment and plant investment and also the city we will wager consumes far greater quantities of gas than the city of Lubbock does at the present time.

"As far as the writer knows the West Texas Gas company of the South Plains Pipe Line company did not require or ask a donation of any kind to persuade them to enter our midst nor was there a requirement that made the citizenship buy their gas at unreasonable prices. The other more economical methods of heating and cooking are available if one is considered after comparison.

Says Need Praise

"The writer truly feels that the West Texas Gas company and the South Plains Pipe Line company should receive word of praise and commendation from the pen of The Plainsman in place of condemnation for the interest they have shown in our great South Plains in making their large financial investment and the locating of their main offices here that were formerly in Amarillo affording the city of Lubbock a larger number of families a larger payroll increasing the city school and county tax revenue, and going much toward making Lubbock an attraction to future manufacturing possibilities.

"This is written with one object in view and that is to ask on the part of The Plainsman, who seems to be the chief party making objection to the gas rates in Lubbock that he give consideration and thought to every phase of the matter under discussion and compare the value received with any other merchandise he may purchase or sell and see if he cannot without any controversy say that he got value received when he receives his gas bill.

"The party writing this has no interest in the gas distributing company but is interested in full fairness to everyone and feels that he has gotten value received when he receives his gas bill each month."

THE Plainsman's comment on the letter is short and, he hopes, sweet. First let it be said that this column is glad to get everybody's opinion on the gas situation and is crying for more, whether they be for or against the survey under way on the rates.

Referring to the letter, The Plainsman's 'sudden awakening' has not been to the effect that Lubbock has natural gas but to the effect that at least one city receiving service from the West Texas Gas company has received an 11 and 1-9th per-

Senate's Fight Over Hughes One Of Outstanding Events Of Hoover Regime And More Woe Is Coming, Dutcher Says

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The fight made in the Senate against confirmation of Charles Evans Hughes as chief justice has done more to damage the sacrosanctity of the supreme court than anything else that has occurred in this generation.

Almost for the first time the court has been badly belaboured on the Senate floor and the probability is that it will take many more jousting in the future.

The spontaneous nature of the uprising and the non-partisan character of it provided the most significant legislative phenomenon to appear thus far in the Hoover administration. Until the wave of protest began to mount, no one had imagined the possibility of a three-day battle, led by some of the biggest figures in the Senate and resulting in a one-third vote against confirmation.

Ole Corporations' Power

It should be kept in mind that Chief Justice-Hughes fight represented no personal enmity against the ever-increasing power of huge corporations as it used against the public interest. No one denied that Hughes was the most distinguished leader of the American bar. What his opponents said was that the court had been consistently lining up its to three in favor of property rights over the people. It was that Hughes had made grave sumin the line of the large corporations during which he often opposed the public interest that the court should not be unanimously stacked against the people and that Hughes probably would be more reactionary than Taft.

The incident is worth considering from the standpoint of its future effect on the supreme court including Mr. Hughes on Congress, on the administration and on the national politics—leaving aside speculation as to deeper and more fundamental ramifications.

As Walsh of Massachusetts predicted while promising to vote for Hughes, the court is going to be under close scrutiny. Members of Congress who are not primarily subservient to private interests will watch closely for further indications of the application of personal economic viewpoints in decisions of high public importance and the more intelligent section of the public itself has had its attention forcibly drawn to the court and its immense importance as an instrument of government.

Probably even the conservative majority on the supreme court would rather not subject itself to a constant fire of criticism if that can be avoided. It may be suggested on the court's behalf that the dominant economic opinion of the country is in line with its majority viewpoint, but both its friends and foes admit that the court is supposed to act judicially and not from economic prejudice.

President Hoover's fresh Florida fish can hardly have tasted so good during the Hughes fight here. The one thing calculated to break his heart would be to have the Senate turn down one of his major nominations as it turned down Coolidge's nomination of Charles B. Warren for attorney general. Having already been forced to capitulate to Pennsylvania and Kansas politicians in appointing federal judges whom the Department of Justice was reluctant to approve, the president must now see his chief justice take office under fire.

Encourages Progressives

The pesky progressives in the Senate will be cockier than ever. They have united valiantly on a moral-economic issue in a sensational struggle which aroused nearly everyone, packed the Senate galleries and brought enthused liberals from nearby cities dashing to the capital to hear the debate. Now that they have made their issue they are not likely to let it drop.

The echoes of the Hughes fight are certain to be heard in several of the sensational campaigns this year and it is altogether likely that the supreme court and its decisions will be made an issue in highly important national campaigns before the electorate.

Considerate

LONDON—Considerate fellows are those marines. The Scottish guards proposed a bayonet contest. "We might hurt some of you fellows," said the marines. Instead, there is to be a shoot between teams from the marines and the Queen Victoria rifles.

With Swan

NEW YORK, Feb. 17—Second avenue is haunted by some of Manhattan's most colorful ghosts.

There's Mishka; there's Costica; there's Rigo—and a dozen others, whose wraiths still sing, dance and fiddle behind the garish electric signs of Chinese restaurants and cellar jazz joints which now cast their golden reflections against the Hebrew characters of little delicatessens and small shops.

Perhaps Mishka was better known to First than to Second avenue. After all, there is but a block between them. He was head violinist of his gypsy tribe, which came drifting into town for the winter and went drifting out again for the spring.

Mishka did not affect the costume of his countrymen. But for the small gold ear-rings, he might have been passed up as any other immaculately dressed artist. Only First and Second avenues knew how they thronged to hear him at the Hermitage in Paris. But it didn't take them long to find out—it seldom does in New York.

Moscow, Berlin and Picadilly knew him as a leader of gypsy bands, and when New Yorkers found it out—

Mishka could have made plenty of it. Two—three-hundred dollars a week . . easily! They tell tales up and down the east side of how, after a namadic year, he would return bearing his weight in dollars worth of—

Malaria Study Is Asked Of Solons

PARIS, Feb. 27 (AP)—The Texas legislature was memorialized today to appoint a committee to study malaria problems in the state by a gathering of health experts and doctors representing 16 Northeast Texas counties here.

The conference was sponsored by the East Texas Chamber of Commerce in an anti-malaria campaign.

Resolutions adopted called on both the legislature and the governor to give the problem serious consideration; that lessons on malaria be taught in schools; that systematic control measures be adopted by both cities and counties, and that county-wide conferences be called to discuss means of securing malaria control.

It Is Folly To Stay Fat

The proof is everywhere. In every circle you can see that excess fat is disappearing fast. Modern science has found a major cause of excess fat in a weakened gland. In late years, physicians the world over have been fighting that cause. They do not rely on starvation.

This modern method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. Each box contains the formula, as prepared by famous experts. People have used these tablets for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Now nearly all have friends who show the results in new beauty, health and vigor.

Go try Marmola. Test the right way to reduce. The results will amaze and delight you. All druggists supply Marmola at $1 a box.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

INHERITED OVERWEIGHT YIELDS TO PROPER DIET AND EXERCISE

Hereditary Overweight

One of our correspondents, Mrs. A, sends me an article on obesity by a doctor, an article that is so absolutely wrong and out of date that I am astounded that a doctor of his standing should sponsor it. It promulgates the old idea that there is an hereditary overweight, and a glandular type, in which it is useless for the victim to diet, for (she says) their diets have nothing to do with the condition, as their excessive weight is not due to overeating.

This is as false as was the notion, held many years that malaria was due to bad air. While there is no doubt that there are obesities which accompany glandular disturbances, and there is no doubt that obesity does "run" in families, in both cases they can be controlled by the proper diet and exercise (unless it is contra-indicated) for they are both due, as are all obesities, to overeating for the needs.

In the case of the glandular disturbances there is a great probability that the glands have become disturbed because of the wrong diet which brought on the overweight and after they are disturbed, the metabolic rate (the burning and usage of foods in the body) may be depressed so that still less food is needed, thus forming a vicious circle. At the same time, the weight CAN be controlled, as I have said before many times, by the proper diet. These glandular cases, I agree should be under the care of physicians, for they may need medication also, but it must be a physician who recognizes that the diet is the most important factor.

Our correspondent, Mrs. A, is discouraged because she is 29 years old and weighs 211 pounds and believes that her case is hereditary and nothing can be done about it.

Now, Mrs. A., I want to give you an excerpt of a letter that arrived in the same mail with yours. It will cheer you up.

"Dear Doctor Peters: March 24, 1928, may be only a past date to you, but to me it means the beginning of a new life, for it was on that day that my physician gave me your little red book, Diet and Health. Under his guidance and your book, I reduced from 259 to my normal weight of 135—a loss of 124 pounds—in 15 months. I was afraid this excess weight was a natural heritage from my maternal grandmother, who spent her last years in helplessness on account of her extreme weight. I am truly another woman—feel fine, look fine and am fine, and have taken off no less than ten years from my appearance. I am certainly in much better condition to be a fitting companion to one of the best husbands in the world. Naturally, I cannot thank you enough for the help you have given me.

MRS. J.

Now you see, Mrs. A., there is no reason why you should continue with such a handicap as you have. You are not only in line for diabetes and other degenerative diseases, but you are losing most of the joy of life in your present condition. So send for our Peterising pamphlet which has in condensed form the instructions I have given in my book. I suggest you have a physical check-up and be under the guidance of a physician, but you must get one who isn't a Rip Van Winkle.

Editor's note: Dr. Peters cannot diagnose nor give personal advice. Your questions, if of general interest, will be answered in the column in their turn. Requests for articles or pamphlets on hand must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed stamped envelope plus the following small charge to help cover cost of printing and handling: for each article wanted, two cents in coin. The pamphlets are: Reducing and Gaining, Hygiene of Women, Kidney and Bladder Disorders. Address Dr. Peters in care of this paper. Write legibly and use over 200 words.

ACTION TO REMEDY DEFECTS OF JURY SYSTEM PROPOSED

Florence Ellinwood Allen was born at Salt Lake City, Utah, March 23, 1884. She is a graduate of Western Reserve university, later studying law at the University of Chicago and New York university. In 1904 he became assistant Berlin correspondent for the New York Musical Courier. She was music editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer from 1906 to 1909. After lecturing on music in New York City, she began practicing law in Cleveland in 1914. From 1921 to 1926 she was judge of the court of common pleas, Cuyahoga county, O. She was then elected to the supreme court of Ohio and re-elected in 1929. She is a Democrat and unmarried.

The American people are possessed of an extraordinary mobility of mind. Sometimes this quality manifests itself in some excellent achievement as for instance in the amazing speed and efficiency with which we transported our troops to France during the World war. In many instances, however, our versatility and adaptability constitute a real danger.

We are now confronted with a hue and cry for the abolition of the system of the trial of cases by a petit jury. The law's delays, the cumbersome and technical features of our judicial system which have too often proved a hindrance to the genuine establishment of justice, have created a natural resentment in the public mind. One or two outstanding cases of faulty verdicts rendered by juries have crystalized that public resentment into an attack upon the jury system, and we find lawyers and laymen imputing to jury trial disadvantages which should be ascribed to entirely different features of our judicial organization.

The irritating and unjustifiable postponement of cases which causes great money loss to witnesses and litigants; the waste of time through unwarranted reversals of judgements upon technicalities for instance are not ascribable to the jury system. They are entirely due to our failure to remedy the defects of general trial procedure.

Let us first sincerely try to remedy the current defects of the operation of the petit jury in the United States, to abolish evasion of jury service, to enlist the sympathy of the citizenship in jury service, before we even seriously consider discarding an institution which is used successfully in most of the great civilized countries of the world.

The fact that the right of trial by jury is given by the federal and state constitutions as one of the rights that shall remain inviolate to the citizen is most significant in connection with the claim that the jury should be dispensed with and all questions of fact be submitted to judges.

Why was this right safeguarded not only in the federal constitution, but in the constitution of every state in the union? The inquiry needs no answer. It was a right that the people knew was of the utmost importance for the safety of civilized government, and therefore they made it a part of the supreme law of the land that could not be dispensed with by mere legislative enactment.

What Price LAZY APPETITE

"Dear, are you not glad you followed my suggestion when I urged you to try S.S.S. for your lost appetite?"

HAVE you an indifference or loathing for food, or do you really enjoy mealtime?

Fads and fancies come and go. We must be reasonable. You can't afford to wreck your body by "killing" an appetite given you by Nature to nourish your body.

You must really enjoy your meals and assimilate them to restore the waste of the body. Don't expect a trong, sturdy body and a keen mind to carry on if you do not enjoy your food. It just can't be done. Friends, happiness and business success may depend on a keen appetite.

Many thousands have turned to S.S.S. when the appetite signaled danger. It is a time-tested remedy . . . purely vegetable. Easy to assimilate. Pleasant to take. It will do much to restore the natural appetite. It will not act instantly, but, be assured, when taken according to directions, it will usually bring back your desire to eat and enjoy your food. This you well know is the basic step for health. Simply reason it out for yourself and you will agree that it is the practical way.

And remember, S.S.S. will help you get your blood-cells back up to normal. Then that sluggish, let-down feeling and skin troubles will disappear. You should sleep soundly. Firm flesh should take the place of that which was once flabby. You should feel strong. Your nerves become steady.

S.S.S. gives to Nature what it needs in making you feel like yourself again. At all drug stores in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

Epidemic of Contagious Foot Disease Frightens Millions

CALLED ATHLETE'S FOOT

Caused By
Tinea Trichophyton
A Vegetable Parasite

Symptoms
Itch Under Toes—
Soften Toes—
Cause Itching—
Cracks and Blisters

Stop Infection
Before It Spreads

Look at your feet to-night and especially under and between toes—you may be infected with the vegetable parasite known to science as Tinea Trichophyton—let us hope you are not.

The United States Public Health Service assert in a recent bulletin that at least one half of all adults suffer from it at times—men, more than women.

Bear in mind it is no disease to trifle with for many of its victims have been disabled for life.

They call this modern disease Athlete's Foot because the germ Trichophyton breeds on the floors of the dressing rooms of gymnasiums and athletic clubs—also on shower boards and mats and near swimming pools.

When this parasite first attacks there is an eruption followed by itching (often intense) the skin cracks—it blisters—when the blister breaks there is an oozing of liquid.

If not caught in time the disease usually spreads along the sole and sides of the foot—the skin reddens and may peel off.

CAUTION: The disease is infectious—someone in your own home may have it—(find out to-night). Beware of bathmats, either at home or in hotels—use a newspaper—it's safer. Wear your own slippers and walk as little as possible in your bare feet.

TREATMENT: After bathing the feet apply Moone's Emerald Oil generously, not only under and between the toes but over the bottom and sides of foot. This powerful oil soothes and penetrates—stops the itching and checks the growth of the germs of the vegetable parasite.

Pharmacists everywhere in America dispense Moone's Emerald Oil—a bottle lasts a long time.

THE PLAINSMAN

cent domestic rate reduction and Lubbock has received no cut in ratio.

Gas is the most convenient method of heating and fuel available in Lubbock, as stressed previously in this column but the letter is wrong when it purports that gas is the cheapest fuel. It is not.

The Plainsman, also as previously stated here, does not believe gas should be furnished here as cheaply as it is in Amarillo. He does believe however, that if Amarillo is worthy of an eleven percent decrease in domestic rate, Lubbock is likewise due a cut in the same ratio. Amarillo's original rate was cut from 75 to 40 cents. Lubbock's original rate of 67 1-2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet is still being charged.

Just because the city commission at one time agreed to the proposal made by the gas company is no reason to accept the provisions all the rest of Lubbock's natural life. That proposition was made and accepted more than three years ago. Conditions change in a growing country in that length of time.

* * *

The Gas company asked no donation to enter Lubbock, which is commendable. But neither did the telephone company, the Texas Utilities, the business operated by the writer of the letter and many other firms. That fact is nice—but "nothing to write home about."

As for commending the gas company for its entrance here, its moving its headquarters here and constructing a building, The Plainsman refers the letter writer to the first article on the gas situation, written nearly two weeks ago where that angle of the case was given due consideration.

The Plainsman, as has been stated before, is staging no 'fight' against the gas company. He is supporting a survey of natural gas rates over the Southwest to see if the rates here are 'in' or 'out' of line. This column is first for Lubbock and Lubbock people, who will never lack a champion in publicity as long as this column is in operation, and invites the opinions of readers on this and every other public issue.

Telephone Earnings Increase 7 Million

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 27 (AP)—Gross operating revenues of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company, made public in the annual statement last night, totaled $85,315,969 in 1929, exceeding the 1928 figures by more than $7,000,000. Net earnings available for interest and dividends was $21,938,367 as compared with $19,563,472 for the previous.

STOCKS MAKE MORE GAINS

RECOVERY CONTINUED ON MARKET TODAY; UTILITIES LEAD

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP)—The recovery in stock prices was resumed at the opening of today's market, with the high priced industrials and and specialties again in the forefront of the advance. Eastman Kodak and J. I. Case quickly ran up more than 2 points each, the former touching a new high level for the year. American Telephone, American Smelting, Bethlehem Steel, General Electric and Union Carbide improved fractionally. U. S. Steel common, selling ex-dividend, showed a slight recession on the first sale.

Public utilities gave one of the best demonstrations of group strength. American Telephone, American Water Works and Stone & Webster advanced 2 points or more while Pacific Lighting, American Power & Light, Standard Gas & Electric, North American and Western Union were among the many issues to sell a point or so higher on the first outburst of buying.

Foreign exchanges opened steady, with sterling quoted 1-32 of a cent higher at $4.86 1-16.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Indications that the wheat stabilization corporation was again purchasing future delivery contracts had much to do with brisk new advances in wheat prices early today. Traders flocked to the buying side of the market, and were given further encouragement through higher quotations at Liverpool and as a result of confirmation of previous large future delivery purchases on the part of government sponsored agencies.

Opening 7-8c to 1 1-8c up, Chicago wheat futures scored material further gains, and then fluctuated rapidly. Corn, oats and provisions were also firmer, with corn starting unchanged to 1-2c higher and subsequently rising all around.

ROCK ISLAND HAS BOND ISSUE PLAN

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway company last night announced plans for a $32,228,000 issue of 4 1-2 per cent convertible 30-year bonds to be offered to common and preferred stockholders at 95. The issue is subject to approval of the stockholders at their annual meeting on May 1 and of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Proceeds of the sale will be used for additions and improvements, including the road's construction program now in progress in the southwest.

Bomb Explosion Is Fatal To Workman

MARION, Ind., Feb. 27 (AP)—John Ashcraft, employe of a local mould works was fatally injured last night when a bomb attached to the starter of his automobile exploded on a downtown street. He died in a local hospital more than an hour later, the third victim in Marion in the past few months of explosions involving mould workers.

Ranchman's Wife Makes Statement

"I Suffered From Acute Indigestion But Since Taking Orgatone (Argotane) I Am Entirely Relieved," She Says

"It's the truth, before I had taken one bottle of Orgatone (Argotane) I began to notice a big change in my condition, and was feeling much better," said Mrs. W. M. Coleman, of 3009 Tenth Street, Wichita Falls, Texas, wife of a well-known ranch owner.

"I have suffered from acute indigestion for about five years, and just couldn't get hold of a medicine that would relieve me this trouble. I had gas that formed on my stomach after every meal, and I was very bilious and had severe nervous spells, and at times couldn't rest well at nights. I got so I just didn't feel like eating anything for I knew that I would suffer afterwards, and had to be very careful of what I did manage to force down.

"Orgatone (Argotane) was advertised so highly and so I decided to give it a trial. I haven't had a spell of indigestion since I began taking it. Eat anything now I want, and am not bothered in the least. I'm not bilious or do not have the gas condition, and am feeling better in every way. Orgatone (Argotane) has certainly done me a world of good and I am glad to give this statement."

Genuine Argotane may be purchased at Bowen's Drug Store. Adv.

COTTON OPENS EASIER TODAY

FIRST TRADES RECORD LOSSES OF 5 TO 8 POINTS

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 27 (AP) — Cotton opened somewhat easier in sympathy with lower cables, and first trades showed losses of 5 to 8 points. The market continued to rule easy in early trading, May dropping to 15.07, and July to 15.29, or 6 to 9 points under the previous close. The market appeared to be influenced by threatened adverse legislation at Washington.

The market following the early dip on unfavorable cables, rallied later on the improvement in wheat which caused short covering, and May traded up to 15.23 and July to 15.48, or 16 to 19 points above the lows.

Towards noon the market was very quiet, and prices were steady and 4 to 5 points under the highs.

DECLINE IS FROM 3 TO 10 POINTS IN N. Y.

NEWYORK, Feb. 27, (AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 3 to 10 points under a renewal of near month liquidation evidently incident to the circulation of March notices estimated at about 15,400 bales. March sold off to 14.90 under pressure of early offerings, or 15 point snet lower, but otherwise there was not much selling, and after showing net declines of about five to 15 points, the market steadied on trade buying and covering.

Trading was only moderately active later, and prices held generally steady, being influenced by firmness of wheat, particularly the May delivery in Chicago. Prices worked about 3 to 8 points above yesterday's close with May selling up to 15.37 and October to 15.82. The market was within a few points of these figures at midday.

LETTERS CAUSE LAUGHS, WORRY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Lots of laughter and a little uneasiness make up the senate's response to a series of threatening letters recently received by several of its members.

Most of the senators are inclined to regard the missives as the work of some harmless crank and scoff at the possibility of danger. One member, however, grew apprehensive at a letter threatening to toss bombs into the senate chamber and suggested that several buckets of water be kept at hand for this emergency.

Vice-President Curtis, Republican Leader Watson and Senator Copeland are among those who have received letters. Copeland's warned him to stay away from the senate for a couple of weeks. Senator Watson laughed and tossed his letter into a wastebasket.

Most of the epistles have been turned over to the department of justice for investigation, and there is some evidence at the capitol of the activities of its agents.

Changes To Be Made In Rail Personnel

HOUSTON, Feb. 27 (AP)—Forty four years ago G. S. Waid began his career with the Southern Pacific railway as a young freight brakeman, and on March 1 he will retire as vice president and general manager of the system's Texas lines.

L. B. McDonald, assistant general manager, will succeed his chief, who will be pensioned; A. D. Mims, supt. of the Houston division, will take McDonald's old place; G. B. Goodloe, Victoria division supt., will succeed Mims, and Thomas Scott will become superintendent at Victoria.

SHOWS DECREASE

AUSTIN, Feb. 27 (AP)—Net operating income of Texas railroads for 1928 showed a decrease of 1.58 per cent from the preceding year, according to a compilation released today by the railroad commission.

The net operating income for 1929 was $42,409,767 against $43,091,645 for 1928.

GIRL TELLS OF MURDERS

TWO MORE MURDERS ARE ADDED TO BAKER'S LIST

DETROIT, Feb. 27 (AP)—A 17-year-old girl today added new chapters to story of James Baker, who boasts of ten or more murders by poison and gun and who is now awaiting trial in New York for the killign of Henry Gaw by the former method in December, 1928.

The girl, Eleanor Roy, is a daughter of a farmer at hose home near here Baker was captured. Two Detroit murders, which Baker confessed to New York detectives but failed to mention while in custody here, were fresh in his mind when he went to work at the farm in March, 1929, and he told her about them in minute detail, according to a statement of the girl to Assistant Prosecutor John D. Watts.

The girl contributed two material pieces of evidence—a knife which she says Baker gave her telling her that it was taken from South's body and identification of handwriting on the pawn ticket for South's watch as that of Baker.

intendent Boles."

Send Radio Messages

From a point 250 feet underground, Eric Palmer, youthful radio operator, and a member of the party, sent air messages to the New York Times and associated newspapers yesterday.

The presence of the Nicholson party, which includes New York newspapermen and explorers, has stimulated fresh interest in this underground wonderland. The lure of the unknown adds charm to this palace of natural marvels.

New Chamber Found

Recently a remote chamber was discovered containing a lake 75 feet deep and about 300 feet in length. Nicholson, hoping to find a subterranean river, will use collapsible boats in making his water explorations.

Others in the exploration party are Mme. Maily Wild de Villareal, author and traveller; Captain Mount Robb, war ace, who will have charge of a balloon ascension in the huge chamber; Tom Davin, journalist; Howard Grubbs, former T. C. U. football star and now a mineralogist; Ernesto Villareal, photographer; Edward Robbins, business manager, and Floyd Ard, in charge of supplies.

The party visited in Lubbock last week while en route to the caverns.

CHURCHES COUNCIL TO ASK THAT NO STATE AID BE GIVEN MISSIONARIES

(By Associated Press)

EVANSTON, Ill., Feb. 27—A recommendation that missionaries in China do not ask for protection in time of disorders, if such protection involves the use of military force, will be submitted to the third national study conference of the national committee on the churches and world peace.

The conference which is sponsored by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, opened today with the delegates meeting in three sections. Recommendations of the three groups later come up for consideration of the committee as a whole.

Embodied In Resolution

The recommendation was embodied in a resolution adopted today by the round table on churches, the Kellogg pact and the far east. The group proposed also that the state department be asked not to give such protection if armed force is involved, and pleaded that the United States immediately relinquish the principle of extra-territoriality in China.

A second round table on the church, the Kellogg pact, and peace policies, adopted a statement to be cabled to the American delegation at the London naval conference, making three requests: (1) that the American delegation's policy be based on the Kellogg pact, (2), that negotiations call for positive, active reduction of armaments, and (3) that the conferring nations adopt the principle of conference in the event of disputes threatening war.

SWEETWATER, Feb. 27. HOUSE PROBE TO BE MADE

INQUIRY TO BE MADE INTO MEMBERS OF LEGISLATURE

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 27—The House today voted a self-imposed inquiry into the corporation and utility connections of its members, instructing the speaker to appoint a committee to determine the trade and occupation of each member, and the "organization, corporation or association," from which the member has accepted "any salary or retainer" since he took his oath of office.

The resolution, by Representative J. W. Harper of Mount Pleasant, was adopted after a stormy debate, in which several expressed indignation over what they termed his "implications and insinuations" against the integrity and honor of the house. The final vote was 101 to 14.

To Have Questionnaire

The committee was empowered to obtain its information through questionnaire which it will prepare.

Harper declared that while he had no doubt as to the integrity of any member, it was "commonly talked over the state that the legislature is representing the special interests in conflict with the interests of the masses of the people," and that he was proposing the investigation in order to let the people know that they were accusing the legislature unjustly, provided their charges were found not true.

Who Is It?

Representative Walter Beck of Fort Worth, demanded to know "who it is in this legislature that you are endeavoring to convince that you are honest."

Harper replied that he made no charges of dishonesty but that "the people of Texas are saying over and over and over that the legislature is dishonest."

pay for my work for independent merchants."

Mr. Allred came here this morning from Sweetwater, where he spoke Wednesday night to a large gathering on an anti-chain store program. He will leave tonight for Brownwood where he will speak Friday night and on March 5th he will address a mass meeting at Lansing, Mich., on a similar subject. He has been speaking against chain organizations in Texas for the past three weeks, he said, and has an additional two weeks of engagement following his Lansing address. He recently broadcast an address over Radio Station KWKH, at Shreveport.

Allred Main Feature

Secretary Hinds said this morning that the entire time of tonight's program would be given over to Mr. Allred and that no other important features were carded.

Mr. Allred, one of the young school of Texas democrats, ran a sensational race for the attorney general's nomination in 1926 but did not win the office.

Additional financing would be effected through a subsidiary, a national feeder and finance corporation, capitalized at $5,000,000 and able to build its credit to $500,000,000 through regional credit corporations.

Two other subsidiaries would be a national livestock publishing association, capitalized at $110,000, and a national order buying company, to fill orders from packers.

Stock To Be Sold

Stock of the feeder and finance corporation, consisting of 50,000 shares at $100 each, would be acquired by the national marketing association, under the farm board plan, with money borrowed from the board.

In turn, the feeder subsidiary would acquire the stock of the regional credit companies; the latter, then, would furnish a line of credit.

The feeder corporation, the farm board outlined, would be barred from speculating in feeder stock being limited to handling orders for member associations and nidividuals.

PRO LAW DEBATE

teenth amendment."

He declared the prohibitions of the eighteenth amendment were absolute, saying until its passage there had been little effort in the states to control alcohol. The records showed, he continued, that all votes for prohibition in the states were light and no popular vote was taken on the amendment itself.

Can Not Modify It

He said he did not believe the Volstead act could be modified to suit the people, and asserted it was necessary to go farther and repeal or modify the eighteenth amendment. Du Pont recommended that a uniform law be adopted for the entire United States.

He argued that state commissions, somewhat on the order of state railroad commissions, might prove a means of placing liquor under satisfactory control.

Replying to a question by Representative Bachmann, republican West Virginia, Du Pont said he believed the majority of the people of the country would be more likely "to be for repeal than against" if a referendum were put to the country.

Du Pont said that many industrial leaders believed prohibition was good for the working classes, but they did not apply it to themselves.

"Do you mean to imply that the gentleman I mentioned and other big industrialists do not practice what they preach?" Michener asked.

"They will have to speak for themselves," Du Pont answered.

The next witness was H. H. Curran, president of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, who said the research department of his organization had proved the failure of the dry law.

"We all know that this mistaken law is opposed, despised and cheerfully violated by an overwhelming majority of the American people," he asserted. "There never was a chance for a nationwide prohibitory law."
