Scout Maverick Night Set For October 8

Maverick Night, when boys who wish to become Scouts and their parents learn about the organization, has been set for Thursday night, October 8, at the community building, Mrs. Kelly Pigg, Maverick Night chairman for Collingsworth County, has announced.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. Maverick Night is one phase of the annual fall Boy Scout Round-up, which this year is seeking to double the membership in the southern district of the Adobe Walls Council. Paul Spillman, Wellington attorney, is chairman for the four-county district.

Boys must be accompanied by their parents if they are to become members, Mrs. Pigg emphasized, since Maverick Night stresses Scouting as a joint endeavor between parents and son.

Approximately 50 boys of Cubbing and Scouting age indicated last week that they wish to become Cubs or Scouts. This would nearly double the figure for Wellington's organization.

A training crew will be present to explain Scouting at the October 8 meeting.

Any boy who did not sign a card indicating he wanted to become a Scout may still join by coming to the Maverick night meeting, accompanied by one or both parents.

Band Mothers to Meet October 6

A meeting of the Band Mothers Club will be held Tuesday, October 6, at 4:00 p.m. at the band house, Mrs. Osa Black, president, has announced.

Mothers of all band students are urged to attend.

During the business session there will be a discussion of draperies for the band house, and plans for operating the concession stand at the football field.

The club has as its project this year the band house, Mrs. Black said. Work was begun last year, and it is hoped that it can be completed during the current school term.

Officers assisting Mrs. Black are Mrs. Lawrence Warrick, vice-president, and Mrs. Jimmy Kelso, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. J. C. Ward is chairman of the workers committee and Mrs. Hook Elliott is refreshment chairman.

The membership as a whole is serving as the finance committee.

The club this year has a membership of about 50, and the mother of any band student is eligible to belong.

Two Advance, Five Get Merit Badges

SCOUTS PARTICIPATE IN SOUTHERN DISTRICT COURT OF HONOR

Seventeen Wellington Boy Scouts attended the Court of Honor for the Southern District of the Adobe Walls Council, held in Wheeler Tuesday night, September 22.

Two of the group, John Charles Welch and Delvin Black, were promoted to First Class Scouts, while five boys, Welch, John Alvin Horton, Ray Henry, Dickie Sweat and Kern Pigg, received merit badges.

Scouts attending were Horton, Pigg, Sweat, Jimmy Cummings, Jimmy Forrester, Henry, Welch, Austin White, Harry White, A. C. Gray, Black, Athan Lowrie, Don Maxwell Ronnie Thomason, Tommy Akin, Joe Davis and Mike Rainey.

Parents going were Sandy Parsons Jr., Emil Kersten, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry and Kelly Pigg.

Eli Smith of Shamrock was guest speaker, discussing the participation of men on Scout committees and the need for committee responsibility. Virgil Jamison of Wheeler was chairman of the Court of Honor. Towns represented were Wellington, Shamrock, Wheeler and Kellerville. Since Kellerville had the most advancements and the largest attendance, the troop there will be host to the next court of honor, to be held some time in December.

Teacher Honor Group

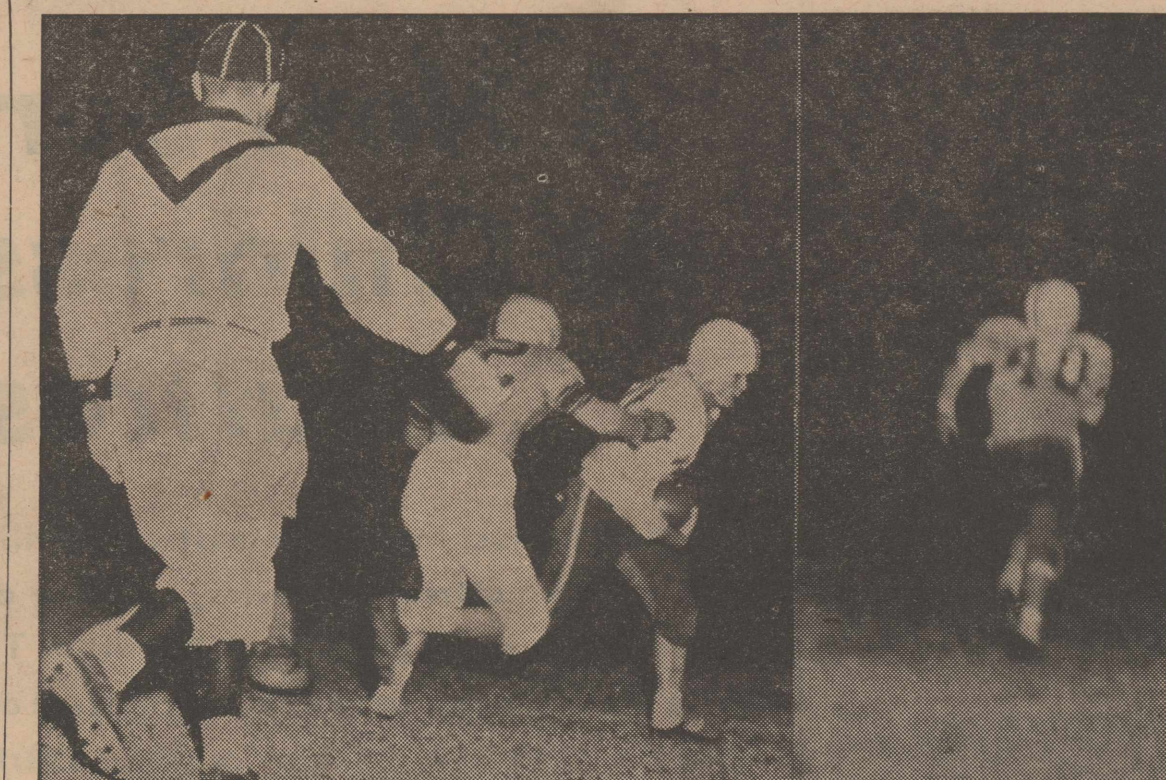

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA MEMBERS TO REGIONAL MEETING SATURDAY

Wellington members of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary national organization for teachers, will attend the regional meeting at Clarendon Saturday, October 3.

Miss Eugenie Terry, president, Alpha State, will be the guest speaker. Theme of the meeting will be "A Task with a Vision."

Registration will begin at the Clarendon high school at 9:00 a.m., followed by a coffee. The initiation ceremony begins at 9:30, with Mrs. Lee Nowlin, director, presiding, assisted by chapter presidents.

Mrs. Nowlin will preside at the morning program, when reports will be given from the Southwest Regional Meeting in Albuquerque,

THOSE ROCKET TOUCHDOWNS

It's not often that the step across the goal line is recorded by the news cameras, but in the picture at left Douglas Duncan is seen as he crossed the marker to give the Rockets their first touchdown on their home field this season, in the 33-6 game against the Mangum Tigers Friday night. At right, Duncan is again shown in touchdown territory. This was the long run downfield Duncan made, and when the picture was snapped, he was practically alone in the Tiger end of the field — just Duncan, the football, and the goal line.

Everyone Will Be Asked to Help

Business Men to Make Christmas Lights for Holiday Decoration

Plans for Wellington's Christmas decorations were explained to members of the Chamber of Commerce in a meeting Monday night, September 28, when that organization voted to contribute $1,000 toward this year's decorations.

That amount will be matched by business men of the city. Already, approximately $530 of that portion has been raised and a group of workers, under the leadership of Jimmie Lee, finance chairman, will contact all others not previously reached.

"Everything we buy this year is going to be in the nature of permanent decorations, something we can use year after year," Sandy Parsons, decoration chairman, said. John Sherman, who is assisting Mr. Parsons, reported on the cost of decorations and recommended that the city buy the materials and put together the Christmas lights that will be used extensively this year. He expressed the belief that around half the cost could be saved.

Present plans, as outlined by Mr. Parsons, are for a huge community Christmas tree to be set up on the court house lawn and decorated with lights. Other lights also will be strung up. In order to get a tree such as the committee has in mind, members of the decorations committee will go to New Mexico or Colorado for it.

Enough greenery will be secured to wrap the light standards around the square and to arch over the streets as they enter onto the square and at the highway entrances to town.

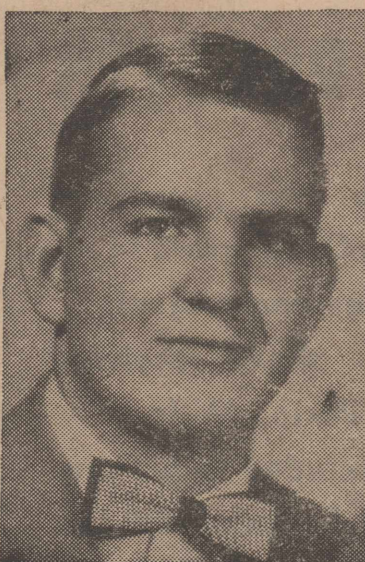

Materials for making the Christmas lights will be bought and business men and their employees will be asked to volunteer to do the work, under the direction of electricians from the city, West Texas Utilities Co. and Greenbelt REA.

"We're going to call on people to volunteer to help. We feel that everyone wants Wellington to be beautiful this Christmas, and we feel that we can depend on each of you to help," Mr. Parsons declared.

Decoration of homes in Wellington will be encouraged, and every householder will be asked to put up some sort of decoration.

Prizes will be offered in two categories, business house and residential. First prize will be $15, second $10, and third $5, Mrs. Palter Winters, Chamber of Commerce secretary, said.

Farrell Kent to Ranger College

Farrell R. Kent, a member of the Wellington Leader mechanical staff, left Tuesday, September 29, to enroll in Ranger Junior College at Ranger. Kent was awarded a football scholarship and will be a member of the college team.

Star lineman for the Rockets three years, he co-captained one year and during his senior year was selected for both the mythical all-district and all-regional teams. Last year he was on the West Texas State College Buffalo team.

Kent began work for The Wellington Leader as an apprentice during his freshman year in high school and continued to work after school and during vacations most of the time until he entered college. Since January he has been a full-time employee and in recent months has also been staff photographer.

At Ranger he will play football with another former Rocket star, Tommy Wood, who also transferred there from West Texas State.

Stray Dog Bites Jones Child

Karen Denise Jones, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Jones, was attacked and bitten on one finger by a stray dog Tuesday evening, September 29, at the Barney Jones Laundry.

Mrs. Jones said the dog, a large, red, probably part-chow dog, had knocked the baby down, scratched her back and was attempting to bite again when they reached her.

On the advice of officers and doctors, the dog, whose ownership is unknown, has been impounded for 10 days for observation.

Mrs. Jones said that several children were on the laundry grounds but all except Karen Denise were able to get away from it.

Rocket-Blackhawk Traditional Game Here Friday Night

By DON SCOTT

The Wellington grid feature of this week will bring the Phillips Blackhawks here for one of the Panhandle's outstanding AA games. The Blackhawks have defeated Brownfield and Hollis so far this season, but were sucked under by the powerful Childress Bobcats. The Skyrockets tied Hollis, polished off Shamrock and Mangum by wide margins. These records make the two teams hot competitors for their districts. The Phillips team will feature some very classy running by Don Meek, Chuck Bennett will also bear watching.

The Rocket backs, who have shown improvement in each succeeding game, with the usual help from the line can be expected to rack up several touchdowns. The two halfbacks, Holliman and Hood, have shown up good in past games, and Duncan, who can nearly always be depended on for yardage, is still going strong. The Wellington Skyrockets will again have Lonnie Woods as the man under on Coach Maxey McKnight's split T formation, as his injured knee is now in good shape.

The Skyrockets, one of the few teams that have beaten Coach Chesty Walker's Blackhawks in the past two years, have high hopes of repeating this performance Friday night at 8:00 on Powell field. This week's rating by one regional sports expert places Wellington in 5th place and Phillips in 6th, but the Blackhawks will be out to reverse this order.

City State Open Sat. Afternoons

The City State Bank will be open each Saturday afternoon during the cotton harvest, and for as long as there is a need for this service, Jimmie Lee, vice-president, announced this week.

The City State Bank as a policy makes this service available to all people of the Wellington trade area, it was pointed out.

Youth Center Big Success

Youth Center met Friday night for the first time this year with a good attendance. The room was gaily decorated with large red and white skyrockets hanging from the ceiling, and the table was beautifully decorated with school colors and the center piece consisted of lovely autumn flowers, pop and cookies were served throughout the evening.

"We were sorry there were not more games ready for use but we hope to have them repaired and replaced before youth center Friday night, Mrs. Clyde Drake pointed out.

Bennett Goodloe and his band furnished music for the evening.

"We hope all teen age students from surrounding communities will meet with us immediately after the football game Friday night," Youth Center officers said.

Soil Conservation Service Notes

1200 Acres Under Irrigation Spurs Development Interest

Collingsworth County has had around 1200 acres under irrigation this year, and while results have been varied, they have pointed up the need for developing this type of farming as much as possible in this section.

Fred Squires, work unit conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, has listed the following farmers, with the amount of land they irrigated, part from wells, others from creeks, principally Salt Fork and Elm Creek:

John Robert Henard, 54 acres of grasses; Dan Henard, 50 acres of grasses; Ed Henard, 50 acres of introduced grasses; Elvis Crowley, 160 acres of cotton.

Woody Wood, 50 acres of cotton; Barney Glenn, 160 acres of cotton and feed; B. G. Glenn, 60 acres of wheat; Bob Glenn, 70 acres of grass and cotton; Robert Baumgardner, 50 acres; Alex Coleman, 60 acres of cotton; Bill Jones, 100 acres of cotton; Raymond Ward, 30 acres of cotton; John Harper, 40 acres of alfalfa; Harold Hill, 50 acres of wheat; Charles Allen, 10 acres of introduced grasses; W. L. Green, 40 acres of cotton and grasses; Sandy Parsons, 100 acres of cotton; and John Oldham, 80 acres of cotton and feed.

Of the approximately 500 acres of cotton, it is estimated these will make around a bale or more per acre.

Discussing briefly some of the results of irrigation, Mr. Squires pointed out John R. Henard's experience. Mr. Henard has grazed around 65 head of cattle on 11 acres off and on all summer. The cattle probably will come off the patch around October 1. He also has 29 acres of improved pasture,

FAIR ADVERTISEMENT — FOR A FAIR

Such beauty and skill is fine advertisement for any event, but when one of them is a former Wellington Miss, more than a second glance is due. At right is Joan Moore, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Moore, now of Quanah. This picture has been widely used throughout North and West Texas in publicity for the Silver Anniversary of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair, in progress this week at Iowa Park. Others in the picture were not identified.

County Treasurer Meets U. S. Treasurer

COUNTY OFFICIALS VISIT WITH U. S. TREASURER DURING DALLAS MEET

When the county treasurer of Collingsworth County and the treasurer of the United States get together, you'd think they'd talk about one thing they have in common — Money. But they didn't. They discussed their children, for each has three, part of them teenagers.

The meeting between Mrs. J. D. Aaron, county treasurer, and Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, treasurer of the United States, came during the recent meeting of the Texas County Treasurers' Association. Attending with Mrs. Aaron was Miss Louise Fulcher, deputy tax assessor, and they were accompanied by Miss Sarah Doyle, secretary in the county welfare office and for Judge R. L. Templeton.

Not only did they meet Mrs. Priest, but they were among the small group who visited with her between meetings, and also they talked with her personally. "She is most charming, and as friendly as can be. In fact, she's just like any one of us," Mrs. Aaron said.

Mrs. Baker was the key speaker at the treasurer's meeting. Speaking on such things as states rights, Mrs. Priest told the group: "The Federal Government will continue to help local governments in providing many services for the people. But the emphasis will be shifted to the municipalities and states. The initiative will come from you and not from a bureau in Washington."

"Your job as county treasurer," she told the group at one point, "is just as important to your county as my job is to the United States."

Seventy-six county treasurers from over the state attended. Leon Jones of Gregg County is president of the group. During the business session, the officials heard discussions of such pertinent topics (Continued on Page Eight)

Good on Offense, Good on Defense

Rocket Douglas Duncan "Player of the Week"

Douglas Duncan, Rocket fullback, was chosen "Player of the Week" by the Amarillo News Wednesday, September 30. The following article is by Dick Collins of the News Sports Staff.

Fleet Douglas "Dynamite" Duncan is noted for his touchdown prowess for the District 3-AA Wellington Skyrockets — he's accumulated five of them already this season — but the 175-pound fullback has gained more prominence this season with his bruising defensive workout.

Duncan, last year's leading opint maker in the Panhandle area with 22 counters in ten games, made three touchdowns for Wellington Friday night as the Rockets rolled over Mangum, Okla.'s Tigers 33-6. Two of those tallies were on runs of 70 and 50 yards each.

The Daily News' third weekly Class AA "Player of the Week" award goes to Duncan for his work in Friday night's game. But last week's contest was just another game for the speedy back. Duncan made the only touchdown — a 45-yard scamper — against Hollis, Okla., in their 7-7 tie to open the season and scored on a 15-yard run to help beat Shamrock, 19-0, the next week. He had two touchdowns runs of 50 and 70 yards called back after penalties.

The Rockets' head mentor, Maxey McKnight, has barrels of praise

Collingsworth county is included in those counties where resumption of the drouth relief feed program has been authorized, the county Drouth Emergency Committee was notified Tuesday, September 29, by Claude K. McCann, chairman of the State Drouth Committee.

The county committee was notified that all old applications for feed should be disregarded and new applications accepted from producers, Millard Brown, secretary of the PMA committee, announced.

It will be about a week before the application forms are received here and applications can be taken, Mr. Brown said. Notice will be given through The Wellington Leader when these arrive, he said.

So far as is known here, a new type application form will be used, and Mr. Brown said it is probable that an investigation will be made of each application to determine need.

He also announced that mixed feed will be available to farmers. This will include a mixture of 40 per cent corn, 40 per cent meal, and 20 percent vitamized and fortified supplement, usually alfalfa. This will be available at $47 per ton, delivered here. There will also be a mixed feed consisting of 30 per cent meal and 50 per cent corn, with 20 per cent supplement, available for dairy farmers at $48.

Crossroads Report

Dear Mr. Ike:

Politically inclined feller by the name of Adlai Stevenson says people in the rest of the world has got the idea that McCarthyism, book-burning and inquisitions are standard equipment of the U. S. nowadays. Don't see how they could hardly think otherwise, with all the Red propagandists so busy spreading misinformation on the subject, and a lot of our own party-first politicians and commie-loving self-branded intellectuals playing the same tunes on the strings they pull in Washington. Don't see as there would be any harm in reminding our foreign dependents that being broadminded and easy-going is all right up to a certain point, but you can lose your shirt thataway. Feller might practice these virtues in the face of considerable provocation like maybe somebody running off with his wife, but even self-control can be overdone, and it is time to start shooting when, say, somebody starts getting in your watermelon patch.

PURINA HELPS YOU MAKE PROFITS

Purina has a feed for every purpose as was demonstrated by H. C. Langford in his vocational agriculture feeding project.

Three hogs were included in his project. The hogs had a total gain of 470 lbs. in 143 feeding days or an average gain per animal of 157 pounds, a little more than three pounds per day.

His cost per 100 pounds gain was $10.

He received a total income from all three hogs of $159.12. He realized a profit of $79.95.

Langford used a feeding ration that has been mixed at Singley Mill, consisting of ground maize and Purina Hog Supplement, a little milk was also used. Just before the hogs were sold corn was substituted in the mixture to get a finish on the hogs.

The calendar says it's fall, but the mercury climbed to 105 degrees here Saturday to be a very hot summer day. The extended drouth has certainly hurt the late feed. The crows and several other varieties of small birds have swarmed here and trying to eat what little feed there is headed.

The only consolation from the dry weather and hot days are the wonderful cool nights. Don't see how we could do with out them.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. W. D. Durfey, the W. M. Durfey family, the Cliff Campbell family, the Frank Campbell family of Wellington and Dr. and Mrs. J. Frank Johnson of Wellington at the death of their sister and aunt, Mrs. Ann Miller of Colorado City. The group attended the funeral Tuesday.

Jim Wyrick of Wellington visited in the Arlie community Sunday.

Bill McDanel began work Monday at the Loco Co-op Gin. He will be suction hand.

W. M. Durfey attended a soil conservation meeting at Childress Thursday night.

National Newspaper Week

Free speech and free press are so familiar to us that it is difficult for us to imagine how they might be put in jeopardy. We are tempted to relax in the comfortable assurance that the first amendment to the United States Constitution takes care of everything.

But let me tell you . . . the Constitutional guarantee has been observed, not because it was written down 180 years ago and backed by generations of judicial opinion, but because the people, led by their newspapers, have demanded that it be observed, and it will remain only so long as those demands remain alert and unrelaxed.

Official Memorandum

ALLAN SHIVERS
Governor of Texas

AUSTIN, TEXAS

GREETINGS:

Freedom of Information is the inspiring theme for National Newspaper Week this year. Americans are being reminded that "an informed press means an informed people" and that newspapers are important to every community and every individual.

The President of the United States has declared that the journalists of our country "are custodians of a majestic trust, a solemn responsibility: to help our people with the knowledge and understanding without which free choice, free government, free men could not be."

A free press always has been a part of the tradition of Texas as well as of the rest of the United States. Our State Constitution provides that: "Every person shall be at liberty to speak, write or publish his opinions on any subject, being responsible for the abuse of that privilege; and no law shall ever be passed curtailing the liberty of speech or of the press."

This basic freedom has been lost in so much of the world that it must not be taken for granted here. Once compromised, it would not be easily regained.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby designate the period October 1 - 8, 1953, as and urge that all citizens give thoughtful attention to the importance of newspapers in the lives of our people, our communities, our State, and our nation.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 1st day of October, 1953.

Allan Shivers
Governor of Texas

IN MEMORY OF
BILLIE BETH STARKEY

I cannot say — and I will not try That she is dead — she is just away —

With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand She has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair

It needs must be, since she lingers there,

And you — O you — who the wild-est yearn

For the old-time step and the glad return.

Think of her faring on — as dear

In the love of There, as the love of Here;

Think of her still as the same, I say:

She is not dead — she is just away.

Letters From The PEOPLE617 North Miller Street
Spur, Texas

September 21, 1953

Wellington Leader

Mr. Deskins Wells or to any member of the office force who can spare a little time:

Have just been looking over a Wellington high school Memory Book of Class of 1939. It made me want to reminisce a little and think about some of the friends our son, Victor, had his senior year. Perhaps you have an ex-student organization? If so, would you hand this to some of them, as I would like to have some addresses as some were my piano pupils and I am sure Victor would enjoy me writing him about various old classmates.

You see, he is a very busy fellow. He is band director of the William Travis (or South Travis) High School at Austin. He is married, has a fine three year old son, Gary. He writes band arrangements and sells lots of them also. He weighs almost two hundred pounds, thanks to golf, which he likes to play in his spare time.

Kenneth Guy, our youngest son, lives in Lubbock. Has a fine job as an appraiser. He majored in business administration. Has a nice home and a cute five year old girl. We have a junior girl, Gail, who was quite small when we left Wellington.

We like Spur, own our home, I teach piano, Al is still Fort Worth and Denver Agent. He likes golf as well as our boys.

Below is a list of some of those I would like just to locate for "Auld Lang Syne's" sake. Enclosed is a self-addressed envelope: J. K. Porter, Travis Tenison, Andy Langford, Austin O'Neil Jr., Alvin Martin, W. M. Radford, Geraldine Langford (younger), Edna Joyce Gribble, Frances Stowell, Eddie Sam Henard. Of course the girls are all married, but I would like their addresses too. Also Mary Jane Johnson.

Do you have an ex-student Association?

With appreciation, I am

Sincerely,

Mrs. Al C. Williams

Bobwhites Down Hedley 52 to 35

Quail Bobwhites won their second game from the Hedley Owlettes in a contest that ended 52 to 35 recently.

One of the tightest games the team has played so far, according to Coach Bill Phillips, the first quarter ended in a 11 to 11 tie, and at the half it was 25 to 25. During these two periods the lead had changed hands so many times everybody lost track of it. Then, in the third period, the Bobwhites took a new lease on life and sprang ahead to 43 points while their opponents were able to add only three, giving them 28. The Bobwhites continued their lead on to the end of the game.

Erma Farris was high scorer of the game, accounting for 20 Bobwhite points. Nancy Stephens was not far behind with 18 points. Jean Bailey and Charlene Sargent scored 15 each for the Owlettes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Goodloe left on Monday for their home in Los Angeles, California. Mrs. Goodloe had been visiting here for three weeks with her mother, Mrs. L. T. Sullivan and brother, Luther Sullivan.

Your Newspaper Brings You Facts To Guard Your Freedom of Choice

AS YOUR DOCTOR GUARDS YOUR HEALTH YOUR NEWSPAPER GUARDS THE WAY OF LIFE YOU KNOW AND LOVE

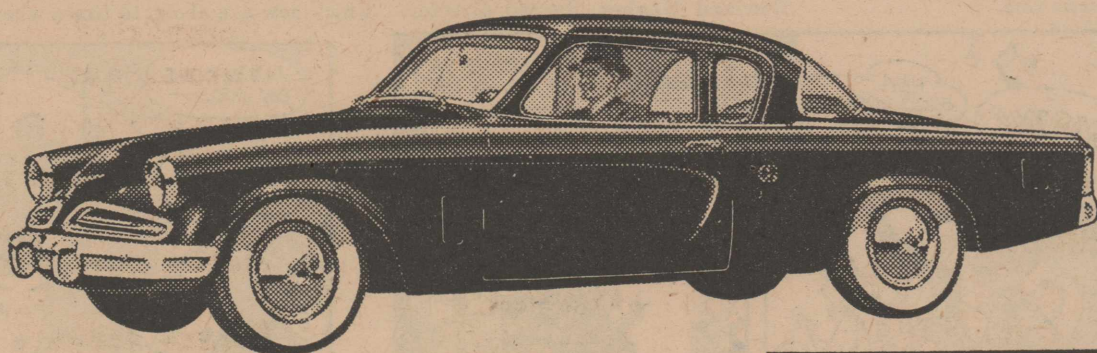

It is not too much to say that upon the freedom of the press, all other freedoms directly depend. No tyrant has ever successfully attacked other liberties while freedom of speech remained intact. But the vigilant protection of this great part of our total liberty requires more than lip service only. While it is up to practical professional people to man the barriers against encroachments in times like these, the duty to keep the press free devolves on every one of us.

Our primary tack right now is to make the administrators of government and the general public equally aware of their individual stake in the matter. Democratic government simply cannot exist without the fullest freedom of expression consistent with public security. Our society can no more do without a free press than a man can live without lungs. For freely organized and constantly flowing communications furnish the very oxygen of opinion by which the vitals of democracy live and function.

Ever Stop To Think Who Makes Today's Newspaper?

Ever stop to consider what it takes to produce even the smallest newspaper?

Let's consider the PUBLISHER for a moment. On a smaller weekly newspaper, he likely is not only the editor and publisher of the newspaper, but the adman, job printer, Linotype operator, press feeder, circulation manager and bookkeeper, and perhaps the photographer. He is a Jack-of-all-trades if ever there was one. On a larger weekly he is relieved of some of those duties, but never all of them—for he has to fill in many times in numerous places. His job parallels that of the editor of a small daily.

But don't think for a moment that the publisher of the large daily is a one-trick man. While he may be freed of a lot of the chores of the publisher of a smaller newspaper he faces a multitude of problems not common to the little man. Once you cross a certain line in the publishing business, you face the big problems of employee relations, labor unions, mass distribution, newsprint shortages, and greater and greater civic responsibility.

Newspapering has become a complicated profession. The editor must be able to sense the public pulse, evaluate the news, and relay the events of the day to the reader in such a manner that he will fully understand what is taking place at home and abroad. It is his responsibility, too, to interpret the news, advise on matters of local concern and stand up for the people's rights. He must "know something about everything and everything about something" the latter being the newspaper business.

It is his duty, also, to display the news in his publication in such a manner, typographically, as to attract the readers eye to the more important news. At the same time, he must not overplay an unimportant event; or underplay an important happening. He weighs the news as carefully as the butcher weighs the meat or the grocer the apples, or the filling station attendant measures the gasoline. Did you ever stop to think of that?

What about the adman? Did you know that he probably spent several years in school learning to plan ads that would appeal to you as a reader, sell merchandise for you as an advertiser, and bring buyer and seller together? Did you know that he studied merchandising, copywriting, selling—and continues to study those things—so that he can advise intelligently on advertising and can be a merchandising counselor, so to speak?

Do you realize that the reporter must be a person of broad training, with a great knowledge of many things? Did you ever stop to think of the multitude of assignments he covers? Of the complicated subjects he is called upon to report?

Sit down some day and try to write a story about a meeting you attended. For example, the city council, the medical society, the bar, the ministerial alliance, the PTA. Ever try to write up a trial, a football game, a drowning, a funeral, a fair or festival—all in the same day? That's a fair sample of the reporter's job. Oftentimes, in addition, he has covered the police station, the city hall, the court house, the chamber of commerce—and write a feature about the biggest melon, or the smallest midget, or the newest automobile. It's fun. No doubt about that. And you meet the finest people, the worst people, the prettiest, the zaniest—all those who make life what it is. That is the reporter's job bringing you life as it is—for he is the mirror of all that happens.

There are society reporter's, police reporters, sport reporter's, feature writers—each with a separate task to perform—on the larger newspapers. On the smaller publications the reporter does it all—like a one-man band.

Publishing a newspaper is big business... whether it be in podunk Hollow or New York City. No longer can a newspaper be established with a "shirttail full of type." The day of the "bedroom print-shop" passed down long ago. ANY newspaper, regardless of its size, represents as great an investment as almost any business in its town. Type is very expensive. Metal is extremely high. Newsprint has skyrocketed in price. A Linotype machine alone costs thousands of dollars, to say nothing of the complicated presses. And they represent only parts of the mechanics of producing today's newspaper. For there are the melting pots, the saws, the trimmers, the strip casters, the chases, the typewriters and the thousands of little items that go to make up even the smallest plant.

More 'Hot Checks'

With the tightening up of business conditions over the country, the number of "hot checks" seems to be on the increase, with Perryton merchants getting their share of them.

In many cases, checks that won't clear a bank are written through oversight or carelessness. But there are check writers who make a business of fleecing those who will cash their works of art.

A county attorney in Arkansas City, Kansas, recently told a civic club in that city something about the standard operating procedure of hot check artists and pointed out that a town soon gets the reputation of being hard on check writers or easy, and that the volume of hot checks often varies with this reputation.

The attorney says the fellow who writes bad checks for a living usually knows their towns. They watch to see if merchants prosecute or let the check writer go if he pays the debt. If merchants are rated as "easy" money, the bad checks keep coming because the writers know that if caught they aren't going to jail. All they have to do is make good the loss.

The man who told the tale said a town gets the reputation of being tough and the number of bad checks decrease as the word spreads.

Helping With the News Is Appreciated

The newspaper appreciates its friends and readers who tell us or phone the news about themselves, their families and their friends. News about people is a newspaper's stock in trade. Most of it the newspaper gets free of charge and it is appreciated.

Of course there are editors and reporters and typesetters and makeup men and pressmen and those who mail out the paper; there are bookkeepers and circulation managers and advertising managers and salesmen; it takes all of these to write and get the news into the paper and out to the readers.

But first and most important is the news source—the people, themselves, who live around us. It is they who make the news and it is to them that the newspaper offers its sincerest thanks for being able to serve them and work with them.

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's note. The Buck Creek Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Buck Creek must think money is hay, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I was wanderin' around over my pasture out here yesterday afternoon absorbin' the October sunshine and sizzin' up my cows and wonderin' how cold it'll get this winter and whether they can all make it through alive when I make a copy of a newspaper had blown against a corner post and since my corner posts ain't the strongest in the world I figured I'd better take the paper off to cut down on the wind resistance, I haven't got time to be repairin' blown-over corner posts when there's even more work needed to be done on the posts in between, not to mention the wire, and since I had the paper in my hand when I pulled it off I took it home and picked out a comfortable spot on the south side of the barn and stretched out and looked it over.

What interested me right off was an article sayin' the Secretary of the U. S. Treasury, George Humphrey, has checked up on the money on hand in Washington and has informed President Eisenhower that the government probably can scrape through the fall and winter without callin' Congress back into session to raise some more. He figures the government can cut a few corners and scratch around and meet its bills until January at least, when Congress is due back anyway.

I know exactly how it is, and I'm pleased to learn what me and the Secretary of the Treasury have some problems in common.

I have been checkin' up on my supply of Johnson grass hay and I've figured if I cut some corners and scratch around enough, my cows ought to be able to make it to January too, and I'm gonna take the position that if the United States Treasury can do it, my cows ought to too. In fact, my cows are just gonna have to buckle down, recognize that's all the hay there is, and get by on it. This idea of pourin' more and more hay to the cows and more and more money to the people can't go on forever. We got to call a halt somewhere and I'm proud that me and the Secretary of the Treasury see eye to eye on it.

Of course, the people have a little advantage over my cows. My cows don't have Congress comin' back into session in January to take the pressure off, they've got to make it all the way to spring grass along in April. My cows just don't have any machinery for callin' me back into session in January. It's up to them to size up the hay in the barn and recognize that's all that's standin' between them and the first blade of green grass six months from now. I don't know that they'll be better cows physically for the experience, but if they make it they'll have the satisfaction of comin' through with stronger characters. I've heard President Eisenhower himself say we need to strengthen the moral fiber of this nation. Personally, I find a great satisfaction in knowin' that the United States Treasury and my hay barn are in about the same shape.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Christianity: Religion Of Giving Thanks

When the Apostle Paul, contemplating the blessings of God through Christ, sought to express his wonderment and praise, prose failed him, and he burst into the lyricism of psalm: "Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift."

The giving of thanks was a deep and impassioned thing in Paul, the Christian.

And the note of thankfulness was deep and strong in the religion of the Old Testament, which was the heritage of both Paul and his Master.

Its highest expression is in the Psalms.

If one had to choose one Psalm that typifies the religion of thanksgiving, one would probably pick the 107th, although the group of Psalms from the 103rd through the 107th are full of the note of thanks.

Thankfulness in religion is not only a proper attitude for blessings received, it is also an attitude of receptiveness.

An unthankful soul is a closed soul. Not much can penetrate the wall of an unthankful spirit.

Probably the most beautiful of all the Psalms are those in which the note of thankfulness is uppermost — the Psalms of praise for what God has done, that call upon men to bless God for His goodness and wonderful works to the children of men, and that express the love of the Lord as the proper response of a thankful heart.

There is such a thing as saying "Please" to God. The Psalmists knew how to say it, as humble supplicants, and they knew how to say "Thanks."

As the Psalms offer us the rich substance of praise and thankfulness, they offer, too, the finest models in beauty of form and expression.

It is not a coincidence, but in frank recognition of this, that in so many churches the responsive readings are drawn from the Psalms.

Looking Ahead With George S. Benson

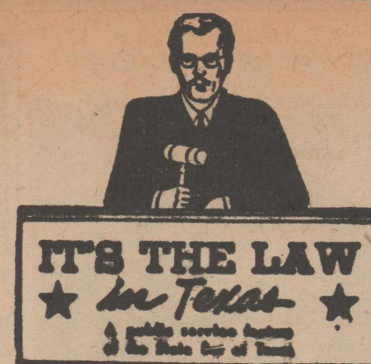

IF NOT NOW — WHEN?

John Q. Citizen has two responsibilities which must be acted upon at once if our federal government ever again is to balance its budget and get on a safe and sound financial foundation. They are: (1) give positive assurance to our representatives in Congress that economy cuts, even on your pet federal projects and services, will be accepted without a squawk; and (2) give positive assurance that you expect immediate fulfillment of the administration's pledge to balance the budget, to start reducing the national debt, and to cut taxes substantially.

Most American citizens are willing to take these positive measures, but being willing and then actually arousing oneself to positive action are two different things. Those who want a balanced budget and reduced taxes, and who are willing to accept economy cuts in any and all federal operations, are the very ones who are not acting on their wishes. The fact that there are about 10 or 20 of them to every one citizen who doesn't care whether the budget is balanced makes no difference in Washington — if they continue to remain silent and inactive.

REAL ESTATE TITLES EXPLAINED

How many a purchaser determine whether the title he is receiving in a real estate transaction is good, bad or indifferent? Although at first glance there may appear to be more than one alternative method, purchasers usually find that all roads of complete title security lead to a lawyer chosen by the prospective buyer to represent his interests.

In a previous column it was said that the Contract of Sale should state the QUALITY OF TITLE to be conveyed to the purchaser. If the contract does not so state, then the seller may be obligated to sell — and the purchaser bound to buy — only whatever title the seller happens to possess, which may actually be quite defective. This may be true in spite of the fact that the seller is in possession, has a deed to the property, has been paying taxes, etc.

A real estate title is a claim of ownership or right to land and to the improvements, such as houses and other structures, located thereon. It may be partial or complete, as determined by the numerous facts in each case. If it is complete and superior to any other person's claim — if you can prove your right thereto against all the world, it is a GOOD TITLE. If, in addition, the evidence of your claim of ownership is contained in the proper public records, it is a GOOD RECORD TITLE. Ordinarily, only a GOOD RECORD TITLE is considered salable, being sometimes referred to as a GOOD MARKETABLE TITLE.

When you buy a house, you want a title which is good, so that you and your heirs will not be troubled while enjoying the use of the premises. You also want that title to be marketable, in order that it can be sold when you are ready to sell — without the expense of perfecting title before your buyer will complete his purchase.

Having made certain that your contract of sale indicates the exact nature of the title to be conveyed to you by the seller, how do you go about assuring yourself that you will receive the specified quality of title? People have varied ideas about this matter.

Some consider themselves safe when they gain possession of an Abstract of Title or a General Warranty Deed. But an Abstract is merely an outline of public records on the tract of land — a history of the title — which anyone may purchase, regardless of ownership.

A General Warranty Deed from a responsible seller is comforting to have, but is a poor substitute for a careful title examination. True, it entitles you to sue the seller for damages caused by defects in the title. But serious title defects may not come to light until long after the seller is dead, has moved to an unknown address, or is bankrupt.

Safer procedures include your attorney's examination of the Abstract tendered by the seller, and the purchase of a Title Insurance Policy indemnifying you as the insured for the full amount of your investment. In any event you will want your attorney's advice when closing a real estate transaction.

Duncan, Holliman and Hood Score

Rockets Win 33-6 In First Home Game

By DON SCOTT

The Wellington Skyrockets defeated the Mangum Tigers Friday night on the Rockets home field, by a score of 33-6. For two quarters the Tigers kept the Rockets sweating, with the score standing 13-6 for Wellington at the half. In the last of the second quarter, Jim Holland, Mangum's left halfback, took a pitchout around left end for two yards after a sustained Tiger drive that gave them their only marker. The try for extra point failed.

During the game, Doug Duncan, Wellington's hard-running fullback, crossed the Mangum goal line three times, once in the first quarter with the ball off the 2, and again in the second quarter after a 70-yard jaunt. In the third, he went for 50 yards for his last score of the game, but Holliman and Hood a halfback slots carried on and each scored in the last quarter. Hood ran 65 yards for a touchdown, and Holliman went 36 for the last Rocket score. Doolen Starkey converted three of the five tries for extra point, to make the score 33-6.

Mangum's record for the season is now one win and two losses — an 18-7 win from Frederick, a 7-18 loss to Anadarko and the 6-33 loss to Wellington. Wellington's scoring record shows 2 wins and a tie — 7-7 at Hollis, 19-0 win from Shamrock and 33-6 win from Mangum.

FIRST QUARTER

The Tigers received the ball on their own 19 and were held there, Mangum's 125-pound quarterback, Carl Clayton, who ran his backs up the center several times, with Jim Holland doing most of the ball carrying, for two quick first downs, and was only stopped by one of Mangum's many fumbles being recovered by the Rockets on their opponents' 49. The Skyrockets' first play was a pitchout to Odie Hood, who carried the oval for 10 and a first down. Duncan peeled off 4, but the home team was penalized on the next play, bringing up second and 11. Holliman made a stab at left end and lost 3. Duncan stepped off 14 — just enough and just in time, for a first down, on the Tiger 33. Duncan again carried but found himself trapped, chased, lonesome and tackled 30 yards behind the line of scrimmage. Holliman went off tackle for 11. After another futile try, the Rockets kicked. The ball went 49 yards into the Mangum end zone where Holland took it on his knees. With first and 10 on the Tiger 20, Fullback Dudley Nichols tried right tackle and picked up 5, but fumbled when hit and the Rockets recovered. From Mangum's 20, Duncan went up the center for 5, where Hood took over the load and in two plays reached the 2. Duncan skirted left end on a handoff to score. Doolen Starkey, Rocket tackle, kicked the extra point.

The shifty Jim Holland of Mangum took the handoff on his 5 and made a good 20-yard return.

SECOND QUARTER

Plays was resumed on Mangum's 25, with a pitchout from Clayton to Holland, who relayed it by air toward Dale Jackson, but it was short. Two powerful pokes at the Rocket line bounced off and the Tigers kicked to Duncan on the Wellington 33.

Holliman lost 5 trying right end, but Duncan made it back and one more. Woods then fired his first pass of the game to Holliman, who snagged it for 20 yards gain on the Tiger 41. Holliman and Hood teamed up on the next two plays but the Tiger line held. A 15-yard penalty put the Rockets into punt formation, where Duncan tried a pass instead but Holliman couldn't reach it.

The Tigers took the ball on their own 47, where Merrell picked up 8. A fumble and recovery cost 3. Merrell started another trip but was stopped cold. Mangum kicked and Duncan fielded it on his 25, returning 10 to the 35.

Two running plays and an incomplete pass left the Rockets with fourth down and still 5. Duncan kicked and the Tigers owned it on their own 47. The Tiger quarterback, Clayton, took to the air in a try at evening the score. He tried three aerials to Gordon Jackson. The first two were incomplete but the third try was good and Jackson reluctantly laid the ball on the Rockets' 7. Three times the Wellington line held, but on the fourth try Merrell went around end for the tally. The try for extra point was no good.

Don Coffman, of the Tigers, kicked off. Duncan caught the ball on his 20 and returned it 10. On the next play Quarterback Lonnie Woods gave Duncan the ball, the Rocket line assisted him through left tackle and 70 yards later the score was 13-6. Starkey missed.

The Tigers received on their 5 and carried to the 15. Clayton was watching the clock and took to the ozone, between a couple of line plays good for 10 and 25 respectively, completed two throws for 30, but a third toss wound up in Calvin Hiatt's mitt on the Wellington 20. Hiatt made 5 before the Tigers could take him down.

Duncan and Holliman tried the line in the last few seconds of play, but failed to get away before the whistle blew ending the half.

THIRD QUARTER

Don Coffman of the Tigers kicked to Duncan on the mid-game whistle. Duncan received in his own end zone and romped 12 before the Mangums arrived. Duncan and Hood got a first down on the next two plays. Holliman took a handoff around left end for 13 and Duncan went off right tackle for 15. On the Mangum 49 the Rockets stalled and Duncan kicked. Holland received on his 10 and made 10 more. Dudley Nichols went over right tackle for 15. Clayton shot a short pass to Dale Jackson for 10 and another first down. But an attempted pass and two line plunges failed to gain 10 and the Tigers kicked.

The ball went out of bounds on the 19, where the Rockets took over. Duncan smashed over right tackle for 8. Odie Hood took a pitchout from Woods and wound up on the Rocket 40. A pitchout to Duncan and a line buck by Holliman laid the oval on the 46. Duncan found the hole again and seated 54 yards to the Tiger goal line. Starkey converted to make the score 20-6.

Duncan kicked and Jim Holland of Mangum, on a pile-driving return, brought the ball to the 35 from his 5. Two short passes to Dale Jackson netted 16, to the Rockets' 49. Nichols plowed over left tackle for 9 and Holland picked up the needful through the line for a first down. Nichols made a yard. Clayton tried three successive pass attempts and the Rockets inherited the ball.

FOURTH QUARTER

Calvin Hiatt carried around left end but fumbled and the Rockets recovered for no gain. Billy Branch tried right guard and got 2. A pass to Jim McCutcheon was good and he made 9 yards, but was hit hard and fumbled. The Tigers recovered on the Rockets' 45.

Nichols hit the Wellington line for 5 on the next play. And on a pitchout from Clayton, picked up 11 and a first down. Clayton attempted two passes that didn't click, and Holland carried around end for 7 but short of a first down. It was the Rockets' ball on their 21.

Duncan followed his linesmen through the Mangum wall for 9. Holliman went 4. With first and 10 to go, Odie Hood bucked left tackle and broke into the clear, gaining speed all the way. It was 35 yards to pay dirt, but Hood made it. A 15-yard penalty made Starkey kick from the 20 and it fell inches short. Score 26-6.

Duncan kicked and 140-pound Holland took the ball in the end zone and carried it out to the 22. Nichols went off right tackle for 10 and a first down. The Rocket line fused for three tries and Mangum went into punt formation. Clayton couldn't get it away, fumbled and the Rockets recovered on Mangum's 34.

Quarterback Lonnie Woods went around end on a keeper and lost 2. Dennis Holliman bucked the line and staged a 36 yard run with only the goal posts to stop him. Starkey converted and the score read 33-6.

Clayton received and returned 14 yards to the Tiger 24. Nichols found the gate open and took 11 for a first down. On their own 35, the Tigers tossed and Camal Dakil accepted. The Tigers dropped him in his tracks.

On Mangum's 35, the Rockets started a drive. Duncan and Hiatt went partners on a first down. Woods fired a pass to Agee who scampered far enough for another one, but before the ball could be put into play again, the final whistle blew, ending a thrilling game.

Old-Settled Place

Shelton Nunnelley Place At Cross Roads Last Week's Mystery Farm

One of the older settled places of the county was featured as last week's Mystery Farm. Now owned by Shelton Nunnelley, it is part of the section known for many years as the W. O. Richards farm, six and a half miles north-east of town in Crossroads community.

Only six persons identified the place, however, for the house was moved there just a few years ago, the other improvements built, and the trees set out. First to identify the place was Ted Brock, employee of Greenbelt Rural Electric Co-operative.

Others guessing correctly were Mrs. Robert Gosnell, Mrs. Bill Long, Mary Jane Hiett, Donna Black and David Jackson.

Nunnelley bought the quarter section only three years ago. At that time he also owned the farm which had belonged to Miles Barton, on which he built the above house about 1940.

Nunnelley sold that farm, but kept the house and moved it to his newly-acquired place. At the same time, his father, J. E. Nunnelley, bought the northeast quarter of the Richards farm, and the son rents that to work along with his own farm. He works other land, too, altogether 600 acres.

Pretty much of a cotton farmer, he has only 100 acres of wheat, 80 acres of grass and the balance is in cotton.

Nunnelley was born and reared south of town and graduated from Wellington high school in 1934. He was married to Pauline Weaver of Childress in October 1936. They have farmed throughout their married life, here except for two years, 1941 and 1942, when they lived at Littlefield.

The have one son, Carroll, who was 13 years old September 20.

Mr. Nunnelley is a member of the farm bureau and the family belongs to and is active in the Church of Christ.

A believer in soil conservation, Nunnelley as relied chiefly on terracing and deep breaking his land. Within the last year or two, he has become keenly interested in irrigation, but hasn't tried it on his own land yet.

Runner-Up in Soil Queen Contest

Fayteen Peoples, this district's representative in the State Farm Bureau Beauty Queen contest in November, added other honors recently when she was runner up in the Miss Sweetheart of the Soil contest at the second annual Southwest Soil Management Demonstration and Plowing contest at Pan-Tech farms near Amarillo.

The twenty contestants were presented in a fleet of convertibles driven up a ramp to the stage, from which the girls appeared.

In addition to Miss Peoples, three other county girls participated: Wanda Phipps of Quail, LaVerne Purkey of Samnorwood and Joy Martindale of Wellington.

THE TRUTH comes home..
..to the Family

Newspapers are the eyes, the ears and the voice of a free and uncensored press. America's free press, however, does not belong to the newspapers. It belongs to everybody - you, your family, your neighbors, your friends. America's free press is the property of the American people.

It is a freedom to be protected and cherished.

Kiwanis Club
Of Wellington

The Right to Know!

A Constitutional
Guarantee Based on a
FREE PRESS

The wonder that is America with all of its personal freedoms and its envied creativeness has been built on the principle that to know the truth liberates mankind, enabling it to achieve greater objectives.

Fulfillment of this principle, guaranteed by the constitution, is the mission of the free press of America, as represented by our hometown paper. Edited by your Neighbors, printed by your neighbors, it seeks out what you must know about what is going on in the world and in the nation as it affects your community.

Remember, your newspaper presents the facts without fear or favor so that you may have the truths on the basis of which you can make your weight felt as a citizen and a better life for your family.

FIRE

Prevention is Everybody's Business

The Three Most Common Causes of Fire Are MEN WOMEN CHILDREN

Did you know that only about 10% of the nation's fires are started by natural causes? Did you know that nearly a thousand people per month lose their lives in fires? Did you know that more than a half billion dollars in destruction of property occurs in annual fires? Yes, this is the shocking prospect of loss our nation faces each year. But the most shocking aspect of all, is that most of this loss could have been prevented by YOU ... YOU ... YOU!

Insurance

Prevent fire if you can, but be prepared for it. Only insurance, carried with a reliable company can help to cushion the blow a fire deals you when it comes.

Ask your insurance agent about complete coverage against fire. Insuring your building is not enough. What about the contents ... your business stock ... your personal property. What about loss from business interruption. Insurance can cover all these. Consider all these things as you observe Fire Prevention Week.

Quail Juniors Take Opener

Quail's junior high boys basketball team has started out on the same victory trail traveled by their predecessors of the past three years, defeating the Hedley juniors 35 to 24 Friday night, September 18, Coach Bill Phillips reported.

It was the first game of the season for both teams.

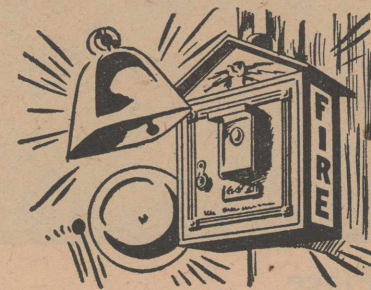

Quail took the lead early in the game and never dropped it. At the end of the first quarter, the score was 9 to 6; at the half, 15 to 10; and at the close of the third, 24 to 20.

Billy Reeves of Hedley was high-individual scorer with 12 points. Hubert Price of Quail got 11, Denzil Patchell 7 and Jerry DeBord 6.

The Quail roster includes: Denzil Patchell, Gano Wilson, Loyd Langford, Marvin Newman, Raymond Minatrea, Dee Blasingame, Joel Young, Hubert Price, Dale Ratliff, Jerry DeBord, Billy Moseley, Roy Pate, Glen Harris, Neal White, Johnny Barnett and Connie Davis.

"The boys are out to match the records of the teams of the three past years, and it looks like we'll do it," Coach Phillips declared. In 1950, the junior boys won 24 games and lost 5; in 1951 they won 19 and lost 3, and in 1952 they won 20 and lost 2.

New Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP

The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years

Restores "new car" power!

Increases spark-plug life up to 150%!

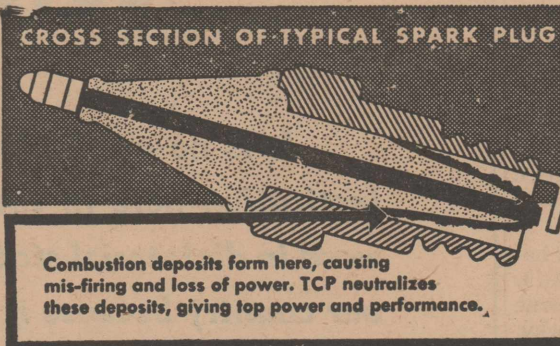

Gives you extra gas mileage, too!

Today it's possible to put new power in your car—just by driving into a Conoco station and filling up with new Conoco Super Gasoline.

For Conoco Super with TCP is a new kind of motor fuel—truly the greatest advance in gasoline since the introduction of tetraethyl lead in 1922. New Conoco Super can actually increase the power of the average car as much as 15%. That's because TCP overcomes the greatest cause of power loss affecting most cars on the road today. Conoco Super with TCP is brought to you by special arrangement with Shell Oil Company. TCP is Shell's trademark for the remarkable additive originally developed for aviation fuel.

Combustion deposits drastically reduce power

When you drive your car, deposits constantly build up on spark plugs and in the combustion chambers. These deposits can "cheat" you of power in two ways. First, they short-circuit spark plugs—causing them to mis-fire. Second, deposits in the combustion chambers cause fuel to ignite before it should. This is called pre-ignition or "wild ping." The combined effect of mis-firing and pre-ignition is loss of power and wasted gas.

How Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP works

Now Conoco Super with TCP—a cresyl compound—dramatically overcomes loss of power and fuel caused by combustion deposits. TCP actually neutralizes harmful deposits on spark plugs and in combustion chambers. With new Conoco Super your plugs spark as they should. Your fuel ignites as it should. You get and keep "new car" performance.

TCP helps your car—whether new or old

Whether your car is old or new, you can enjoy the benefits of TCP. If you have a new car, with a high-compression engine, it will keep on delivering its built-in power as long as you use Conoco Super Gasoline. If your car is an older one, Conoco Super will restore much of the power you have lost.

Conoco Super with TCP is at your Conoco dealer's today. Don't wait another day to start using this new kind of gasoline—the greatest development in 31 years!

See what Conoco Super with TCP can do for your car—

Start the "TWO-TANK TEST" today!

1. When your gasoline tank is one-quarter full or less, fill it with Conoco Super with TCP. Now, there will still be some ordinary gasoline mixed in with your Conoco Super, so...

2. Make sure your next tankful is Conoco Super, too. So rapidly does Conoco Super work that with this second tankful, chances are you'll feel as if your engine has had a tune-up. You'll feel a boost in power. Try it today. We're sure you'll stay with Conoco Super.

Wellington Leader
Mr. Deskins Wells, Editor & Pub.
Wellington, Texas
Am enclosing check for $3.00 to extend my subscription another year. Moved away in 1935 but I still want news for the old home town and of friends there.
Respectfully,
Mrs. Nannie E. Smith

Mr. Deskins Wells, Editor
The Wellington Leader
Wellington, Texas
Dear Friend:
The rains that came last month were wonderful indeed. Here in McAllen we got a full 5 inches over a 10-day period. The Rio Grande is "rolling" again, and a great deal of water has been impounded behind the new Falcon Dam. We are very thankful to God for all this.
Your newspaper and letters from many friends there keep us pretty well posted on happenings. We will be through Wellington, Lord willing, in November when I will be with First Baptist, Erick, Oklahoma, in a revival the 15th through 22nd of that month. Pete Fast, son-in-law of the Charles D. Slay's, will direct the music in that campaign. In a way we are an ex-Wellington team. Perhaps we will have occasion to see you as we go or come through Wellington.

The work in the Valley, long considered very hard by most people, is fascinating and very fruitful. Ours is a progressive church with a tremendous opportunity. We have completed the first two units of our new church plant, costing already over $300,000, and we are now working on plans for our Auditorium which will cost nearly $200,000 — giving us a half-million dollar plant when completed. We hope to begin construction on the permanent Auditorium by January 1. We know this will take much prayer and hard work.

In the year and a half we have been here, the church has received over 400 new members and we are enjoying a remarkable growth in all the organizations. Unlike that part of the country, our peak time here is from January through May. During that period we should average well over 700 in Sunday School. Right now we are coming out of the "summer slump" that hits the Valley terrifically hard — for most people get away then for as long as possible. For the 3 Sundays of September we have had 605, 617, and 603 in Sunday School; 253, 268, and 254 in Training Union; offerings of $2,053, $1,539, and $6,393 — this last amount includes $5,000 from one man for the Building Fund although we are not now in a campaign for funds. Last Sunday, for instance, we had 6 additions to the church; the Sunday before we had 7. For all His blessings we give the Almighty God every bit of the praise and glory.

Personal regards to the family.
Yours most sincerely,
Howard Jones

Salt Fork Soil
Conservation Dist.

Frank Coleman, Chairman
Tom Cunningham, Vice Chairman
Frank Ford, Secretary
Alfred Knoll, Member
Fred Squyres, Supervisor
Lynn Courtney, Aide

The Supervisors of the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District in their regular monthly meeting held Saturday night, September 5, 1953, voted to purchase another Hancock Grass Drill to be used by co-operators of the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District for the sowing of grasses and legumes within the district.

This drill will be put under the custodianship of Melvin Burks, vocational agriculture teacher at Wellington, Texas, and will be kept at the high school.

This makes a total of 8 grass seed drills furnished by the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District to its co-operators in this district. They own 4 Hancock Drills, 3 Brillion Seeders, and 1 attachment drill that can be mounted onto a tractor or pickup and runs off the vehicle battery.

The drills are located at various places over the district as follows:
At Dodson, with Truitt Holland as custodian, is a Hancock Drill.
At Samnorwood, with O. L. Christie, vocational agriculture, is a Hancock Drill, a Brillion Seeder, and the tractor attachment.
At Quail, with Frank Kennedy, vocational agriculture teacher, as custodian, is 1 Hancock and 1 Brillion Seeder.
At Wellington, with Melvin Burks, vocational agriculture teacher, as custodian, will be the new Hancock Drill, and 1 Brillion Seeder.

"These drills cost quite a bit of money and the district must have some way of maintaining, repairing, and replacing them, Frank Coleman, Chairman, Salt Fork Soil Conservation District, stated, so we charge 50 cents an acre for their use. The custodian gets 15 cents of this and the district gets the balance."

"These drills are constructed to sow grass, mixture of grasses, and legumes such as alfalfa," Fred Squyres, Work Unit Conservationist said. "Since most farmers and ranchers are not familiar with this type of equipment the personnel of the local soil conservation office are ready to be of assistance to anyone in the setting of these drills for the planting of grasses and legumes. We will also be glad to advise with anyone on the type of grass or legume that should be sowed in this district on the different types of soils found here."

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK
OCTOBER 1--8

It is no quirk of fate that the newspaper is a free institution here in the United States and just another word in dictatorial states. The newspaper remains free in our country because it has proven itself indispensable in the eternal struggle to keep our people free.

Faithful in its task of presenting important news in an unbiased, unprejudiced way, the American newspaper keeps its readers well informed, helping them to make decisions on vital matters, continuing the tradition of keeping ours a democracy based on an educated citizenry.

Wherever the newspaper is free, so are the people.
